CZECH PRESIDENT CLAIMS VICTORY IN CHURCH FIGHT

JAN 2 1950

R FASCHE

PRAGUE, Czechoslovakia, Jan. 1 —(AP) President Klement Gottwald today claimed complete victory in the struggle between his communist-led government and the Roman Catholic Church.

He also told Czechs in a New Year's Day broadcast that all attempts of "hostile foreign capitalist countries" to sabotage his regime had been beaten down.

Accuses Bishops

The president charged that the bitter church-state conflict was started by Catholic bishops, with foreign support, to overthrow his government.

Although Gottwald claimed in his speech that the controversy had been settled, the bishops only a few weeks ago still proclaimed their defiance of the new church-control laws. These make all clergymen civil servants and give the government full control of church appointments, financial and administrative affairs. The bishops have declared that these laws infringe religious freedom and are "against the laws of God."

Archbishop Josef Beran, moreover, is still isolated in his palace and has not indicated any reconciliation with the government.

This is Gottwald's version of the struggle:

"Concerning internal political events of the past year, I should like to mention at least one which attracted considerable attention of our enemies in the west — the church question.

"The remnants of our internal reaction and their allies abroad saw in it a weapon which would enable them to stab our people's democracy in the back. But today we can say with satisfaction that this attack was not successful. The hierarchy of the Catholic Church, incited from abroad, refused the proferred state financial support. We therefore solved the position of the Catholic Church and all other churches by a law which is in the spirit of our constitution. For the first time in the history of the churches we are taking care of the financial insurance of the clergy.

x x x We have made it possible for them to devote themselves exclusively to their religious duties.

Demands "Loyal Attitude"

"In return for all these advantages (given to the clergy) we desire nothing more nor less than a loyal attitude toward our state and the working people. Through our well-considered but firm attitude we exposed all those who incited the priests and the simple faithful to commit ill-considered actions against the state and government under the false pretext that the freedom of religion was endangered.

"And so, instead of disruption, which was the aim of our enemies, we have brought clarity also into this question and established conditions for the peaceful cooperation of all people without regard to religious convictions."

Striking a balance sheet for 1949, the president made these other points in his 25-minute address:

1. The first year of the five-year economic plan was successful, the standard of living raised and "the prophets of collapse" confounded.

2. Foreign trade was expanded and redirected so that nearly half the total is now with Russia and the countries of Eastern Europe.

3. Internal political unity was strengthened by further "crushing of the reaction."

4. Great gains were made on the international front by the communist victory in China and the establishment of a "democratic republic" in Eastern Germany.

CZECH SENTENCED TO DEATH AS SPY

JAN 2 1950

PRAGUE, Czechoslovakia, Jan. 1 —(AP) A former member of the Czechoslovak parliament has been sentenced to death as a spy for the United States, the Slovak newspaper Pravda said today.

It identified him as Karol Folta, former leader of the now outlawed Slovak Democratic Party, and said his wife, Zuzan, got 25 years on similar charges. Four other defendants, the paper said, were also convicted and sentenced to from 11 to 25 years in prison. Sentence was passed after a secret trial in Bratislava.

Folta was one of 32 persons arrested last Nov. 9. Among them was Jan Bendik, also a former member of parliament. No mention of him was made in today's story.

Today's account said Folta had organized the spy ring on orders from an exiled former member of parliament, Michal Zibrin, who is now living in the American zone of Germany. It called Zibrin "an American spy and agent."

At the time of the arrest, Folta was accused of having oragnized the ring by using American cigarets to bribe Czechs to spy for Zibrin.

McCloy Host to Russian

Soviet Diplomat Attends Party of Americans in Berlin

BERLIN, Jan. 1 (AP).—American High Commissioner John J. McCloy was host tonight at a New Year's reception which brought together Allied and Russian diplomats and West Berlin city officials.

Major General Vassily I. Chuikov, chief of the Soviet Control Commission, did not attend but sent his deputy, Colonel Alexei Jelisarov. General Chuikov attended an elaborate New Year's reception in East Berlin given by the East German Communist President, Wilhelm Pieck.

FINLAND STRESSES RED FRIENDSHIP

MAURICE SHEELMAN

Statement Follows Moscow's Blast on 'Harboring of War Criminals'

JAN 2 1950

HELSINKI, Finland, Jan. 1. — (AP) "There must be no enemies of the Soviet Union in Finland, only friends," President Juho Paasikivi told his people in a New Year's message today.

Significance attached to the statement because it came only a few hours after Russia accused Finland of harboring more than 300 "war criminals" of Soviet origin, and demanded to know why Finland has not handed them over to Soviet authorities.

The Finnish people learned of the Soviet protest today through a radio transmission which said Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko had handed a strongly worded statement to Kaj Sundstroem, Finnish minister in Moscow.

The Finnish foreign office refused to comment, however, until it has received the text of the Russian protest. This text was being awaited with great interest. A foreign office spokesman said an answer would be drafted as soon as the text is received.

President Paasikivi did not mention the Russian note directly. But against that background his remarks concerning the Finns' relations with their big communist neighbor took on considerable significance.

Finland desires "good and friendly relations with our neighbors, and especially with our eastern neighbor," he said.

He added that the "main principle of our foreign policy is to observe agreements entered into."

The Moscow broadcast of the protest said Russia charged failure to deliver the 300 "war criminals," including 56 who committed "the most serious crimes against the Soviet Union," was a violation not only of Finland's peace treaty of 1944 but also of the treaty of friendship and mutual aid concluded in April, 1948.

Believed To Be Deserters

It was believed that the 300 "war criminals" are Soviet deserters who entered Finland during the last war. There was no official information on where they might be now.

The broadcast said Gromyko even accused Prime Minister Karl Fagerholm's Social Democratic government of providing these wanted war criminals with fake documents and aliases, thus enabling them to continue "hostile activity" against Russia on Finnish soil.

The note was said to include a list of such persons. However, the broadcast did not give the names.

This is not the first time Russia has made such charges. In January a year ago the Soviet government demanded the handing over of Estonian refugees accused of war crimes. They were surrendered by the Finnish government.

JAN 2 1950

BY TOM WHITNEY

MOSCOW, Jan. 1—(AP) Among the leaders of the peoples of Asia a name which will be heard more and more frequently in the future is that of Choibalsan.

Khorlin Choibalsan is the leader of the people of the Mongolian peoples republic. He is chairman of the council of ministers and marshal of the Republic's armed forces.

His name is as well known in the Soviet Union as it is little known at the present time in the United States. His portrait frequently appears here in books and magazines. His speeches and major statements are reported in the Soviet press.

He visited Moscow to attend the celebration of the 32nd anniversary of the Bolshevik revolution in November, and recently exchanged telegrams with Generalissimo Stalin on the occasion of the 25th anniversary of the proclamation of the Mongolian peoples republic. Not long ago Pravda published an article under his name describing the progress his people had made in those 25 years.

900,000 Population

The Mongolians under Choibalsan are not a large people. Altogether the population of the Mongolian peoples republic is about 900,000.

Despite its small population, it occupies about one and a half million square kilometers of territory —approximately equal to Germany, France, England and Italy taken together, and is fifth in size among all Asiatic countries.

It has important natural resources and in particular rich herds. It is claimed that Mongolia has more farm animals per head of population than any nation in the world.

Choibalsan himself is said to come from a family of enserfed herdsmen. He was born in 1895 in Tsagan-Galbai on the Kerkulen river. At 13 he was placed in a Buddhist monastery in the city of Bain-Tyumen, which has since been named Choibalsan.

In Choibalsan's childhood and youth the country was ruled by the Buddhist priesthood.

Choibalsan and a comrade fled the monastery in 1912 when he was 17. He went to the national capital at Urga (now Ulan-Bator) where he worekd as a porter, a guard and a fam laborer. In 1913 he succeeded in being accepted in the school which had been opened in the consular settlement of the city—the only school in all Mongolia.

In 1914 he was sent with the best students to Irkutsk to continue their education. When he returned to Urga in 1916 he joined the revolutionary movement headed by Sukhe Bator, the man who is considered father of the Mongolian revolution.

From that very beginning their revolutionary movement had the support of Russian workers in Urga. Their chief foes were white guard Russians led by Baron Ungern, who occupied Urga, and the Mongolian clergy, whom Ungern supported.

Choibalsan and Sukhe Bator organized partisan detachments to fight the white guard Russians and their Mongolian supporters and also Chinese militarists who were trying to take over the nation again. On March 1, 1921 in Kyakhta on the Russian-Mongolian frontier their Peoples Revolutionary party held its first congress. It called for the expulsion of the white guards and named Sukhe Bator head of the Mongolian army and Choibalsan his deputy.

Assisted by Red army detachments the Mongolians occupied Urga and then all outer Mongolia in 1921-22.

Republic 25 Years Old

Sukhe Bator died in 1923, a victim, it is charged, of enemies who made use of an illness to murder him and after a transition period the Peoples Republic of Mongolia was proclaimed in 1924.

In 1929 after condemnation by the Mongolian Peoples Revolutionary party of right deviationists Choibalsan was named head of the government.

The Red army entered Mongolia in 1939 on the basis of a treaty of mutual assistance and friendship signed in 1936 to expel Japanese troops from border areas in Eastern Mongolia. Again in 1945 Choibalsan threw his troops alongside the Soviet army into the war against Japan.

Choibalsan has been decorated with the most distinguished orders by the Soviet government.

INDONESIA SEEKS FOREIGN CAPITAL

JAN 2 1950

K LIKES

JAKARTA (Batavia), U.S.I., Jan. 1 — (AP) President Soekarno of the new United States of Indonesia today invited foreign business to help develop the country.

In a New Year's broadcast, he said the riches of Indonesia were awaiting exploitation and the country is "open for all those who desire to work for the development of the country and will respect the measures the country will take for the benefit of the workers."

The president indicated that foreign business would not be expropriated or discriminated against. He said Indonesia was conscious of the heavy duties imposed by international law and customs.

"The country knows it can depend on the help of those who want a peaceful, strong and prosperous nation," he declared.

It was the first official statement on the country's attitude towards investment by foreign concerns since the country became independent Dec. 27.

Indonesian business has, in the past, been largely controlled by Dutch firms. There had been considerable speculation in foreign business circles that a reaction would set in here that would see the newly free government taking over the Dutch concerns and banning further investments by Dutch or any other foreigners. Today's statement by the president apparently sets such fears at rest.

Chief business opportunities here are in export of oil, rubber, tin, lead, coffee, quinine and spices; in the import of manufactured goods and in shipping.

Soekarno emphasized, however, that the security of the state would be threatened if attention were not given to the economic needs of the Indonesain people and declared "the new government has accepted the principle of guaranteeing favorable labor conditions."

Jordan-occu... Palestine — which is most of ... Palestine — will elect their ... representatives to the new Has...mite Jordan parliament. This el...ction, expected in mid-April, means the direct incorporation of about 2,300 square miles —roughly a fifth of the area of Palestine—into the kingdom ruled by Abdullah. The people of Palestine will have 20 representatives in parliament—exactly the same number as Jordan itself.

King Abdullah himself stated two months ago that he counted both banks of the Jordan river—formerly his western boundary—one country and one nation.

He now refers to his country as "east and west Jordan."

This amounts to a partial realization of his long-standing dream of a "greater Syria" embodying Jordan, Palestine, Syria and Iraq.

In other ways the incorporation also has been proceeding. Three Palestine Arabs were given posts in Jordan's cabinet last May. More recently the administration by a governor general in Palestine was abolished. The administration was attached directly to the interior ministry and the kingdom is now ruling its part of Palestine exactly the same way as other parts of Jordan.

Maintains Jerusalem "Hold"

Moreover, King Abdullah has taken to spending one day and one night each week in that part of Jerusalem which was captured by his colorful Arab Legion in the fighting with Israel in 1948.

Though this apparently indicates no intention of moving his capital from Amman to Jerusalem it accents his determination not to give up the city to international rule as proposed by the United Nations General Assembly.

So far it has been impossible to gauge the sentiments of the people of Jordan-occupied Palestine concerning Abdullah's de facto annexation. A great majority of those in Jerusalem, however, appear to desire a return to the conditions of peaceful stability which invite lucrative tourist traffic.

Jerusalem, because of the presence of the Mosque of Omar, is a holy city to Moslems as well as Christians and Jews. Abdullah, who traces his ancestry to Fatima, daughter of the prophet, claims to be the eldest of living descendants of Mohammed and therefore the proper person to safeguard Moslem as well as all other holy places in the city.

Moreover, he judges that he is best able to protect them. He can cite the record of his Arab Legion in taking the old city, as well as his defensive alliance with Britain, an alliance which would apply to West Jordan as well as East Jordan.

Abdullah Quietly Absorbs Most of Arab Palestine

JAN 2 - 1950

AMMAN, Hashemite Jordan, Jan. 1—(AP) King Abdullah has made Jordan-occupied Palestine a part of his Hashemite kingdom, though no formal proclamation incorporating the territory has been issued and there has been no fanfare about it here.

No announcement of the incorporation was published today in the official gazette, despite an Arab news agency dispatch from Amman to Cairo last Friday which reported such a decree would be published on Jan. 1.

However, it has been officially announced here that the people of Stream of Immigrants Pushes Israel Population Over 1,000,000

JAN 2 - 1950

BY LARRY ALLEN

TEL AVIV, Israel, Jan. 1 — (AP) From all the far corners of the earth, Jews are streaming into Israel with the gleaming light of a new life in their eyes. Hardly a day passes without hundreds, sometimes thousands, reaching Israeli ports by ship and plane.

More than 250,000 have arrived since the new republic was born in May, 1948. The population already has been boosted above the 1,000,000 mark. Another 250,000 are expected to reach their promised land by the end of 1950.

Millions Wait to Move

Recently, in Haifa, ceremonies were held marking the arrival of a Jew who became citizen No. 1,000,000.

Yitzhak Rafael, of the Jewish agency executive, said the "ingathering" of 1,000,000 Jews was but one lap completed in the program of Israel reborn.

He reported millions more, in nearly every country of the world, were awaiting their chance to emigrate.

"We must prepare for the great task of absorbing newcomers, and emissaries now are at work in 50 countries," Rafael said.

Eager to Start New Life

The faces of Jews, young and old, who first see the shoreline of Israel from ship or plane, shine with joy and happiness. Their eyes fairly dance with eagerness to get ashore and start their new life.

This is typical of their reactions, as seen by this correspondent aboard the Italian steamer "Abbazia".

The ship took aboard about 300 Jewish immigrants in the Italian ports of Venice, Brindisi and Bari. It collected another handful in the Cyprus port of Limassol.

Most of the immigrants came from central European countries, such as Germany, Hungary and Austria. There were also scattered groups from Romania, Poland and even South American countries.

Many Women Nurse Babies

They carried with them everything from ironing boards to victrolas. Many of the women nursed babies.

Some of these had endured sufferings and privation in Nazi concentration camps. All of them had arranged in some way to pay their own passage aboard the "Abbazia," although most traveled second or third class. Those who can't pay get help from Jewish agency to assure their transportation.

Throughout the voyage, the immigrants clustered in little groups, talking quietly and hopefully of what they would find in Israel, where they would go and how they would rebuild their lives.

Immigrants were up early in the morning and until late at night, constantly looking for the long string of lights which mark the twin cities of Tel Aviv-Jaffa.

Strain to Get Ashore

The "Abbazia" anchored off Tel Aviv after nightfall. Most of the immigrants didn't sleep that night. They just stood along the ship's rail, their eyes glowing as they pointed to the lights of Tel Aviv.

Dawn found every immigrant packed and straining for permission to get ashore. Jews crowded the gangway up to the main dining saloon. Good-naturedly they pushed against locked glass doors, each trying to be first to pass port control officers and clamber down the gangway to the launch which sped them ashore.

Young Jews, many holding babies, kissed their wives. Old men and women smiled happily. They had a word for it as they stepped upon Israeli soil: "Shalom! Peace!"

For many of them, this meant no more displaced persons camps, no more fear of secret police, no more shoving around. They had arrived in the promised land.

Receive Warm Welcome

Every immigrant finds a real, heartfelt welcome. Arrivals are quickly taken to barracks where they are adequately fed and given clothing if necessary.

Then, as rapidly as possible, they are assigned to settlements, made up mostly of agricultural workers, or given jobs on public works projects.

CHINA RED CHIEF DISCUSSES TREATY ON MOSCOW VISIT

JAN 2 - 1950

LONDON, (Monday), Jan. 2—(AP) Mao Tze-tung, the Chinese communist leader, today ranked as among the chief subjects for his talks in Moscow with Soviet officials the present treaty of friendship and alliance between Russia and nationalist China.

This could be preliminary to the signing of the treaty of friendship and alliance between Russia and the Chinese communists.

Other subjects, he said, were Soviet credits for his communist government, the question of trade and a trade pact with the Soviet Union.

This was reported by the Moscow radio, which relayed answers by Mao to questions put to him by Tass, the official Soviet news agency. It was the first disclosure of specific items for discussion since Mao arrived in Moscow Dec. 15.

Treaty Seen Likely

There have been frequent predictions that Mao's visit to Moscow will result in a treaty of friendship and alliance between the Soviet Union and communist China.

Russia and nationalist China signed a 30-year treaty of friendship and alliance in August, 1945. But now Russia has ceased to regard the nationalist government as representing the Chinese people.

Mao would probably want to clear the books on the treaty signed with the nationalists before going on to discussion of a new treaty with the communist government.

Mao went to Moscow several days before the celebration of Prime Minister Stalin's 70th birthday on Dec. 21.

Mao told Tass that the length of his stay would depend on how long it will take to settle questions of interest to his People's Republic of China.

Plans "Peaceful Construction"

He told Tass that with military affairs going so well for the Chinese communists his government is now "going over to peaceful, economic construction."

Mao added:

"I have come (to Moscow) for several weeks. The length of my sojourn in the U.S.S.R. partly depends on the period in which it will be possible to settle questions of interest to the People's Republic of China.

"Among these questions are, first of all, the existing treaty of friendship and alliance between China and the U.S.S.R.; the question of Soviet credits for the People's Republic of China; the question of trade and a trade agreement between our countries; and others.

"Besides this, I intend to visit several districts and cities of the Soviet Union in order to become more closely acquainted with economic and cultural construction in the Soviet state."

MACARTHUR, AIDES STRESS NEED OF SAVING FORMOSA

JAN 2 - 1950

By RUSSELL BRINES

Tokyo, Monday, Jan. 2 (AP)—military planners believe the U practicable effort to prevent t Chinese Communists.

This is the consensus of reports from recent visitors who have discussed the question with the Commander of American Military Forces in the Far East.

These reports show MacArthur has not changed his view of Formosa's importance which he has expressed several times since the end of the war. The strategic island 100 miles off the southeastern China coast straddles the eastern end of America's Oriental defense line.

Planes from Formosa could destroy Clark Air Force base in the Philippines as the Japanese did in 1941. Formosa based aircraft could bomb air installations on Okinawa to the northeast.

U. S. Congressmen and others who have seen MacArthur recently indicated their belief afterward that their is still time to save Formosa, now the seat of the Chinese Nationalist Government. None has suggested direct involvement of American forces.

The General private opinion of field officers at American advanced bases is that the Chinese Nationalists — with adequate aircraft — could repel an amphibious assault of the type the Chinese Reds must make against Formosa.

Most of them expressed belief a strong mission should keep a close watch on any further material assistance given the Nationalists, however.

Some circles here consider this type of assistance might be under consideration in view of Washington's pronounced new interest in Formosa and reports that an American military mission might be sent there.

MacArthur himself has declined several recent requests for comment, but he has shown considerable interest, recently in Formosa.

He has conferred here with at least two known representatives of Chiang Kai-shek, the No. 1 Chinese Nationalist.

He sent Senator H. Alexander Smith (R-N.J) to Formosa in his own plane, the Bataan, and later arranged to fly Senator William F. Knowland (R-Calif) there in another headquarters plane.

General MacArthur and his top nited States should make every he capture of Formosa by the

Both Senators returned to the United States with pronounced views on Formosa's importance in the American scheme of things.

American officers on Okinawa and at Clark Field reflected General pessimism during a recent trip there by this correspondent. At that time the general interpretation of American policy was that no special effort would be made to save the island.

The U. S. is trying to protect its stake in the Pacific by maintaining a series of advanced air bases at key points from Alaska to the Philippines. A break at Formosa would leave a dangerous gap in the chain of bases and make it much harder to defend others.

At the same time, American naval officials expressed universal concern over the economy moves in the Pacific which reduced their Asiatic Feet to a skeleton. Key officers have shown gratification by the recent decision to assign the aircraft carrier Boxer to the Seventh Task Fleet in the Orient.

American military opinion regards the future status of Formosa as an American problem and holds that American concern should be demonstrated. All refrain from voicing their opinions, however, because policy is made in Washington.

Military officials express the private belief that Chiang has sufficient troops on Formosa but needs further armament, particularly planes. The island has a number of first class airfields which were taken over from the Japanese.

U. S. GRANTS TITO TRADING RIGHTS

JOHN SCALI

JAN 2 1950

WASHINGTON, Jan. 1—(AP) The United States has granted Yugoslavia permission to buy American commercial aircraft engines and civil aviation equipment. Government officials who disclosed this today said, however, the United States has refused military type aircraft engines.

Both actions are in line with administration policy of extending limited but strictly non-military aid to Marshall Tito at this time.

To Get Plane Parts

The equipment for which export licenses has been issued was reported to be used aircraft engines of the type needed to power DC-3 airliners, tires, radios, hydraulic devices and miscellaneous spare parts.

The Yugoslavs asked the State department for permission to buy these from American companies several months ago.

The applications now have been approved by an inter-governmental committee. This comes on the heels of the signing of a civil aviation agreement between Yugoslavia and the United States.

Government officials emphasized that rejection of the Yugoslav bid for military engines should not be taken to mean the United States is uninterested in bolstering Yugoslavia against possible attack from Russia.

President Truman, they noted, only recently made it plain through Ambassador George Allen that the United States would view aggression against Yugoslavia as seriously as it did that against any other nation.

No Military Shipments

These officials added that although American export policy to Yugoslavia has been liberalized, it has not been relaxed to the point where military shipments can be permitted "at this time."

Yugoslavia with the equipment it does get is expected to expand its present air route beyond Zurich, Switzerland, to Paris, London and possibly Amsterdam and Scandinavia.

In addition, Yugoslav authorities are reported ready to negotiate civil aviation agreements with the French and the British from whom they presumably can get additional aviation supplies.

Diplomatic officials reported that they understand that Yugoslavia soon may crack down on Russian satellite airliners that have been flying over their territory on their way to Albania.

A joint Hungarian-Russian air line is reported using this route to ferry out of Albania guerrillas who fled there from Greece. These forces are reported being concentrated in Czechoslovakia, Poland and Hungary amid rumors that an attack may be made on Marshall Tito this spring.

ation of a 'state within a state, a law enforcement system unresponsive to the will of the majority and obeying only the dictates of the governing few."

"In such an event," he wrote, "the future of democracy, itself, would be in jeopardy."

Truman Greets Arabs On 1st 'Voice' Program

Washington, Jan. 1 (AP) — The Voice of America today opened a new radio program in the Arabic language with a statement of President Truman expressing hope that it would strengthen friendship with Arabic peoples.

Mr. Truman, "extending cordial greetings and best wishes to the people of the Arab world," added it is my sincere hope that this program will serve to strengthen the ties of friendship between us and the bonds of our common interest in the preservation of peace and human liberties."

Assistant Secretary of State George C. McGhee, who runs the Near Eastern section of the State Department, said in another greeting that the United States stands ready to assist the Arab peoples in their efforts "to promote peace and economic betterment."

JAN 2 1950

WASHINGTON, Jan. 1.—(AP) J. Edgar Hoover said today that America needs no police state methods to master the challenge of communism.

He advocated calmness, intelligent alertness, and exposure of communism's dangers.

"Police state methods can only encourage the growth of the very evil we abhor," he said in a publication of George Washington University.

"The American people are determined that communism shall be rejected," Hoover wrote. "However, as in years past, we again hear cries, 'cut the red tape of formality,' 'forget about freedom of speech when talking about communists', 'let's cast them out.'

"These critics urge the formation of a national police, a police system which, they assert, would handle the communist menace 'with dispatch and finality.'"

If such methods were followed, Hoover added, it would "mean the tearing of law enforcement from its democratic matrix and the creation of a 'state within a state,' a law enforcement system unresponsive to the will of the majority and obeying only the dictates of the governing few."

New Congress To Ask Foreign Policy Review

Acheson to Be Invited by Senate Group to Make Global Report

SECRETARY FACING SHARP QUESTIONING

Senators May Particularly Want Information on Asiatic Policies

Washington, Jan. 1 (AP) — A global review of U. S. foreign policy will be asked from Secretary of State Acheson as one of the first orders of business by a Congress set to slash foreign aid spending.

Chairman Connally (D-Tex) told a reporter he will suggest to the Senate Foreign Relations Committee at its first meeting after Congress convenes Tuesday that it invite Acheson to an early closed-door session.

The Secretary of State, reviewing his stewardship for Senators, could be expected to duplicate the report for the House Foreign Affairs Committee.

There are indications that Acheson will face sharp questioning about Asiatic policies, the course this country intends to follow in dealing with Israel, the possible resumption of full diplomatic relations with Spain, and the extent to which the U. S. may aid Tito's Yugoslav Government.

The China question will be popping.

Senator Martin (R-Pa) charged in a statement that the Administration is "close to recognition of Communist China."

Senators Vandenberg (R-Mich) and Connally have called for cuts in foreign spending, with indications that Marshall Plan funds for the 1950-51 fiscal period will be trimmed about $1,000,000,000 below the present year's outlays. The Administration is expected to propose a reduction somewhat smaller.

A hot Senate fight is in prospect on the issue of approving the international trade organization agreement, which has been submitted to both Houses. Republicans may make this the basis for an attack on the Administration's handling of the reciprocal trade program renewed by Congress last year.

'4 Point Fight' Forecast

President Truman's expected renewal in his personally delivered State of the Union message Wednesday of his "Point Four" proposal for aid to the world's backward areas seems certain to require stout defense by Acheson.

Senator Millikin of Colorado who heads the conference of all Republican Senators which meets Tuesday, told a reporter he intends to fight the "Point Four" program.

Millikin said the proposal for Government guarantees of American investments abroad would "follow the false theory that you can industrialize with a checkbook a nation that has no industrial skills."

"If the foreign governments would demonstrate the stability of investments in their countries, private American capital would rush in and there would be no need of U. S. guarantees," he said.

There are signs that some influential Democrats in Congress are dragging their feet on the "Point Four" program, hoping that it will not be pushed in what already promises to be a hectic and busy session.

The Senate Democratic Policy Committee, meeting tomorrow, will sketch a program that puts the House-approved Oleo Tax Repeal bill up for debate starting Wednesday, immeditely after President Truman has talked to both Houses.

House chieftains have delayed their meeting until the Democratic Big Four—Vice President Barkley, Senate Democratic Leader Lucas of Illinois, Speaker Rayburn of Texas and House Democratic Leader McCormack of Massachusetts—can talk over the prospects with Mr. Truman Tuesday.

The President will give them a look then at the 1950 "Fair Deal"—by all unofficial accounts a warmed-over version of legislative requests he has made in the past.

Washington is guessing that Mr. Truman will underline his demand for action on civil rights legislation. Lucas has promised that a Fair Employment Practices Commission bill will be brought before the Senate early in the session. Proponents are trying to by-pass the House Rules Committee with a similar measure.

Taxes and spending are the chief interests of most returning legislators, but Mr. Truman's final word on these issues probably will be reserved for his budget message in the following week.

Mr. Truman propably will say he can't reduce the spending budget for the year beginning July 1, 1950, enough to keep within tax revenues. Indeed, the prospective gap may be as much as $5,000,000,000 on the red ink side.

May Propose New Taxes

To attack this deficit, he may propose new taxes, perhaps on estates and gifts, as he did in midyear. Lucas has hinted at increased rates for corporations to offset the repeal of some wartime excise levies. Congress seems certain to order this cut.

In the field of social legislation, Mr. Truman is likely to be back with recommendations for a compulsory health insurance program, increases in Social Security benefits (already approved by the House), Federal aid to education (passed by the Senate), housing aid in the middle-income brackets, and broadening of unemployment compensation.

The President is expected to ask extended rent curbs which expire June 30.

He probably will recommend that Congress study the Brannan plan of farm subsidy payments, although there is scant chance Congress will change the present Crop Price Support Law this year.

The perennial demand for the repeal of the Taft-Hartley Labor Law probably will fall on the usual deaf Congressional ears, as will the appeal for strengthening of the anti-trust laws.

Mr. Truman undoubtedly will be back with plans for development of power, irrigation, flood control and navigation projects. He will want to keep the tidelands oil for the Federal Government.

The President probably will caution against too deep cuts in foreign economic and military aid programs. He may have something to say about atomic cooperation with Britain and Canada. His specific foreign proposals, however, may be delayed until a later, separate message on this subject.

He is reported to have cut military outlays in the new budget by about $2,000,000,000.

Among the issues left over from the last session, the President will press for final action on the House-approved bill to let more displaced Europeans into this country.

He has ready about a dozen Government Bureau reorganization plans, expected to be tossed to Congress soon after it gets down to business this week.

Cold War and American Trend Toward Social Welfare State Considered Two Most Important

New York, Jan. 1 (AP)—The Cold War and American trends toward a Social Welfare State topped the year's events for most of the 14 newspaper executives who aired their views in a radio broadcast today.

Singled out in the struggle between Communism and its opponents were: the Red sweep of China, Soviet A-bomb development, the Hungarian Cardinal Mindszenty Trial and Yugoslavia's rupture with the Cominform.

Some of the editors told a network audience on a transcribed "voice of the press" program that among portents for 1950 were the upsetting of labor governments in New Zealand and Australia.

The newsmen saw 1950 as a good year for American economy, and the President's Social Security program as a factor in the Congressional elections.

Palmer Hoyt, editor and publisher of the Denver Post, told listeners: "We must admit that the U. S. and Russia are engaged for the soul of the world. What are we doing about it? A lot.

"Number one, the UN stands as the greatest monument yet erected to man's all consuming desire for peace. Number two, our recent recognition of the United States of Indonesia stands out as a hallmark of intent."

In the long run, Hoyt said, "The U. S. cannot fail to gain supremacy in the world, and this is not imperialism. This is evangelism. This is merely continuation of the age-old battle of a million years to bring man to peace and freedom."

Roy Roberts, president of the Kansas City Star, cited as the "Four Big Spots" in 1949: The Communistic sweep of all China "and the debacle for ourselves and the Western Democracies"; the revelation that Russia has the atomic bomb; the "amazing comeback" of the United States from an industrial and economic standpoint; and election results in Australia and New Zealand.

The elections, Roberts said, "promise to be the most revealing events of the New Year. Whether the trends towards State Socialism will be checked next November will tell."

But, he said, "a year from now we'll probably all be a little better off than we are today, with the world edging painfully its way towards stability."

Alfred H. Kichhofer, Managing Editor of the Buffalo, N. Y., Evening News, said: "If we had been willing to abandon China to Japan, as we now are giving her to the Communists, there would have been no Japanese war with the U. S.

"Our high strategists and State Department still have time to take another quick look at these threats to the security for which 100,000 brave Americans died."

Virgil Pinkley, editor and publisher, Los Angeles Mirror, said: "The fundamental fight around the world on just how far government should inject itself into the lives of individuals and business firms will be fought bitterly during our Congressional elections this year and the British General Election."

Pinkley also saw "a return to religion" at home and abroad.

Eugene Mackinnon, General Manager, Salt Lake City Tribune-Telegram, said: "1950 is a year wherein America can effectively discredit advocates of various forms of stateism. In 1950 is the time to choose between a voluntary business-managed solution and something else."

Ed Kilman, Editor, the Houston Post, said: "We are riding the inflationary streetcar of deficit spending which may lead to the promised land of security and abundance which Mr. Truman envisions in the Welifare State, or it may take us to the brink of an economic bust."

Marshall Field, Jr., assistant publisher, Chicago Sun-Times, said the "1949 event casting the longest shadow into 1950 is the news about the atom."

Field said "some impartial observers believe that as an alternative to the welfare state, the GOP would be wise to offer a program of welfare capitalism as embodied in the President's steel report."

Whitelaw Reid, Jr., Editor, The New York Herald Tribune, said: "Whether we like it or not, the truth is that the major world news stories of 1949 stem from the actions of Soviet Russia and the cold war which she has engineered.

"The biggest one of all in terms of long range importance, was probably the getting together of 12 nations and the signing by them on April 4 of the North Atlantic treaty. This took place against a background of Russian belligerance in dealing with the west and ever firmer subjugation of the satellite countries."

William Hessler, Foreign News Editor, Cincinnati Inquirer, said: "I think we should resolve for 1950 to try more earnestly here in our own country to combat the cold war hysteria which hampers the conduct of a wise and reasonable military and foreign policy."

Henry Gillen, Chief Editorial Writer, Boston Post, said: "If we work for peace and fight for peace, we have nothing to fear. Our armaments, strong and ready, our desire firm and unshakeable, we can make 1950 the gateway to an age more golden than man has ever known."

Gideon Seymour, Executive Editor, Minneapolis Star-Tribune, said the farmers "look forward to a good year, not quite as profitable as '48 or '49, but one that will keep them in stride with a stable and thriving national economy."

Best news for the farmer, Seymour said, "is that general business conditions are going to be good. High employment among the rest of the population at good wages means the country eats more and better food. This is more important to the farmer than anything the Government can do for him."

Mrs. Ruth Miller, editor, the Washington Times Herald, said: "this coming session of Congress will tell us whether it is possible to get more efficient government on a non-partisan basis, or whether the Hoover plan must become a party matter, and the Republicans go to the country with it."

Wright Bryan, Editor, Atlanta Journal, said: "The South believes it can do most to strengthen our national position by rebuilding at home its own resources, human and material. 1950 should bring to the South a better balance between industry and agriculture, more rehabilitation of eroded soils, more mechanization of farms, better schools and more opportunities for its people."

George W. Healy, Jr., managing Editor, New Orleans Times-Picayune, said good port business there reflected "industrial progress of the Deep South" and also "hard work by New Orleans men toward building better relations between the port and the rest of the world."

LONDON, JAN 1-(AP)-YUGOSLAVIA'S NEW TRADE AGREEMENT WITH GREAT BRITAIN HAS BROUGHT ABOUT THE "COMPLETE DEFEAT" OF THE ECONOMIC BOYCOTT OF YUGOSLAVIA BY RUSSIA AND EASTERN EUROPEAN STATES, THE OFFICIAL YUGOSLAV NEWSPAPER, BORBA, SAID TODAY.

THE AGREEMENT, PROVIDING FOR AN EXCHANGE OF GOODS WORTH $200,000,000 IN FIVE YEARS, IS OF GREAT BENEFIT TO BOTH COUNTRIES, BORBA SAID IN AN ARTICLE BROADCAST BY TANJUG, THE OFFICIAL YUGOSLAV AGENCY. PARIS, JAN 1-(AP)-PARLIAMENT MEETS TOMORROW TO LOOK OVER ITS NEW YEAR'S GIFT FROM PREMIER GEORGES BIDAULT--THREE TOUGH VOTES ON WHICH DEPEND THE 1950 BUDGET, THE FATE OF THE CABINET AND THE DEPUTIES' OWN JOBS.

THE FRENCH EXCHANGE GIFTS ON NEW YEAR'S DAY IN ACCORDANCE WITH IMMEMORIAL CUSTOM. BIDAULT TOLD THE COUNTRY IN A RADIO ADDRESS THIS AFTERNOON:

"I SHALL NOT SPEAK TO YOU OF UNFORTUNATELY, TO GIVE NEW YEAR'S GIFTS. I SHALL SPEAK TO YOU OF YOURSELVES."

IN ADDITION TO THE USUAL WISHES FOR A GOOD YEAR AND GOOD HEALTH, BIDAULT HAS SHOWN HIS POLITICAL COURAGE AND CONFIDENCE IN ALL, COURAGE DURING THE PAST WEEK BY ASKING AND WINNING THREE VOTES ON HIS CONTROVERSIAL BUDGET FROM A REBELLIOUS NATIONAL ASSEMBLY. NOW HE IS ASKING THREE MORE, TO BE VOTED TOMORROW AFTERNOON AT 5 P.M. (11 A.M., EST). AS FRENCH PARLIAMENTARY TRADITION DEMANDS, THESE ARE VOTES TO SHOW THE "CONFIDENCE" OF PARLIAMENT IN THE CABINET. ONCE THE CABINET LOSES THE FAITH OF THE NATIONAL ASSEMBLY--OF WHICH IT IS ONLY A KIND OF EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE--IT MUST RESIGN AND GIVE PLACE TO ANOTHER GROUP THAT CAN WIN THE CONFIDENCE OF THE HOUSE, AS SHOWN BY A MAJORITY VOTE.

THE FIGHT OF BIDAULT AND HIS MIDDLE-OF-THE ROAD CABINET HAS BEEN FOR A BALANCED BUDGET, WHICH WAS DUE TO BE PASSED BEFORE THE END OF 1949. MOST OF THEIR EFFORTS SINCE THEY TOOK OFFICE TWO MONTHS AGO HAVE BEEN DIRECTED TO THIS END.

THEIR AIM IS A RECORD-BREAKING EXPENDITURE FOR 1950 OF 2,257,000,000,000 FRANCS ($6,400,000,000), BALANCED BY RECEIPTS OF APPROXIMATELY THE SAME AMOUNT. UNLESS THEY CAN OBTAIN THESE RECEIPTS FROM NEW TAXES, THE MONEY HAS TO BE RAISED BY LOANS OR THE PRINTING OF NEW BILLS--MEASURES WHICH WOULD LEAD TO INFLATION, REDUCTION IN THE VALUE OF THE FRANC, DECLINE OF BUSINESS CONFIDENCE AND DIFFICULTIES WITH THE MARSHALL PLAN AUTHORITIES.

BIDAULT'S POSITION HAS BEEN SUPPORTED BY HIS OWN POPULAR REPUBLICAN MOVEMENT (MRP)--A LEFT-OF-CENTER CATHOLIC PARTY, BY THE SOCIALISTS, AND BY ONE WING OF THE MIDDLE-OF-THE-ROAD RADICAL SOCIALIST PARTY. HE HAS BEEN OPPOSED BY FOLLOWERS OF GEN.CHARLES DE GAULLE AND OTHER EXTREME RIGHTISTS, BY THE COMMUNISTS, AND BY THE RIGHT WING OF THE RADICALS.

SO FAR HE HAS WON OUT. HE HAS HAD THREE VOTES OF CONFIDENCE--ONE BY A MAJORITY OF ONLY SEVEN VOTES, AND TWO MORE LAST FRIDAY BY A HEALTHIER MARGIN OF 18.

THE THREE VOTES TO BE HELD TOMORROW ARE DESIGNED TO PROVIDE THE LAST 37,000,000,000 FRANCS (ABOUT $105,000,000) IN TAXES NEEDED TO BALANCE THE BUDGET. BIDAULT IS NOW IN A GOOD POSITION TO WIN THEM. THERE IS HEAVY OPPOSITION IN PARLIAMENT, HOWEVER, TO ANY KIND OF NEW TAXATION, AND HE STILL MAY LOSE.

IN THIS CASE, HE AND HIS CABINET WOULD HAVE TO QUIT. SUCH A RESIGNATION WOULD PUT FRANCE ON THE WAY TO A PROMPT GENERAL ELECTION, OTHERWISE NOT DUE UNTIL THE END OF 1951. THIS IS BECAUSE THE AUTHORS OF THE FRENCH CONSTITUTION, IN ORDER TO PREVENT CABINETS FROM FAILING TOO OFTEN, INSERTED A CLAUSE TO ENABLE THE SECOND ONE TOPPLED WITHIN 18 MONTHS TO CALL AN ELECTION WITHOUT PARLIAMENT'S CONSENT. THE IDEA WAS THAT PARLIAMENT WOULD BE CAREFUL ABOUT OVERTHROWING A CABINET IF THE DEPUTIES' OWN SEATS WERE THEREBY ENDANGERED.

BIDAULT'S CABINET WOULD BE THE FIRST TO FALL IN THIS WAY SINCE THE WAR. THE OBLIGING MINISTERS HAVE ALWAYS QUIT HERETOFORE WITHOUT A FORMAL VOTE WHENEVER THEY SAW THEY WOULD LOSE IT IF THEY ASKED FOR IT. THUS PREMATURE ELECTIONS HAVE NOT BEEN A DANGER. BIDAULT HAS PREFERRED TO SAY, IN EFFECT:

"IF YOU PUT ME OUT, YOU MAY HAVE TO GO TOO."

BERLIN, JAN 1-(AP)-THE COMMUNISTS PUBLISHED A 20TH CENTURY "HISTORY" OF BERLIN TODAY WITHOUT MENTIONING THE RUSSIAN BLOCKADE OF 1948-49.

THE PARTY NEWSPAPER, NEUES DEUTSCHLAND, DEVOTED A SPECIAL PAGE TO LISTING THE PRINCIPAL POLITICAL EVENTS OF EACH YEAR SINCE THE TURN OF THE CENTURY.

THE SECTION DEVOTED TO 1945-49 BORE THE CAPTION:

"WAR PROVOCATIONS BY THE WESTERN POWERS AND THE FURTHER ADVANCE OF THE PEACE POWERS."

THE YEAR 1948--WHEN THE RUSSIANS CLAMPED ON THEIR BLOCKADE IN JUNE--LISTED THE COMMUNIST PUTSCH IN CZECHOSLOVAKIA AS A MAJOR EVENT. THE MONTH OF JUNE WAS IGNORED. THE ENTRY FOR JULY WAS: "ECONOMIC AND POLITICAL SPLITTING OF GERMANY BY INTRODUCTION OF WESTERN CURRENC (WEST MARKS)."

THE MONTH OF MAY, 1949 HAD ONLY ONE ENTRY AND THAT WAS ON THE FIFTH: "ACCEPTANCE OF SOVIET PROPOSALS IN THE BERLIN CONFLICT BY THE WESTERN POWERS."

THE BLOCKADE WAS LIFTED BY THE RUSSIANS MAY 12. THIS WAS NOT MENTIONED.

NEUES DEUTSCHLAND BANNERED ITS HOLIDAY EDITION "FORWARD TO A NEW BATTLE AND A NEW VICTORY," AND SAID THE YEAR WOULD BE DEVOTED TO FIGHTING ALONGSIDE THE RUSSIANS FOR PEACE.

THE SOVIET ARMY NEWSPAPER TAEGLICHE RUNDSCHAU ISSUED A CALENDAR FOR 1950, WITH A MAP THAT SHOWED GERMANY AS A UNITED COUNTRY.

THE OUTLINES OF A DOVE OF PEACE WERE SUPER-IMPOSED OVER THE MAP OF THE WORLD WHICH INCLUDED GERMANY AS A SINGLE ENTITY. THERE WAS NO LINE OF DIVISION AS EXISTS IN REALITY BETWEEN THE WEST GERMAN REPUBLIC AND THE COMMUNIST EAST GERMAN GOVERNMENT.

NO OFFICIAL REASON WAS GIVEN FOR THE SUSPENSION BUT IT IS REPORTED ITS EDITOR, YOUSEF HANNA, REFUSED TO PUBLISH ARTICLES AGAINST THE INTERNATIONALIZATION OF JERUSALEM.

JUST BEFORE THE SUSPENSION, THE PAPER ALSO REPORTED THAT ON HIS VISIT TO THE CITY LAST WEEK THE KING HAD TO WAIT 40 MINUTES FOR BRIG. JOHN GLUBB PASHA, THE BRITISH COMMANDER OF THE ARAB LEGION, TO APPEAR FOR AN AUDIENCE. THE PAPER SAID THE KING NOT ONLY WAITED FOR GLUBB PASHA BUT ADVANCED TO MEET HIM WHEN HE DID APPEAR.

THE PAPER COMMENTED THAT SUCH BEARING WAS UNBECOMING A KING AND HINTED THAT IT WAS A REFLECTION OF ABDULLAH'S DEPENDENCE ON THE BRITISH. THAT APPARENTLY IS A SENSITIVE POINT WITH ABDULLAH.

THE NEWS OF THE SUSPENSION WAS SUPPRESSED IN THE JORDAN PRESS UNTIL TODAY, WHEN A WEEKLY IN NABLUS, ON THE WEST SIDE OF THE JORDAN, IN AN APPARENTLY UNCENSORED EDITORIAL, WARNED ARABIC NEWSPAPERS TO TAKE A LESSON FROM THE FATE OF ADIFAA.

HELSINKI- XXX GOVERNMENT.

A LITTLE OVER TWO WEEKS AGO SOVIET PRESS HOSTILITY TOWARD FAGERHOLM WAS EXPRESSED IN A PRAVDA EDITORIAL WHICH CHARGED HIM WITH WANTING TO CHANGE FINLAND'S INDEPENDENCE DAY OBSERVANCE FROM DEC.6 TO A DATE COMMEMORATING THE OUTBREAK OF THE RUSSO-FINNISH WAR OF 1939-40. PRAVDA SAID FAGERHOLM'S "UNNEIGHBORLY" PROPOSAL WAS LEADING HIS COUNTRY DOWN A PATH OF "SENSELESS, BLOODY ADVENTURES" AS IN 1939-40 AND 1941-44.

FAGERHOLM'S INDEPENDENCE DAY SPEECH HAD CONTAINED NO SUCH RECOMMENDATION. INSTEAD, IT SAID FINLAND WOULD SOON PAY OFF THE LAST OF HER $300,000,000 WAR DEBT TO RUSSIA.

IN HIS MESSAGE TODAY, PRESIDENT PAASIKIVI STRESSED THE IMPORTANCE OF GOOD RELATIONS WITH THE SOVIET UNION.

HE SAID: "IT HAS FALLEN UPON ME MORE THAN ANY OTHER LIVING FINN TO MAKE EFFORTS TO CREATE AND MAINTAIN CONCORD AND PEACE BETWEEN FINLAND AND THE SOVIET UNION."

HE TOLD OF HIS THREE DECADES OF THIS WORK, CONTINUING:

"THE PROXIMITY TO THE FORMER EMPIRE OF RUSSIA AND LATER TO THE SOVIET UNION HAS INFLUENCED THE PROGRESS OF OUR HISTORY. THIS PROXIMITY IS DECISIVE FOR OUR POSITION INTERNATIONALLY. OUR RELATIONS ARE ARRANGED THROUGH AGREEMENTS.

"THE MAIN PRINCIPLE IN OUR FOREIGN POLICY HAS BEEN AND WILL BE A CONSCIENTIOUS OBSERVANCE OF AGREEMENTS ENTERED INTO AND AN HONEST FULFILLMENT OF THEIR OBLIGATIONS. ON THIS POINT THERE IS NO DISAGREEMENT AMONG THE PEOPLE OF FINLAND. NEITHER ARE THERE ANY DIFFERING OPINIONS THAT THE MAINTENANCE OF GOOD, TRUSTFUL RELATIONS IS AND WILL BE AN HONEST ENDEAVOR IN ALL CIRCLES OF OUR NATION.

"IN THE FOREIGN POLICY A RIGHTEOUS AND CAREFUL FULFILLMENT OF THE AGREEMENTS, AND IN THE DOMESTIC POLICY OBSERVANCE OF FREEDOM BASED ON LAWFUL PARLIAMENTARY AND DEMOCRATIC ORDER--THESE ARE THE CORNER STONES ON WHICH LIFE OF THE PEOPLE AND THE STATE ARE FOUNDED.

"THESE PRINCIPLES HAVE BEEN FOLLOWED CONSISTENTLY AFTER THE WAR. THEY SHOULD ALSO BE FUTURE GUIDE-POSTS BY WHICH FINLAND SHOULD CONDUCT HER COURSE."

PITTSBURGH,JAN.1-(AP)-REP. JAMES G.FULTON (R-PA.) TODAY PREDICTED GREAT BRITAIN WILL OFFICIALLY RECOGNIZE THE COMMUNIST GOVERNMENT IN CHINA NEXT WEEK.

FULTON, A MEMBER OF THE HOUSE FOREIGN AFFAIRS COMMITTEE, SAID SUCH ACTION WOULD GIVE THE REDS CONTROL OF TWO CHINESE AIRLINES WHICH OPERATE 11 AIRPLANES. HE SAID HE WAS SENDING A TELEGRAM TO THE U.S. STATE DEPARTMENT ASKING THAT AGENCY TO PROTEST THE CONTEMPLATED BRITISH ACTION. THE CONGRESSMAN DECLARED:

"THINGS ARE GOING TO GET HOT OVER THERE (IN CHINA) SOON. IF THE BRITISH TURN THE PLANES OVER TO THE REDS WHEN THEY RECOGNIZE THE COMMUNIST GOVERNMENT--PROBABLY NEXT WEEK--THAT'LL GIVE THE REDS JUST THE AIR EQUIPMENT THEY NEED TO LINK THEIR FAR-FLUNG FORCES ON THE MAINLAND AND HELP IN THE INVASION OF FORMOSA AND HAINAN--WHICH WE EXPECT.

FULTON SAID HE THOUGHT THE BRITISH RECOGNITION WOULD OCCUR ON JANUARY 9. THE TELEGRAM WHICH HE ADDRESSED TO STATE DEPARTMENT SECRETARY DEAN ACHESON SAID:

"RESPECTFULLY URGE YOU CALL TO BRITISH FOREIGN OFFICE'S ATTENTION THAT SOME FOREIGN AFFAIRS COMMITTEE MEMBERS WHO HAVE SUPPORTED THE MARSHALL PLAN, INCLUDING THE UNDERSIGNED, WILL VIEW SERIOUSLY ANY ACTION WHICH WILL RESULT IN TURNING OVER TO RED CHINA PLANES AND AVIATION EQUIPMENT AT HONG KONG NOW OWNED BY U.S. CORPORATION AS SUCH ACTION WILL HAVE DIRECT BEARING ON SUPPORT OF LATER REQUESTS BY SUCH GOVERNMENTS FOR AIRCRAFT PROGRAM ASSISTANCE UNDER THE MARSHALL PLAN."

THE CONGRESSMAN'S MENTION OF THE AIRLINES' OWNERSHIP "BY U.S. CORPORATION" APPARENTLY REFERS TO A RECENT ANNOUNCEMENT BY CLAIRE L. CHENNAULT, RETIRED U.S. MAJOR GENERAL.

CHENNAULT, WHO OPERATES THE CIVIL AIR TRANSPORT LINE IN NATIONALIST CHINA, ANNOUNCED HE HAD BOUGHT THE PROPERTIES FROM THE NATIONALISTS. THE TWO AIRLINES HAVE A U.S. VALUE OF ABOUT $30 MILLION. THEY ARE THE CHINA NATIONAL AVIATION CORP. AND THE CENTRAL AIR TRANSPORT CORP.

WORLD BANK
BY CHARLES MOLONY

(ADVANCE) WASHINGTON, JAN.1-(AP)-THE WORLD BANK ANNOUNCED TONIGHT A BREAK-OFF IN NEGOTIATIONS WITH THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT'S COLONIAL DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION ON A $5,000,000 (M) LOAN APPLICATION BY THE BRITISH AGENCY.

THE 48-NATION BANK, IN WHICH BRITAIN WIELDS A VOTING POWER SECOND ONLY TO THE UNITED STATES, SAID ONLY THAT THE COLONIAL AGENCY'S BOARD, HEADED BY LORD TREFGARNE OF CLEDDAU, HAS:

"EXPRESSED THEMSELVES AS UNABLE TO ACCEPT CERTAIN OF THE BANK'S STANDARD REQUIREMENTS, ESPECIALLY THE NON-FINANCIAL COVENANTS, ON THE GROUNDS THAT THESE ARE NOT RECONCILABLE WITH THE PRINCIPLES AND METHODS BY WHICH THE CORPORATION OPERATES."

FOR THAT REASON, THE BANK STATEMENT SAID, "IT HAS NOT BEEN POSSIBLE, AT PRESENT, TO BRING THESE NEGOTIATIONS TO A SUCCESSFUL CONCLUSION."

BANK OFFICIALS DECLINED TO AMPLIFY, LEAVING FURTHER EXPLANATION TO OFFICERS OF THE BRITISH AGENCY, WITH WHOM THEY HAD AN AGREEMENT FOR SIMULTANEOUS ANNOUNCEMENT OF THE PRECEDENT-SETTING BREAKING OFF IN LOAN APPLICATION TALKS.

NEVER BEFORE, THEY ACKNOWLEDGED, HAS THERE EVER BEEN A DROPPING OF NEGOTIATIONS FOR A WORLD BANK LOAN BEFORE A FINAL DECISION GRANTING OR REFUSING THE LOAN.

DESPITE OFFICIAL SILENCE AT THE BANK, IT WAS LEARNED THAT THE DEADLOCK INVOLVED REFUSAL BY THE BANK TO WAIVE ITS "STANDARD REQUIREMENTS" FOR THE BRITISH AGENCY. IT WAS NOT STATED WHICH ONES CAUSED THE JAM.

THE U.S., AS THE HEAVIEST SUBSCRIBER OF FUNDS TO THE BANK, PLAYS SUCH AN IMPORTANT ROLE IN BANK DECISIONS THAT ITS SUPPORT OF BANK PRESIDENT EUGENE R. BLACK, AN AMERICAN, AND HIS STAFF IN THEIR STAND AGAINST THE BRITISH AGENCY WAS OBVIOUS.

THE AGENCY, RESPONSIBLE FOR DEVELOPMENT OF BRITAIN'S COLONIAL AREAS, HAD BEEN WORKING ON THE LOAN SINCE MARCH, 1948.

THE "STANDARD REQUIREMENTS" OVER WHICH THE DEADLOCK DEVELOPED INCLUDED THESE REGULAR BANK LOAN PROVISIONS REPORTED TO HAVE FIGURED STRONGLY IN THE DISCUSSIONS:

1. THAT THE BORROWER WILL KEEP THE BANK INFORMED ON GOODS BOUGHT WITH LOAN FUNDS, ON PROGRESS OF THE PROJECT, ON ITS GENERAL OPERATIONS AND FINANCIAL CONDITION, AND RECOGNIZE THE BANK'S RIGHT, IF NEED BE, TO INSPECT, AUDIT AND MAKE COPIES OF ITS BOOKS AND RECORDS.

2. THAT THE BANK WILL HAVE THE RIGHT TO INSPECT THE GOODS BOUGHT WITH ITS LOAN FUNDS AND ALSO THE USE OF THESE GOODS IN THE LOAN PROJECT.

JAN 2 1950

3. THAT THE BORROWER AGREE, WITH CERTAIN SPECIFIED EXCEPTIONS, TO GIVE THE BANK LIENS OR SECURITY FROM ITS ASSETS OF EQUAL PRIORITY AND PROPORTIONAL SCALE TO THAT GIVEN ANY MAKER OF SUBSEQUENT LOANS.

4. THAT THE BANK HAS THE RIGHT TO SELL BONDS GIVEN TO IT UNDER THE LOAN AGREEMENT AS SECURITY FOR ITS LOAN.

IN UNOFFICIAL RATINGS, THE FIRST TWO CONDITIONS ARE REGARDED OF TOP IMPORTANCE AS THEY PROVIDE WHAT SOME CONSIDER AN OPENING WEDGE FOR THE BANK TOWARD CONTROL OR VETO POWER OVER A BORROWER'S ACTIVITIES--SOMETHING THE BRITISH AGENCY MIGHT HAVE BEEN UNWILLING TO STOMACH.

SOME OBSERVERS EXPRESSED OPINION THAT THE BRITISH AGENCY MIGHT FEEL THAT THE BANK, UNDER THOSE PROVISIONS, COULD INSIST THAT THE AGENCY'S PURCHASES BE MADE WHEREVER THE PRICE OFFERED IT IS MOST ADVANTAGEOUS.

THUS, IT WAS REASONED, THE BRITISH AGENCY, WHICH ADMITTED IN ITS LAST ANNUAL REPORT THAT IT HAS TO TAKE INTO CONSIDERATION "POLITICAL, DEPARTMENTAL AND LOCAL" MATTERS AS WELL AS COMMERCIAL ONES, MIGHT BE COMPELLED TO BUY GOODS FROM U.S. SUPPLIERS IN COMPETITION WITH BRITISH SUPPLIERS.

THE BANK'S ANNOUNCEMENT OF THE BREAK-OFF IN NEGOTIATIONS NOTED THAT THE PURPOSE OF THE PROPOSED LOAN WAS TO FINANCE "PURCHASE OF EQUIPMENT FROM THE DOLLAR AREA"--AN AREA CONSIDERED TO INCLUDE CANADA AS WELL AS THE U.S.

THE ANNOUNCEMENT ALSO SAID IT WAS PLANNED THAT THIS EQUIPMENT WOULD BE "INSTALLED IN VARIOUS DEVELOPMENT UNDERTAKINGS TO BE PROMOTED BY THE (BRITISH) CORPORATION IN THE DEPENDENT OERSEAS TERRITORIES OF THE UNITED KINGDOM."

THE BRITISH AGENCY SOMETIME AGO LISTED MORE THAN 50 PROJECTS IT WANTED TO UNDERTAKE IN COLONIES SPREAD OVER THE WORLD.

THE COLONIAL DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION WAS ESTABLISHED IN 1948 UNDER BRITAIN'S OVERSEAS RESOURCES DEVELOPMENT ACT.

FORMAL NEGOTIATIONS FOR A LOAN TO THE AGENCY BEGAN AFTER LORD TREFGARNE WROTE THE BANK IN SEPTEMBER, 1948, ASKING FUNDS TO FINANCE THE DOLLAR COSTS OF ESTABLISHING AN "EQUIPMENT POOL" TO SERVE COLONIAL PROJECTS OF THE AGENCY.

IN THE BANK'S ANNUAL REPORT IN SEPTEMBER, 1949, THERE IS A MENTION OF THE APPLICATION AND A STATEMENT THAT "AN INITIAL LOAN TO (THE BRITISH AGENCY) TO ASSIST IN FINANCING ITS EQUIPMENT NEEDS TO THE END OF 1950 MAY BE NEGOTIATED SHORTLY."

THE REPORT WAS ISSUED SHORTLY AFTER THE ENDING OF TOP LEVEL TALKS HERE BY U.S., BRITISH AND CANADIAN OFFICIALS ON VARIOUS FINANCIAL QUESTIONS. ONE OF THE AGREEMENTS FLOWING FROM THOSE TALKS WAS A U.S. PROMISE TO TAKE A "SYMPATHETIC ATTITUDE" TOWARD BRITAIN'S EFFORTS TO GET CAPITAL FOR COLONIAL DEVELOPMENT.

FINLAND LINKS RUSSIAN NOTE TO ELECTIONS

Helsinki Plans To Fulfill Treaty Obligations With Soviet

JAN 3 1950

Helsinki, Finland, Jan. 2 (AP)—The Finnish Foreign Ministry declared tonight this country has "a serious intention to do everything" to fulfill its obligations under the peace treaty with Russia.

The announcement was made in connection with a Russian note accusing Finland of harboring more than 300 Russian citizens listed as war criminals. It was supplemented by a list of 56 persons wanted by Russia for high treason and collaboration with the enemy.

Russia is demanding their extradition under terms of the 1947 peace treaty.

The Russian note is regarded by political circles here as a deliberate attack designed to coincide with preparations for the Finnish presidential election. Electors will be chosen on January 16 and 17 to elect a new national leader on February 15.

The note was seen as an indication Russia is dissatisfied with the trend of the present government and wants to help the small Communist party here.

Finland's Economy Attacked

The term of President Juho Paasikivi, who took office on March 11, 1946, expires in March. He succeeded Field Marshal Baron Carl Gustaf Mannerheim, who resigned because of health. The 78-year-old Paasikivi came to power as a proponent of good neighbor relations with Russia after successfully negotiating an end to fighting both in 1940 and 1944.

[The Moscow radio, heard in London by the Soviet monitor, backed up the Russian note, relaying a Tass report from Helsinki that Finland's economy was near collapse.

[Observers in London said this was an indication Moscow might be preparing to give its tiny neighbor "the full treatment," as it has the Yugoslavs and others who dared disagree with the Kremlin's ideas.

[The Tass attack said a simultaneous fall in farm prices and a rise in the cost of industrial goods was squeezing the Finish economy.]

Relative Strength Of Parties

Paasikivi, an independent, is supported by Finland's Conservative, Liberal, Swedish, and Social-Democratic parties.

His opponents are U. K. Kekkonen, parliamentary speaker and head of the Agrarian party, and Communist Mauno Pekkala, candidate of the Left-Wing People's Democratic front.

The relative strength of the various parties, as measured by their membership in the Diet, a one-chamber Parliament, is:

Returning To Finland

Karlaugust Fagerholm, Prime Minister in Finland's Social Democratic government and chief target of Soviet attacks, has said he expects the creation of a broad coalition government after this year's elections.

To substantiate the view that the Russian note is tuned to the Finnish elections observers noted that the Soviet Government this time spoke through its Ministry of Foreign Affairs, rather than first making the charges through the press, as on previous occasions. The Soviet note arrived in Helsinki New Year's night.

It also is pointed out that Grigory Savonenkov, the Russian Minister to Helsinki, is expected back in Finland tomorrow after a long stay in Moscow.

Significant also is the return from Moscow of Villo Pesse, general secretary of the Finnish Communist party, and Mrs. Hertta Kuusinenleino, regarded as the "soul" of the Finnish Communist party. They had been in the Soviet capital to attend Premier Stalin's birthday celebration. Yrjo Leino, her husband, formerly controlled the Finnish Ministry of the Interior and the police. He was ousted in May, 1948.

Political observers regarded the note as the most serious warning received by Finland since the end of World War II. Finland's reply is expected to be a prompt denial.

According to Moscow dispatches, Andrei Gromyko, Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister, received Kaj Sundstroem, the Finnish Minister, on New Year's Eve and told him the presence of Soviet war criminals in Finland violated the peace treaty between the two countries.

Gromyko was reported to have accused the Finnish Government of harboring the Russians and furnishing them with false names and documents.

A Timely Message

The present Government is expected to reply that it has never provided any war criminals with false documents or tried to conceal any activity which is hostile to the Soviet Government.

Political circles recall, however, a court ruling immediately after the war which said military authorities had supplied some Russian deserters with fake documents and tried to help them out of the country. That was before the present Government took office. The fate of the deserters is said to be unknown here.

Shortly after the news of the Soviet charges broke, President Paasikivi, in a timely New Year's message, said, "there must be no enemies of the Soviet Union in Finland, only friends."

Finns Drafting Reply To Red Charges

JAN 3 1950

Helsinki, Finland, Jan. 2 (AP)—Finland prepared a prompt answer today to Kremlin charges that this country is harboring more than 300 Russian war criminals in violation of the Soviet-Finnish peace treaty.

It is clear here that the Government regards the charges with the utmost gravity.

A Government committee began a study of the Soviet note containing the accusations, which arrived in Helsinki last night. The Finnish reply is expected quickly, perhaps tomorrow, or even later today.

Factors Cause Concern

There are several factors which cause political quarters to regard the new Soviet thrust as extremely serious. In the first place, this time the charges are made directly by the Soviet Foreign Ministry to the Finnish Minister in Moscow, not in the press, as so often in the past.

In the second place, Finland has a presidential election coming up, probably next month, and there are those who believe the Russian action is aimed at influencing the voting.

In the third place, the Russian Minister to Finland, Grigory Savonenkov, is expected to return here tomorrow after a long stay in Moscow.

Falsifications Charged

The Soviet accusations included one that the Finnish Government itself was furnishing the alleged Russian war criminals with false names and documents.

It seems clear that whatever reply is made will contain a denial that the present Government ever did such a thing. But there was a court ruling shortly after the war which said military authorities had given Russian deserters fake documents to help them get out of the country. The point the Finnish reply probably will make is that this Government did not do such a thing, that it was done under a previous regime.

Shortly after the Finnish people heard news of the Soviet charges, President Juho Paasikivi told them in a New Year's message: "There must be no enemies of the Soviet Union in Finland, only friends."

Doesn't Mention Party

Paasikivi did not refer to the Russian accusation but, in view of the Soviet charge, his remarks took on unusual significance.

Finland desires "good and friendly relations with our neighbors, and especially with our eastern neighbor," Paasikivi said.

The Soviet protest, said to have been handed to Finland's Minister in Moscow by Andrei Gromyko, Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister, demanded to know why Finland had not handed over the "war criminals" which Russia says Finland is harboring.

Moscow broadcasts gave few details, but said that 56 of the 300 alleged war criminals had committed "the most serious crimes" against the Soviet Union. Moscow charged that Finland's failure to turn over the accused was a violation not only of the peace treaty, which ended Finland's second war with Rusia, but also of the treaty of friendship and mutual aid signed in April, 1948.

Further Gromyko Charges

The broadcast said Gromyko's strongly worded protest also accused the Social Democratic Government of Prime Minister Karl Fagerholm of enabling the wanted men to continue "hostile activity" against Russia on Finnish soil. The Finnish Government was said by Gromyko to have given fake documents and aliases to the "war criminals."

Finland's Foreign Office declined comment on the charges.

The note was said to have listed the names of the wanted persons. It was believed they might be among Soviet deserters who entered Finland during the war. There was no official information where they might be now.

Finnish Journalists Withdraw From IOJ

Helsinki, Finland, Jan. 2 (AP)—The Finnish Journalist Association withdrew today from the International Organization of Journalists.

The association declared that the IOJ "has become a battleground for struggles between the Eastern and Western powers by which Finland is not concerned."

[The American Newspaper Guild recently withdrew from the IOJ, charging that it had become "an instrument of Communist propaganda." The IOJ was set up shortly after World War II to further the free press of the world.]

Britain, Bank End Loan Talks

JAN 3 1950

London, Jan. 2 (AP)—Britain's Government-owned Colonial Development Corporation broke off negotiations for a $5,000,000 loan from the International Bank today, saying it could not agree on the terms.

No specific reasons were given by the corporation, which was seeking credit to buy special equipment from the United States to promote economic development in about twenty of Britain's far-flung colonies.

A statement by the corporation merely said its negotiating board "felt unable to accept certain of the provisions of the bank's standard form of agreement, especially the nonfinancial covenants contained therein."

Objections Not Specified

Although the statement did not mention what nonfinancial covenants the British found objectionable, the terms generally have to do with granting the International Bank, as creditor, certain supervisory authority over the use of the money loaned.

The corporation maintained it could not accept the terms because they are "not reconcilable with the principles and methods by which the corporation operates."

The negotiations had been going on for some time. The corporation had contemplated that the $5,000,000 loan would be followed by further ones.

World Bank Terms Called Too Onerous

British Agency Explains Its Withdrawing Loan Bid

LONDON, Jan. 2 (AP).—Great Britain's Colonial Development Corporation said today it has withdrawn its application to the International Bank for a $5,000,000 loan because the bank wanted to know too much.

The £100,000,000 ($280,000,000) government corporation, set up in 1948 to foster colonial economic development, said it wanted the loan to buy "indispensable" American-built land-clearing machinery. The breaking off of loan negotiations was announced yesterday, but the reason was not given.

The chairman, Lord Trefgarne, told a news conference the corporation will buy the "second best" machinery constructed in Britain and Italy. Lord Trefgarne said the bank's conditions were "too onerous."

"The corporation would have been required to submit its detailed budgets to the bank for some years ahead and would have had to make quarterly statements showing the total assets, liabilities and expenditures of each of its multiple undertakings," he said.

The loan was to have been the first of many involving "a quite considerable sum," he said. Now the corporation may turn to private banks for its dollars.

British Press Raps U. S. China Policy

H.K MILKS

LONDON, Jan. 2—(AP) Three of Britain's leading papers strongly criticised Washington's China policy today and said they feared it would strain the Anglo-American partnership.

Their declarations were made at the start of the week in which many observers expect Britain formally to announce recognition of communist China. The comment was in connection with reports from Washington that, far from recognizing the Peiping regime of communist Mao Tze-tung, the United States may give some further moral or other aid to Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek in defending the island of Formosa.

Reports from responsible informants in Washington said President Truman had taken a stand against using American troops to defend the strategic island 100 miles off the Chinese coast, but that this decision did not preclude economic and political aid. Some congressmen were reported proposing that the United States take over Formosan air bases in return for limited U. S. military aid.

The United States already has ordered an aircraft carrier and other warcraft to reinforce its fleet in Asiatic waters, and the American joint chiefs of staff are to visit the Far East—avoiding Formosa — in February.

At the same time Mao is in Moscow for the purpose of discussing China's treaty relations with Russia. Chinese Nationalists have reported that he wants Russian aid in mounting an amphibious assault on Formosa.

Britain Picks Veteran As Envoy To Indonesia

London, Jan. 2 (AP)—Britain picked a man with nearly 30 years service in the Far East tonight to be its first ambassador to the week-old United States of Indonesia.

He is Derwent William Kermode, 51, a veteran of Britain's consular service. Promotion of a consul to the rank of ambassador apparently indicates that Britain will be strongly interested in trade with Indonesia.

BIDAULT GETS 6TH CONFIDENCE VOTE

Paris Assembly Backs Record-Breaking Balanced Budget

JAN 3 1950

Paris, Jan. 2 (AP)—The French National Assembly approved a record-breaking balanced budget tonight, giving Premier Georges Bidault's coalition Cabinet three votes of confidence.

But Bidault's two-month-old middle-of-the-road government can still be defeated by a veto of the new budget in the Parliament's upper house—the Council of the Republic. It would have to scrape up 311 votes, an absolute majority of the Assembly, to pass the disputed measure over the council's veto. The highest number polled tonight was 305.

Climaxes Month-Long Dispute

The new budget balances revenues and expenditures at 2,257,000,000,000 francs ($6,400,000,000). The vote climaxed a month-long dispute over the issue of imposing new taxes to meet the estimated outgo.

Six times during the last ten days Premier Bidault has called for votes of confidence, thereby serving notice on the deputies they would force the Cabinet out of office if it were defeated on its tax proposals.

A defeat for Bidault would have meant his Cabinet's resignation and probably a general election. The French Constitution is so drawn that the Communists would have to be included in a caretaker Cabinet until new elections were held.

Of Critical Importance

Three votes were held tonight. The first was on two tax measures designed to raise about 34,000,000,000 francs ($97,000,000) and was won by the Government, 300 to 296.

The second, won by the Government, 304 to 291, was intended to guarantee that the budget cannot be thrown out of balance by future amendments.

The third vote, on the budget as a whole, was won 305 to 283.

The tests were of critical importance. Before the first vote Bidault appealed to the Chamber on patriotic grounds to keep his Cabinet in power.

Opposed By De Gaulle Men

"The fate of the Cabinet is in your hands," he told the deputies. "That is a small matter. It is the rest of the country that counts. I ask you to imagine the consequences of the vote you are about to cast. The nation is above us all and needs each one of us. Be faithful to yourselves and remember that it is our duty to make the presence of France felt everywhere."

The Communists were the biggest element in the opposition to Bidault. With them voted the extreme Rightwingers, the followers of Gen. Charles de Gaulle, and the section of the middle-of-the-road Radical Socialist party that has held out against new taxes of any kind.

Bidault was supported by the Popular Republican Movement (MRP) which is the Leftist Catholic group to which he belongs, the Socialists, and some Radicals.

It has been changes within the ranks of the Radicals that gave Bidault first a six-vote majority the day before Christmas, then two 18-vote majorities last Friday and finally today's four-vote margin.

Collaborator Released From Jial In France

Paris, Jan. 2 (AP) — Georges Claude, 77, famed French scientist, generally credited with being the inventor of neon lights, has been released from jail, where he was serving a term for Nazi collaboration.

Claude, also well known for his work in liquifying air, was arrested in 1944 on collaboration charges and given a life term. Later the sentence was cut to ten years and Friday he was paroled.

MINDSZENTY REPORTED REMOVED FROM PRISON

ROME, Jan. 2 — (AP) The Italian information agency Ari said today that Josef Cardinal Mindszenty had been removed from prison in Budapest because of an aggravated throat ailment. Ari didn't specify where he had been taken.

Last week the agency, which specializes in Catholic news, said Mindszenty probably had been taken to Russia. Informants in Prague close to Hungarian affairs said the report was "nonsense."

Today Ari said the "extreme dampness of the prison brought on the throat complications and Cardinal Mindszenty was taken to "another place." The cardinal is serving a life term on charges of treason against the Communist-led Hungarian government.

Italian Reds Seek Dock Curb

ROME, Jan. 2 (AP)—The Communists called on Italian dock workers today to refuse to unload North Atlantic Pact military supplies. The Unita, the party newspaper, said that Communist-led workers at the Adriatic port of Ancona had already voted against unloading arms "destined to prepare a new aggressive war."

Opium Board Finds Iran Lax In Drug Traffic Statistics

JAN 3 1950

Geneva, Switzerland Tuesday, Jan. 3 (AP)—The permanent Central Opium Board said today delay of some countries in providing statistics and their "doubtful value" was hampering suppression of the international drug traffic.

In its annual report to the United Nations Economic and Social Council, the Opium Board cited "the attitude and conduct of the Government of Iran which has not even troubled to reply" to communications sent by the board.

The board has asked Iran to supply "complete and timely" statistics on its opium stocks, pointing out "the presence of Iranian opium in the illicit traffic in many parts of the world!"

Soviet Collaboration Noted

The board reported that "almost complete collaboration" had been attained with the Soviet Union. In the last year, the board said, the Soviet Union has supplied most of the statistics requested except those on consumption for 1946, 1947 and 1948. The consumption returns were said to be "of great importance" and the board expressed the hope they would be received soon.

The board questioned reports on opium production supplied by Turkey, Iran, Bulgaria and Indo-China.

The Turkish figures, the board said, included only the amounts purchased during the year from producers and dealers by the Government monopoly and do not include the quantities legally held by producers.

Iran's Figures "Inaccurate"

Concerning Iran's report on opium production, the board said: "The statistics supplied by this country were seldom complete enough for the board to strike a balance between amounts available and amounts utilized and exported. On the rare occasions when this was possible, these figures did not tally. This shows that one or another of the figures, if not all of them, were inaccurate."

The board reported it had asked Bulgaria to explain how it could report no opium stock at the beginning of 1948, no production and no imports and still report one ton consumed and 7.5 tons exported in the same year.

"A similar phenomenon had already occurred in 1947," the board said. Bulgaria did not answer the board's letters.

Indo-China was cited for declaring only purchases by "regie" from producers (five tons in 1948), "which, as the board understands, do not amount to more than a quarter of production."

East German Reds Rapped For Failures

Berlin, Jan. 2 (AP)—Western Socialist circles reported today that the Communists are in trouble with Moscow for failure to promote prosperity in eastern Germany.

The British-licensed Telegraf, edited by Socialists who have many party friends in the Soviet zone, said the Russian high command has sharply rebuked the eastern government for:

1. Watered accounts which on examination disclosed that fulfillment of the two-year production plan was achieved only on paper.

2. Deliveries of inferior-quality goods to both Soviet Russia and to East German trade channels.

The Telegraf asserted that Russian Foreign Minister Andrei Vishinsky was sent to Berlin to bolster the Communist regime, the newspaper added that East Germany's Deputy Prime Minister Walter Ulbricht was summoned to Moscow to receive implementing instructions, under the pretense that he was there only for the celebration of Marshal Stalin's seventieth birthday.

G. I. in Germany Seized

He Is Accused of Shooting Boy in Argument Over Girls

STUTTGART, Germany, Jan. 2 (AP).—The United States Army announced today that Private Norman B. Smith, of Savannah Beach, Ga., is under arrest on charges of shooting and wounding a German boy.

The Army announcement said Private Smith and another soldier made advances to two German girls, who repulsed them. When a young brother of one of the girls refused to lead them to the girls' home, the announcement related, one of the soldiers, according to witnesses, fired four shots, wounding the German boy in the thigh.

The Army withheld the name of the other soldier pending further investigation.

Austrian Socialists Assail Russians On Oil

Vienna, Jan. 2 (AP)—The Austrian Socialist party charged tonight that Russian methods have cut Austria's annual oil production from 950,000 tons to 800,000.

The party's press service, usually well informed on all industrial matters, said "antiquated and unskilled" methods used by the Russians also are cutting the quality of the oil produced.

The party further charged that Russia is exporting 500,000 tons of oil each year without paying Austria even the freight charges. Austria is left with less than half that amount, which means this country must pay dollars for oil imported from the United States.

Ex-Czech Leader To Die As Spy

JAN 3 1950

Prague, Jan. 2 (AP)—A former leading Czech politician has been sentenced to death and his wife to 25 years in prison following their conviction on charges of spying for the United States, the Slovak newspaper Pravda reported yesterday.

The newspaper said the condemned man, Karol Folta, former member of Parliament and leader of the now-outlawed Slovak Democratic party, was one of 32 persons arrested as spies last November 9.

Four other defendants were reported sentenced to from 11 to 25 years on similar charges.

The newspaper account of the secret trial in Bratislava said that Folta organized the spy ring under direction of another former member of the Czech Parliament, Michal Zibrin, now exiled and in the American zone of Germany. Zibrin was termed an "American spy and agent."

1945 China-Red Pact Stands, Mao Asserts

Eddy Gilmore

JAN 3 1950

Moscow, Jan. 2 (AP)—Communist China's Mao Tze-tung revealed today that the Chinese-Soviet friendship alliance of 1945 still is in force.

Answering a question from a correspondent of the Russian news agency Tass, the head of Communist China's Government said one of the main reasons he presently is visiting Moscow is the "existing treaty of friendship and alliance between China and the U.S.S.R."

Mao, as quoted, did not say what he planned to do about the 30-year treaty signed in August, 1945, by the Russians and Chiang Kai-shek's Nationalist Government, which the Soviets no longer recognize.

Also To Discuss Trade

Tass quoted the Chinese Communist leader as saying other matters to be settled during his visit were Soviet credits for his People's Republic of China and "the question of trade and a trade agreement between our countries."

Mao arrived in Moscow on December 15 on his first known trip outside China. The trip already has aroused speculation that the visit would result in a friendship treaty between the two Communist governments.

Moscow Radio said Mao's statements were made in answer to questions put to him by Tass. In his answers, according to the broadcast, Mao said the length of his stay in Moscow would depend on how long it took to settle questions of interest to his Government.

Mentions Military Gains

With military affairs going so well for the Chinese Communists, Mao said, the Peiping Government now is turning its attention to "peaceful, economic construction."

The 1945 Chinese-Soviet treaty was accompanied by other important agreements between the two governments, including protocols regulating use of the Changchun railway and the important Manchurian ports of Port Arthur and Dairen.

Manchuria, Singkiang Affected

The notes exchanged also included an agreement on Chinese sovereignty over Manchuria and Sinkiang.

The Port Authur protocol called for joint use of the port by China and the Soviet Union, with only those two nations to use its facilities for naval-base purposes. Russia also obtained the right to maintain army, navy and air force units there.

The Dairen protocol recognized that shipping center as a free port, open to trade and shipping of all countries.

Ship Crew Reported Set To Run China Blockade

JAN 3 1950

Hong Kong, Jan. 2 (AP)—A spokesman for the Isbrandtsen Line in Hong Kong said today that a majority of the crew of the freighter Flying Arrow agreed to take the ship into blockaded Shanghai.

Only one man, an engineer, is expected to leave the ship, the spokesman said. He said all others are "indignant over false reports that the crew would not take the Flying Arrow into Shanghai."

A United States Consulate spokesman said the State Department had authorized the consulate to approve the signing off of any crew members who wished to quit, but that they first would have to satisfy both the consulate and Hong Kong authorities that they had transportation home.

Line Not Responsible

He said that shipping regulations do not hold the line responsible for paying passages home.

The consulate spokesman added that only two or three have so far signified that they wish to leave the ship.

The Flying Arrow's National Maritime Union ship delegate, Paul Joseph, said it was true that not one man on board was anxious to run the Chinese Nationalist blockade into the Communist port.

[In Taipeh, Formosa, a Nationalist Navy official said today that the mining of coastal waters has been completed "with considerable effectiveness."

"Bigger Force" On Guard

[He said the Nationalists sent a "bigger force" to watch the mouth of the Yangtze River off Shanghai for blockade runners. He warned that foreign vessels proceeded at "great risk" if they did not heed Nationalist warnings of the mining and blockade.]

Joseph said: "We are members of the National Maritime Union and will not break our contract or shipping articles by refusing to carry out our agreement."

Would Like To Quit

A majority of the crew said they would like to sign off the ship in Hong Kong if they could do so legally.

The crew was to meet tonight to consider the statement of Joseph Curran, UMW president, in New York, that they had a right to be paid off and given passage home.

Five officers of the ship sent reassuring cables to their families in the United States, saying news reports that they were being held on ship at gun point or by force were false.

Capt. David Jones, master of the ship, said there was only one revolver aboard.

FLYING ARROW DELAYS SAILING

Stand Of U.S. Crew In Doubt In Voyage To Shanghai

Hong Kong, Jan. 2 (AP) — The American freighter Flying Arrow's scheduled sailing for mine-threatened Communist Shanghai was postponed tonight to January 5, with the attitude of the uneasy crew still open to debate.

A spokesman for the Isbrandtsen Line, ship owners, said none of the crew had signed off and the majority had given assurances they would make the voyage. He said one assistant engineer might leave but the others were "indignant over false reports" that they would refuse to sail to Shanghai.

A spokesman for the United States consulate said, however, the State Department had sent instructions to authorize signing-off any who wished—provided they could satisfy the consulate and Hong Kong authorities that they had passage home. He said two or three had signified they desired to quit rather than risk the mines which the Chinese Nationalists say have been planted outside Shanghai.

One Revolver Aboard

Paul Joseph, National Maritime Union delegate in the crew, agreed with the Isbrandtsen spokesman that local newspaper reports were erroneous in saying the crew would refuse to sail. Joseph added that nobody aboard was eager to make the trip.

Joseph Curran, maritime union president, said in New York that the crew had the right to demand to be paid off and given passage home. The consulate spokesman said, however, there was no legal provision making the Isbrandtsen Line responsible for paying passages home.

Scoffing at a report that the crew was being required to make the trip by "force of arms," Capt. David Jones, of Chicago, said there was only one revolver aboard. He noted that the crew gets bonus pay for the risks taken and that only a bare minimum will be in exposed positions upon entering the Yangtze estuary.

The Chinese Nationalists, who have been blockading the Communists coast since last summer, announced, meanwhile, that mining of coastal waters had been completed "with a considerable degree of effectiveness."

Dispute Centers On Airlines

It was recalled, however, that one mining scare proved false shortly after the Reds captured Shanghai last May.

Another offshoot of China's civil war that involved Americans was the legal fight over ownership of two Chinese airlines. Claire L. Chennault, retired American major general who claims ownership of the lines, plans to file a new action in Hong Kong Court for possession of the properties of the Chinese National Aviation Corporation and Central Air Transport Corporation.

Chennault's attorney said the action would be in the name of "C.A.T., Inc.," a newly formed Delaware corporation. Chennault formerly operated his Civil Air Transport line as a Chinese company.

The Communists in November laid claim to the C.N.A.C. and C.A.T.C. lines as Chinese Government property. Rival injunctions have since tied up the properties in Hong Kong, total value being estimated at $30,000,000.

Last month Chennault announced he had acquired title to both C.N.A.C. and C.A.T.C., but the Hong Kong Court refused to let him intervene as an individual. A Chennault spokesman said the new court action as an American corporation would be pressed by William Donovan, New York attorney and wartime head of the Office of Strategic Services. He said Donovan was due in Hong Kong Tuesday.

Chennault Suit Due To Regain Airlines

Hong Kong, Jan. 2 (AP)—Retired United States Maj. Gen. Claire L. Chennault, heading a new American corporation, wil try through a suit tomorrow to prove ownership of China's two largest airlines impounded here by the British.

His American attorney, Richard Hepner, said action would be brought in a Hong Kong court. The two lines, China National Aviation Corporation and Central Air Transport Corporation, are claimed by Chennault and pro-Communist employés of the lines.

Hepner said both lines have been registered with the American Civil Aeronautical Administration.

A spokesman said Chennault's newly formed Civilian Transport, Inc., a Delaware corporation, acquired the Chinese Nationalist Government's interest in both lines and Pan American Airway's twenty per cent interest in C.N.A.C.

'Russ' Fly Daily Over Okinawa: Report

Tokyo, Jan. 2 (AP)—Unidentified reconnaissance planes—believed to be Russian—fly over the Ryukyus Islands almost daily but disappear before American interceptors can take after them, a Red Cross man said today.

Ferdinand Micklautz, special field representative of the American Red Cross, said "it is general knowledge" that the reconnaissance planes operate practically without interference over Okinawa. He recently returned to Tokyo after seven weeks on the big American base island.

An air force duty officer said he was not at liberty to comment on Micklautz's report and could make no statement except through public information office channels.

Planes Leave Vapor Trails

Top officers were unavailable for comment, but in the past, reports that Russian planes have been seen over Okinawa brought prompt denials.

"You can see vapor trails in the sky about 40,000 feet up," Micklautz said. "The interceptors take off after them, but they are gone before the interceptors can get off the ground. Shanghai is only 400 miles from Naha, you know."

Naha is the capital of Okinawa, main United States base in the Ryukyus, which curve like a giant scimitar from southern Japan toward Formosa and the Chinese Communist mainland.

Officially Unidentified

Micklautz said identity of the planes has not been determined officially as far as he knows, but, he added, "everybody knows they are Russian; who else out here has such aircraft?"

The Red Cross man also said pirate surface vessels are active in the southern Ryukyus, some even entering ports for provisions and to trade. He said some are captured, disarmed and set free again for lack of manpower or facilities to do otherwise.

Micklautz said his mission in the Ryukyus was to help organize the Okinawa Interim Welfare Association. It handles public welfare on a local level and after Okinawa's future status is determined will become some form of Red Cross organization.

Red Planes Snooping at Okinawa, Relief Worker on Island Reports

TOKYO, Jan. 2 — (AP) An American Red Cross man newly returned from Okinawa said today that unidentified planes believed to be Russian fly almost daily over that United States air base 350 miles southwest of Japan.

"You can see vapor trails in the sky about 40,000 feet up," said Gerdinand Micklautz, Red Cross field representative who spent seven weeks on Okinawa.

"Interceptors take off after them but they are gone before the interceptors can get off the ground."

In an interview, he said the reconnaissance operations were "general knowledge" on Okinawa, adding the remark that Communist-held Shanghai "is only 400 miles away."

Micklautz said that while identity of the snoopers had not been officially established, "everybody knows they are Russian. Who else out here has such aircraft?"

An Air Force spokesman said later:

"Interceptor planes are stationed on Okinawa for the purpose of intercepting all unidentified planes sighted and forcing them down if necessary to obtain satisfactory identification, but there have been no such incidents in recent weeks."

There was no further comment or explanation officially.

Micklautz said his mission in the Ryukyo Archipelago, of which Okinawa is the main island, was to help organize an interim public welfare association. He plans to return there shortly for a six-month stay.

APPEAL AIMED AT NEW GUINEA

Soekarno Demands Dutch Area Join Indonesia This Year

Jakarta, United States of Indonesia, Jan. 2 (AP)—President Soekarno declared tonight New Guinea "must" come into the United States of Indonesia before the end of 1950.

This statement appeared to be part of a campaign to wrest the western part of the island from the Netherlands. The other part is administered by Australia under a United Nations trusteeship.

"Before the sun sets on the year 1950," said Soekarno, "New Guinea must come into the U.S.I."

He was repeating the Indonesian claim in Dutch New Guinea before several hundred Moslem leaders at an observance of Mohammed's birthday, in the presidential palace. The Hague agreement providing for the independence of Indonesia left the status of New Guinea to be established.

Await Exploitation

Soekarno called on Moslems and Christians alike to work together to build a strong Indonesia. He said work and self-confidence were necessary to reach the goal the new nation has set for itself.

Earlier, in a New Year's broadcast, Soekarno said Indonesia's riches awaited exploitation and the country was "open for all those who desire to work for development of the country and will respect the measures the country will take for the benefit of the workers."

His speech was greeted by foreign circles who had feared the new independent government would take over Dutch concerns and forbid foreign investments.

Oil, Rubber Lead Exports

The chief exports of Indonesia, which took over sovereignty from the Dutch on December 27, are oil, rubber, tin, lead, coffee, quinine and spices.

For the time being the U.S.I. will have a dual currency, with both Indonesian guilders and rupias of the former rebel republic acceptable.

The Ministry of Finance announced "as soon as possible, every facility will be made available" to exchange the rupias for federal guilders at a rate of exchange still to be fixed.

Indonesia Beckons Foreign Capital

Jakarta, Batavia, U.S.I., Jan. 2 (AP)—President Soekarno has given foreign investors a modified invitation to do business in the new United States of Indonesia.

Soekarno in a New Year's broadcast said Indonesia's riches awaited exploitation and his country was "open for all those who desire to work for development of the country and will respect the measures the country will take for the benefit of the workers."

Indonesia's business and industry in the past have been largely in Dutch hands. Soekarno's speech was welcomed by foreign circles who had feared that the new native Government would take over Dutch concerns and ban foreign investments.

Soekarno emphasized, however, that the Government which took power December 27 when the country became independent "has accepted the principle of guaranteeing favorable labor conditions."

ARAB SECURITY PACT DELAYED

King Abdullah Of Jordan Ends Visit To Iraq

Baghdad, Iraq, Jan. 2 (AP)—King Abdullah of Jordan concluded a five-day visit to the sister kingdom of Iraq today with an interview in which he declared the projected Arab collective security pact had been postponed.

No official statement was issued following what was called here an "unofficial" visit to Prince Regent Abdul Ilah. Consequently there was no mention of the subjects discussed.

Wishes "All Good For Syria"

The Jordan King told the Baghdad newspaper Alzaman, however, that "were I to believe that Arabs would accept my advice I would advise Iraq and Jordan to be as always united in brotherhood, hope and action."

He added that he wished "all good for Syria." The proposed union of Syria and Iraq, together with Abdullah's dream of a Greater Syria embodying Syria, Jordan, Iraq and Palestine is reported to have contributed to recent government upsets in Syria.

The King said he did not want to "destroy anything of the Arab League, but I find that the Arab League did not work toward the realization of its aims and objects."

Col. Anwar Bannoud Appointed as Staff Chief in Damascus

DAMASCUS, Syria, Jan. 2 (AP). Colonel Anwar Bannoud was appointed Acting Chief of Staff of the Syrian Army today. He succeeds General Sami Hennawi, who was imprisoned by a group of his fellow officers on Dec. 19, accused of conspiring against the regime he established.

General Hennawi had led a military coup last August in which President Husni Zatim, also once the Army's Chief of Staff, was assassinated. General Hennawi still is in prison, but he was placed on pension today and there are reports he may be released soon.

General Abdullah Affteh, who was Mr. Zatim's predecessor as Army Chief of Staff and Minister of Defense under Mr. Zatim, also was put on pension today.

Four Are Reported Dead In India Disturbance

Bombay, India, Jan. 2 (AP)—The Socialist party's central headquarters here said today it had received a report from Rewa that four persons were killed and 26 injured in police firing there. Rewa is in the north, not far from Lucknow and Cawnpore.

The party has called a general strike in Rewa to protest the merger of Rewa with the united provinces of Vindhya Pradesh, the post-independence union of princely states. The Indian Government decided to abolish its provincial status because of corruption.

At Madras, on the Bay of Bengal, persons identified by police as Communists threw bombs at two crowded streetcars, injuring twelve passengers. In another incident there, a concealed bomb exploded in a man's trouser pocket during a scuffle. He was severely hurt.

Thousaids cheered him on his way from the airport to the palace, throwing flowers and candy toward him.

Moshe Sharett On Jerusalem

Jerusalem, Jan. 2 (AP)—Moshe Sharett, Israeli Foreign Minister, told the Hebrew Knesset (Parliament) today that "Jerusalem's position as the capital of Israel is being constantly strengthened."

He said he does not foresee any possibility of any serious United Nations effort to implement its internationalization resolution to give Jerusalem international rule.

Sharett, who faced the Knesset for the first time in this parliamentary seat of Government since his return from Lake Success, N.Y., said the United Nations resolution to internationalize Jerusalem was "unrealistic and irresponsible."

Assured By Russians

He asserted that the decision to internationalize the Holy City was a "blow not only to Israel but to the United Nations itself, as the United Nations vote was against historic justice as well as hard fact."

Sharett expressed "doubt whether anyone could be found the world over who would agree to become the United Nations governor of Jerusalem without any power to rule against the will of its citizens."

Sharett said the Israeli delegation to the United Nations had been assured by the Russian delegate that the Soviet vote for internationalization of Jerusalem did not affect its attitude toward Israel generally. Assurances to the same effect, he said, were received also from several South American countries who voted for internationalization.

Debate On Foreign Policy

Sharett's speech was followed by a debate on foreign policy, during which spokesmen for the extreme left and right parties expressed opposition to continuing peace talks with King Abdullah of Jordan.

The left-wing Mapam again advocated setting up an independent Arab state in Arab Palestine instead of recognizing Abdullah's action in annexing that area to Jordan.

The right-wing Herut party accused the Government of turning the clock back by recognizing Abdullah's rule in the old city of Jerusalem and large sections of Palestine. Herut contended that Jordan is a virtual dependency of Britain, and recognition of Jordan's right to be in Palestine would result in return of British forces.

Burmese Red Leader Killed At His Wedding

Rangoon, Jan. 2 (AP)—A Communist leader, Bo Seik, was playing a game of hide-and-seek with Burmese troops. Bo Seik wanted to celebrate his marriage. He tidied up his jungle hide-out, prepared a feast.

Then he summoned his friends and the forest glade echoed music and laughter as the Red leader, his bride and their guests sang and danced. At the height of the festivities, the Government troops burst in upon the scene.

The rebel reached for his gun. He was beaten to the draw. For the bridegroom there was death. For the bride, mourning.

CAN'T ALLOW REDS TO SEIZE ISLAND, GOP LEADERS SAY

Must Erect 'Wall in Pacific' Against Communism, Ex-President Asserts

Warns Strong Policy Needed to Safeguard America's Security

WASHINGTON, Jan. 2 — (AP)

Use of American armed forces if necessary to keep Formosa out of Chinese Communists' hands was advocated today by former President Herbert Hoover and Senator Taft (R.-Ohio).

They contended such a policy is needed to safeguard this country's own security.

Hoover said the United States not only should use its naval power to protect the big island stronghold but also lesser islands which Chiang Kai-shek's forces are seeking to defend along the South China coast.

He declared such a step would help erect a "wall against communism in the Pacific" and offer a "continued hope of some time turning China in the paths of freedom again."

Taft Also Urges Aid

In the wake of that appeal Senator Taft told a news conference that the administration should consider immediately establishing air and naval bases on Formosa.

He declared that such a move should be taken through the United Nations, but that if the UN did not approve "then we should act on our own."

"If we have the Nationalists' approval," he said, "then there would be no difficulty about the legality of the move."

President Truman is reported to have decided against use of U. S. armed forces to safeguard Formosa, but this matter is expected to come up for further review after the joint chiefs of staff confer with Gen. Douglas MacArthur in Japan next month.

Hoover, the nation's only living ex-president, said he believes strongly the United States should:

1. Use American naval power if neecsary to safeguard Formosa, the Pescadores and possibly Hainan islands. The Pescadores are small islands between Formosa and the Chinese mainland. Hainan is a large island off the south China coast east of French Indo-China.

2. Refuse recognition to the Chinese communist regime.

3. Continue recognition and support of Chiang Kai-shek's nationalist government.

Hoover disclosed his views in a letter released by Senator Knowland (R-Calif), a bitter critic of administration policy in China and the Far East.

Knowland told reporters the State Department has failed to give the press and the public all the facts about the Formosa situation. He said the nationalist government already has made an official request both for U. S. military aid and advice in defending Formosa.

Hoover wrote from his Waldorf-Astoria Towers residence in New York City in response to a request from Knowland for his views on the China situation.

He said "there is merit in the contention that the continuous pressures upon the anti-communist nationalist government of China, beginning in 1943, to take the communists into that government contributed to the breakdown of prestige and strength of Chiang Kai-shek, and the encouragement of Mao Tse-tung," the Chinese communist leader.

But the question remains, Hoover added, what is to be done next? He listed seven reasons why the U. S. government should follow his recommendations.

Lists 7 Reasons for Stand

1. To build a wall against communism in the Pacific.

2. For the defense of Japan and the Philippines.

3. To prevent Chinese legations and consulates in the United States and other countries "becoming nests of communist conspiracies."

4. To prevent a Red China becoming a permanent member of the United Nations Security Council "with its dangerous implications to that body."

5. To avoid the dangers of Chinese communists helping write a peace treaty for Japan.

6. To lay the basis for saving southeastern Asia by maintaining "at least a symbol of resistance" to communism.

7. To give "at least a continued hope of some time turning China in the paths of freedom again."

Senate Democratic leaders refused to make any immediate comment on the Hoover letter, written last Saturday. They apparently were waiting for word from the White House on details of the China policy to be pursued by the administration.

Roving Ambassador Philip Jessup is enroute to the Far East to make a study for the State Department. His report is expected to be a strong influence in any new policy.

Situation Urgent, Knowland Says

Senator Knowland declared the China and Formosa situation is "urgent now."

"The patient is sick," he said, "and needs oxygen and penicillin. Sending over an expert on Far Eastern affairs on a slow boat to China, or sending the joint chiefs of staff a month from now might result in a post mortem rather than a consultation to help the patient."

Knowland said the administration has funds which could be used immediately for military and economic aid to the nationalist forces.

"The administration seems determined to wait until the dust settles," Knowland said, "but it has settled sufficiently for Congress and the people to see the debacle which has taken place in Asia. It jeopardizes the future peace of the world."

Knowland challenged a statement by a State Department official that "no formal request" has been made for the U. S. to send advisers to Formosa.

Michael J. McDermott, State Department press officer, told reporters last Friday that he knew of no such formal request although there had been "approaches from various sources."

Knowland said this was an "inaccurate statement." He said an official request was made on or about Dec. 23 by the nationalist government of China for both advice and military aid.

Chiang Kai-shek and all the other non-communist leaders have said they are willing to accept aid supervised by the United States," Knowland said. "But it was the State Department which resisted proposals last year for supervised aid."

Truman Against Using Troops In Formosa

JAN 3 1950

Washington, Jan. 2 (AP)—President Truman is reported standing pat against any use of American troops to try to block Communists from the island of Formosa.

It is understood, however, that such a decision would not preclude continued economic help and political support, as well as advisory assistance, to Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek in his fight against expected Communist attempts to take over the island stronghold of the Chinese Nationalists.

Mr. Truman's reaffirmation of his stand against the use of American troops in Formosa is said to have been made during a meeting of the National Security Council Thursday. Mr. Truman presided over the meeting at the White House.

No Change Reported

Responsible informants said the Council made no change in the American attitude toward Formosa despite many demands from members of Congress that the United States should, in effect, place the island under the protection of American forces.

There were rumors that some congressmen had proposed that the President seek a deal with Chiang whereby Americans would take over air bases on the island in exchange for limited United States military aid.

Senator Connally (D., Texas), chairman of the Senate Foreign Affairs Committee, said last night that he had heard of these reports. He had no further comment.

Senator Knowland (R., Cal.) said he had not even heard of the reported proposal. Knowland, a champion of support for Nationalist China, recently visited Formosa.

Potential Link

He and other congressmen have pointed out that the island is a potential link in an American Pacific defense chain against possible Communist aggression.

Formosa has a number of first-class airfields which were taken over from the Japanese. Military experts say planes from these fields could destroy Clark Air Force Base in the Philippines as the Japanese did in 1941. Formosa based aircraft also could bomb United States air installations on Okinawa.

A report from Tokyo today said that General MacArthur and his top military planners believe the United States should make every practicable effort to prevent the Chinese Communists from capturing Formosa.

However, the report did not say MacArthur has even talked about direct involvement of American forces.

Based On Two Points

The Administration opposition to the use of troops is understood to be based on two points. One is the State Department argument that such action could be criticized throughout the Far East as an imperialist move and thus cost this nation greatly in influence.

The other point is that the joint chiefs of staff have ruled that Formosa is not of sufficient strategic importance to warrant the use of American forces in holding it, although it is important enough to try to save by other means.

U.S. Foreign Aid Since 1945 Put At 30 Billions

Billion and a Half Laid Out Since September; Cut Held Likely This Year

WASHINGTON, Jan. 2 (AP).—The United States has laid out nearly $30,000,000,000 in post-war aid to foreign nations, a Commerce Department report showed tonight. This amounts to $200 for every man, woman and child in this country.

From mid-1945 through last September, the government put up $28,187,000,000, including $3,385,000,000 subscribed to the World Bank and Monetary Fund in addition to $24,802,000,000 in aid furnished directly to foreign countries.

Outlays in the last three months should at least equal the $1,446,000,000-a-quarter rate of the July-August-September period of 1949, the department added. The outflow in that quarter was, however, one-seventh below the previous (April-May-June) quarter. Foreign aid spending passed its peak in mid-1949.

Further reductions are scheduled for the fiscal year beginning July 1. President Truman's budget proposals will call for a reduction, and some Congressmen have called for additional cutting.

The Commerce Department report broke down foreign aid outlays in the third quarter of 1949 into $1,370,000,000 in grants, which mainly are "outright donations of the United States government" but sometimes carry indefinite conditions and "terms of recovery . . . pending future settlement;" and $76,000,000 in loans or credits for which repayment of principal with interest is stipulated.

Marshall plan aid, which is scheduled to pass its crest this fiscal year, accounted for $1,136,000,000, or more than 70 per cent of total foreign aid in the third quarter of 1949.

The Western European countries participating in the Marshall plan got 80 per cent of the quarter's total aid because some of them also got help under other aid programs. Germany was second only to Great Britain in amount of aid received during the quarter. Japan was fourth, right behind France. Great Brtain's share was $272,000,000, Germany's $232,000,000, France's $173,000,000, and Japan's $158,000,000.

Military Plane Parts Denied Yugoslavia

JAN 3 1950

Washington, Jan. 2 (AP)—Yugoslavia is buying American aircraft engines and equipment of commercial design, but the United States Government has turned down "at this time" a Yugoslav bid for military-type engines.

Export licenses already have been issued for used aircraft engines, tires, radios, hydraulic equipment and spare parts.

United States officials who made these disclosures yesterday added that the rejection of the request for military shipments should not be taken to mean the United States is uninterested in bolstering Yugoslavia against possible attack from Russia.

Have Civil-Aviation Pact

This nation recently signed a civil-aviation agreement with Yugoslavia. Also, President Truman made it plain through Ambassador George Allen that the United States would view aggression against the Balkan country as seriously as it did that against any other nation.

Since Communist Yugoslavia's break with the Cominform, the United States has followed a policy of extending limited but strictly nonmilitary aid to Marshal Tito.

Officials said that, although the decision to permit the export of aircraft parts denotes a liberalization of United States policy toward Yugoslavia, military shipments cannot be permitted "at this time."

Air Route Expansion Expected

With the equipment it does receive Yugoslavia is expected to expand its present air route beyond Zurich, Switzerland, to Paris, London and possibly Amsterdam and Scandinavia.

Diplomatic officials point out that the Yugoslavs also could use increased air strength to push Russian satellite airliners out of the air over their territory.

A Hungarian-Russian airline is reported using a route over Yugoslavia to ferry out of Albania guerrillas who fled there from Greece. It is said that these forces are being concentrated in Czechoslovakia, Poland and Hungary where they might be used in an attack against Marshal Tito.

Woodrow Wilson Is 50-Year Choice

Washington, Jan. 2 (AP)—The United States News and World Report, weekly news magazine, has picked former President Woodrow Wilson as "the man of the half century."

The choice was based on Wilson's "decisive influence upon the course of world affairs."

"The fateful heroism of Woodrow Wilson transcends the claims that may be offered in behalf of anyone else," the magazine said in a copyright article.

The magazine cited America's entry into World War I under Wilson's leadership, his war message calling for conscription of manpower, his insistence on a unified command among the World War I Allies and his work for the League of Nations. It added:

"It was Woodrow Wilson who gave the world an international conscience. . . . If the course of history is to be influenced in the future by some form of world government or world discipline or by some formula of collective security, the ideals for which Woodrow Wilson gave his life must be viewed as the ideals of the century."

Minnesotan Seeks U.S. Help To Save Brother

JAN 3 1950

Minneapolis, Jan. 2 (AP)—A Minneapolis cafe owner appealed today to Senator Hubert H. Humphrey (D., Minn.) in an effort to avert the execution of his younger brother in Czechoslovakia as an American spy.

Andrew Folta said he is appealing to the Senator to see whether the United States Government can intervene to halt the death sentence of his brother, Karol, 43.

He said that Karol was a former leader of the outlawed Slovak Democratic party. Announcement that Communists have sentenced him to death was made Sunday by the Prague newspaper Pravda.

Lie Calls For World Use Of U.N.

JAN 3 1950

Lake Success, N.Y., Jan. 2 (AP)—Trygve Lie, United Nations secretary-general, said tonight the world must act through the United Nations to lessen world tension and prevent atomic destruction.

In an article in the magazine Scientific American, Lie said that progress toward settling any of the East-West differences, either inside or outside the United Nations, would make it less difficult to settle major difficulties.

He said he believed the world enters the year 1950 with a somewhat better chance of making progress toward a settlement than has existed at any time since the first part of 1947.

Immediate Results Unlikely

"We should be careful not to place our hopes too high," he said, "but in recent months there have been signs of a returning spirit of negotiation and of efforts at adjustment."

Lie said it is important that the East and West are resuming this year negotiations on the problem of atomic energy. But he cautioned that the world must not expect important immediate results.

"Every action of the United Nations that contributes to the lessening of tension between East and West, that increases confidence and develops the processes for the peaceful settlement of disputes among all nations, that extends the area of organized international cooperation, will help to prevent atomic destruction and to insure the use of atomic energy for peaceful progress," Lie said. "This is the road we must travel."

"There Is No Short Cut"

"Recent developments in atomic energy have once against brought home the lesson that real security from war can be attained only on a universal, world-wide basis through the United Nations," he continued. "There is no possible substitute and there is no short cut. This means we must concentrate our efforts on making the United Nations work more effectively in the world that exists, not in the world as we might like to have it.

"It will be necessary to pay less attention to the many things that divide us and more attention to those that unite us. We must search unceasingly for the utmost in presently attainable political agreement, knowing that one step can lead to another and that realistic progress toward world peace in this way is better than either chasing mirages or sitting down and giving up."

New York, Jan. 2 (AP)—Lone Liang, former Chinese ambassador to Czechoslovakia, arrived today en route to Washington, where he is to report to the Chinese Embassy for a new assignment. He arrived on the liner Media.

Liang said he had no idea what his new assignment would be. He said that if his new post is in the Western Hemisphere he would remain here until reporting, otherwise he would go to China shortly.

Liang said the Chinese people did not favor the Communist movement. He said the Communist Government would experience administrative and economic difficulties.

"When that happens I believe the Chinese people will get rid of the government," he said. "They are pretty good at that, you know."

THE LONDON TIMES, DAILY TELEGRAPH AND MANCHESTER GUARDIAN ALL WARNED EDITORIALLY OF POSSIBLE ADVERSE EFFECTS SHOULD THE UNITED STATES AID IN DEFENDING FORMOSA WHILE BRITAIN BACKED THE PEIPING REDS.

"HAVING WASHED HER HANDS OF CHIANG, SHE (THE UNITED STATES) IS NOW UNWASHING THEM. IT IS THE OLD TROUBLE OF TRYING TO UNSCRAMBLE AN OMELETTE," SAID THE MANCHESTER GUARDIAN.

"BRITAIN AND THE UNITED STATES WOULD FIND THEMSELVES RECOGNIZING OPPOSITE SIDES IN A SQUALID AND USELESS STRUGGLE IN THE CHINA SEA," SAID THE TIMES.

THE CONSERVATIVE DAILY TELEGRAPH DESCRIBED AMERICAN POLICY TOWARD CHINA AS "VACILLATING AND IMPRECISE", AND ONE WHICH MIGHT STRAIN FUTURE BRITISH-AMERICAN RELATIONS.

THE MANCHESTER GUARDIAN, MOST CRITICAL OF THE THREE NEWSPAPERS, SAID "THIS NEW DECISION OVER CHINA IS A RESULT OF DOMESTIC POLITICS. THERE CAN BE UNDERSTOOD AND THERE IS NO USE COMPLAINING. BUT NONE THE LESS THE ACTION IN FORMOSA IS DEPLORABLE."

"IT IS RARE FOR A GOVERNMENT TO REPEAT ITS MISTAKES SO EXACTLY AND QUICKLY AS MR. TRUMAN'S ADMINISTRATION HAS NOW DONE."

THE GUARDIAN SAID THE AMERICANS' BASIC ERROR IN CHINA WAS "TO BACK THE KUOMINTANG, BUT ONLY HALF-HEARTEDLY, SO THAT ITS SUPPORT WAS NOT ENOUGH TO PREVENT THE KUOMINTANG'S DEFEAT.

"NOW WHEN THE KUOMINTANG HAS LOST EVERYTHING AND WHEN THE LAST MINUTE HAS GONE FOR IT TO BE RESUSCITATED, THE UNITED STATES SUDDENLY CHOOSES TO ALTER AGAIN HER CHINA POLICY AND TO BACK CHIANG KAI-SHEK."

THE GUARDIAN ADDED THAT THE UNITED STATES HAD DECIDED ON THIS NEW POLICY WITHOUT CONSULTING BRITAIN, "ALTHOUGH EACH COUNTRY HAD AGREED TO INFORM THE OTHER OF ANY MOVE IT WAS MEDITATING IN THE FAR EAST."

THE TIMES SAID "IT IS EXTREMELY DOUBTFUL WHETHER ANY OTHER GOVERNMENT OR ANY OTHER POLICY COULD HAVE DONE BETTER" THAN THE AMERICANS DID IN CHINA, BUT ADDED:

"IT IS A LITTLE DISTURBING, HOWEVER, WHEN THIS POLICY HAS FAILED AND WHEN THE TIME HAS CLEARLY COME FOR THE WESTERN POWERS TO RECONSIDER THEIR WHOLE POLICY IN THE FAR EAST, TO FIND THE UNITED STATES ONCE AGAIN ACTING IMPULSIVELY AND IN OBEDIENCE TO WHAT MAY BEST BE CALLED REFLEX ACTION."

A FOREIGN OFFICE SPOKESMAN TOLD A NEWS CONFERENCE THERE STILL WAS NO ANNOUNCEMENT ON THE DATE OF BRITISH RECOGNITION OF RED CHINA.

HE DECLINED COMMENT ON A STATEMENT BY U.S. REPRESENTATIVE JAMES FULTON (R-PA) THAT RECOGNITION WOULD BE ANNOUNCED JANUARY 9. THAT IS THE DATE FOREIGN SECRETARY ERNEST BEVIN AND OTHER COMMONWEALTH FOREIGN MINISTERS OPEN A CONFERENCE IN CEYLON ON POLITICAL, ECONOMIC AND OTHER STRATEGY IN COMBATTING COMMUNISM IN SOUTHEAST ASIA.

ASKED IF THE APPARENT REBUFF OF THE PEIPING GOVERNMENT TO BURMA'S OFFER OF RECOGNITION WOULD AFFECT THE BRITISH TIMING, HE REPLIED, "I DO NOT THINK SO."

BURMA RECOGNIZED THE PEIPING REGIME ON DEC. 17, BUT 12 DAYS LATER COMMUNIST CHINA'S FOREIGN MINISTER, CHOU-EN-LAI, SAID HIS GOVERNMENT WOULD BE PLEASED TO RECEIVE BURMESE REPRESENTATIVES TO NEGOTIATE FOR ESTABLISHMENT OF RELATIONS. HE SAID BURMA WOULD HAVE TO SEVER RELATIONS WITH "REMNANTS OF THE KUOMINTANG REACTIONARIES."

AUTHORITIES SAID MOORE HAD ARRIVED IN JAPAN ONLY A FEW DAYS BEFORE JOINING COMPANY C OF THE 720TH MILITARY POLICE BATTALION DEC.21.
THE 18 YEAR OLD SOLDIER WAS THE SON OF MR.AND MRS.WILLIAM GRADY MOORE, (74 LACKAWANNA AVE.,) EAST STROUDSBURG.
MOORE SHOT 19-YEAR-OLD HIROKO ITO TO DEATH IN HER HOME AND FLED IN A RICKSHAW. HE FIRED AT A JAPANESE POLICEMAN, AKIO YAJIMA, BUT THE BULLET WAS DEFLECTED BY A PEN AND PENCIL IN THE POLICEMAN'S POCKET AND INFLICTED ONLY A FLESH WOUND. ANOTHER SHOT FATALLY WOUNDED A PASSERBY, KIHEI GOTO.
MOORE THEN WENT TO THE REAR DOOR OF THE PROVOST MARSHALL'S OFFICE, WENT TO THE DESK AND SHOUTED: "WHAT'S THE MATTER WITH YOU M.P.'S? CAN'T YOU FIND A MURDERER?"
HE PUT HIS PISTOL TO HIS TEMPLE AND FIRED. HE DIED IN THE RECEIVING ROOM OF TOKYO GENERAL HOSPITAL.

SYDNEY, JAN. 2-(AP)-AUSTRALIA'S NEW MINISTER FOR EXTERNAL AFFAIRS, PERCY C. SPENDER, SAID TODAY AUSTRALIA AND THE UNITED STATES CAN DO MOST TO STABILIZE AND DEVELOP SOUTHEAST ASIA.

SPENDER SUCCEEDED DR. HERBERT V. EVATT AS EXTERNAL AFFAIRS MINISTER AFTER THE LABOR PARTY DEFEAT IN THE GENERAL ELECTION DEC. 10.

SPENDER IS LEAVING TONIGHT BY AIR FOR JAKARTA (BATAVIA), CAPITAL OF THE NEW UNITED STATES OF INDONESIA. HE WILL SPEND SEVERAL DAYS THERE BEFORE GOING ON TO THE MEETING OF BRITISH COMMONWEALTH FOREIGN MINISTERS WHICH BEGINS JAN. 9 IN CEYLON.

AUSTRALIA AND THE UNITED STATES, SPENDER TOLD REPORTERS, "ARE THE TWO COUNTRIES WHICH CAN, IN COOPERATION, MAKE THE GREATEST CONTRIBUTION TO STABILITY AND DEMOCRATIC DEVELOPMENT OF THE COUNTRIES OF SOUTHEAST ASIA."

HIS OWN COUNTRY, HE SAID, SHOULD MAKE ITS PRIMARY FOREIGN RELATIONS EFFORT IN ASIA AND THE PACIFIC.

IN HIS FIRST STATEMENT OF FOREIGN POLICY ON BEHALF OF AUSTRALIA'S NEW COALITION GOVERNMENT, SPENDER CONTINUED:

"OUR FUTURE DEPENDS TO AN EVER INCREASING DEGREE UPON THE POLITICAL STABILITY OF OUR ASIAN NEIGHBORS, FROM THE ECONOMIC WELL-BEING OF THE ASIAN PEOPLES AND FROM THE DEVELOPMENT OF UNDERSTANDING AND FRIENDLY RELATIONS BETWEEN AUSTRALIA AND ASIA.

"THE RISING AND MENACING TIDE OF COMMUNISM IN THE EAST PRESENTS A DEFINITE THREAT TO OUR NATIONAL EXISTENCE X X X. AUSTRALIA MUST DEVELOP A DYNAMIC POLICY TOWARDS NEIGHBORING ASIAN COUNTRIES.

"WE SHOULD GIVE LEADERSHIP TO THE DEVELOPMENTS IN THAT AREA.

"THIS IN NO WAY IMPLIES A LACK OF RECOGNITION OF THE EXTREME IMPORTANCE THE GOVERNMENT ATTACHES TO OUR CONTINUED INTIMATE ASSOCIATION WITH THE BRITISH COMMONWEALTH. ON THE CONTRARY IT REINFORCES IT. IT MUST BE MADE STRONGER, NOT WEAKER."

JAKARTA, (BATAVIA), U.S.I., JAN. 2-(AP)-THE NEW UNITED STATES OF INDONESIA FOR THE TIME BEING WILL HAVE A DUAL MONETARY SYSTEM -- WITH BOTH INDONESIAN GUILDERS AND RUPIAS OF THE FORMER REBEL REPUBLIC ACCEPTABLE CURRENCY.

THE FIRST REGULATIONS OF THE NEW MINISTRY OF FINANCE TODAY LEGALIZED THE RUPIA WHEREVER IT MIGHT BE IN USE. INDONESIAN GUILDERS OF THE FORMER DUTCH-SPONSORED FEDERAL GOVERNMENT WILL BE LEGAL TENDER.

THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE ANNOUNCED "AS SOON AS POSSIBLE, EVERY FACILITY WILL BE MADE AVAILABLE" TO EXCHANGE THE RUPIAS FOR FEDERAL GUILDERS AT A RATE OF EXCHANGE STILL TO BE FIXED.

OFFICIALLY 3.8 INDONESIAN GUILDERS WERE WORTH ONE AMERICAN DOLLAR BUT ON THE OPEN MARKET THE RATE WAS ABOUT 26 GUILDERS PER DOLLAR. THE OPEN RATE SO FAR HAS BEEN AFFECTED VERY LITTLE BY THE ESTABLISHMENT OF THE NEW GOVERNMENT.

AMMAN, HASHEMITE JORDAN, JAN. 2-(AP)-ALTHOUGH NO FORMAL PROCLAMATION HAS BEEN MADE, ROUGHLY A FIFTH OF WHAT ONCE WAS PALESTINE HAS BEEN MADE A PART OF ARAB KING ABDULLAH'S KINGDOM OF HASHEMITE JORDAN.

AN ARAB NEWS AGENCY DISPATCH LAST FRIDAY SAID THE FORMAL ANNOUNCEMENT OF THE INCORPORATION OF THE 2,300 SQUARE MILES OF JORDAN-OCCUPIED PALESTINE INTO THE HASHEMITE KINGDOM WOULD BE PUBLISHED IN THE OFFICIAL GAZETTE JAN. 1, BUT NO ANNOUNCEMENT APPEARED YESTERDAY.

THE INCORPORATION WAS CONFIRMED, HOWEVER, BY AN OFFICIAL DECLARATION THAT THE PEOPLE OF THAT TERRITORY WILL ELECT THEIR OWN REPRESENTATIVES --PROBABLY IN MID-APRIL-- TO THE NEW HASHEMITE JORDAN PARLIAMENT.

THE PEOPLE OF THE NEWLY-ACQUIRED PALESTINE TERRITORY WILL HAVE THE SAME NUMBER OF REPRESENTATIVES --20-- AS THOSE OF JORDAN ITSELF.

THIS NEW MOVE, PLUS KING ABDULLAH'S RECENT WEEKLY VISITS TO JERUSALEM, HAS ACCENTED THE RULER'S DETERMINATION NOT TO GIVE UP THAT PART OF THE OLD HOLY CITY HIS ARAB LEGION HOLDS. INTERNATIONAL RULE FOR JERUSALEM HAS BEEN PROPOSED BY THE U.N. GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

HOOVER-CHINA TEXT (300)

(ADVANCE) WASHINGTON,JAN 2-(AP)-FOLLOWING IS THE TEXT OF FORMER PRESIDENT HERBERT HOOVER'S LETTER TO SENATOR KNOWLAND (R-CALIF) GIVING HIS VIEWS ON THE CHINA SITUATION:

MY DEAR SENATOR:

I HAVE YOUR REQUEST FOR MY VIEWS ON THE CHINA SITUATION.

THERE IS MERIT IN THE CONTENTION THAT THE CONTINUOUS PRESSURES UPO THE ANTI-COMMUNIST NATIONAL GOVERNMENT OF CHINA, BEGINNING IN 1943, T TAKE THE COMMUNISTS INTO THA GOVERNMENT CONTRIBUTED TO THE BREAKDOWN OF PRESTIGE AND STRENGTH OF CHIANG KAI-SHEK, AND THE ENCOURAGEMENT OF MAO TSE-TUNG. DESPITE ALL THIS, YOUR QUESTION STILL REMAINS. WHAT TO DO NEXT?

IT IS MY STRONG BELIEF THAT WE SHOULD NOT RECOGNIZE THE COMMUNIST GOVERNMENT OF CHINA; THAT WE MUST CONTINUE TO RECOGNIZE AND SUPPORT THE NATIONAL GOVERNMENT; THAT WE SHOULD, IF NECESSARY, GIVE IT NAVAL PROTECTION TO THE POSSESSIONS OF FORMOSA, THE PESCADORES, AND POSSIBLY HAINAN ISLANDS.

AMONG MANY REASONS ARE:

(1) A WALL AGAINST COMMUNISM IN THE PACIFIC;

(2) THE DEFENSE OF JAPAN AND THE PHILIPPINES;

(3) THE PREVENTION OF CHINESE LEGATIONS AND CONSULATES IN THE UNITED STATES (AND SUCH OTHER COUNTRIES AS AGREE WITH US) BECOMING NESTS OF COMMUNIST CONSPIRACIES;

(4) THE PREVENTION OF ANOTHER COMMUNIST PERMANENT MEMBER OF THE UNITED NATIONS SECURITY COUNCIL, WITH ITS DANGEROUS IMPLICATIONS TO THAT BODY;

(5) THE DANGERS OF CHINESE COMMUNIST PARTICIPATION IN FORMULATING PEACE WITH JAPAN;

(6) BY MAINTAINING AT LEAST A SYMBOL OF RESISTANCE, WE WOULD HAVE A BETTER BASIS FOR SALVATION OF SOUTHEASTERN ASIA;

(7) THERE WOULD BE AT LEAST A CONTINUED HOPE OF SOME TIME TURNING CHINA IN THE PATHS OF FREEDOM AGAIN.

YOURS FAITHFULLY,

WASHINGTON,JAN.2-(AP)-A BOMB EXPERT ASSERTED TONIGHT THAT PIN-POINT PRECISION BOMBING, NOT "INDISCRIMINATE AREA BOMBING," IS THE POLICY OF THE UNITED STATES AIR FORCE.

COL.PHILIP SCHWARTZ, AIR ORDNANCE EXPERT OF THE USAF, REPLIED TO WHAT HE SAID WERE QUESTIONS RAISED BY CRITICS WHO ASK "DOES THE AIR FORCE ADVOCATE INDISCRIMINATE AREA BOMBING AND MASS MURDER OF ENEMY CIVILIANS?"

WRITING IN THE CURRENT ISSUE OF THE UNOFFICIAL SERVICE PUBLICATION "ORDNANCE," SCHWARTZ SAID THAT BOTH DURING THE WAR AND SINCE THE AIR FORCE HAS EMPHASIZED PRECISION BOMBING.

TWO NEW BOMB SIGHTS HAVE BEEN DEVELOPED SINCE THE WAR, HE SAID, WITHOUT IDENTIFYING THEM. HE DISCUSSED ALSO BOMBING ACCURACY COMPETITIONS HELD BY BOTH HEAVY AND FIGHTER-BOMBER CREWS TO PROMOTE THE "PIN-POINT" BOMBING POLICY.

THEN HE WROTE THAT THE EMPHASIS ON BOMBING ACCURACY IS THE RESULT OF TWO FACTORS:

"FIRST, AIR FORCE CREWS ARE JUST AS HUMAN AS ANY ONE ELSE; IF IN THE PROCESS OF PERFORMING THEIR DUTY IN THE DEFENSE OF THEIR COUNTRY IT IS NECESSARY TO DROP BOMBS ON A TARGET WHERE CIVILIANS ARE LOCATED, THEY CAN SCARCELY REFUSE TO DO SO. BUT THEY DO NOT GO OUT ON BOMBING MISSIONS WITH THE HOPE OF KILLING THE MAXIMUM NUMBER OF CIVILIANS, NOTWITHSTANDING THE COMMENTS OF THOSE WHO DO NOT SYMPATHIZE WITH THE ACTIVITIES OF THE AIR FORCE. X X X

"THE SECOND REASON FOR THE INTEREST OF THE AIR FORCE IN BOMBING ACCURACY IS STRICTLY SELFISH; IT IS THE DESIRE TO REDUCE CASUALTIES AMONG THEIR OWN CREWS. BY INCREASING ACCURACY AND REDUCING THE SIZE OF THE ERROR, FEWER MISSIONS ARE REQUIRED TO DESTROY A TARGET."

Danube Opened To Yugoslavia For Freight

JAN 4 1950

Vienna, Austria, Jan. 3 (AP)—Russia has opened the Danube River to Yugoslavia for freight shipments from Belgrade to Western Germany, American officials announced today.

No reason for the unexpected move was advanced here.

The first shipment, consisting of 2,700 tons of pyrite reached Linz, Austria, yesterday, after passing through Communist Hungary and the entire Soviet zone of Austria.

Carried On Six Barges

Its final destination is Regensburg, Germany.

The pyrite was carried on six barges towed behind two Yugoslav motorships.

It is the first commercial shipment to travel through Austria on the Danube since the end of the war.

When the flotilla returns to Yugoslavia it will carry an exchange shipment of Ruhr coal.

Yugoslavia served notice last September that she was ending her commercial agreement with Russia for joint Danube River shipping.

In August, 1948, Russia, Yugoslavia, Hungary, Czechoslovakia, Bulgaria and Romania had adopted, over Western protests, a new convention for control of the Danube.

Chief Artery Of Commerce

At that time, Russia apparently presumed that through control of those countries, she would control the Danube. The 2,000-mile long river is the chief artery of commerce in the Balkans, where railroads and good highways are uncommon.

Yugoslavia's severing of the pact gave her sole control of the 250 miles of the river within her borders.

RUSSIA EASES DANUBE CURBS

Permits Slavs To Send Barges To U.S- Germany Zone

Vienna, Jan. 3 (AP)—Russia, for unexplained reasons, has opened her Iron Curtain on the Danube and permitted Yugoslavia to send six bargeloads of freight to the American zones of Germany.

It was the first shipment through Austria on the Danube since the war.

The six barges, loaded with 2,700 tons of pyrite, reached Linz in western Austria yesterday and four were due in Passau, Germany, later tonight after passing through Hungary and the entire Soviet zone of Austria.

American officials announced the arrival of the barges today but were unable to explain why Russia had permitted them.

To Return Ruhr Coal

Since a year ago last June Russia and her Cominform allies have clamped an economic boycott on Marshal Tito of Yugoslavia. But the arrival of the barges appeared to open traffic with the West.

When the flotilla returns to Yugoslavia from Regensburg, its American zone destination, it will carry a load of Ruhr coal for Yugoslavia, it was reported.

The flotilla was towed by two motorships flying the Yugoslav flag.

The Austrian Government is expected to renew its efforts to gain free use of the Danube. Because Russian authorities have never given assurances that Austrian vessels would not be seized as former German assets, river traffic in Austria has been at a standstill since the war.

The river once was the main artery of commerce in this part of Europe. River freight from Yugoslavia to Germany is about $2 a ton cheaper than by rail.

Over Western Protests

In August, 1948—at a conference in Belgrade—Russia, Yugoslavia, Hungary, Czechoslovakia, Bulgaria and Romania adopted over Western protests their own convention for control of the Danube.

But last September Yugoslavia served notice that she was ending her commercial agreement with Russia for joint operation of shipping enterprises on the Danube. The Yugoslav action in effect gave Yugoslavia sole control over the 250 miles of the river within her borders.

Rise In British Dollar Supply Reported

Arthur Sarsfield

JAN 4 1950

London, Jan. 3 (AP)—Britain has plugged up a persistent drain on her fund of American dollars, an informed source reported today. He said an official announcement probably would be made Thursday.

The informant said this meant that devaluation of the British pound has achieved its immediate purpose, and that, with the economic situation better, the chances have been increased for a nation-wide general election in February or March. The Labor Government must call an election before July at the end of its five-year term.

Reserves Increase

In the three months since Britain devalued her pound from $4.03 to $2.80, the informant said, her reserves were increased by nearly $100,000,000. The figure was $1,404,000,000 September 30, twelve days after devaluation. Now, the informant said, it is about $1,500,000,000.

The Treasury is not passing final judgment on the success or failure of the devaluation policy unless and until the present trend continues for another three months, the informant said.

The goal of devaluation was to make it easier for British manufacturers to sell their products in America and earn the dollars that Britain desperately needs for goods that cannot be bought elsewhere.

Predevaluation Policy

At least part of the sudden improvement may be traced to the fact that American and other foreign buyers held up contemplated orders for British industry last summer in anticipation of devaluation.

News of the improvement is sure to have a strong bearing on the British political situation.

If the informant's news is correct, and there is every reason to believe it is, Prime Minister Attlee could now call an early election and point to the figures as proof that Labor has steered the country over the hump in its long-standing economic crisis.

If he delayed an election call, he would run the risk of seeing the recovery trend reversed.

Living Costs Rise

Moreover, the cost of living is already on the upgrade and prices are likely to rise still more as the full effects of devaluation set in. Rising costs could affect Labor's popularity with British workers, who form the backbone of the Labor movement.

Devaluation was a desperate measure to stave off threatening bankruptcy.

The Government itself had set a safety level of $2,000,000,000 for the gold and dollar fund. The total was $600,000,000 below this danger level when devaluation was announced.

Earlier Decline

In the quarter ending twelve days after devaluation ,the reserves had declined by $220,000,000.

The rise in the gold and dollar reserves is usually calculated on the basis of all hard currency receipts and spending. Therefore, Britain's allocations under the European recovery program and a Canadian loan are counted in.

The informant said in the past three months Britain's dollar spending has risen. Presumably the country has earned more dollars to make up the difference and to increase the amount of the reserves.

Britain acts as banker for the entire sterling area in gold and dollar resources. It rations out gold and dollars to the sterling area countries, which include most of the Commonwealth nations, Burma, Iraq and Iceland.

DOLLAR RESERVE DRAIN REVERSED BY BRITAIN

LONDON, Jan. 3 (AP)—Britain has reversed the ruinous drain on her gold and dollar reserves since devaluation of the pound, an informed source said today.

The reserve fund which had fallen to $1,404,000,000 on Sept. 30, 12 days after devaluation, has jumped nearly $100,000,000 to $1,500,000,000, the informant said.

This news, which is expected to be announced officially at a special news conference tomorrow by Sir Stafford Cripps, chancellor of the exchequer, increased the likelihood of an early general election.

Prime Minister Attlee could now call an election and point to the figures as proof that the economic situation is better and that Britain is over the hump.

If he delays, the recovery trend might be reversed. Already the cost of living is on the rise and is likely to go still higher as the result of the increased cost of importing food from dollar countries. Steep increases could affect the government's popularity with the British laboring man.

Four Men Are Accused In Atomic Plant Theft

Wantage, England, Jan. 3 (AP)—Four men were accused today of stealing a 90-pound lead ingot from Britain's atomic energy research plant at Harwell.

A hole had been cut in the wire fence which stretches more than 2 miles around the plant. The fence protects a 200-ton pile of lead ingots valued at £20,000 ($56,000).

CABINET BACKS BIDAULT BILL

Approves Making Labor Rights Issue Of Confidence

JAN 4 1950

Paris, Jan. 3 (AP)—Premier Georges Bidault was authorized by his middle-of-the-road Cabinet today to ask for as many more votes of confidence as he needs on his bill to restore collective bargaining for labor.

He has just won six votes of confidence since the day before Christmas in his battle in the National Assembly to force through a balanced budget for 1950.

Having found the vote on a question of confidence a useful weapon against rebellious Right-wingers opposed to new taxes, he now prepared to use it against Left-wing supporters who consider his labor bill leans too far to the side of management.

Compulsory Arbitration

Free negotiations between unions and employers have been suspended in France since the beginning of the war in 1939. Wages have been frozen and could be changed only by action of the Government.

The fight over the labor bill centers on three thorniest points:

1. Compulsory arbitration. This feature is demanded by the Cabinet as a whole, but is opposed by Socialists in the Assembly. The Socialists are represented in the Cabinet, along with the Radical Socialists and Bidault's own Popular Republicans.

2. Minimum wages. The unions, Socialists and many Popular Republicans want a monthly wage of at least 15,000 francs (about $43). The Cabinet has not announced its own figure but it is sure to be considerably lower.

3. Cost-of-living bonus. A premium of about $8.50 was given low-salaried workers in November, pending the return to collective bargaining. Now the Socialists want it repeated for December since the collective-bargaining measure has not yet been enacted. The Popular Republicans oppose it.

Cost Index Drops

The Cabinet can point out that the cost-of-living index last month dropped .4 per cent below December, 1948, the first drop since the war. But living costs still are about nineteen times the prewar standard while the unions say wages have gone up only twelve or thirteen times.

By declaring that he considers any question relating to the labor bill a question of confidence, Bidault serves notice on the Assembly that his Cabinet will resign if he loses. The deputies know that if the same thing happens a second time within eighteen months new general elections can be called without further vote.

Many deputies do not like the idea of risking their seats before their regular terms are up at the end of 1951.

Canadian Gets U. N. Post

PARIS, Jan. 3 (AP)—Ross McLean, retiring chief of the Canadian Film Board, has been appointed to head the film division of the United Nations Educational Scientific and Cultural Organization. He is due here Feb. 1, to take over his new post.

De Gasperi Says Italy Resumes World Place

Rome, Jan. 3 (AP)—Premier Alcide de Gasperi declared today that Italy, defeated in World War II, had made a "complete return in every field of world activity."

In a speech to his Cabinet the 68-year-old premier said Italy's rehabilitation was exemplified by the acceptance of Italy in the Atlantic pact. He called this the "official recognition of the contribution which we can still give to world pacification and progress."

He gave top priority in 1950 to nation-wide land reform, which has been strongly backed by the United States Marshal plan administrators here. The reform would break up many large estates and make it possible for peasants to acquire small farms.

Red Bid On German Unity Invited

JAN 4 1950

Berlin, Jan. 3 (AP)—United States High Commissioner John J. Mccloy indirectly invited the Russians to make "a bona fide offer" today toward uniting Germany.

"We are prepared at any time to hold free elections for all Germany if a bona fide offer is made by the Russians," McCloy told his first news conference of 1950.

The commissioner indicated, however, that he is not very hopeful of East-West agreement on such a large scale for 1950.

"No Signs Of Feelers"

He asserted that there have been "no signs of any feelers" from the Russians for four-power talks on either political or economic unity.

Four-power parleys have been nonexistent since the West German Government at Bonn became a reality and the Soviet zone set up its rival Communist regime.

McCloy declared the West is keeping open at all times a standing offer for "free elections" in both Berlin and in all Germany.

Set To Risk Elections

"We are quite prepared to risk elections," he said.

The Russians set up their East Zone Government without chancing a popular ballot at a time when the Germans linked the Communists with the Soviet blockade of Berlin and anti-Communist feeling was expressed every time the public had an opportunity.

McCloy expressed the hope that Congress, opening its session today, would approve European recovery funds for Germany without wielding too sharp a paring knife.

Cut Would Be Felt

"If a major cut was voted, the effects would be felt here because I suppose Germany would have to take its share of the cut," he said. "If it would be a considerable cut, it would be most unfortunate at a time when we are just getting into the full vigor of the program."

Meanwhile, President Wilhelm Pieck, of the East German Communist Government, said on his seventy-fourth birthday an effort would be made this year to extend his "national front" ideology to West Germany.

Pieck, according to the Soviet-licensed ADN news agency, asserted in a special message that an all-German congress should be held —preferably in West Germany—to that end.

JAN 4 1950

Berlin, Jan. 3 (AP)—Two West German newspapers said today that the Russians have conscripted 150,000 men for work in the Saxon uranium mines and that explosions in the shafts are taking a toll of almost 1,000 casualties monthly.

These reports were published by the Sozialdemokrat, official newspaper of the Socialist party, and the American-licensed Der Tagespiegel.

The Socialist newspaper gave what it called a "history" of the uranium mine workings since the Russians opened them in 1946.

"Harshest" Labor Camps

"The Stalinistic system of exploitation," it commented, "is responsible for the barbaric detention of more than 150,000 German workers. The forced labor camps are the biggest and harshest ever erected on German soil."

The report named Major General Maizev as the Soviet chief of the Wismuth A.G., the corporation set up to operate the shafts.

Der Tagespiegel's account dealt with the mine casualties. It listed for six months: 1,281 dead, 3,467 wounded to the point where either arms or legs had to be amputated, and 16,560 whose health was impaired.

534 Sabotage Terms

Morever, the newspaper said, 11,376 workers fled from the area and another 534 were sentenced by the Russians for sabotage.

The figures were purported to come from an official document of the Wismuth A.G.

Sozialdemokrat's report, it acknowledged, came from the Socialist party's highly secret "East bureau" maintained to keep the party's interests alive despite the ban on its existence imposed by the Communists in the Russian Zone.

BLASTS TAKE BIG TOLL IN RED URANIUM MINES

BERLIN, Jan. 3—(AP) Explosions in Russian-operated uranium mines in Saxony are killing or wounding nearly 800 conscripted German workers monthly, a West Berlin newspaper reported today.

The report was published in the American-licensed Der Tagespiegel. The figures purportedly came from an official document of the Wismuth A. G., the corporation set up to operate the mines.

Der Tagespiegel listed casualties for six months as 1,281 dead and 3,467 wounded so seriously that either arms or legs had to be amputated.

In addition, the health of 16,500 workers had been impaired, the newspaper said. It added that 11,376 workers had fled from the area and another 534 were sentenced for "sabotage."

The report apparently discounted an accident published here on Nov. 29 by the British-licensed Telegram that 2,000 miners died in one fire and explosion alone. The Soviet-sponsored news agency ADN said at the time that one miner died.

Gas Explosion Kills Six In Austria Mine

Vienna, Jan. 3 (AP)—A gas explosion in a provincial coal mine today killed at least six miners and injured ten others.

Mine officials said more than 100 other men in the mine when the explosion occurred, escaped.

The cause of the explosion has not yet been determined.

The mine is located in Fohnsdorf, Styria, in the British occupation zone of Austria.

Germans Report Reimann Ouster

Frankfurt, Germany, Jan. 3 (AP)—Max Reimann, West German Communist chief, will be ousted for failing to curb "Titoist" elements in the party, the British-controlled Die Welt reported today. West German Communists denied it.

Reimann's successor will be named at a meeting of party leaders here January 15, the newspaper said.

"The charges against the German Communist party are increasing Titoism, bourgeois tendencies and a general cowardly attitude," the newspaper said. It gave no source for the report.

A spokesman at West German Communist party headquarters here said the report is "ridiculous." In Bonn, Heinz Renner, a Communist member of Parliament, called the report "absolute nonsense."

Reimann was reported in Berlin attendin a birthday celebration for Wilhelm Pieck, Communist president of the east zone republic.

Meanwhile, American officials said that in recent weeks 40 leaders have been thrown out of the party and another 40 either have been suspended or eased out of top party jobs.

One of these was Hugo Paul, an old-time Communist who was removed from his job as chairman of the party in the state of North Rhine-Westphalia, which contains the big industrial Ruhr Valley.

8 German Youths Kill Girl, Stone GI

Frankfurt, Germany, Jan. 3 (AP)—Eight German youths stoned a jeep driven by an American soldier, killed a German girl and injured two other Germans, police reported tonight. The incident occurred December 30 in the village of Eichenschwand.

The youths hurled rocks through the windshield of a jeep, killing one of the two girls riding with the soldier. Another girl and her German male companion in the jeep were injured.

Police said the trouble started after one of the youths had insulted the girls in an inn. The soldier then slapped the youth. The eight Germans were arrested. Police said they were unable to give the name of the American.

West German Steel Lifts '49 Production by 50%

DUESSELDORF, Germany, Jan. 3 (AP).—West Germany boosted its steel production about 50 per cent last year, but still fell short of its goal, the German Steel and Iron Office announced today.

Steel production in 1949 was 9,026,000 tons, compared with 5,920,000 tons in 1948. But the 1949 target was 9,600,000 tons.

German officials said failure to meet the target was due chiefly to lack of market because of shortage of dollar credits among prospective buyers. By the middle of next year, they said, the West German steel industry hopes to be producing at the rate of 11,100,000 tons a year.

Pig iron production also increased over 50 per cent last year. The 1949 output of 7,142,000 tons was more than 2,400,000 tons above 1948.

Slavs Hail Treaty As Blow To Russ

Belgrade, Yugoslavia, Jan. 3 (AP). Yugoslavia today hailed her trade agreement with Britain as a sign of Western confidence in this country's future and as evidence the Russian-led economic blockade had failed.

The agreement, signed December 26, provides for an exchange of about $230,000,000 worth of goods over five years. It calls for a swap of Yugoslavia's raw material for Britain's finished goods.

The newspaper Rad, Yugoslavia's trade-union organ, signified approval with an editorial entitled "The Failure of the Economic Blockade of Yugoslavia by the Cominformburists."

Gives Detailed Figures

The article furnished figures on how Yugoslavia will share in the pact.

Rad said about 60 per cent of Yugoslavia's export would be in wood, about eight per cent in colored metals and the balance in corn and products from wood and hemp

It said Yugoslavia will receive about 30 per cent in British machinery, 45 per cent in industrial fabrics and the balance in assorted goods.

Rad termed the agreement "our greatest and most significant with the Western countries. This agreement is a great step in the progress toward future victories and self-independence in a fight which has put upon us unequal relations."

Close Consular Offices In U.S., Hungary Told

JAN 4 1950

Budapest, Hungary, Jan. 3 (AP)—The United States has ordered Communist Hungary to close its consulates in Cleveland and New York by January 15.

A three-page American note was handed to the Hungarian Foreign Ministry today by United States Minister Nathaniel P. Davis.

These are the only Hungarian consulates in the United States, said Miss Ruth Tryon, acting press attaché of the United States Legation.

Cites Action On Vogeler

The note referred directly to Hungary's rejection of Davis's request for permission to visit Robert Vogeler, an American business man arrested November 18 by the Hungarians and charged with spying and sabotage.

"The Government of Hungary clearly failed in this case to live up to its obligations under the treaty of friendship, commerce and consular rights between the United States and Hungary and to the accepted standard of international practice in regard to the rights of consular officers to extend protection to the nationals of their country," the note said.

Viewed As Retaliation

The order to close the consulates by January 15 is considered a retaliation for Vogeler's arrest.

Vogeler is assistant vice president of the International Telephone and Telegraph Company. Hungary charged him and Edgar Sanders, a British national, along with twelve Hungarians, with spying.

Vogeler and Sanders had been executives of the Standard Electric subsidiary of I.T.T., which was nationalized by the Communist-led Hungarian Government December 29.

The police said Lausmann told them he fled when he was tipped by a friend he would be arrested because he had refused to jion the Communist party.

Holy Year Visits Balked

Prague, Czechoslovakia, Jan. 3 (AP)—The Communist Government has blocked Roman Catholics from going to Rome for Holy Year by refusing to grant passports and foreign exchange, high church sources said today.

The informants said Catholics who have tried to get to Rome had met with such blocks and they expressed doubt any others would have any better luck. The controlled Czechoslovak press has denounced Holy Year as a Catholic propaganda campaign against communism.

Benes Secretary Is Reported Held

Prague, Czechoslovakia, Jan. 3 (AP)—Reliable sources said today Dr. Jan Belansky, former secretary of the late President Eduard Benes, had been arrested, presumably on charges of anti-state activities.

After Benes's death and the outlawing of his National Socialist party by the Communist-led Government, Belansky was given a minor post in the Ministry of Unification.

Former adherents of Benes have been reported under increasing pressure during the past two months ,beginning with the arrest in November of Col. Josef David, former speaker of the Czech parliament.

Polish Army Leaders Shifted

WARSAW, Jan. 3 (AP).—General Edward Ochab, First Vice-Minister of National Defense, has taken over control of the political leadership of the Polish Army, an official announcement disclosed today. General Mieczyslaw Wongrowski, formerly in charge of Army political matters, has been placed on the reserve list but will continue political work outside the army, the announcement said. His new job was not specified.

Finns Expected To Deny Charges Of Russians

JAN 4 1950

Helsinki, Finland, Jan. 3 (AP)—Finnish political circles today viewed Russia's charges of peace-treaty violations as timed to bolster Finnish Communists in the coming presidential election.

The Soviet New Year's Day charges that Finland is harboring more than 300 Soviet war criminals was the most serious warning this tiny Baltic country has received from its huge neighbor since the end of the war.

Russia has accused Finland of violating its 1944 peace treaty by furnishing war criminals with false documents and names. The strongly worded note from Moscow said 56 of the alleged war criminals were known by the Finnish Government.

Note Being Studied

The Social Democratic Government of Premier Karl Fagerholm has turned over the Soviet note to a special committee for study and it is believed the Government will deny the charges.

Finnish President Juho K. Paasikivi took office March 11, 1946, and his term expires in March. Electors are to be chosen January 16 and 17 and the election is scheduled February 15. Most sources believe that the 78-year-old President will be re-elected.

Meanwhile, a study of the records of previous postwar governments is being made by the Government committee. It was recalled that military authorities had supplied some Russian deserters with fake documents immediately after the 1944 Soviet-Finnish war and tried to help them out of the country.

Their Fate Not Known

The fate of these deserters is not generally known now. It is believed this Government will base its denial of the Soviet charges on the fact that it was not in power when this occurred.

With regard to the Russian accusations, the Finnish Government has shown every indication of trying to give a satisfactory answer.

The Foreign Ministry has declared that Finland has "a serious intention to do everything" to fulfill its treaty obligations with Russia.

Finnish sources said that extensive investigations regarding the 56 alleged war criminals would delay a reply to the Soviet note for several days.

Red Press Attacks President

The Communist press attacked President Paasikivi and declared he has "made himself impossible" for re-election.

The Conservative newspaper Hufvudstadsbladet said editorially:

"If an investigation proves that the Russian note is justified, in other words that dangerous Russian war criminals still remain in Finland, then the peace treaty leaves no doubts about the consequences.

"It is hoped that our Government will give the reply the Russians want without delay. In view of the forthcoming elections two weeks from now, swift handling is very much in the interest of the Social Democratic Government."

Increase In Wages Sought In Finland

JAN 4 1950

Helsinki, Finland, Jan. 3 (AP)—A trade-union federation demand for a ten per cent general wage increase tonight threatened the Government, already under pressure as a result of Russia's protest of treaty violation.

The fate of Premier K. A. Fagerholm's Social Democratic Government may be at stake at a special session of Parliament expected to be called for January 10 to consider the issue of a general wage increase. This comes just before presidential elections, February 15.

President Juho Paasikivi, 78, is a candidate for re-election. The Communists are using Russia's protest as a trum pcard in their campaign against him.

Opposed By Rightists

Fagerholm is expected to support the demand of the trade unionists for the general wage increase. He is under strong pressure from trade-union members of his party to do so.

But rightist parties, of which the Agrarians are the strongest, oppose the wage increase. These parties demanded that Fagerholm call an extra session of Parliament to consider the wage boost. He refused.

The leadeds of the rightist parties then exercised their privilege to call on the speaker of Parliament, Dr. Urho Kekkonen, to call Parliament into special session. Kekkonen, the presidential candidate of the Agrarians, reportedly will call Parliament for January 10.

If Fagerholm's cabinet fails, a caretaker cabinet will be appointed until March 1, when a new Government will be set up after the presidential election.

Soviet Journal Urges All-Out Drive Against Religion There

JAN 4 1950

Moscow, Jan. 3 (AP)—A Soviet science journal, launching a campaign to further atheism, said today that many Soviet people, including youths, continue to believe in God and are regular churchgoers.

The Journal of Science and Life, organ of the All Union Society for the Dissemination of Scientific Knowledge, called on the society to carry on systematic and ceaseless propaganda against religion.

An article by F. N. Oleshchuk said the struggle against religious prejudices is one of the forms of the struggle for communism.

Attitude Change

At the same time, Oleshchuk declared, anti-religious propaganda must depend solely on remaking the consciousness of the masses by conviction and not by compulsion through administrative measures, which he said would be "harmful."

Oleshchuk's article said it was a big mistake to consider that all was up with religion in Russia. He said no few people continue to believe in God, hold religious beliefs and superstitions.

He said the "capitalistic encirclement" of the Soviet Union works to export religious beliefs to the U.S.S.R.

Oleshchuk declared that some Soviet people, trying to justify religion here, are slipping from the true Marxist and Leninist doctrines. Some justify their attitude, he continued, by saying the Soviet Government has changed its attitude toward religion.

Such ideas, Oleshchuk said, have nothing in common with communism. Religion remains an anti-scientific, reactionary ideology and a hindrance on the path to communism. He said it was not by chance that Marx had likened religion to opium.

He said every active citizen must be a fighter for the purity of the Communist world and its program for the education of the masses in the spirit of militant atheism.

Rebuked By Gazette

The All Union Society for the Dissemination of Political and Scientific Knowledge was rebuked by the Literary Gazette last October for poorly handling propaganda for atheism.

"In the schools, the propaganda for the materialistic world concept is wholly insufficient" the Gazette said. "Many departments of education have, in fact, discontinued the struggle against religious superstitions and prejudices among the pupils."

Crew Not Queried On Shanghai Run

Officer of Flying Cloud in Baltimore describes shelling by China Nationalists. [Back page.]

JAN 4 1950

Hong Kong, Jan. 3 (AP)—Capt. David Jones, master of the Isbrandtsen Line freighter Flying Arrow, said today he had not delayed departure of the ship for Red-held Shanghai in order to ask the crew if they would sail it there.

Jones said he heard a Voice of America broadcast saying he had delayed the ship's departure two days to permit consultation with crewmen.

"I have not and will not delay the ship's departure," he said. "The ship's articles call for the crew to sail the ship to any port in the world that the master may direct. On this basis it would not be necessary to ask the crew to sail the vessel."

Hears No Refusals

Jones, a resident of Chicago, said no crewman or officer has refused in any way to carry out his orders and their duty. He said he expects no delay in the ship's

U.S. SKIPPER FEUDS WITH STATE DEPT. ON SHANGHAI TRIP

JAN 4 1950

HONG KONG, Jan. 3 — (AP) The skipper of the U. S. freighter Flying Arrow today accused the State Department of making a last-minute attempt to hinder his ship's departure for Shanghai.

Captain Davis Jones of Chicago said U. S. Vice Consul Fred Hill boarded the ship this afternoon and met with the crew in his presence.

Hill said he had authority from the State Department to pay off the crew members should the ship clear for Shanghai if they had transportation pay back to the United States.

The Flying Arrow's Isbrandtsen Line has been feuding with the State Department over the sailing of its ships to communist ports through the nationalist blockade. Now the State Department has warned that the nationalists claim to have mined Shanghai's approaches.

Later, in an exclusive interview, Jones declared "I have not and will not delay the ship's departure," now set for Thursday.

Jones said no crew member or officer had refused in any way to carry out his orders and he expected no delay in sailing.

The skipper quoted various members of the crew as saying they had fought in the Normandy invasion, or at Okinawa and could take it.

As for Hill's visit, Jones observed: "In my opinion, the State Department is hindering instead of assisting the ship on her trade route."

There was no comment from Hill. Previously, the consulate announced it had received authority to sign off crewmen who did not wish to make the run to Shanghai. It also asserted two or three crewmen wanted to quit rather than risk a minefield.

RUSSIAN AGAIN QUITS PARLEY

Walk Out Of Allied Council Discussion Of Prisoners

Tokyo, Wednesday, Jan. 4 (AP)—Russia's member of the Allied Council for Japan walked out again today as the United States charged thousands of missing Japanese prisoners of war still are in Soviet hands or dead.

Lieut. Gen. K. N. Derevyanko stalked out of this morning's special session of the four-power group, refusing for the second time in two weeks to discuss Russia's failure to complete repatriation of prisoners taken in World War II.

"I do not think it possible for me to take part in any discussion," Derevyanko said.

Reads Achesan Note

After they left, Chairman William J. Sebald, the United States member, read the text of an American note from Dean Acheson, Secretary of State, to the Russian Ambassador in Washington.

This note said the American Government believes thousands of Japanese prisoners are still being held or have died in Russian camps. It asked for Moscow's agreement to an impartial investigation.

Acheson's note recalled that Tass, the Soviet news agency, announced May 20, 1949, that only 95,000 Japanese prisoners remained in Russian hands. It said Japanese Government figures, whose "substantial reliability" had been shown, listed an additional 376,929 still in Soviet areas.

The American note continued: "This discrepancy in the number of unrepatriated Japanese is too wide to be attributed to clerical error or oversight. . . .

Two Possibilities

"The supposition therefore arises that the discrepancy in question may only be explained by the continued detention of large numbers of Japanese in Soviet-controlled areas and/or by an abnormally high death factor among those who were to be repatriated."

It noted that General MacArthur had made repeated fruitless attempts to obtain information about the prisoners or those among them reported dead.

The United States, the note said, "urges in the interests of resolving an issue of long standing concern to the Allied powers and to Japan that the Soviet Government agree to the designation of an international humanitarian body or organization which would be charged with making a complete survey of the situation at first hand with a view to obtaining exact information on the Japanese detained in areas under Soviet control since the cessation of hostilities."

Returnsd To Regular Meeting

Derevyanko's performance today was a repeat of December 21. He led the eight-man Soviet delegation from the chamber then rather than discuss repatriation.

The Russians returned to the Council for the regular meeting this morning. The walkout came at the special meeting which followed.

At the regular session, Derevyanko said Russia "will not take into consideration any recommendation" by Council members on the controversial repatriation issue.

This was a reference to the proposal of the British Commonwealth member, W. R. Hodgson, that General MacArthur seek the aid of a neutral nation or the International Red Cross in trying to find out what has happened to the missing Japanese.

JAN 4 1950

Tokyo, Jan. 3 (AP)—The United States said today it will notify Russia that attempts are being made to obtain further information about Japanese war prisoners held by the Soviets.

This notice was in a call by American Chairman William J. Sebald for a special meeting of the Allied Council for Japan tomorrow. The meeting will be immediately after the regularly scheduled meeting of the group.

Report Put On Agenda

Sebald placed on the agenda a "statement of action taken on the recommendation" made at the last regular meeting December 21 when the Russian delegation walked out over the prisoner-repatriation issue.

The recommendation was that of W. R. Hodgson, British Commonwealth member of the council. He proposed that General MacArthur seek the aid of a neutral government or the International Red Cross in finding out what has happened to missing Japanese prisoners.

MacArthur immediately accepted Hodgson's suggestion and asked the United States Government to take such a course.

Russ Ignore Statement

The Russians walked out rather than hear Sebald's indictment of their failure to return prisoners. The American told the council of Allied headquarters' belief that more than 376,000 Japanese may have died in Russian hands.

The Russians have neither acknowledged nor replied to this statement.

It is not known whether the Russians will attend tomorrow's regular and special council meetings. If they don't, they will get copies of the minutes anyway.

STAY SET CHING ED

Taipeh, Formosa, Jan. 3 (AP)—Well-informed sources said today that United States military and economic aid would come to Formosa if the Nationalists could hold the island from Red Chinese for another six to eight weeks.

These sources said economic aid would come from the $84,000,000 unused portion of Economic Aid Administration funds allotted to China, and will precede military aid.

Military aid, they said, will mainly be centered in the $75,000,000 military-assistance program voted by the American Congress.

Would Be Closely Supervised

This same source revealed that both American economic and military assistance would be closely supervised by United States advisers whose status may not be as United States Government representatives but as private individuals invited here by the Nationalist Government.

(In Washington, the State Department declined immediate comment on the reports.)

When Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek arrives from interior Formosa he will be occupied in streamlining the Formosa defense and civil administration for the anticipated arrival of United States aid. Chiang is expected back from the Sun and Moon Lake tomorrow.

Absent Since Christmas

Chiang has been at the inland lake since Christmas Eve. His absence from his headquarters here has been taken as an indication he is readying important Nationalists changes.

There was no explanation offered for the six to eight weeks given as the time the Nationalists must hold Formosa against the Reds before the American aid would arrive.

Chinese Communists, who have overrun most of the China mainland, are not expected to make any major move against Formosa until April, at least. A few junks have landed on Formosa's shores with Red guerrillas, who immediately went inland and underground.

Two Successes For Wu

Gov. K. C. Wu's administration, although only ten days old, has already scored two successes in Formosa. First was an amicable settlement of the dispute among Formosan political factions who fought for power and widened provincial government representation.

The second was the American-educated Wu's New Year's Eve announcement of overall economic and financial measures in an effort to hold Formosa's economy for at least six weeks. The program features the unlimited sale of commodities such as cotton, yarn, cloth, rice, gold and medicines.

However, the Governor needs better co-operation from the armed forces in order to achieve more of his economic reform. This calls for the stamping out of smuggling, which is being carried out largely by the navy under the guise of giving welfare benefits to naval services.

Corruption Cited

Another badly needed reform is the stamping out of corruption among certain army units, including the elimination of "paper soldiers"—names of nonexistent soldiers carried on the army pay roll to enrich high-ranking officers.

These must be righted, observers say, if the morale of fighting forces is to be heightened and the overstrained financial crisis averted.

The Nationalist mint in Formosa is running 24 hours a day turning out silver half dollars (worth 10 cents United States). Silver is being flown in day and night from Manila by retired United States Maj. Gen. Claire L. Chennault's Civil Air Transport planes.

Goes Into National Coffers

The silver is paid into national coffers to cover military expenditures already advanced.

An estimated 20,000,000 coins will be minted this month to help relieve the cash shortage.

Speed Civil Defense, Manila Is Urged

JAN 4 1950

Manila, Jan. 3 (AP)—A bill was introduced in the Senate today to create immediately a civil defense organization for the Philippines "in view of the imminence of World War III."

The bill was introduced by Senator Enrique B. Magalona, of Negros Occidental province.

Exposed Position Cited

In a statement attached to the bill, Senator Magalona said the Philippines, as "an outpost of democracy" in the Far East, are in an exposed position.

He said a defense treaty with the United States and the location of American bases here made the islands liable to become a target of atomic bombs and germ warfare in the early stages of another world conflict.

The Senator asked that 10,000,000 pesos ($5,000,000) be appropriated for the civil defense organization.

Sees World Threatened

Maglona pointed out the proximity of Communist controlled China to the Philippines. He said that it was known that dissidents in the islands now are "emissaries of Communist Russia in its sinister design to communize the world."

The Senator said the North Atlantic pact was one harbinger of the imminence of World War III.

Iran Reds Launch Propaganda Drive

Tehran, Iran, Jan. 3 (AP)—Iran's underground Communist Tudeh party has launched a massive propaganda campaign timed to coincide with the return of the country's ruler from his official visit to the United States.

A high Government authority today said about a dozen persons are being arrested daily for distributing leaflets and newspapers attacking the Shah, the United States and Great Britain.

Russ Arrival

The stepped-up propaganda campaign by the Tudeh party, which was forced underground following an attempt on the Shah's life last February, began last week following the arrival in Iran of Daniel Simonovitch Komissarov, former press attaché of the Soviet Embassy here.

Local press circles here have charged that Komissarov played a major role in organizing Tudeh propaganda during World War II, when Soviet troops were in northern Iran.

Puppet Regime

Komissarov also was reported to have been involved in organization of the Azerbaijan Democrat party, which set up a short-lived puppet regime in northwest Iran in 1946.

Increased Soviet interest in Iran recently has been indicated by the appearance in the local press of a series of advertisements by a Soviet insurance company for "insurance agents" and an unprecedented offer by the Soviet hospital here to send "specialists of all sorts" to Iranian homes.

Plea For Advisers And ECA Help Disclosed

China Reds say United States agrees to arm Formosa. [Page 2.]

Washington, Jan. 3 (AP)—The State Department disclosed today that the Chinese Nationalists have submitted a new plea for American military and other advisers to help save Formosa.

Ambassador Wellington Koo asked on December 23 for military, political and economic advisers. Koo also urged the Economic Cooperation Administration to release funds for China which were frozen last May when the Communists took Shanghai.

Reported By Press Officer

Michael J. McDermott, State Department press officer, reported Koo's plea to newsmen today. Reporters previously had been told that only informal approaches had been made thus far for American help for Formosa.

"I now find that on December 23 the Chinese Ambassador called on Walton Butterworth, assistant secretary for Far Eastern affairs, and presented a memorandum with respect to assistance for Formosa, including military, political and economic advisers," McDermott said.

Details Not Furnished

"The Ambassador said the details of the economic aid had already been communicated to ECA and that he would be glad to supply next week (last week in December) details of the military aid wanted. These details have not yet come in."

Why the envoy's plea was not disclosed earlier was left unexplained. McDermott told reporters he was not informed himself and was trying to find out why.

On other China developments, the State Department was silent. McDermott declined comment on what military assistance the Nationalists had asked for, and on a published report that the department has advised American Consulate officials that Formosa's fall is likely and should be minimized in advance to prevent damage to American prestige.

Hoover, Taft Plans Hit

At the same time an Administration foreign-policy spokesman took issue with proposals by former President Hoover and Republican Senator Taft that America use armed strength if necessary to keep the island fortress out of Communist hands.

Representative Kee (D., W.Va.), chairman of the House Foreign Affairs Committee, said armed intervention by the United States in the Far Eastern crisis might touch off a new World War.

Asked specifically of the Hoover-Taft proposals put forth last night, Kee told a reporter:

"I'm fearful."

Two Possible Courses

He said he believes there are only two possible courses to follow:

1. Leave the matter in abeyance. I know that is not the popular thing to do, but frequently such problems can best be solved by moving slowly.

2. Walk in, and if we walk in we have got to go in not half-heartedly, but with all our power, not just the Navy. It would ultimately lead, in my opinion, to use of the Army. This would put us in the gravest danger of starting World War III.

CHINA ASKS U. S. TO AID FORMOSA

State Dept. Reveals Plea; Military Help, Funds Sought

JAN 4 1950

WASHINGTON, Jan. 3 (AP)—The State Department disclosed belatedly today that the Chinese nationalists have put the issue of saving Formosa directly up to the administration with an urgent new plea for American aid.

Ambassador Wellington Koo submitted the plea December 23. It came to light amid an increasing flurry of controversy in the new congress over what course the United States should follow towards China.

Military Aid Asked

Koo asked in a formal memorandum for military support, the unfreezing of nearly $100,000,000 once earmarked for China and the dispatch of military, political, and economic advisers to help save Formosa from conquest by the Chinese communists.

The answer may already have been decided upon, at least in part, at last week's meeting of President Truman with the National Security Council. This was followed by authoritative reports that Mr. Truman ruled out the idea of direct military assistance. The administration stand on economic aid and the dispatch of advisers has not been spelled out.

The nationalist appeal for help was revealed only after Senator Knowland (R-Calif), prodded the State Department. Last Friday, Dec. 30, Michael J. McDermott, department press officer, said he knew of no such formal request. Last night Knowland said the request was made about Dec. 23 and "if Mr. McDermott is not fully advised, he should get himself fully informed."

Wants Facts Made Public

"The time has come for the people to get the full facts," said Knowland.

McDermott, in disclosing the Chinese plea today, said he had not been informed of it last Friday and was trying to find out why.

Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek is trying to turn Formosa, island off the Chinese coast, into a stronghold against his communist foes. An Associated Press dispatch today from Taipeh, Formosa, said informed sources there were confident U. S. aid will come if the nationalists can hold out another six to eight weeks.

The dispatch said the new Formosa governor, K. C. Wu, had scored some successes in an effort to solve political and economic problems, but still faced other problems including:

1. Smuggling by the nationalist navy.

2. Corruption among certain army units, in which non-existent soldiers are carried on the rolls to enrich high officers.

Some members of congress advised caution in aiding the defense of Formosa, lest it lead to a world war. But others urged that the United States act quickly to save the island, as proposed by former President Hoover and Senator Taft (R-Ohio).

HUNGARY ORDERED TO CLOSE OFFICES

JAN 4 1950

Two Consulates To Be Shut; Prisoners' Cases Cited

Washington, Jan. 3 (AP) — The United States today ordered Hungarian consulates in New York and Cleveland to be closed because of Communist Hungary's treatment of two jailed Americans.

A sharp note charging gross violation of the 1926 Hungarian-American commercial and consular treaty gave the two establishments until midnight January 15 to shut down.

The brusque action forecast a tougher attitude toward other Soviet bloc states where Americans have been jailed as "spies" or have dropped from sight. Poland and Czechoslovakia already have been warned that positive measures are under consideration to reinforce repeated official protests.

No Break In Relations

No break in formal relations with Hungary was involved in the closing order. Its effect will be to channel into the Hungarian legation in Washington the trade problems and other matters the New York and Cleveland consulates have been handling. The United States has only a single establishment at Budapest to handle all diplomatic and consular affairs.

Identical notes delivered to the Foreign Office there and to Minister Imre Horvath here recited that Hungary for the last 40 days has kept Robert Vogeler, American communications company official, in jail and has repeatedly rebuffed American demands that a United States consul be allowed to talk with him.

It noted that another American, Israel Jacobson, was held incommunicado for nearly two weeks in December by the Hungarian police and then was expelled without explanation.

Treaty Provides Protection

The 1926 treaty permits the arrest of citizens of either country but provides that they are entitled to the protection of their consuls. Vogeler, an assistant vice president of the International Telephone and Telegraph Corporation, has been held since November 18. The Hungarian Government now has charged him with "espionage and sabotage," without giving him a public hearing.

"The question arises whether it is now accepted judicial procedure in Hungary that the police shall draw up the charges, produce a 'confession' and hand down the verdict before a case is even brought before a court of law," Hungary was told.

"The United States Government states categorically that it cannot recognize as just or in any way conclusive as to the facts of the case such arbitrary judgment by the police or any subsequent action by a court which, without impartial examination or weighing of the evidence, merely indorsed a verdict of guilty announced . . . by the police authorities."

APPEAL MADE TO PRAGUE

Senator Asks Czechs to Spare Life of Alleged Spy

WASHINGTON, Jan. 3 (AP)—Senator Hubert Humphrey, Democrat, of Minnesota, said tonight he had appealed to the Czechoslovak Ambassador to have his Government spare the life of Koral Folta, who has been sentenced to death as an alleged spy for the United States.

Folta, former leader of the now-outlawed Slovak Democratic party in Czechoslovakia, has three brothers living in this country. Senator Humphrey's office said that all three brothers are in Minnesota and are personal friends of the Senator.

"Our two nations, the United States of America and the Republic of Czechoslovakia, are at peace," the Senator said. "It is inconceivable that one could receive a death sentence for the alleged conveyance of information for the United States or any other country with whom Czechoslovakia is at peace."

DRAFT MEASURE EXTENSION URGED

Hershey Calls It 'Cheapest Insurance Against War'

Washington, Jan. 3 (AP) — Maj. Gen. Lewis B. Hershey, director of selective service, tonight urged Congress to extend the national draft law as the "cheapest insurance against war."

Unless Congress extends it, the draft law will expire next June 24. It has not been used for nearly a year, and the Army recently began releasing 30,000 men who were inducted or recruited under its terms before draft calls ceased.

Hershey told a gathering of Jewish war veterans that if war comes, the existence of selective service would save four to six months in comparison with the situation if there were no draft machinery.

Tells Of 3-Fold Significance

And those few months, he said, "might well make the difference between survival and extinction as a nation."

Hershey said extension of the law would have three-fold significance:

1. As assurance to friendly nations that the United States intends to keep its pledges under the Atlantic treaty and other pacts.

2. As a notice or warning to potential enemies that the United States does not intend to let them ride roughshod over weaker nations and that words will be backed up with manpower.

3. As a recognition of the obligation Americans owe themselves to protect their own existence, and recognition of the American principle that "we can't continue to enjoy freedom unless we are willing to make sacrifices to protect it."

Black Refuses Special Terms In British Loan

JAN 4 1950

World Bank Insists Upon Its Usual Supervision; London Signing Doubted

WASHINGTON, Jan. 3 (AP).—Eugene R. Black, president of the World Bank, said today the bank loan terms which a British government agency termed "unacceptable" are reasonable terms and will not be waived for any one. Furthermore, he told a news conference, the bank's provisions merely conform to the standard practice of private banks in this country.

Mr. Black emphasized that the World Bank is willing to resume negotiating the $5,000,000 loan application by Britain's Colonial Development Corporation if the agency changes its mind about the bank's terms.

But Lord Trefgarne, chairman of the British agency, has indicated a change is doubtful. He told reporters in London yesterday the bank's terms are "too onerous." He said the bank wants to know too much about the agency's operations.

The terms which led to the break in negotiations for the loan are standard conditions for all World Bank borrowers. They give the bank power to supervise purchases made with its money and the use to which the purchased goods are put.

Observing that the British planned to spend the $5,000,000 to buy a special-type "crawler" tractor made in the United States but not in Britain, Mr. Black commented: "I think it is perfectly reasonable to request that when we lend money to buy machinery, we get to see what they are going to do with it."

The French government turned over $25,037,166 today to the Export-Import Bank as payment of interest and principal on two American loans.

ENVOYS TOLD OF PET RULING

Diplomats Must Not Expect Travel Delay Refunds

JAN 4 1950

Washington, Jan. 3 (AP)—The United States Court of Claims today told American diplomats abroad:

It's all right to have dogs, but don't expect Uncle Sam to pay the bill for delays if you can't get travel space for your pets and if you refuse to travel without them.

The case involved C. C. M. Pedersen, a former State Department employé. He had sued the Government for $1,742 in living expenses for the time spent in awaiting transportation home from Egypt in 1945.

Said Chief Justice Marvin Jones, in a written decision:

"We have very little respect and no affection for anyone who has not at sometime in his life loved a dog."

Cut Claim To $450

As for cats, the justice said the animal has "always been a favorite pet with many people."

But he said Pederson and his wife could have left Cairo sooner than they did if they had been willing to leave two dogs and a cat behind. Pederson had explained that no transportation was available to take his pets with him.

The court ruled they could have left $1,292 worth sooner. It cut Pederson's claim down to $450.

U.S. Shipping Rice To Japan

Washington, Jan. 3 (AP)—The Government announced today it is shipping 500,000 bags of California rice to Japan.

The cereal was purchased from the Commodity Credit Corporation with acquired it last May in its price support program. The Army's purchase price was $5 per 100 pounds.

Ban on War Planes' Sale Urged

WASHINGTON, Jan. 3 (AP)—The Justice Department asked Congress today to ban the manufacture and sale of military airplanes for use by any foreign government against a country with which the United States is at peace. A bill prepared by the department also would ban the sale of planes for transporting contraband.

Caribbean War Games To Test New U.S. Weapons And Tactics

JAN 4 1950

Norfolk, Va., Jan. 3 (AP)—The 80,000 men fighting a land-sea-air mock war in the Caribbean late this winter will use weapons and tactics evolved since World War II.

The armed forces disclosed today some of the details of "Exercise Portrex," the joint war games of the Army, Navy, Air Force and Marine Corps during February and March.

The joint chiefs of staff at Washington had designated Admiral W. H. P. Blandy, commander in chief of the Atlantic Fleet, to command the exercise. However, since then the Navy has announced Blandy will retire about February 1.

His successor, Vice Admiral W.M. Fechteler, therefore will become the manuever commander. Fechteler will move up to four-star rank when he becomes Atlantic fleet chief.

Subs Get Priority

The latest developments in undersea warfare will be tested at the outset of the games. An "invasion" by troops aboard transports, with convoy of warships, must expect submarine as well as air attacks as it heads out from this port.

The navy high command has given first priority to submarine warfare, both offensive and defensive, and in Exercise Portrex will have opportunity to test both its new secret equipment and tactics.

More than 150 ships of all types —carriers, a battleship, cruisers, destroyers, submarines, transports and amphibious landing vessels— have been assigned to the war games. Some amphibious ships are being borrowed from the Pacific Fleet for the maneuvers.

3d Infantry Assigned

The army's 3d Infantry Division, from Fort Benning, Ga., augmented with attached units including a battalion combat team of the famous 82d Airborne Division from Fort Bragg, N.C., will be the invasion force assigned to seize the Island of Vieques, 6 miles off Puerto Rico.

Information from Benning shows the division now has a firepower far greater than that of any division of wartime days—the result of more weapons of all types and new weapons, including the recoil-less 57 and 75-millimeter rifles.

The division has, also, 123 M-26 medium tanks mounting 90-millimeter guns; 9 smaller M-24 tanks with 75-millimeter guns and 12 M-24's with 105-millimeter howitzers.

Double-Barrel Attack

Use of the combat team of airborne troops will give the invaders a double-edged weapon—attack over the beach and from the air by paratroopers and glider men sent up from forward land bases. Whether the Marines will use their new technique of airborne troops carried by helicopters, from the decks of carriers has not been disclosed.

The defenders of Vieques will depend on submarines and planes. There will be no surface warships in the defending fleet. Marine air units—using jet fighters, night fighters, patrol planes and seaplanes—will make up their air defenses.

Pitted against the defense will be the Air Force's fighters to support and cover the landing troops; both jet and conventional-engined fighters and fighter-bombers put up from the invading fleet's aircraft carriers, and the bombardment of naval gunfire from the battleship, cruisers and destroyers in the fleet.

The background against which the maneuvers are carried out will be assumed thus:

War exists between the United States and an enemy nation designated as "aggressor."

Seek To Seize Peninsula

The strategic plans provide for an amphibious-airborne seizure of a peninsula (the island of Vieques is the "peninsula"). Troops of the aggressor hold Vieques. The invasion force wants the peninsula as a base for launching strategic air war against the aggressor.

Lieut. Gen. W. H. H. Morris, Army, commander in chief of the Caribbean, will command the defense forces. Lieut. Gen. J. R. Hodge, commander of the 5th Army Corps, will head the invasion forces. Lieut. Gen. L. P. Hunt, commander of fleet marine forces in the Atlantic, will be chief umpire.

WAR GAMES TO BE HELD IN CARIBBEAN

NORFOLK, Va., Jan. 3 (AP)—The armed forces will send a vast assault force into the Caribbean shortly to get experience in seizing an overseas base for strategic air operations.

Headquarters for the maneuver disclosed today that 80,000 men will make up the assault force and the defense force which will try to repel it.

It said more than 150 ships, together with planes of the Army, Navy, Air Force and Marine Corps, will transport and support army assault units.

They will be opposed by submarines and by jet fighters, night fighters, partol planes and seaplanes of the Marine Corps.

The opposing naval force will include no surface vessels. While headquarters did not say so, this probably reflects the fact that Russia's fleet is made up mostly of submarines.

Both amphibious and airborne assault units will be composed of Army troops. Asked why Marines will not hit the beaches also, a Navy spokesman told reporters in Washington that the "available amphibious lift" is not sufficient to allow full scale participation by both Army and Marine units.

He said the Marines participated on a major basis, with some minor Army participation, in the fleet landing exercises in the Caribbean last year.

In order to provide adequate training for the Army, the Navy spokesman added, that service was given the major role in the forthcoming exercise.

He said also that a separate Marine exercise will be held later in the North Carolina area.

The Caribbean exercise will be called Portrex, which is short for Puerto Rican exercise. It will take place during February and March. The objective of the assault force will be the island of Vieques, six miles southeast of Puerto Rico.

WARD RETURNS; WILL REPORT TO WASHINGTON

JAN 4 1950

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 3 (AP)—Angus Ward pointed his famous goatee at the skyline here today, waved a thumb aloft, and grinned:

"Ting hao."—very good—said the former American consul general in Mukden, returning to American soil from his long detention by the Chinese communists in Manchuria.

To Report to Washington

Beyond that the cautious diplomat wasn't talking much. He still has to report to Washington, where policy is made.

Arriving today with Mrs. Ward and seven of his consular staff on the liner President Wilson, Ward refused to be pessimistic about China. A reporter inverted a thumb in a familiar Chinese gesture and asked if that was how Ward would describe the Chinese situation.

"That would mean it's hopeless," said Ward. "No, I wouldn't agree."

He parried questions about the political currents that led to his being "tried" and expelled from Red China. Asked who the real bosses of Manchuria are, Ward said "the chairman of the local government, Kao Kang, takes orders from the central government in Peking (Peiping.)"

"If he takes them from anyone else I don't know about it."

Ordered by the State Department to close down and bring his staff home last summer, Ward said that at first the local reds told him he could take his staff out at any time. Then suddenly, he was unable to arrange transportation and things grew worse from the noon. The climax came when Ward was charged with beating a Chinese messenger boy.

"I was able to deny these charges," Ward said.

Ordered Deported

His "trial," however, resulted in order for the deportation of Ward and his staff, and after 28 days in jail, he left Mukden and sailed from Tientsin Dec. 14 on the Lakeland Victory for Yokohama.

Returning with the Wards were seven members of the consular staff. They include Vice-Consuls Fred Hubbard of Edgemont, S. D., and William Stokes of Staten Island; Hugo S. Picard, Fall River, Mass.; Mary Braden, Dysart, Ia.; Walter Norman, Sealey, Tex.; Mr. and Mrs. Shiro Tastumi and two children of Seattle; and Miss Janina Nowicka, listed as a maid.

China Reds Say U.S. Signs Pact To Arm Formosa

JAN 4 1950

San Francisco, Jan. 3 (AP)—The Chinese Communists in Peiping today charged the United States has made a secret agreement to arm the Nationalists for their defense of Formosa.

The broadcast coincided with disclosure in Washington that the Nationalists have made a new plea for United States military and other advisers to help save the island.

The Red radio asserted the United States would furnish sixteen naval vessels, arms and equipment for five divisions, radar installations, airplane parts and repairing equipment. It was heard here by the Associated Press.

Report Pact Signed

The Peiping radio said the agreement was signed in the United States some time in December by Yu Ta-wei. Yu formerly was the Nationalist Government's Minister of Communications.

In one respect, the broadcast paralleled a report today from sources on Formosa who asserted both United States economic and military aid was forthcoming.

The Communists said the United States aid would come from a $75,000,000 appropriation by Congress and a $90,000,000 loan. The Formosan sources said there would be $84,000,000 in unspent United States aid funds for economic help and military aid would come from the $75,000,000 appropriation.

Peiping also said the United States would send a military mission to Formosa which would "take full charge of military, political and economic affairs of Taiwan (Formosa)."

The Communists charged that "should the above-mentioned aid" fail, "American imperialism will occupy the island under the pretext of asking the United Nations organization to exercise trusteeship control."

ADMIRAL BOGAN TO RESIGN TO BAR TRANSFER

The commander of the United States First Task Fleet said he had learned through the press that orders were being issued transferring him to the Fleet Air Command at Jacksonville, Fla.

He announced through the 11th Naval District that he was asking to be placed on the retired list, as soon as he is relieved from his present command.

Veteran Aviator

Bogan, a veteran navy aviator, authored a letter that indirectly touched off the airing of the bitter unification dispute before a committee of Congress.

It was this letter—indorsed by Admirals A. W. Radford and Louis E. Denfeld—that Capt. Charles G. Crommelin copied and handed to reporters in Washington in October.

Denfeld was subsequently relieved as chief of naval operations.

The text of Bogan's request, which he said was being forwarded to the Secretary of the Navy through service channels, said:

"Having learned through the public press that orders are being issued to transfer me to Fleet Air Command, Jacksonville, Fla., I hereby apply for transfer to the retired list, effective upon relief from present duties plus accrued leave in excess of 60 days."

Saw Security Endangered

Bogan's letter, which Crommelin leaked to the press, expressed his opinion that the Navy was being ruined and national security endangered by the unification policies of the Department of Defense.

Denfeld, after supporting Bogan's views before the Congress committee, was relieved as chief of naval operations but refused transfer to the Navy's European command. He is now on leave.

Radford indorsed the letter as commander of the Pacific fleet, a post he still holds.

Crommelin has been transferred from staff duties at Washington, D.C., to a post at San Francisco.

Called "Vagabond Admiral"

Admiral Bogan, who is 55, won the nickname of the "Vagabond Admiral" during World War II.

He was forced to swim from sinking ships on several occasions while serving with carrier forces in the Pacific. As a result of his service he holds the Navy Cross, the Distinguished Service Medal, with gold star in lieu of a second medal, and the Legion of Merit.

Early in the war doctors told the Admiral he would never serve at sea again. While commandnig the famed carrier Saratoga, later sunk by an atomic bomb at Bikini, Bogan was seriously injured by a fall from the flight deck during a blackout.

Proves His Point

The doctors said "Jerry" Bogan was through commanding fighting ships. Typically, Bogan said the doctors were crazy. He proved his point by assuming command of a carrier division in January, 1944, and continued to command carrier forces until the end of the war.

Those who served with Bogan during those times say he is tough, but will back his men up to the hilt. He has the faculty of inspiring loyalty in the men who serve with him. The word "inspiring" occurs several times in his citations.

When his forces were under attack, Bogan personally gave orders to his ships over the shortwave radio. One of his skippers once said that everyone could be tense and jittery under a heavy attack until the Admiral's clear, decisive voice came across the water. Then they would calm down.

Stays With His Man

At the end of the war Bogan refused to return to this country until he was sure that every man of his staff down to the seamen had orders for home. Those who have served with him say also that he makes it a point to be interested in the personal lives of the men serving with him, as well as their official ones.

That is one of the reasons, they point out, why the Admiral inspires such fierce loyalty in those around him.

In August, 1924, Bogan reported to the Naval Air Station at Pensacola, Fla., for flight training. He was designated naval aviator March 16, 1925.

Since that date he has served continuously with naval aviation. He became a captain December 8, 1941. On December 7, 1942, he was made a rear admiral. On December 28, 1945, he was appointed vice admiral.

JAN 4 1950

NEW YORK, Jan. 3—(AP) Most Communist diplomats and statesmen east of the iron curtain seem convinced that the United States and the Soviet Union eventually will go to war, says Lt. Gen. Walter Bedell Smith, former U. S. ambassador to Moscow.

It would be "foolish to disregard the danger of war" that is inherent in the current situation, Smith says in his book, "My Three Years in Moscow," published tomorrow.

Thus, he warns, it is important to remember that the United States will be forced to continue a cold war struggle "that may extend over a period of many years."

"We dare not allow ourselves any false sense of security," Smith writes. "We must anticipate that the Soviet tactic will be to attempt to wear us down, to exasperate us, to keep probing for the weak spots, and we must cultivate firmness and patience to a degree which we have never before required."

Smith's book hacks a sizeable chink in the iron curtain for a revealing look at what goes on beyond it. The book covers the critical period in U. S.-Soviet relations from March, 1946, when he arrived in Moscow amid gradually rising tension, until the end of 1948, when the cold war was raging.

"The Kremlin," says Smith, "has embarked on an aggressive line of action which carries with it the possibility of war. That danger is enhanced by the Communist belief in the inevitability of such a conflict. However, the Kremlin's test of the desirability of any policy presumably is whether it will yield a substantial gain in achieving the ultimate objective of world communism under the Bolshevik dictatorship without great risk."

Thus, he says, Stalin may think Russia prepared after 10 or more years of peace, with the population refreshed and more five-year plans behind the Soviet Union. Smith does not say so, but the possibility of Stalin's death—he is now 70—cannot be overlooked in such a line of reasoning. One way or another it would have a profound effect on the course of history.

"At present," writes Smith, "beyond question there appears to exist a war psychosis among Soviet leaders. x x x The fear of imminent war has been deliberately fostered for the past three years by the Soviet government and its propaganda agencies in order to impede the economic recovery of the west, to spur the Soviet people to greater industrial effort and to hide present Soviet weaknesses."

DIPLOMATS LECTURED

Romula Urges Better Manners For Dignity Of U.N.

New York, Jan. 3 (AP)—The world's diplomats have been warned that they should mend their manners to preserve the dignity of the United Nations General Assembly.

Ambassador Carlos P. Romulo, the Assembly president, brought up the problem in the United Nations Magazine, claiming that the United Nations sometimes behaves "like a 4-year-old."

"More than one honorable delegate, oblivious of the fact that he has all the world for a stage, has walked out of meetings in a huff," he wrote.

Abuse Hurled From Rostrum

"Some have used the rostrum of the Assembly itself as a vantage point from which to hurl verbal abuse at nations, ideologies and sometimes even at mortal men. . . . Not so long ago we were treated to an unedifying spectacle when some delegates . . . ignored the whole proceeding, sulking in their chairs like children who, finding that they can't have things their own way, refuse to abide by the rules of the game."

Romulo did not mention any delegate by name, nor did he identify the nations they represented. He said, however, that, "in fairness to the people of the world," it must be admitted that fault does not lie wholly on one side.

Measure To Maintain Dignity

Mentioning various measures he applied to maintain the dignity of the Assembly, Romulo said he was happy to recall he never had occasion to take the extreme measure: to have statements expunged from the record. Several speakers were ruled out of order but never on account of a serious breach of the rules of parliamentary propriety, he said.

"Having no coercive power, the Assembly depends mainly on its moral authority in carrying out its decisions. The greater the respect it can command, the more effective it will be as an instrument of peace," Romulo concluded.

COUNSEL FOR RED FAILS IN ATTEMPT TO CALL ACHESON

JAN 4 1950

NEW YORK, Jan. 3 — (AP) The defense in the Coplon-Gubitchev spy conspiracy case tried and failed today to subpoena Secretary of State Dean Acheson as a witness.

The attempt came after Acheson informed the U. S. District court here that the diplomatic visa of Soviet engineer Valetin A. Gubitchev was valid for only one year after his arrival in the United States in 1946.

Claims Immunity

In a pre-trial hearing before Federal Judge Sylvester J. Ryan, Gubitchev is claiming that he is immune from arrest or trial as the holder of a diplomatic passport and visa.

Gubitchev, a Russian engineer now suspended from his United Nations post, and Judith Coplon, former Department of Justice employe, are accused of conspiring to steal secret government papers for the Russians.

Acheson said in his letter that Gubitchev was granted a diplomatic visa because he was at that time third secretary of the Soviet delegation to the UN. The visa was valid for only one year and Gubitchev did not ask an extension, Acheson said, adding:

"Mr. Gubitchev has never been accepted by the Department of State as a diplomatic representative of the Soviet government."

Gubitchev's lawyer, Abraham Pomerantz, told Judge Ryan "each and every statement in that letter is false and irresponsible." He asked an opportunity to put Acheson on the witness stand in an effort to prove that the secretary's statements were false.

Court Denies Request

Ryan denied the request and also refused to strike the letter from the official record of the hearing.

Earlier, the government turned over to the court six sealed packages of recordings made from Miss Coplon's wire-tapped telephone conversations at her Washington apartment.

Miss Coplon had asked that these records be produced and the judge granted the request.

Archibald Palmer, Miss Coplon's lawyer, is trying to get the case against her thrown out on the ground that it rests on wire-tap evidence alone. The Supreme court has held that such evidence cannot be used in court.

LONDON, JAN 3-(AP)-THREE LEADING BRITISH NEWSPAPERS EXPRESSED FEAR YESTERDAY THAT THE U.S. GOVERNMENT'S CHINA POLICY MIGHT STRAIN FUTURE ANGLO-AMERICAN COOPERATION IN FOREIGN RELATIONS.

ALL THREE CARRIED STRONG CRITICISMS OF RECENT REPORTS FROM WASHINGTON THAT PRESIDENT TRUMAN HAD AGREED TO A STUDY OF POSSIBLE AID TO GENERALISSIMO CHIANG KAI-SHEK'S NATIONALIST FORCES ON THE ISLANDS OF FORMOSA AND HAINAN. BRITAIN, HERSELF, IS EXPECTED SOON TO RECOGNIZE THE CHINESE COMMUNIST REGIME OF MAO TZE-TUNG.

EDITORIALS IN THE TIMES, THE DAILY TELEGRAPH AND THE MANCHESTER GUARDIAN WARNED OF THE POSSIBILITY BRITAIN AND THE U.S. MIGHT FIND THEMSELVES RECOGNIZING OPPOSITE SIDES IN THE CHINESE CONFLICT.

MOST CRITICAL OF THE THREE WAS THE MANCHESTER GUARDIAN, WHICH BLAMED THE U.S. POLICY ON DOMESTIC POLITICS AND SAID "THE ACTION IN FORMOSA IS DEPLORABLE."

"HAVING WASHED HER HANDS OF CHIANG," THE GUARDIAN SAID, "SHE (THE U.S.) IS NOW UNWASHING THEM. IT IS THE OLD TROUBLE OF TRYING TO UNSCRAMBLE AN OMELET."

THE TIMES COMMENTED THAT "BRITAIN AND THE UNITED STATES WOULD FIND THEMSELVES RECOGNIZING OPPOSITE SIDES IN A SQUALID AND USELESS STRUGGLE IN THE CHINA SEA."

DESCRIBING AMERICAN POLICY TOWARD CHINA AS "VACILLATING AND IMPRECISE," THE CONSERVATIVE DAILY TELEGRAPH DECLARED:

"THE BRIGHTEST HOPE IN MOSCOW FOR A NEW YEAR WOULD BE A BREAK IN THE SOLIDARITY WHICH HAS GOVERNED ANGLO-AMERICAN RELATIONS IN RECENT YEARS."

THE MANCHESTER GUARDIAN SAID THE U.S. WAS FORMING ITS NEW CHINA POLICY WITHOUT CONSULTING BRITAIN, "ALTHOUGH EACH COUNTRY HAD AGREED TO INFORM THE OTHER OF ANY MOVE IT WAS MEDITATING IN THE FAR EAST."

THE TIMES COMMENTED THAT, IN VIEW OF THE FAILURE OF THE OLD CHINA POLICY, IT WAS "A LITTLE DISTURBING X X X TO FIND THE UNITED STATES ONCE AGAIN ACTING IMPULSIVELY AND IN OBEDIENCE TO WHAT MAY BEST BE CALLED REFLEX ACTION."

ATTLEE'S FIVE-YEAR TERM IS UP AT THE END OF JULY, AND HE MUST CALL A GENERAL ELECTION BEFORE THEN. LATELY POLITICAL OBSERVERS HAVE BEEN SPECULATING ON LATE FEBRUARY OR EARLY MARCH AS THE MOST LIKELY TIME FOR AN ELECTION TO DETERMINE WHETHER THE LABOR GOVERNMENT STAYS IN POWER.

THE DOLLAR VALUE OF THE POUND WAS CUT FROM $4.03 TO $2.80 ON SEPTEMBER 18. THIS MADE BRITISH GOODS CHEAPER IN AMERICA. AMERICAN BUYING IN BRITAIN SHOT UP AT ONCE, AND BRITAIN'S DOLLAR EARNINGS INCREASED.

BRITAIN NEEDS THE DOLLARS TO BUY FOOD AND RAW MATERIALS FOR HER PEOPLE AND INDUSTRIES.

CONSERVATIVE LEADER WINSTON CHURCHILL CRITICISED DEVALUATION AS A "BLUNDER" AND A DISASTER.

BUT THE RESERVE, WHICH HAD DROPPED $220,000,000 IN THE QUARTER ENDING SEPTEMBER 30, IS NOW GROWING. THIS RESERVE HAD DROPPED WELL BELOW THE DANGER MARK OF $2,000,000,000 BEFORE DEVALUATION WAS DECIDED UPON.

TREASURY EXPERTS ARE NOT PASSING FINAL JUDGMENT ON THE SUCCESS OR FAILURE OF DEVALUATION, HOWEVER. PART OF THE IMPROVEMENT MAY BE TRACED TO THE FACT THAT AMERICAN BUYERS HELD UP ORDERS IN BRITAIN LAST SUMMER IN ANTICIPATION OF DEVALUATION. THE BACKED-UP PURCHASING CONTRIBUTED TO THE POST-DEVALUATION BOOM. BUT HOW MUCH IS NOT KNOWN.

FOR ANOTHER THING, BRITAIN DID SOME STOCKPILING OF AMERICAN COTTON, TOBACCO AND METALS BEFORE DEVALUATION WHEN IT WAS CHEAPER TO BUY WHILE THE POUND WAS STILL WORTH $4.03.

ALSO, OTHER MEMBERS OF THE STERLING AREA -- MOST OF THE COMMONWEALTH COUNTRIES, BURMA, IRAQ AND ICELAND -- HAVE STEPPED UP THEIR CAMPAIGNS TO EARN MORE DOLLARS. THEY CHEAPENED THEIR MONEY THE SAME TIME BRITAIN DID. THEIR DOLLAR EARNINGS GO INTO THE BRITISH RESERVE FUND, A COMMON POOL OVER WHICH BRITAIN PRESIDES AS BANKER.

MANCHESTER, ENG.,JAN.3-(AP)-JAPAN IS BEGINNING TO COMPETE STRONGLY WITH BRITAIN IN FAR EAST AND COLONIAL TEXTILE MARKETS, THE MANCHESTER CHAMBER OF COMMERCE WAS TOLD TODAY.

A REPORT BY THE EXECUTIVE OFFICE OF THE CHAMBER'S CHINA AND FAR EAST SECTION COMPLAINED THAT THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT HAS SO FAR FAILED TO APPRECIATE THE THREAT.

IT ALSO URGED QUICK RECOGNITION OF THE NEW COMMUNIST REGIME IN CHINA SAYING:

"IF WE FREE THE CHANNELS OF TRADE AND COMMERCE WITH THE WESTERN DEMOCRACIES WE MIGHT PREVENT THE LOWERING OF ANOTHER IRON CURTAIN IN THE FAR EAST."

THE REPORT DECLARED THAT "SERIOUS COMPETITION" FROM JAPAN FOR TRADITIONAL BRITISH TEXTILE MARKETS IS ONLY A QUESTION OF TIME.

"THIS COMPETITION IS ONLY LIMITED AT THE MOMENT BY SHORTAGES OF RAW MATERIALS IN JAPAN AND SHORTAGE OF DOOLLARS BY POTENTIAL CUSTOMERS," THE REPORT SAID.

"THESE BARRIERS, UNDER THE PRESSURE OF ECONOMIC NECESSITY, MAY BREAK DOWN MORE RAPIDLY THAN IS GENERALLY THOUGHT.

"THE JAPANESE ESTIMATE THAT THIS YEAR 800,000,000 YARDS OF PIECE GOODS WILL BE EXPORTED, OR APPROXIMATELY ONE THIRD OF THE PREWAR FIGURE. IT MUST BE REMEMBERED, HOWEVER, THAT JAPAN HAS NOW LOST HER EMPIRE MARKETS, SUCH AS MANCHURIA AND KOREA, AND OTHERS ARE CLOSED TO HER AT THE MOMENT.

"THIS IS RESULTING IN THE FOCUSING OF HER EXPORT EFFORT ON THE BRITISH COLONIES AND THOSE FAR EASTERN MARKETS WHICH HAVE BEEN SO IMPORTANT TO BRITAIN IN THE PAST."

THE REPORT CALLED FOR "SOME LONG TERM POLICY" TOWARD THIS PROBLEM ON THE PART OF THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT.

"THERE IS YET NO SIGN," IT ASSERTED, "OF A TRUE REALIZATION IN OFFICIAL CIRCLES OF THE FUNDAMENTAL DANGERS IN THE PRESENT RE-DEVELOPMENT OF JAPAN'S COTTON TEXTILE INDUSTRY."

THE REPORT EXPRESSED HOPE THAT THE GOVERNMENT WILL "GIVE THE GREATEST WEIGHT" TO THE FINDINGS OF A FORTHCOMING ANGLO-AMERICAN MISSION WHICH WILL EXPLORE THE TEXTILE SITUATION IN JAPAN.

PARIS, JAN 3-(AP)-VICTOR IN SIX SUCCESSIVE VOTES OF CONFIDENCE, FRENCH PREMIER GEORGES BIDAULT PREPARED TODAY FOR THE FINAL PARLIAMENTARY TEST OF HIS RECORD-BREAKING BALANCED NATIONAL BUDGET.

THE LOWER HOUSE OF THE FRENCH PARLIAMENT, THE NATIONAL ASSEMBLY, APPROVED THE BUDGET LAST NIGHT ON THE SIXTH CONFIDENCE VOTE WHICH BIDAULT DEMANDED AND WON IN TEN DAYS. A DEFEAT ON ANY OF THE BALLOTS WOULD HAVE FORCED HIS GOVERNMENT TO RESIGN, WITH THE ADDED PROBABILITY OF NEW NATIONAL ELECTIONS.

BUT THE BUDGET STILL MUST BE APPROVED BY PARLIAMENT'S UPPER HOUSE--THE COUNCIL OF THE REPUBLIC. SHOULD THE COUNCIL REJECT THE MEASURE, IT MUST AGAIN PASS THE LOWER HOUSE WITH AN ABSOLUTE MAJORITY OF 311 VOTES.

THE LARGEST NUMBER OF VOTES CAST LAST NIGHT IN FAVOR OF THE BUDGET WAS 305.

BIDAULT WON THREE VOTES LAST NIGHT IN THE NATIONAL ASSEMBLY. ONE, 300 TO 296 FOR THE GOVERNMENT, APPROVED TWO TAX MEASURES TO RAISE 34,000,000,000 (B) FRANCS ($97,000,000).

THE ASSEMBLY, VOTING 304 TO 291, THEN GUARANTEED THAT FUTURE AMENDMENTS COULD NOT THROW THE BUDGET OUT OF BALANCE. THE FINAL VOTE, 305 TO 283, APPROVED THE BUDGET AS A WHOLE.

RUSSIA'S TRANSMISSION OF THE CHARGES THROUGH DIPLOMATIC CHANNELS RATHER THAN THROUGH ITS PRESS, AS IS ITS CUSTOMERY PROCEDURE, ADDED IMPORTANCE TO THE NOTE. IT ADDED TO THE CONVICTION HERE THAT THE RUSSIANS DELIBERATELY ISSUED THE ACCUSATION TO COINCIDE WITH CURRENT PREPARATIONS FOR THE ELECTIONS. Helsinki AOD ~~ex~~ government."

IN LONDON IT WAS FELT THAT MOSCOW MIGHT BE PREPARING TO GIVE FINLAND "FULL TREATMENT" DESIGNED FOR THOSE SOVIET NEIGHBORS WHO DO NOT SUBSCRIBE TO THE KREMLIN LINE. BRITISH OBSERVERS THOUGHT RUSSIA WAS INDICATING ITS DISPLEASURE AT ANTI-COMMUNIST POLITICAL DEVELOPMENTS UNDER THE PRESENT GOVERNMENT.

FURTHER INDICATION THAT THE SOVIET NOTE WAS PART OF A PRE-ELECTION CAMPAIGN WAS THE REPORT THAT THE RUSSIAN MINISTER TO FINLAND, GRIGORY SAVONENKOV, IS EXPECTED BACK FROM MOSCOW AFTER A LONG ABSENCE.

IT IS SIGNIFICANT, TOO, THAT THE GENERAL SECRETARY OF FINLAND'S SMALL COMMUNIST PARTY, VILLE PESSE, HAS RETURNED FROM MOSCOW ALONG WITH MRS. HERTTA HUUSINEN-LEINO, WHO IS REGARDED AS THE "SOUL" OF THE FINNISH COMMUNIST PARTY. MRS. LEINO'S HUSBAND WAS ONCE HEAD OF THE FINNISH MINISTRY OF INTERIOR AND CONTROLLED THE STATE POLICE BEFORE HE WAS OUSTED IN 1948.

THE FOREIGN MINISTRY HAS DECLARED THAT FINLAND HAS "A SERIOUS INTENTION TO DO EVERYTHING" TO FULFILL ITS TREATY OBLIGATIONS WITH RUSSIA.

PRESIDENT PAASIKIVI SAID IN A NEW YEAR'S MESSAGE, JUST AFTER NEWS OF THE SOVIET NOTE WAS BROADCAST FROM MOSCOW, THAT "THERE MUST BE NO ENEMIES OF THE SOVIET UNION IN FINLAND, ONLY FRIENDS."

IT WAS NOT THE FIRST TIME RUSSIA HAD MADE SUCH ACCUSATIONS AGAINST ITS TINY NEIGHBOR. TWO YEARS AGO IT DEMANDED THAT THIS COUNTRY HAND OVER 15 ESTONIAN REFUGEES ACCUSED OF WB CRIMES. THE FINNISH GOVERNMENT TURNED THEM OVER AND THE CHARGES WERE DROPPED.

RUSSIA'S ATTACKS ON THE PRESENT FINNISH GOVERNMENT STARTED A LITTLE OVER TWO WEEKS AGO WHEN THE SOVIET NEWSPAPER PRAVDA CHARGED PRIME MINISTER FAGERHOLM WITH "UNNEIGHBORLY" PROPOSALS WHICH WERE LEADING HIS COUNTRY DOWN A PATH OF "SENSELESS, BLOODY ADVENTURES."

HELSINKI, FINLAND, JAN. 3-(AP)-FINNISH COMMUNISTS BEGAN USING RUSSIA'S STRONG NEW YEARS PROTEST AGAINST THIS COUNTRY AS A TRUMP CARD TODAY IN THEIR CAMPAIGN AGAINST THE REELECTION OF PRESIDENT JUHO PAASIKIVI.

JAN 4 1950

A SOVIET NOTE LAST SUNDAY ACCUSED FINLAND OF PROTECTING MORE THAN 300 RUSSIAN WAR CRIMINALS IN VIOLATION OF THE PEACE TREATY BETWEEN THE TWO NATIONS. IT LISTED 56 OF THE ALLEGED CRIMINALS THAT THE RUSSIANS ESPECIALLY WANT EXTRADITED.

WITH THE SOVIET NOTE AS A SPRINGBOARD, THE COMMUNIST NEWSPAPERS ARE ATTACKING PAASIKIVI FOR WHAT THEY CALL "HIS POLITICAL ERRORS AND MISHAPS."

THEY DECLARED "PAASIKIVI HAS MADE HIMSELF IMPOSSIBLE FOR THE PRESIDENCY IN FINLAND."

THIS YEAR. ELECTORS WILL BE CHOSEN JAN. 16 AND 17 AND THE ELECTION WILL BE HELD FEB. 15.

THE CONSERVATIVE PRESS ALSO VIEWED THE RUSSIAN NOTE AS A SERIOUS POLITICAL DOCUMENT. HUFVUDSTADSBLADET SAID IF AN INVESTIGATION PROVES THAT RUSSIAN WAR CRIMINALS STILL REMAIN HERE, "THEN THE PEACE TREATY LEAVES NO DOUBT ABOUT THE CONSEQUENCES."

THE PAPER ADDED THAT IN VIEW OF THE FORTHCOMING ELECTION IT WAS HOPED THE GOVERNMENT WOULD REPLY TO THE RUSSIANS WITHOUT DELAY.

FINNISH SOURCES SAID THE FINNISH REPLY WOULD REQUIRE EXTENSIVE INVESTIGATION TO TRACE THE GROUP OF 56 ALLEGED CRIMINALS, AND AN ANSWER WOULD BE DELAYED FOR SEVERAL DAYS.

HONG KONG, JAN. 3-(AP)-AN AMERICAN CORPORATION TOMORROW WILL BEGIN A LEGAL EFFORT TO GAIN CONTROL OF CHINA'S TWO LARGEST AIRLINES.

ATTORNEYS FOR MAJ. GEN. CLAIRE L. CHENNAULT'S DELAWARE INCORPORATED CIVIL AIR TRANSPORT, INC., HAVE COMPLETED PREPARATIONS FOR FILING THE SUIT IN HONG KONG SUPREME COURT TOMORROW.

A WRIT ASKING "SPECIFIC PERFORMANCE OF CONTRACT" WILL BE PRESENTED IN COURT IN AN EFFORT TO COMPEL SURRENDER OF THE CHINA NATIONAL AIR AND THE CENTRAL AIR TRANSPORT CORPORATIONS' EQUIPMENT AND PLANES VALUED AT BETWEEN $20,000,000 (M)-$30,000,000.

CHENNAULT'S DELAWARE CORPORATION CLAIMS TO HAVE BOUGHT THE TWO AIRLINES FROM THE CHINESE GOVERNMENT. THE PURCHASE INCLUDED THE 20 PERCENT SHARE OF CNAC OWNED BY PAN AMERICAN AIRWAYS.

MAJOR ASSETS OF THE TWO AIRLINES HAVE BEEN IMPOUNDED BY PRO-RED EMPLOYED ON BEHALF OF THE CHINESE COMMUNIST GOVERNMENT.

A CAT OFFICIAL SAID YESTERDAY CHENNAULT HOPES TO ABSORB THE PLANES AND EQUIPMENT OF BOTH LINES FOR AN EXPANDED FAR EAST SERVICE. CHENNAULT HAS APPLIED TO THE AMERICAN AERONAUTICAL ADMINISTRATION TO REGISTER HIS CIVIL AIR TRANSPORT PLANES WHICH PREVIOUSLY FLEW UNDER CHINESE REGISTRY.

THIS WOULD BE THE PRELIMINARY ACTION IN REQUESTING AMERICAN AUTHORITY TO FLY NEW FAR EASTERN ROUTES OUTSIDE OF COMMUNIST TERRITORY.

TWO REPRESENTATIVES OF THE AAA ARRIVED TODAY TO INSPECT CAT EQUIPMENT AND PLANES PRELIMINARY TO ACTING ON CHENNAULT'S APPLICATION.

A CAT OFFICIAL SAID CHENNAULT'S NEW DELAWARE CORPORATION, CAT, INC., HAS ALREADY REGISTERED THE PLANES OF CATC AND CNAC WITH THE AMERICAN AAA INCLUDING THE 12 TRANSPORTS DEFECTING CHINESE PILOTS FLEW TO RED PEIPING IN NOVEMBER.

CAPTAIN GORDON POON, CHIEF PILOT FOR CATC, WHO FLEW ONE OF THE PLANES OVER TO THE COMMUNISTS, HAS RETURNED TO HONG KONG EVIDENTALLY TO JOIN THE FIGHT FOR POSSESSION OF THE OTHER AIRCRAFT.

POON RECENTLY TOLD A PARTY OF THE AIRLINES' PRO-COMMUNIST PERSONNEL THAT THE REDS ARE HOPING TO RESUME COMMERCIAL FLYING IN CHINA SOON.

CHENNAULT'S CLAIM TO OWNERSHIP OF THE 12 PLANES IN RED HANDS IS EXPECTED TO SET THE STAGE FOR ANOTHER SQUABBLE BETWEEN PEIPING AND WASHINGTON. THE HONG KONG BRITISH CROWN COLONY IS CAUGHT ALSO IN THE CONTROVERSY THROUGH AMERICAN PRESSURE FOR RELEASE OF THE PLANES AND CHINESE RED THREATS IF THEY ARE RELEASED TO ANYONE ELSE.

--DASH--

IN WASHINGTON, THE CIVIL AERONAUTICS ADMINISTRATION SAID CHENNAULT'S COMPANY APPLIED ABOUT TWO WEEKS AGO FOR REGISTRATION OF THE AIRPLANES AS AMERICAN AIRCRAFT. PROOF OF OWNERSHIP MUST BE MADE TO HAVE THE PLANES REGISTERED WITH THE CAA.

A CAA SPOKESMAN TOLD A REPORTER HE UNDERSTANDS THAT ABOUT 110 PLANES WERE INVOLVED. HE SAID HE ALSO UNDERSTANDS THEY ARE MOSTLY, IF NOT ALL, CURTIS C-46 COMMANDOS, A TWO-ENGINE TRANSPORT USED DURING THE WAR.

THE CAA SAID REX L.CARPENTER, A SAFETY AGENT, NOW IS IN HONG KONG TO INSPECT THE AIRPLANES AND THE FLIGHT PERSONNEL FOR QUALIFICATION TO RECEIVE FERRY PERMITS. THIS SPOKESMAN SAID CHENNAULT HAS NOT YET SAID WHERE THE PLANES ARE TO BE TAKEN. HE IS NOT REQUIRED TO DISCLOSE THE DESTINATION AT THIS POINT IN THE APPLICATION BUT MUST DO SO BEFORE THE PERMIT IS GRANTED.

A SECOND SAFETY AGENT, CLAUDE C.ASHER, IS DUE AT HONG KONG IN A DAY OR SO TO WORK WITH CARPENTER, THE CAA SAID.

THE SPOKESMAN SAID THE STATE DEPARTMENT IS BEING INFORMED OF ALL STEPS IN CONNECTION WITH THE APPLICATIONS.

MANILA, JAN 3-(AP)-PRESIDENT QUIRINO PLANS TO CALL A CONFERENCE OF "SOUTHWEST PACIFIC NATIONS" SHORTLY AFTER HE RETURNS FROM THE UNITED STATES LATE IN JANUARY, INFORMED SOURCES SAID TODAY.

THEY SAID THE PHILIPPINE PRESIDENT DISCLOSED THIS LAST NIGHT TO GEN.WU TEH-CHEN, CHINESE NATIONALIST MINISTER WITHOUT PORTFOLIO. QUIRINO LEAVES SOON FOR AN OPERATION AT JOHNS HOPKINS HOSPITAL AT BALTIMORE.

OBSERVERS PLACED EMPHASIS ON QUIRINO'S USE OF "SOUTHWEST PACIFIC" RATHER THAN "SOUTHEAST ASIA" WHICH HE USED LAST SPRING IN PROPOSING AN ANTI-COMMUNIST UNION.

ORIGINALLY, QUIRINO ENVISIONED NATIONALIST CHINA AND THE SOUTH KOREAN REPUBLIC AS MEMBERS OF A UNION WOULD COMBAT THE SPREAD OF COMMUNISM AND AID ECONOMIC IMPROVEMENT THROUGH JOINT EFFORTS.

SINCE THE TIME, BURMA, THAILAND (SIAM) AND INDIA HAVE RECOGNIZED COMMUNIST CHINA. INDIA HAS VIRTUALLY IGNORED THE QUIRINO PROPOSAL AND HER PARTICIPATION HAD BEEN REGARDED AS ESSENTIAL TO ANY EFFECTIVE UNION.

MEANWHILE, THE NATIONALIST GOVERNMENT HAS BEEN PUSHED OFF THE CHINESE MAINLAND TO THE ISLAND OF FORMOSA AND THE UNITED STATES ISSUED A WHITE PAPER WRITING OFF CHIANG KAI-SHEK'S NATIONALIST REGIME AS A FAILURE.

THE ORIGINAL PROPOSAL WAS ADVANCED AS A PACIFIC COUNTERPART TO THE ATLANTIC ALLIANCE. THE UNITED STATES PROMPTLY REJECTED ANY IDEA THAT IT SHOULD BE THE KEYSTONE IN ANY SUCH UNION BUT TOLD THE ASIAN NATIONS THEY WERE FREE TO GO AHEAD ON THEIR OWN.

FROM THAT TIME ON, QUIRINO SOFT-PEDALLED THE CHINESE NATIONALISTS AND CHIANG, WITH WHOM HE LAID THE FRAMEWORK AT A CONFERENCE AT BAGUIO IN THE PHILIPPINES LAST JULY. IT WAS ASSERTED FREELY HERE THAT ONE REASON FOR THIS WAS TO LURE THE BRITISH COMMONWEALTH NATIONS WHICH WERE EXPECTED EVENTUALLY TO RECOGNIZE THE CHINESE RED REGIME.

SOURCES HERE NOW SAY A SOUTHWEST PACIFIC GROUP MIGHT INCLUDE THE MALAYA, INDONESIA, INDOCHINA, THE PHILIPPINES, AUSTRALIA AND NEW ZEALAND.

QUIRINO ALSO WAS SAID TO HAVE PROMISED WU THAT THE PHILIPPINES WILL GIVE "MORAL SUPPORT" TO THE NATIONALISTS ON FORMOSA. THIS WAS TAKEN AS IMPLYING PHILIPPINE RECOGNITION OF RED CHINA IS IN THE DISTANT FUTURE.

CHARGES OF CONSPIRACY TO OVERTHROW THE GOVERNMENT AND SEDITION WERE FILED BEFORE MANILA COURT OF FIRST INSTANCE AGAINST LIEUT. FORTUNATO HERRERA OF THE CONSTABULARY AND JOSE P.MATIBAG, A FORMER GOVERNMENT MOTOR VEHICLE DIVISION EMPLOYE.

THE CHARGES ALLEGES THEY ARE MEMBERS OF AN "ORGANIZATION TO OVERTHROW THE GOVERNMENT OF THE PHILIPPINES" WHICH CIRCULATED PROPAGANDA LEAFLETS STATING A "PEOPLES UPRISING" WOULD BE AUGMENTED BY DIRECT AID FROM RUSSIA.

FROM BATANGAS PROVINCE, SOUTH OF MANILA, THE CONSTABULARY REPORTED 94 MEMBERS OF A SO-CALLED PHILIPPINES REVOLUTIONARY FORCE SURRENDERED WITH THEIR ARMS.

THE SURRENDER CAME AS A RESULT OF AMNESTY GRANTED "GENERAL" FRANCISCO MEDRANO BY PRESIDENT QUIRINO. QUIRINO SAID AMNESTY ALSO WOULD BE EXTENDED TO ALL MEDRANO FOLLOWERS WHO GAVE THEMSELVES UP AS THEIR LEADER DID.

MEDRANO, UNDER PROTECTIVE CUSTODY, WAS REPORTED IN THE BATANGAS JUNGLES TRYING TO CONTACT OTHER FOLLOWERS AND URGE THEM TO SURRENDER. HE LED ABOUT 600 MEN IN A REBELLION AGAINST THE GOVERNMENT THERE IN NOVEMBER.

FOREIGN AID

WASHINGTON, JAN.3-(AP)-U.S. AID TO FOREIGN COUNTRIES SINCE THE WAR NOW TOTALS NEARLY $30,000,000,000 (B).

A COMMERCE DEPARTMENT REPORT LAST NIGHT SAID THAT FROM MID-1945 THROUGH LAST SEPTEMBER THE AMOUNT WAS $28,187,000,000. FIGURES FOR THE LAST THREE MONTHS OF 1945 ARE EXPECTED LATER, SHOWING A ROUND SUM TOTAL OF ABOUT $30,000,000,000.

THE TOTAL AMOUNTS TO ABOUT $200 FOR EVERY PERSON IN THIS COUNTRY.

REDUCTIONS IN THE OUTFLOW ARE EXPECTED AS WAR-TORN COUNTRIES BE-BUILD.

WASHINGTON, JAN.3-(AP)-STATE DEPARTMENT OFFICIALS SAID TODAY THEY ARE PLANNING TO ESTABLISH AN INFORMATION PROGRAM IN THE ATLANTIC PACT COUNTRIES TO ANSWER QUESTIONS ABOUT AMERICAN MILITARY AID.

THEY SAID NO ELABORATE ORGANIZATION IS PLANNED, HOWEVER. EXISTING FACILITIES SUCH AS PRESS INFORMATION OFFICERS IN THE EMBASSIES WILL BE USED AS THE DISTRIBUTORS OF INFORMATION.

THE PROGRAM IS TO BE DIRECTED FROM WASHINGTON, BUT THE AMERICAN AMBASSADORS IN EACH COUNTRY WILL BE IN CHARGE OF ADMINISTRATIVE DETAIL.

INFORMED OFFICIALS SAID THE FINAL SCOPE OF THE PROGRAM HAS NOT YET BEEN DETERMINED.

A CLAUSE PLEDGING EACH GOVERNMENT RECEIVING ARMS AID TO PROVIDE "ADEQUATE INFORMATION" WILL BE INCLUDED IN THE AGREEMENTS THE UNITED STATES IS NEGOTIATING WITH EACH NATION PRIOR TO SENDING MILITARY SUPPLIES. THIS AGREEMENT WILL SPELL OUT THE CONDITIONS FOR AMERICAN AID.

OFFICIALS SAID THAT THIS COMBINED APPROACH SHOULD BE SUFFICIENT TO COUNTERACT THE EXPECTED COMMUNIST ATTACKS ON THE PROGRAM.

THEY EMPHASIZED, HOWEVER, THAT REPLYING TO THE COMMUNISTS WOULD BE INCIDENTAL.

GOP HOUSE LEADER MARTIN SAID THE NEWLY-CREATED SPECIAL "PRICE TAG COMMITTEE" OF REPUBLICANS WILL BE JUST WHAT ITS NAME IMPLIES--A COMMITTEE TO KEEP AN EYE ON THE TRUMAN ADMINISTRATION'S SPENDING PROPOSALS.

HE SAID THESE HAVE ALREADY REACHED "A HEIGHT DETRIMENTAL TO THE WELFARE OF THE COUNTRY" AND HE TOLD A NEWS CONFERENCE:

"IT IS IMPERATIVE THAT FACTS OF THIS SORT BE GATHERED IF WE ARE TO AVOID FISCAL DISASTER AHEAD OF US."

THE HOUSE AND WILL MAKE THEM PUBLIC ONCE A MONTH. HE SAID THE COST OF THE PENDING SHEAF OF BILLS FOR FEDERAL SPENDING "SCARES ME--I HOPE IT SCARES THE PUBLIC, TOO."

SPEAKER RAYBURN SAID THE HOUSE HAS NO BUSINESS ON SCHEDULE THIS WEEK. HE SAID LEADERS WANT TO LOOK THE SITUATION OVER BEFORE DIVING INTO A LEGISLATIVE PROGRAM BASED ON PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S THREE MAJOR ADDRESSES--TOMORROW'S "STATE OF THE UNION" TALK, FRIDAY'S ECONOMIC MESSAGE, AND THE PRESIDENT'S BUDGET REPORT, DUE MONDAY.

ON THE FIRST ROLLCALL, 336 OF THE HOUSE'S 432 MEMBERS ANSWERED PRESENT. TWO NEW MEMBERS, EDNA F.KELLY OF NEW YORK AND JOHN F.SHELLEY OF CALIFORNIA, BOTH DEMOCRATS, WERE SWORN IN.

IN THE SENATE, MAJORITY LEADER LUCAS (D-ILL) ANNOUNCED THAT THE FIRST ORDER OF BUSINESS IN THAT CHAMBER WILL BE DEBATE STARTING TOMORROW ON THE HOUSE-APPROVED MEASURE TO REPEAL TAXES ON OLEOMARGARINE.

IN ITS BRIEF SESSION TODAY, THE SENATE ADOPTED A RESOLUTION OF SORROW OVER THE DEATH LAST NOV. 8 OF SENATOR CLYDE REED (R-KAN).

THREE NEW MEMBERS, SENATORS LEHMAN (D-LIB-NY), BENTON (D-CONN) AND DARBY (R-KAN), WERE SWORN IN BY VICE PRESIDENT BARKLEY BEFORE THE SENATE ADJOURNED AT 12:37 P.M.

DEMOCRATIC LEADER LUCAS TOLD NEWSMEN THAT WITH CONGRESS ALREADY IN HIGH GEAR AFTER ITS WORK LAST SESSION, HE HOPES TO GET AN ELECTION-YEAR ADJOURNMENT BY THE FIRST OF NEXT JULY.

SENATOR KNOWLAND DEMANDED THAT THE STATE DEPARTMENT SUPPLY HIM A COPY OF A DEPARTMENT DOCUMENT WHICH HE UNDERSTOOD PREDICTED THE LOSS OF FORMOSA TO THE COMMUNISTS. NOLAN SAID THE DOCUMENT WAS A MESSAGE OF INSTRUCTION TO UNITED STATES ATTACHES ABROAD TO FOLLOW THE LINE THAT THE LOSS OF FORMOSA IS TO BE ANTICIPATED, AND SHOULD BE DISCOUNTED TO SAFEGUARD AMERICAN PRESTIGE. NOLAN SAID THE STATE DEPARTMENT TOLD HIM IT WOULD "RESERVE JUDGMENT" ON THE REQUEST FOR THE TIME BEING.

CHAIRMAN KEE (D-W.VVA) OF THE HOUSE FOREIGN AFFAIRS COMMITTEE TOLD REPORTERS THAT GIVING U.S. PROTECTION TO FORMOSA WOULD "PUT US IN THE GRAVEST DANGER OF STARTING WORLD WAR III." KEE DESCRIBED THE FAR EAST AS ONE OF THE WORLD'S GREAT PROBLEMS AT THE MOMENT AND SAID THAT THE U.S. IS FACED WITH THE CHOICE OF STANDING ASIDE FROM FORMOSA OR MOVING IN "WITH ALL OUR FORCE."

A CAUTIOUS APPROACH WAS ADVISED BY SENATOR LODGE (R-MASS) WHO SAID HE HAD "GRAVE DOUBTS OF TAKING ANY MILITARY ACTION TOWARDS FORMOSA."

POLICY, DECLARED HE IS "SATISFIED OUR STATE DEPARTMENT WANTS TO GIV/ FORMOSA TO THE COMMUNISTS."

ASIDE FROM DISCLOSING AMBASSADOR KOO'S PLEA, THE STATE DEPARTMENT WITHHELD COMMENT ON CHINA DEVELOPMENTS. PRESS OFFICER MICHAEL J. MCDERMOTT DECLINED TO SAY SPECIFICALLY WHAT MILITARY AID THE NATIONALISTS SOUGHT.

A CHINESE COMMUNIST BROADCAST PICKED UP IN SAN FRANCISCO DECLARED THE U.S. HAS MADE A SECRET AGREEMENT TO ARM THE NATIONALISTS IN THEIR DEFENSE OF FORMOSA. IT SAID THE AGREEMENT WAS SIGNED LAST MONTH BY YU TA-WEI, FORMER NATIONALIST COMMUNICATIONS MINISTER, AND CALLED FOR THE DISPATCH OF 16 NAVAL VESSELS, EQUIPMENT FOR FIVE ARMY DIVISIONS, RADAR INSTALLATIONS, AND OTHER MILITARY MEASURES.
MCDERMOTT TOLD A QUESTIONER HE KNEW NOTHING OF THE REPORT.

SAN FRANCISCO,JAN.3-(AP)-A PROFESSED EX-COMMUNIST, PAUL CROUCH, TESTIFIED TODAY THAT AT A CIO CONVENTION IN OAKLAND IN 1941, EVERY RESOLUTION WHICH CONFORMED TO THE COMMUNIST PARTY LINE WAS ADOPTED. EVERY ONE WHICH OPPOSED THE PARTY LINE, HE SAID WAS THROWN OUT.

CROUCH, GOVERNMENT WITNESS IN THE PERJURY TRIAL OF HARRY BRIDGES, CIO LONGSHORE UNION HEAD, TESTIFIED BRIDGES PRESENTED TO THAT CONVENTION A RESOLUTION WHICH THE COMMUNISTS HAD WRITTEN.

THE RESOLUTION, CROUCH SAID, PLEDGED ALL OUT SUPPORT OF RUSSIA, WHICH HAD BEEN ATTACKED BY GERMANY ON JUNE 22, 1941.

BRIDGES, BORN IN AUSTRALIA, WAS INDICTED ON A CHARGE HE PERJURED HIMSELF IN HIS 1945 NATURALIZATION HEARING BY DENYING HE WAS A COMMUNIST.

CROUCH HAD TESTIFIED THERE WAS TALK BY HIGH COMMUNISTS OF EXPELLING BRIDGES FROM THE PARTY AND OF DEPRIVING HIM OF CIO LEADERSHIP IN CALIFORNIA. THIS, THE WITNESS SAID, WAS BECAUSE BRIDGES WAS RELUCTANT IN GOING ALONG WITH THE PARTY IN ITS CHANGE OF POLICY AFTER THE GERMAN ATTACK. PRESSING THE RESOLUTION, CROUCH SAID, WAS TO BE A TEST OF BRIDGES.

AFTER CROUCH HAD MENTIONED THE UNANIMOUS ENDORSEMENT OF COMMUNIST-FAVORED RESOLUTIONS AT THE CIO CONVENTION, AND EXCLUSION OF ALL OTHERS, DEFENSE ATTORNEY VINCENT HALLINAN PROFESSED INCREDULITY THAT A HANDFUL OF PERSONS COULD SWAY SO MANY TRADE UNIONS.

"SAY," HALLINAN DEMANDED, "WAS YOUR GANG WRITING OUT ANY OF PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT'S SPEECHES AT THAT TIME?"

"I HAVE NO KNOWLEDGE," SAID CROUCH, "OF WHO WROTE MR.ROOSEVELT'S SPEECHES. I DO KNOW HE DID NOT MAKE ANY 'FLOP' ON JUNE 22 (1941). MR.ROOSEVELT WAS AS MILITANTLY OPPOSED TO FASCISM BEFORE, AS AFTER THAT DATE. HE DIDN'T HAVE TO MAKE ANY ABOUT FACES AS CERTAIN COMMUNIST OFFICIALS DID IN CALIFORNIA AND ELSEWHERE."

TWO OTHER HIGH OFFICIALS OF THE LONGSHORE UNION ARE ON TRIAL, JOINTLY, WITH BRIDGES. THE TWO, J.R.ROBERTSON, VICE-PRESIDENT, AND HENRY SCHMIDT, INTERNATIONAL REPRESENTATIVE, WERE INDICTED ON CONSPIRACY COUNTS. THEY WERE WITNESSES FOR BRIDGES AT HIS NATURALIZATION HEARING.

WASHINGTON,JAN.3-(AP)-TWO REPUBLICAN SENATORS PROPOSED TODAY THAT DIPLOMATS FROM COMMUNIST-CONTROLLED COUNTRIES BE DENIED THE RIGHT TO TRAVEL OUTSIDE THE CITY OF WASHINGTON.

THE DEFENSE CONCLUDED CROSS-EXAMINATION OF CROUCH AND ANOTHER WITNESS, MANNING JOHNSON, LATE TODAY.

THIS PAVED THE WAY FOR THE SCHEDULED APPEARANCE TOMORROW OF A PERSON THE GOVERNMENT HAS BEEN REFERRING TO MYSTERIOUSLY FOR WEEKS AS "AN IMPORTANT WITNESS." CHIEF PROSECUTOR F. JOSEPH DONOHUE HAS DECLINED TO IDENTIFY THIS WITNESS, REPORTEDLY A NEWSPAPERMAN.

"I THINK THAT DESCRIBES EVERY COMMUNIST, INCLUDING MR. BRIDGES," JOHNSON SAID.

IN HIS QUESTIONING OF CROUCH, HALLINAN BROUGHT OUT THAT BRIDGES ONCE WAS APPOINTED TO A HIGH CIO POST IN CALIFORNIA BY JOHN L. LEWIS, AND LATER WAS REAPPOINTED BY PHILIP MURRAY, NOW PRESIDENT OF THE CIO. (THE CIO OUSTED BRIDGES FROM THE POST TWO YEARS AGO.)

CROUCH STUCK TO HIS DESCRIPTION OF BRIDGES AS A VERY IMPORTANT FIGURE IN THE COMMUNIST PARTY BECAUSE OF HIS INFLUENCE AS A WEST COAST LABOR LEADER. HE SAID BRIDGES TOOK DICTATION FROM THE PARTY, EVEN AGAINST HIS OWN CONVICTIONS.

ASKED IF HE HAD DISCUSSED WITH COMMUNIST LEADERS HIS DECISION TO LEAVE THE PARTY, IN THE SPRING OF 1942, HE REPLIED:

"WELL, I WASN'T QUITE CRAZY ENOUGH TO INVITE MY DEATH AND MY FAMILY'S DEATH BY DISCUSSING ANYTHING LIKE THAT. IF I HAD, I WOULDN'T BE TESTIFYING HERE."

AND, A RETURNING AMERICAN DIPLOMAT SAID TODAY, THE GENERALISSIMO'S FINANCES WILL NOT STAND THE STRAIN OF LARGE SCALE MILITARY OPERATIONS.

THIS ESTIMATE OF CHIANG'S SITUATION ON FORMOSA CAME FROM JOHN J. MAC DONALD, FORMER UNITED STATES CONSUL GENERAL AT TAIPEH, FORMOSA THIS IS THE STRATEGIC ISLAND EX-PRESIDENT HOOVER AND OTHERS WANT DEFENDED WITH AMERICAN ARMS.

MAC DONALD, WHO RETURNED ON THE LINER PRESIDENT WILSON, SAID COMMUNIST AMPHIBIOUS LANDINGS ON FORMOSA MAY BE ATTEMPTED ANYTIME IN THE NEXT FEW MONTHS.

DESPITE THE REDS' LACK OF NACY OR AIR FORCE, MAC DONALD SAID THE WESTERN BEACHES ON THE BIG ISLAND ARE SUITABLE FOR LANDINGS---"EVEN FROM JUNKS," AND THE REDS MAY TRY IT.

"THEY WILL HAVE TO HAVE PLENTY OF LUCK, HOWEVER, AS THE NATIONALISTS HAVE BEEN FORTIFYING THE BEACHES," MAC DONALD ADDED.

HE SAW NO DANGER OF AN UPRISING BY NATIVE FORMOSANS AT THIS TIME, EVEN THOUGH THEY "CERTAINLY DO NOT LIKE CHAING AND THE MAINLANDERS."

THEY KNOW WHAT WOULD HAPPEN TO THEM IF THEY TRIED IT AGAINNZ THE DIPLOMAT SAID. "THEY REMEMBER WHAT HAPPENED TO THEM IN FEBRUARY 1947."

HE WAS REFERRING TO A REVOLT IN WHICH NATIONALIST TROOPS KILLED THOUSANDS OF FORMOANS.

SO FAR AS MAC DONALD KNOWS, THERE HAVE BEEN NO COMMUNISTS SLIPPING IN TO ENGAGE IN DISRUPTIVE TACTICS.

HE SAID THE ISLAND'S ECONOMY&, BADLY DISORDERED BY THE WAR, IS BEING IMPROVED WITH AMERICAN ECA AID, PARTICULARLY THROUGH SHIPMENTS OF FERTILIZER FOR CROP BETTERMENT."

NEW BRUNSWICK,N.J.,JAN 3-(AP)-SEN.H.ALEXANDER SMITH (R-NJ), A MEMBER OF THE SENATE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE, CALLED TODAY FOR JOINT OCCUPATION OF FORMOSA BY U.S. AND CHINESE NATIONALIST TROOPS.

SMITH, WHO RETURNED RECENTLY FROM A TOUR OF THE FAR EAST, SAID HE WOULD URGE IMMEDIATE NEGOTIATIONS WITH GOVERNOR K.C.WU OF FORMOSA TO EFFECT THE JOINT OCCUPATION.

SMITH SAID IN AN INTERVIEW ON THE RUTGERS UNIVERSITY FORUM BROADCAST THAT THE NATION NEEDED AN "AGGRESSIVE POLICY IN THE FAR EAST" AND A QUICK DECISION ON "A FORMULA FOR OCCUPYING FORMOSA."

SMITH SAID THE ALTERNATIVES WERE PEACEFUL OCCUPATION OF FORMOSA NOW OR USE OF FORCE LATER "IF WE WAIT UNTIL THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS TAKE IT AND THEN FEEL IT IS A STRATEGICAL POINT OF IMPORTANCE FOR US TO PROTECT OUR LINE OF DEFENSE."

THE NEW JERSEY SENATOR SAID THE ISLAND IS LEGALLY STILL PART OF JAPAN BUT WOULD GO TO CHINA WHEN THE PEACE TREATY WITH JAPAN IS SIGNED AND HE SAW NO V3-5 $8/QQ9(90:;-&'2.8;&

JAPAN BUT WOULD GO TO CHINA WHEN THE PEACE TREATY WITH JAPAN IS SIGNED AND HE SAW NO GREAT DIFFICULTY IN ARRANGING WITH THE NATIONALISTS FOR OCCUPATION OF FORMOSA.

HE SAID A UNIFIED MILITARY COMMAND ALSO WAS NEEDED IN THAT AREA.

SMITH SAID HE HOPED THE U.S.COULD CONVINCE THE BRITISH TO POSTPONE RECOGNITION OF COMMUNIST CHINA.

HE SAID HE SAW VERY LITTLE CHANCE OF "TITOISM" EMERGING IN COMMUNIST CHINA, AND PREDICTED THAT THE SOUTH KOREAN GOVERNMENT COULD STAVE OFF MILITARY ACTION BY THE SOVIET-DOMINATED NORTH KOREAN GOVERNMENT.

NEW YORK, JAN. 3-(AP)-THE U.S. CIRCUIT COURT OF APPEALS TODAY AGREED TO HEAR NEXT JUNE THE APPEALS OF 11 COMMUNIST PARTY LEADERS CONVICTED OF CONSPIRACY TO TEACH FORCIBLE OVERTHROW OF THE U.S. GOVERNMENT.

THE COURT SCHEDULED THE HEARING FOR EITHER THE WEEK OF JUNE 5 OR JUNE 12 AFTER DENYING A DEFENSE MOTION WHICH WOULD HAVE DELAYED THE PROCEEDINGS UNTIL NEXT FALL.

TU1214PES

JAN 4 1950

"THE RESURRECTION OF THE COMINTERN IN ITS NEW 'COMINFORM' CLOAK, THE AGGRESSIVE ATTITUDE OF THE SOVIET DELEGATIONS AT INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCES, AND THE VIOLENT ANTI-WESTERN PROPAGANDA CAMPAIGN IN THE SOVIET ORBIT ALL CONFIRM THAT DESPITE SOOTHING STATEMENTS TO THE CONTRARY THE KREMLIN HAS NOT GIVEN UP ITS BASIC AIM, THE DEFEAT OF CAPITALISM AND THE CONQUEST OF AS MUCH OF THE WORLD AS POSSIBLE."

ALL THIS WOULD JUSTIFY THE GLOOMIEST CONCLUSIONS WERE IT NOT FOR THE FACT THAT THE UNITED STATES STILL IS STRONGER THAN RUSSIA AND RUSSIA IS NOT LIKELY TO OVERTAKE THE AMERICANS FOR THE NEXT 10 YEARS, SMITH SAYS. ANOTHER FACTOR GIVING RUSSIA PAUSE IS THE INCREASING RESTIVENESS IN THE SATELLITE COUNTRIES, AS EXEMPLIFIED BY THE DEFECTION OF TITO AND THE YUGOSLAV COMMUNISTS.

A91

JAN 4 1950

TO MEET THE THREAT OF EVENTUAL CONFLICT, SMITH SAYS, THE UNITED STATES MUST "USE ITS OWN STRENGTH TO SHIELD THE FREE NATIONS OF EUROPE FROM AGGRESSION WHILE THEY REBUILD THEIR OWN DEFENSES, JUST AS WE ARE USING OUR MATERIAL RESOURCES TO HELP THEM REVIVE THEIR ECONOMIES. A STRONG WESTERN EUROPE, NO LONGER ECONOMICALLY DEPENDENT ON THE U.S., WOULD BE ABLE EFFECTIVELY TO RESIST AGGRESSION FROM THE COMMUNISTS, SMITH REPORTS.

THE BEST ASSURANCE OF PEACE, HE ADDS, IS THE STRENGTH AND DETERMINATION TO "SUPPORT OUR CONVICTIONS."

"HAVING ADOPTED A POLICY WHICH HAS ALREADY CONTAINED A CONSIDERABLE MEASURE OF SUCCESS, WE MUST FOLLOW IT THROUGH TO ITS LOGICAL CONCLUSION IF IT IS TO ACCOMPLISH ITS PURPOSE," THE FORMER AMBASSADOR SAYS. "IF WE TURN BACK OR SLACKEN OUR EFFORTS, WE NOT ONLY RISK LOSING THE MOMENTUM THUS FAR ACHIEVED; WE MAY WASTE WHAT WE HAVE ALREADY INVESTED."

SMITH, AFTER SWIFTLY SKETCHING THE CAREERS OF THE MEN OF THE POLITBURO, ADVANCES THE IDEA THAT WHEN STALIN IS GONE HIS POWER MAY FALL TO A TRIUMVIRATE RATHER THAN TO ONE MAN. HE PICTURES THIS TRIUMVIRATE AS MADE UP OF V.M.MOLOTOV, STALIN'S CHIEF LIEUTENANT FOR THREE DECADES, WHO KNOWS FOREIGN RELATIONS WELL; GEORGI MALENKOV, WITH CONTROL OF THE PARTY MACHINERY THROUGH HIS POSITION IN THE COMMUNIST PARTY SECRETARIAT; AND L.P.BERIA, IN CONTROL OF THE STATE SECURITY AND SECRET POLICE.

"IT IS INCONCEIVABLE TO ME THAT ANY SINGLE ONE OF THESE MEN CAN TAKE STALIN'S PLACE," SMITH WRITES. "MY OWN BELIEF IS THAT WHEN STALIN DIES HIS POWER WILL BE DIVIDED AMONG THESE THREE."

LAKE SUCCESS,JAN 3-(AP)-STRONG SOVIET MOVES IN THE U.N. SECURITY COUNCIL AGAINST THE DELEGATIONS OF NATIONALIST CHINA AND YUGOSLAVIA WERE EXPECTED IN U.N. CIRCLES TODAY. BUT THE GENERAL OPINION WAS THAT THE RUSSIANS WOULD NOT LEAVE THE COUNCIL AND NOTHING WOULD BE DECIDED WITHIN THE NEXT FEW DAYS.
THE CASE OF CHINA IS LIKELY TO COME UP FIRST, PERHAPS LATE THIS WEEK AT A MEETING OF THE COUNCIL. THE COUNCIL'S PRESIDENCY ROTATES EACH MONTH AND THE JANUARY PRESIDENT IS DR.T.F.TSIANG, CHIEF DELEGATE OF NATIONALIST CHINA. THE SOVIET DELEGATE, JAKOB A.MALIK, ATTACKED TSIANG LAST WEEK AND ASSERTED TSIANG DOES NOT REPRESENT THE CHINESE PEOPLE.
U.N. OBSERVERS SAID MALIK COULD BE EXPECTED TO MAKE A STATEMENT AGAINST TSIANG AS CHAIRMAN AND ONCE MORE DEMANDING, IN EFFECT, THAT TSIANG STEP OUT OF THE U.N. IN FAVOR OF A COMMUNIST CHINESE DELEGATION.
WITH THAT POINT OVER, MALIK IS EXPECTED HERE TO TURN TO THE NEW YUGOSLAV DELEGATE, ALES BEBLER, AND TELL HIM THAT THE SOVIET UNION DOES NOT RECOGNIZE THAT HE REPRESENTS THE COUNTRIES OF EASTERN EUROPE.
COUNCIL MEMBERS ARE SUPPOSED TO BE SELECTED ON A REGIONAL BASIS IN SOME INSTANCES. THE SOVIET UKRAINE, WHICH LEFT THE SECURITY COUNCIL LAST SATURDAY, WAS A REPRESENTATIVE OF THE EASTERN EUROPEAN COUNTRIES. THE RUSSIANS TRIED TO PUT CZECHOSLOVAKIA ON THE COUNCIL BUT THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY ELECTED YUGOSLAVIA INSTEAD AND BROUGHT UPON ITSELF A BITTER RUSSIAN PROTEST.
THE COUNCIL IS LIKELY TO MEET FOR ANOTHER DEBATE ON KASHMIR. BUT THAT DISPUTE BETWEEN INDIA AND PAKISTAN OVER THE PRINCELY STATE WILL FADE INTO THE BACKGROUND IN FACE OF THE MORE VIOLENT ARGUMENTS BETWEEN THE RUSSIANS AND THE OPPOSING CHINESE AND YUGOSLAVS.
THE U.N. WILL COAST ALONG UNTIL MID-JANUARY. THE LITTLE ASSEMBLY IS SCHEDULED TO MEET JAN.16 FOR A FULL-DRESS DEBATE ON THE NATIONALIST CHINESE CHARGES AGAINST SOVIET RUSSIA. THE TRUSTEESHIP COUNCIL WILL MEET IN GENEVA ALSO ON JAN.16 TO BEGIN WORK ON A STATUTE SETTING UP AN INTERNATIONAL REGIME FOR JERUSALEM. REPRESENTATIVES OF THE U.S., RUSSIA, FRANCE, BRITAIN, CHINA AND CANADA WILL RESUME SECRET TALKS JAN.19 AT LAKE SUCCESS ON THE STALEMATED PLANS FOR INTERNATIONAL CONTROL OF ATOMIC ENERGY.

LAKE SUCCESS, JAN.3-(AP)-MRS.FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT SAID TONIGHT THE UNITED STATES FAVORS AN INTERNATIONAL HUMAN RIGHTS COMMITTEE AS THE BEST WAY NOW TO MOBILIZE PUBLIC OPINION AGAINST VIOLATIONS OF HUMAN RIGHTS.
SHE MADE HER COMMENT AT A NEWS CONFERENCE IN WHICH SHE EXPLAINED A COMPLICATED SERIES OF CHANGES SUGGESTED BY THE U.S. IN A PROPOSED U.N. COVENANT ON HUMAN RIGHTS.
SHE AND OTHER MEMBERS OF THE U.N. HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION WILL START MARCH 27 ON WHAT THEY HOPE WILL BE A FINAL DRAFT OF THE INTERNATIONAL COVENANT ON HUMAN RIGHTS, WHICH HAS BEEN IN THE U.N. MILL SINCE MAY, 1946.
SHE SAID SHE HOPED THE COVENANT WOULD PASS THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY THIS FALL.
MRS. ROOSEVELT INDICATED THE U.S. PLAN FOR A HUMAN RIGHTS COMMITTEE IS THE BEST THIS COUNTRY CAN HOPE FOR AT THIS TIME TO PUT TEETH INTO A HUMAN RIGHTS COVENANT. IT WAS DRAWN UP AFTER STATE DEPARTMENT TALKS WITH 150 ORGANIZATIONS FROM ALL OVER THE U.S.
THE AMERICAN PLAN, WHICH IS SOMEWHAT LESS STRINGENT THAN AN AUSTRALIAN PROPOSAL FOR A HUMAN RIGHTS COURT WITH STRONG POWERS, CALLS FOR EACH NATION SIGNING THE COVENANT TO NAME FOUR PERSONS KNOWN FOR THEIR "HIGH MORAL CHARACTER AND SUITABLE ABILITY" TO A PERMANENT PANEL.
WHEN TWO COUNTRIES DISAGREE ON A CASE INVOLVING HUMAN RIGHTS, THE COUNTRIES SIGNING THE COVENANT WOULD CHOOSE A COMMITTEE OF FIVE FROM THIS GROUP AND THIS COMMITTEE WOULD INVESTIGATE THE CASE. IT COULD ONLY FILE A REPORT BUT MRS. ROOSEVELT SAID SHE BELIEVED THE EFFECT OF MOBILIZING PUBLIC OPINION AND BRINGING FACTS TO LIGHT WOULD BE GOOD.
SHE SAID THE PEOPLE WORKING ON THE COVENANT NOW IN THE FACE OF THE POLITICAL TENSIONS BETWEEN EAST AND WEST WERE BUILDING FOR THE FUTURE WHEN IT MIGHT NOT BE SO HARD TO GET THINGS DONE. SHE SAID THIS PLAN FOR A COMMITTEE ON HUMAN RIGHTS IS JUST THE FIRST STEP AND THE COUNTRIES LATER MAY LEARN HOW TO IMPROVE THE SYSTEM.
MRS. ROOSEVELT IS CHAIRMAN OF THE U.N. COMMISSION ON HUMAN RIGHTS BUT SHE SPOKE TO REPORTERS TODAY AS THE UNITED STATES MEMBER OF THE COMMISSION.

CHIANG KAI-SHEK BELIEVES A PACIFIC PACT IS IMPERATIVE TO PROMOTE THE CAUSE OF PEACE IN 1950. MARSHAL TITO SAYS AGGRESSORS MUST BE SHOWN THEY CAN'T WIN. TWO UNITED NATIONS LEADERS SAY ATOMIC AGREEMENTS SHOULD BE THIS YEAR'S FIRST OBJECTIVES.
THESE ARE AMONG THE HIGHLIGHTS OF ANSWERS RECEIVED BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS IN A SYMPOSIUM ON THE FOLLOWING QUESTIONS:
1. WHAT IN YOUR OPINION CONSTITUTES THE CHIEF GAIN, OR LOSS, FOR THE CAUSE OF BETTER WORLD UNDERSTANDING IN 1949?

STABILITY?
SEVERAL ANSWERING THE QUESTIONS EXPRESSED THE VIEW THAT PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S POINT FOUR--A PLAN TO HELP UNDERDEVELOPED AREAS-- WOULD BE AN IMPORTANT FACTOR TOWARD WORLD ECONOMIC STABILITY.
TITO, YUGOSLAV LEADER WHO HAS BECOME ONE OF MOSCOW'S CHIEF TARGETS, SENT A ONE-SENTENCE RESPONSE:
"THE PEACE OF THE WORLD CAN BE PRESERVED ONLY IF ALL PEACE-LOVING POWERS MAKE IT CLEAR TO ALL WOULD-BE AGGRESSORS THAT THEY CAN COUNT ON NO BETTER FATE THAN THAT OF THE AGGRESSORS OF WORLD WAR II."
CHIANG KAI-SHEK, LEADER OF THE CHINESE NATIONALISTS, SAID:
"WORLD PEACE AND SECURITY SHOULD BE BASED UPON FREEDOM FOR MANKIND, RACIAL EQUALITY, FREEDOM FROM DISCRIMINATION AND FREEDOM FROM AGGRESSION. THUS IT IS IMPERATIVE TO CONCLUDE IMMEDIATELY A PACIFIC PACT SIMILAR TO THE ATLANTIC PACT. ONLY BY DOING SO CAN THE SPREAD OF WORLD DOMINATION INSTIGATED BY THE COMMUNIST INTERNATIONAL BE CALLED TO A HALT.

"NO CONTRIBUTION TO WORLD ECONOMIC RECOVERY AND STABILITY IN 1950 CAN BE GREATER THAN A UNITED AND DETERMINED EFFORT ON THE PART OF DEMOCRATIC COUNTRIES TO SHATTER THE 'IRON CURTAIN' EXTENDED BY INTERNATIONAL COMMUNISM INTO WIDE AREAS OF ASIA, AND KEEP THE DOOR OF ASIA OPEN AND FREE."
TWO UNITED NATIONS LEADERS -- BRIG.GEN. CARLOS P.ROMULO AND TRYGVE

LIE -- DECLARED THAT PROGRESS TOWARD AGREEMENTS IN THE FIELD OF ATOMIC ENERGY WOULD BE THE MOST IMPORTANT CONTRIBUTIONS 1950 COULD BRING TO PEACE.

ROMULO, PRESIDENT OF THE U.N. ASSEMBLY, ADDED:

"THE IMPLEMENTATION OF PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S POINT FOUR AND THE UNITED NATIONS TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE PROGRAM WOULD CONTRIBUTE MOST TO WORLD ECONOMIC RECOVERY AND STABILITY."

A SIMILAR RECOMMENDATION, ALONG BROADER LINES, CAME FROM LIE, U.N. SECRETARY-GENERAL. HE CALLED FOR "FULL PARTICIPATION BY ALL NATIONS IN THE UNITED NATIONS TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE SCHEME, AND ITS GRADUAL EXPANSION."

A FORMER PRESIDENT OF THE U.N. ASSEMBLY, HERBERT V.EVATT OF AUSTRALIA, SAID REGIONAL DEFENSIVE AND ECONOMIC ARRANGEMENTS CAN OFTEN BE OF GREAT IMPORTANCE -- BUT THAT THE PRIMARY HOPE OF ALL PEOPLES LIES IN SUPPORT OF THE U.N.

IN GERMANY, HIGH COMMISSIONER JOHN J.MCCLOY SAW A LOSS THROUGH COMMUNIST EXPANSION BUT A GAIN IN ATLANTIC PACT UNITY. HE CALLED FOR "REMOVAL OF THE IRON CURTAINS OF THE WORLD" AND LIBERALIZING OF TRADE. DR.FRANZ BLUECKER, VICE CHANCELLOR OF THE WEST GERMAN REPUBLIC, SAID FIRM RELATIONS AMONG CURRENCIES OF THE WESTERN DEMOCRACIES COULD BE A MAJOR FACTOR IN ECONOMIC STABILITY. HE SUGGESTED THIS HAVE THE BACKING OF AMERICAN GOLD HOLDINGS.

ON THE COMMUNIST SIDE, WILHELM PIECK CALLED FOR "THE ESTABLISHMENT OF A UNIFIED DEMOCRATIC GERMANY" ON THE BASIS OF THE POTSDAM CONFERENCE. PIECK IS PRESIDENT OF THE RUSSIAN-SUPPORTED REGIME IN EAST GERMANY. HE SUPPORTED ANDREI Y.VISHINSKY'S VARIOUS PROPOSALS TO THE UNITED NATIONS, AND ASKED "A JUST PEACE TREATY" FOR GERMANY.

"IT IS MY OPINION THAT THE WORLD SUSTAINED A LOSS DURING THE YEAR 1949, BECAUSE OF THE REFUSAL OF RUSSIA TO COOPERATE WITH THE OTHER NATIONS OF THE WORLD IN THE PROMOTION OF AN AGREEMENT WITH HER ALLIES."

BISHOP G.BROMLEY OXNAM OF THE METHODIST CHURCH, PRESIDENT OF THE FEDERAL COUNCIL OF CHURCHES OF CHRIST IN AMERICA, SAW A GAIN THROUGH COOPERATION IN THE UNITED NATIONS AND THROUGH RECOGNITION OF RELIGION. THE JAPANESE PRIME MINISTER, SHIGERU YOSHIDA, HELD THE TRUMAN POINT FOUR PROGRAM AND A JAPANESE PEACE SETTLEMENT TO BE MOST IMPORTANT TO ECONOMIC STABILITY. HE ALSO URGED AN AGREEMENT ON ATOMIC CONTROL.

DAVID BEN-GURION, PREMIER OF ISRAEL, ASSERTED COMPLETE UNDERSTANDING BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES AND THE SOVIET UNION WOULD CONTRIBUTE MOST TO WORLD SECURITY. IN THE ECONOMICS FIELD, HE URGED "FREE EXCHANGE IN ALL SPHERES BETWEEN ALL COUNTRIES OF THE WORLD."

PRESIDENT EURICO GASPAR DUTRA OF BRAZIL EXPRESSED BELIEF THE BLESSINGS OF THE ROMAN CATHOLIC HOLY YEAR WILL INSPIRE MEN OF GOOD WILL THIS YEAR. HE URGED A RENEWAL OF HOPES THAT THE U.N. MAY FULFILL "ROOSEVELT'S DREAM" FOR IT.

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS ADDRESSED ITS QUESTIONS TO SEVERAL OTHERS WHO SO FAR HAVE NOT RESPONDED. THESE INCLUDED THE VATICAN, PRESIDENT TRUMAN, PRIME MINISTER STALIN, MAO TZE-TUNG OF COMMUNIST CHINA, THE U.S. STATE DEPARTMENT, PRESIDENT PHILIP MURRAY OF THE CIO, AND PRIME MINISTER ATTLEE. SOME PLEADED THAT LACK OF TIME, OR THE FACT THAT THEY WERE MAKING YEAR-END ADDRESSES, PRECLUDED THEIR ANSWERING. NO RESPONSE WAS RECEIVED FROM MOSCOW.

UNDATED TEXT OF AP SYMPOSIUM (1900)

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

FOLLOWING ARE THE QUESTIONS ASKED IN THE ASSOCIATED PRESS SYMPOSIUM ON PEACE AND SECURITY:

1. WHAT IN YOUR OPINION CONSTITUTES THE CHIEF GAIN, OR LOSS, FOR THE CAUSE OF BETTER WORLD UNDERSTANDING IN 1949?

2. WHAT DO YOU BELIEVE WOULD CONTRIBUTE MOST TO WORLD PEACE AND SECURITY IN 1950?

3. WHAT WOULD CONTRIBUTE MOST TO WORLD ECONOMIC RECOVERY AND STABILITY?

FOLLOWING ARE THE RESPONSES:

BRIG.GEN.CARLOS P.ROMULO, PRESIDENT OF UNITED NATIONS ASSEMBLY:

1. THE CHIEF GAIN FOR THE CAUSE OF BETTER WORLD UNDERSTANDING IN 1949 WAS THE SUCCESSFUL INTERVENTION OF THE UNITED NATIONS IN BEHALF OF THE FREEDOM OF 70,000,000 INDONESIANS.

2. AN AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES AND SOVIET RUSSIA ON ATOMIC ENERGY CONTROL WOULD CONTRIBUTE MOST TO WORLD PEACE AND SECURITY IN 1950.

3. THE IMPLEMENTATION OF PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S POINT FOUR AND THE UNITED NATIONS TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE PROGRAM WOULD CONTRIBUTE MOST TO WORLD ECONOMIC RECOVERY AND STABILITY.

TRYGVE LIE, UNITED NATIONS SECRETARY-GENERAL:

1. THE LIFTING OF THE BERLIN BLOCKADE AFTER CONSULTATION AND CONCILIATION WAS DEFINITELY A GAIN FOR BETTER WORLD UNDERSTANDING, AND IN MY OPINION THE CHIEF ONE, IN 1949.

2. PROGRESS IN THE FIELD OF INTERNATIONAL ATOMIC ENERGY CONTROLS.

3. FULL PARTICIPATION BY ALL NATIONS IN THE UNITED NATIONS TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE SCHEME AND ITS GRADUAL EXPANSION.

MARSHAL TITO OF YUGOSLAVIA:

THE PEACE OF THE WORLD CAN BE PRESERVED ONLY IF ALL PEACE-LOVING POWERS MAKE IT CLEAR TO ALL WOULD-BE AGGRESSORS THAT THEY CAN COUNT ON NO METTER FATE THAN THAT OF THE AGGRESSORS OF WORLD WAR II.

GENERALISSIMO CHINAG KAI-SHEK, CHINESE NATIONALIST LEADER:

1. BETTER WORLD UNDERSTANDING CAN ONLY BE ACHIEVED BY CONCERTED EFFORTS OF THE DEMOCRATIC WORLD FOR THE CAUSE OF DEMOCRACY AND PEACE. IN 1949 THE DEMOCRATIC COUNTRIES ONLY TOOK THEIR IMMEDIATE INTERESTS INTO CONSIDERATION AND CONSEQUENTLY NEGLECTED CHINA WHICH IS FIGHTING SINGLE HANDED AGAINST THE AGGRESSIVE FORCES OF INTERNATIONAL COMMUNISM. THIS IS AN IRREPARABLE LOSS TO THE FREEDOM-LOVING PEOPLES AND HAS THROWN THE WHOLE NON-COMMUNISTIC WORLD INTO UTTER BEWILDERMENT AS TO WHICH WAY TO FOLLOW--TO FIGHT FOR DEMOCRACY OR SUBMIT TO TOTALITARIANISM.

2. WORLD PEACE AND SECURITY SHOULD BE BASED UPON FREEDOM FOR MANKIND, RACIAL EQUALITY, FREEDOM FROM DISCRIMINATION AND FREEDOM FROM AGGRESSION. THUS IT IS IMPERATIVE TO CONCLUDE IMMEDIATELY A PACIFIC PACT SIMILAR TO THE ATLANTIC PACT. ONLY BY DOING SO CAN THE SPREAD OF WORLD DOMINATION INSTIGATED BY THE COMMUNIST INTERNATIONAL BE CALLED TO A HALT. IN OUR STRUGGLE FOR WORLD PEACE AND SECURITY IT IS IMPOSSIBLE TO INSURE THE SECURITY OF ONE PART OF THE WORLD BY SACRIFICING ANOTHER PART. WORLD PEACE IS INDIVISIBLE. THE DEFEAT OF ANY PART OF THE DEMOCRATIC FRONT WOULD INVARIABLY LEAD TO THE COLLAPSE OF THE WHOLE FRONT. AS DURING THE FIRST STAGE OF WORLD WAR II, CHINA ONCE AGAIN PLAYS THE ROLE OF VANGUARD AGAINST WORLD AGGRESSION FOR WHICH SHE HAS MADE INCALCULABLE SACRIFICES.

IF DEMOCRATIC COUNTRIES OF THE WORLD GIVE UP CHINA'S FRONT FOR THE SAKE OF APPEASEMENT AND EXPEDIENCY, THE INEVITABLE RESULT WILL BE THE DESTRUCTION OF THEIR OWN SECURITY AND WORLD PEACE.

3. NO CONTRIBUTION TO WORLD ECONOMIC RECOVERY AND STABILITY IN 1950 CAN BE GREATER THAN A UNITED AND DETERMINED EFFORT ON THE PART OF DEMOCRATIC COUNTRIES TO SHATTER THE "IRON CURTAIN," EXTENDED BY INTERNATIONAL COMMUNISM INTO WIDE AREAS OF ASIA, AND KEEP THE DOOR OF ASIA OPEN AND FREE. SUN YATSEN'S BOOK "INTERNATIONAL DEVELOPMENT OF CHINA"--IN WHICH SUN ADVOCATED INTERNATIONAL COOPERATION AND INVESTMENT IN INDUSTRIAL REHABILITATION OF CHINA--IS A BLUEPRINT FOR FREE CHINA'S ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT. LIKE WORLD PEACE, WORLD ECONOMIC RECOVERY AND STABILITY ARE ALSO INDIVISIBLE. THUS IT WOULD BE IMPOSSIBLE TO ACHIEVE WORLD ECONOMIC RECOVERY AND STABILITY IF CHINA, WITH A POPULATION OF 450,000,000, IS TO BE ENSLAVED BY AGGRESSIVE FORCES OF INTERNATIONAL COMMUNISM.

DAVID BEN-GURION, ISRAELI PREMIER:

1. IN MY VIEW BIG POWER DISAGREEMENT OVER GERMANY WAS THE CHIEF LOSS TO BETTER WORLD UNDERSTANDING IN 1949.

2. COMPLETE UNDERSTANDING BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES AND THE U.S.S.R. WOULD CONTRIBUTE MOST TO WORLD SECURITY IN 1950.

3. FREE EXCHANGE IN ALL SPHERES BETWEEN ALL COUNTRIES OF THE WORLD WOULD CONTRIBUTE MOST TO ECONOMIC RECOVERY AND STABILITY.

WILLIAM GREEN, PRESIDENT OF THE AMERICAN FEDERATION OF LABOR (AFL):

1. IT IS MY OPINION THAT THE WORLD SUSTAINED A LOSS DURING THE YEAR 1949, BECAUSE OF THE REFUSAL OF RUSSIA TO COOPERATE WITH THE OTHER NATIONS OF THE WORLD IN THE PROMOTION OF AN AGREEMENT WITH HER ALLIES. THE RECORDS MAKE IT CLEAR THAT RUSSIA IS RESPONSIBLE FOR THE FAILURE OF THE UNITED NATIONS TO REACH AN UNDERSTANDING AND AN AGREEMENT PROVIDING FOR INTERNATIONAL PEACE AND SECURITY.

2. A CHANGE IN THE ATTITUDE OF RUSSIA AND AN AGREEMENT BETWEEN RUSSIA AND HER ALLIES WOULD BE THE GREATEST CONTRIBUTION WHICH COULD BE MADE IN THE PROMOTION OF WORLD PEACE AND SECURITY.

3. AN INTERNATIONAL WORLD AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE NATIONS WHO FOUGHT TOGETHER AGAINST GERMANY PROVIDING FOR THE PROMOTION OF WORLD PEACE AND SECURITY WOULD BE THE GREATEST CONTRIBUTION WHICH COULD BE MADE TOWARD WORLD RECOVERY AND STABILITY.

B96 (Q)

JAPANESE PRIME MINISTER SHIGERU YOSHIDA:

1. THE INDEPENDENCE OF ISRAEL, INDIA AND INDONESIA.

2. AN AGREEMENT ON ATOMIC CONTROL.

3. JAPANESE PEACE SETTLEMENT AND THE TRUMAN PROGRAM--POINT FOUR.

HERBERT V.EVATT, AUSTRALIA'S FORMER EXTERNAL AFFAIRS MINISTER AND FORMER PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED NATIONS ASSEMBLY:

1. THE CHIEF GAIN IN 1949 IN THE POSTWAR STRUGGLE FOR GREATER SECURITY WAS THE INCREASED AUTHORITY AND SUCCESSES OF THE UNITED NATIONS AND PARTICULARLY GREATER RECOGNITION OF THIS AUTHORITY, AND SUCCESS BY PUBLIC OPINION THROUGHOUT THE WORLD. AT THE END OF THE YEAR A STRIKING ILLUSTRATION OF THIS GAIN IS THE WORLD WIDE ACCLAIM OF UNITED NATIONS INTERVENTION IN INDONESIA, INITIATED BY AUSTRALIA AND INDIA AND CARRIED THROUGH TO FINAL SETTLEMENT, OVERCOMING GREAT OBSTACLES.

2 AND 3. I DO NOT UNDERESTIMATE THE VALUE OF REGIONAL DEFENSIVE AND ECONOMIC ARRANGEMENTS. THESE CAN OFTEN BE OF VERY GREAT IMPORTANCE. AT THE SAME TIME I AM CONVINCED THE PRIMARY HOPE OF ALL THE PEOPLES BOTH FOR SECURITY AND ECONOMIC BETTERMENT LIES IN THE UNWAVERING SUPPORT FOR INTERNATIONAL COOPERATION THROUGH THE UNITED NATIONS. THE UNITED NATIONS IS DEDICATED TO THESE TWIN OBJECTIVES. IT HAS THE NECESSARY MACHINERY AT HAND AND IN BOTH RESPECTS PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S LEADERSHIP HAS BEEN AND IS OUTSTANDING.

G.BROMLEY OXNAM, BISHOP OF THE METHODIST CHURCH OF THE NEW YORK AREA:

JAN 4 1950

1. THE CHIEF GAIN LIES IN THE CONTINUING COOPERATION OF THE NATIONS IN THE UNITED NATIONS, IN THE ADOPTION OF THE UNIVERSAL DECLARATION OF HUMAN RIGHTS, AND IN THE RECOGNITION OF INCREASING NUMBERS OF MEN OF THE PLACE OF RELIGION IN THE LIVES OF THE INDIVIDUAL AND OF THE NATION WITH ITS DEMAND FOR REPENTANCE, ITS PROMISE OF SALVATION, AND ITS REVELATION OF THE WAY, THE TRUTH AND THE LIFE. THE CHIEF LOSS LIES IN THE ASSUMPTION UPON THE PART OF MANY THAT WAR WITH RUSSIA IS INEVITABLE, WITH THE CONSEQUENT RELIANCE UPON MATERIALISTIC FACTORS TO MEET THE CHALLENGE OF MATERIALISM.

2. AN UNDERSTANDING OF AND COMMITMENT TO THE CHRISTIAN CONCEPTION OF THE WORTH OF MAN IN WHICH MAN IS SEEN AS A SON OF GOD, A BEING OF INFINITE WORTH, FREE AND THEREFORE RESPONSIBLE, IMMORTAL. THE RIGHTS POSSESSED BY SUCH A BEING ARE INHERENT RIGHTS. THEY ARE NOT CONFERRED BY THE STATE. BILLS OF RIGHTS IN THEIR PROPER PLACES, WHETHER THEY BE ECONOMIC, POLITICAL, OR ECCLESIASTICAL. THEY WERE MADE FOR MAN, NOT MAN FOR THEM.

B97 (Q)

PRESIDENT EURICO GASPAR DUTRA OF BRAZIL:

1. THE YEAR 1949 MARKED A PHASE OF INDECISION IN INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS. WORLD UNDERSTANDING HAS NOT UNDERGONE CONSIDERABLE DAMAGE IN THIS PERIOD AND SOME PROGRESS MIGHT HAVE BEEN ATTAINED DESPITE THE ACTION BY DISSOLVING FORCES.

WITHIN ITS CAPACITY, MY COUNTRY CONTRIBUTED TO A BETTER INTER-AMERICAN UNDERSTANDING AND SOME OF ITS INITIATIVES GOT FAVORABLE REPERCUSSIONS IN THE UNITED NATIONS.

2. THE YEAR 1950 WILL BE INAUGURATED UNDER THE SPECIAL INFLUENCE OF THE FRATERNITY WHICH POPE PIUS' VOICE CAST TO ALL THE CORNERS OF THE EARTH. THE BLESSINGS OF THE HOLY YEAR NO DOUBT WILL INSPIRE MEN OF GOOD WILL ON THEIR JOINT DELIBERATIONS OVER THE FUTURE OF HUMANITY. BRAZIL, A COUNTRY OF DEEP AND INEXTINGUISHABLE CATHOLIC ROOTS, RENEWS IN THIS YEAR TO START ITS PROMISES OF FRIENDLY UNDERSTANDING WITH ALL PEOPLES.

3. LET US RENEW OUR HOPES IN THE UNITED NATIONS ORGANIZATION, THAT ROOSEVELT'S DREAM, UNDOUBTEDLY INSPIRED BY HIGH PROVIDENTIAL SOURCES, MAY BECOME A DEFINITE CONCRETE REALITY. ITS CHARTER EMBRACES ALL THE SYMBOLS AND ALL THE VIRTUES NECESSARY TO MAKE OF IT A CATECHISM OF FRATERNITY AMONG ALL MEN.

U.S. HIGH COMMISSIONER IN GERMANY JOHN J.MCCLOY:

1. THE CHIEF LOSS, IN MY OPINION, WAS THE EXPANSION OF SOVIET COMMUNISM IN CHINA AND THE SOLIDIFICATION, THROUGH RUTHLESS MEASURES, OF SOVIET COMMUNIST EXPANSION IN THE EASTERN EUROPEAN SATELLITE STATES. THE CHIEF GAIN IN 1949 HAS BEEN THE ADVANCES IN THE UNITY OF PURPOSE AND SPIRIT OF THE ATLANTIC PACT NATIONS, NOT ONLY IN THE MILITARY, BUT ALSO IN ECONOMIC AND POLITICAL SPHERES, AND THE BEGINNING OF THE INTEGRATION OF GERMANY INTO THE WESTERN EUROVEAN COMMUNITY.

2. REMOVAL OF THE IRON CURTAINS OF THE WORLD WOULD BE THE GREATEST CONTRIBUTION THAT COULD BE MADE TO WORLD PEACE AND SECURITY. THIS COULD BE ACCOMPLISHED BY OPENING UP ALL PARTS OF THE WORLD TO THE FREE EXCHANGE OF IDEAS, INFORMATION AND GOODS. REMOVAL OF THE IRON CURTAINS IS DEPENDENT PRIMARILY UPON SOVIET RUSSIA PROVIDING TANGIBLE EVIDENCE OF A DESIRE TO COOPERATE HONESTLY WITH THE REST OF THE WORLD.

3. MY ANSWER TO QUESTION NUMBER 2 APPLIES TO THIS QUESTION. SPECIFICALLY THIS WOULD MEAN EMPHASIS UPON A FURTHERANCE OF THE LIBERALIZATION OF TRADE AND FREE CONVERTIBILITY OF CURRENCIES. THIS WOULD NOT MEAN IN ITS MECHANICAL SENSE, BUT IN THE LARGE SOCIAL AND POLITICAL BENEFITS THAT WOULD ENSUE.

B98 (Q)

DR.FRANZ BLUECKER, VICE CHANCELLOR OF THE WEST GERMAN REPUBLIC:

1. THE GREATEST GAIN FOR THE CAUSE OF BETTER WORLD UNDERSTANDING IN 1949 WAS THE EVER GROWING READINESS TO ACCEPT GERMANY AS A PARTNER WITH EQUAL RIGHTS. THIS WILL EVENTUALLY LEAD TO EUROPEAN UNITY, WHICH WILL HELP US TO AVOID WAR. I ADMIT, HOWEVER, THAT I MUST TALK FROM MY GERMAN POINT OF VIEW. OTHER STATESMEN MIGHT THINK VERY DIFFERENTLY.

2. I BELIEVE THAT THE INTEGRATION OF EUROPEAN UNITY WOULD CONTRIBUTE MOST TO WORLD PEACE AND SECURITY IN 1950. THERE SHOULD BE BETWEEN THE TWO HOSTILE PARTIES A THIRD BIG POWER WITH WHICH ONE HAD TO COUNT, AND THAT FACT MIGHT HELP AVOID WAR. THE BASIS OF SUCH COOPERATION, NOTWITHSTANDING THE FACT THERE IS THE BRITISH COMMONWEALTH OF NATIONS, THERE IS IN MY OPINION, NO SUCH THING AS EUROPE WITHOUT ENGLAND. THEREFORE THE INCLUSION OF ENGLAND IN EUROPEAN COOPERATION COULD BE THE CROWN OF THAT UNITY.

3. WORLD ECONOMIC RECOVERY AND STABILITY WOULD BE AIDED MOST BY THE REESTABLISHMENT OF FIRM RELATIONS BETWEEN THE CURRENCIES OF THE WESTERN DEMOCRACIES. THESE RELATIONS SHOULD BE GUARANTEED BY AMERICAN GOLD. OF COURSE, THIS WOULD REQUIRE COMMON MEASURES IN CURRENCY POLICIES. I AM THINKING OF SOME ORGANIZATION LIKE THE LATIN CURRENCY UNION UP TO 1914.

WILHELM PIECK, STATE PRESIDENT OF THE GERMAN DEMOCRATIC REPUBLIC (EAST GERMANY):

1. I CONSIDER THE WORLD HISTORICAL VICTORY OF THE PEOPLE'S ARMY OF CHINA OVER ANGLO-AMERICAN IMPERIALISM THE CHIEF GAIN FOR THE CAUSE OF WORLD UNDERSTANDING IN 1949. THE ESTABLISHMENT OF THE GERMAN DEMOCRATIC REPUBLIC IS OF GREAT IMPORTANCE FOR THE SECURING OF PEACE IN EUROPE. A FURTHER GAIN IS THE INTERNATIONAL PEACE MOVEMENT AROUSED IN ALL COUNTRIES OF THE WORLD BY THE CONFERENCES IN PARIS AND PRAGUE.

2. THE BEST CONTRIBUTION TO WORLD PEACE AND SECURITY IN 1950 WOULD BE TO ADOPT AND CARRY OUT THE PROPOSALS PUT FORWARD BY SOVIET FOREIGN MINISTER (ANDREI Y.) VISHINSKY IN THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE UNITED NATIONS FOR THE CONCLUSION OF A FIVE-POWER PEACE PACT, FOR ABOLITION OF THE ATOMIC WEAPON, FOR CONCLUSION OF A JUST PEACE TREATY WITH GERMANY.

3. THE BEST CONTRIBUTION TO THE ECONOMIC RECOVERY AND STABILITY OF GERMANY WOULD BE THE ESTABLISHMENT OF A UNIFIED DEMOCRATIC GERMANY ON THE BASIS OR THE POTSDAM DECISIONS. THUS THE INDEBTEDNESS AND ENSLAVEMENT CAUSED IN WESTERN GERMANY BY THE MARSHALL PLAN COULD BE DONE AWAY WITH, DISMANTLING COULD BE STOPPED AND A STOP PUT TO THE FOREIGNIZATION OF THE GERMAN INDUSTRY BY THE ANGLO-AMERICAN MONOPOLY COMPANIES.

Britain to Recognize Red China This Week

London So Informs U. S.—Soviet Fleet Is Reported at Communist Held Port of Dairen.

JAN 4 1950

London, Jan. 4 (A. P.).—Britain has told the United States it will recognize Communist China on Friday or Saturday, an informed source said today. This was done as a prelude to formal notification to both Nationalist and Communist China.

This source said Britain's decision—one of the few major breaks from close co-operation with the United States since the end of world war II—actually was made weeks ago.

Only the question of timing was in doubt—and that was settled before Foreign Secretary Bevin left December 27 for the Colombo conference of Dominion Foreign Ministers.

First step in the chain of events designed to establish British diplomatic contact with Red China is expected to be a formal breaking of relations with the Nationalist Government of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek. This will likely take the form of a note handed to the Chinese Ambassador in London, Dr. Cheng Tien-hsi, British-educated lawyer and former judge of the International Court of Justice. AP

Decided Weeks Ago

Britain's decision, the informant said, actualy was made weeks ago. The timing of recognition was reported to have been settled before British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin left London Dec. 27 for the conference of commonwealth foreign ministers opening Jan. 9 at Colombo, Ceylon.

A major aim of Britain's labor government is to protect investments of about $1,000,000,000 in businesses, schools and churches in China and maintain trade relations with the Chinese.

The decision marks one of the few major breaks in the cooperation of London and Washington since the end of World War II. While Americans considered possible aid for Chiang Kai-shek's Nationalist forces on Formosa, British officials said they believed sustained American support would prove meaningless after Britain recognizes Mao.

End Chiang Relations

The first step in Britain's shift is likely to be breaking of relations with Chiang. A note probably will be handed the Nationalist ambassador in London, Dr. Cheng Tien-hsi.

Then will come formal notification to the communist government in Peiping, routed either through the British consul-general in that city or British embassy officials still in Nanking, the former seat of the Nationalist government. AP

BRITISH ACT FOR PEACE IN ERITREA

Send Troops And Warn Italy And Ethiopia On Violence

JAN 4 1950

London, Thursday, Jan. 5 (AP)—Britain announced today she is sending troops and a warship to stop "repeated acts of murder and violence" in Italy's former Red Sea colony of Eritrea.

She also has told Italy and Ethiopia she will take "a serious view of any action on the part of their representatives of a kind likely to provoke disturbance of the peace in the territory," a Foreign Office statement said.

Italians in Eritrea have been subjected to attacks and ambushes from the natives for months.

Cites Series Of Outrages

The statement said a "series of outrages" culminated on December 12 in "murderous attacks on the innocent citizens of Asmara itself."

Asmara, capital city of 85,000, is 65 miles inland from the main port of Massaua. Fifty thousand of the population are Italians. About 6,000 of Massaua's population of 17,000 are Italians.

These attacks, it was announced, were followed by a curfew, internment of suspects and suspension of the local press, which was declared to have made difficult the administration's maintenance of "law and order."

A system of convoys was set up in rural areas November 18 in an effort to stop the ambushes.

Ship Not Designated

An Admiralty spokesman said it is not known what warship will be sent to Massaua.

One of the several warships in the Red Sea area is the destroyer Chequers, on which the Duke of Edinburgh is first lieutenant. The Duke is the husband of Princess Elizabeth. The destroyer Chevron also is in the Red Sea.

Eritrea, taken by Italy late in the last century, was the springboard for Mussolini's attack on Ethiopia in 1935. It has been administered by Britain since 1941, when Mussolini's armies were driven out. A United Nations decision on final disposition of the colony is pending.

Claimed By Ethiopia

Ethiopia, in hearings before the United Nations, claimed the country with its 670 miles of coastline and 600,000 population.

Most members of the United Nations supported the idea of giving part of its back to land-locked Ethiopia so she could have an outlet to the sea, but deferred decision for a year while a five-nation commission makes a further investigation.

British authorities in Eritrea announced they have recruited a substantial number of men to reinforce the police and have provided additional vehicles and radio facilities to give law enforcement authorities greater mobility and striking power.

Refusal From Addis Ababa

At the same time the Ethiopian Embassy here made public a telegram to Trygve Lie, United Nations secretary general, from Acting Foreign Minister Afgeres in Addis Ababa refusing to recognize the General Assembly's decision to put Italian Somaliland under Italian trusteeship for ten years. The Assembly voted to defer giving Somaliland independence until 1959.

The Ethiopian message said the Assembly decision contradicted the peace treaty for Italy, in which Italy renounced claim to all her former colonies.

Russian Newspaper Attacks Soviet Rail Lines

London, Jan. 4 (AP)—The Moscow newspaper Pravda complained today about the way railroads are run in the Soviet Union. X 54 G

Trains don't go fast enough, cars don't get turned around quickly enough, the railroaders do not use "advanced" methods in their work, the Communist party organ said in an article broadcast by Moscow radio.

Things are especially bad on the South Urals line, said Pravda. On this line, the newspaper reported, there is bad discipline among the workers and the managers take a huffy attitude toward "creative" suggestions by the rank and file.

The railroads must "decisively improve the quality of their work," Pravda added.

Irish Want To Stop Germans' Ocean Crossing In 16-Foot Boat

JAN 4 1950 X 6

Kilmore, Ireland, Jan. 4 (AP)—The warm-hearted fisherfolk of Kilmore talked today of asking the Government to stop a 63-year-old German radio engineer and his young daughter from trying to make a North Atlantic sea crossing the villagers say is suicidal.

The engineer, Paul Muller, and his 18-year-old daughter, Aga, were prevented by heavy seas from setting out today in their 16-foot converted rowboat, Berlin, on another leg of a hazardous trip to South America.

Despite the fact he has had to be rescued eight times since putting out in his tiny craft from Hamburg in November, Muller says he is determined to push on. His daughter says she will stick with him.

No Previous Knowledge

Neither he nor his daughter has any previous knowledge of sailing or navigation. They cannot swim.

Aga admitted that during the 1,200-mile voyage from Germany to Kilmore she often was terrified. Twice she hauled her father out of the sea.

The Mullers are recuperating at this tiny fishing hamlet after their eighth rescue. Fishermen saved them by seconds from being dashed onto a jagged reef near the Saltee Islands Monday. Hungry and exhausted, they had been helplessly adrift for four days.

Muller says he picked South America as his goal because his grandfather was a farmer there and he could earn a living in the same way. He will try to work his way down the coast to Buenos Aires, sell the Berlin and buy a plot of land.

"Peace And Quiet"

It will be "somewhere in the Argentine, where I hope to start a new life of peace and quiet," he said.

Once this is done, he will send for his wife and son, who are still in the Soviet zone of Berlin.

The Berlin has no engine. It has two sails, a bib and a mainsail. In its tiny cabin, littered with gear and tanks, father and daughter have barely room to lie down.

Actually, there is little the Government can do legally to prevent the sailing. Irish law provides for investigation of the seaworthiness of vessels which carry more than twelve passengers. It does not cover other types.

Food Rationing Ends in France

Paris, Jan. 4 (A. P.).—Food rationing in France ended today with a Cabinet decision to allow free sale of coffee. Coffee was the last item still rationed.

Higher Corporation Tax Drive Foreseen

Bonn, Germany, Jan. 4 (AP)—The German people soon will be presented with the "terrifying" bill for Nazism and war, the West German Federal Chancellor, Dr. Konrad Adenauer, said today.

He said his Government will present to Parliament and the people in the next few months the "terrible balance" of the account for war damages and obligations forced upon the Germans by National Socialism and war.

Reviewing the new-year prospect for the Federal Republic, the Chancellor said the war's cost to Germany had so far been only partially disclosed. The Nazis created vast destruction and years will pass before the damage is repaired, he said.

Obligations Cited

In addition to the material destruction, he added, Germany has obligations to refugees, war invalids and widows. He promised the Government will, as far as possible, meet its obligations. He said it would give Parliament an exact picture of what they were. 400

German Deputy Faces Trial Over Speech

Kiel, Germany, Jan. 4 (AP)—A member of the West German Parliament will be tried soon for a speech in which he allegedly preached racial hatred and nationalism.

Deputy Wolfgang Hedler, of the Right Wing Deutsche Partei (German party) will be tried by a German court in Neumuenster, the state government of Schlewswig-Holstein said tonight.

Hedler allegedly told a party rally that Germany was the "least guilty" nation in the outbreak of World War II and that it lost because of treason and sabotage by German resistance fighters.

Eye Method To Predict Sex Of Unborn Tested

JAN 4 1950

Frankfurt, Germany, Jan. 4 (AP)—A German doctor looked into the eyes of 35 pregnant American women today and tried to forecast the sex of their unborn babies.

The Wiesbaden doctor, Dr. Wilhelm Witzel, claims that after ten years of experiments he has solved the age-old riddle of how to tell whether an unborn infant will be a boy or a girl.

The Army allowed Witzel to enter the women's clinic of its 97th General Hospital here today to settle whether the German really has the answer.

"Might Be Hoax"

"Everything is possible," said an army doctor, "it might be a hoax, but on the other hand you can tell a lot from looking at a person's eyes."

Witzel took an ordinary medical instrument for examining eyes and peered into the irises of each of the 35 American women.

The women, wives of United States military and State Department personnel in Frankfurt, all were in the last month of pregnancy.

"We plan to allow Witzel to inspect the eyes of about 100 women in different stages of pregnancy," said Capt. C. D. Kuntze, of New York.

Months To Test

Kuntze said it would be several months before the validity of Witzel's claims could be judged by army doctors.

The first results of his tests may be known in a month to six weeks, when babies are born to the women who volunteered to undergo the test today.

The German told army doctors that he had noted that the iris of a woman's eyes change in pregnancy and that different changes take place depending on the sex of the infant.

3 U.S. Planes Sabotaged

Stuttgart, Germany, Jan. 4 (AP)—Three planes of the United States Army's 6th Armored Cavalry have been sabotaged in the last two weeks, the army provost marshal's office said tonight. Three observation planes have been found with numerous holes made by a sharp instrument.

Bonn Asks West's Aid On Old Debts

Bonn, Germany, Jan. 4 (AP)—Chancellor Konrad Adenauer sought Western Allied aid today to clear up old German debts and speed foreign investments to aid in building up western Germany.

He told a news conference Germany wants to be known as an honest and decent partner, but the two economic problems cannot be settled by the Germans alone.

"Therefore I urgently appeal to the Allies to find a means of solving both problems as quickly as possible," Adenauer said. "If this is not put in order within the first half year, we shall face very grave problems."

Reviewing 1950 prospects, he said his Government will present to Parliament and the people in the next few months the "terrible balance" in war damages and obligations forced upon the Germans by nazism and war. He mentioned no figure, but said years will pass before the damage is repaired.

Adenauer spoke also of employment. He said that, although West Germany has about 1,500,000 unemployed, more people are working than ever before. 400

FINNISH WAGE BOOST DENIED

Employers Refer Issue To Government For Decision

Helsinki, Finland, Jan. 4 (AP)—Finnish employers refused tonight to grant a ten per cent wage increase demanded by trade-unions and formally referred this hot domestic issue to the Government.

The life of the Social Democratic Government, headed by Premier Karl-August Fagerholm, may depend on its decision to order or deny the increase.

The employers declared in a note that high production costs and hard competition in world markets leave no margin for wage increases.

Timber workers are paid the least of the groups involved. Their minimum amounts to between $9 and $10 a week. Masons, painters and others on a piece-work basis are not affected. They can earn a maximum of about $60 a week.

Cabinet Will Meet

Parliament has been called for a special session January 10 by its Agrarian speaker, Dr. Urho Kekkonen. Fagerholm opposed the call. However, the Cabinet has special economic powers and may reach a decision before January 10. The Cabinet will meet tomorrow.

Most political observers said they expect the Government, under union pressure, to approve the wage demands. Then it would have to face a parliamentary vote of confidence, the fifth since it took office July 29, 1948.

Agrarians Top Party

The observers credited the Social Democrats with somewhat more than a 50-50 chance to survive this test, reasoning that they have better possibilities than conservative groups of preserving peace on the labor front. Agrarians form the top party in Finland, holding 56 of the 200 seats in Parliament. The Social Democrats hold 54.

While Finnish leaders weighed the wage issue, a special committee worked on a reply to Russia's charge that Finland is harboring more than 300 Soviet war criminals in violation of the Soviet-Finnish peace treaty of 1944. Russia has specifically demanded the return of 56 of these.

29 Flying Arrow Seamen Ask U.S. Aid

JAN 4 1950

Hong Kong, Jan. 4 (AP)—The United States State Department was asked by 29 American crewmen today to arrange naval protection for the Shanghai-bound freighter Flying Arrow or to authorize their release from contract.

The Americans asked also that the State Department arrange repatriation of any United States seaman who elects to leave the ship rather than sail for the mined Communist-held port. None of the ship's officers signed the crew statement.

The United States Consulate informed the 29 crewmen that the State Department had already authorized their signing off the Isbrandtsen Line ship which is scheduled to sail for Red Shanghai tomorrow. The consulate offered to arrange loans to finance the return of the crewmen to the United States.

State Department Accused

Capt. David Jones, of Chicago, master of the Flying Arrow, charged the State Department was making a last-minute effort to hinder the ship's departure.

As the sailing hour drew near for the Flying Arrow, four National Maritime Union delegates aboard another Isbrandtsen Line ship, the Brooklyn Heights, inquired as to the possibility of crewmen aboard that vessel taking similar action to that of the 29 aboard the Flying Arrow.

The United States Consulate informed the Brooklyn Heights crewmen, who are scheduled to sail for Shanghai Saturday, they may sign off the ship if they choose.

Ask Curran For Advice

The Flying Arrow carries a crew of 42 and the Brooklyn Heights a crew of 43.

Hans Isbrandtsen, head of the line in New York, has been feuding with the State Department over the sailing of his ships into Communist held ports.

The State Department has warned that any American ship captain taking a vessel into Red Shanghai may lose his license.

Two Ships Fired Upon

Two Isbrandtsen ships have been fired upon by Nationalist warships guarding the entrance to Shanghai. Both, however, called at Shanghai.

The Nationalist blockade is not recognized officially by the United States or Britain.

Flying Arrow crewmen expect a 100 per cent bonus if they make the trip to Shanghai. Many of them are veterans of the European and Pacific wars. SEE ALSO

Minefields May Delay Ship's Run To Shanghai

Hong Kong, Jan. 4 (AP)—Chinese Nationalist mine fields — real or imaginary—may yet halt or delay the Flying Arrow's voyage to the Communist port of Shanghai.

With 29 of his crew of 42 reluctant to risk the unknown perils of the voyage tomorrow, Capt. David Jones, of the United States freighter, was in a tight spot.

The 29 asked the State Department early today to furnish naval protection for the Isbrandtsen line freighter or let them quit ship.

The United States consulate said the men were authorized to sign off the Flying Arrow. If they did not have the money to get back home the consulate would arrange loans.

There is no chance of naval protection. Isbrandtsen demanded naval protection for its freighters on the run to Communist China before. The State Department said to stay out of those waters.

All officers on the Flying Arrow appeared ready to sail. None signed the crew's petition to the State Department.

The Chinese Nationalists have announced the approaches to the river port of Shanghai have been mined. One previous report the waters had been mined proved false. ADD

JESSUP TO CONFER ON FORMOSA WITH GEN. MACARTHUR

JAN 4 1950

YOKOHAMA, (Thursday), Jan. 5 (AP)—U. S. Ambassador Philip C. Jessup said today he will discuss Formosa with General MacArthur. He would not comment on reports that the State department expects the island to fall to the Chinese communists.

Jessup and his wife arrived on a Far East survey which will include a visit to Formosa, refuge of the Chinese Nationalist government. He will attend a conference of American diplomatic officials at Bangkok, Thailand (Siam) next month.

The ambassador said his Asiatic trip and the February visit to Japan of the U. S. joint chiefs of staff are "merely particular aspects" of continued American interest in the Far East.

These two visits, however, come at a time when some observers believe the "dust is settling" in the Orient. American officials have indicated that when it has "settled," there may be some firm policy made on what to do about China.

Silent on Policy

Jessup would not discuss at his shipboard news conference future China policy or on American recognition of the Chinese Red regime. He said the U. S. view on that country had been stated in the United Nations.

He repeated his belief that present Russian policy on China is similar to the imperialism of the old czars. He added:

"We object to people carving up China and attempting to bring it under their special influence as the Russians have in Outer Mongolia and seem to be trying to do in Manchuria and Sinkiang."

Asked if he thought Chinese communist leader Mao Tze-Tung might develop into an "oriental Tito" the ambassador replied:

Will Discuss Treaty

"I hope every communist leader is a potential Tito, but I won't bank on it."

Jessup said he will discuss a Japanese peace treaty with MacArthur while he is in Japan. But he declined to speculate how soon it might be completed and said he has not brought along "anything specifically in the form of a draft."

He declined comment on whether Japan should be allowed to have armed forces or whether the U. S. should maintain military bases in Japan.

These two questions have jumped into prominence recently in connection with discussion of a Japanese peace treaty and the spread of communism in Asia.

Far-East Policy Seen Not Final

Tokyo, Jan. 4 (AP)—A responsible source said today a final decision on the United States policy toward Formosa probably will not be made until the Joint Chiefs of Staff visit Japan in Feburary.

For that reason, he added, a State Department memorandum of December 23 suggesting that its spokesmen play down Formosa's strategic importance does not neces sarily reflect the final official view.

That sentiment, this source said, is "entirely contrary" to the views of the Army, Navy and Air Force here.

Reliable sources say the United States State Department told its spokesmen abroad two weeks ago the fall of Formosa could be anticipated.

Sheet Dated Dec. 23

These sources said the statement was in a series of "suggestions" on current policy issued in a regular confidential guidance sheet dated December 23.

The spokesmen were advised to refrain from mentioning Formosa's strategic importance to the United States, from suggesting any danger of internal trouble on the island and to avoid statements that might embarrass the Chinese Nationalists.

Classified as "confidential," the "overnight guidance" sheet is distributed here to State Department and military officials and elsewhere to United States Information Service units and Embassy officials. Its purpose evidently is to co-ordinate the statements made officially abroad with current Washington views.

Diplomatic and military officials in Tokyo either declined comment or said they had not read the particular issue relating to Formosa.

The informants who saw the document said the pointers on Formosa were included among other matters in six pages of mimeographed material.

Officials who normally receive copies said today they could not find this particular issue. In any case, the classification of "confidential" would prevent them from releasing its contents.

Correspondents have been told they are subject to jail sentences for using material from classified documents.

FORMOSA MEMO DISCORD CITED

Tokyo Command Said To Disagree With Official Stand

Tokyo, Jan. 4 (AP)—A responsible source today said the military command here disagrees with a State Department memorandum December 23 advising its spokesmen abroad to play down Formosa's strategic value.

He predicted a final decision on United States policy toward Formosa will emerge from a visit of the Joint Chiefs of Staff to Japan next month.

Gen. Douglas MacArthur is reported to lay considerable empha sis on Formosa as a part of the defense arch in the Pacific.

Reliable informants said the State Department memorandum told its representatives the fall of Formosa. Nationalist redoubt 100 miles off the southeast China coast, could be expected.

In Confidential Sheet

The statement was said to be in a confidential guidance sheet regularly forwarded to foreign outposts.

It reportedly advised them to refrain from mentioning Formosa's strategic value to the United States and to avoid statements that might embarrass the Chinese Nationalists.

The responsible source emphasized that the memorandum, now nearly two weeks old, was not necessarily the final official view.

The informant, who has access to State Department guidance sheets, said the policies outlined in them often have changed sharply in accordance with changing circumstances.

At the time the memorandum was issued, however, the military authorities in the Western Pacific generally agreed with the State Department's view that the loss of Formosa could be expected under prevailing conditions, he continued.

Since then, the aircraft carrier Boxer has been assigned to the 7th Task Fleet. There has been talk of sending a military mission to Formosa.

Vacation At End, Chiang Tackles Defense Issue

Taipeh, Formosa, Jan. 4 (AP)—Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek returned from a holiday vacation today, faced with the problem of saving Formosa and Hainan islands from the Reds.

Back from almost two weeks at the Formosa Sun and Moon Lake, Chiang was expected to plunge into important conferences immediately. The most pressing problem facing him is reorganization and unification of the command of Nationalist forces on Formosa and Hainan—the two main Chinese islands still in Nationalist hands.

The situation on Hainan Island was reported grave in the face of an imminent Communist attack from Liuchow Peninsula. A food and ammunition shortage there, plus diversification in the command of Hainan, were believed to be the southern island's main weaknesses.

Pamphlets Dropped

Hong Kong dispatches said Nationalist planes were dropping pamphlets on Red guerrillas on Hainan in hopes of persuading them to surrender. The pamphlets promised the guerrillas that they would be treated well. Guerrillas hold much of the big South China island.

Communist irregulars on Hainan have become increasingly active as Red armies on near-by Liuchow Peninsula complete their invasion preparations.

Nationalist Premier Yen Hsi-shan said there are 20,000 Communist guerrilas on Hainan. Other figures have ranged to twice that number.

Yen predicted that the Reds will try to invade Formosa after completing their attack on Hainan.

Communist dispatches in Hong Kong claim Red guerrilas have destroyed five companies of Nationalist troops in raids recently.

Air-Raids Continue

Official Central News Agency dispatches said Hainan-based planes continued sorties against Red targets on the mainland. Attacks were made on Liuchow Peninsula Communists and the former French concession of Kwangtung province.

Nationalist planes also reportedly bombed Kunming, United States base in South China during the war with Japan. The Kunming raid was reportedly made on New Year's Day with bombardiers trying vainly to hit the home of Lu Han, Yunnan governor, who went over to the Reds.

Severe fighting was reported southeast of Kunming where Government troops, driving on the Yunnan capital, have met stiff resistance.

RUSSIANS BACK FORMOSA INVASION, CHINESE CHARGE

TAIPEH, Formosa, Jan. 4—(AP) Nationalist Naval sources today asserted China's communists with Russian help were massing ships for the invasion of Formosa.

The sources also said units of the Soviet Asiatic fleet recently arrived at Dairen. Twenty Russian submarines were reported based at that Russian-held port in Manchuria.

(The arrival of Russian warships at Dairen is not unusual. Dairen is ice free. That makes it a good harbor in winter. Russian warships have been reported berthed there in winter in the past. Apparently it is the timing which has the nationalist navy jittery.)

Bought New Ships

The navy sources predicted the invasion of Formosa would come from such northern ports as Dairen and Tsingtao rather than directly across the 100 miles of the Formosa strait.

They said Chinese communists recently bought 20 British tank landing ships at Hong Kong along with numerous motor boats.

(These presumably would be used for south China operations. They could hardly be moved to south China past the Nationalist sea blockade.

(In the north, the communists have a few Nationalist warships that deserted. They are said to be feverishly building landing craft. They also have junk flotillas and a few captured Nationalist ships.)

Authorities believe Formosa will be invaded after the Reds seize Hainan island, off the south China coast. Hainan's hour may be near.

Grave reports came from Hainan as Chiang Kai-shek returned to Taipeh from a year-end vacation at a Formosan lake retreat.

Hainan's ammunition was low, so was food. The military command was split. Red guerrillas moved boldly about in the interior.

The official central news agency said Nationalist warplanes from Hainan still bombed away at Red concentrations on Liuchow peninsula. This springboard for the Hainan invasion is only 10 miles away.

Chiang is expected to begin important conferences at once. Appeals for more reinforcements and supplies have come in from Hainan. There also is the problem of reorganization and unification of command.

(There was no elaboration of the reference to a divided Hainan command. However, recent dispatches have named two of Chiang's generals as commanders there. He now is cooped up with them on the island along with the remnants of his command from south China.)

Report Red Fleet at Dairen.

Taipeh, Formosa, Jan. 4 (A. P.).—Chinese Navy reports today said parts of the Russian Asiatic Fleet, including more than twenty submarines, had moved into ice-free Dairen, Red-held North China port.

Nationalist leaders here suspect that any attempt by Chinese Communists to invade Formosa would come from Dairen and Tsingtao, another Communist north China port, instead of from the mainland 100 miles to the west of Formosa.

Intelligence reports of the Nationalists say the Chinese Reds have bought twenty British tank-landing ships and numerous motorboat engines in Hongkong.

Reports say the Chinese Communists in the north have been concentrating ships for the eventual assault on Formosa expected soon. Russian assistance in the formation of the Communist amphibious operation is suspected by the Nationalists.

Meanwhile Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek returned from a holiday vacation today faced with the pressing problem of saving Formosa and Hainan islands from the Reds.

Back from nearly two weeks at the Formosa Sun and Moon Lake, Chiang was expected to plunge into important conferences immediately. The most pressing problem facing him is reorganization and unification of the command of Nationalist forces on Formosa and Hainan—the two main Chinese islands still in Nationalist hands.

The situation on Hainan Island was reported grave, in the face of imminent Communist onslaught from Liuchow Peninsula. Hongkong dispatches said Nationalist planes were dropping pamphlets on Red guerrillas on Hainan in the hope of persuading them to surrender.

Nationalist Premier Yen Hsi-shan said there are 20,000 Communist guerrillas on Hainan. Other figures have ranged to twice that number.

Yen predicted the Reds will try to invade Formosa after completing their attack on Hainan.

PAKISTAN RECOGNIZES CHINESE RED REGIME

KARACHI, Pakistan, Jan. 4 (AP)—Pakistan today recognized the communist government of China.

The recognition announced by the Karachi government was De Jure or full recognition of the people's republic of China set up under communist leader Mao Tze-Tung.

India and Burma already have extended recognition.

ACHESON TO GIVE COMPLETE REVIEW OF FOREIGN POLICY

JAN 4 1950

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4 (AP) Senator Connally (D.-Tex.) disclosed today that Secretary of State Acheson will give the Senate Foreign Relations committee a review of the international situation next Tuesday.

Acheson is expected to deal particularly with administration policy concerning Formosa and the Chinese Communists, which is drawing angry criticism from some Republicans.

Connally, chairman of the Senate committee, made the announcement shortly after two GOP senators demanded that the State department outline its Far East policy. The department is reported to have informed its officials overseas that the loss of Formosa to the Chinese Communists is inevitable.

Formosa, an island lying 100 miles off the Red-occupied China coast, is the last stronghold of Gen. Chiang Kai-shek's Nationalist Chinese government. A Communist attempt to win the island is expected.

Smith, Knowland Ask Review

Senator Knowland (R.-Calif.) joined with Senator Smith (R.-N. J.) in demanding that the State department clarify its Far East policy.

Knowland told newsmen the administration is "cringing before communism" in Asia and has already taken a defeatist attitude toward Formosa.

"The greatest need is for the administration to make declaration to the world that we will not permit an attack on Formosa," Knowland said.

Even at the risk of war? A reporter asked.

Knowland replied that taking such a stand always involves risk, but he said the risk must be taken. The senator declared that, wherever the United States has taken a firm stand against communism, the spread of communism has been halted.

The Californian proposed a review of the entire military policy and spending program in an effort to find money which could be used against communism in the Far East.

Other senators noted that President Truman departed from the text of his "state of the union" message to Congress today to praise Republican support of administration foreign policy.

Ignored Republicans

But Knowland and Smith said the State department has ignored the bi-partisan policy in dealing with Formosa.

Smith told a reporter he was greatly surprised to hear of the State department's reported Formosa instructions being issued without consultation with Republican leaders.

Smith and Knowland have both advocated U. S. action to save Formosa. Their views are shared by former President Herbert Hoover and Senator Taft (R.-Ohio).

President Truman made no mention of China in his message, and the State department has given no indication of what the future policy toward China will be.

Undersecretary of State Webb has refused to give Knowland a copy of the memorandum on Formosa which is stirring up Republican protests. Webb has told him, he said, that the document is classified, which means it is marked secret or confidential.

However, late today Knowland said he had been told he may read the document any time he cares to visit the department. But the department is not willing to make the document public.

"I asked for a copy of the full memorandum," Knowland said. "The department's offer doesn't meet my request. I'm not going to be satisfied merely by being permitted to take a look at it."

Envoys' Orders On Formosa Held Secret

JAN 4 1950

Washington, Jan. 4 (AP)—The State Department stood fast today against congressional efforts to learn the secret instructions on Formosa policy it sent to Far East diplomats last month.

Senator Knowland (R., Cal.) said Undersecretary of State Webb had rejected his request to see the document. Knowland is demanding a copy for study by the Senate Appropriations and Armed Services committees.

Decision Seen Made

The Californian was told these instructions were "classified"—that is, secret—and had been drafted as confidential advice to United States officials abroad.

Knowland said he understands the document puts the State Department in the position of having decided already that Formosa must not be defended by the United States. In it, he said, United States officials were told to prepare public opinion for the "inevitable fall" of the island.

[EDITOR'S NOTE—A State Department source said today he was "reasonably positive" that the leak concerning secret circulars to the department's agents in Tokyo did not occur "at this end."

[Although the department was guarded in comment on the matter, it was made clear that at present it had no specific knowledge on how the leak occurred or who was responsible for it.]

Formosa lies about 100 miles off the China coast and is the last stronghold of Chiang Kai-shek's Nationalist forces.

Urge Military Power

Former President Herbert Hoover and Senator Taft, of Ohio, Republican leader, both have urged that the United States use military power if necessary to defend Formosa from attack.

And Gen. Douglas MacArthur, supreme Allied commander in Japan, is said to favor United States action to keep Formosa from the Chinese Communists. MacArthur's is said to believe Formosa is vital to America's Far East defensive line.

One of these senators, H. Alexander Smith (R., N.J.), said yesterday that Formosa should be garrisoned by United States and Chinese Nationalist troops. AND

EUROPEANS FACE 25 PCT. CUT IN AID

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4 (AP)—The Marshall Plan's top economist said today western European nations have been told they will have to get along with 25 per cent less American aid during the coming year.

The statement came from Richard M. Bissell, assistant deputy administrator of the economic cooperation administration.

Bissell did not say what amount ECA will ask Congress to provide for European recovery for the year starting July 1, but he told reporters: "It will be a big reduction from last year."

The appropriation for the current year was $3,778,000,000. A 25 per cent cut would reduce the amount for next year to about $2,800,000,000.

No Cut for Greece

Bissell said all except Greece of the 16 countries receiving Marshall Plan aid will share in the contemplated reduction in U. S. spending. He said Greece needs heavy grants because her economy was depleted by civil war.

Bissell also said ECA plans what he called "a new approach" to the question of alloting funds to the various benefiting countries. This is a plan to penalize countries which do not follow ECA recommendations for recovery, probably by reducing the flow of dollars they will receive.

Spur Recovery

The ECA official said the idea is to spur countries to do all possible to achieve a sound and self-sufficient economy by June, 1950, when the present American foreign aid program expires.

Bissell also said ECA has reached "no final decision" on whether to ask Congress for an extension of the agency's China aid program.

Nearly $100,000,000 remains from past appropriations to finance Chinese assistance but the amount must be used by Feb. 15 unless Congress extends the deadline.

"Our operations in this direction now are restricted—in fact, totally restricted to the island of Formosa," Bissell said.

Sen. Taft Plans Policy With Vandenberg

JAN 4 1950

Washington, Jan. 4 (AP)—Senators Vandenberg (R., Mich.) and Taft (R., Ohio) have come to a quiet agreement that may avoid an open split between them over foreign policy.

Taft said he had written a statement on Republican foreign policy aims as he saw them and had found it entirely acceptable to Vandenberg.

Taft wouldn't disclose now what the statement said. He added that he was submitting it as part of a suggested statement of party principles to Guy G. Gabrielson, the Republican national chairman.

Gabrielson asked some leading Republicans to offer drafts for study by a fifteen-member policy committee he has set up within the National Committee.

New Draft Approved

Republican senators voted yesterday to work with a House committee on the draft of a brief GOP platform for this year's congressional races. It wasn't clear just how such a statement would be fitted in with ideas of Gabrielson's group.

Senator Millikin (R., Col.) insisted the congressional Republicans would speak only for themselves, not the party as a whole. Since most of the candidates will come from this group, the National Committee may be forced to ratify what the Senate and House members say.

Taft is expected to be named a member of the Senate policy drafting group. Vandenberg has begged off because of delicate health.

To Continue Co-operating

The two Republican leaders apparently agree that the Republicans should continue to co-operate with the Democrats on major foreign policy decisions, so long as the GOP members are consulted in advance and share in shaping those decisions.

They agree that the Constitution gives foreign policy leadership to the President.

It is the Vandenberg-Taft view that this country ought not to be put in the position of speaking with two voices on policy matters—except where a matter of principle is involved on which the Republicans feel they can't yield.

Vandenberg, for instance, has said he wasn't consulted about the Administration's China policies and he and other Republicans—including Taft—feel free to criticize. Likewise, Vandenberg said he never agreed with the decision to withdraw the American Ambassador from Spain.

Probe Asked Of U.S. Government In Germany

Washington, Jan. 4 (AP)—A congressional investigation of the American government in Germany was asked today in a House resolution by Representative Dollinger (D., N.Y.).

Dollinger said the United States "has failed miserably in promoting democracy" in Germany.

"Despite its assurances and commitments, the Government of the United States has permitted the resurgence of German fascism, anti-Semitism, militarism and cartels," the resolution declared.

WARDS AND CATS CITED

San Francisco, Jan 4 (A. P.).—The Angus Wards and their four cats were presented with an 18-inch loving cup "for bravery," yesterday when they returned from Red China. The donor was the Northern California Championship Cat Show.

Just whose the bravery was not entirely clear. It might have been the feat of the four Ward cats, only felines known to have left China since it went Communist. It might have been the way the Wards took care of their pets.

"I never heard of parents leaving their children behind when traveling. We don't leave our pets behind," declared Mrs. Ward recently.

Nurse Is Made Major; Survivor Of Corregidor

Langley Air Force Base, Va., Jan. 4 (AP)—An army nurse who spent 33 months as a prisoner of war of the Japanese was promoted to the permanent rank of major here today.

The promotion capped a twelve-year military career for Edith M. Wimberly, of Campti, La., chief nurse of the Air Force Base Hospital here and a survivor of the fall of Corregidor.

The gold leaf insignia of a major was pinned on Nurse Wimberly's shoulders by Maj. Gen. Willis H. Hale, 9th Air Force commander, in an informal ceremony.

BOSTON PLANS TO HONOR GEN. MARSHALL JAN. 16

BOSTON, Jan. 4 — (AP) Plans were announced today for a city celebration and parade on Jan. 16 in honor of Gen. George C. Marshall—rivalling the welcome given a generation ago to President Wilson and Marshal Foch of France.

The wartime army chief of staff and postwar secretary of state, now president of the American Red Cross, will come here to dedicate a permanent blood center for the Boston Red Cross chapter. He will also address the Crosscup-Pishon post, American Legion.

John Brown, city director of public celebrations, said the parade is expected to match those accorded President Wilson and Marshal Foch when they were feted in Boston after the first World war.

Brown said preliminary plans were made at a meeting attended by representatives of the Army, Navy, Air Force, National Guard, business and industry, veterans groups and schools.

BRIDGES ATTENDED 3 RED MEETINGS WITNESS CLAIMS

JAN 4 1950

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 4—(AP) A new government witness testified today he saw Harry Bridges at three "closed" Communist party meetings, and again at Communist party headquarters in San Francisco.

Bridges, head of the CIO Longshoremen's Union, is on trial for perjury, accused of falsely swearing he was not a communist at his 1945 naturalization hearing, and had never been a communist.

The witness was Lawrence Ross, 46, who said he was a paid functionary of the Communist party from 1932 to 1937. He testified he has been a newspaperman since around 1925, and presently is managing editor of a trade paper in Memphis, Tenn.

Ross said he saw Bridges in Communist party headquarters here in the early fall of 1936. He remembered it well, he stated, because "I had a feeling almost amounting to shocked surprise, that Harry Bridges was present."

Surprised at Bridges

Defense attorney James MacInnis objected vigorously but the court permitted Ross to answer a prosecution question as to why he was surprised. It was, he said "because there had been so many precautions taken to conceal his identity" in connection with the Communist party "that I was surprised to see him at Communist party headquarters."

The headquarters session was a closed "communist meeting," he testified, at which Bridges "made a report of an hour—perhaps longer—about the situation on the waterfront and the advisability of preparing for a strike."

The other meetings at which he saw Bridges, he declared, also were "closed" communist gatherings.

Just before the noon recess he told of attending a national convention of the Communist party. He said it opened June 24, 1936, in the Manhattan opera house, New York city. He said he was one of the California delegates.

'Rossi' Nominated

F. Joseph Donohue, chief of government counsel, asked him who was nominated for membership on the Communist Central committee.

The reply was "I remember Bill Schneiderman, comrade Rossi—who was Harry Bridges—possibly Walter Lambert, and possibly Anita Whitney."

"Were any elected?" Donohue asked.

"I remember Bill Schneiderman was elected and I remember Rossi was elected. I believe Anita Whitney, was, but I can't be positive."

Other prosecution witnesses had testified that Bridges used "Rossi" as a party name.

Two other longshore union officials are on trial with Bridges, accused of conspiracy, because of appearing as his witnesses in the naturalization hearing. They are Henry Schmidt and J. R. Robertson.

Earlier today Ross declared he saw Bridges in a Communist party meeting in Fresno. 4 pp

JUDGE CITES COPLON TRIPS

JAN 4 1950

Says FBI Apparently Got Data By Tapping Girl's Phone

New York, Jan. 4 (AP)—Federal Judge Sylvester J. Ryan said today the FBI apparently learned of Judith Coplon's plans for trips from Washington to New York by tapping her private telephone.

Her lawyer, Archibald Palmer, repeatedly has contended that the Government got the information by wire tapping. Under Federal law such information cannot be used as evidence.

The Government admits tapping her wires but insists that other "confidential information" first put the FBI on Miss Coplon's trail.

The judge's statement came during a hearing on a defense motion to quash the spy conspiracy indictment against Miss Coplon, on grounds it is based on wire tapping evidence.

Tells Of "Advance Knowledge"

Judge Ryan said he had gone through 320 pages of transcripts of intercepted telephone conversations from Miss Coplon's Washington home.

He said his reading had indicated that "the Government had advance knowledge" of three trips made to New York by Miss Coplon. The last trip, on March 4, ended in her arrest with Valentin A Gubitchev, Russian engineer.

The judge obtained agreement from Palmer and Gubitchev's attorney, Abraham L. Pomerantz, that the recordings of the intercepted telephone calls be played later at an unspecified time.

He also asked for a new recording of Miss Coplon's voice for comparison with the FBI recordings.

Asks Attorney To Act

He instructed Raymond P. Whearty, special assistant to the attorney general, to see if arrangements for the recording could be made.

But later Whearty asked that the Government "be relieved of the duty of arranging" the recording.

Pomerantz then offered to arrange a free recording through a radio station he represents, but Palmer declined.

The matter was left in the air, and Miss Coplon, who had appeared briefly in court, was sent back to Palmer's office where, he said, she is "doing some work."

Pomerantz continued his fight today to establish that Gubitchev should not be tried because he has diplomatic immunity.

Cites Acheson Statement

He said the statement of Dean Acheson, Secretary of State, that Gubitchev was no longer a member of the Russian United Nations delegation when he was arrested "failed to give the answer."

He said the immunity plea was based on the fact that "Gubitchev was and continues to be third secretary of the Soviet Ministry of Foreign Affairs."

However, Whearty later told the court that documents in Gubitchev's possession when he was arrested indicated his employment as third secretary of the Soviet ministry ended in July of 1946.

RECOGNIZE CHINA REDS, CHURCH LEADER URGES

NEW YORK, Jan. 4 — (AP) The United States government should "immediately" recognize the Chinese Communist regime, Dr. John A. Mackay, president of Princeton Theological seminary, said today.

Mackay returned recently from a tour of East Asia. He is chairman of the International Missionary Council which sponsored the first Conference of East Asia Churches at Bangkok last month with the World Council of Churches.

He addressed 200 church and missionary leaders at headquarters of the international missionary council.

RUSSIAN WALKOUT (RTPL
BY TOM LAMBERT
TOKYO, JAN. 4-(AP)-RUSSIA'S MEMBER OF THE ALLIED COUNCIL FOR JAPAN TOOK ANOTHER WALK TODAY. HE THUS AVOIDED HEARING AN AMERICAN CHARGE THAT 376,000 JAPANESE WAR PRISONERS STILL ARE IN SOVIET HANDS--OR DEAD.

LT. GEN. K.N. DEREVYANKO'S WALKOUT DUPLICATED HIS PERFORMANCE OF TWO WEEKS AGO TODAY. THEN ALSO HE REFUSED TO DISCUSS RUSSIA'S FAILURE TO COMPLETE REPATRIATION OF JAPANESE CAPTURED IN WORLD WAR II.

WHEN THE BURLY RUSSIAN STALKED OUT OF TODAY'S SPECIAL COUNCIL SESSION, AMERICAN CHAIRMAN WILLIAM J. SEBALD WENT AHEAD WITH THE CHARGE. IT WAS IN THE FORM OF A NOTE FROM U.S. SECRETARY OF STATE DEAN ACHESON TO THE SOVIET AMBASSADOR IN WASHINGTON.

THE OTHER MEMBERS OF THE FOUR-POWER COUNCIL--BRITISH AND CHINESE--HEARD THE NOTE RECALL THAT TASS, THE SOVIET NEWS AGENCY, HAD ANNOUNCED LAST MAY 20 THAT ONLY 95,000 JAPANESE PRISONERS REMAINED IN RUSSIAN HANDS.

TO THE CONTRARY, IT SAID, JAPANESE GOVERNMENT FIGURES OF "SUBSTANTIAL RELIABILITY" SHOWED AN ADDITIONAL 376,929 STILL WERE BEING HELD BY THE SOVIETS.

THIS DISCREPANCY "IS TOO WIDE TO BE ATTRIBUTED TO CLERICAL ERROR OR OVERSIGHT," THE NOTE SAID, ADDING:

"THE SUPPOSITION THEREFORE ARISES THAT THE DISCREPANCY IN QUESTION MAY ONLY BE EXPLAINED BY THE CONTINUED DETENTION OF LARGE NUMBERS OF JAPANESE IN SOVIET-CONTROLLED AREAS AND/OR BY AN ABNORMALLY HIGH DEATH FACTOR AMONG THOSE WHO WERE TO BE REPATRIATED."

IT WAS A CHARGE SOMEWHAT SIMILAR TO THIS THAT DEREVYANKO DUCKED WITH THIS FIRST WALKOUT.

JAN 4 1950

AT THAT TIME, SEBALD SAID RUSSIA'S FAILURE TO COMPLETE REPATRIATION HAD FORCED GENERAL MACARTHUR'S HEADQUARTERS TO CONCLUDE THAT THE 376,000 MAY HAVE DIED IN SOVIET CAMPS FROM BRUTAL TREATMENT.

THE RUSSIANS HAVE NOT ACKNOWLEDGED OR REPLIED TO THIS STATEMENT. NEITHER HAVE THEY GIVEN ANY INFORMATION TO JAPANESE DEMONSTRATORS WHO LATER BESIEGED THE SOVIET MISSION HERE FOR INFORMATION ABOUT MISSING RELATIVES.

A23FX

THEY HAVE SAID ONLY THAT REPATRIATION HAS BEEN COMPLETED. THIS ANNOUNCEMENT CAME AFTER THEY RETURNED 94,035 DURING THE SUMMER. THAT LEFT, RUSSIA ASSERTED, ONLY 10,000 JAPANESE STILL IN SOVIET TERRITORY--ALL CLASSIFIED AS "WAR CRIMINALS" WHO WOULD NOT BE RETURNED.

DEREVYANKO'S SECOND WALKOUT WAS PREFACED WITH ALMOST THE SAME WORDS HE USED BEFORE STALKING OUT DEC. 21. HE SAID:

"I DON'T DEEM IT POSSIBLE FOR ME TO TAKE PART IN A DISCUSSION OF THE QUESTION PROPOSED BY MISTER CHAIRMAN FOR THIS SPECIAL MEETING."

THE ACHESON NOTE, FOR WHICH NO DATE WAS GIVEN BY SEBALD, SAID:

"THE WITHHOLDING OF THIS INFORMATION AS WELL AS THE PROLONGED DETENTION OF PRISONERS HAVE THE CESSATION OF HOSTILITIES IS IN PATENT CONFLICT WITH THE ACCEPTED INTERNATIONAL CONCEPTS OF THE FUNDAMENTAL HUMAN RIGHTS AND FREEDOMS...."

IT ALSO URGED THE RUSSIANS TO "AGREE TO THE DESIGNATION OF AN INTERNATIONAL HUMANITARIAN BODY OR ORGANIZATION" TO INVESTIGATE WHAT HAS HAPPENED TO THE MISSING JAPANESE.

SUCH A PROBE WAS RECOMMENDED BY BRITISH COMMONWEALTH MEMBER W.R. HODGSON AT THE DEC. 21 MEETING AND IMMEDIATELY ACCEPTED BY MACARTHUR, WHO ASKED THE U.S. GOVERNMENT TO TAKE THE NECESSARY STEPS.

"IT WOULD BE A BOLD STEP FOR AMERICA TO OCCUPY STRATEGIC BASES THERE BUT FORMOSA IS STILL LEGALLY PART OF THE JAPANESE EMPIRE UNTIL A PEACE TREATY IS SIGNED. AFTERWARD, IF THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS PROVE SINCERE, FORMOSA CAN ALWAYS BE RETURNED TO CHINA," JUE EXPLAINED.

AT FORT LEAVENWORTH, KAS., LT. GEN. ROBERT L. EICHELBERGER, RETIRED, SAID LOSS OF FORMOSA TO CHINESE COMMUNISTS WILL MAKE AMERICAN BASES IN THE PHILIPPINES AND OKINAWA "MILITARILY UNTENABLE."

EICHELBERGER LED THE EIGHTH ARMY IN ITS PUSH FROM NEW GUINEA TO JAPAN IN THE LAST WAR.

ADDRESSING ABOUT 800 STUDENT OFFICERS AND FACULTY MEMBERS OF THE COMMAND AND GENERAL STAFF COLLEGE, HE SAID THE COMMUNIST OVERTHROW OF CHINA MEANS GRAVE DANGER FOR THE UNITED STATES.

"IF WE GIVE UP FORMOSA TO THE REDS OUR POSITION ON OKINAWA, TO SAY NOTHING OF OUR BASES IN THE PHILIPPINES, BECOME MILITARILY UNTENABLE. WE MIGHT AS WELL DRAW FURTHER BACK INTO THE PACIFIC," EICHELBERGER SAID.

JAKARTA, BATAVIA, U.S.I., JAN.4-(AP)-INDONESIA'S FIRST WEEK OF INDEPENDENCE HAS BEEN DISTURBED BY RENEWED ATTACKS OF FANATICAL GANGS WHO ASPIRE TO SET UP THEIR OWN STATE IN WEST JAVA.

ACCORDING TO RECPORTS HERE, A MOSLEM BAND OF DARUL ISLAM FIGHTERS ATTACKED THE TOWN OF BREBES, 150 MILES EAST OF JAKARTA ON THE NORTH JAVA COAST, MONDAY NIGHT. SEVERAL PERSONS WERE KILLED.

THE INDONESIAN FEDERAL ARMY SENT REINFORCEMENTS TO BREBES FROM SEMARANG.

TWO NIGHTS EARLIER DARUL ISLAM FIGHTERS PUSHED INTO THE TOWN OF GARUT, 60 MILES SOUTHWEST OF BREBES, BUT WERE REPORTED DRIVEN OUT BY INDONESIAN TROOPS.

U.S.I. DEFENSE MINISTER SULTAN HAMENGKO BUWONO ACKNOWLEDGED WHEN HE TOOK OFFICE LAST WEEK THAT THE DARUL ISLAM MOVEMENT WAS PRESENTLY THE GREATEST THREAT TO INDONESIAN PEACE. THERE HAVE BEEN NO CLASHES BETWEEN DUTCH AND INDONESIAN TROOPS SINCE THE U.S.I. BECAME AN INDEPENDENT NATION.

OTTAWA, JAN.4-(AP)-THE CANADIAN GOVERNMENT IS KEPT FULLY INFORMED OF ALL DEVELOPMENTS IN ARRANGEMENTS AMONG CANADA, THE UNITED KINGDOM AND THE UNITED STATES FOR EXCHANGE OF INFORMATION ON ATOMIC ENERGY, INFORMED SOURCES SAID TODAY.

OFFICIAL SOURCES DECLINED TO SAY WHETHER CANADA HAS RECEIVED A MEMORANDUM FROM GREAT BRITAIN OUTLINING NEW PROPOSALS FOR EXCHANGE OF INFORMATION. SPOKESMEN WOULD NOT COMMENT ON LONDON AND WASHINGTON REPORTS THAT BRITAIN HAD SUGGESTED IT WOULD STORE SOME AMERICAN-MADE ATOMIC BOMBS BUT WOULD NOT MAKE ANY OF ITS OWN.

GOVERNMENT SPOKESMEN HAVE SAID CANADA IS NOT INTERESTED IN THE PRODUCTION OF ATOMIC WEAPONS BUT WANTS THE WIDEST-POSSIBLE EXCHANGE OF INFORMATION ON ATOMIC MATTERS AMONG THE THREE COUNTRIES.

THE THREE COUNTRIES HAVE MADE ARRANGEMENTS FOR CONTINUING TALKS ON EXCHANGE OF ATOMIC INFORMATION.

WASHINGTON, JAN.4-(AP)-A RESOLUTION OFFICIALLY ENDING WORLD WAR II NEXT JULY 4 WAS PROMISED ODAY BY REP.A.L.MILLER (R-NEB).

THIS IS HIS THIRD ATTEMPT TO END THE WAR. HE INTRODUCED SIMILAR RESOLUTIONS IN THE LAST TWO SESSIONS OF CONGRESS.

HOSTILITIES CEASED MORE THAN FOUR YEARS AGO, BUT THIS COUNTRY HAS NEVER OFFICIALLY DECLARED THE WAR FINISHED. BY LAW THIS CAN BE DONE EITHER BY THE PRESIDENT BY PROCLAMATION OR THROUGH A JOINT RESOLUTION BY CONGRESS.

UNTIL SUCH ACTION IS TAKEN, THE PRESIDENT CONTINUES TO HAVE MANY WARTIME POWERS.

"THE PRESIDENT AND THE MILITARY HAVE TREMENDOUS POWERS UNDER THE WAR POWERS ACT," MILLER SAID. "I THINK ALL SHOULD BE WITHDRAWN AND THAT LEGISLATIVE AUTHORITY SHOULD BE GIVEN BACK TO THE ELECTED REPRESENTATIVES OF THE PEOPLE."

MILLER OFFERED TWO EXAMPLES OF HOW HE SAID THE PRESIDENT HAD USED HIS WARTIME POWERS TO NULLIFY ACTIONS OF CONGRESS. HE CITED THE CANCELLATION OF PLANS FOR A SUPER AIRCRAFT CARRIER AND MR.TRUMAN'S ANNOUNCEMENT THAT ALTHOUGH FUNDS WERE APPROPRIATED FOR A LARGER AIR FORCE HE WOULD RELEASE ONLY SUFFICIENT FUNDS FOR THE SIZE HE RECOMMENDED.

WASHINGTON,JAN 4-(AP)-A NEW GET-TOUGH POLICY TOWARD THE EASTERN EUROPEAN COMMUNIST NATIONS WAS HINTED FURTHER TODAY BY AN AMERICAN ORDER CLOSING DOWN TWO HUNGARIAN CONSULATES IN THIS COUNTRY.

THE STATE DEPARTMENT ISSUED THE ORDER YESTERDAY AFTER BEING REBUFFED REPEATEDLY IN PROTESTS AGAINST THE TREATMENT OF TWO AMERICANS JAILED IN HUNGARY. IT SAID THE CONSULATES IN NEW YORK AND CLEVELAND MUST SHUT DOWN BY JAN. 15.

NOTICE WAS GIVEN EARLIER THAT PASSPORTS NO LONGER WILL BE ISSUED TO AMERICAN TOURISTS AND BUSINESSMEN FOR TRAVEL IN HUNGARY. THERE HAVE BEEN VEILED OFFICIAL HINTS THAT ACTION OF THE SAME KIND MAY BE TAKEN AGAINST POLAND AND CZECHOSLOVAKIA.

IF SO THIS ACTION PRESUMABLY WILL AWAIT REPLIES TO NOTES SENT THESE TWO GOVERNMENTS LAST MONTH AGAIN DEMANDING INFORMATION ON THE WHEREABOUTS OF HERMANN FIELD, CLEVELAND ARCHITECT, HIS BROTHER NOEL FIELD AND NOEL'S WIFE, HERTA. THEY DROPPED FROM SIGHT LAST SUMMER AND INQUIRIES TO WARSAW AND PRAGUE HAVE GOTTEN NOWHERE.

A TRAVEL BAN WOULD BE MORE TELLING IN THE CASE OF POLAND THAN CZECHOSLOVAKIA. RECORDS INDICATE ABOUT 200 AMERICANS WENT TO HUNGARY LAST YEAR, COMPARED WITH SOME 500 TO POLAND AND 1,200 TO CZECHOSLOVAKIA

THE STATE DEPARTMENT ISSUED THE CLOSING ORDER AGAINST HUNGARY AFTER BEING COLD SHOULDERED IN ITS ATTEMPTS TO ARRANGE FOR AN AMERICAN CONSUL TO INTERVIEW THE AMERICANS JAILED IN HUNGARY.

THEY ARE ROBERT A.VOGELER, COMMUNICATIONS COMPANY OFFICIAL, WHO IS STILL BEING HELD WITHOUT TRIAL SINCE HIS ARREST NOV. 18, AND ISRAEL JACOBSON, JEWISH WELFARE AGENCY DIRECTOR, WHO WAS HELD INCOMMUNICADO AND THEN EXPELLED.

NO FORMAL CHARGES WERE FILED AGAINST HIM BUT JACOBSON SAID THE POLICE DECIDED HE WAS "NOT QUITE A SPY."

WASHINGTON,JAN 4-(AP)-THE FEDERAL DISTRICT COURT WAS ASKED TODAY TO DISMISS THE PERJURY INDICTMENT OF HAROLD CHRISTOFFEL WHOSE RETRIAL IS SET FOR JAN. 16.

O.JOHN ROGGE, ATTORNEY FOR CHRISTOFFEL, ONE-TIME MILWAUKEE LABOR LEADER CONVICTED LAST YEAR OF LYING UNDER OATH WHEN HE TOLD THE HOUSE LABOR COMMITTEE IN 1947 HE HAD NEVER BEEN A COMMUNIST, ALSO ENTERED MOTIONS TO:

1. POSTPONE THE TRIAL FROM JAN. 16 TO MARCH 16.
2. TO TRANSFER THE TRIAL FROM WASHINGTON TO MILWAUKEE.
3. TO SUBPOENA CERTAIN MEMBERS OF THE HOUSE LABOR COMMITTEE TO APPEAR IN DISTRICT COURT AND BRING DOCUMENTS THAT MIGHT RELATE TO THE CASE.

THERE WAS NO IMMEDIATE INDICATION WHEN THE MOTIONS WILL BE HEARD.

CHRISTOFFEL WAS SENTENCED TO A TWO TO SIX-YEAR PRISON TERM AFTER HIS CONVICTION IN 1948. THE SUPREME COURT LAST SUMMER REVERSED THIS ON THE GROUND IT HAD NOT BEEN PROVEN THAT A MAJORITY OF THE LABOR COMMITTEE WAS PRESENT AND HEARD CHRISTOFFEL TESTIFY.

ROGGE CITED THIS RULING IN HIS REQUEST THAT THE CHARGES BE DROPPED.

FEDERAL DISTRICT JUDGE MATTHEW F.MC GUIRE REJECTED PELLEY'S REQUEST FOR A REVIEW OF A PAROLE BOARD ACTION REFUSING HIS RELEASE.

PELLEY APPLIED TO THE BOARD FOR PAROLE AFTER SERVING A THIRD OF HIS 15-YEAR SENTENCE. HE IS IN THE FEDERAL PRISON AT TERRE HAUTE, IND. THE BOARD REJECTED HIS PETITION SEVERAL MONTHS AGO.

JUDGE MC GUIRE, ACCEPTING A GOVERNMENT ARGUMENT, RULED THAT THE PAROLE BOARD HAD DISCRETION IN SUCH CASES AND THAT THERE WAS NO APPARENT BASIS FOR REVIEW.

AMONG OTHER THINGS, PELLEY'S ATTORNEYS CONTENDED THAT THE BOARD SHOULD BE REQUIRED TO DISCLOSE ITS REASONS FOR REFUSING A PAROLE SINCE PELLEY BECAME ELIGIBLE FOR RELEASE AFTER SERVING A THIRD OF HIS TERM.

JUDGE MC GUIRE HELD THAT THE BOARD IS NOT REQUIRED TO MAKE SUCH DISCLOSURES.

AFTER THE SIGNING OF THE BERLIN-MOSCOW NON-AGGRESSION PACT IN AUGUST, 1939, THE COMMUNIST PARTY LINE CALLED FOR STRICT AMERICAN NEUTRALITY IN ORDER TO HINDER THE WAR EFFORT OF ENGLAND AND FRANCE.

THE GOVERNMENT INTERRUPTED CROSS EXAMINATION OF MRS.PRISCILLA HISS TODAY SO THAT WITNESSES COULD TESTIFY IN HER HUSBAND'S DEFENSE. HE IS ON TRIAL FOR PERJURY FOR DENYING HE GAVE STATE DEPARTMENT SECRETS TO A COMMUNIST SPY RING IN 1937 AND 1938.

THE FIRST DEFENSE WITNESSES WAS DR.CLYDE EAGLETON OF CRESTWOOD, N.Y., PROFESSOR OF INTERNATIONAL LAW AT NEW YORK UNIVERSITY.

DR.EAGLETON SAID HE TALKED WITH HISS DURING THE FALL OF 1939 WHEN HE WAS WRITING AN ARTICLE.

"I WAS PLEASED TO FIND SOMEONE IN THE STATE DEPARTMENT WHO BELIEVED THAT THE NEUTRALITY LEGISLATION WAS NOT THE RIGHT COURSE FOR US TO TAKE, AND WHO BELIEVED WE SHOULD AID ENGLAND AND FRANCE," DR.EAGLETON SAID.

ROMULO GESTURED AT A STAGE FILLED WITH BOY SCOUTS AND SAID: "WE SHOULD BEGIN WORKING WITH THESE BOY SCOUTS. MAKE THEM FEEL THAT THIS WORLD IS ONE--THAT WE ALL BELONG TO ONE RACE, THE HUMAN RACE."

HE SAID IT WAS BECAUSE THE YOUTH OF GERMANY AND ITALY WERE FORGOTTEN AFTER WORLD WAR 1 THAT THEY ACCEPTED THE LEADERSHIP OF HITLER AND MUSSOLINI.

"IF WE ARE TO AVOID ANOTHER WORLD WAR, WE MUST TAKE HOLD OF THE MINDS OF THE YOUTH OF THE WORLD," HE ADDED.

REFERRING TO HIS POSITION IN THE U.N.GENERAL ASSEMBLY, ROMULO SAID HE LOOKS OVER THE 59 DELEGATES AT A MEETING AND THINKS "IF THOSE DELEGATES, IN THEIR YOUTH, HAD BEEN BOY SCOUTS THEN WE COULD HAVE AVOIDED SOME OF THE VITUPERATIVE LANGUAGE SOMETIMES UNFORTUNATELY USED ON THE ROSTRUM OF THE UNITED NATIONS."

RESTON'S REPORT SAID IT WAS UNDERSTOOD THAT THE MEMORANDUM MAKES THE FOLLOWING PROPOSALS:

1. BRITAIN WOULD AGREE NOT TO PRODUCE ATOMIC BOMBS, ALTHOUGH IT MIGHT WISH TO CONTINUE ITS EXPLORATIONS INTO THE POSSIBILITY OF DEVELOPING NEW ATOMIC WEAPONS.

2. BRITAIN WOULD AGREE, AS CANADA ALREADY HAS DONE, TO ALLOW ITS SCIENTISTS TO WORK WITH U.S. SCIENTISTS ON THE DEVELOPMENT OF ATOMIC WEAPONS IN THE UNITED STATES.

3. THE UNITED STATES WOULD SUPPLY, HOWEVER, AN "X" NUMBER OF ATOMIC BOMBS TO BE STORED IN BRITAIN.

4. BRITISH SCIENTISTS WOULD BE INSTRUCTED TO GRANT TO THE U.S. ALL INFORMATION THEY POSSESS THAT MIGHT BE USEFUL IN PROMOTING THE UNIFIED ATOMIC WEAPONS PROJECT IN THE UNITED STATES--BUT THEY WOULD DO SO ONLY ON THE BASIS OF A COMPLETE EXCHANGE OF ATOMIC INFORMATION BY THE UNITED STATES.

HER VIEWS ON THE USEFULNESS OF THE WORK SHE IS DOING NOW IN THE UNITED NATIONS WERE GIVEN LATE YESTERDAY AT A NEWS CONFERENCE IN WHICH SHE EXPLAINED THE UNITED STATES IDEAS ON A PROPOSED COVENANT ON HUMAN RIGHTS. SHE SPOKE AS U.S. MEMBER OF THE COMMISSION AND NOT AS THE COMMISSION CHAIRMAN.

REMINDED BY A REPORTER THAT THE SOVIET UNION MOST LIKELY WOULD NOT ACCEPT THE COVENANT AND THAT THE CURRENT INTERNATIONAL SUSPICION MADE THE GOING ROUGH, MRS. ROOSEVELT SAID "YOU CAN'T ALLOW THAT (THE COLD WAR) TO HOLD YOU BACK FROM TRYING TO GET A FRAMEWORK WHICH WILL BE WORKABLE LATER."

MRS. ROOSEVELT EXPLAINED THAT THE UNITED STATES HAS PROPOSED A FIVE-MAN HUMAN RIGHTS COMMITTEE IN THE BELIEF THAT THE MORAL FORCE SUCH A GROUP COULD BRING TO BEAR WOULD HAVE AN EFFECT ON VIOLATIONS OF HUMAN RIGHTS.

THE COMMITTEE WOULD BE CHOSEN FROM DISTINGUISHED MEN NOMINATED BY STATES SIGNING THE PROPOSED COVENANT.

THE COMMISSION ON HUMAN RIGHTS WILL START WORK MARCH 27 ON THE COVENANT. THIS WILL BE A SEPARATE DOCUMENT FROM THE U.N. DECLARATION ON HUMAN RIGHTS WHICH WAS APPROVED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY IN PARIS IN 1948. THAT DECLARATION HAS NO LEGAL BINDING FORCE; THE COVENANT IS INTENDED TO BE BINDING ON ALL COUNTRIES RATIFYING IT. MRS. ROOSEVELT HOPES TO GET THE COVENANT THROUGH THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY AT THE SESSION NEXT FALL.

LAKE SUCCESS, JAN.4-(AP)-SECRETARY-GENERAL TRYGVE LIE SAID TODAY GREECE HAS INFORMED THE UNITED NATIONS OF WILLINGNESS TO REESTABLISH GOOD RELATIONS WITH YUGOSLAVIA, ALBANIA AND BULGARIA.

ALEXIS KYROU, GREECE'S PERMANENT REPRESENTATIVE TO THE U.N., OUTLINED HIS GOVERNMENT'S POSITION IN A LETTER TO LIE. IT WAS TRANSMITTED TO ALL U.N. MEMBERS AND TO THE SPECIAL COMMITTEE ON THE BALKANS (UNSCOB).

GREECE HAS ACCUSED HER THREE NORTHERN NEIGHBORS OF SUPPORTING THE GREEK COMMUNIST GUERRILLAS WHO SEEK TO OVERTHROW THE ATHENS GOVERNMENT. FRONTIER OBSERVERS HAVE NOTED THAT YUGOSLAVIA HAS CEASED AIDING THE GUERRILLAS AS A RESULT OF PREMIER MARSHAL TITO'S FEUD WITH THE MOSCOW-DIRECTED COMINFORM.

KYROU EXPLAINED THAT GREECE WAS READY TO RENEW OLD AGREEMENTS OR TO CONCLUDE NEW ONES WITH HER THREE NORTHERN NEIGHBORS TO PROVIDE EFFECTIVE MACHINERY FOR CONTROLLING COMMON FRONTIERS AND FOR THE PEACEFUL ADJUSTMENT OF BORDER INCIDENTS.

HE SAID HIS GOVERNMENT HOPED THE COUNTRIES CONCERNED WOULD ABIDE BY THE BALKAN RESOLUTION ADOPTED BY THE 1949 GENERAL ASSEMBLY. THAT RESOLUTION CALLED ON GREECE, YUGOSLAVIA, ALBANIA AND BULGARIA TO SETTLE THEIR DIFFERENCES AND RESTORE NORMAL DIPLOMATIC RELATIONS.

UN ITALIAN SOMALILAND (220)
LAKE SUCCESS, JAN.4-(AP)-EMPEROR HAILE SELASSIE NOTIFIED THE UNITED NATIONS TODAY ETHIOPIA WILL NOT RECOGNIZE A 1949 GENERAL ASSEMBLY DECISION TO PLACE ITALIAN SOMALILAND UNDER ITALIAN TRUSTEESHIP.

THE ETHIOPIAN GOVERNMENT HAD OPPOSED THE U.N. ACTION LAST FALL AND WARNED THAT SUCH A DECISION WOULD BE CONSIDERED A THREAT TO ETHIOPIA'S SECURITY.

THE ETHIOPIAN CABLE WAS RECEIVED AS THE U.N. MADE PUBLIC A DRAFT TRUSTEESHIP AGREEMENT SUBMITTED BY ITALY OUTLINING THE TERMS UNDER WHICH SOMALILAND WOULD BE ADMINISTERED.

CONSIDERABLE INTEREST WAS APPARENT HERE IN A PROVISION UNDER WHICH ITALY WOULD BE AUTHORIZED "TO ESTABLISH IN THE TERRITORY WHATEVER MILITARY, NAVAL AND AIR INSTALLATIONS ARE NECESSARY FOR THE DEFENSE OF THE TERRITORY."

THIS IS A STANDARD PROVISION OF ALL THE TRUSTEESHIP AGREEMENTS NOW IN EFFECT, BUT U.N. OFFICIALS POINTED OUT THAT THIS WAS AN UNUSUAL SITUATION IN THAT ITALY WAS AN EX-ENEMY COUNTRY AND IN THAT IT WOULD BE THE FIRST TIME SINCE THE WAR THAT THE ITALIAN GOVERNMENT WOULD BE AUTHORIZED TO MAINTAIN TROOPS IN AFRICA.

THE ITALIAN TRUSTEESHIP AGREEMENT WILL BE CONSIDERED BY THE U.N. TRUSTEESHIP COUNCIL WHICH MEETS IN GENEVA JAN. 19.

UNDER THE ASSEMBLY'S DECISION, ITALIAN SOMALILAND WILL BECOME INDEPENDENT WITHIN 10 YEARS. TWO OTHER PRE-WAR ITALIAN COLONIES, LIBIA AND ERITREA, WERE DEALT WITH IN THE SAME RESOLUTION. LIBIA WILL BECOME INDEPENDENT JAN. 1, 1952, AND A FIVE-NATION COMMISSION WILL RECOMMEND A FINAL DISPOSITION OF ERITREA AFTER AN ON-THE-SCENE INQUIRY.

Damascus, Syria, Jan 4, 1950 (AP) The week-old cabinet of Premier Khaled Bey Azem in a policy statement today said it would safeguard Syria's independence and sovereignty.

The cabinet--Syria's seventh in a year marked by successive military coups--said it would act in accordance with temporary constitutional provisions passed by the Assembly December 15, pending publication of a new constitution.

The statement also said the cabinet will respect the country's republican and democ atic t aditions. The republican group is opposed to union of Syria and Iraq in a monarchy under the Hashemite King Feisal of Iraq or any other monarch. Feisal is a nephew of King Abdullah who long has advocated creatio of a "greater Syria."

In a reference to Syria relations with other Arab countries, the cabinet said it would strive to maintain friendly relations with all foreign powers "within the limits of the national interest and internati nal law." ### 1.50p apr 99

Greek Coalition Collapses; Diomedes, Papagos Resign

D

Pre-Election Fight Brings About Fall of Cabinet That Routed Reds

TRAVLOS

Athens, Jan. 5 —(AP)— Greece's coalition government, which presided over the rout of the Communist guerrilla rebellion, collapsed today in a pre-election dispute between Populist (royalist) and Liberal cabinet ministers.

Premier Alexander Diomedes sent his cabinet's resignation to King Paul.

At the same time Diomedes announced to reporters that Alexander Papagos, Greece's greatest living military hero, has resigned as commander of the nation's armed forces.

Favorite 'Iron Man'

There have been persistent reports that Generalissimo Papagos, leader of the final successful drive against the Communists, was about to enter the political arena and perhaps seek the premiership. The 67-year-old generalissimo is the top favorite of those Greeks who are looking for a "strong man."

Diomedes sent in the resignations after second Deputy Premier Sophocles Venizelos led 10 other Liberal Party ministers out of the government.

A DD

ernment.

The action of Diomodes was accompanied by the resignations of two top army officers who guided Greece to victory over the Communist-led rebels last summer.

The Diomodes cabinet was wrecked by differences between the Liberals and the Populists (Royalists) about the timing of the 1950 parliamentary elections.

Theotokis, the man reportedly slated to try and form a new cabinet, is a former Populist. He resigned from the party November 16 and announced he would be an independent deputy.

He had been one of the big four in the party which holds the largest number of seats in Parliament. His action caused a serious break in the party ranks.

The palace sources said a military plane had been sent to Corfu to bring Theotokis to Athens.

It was a mingling of politics and military affairs that led to the resignation of the army officers.

Field Marshal Alexander Papagos, 67-year-old hero of the Grammos campaign that routed the Communists, resigned as chief of the armed forces with the declaration that criticism from First Deputy Premier Constantin Tsaldaris, the Populist leader, was responsible.

A walkout of 11 Liberal ministers launched the cabinet crisis. Their leader, Second Deputy Premier Sophocles Venizelos, wants the elections held earlier than the scheduled April 9 or 16.

The walkout forces Premier Diomedes, a non-party man who has headed the government since July, to offer King Paul I the cabinet's resignation. A palace communique later announced the king's acceptance.

Tsaldaris Criticized

Venizelos criticized Tsaldaris for a political speaking tour the Populist leader is now making in southern Greece. He charged the tour violated an agreement to postpone the opening of the campaigning.

He said that, in a letter of resignation to Diomedes, he urged a suggestion to King Paul that the elections be speeded up to prevent "the terrible consequences the country would be exposed to from an unduly long pre-electoral campaign period, which would inevitably result in the state machinery being dislocated and rehabilitation halted."

Tsaldaris' speaking campaign also was the peg in Pagagos' resignation. Relations between the field marshal and the deputy premier have been tense ever since speculation developed a few weeks ago that Papagos was planning to resign and run for a parliamentary seat. He is the No. 1 candidate of some Greeks for a "strong man" in the premiership. He has never flatly denied he would try politics.

Tsaldaris, a former premier himself, declared in recent speeches in Macedonia that the army's victory over the rebels was due to a gradual increase in its size.

Answering Shouts

Answering shouts from a crowd that "We want Papagos," he expanded upon the theme at Tripolis yesterday.

"There are senior officers who refused to fight the guerrillas on the grounds they did not consider the size of the army and the means at its disposal adequate," Tsaldaris said. "When political leaders supplied the army adequately, banditry (the rebellion) was suppressed.

"There are undoubtedly men who rendered some service to the anti-guerrillas struggle. But if they step elsewhere they will cause damage to their country."

Pagagos cited the passage as the cause of his resignation.

He said in a letter to Diomedes he considered Tsaldaris' words impaired his prestige.

The Diomedes cabinet was made up largely of the same ministers who served under the late Premier Themistocles Sophoulis until his death last June.

Under constitution procedure the king can name any party leader in parliament to form a new cabinet, which then must get a vote of confidence from parliament or dissolve it. The present parliament was chosen March 31, 1946.

U. S. Reaction Unfavorable

The American reaction in Athens to the developments were unfavorable. An American source said the walkout of the Liberals was "very unwise in the light of Congress reconvening and arguments continuing about American aid."

U. S. military advisers and American supplies played an important part in the campaigning that closed the civil war.

London Editor Says Soviets To Set Off A-Bomb Tomorrow

JAN 5 1950

London, Jan. 5—(AP)—Editor Kenneth de Courcy says you can look for a second Russian atomic explosion next Saturday night, Jan. 7. Specifically, at midnight Greenwich mean time. That's 7 P. M. Eastern Standard Time, or 2 A. M. Sunday Moscow time.

Predicted Last One

De Courcy is the man who predicted last January that Russia would attempt an atomic explosion in 1949.

He said in a statement to newsmen today the second explosion will be set off at the weekend in blasting for an Asiatic irrigation project unless there's a technical hitch, in which case "the Russian general staff plans are to have the postponed experiment on Jan. 10."

De Courcy is editor of the Monthly Intelligence Digest, a private information service. A man of 40 with an extensive background in international intelligence, he claims information from highly placed informants in several eastern European countries.

Scientists Say Reds Soon Set For Atom War

JAN 5 1950

London, Jan. 5—(AP)—The Atomic Scientists Association of Britain predicted today Russia will have enough A-bombs within a year or two to fight an atomic war.

"Hence in a war in which atom bombs are used at all, they will be used by both sides," the group declared in its monthly bulletin.

"The resulting havoc, particularly in a densely populated area such as western Europe, will in all probability entail a complete collapse of civilization in this area."

The bulletin said this threat "serves to focus attention on the real problem," which it defined as follows:

"We must find some means of preventing recourse to war as a method of settling international disputes. Mankind must learn to submit itself to the rule of law in international affairs or our civilization will perish."

The association was formed in 1946 with a membership made up mainly of physicists who took part during the war in the U. S.-British-Canadian atomic energy project.

The bulletin said it based its estimate of Soviet A-bomb production on statements by U. S. scientists who previously had made a good guess on how long it would take Russia to produce an atomic explosion. The Russians apparently succeeded in this last year. Said the bulletin:

Long Delay Doubted

"It would therefore appear to be very dangerous to bank upon a long delay in the mass production of atom bombs by Russia.

"One must assume that within a relatively short time, say a year or two at most, she will have an appreciable number of atom bombs at her disposal."

The bulletain said there seems no question but that attempts to agree on international control of the A-bomb have failed.

"This leaves us then," it said, "with the conclusion that if either or both of the adversaries in a future war consider it to their advantage to use atm bombs they will do so.

"In one sense, this is not such an unsatisfactory conclusion as might be supposed at first sight . . .

Wants War Abolished

"After all, what the ordinary men in any country wants is not to prohibit the use of the atom bomb or any other weapon in war. He wants to abolish war altogether. . . .

"If we are to make any progress we must get down to the roots of the evil."

The association is headed by Prof. Rudolf E. Peierls of Birmingham University, who as a member of the wartime atomic project in America helped develop the bombs which fell on Hiroshima and Nagasaki.

Among the members is Prof. P. M. S. Blackett of the University of Manchester, who won the Nobel Prize for physics in 1948. He is the author of "Military and Political Consequences of Atomic Energy," which defends Russia's refusal to accept American proposals for atomic energy control.

BRITISH TROOPS SENT TO QUELL ERITREA RISING

London Warns Both Italy and Ethiopia Against Provocative Acts

London, Jan. 5—(AP)—Britain is sending troops and a warship to Eritrea to quell new outbreaks of murder and violence in Italy's former Red Sea colony.

The Foreign Office announced that action last night and said Italy and Ethiopia had been warned Britain would take "a serious view" if their representatives acted in a way "likely to provoke disturbance of the peace in the territory." Both Italy and Ethiopia want control of Eritrea which has been occupied by Britain since 1941.

The statement said a "series of outrages" was climaxed December 12 by "murderous attacks on the innocent citizens of Asmara," Eritrea's capital 65 miles inland from the main port of Massaua.

Blame Attacks

The Foreign Office blamed the attacks on persons trying to "influence in their favor the decision on the future of Eritrea."

Natives have been attacking and ambushing Italians in Eritrea for months. A curfew and convoys into the interior have been instituted, suspects have been interned and the local press has been suspended.

A decision on Eritrea's future is pending in the United Nations. Ethiopia has claimed the country and its 670 miles of coastline. Most U. N. members supported the award to land-locked Ethiopia of part of Eritrea, to give Emperor Haile Selassie's kingdom an outlet to the sea. But a final decision has been deferred pending further investigation.

Ethiopia today attacked the U. N. General Assembly decision putting another of her neighbors, Italian Somaliland, under Italy's trusteeship for 10 years.

Acting Ethiopian Foreign Minister Afgeres in Addis Ababa telegraphed U. N. Secretary General Trygve Lie his nation could not recognize the Assembly decision, which he said contradicted Italy's peace treaty renunciation of all claim to her former colonies.

Red Urges Nationalists To Preserve Records

London, Jan. 5 (AP)—Chou En-lai, Chinese Communist Premier, today called on the personnel of Nationalist embassies and consulates throughout the world to refrain from destroying documents and files in order to effect a proper handover to Communist representatives.

Chou's statement, broadcast from Peiping, was heard here by Tanjug, the official Yugoslav news agency.

Germany Import-Export Agency Chief Resigns

Frankfurt, Germany, Jan. 5 (AP). William John Logan, of Washington, resigned today as director general of the allied Joint Export Import Agency.

Logan, who has served in Germany since 1947, will retire to private life. He is a former vice president of the Hanover National Bank in New York.

Morris S. Verner, Jr., of Pittsburgh, was named as Logan's successor.

German Party Drafts 6-Point Berlin Plan

Berlin, Jan. 5—(AP)—Chieftains of West Germany's powerful Social Democratic Party have drafted a six-point program for Berlin, a party official said tonight.

Included in the program are a reiteration of the proposal that West Berlin be made the 12th state in the West German Republic and a demand for federal budgetary aid for Berlin.

The party's executive committee, here for a two-day meeting, said opportunities for combatting the Socialist Unity Communists (of Eastern Germany) have improved. It declared the eastern group "is in a sharp crisis." The committee did not elaborate.

West Germany's Christian Democratic Chancellor, Konrad Adenauer, came under fire. The Socialists charged that he lacks the proper initiative in working for the free unity of Germany.

Western observers and sources close to the party said they believed the party leaders would map a new and tougher policy toward the Communists. The Communists apparently expected some such action.

They snapped up the challenge posed by the conference and led off with an attack on the Social Democratic chairman, the aggressive, sharp-tongued Kurt Schumacher.

The official press service of the Socialist Unity Party put out a statement declaring Schumacher had done his best to split Germany and put the West into a colonial status. The Communist organ appealed to Berliners to help fight against what it called Schumacher's "betrayal" of German interests.

All but two members of the Social Democrats' 24-man executive met secretaly in West Berlin for the session. Their party is the major opposition in parliament to West Germany's Conservative Coalition government.

Informants said the leaders would take note of some reports of disaffection by some members in the West. These members, they said, are sympathetic to the policy of Adeanauer and are regarded as a threat to party solidarity.

German Socialists Plan To Counter Red Drive

Berlin, Jan. 5—(AP)—German Socialist leaders assembled in Berlin today to discuss an antidote for a mounting Communist offensive.

Kurt Schumacher, chairman of the party which controls West Berlin and 40 per cent of the vote in West Germany, lent his dynamic presence to the two-day series of conferences.

The party newspaper Sozialdemocrat said one of the objectives of the conference would be to fix a time and place for "an all-German party rally."

This appeared to be a direct hitback at the East German Communist plans to hold an "all-German" rally for unity in West Germany this Spring.

Widow of Ludendorff Is Convicted as a Nazi

MUNICH, Germany, Jan. 5 (AP).—Mathilde Ludendorff, widow of Germany's World War I chief of staff, Field Marshal Erich Ludendorff, today was found to be a major Nazi offender, the worst type of Nazi, by a German denazification court.

The verdict was announced in the absence of the seventy-three-year-old woman who is ill in her Bavarian home. Because of her age, the court refrained from imposing a labor internment sentence which usually runs up to ten years for this type of offender. The court instead ruled that she must do a low type of work for two years, and all other means of earning a living were denied her.

The court ordered confiscation of her property except 5,000 marks ($1,200) and confiscation of 50 per cent of all returns from sales of her writings or her future earnings. She may no longer write for publication.

In its judgment the court held that Mrs. Ludendorff, like her late husband, at no time was in fundamental opposition to Hitler and National Socialism. "Instead, in their political aims they went beyond those of the leaders of the Third Reich," the court said.

Frankfurt, Germany, Jan. 5 (AP)—A political leader who fled Czechoslovakia said tonight a big purge of the Communist party is under way there.

He predicted there will soon be a series of major trials against alleged enemies of the Czech Communist Government, like those recently held in other Soviet satellite countries.

Former Deputy Premier

These statements came from Bohumil Lausman, 46, former Minister of Industry and deputy premier of Czechoslovakia.

He told a news conference he fled to Germany several days ago because he was informed the Communists were going to arrest him.

He was brought to the conference by agents of the United States Army, who have been questioning him.

Party Too Loosely Knit

"The Communists are in the process of unifying their party to build up a police state in Czechoslovakia just like they have in Russia," Lausman said.

"They are trying to develop a solid core in their party which is now too big, too loosely knit, and contains too many lukewarm Communists.

"The purge has already begun, and it is a continuing process. You will soon see a series of big trials, with probably the first one against Catholic leaders."

Lausman was deputy premier in the Czech Government organized by the Communists after their coup in February, 1948.

He described himself as a disillusioned patriot who "made the mistake of believing that one could co-operate politically with the Communists."

CZECHS SEIZE U.S. BULLETIN, OUST STUDENT

Controlled Press Renews Its Attacks On Washington Policies

Prague, Czechoslovakia, Jan. 5 (AP)—The Communist Government expelled an American student and seized a Czech-language bulletin of the United States Information Service today in actions coinciding with fresh attacks upon the United States in the controlled press.

The student ordered out is Savel Kliachko, 26, of Palo Alto, Cal., once held in Slovakia five days on suspicion of spying. He came here last summer from Columbia University's School of International Affairs on a scholarship to study at Prague University. He left Prague this morning.

On Consulate Closing

The confiscated Information Service bulletin carried the text of a United States note ordering the closing of Communist Hungary's two consulates in the United States, in New York and Cleveland. Hungary and Czechoslovakia are Cominform allies.

The United States ordered the consulates closed in retaliation for the arrest of Robert A. Vogeler, an American business man, on espionage and sabotage charges.

The bulletin circulates among about 2,000 Czechs daily.

Meanwhile, the trade-union newspaper Prace, commenting on President Truman's State-of-the-Union address, declared the President was raising a Communist bogey to stir up "war hysteria and make the nation forget its $4,000,000,000 deficit."

Army Warns Soldiers

"Truman dug up again for Congress the old ghost of the Communist danger and stated that if the American aid program should crack up Europe would fall in the Communist bag," it said.

The army organ Obrana Lidu warned soldiers against "American intelligence agents who use liquor and sex" to recruit Czechs for espionage.

Communist newspapers charged that Western countries are sending large numbers of "spies, murderers and saboteurs" into the Soviet Union and European Communist countries. The party organ Rude Pravo said "the revolutionary vigilance of the Soviet people" is frustrating them.

46 Romanians Arrested For Meat-System Faults

Bucharest, Romania, Jan. 5 (AP)—Forty-six officials of the Romanian meat distribution company have been arrested in connection with a break-down of meat distribution, the Food Ministry said tonight.

A communiqué said they were charged with criminal negligence, and indicated more arrests would follow.

Many industrial sections of the coutry face meat shortages, the Ministry said, because of inefficient handling of livestock. Many cattle have died and the State has suffered "great material losses," the Ministry added.

In some areas decayed meats have been sold and the communiqué spoke of shady deals in livestock buying. Cattle were bought from kulaks (rich farmers) at high prices while "poor peasants were swindled," the statement asserted.

PRAGUE, Czechoslovakia, Jan. 5 (AP)—Friends reported tonight that Prof. Josef Macek, Czech economist, had fled to the United States zone of Germany. FINN CABINET YIELDS TO WAGE RISE DEMANDS

Compromise Would Give General Increase of 7.5 Per Cent

JAN 5 1950

Helsinki, Jan. 5—(AP)—Finland's Social Democratic government today agreed to a 7.5 per cent general wage increase in an effort to avoid a government crisis over this crucial domestic issue.

Finnish employers last night refused to grant a 10 per cent increase demanded by the Trade Union Federation (TUF). There was no TUF or employer reaction immediately to the government compromise move.

The wage increase is effective January 15.

Premier Karl-August Fagerholm's cabinet is due to face a vote of confidence over its wage action when parliament meets in special session January 10. The session was called by the speaker, Dr. Urhuo Kekkonen, whose Agrarian Party at the last election won 56 of parliament's 200 seats, two more than the Social Democrats secured.

Given Chance To Win

Premier Fagerholm opposed the special session call but observers here gave him something better than a 50-50 chance to win what will be his fifth vote of confidence since taking office July 29, 1948. His chances of survival, however, depend on acceptance of the modified wage increase by the trade unions.

Employers opposing the union demand said high production costs and severe competition in world markets left no margins for wage hikes.

Of the wage groups affected, timber workers are paid least. Their minimum now approximates between $9 and $10 per week.

Helsinki, Jan. 5 (AP)—Premier Karl-August Fagerholm's Social Democratic Government agreed today to a 7.5 per cent general wage increase and thus strengthened his chances to survive a coming parliamentary vote of confidence.

The Trade Union Federation had demanded a ten per cent wage increase. This was turned down by Finnish employers. There was no official statement from the federation or management on the lowered figure, which will become effective January 15.

Opposed By Agrarians

Parliament will meet in special session January 10 to consider the issue of a wage increase. The Agrarian party, headed by Dr. Urhuo Kekkonen, opposed the increase. Dr. Kekkonen, the Agrarian candidate for President in the February election, called the session as Speaker of Parliament.

The Social Democrats have two less seats in Parliament than the Agrarians, but have managed to survive previous votes of confidence with support of the Conservatives and others.

Observers gave Fagerholm a 50-50 chance of surviving what will be his fifth vote of confidence since he took office July 29, 1948.

Under Russian Pressure

The parliamentary crisis comes as Fagerholm's Government remains under pressure from the Russians. They have lodged a severe protest with the Finnish Government alleging the Finns were giving refuge to Soviet war criminals.

The Russians took note of the wage issue. A Tass dispatch from Helsinki broadcast by the Moscow radio accused the Finnish Government of turning the wage question "into an election campaign trick."

The dispatch assailed the "right-wing leadership" of the trade-unions and Government, saying they could "no longer hold down wages because of pressure from the masses."

CHENNAULT MOVE HALTED

British Bar Marking Changes on Planes in Hong Kong

HONG KONG, Jan. 5 (AP)—The British today forbade two United States Civil Aeronautics Administration officials to put American markings on seventy-five Chinese transport planes that retired United States Maj. Gen. Claire L. Chennault says he bought.

The planes, belonging to the Central Air Transport and the China National Aviation Corporations, have been impounded by pro-Communist employes. Nationalist China owned the two lines, except for 20 per cent of the China National Aviation Corporation which was the property of Pan American Airways.

Formosan reports from Taipei, the Nationalist capital, said that General Chennault had been backed in the multi-million dollar purchase by T. V. Soong, brother-in-law of Chiang Kai-shek.

The British ruled that no markings could be changed until the Hong Kong Supreme Court determined final disposition of the aircraft under pending suits.

In New York Mr. Soong said through a spokesman that he had no financial interest in the Chennault aviation project.

9 Crewmen Sign Off

Hong Kong, Jan. 5—(AP)—Local agents for the American freighter Flying Arrow announced today that nine of the crew had signed off rather than make a voyage to mine-threatened Communist Shanghai. The ship is now due to sail Friday with the remainder of the 43-man crew.

The signing-off was authorized by the U. S. State Department, which has agreed to arrange loans for those unable to pay their passage home.

Flying Arrow Set For Shanghai Trip

Hong Kong, Jan. 5—(AP)—The Isbrandtsen Line ship Flying Arrow will sail for Red Shanghai tomorrow without nine members of her 43-man crew.

A. P. Pattison Company, Hong Kong agents for the line, said nine seamen signed off the vessel to avoid the trip through the Chinese Nationalist blockade to the Communist port. Approaches to the port have been mined by Nationalists.

The seamen's action followed a U. S. State Department notice that they could sign off the ship if they did not wish to risk the trip.

Two Young Malays Sentenced To Death

Singapore, Friday, Jan. 6— (AP) — Two young Malays today were sentenced to death by hanging for the murder of Duncan Stewart, governor of Sarawak, last Dec. 3. They were found guilty by a district court.

The youths were Posli Bin Dobie, 18, and Moshidi Bin Sedik. Witnesses testified that Bin Dobie drove a five-inch knife into Stewart's abdomen. He died a week later.

The youths were members of a band opposing the 1946 cession of Sarawak to Britain and agitating for the return of a white rajah.

During the trial the youths offered to plead guilty, but Judge D. Lascelles elected to hear evidence on the stabbing, which took place at Sibu Sarawak. Stewart died in Singapore, where he was taken after the attack.

Fourteen other members of the band with which the youths were affiliated are being held pending a preliminary inquiry Friday on murder conspiracy charges.

Date of the execution was not set.

Pakistan Accepts Communist China

JAN 5 1950

Karachi, Pakistan, Jan. 5—(AP)—Pakistan last night became the third country outside the Iron Curtain, to recognize the Communist government in China.

In London an informed source said Britain planned to recognize Mao Tze-Tung's regime at Peiping Friday or Saturday.

Pakistan, a dominion in the British Commonwealth, extended full recognition to the Chinese Communists. India, also a commonwealth member, and Burma already had recognized the Chinese Red regime.

Viet Nam Premier Resigns

Will Devote Time to Being Emperor of French-Sponsored State

SAIGON, FRENCH INDO-CHINA, Jan. 5 (AP) — Bao Dai has resigned as Premier in the new French-sponsored state of Viet Nam and has declared he will devote his time to being Emperor, a Cabinet communique announced today. The announcement said Bao Dai also has dissolved his Cabinet.

Bao Dai, who was named Chief of State by the French, no longer holds the title Emperor but still claims it.

No announcement was made of his plans to name a new Premier, but observers expressed belief that he had offered the job to Nguyen Phan Long, who had served as Foreign Minister in his Cabinet. The two conferred today.

Truman Refuses Intervention In Formosa; Americans Being Told To Depart From Island

JAN 5 1950

U. S. TO EXTEND ECONOMIC BUT NOT ARMS AID

Truman Shuns Involvement in Civil War, Disclaims Any Designs

Washington, Jan. 5—(AP)—President Truman today declared an American hands off policy toward the Chinese island of Formosa.

In a news conference statement, he said the United States has no desire to use its armed forces there or become involved "in the civil conflict in China."

He made clear the only help Chiang Kai-shek's government in Formosa can expect from the United States is continuing economic aid.

Mr. Truman said:

"The United States has no predatory designs on Formosa or on any other Chinese territory.

Seeks No Privileges

"The United States has no desire to obtain special rights or privileges or to establish military bases on Formosa at this time. Nor does it have any intention of utilizing its armed forces to interfere in the present situation.

"The United States Government will not pursue a course which will lead to involvment in the civil conflict in China.

"The United States Government will not provide military aid or advice to Chinese forces on Formosa. In the view of the United States Government, the resources on Formosa are adequate to enable them to obtain the items which they might consider necessary for the defense of the island.

To Continue ECA Aid

"The United States Government proposes to continue under existing legislative authority the present ECA program of economic assistance."

Mr. Truman's declaration followed weeks of growing controversy at the Capitol over policy toward Formosa. Some Republicans—among them former President Herbert Hoover and Senator Taft of Ohio—have urged that the United States use its Navy, if necessary, to keep the Chinese Communists from gaining Formosa.

The big island, lying about 100 miles off the Chinese mainland, is the last stronghold of the Chinese Nationalists.

Cites Cairo Accord

Before—and during—the war it was held by Japan. Under the Cairo agreement of 1943—made by President Roosevelt, Prime Minister Churchill of Britain and Chiang Kai-shek, it was handed back to the Republic of China.

In speaking of Formosa as "Chinese territory," Mr. Truman referred to the Cairo agreement.

Mr. Truman said this declaration was reaffirmed at Potsdam in July, 1945, and was carried out when Japan surrendered by turning over Formosa to Chiang.

Mr. Truman's statement made emphatically clear that under present conditions in the Far East the United States Government would not lift a finger to prevent Formosa from falling to the Chinese Communists if Chiang Kai-shek is unable to hold it.

Proposed by Advisers

His declaration followe da meeting of the National Security Council last Thursday at which a general policy to this effect evidently was agreed upon by the Chief Executive and his top foreign policy and military advisers.

The Joint Chiefs of Staff have taken the position that Formosa, while an important place, is not of sufficient strategic value to American defenses in the western Pacific to warrant involving American Air Forces in its defense.

Last week, the joint chiefs suggested that the Administration send a military mission to Formosa but Mr. Truman's statement made clear that he has no such intention.

About the time Mr. Truman's statement was issued, it was announced at the State Department that Secretary Acheson would hold a news conference at 2:30 P. M. (E. S. T.)

Undoubtedly numerous questions about Formosa will be put to Acheson, but the President apparently had covered the situation rather completely.

Present United States economic aid to the Chinese on Formosa, which Mr. Truman mentioned, consists mainly of furnishing such basic materials as fertilizers to the Formosan people.

In the light of Mr. Truman's stand, about the only thing the Chinese can do if they want American arms and advice is to hire American military men on a personal basis and use their own funds to buy American arms.

Actually, State Department officials see very little chance that Chiang and his forces will be able to hold Formosa for very long. They consider very great the danger of an internal breakdown, opening the door to Communist conquest.

Republican senators have assailed Administration handling of Far Eastern affairs as "blundering." They have reinforced their criticism with demands for varying degrees of military force to help Chiang Kai-shek keep the island out of Chinese Communist hands.

Tokyo, Jan. 5—(AP)—Roving U. S. Ambassador Philip C. Jessup arrived today in Japan, first stop of an Asian survey trip that will take him to Formosa — new folcal point of American controversy on Far Eastern policy.

The tall, lanky envoy said he will confer with General MacArthur on the matter of the big island. He would not comment on reports that the State Department expects the island to be taken by the Reds who have overrun China's mainland.

These reports have been attributed to a State Department memorandum of December 23 advising its spokesmen to put the soft-pedal on Formosa's strategic importance.

Text of Statement on Formosa

JAN 5 1950

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5 (AP)—Following is the text of President Truman's statement today on China:

The United States Government has always stood for good faith in international relations. Traditional United States policy toward China, as exemplified in the Open Door Policy, called for international respect for the territorial integrity of China.

This principle was recently reaffirmed in the United Nations General Assembly resolution of Dec. 8, 1949, which, in part, calls on all states

To refrain from (a) seeking to acquire spheres of influence or to create foreign controlled regimes within the territory of China; (b) seeking to obtain special rights or privileges within the territory of China.

A specific application of the foregoing principles is seen in the present situation with respect to Formosa. In the joint declaration at Cairo on Dec. 1, 1943, the President of the United States, the British Prime Minister and the President of China stated that it was their purpose that territories Japan had stolen from China, such as "Formosa," should be restored to the Republic of China.

The United States was a signatory to the Potsdam Declaration of July 26, 1945, which declared that the terms of the Cairo Declaration should be carried out. The provisions of this declaration were accepted by Japan at the time of its surrender.

In keeping with these declarations, Formosa was surrendered to Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek and for the past four years the United States and the other allied powers have accepted the exercise of Chinese authority over the island.

The United States has no predatory designs on Formosa or on any other Chinese territory. The United States has no desire to obtain special rights or privileges or to establish military bases on Formosa at this time. Nor does it have any intention of utilizing its armed forces to interfere in the present situation. The United States Government will not pursue a course which will lead to involvement in the civil conflict in China.

Similarly, the United States Government will not provide military aid or advice to Chinese forces on Formosa. In the view of the United States Government, the resources on Formosa are adequate to enable them to obtain the items which they might consider necessary for the defense of the island. The United States Government proposes to continue under existing legislative authority the present ECA program of economic assistance.

Secretary Acheson's Statement on Formosa Policy

JAN 5 1950

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5 (AP).—The complete text of Secretary of State Dean Acheson's statement on Formosa follows:

At his press conference today, the Honorable Dean Acheson, Secretary of State, made the following extemporaneous remarks regarding the statement of the President concerning United States policy with respect to Formosa:

I am having this conference this afternoon at the request and at the direction of the President for the purpose of going into the background of the statement which he made this morning on the subject of Formosa.

I should like to make a few remarks on this subject for the purpose of trying to put it in its setting for you, and then we will get down into such details as you want to get into.

Why was the statement made at this particular time? That is a question that arises in all of your minds, and I want to recall to you that I have said very often in these meetings that the foreign policy of the United States is determined not merely by what the State Department says, or not even by what the President says and not even by what the Congress says, but reflects the sum total of the activities, thoughts and speech of the American people. For the past week or ten days, this subject of Formosa has become one of the foremost subjects of discussion throughout the country.

The ordinary processes of life in this town of Washington have made their contribution. We have had leak and counter-leak, gossip and counter-gossip. We have had the contributions of distinguished statesmen in the debate. We have had a great deal of talk in the press and on the radio. Much of that is good and much of that is desirable, and all of it has to go to make the United States the democracy that it is. But we slide very easily from discussion to the statement of fact. I have here a distinguished foreign newspaper dated Friday last (December 30) which announces as a fact that President Truman has decided, et cetera, and et cetera, giving something which President Truman had not decided and had not intended to decide.

Confusion Created

Therefore, what has occurred is that we have gotten a great deal of confusion in the minds of our own people. We have gotten a great deal of confusion in the minds of foreign people. We have stirred up a good deal of speculation, all of which, if allowed to continue, would be highly prejudicial to the interests of the United States of America.

And, therefore, it was the President's desire to clarify the situation. He was not primarily concerned in stating anything new and you will find very little which is new in the statement. What he was interested in doing was bringing clarity out of confusion.

That, I think, gives you the background as to why it was necessary to make the statement at the present time. It would have been desirable from our point of view if the whole question of the Far East, and all of the parts of the Far East and of Formosa, which after all is a small part of the great question of the Far East, could have been discussed very fully with members of both parties on the Hill before any statement was made.

But one has to choose in this life, and it was more important to clarify thinking than it was to go on and have the most desirable of all possible things which is consultation.

Now, getting down to this statement, let's be clear about one or two things. There has been a great deal of amateur military strategy indulged in in regard to this matter of Formosa. The underlying factors in the decision are not in that area. They have to do with the fundamental integrity of the United States and with maintaining in the world the belief that when the United States takes a position it sticks to that position and does not change it by reason of transitory expediency or advantage on its part.

If we are going to maintain the free nations of the world as a great unit opposed to the encroachment of Communism and other sorts of totalitarian aggression, the world must believe that we stand for principle and that we are honorable and decent people and that we do not put forward words, as propagandists do in other countries, to serve their advantage only to throw them overboard when some change in events makes the position difficult for us.

Respect for Sovereignty

We believe in integrity in our foreign relations. We believe also in respect of the integrity of other countries. That is a view not held by some other countries. That is a view not held by some other countries with respect to China. It is important that our position in regard to China should never be subject to the slightest doubt or the slightest question.

Now, what has that position been? In the middle of the war, the President of the United States, the Prime Minister of Great Britain and the President of China agreed at Cairo that among the areas stolen from China by Japan was Formosa and Formosa should go back to China.

As the President pointed out this morning, that statement was incorporated in the declaration at Potsdam, and that declaration at Potsdam was conveyed to the Japanese as one of the terms of their surrender and was accepted by them and the surrender was made on that basis.

Shortly after that the island of Formosa was turned over to the Chinese in accordance with the declarations made and with the conditions of the surrender.

The Chinese have administered Formosa for four years. Neither the United States nor any other ally ever questioned that authority and that occupation. When Formosa was made a province of China nobody raised any lawyers' doubts about that. That was regarded as in accordance with the commitments.

Now, in the opinion of some, the situation is changed. They believe that the forces now in control of the mainland of China, the forces which undoubtedly will soon be recognized by some other countries, are not friendly to us, and therefore they want to say, "Well, we have to wait for a treaty." We did not wait for a treaty on Korea. We did not wait for a treaty on the Kuriles. We did not wait for a treaty on the islands over which we have trusteeship.

Whatever may be the legal situation, the United States of America, Mr. Truman said this morning, is not going to quibble on any lawyers' words about the integrity of its position. That is where we stand.

Will Not Seize Island

Therefore, the President says, we are not going to use our forces in connection with the present situation in Formosa. We are not going to attempt to seize the island. We are not going to get involved militarily in any way on the island of Formosa. So far as I know, no responsible person in the government, no military man has ever believed that we should involve our forces in the island.

I do not belieev that is new policy. It would be new policy if we decided to do that. The President is affirming what so far as I know has been the view of his Administration and the unquestioned view ever since I have known about it.

The President goes on to say that we do not intend to give military assistance or advice, that is materiel and military people, to the forces on Formosa, and he says why. He says that there are resources on that island which are adequate to enable those on the island to obtain whatever necesary military supplies they believe they have to have. That is against a background of very considerable gifts on our part at a time when the government on Formosa was recognized by everybody as the government of China and was in control of a very large part of China. We gave vast amounts of military equipment to that government after the war until 1948. In 1948 another act of Congress was passed and $125,000,000 of military equipment was turned over.

That is not where the difficulty lies in maintaining the island by the forces on it. It is not that they lack rifles or ammunition or that, if they do have deficiencies in any of those, they cannot purchase what they need. That is not the trouble. The trouble lies elsewhere, and it is not the function of the United States nor will it or can it attempt to furnish a will to resist and a purpose for resistance to those who must provide for themselves.

Economic Assistance

That is the backgorund of this statement. The President goes on to say that in regard to economic assistance which we have been furnishing, we will furnish it for as long as the legislation that Congress has passed permits us to. Whether that legislation will be extended or not, I don't wish to prejudice this afternoon. That is a matter for discussion with the leaders, and for action by the Congress.

We have been, through the E. C. A., conducting programs one of which has resulted in all the fertilizer necessary for the spring crop on the island of Formosa. Others have been the purchase of necessary oil for refining on the island and for running the power plants and other things on the island. Other programs have had to do with keeping their power plants and other factories in repair and in operation. Those are going forward.

Now those are the main statements of background which I wish to make. I am informed by Mr. McDermott that some of you wish me to say what, if any, significance is to be attached to the sentence in the next-to-last paragraph of the statement, which says "The United States has no desire to obtain special rights or privileges, or to establish military bases on Formosa at this time." The question is, what does that phrase "at this time" mean. That phrase does not qualify or modify or weaken the fundamental policies stated in this declaration by the President in any respect. It is a recognition of the fact that in the unlikely and unhappy event that our forces might be attacked in the Far East the United States must be completely free to take whatever action in whatever area is necessary for its own security.

JAN 5 1950

Public Evacuation Warning Avoided in Order Not to Weaken Nationalist Hold

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5 (AP).—Americans in Formosa are being told quietly but officially to quit the Communist-threatened island unless they have urgent reasons to remain, it was learned tonight.

Diplomatic authorities said the advice was given on an individual basis without a general warning to evacuate, such as was issued in advance of the Communist conquests of Shanghai and other mainland areas. A general public warning was avoided because it might needlessly weaken the Nationalist's hold on the island, their last stronghold.

Officials here believe there is danger of an internal upheaval against the Nationalist regime, as well as a Communist amphibious attack.

Americans in Formosa would have a better chance to get out hurriedly than those on the mainland. There are several ports which could be reached by ships of the recently reinforced 7th Task Fleet in the Western Pacific.

Incomplete records indicate there are between 100 and 200 Americans in Formosa, including officials, missionaries and a scattering of business and professional people, some with families. Officials include the Embassy at Taipeh, the capital, headed by Robert C. Strong as charge d'affaires. There is also a small consular staff and five or six military, air and naval attaches. An Economic Co-operation Administration mission is headed by Ray Moyer, who is in the United States. Others include employees of the J. G. White Engineering Corporation, engaged in E. C. A. construction projects.

Britain Due To Recognize Reds Today

Hot Debate On U. S. Stand Rages For Hours In Senate

JAN 5 1950

Washington, Jan. 5—(AP)—China's triumphant Communists scored two great successes on the international stage today amid bitter recriminations in the United States Congress.

1. President Truman, in a major policy declaration, flatly refused to intervene to save Formosa, big island off the China coast, from the Reds.

2. Great Britain prepared to announce tomorrow that it is recognizing the Communist government of China. Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek's ambassador to London was called to the British Foreign Office and politely told Britain no longer recognizes Chiang's government.

Double Blow

It was a double blow to Chiang's hopes of building up Formosa as a possible springboard from which to jump back some day to the mainland where the Communists had beaten him.

A hot debate raged for hours in the senate. Senator Knowland (R-Calif) cried that the administration had betrayed the non-Communist Nationalists. If Formosa falls, he said, the United States' first line of defense may become its own Pacific Coast.

Senator Connally (D-Tex), chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee, replied that Formosa is not important enough to risk war trying to save it.

Just because this nation opposes Communism, it cannot invade all places where Reds are in control, he said.

President Truman served notice that the U. S. government intends to steer clear of the upheaval which has put much of China into Communist hands.

"The United States government will not pursue a course which will lead to involvement in the civil conflict in China," said a statement he issued at his news conference.

British Word About Noon

Dispatches from London said the British would announce recognition of the Reds about noon (7 A.M., E.S.T.) tomorrow.

The British have substantial trade and other interests in China, but British officials sought to discount this factor. They explained that "nothing would be gained by boycotting indefinitely a government ruling over a vast territory and population."

Secretary of State Acheson made plain the United States would be in no hurry to follow the British example. Any question of recognizing the Chinese Communists is premature at this time, he said at a news conference. Nothing will be done, he said, without consulting Congress.

President Truman's statement drew caustic criticism from Republicans who have been demanding aid to Formosa, but applause from Democrats who said intervention might start World War III.

Vandenberg Regretful

Senator Vandenberg of Michigan, ranking Republican on the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, withheld any detailed comment, but issued a statement of regret that the administration had acted without a "realistic consultation" with Congress members.

"Every practical discouragement to communist conquest, short of active American military participation, should be pursued in China and throughout the Far East," he said.

Secretary of State Acheson said some members of the Senate and House Foreign Committees had been consulted, but declined to name them. There was no time for full consultation before the Truman statement was issued, he said.

Senator Knowland (R - Calif.) hotly accused the administration of pursuing a "bankrupt policy which now stands revealed in all its sorry detail."

In a speech to the Senate, Knowland declared:

"If Formosa gets into unfriendly hands our defense of Japan, Okinawa and the Philippines is pierced and the Pacific Coast may have to become our first line of defense."

Senator Jenner (R-Ind.), who has fought all foreign aid programs, arose to ask Knowland if "we are winning the cold war?"

Europe Setbacks Offset

Knowland replied that Communist setbacks in Europe were more than offset now by Communist gains in Asia.

Jenner shouted that when hostilities ended in 1945 Communists controlled 190,000,000 persons but "now dominate 800,000,000 which is nearly one half the world's population."

Senator Ferguson (R-Mich.) said President Truman had kicked the bi-partisan foreign policy "out the window" by not consulting Congress; and Senator Wherry (R - Neb.) denounced what he called an "abject surrender" to the Reds.

Senator Connally (D-Tex.) and Rep. Kee (D-WVa.) went to the support of the President, saying intervention in Formosa could produce war.

Senator Lucas of Illinois, Democratic leader, told reporters any "token" intervention in Formosa would be a great mistake.

The only way you could intervene to really make Formosa impregnable would be to send about 10 divisions of our best soldiers, about 500 airplanes, a couple of carriers and about one-third of our Navy into those waters, he said.

Definite Beginning

"That would be definitely the beginning of a war with Communist China and the beginning of a war with Russia."

Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich.), a Republican leader in the foreign policy field, expressed regret "that the administration has found it necessary to announce conclusions regarding Formosa ahead of a realistic consultation on the subject with the appropriate committees of Congress."

The Formosan question is not yet settled, he said. "The permanent status of Formosa must be recognized as dependent on the ultimate Japanese peace treaty. The vital interest of the United Nations must be recognized."

Wrested from China by the Japanese in 1895, the island was liberated from the Japanese by the United States in the last war. President Roosevelt, Prime Minister Churchill and Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek agreed at Cairo in 1943 that it should be turned over to the "Republic of China."

Victory for Acheson

President Truman's statement today was a victory for Secretary of State Acheson over the U. S. joint chiefs of staff, who had wanted to send a military mission to Formosa. Secretary of Defense Johnson and General Douglas MacArthur were also reported in favor of some positive move to help the Nationalists.

In his statement, Mr. Truman said emphatically:

1. The U. S. has no intention of using armed forces to interfere in the situation.

2. This government will provide neither military aid nor advice to the Nationalists on Formosa, who have "adequate" resources to obtain the defense items they consider needed.

3. "Having no predatory designs" on Formosa or any other Chinese territory, the U. S. has no desire to obtain special rights or privileges or to establish military bases on the island "at this time."

The one concession to urgent Nationalist pleas for aid was an announcement that the limited economic help currently given to Formosa by the Economic Cooperation Administration will continue. The ECA aid is due to end February 15 and consists largely of shipments of textiles and fertilizer.

There was no immediate official explanation of the statement that "at this time" the U. S. wants no military bases on Formosa. A general assumption was the administration did not want to tie its hands completely in the event developments in China should take a major new turn in the future.

M'MAHON PREDICTS NEW ATOMIC LAWS

JAN 5 1950

Senator Says Congress Will Act Soon on Partnership With Britain and Canada

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5 (AP)—Senator Brien McMahon, Democrat, of Connecticut, today forecast Congressional action at this session as a result of current atomic partnership talks held by the United States, Great Britain and Canada.

The chairman of the Joint Senate-House Atomic Committee told reporters that "distinct progress has been made toward a sensible working agreement" among the three.

But he added that negotiations had not yet reached a stage where the Administration could place its proposals before Congress.

Mr. McMahon declined to predict what type of action he expected Congress would be asked to take, other than saying an amendment to the present Atomic Energy Act might be required.

The Connecticut lawmaker told questioners that:

1. He did not expect Mr. Truman to name a successor to Atomic Energy Commission chairman David E. Lilienthal before Feb. 1. Mr. Lilienthal, resigning, has agreed to remain until Feb. 15.
2. The joint committee probably will hold its public hearings on civilian atomic defenses in February.
3. Any project to develop a hydrogen bomb would come before the joint committee. Mr. McMahon replied "no comment" to a question as to whether such a bomb already had been discussed.

At the White House, President Truman replied with a firm "no comment" when he was asked at his news conference about such a bomb.

Mr. Truman also said he had had no advance information on the question of whether the Russians were going to set off another atomic explosion Saturday.

This had been predicted in London by a magazine editor, Kenneth de Courcy, the man who predicted last January that Russia would achieve an atomic blast during 1949. President Truman announced in September that such an explosion had occurred.

Mr. de Courcy said the next one would be at 7 P. M. (EST) Saturday and that there were signs that the Russians were ahead of this country in atomic development in some ways.

Asked about the forecast, Mr. Truman further observed that he had received no advance notice of the previous blast.

Talks among the United States, Britain and Canada on sharing atomic secrets and raw materials are expected to be resumed this month after having been broken off about a month ago. If they come to an understanding, Mr. Truman is pledged to consult with Congress before an agreement is made final.

Progress Made On 3 Nations' Atom Accord

JAN 5 1950

Washington, Jan. 5 (AP)—Senator McMahon (D-Conn) said today that "distinct progress" has been made toward settling issues in the atomic partnership among the United States, Great Britain and Canada.

One of the major issues is the question of storing American-made atomic bombs in England.

McMahon, chairman of the joint Senate-House Atomic Committee, told newsmen the three governments are moving toward "a sensible working agreement."

But he added that negotiations have not yet reached a stage where the administration can place its proposals before Congress.

Declines Forecast

McMahon declined to forecast what type of action he expected Congress would be asked to make, other than saying an amendment to the present Atomic Energy Act may be required.

The Connecticut lawmaker told questioners that:

1. He did not expect Mr. Truman to name a successor to Atomic Energy Commission Chairman David E. Lilienthal before February 1. Lilienthal, resigning, has agreed to remain until February 15.

2. The joint committee probably will hold its public hearings on civilian atomic defenses in February.

3. Any project to develop a hydrogen bomb would come before the joint committee. McMahon replied "no comment" to a question as to whether such a bomb already has been discussed.

At the White House, President Truman replied with a firm "no comment" when he was asked at his news conference about such a bomb.

Mr. Truman also said he has had no advance information if the Russians are going to set off another atomic explosion Saturday.

This had been predicted in London by magazine editor Kenneth De Cource, the man who forecast last January that Russia would achieve an atomic blast during 1949. President Truman announced in September that such an explosion had occurred.

To Resume This Month

Talks among the U. S., Britain, Canada on sharing atomic secrets and raw materials are expected to resume this month after they were broken off about a month ago. If they come to an understanding, Mr. Truman is pledged to consult with Congress before an agreement is made final.

It appeared taht a British proposal for storing a supply of atomic bombs in the British Isles as a part of the partnership may become the points on which the cooperative plan may be worked out or collapse.

The three powers have had a provisional arrangement in effect for some time. Under it the U. S. gets most of the Belgian Congo uranium, and some atomic information comes from the U. S.

Virgin Islands Collector Named

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5 (AP)—Secretary of the Treasury John W. Snyder announced today the appointment of Christopher V. F. Daniel as Collector of Customs for the Virgin Islands. Mr. Daniel, born of St. Thomas Island, is the first "native son" to hold the post, Mr. Snyder observed. A Customs career employe, Mr. Daniel has been serving as deputy collector in charge at the Port of Frederiksted. He succeeds as collector Charles L. Root, retired after forty-six years in Government service.

Truman Asked To End Mission To Vatican

Washington, Jan. 25 (AP)—A Protestant group today asked President Truman to end diplomatic relations with the Vatican.

The request was made by Glenn L. Archer, executive director of Protestants and Other Americans United for Separation of Church and State.

The President's personal envoy to the Vatican, Myron Taylor, is due to return to the United States soon. This has given rise to unconfirmed reports that Taylor is resigning.

In this connection, Archer told Mr. Truman in a telegram:

"Myron Taylor's expected resignation will give you opportunity to end Vatican mission which is an offense to non-Catholic Americans. Now is the time to keep your promise that the mission would be 'temporary.' Taylor's office must be closed for good when he leaves. Religious denominations whose memberships total at least seventy-five million Americans would heartily applaud this move."

Webb Nominated For World Bank Post

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5.—President Truman today nominated Undersecretary of State Webb to be United States alternate Governor of the International Bank and Monetary Fund for five years.

The nomination went to the Senate along with a batch of others, most of which simply formalize recess appointments made after Congress adjourned last year. All are subject to Senate confirmation.

The nominations include that of Oscar L. Chapman for Secretary of Interior. Mr. Chapman has been serving under a recess appointment since the resignation of former Secretary J. A. Krug.

The new nominations include:

'Up To Us'

Philadelphia, Jan. 5—(AP)—Assistant Secretary of Defense Paul H. Griffith said today Russia is "an aggressor nation" and "he proved by her acts that she intends to overrun what is left of the Free World.

"It is up to us to prevent this," Griffith said in a speech before the Philadelphia Chapter, Military Order of the World Wars.

3 Satellites Accused

Boston, Mass., Jan. 5—(AP)—Three Soviet bloc nations were charged by a State Department official tonight with "flagrantly" violating their peace treaty pledges to respect fundamental freedoms and human rights.

Jack B. Tate, deputy legal adviser said that Bulgaria, Hungary and Romania are following the same pattern which he described as "repugnant to humanity."

TROOPS LEAVE FOR CARIBBEAN

War Games Operation Will Involve 80,000 Men

JAN 5 1950

Norfolk, Va., Jan. 5 (AP)—Troop movements began today in an operation which will reach a gigantic climax of amphibious assault some two months hence in Army-Navy-Air Force war games in the Caribbean.

The operation—Portrex—will involve 80,000 men. It will culminate in a full-scale airborne-amphibious assault on the island of Vieques, off Puerto Rico, early in March.

Some 3,500 soldiers, the first of 15,000 scheduled to train here for the amphibious exercise, embarked at Charleston, S.C., today. They will arrive here Saturday, and commencing Monday the amphibious force, United States Atlantic Fleet, will undertake the largest training program in its history.

Air Support Planned

The 15,000 men of the United States Army and a limited number of United States Air Force personnel, will take part in the training at Little Creek, near here.

Army representation in Portrex will come mostly from the 3d Infantry Division (reinforced), with elements from Fort Benning, Ga., and Fort Devens, Mass. Also there will be an airborne attack by a battalion combat team from the 82nd Airborne Division, Fort Bragg, North Carolina.

Various Air Force units from bases throughout the East will provide troop carrier and tactical air support for the exercise. Lieut. Gen. John R. Hodge, commanding general, 5th Corps, Fort Bragg, will be the invasion commander.

Training Described

Troops will be trained here in three groups.

Ashore phases of basic amphibious instruction will be given at the naval amphibious base, Little Creek. The base will provide normal logistic support and services. That is, it will feed, house, transport and provide medical facilities for the Army and Air Force personnel.

Attack troops will be trained in basic techniques of boat handling, tactics and wave formations, air and naval gunfire support, amphibious intelligence, combat loading of ships, evacuation of casualties, types and employment of amphibious ships and craft, launching of pontoon causeways, and ship-to-shore movement.

During the afloat phases of training, the troops will be embarked in some 40 vessels of the amphibious force. Training will be in shipboard fundamentals and drills.

Matthews's 'Breach Of Faith' Retirement Factor, Bogan Says

JAN 5 1950

San Diego, Cal., Jan. 5 (AP)—Vice Admiral Gerald F. Bogan, commander of the 1st Task Fleet, today accused Francis P. Matthews, Secretary of the Navy, of "breach of faith."

Bogan said Matthews's reaction to a "very sincere and honest letter" criticizing administration of the unification act was a factor in his decision to seek retirement.

Another factor, he said, was his imminent demotion to a rear admiral's billet as Commander of Fleet Air, Jacksonville, Fla.

Gave Opinion Of Policies

Bogan told a press conference his letter, written at Matthews's invitation, gave his opinion of unification policies as adversely affecting the Navy's morale.

That letter was sent through channels and indorsed by Admiral Arthur Radford, Pacific Fleet commander, and Admiral Louis Denfeld when the latter was Chief of Naval Operations. It was made public by Capt. John Crommelin, foe of unification, and led to a congressional probe.

Matthews promised flag officers that such letters would receive the most serious consideration, Bogan said.

Cites Congress Statement

"The only consideration which my letter received was to cause Matthews to refer to me in very derogatory terms in a public statement to the Armed Services Committee of Congress," the Admiral said.

"Also in a personal letter to me, he inferred irregularities on my part in handling that letter. I assure you there were no irregularities.

"It has been my practice and belief for years that loyalty must work down as well as up. Under present conditions, I feel I can no longer carry out with complete loyalty the policies of the heads of our Navy, and see no other course but retirement open to me."

Psychiatrist Appears For Hiss, Says Chambers Chronic Liar

JAN 5 1950

New York, Jan. 5—(AP)—A psychiatrist testified today that Alger Hiss' chief accuser, Whittaker Chambers, suffers from a mental disorder which makes its victims chronic liars and false accusers.

'Psychopathic Personality'

Dr. Carl A. J. Binger, called by the defense in Hiss' second perjury trial, said the disorder is a recognized mental disease known as "psychopathic personality."

In allowing the mental specialist to testify, over strong government objections, Federal Judge Henry W. Goddard said it was probably the first such testimony to be admitted in a Federal trial.

Replying to a 70-minute question by Defense Counsel Claude B. Cross, Dr. Binger, who day after day toiled Chambers in court, told the jury of eight women and four men:

"Mr. Chambers is suffering from a condition known as a psychopathic personality — a disorder of character, the outstanding features of which are amoral and asocial behavior."

Such persons, the psychiatrist said, suffer from "chronic, persistent and repetitive lying, stealing, misrepresentation, acts of deception and drug addiction, alcoholism, abnormal sexuality, vagabondage, panhandling, the inability to form stable attachments and a tendency to make false accusations, in addition to what is commonly known as lying.

"This particular kind of lying is known as pathological lying."

Ruled Out First Time

Hiss succeeded in getting Dr. Binger's testimony before the jury this time even though it was ruled out in the first Hiss trial, which ended in a jury disagreement.

The specialist's testimony came as a dramatic last-minute effort to discredit the whole story told by Chambers, who has testified that Hiss—formerly a high State Department official—gave him secret papers before the war for transmission to a Soviet spy ring.

Hiss denied Chambers' accusation before a Federal Grand Jury and was indicted on two counts of perjury as a result.

Dr. Binger listed Chambers, formerly a $30,000-a-year senior editor on Time magazine and now a Maryland farmer, among "those unfortunate people who make accusations where they are not justified because they have constant need to make their imagination come true."

"Is psycopathic personality a recognized mental disease" Cross asked.

Standard Diagnosis

"It is listed among the standard diagnoses listed by the American Psychiatric Association," Dr. Binger replied.

In objecting to Dr. Binger's being called, Assistant U. S. Attorney Thomas F. Murphy declared "this is the first time in the history of Anglo-Saxon jurisprudence that it has been permitted for a psychiatrist to impeach the testimony of a mere witness."

The 73-year-old Judge Goddard gave in a memorandum his reasons for allowing the testimony.

"It is apparent," he said, "that the outcome of this trial is dependent upon the testimony of one man—Whittaker Chambers x x x

"The existence of insanity or mental derangement is admissible for the purpose of discrediting a witness."

The judge told the jurors he would advise them in his summing-up of the case what weight they should put on psychiatric testimony.

The long hypothetical question put by Hiss' lawyer to Dr. Binger related in detail the admissions Chambers has made in this and the previous trial—that he lied under oath, lived under false names, wrote poems and other works which have been called obscene.

Probes Into Past

The question probed many years back into Chambers' past. It said, for instance:

"That Mr. Chambers wrote a class prophesey while in the Lynbrook, N. Y., high school which was disapproved by the school authorities, but which he read anyway, not receiving his diploma as a result.

"That he enrolled in Columbia University and left after trouble with the authorities over a play he wrote.

"That he applied for re-admission in 1924, writing Professor Mark Van Doren x x x that he had acquired an 'unconventional partner' who wanted him to return to school."

Before Dr. Binger took the stand, Hiss' wife Priscilla ended four days

LONDON, JAN. 5-(AP)-THE CHINESE AMBASSADOR CONFERRED FOR AN HOUR TONIGHT WITH BRITISH MINISTER OF STATE HECTOR MCNEIL. DIPLOMATIC SOURCES BELIEVED DR.CHENG TIEN-HSI HAD BEEN TOLD THAT BRITAIN HAS BROKEN OFF DIPLOMATIC RELATIONS WITH THE NATIONALIST GOVERNMENT AND IS RECOGNIZING COMMUNIST CHINA.

DR.CHENG AND MCNEIL LEFT THE FOREIGN OFFICE ARM IN ARM AFTER THEIR MEETING.

THE CHINESE DIPLOMAT REFUSED TO MAKE A STATEMENT NOW BUT CALLED A NEWS CONFERENCE FOR 11:45 A.M. (6:45 A.M.) TOMORROW.

DR.CHENG DROVE UP TO THE FOREIGN OFFICE AT 8:55 P.M. (3:55 P.M. EST), FIVE MINUTES BEFORE HE HAD BEEN ASKED TO APPEAR. HE WAS ALONE EXCEPT FOR HIS CHAUFFEUR.

HE SAW MCNEIL IN THE ABSENCE OF FOREIGN SECRETARY ERNEST BEVIN.

DR.CHENG, FORMER JUDGE OF THE NATIONAL COURT OF JUSTICE AND NATIONALIST CHINA'S TOP DIPLOMAT IN EUROPE, IS SEEING MINISTER OF STATE HECTOR MCNEIL, HEAD OF THE FOREIGN OFFICE DURING FOREIGN SECRETARY BEVIN'S ABSENCE.

BRITAIN'S MESSAGE ADVISING COMMUNIST CHINA OF RECOGNITION IS EXPECTED TO BE RADIOED THROUGH THE BRITISH CONSUL GENERAL IN PEIPING AS SOON AS DR.CHENG'S VISIT IS OVER.

FORMAL ANNOUNCEMENT OF THE BRITISH ACTION--PREDICTED FOR MANY WEEKS--WILL LIKELY NOT BE MADE UNTIL TOMORROW. THIS WILL GIVE THE NATIONALIST AMBASSADOR TIME TO REPORT TO HIS GOVERNMENT AND TIME FOR DELIVERY OF THE BRITISH NOTE TO MAO TZE-TUNG'S RED GOVERNMENT.

DR. CHENG AND MEMBERS OF HIS STAFF HAVE BEEN ASSURED ASYLUM IN ENGLAND INDEFINITELY BY THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT, IT WAS LEARNED.

FOREIGN UNDERSECRETARY CHRISTOPHER MAYHEW SAID BRITISH RECOGNITION OF THE COMMUNIST REGIME "WILL BE BECAUSE IT HAS BECOME THE EFFECTIVE GOVERNMENT OF CHINA AND NOT BECAUSE WE LIKE ITS POLICIES AND PRACTICES.

"IT WILL BE AN ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF FACT, NOT A MARK OF APPROBATION," MAYHEW SAID IN A SPEECH AT POOLE, ENGLAND.

"WHILE RECOGNITION MIGHT BE OF SOME BENEFIT TO OUR COMMERCIAL INTERESTS IN CHINA, WE HAVE NO ILLUSION THAT IT WILL BRING US ANY BIG OR IMMEDIATE ADVANTAGES. ON THE OTHER HAND, NOTHING WOULD BE GAINED BY BOYCOTTING INDEFINITELY A GOVERNMENT RULING OVER A VAST TERRITORY AND POPULATION," SAID MAYHEW.

SECOND NIGHT LEAD CHINA (190)

BY HAROLD K. MILKS

LONDON, JAN.5-(AP)-BRITAIN TOLD THE CHINESE NATIONALIST AMBASSADOR TONIGHT IT NO LONGER RECOGNIZES THE GOVERNMENT OF CHIANG KAI-SHEK AND IS TRANSFERRING RECOGNITION TO THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS, A SOURCE CLOSE TO THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT SAID.

WORD OF SUCH RECOGNITION WAS ALREADY ON ITS WAY TONIGHT TO PEIPING, THE COMMUNIST CAPITAL.

THE INFORMANT SAID BRITAIN WILL MAKE AN OFFICIAL ANNOUNCEMENT ABOUT NOON (7 A.M. EASTERN STANDARD TIME) TOMORROW.

HE ADDED THE EXACT HOUR WILL DEPEND ON WHEN THE BRITISH NOTE OF RECOGNITION IS DELIVERED IN PEIPING. A ROUNDABOUT COMMUNICATIONS SYSTEM IS BEING USED.

THE BRITISH NOTE--ACTUALLY A REPLY TO COMMUNIST PREMIER AND FOREIGN MINISTER CHOU EN-LAI'S INVITATION OF LAST SEPTEMBER TO RECOGNIZE HIS GOVER

THE BRITISH NOTE--ACTUALLY A REPLY TO COMMUNIST PREMIER AND FOREIGN MINISTER CHOU EN-LAI'S INVITATION OF LAST SEPTEMBER TO RECOGNIZE HIS GOVERNMENT--HAS BEEN RADIOED TO THE BRITISH CONSUL GENERAL IN NANKING.

FROM THERE IT MUST BE FORWARDED TO THE BRITISH CONSUL GENERAL IN PEIPING, AND HE WILL DELIVER IT TO THE COMMUNIST GOVERNMENT. THE OFFICIAL BRITISH ANNOUNCEMENT WILL NOT COME UNTIL AFTER CONFIRMATION THAT THE NOTE HAS BEEN DELIVERED RETURNS ON THE SAME CIRCUITOUS ROUTE.

THE TIMING OF THE ANNOUNCEMENT WAS DISCLOSED SHORTLY AFTER THE CHINESE NATIONALIST AMBASSADOR CALLED AT THE FOREIGN OFFICE. THERE HE WAS TOLD, IN QUITE FRIENDLY FASHION, THAT BRITAIN NO LONGER RECOGNIZES THE NATIONALIST GOVERNMENT.

IN WASHINGTON U.S. SECRETARY OF STATE DEAN ACHESON MADE IT PLAIN THAT THE UNITED STATES WOULD BE IN NO HURRY TO FOLLOW THE BRITISH EXAMPLE. HE SAID ANY QUESTION OF SUCH ACTION BY THE U.S. IS PREMATURE AT THIS TIME AND NOTHING WILL BE DONE WITHOUT CONSULTING CONGRESS.

JAN 5 1950

THUS FAR RECOGNITION HAS BEEN EXTENDED TO THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS BY BURMA, INDIA, PAKISTAN, YUGOSLAVIA AND RUSSIA.

BRITISH RECOGNITION WAS DECIDED ON WEEKS AGO. THE TIMING WAS SETTLED BEFORE FOREIGN SECRETARY ERNEST BEVIN LEFT LAST WEEK FOR THE COMMONWEALTH CONFERENCE AT COLOMBO, CEYLON. ONE SUBJECT OF THAT CONFERENCE IS THE BEST METHODS OF TRYING TO KEEP COMMUNISM FROM SWEEPING THE REST OF SOUTHEAST ASIA.

THE COMMUNIST ARMIES OF MAO TZE-TUNG HAVE VIRTUALLY DRIVEN THE NATIONALISTS OUT OF VAST HEAVILY-POPULATED CHINA AND THE REDS HAVE SET UP AN ACTIVE GOVERNMENT IN PEIPING.

A MAJOR AIM OF BRITAIN IN RECOGNIZING THE CHINESE REDS IS TO PROTECT INVESTMENTS OF ABOUT $1,000,000,000 IN BUSINESSES, SCHOOLS AND CHURCHES IN CHINA, AND TO KEEP ALIVE BRITISH TRADE WITH CHINA.

THE DECISION TO EXTEND RECOGNITION MARKS ONE OF THE FEW MAJOR BREAKS IN COOPERATION BETWEEN LONDON AND WASHINGTON SINCE THE END OF THE WAR.

THE CHINESE NATIONALIST AMBASSADOR, DR. CHENG TIEN-HSI, CALLED AT THE FOREIGN OFFICE ABOUT 9 P.M. (4 P.M. EASTERN STANDARD TIME) TO GET THE NEWS.

THE NEWS WAS BROKEN BY BRITISH MINISTER OF STATE HECTOR MCNEIL, WHO TALKED WITH THE BRITISH-EDUCATED DR. CHENG FOR AN HOUR, THEN WALKED OUT OF THE FOREIGN OFFICE ARM IN ARM WITH HIM.

BOTH MEN REFUSED TO TALK ABOUT THEIR CONFERENCE, BUT DR. CHENG SAID HE WAS CALLING A NEWS CONFERENCE SHORTLY BEFORE NOON TOMORROW--IN LINE WITH THE DIPLOMATIC NICETY IN LETTING BRITAIN BREAK THE OFFICIAL NEWS FIRST.

DR. CHENG AND MEMBERS OF HIS STAFF HAVE BEEN ASSURED BY THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT OF INDEFINITE ASYLUM IN ENGLAND.

IN A SPEECH TODAY AT POOLE, FOREIGN UNDERSECRETARY CHRISTOPHER MAYHEW SAID THAT RECOGNITION OF THE COMMUNIST REGIME "WILL BE BECAUSE IT HAS BECOME THE EFFECTIVE GOVERNMENT OF CHINA AND NOT BECAUSE WE LIKE ITS POLICIES AND PRACTICES. IT WILL BE AN ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF FACT, NOT APPROBATION."

THE ATOMIC SCIENTISTS ASSOCIATION OF BRITAIN ALSO ISSUED A DECLARATION TODAY ON RUSSIA'S ATOMIC POSITION. IT SAID THE RUSSIANS WILL HAVE ENOUGH BOMBS IN A YEAR OR TWO TO FIGHT AN ATOMIC WAR.

THERE WILL BE NO IMMEDIATE CHECK ON A NEW EXPLOSION UNLESS THE RUSSIANS CHOOSE TO ANNOUNCE IT, WHICH IS UNLIKELY. EVENTUALLY, HOWEVER SUCH A SECRET WILL OUT. INTELLIGENCE REPORTS, PLUS SCIENTIFIC MONITORING OF THE EARTH'S ATMOSPHERE FOR RADIOACTIVITY, TELL THE NEWS. AMERICAN-OCCUPIED JAPAN IS A LIKELY POINT FOR PART OF THE MONITORING.

DE COURCY'S DIGEST SEPT. 1 CONTAINED THE NEWS THAT RUSSIA HAD MADE AN ATOMIC BOMB. THIS WAS 23 DAYS BEFORE PRESIDENT TRUMAN ANNOUNCED THERE HAD BEEN AN ATOMIC EXPLOSION IN RUSSIA.

PRESIDENT TRUMAN SAID IN WASHINGTON TODAY HE DOES NOT KNOW WHEN THE RUSSIANS WILL PRODUCE ANOTHER ATOMIC EXPLOSION.

COMMENTING ON DE COURCY'S NEW PREDICTION, HE SAID HE HAD NO ADVANCE NOTICE OF THE FIRST BLAST AND HAS NO ADVANCE INFORMATION WHETHER ANOTHER IS TO TAKE PLACE.

DE COURCY SAID THE NEXT BLAST WILL BE IN THE SOVIET ASIATIC REPUBLIC OF KAZAK, NORTH OF INDIA AND WEST OF MONGOLIA, IN A LAKE REGION NEAR THE REPUBLIC'S BORDER WITH SINKIANG.

A130

THE EXPLOSION "WILL BE OF AN UNUSUAL KIND BECAUSE IT WILL BE CONNECTED WITH A BLASTING OPERATION IN CONNECTION WITH AN IRRIGATION PROJECT," HE SAID.

"THIS IS A RATHER DISQUIETING STATEMENT, BECAUSE IT SUGGESTS THAT THE RUSSIANS ARE, IN SOME RESPECTS, AHEAD OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA," HE SAID.

AMERICAN SCIENTISTS QUESTION THE VALUE OF ATOMIC POWER FOR BLASTING WORK. THEIR VIEW IS THAT TNT WILL HANDLE SUCH JOBS MORE EFFICIENTLY AND CHEAPLY, AND WITHOUT THE DEADLY AFTER AFFECTS OF RADIOACTIVITY.

THE U.N. RECORD SHOWED HE SAID: "WE ARE RAZING MOUNTAINS, WE ARE IRRIGATING DESERTS, WE ARE CUTTING THROUGH THE JUNGLE AND THE TUNDRA, WE ARE SPREADING LIFE, HAPPINESS, PROSPERITY AND WELFARE IN PLACES WHERE THE HUMAN FOOTSTEP HAS NOT BEEN SEEN FOR THOUSANDS OF YEARS."

HE SAID LATER, HOWEVER, THAT HE WAS TALKING ABOUT SOVIET AIMS. HE DENIED HE HAD EVER MENTIONED MOVING MOUNTAINS.

DE COURCY WAS ADVISOR ON INTELLIGENCE TO THE UNITED STEEL COMPANIES, LTD., OF BRITAIN DURING THE WAR. WITH THE EARL OF MANSFIELD, VISCOUNT CLIVE, LORD PHILLIMORE AND VICTOR RAIKES, A MEMBER OF PARLIAMENT, HE FORMED THE PREWAR IMPERIAL POLICY GROUP (CAPITAL I P G) IN 1934 TO STUDY INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS.

HE TRAVELED EXTENSIVELY IN EUROPE AND THE UNITED STATES.

DE COURCY TOLD THE UNION LEAGUE CLUB IN CHICAGO NOV. 23, 1948, THE RUSSIANS BELIEVED THAT, AFTER TURNING OUT THEIR FIRST A-BOMB, THEY COULD PRODUCE FOUR A MONTH.

THIS IS ABOUT IN LINE WITH THE ESTIMATES OF DR. R.E. LAPP, AN AMERICAN ATOMIC SCIENTIST, WHO WAS FORMERLY EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR OF AN ATOMIC ENERGY COMMITTEE IN THE U.S. MILITARY ESTABLISHMENT. HE SAID IN SEPTEMBER HE BELIEVES THAT IF RUSSIA HAS SUFFICIENT URANIUM SHE CAN ACCUMULATE ABOUT 100 ATOMIC BOMBS WITHIN THE NEXT TWO YEARS. BUT HE WAS POSITIVE THE RUSSIANS CANNOT MAKE THE EXPLOSIVES ANY FASTER THAN THE UNITED STATES.

THE ATOMIC SCIENTISTS ASSOCIATION OF BRITAIN BASED ITS FORECAST OF RUSSIA'S PROSPECTS FOR A WAR-SIZED ATOM BOMB PILE IN 1952 ON STATEMENTS BY U.S. SCIENTISTS.

"HENCE, IN A WAR IN WHICH ATOM BOMBS ARE USED AT ALL," SAID THE ASSOCIATION'S MONTHLY BULLETIN, "THEY WILL BE USED BY BOTH SIDES. THE RESULTING HAVOC, PARTICULARLY IN A DENSELY POPULATED AREA SUCH AS WESTERN EUROPE WILL, IN ALL PROBABILITY ENTAIL A COMPLETE COLLAPSE OF CIVILIZATION IN THIS AREA."

THE BULLETIN SAID THIS THREAT FOCUSES ATTENTION ON THE REAL PROBLEM: "WE MUST FIND SOME MEANS OF PREVENTING RECOURSE TO WAR AS A METHOD OF SETTLING INTERNATIONAL DISPUTES."

THE ASSOCIATION WAS FORMED IN 1946. MOST OF THE ORIGINAL MEMBERS ARE PHYSICISTS WHO TOOK PART DURING THE WAR IN THE JOINT UNITED STATES-BRITISH-CANADIAN ATOMIC ENERGY PROJECT.

DE COURCY TOLD REPORTERS HE BASED HIS STATEMENT ON PRIVATE REPORTS REACHING HIM FROM BEHIND THE IRON CURTAIN. HIS FORECAST WAS MADE IN A WRITTEN STATEMENT TO THE PRESS.

HE PREDICTED LAST JANUARY THAT THE RUSSIANS WOULD ATEMPT AN ATOM EXPLOSION DURING 1949. PRESIDENT TRUMAN ANNOUNCED IN SEPTEMBER THAT THEY HAD SUCCEEDED.

THE 40-YEAR-OLD EDITOR PUBLISHES A MONTHLY CALLED "INTELLIGENCE DIGEST," DEVOTED TO INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS. HE CLAIMS TO HAVE HIGHLY-PLACED INFORMANTS IN SEVERAL EASTERN EUROPEAN NATIONS.

THE EXPLOSION SATURDAY, HE SAID, "WILL BE OF AN UNUSUAL KIND BECAUSE IT WILL BE CONNECTED WITH A BLASTING OPERATION IN CONNECTION WITH AN IRRIGATION PROJECT."

"THIS IS RATHER A DISQUIETING STATEMENT BECAUSE IT SUGGESTS THAT THE RUSSIANS ARE IN SOME RESPECTS AHEAD OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA," THE STATEMENT ADDED.

HE DECLINED TO AMPLIFY THIS REMARK.

AFTER PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S ANNOUNCEMENT, THE MOSCOW NEWSPAPER PRAVDA SAID RUSSIA HOPED TO USE THE ATOM IN BUILDING DAMS.

DE COURCY SAID THE NEXT BLAST WILL BE IN THE SOVIET ASIATIC REPUBLIC OF KAZAK, NORTH OF INDIA AND EAST OF MONGOLIA, IN A LAKE REGION NEAR THE KAZAK BORDER WITH SINKIANG.

THE MOVE WAS AIMED AT EQUALIZING STEEL PRODUCTION COSTS AMONG EUROPEAN USERS OF COAL FROM THE RUHR.

THE NEED AROSE FROM LAST SEPTEMBER'S DEVALUATION OF THE DEUTSCHE MARK. THE EFFECT OF DEVALUATION WAS TO INCREASE THE GAP BETWEEN THE EXPORT AND THE HOME PRICE, THUS GIVING AN ADVANTAGE TO GERMAN INDUSTRY, PARTICULARLY THE RUHR STEEL PLANTS.

THE COMMISSION, WHICH HAD PLEDGED IN THE OCCUPATION STATUTE TO PREVENT UNFAIR TRADE PRACTICES BY THE GERMANS, ORDERED THE ADJUSTMENT.

(Advance) Geneva, Switzerland, Friday, Jan. 6--(AP)---Europe is making important progress toward achieving self sufficiency in coal production, the United Nations economic commission for europe said today.

The European output served ~~xxx~~ all the continent's needs before the war. Millions of tons have been imported since from the United States.

The apparent European deficit in hard coal for the first quarter of 1950 was set at 1,600,000 (m) tons. this is a decrease of 3,400,000 tons , or 68 per cent, from the 5,000,000-ton hard coal deficit of the first quarter of 1949.

The commission provides the apparent deficit estimates each quarter to guide the United States government in its export program. The deficit represents the needs of European countries left unfulfilled after the commission makes the quarterly allocations of European coal and coke.

A total of 13,500,000 tons of European coal and coke have been allocated to 17 European countries and the free territory of Trieste for the first quarter of 1950.

FIRST LEAD CZECH

BY NATE POLOWETZKY

PRAGUE, JAN. 5-(AP)-THE COMMUNIST-LED CZECH GOVERNMENT TODAY CONFISCATED THE CZECH-LANGUAGE BULLETIN OF THE UNITED STATES INFORMATION SERVICE CARRYING THE TEXT OF THE U.S. NOTE ORDERING THE CLOSING OF HUNGARIAN CONSULATES IN CLEVELAND AND NEW YORK.

AT THE SAME TIME THE GOVERNMENT EXPELLED A 26-YEAR-OLD CALIFORNIAN, WHO HAD BEEN STUDYING HERE ON A CZECH SCHOLARSHIP.

THE U.S.I.S. BULLETIN IS MAILED TO SOME 2,000 CZECHS DAILY. JOSEPH KOLAREK, PRESS ATTACHE OF THE U.S.EMBASSY, SAID THERE WAS "NO DOUBT" THAT THE INCLUSION OF THE U.S. NOTE WAS THE CAUSE OF THE SEIZURE. THE CONSULATES WERE ORDERED CLOSED BECAUSE OF HUNGARIAN TREATMENT OF AMERICANS.

PALO ALTO, CALIF., A STUDENT OF COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS. HE CAME HERE LAST SUMMER ON A CZECH GOVERNMENT SCHOLARSHIP, TO STUDY AT CHARLES UNIVERSITY.

THE COMMUNIST PARTY, MEANWHILE, ISSUED A REVISED EDITION OF A BOOK WHICH, IN ITS NEW FORM, STRONGLY ATTACKS THE LATE PRESIDENT EDUARD BENES AND THE LATE FOREIGN MINISTER JAN MASARYK.

THE BOOK, "THE COMMUNIST PARTY OF CZECHOSLOVAKIA IN THE FIGHT FOR FREEDOM," NOW LABELS THE WARTIME EXILE CZECHOSLOVAK GOVERNMENT AS ANTI-NATIONAL AND ANTI-SOVIET. TWO OF THAT GOVERNMENT'S MEMBERS ARE HIGH RANKING FIGURES IN TODAY'S COMMUNIST-LED GOVERNMENT HERE.

THESE ATTACKS WERE NOT CONTAINED IN THE BOOK WHEN IT WAS FIRST PUBLISHED TWO YEARS AGO WHILE BENES AND MASARYK, REGARDED AS HEROES BY THE CZECH PEOPLE, WERE STILL ALIVE.

THE TWO HIGH-RANKING SURVIVORS OF THE LONDON GOVERNMENT ARE DR. VLADO CLEMENTIS, NOW COMMUNIST FOREIGN MINISTER AND VACLAV NOSEK, COMMUNIST MINISTER OF INTERIOR, BOTH LISTED AMONG THE MODERATE WING OF THE PRESENT REGIME.

SOME OBSERVERS BELIEVED THE PUBLICATION OF THE REVISED "FIGHT FOR FREEDOM" MIGHT BE POLITICALLY SIGNIFICANT BECAUSE THERE HAVE BEEN REPEATED REPORTS IN THE FOREIGN PRESS THAT CLEMENTIS AND NOSEK MIGHT BE PURGED BY THE MOSCOW-TRAINED COMMUNISTS IN THE GOVERNMENT.

THESE REPORTS HAVE SO FAR BEEN BRUSHED OFF AS "WISHFUL THINKING" BY GOVERNMENT SPOKESMEN.

IN THE NEW VERSION OF "FIGHT FOR FREEDOM" -- REVIEWED BY THE COMMUNIST WEEKLY, TVORBA -- THE WRITERS ACCUSE THE LONDON GROUP, HEADED BY BENES AND MASARYK, OF HAVING JOINED FORCES "WITH JUST THOSE POWERS WHICH BETRAYED US AT MUNICH."

A77

IT ALSO ACCUSES MASARYK OF OPPOSING THE RUSSIAN OFFENSIVE AGAINST THE GERMANS IN THE CARPATHIAN MOUNTAINS, -- PRECEDING THE SOVIET ADVANCE INTO CZECHOSLOVAKIA -- AND OPPOSING RUSSIAN HELP TO THE SLOVAK UPRISING IN 1944.

REVIEWING THE EVENTS SINCE 1938--THE TIME OF MUNICH--THE BOOK SAYS: "AFTER THE 1938 TREACHERY THE ONLY POSSIBLE WAY TO LEAD THE FIGHT FOR NATIONAL LIBERATION WAS TO JOIN THE PROGRESSIVE, ANTI-CAPITALIST FORCES REPRESENTED BY THE COMMUNIST PARTY OF CZECHOSLOVAKIA. THE BOURGEOISIE, WHICH HAD BEEN TREACHEROUS, WAS UNABLE TO LEAD ANY FIGHT FOR NATIONAL LIBERATION AND DID NOT INTEND TO DO SO.

"THE LONDON EMIGRES BOUND AND ALLIED THEMSELVES WITH JUST THOSE POWERS WHICH BETRAYED US IN MUNICH. BENES, A REPRESENTATIVE OF THE LONDON GOVERNMENT, FINALLY BOWED TO THE PRESSURE OF EVENTS AND WAS COMPELLED TO ACCEPT NEGOTIATIONS WITH A REPRESENTATIVE OF THE RESISTANCE OF THE CZECH AND SLOVAK PEOPLE, KLEMENT GOTTWALD (NOW PRESIDENT).

"BUT EVEN AFTER THIS FORMAL COORDINATION OF THE LONDON GROUP ON THE MOSCOW LINE THE REACTIONARY ELEMENTS IN THE LONDON GOVERNMENT CONTINUED THEIR ANTI-SOVIET ACTIVITY AND THEREFORE THEIR ANTI-NATIONAL ACTIVITY. THEY DID NOT STOP IN THE MOST CRUCIAL MOMENTS OF THE FIGHT AGAINST FASCISM."

BELGRADE, YUGOSLAVIA, JAN. 5-(AP)-THE YUGOSLAV PRESS TODAY ACCUSED RUSSIA OF RIGGING SCORES IN A RECENT INTERNATIONAL STUDENT SPORTS MEET AT BUDAPEST TO MAKE SURE HER BOYS WOULD WIN.

IN PRINTING THE CHARGE, THE OFFICIAL NEWSPAPER BORBA QUOTED JANOS GERDOV, A YUGOSLAV OF HUNGARIAN DESCENT, WHO PURPORTEDLY WAS IN BUDAPEST STUDYING PHYSICAL TRAINING METHODS AT THE TIME OF THE MEET.

ACCORDING TO GERDOV, BORBA SAID, THE RUSSIAN DIRECTORS OF THE EVENT NOT ONLY ALTERED THE RULES TO HELP THEIR ENTRIES ALONG, BUT THEN VIOLATED THE RULES THEMSELVES IN ORDER TO CLINCH VICTORY.

GERDOV REPORTED THAT SOME OF THE ATHLETES FROM THE SATELLITE COUNTRIES WERE TOLD TO TAKE A LICKING AT THE HANDS OF THE SOVIETS.

IN OTHER CASES, HE SAID, THE RUSSIANS ARRANGED LAST MINUTE EVENTS TO INSURE A BIG POINT TOTAL FOR THE SOVIET TEAM.

GERDOV DECLARED THE RUSSIANS EVEN TRIED TO RING IN A "LONG COUNT" TECHNIQUE TO GRAB THE FINALS IN THE BOXING MATCH.

A HUNGARIAN BOXER NAMED PAP, WHO HAD BEEN PUTTING UP LITTLE FIGHT, SUDDENLY BECAME ENRAGED BY THE CROWD'S TAUNTS, GERDOV SAID, AND FLATTENED HIS SOVIET OPPONENT.

GERDOV SAID THE REFEREE GAVE THE RUSSIAN A LEISURELY COUNT TO ALLOW HIM TIME TO GET UP. BUT PAP -- STILL MAD -- FLOORED HIS OPPONENT AGAIN. THIS TIME, GERDOV SAID, HE STAYED DOWN. THE PAPER DID NOT SAY WHAT BECAME OF PAP AFTER THAT.

BORBA DID NOT GIVE THE DATE OF THE MEET, BUT LOCAL SPORTS CIRCLES SAY IT WAS HELD LAST AUGUST DURING THE RUSSIAN SPONSORED YOUTH FESTIVAL. YUGOSLAVIA DID NOT ATTEND, BECAUSE SHE WAS DENIED VISAS FOR HER ENTRIES.

ATHENS, GREECE, JAN. 5-(AP)-MINISTER OF PUBLIC ORDER CONSTANTINE RENTIS HAS ORDERED THE RELEASE OF 1,369 COMMUNISTS FROM MAKRONISSOS CONCENTRATION CAMP.

RENTIS SAID FREEING THE PRISONERS WAS IN LINE WITH THE GOVERNMENT'S POLICY OF LENIENCY AND RE-EDUCATION NOW BEING APPLIED FOLLOWING THE ROUT OF THE COMMUNIST GUERRILLAS.

ABOUT 6,500 CIVILIANS HAVE BEEN RELEASED FROM THE CAMP SINCE LAST SEPTEMBER, LEAVING ANOTHER 6,000 STILL IMPRISONED, RENTIS SAID. THE MAJORITY OF THESE DETAINEES HAD BEEN ARRESTED BY MILITARY FORCES OR THE GENDARMERIE (POLICE) IN AREAS DURING MOPPING UP OPERATIONS.

ANOTHER CATEGORY OF PRISONERS ARE CONVICTS SENTENCED BY MILITARY TRIBUNALS WHO ARE SERVING VARIOUS PRISON TERMS. MANY OF THESE HAVE BEEN TRANSFERRED TO MAKRONISSOS AND AFTER RECEIVING AN ANTI-MARXIST INDOCTRINATION THEY ARE BEING RELEASED, RENTIS SAID.

HE SAID THERE WERE ALSO REPENTENT COMMUNISTS WHO HAVE SIGNED STATEMENTS DISAVOWING MARXISM.

THERE ARE APPROXIMATELY ANOTHER 6,000 MILITARY DETAINEES MAKING A TOTAL OF 12,000 IN CONCENTRATION CAMPS.

ATHENS--FIRST ADD SECOND LEAD GREEK (A71) X X X GOVERNMENT.

THE AMERICAN REACTION TO THE GOVERNMENT CRISIS WAS UNFAVORABLE. U.S. AMBASSADOR HENRY F.GRADY WAS NOT AVAILWBLE FOR COMMENT, BUT AN AMERICAN SOURCE SAID THE WALKOUT OF THE LIBERALS WAS "VERY UNWISE IN THE LIGHT OF CONGRESS RECONVENING AND ARGUMENTS CONTINUING ABOUT AMERICAN AID."

UNDER CONSTITUTIONAL PROCEDURE THE KING CAN EITHER NAME THE LEADER OF THE MAJOR OPPOSITION PARTY IN PARLIAMENT OR ANY OTHER PARTY LEADER TO FORM A NEW CABINET, WHICH THEN MUST EITHER GET A VOTE OF CONFIDENCE FROM PARLIAMENT OR DISSOLVE IT. THERE WAS TALK OF A CARETAKER CABINET TO CONDUCT THE ELECTIONS, SHOULD THE KING ASK DIOMEDES TO FORM A NEW GOVERNMENT.

VENIZELOS SAID IN RESIGNING HE HAD URGED THE GGENERAL ELECTIONS, NOW SCHEDULED FOR APRIL, BE SPEEDED UP. HE SAID VOTING SHOULD BE HELD SOONER TO PREVENT THE "TERRIBLE CONSEQUENCES THE COUNTRY WOULD BE EXPOSED TO FROM AN UNDULY LONG PRE-ELECTORAL CAMPAIGN PERIOD."

THERE WERE ALSO PERSISTENT REPORTS THAT GENERALISSIMO ALEXANDER PAPAGOS, GREECE'S GREATEST LIVING MILITARY HERO WHO LED THE FINAL SUCCESSFUL DRIVE AGAINST COMMUNIST-LED GUERRILLAS, HAD RESIGNED AS COMMANDER OF THE NATION'S ARMED FORCES.

BENIZELOS ALSO CRITICIZED FIRST VICE PREMIER CONSTANTIN TSALDARIS, HEAD OF THE POPULIST PARTY, FOR A POLITICAL SPEAKING TOUR HE IS NOW MAKING IN SOUTHERN GREECE. THE TOUR, VENIZELOS CHARGED, VIOLATED AN AGREEMENT TO POSTPONE OPENING OF THE PRE-ELECTORAL CAMPAIGN.

A "PROLONGED PRE-ELECTORAL CAMPAIGN," VENIZELOS SAID, "WOULD INEVITABLY RESULT IN THE STATE MACHINERY BEING DISLOCATED AND REHABILITATION HALTED."

THE LIBERAL-POPULIST COALITION CABINET HEADED BY DIOMEDES HAD BEEN IN OFFICE SINCE LAST JULY. ITS MEMBERSHIP WAS CHIEFLY THE SAME AS THE LINEUP THE LATE PREMIER THEMISTOCLES SOPHOULIS HEADED UNTIL HIS DEATH IN LATE JUNE.

FORMOSAN-CHINESE
BY TOM LAMBERT
TOKYO, JAN. 5-(AP)-ROVING U.S. AMBASSADOR PHILIP C. JESSUP ARRIVED TODAY IN JAPAN, FIRST STOP ON AN ASIAN SURVEY TRIP THAT WILL TAKE HIM TO FORMOSA--NEW FOCAL POINT OF AMERICAN CONTROVERSY ON FAR EASTERN POLICY.
THE TALL, LANKY ENVOY SAID HE WILL CONFER WITH GENERAL MACARTHUR ON THE MATTER OF THE BIG ISLAND. FORMOSA IS THE LAST-STAND BASTION OF CHIANG KAI-SHEK'S CHINESE NATIONALIST GOVERNMENT.
THERE IS INCREASING REPUBLICAN PRESSURE IN THE UNITED STATES FOR AMERICAN ACTION--ARMED OR OTHERWISE--TO KEEP FORMOSA FROM FALLING TO THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS.
JESSUP WOULD NOT COMMENT ON REPORTS THAT THE STATE DEPARTMENT EXPECTS THE ISLAND TO BE TAKEN BY THE REDS WHO HAVE OVERRUN CHINA'S MAINLAND.
THESE REPORTS HAVE BEEN ATTRIBUTED TO A STATE DEPARTMENT MEMORANDUM OF DEC. 23 ADVISING ITS SPOKESMEN TO PUT THE SOFT-PEDAL ON FORMOSA'S STRATEGIC IMPORTANCE.
A RESPONSIBLE SOURCE SAID YESTERDAY THIS STAND IS "ENTIRELY CONTRARY" TO THE VIEWPOINT OF THE MILITARY COMMAND HERE.
SOME OBSERVERS HERE REGARD JESSUP'S ASIAN TOUR AND THE VISIT OF THE U.S. JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF TO JAPAN NEXT MONTH AS MARKING THE TIME FOR DECISION ON CHINA POLICY.
NOW, THEY SAY, THE "DUST IS SETTLING." AND THAT, AMERICAN OFFICIALS HAVE SAID, WOULD BE WHEN A DECISION WOULD BE MADE.
BUT JESSUP HAD VIRTUALLY NOTHING TO SAY ABOUT FAR EASTERN POLICY THAT HE HADN'T SAID BEFORE LEAVING THE U.S.
IN A BRACE OF NEWS CONFERENCES AFTER HIS SHIP DOCKED AT YOKOHAMA THIS MORNING, HE REITERATED THAT:
1. THE U.S. "HAS NOT ABANDONED AND WILL NOT ABANDON CHINA."
2. THE U.S. HAS A FAR EASTERN POLICY, NOTWITHSTANDING REPUBLICAN CHARGES AT HOME TO THE CONTRARY.
3. THE FAR EAST IS GETTING "PRIME ATTENTION" FROM THE STATE DEPARTMENT.
4. SOVIET POLICY ON CHINA IS SIMILAR TO THE OLD IMPERIALISM OF THE CZARS.
5. THE U.S. IS OPPOSED TO IMPERIALISM.
JESSUP SAID HE WILL TALK WITH MACARTHUR ABOUT A PEACE TREATY FOR JAPAN. BUT HE DIDN'T BRING ALONG "ANYTHING SPECIFICALLY IN THE FORM OF A DRAFT."
HE DECLINED COMMENT ON TWO ISSUES WHICH HAVE LEAPED INTO PROMINENCE IN CONNECTION WITH PEACE TREATY TALK AND THE RED SWEEP IN CHINA:
SHOULD JAPAN BE PERMITTED TO HAVE ARMED FORCES? SHOULD THE U.S. MAINTAIN MILITARY BASES IN JAPAN?
JESSUP'S FACT-FINDING TOUR WILL TAKE HIM TO BANGKOK, THAILAND (SIAM), FOR A CONFERENCE OF U.S. DIPLOMATS FEB. 11-15.

VSEOUL, KOREA, JAN. 5-(AP)-AMERICAN MILITARY AND ECONOMIC AID HAS KEPT SOUTH KOREA "FROM FALLING AGAIN UNDER CRUEL FOREIGN RULE," PRESIDENT SYNGMAN RHEE SAID TODAY.

"KOREA IS THE COMBATANT OUTPOST OF THE NON-COMMUNIST WORLD ON THE EAST ASIATIC CONTINENT," RHEE SAID.

"HERE, EVERY DAY, OUR SOLDIERS AND SAILORS, OUR POLICE AND OUR COMMON CITIZENS ARE IN DEADLY COMBAT WITH COMMUNIST SOLDIERS, COMMUNIST ARMED BANDS, COMMUNIST TERRORISTS, ALL DIRECTED AND SUPPLIED FROM THE HOMELAND OF ALL THE WORLD'S COMMUNISTS.

"THE STRUGGLE FOR FREEDOM AND DEMOCRACY AGAINST COMMUNISM AND TOTALITARIANISM IS NOT ACADEMIC IN KOREA. IT IS A DAILY MATTER OF LIFE AND DEATH.

"AMERICAN POSTWAR AID TO KOREA HAS MADE THIS LIFE, THIS LIBERTY AND THE FREE PURSUIT OF HAPPINESS POSSIBLE FOR OUR CITIZENS."

THE PRESIDENT'S REMARKS WERE MADE IN A STATEMENT ISSUED ON THE FIRST ANNIVERSARY OF THE ECONOMIC COOPERATION ADMINISTRATION (ECA) PROGRAM IN KOREA.

KOREA RECEIVED $118,000,000 (M) WORTH OF AMERICAN GOODS LAST YEAR. MOST OF IT WAS PURCHASED WITH FUNDS LEFT OVER FROM THE U.S. MILITARY GOVERNMENT PROGRAM HERE.

OF THE TOTAL, $60,000,000 (M) WAS ECA MONEY. THIS WAS SUFFICIENT TO BUY FERTILIZER WHICH HELPED KOREA GROW ENOUGH FOOD TO FEED ITSELF AND LOOK FORWARD TO SELLING SOME THIS YEAR TO JAPAN. IT ALSO BOUGHT ENOUGH RAW COTTON FOR KOREAN MILLS TO PRODUCE MORE THAN 3,000 MILES OF WHITE SHEETING WHICH KOREANS PREFER FOR CLOTHING.

JERUSALEM, JAN.5-(AP)-ISRAEL'S PARLIAMENT LAST NIGHT APPROVED PRIME MINISTER DAVID BEN-GURION'S FOREIGN POLICY BY A 62-28 VOTE OF CONFIDENCE.

ENDING A THREE-DAY DEBATE, BEN-GURION TOLD THE PARLIAMENT (KNESSET) THAT "POWERFUL FORCES" IN THE WORLD STILL WERE NOT RECONCILED TO ESTABLISHMENT OF THE JEWISH STATE.

BUT ISRAEL, BEN-GURION SAID, WOULD NOT RELAX ITS CLAIM ON JERUSALEM DESPITE THE U.N. GENERAL ASSEMBLY VOTE TO PUT THE HOLY CITY UNDER AN INTERNATIONAL REGIME. BOTH ISRAEL, WHICH OCCUPIES NEW JERUSALEM, AND HASHEMITE JORDAN, HOLDER OF THE OLD CITY, HAVE REJECTED THE U.N. ACTION.

SHARETT SAID ISRAEL REMAINS PREPARED TO NEGOTIATE FOR PERMANENT PEACE WITH "ALL ARAB NATIONS WITH WHOM WE HAVE ARMISTICE AGREEMENTS -- WITHOUT EXCEPTION."

SHARETT SAID ISRAEL HOPES EVENTUALLY TO REACH AGREEMENT ON JERUSALEM WITH THE UNITED NATIONS. BUT HE REITERATED ISRAEL WOULD NOT BE DISLODGED FROM JERUSALEM, TO WHICH HIS NATION HAS TRANSFERRED ITS PARLIAMENT AND MOST OF ITS GOVERNMENT OFFICES.

"THERE IS NO FORCE NOW TO DRIVE US OUT," SHARETT SAID.

ARAB JORDAN OCCUPIES THE OLD CITY OF JERUSALEM, PART OF THE TERRITORY WHICH KING ABDULLAH ANNEXED. IN IT ARE MOST OF THE HOLY PLACES OF THE JEWISH, CHRISTIAN AND MOSLEM RELIGIONS.

BEN-GURION IN HIS CLOSING TWO-HOUR SPEECH MADE THESE FURTHER STATEMENTS ABOUT THE JERUSALEM SITUATION:

ISRAEL'S PRESENT TASK IS TO CONVERT HER LEGAL RIGHT TO THE CITY TO ONE OF ACTUAL POSSESSION. HE SAID THIS WAS BEING DONE.

ISRAEL, HE ADDED, DOES NOT NEED TO FORMALLY PROCLAIM JERUSALEM AS CAPITAL OF THE JEWISH NATION. KING DAVID DID THAT IN BIBLICAL TIMES, BEN-GURION DECLARED.

BUT THE JEWS, HE CONTINUED, COULD NOT IGNORE WHAT HAS TAKEN PLACE IN JERUSALEM IN THE PAST 2,000 YEARS. THEY MUST TELL THE CHRISTIAN WORLD THEY WILL HONOR AND RESPECT ITS RIGHTS IN JERUSALEM, BEN GURION SAID. HE UNDERSCORED ISRAEL'S STATED POLICY OF GUARANTEEING FREEDOM OF WORSHIP AND FREE ACCESS TO THE HOLY PLACES UNDER THE RULE OF THE JEWISH NATION.

JAKARTA (BATAVIA), U.S.I., JAN.5-(AP)-AUSTRALIAN MINISTER OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS PERCY SPENDER TODAY SAID THE NEW LIBERAL GOVERNMENT WOULD CONTINUE THE NATION'S TRADITIONAL "WHITE AUSTRALIA" POLICY BUT "IN A MORE LIBERAL-MINDED AND HUMANITARIAN WAY."

THE POLICY, WHICH BARS ASIAN NATIONALS FROM SETTLING IN AUSTRALIA, HAS AROUSED WIDESPREAD OPPOSITION, PARTICULARLY IN SOUTHEAST ASIA, BECAUSE OF DEPORTATIONS OF INDONESIANS AND MALAYS.

SPENDER SAID THERE COULD BE "NO COMPROMISE ON THE NECESSITY" FOR THE POLICY, "WHICH IS COMMON TO ALL AUSTRALIAN GOVERNMENTS." HE ADDED HE WAS "WHOLLY AGAINST" ANY IMMIGRATION BY JAPANESE TO AUSTRALIA.

SPENDER, WHO LEAVES SATURDAY FOR THE BRITISH COMMONWEALTH FOREIGN MINISTERS CONFERENCE IN CEYLON, DENIED THAT HE HAD DISCUSSED FORMALLY WITH OFFICIALS HERE THE FUTURE STATUS OF DUTCH (WESTERN) NEW GUINEA. AUSTRALIA CONTROLS THE EASTERN HALF OF NEW GUINEA.

IN ANSWER TO A QUESTION, THE AUSTRALIAN MINISTER SAID HE "HADN'T THOUGHT" OF RAISING THE QUESTION OF CONTROL OF WESTERN NEW GUINEA AT THE COMMONWEALTH CONFERENCE, BUT ADDED THAT HIS GOVERNMENT REGARDS THE BIG ISLAND AS AN AREA VITAL IN THE STRATEGIC DEFENSE OF AUSTRALIA.

THE DUTCH ARE SCHEDULED TO RETAIN CONTROL OF WESTERN NEW GUINEA FOR ANOTHER YEAR DURING NEGOTIATIONS WITH THE INDONESIANS CONCERNING ULTIMATE CONTROL OF THE TERRITORY.

NIGHT LEAD CHINA
BY EDWARD E.BOMAR

WASHINGTON, JAN.5-(AP)-PRESIDENT TRUMAN, IN A MAJOR POLICY DECLARATION WHICH STIRRED FURIOUS DISPUTE IN CONGRESS, TODAY REFUSED TO INTERVENE TO SAVE FORMOSA FROM THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS.

HE SERVED NOTICE THAT THE U.S. GOVERNMENT INTENDS TO STAY CLEAR OF THE UPHEAVAL WHICH HAS PUT MUCH OF CHINA INTO COMMUNIST HANDS. NO MILITARY AID, OR EVEN MILITARY ADVICE, WILL BE GIVEN TO THE NATIONALISTS ON FORMOSA, HE SAID.

"THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT WILL NOT PURSUE A COURSE WHICH WILL LEAD TO INVOLVEMENT IN THE CIVIL CONFLICT IN CHINA," HE SAID.

THE PRESIDENT'S STATEMENT, ISSUED AT HIS NEWS CONFERENCE, APPARENTLY KNOCKED THE LAST PROP OF HOPE FROM UNDER THE CHIANG KAI-SHEK REGIME. IT HAS BEEN SEEKING TO CONVERT THE BIG ISLAND OFF CHINA'S COAST INTO A STRONGHOLD FROM WHICH, PERHAPS, TO MAKE AN EVENTUAL COME-BACK.

IT WAS A GLOOMY DAY FOR THE NATIONALISTS. WORD CAME FROM LONDON THAT THE BRITISH FOREIGN OFFICE HAD SUMMONED THE NATIONALIST AMBASSADOR PRESUMABLY TO INFORM HIM OF BRITISH RECOGNITION OF THE CHINESE COMMUNIST REGIME.

THE BRITISH HAVE SUBSTANTIAL TRADE AND OTHER INTERESTS IN CHINA, BUT BRITISH OFFICIALS SOUGHT TO DISCOUNT THIS FACTOR. THEY EXPLAINED THAT "NOTHING WOULD BE GAINED BY BOYCOTTING INDEFINITELY A GOVERNMENT RULING OVER A VAST TERRITORY AND POPULATION."

SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON MADE PLAIN THE UNITED STATES WOULD BE IN NO HURRY TO FOLLOW THE BRITISH EXAMPLE. ANY QUESTION OF RECOGNIZING THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS IS PREMATURE AT THIS TIME, HE SAID AT A NEWS CONFERENCE. NOTHING WILL BE DONE, HE SAID, WITHOUT CONSULTING CONGRESS.

PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S STATEMENT DREW CAUSTIC CRITICISM FROM REPUBLICANS WHO HAVE BEEN DEMANDING AID TO FORMOSA, BUT APPLAUSE FROM DEMOCRATS WHO SAID INTERVENTION MIGHT START WORLD WAR III.

SENATOR KNOWLAND (R-CALIF) HOTLY ACCUSED THE ADMINISTRATION OF PURSUING A "BANKRUPT POLICY WHICH NOW STANDS REVEALED IN ALL ITS SORRY DETAIL."

IN A SPEECH TO THE SENATE, KNOWLAND DECLARED:

"IF FORMOSA GETS INTO UNFRIENDLY HANDS OUR DEFENSE OF JAPAN, OKINAWA AND THE PHILIPPINES IS PIERCED AND THE PACIFIC COAST MAY HAVE TO BECOME OUR FIRST LINE OF DEFENSE."

SENATOR JENNER (R-IND), WHO HAS FOUGHT ALL FOREIGN AID PROGRAMS, AROSE TO ASK KNOWLAND IF "WE ARE WINNING THE COLD WAR?"

KNOWLAND REPLIED THAT COMMUNIST SETBACKS IN EUROPE WERE MORE THAN OFFSET NOW BY COMMUNIST GAINS IN ASIA.

JENNER SHOUTED THAT WHEN HOSTILITIES ENDED IN 1945 COMMUNISTS CONTROLLED 180,000,000 PERSONS BUT "NOW DOMINATE 800,000,000, WHICH IS NEARLY ONE HALF THE WORLD'S POPULATION."

SENATOR FERGUSON (R-MICH) SAID PRESIDENT TRUMAN HAD KICKED THE BI-PARTISAN FOREIGN POLICY "OUT THE WINDOW" BY NOT CONSULTING CONGRESS; AND SENATOR WHERRY (R-NEB) DENOUNCED WHAT HE CALLED AN "ABJECT SURRENDER" TO THE REDS.

SENATOR CONNALLY (D-TEX) AND REP. KEE (D-WVA) WENT TO THE SUPPORT OF THE PRESIDENT, SAYING INTERVENTION IN FORMOSA COULD PRODUCE WAR.

THE ONLY WAY YOU COULD INTERVENE TO REALLY MAKE FORMOSA IMPREGNABLE WOULD BE TO SEND ABOUT 10 DIVISIONS OF OUR BEST SOLDIERS, ABOUT 500 AIRPLANES, A COUPLE OF CARRIERS AND ABOUT ONE-THIRD OF OUR NAVY INTO THOSE WATERS, HE SAID.

"THAT WOULD BE DEFINITELY THE BEGINNING OF A WAR WITH COMMUNIST CHINA AND THE BEGINNING OF A WAR WITH RUSSIA."

SENATOR VANDENBERG (R-MICH), A REPUBLICAN LEADER IN THE FOREIGN POLICY FIELD, EXPRESSED REGRET "THAT THE ADMINISTRATION HAS FOUND IT NECESSARY TO ANNOUNCE CONCLUSIONS REGARDING FORMOSA AHEAD OF A REALISTIC CONSULTATION ON THE SUBJECT WITH THE APPROPRIATE COMMITTEES OF CONGRESS."

JAN 5 1950

THE FORMOSAN QUESTION IS NOT YET SETTLED, HE SAID.—"THE PERMANENT STATUS OF FORMOSA MUST BE RECOGNIZED AS DEPENDENT ON THE ULTIMATE JAPANESE PEACE TREATY. THE VITAL INTEREST OF THE UNITED STATES MUST BE RECOGNIZED."

WRESTED FROM CHINA BY THE JAPANESE IN 1895, THE ISLAND WAS LIBERATED FROM THE JAPANESE BY THE UNITED STATES IN THE LAST WAR. PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT, PRIME MINISTER CHURCHILL AND GENERALISSIMO CHIANG KAI-SHEK AGREED AT CAIRO IN 1943 THAT IT SHOULD BE TURNED OVER TO THE "REPUBLIC OF CHINA."

PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S STATEMENT TODAY WAS A VICTORY FOR SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON OVER THE U.S. JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF, WHO HAD WANTED TO SEND A MILITARY MISSION TO FORMOSA. SECRETARY OF DEFENSE JOHNSON AND GENERAL DOUGLAS MACARTHUR WERE ALSO REPORTED IN FAVOR OF SOME POSITIVE MOVE TO HELP THE NATIONALISTS.

IN HIS STATEMENT, MR. TRUMAN SAID EMPHATICALLY:

1. THE U.S. HAS NO INTENTION OF USING ARMED FORCES TO INTERFERE IN THE SITUATION.

2. THIS GOVERNMENT WILL PROVIDE NEITHER MILITARY AID NOR ADVICE TO THE NATIONALISTS ON FORMOSA, WHO HAVE "ADEQUATE" RESOURCES TO OBTAIN THE DEFENSE ITEMS THEY CONSIDER NEEDED.

3. "HAVING NO PREDATORY DESIGNS" ON FORMOSA OR ANY OTHER CHINESE TERRITORY, THE U.S. HAS NO DESIRE TO OBTAIN SPECIAL RIGHTS OR PRIVILEGES OR TO ESTABLISH MILITARY BASES ON THE ISLAND "AT THIS TIME."

THE ONE CONCESSION TO URGENT NATIONALIST PLEAS FOR AID WAS AN ANNOUNCEMENT THAT THE LIMITED ECONOMIC HELP CURRENTLY GIVEN TO FORMOSA BY THE ECONOMIC COOPERATION ADMINISTRATION WILL CONTINUE. THE ECA AID IS DUE TO END FEBRUARY 15 AND CONSISTS LARGELY OF SHIPMENTS OF TEXTILES AND FERTILIZER.

THERE WAS NO IMMEDIATE OFFICIAL EXPLANATION OF THE STATEMENT THAT "AT THIS TIME" THE U.S. WANTS NO MILITARY BASES ON FORMOSA. A GENERAL ASSUMPTION WAS THE ADMINISTRATION DID NOT WANT TO TIE ITS HANDS COMPLETELY IN THE EVENT DEVELOPMENTS IN CHINA SHOULD TAKE A MAJOR NEW TURN IN THE FUTURE.

(600) NIGHT LEAD FORMOSA REACTION

WASHINGTON, JAN. 5-(AP)-A RED-HOT DEBATE RAGED FIVE HOURS IN THE SENATE TODAY AROUND PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S HANDS-OFF FORMOSA DECLARATION.

IT SOUNDED LIKE A CURTAIN RAISER FOR THE 1950 CONGRESSIONAL CAMPAIGN AS THE ARGUMENT SWIRLED ANGRILY AROUND REPUBLICAN CHARGES THAT: (1) MR. TRUMAN'S ACTION WAS AN "ABJECT SURRENDER" TO THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS AND (2) A POWERFUL BLOW TO THE BIPARTISAN FOREIGN POLICY.

SENATOR KNOWLAND (R-CALIF), OUTSPOKEN ADVOCATE OF AID FOR THE CHINESE NATIONALIST FORCES, OPENED THE ATTACK WITH A CHARGE THAT THE ADMINISTRATION HAD BETRAYED THE NON-COMMUNIST FORCES. HE SAID IF FORMOSA FALLS, OUR FIRST LINE OF DEFENSE MAY BECOME THE AMERICAN PACIFIC COAST.

A NUMBER OF REPUBLICANS INCLUDING SENATOR VANDENBERG OF MICHIGAN, A LEADING ADVOCATE OF BI-PARTISAN FOREIGN POLICY, ASSERTED THAT THE ADMINISTRATION HAD HELD NO REAL CONSULTATION WITH CONGRESS MEMBERS BEFORE LAYING DOWN THE FORMOSAN RULE.

JAN 5 1950

SENATOR CONNALLY (D-TEX) CHAIRMAN OF THE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE, SAID THAT SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON HAD TOLD HIM OF THE FORMOSA DECISION LATE YESTERDAY, AND HAD TRIED UNSUCCESSFULLY TO REACH VANDENBERG, APPARENTLY TO ADVISE HIM OF THE ACTION.

ACHESON SAID THAT SOME MEMBERS OF THE FOREIGN COMMITTEES OF BOTH HOUSE AND SENATE HAD BEEN CONSULTED. HE DID NOT SAY WHETHER THEY WERE DEMOCRATS OR REPUBLICANS. HE SAID THERE WAS NO TIME FOR FULL DISCUSSION BEFORE THE TRUMAN STATEMENT CAME OUT.

CONNALLY GAVE UNQUALIFIED SUPPORT TO MR. TRUMAN'S DECISION, AND SO DID OTHER DEMOCRATS ON AND OFF THE SENATE FLOOR.

AND THE TEXAS SENATOR, APPARENTLY SENSING THAT ECHOES OF THE DEBATE MIGHT BE HEARD LATER, ADDED:

"LET THE REPUBLICANS TAKE IT BEFORE THE PEOPLE IF THEY WANT A DECISION. THEY'LL FIND OUT THAT THE PEOPLE SUPPORT THE PRESIDENT."

MR. TRUMAN, HE SAID, IS "ABSOLUTELY RIGHT." TO DO OTHERWISE WOULD INVOLVE US IN A "SERIOUS SITUATION," HE ADDED. "THERE IS TOO MUCH DANGER OF WAR IN TRYING TO TAKE OVER CHIANG KAI-SHEK'S GOVERNMENT AND TO DEFEND FORMOSA."

THE ISLAND'S STRATEGIC IMPORTANCE IS NOT ENOUGH TO WARRANT THIS NATION FLIRTING WITH WAR TO SAVE IT, THE TEXAN SAID.

BUT KNOWLAND ARGUED THERE WOULD BE LESS DANGER IN STANDING UP AGAINST COMMUNISTS IN CHINA, FORMOSA AND THE FAR EAST THAN THERE WAS IN OPERATING THE BERLIN AIRLIFT ACROSS RUSSIAN CONTROLLED TERRITORY--"FAR LESS THAN IN DOING NOTHING."

"IF FORMOSA GETS INTO UNFRIENDLY HANDS OUR DEFENSE OF JAPAN, OKINAWA AND THE PHILIPPINES IS PIERCED," THE CALIFORNIAN SAID.

A6GWX

SENATOR WHERRY (NEB), REPUBLICAN FLOOR LEADER, TOLD THE SENATE THAT "AMERICA'S PRESTIGE AND LEADERSHIP HAS STRUCK A NEW LOW" IN THE LIGHT OF THE PRESIDENT'S "COMPLETE, ABJECT SURRENDER TO THE RED COMMUNISTS IN THE FAR EAST." HE CALLED IT AN INVITATION TO THEM TO TAKE FORMOSA.

WHERRY SAID CONGRESS SHOULD HAVE BEEN CONSULTED, AND KNOWLAND PUT IN THAT "IN THE FAR EAST THERE HAS BEEN NO BIPARTISAN FOREIGN POLICY."

SENATOR SMITH (R-NJ) AGREED THAT MR. TRUMAN PROBABLY "HAS DONE GREAT DAMAGE TO THE BIPARTISAN POLICY."

DEMOCRATIC LEADER LUCAS OF ILLINOIS SHARPLY ATTACKED EARLIER CONTENTIONS OF FORMER PRESIDENT HOOVER AND SENATOR TAFT (R-OHIO) THAT AMERICAN NAVAL VESSELS SHOULD BE USED TO KEEP THE REDS OUT OF FORMOSA IF NECESSARY.
LUCAS SAID THAT IF THE NAVY WERE SENT WE HAD BETTER GET READY TO SEND 10 AMERICAN DIVISIONS AND 500 AIRPLANES, AND ADDED:
"THE MOMENT YOU DO THAT YOU ARE GETTING INTO A CIVIL WAR AND IF YOU GET INTO A CIVIL WAR ON THE ISLAND OF FORMOSA YOU'RE IN WORLD WAR III."
FERGUSON AND WHERRY SAID THAT GENERAL DOUGLAS MACARTHUR, SUPREME COMMANDER IN THE FAR EAST, SHOULD BE ASKED BY CONGRESS FOR HIS VIEWS AT ONCE.
MR.TRUMAN DREW SUPPORT FROM SENATOR RUSSELL (D-GA) WHO DECLARED "IF WE GO IN TO SAVE FORMOSA, THEN WE'LL HAVE TO GO ON TO THE CHINA MAINLAND. YOU CAN'T BE PART WAY IN AND PART WAY OUT OF WAR; IT'S ALL OR NOTHING."
CONNALLY ALSO TOLD THE SENATE THAT THE U.S. MAY EVENTUALLY RECOGNIZE THE CHINESE COMMUNIST GOVERNMENT. THIS LONG HAS BEEN ASSUMED IN DIPLOMATIC CIRCLES BUT THE DATE IS BELIEVED TO BE MONTHS, AT LEAST, IN THE FUTURE.
KNOWLAND OPPOSED ANY RECOGNITION, SAYING IT WOULD BE "BETRAYAL OF HUMAN FREEDOM."

KOO-FORMOSA
WASHINGTON, JAN.5-(AP)-CHINESE AMBASSADOR WELLINGTON KOO DECLINED COMMENT TODAY ON PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S "HANDS OFF" POLICY TOWARD FORMOSA.
IN RECENT CONFERENCES WITH STATE DEPARTMENT OFFICIALS, KOO IS UNDERSTOOD TO HAVE BEEN SEEKING A SLICE OF ABOUT $30,000,000 OF THE $75,000,000 THAT CONGRESS VOTED LAST YEAR FOR MILITARY AID IN THE "GENERAL AREA" OF CHINA.
THE NATIONALISTS ALSO HAVE BEEN PRESSING FOR RELEASE OF APPROXIMATELY $100,000,000 IN ECONOMIC AID FUNDS. THESE WERE FROZEN LAST MAY WHEN THE COMMUNI

IMATELY $100,000,000 IN ECONOMIC AID FUNDS. THESE WERE FROZEN LAST MAY WHEN THE COMMUNISTS ADVANCE INTERFERED WITH THE DISTRIBUTION OF AMERICAN AID IN NON-COMMUNIST AREAS.

FIRST LEAD FORMOSA REACTION
WASHINGTON,JAN.5-(AP)-SENATOR VANDENBERG (R-MICH) COMPLAINED TODAY THAT PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S DECISION ON A "HANDS-OFF" POLICY FOR FORMOSA HAD BEEN MADE WITHOUT CONSULTING CONGRESS.
IN A FORMAL STATEMENT, THE GOP FOREIGN POLICY LEADER KEYNOTED A CHORUS OF REPUBLICAN CRITICISM OF THE WHITE HOUSE ANNOUNCEMENT. SENATOR FERGUSON SAID IT MEANT AN END TO THE BI-PARTISAN FOREIGN POLICY.
BUT MOST DEMOCRATS APPLAUDED MR.TRUMAN'S ACTION IN RULING OUT MILITARY INTERVENTION ON THE CHINESE ISLAND WHERE CHIANG KAI SHEK IS MAKING A LAST STAND AGAINST THE COMMUNISTS.
VANDENBERG SAID THE TRUMAN STATEMENT HAD "NOT SETTLED" THE FORMOSA ISSUE ALTHOUGH IT IS "PRESENTLY CLARIFIED."
EVERYTHING PRACTICABLE "SHORT OF "ACTIVE MILITARY PARTICIPATION" SHOULD BE DONE TO HEAD OFF COMMUNIST CONQUEST, VANDENBERG SAID. HE ADDED THAT THE FORMOSA QUESTION SHOULD BE HANDLED IN A JAPANESE PEACE TREATY.
VANDENBERG SAID IT WOULD BE "AT LEAST USEFUL" FOR THE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE, ON WHICH HE IS RANKING REPUBLICAN, TO TALK THE MATTER OVER WITH SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON NEXT WEEK "BECAUSE MANY CRITICAL DECISIONS REMAIN TO BE MADE." BUT, HE ADDED:
"LIKE YALTA AND POTSDAM, AND LIKE MANY OTHER UNHAPPY CHAPTERS IN CHINA POLICY, CONGRESSIONAL ADVICE IS PRECLUDED."

OTTAWA, JAN. 5-(AP)-GROUP CAPT.P.A.GILCHRIST OF THE R.C.A.F. WAS NAMED TODAY AS OVER-ALL AIR COMMANDER OF THE JOINT CANADIAN-AMERICAN WINTER MILITARY MANEUVERS NEXT MONTH IN THE YUKON AND ALASKA.
GILCHRIST, 40, WILL HAVE EIGHT FIGHTER AND TRANSPORT SQUADRONS AND OTHER AIR ELEMENTS UNDER HIS COMMAND FOR AN EXERCISE DESIGNED TO CHECK ABILITY TO MEET AN ENEMY RAID. IT WILL START IN THE WHITEHORSE, YUKON, REGION AND MOVE UP THE ALASKA HIGHWAY INTO ALASKA FOR THE FINAL BLOWS.
KNOWN AS EXERCISE SWEETBRIAR, IT WILL INVOLVE AN ESTIMATED 5,000 MEN, INCLUDING AIRBORNE INFANTRY BATTALIONS FROM BOTH COUNTRIES AND SUPPORTING TROOPS. HUNDREDS OF CANADIAN TROOPS ALREADY HAVE MOVED INTO WAINWRIGHT CAMP, ALTA., FOR WINTER TRAINING BEFORE MOVING FARTHER NORTH.

(320) ATOMIC-BRITISH
WASHINGTON, JAN.5-(AP)-BRITAIN HAS PROPOSED THAT IT BE GIVEN A SUPPLY OF ATOMIC BOMBS TO BE STORED IN THE BRITISH ISLES AS PART OF A NEW AMERICAN-BRITISH-CANADIAN PARTNERSHIP AGREEMENT ON ATOMIC ENERGY.
IT WAS LEARNED TODAY THAT THIS PROPOSAL WAS MADE LAST MONTH AS A BRITISH ADDITION TO OTHER PROVISIONS OF THE PROPOSED AGREEMENT. WHEN IT WAS ADVANCED, REPRESENTATIVES OF THE THREE POWERS HAD REACHED GENERAL UNDERSTANDING ON OTHER PROVISIONS.
IN CONSEQUENCE, IT NOW APPEARS THAT (1) THE BRITISH REQUEST FOR

BOMBS MAY BECOME THE POINT ON WHICH THE WHOLE PARTNERSHIP PROJECT WILL STAND OR FALL AND (2) EFFORTS TO REACH AGREEMENT WILL REQUIRE LONGER THAN PREVIOUSLY ESTIMATED BY AMERICAN AUTHORITIES.

THE THREE-POWER "EXPLORATORY TALKS," WHICH BROKE OFF ABOUT A MONTH AGO, ARE EXPECTED TO BE RESUMED HERE LATER THIS MONTH. IF AND WHEN AN UNDERSTANDING IS WORKED OUT, PRESIDENT TRUMAN, UNDER A PLEDGE MADE LAST SUMMER, WILL CONSULT WITH THE CONGRESSIONAL ATOMIC ENERGY COMMITTEE BEFORE ANY AGREEMENT IS MADE. PRESUMABLY THE BRITISH AND CANADIAN GOVERNMENTS ALSO WILL SEEK FULL PARLIAMENTARY SUPPORT.

MEANWHILE, A PROVISIONAL ARRANGEMENT, UNDER WHICH THE BRITISH AND CANADIANS GET SOME ATOMIC INFORMATION FROM THE UNITED STATES, AND THE UNITED STATES GETS THE LION'S SHARE OF BELGIAN CONGO URANIUM, IS STILL IN FORCE BY COMMON AGREEMENT. OTHERWISE IT WOULD REPORTEDLY HAVE EXPIRED AT THE END OF 1949.

WHETHER ATOMIC BOMBS SHOULD BE TURNED OVER TO THE BRITISH FOR ACTUAL PHYSICAL STORAGE IN THE UNITED KINGDOM APPEARS LIKELY TO BECOME THE FOCAL POINT OF THE AGREEMENT FOR TWO MAIN REASONS.

THE BRITISH REPORTEDLY CONSIDER IT ABOUT THE MINIMUM THEY SHOULD TAKE FOR AGREEING TO MAKE THE UNITED STATES THE CENTER OF THREE-POWER ATOMIC WEAPONS DEVELOPMENT AND MANUFACTURE.

THERE HAS BEEN CONSIDERABLE OPPOSITION, ON THE OTHER HAND, IN CONGRESS AND AMONG MILITARY LEADERS TO ALLOWING ANY OF THE BOMBS TO PASS OUT OF AMERICAN CONTROL. THE OPPOSITION TO THAT IS APPARENTLY STRONGER EVEN THAN THE OPPOSITION AGAINST SHARING SECRET INFORMATION WITH THE BRITISH.

ECA (250)

WASHINGTON,JAN.5-(AP)-WESTERN EUROPEAN COUNTRIES HAVE BEEN WARNED TO EXPECT A 25 PER CENT CUT IN MARSHALL PLAN AID NEXT YEAR.

AND THEY MAY GET EVEN LESS IF THEY DO NOT FOLLOW AMERICAN RECOVERY RECOMMENDATIONS.

RICHARD M.BISSELL, ASSISTANT DEPUTY ADMINISTRATOR OF ECA, SAID YESTERDAY THAT THE 16 NATIONS RECEIVING MARSHALL PLAN AID HAVE BEEN NOTIFIED OF THE IMPENDING CUT.

HE DID NOT SAY HOW MUCH MONEY CONGRESS WILL BE ASKED TO PROVIDE FOR EUROPEAN RECOVERY FOR THE YEAR STARTING JULY 1 BUT HE TOLD REPORTERS "IT WILL BE A BIG REDUCTION" OVER LAST YEAR.

THE APPROPRIATION FOR THE CURRENT YEAR WAS $3,778,000,000. A 25 PER CENT CUT WOULD REDUCE THAT AMOUNT TO $2,800,000,000.

BISSELL SAID ONLY GREECE WOULD BE EXEMPT FROM THE PROPOSED REDUCTION IN U.S. SPENDING. THAT NATION, HE SAID, NEEDS HEAVY GRANTS BECAUSE OF THE DAMAGE TO HER ECONOMY BY CIVIL WAR.

BISSELL ALSO SAID ECA PLANS WHAT HE CALLED A "NEW APPROACH" TO THE QUESTION OF ALLOTING FUNDS. THIS PLAN WOULD PENALIZE COUNTRIES WHICH DO NOT FOLLOW ECA ADVICE FOR RECOVERY, PROBABLY BY REDUCING THE FLOW OF DOLLARS THEY WILL RECEIVE.

THE ECA OFFICIAL SAID THE AGENCY HAS REACHED "NO FINAL DECISION" ON WHETHER TO ASK CONGRESS FOR AN EXTENSION OF THE CHINA AID PROGRAM. THE AGENCY STILL HAS NEARLY $100,000,000 FROM PAST APPROPRIATIONS TO FINANCE CHINESE ASSISTANCE. THIS MUST BE USED BY FEB. 15 UNLESS CONGRESS EXTENDS THE DEADLINE.

BECAUSE OF COMMUNIST CONTROL OF THE CHINESE MAINLAND PRESENT ECA AID IS RESTRICTED TO THE NATIONALIST-HELD ISLAND OF FORMOSA, BISSELL SAID.

MR.TRUMAN TRACED THE TRADITIONAL AMERICAN POLICY TOWARD CHINA FROM THE OPEN DOOR POLICY OF A HALF CENTURY AGO AND DECLARED THAT THE U.S. HAS ALWAYS STOOD FOR GOOD FAITH IN INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS. THE OPEN DOOR POLICY CALLED FOR INTERNATIONAL RESPECT FOR CHINA'S TERRITORIAL INTEGRITY AND MR.TRUMAN NOTED THAT THE PRINCIPAL WAS REAFFIRMED BY A UNITED NATIONS GENERAL ASSEMBLY RESOLUTION OF DECEMBER 8.

APPLYING THIS PRINCIPAL TO THE FORMOSA SITUATION, MR.TRUMAN RECITED THAT THE 1943 CAIRO DECLARATION PROMISED RESTORATION OF FORMOSA TO CHINA. HE NOTED ALSO THAT THIS PLEDGE WAS REAFFIRMED IN THE 1945 DECLARATION AND ITS PROVISIONS ACCEPTED BY THE JAPANESE IN THE WORLD WAR TWO SURRENDER TERMS.

SECRETARY ACHESON SPELLED OUT IN THE ADMINISTRATION'S DECISION IN GREATER DETAIL. A DECLARATION AT THIS TIME WAS CONSIDERED NECESSARY, HE SAID, BECAUSE OF CONFUSION THAT HAD ARISEN AT HOME AND ABROAD OVER THE INTENTIONS OF THIS GOVERNMENT.

ACHESON ACKNOWLEDGED DIFFERENCES WITH SECRETARY OF DEFENSE JOHNSON BUT DECLARED THEY WERE MINOR AND WERE CONFINED TO THE WEIGHT TO BE ATTACHED TO MILITARY AND POLITICAL FACTORS. IT IS QUITE WRONG, HE DECLARED, TO BELIEVE THAT HE AND JOHNSON WERE AT CROSS PURPOSES.

THE SECRETARY SAID THAT SO FAR AS HE KNEW NO RESPONSIBLE GOVERNMENT OFFICIAL OR MILITARY COMMANDER HAS EVER BELIEVED WE SHOULD INVOLVE OUR MILITARY FORCES IN THE DEFENSE OF FORMOSA.

GEN. DOUGLAS MACARTHUR WAS NOT DIRECTLY CONSULTED, ACHESON MADE PLAIN. HE SAID IN RESPONSE TO QUESTION SAYING THAT MILITARY VIEWS WERE EXPRESSED THROUGH THE DEFENSE ESTABLISHMENT AND THAT THE ADVICE OF INDIVIDUAL OFFICERS WAS NEITHER ASKED NOR RECEIVED.

THE PRESIDENT'S STATEMENT ABOUT SEEKING NO BASES "AT THIS TIME" DID NOT WEAKEN THE FUNDAMENTAL POLICY, ACHESON DECLARED. THE PHRASE WAS USED, HE SAID, IN RECOGNITION OF THE FACT THAT IN THE UNLIKELY AND UNHAPPY EVENT THAT OUR FORCES SHOULD EVER BE ATTACKED IN THE FAR EAST THEY MUST BE ABLE TO TAKE WHATEVER ACTION MIGHT BE NECESSARY.

AS FOR PERMITTING THE DISPATCH OF "UNOFFICIAL" ADVISERS TO FORMOSA, THE SECRETARY SAID HE SUPPOSED THERE WAS NO REASON WHY THE NATIONALISTS COULD NOT EMPLOY ANY RESERVE OR RETIRED OFFICER. SUCH A PROPOSAL HAS BEEN ADVANCED SPECULATIVELY BY SOME CHAMPIONS OF CHINA AID. ACHESON ADDED THAT LITTLE THOUGHT HAS BEEN GIVEN TO IT AND THAT PRESUMABLY THE NATIONALISTS WOULD FOLLOW THE DESIRES OF THE U.S. GOVERNMENT.

WASHINGTON,JAN.5-(AP)-SENATOR MYERS (D-PA) PREDICTED TODAY THAT THE SENATE WILL PASS THE HOUSE-APPROVED BILL LIBERALIZING THE RULES FOR LETTING DISPLACED PERSONS INTO THIS COUNTRY.

BUT SENATOR MCCARRAN (D-NEV) SAID IT WON'T HAPPEN IF HE CAN STOP IT.

MCCARRAN'S PREVIOUS SUCCESS IN DOING THAT PROMPTED PRESIDENT TRUMAN TO RENEW HIS APPEAL FOR ACTION ON THE MEASURE IN HIS STATE OF THE UNION MESSAGE YESTERDAY.

THE BILL PASS BY THE HOUSE LAST JUNE WOULD ELIMINATE THE SO-CALLED "DISCRIMINATORY" FEATURES OF THE PRESENT LAW AND INCREASE THE NUMBER OF DP'S ELIGIBLE TO ENTER THIS COUNTRY FROM 205,000 IN TWO YEARS TO 339,000 IN THREE YEARS.

THE SAME BILL IS PENDING IN THE SENATE, BUT FOR MONTHS IT REMAINED BOTTLED UP IN THE SENATE JUDICIARY COMMITTEE, WHICH MCCARRAN HEADS.

SENATOR FERGUSON (R-MICH) SUCCEEDED IN GETTING THE MEASURE OUT OF THE COMMITTEE LAST FALL WHILE MCCARRAN WAS IN EUROPE, BUT THE SENATE LATER SENT IT BACK WITH INSTRUCTIONS THAT THE COMMITTEE REPORT OUT A BILL BY JANUARY 25.

MYERS, THE ASSISTANT DEMOCRATIC FLOOR LEADER, SAID HE IS "QUITE CONFIDENT THAT WE WILL REMOVE THE DISCRIMINATORY PROVISIONS FROM THE PRESENT LAW AND EXPAND THE NUMBER OF PERSONS ELIGIBLE FOR ADMISSION."

HE TOLD A REPORTER IT WILL BE UP TO THE SENATE LEADERSHIP TO DECIDE WHEN TO DEBATE THE BILL AFTER IT REACHES THE CALENDAR.

BUT MCCARRAN MADE IT CLEAR THAT THERE WILL BE NO SUCH ACTION IF HE CAN PREVENT IT.

"THE BILL NOW PROPOSED DOES NOT SAFEGUARD OUR INTERESTS EITHER FROM THE STANDPOINT OF ECONOMY OR NATIONAL SECURITY," HE ASSERTED.

HE REPEATED EARLIER CHARGES THAT THE UNITED STATES ALREADY HAS "ADMITTED UNDESIRABLE INDIVIDUALS AND GROUPS THAT ADMITTEDLY THREATEN THE SECURITY OF OUR INSTITUTIONS," AND ADDED:

"FOR MY PART THE SECURITY OF MY COUNTRY IS EVER UPPERMOST IN MY MIND AND I DON'T PROPOSE TO SUPPORT ANY LAW THAT WILL TEND TO TEAR DOWN OUR DEMOCRATIC INSTITUTIONS."

IN ADDITION TO INCREASING THE NUMBER OF PERSONS ELIGIBLE TO ENTER THIS COUNTRY, THE HOUSE BILL WOULD CHANGE THE SO-CALLED "CUT-OFF" DATE FROM DECEMBER 22, 1945 TO JANUARY 1, 1949.

THE EFFECT OF THIS WOULD BE TO MAKE DP'S WHO ENTERED GERMANY, AUSTRIA AND ITALY IN THE LAST THREE YEARS ELIGIBLE TO ENTER THIS COUNTRY IF THEY MEET OTHER REQUIREMENTS.

THEY BILL ALSO WOULD ELIMINATE THE PRESENT REQUIREMENT THAT 30 PER CENT OF THE DP'S MUST BE FARMERS AND 40 PER CENT MUST BE NATIVES OF THE FORMER BALTIC STATES OF LATVIA, ESTONIA AND LITHUANIA.

WASHINGTON,JAN.5-(AP)-AMERICANS WHO VOTED IN ITALIAN POST-WAR ELECTIONS WOULD BE ABLE TO REGAIN THEIR U.S.CITIZENSHIP UNDER A BILL TO BE INTRODUCED IN THE HOUSE TOMORROW.

REP.WALTER (D-PA), WHO WILL SPONSOR THE LEGISLATION, TOLD REPORTERS TODAY THAT 3,000 TO 5,000 NATURAL-BORN OR NATURALIZED AMERICANS LOST THEIR CITIZENSHIP BY VOTING IN THE 1946 OR 1948 ITALIAN ELECTIONS.

WALTER SAID MOST OF THEM ARE ANXIOUS TO RETURN TO THIS COUNTRY. UNDER THE PRESENT LAW, HOWEVER, THEY CAN COME BACK ONLY UNDER IMMIGRATION QUOTAS, AND THEY THEN MUST GO THROUGH THE FORMALITIES OF ACQUIRING AMERICAN CITIZENSHIP.

WALTER'S BILL PROPOSES THAT THESE PERSONS BE ALLOWED THREE YEARS IN WHICH TO APPLY TO AMERICAN CONSULAR OFFICIALS IN ITALY FOR AMERICAN CITIZENSHIP. EACH APPLICATION THEN WOULD BE INVESTIGATED, BUT IF THERE WERE NO VIOLATION OF THE NATIONALITY ACT OF 1940 OTHER THAN VOTING IN AN ITALIAN ELECTION CITIZENSHIP WOULD BE RESTORED.

WALTER SAID THE AMERICANS WHO VOTED IN THE ITALIAN ELECTIONS (1) GOT CAUGHT IN ITALY BY THE WAR OR (2) WENT TO ITALY TO VISIT RELATIVES AFTER THE WAR. HE SAID THEY WERE UNDER TREMENDOUS PRESSURE TO VOTE ANTI-COMMUNIST IN THE ITALIAN ELECTIONS AND THAT MANY OF THEM DID NOT KNOW THEY WOULD LOSE THEIR CITIZENSHIP BY VOTING.

"LIKE YALTA AND POTSDAM, AND LIKE MANY OTHER UNHAPPY CHAPTERS IN CHINA POLICY, CONGRESSIONAL ADVICE IS PRECLUDED. I REGRET THAT THESE CONCLUSIONS ALSO PRECEDE THE FACTUAL REPORTS WHICH HAVE BEEN ANTICIPATED FROM THE JESSUP MISSION AND PARTICULARLY FROM THE FAR EAST CONFERENCE BETWEEN OUR CHIEFS OF STAFF AND GEN.MACARTHUR.

"IT IS AT LEAST USEFUL THAT THE SENATE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE WILL EXPLORE THE SUBJECT WITH SECRETARY ACHESON NEXT WEEK BECAUSE MANY CRITICAL DECISIONS REMAIN TO BE MADE.

"EVERY PRACTICAL DISCOURAGEMENT TO COMMUNIST CONQUEST, SHORT OF ACTIVE AMERICAN MILITARY PARTICIPATION, SHOULD BE PURSUED IN CHINA AND THROUGHOUT THE FAR EAST WHICH MUST BE TOTALLY ENCOMPASSED IN OUR COMPREHENSIVE VIEWS. THE RIGHTS OF FORMOSANS THEMSELVES MUST BE CONSULTED. THE PERMANENT STATUS OF FORMOSA MUST BE RECOGNIZED AS DEPENDENT ON THE ULTIMATE JAPANESE PEACE TREATY. THE VITAL INTEREST OF THE UNITED NATIONS MUST BE RECOGNIZED.

JAN 7 - 1950 (S)

HAL COOPER

London, Jan. 6 (AP)—Britan recognized Communist China today, breaking relations with her wartime partner, Chiang Kai-shek.

The move was an effort to safeguard heavy British investments in China and to protect the British colony of Hong Kong.

It was a major split with the foreign policy of the United States and France, which are going to take their time about recognizing Mao Tze-tung. Secretary of State Acheson said yesterday that the United States considers such recognition premature.

Changes Security Council Lineup

The action ranged Britain with Soviet Russia against continution of Chiang's Nationalist regime as the representative of China in the United Nations Security Council. There the Big Five—the United States, Britain, France, Soviet Russia and China—have the right of veto.

The Under Secretary of Foreign Affairs, Christopher P. Mayhew, said recognuition ot Red China was "an acknowledgment of fact, and not a mark of approbation." The official note of recognition said Britain has observed that the Mao regime "is now in effective control of by far the greater part of the territory of China."

Britain was the first major Western power to recognize Mao.

Nationalists Break With Britain

The Nationalists promptly replied from Chiang's Formosa headquarters with a note, breaking off diplomatic relations with Britain.

Other western European powers were expected to follow Britain's lead quickly. Authoritative Danish sources said Norway, Sweden and Denmark probably would announce joint action soon, simultaneously in the three Scandinavian capitals.

Authoritative sources here said the British dominion of Ceylon was joining Britain, India and Pakistan in recognizing Communist China. A Ceylon note was to be delivered to the Chinese Communists today at Peiping, the informants said.

Knockout Blow, Says Cheng

The Chinese Nationalist Ambassador in London, Dr. Cheng Tien-hsi, today termed the British action "equivalent to burying us whilst we are still very much alive." History, he said, "will say that China has received a knockout blow, not from her foes, but from her friends and former allies."

Britain was the fourth non-Communist nation to recognize the Peiping Government, the others being India and Pakistan, both members of the British commonwealth, and Burma.

Yugoslavia, Soviet Russia and the Soviet satellites previously had taken the recognition action.

The announcement by the Foreign Office said British recognition is on a de jure basis, that is, Britain accepts the Peiping "People's Republic" as the government of China in law, as well as in fact.

Notified In Advance

The Nationalist Ambassador to London was notified in advance last night that, as a result of the British action, he and other diplomatic representatives of Chiang Kai-shek are no longer recognized in London.

The British Foreign Office said it had formally advised Communist China's Minister of Foreign Affairs, Chou En-lai, of its desire to establish diplomatic relations.

The Foreign Office announcement said a note handed Chou by the British consul general in Peiping offered to exchange diplomatic representatives with the Peiping Government.

Formosa Discussed

A reporter asked a British Foreign Office spokesman whether recognition of the Communists concedes them sovereignity over Formosa, Japanese-held through the war and earmarked as Chinese territory by Britain, the United States and China at Cairo in 1943.

The spokesman declined to give a direct answer.

"The handing over of Formosa from Japan to China," he said, "was undertaken by his Majesty's Government in common with other governments at the time of the Japanese surrender. Final legalization of that process will take place at the Japanese peace conference."

Truman's Policy Is Hands Off

President Truman has committed the United States to a "hands-off" policy regarding Formosa, where Chinese Nationalists are braced for a last stand against a possible Communist assault from the mainland. The big island off the East China coast is an important link in the so-called defense arc ranging from Japan to the Philippines.

President Truman referred to Formosa as Chinese territory and said military intervention there might involve the United States in the Chinese civil war.

Another questioner asked the British Foreign Office spokesman whether British diplomatic representatives in Formosa will deal with Nationalist authorities there.

No "Implied" Recognition

"Our consul there will continue to protect interests with the local authorities," the spokesman said. "That does not imply any form of recognition of the Nationalists. For the present, the authority of the Peiping (Communist) Government does not extend to Formosa."

In Ottawa, it was learned that Canada's decision to withhold action on Chinese Communist recognition, at least until after the British Commonwealth Conference in Ceylon, would not be affected by the British move.

Text Of Note

The Foreign Office said this was the text of the note handed the Communist Foreign Minister:

"Sir, I have the honor to inform your Excellency that his Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, having completed their study of the situation resulting from the formation of the Central People's Government of China and observing that it is now in effective control of by far the greater part of the territory of China, have this day recognized that Government as the de jure government of China.

Ready For Recognition

"In these circumstances his Majesty's Government, in response to Chairman Mao Tze-tung's proclamation of October 1, 1949, are ready to establish diplomatic relations on a basis of equality, mutual benefit and mutual respect for territory and sovereignty and are prepared to exchange diplomatic representatives with the Central People's Government.

"Pending the appointment of an ambassador, Mr. J. C. Hutchison (present chargé d'affaires in Nanking) has been nominated as his Majesty's chargé d'affaires ad interim.

"Accordingly, I have the honor to request that you will receive him and transact official business with him in that capacity, and further that he may be granted all necessary facilities for the transfer of himself, his staff and the archives of his Majesty's Embassy from Nanking to Peiping.

"(Signed) ERNEST BEVIN, his Britannic Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs."

Peiping Instructed

The Foreign Office announcement said the consul general at Peiping had been instructed to inform Chou En-lai that the British Government has withdrawn its recognition from the Nationalist Government and that Minister of State Hector McNeil had informed the Nationalist Ambassador in London of that action last night.

British Foreign Under Secretary Christopher P. Mayhew last night reiterated the often-expressed British view that recognition of Communist China would not mean approval of the regime.

London's Action Is Effort to Safeguard Investments in Country

H. MYERS

LONDON, Jan. 6—(AP) Britain recognized the communist conquest of China in a diplomatic move today that split the Asiatic front of the west's Big Three. Protection of trade interests was one major aim. Safeguarding of the British colony of Hong Kong was another.

The British labor government accepted Mao Tze-tung's Peiping regime as the government, in law as well as in fact, of the world's most populous country, a nation of 460,000,000. It agreed to the establishment of diplomatic relations.

3 Nations Follow Lead

Three smaller nations—Denmark, Norway and Ceylon—immediately followed Britain's lead.

The United States and France held back. They are going to take their time about recognizing Mao. Secretary of State Acheson said yesterday the United States considers such recognition premature.

The British move was generally denounced in Congress. Rep. Cannon (D-Mo), chairman of the powerful House Appropriations committee, said "it is stirring up trouble for the future." The White Ho was silent.

Parisian diplomats said France will not recognize Mao "in the near future." She will delay action at least until Britain accepts officially the French-sponsored Bao Dai government of Viet Nam, Indo-Chinese neighbor of China, these informants said.

Dr. Cheng Tien-hsi, Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek's nationalist ambassador to London, termed the British action a knockout blow to nationalist China, "not from her foes but from her friends and former allies." He said it was "direct intervention in the Chinese civil war on the side of the communists." Britain severed her relations with the nationalists last night.

Formosa Plunged Into Gloom

Taipei, the capital of Chiang's Formosa redoubt, was plunged into gloom by the combination of these developments and President Truman's decision yesterday to keep American hands off the island. The nationalist foreign minister, George Yeh, said the British step compromised "every traditional idea of freedom held dear by the British people."

The nationalists replied to the British with an order to Cheng to break diplomatic relations with Britain. This was a gesture of defiance, but only a gesture.

Soon after Britain's note of recognition was delivered to Chou Enlai, the black-haired, sharp-whitted foreign minister of the Chinese People's Republic in Peiping, Norway, Denmark and Ceylon took similar action.

Other members of the British commonwealth and some Western European nations are expected to follow suit. Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg — partners with Britain and France in the Brussels Defense Union — may coordinate their acceptance of Mao.

Foreign Undersecretary Christopher Mayhew said Britain accepted the communist regime in China "because it has become the effective government there and not because we like its policies and practices." The switch in fact had the support of all British political parties.

It also had been urged by many British commercial interests, whose $1,000,000,000 investment in China were at stake. British capital owns two major shipping firms there, coal mines in north China, banks, import-export firms, egg-packing plants, telephone systems and insurance companies. Economists say no other foreign nation has such an outlay in China.

Dublin Deplores Red Recognition

Dublin, Ireland, Jan. 6 (AP)—The central branch of Ireland's governing political party, the Fine Gael (United Ireland), tonight deplored British recognition of Communist China.

The Fine Gael said the step was a continuance of Britain's policy of sacrificing honor for materialistic gains. A copy of the party's resolution is to be handed to Britains' representative in Dublin.

Danes Slate Recognition

Copenhagen, Jan. 6 (AP)—Denmark has decided to recognize Communist China, an official spokesman announced today.

An announcement of recognition will be made soon, the spokesman said.

Norway, too, has decided to give full recognition to the Communist Chinese regime, a Norwegian official reported in Oslo. He said the Norwegian consul general in Shanghai has been instructed to inform the Chinese Communist foreign minister Norway is ready to send a charge d'affaires to Peiping.

Hong Kong Expects Big Red China Trade

By the Associated Press.

HONG KONG, Jan. 6.—Visions of booming trade with Communist China greeted British recognition of Red China in this crown colony tonight. S. TOPPING

Traders predicted many bars to Chinese trade will be removed at once by the diplomatic move. Warehouses in Hong Kong are bulging with goods the Chinese Communists need.

The main points of entry into Red China at present are Tientsin in North China and over the Canton-Kowloon Railroad that links Hong Kong with China's biggest southern city.

Shipping circles are already speculating that British warships may be used to escort vessels through the Nationalist blockade of such ports as Shanghai.

In the case of Shanghai much will depend upon whether the Chinese Communists will reopen the Yangtze River to British warships on escort duty for Shanghai-bound shipping.

Some disposition will have to be made of Nationalist government holdings in the colony. Some Chinese Nationalists fear this property will be frozen before it is turned over to the Communist government.

Major assets of the Nationalists here already have been seized for the Communists by pro-Red employees. These include some $2,000,000 in Chinese National Resources Commission property and property of two Chinese airlines valued at between $20,000,000 and $30,000,000.

Most liquid assets of the Nationalist government banks and companies already have been moved from Hong Kong. Still involved, however, are immovable properties owned here by five Nationalist government banks and several government commercial enterprises.

Chinese officials believe the Nationalist government will continue to operate some kind of office here to handle consular matters refering to trade and travel to Formosa, the Nationalist stronghold off the China coast.

Vatican Recognizes U.S.I.

Jakarta, Java, Jan. 6 (AP)—The Vatican today extended its recognition to the ten-day-old government of the United States of Indonesia. Msgr. de Jonghe D. Ardoye, who has been appointed papal chargé d'affaires, visited Premier Mohamed Hatta and tendered his credentials to the U.S.I. foreign office.

Jessup Insists China Isn't Being Abandoned

JAN 7 - 1950

Tokyo, Jan. 6 (AP)—Ambassador at Large Philip Jessup today stuck by his statement the United States has not abandoned and will not abandon China. T. LAMBERT

Dr. Jessup was asked if he still stood by that statement in view of President Truman's announcement the United States will refuse to intervene to save Formosa—last stronghold of the tottering Chinese Nationalist Government.

"Not Viewed As Lost"

Through a spokesman, Dr. Jessup said he had "no reason to make any change" in his statement.

The Ambassador said yesterday the United States has not "written off" China. The United States does not consider that country "lost," he added, even though the Chinese Communists control most of it.

He said the United States intends to continue its traditional policy of friendship and support for the Chinese people.

Dr. Jessup declined to comment when asked if the Chinese Communists, recognized today by Great Britain, represented the Chinese people.

Hits Red Theory, Practice

Earlier, however, he said in a restatement of United States Far Eastern policy that America "is opposed to the Communist theory and practice of attempting to overthrow established governments by force."

General MacArthur's headquarters today outlined to Dr. Jessup its views upon Nippon, Japan's performance, problems and possibilities.

Dr. Jessup said he will discuss a Japanese peace treaty with General MacArthur. An aide said Dr Jessup will consult again tomorrow with headquarters officials.

General Concern Rises

President Truman's "hands-off-Formosa" policy brought general concern here during the day. GA

State Dept. Minimizes Effect of the Split

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6 — (AP) Britain's recognition of communist China today broke the western powers' solid front in the Far East. But the State Department hastened to minimize the effect of the split.

In a statement, the department stressed that recognition does not mean that Britain approves the red regime. Moreover, the department said, Washington and London as well as other western capitals still agree on the ultimate objective—a stable, independent China free of foreign domination.

The British move, while anticipated, stirred a storm of protest on Capitol Hill, with Republican lawmakers firing new blasts at this country's China policy as well. Congressional reaction pointed up the possibility of a retaliatory move to cut down — or maybe eliminate — British allotments in the European recovery program.

But Chairman Connally (D-Tex) of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee staunchly defended Britain's right to recognize the Chinese red government. However, he said in a statement that he is opposed to similar action by the United States at this time.

Only yesterday Connally predicted that this country eventually will establish diplomatic and trade relations with the communist regime.

Rep. Kee (D-WVa), chairman of the House Foreign Affairs Committee also came to the support of the British, saying "we just can't rise up and condemn her completely for this."

But Rep. Eaton (R-NJ), ranking GOP member on this committee observed that U.S. policy in the Orient has collapsed. He termed it "one of the supreme failures and tragedies in our history."

Chairman Cannon (D-Mo) of the House Appropriations Committee through which Marshall Plan funds must pass, said he was disappointed by the British step. "You can't compromise with evil," he said, but declined to discuss what effect the British move will have on the European recovery appropriation for the coming year.

However, another Democrat, Rep. Richards of South Carolina, asserted that it will take a lot of persuasion "to convince congress that there should be further economic aid to Britain." aad

Americans Give 795,000 Parcels To Germany

Frankfurt, Germany, Jan. 6 (AP)—Residents of Germany's four occupation zones received 795,000 privately donated gift parcels from the United States during December.

Announcing this today, the United States high commission said the packages cost the American donors more than $7,000,000. Soviet zone Germans received 168,000 packages.

New Greek Cabinet Formed

Athens, Jan. 6 (AP)—A new Greek Cabinet, empowered to dissolve Parliament and call a general election, was sworn in today. It took office 24 hours after the fall of Premier Alexander Diomedes's coalition Government in a dispute over the timing of the election.

King Paul I named as the new Premier John Theotokis, 69, a Populist (Royalist) turned independent, who has been the speaker of Parliament. Theotokis chose technicians for most of the ministries. DIMITRI TRAVLOS

An exception is Stephen Stephanopoulos, Populist Minister of Economic Co-ordination in the former Cabinet, who is now representing Greece at a Marshall-plan conference in Paris. He was assigned to remain in that post.

General Election In 45 Days

Theotokis announced, too, that Field Marshal Alexander Papagos is remaining as commander in chief of Greece's armed forces by request of the King. Papagos, 67-year-old hero of the Grammos campaign that routed the Communist rebels last summer, submitted his resignation yesterday after Deputy Premier Constantin Tsaldaris, the Populist party's leader, criticized him in a political speech. The field marshal has been silent on public speculation that he will run for Parliament.

The Greeks had been scheduled, by a decision of major party leaders last month, to vote for a new Parliament April 9 or 16. The King's decision to authorize a dissolution of the current Parliament indicates the election will be held several weeks sooner.

The constitution provides a general election must be called within 45 days of the issuance of such a dissolution decree.

New Cabinet Assembles

The new Cabinet met tonight. After the session Theotokis said that if dissolution is decreed, the decree "will be issued before Monday next, when the House reassembles." This would make the election date fall during the latter part of February.

Liberal ministers sparked demands that the voting be held earlier than April. Yesterday they walked out of Diomedes's Cabinet, forcing him to hand the Cabinet's resignation to King Paul.

Theotokis flew to Athens from Corfu in response to a summons from the King. He accepted his commission at the palace.

A former Populist leader, Theotokis quit that party last November 16 and became an independent deputy after a disagreement with Tsaldaris over party policies. Theotokis has been a public figure in Greece since 1914, when he was named court chamberlain to King Constantine. He served as Minister of Agriculture in 1932-33. He was placed in detention for four years by the Metaxas regime, which objected to his liberal tendencies. Friends call him "Count."

Other Members Of Cabinet

In addition to the premiership, Theotokis will serve as Minister of War, Navy and Air.

Other members of the new Cabinet are:

Foreign Affairs—Panayotis Pipinellis.

Justice—Elias Papaeliou.

Interior—Nicolaos Lianos.

Public Security—George Bouropoulos.

Education—George Conomis.

Economic Co-ordination — Stephan Stephanopoulos.

Finance—George Mantzavinos.

National Economy and Supply—John Papakyriacopoulos.

Public Works and Transport—Stylianos Stylianides.

Agriculture—John Mavromatis.

Hygiene and Public Welfare—Basil Voilas.

Merchant Marine — Panayotis Kamilos.

Labor—Demetrius Zeppos.

4 Senior Western Newsmen Expelled By Czechoslovakia

Prague, Czechoslovakia, Jan. 6 (AP) — Communist Czechoslovakia expelled the four senior Western news correspondents today, reducing Western press representation in this country to four men.

Those expelled are Richard Kasischke, Associated Press chief of bureau, and Rob Roy Buckingham, senior United Press correspondent, both Americans; Miss Amber Bousoulou, correspondent of the French Press Agency, and Eric Bourne of Great Britain's Kemsley newspapers.

The charges against these four were that they presented an "unobjective" picture of Czechoslovakia to the Western World, that they failed to report all sides fairly, and that they had "connections" with Czechs who are deemed reactionary by the Communist Government.

Western Press Attacked

The AP and UP men challenged Bedrich Runge, deputy chief of the Foreign Ministry press department, to back up his accusations by producing specific examples. He declined to do so.

Kasischke and Nate Polowetzky, who now will assume charge of the AP's Prague bureau, also asked the Czech officials to say whether the official Soviet news agency, Tass, would have its representation here halved. The officials replied they did not know.

30.24- 8051

The four reporters—the ones selected for expulsion were those who had been here the longest—followed the Czechoslovak story while the Government placed new restrictions on the Catholic Church, purged officialdom and the Communist party, and started drives to stamp out the middle class and to collectivize agriculture.

In recent weeks there has been a crescendo of attack in Czechoslovakia, by high officials and others, against the Western press.

Ten Ousted In Six Months

This is not the first time Communist Czechoslovakia has expelled Western newspaper men, but it is the first time a group was expelled at once.

The expulsion brought to ten the number of reporters ousted under pressure in the last six months. The others included Godfrey Lias, of the London Times; Harold Melan, of the United Press; a Frenchman, a Swiss and two Australians who worked for American and British newspapers.

The four correspondents were told today the Government has decided to limit foreign agencies in Prague to one foreign correspondent each. The four who will remain here will represent the AP, the UP, Reuter and the French Press Agency.

A Foreign Ministry spokesman told the AF and UP men they could nominate replacements for the ousted men if they wished. The correspondents asked for written assurance such nominees would be accepted. The response to this was: "We don't do such things."

The Associated Press bureau here not only transmits news of this country, but also relays much of the news that reaches the outside world from Bulgaria, Romania and Hungary, countries in the Soviet sphere dominated by the Communists.

Specific Reasons Sought

The four correspondents were called individually to either the Interior Ministry or the Foreign Ministry and told of their disaccreditation. Kasischke and Buckingham both were told by the Foreign Ministry press department their reaccreditation for 1950 would not go through. Each asked ten days' respite in which to wind up affairs here. Miss Bousouglou and Bourne received police orders from the Interior Ministry to leave here within three days. They, too, asked extensions.

Kasischke and Polowetzky had gone together to Runge's office to seek reaccreditation. Told that only Polowetzky's application was accepted, they asked why.

"Kasischke is persona non grata (an unwelcome person)," Runge replied.

The two men pressed for more specific reasons. Turning to Kasischke, Runge said:

"We feel that you have not been entirely fair and objective. We feel that you, like other Western newspaper men, have been looking only for sensations."

Kasischke replied:

"Runge, you sit here all day, clipping Prague reports out of English-language papers. Surely you might try to produce just one to back up what you say."

Runge responded: "We are not in a position to do so at the present time."

A Similar Challenge

Kasischke offered to transmit to all AP newspapers and radio stations any criticism the Czech Government might want to make based on specific examples to support Runge's charges. The offer was not accepted.

When Buckingham and Jack Higgins, who now will be in charge of the UP office here, called on Runge, they challenged him in a similar way. Runge replied:

"Oh, we have lots of clippings to show that you (Buckingham) angle stories to put the Czechoslovak Government in a bad light, but we haven't time to produce them."

Runge told the A.P. men:

"We want to get a press which gives neutral and fair reports."

The A.P. men promptly offered to take him to their office and show him how both sides are reported. Runge refused this, too.

Mr. Kasischke, 37, has been in The Associated Press foreign service since 1943. He was a correspondent in Britain and Germany before coming to Prague last June 15. A native of St. Joseph, Mich., he worked on Michigan newspapers and in the Detroit bureau of The Associated Press before coming to Europe.

Nate Polowetzky, 28, and a native of Harrison, N. J., who came here Sept. 1 from London, will now assume charge of The Associated Press Prague Bureau.

Mr. Buckingham, 29, a native of Concordia, Kan., once worked on the Dodge City, Kan., Globe. John Higgins, who arrived in Prague Sept. 1, will be in charge of The United Press office.

Mr. Bourne, 41, a British subject, has been a Kemsley correspondent here, off and on, for nearly two years. Miss Bousouglou, 26, a Greek national, has lived in Czechoslovakia twelve years and has been a correspondent for eighteen months.

Gaston Fournier, who has been in Prague for about eighteen months, remains here for the French Press Agency. Reuters is represented by Sidney Brookes, also here about eighteen months, but he is leaving soon and is to be replaced by another correspondent.

The reports of these correspondents up to now have gone out of Prague uncensored, and, in the case of the agencies, over leased wires that also bring world news into Czechoslovakia.

2 Malay Youths To Hang For Stewart Murder

Singapore, Jan. 6 (AP)—A district court here today sentenced two young Malays to be hanged for the murder last December 3 of Duncan Stewart, governor of the rich British colony of Sarawak.

The youths, Rosli Bin Dobie, 18, and Moshidi Bin Sedik, were members of a band agitating for cancellation of the 1946 cession of Sarawak to Britain. They sought return of the Brooks family of white Rajahs who ruled the North Borneo colony for a century.

Witnesses said the pair attacked Stewart as he arrived at Sibu, an inland Sarawak town.

Knife Used In Attack

They testified that Rosli drove a five-inch knife into Stewart's abdomen. He died in Singapore a week later.

Both youths offered to plead guilty but Judge D. Lascelles insisted on hearing evidence.

Fourteen other members of the anti-cession band to which the youths belonged are being held on murder-conspiracy charges.

Both Rosli and Moshidi are expected to appeal.

U.S. SHIP SAILS FOR SHANGHAI

Freighter Carrying Cargo And Twelve Passengers

WAYNE RICHARDSON

Aboard American Freighter Flying Arrow, Saturday, Jan. 7 (AP)—This 14,000-ton cargo ship sailed shortly after midnight this morning for Communist Shanghai, whose waters the Chinese Nationalists claim to have mined.

Capt. David Jones, of Chicago, the 31-year-old skipper, said he expected to reach the mouth of the Yangtze some time Monday morning.

While he did not appear perturbed at the sort of reception which may be expected from the blockading Nationalists, there were signs of precautions.

Various sections of the midship house were barricaded with 250 bales of cotton. Officers said the bales could stop 3-inch shells.

Two Ships Fired On

[Two Isbrandtsen ships have been fired upon and hit by blockading Nationalist warships off Shanghai.]

The skipper said he would receive instructions en route from the owners regarding entry into the Yangtze and the dash upstream for Shanghai.

Jones also said that among those who left the ship at Hong Kong before sailing was Michael J. Cannuli, purser, of Reading, Pa.

On board were an American couple whose names were withheld and ten other foreigners who formerly lived in Shanghai and now are returning.

Red Invasion Beaten Off At Hainan, Reports Say

STOPPING

By The Associated Press.

HONG KONG, Saturday, Jan. 7—Nationalist reports today said Chinese Nationalist warplanes sank about 500 sailing junks and smashed a new Communist effort to land on Hainan Island, off the South China coats.

The reports said that the rest of the fleet, reportedly totaling about 1,000 junks, fled.

[Both sides in China's civil war, the Associated Press remarked, frequently exaggerate accounts of damage and casualties.]

The accounts said the invasion fleet was first sighted off the west coast of Luichow Peninsula, which juts to within ten miles of Hainan.

Other Nationalist warplanes were said to have wrought heavy damage at the port of Pakhoi, assembly point for invasion craft about 100 air miles north of Hainan.

Formosa Paper Leak Probed By M'Arthur

Tokyo, Jan. 6 (AP)—General MacArthur's headquarters today began probing a leak in Tokyo that resulted in publication of a classified State Department document advising that the fall of Formosa was anticipated.

[The dispatch was distributed by United Press under a Tokyo dateline. It carried the byline of Earnest Hoberecht.]

Questioned today by MacArthur's intelligence officers were Tom Lambert, of the Tokyo Associated Press staff, and Howard Handelman, of International News.

Asked Not To Use It

Lambert was asked if he had seen the document, who had showed it to him, when he had seen it, who else was present when it was shown. He was invited to make a statement.

Lambert said he had seen the document but declined to say who had shown it to him. He made no statement other than that he had seen the document but had been asked not to use the material. He said the Associated Press had refrained from using the material until the United Press dispatch appeared.

The document is a guidance sheet put out confidentially to State Department personnel. In it spokesmen were advised to minimize the strategic importance of Formosa to United States defenses.

Penalty Planned

MacArthur's headquarters said "disciplinary action will be taken if responsibility" for its divulgence can be determined.

Strict regulations exist against the release of such documents. Correspondents have been told if they use such material they are subject to jail terms.

Hoberecht declined to give a statement. He apparently was not called in by probers.

Occupation headquarters said neither General MacArthur nor the State Department representatives here knew anything about the document unfil it was published.

Selective Service Law Continuance Opposed

Washington, Jan. 6 (AP)—Representative Short (R., Mo.) said today he is opposed "at this time" to continuing the selective service law.

"Let it expire June 30 under the law," he said. "If we need it, it can be slapped back on quickly."

Short is top Republican member of the House Armed Services Committee.

He said he did not see why an "inactive" service should be kept alive at a cost of $16,000,000 a year.

"We haven't used selective service for about a year and Defense Secretary Johnson is reducing forces instead of building them up," he added.

Defense Plan Is Approved By Atlantic Pact Members

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6—(AP) The 12 North Atlantic Pact governments gave quick and final approval today to their defense plan for warding off a possible Russian attack on Western Europe.

The move cleared the way for President Truman to make available the full $1,000,000,000 Congress appropriated last summer to rearm this country's allies.

Congress specified that $900,000,000 of this was to be frozen until the Atlantic Pact governments satisfied President Truman they have "integrated" their defenses.

Plan Is Approved

Top diplomats of the member nations adopted the detailed blueprint at a meeting of the North Atlantic Council in the State Department.

With Secretary of State Acheson presiding, they gave official sanction to the strategic plan drawn up in Paris last Dec. 1 by their military leaders.

Government officials said the plan, the result of six months of intensive discussion, was approved unanimously and without argument at today's meeting. The session lasted only 40 minutes.

Details of the plan were not made public. In announcing approval of the document the State Department said that it provides for "the integrated defense of the North Atlantic area."

It added:

"These recommendations embody the principles of self-help and mutual aid and will provide the basis for the common defense of the parties."

Reported Strategy

Informed officials reported that broadly speaking the western defense strategy is as follows:

If Russia should attack, the brunt of the defense burden in the initial stages of the war would fall on the French army, the largest among the western allies on the European continent.

American and British occupation troops now on duty in Western Germany along with Dutch and Belgian forces would also be fitted into the common western army.

Britain and the United States would be jointly responsible for air support and with keeping the sea approaches to the continent clear of enemy craft.

American arms and military equipment are expected to begin moving to eight of the Western European governments around Feb. 1. France is to get the biggest share of these supplies but officials will keep the quantity secret.

The first shipments, however, must await signature by the eight governments of agreements with the United States which spell out the terms of American military help.

All these countries except Britain are reported about ready to sign. Britain has balked at the original conditions and has upset the previous timetable which called for arms to begin moving in December.

Government officials, however, said they are confident now that Britain's fears have been dispelled. For one thing Britain feared that terms of the agreement might prevent it from dispatching arms manufactured in Britain to non-European areas. The U. S. has given assurance that this was not the intent of the agreement.

The State Department announced later that three top military aid experts would fly to London January 11 to complete arrangements for American arms shipments.

Maj. Gen. L. L. Lemnitzer, will represent the Defense Department at these talks. John H. Ohly, deputy military aid administrator, and Assistant Director John O. Bell will represent the State Department.

TRUMAN D.P. BILL FOUGHT BY MCCARRAN

'Patriotic Groups' Asked To Oppose Move For Broader Law

Washington, Jan. 6 (AP)—Senator McCarran (D., Nev.) today appealed to "patriotic American groups" for help in defeating the Administration's program for admitting more displaced persons.

His position was in direct opposition to that of President Truman, who called in his State-of-the-Union message for broadening the D.P. law and removing what he called "discriminatory features."

McCarran, chairman of the Senate Judiciary Committee, filed a sharply worded report on his recent one-man investigation in Europe of the D.P. situation.

In this report, he contended there had been a "complete breakdown" in the administration of the present law, which authorizes the admission of 205,000 D.P.'s to the United States in two years ending next June. He complained that prospective immigrants had resorted to "wholesale fraud" and misrepresentation, and that the screening of applicants had been inadequate.

Attacks "Pressure Groups"

McCarran also charged that "pressure groups" with vast lobbying funds were trying to force Senate passage of a bill, already approved by the House, to revise the existing D.P. law. He said their purpose was to destroy existing immigration barriers and open this nation's gates to "millions of aliens from the turbulent populations of the entire world."

Once again, McCarran denied that the existing law or recent immigration programs discriminated against Jews or Catholics. McCarran, a Catholic, estimated that of "hundreds of thousands of displaced persons" admitted during the war years by this country "approximately four fifths were of the Jewish faith."

Thus far, McCarran has been able to block Senate passage of the House-approved bill. It would increase the number of D.P.s to be admitted from 205,000 in two years to 339,000 in three years, and ease the conditions for admission to this country.

But Majority Leader Lucas (D., Ill.), GOP Policy Chairman Taft and other Senate leaders have predicted favorable action on the new bill at this session.

Deadline Set January 25

While McCarran was in Europe on his one-man tour near the end of the last session, his Judiciary Committee reported out the House-passed bill. The Senate later, however, sent the measure back to committee with instructions to report out a bill by January 25.

McCarran said existing provisions, requiring that housing and jobs be found for D.P.'s without displacing United States citizens, had been ignored.

He warmly defended the present cut-off date of December 22, 1945, for determining eligible displaced persons, saying it was seven months after actual shooting ended in Europe and the same date used by an earlier presidential order to admit war refugees.

The House-passed bill would change this eligible date to January 1, 1949. McCarran said that would include "hundreds of thousands of persons who have voluntarily displaced themselves" in Europe and lessen chances for admission of actual wartime D.P.'s.

Hydrogen Bomb Principles Are Well Known

H. BLAKESLEE

New York, Jan. 6 (AP)—The hydrogen bomb, which Senator McMahon (D., Conn.) said yesterday might come up for consideration by the joint Senate-House Atomic Committee, is not a secret in principle.

How to make a hydrogen bomb, and also a helium bomb, both presumably thousands of times stronger than present bombs, are as well known in principle as was the A-bomb.

A hydrogen bomb would work on the opposite principle to an A-bomb. Instead of splitting to get energy, it would use synthesis, the building up of a chemical element.

Hydrogen, the lightest-weight chemical element, ordinarily has a weight of one, meaning its nucleus contains only one particle.

Hydrogen of double weight, is also known, and is what is commonly called heavy water. A wartime discovery is triple-weight hydrogen, called tritium.

Extra Particles

Each differs from hydrogen by possessing one to two extra particles in its nucleus. A fact known to scientists everywhere is that whenever one of these particles enters a nucleus, of any atom, the particle loses a little weight, or mass. This loss is in the form of energy.

Therefore scientists reason that if you can build up a lightweight atom into a heavier atom, the excess mass might make a bomb. How to do this has never been mentioned. The only new published fact is the discovery of how to make tritium in atomic ovens.

The helium bomb is better known. It is based on the fact that atoms of one form of helium split, and emit about seventeen million electron volts of atomic energy for each split. This splitting was discovered in laboratories many years ago, and furnished the first proof of Einstein's law that mass and energy are equivalent.

Chain Reaction Needed

The trouble is lack of a chain reaction. A helium atom that splits doesn't automatically produce or split another helium atom.

The hydrogen synthesis does take place on the sun. Helium synthesis also takes place. Scientists testified before the Senate in 1946 that hydrogen and helium bombs were not likely without sustained temperatures and pressures equal to those on the sun.

At least one scientist published a statement that he believed the temperatures and pressures that last for a fraction of a second inside an A-bomb are enough to make a hydrogen-helium bomb. As this scientist saw it, a hydrogen-helium bomb would be built inside an A-bomb or would have to be very close alongside to explode.

10c Booklet Explains Atom Board Contracts

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6 (AP).—Companies wanting to do business with the Atomic Energy Commission can find out how, for 10 cents. The commission drew up a booklet entitled, "A Guide for Contracting of Construction and Related Engineering Services," and put it on sale today at the Government Printing Office.

CHAMBERS HELD 'LIAR, DREAMER' BY PSYCHIATRIST

JAN 7 1950

NEW YORK, Jan. 6—(AP) Whittaker Chambers, the government's chief witness against Alger Hiss, was pictured by a psychiatrist today as a self-centered liar and dreamer who can't tell fact from fiction.

Dr. Carl A. L. Binger, Park Avenue mental specialist, gave a detailed analysis of what he called Chambers' "bizarre behavior" to back up his opinion that the one-time $30,000-a-year editor is a "psychopathic personality."

Juror's Illness Delays Trial

Hiss' second perjury trial was adjourned during Dr. Binger's testimony because of a juror's illness. Federal Judge Henry W. Goddard said he hoped the trial could resume Monday.

Hiss, formerly a high State deparement official, is accused of lying when he denied passing secret government papers to Chambers for the use of a prewar Soviet spy ring. A Federal grand jury believed Chambers when he said the papers were passed.

Dr. Binger, called by the defense, called Chambers a "pathological liar."

"This is something different from ordinary lying," he said. "It is living out or playing out a lie as if it were true."

Persons so afflicted, the psychiatrist said, are "under the influence of their imaginations, which may have no relation to reality."

Dr. Binger cited 20 instances in which Chambers has admitted on the witness stand that he lied. He said the stocky, 48-year-old government witness lived under false names "before, while and—curiously enough—after he was a communist."

And he said Chambers' famous hiding of microfilms in a pumpkin on his Westminister, Md., farm "is not the kind of behavior one would expect from a person in good mental health."

The psychiatrist said Chambers showed insensitivity typical of the "psychopath" when, years ago, he carried on a long-standing illicit relationship with a woman in his mother's home.

Still earlier, said Dr. Binger, Chambers wrote a play ridiculing Christ and published it at Christmas time.

"These people don't suffer. They make other people suffer," the witness said.

Rebuked By Judge

While reading aloud from a medical book at one point, Dr. Binger looked up and commented, "this is interesting."

"Dr. Binger," said the judge sternly, "you are here as a witness, not as an advocate."

Assistant U. S. Attorney Thomas F. Murphy had just began cross-examining the psychiatrist when court adjourned. The defense plans to call a second witness next week to testify about Chambers' mental state.

Today's only other witness, testifying for the government, was Dr. Margaret Mary Nicholson of Washington. She testified that she treated Hiss' stepson, Timothy Hobson, on Jan. 2, 3 and 6, 1937.

Hiss testified earlier that the boy and his mother were at Chappaqua, N. Y., for the New Year holiday that year, contradicting the story of Chambers and his wife that they attended a party given by the Hisses on New Year's Eve.

report was received from Chinese Communist officials.

The suit against Mrs. Smith was filed by the Leeco Company. She said the company has refused to accept her proffered payments on the house because the escrow papers lacked her husband's signature.

As Captive, He Can't Sign

Under California law both husband and wife must sign. With her husband a captive in China, it has been impossible to fulfill this requirement.

Her attorney, Rolland Truman, a distant relative of the President, said he would attempt to obtain Smith's power of attorney through the British consulate at Tsingtao. He said he also might appeal directly to President Truman in the case.

votes to oust the Chinese Nationalist delegation and put the Communists in.

These officials discount reports that Russia will launch her move at the first 1950 meeting of the Security Council which is headed this month by Dr. T. F. Tsiang, chief of the Chinese Nationalist delegation.

Defeat Held Likely Now

They say it is obvious that a test at this time would result in a Soviet defeat, since only four of the Council's eleven members have recognized the Communist regime. These are Britain, Russia, Yugoslavia and India.

United Nations officials also discount the possibility of any serious Soviet move to block the seating of the new Yugoslav delegate, Ales Bebler. They say Russia may blast both Yugoslavia and Nationalist China, but will go no further now.

The Council may meet next week, although no definite date has yet been decided upon. Because of the unsettled policies of many countries on the Chinese question, there is a general feeling among Council members that they should meet as little as possible this month.

May Await U.S. Move

Officials believe that Russia's timing on the Chinese issue will be based largely upon how and when the United States acts on the recognition question. If this belief is correct, it means no Soviet move will be made until after the Bangkok parley late next month of United States Ambassador at Large Philip C. Jessup and American diplomats in the Far East.

A United States decision to recognize the Communist probably would settle the fate of the Nationalist delegation, at least in the Security Council. Each of the many United Nations agencies on which China is represented also would have to decide individually which of the rival governments to seat.

Situation Analyzed

One unusually well-informed United Nations official gave this analysis of the situation:

1. Russia already has challenged the right of the Chinese Nationalist delegation to represent China. Russia also has challenged the validity of Yugoslavia's election to the Security Council.

2. The Russians are realistic. They know they cannot unseat the Chinese Nationalists now and probably cannot unseat Yugoslavia at any time. Therefore, they will not needlessly subject themselves to diplomatic defeats by pressing for Council action.

United Nations legal experts have devoted much time studying the Chinese question, since it confronts the world organization with many new legal problems.

They acknowledge, however, that they still don't know all the answers. For example, no United Nations official would venture an opinion as to whether the big-power veto would apply when the Security Council votes on the question of unseating the Nationalist delegation and seating the Communists. Another disputed issue is whether the Chinese Nationalist delegation would be entitled to vote on a proposal for its own ouster.

United Nations lawyers are hoping that these issues will not be raised.

China Captive's Wife Faces Eviction From Home

Long Beach, Cal., Jan. 6 (AP)—Mrs. William C. Smith now has troubles both at home and abroad.

For months she has been trying to get some action to effect the release of her navy husband, held captive in China by the Communists. Yesterday a suit was filed to evict her from their home here.

Began Purchase In 1948

Mrs. Smith said she began purchasing the house November 17, 1948, a month after her husband and Marine Master Sergeant Elmer C. Bender, of Chicago, failed to return from a plane flight over Tsingtao, China.

On last December 28 the United States State Department announced it had been advised that Smith and Bender are alive and well. This

BRITISH OFFICIALS, THOUGH THEY CANNOT SEE JUST NOW OR WHEN THE CONFLICT WITH UNITED STATES VIEWS ON RECOGNITION OF THE RED REGIME WILL BE SETTLED, ASSERT THE SITUATION WILL BE STRAIGHTENED OUT EVENTUALLY--JUST AS WERE PAST DIFFERENCES OVER LEND-LEASE AND PALESTINE.

BRITAIN'S LONG-FORESHADOWED MOVE AUTOMATICALLY DOES THESE THINGS:

1. RANGES HER WITH RUSSIA AGAINST CONTINUED CHINESE NATIONALIST REPRESENTATION ON THE UNITED NATIONS SECURITY COUNCIL. INDIA AND YUGOSLAVIA, ALSO COUNCIL MEMBERS, HAVE BROKEN OFF RELATIONS WITH THE NATIONALIST REGIME AND RECOGNIZED THE REDS. THE U.S. STILL BACKS THE NATIONALISTS AS LEGAL RULERS OF CHINA. OTHER COUNCIL MEMBERS WHO HAVE STILL TO MAKE UP THEIR MINDS ON THE QUESTION ARE FRANCE, EGYPT, ECUADOR, CUBA, NORWAY.

2. GIVES HER FIRST CHANCE OF ALL THE BIG WESTERN POWERS TO EXPAND HER TRADE WITH CHINA'S 460,000,000 PEOPLE--AND ALSO TO INHERIT AMERICA'S PAST SHARE OF CHINA'S FOREIGN BUSINESS.

3. DAMPENS BRITISH HOPES THAT THE U.S. MIGHT QUICKLY BACK A NEW "MARSHALL PLAN" TO STOP NEARLY A BILLION (B) NON-CHINESE ASIANS GOING RED. MOST BRITISH OFFICIALS FEAR CONGRESSIONAL OPPOSITION TO THEM AND THEIR IDEAS ABOUT THE FAR EAST WILL MOUNT IN THE NEXT FEW MONTHS. THEY THINK AMERICA'S CHINA POLICY HAS BEEN CAUGHT UP IN DOMESTIC PARTY POLITICS. AND THEY FEAR THE U.S. WON'T BE ABLE TO LAUNCH ANY NEW BIG AID PROGRAM AT LEAST UNTIL AFTER NEXT NOVEMBER'S ELECTIONS.

4. ALLOWS BRITISH LABOR LEADERS TO CLAIM IN THE COMING GENERAL ELECTION THIS COUNTRY STILL ACTS INDEPENDENTLY IN FOREIGN AFFAIRS. A STRONG LEFTIST GROUP IN THE LABOR PARTY CONTENDS THE FOREIGN OFFICE OFTEN MERELY DITTOES THE STATE DEPARTMENT.

BRITISH DIPLOMATIC AND MILITARY EXPERTS MEETING LAST YEAR IN SINGAPORE URGED RECOGNITION AS INEVITABLE. THEY WARNED THAT FURTHER DELAY WOULD ENDANGER BRITISH INTERESTS IN THE FAR EAST. BRITISH COLONIES THERE HAVE HEAVY--AND INCREASINGLY RESTLESS--CHINESE POPULATIONS.

PRESSURE BECAME SO GENERAL THAT PRIME MINISTER CLEMENT ATTLEE AND FOREIGN SECRETARY ERNEST BEVIN RISKED A MAJOR DISPUTE WITH THE UNITED STATES IN FINALLY APPROVING RECOGNITION.

BRITAIN'S RECOGNITION OF COMMUNIST CHINA RAISED A SERIES OF NEW INTERNATIONAL QUESTIONS HERE. THESE INCLUDED:

1. TRENDS IN THE UNITED NATIONS SECURITY COUNCIL, WHERE BRITAIN WILL LIKELY JOIN RUSSIA, YUGOSLAVIA AND INDIA IN SUPPORTING A COMMUNIST RATHER THAN A NATIONALIST MEMBER TO REPRESENT CHINA.

2. FORMOSA: THE FOREIGN OFFICE SAID TODAY BRITAIN'S CONSULATE WILL CONTINUE TO FUNCTION THERE FOR THE PROTECTION OF BRITISH INTERESTS, BUT THIS DID NOT INDICATE DE FACTO RECOGNITION OF THE NATIONALIST GOVERNMENT REMNANTS ON FORMOSA.

3. THE CHINESE NATIONALIST BLOCKADE: BRITAIN, WHICH HAS HELD PAST EFFORTS TO HALT TRADE WITH THE COMMUNISTS ILLEGAL, IS EXPECTED TO OPPOSE EVEN MORE ACTIVELY ANY INTERFERENCE WITH SHIPPING TO AND FROM CHINESE COMMUNIST PORTS.

4. THE FUTURE OF BRITAIN'S PARTICIPATION IN ANY WESTERN CAMPAIGN TO HALT THE SPREAD OF COMMUNISM IN THE FAR EAST. OBSERVERS HERE SAID DIPLOMATIC RELATIONS WITH COMMUNIST CHINA MIGHT MAKE IT DIFFICULT FOR THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT STRONGLY TO SUPPORT SUCH PROGRAMS.

LONDON, JAN.6-(AP)-FOLLOWING IS THE TEXT OF A STATEMENT BY DR. CHENG TIEN-HSI, CHINESE AMBASSADOR, ON BRITISH RECOGNITION TODAY OF COMMUNIST CHINA (260)

I NATURALLY DEPLORE THE DECISION OF YOUR GOVERNMENT NOT ONLY AS AMBASSADOR OF MY COUNTRY BUT ALSO AS A TRUE FRIEND OF THIS COUNTRY; FOR SUCH A DECISION IS, I SINCERELY BELIEVE, AGAINST ITS REAL AND HIGHER INTERESTS AS HISTORY WILL SHOW.

IT HAS BEEN THE REPEATEDLY-DECLARED POLICY OF THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT NOT TO INTERVENE IN THE WAR IN CHINA, BUT WHAT GREATER INTERVENTION COULD THERE BE THAN GIVING RECOGNITION TO THE COMMUNIST REGIME AT THIS MOMENT? IT IS EQUIVALENT TO BURYING US WHILST WE ARE STILL VERY MUCH ALIVE, AND HISTORY WILL SAY THAT CHINA HAS A RECEIVED A KNOCK-OUT BLOW, NOT FROM HER FOES BUT FROM HER FRIENDS AND FORMER ALLIES.

HOMAGE TO FORCE AND VIOLENCE IS VERY DANGEROUS, PARTICULARLY IN VIEW OF THE PRESENT WORLD SITUATION. FOR IF YOU WORSHIP CAESAR

YOU WILL HAVE CAESARS AND, WHAT IS WORSE, THEIR BAD IMITATORS.
IN SPITE OF WHAT HAS HAPPENED YOU MAY BE SURE THAT ONE DAY YOU WILL NEED US AGAIN, AS THE HISTORY OF THE CLOSING AND THE REOPENING OF THE BURMA ROAD HAS SHOWN, AND YOU MAY WELL COUNT ON US.
PERSONALLY, I HAVE BEEN MUCH TOUCHED BY THE NUMEROUS VERBAL AND WRITTEN EXPRESSIONS OF FRIENDSHIP AND SYMPATHY RECEIVED IN RECENT WEEKS FROM PEOPLE IN THIS COUNTRY, SOME OF WHOM ARE EVEN UNKNOWN TO ME AND I WOULD LIKE TO TAKE THIS OPPORTUNITY TO THANK THEM PUBLICLY.
I BELONG TO NO PARTY AND HAVE NEVER TAKEN PART IN POLITICS. BUT ON ACCOUNT OF MY LONG AND HAPPY ASSOCIATION WITH THIS COUNTRY I WAS ESPECIALLY SELECTED BY MY GOVERNMENT TO REPRESENT IT HERE WITH THE PRIMARY OBJECT OF DEEPENING OUR FRIENDSHIP WITH THE BRITISH PEOPLE. SO FAR AS THAT IS CONCERNED I THINK I HAVE DONE MY DUTY.

NIGHT LEAD CHINESE
BY SPENCER MOOSA
TAIPEI, FORMOSA, JAN. 6-(AP)-THE CHINESE NATIONALISTS QUAFFED THE BITTER TEA OF DISILLUSION TONIGHT.
BRITISH RECOGNITION OF THE COMMUNISTS AND AMERICAN DECLARATION OF A HANDS-OFF POLICY TOWARDS FORMOSA CREATED AN OBVIOUS FEELING OF ABANDONMENT AND LONELINESS AMONG THE DIE-HARDS LOYAL TO GENERALISSIMO CHIANG KAI-SHEK.
DESPERATELY THEY DETERMINED TO CONTINUE THE FIGHT ALONE FROM THIS ISLAND REDOUBT. THEY HAVE NO ALTERNATIVE.
BRITISH RECOGNITION OF THE REDS HAD BEEN LONG ANTICIPATED, BUT IT BREW FROM FOREIGN MINISTER GEORGE YEH AN ACID STATEMENT THAT "EVERY TRADITIONAL IDEA OF FREEDOM HELD DEAR BY THE BRITISH PEOPLE IS COMPROMISED."
PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S STATEMENT OF NO MILITARY AID IN HOLDING FORMOSA WAS A HEAVIER BLOW. FALSE HOPES OF ASSISTANCE HAD BEEN PUFFED UP TREMENDOUSLY IN RECENT WEEKS, ONLY TO BURST.
ALL SENIOR NATIONALIST OFFICIALS WERE MUM OR CHARY IN COMMENT, BUT THEY EVINCED THE SINKING FEELING THAT TAIPEI--THEIR FIFTH CAPITAL IN LESS THAN NINE MONTHS--WOULD BE THEIR LAST UNLESS THEY ALONE COULD HOLD FORMOSA AGAINST THE EVENTUAL RED ONSLAUGHT.
"WE ARE DEEPLY GRATEFUL FOR ALL THE HELP THE UNITED STATES HAS GIVEN US IN THE PAST AND HOPE THAT SOME SORT OF AID--NO MATTER HOW LIMITED--WILL CONTINUE," SAID PREMIER YEN HSI-SHAN. HE SAID NO MORE, BUT HIS CAREWORN FACE AND BENT POSTURE WERE MORE ELOQUENT THAN WORDS.
YEN'S MENTION OF AID WAS A CLEAR REFERENCE TO THE ECONOMIC COOPERATION ASSISTANCE PROGRAM, WHICH IS CONTINUING ON FORMOSA ON A RELATIVELY SMALL SCALE.
AS ONE SOP TO THE NATIONALISTS, L.F.CRAIG, ECA REGIONAL DIRECTOR, ANNOUNCED $5,500,000 WORTH OF COMMODITIES WOULD BE RELEASED DURING JANUARY--MORE THAN IN ANY PREVIOUS MONTH--AND THAT A "HEAVY PROGRAM" WAS PLANNED FOR FEBRUARY. THIS AID IS AIMED MERELY AT ECONOMIC STABILIZATION, HOWEVER.
FOR THE SHOOTING WAR, THE NATIONALISTS REALIZED AT LAST THAT THEY COULD COUNT ONLY ON THEMSELVES IF THEY EXPECT TO HOLD FORMOSA.
IN THE FIRST ACTIVE WAR NEWS IN SEVERAL DAYS, THE NATIONALIST AIR FORCE ANNOUNCED ITS P-51 FIGHTER-BOMBERS HAD HEAVILY RAIDED THE LUNGHWA AIRFIELD AT RED SHANGHAI THURSDAY. IT SAID AIR RAIDERS ALSO HAD DESTROYED RED DEFENSE WORKS ON TWO OF THE CHUSAN ISLANDS AND CONTINUED ATTACKING BOATS THAT ARE MASSING ON THE LIUCHOW PENINSULA FOR INVASION OF HAINAN ISLAND.
THE NATIONALISTS HAVE PREDICTED THAT THE REDS WILL ATTACK HAINAN, JUST OFF THE SOUTH COAST, BEFORE THEY ATTEMPT THE DIFFICULT 100-MILE OVERWATER VENTURE AGAINST FORMOSA.

A192KX
IT WAS LEARNED THAT AMERICANS ON FORMOSA WERE ADVISED ORALLY BY THEIR CONSULATE A MONTH AGO TO LEAVE THIS ISLAND, BUT ONLY A FEW DID SO. MOST OF THE 250 REMAINING WERE CALMLY WAITING TO SEE IF THE STATE DEPARTMENT WOULD ISSUE A FORMAL NOTICE. THEY BELIEVED THIS WOULD BE DONE IF WASHINGTON HAD ANY REASON TO BELIEVE AN INVASION

WAS NEAR.

BRITISH RECOGNITION OF THE PEIPING COMMUNIST REGIME RAISED THE QUESTION AMONG NATIONALISTS HERE WHETHER THE BRITISH WOULD NOW THREATEN EFFECTIVENESS OF THE NATIONALIST BLOCKADE AGAINST THE RED COAST.

OFFICIALS INDICATED THAT, FAR FROM HAMPERING TRADE BETWEEN FORMOSA AND BRITISH HONG KONG, THEY WOULD ATTEMPT TO INCREASE IT. SUCH COMMUNIST-ORIGINATED PRODUCTS AS SOYBEANS CAKES AND FERTILIZER CONTINUE TO DRIBBLE INTO FORMOSA VIA HONG KONG.

UNLESS PRESENT POLICY SHOULD CHANGE, THERE WILL BE NO RESTRICTION ON MOVEMENT OF BRITISH SUBJECTS IN AND OUT OF FORMOSA.

FOREIGN MINISTER YEH NEVERTHELESS WAS BITTER IN ANNOUNCING SEVERANCE OF RELATIONS WITH BRITAIN.

CALLING THE PEIPING REGIME A PUPPET, "WHICH CAN LAY NO VALID CLAIM TO EITHER FULL SOVEREIGNTY OR VOLUNTARY SUPPORT OF THE GREATER MAJORITY OF THE CHINESE PEOPLE," YEH DECLARED:

"THAT THE NATION WHICH LED THE WORLD IN THE INSTITUTION OF DEMOCRACY SHOULD BE AMONG THE FIRST TO HAVE TRUCK WITH THE REPRESENTATIVE OF THE TOTALITARIAN REGIME IN ASIA MUST BE A SOURCE OF SORE DISAPPOINTMENT TO ALL BELIEVERS IN DEMOCRACY, IN CHINA AS ELSEWHERE.

X X X.

"AT A TIME WHEN BRITAIN IS ENFORCING COSTLY MEASURES--COSTLY IN RESOURCES AND IN HUMAN LIVES--IN AN ATTEMPT TO CHECK THE INFILTRATION OF COMMUNISM IN HER POSSESSIONS IN SOUTHERN ASIA, FOR HER TO OPEN THE SLUICE GATE TO A FLOOD OF COMMUNIST PROPAGANDA, WITH ITS INEVITABLE CONSEQUENCES, MUST ALSO BE A CAUSE OF BEWILDERMENT TO MILLIONS OF HIS MAJESTY'S ASIATIC SUBJECTS.

"TO THESE PEOPLE, WHO HAVE PLAYED NO SMALL PART IN THE DEVELOPMENT OF THE EMPIRE IN ASIA, BRITAIN HAS LONG GIVEN ASSURANCES OF EVENTUAL SELF-GOVERNMENT AND PRESERVATION OF THEIR FREEDOM. WE FEAR THIS ACT OF RECOGNITION MAY NOT BE CONDUCIVE TO EARLY REALIZATION OF THESE ASSURANCES."

BY SPENCER MOOSA

TAIPEH, FORMOSA, JAN. 6-(AP)-PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S HANDS OFF FORMOSA STATEMENT RIPPED TO SHREDS A BIG BALLOON OF HOPES BLOWN UP BY CHINESE NATIONALIST NEWS PREDICTIONS OF AMERICAN INTERVENTION HERE.

ALL SENIOR NATIONALIST OFFICIALS REFUSED COMMENT ON THE PRESIDENT'S STATEMENT. ONE CONFIDED:

"THE MATTER IS VERY DELICATE. WE DO NOT LIKE TO CRITICIZE THE HEAD OF A FRIENDLY STATE."

AMONG OFFICIALS WHO TOOK THE NO COMMENT LINE WERE ADVISERS TO GENERALISSIMO CHIANG KAI-SHEK. ALSO SILENT WERE PRINCETON EDUCATED GOVERNOR K.C.WU, FOREIGN MINISTER GEORGE YEH, AND GEN. CHEN CHENG, SOUTHEAST CHINA MILITARY COMMANDER AND A GRADUATE OF VIRGINIA MILITARY INSTITUTE.

BUT THERE WAS NO MISTAKING MR. TRUMAN'S STATEMENT CAUSED CONCERN AND DISMAY. IT CONVINCED THE NATIONALISTS THE UNITED STATES IS NOT GOING TO CHANGE THE JUDGMENT PASSED IN THE STATE DEPARTMENT'S WHITE PAPER ON CHINA.

IT LEFT THEM WITH THE SAD REALIZATION THEY CAN COUNT ONLY ON THEMSELVES TO HOLD FORMOSA.

IT GAVE SOME OF THEM THE SAME SINKING FEELING THEY HAD WHEN THE REDS APPROACHED CANTON AND LATER CHUNGKING AND CHENGTU -- SUCCESSIVE NATIONALIST CAPITALS LOST TO THE COMMUNISTS.

IT MADE THEM SEE THAT TAIPEH, THEIR FIFTH CAPITAL SINCE THE FALL OF NANKING, IS THEIR LAST ONE UNLESS THEY CAN HOLD FORMOSA.

COUPLED WITH BRITAIN'S IMPENDING RECOGNITION OF THE COMMUNIST REGIME IN PEIPING, IT MADE THEM FEEL ALONE, ABANDONED AND A LITTLE MORE DESPERATE.

AMERICAN AID FOR FORMOSA CONTINUES ON ITS FORMER BASIS WITH THE ECONOMIC COOPERATION ADMINISTRATION (ECA) AND ITS SUBSIDIARY, A JOINT COMMISSION ON RURAL RECONSTRUCTION, HELPING TO SHORE UP THE NATIONALIST ECONOMY.

THE ECA BRANCH HERE ANNOUNCED IT WOULD RELEASE $5,500,000 (M) WORTH OF COMMODITIES DURING JANUARY IN AN EFFORT TO STABILIZE THE MARKET AND CONTROL PRICES.

JAN 7 - 1950

THIS IS MORE THAN HAS BEEN RELEASED IN ANY PAST MONTH.

"WE ARE ALSO LOOKING FORWARD TO A HEAVY PROGRAM FOR THE MONTH OF FEBRUARY," SAID ECA REGIONAL DIRECTOR L.F.CRAIG.

CHINESE OFFICIALDOM STILL PERSISTS IN THE HOPE THE UNITED STATES MIGHT RELEASE PART OF THE ESTIMATED $84,000,000 (M) IN FROZEN ECA CHINA FUNDS.

THEY ALSO HOPE MR. TRUMAN MIGHT YET SPEND IN FORMOSA SOME OF THE $75,000,000 (M) CONGRESS GRANTED HIM TO COMBAT COMMUNISM IN THE GENERAL AREA OF CHINA.

RIGHT AFTER MR. TRUMAN'S HANDS OFF STATEMENT WAS RECEIVED HERE, NATIONALIST P-51S WENT OUT AND BOMBED SHANGHAI'S HUGE LUNGHWA AIRFIELD. AIRFORCE HEADQUARTERS HERE SAID CENTRAL AIR TRANSPORTATION CORPORATION INSTALLATIONS AT LUNGHWA WERE DESTROYED.

COMMUNIST DEFENSE WORKS IN TWO OF THE RED HELD ISLANDS IN THE CHU SAN GROUP, 100 MILES SOUTHEAST OF SHANGHAI, WERE BOMBED.

NEWS DISPATCHES ALSO REPORTED NATIONALIST AIR ATTACKS ON COMMUNIST CRAFT MASSING ON LIUCHOW PENINSULA OF EXTREME SOUTH CHINA FOR THE INVASION OF HAINAN ISLAND.

MACDONALD TOLD NEWSMEN MANY CHINESE MAY THINK THE BRITISH WILL "ADOPT A LENIENT ATTITUDE" TOWARDS COMMUNISTS HERE AND COME TO TERMS WITH THEM. SUCH IS NOT THE CASE, HE SAID.

IT WAS EXTREMELY UNLIKELY THAT GENERAL MACARTHUR OR ANY RESPONSIBLE MILITARY OFFICIAL WOULD COMMENT ON THE PRESIDENT'S STATEMENT THAT THE UNITED STATES WOULD NOT ARM THE CHINESE NATIONALISTS NOR HELP TO DEFEND THE ISLAND OFF CHINA'S SOUTHEAST COAST FROM THE COMMUNISTS.

BUT THE STATEMENT ENDED ONE PHASE OF A PROLONGED EFFORT BY THE AMERICAN COMMANDER IN ASIA TO PERSUADE WASHINGTON TO TAKE EXTRAORDINARY MEASURES TO BOLSTER AMERICA'S DEFENSE LINE IN THE WESTERN PACIFIC.

U.S. OFFICERS HERE HAVE LITTLE IF ANY EXPECTATION THAT THE NATIONALISTS WILL HOLD FORMOSA.

ITS FALL WOULD MEAN THAT THE CHAIN OF U.S. AIR BASES FROM JAPAN DOWN THROUGH OKINAWA TO THE PHILIPPINES WOULD BE PIERCED. FORMOSA IS WITHIN EASY STRIKING DISTANCE OF OKINAWA AND THE PHILIPPINES.

AMERICAN STRATEGISTS PLANNED FOR THIS MANY MONTHS AGO. AT THAT TIME THEY CONCLUDED FORMOSA WOULD FALL UNLESS SUPPORTED MORE DIRECTLY BY THE UNITED STATES.

THERE HAD BEEN HOPE IN SOME MILITARY QUARTERS THAT THE FORTHCOMING VISIT OF THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF AND THE ASSIGNMENT OF THE AIRCRAFT CARRIER BOXER TO ASIATIC WATERS HERALDED A CHANGE OF POLICY.

IN CLOSED SESSION NEXT WEEK.

THE DEPARTMENT MEANWHILE ANNOUNCED THAT ACHESON WILL SPEAK ON "THE FAR EASTERN SITUATION" AT A NATIONAL PRESS CLUB LUNCHEON NEXT THURSDAY. ALTHOUGH IT WAS NOT KNOWN DEFINITELY WHETHER THIS TALK WILL BE ON THE RECORD, IT WAS EXPECTED THAT ACHESON WILL USE THIS OCCASION TO MAKE A GENERAL STATEMENT OF THIS COUNTRY'S POLICY TOWARD CHINA.

THIS POLICY IS EXPECTED TO BE BAUSFZUUFLOHE DUAL PRINCIPLES

TO MAKE A GENERAL STATEMENT OF THIS COUNTRY'S POLICY TOWARD CHINA.

THIS POLICY IS EXPECTED TO BE BASED ON THE DUAL PRINCIPLES OF (1) TRYING TO DRIVE A WEDGE BETWEEN THE CHINESE PEOPLE AND COMMUNIST RUSSIA AND (2) HOLDING THE LINE AGAINST COMMUNIST EXPANSION OUTSIDE CHINA.

JAN 7 - 1950

IN THE STATE DEPARTMENT STATEMENT ON BRITAIN'S RECOGNITION OF THE CHINESE REDS, THIS POINT WAS EMPHASIZED:

"THE DECISION BY A GOVERNMENT ON WHETHER TO WITHHOLD OR GRANT RECOGNITION TO A NEW GOVERNMENT IS AN EXERCISE OF A BASIC SOVEREIGN RIGHT AND EACH GOVERNMENT MUST MAKE ITS OWN DECISION IN THE LIGHT OF THE SITUATION AS IT SEES IT AND OF ITS OWN CIRCUMSTANCES."

HOWEVER, THE BRITISH DECISION REPORTEDLY WAS MADE AFTER PROLONGED ARGUMENTS BETWEEN THE STATE DEPARTMENT AND THE FOREIGN OFFICE OVER THE BEST WAY TO DEAL WITH THE COMMUNISTS, WITH TIMING AS THE PRINCIPAL ISSUE.

THE UNITED STATES URGED A COMMON POLICY AMONG THE WESTERN POWERS OF AVOIDING ANY QUICK ACTION. ONE OBJECTIVE OF THIS LINE WAS TO WAIT AND SEE HOW THE COMMUNISTS TREAT FOREIGNERS AND WHAT COMMITMENTS ON FUTURE RELATIONS THEY WOULD BE WILLING TO OFFER.

THIS IS STILL A BASIC CONSIDERATION INSOFAR AS AMERICAN RECOGNITION OF THE COMMUNISTS IS CONCERNED. ACHESON STATED AGAIN YESTERDAY THAT IT IS PREMATURE EVEN TO CONSIDER ESTABLISHING RELATIONS WITH THE NEW CHINESE REGIME AT THIS TIME.

THE IMPORT OF THE STATE DEPARTMENT'S STATEMENT APPEARED TO BE THAT ON BASIC OBJECTIVES IN THE FAR EAST, AT LEAST, THE ANGLO-AMERICAN COLLABORATION OF THE PAST COULD BE CONTINUED. BUT DIPLOMATIC AUTHORITIES RECOGNIZE THAT COMMON ACTION ON SPECIFIC PROBLEMS WILL BE DIFFICULT, IF NOT IMPOSSIBLE.

FOR EXAMPLE, THE UNITED STATES IS STILL IN A POSITION TO OPPOSE GRANTING THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS ANY OFFICIAL STANDING IN THE UNITED NATIONS, BUT THE BRITISH APPARENTLY NOW HAVE NO BASIS FOR ANY SUCH ATTITUDE. MOREOVER, IT SEEMS UNLIKELY THEY WILL BE IN POSITION TO TAKE AS TOUGH A POLICY ON LIMITING TRADE WITH THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS AS THE AMERICAN GOVERNMENT MAY DESIRE TO FOLLOW.

THERE IS ALSO THE QUESTION OF THE JAPANESE PEACE TREATY, IF THAT COMES UP FOR ACTION ANY TIME SOON. THE UNITED STATES COULD HARDLY CONSIDER SITTING DOWN AT A PEACE CONFERENCE TABLE WITH A GOVERNMENT WHICH ID DID NOT RECOGNIZE.

BY LEO BRANHAM
NEW YORK, JAN 6-(AP)-NEW YORK BUSINESS MEN APPARENTLY ARE LITTLE CONCERNED OVER BRITISH RECOGNITION OF RED CHINA, A SURVEY INDICATED TODAY.

THE MAJORITY OF BANKERS, IMPORTER-EXPORTERS, OILMEN AND TRADE OFFICIALS INTERVIEWED HAD NO COMMENT WHATEVER. THE FEW WHO DID DECLINED USE OF THEIR NAMES.

JAN 7 - 1950

THIS WAS TYPICAL OF THEIR ATTITUDE:

AFTER A LARGE BUSINESS MEN'S ORGANIZATION HELD ITS MONTHLY LUNCHEON TODAY, A SPOKESMAN GAVE HIS REPLY TO QUESTIONS: "WE TALKED ABOUT A LOT OF PERTINENT MATTERS TODAY, BUT BRITAIN'S RECOGNITION OF COMMUNIST CHINA WASN'T EVEN MENTIONED."

AN EXECUTIVE OF ONE OF NEW YORK'S LARGEST BANKS WITH WORLD-WIDE BRANCHES AND INTERESTS SAID HE FELT BRITAIN'S ACTION WAS "APPARENTLY A SIMPLE MATTER OF EXPEDIENCY," HE ADDED:

"WE HAVE A LOT OF SYMPATHY FOR THE BRITISH. THEY HAD TO ACT TO PROTECT THEIR HUGE INVESTMENTS IN THE FAR EAST."

A FOREIGN TRADE COUNCIL OFFICIAL EXPRESSED A SIMILAR VIEW. HE COMMENTED THAT "RECOGNITION WAS PURELY A MATTER OF GOOD BUSINESS AND BRITISH, YOU KNOW, HAVE ALWAYS BEEN PRETTY 'HARD-HEADED' ABOUT BUSINESS."

ONE MAN, WITH EXTENSIVE EXPORT-IMPORT INTERESTS, WAS BITTERLY CRITICAL. HE DENOUNCED RECOGNITION AS A "POOR WAY TO REPAY THE UNITED STATES FOR ALL THE HELP WE'VE GIVEN THE BRITISH." HE DECLARED BRITAIN'S UNILATERAL ACTION HAD STRENGTHENED COMMUNISM THE WORLD OVER AND OPINED "THE BRITISH SHOULD HAVE WAITED AND ACTED JOINTLY WITH THE UNITED STATES ON THE CHINESE PROBLEM."

HE SAID HE THOUGHT AMERICAN RECOGNITION WAS NOW INEVITABLE.

STUTTGART, GERMANY, JAN.6-(AP)-AN AMERICAN STUDENT WHO WAS QUIETLY EXPELLED FROM CZECHOSLOVAKIA EARLY THIS WEEK ARRIVED HERE TONIGHT EN ROUTE TO THE UNITED STATES.

HE IS SAVEL KLIACHKO OF PALO ALTO, CALIFORNIA, WHO HAS BEEN STUDYING THE CZECH LANGUAGE IN PRAGUE SINCE JULY 1949.

KLIACHKO SAID CZECH AUTHORITIES GAVE NO REASON FOR HIS EXPULSION AND ADDED:

"I THINK IT'S ALL A PART OF THE ANTI-FOREIGN CAMPAIGN NOW UNDER WAY THERE."

KLIACHKO WENT TO PRAGUE ON A SCHOLARSHIP FROM THE INSTITUTE OF INTERNATIONAL EDUCATION IN NEW YORK. HE SAID HE WAS IMPRISONED FOR FIVE DAYS IN SEPTEMBER AND WAS NEVER TOLD THE REASON.

BERLIN, JAN.6-(AP)-BETTER FOOD AND BETTER POLICEMEN WERE LISTED AS REASONS TODAY FOR A SHARP DROP-OFF IN CRIME IN THE U.S.SECTOR OF BERLIN.

A TWO-WEEK SURVEY IN DECEMBER SHOWED NEARLY A 50 PER CENT DECREASE FROM DEC.1948, WHEN THE CITY WAS BLOCKADED, A HIGH COMMISSION BERLIN STATEMENT SAID.

JAN 7 - 1950

MAJOR OFFENSES DROPPED 49 PER CENT, MINOR 23 PER CENT, AND AGGRAVATED THEFT 61 PER CENT.

AND IN THE PAST YEAR U.S.SECTOR CRIME HAS DROPPED MORE THAN A THIRD COMPARED WITH 1947 AND 1948.

GREATER POLICE EFFICIENCY AND GRADUAL BETTERMENT OF ECONOMIC CONDITIONS WERE LISTED AS THE MAJOR CAUSES OF THE CRIME DECREASE.

BERLIN, JAN.6-(AP)-GERMAN SOCIALIST LEADERS WARNED WEST GERMANY TODAY NOT TO COMPROMISE WITH THE RUSSIAN-OCCUPIED EASTERN ZONE FOR THE SAKE OF ECONOMIC GAIN.

LATER, A MEMBER OF THE SOCIALIST UNITY (COMMUNIST) PARTY'S POLITBURO, IN A COUNTERBLAST, CALLED DR.KURT SCHUMACHER, CHAIRMAN OF THE SOCIAL DEMOCRATS (SOCIALISTS), A TOOL OF THE "IMPERIALISTS."

THE POLITBURO MEMBER, FRANZ DAHLEM, DEMANDED TAKING THE PROPERTY OF "OLD AND NEW WAR CRIMINALS IN WEST GERMANY AND PUTTING THE PITS (MINES) AND FACTORIES IN THE HANDS OF THE WORKERS." DAHLEM ADDRESSED A CONFERENCE OF HIS PARTY LEADERS.

LEADERS OF THE SOCIAL DEMOCRATS, WEST GERMANY'S BIGGEST POLITICAL PARTY, CONCLUDED A TWO-DAY CONFERENCE HERE TO PLAN GENERAL STRATEGY. THEY SAID SOME CIRCLES IN WEST GERMANY ARE SHOWING A TENDENCY TO FAVOR COMPROMISE WITH EASTERN ZONE DEMANDS FOR A "UNITED" GERMANY, PURELY FOR THE SAKE OF ECONOMIC AGREEMENTS "OF QUESTIONABLE COMMON VALUE."

AFTER DECLARING THEIR OPPOSITION TO UNIFICATION ON SOVIET ZONE TERMS, THE SOCIALISTS DECLARED THAT THE "DOMINANT TASK IS TO EXHAUST ALL OPPORTUNITIES FOR A PLANNED OFFENSIVE AIMING AT CREATING A UNIFIED, FREE GERMANY. ONLY IN THIS WAY CAN A SUBSTANTIAL INFLUENCE BE BROUGHT TO BEAR ON THE DECISIONS OF THE GREAT POWERS."

JAN 7 - 1950

DAHLEM'S SPEECH WAS CARRIED IN FULL BY THE SOVIET-LICENSED NEWS AGENCY, ADN. HE OUTLINED THIS COMMUNIST PROGRAM:

"THE TASK PUT BEFORE US BY THE PARTY MUST BE ACHIEVED. SO THAT, BY NEW METHODS OF MASS AGITATION, THE PEOPLE ARE ENLIGHTENED AND PUT IN THE PROPER MOOD, SO THAT NO WAR MONGER AND ENEMY OF THE SOVIETS WILL DARE TO CONTINUE HIS INCITING PROPAGANDA WITHOUT BEING SILENCED INSTANTLY."

DAHLEM SAID SCHUMACHER IS A USEFUL MAN TO INCITE "ANTI-BOLSHEVISM AND WARMONGERING AGAINST THE EAST."

HE SAID COMMUNIST POLICY IS DIRECTED AT TAKING THE PROPERTY OF BIG LANDHOLDERS AND "THE JUNKERS WHO FLED THE EAST ZONE," AND TURNING THEM OVER TO THE WORKERS AND REFUGEES.

"THE OCCUPATION IN THE WEST HAS BECOME A THREAT FOR THE SECURITY OF OUR PEOPLE AND ALL THE PEOPLES OF EUROPE," HE CHARGED.

ADN SAID THE COMMUNIST PARTY CONFERENCE DRAFTED A 10-POINT PROGRAM FOR BERLIN, CALLING CHIEFLY FOR THE "REESTABLISHMENT OF DEMOCRACY IN THE WESTERN SECTORS," AND A SINGLE CURRENCY FOR THE CITY.

FRANKFURT, GERMANY, JAN. 6 - (AP) - WALTER O. GALONSKA, GERMAN INVENTOR WHO BUILT AN UNFLYABLE HELICOPTER, WAS CONVICTED TODAY OF VIOLATING MILITARY GOVERNMENT REGULATIONS, BUT A SIX-MONTHS PRISON SENTENCE WAS SUSPENDED.

AT HIS TRIAL LAST MONTH, GALONSKA CONTENDED HE BUILT THE PLANE WITH THE KNOWLEDGE OF AMERICAN OFFICERS. THE MILITARY REGULATIONS, HOWEVER, PROHIBIT GERMAN SCIENTIFIC RESEARCH IN AERODYNAMICS. TODAY, GALONSKA PLEADED:

JAN 7 - 1950

"I DID NOT MEAN TO VIOLATE ANY LAW," GALONSKA TOLD THE MILITARY COURT. "I THOUGHT I WAS ACTING IN THE INTEREST OF THE AMERICAN MILITARY GOVERNMENT WITH THE PERMISSION OF AMERICAN AUTHORITIES."

GALONSKA WAS TRIED IN A U. S. HIGH COMMISSION COURT BEFORE JUDGE HERMAN ELEGANT OF NEW YORK CITY. LT. JOHN C[redacted]

CALLMAN OF LOS ANGELES, A U. S. ARMY INTELLIGENCE OFFICER, TESTIFIED GALONSKA FIRST TOLD HIM ABOUT A NEW ENGINE HE HAD INVENTED AND LATER TOOK HIM TO A DEMONSTRATION OF THE ENGINE WHICH HE HAD INSTALLED IN HIS HELICOPTER. HE SAID HE DID NOT FORBID GALONSKA TO CONTINUE HIS EXPERIMENT.

JAN 7 - 1950

A U. S. AIR FORCE OFFICER, CAPT. EDGAR W. GREGORY OF LE MARS, IOWA, SAID HE HAD FOUND THE CRAFT UNABLE TO GET OFF THE GROUND.

GALONSKA, A STOCKY, 45-YEAR-OLD, RUDDY-FACED MAN, WHO WEARS A HEARING AID, PUT ONE HAND OVER HIS EYES AS CAPT. GREGORY SAID OF HIS BRANCHILD:

"NO, IT WOULDN'T WORK."

THE CRAFT WAS VARIOUSLY REFERRED TO IN COURT AS THE HELICOPTER, MACHINE, INSTRUMENT, MODEL, GADGET AND "THE THING." #

ATHENS, JAN 6-(AP)-A NEW GREEK CABINET UNDER PREMIER JOHN THEOTOKIS WAS SWORN IN TODAY, ENDING A GOVERNMENT CRISIS.

THEOTOKIS, A FORMER POPULIST (ROYALIST) WHO NOW IS AN INDEPENDENT, WAS ASSIGNED THE TASK OF FORMING A GOVERNMENT BY KING PAUL AFTER THE COALITION GOVERNMENT OF ALEXANDER DIOMEDIS RESIGNED IN A DISPUTE BETWEEN THE POPULISTS AND LIBERALS OVER THE TIMING OF THE 1950 PARLIAMENTARY ELECTIONS.

THEOTOKIS, SPEAKER OF PARLIAMENT, HAD BEEN GIVEN AUTHORITY TO FORM A CABINET WHICH WILL HAVE THE POWER TO DISSOLVE PARLIAMENT AND PROCLAIM A GENERAL ELECTION.

THE GENERAL ELECTIONS HAD BEEN PLANNED FOR APRIL BUT LIBERAL CABINET MEMBERS WANTED THEM HELD EARLIER. GRANTING AUTHORITY TO THEOTOKIS AUTHORITY TO DISSOLVE PARLIAMENT AND CALL FOR A ELECTION MAY ADVANCE THE DATE OF THE BALLOTING.

JAN 7 - 1950

THEOTOKIS IS PREPARING A LIST OF HIS CABINET MINISTERS WHICH HE WILL SUBMIT TO THE KING. THEY MAY BE SWORN IN TODAY.

HE TOLD REPORTERS HIS GOVERNMENT WILL NOT INCLUDE ANY POLITICIANS BUT WILL CONSIST ONLY OF SENIOR CIVIL SERVANTS AND TECHNICIANS.

THE MINISTRIES OF WAR, NAVY AND AVIATION WILL BE MERGED UNDER THE DEFENSE MINISTRY, WHICH THEOTOKIS HIMSELF WILL HEAD.

THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE WILL GO TO GEORGE MANTZAVINOS, NOW GOVERNOR OF THE BANK OF GREECE; THE INTERIOR MINISTRY GOES TO NICOLAOS LIANOPOULOS, NOW A SENIOR OFFICIAL OF THAT MINISTRY.

JUSTICE MINISTRY TO SUPREME COURT PRESIDENT ELIAS PAPAELIOUS AND THE PUBLIC ORDER MINISTRY TO ANGELO EVANGELOS.

THEOTOKIS SAID GENERALISSIMO ALEXANDER PAPAGOS, WHO RESIGNED AS CHIEF OF THE ARMED FORCES, HAD AGREED TO WITHDRAW HIS RESIGNATION IN RESPONSE TO A REQUEST BY THE KING.

PAPAGOS, WHO COMMANDED THE RECENT ROUTE OF THE COMMUNIST GUERRILLAS, SAID HE HAD QUIT BECAUSE OF CRITICISM FROM FIRST DEPUTY PREMIER CONSTANTIN TSALDARIS, THE POPULIST LEADER.

THEOTOKIS SAID THE ONLY MEMBER OF THE OLD CABINET WHO WILL BE ASKED TO RETAIN HIS POST IS COORDINATION MINISTER STEPHAN STEPHANOPOULOS, NOW ATTENDING A MARSHALL PLAN CONFERENCE IN PARIS.

THEOTOKIS IS A FORMER POPULIST WHO RESIGNED FROM THE PARTY NOV. 16, ANNOUNCING HE WOULD BE AN INDEPENDENT DEPUTY. HE HAD BEEN ONE OF THE FOUR MAJOR LEADERS OF THE POPULISTS, WHO HOLD THE LARGEST NUMBERS IN PARLIAMENT. HIS ACTION CAUSED A SERIOUS SPLIT IN PARTY RANKS.

JAN 7 - 1950

PRAGUE, CZECHOSLOVAKIA, JAN. 6-(AP)-THE COMMUNIST GOVERNMENT TODAY EXPELLED RICHARD KASISCHKE, CHIEF OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS BUREAU HERE, AND THREE OTHER CORRESPONDENTS REPRESENTING NEWS ORGANIZATIONS IN THE UNITED STATES, BRITAIN AND FRANCE.

THE EXPULSION ORDER CUT IN HALF THE ALREADY REDUCED STAFFS OF FOREIGN CORRESPONDENTS COVERING CZECHOSLOVAKIA FOR THE NON-COMMUNIST WORLD. THE ASSOCIATED PRESS BUREAU WILL BE IN CHARGE OF NATE POLOVETZKY, LIKE KASISCHKE AN AMERICAN.

BESIDES KASISCHKE, THOSE EXPELLED BY TODAY'S ORDER ARE ROB ROY BUCKINGHAM, UNITED PRESS CORRESPONDENT, MISS AMBERR BOUSOUGLOU, CORRESPONDENT OF THE FRENCH P

BUCKINGHAM, UNITED PRESS CORRESPONDENT, MISS AMBER BOUSOUGLOU, CORRESPONDENT OF THE FRENCH PRESS AGENCY (AFP), AND ERIC BOURNE OF THE KEMSLEY NEWSPAPERS OF GREAT BRITAIN.

MISS BOUSOUGLOU AND BOURNE RECEIVED POLICE ORDERS TO LEAVE THE COUNTRY WITHIN THREE DAYS. THEY APPEALED FOR EXTENSIONS TO WIND UP THEIR AFFAIRS HERE.

KASISCHKE AND BUCKINGHAM WERE TOLD BY THE PRESS DEPARTMENT OF THE FOREIGN MINISTRY THEY WERE NOT BEING REACCREDITED FOR 1950. EACH ASKED FOR 10 DAYS RESPITE.

THE ACTION TODAY BRINGS TO 10 THE NUMBER OF WESTERN NEWSPAPER CORRESPONDENTS OUSTED FROM THIS COUNTRY IN THE LAST SIX MONTHS. THIS, HOWEVER, WAS THE FIRST GROUP EXPULSION.

KASISCHKE, 37, HAS BEEN IN THE AP FOREIGN SERVICE SINCE 1943. HE WAS A CORRESPONDENT IN ENGLAND AND GERMANY BEFORE COMING TO PRAGUE LAST JUNE 15. KASISCHKE, A NATIVE OF ST.JOSEPH, MICH., WORKED ON MICHIGAN NEWSPAPERS AND IN THE DETROIT BUREAU OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS BEFORE COMING TO EUROPE.

POLOVETZKY, WHO ASSUMES CHARGE OF THE AP BUREAU, IS 28. HE CAME HERE SEPT. 1 FROM LONDON. POLOVETZKY, A NATIVE OF HARRISON, N.J., JOINED THE AP IN 1944 AFTER WORKING AS A REPORTER ON THE JERSEY JOURNAL, JERSEY CITY, N.J., AND THE NEWARK, N.J., STAR-LEDGER. HE CAME TO EUROPE LAST MARCH.

BUCKINGHAM IS A NATIVE OF CONCORDIA, KANS. HE WORKED ON THE DODGE CITY, KANS., GLOBE AND IN THE OMAHA AND MEXICO CITY BUREAUS OF UNITED PRESS BEFORE COMING TO EUROPE IN 1948.

A CZECH SPOKESMAN SAID THE GOVERNMENT HAD DECIDED TO LIMIT ALL FOREIGN AGENCIES TO ONE FOREIGN CORRESPONDENT. THE FOUR CORRESPONDENTS WHO WILL REMAIN REPRESENT THE AP, THE UNITED PRESS, REUTERS AND THE FRENCH PRESS AGENCY.

A FOREIGN MINISTRY SPOKESMAN TOLD THE ASSOCIATED PRESS AND UNITED PRESS THAT THEY COULD NOMINATE REPLACEMENTS FOR THEIR OUSTED MEN AND THAT THESE NOMINEES WOULD BE ACCEPTED. A REQUEST FOR A WRITTEN STATEMENT ON THAT WAS MET WITH THE RESPONSE:

"WE DON'T DO SUCH THINGS."

THE CORRESPONDENTS INVOLVED WERE TOLD INDIVIDUALLY OF THEIR DISACCREDITATION, EIO 0084:- CW

JAN 7 - 1950

THE CORRESPONDENTS INVOLVED WERE TOLD INDIVIDUALLY OF THEIR DISACCREDITATION, EITHER BY REPRESENTATIVES OF THE MINISTRY OF INTERIOR OR BY THE FOREIGN MINISTRY.

THE REASONS GIVEN FOR THE EXPULSIONS RANGED FROM "UNOBJECTIVE AND NOT POSITIVE REPORTING" TO "HAVING ACQUAINTANCE WITH REACTIONARY CZECHOSLOVAKS."

THE CORRESPONDENTS DENIED THE CHARGES, AND WITHOUT AVAILABLE DEMANDED SUBSTANTIATION.

JAN 7 - 1950

BESIDES HANDLING THE NEWS OF CZECHOSLOVAKIA, THE PRAGUE STAFF OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS HAS RELAYED MUCH OF THE NEWS THAT REACHES THE REST OF THE WORLD FROM BULGARIA, ROMANIA AND HUNGARY. THIS NEWS HAS BEEN TELEPHONED TO PRAGUE FOR HANDLING.

BESIDES POLOWETZKY, THESE WESTERN CORRESPONDENTS WILL REMAIN IN PRAGUE:

JACK HIGGINS, UNITED PRESS. FORMERLY WITH THE NEW CASTLE,PA., NEWS, HE JOINED THE UP AT CHICAGO IN 1946 AND WENT TO LONDON IN 1948. HE ARRIVED HERE SEPT.1.

GASTON FOURNIER, CHIEF OF BUREAU, FRENCH PRESS AGENCY. HE HAS BEEN HERE ABOUT 18 MONTHS.

SIDNEY BROOKES, REUTERS (BRITISH), HERE ABOUT 18 MONTHS, BUT LEAVING SOON, TO BE REPLACED BY ANOTHER CORRESPONDENT.

THE EXPULSION ORDERS CLIMAXED AN INTENSIVE CAMPAIGN AGAINST THE WESTERN PRESS AND RADIO BY THE COMMUNISTS. IT REACHED ITS PEAK DURING THE CHRISTMAS HOLIDAYS.

THE CORRESPONDENTS INVOLVED COVERED A CZECHOSLOVAK STORY HIGHLIGHTED BY THE GOVERNMENT'S FIGHT TO CONTROL THE ROMAN CATHOLIC CHURCH, THE WIDESPREAD PURGES AND ARRESTS WHICH THREW THOUSANDS INTO JAILS AND LABOR CAMPS, AND THE CONTINUING GOVERNMENT CAMPAIGN TO LIQUIDATE THE MIDDLE CLASS AND COLLECTIVIZE AGRICULTURE. THESE REPORTS HAVE GONE OUT OF HERE UNCENSORED, AND, IN THE CASE OF THE NEWS AGENCIES, OVER LEASED WIRES WHICH ALSO BRING WORLD NEWS TO CZECHOSLOVAKIA.

THE OUSTED CORRESPONDENTS ALL WERE THE SENIOR MEMBERS OF THEIR BUREAUS.

KASISCHKE WAS INFORMED OF THE GOVERNMENT ACTION WHEN HE WENT WITH POLOVETZKY TO THE OFFICE OF HEDRICH RUNGE, DEPUTY CHIEF OF THE FOREIGN MINISTRY PRESS DEPARTMENT, TO SEEK REACCREDITATION FOR 1950. RUNGE TOLD HIM POLOVETZKY'S ACCREDITATION HAD BEEN GRANTED, BUT THE GOVERNMENT HAD REJECTED KASISCHKE.

WHY? HE WAS ASKED.

"KASISCHKE IS PERSONA NON GRATA," THE OFFICIAL REPLIED.

RUNGE WAS ASKED FOR MORE SPECIFIC REASONS. HE TURNED TO KASISCHKE AND SAID:

"WE FEEL THAT YOU HAVE NOT BEEN ENTIRELY FAIR AND OBJECTIVE. WE FEEL THAT YOU, LIKE OTHER WESTERN NEWSPAPERMEN, HAVE BEEN LOOKING ONLY FOR SENSATIONS."

KASISCHKE ASKED FOR INSTANCES AND OFFERED TO TRANSMIT TO ALL ASSOCIATED PRESS MEMBERS ANY CRITICISM THE CZECH GOVERNMENT WANTED TO MAKE, BASED UPON SPECIFIC EXAMPLES.

"RUNGE," SAID KASISCHKE, "YOU SIT HERE ALL DAY CLIPPING PRAGUE REPORTS OUT OF ENGLISH-LANGUAGE PAPERS. SURELY YOU MIGHT TRY TO PRODUCE JUST ONE TO BACK UP WHAT YOU SAY."

RUNGE REPLIED ONLY: "WE ARE NOT IN A POSITION TO DO SO AT THE PRESENT TIME."

WHEN THE UP CORRESPONDENTS LATER CHALLENGED RUNGE SIMILARLY, THE OFFICIAL REPLIED: "OH, WE HAVE LOTS OF CLIPPINGS TO SHOW THAT YOU ANGLE STORIES TO PUT THE CZECHOSLOVAK GOVERNMENT IN A BAD LIGHT, BUT WE HAVEN'T TIME TO PRODUCE THEM."

BUCKINGHAM AND HIGGINS SAID THEY BOTH DENIED RUNGE'S CHARGES AGAINST THE UNITED PRESS.

BOTH THE AP AND THE UP MEN CHALLENGED RUNGE TO SAY HOW HE COULD KNOW WHICH REPORTS WERE WRITTEN BY WHICH MAN IN AN AGENCY OFFICE. RUNGE REFUSED TO ANSWER.

THE AP MEN ASKED RUNGE IF THE OUSTERS REPRESENT A CZECH POLICY TO HALVE THE WESTERN PRESS REPRESENTATION HERE. HE WOULD NOT ANSWER DIRECTLY. THE AP MEN THEN SAID THEY WANTED TO KNOW WHETHER TASS, THE OFFICIAL SOVIET AGENCY, WOULD BE REDUCED, AND HOW MANY MEN TASS NOW HAS HERE. THE CZECH OFFICIALS SAID THEY DIDN'T KNOW.

WHAT DID THE CZECH GOVERNMENT EXPECT OF WESTERN CORRESPONDENTS? RUNGE WAS ASKED. HE REPLIED:

"WE WANT TO GET A PRESS WHICH GIVES NEUTRAL AND FAIR REPORTS."

RUNGE DECLINED AN INVITATION FROM THE AGENCY MEN TO VISIT THEIR OFFICES AND SEE HOW MUCH OF ALL SIDES IS TRANSMITTED, INCLUDING REAMS OF COMMUNIST PRESS ATTACKS AGAINST THE WEST.

BOURNE, THE KEMSLEY CORRESPONDENT, SAID RUNGE HAD ACCUSED HIM OF "UNFAIR REPORTING AND A LACK OF OBJECTIVENESS OVER A LONG PERIOD," AND THAT OFFICIALS OBJECTED TO HIS "CONNECTIONS" WITH CERTAIN CZECHS.

A1 79

"LATER, RUNGE ACCUSED ME OF LACK OF OBJECTIVITY AND PERSISTENT UNFAIRNESS IN FAILING TO PRESENT ALL SIDES OF THE PICTURE HERE," BOURNE SAID. "HE CHARGED ME WITH PERSISTENTLY 'NAGGING' THE REGIME AND SAID THAT I HAD CONCENTRATED ON ASPECTS OF PRESENTING AN UNFAVORABLE PICTURE OF THE 'NEW LIFE.'"

BOURNE SAID HE DENIED ALL THIS AND CHALLENGED RUNGE TO SELECT A SINGLE INSTANCE TO BACK IT UP. HE SAID RUNGE DID NOT REPLY.

IN THE PAST HALF YEAR THERE HAS BEEN AN INCREASING NUMBER OF REJECTIONS OF VISA APPLICATIONS FROM WESTERN REPORTERS TRYING TO VISIT THIS COUNTRY.

NEW DELHI, INDIA, JAN.6-(AP)-INDIA HAS PROPOSED TO PAKISTAN A JOINT DECLARATION OUTLAWING WAR BETWEEN THE TWO COUNTRIES, PRIME MINISTER JAWAHARLAL NEHRU SAID TODAY.
NEHRU TOLD A NEWS CONFERENCE THAT A DRAFT OF THE PROPOSAL WAS DISPATCHED THREE WEEKS AGO, BUT THE PAKISTANI GOVERNMENT HAS NOT YET REPLIED.
A RECENT WORSENING OF AN ALREADY TENSE SITUATION BETWEEN INDIA AND PAKISTAN PROMPTED THE PROPOSAL.
NEHRU SAID HE HAD PREVIOUSLY SUGGESTED A DECLARATION BANNING WAR AS A MEANS OF LESSENING TENSION BETWEEN THIS HINDU NATION AND MOSLEM PAKISTAN.
AFTER AN EXCHANGE OF NOTES, NEHRU SAID, PAKISTAN ASKED FOR A PRECISE DRAFT. HE SAID INDIA'S DRAFT SUGGESTS THE SETTLEMENT OF INDO-PAKISTANI DIFFERENCES BY CONCILIATION, MEDIATION, ARBITRATION AND JUDICIAL TRIBUNALS, BUT NEVER BY ARMED CONFLICT.
THE KASHMIR DISPUTE HAS ATTRACTED MORE ATTENTION THAN ANY OTHER PROBLEM BETWEEN INDIA AND PAKISTAN. EACH WANTS TO ANNEX KASHMIR, WHICH IS ABOUT 77 PER CENT MOSLEM, AND HAVE BEEN IN ARMED CONFLICT OVER IT. THE CONFLICT IS STALEMATED ON CEASE-FIRE LINES.
OTHER POINTS OF DIFFERENCE INCLUDE THE REFUGEE PROPERTY QUESTION AND BOUNDARY CONFLICTS.
THE SITUATION HAS DETERIORATED SINCE THE HINDU NATIONALIST MAHASABHA MET IN CALCUTTA RECENTLY TO START AGITATION FOR THE REUNION OF DIVIDED INDIA.
PAKISTAN'S EAST BENGAL PREMIER, NURUL AMIN, OPPOSING THIS MOVEMENT IN A STATEMENT FROM DACCA, CALLED FOR "HANDS OFF PAKISTAN!" HE SAID "ANYONE STRIVING FOR REUNION WILL FIND A STALINGRAD IN EAST BENGAL."
NEHRU AND DEPUTY PRIME MINISTER SARDAR PATEL DENOUNCED THE HINDU-NATIONALIST MOVE BUT AT THE SAME TIME CONDEMNED PAKISTAN LEADERS' TALKS OF INTERDOMINION WAR.

SAIGON,INDO-CHINA,JAN.6-(AP)-NGUYEN PHAN LONG, FORMER FOREIGN MINISTER OF VIET NAM, SAID TODAY EX-EMPEROR BAO DAI HAS ASKED HIM TO TAKE THE POST OF PREMIER IN THE NEW FRENCH-SPONSORED STATE AND FORM A CABINET.
THE OLD CABINET RESIGNED YESTERDAY AFTER BAO-DAI GAVE UP THE PREMIERSHIP TO DEVOTE HIMSELF ENTIRELY TO THE TASK OF BEING CHIEF OF STATE.
VIET NAM, WHICH INCLUDES 24,000,000 INHABITANTS OF ANNAM, TONKIN AND COCHIN-CHINA, HAS BEEN GRANTED LIMITED AUTONOMY BY FRANCE. THE AGREEMENTS PUTTING THE NEW STATUS INTO EFFECT HAVE NOT YET BEEN APPROVED BY THE FRENCH PARLIAMENT, HOWEVER.
NGUYEN PHAN SAID HIS CABINET WILL SEEK TO RESTORE INTERNAL ORDER

AND TO ESTABLISH FRIENDLY RELATIONS WITH THE GREAT POWERS.

STRONG COMMUNIST-LED GUERRILLAS STILL CONTROL A LARGE PART OF THE AREA.

THE NEW REGIME HAS HAD NO OFFICIAL RECOGNITION ABROAD, BUT NGUYEN PHAN SAID THE UNITED STATES APPEARS SYMPATHETIC. HE ADDED THAT BAO DAI IS DELAYING A TRIP TO FRANCE IN ORDER TO SEE U.S. ROVING AMBASSADOR PHILIP JESSUP, WHEN HE ARRIVES HERE JAN.24.

VIET NAM WILL HAVE LIMITED DIPLOMATIC REPRESENTATION ABROAD WHEN THE FRENCH AGREEMENTS GO INTO EFFECT.

NGUYEN PHAN SAID VIET NAM WOULD BE OBLIGED TO FOLLOW THE GENERAL TREND AND RECOGNIZE COMMUNIST CHINA.

HE ADDED THAT HE FEARED THIS RECOGNITION WOULD INCREASE THE PRESTIGE OF GUERRILLA LEADER HO CHI MINH IN THE EYES OF VIET NAMESES.

THE CHINESE RED ARMY IS NOW ON INDO-CHINA'S BORDER.

--BASH--

THE VOYAGE OF ABOUT 800 MILES NORMALLY WOULD REQUIRE ABOUT THREE DAYS FOR A FREIGHTER.

THE FLYING ARROW CARRIED A CARGO WORTH $10,000,000, U.S., 12 PASSENGERS AND A CREW OF 43.

ELEVEN AMERICAN MEMBERS OF THE CREW WERE PERMITTED TO SIGN OFF IN HONG KONG, BEING REPLACED BY BRITISH AND OTHER FOREIGN SAILORS. THE PASSENGERS INCLUDED TWO BRITISH WOMEN.

THE VOYAGE OF THE FLYING ARROW HAS BEEN A SUBJECT OF DEBATE SINCE THE NATIONALISTS ANNOUNCED THEY HAD MINED SHANGHAI'S APPROACHES.

THE U.S.STATE DEPARTMENT GAVE SPECIAL PERMISSION FOR SIGNING-OFF ANY CREW MEMBERS WHO DID NOT WANT TO RUN THE RISK.

"WE ARE NOT BLUFFING WHEN WE SAY THE APPROACHES TO SHANGHAI HAVE BEEN MINED," A NATIONALIST NAVY SPOKESMAN TOLD THE ASSOCIATED PRESS ON FORMOSA. add- Flying arrow-xxx returning.

"IT IS QUITE POSSIBLE A SHIP MIGHT REACH SHANGHAI WITHOUT STRIKING A MINE, BUT THERE IS NO GUARANTEE OF THAT."

IN NEW YORK, THE ISBRANDTSEN COMPANY, OPERATOR OF THE FLYING ARROW AND OTHER SHIPS THAT HAVE DEFIED THE NATIONALIST BLOCKADE, ANNOUNCED IT HAS PETITIONED CONGRESS TO INVESTIGATE THE DETENTION OF TWO OF ITS VESSELS AND THE SHELLING OF TWO OTHERS.

THE PETITION, WHICH THE COMPANY SAID WAS FILED IN WASHINGTON, ALSO ASKS THAT THE GOVERNMENT "AFFORD SOME PROTECTION TO THE COMPANY'S AMERICAN FLAG SHIPS AND THE AMERICAN CREWS AND PASSENGERS ABOARD."

"IT IS JUST AS UNLAWFUL TO ATTACK AMERICAN SHIPS BY LAYING MINES INDISCRIMINATELY ON THE HIGH SEAS AS IT IS TO SHOOT AT THEM ON THE HIGH SEAS," THE PETITION SAID.

THE COMPANY ALSO ASKED CONGRESSIONAL PERMISSION TO ARM ITS SHIPS.

THERE WAS MUCH SPECULATION--BUT NO OFFICIAL COMMENT--IN THE NATIONALIST CAPITAL OVER WHETHER BRITAIN WOULD SEND MINESWEEPERS TO CLEAR THE SHANGHAI APPROACHES NOW THAT BRITAIN HAD RECOGNIZED THE RED REGIME.

THERE WAS SIMILAR SPECULATION IN COMMERCE-HUNGRY HONG KONG.

ONE OF THE CONSIDERATIONS OF RECOGNITION IS BRITISH HOPE FOR EXPANDED TRADE WITH COMMUNIST CHINA.

A HONG KONG GOVERNMENT SPOKESMAN SAID INSTRUCTIONS WERE STILL BEING AWAITED FROM LONDON ON ACTION TO BE TAKEN AS A RESULT OF RECOGNITION.

SOME DISPOSITION WILL HAVE TO BE MADE OF NATIONALIST ASSETS IN THAT BRITISH COLONY.

MAJOR ITEMS INCLUDE SOME $2,000,000 IN CHINA NATIONAL RESOURCES COMMISSION PROPERTY AND AN ESTIMATED $20,000,000 WORTH OF PROPERTY OF THE CHINA NATIONAL AVIATION AND CENTRAL AIR TRANSPORT CORPORATIONS.

ALL ARE BEING CONTESTED IN HONG KONG COURTS.

CLAIRE L.CHENNAULT, RETIRED U.S.MAJOR GENERAL, CLAIMS TITLE TO BOTH CNAC AND CATC.

CHENNAULT'S OWN CIVIL AIR TRANSPORT LINE SUSPENDED FLIGHTS TO HONG KONG FRIDAY DUE TO BRITISH RECOGNITION OF THE REDS. THE LINE STILL FLIES UNDER THE NATIONALIST FLAG AND WANTS TO BE SURE ITS PLANES WILL NOT BE IMPOUNDED.

FLYING ARROW

HONG KONG, JAN. 6-(AP)-THE ISBRANDTSEN LINE FREIGHTER FLYING ARROW WILL SAIL TONIGHT FOR RED SHANGHAI WITH A $10,000,000 (M) CARGO AND 12 PASSENGERS.

HER COURSE LIES THROUGH THE NATIONALIST CHINESE AIR AND SEA BLOCKADE AND A MINE FIELD THE NATIONALISTS SAY THEY HAVE LAID IN SHANGHAI WATERS.

ELEVEN AMERICAN CREWMEN OF THE VESSEL REFUSED TO MAKE THE DANGEROUS VOYAGE. MOST OF THEM HAVE BEEN REPLACED BY BRITISH AND OTHER FOREIGN SAILORS. THE SHIP CARRIES A CREW OF 43.

WAYNE RICHARDSON, ASSOCIATED PRESS CORRESPONDENT IN HONG KONG, WILL MAKE THE TRIP ABOARD THE FLYING ARROW. HE IS THE ONLY NEWSPAPERMAN ON BOARD.

THE PASSENGERS INCLUDE TWO WOMEN.

ANOTHER ISBRANDTSEN LINE SHIP, THE BROOKLYN HEIGHTS, IS LOADING CARGO FOR SHANGHAI IN HONG KONG. SHE CARRIES A CREW OF 42 AMERICANS. SOME OF HER CREW INDICATED THEY MAY SIGN OFF RATHER THAN RISK A TRIP TO SHANGHAI.

THE U.S. STATE DEPARTMENT HAS AUTHORIZED THE RETURN TO THE UNITED STATES OF SAILORS SIGNING OFF EITHER SHIP.

THE STATE DEPARTMENT HAS WARNED ALL AMERICAN SHIP CAPTAINS THAT SHANGHAI WATERS ARE DANGEROUS. CAPTAINS WHO RISK THE VOYAGE TO THE COMMUNIST PORT MAY HAVE THEIR LICENSES REVOKED, THE DEPARTMENT SAID.

THE FLYING ARROW'S CARGO CONSISTS OF CHEMICALS AND OTHER ITEMS BADLY NEEDED BY THE COMMUNISTS.

WITH FLYING ARROW (150)

TAIPEH, FORMOSA, JAN. 6-(AP)-A CHINESE NATIONALIST NAVY SPOKESMAN SAID TONIGHT "IT WOULD BE REGRETTABLE AND UNPLEASANT" IF AMERICANS LIVES WERE LOST BY THE PROJECTED SHANGHAI VOYAGE OF THE AMERICAN FREIGHTER FLYIHNG ARROW.

THE FLYING ARROW, WITH A CREW OF 43 MOSTLY AMERICANS, 12 PASSENGERS AND A $10,000,000 (M) CARGO, IS SCHEDULED TO LEAVE HONG KONG TONIGHT FOR COMMUNIST SHANGHAI, WHICH IS UNDER NATIONALIST SEA AND AIR BLOCKADE.

"WE ARE NOT BLUFFING WHEN WE SAY THE APPROACHES TO SHANGHAI HAVE BEEN MINED," THE NAVY SPOKESMAN SAID.

"IT IS QUITE POSSIBLE A SHIP MIGHT REACH SHANGHAI WITHOUT STRIKING A MINE BUT THERE IS NO GUARANTEE OF THAT."

THERE WAS MUCH SPECULATION IN THE NATIONALIST CAPITAL ON WHETHER GREAT BRITAIN WILL SEND MINE SWEEPERS TO CLEAR THE APPROACHES TO SHANGHAI TO ENABLE THE RESUMPTION OF BRITISH TRADE WITH THAT GREAT PORT. OFFICIAL QUARTERS REFUSED TO COMMENT BUT THERE IS GOOD REASON TO BELIEVE THE SUBJECT HAS BEEN DISCUSSED IN HIGHEST QUARTERS HERE.

TAIPEH, FORMOSA, JAN. 6-(AP)-AMERICANS ON FORMOSA WERE ADVISED PRIVATELY A MONTH AGO BY THEIR CONSULAR AUTHORITIES TO LEAVE THE ISLAND.

A FEW MISSIONARIES LEFT. SO DID MOST DEPENDENTS OF AMERICAN OFFICIALS. ABOUT 250 AMERICANS ARE STILL HERE.

THEIR EVACUATION IN THE EVENT OF A COMMUNIST INVASION OF FORMOSA WOULD NOT POSE A GREAT PROBLEM BECAUSE OF THEIR SMALL NUMBER.

TOKYO, SATURDAY, JAN. 7-(AP)-FOUR NEWSPAPERMEN WERE QUIZZED YESTERDAY AND TODAY IN AN OFFICIAL INVESTIGATION OF HOW A SECRET STATE DEPARTMENT DOCUMENT ON FORMOSA GOT INTO PRINT.

GENERAL MACARTHUR'S HEADQUARTERS WANTS TO LEARN HOW THE DOCUMENT, A SECRET MEMORANDUM TO REPRESENTATIVES ABROAD SAYING THE FALL OF FORMOSA WAS ANTICIPATED, LEAKED OUT.

THREE CORRESPONDENTS WERE QUESTIONED YESTERDAY. EARNEST HOBERECHT OF THE UNITED PRESS, WHO FIRST PUBLISHED A STORY ON THE DOCUMENT, SAID HE WAS QUESTIONED FOR ABOUT 30 MINUTES THIS MORNING.

HOBERECHT SAID HE WAS ASKED IF HE SAW THE DOCUMENT, WHERE, AND UNDER WHAT CIRCUMSTANCES. TO ALL QUESTIONS HE REPLIED: "I HAVE NOTHING TO SAY."

TOM LAMBERT, ASSOCIATED PRESS CORRESPONDENT, WAS QUESTIONED FOR 10 MINUTES YESTERDAY. A COLONEL AND A LIEUTENANT COLONEL SAT IN ON THE QUESTIONING.

LAMBERT TOLD THEM HE HAD SEEN THE DOCUMENT BUT DECLINED TO SAY WHO HAD SHOWN IT TO HIM. HE SAID HE HAD BEEN ASKED AT THE TIME NOT TO USE THE MATERIAL. HE ADDED THAT HE DID NOT DO SO UNTIL THE UNITED PRESS STORY APPEARED.

HOWARD HANDELMAN OF THE INTERNATIONAL NEWS WAS QUESTIONED ALONG MUCH THE SAME LINE. HE TOLD THE QUESTIONERS HE HAD NOT SEEN THE DOCUMENT BUT THAT BOB HORIGUCHI, A STAFFER, HAD.

HORIGUCHI THEN WAS CALLED AND SAID HE HAD SEEN THE MEMORANDUM BUT HAD NOT USED IT FOR PUBLICATION. BOTH HE AND HANDLEMAN EXPLAINED THEY DID NOT KNOW HOW UNITED PRESS GOT ACCESS TO THE INFORMATION.

MACARTHUR'S HEADQUARTERS SAID DISCIPLINARY ACTION WOULD BE TAKEN IF RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE LEAK COULD BE DETERMINED.

THIS WOULD NOT NECESSARILY APPLY TO CORRESPONDENTS, BUT POSSIBLY TO ANY ONE WHO SHOWED THE DOCUMENT. HOWEVER, CORRESPPONDENTS IN THE PAST HAVE BEEN WARNED THAT THEY ARE SUBJECT TO JAIL TERMS FOR PUBLISHING SECRET MATERIAL.

NAGAI SAID TODAY THE PROGRAM IS EXPECTED TO CONTINUE OVER A 20 TO 30 YEAR PERIOD. HE WAS ASKED TO SERVE AS A MIDDLEMAN IN THE PROGRAM BY JAPANESE ASSOCIATIONS IN THE ARGENTINE WHEN HE VISITED THERE AS A PRIVATE TRADER LAST YEAR.

NAGAI SAID THE PROGRAM HAS BEEN ENDORSED BY MATEO A. TOUS, TREASURY MINISTER OF CORRIENTES PROVINCE. THE JAPANESE EMIGRANTS WILL RECEIVE TRAVEL EXPENSES, LAND, EQUIPMENT AND FUNDS FOR LIVING FROM THE PROVINCIAL GOVERNMENT ON A 30-YEAR LOAN BASIS, NAGAI SAID.

SO FAR ENTRY PERMITS HAVE NOT BEEN OBTAINED FROM ARGENTINA FOR THE 100 FAMILIES, BUT NAGAI EXPECTED NO DIFFICULTY.

THE OCCUPATION SINCE 1948 HAS PERMITTED JAPANESE TO TRAVEL TO FOREIGN NATIONS WHICH WOULD CERTIFY THAT SUCH PERSONS WOULD BE ADMITTED AS PERMANENT RESIDENTS.

OCCUPATION SOURCES SAID THERE WOULD BE NO DIFFICULTY OVER EXIT PERMITS IF THE JAPANESE GET PROPER TRAVEL AND ENTRY PAPERS FROM THE ARGENTINE GOVERNMENT.

FAR EAST

BY JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

JAN 7 - 1950

WASHINGTON, JAN.6-(AP)-ADMINISTRATION LEADERS WERE REPORTED TODAY SHAPING A FAR EASTERN POLICY AIMED AT DRIVING A WEDGE BETWEEN THE CHINESE PEOPLE AND COMMUNIST RUSSIA.

THIS POLICY, EXPECTED TO BE SET FORTH IN A STATEMENT SOON, WOULD ANNOUNCE A FIRM ATTITUDE OF FRIENDSHIP FOR THE INHABITANTS OF CHINA, LEAVING THE WAY OPEN FOR EVENTUAL RECOGNITION OF THE COMMUNIST REGIME THERE.

EVIDENCE THAT SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON HIMSELF MAY LAY DOWN THE POLICY IN PUBLIC CAME IN AN ANNOUNCEMENT THAT HE WILL MAKE AN ADDRESS TO THE NATIONAL PRESS CLUB HERE THURSDAY ON "THE FAR EASTERN SITUATION."

WHILE THE STATE DEPARTMENT WOULD NOT SAY DEFINITELY THAT ACHESON WILL SPEAK ON THERECORD, OFFICIALS UNDERSTAND THAT HIS PRESS CLUB APPEARANCE WILL BE THE OCCASION FOR A MAJOR POLICY STATEMENT.

THE POLICY DECLARATION IS NOW BEING DRAFTED IN THE STATE DEPARTMENT. IT WILL PROVIDE THE BASIS FOR HIS TALK WITH CONGRESSIONAL COMMITTEES NEXT WEEK.

OUTLINES OF THE PROPOSED POLICY STATEMENT APPARENTLY WERE ALREADY FAIRLY WELL SET.

more

WITH RESPECT TO OTHER ASIATIC COUNTRIES, THE POLICY WOULD STATE U. S. SUPPORT FOR NATIONALIST--AS OPPOSED TO COMMUNIST--MOVEMENTS, PLUS ECONOMIC ASSISTANCE AND POSSIBLY ARMS AID TO SPECIFIC NATIONS THREATENED BY COMMUNIST AGGRESSION.

ON TUESDAY SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON WILL GO BEFORE A JOINT SESSION OF THE SENATE FOREIGN RELATIONS AND HOUSE FOREIGN AFFAIRS COMMITTEES TO REVIEW GLOBAL U.S. POLICY. EMPHASIS WILL BE ON THE FAR EAST, PARTICULARLY BECAUSE OF THE CURRENT ROW OVER FORMOSA.

ADMINISTRATION LEADERS EXPECT ACHESON TO BE ARMED WITH A COMPLETE FAR EAST POLICY STATEMENT AT THAT TIME. LATER, HE MAY MAKE A PUBLIC ADDRESS ON THE SUBJECT.

THE BASIC POLICY LINES WHICH PRESENTLY UNDERLIE AMERICAN DIPLOMACY IN THE ORIENT, FIGURED IN PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S DECLARATION YESTERDAY OF A HANDS-OFF ATTITUDE TOWARD FORMOSA.

AND THEY WERE IMPLIED, IF NOT ACTUALLY STATED, IN ACHESON'S FOLLOW UP EXPLANATION OF MR. TRUMAN'S STATEMENT.

THE PRESIDENT AND ACHESON EMPHASIZED THAT FORMOSA IS CHINESE TERRITORY. MR. TRUMAN STATED THAT THE UNITED STATES THEREFORE WOULD BECOME INVOLVED "IN THE CIVIL CONFLICT IN CHINA" IF IT TOOK MILITARY STEPS TO KEEP FORMOSA OUT OF CHINESE COMMUNIST HANDS.

STATE DEPARTMENT OFFICIALS EXPLAINED THAT THE ADMINISTRATION DOES NOT INTEND TO GIVE THE COMMUNISTS A CHANCE TO TELL THE CHINESE PEOPLE THAT THE UNITED STATES IS DENYING TO THEM THE CONTROL OF CHINESE TERRITORY.

AN INDICATION OF THE DEGREE TO WHICH FORMOSA IS BEING WRITTEN OFF HERE--MORE BECAUSE OF ITS UNSTABLE INTERNAL CONDITION THAN BECAUSE OF POSSIBLE COMMUNIST ATTACK--CAME LAST NIGHT WITH A REPORT THAT AMERICANS ARE BEING TOLD QUIETLY TO LEAVE THE ISLAND.

JAN 7 - 1950

ON THE BROADER ISSUE OF LONG-RANGE POLICY, AMERICAN AMBASSADOR-AT-LARGE PHILIP JESSUP SAID IN TOKYO THAT THE UNITED STATES DOES NOT CONSIDER CHINA "LOST."

HE REITERATED--AFTER MR. TRUMAN'S PRONOUNCEMENT--THAT THE UNITED STATES INTENDS TO CONTINUE ITS TRADITIONAL POLICY OF FRIENDSHIP AND SUPPORT FOR THE CHINESE PEOPLE. JESSUP IS ON A SURVEY TRIP OF THE FAR EAST. HIS STATEMENT APPEARED TO PARALLEL ACHESON'S EXPLANATION OF THE AMERICAN ATTITUDE TOWARD CHINA.

BESIDES FORMOSA, ACHESON DISCUSSED THE BROADER PROBLEM OF AMERICAN INFLUENCE WITH ASIATIC PEOPLES OUTSIDE CHINA, AND THE NECESSITY OF MAINTAINING THEIR CONFIDENCE IN THIS COUNTRY'S INTENTIONS.

THE SECRETARY ARGUED THAT AMERICAN INTERVENTION IN FORMOSA ON GROUNDS THAT IT MIGHT FALL INTO UNFRIENDLY HANDS COULD DESTROY ASIATIC FAITH IN AMERICAN INTEGRITY.

IN OTHER WORDS, OFFICIALS SAID, IF THE UNITED STATES WERE TO TRY SAVING FORMOSA BY LARGE SCALE MILITARY INTERVENTION, IT MIGHT WELL BE ACCUSED OF AN IMPERIALIST LAND GRAB--THEREBY SUFFERING A LOSS OF INFLUENCE THROUGHOUT THE FAR EAST.

ACHESON MADE CLEAR AT HIS NEWS CONFERENCE THAT HE REGARDS THE FORMOSA SITUATION AS SIMPLY AN INCIDENT, HOWEVER HOTLY DEBATED, IN THE TOTAL FAR EAST PROBLEM. MR. TRUMAN'S STATEMENT, HE SAID, WAS INTENDED TO END PUBLIC CONFUSION ON THE ISSUE.

REPUBLICAN SENATORS WHO HAD ADVOCATED STRONG ACTION TO AID THE CHINESE NATIONALISTS ON THE ISLAND IMMEDIATELY RESPONDED WITH BITTER CRITICISM. THE GOP LAWMAKERS MADE CLEAR THAT THEY DO NOT INTEND TO LET THE ISSUE DROP.

ACHESON DECLARED IT IS PREMATURE AT THIS TIME TO EVEN CONSIDER THE QUESTION OF CHINESE COMMUNIST RECOGNITION, OVER WHICH THE AMERICAN AND BRITISH GOVERNMENTS ARE NOW WIDELY SPLIT.

BUT HE DID NOT FORECLOSE FUTURE CONSIDERATION. IT WAS LEARNED THAT THE MATTER OF SETTING UP DIPLOMATIC RELATIONS HINGES PRIMARILY ON TWO POINTS, IN THE U.S. VIEW.

THE MOST IMPORTANT OF THESE, ACCORDING TO PRESENT OFFICIAL THINKING, IS THE ATTITUDE OF THE CHINESE REDS. SO FAR THEY HAVE NOT PRESSED FOR RECOGNITION, AND AUTHORITIES SAY IT WILL NOT BE HANDED TO THEM ON A SILVER PLATTER.

ACHESON IS REPORTED DETERMINED THAT FIRST THEY MUST GIVE EVIDENCE OF FAIR TREATMENT OF AMERICANS IN CHINA AND TAKE OTHER STEPS WHICH WOULD MEAN THAT RECOGNITION WOULD BE WORTH WHILE FOR THE UNITED STATES.

THE OTHER POINT IS WHETHER THE COMMUNIST REGIME WILL BE WILLING TO ASSUME CHINA'S ESTABLISHED INTERNATIONAL OBLIGATIONS. THE BRITISH APPARENTLY REQUESTED NO SUCH COMMITMENT--NO SPECIAL ASSURANCES, FOR EXAMPLE, ON THEIR FUTURE RIGHTS IN THE CROWN COLONY OF HONG KONG.

A11WX JAN 7 - 1950

EVEN IF, PERHAPS A YEAR HENCE, THE STATE DEPARTMENT BELIEVES THAT EVENTS HAVE MADE AMERICAN RECOGNITION DESIRABLE THERE WILL BE NO ACTION UNTIL AFTER FULL CONSULTATION WITH CONGRESS. ACHESON REITERATED THAT PLEDGE YESTERDAY.

THERE IS A STRONG CONVICTION AMONG STATE DEPARTMENT OFFICIALS THAT PERHAPS IN A YEAR OR SO THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS WILL NEED AID FROM THE WEST TO HELP SOLVE THEIR COUNTRY'S CRITICAL ECONOMIC PROBLEMS.

RUSSIA IS CONSIDERED UNABLE TO GIVE THEM ASSISTANCE, JUST AS IT HAS BEEN UNABLE TO GIVE SUBSTANTIAL HELP TO ITS EASTERN EUROPEAN SATELLITES.

THE PRESENT DISPOSITION OF OFFICIALS HERE IS TO PERMIT TRADE WITH THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS IF THEY WANT IT--PROVIDED THAT IT IS ON A CASH BASIS AND THAT NO MILITARY OR WAR POTENTIAL GOODS ARE INVOLVED.

THE NEW AMERICAN POLICY TOWARD CHINA IS BEING DEVELOPED ON THE THEORY THAT IN THE FAR EAST, AS IN EUROPE, THE STRUGGLE WITH COMMUNISM WILL GO ON PERHAPS FOR GENERATIONS.

OFFICIALS FEEL, THEREFORE, THAT THE WEST MUST BE PREPARED TO ESTABLISH ITS DIPLOMACY ON A LONG-RANGE BASIS, THEREAFTER PLAYING THE BREAKS AS THEY COME.

JAN 7 - 1950

BY DON WHITEHEAD

WASHINGTON, JAN.6-(AP)-A QUIET OFFICIAL MOVE TO CLEAR AMERICANS OUT OF COMMUNIST-THREATENED FORMOSA TODAY UNDERLINED A U.S. "IT'S-NOT-OUR-FIGHT" DECISION WHICH BROUGHT ROARS OF PROTEST FROM REPUBLICANS.

DIPLOMATIC OFFICIALS SAID THE WORD HAD GONE OUT TO AMERICANS TO LEAVE THE CHINESE NATIONALIST STRONGHOLD UNLESS THEY HAD IMPORTANT BUSINESS THERE.

A GENERAL WARNING TO EVACUATE WAS AVOIDED, AUTHORITIES SAID, LEST IT WEAKEN GENERALISSIMO CHIANG KAI'SHEK'S PRECARIOUS HOLD ON THE ISLAND. CHIANG REPORTEDLY FACES A GRAVE THREAT OF INTERNAL REVOLUTION ON FORMOSA, AS WELL AS A POSSIBLE COMMUNIST ATTACK.

THE POSSIBILITY OF AN UPRISING MAY HAVE PLAYED AN IMPORTANT PART IN THE DECISION ANNOUNCED YESTERDAY BY PRESIDENT TRUMAN NOT TO SEND ANY MILITARY HELP OR ADVICE TO CHAING AT THIS TIME.

MR. TRUMAN'S ANNOUNCEMENT BROUGHT A NEAR-SOLID WAVE OF ANGRY COMMENT FROM CONGRESSIONAL REPUBLICANS. THEY PROMISED NOT TO GIVE UP THE

JAN 7 - 1954 30.24- 8069

FIGHT FOR AID TO FORMOSA.

THE DEBATE CRACKLED ON THE SENATE FLOOR FOR MORE THAN FIVE HOURS YESTERDAY. ONE CHIEF COMPLAINT WAS: THE PRESIDENT IGNORED CONGRESS AND THE BIPARTISAN FOREIGN POLICY IN REACHING HIS DECISION.

ON THE OTHER SIDE, DEMOCRATIC LEADERS GAVE MR. TRUMAN STRONG SUPPORT AND DENIED THE BIPARTISAN POLICY WAS BEING KICKED OVERBOARD.

REPUBLICAN CRITICISM WAS LED BY SENATOR VANDENBERG OF MICHIGAN, WHO HAS BEEN ONE OF THE CHIEF DEFENDERS OF THE ADMINISTRATION'S FOREIGN PROGRAMS. VANDENBERG ISSUED A STATEMENT SAYING:

"THE FORMOSA QUESTION IS PRESENTLY CLARIFIED BUT IT IS NOT SETTLED BY TODAY'S EXECUTIVE STATEMENTS."

HE EXPRESSED REGRET THAT THE PRESIDENT HAD REACHED HIS DECISION WITHOUT CONSULTING "THE APPROPRIATE COMMITTEES OF CONGRESS."

VANDENBERG SAID "MANY CRITICAL DECISIONS REMAIN TO BE MADE." HE ADDED:

"EVERY PRACTICAL DISCOURAGEMENT TO COMMUNIST CONQUEST, SHORT OF ACTIVE AMERICAN MILITARY PARTICIPATION, SHOULD BE PURSUED IN CHINA AND THROUGHOUT THE FAR EAST WHICH MUST BE TOTALLY ENCOMPASSED IN OUR COMPREHENSIVE VIEWS."

VANDENBERG'S CRITICISM WAS MILD, HOWEVER, IN RELATION TO THAT OF SOME OF HIS PARTY COLLEAGUES. FOR INSTANCE, SENATOR WHERRY OF NEBRASKA, THE GOP FLOOR LEADER, DESCRIBED MR. TRUMAN'S PRONOUNCEMENT AS A "COMPLETE, ABJECT SURRENDER TO THE RED COMMUNISTS IN THE FAR EAST."

VIRTUALLY ALL THE LAWMAKERS, VANDENBERG INCLUDED, WERE CAUGHT BY SURPRISE BY THE PRESIDENT'S STATEMENT.

THE ONLY SENATOR KNOWN TO HAVE ANY ADVANCE WORD WAS CHAIRMAN CONNALLY (D-TEX) OF THE SENATE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE. SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON GAVE CONNALLY NOTICE OF WHAT WAS COMING DURING A VISIT TO THE CAPITOL LATE WEDNESDAY.

ACHESON APPARENTLY TRIED TO REACH VANDENBERG, BUT THE MICHIGAN SENATOR HAD LEFT FOR HIS HOME.

ONE SENATOR SAID THAT EVEN SECRETARY OF DEFENSE JOHNSON AND THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF WERE NOT NOTIFIED IN ADVANCE.

VANDENBERG MADE IT CLEAR HE DOES NOT FAVOR ACTIVE AMERICAN MILITARY AID FOR THE NATIONALIST GOVERNMENT.

BUT SOME OF HIS COLLEAGUES--NOTABLY SENATORS TAFT OF OHIO AND KNOWLAND OF CALIFORNIA--FAVOR IMMEDIATE U.S. MILITARY ASSISTANCE AS A MEANS OF HALTING THE SPREAD OF COMMUNISM IN ASIA.

DEMOCRATIC LEADER LUCAS OF ILLINOIS WARNED THAT SUCH A MOVE MIGHT LEAD THE UNITED STATES INTO WAR. "AND IF YOU GET INTO A CIVIL WAR ON THE ISLAND OF FORMOSA," HE SAID, "YOU'RE IN WORLD WAR III JUST AS SURE AS I'M STANDING ON THIS (SENATE) FLOOR."

CONNALLY SAID THE PRESIDENT WAS "ABSOLUTELY RIGHT" IN HIS FORMOSA STAND.

"IF THE REPUBLICANS WANT TO MAKE IT A POLITICAL ISSUE," HE SAID, "JUST LET THEM TAKE IT TO THE PEOPLE. THEY'LL SEE THE PEOPLE ARE BEHIND THE PRESIDENT."

THE NUMBER OF AMERICANS ON FORMOSA--WHICH IS LOCATED ABOUT 100 MILES OFF THE CHINA COAST--IS ESTIMATED AT BETWEEN 100 AND 200. THEY INCLUDE GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS, MISSIONARIES, AND A FEW BUSINESS AND PROFESSIONAL PEOPLE AND THEIR FAMILIES.

THEY PRESUMABLY WOULD HAVE LESS DIFFICULTY IN EVACUATING THAN AMERICANS HAVE HAD IN LEAVING COMMUNIST-BESIEGED CITIES ON THE CHINESE MAINLAND, SINCE FORMOSA HAS SEVERAL PORTS WITHIN EASY REACH OF THE U.S. SEVENTH TASK FLEET IN THE WESTERN PACIFIC.

(ADVANCE)..WASHINGTON, JAN.6-(AP)-AN AMERICAN OFFICIAL JUST BACK FROM FORMOSA REPORTED TODAY THAT REGARDLESS OF THAT ISLAND'S FATE OUR ECONOMIC AID THERE "WILL HAVE CREATED BETTER UNDERSTANDING OF THE UNITED STATES AND ITS INTERNATIONAL OBJECTIVES."

THIS OBSERVATION WAS MADE BY RAYMOND T.MOYER, CHIEF REPRESENTATIVE OF THE ECONOMIC COOPERATION ADMINISTRATION ON FORMOSA, WHO HAS RETURNED FOR CONFERENCES HERE.

MOYER DID NOT VENTURE ANY PREDICTIONS ON WHETHER CHIANG KAI SHEK'S NATIONALIST FORCES WILL BE ABLE TO DEFEND THE ISLAND AGAINST THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS. BUT HIS STATEMENT SAID THAT AMERICAN ECONOMIC HELP HAS KEPT THE SITUATION THERE "FROM DETERIORATING BADLY IN THE FACE OF COMMUNIST SUCCESSES ON THE MAINLAND."

THE BULK OF ECA AID TO FORMOSA WAS CHANNELED INTO REDUCTION OF RENTS FOR TENANT FARMERS AND TO SUPPLY FERTILIZER FOR AGRICULTURAL PRODUCTION, MOYER ASSERTED. HE SAID AMERICAN FUNDS ALSO WERE USED FOR DISEASE PREVENTION AND THE PURCHASE OF COTTON.

APPROXIMATELY $14,000,000 WORTH OF COMMODITIES ALREADY HAVE BEEN DELIVERED OR ARE ENROUTE TO FORMOSA, ECA RECORDS SHOWED.

ECA OFFICIALS SAID NEARLY $100,000,000 STILL IS AVAILABLE FOR CHINA AID UNDER AN APPROPRIATION APPROVED LAST YEAR BY CONGRESS. HOWEVER, THE GRANT CARRIED A PROVISION THAT NONE OF THE FUNDS BE USED TO AID COMMUNIST-HELD AREAS AND THAT THE ENTIRE SUM BE ALLOTTED BY FEB.15.

WASHINGTON, JAN. 6-(AP)-THE AIR FORCE DISCLOSED TONIGHT IT IS GOING TO TEST OUT ITS IDEA OF REFUELING BOMBERS OVER THE POLAR ICE CAP, A PROCEDURE WHICH IN WARTIME WOULD EXTEND THE STRIKING RANGE DOWN INTO THE EURASIAN LAND MASS.

IT ANNOUNCED, IN A CAUTIOUSLY-PHRASED STATEMENT, THAT THREE REFUELING SQUADRONS FROM THE 8TH AIR FORCE WOULD GO TO GOOSE BAY, LABRADOR, AND WOULD EACH SPEND A WEEK ON A "TRAINING MISSION DESIGNED TO INCREASE THE EFFICIENCY OF AIR-TO-AIR REFUELING." THE SQUADRONS WILL LEAVE THEIR BASES AT 10-DAY INTERVALS, FROM JANUARY 9 TO FEBRUARY 5.

THEN IT SAID THE CREWS WOULD RECEIVE TRAINING IN COLD WEATHER OPERATIONS AND "POLAR NAVIGATION." OFFICIALS DECLINED TO SAY WHERE IN THE POLAR AREA THE TANKER PLANES AND BOMBERS OF THE THREE SQUADRONS WOULD FLY.

THE OFFICIAL ANNOUNCEMENT DID NOT SPECIFY THE NUMBER OF PLANES PARTICIPATING IN THE OPERATION, BUT AVAILABLE INFORMATION INDICATED IT WOULD BE MORE THAN 40. A NORMAL B-29 OR B-50 SQUADRON CONSISTS OF 10 PLANES. TANKER SQUADRONS HAVE ABOUT FOUR TANKER PLANES.

ONLY THE WARTIME-BUILT B-29S HAVE BEEN EQUIPPED AS TANKERS. THE B-50S ARE BOMBERS, BUT THOSE USED IN TANKER SQUADRONS ARE EQUIPPED TO RECEIVE THE NOZZLE END OF A RETRACTIBLE "BOOM" THROUGH WHICH FUEL IS FED INTO THE B-50S.

THE AIR FORCE SAID ONLY THAT THE SQUADRONS WOULD GO FROM 8TH AIR FORCE BASES, WITHOUT SPECIFYING WHICH ONES. THE 8TH CURRENTLY HAS FIVE BASES, ALTHOUGH NOT ALL OF THEM ARE USED BY TANKER UNITS--WALKER, NEW MEXICO; CARSWELL, TEX., DAVIS-MONTHAN,ARIZ.; BIGGS,TEX., AND CHATHAM,GA.

(CORRECT, DELETING LAST GRAF "THE AIR FORCE SAID X X X AND CHATHAM, GA.")

IN FORT WORTH, TEX., MAJ. GEN. ROGER M. RAMEY, COMMANDER OF THE 8TH AIR FORCE, SAID THE SQUADRONS WOULD BE FROM THE 509TH BOMBARDMENT WING AT WALKER AIR FORCE BASE, ROSWELL, N. M. THE GROUP IS KNOWN AS THE ATOMIC BOMB GROUP BECAUSE OF ITS PARTICIPATION IN THE BIKINI TESTS.

GENERAL RAMEY SAID THE AIR-TO-AIR REFUELING WILL BE THE SAME TYPE EMPLOYED BY THE B-50 LUCKY LADY ON ITS GLOBAL FLIGHT FROM FORT WORTH LAST YEAR. THE LABRADOR TESTS WILL MAKE THE FIRST TIME SUCH REFUELING HAS BEEN DONE ON A SQUADRON BASIS, HE SAID.

WASHINGTON, JAN 6-(AP)-THE ARMY GOT A NEW CHIEF FOR RESERVES ORGANIZATIONS TODAY AT THE SAME TIME IT REITERATED THAT THE RECENT ORDER TO STOP PAY FOR SOME RESERVES WOULD NOT AFFECT UNITS WITH ASSIGNMENTS FOR POSSIBLE M-DAY MOBILIZATION FOR WAR.

MAJ.GEN.JAMES B.CRESS OF RICHMOND,VA., A RESERVE OFFICER RETURNED TO ACTIVE DUTY, WAS WELCOMED BY THE ARMYE'S CIVILIAN AND MILITARY HIGH COMMAND AS NEW DIRECTOR OF RESERVES AND ROTC AFFAIRS. CRESS SUCCEEDS BRIG.GEN.WENDELL WESTOVER, WHO IS LEAVING ACTIVE DUTY TO RETURN TO PRIVATE BUSINESS.

ARMY SECRETARY GORDON GRAY SAID HE WANTED TO "CLARIFY MISUNDERSTANDINGS," ABOUT THE ORDER OF DEC. 22, WHICH STOPPED DRILL PAY FOR ABOUT 78,000 MEN AND OFFICERS IN RESERVE UNITS WHICH DO NOT HAVE M-DAY ASSIGNMENTS. GRAY SAID THAT:

"I WANT TO REASSURE EVERYONE ON TWO IMPORTANT POINTS. FIRST, ALL UNITS OF THE ORGANIZED RESERVE WHICH WOULD BE REQUIRED IN THE EARLY PHASES OF MOBILIZATION IN THE EVENT THAT AN EMERGENCY SHOULD BEFALL, CONTINUE ON THE SAME PAY STATUS AS BEFORE. SECOND, BY NO MEANS DOES THIS ACTION INDICATE ANY LESSENED INTEREST IN THE RESERVE PROGRAM SO VITALLY IMPORTANT TO THE NATIONAL SECURITY. X X X

"ALL INACTIVE DUTY TRAINING FUNDS WHICH HAVE BEEN APPROPRIATED BY CONGRESS FOR THIS FISCAL YEAR WILL BE EXPENDED FOR THAT PURPOSE."

THE PAY ORDER WAS MADE NECESSARY, GRAY EXPLAINED, BECAUSE APPROXIMATELY 68 PERCENT OF THE $22,400,000 (M) APPROPRIATED FOR RESERVE TRAINING PAY HAD BEEN SPENT BY DEC. 31. THIS WAS BECAUSE THE NUMBER OF MEN COMING INTO THE DRILL PAY PROGRAM HAD INCREASED FAR BEYOND ESTIMATES, HE SAID.

SAN DIEGO, CALIF., JAN. 6-(AP)-SECRETARY OF THE NAVY MATTHEWS' REACTION TO A LETTER CRITICISING ADMINISTRATION OF THE UNIFICATION ACT WAS A "BREACH OF FAITH," SAYS VICE ADM. GERALD F. BOGAN.

ADMIRAL BOGAN HAS DECIDED TO SEEK RETIREMENT RATHER THAN ACCEPT DEMOTION TO REAR ADMIRAL AND COMMAND OF FLEET AIR, JACKSONVILLE, FLA. HE PRESENTLY IS COMMANDER OF THE FIRST TASK FLEET.

BOGAN TOLD A PRESS CONFERENCE YESTERDAY MATTHEWS HAD INVITED LETTERS DISCUSSING THE UNIFICATION ACT. BOGAN SAID THE NAVY SECRETARY HAD PROMISED MOST SERIOUS CONSIDERATION TO SUCH LETTERS FROM FLAG OFFICERS.

"THE ONLY CONSIDERATION MY LETTER RECEIVED," BOGAN SAID, "WAS TO CAUSE MATTHEWS TO REFER TO ME IN VERY DEROGATORY TERMS IN A PUBLIC STATEMENT TO THE ARMED SERVICES COMMITTEE OF CONGRESS.

"IT HAS BEEN MY PRACTICE AND BELIEF FOR YEARS THAT LOYALTY MUST WORK DOWN AS WELL AS UP. BOGAN SAID." UNDER PRESENT CONDITIONS, I FEEL I CAN NO LONGER CARRY OUT WITH COMPLETE LOYALTY THE POLICIES OF THE HEADS OF OUR NAVY, AND SEE NO OTHER COURSE BUT RETIREMENT OPEN TO ME."

WASHINGTON,JAN 6-(AP)-HOPE THAT THE ITALIAN GOVERNMENT WILL PERMIT THE CONTINUED OPERATION OF AN ORPHANAGE NEAR ROME BY THE TEXAS CHURCHES OF CHRIST WAS HELD TONIGHT BY TWO TEXANS WHO CONFERRED HERE ON THE MATTER.

THE TEXANS, JAMES WOOD AND J.R.CHISHOLM, BOTH OF BROWNFIELD, AND REPS.MAHON AND GOSSETT, TEXAS DEMOCRATS, DISCUSSED THE MATTER WITH STATE DEPARTMENT OFFICIALS TODAY.

WOOD IS CONNECTED WITH THE CRESCENT HILL CHURCH OF CHRIST AT BROWNFIELD, AND CHISHOLM IS BUSINESS MANAGER OF THE FRASCOTI ORPHANAGE IN ITALY.

DIFFICULTIES AROSE, SAID MAHON, WHEN THE ITALIAN GOVERNMENT REFUSED TO RENEW EXPIRING VISAS OF AMERICANS WHO HAD BEEN IN CHARGE OF THE ORPHANAGE.

STATE DEPARTMENT OFFICIALS PROMISED THAT THEY WOULD CHECK CAREFULLY INTO THE MATTER TO SEE IF THE INDIVIDUALS INVOLVED COULD NOT REMAIN IN ITALY AND SO OPERATION OF THE ORPHANAGE COULD CONTINUE UNDER SPONSORSHIP OF THE TEXAS CHURCHES OF CHRIST.

REP.GOSSETT TOLD A REPORTER THAT HE CAUTIONED THE STATE DEPARTMENT OFFICIALS THAT "IF THE ITALIAN GOVERNMENT RUNS THIS ORPHANAGE OUT OF ITALY IT MAY HAVE A SERIOUS EFFECT ON CONGRESSIONAL ACTION ON EUROPEAN AID FUNDS."

NIGHT LEAD UN-CHINESE (350)
BY FRANCIS W.CARPENTER

LAKE SUCCESS,JAN 6-(AP)-THE FIRST SQUABBLE OVER NATIONALIST CHINA'S RIGHT TO A SEAT IN THE U.N. SECURITY COUNCIL MAY COME NEXT TUESDAY. THE NATIONALIST DELEGATION THEN FACES FIVE GOVERNMENTS IN THE COUNCIL WHICH HAVE RECOGNIZED THE OPPOSING CHINESE REDS.

T.S.TSIANG, NATIONALIST DELEGATE AND CHAIRMAN OF THE COUNCIL THIS MONTH, CALLED THE COUNCIL TO MEET AT 3 P.M. (EST). THE OFFICIAL BUSINESS SHEET SAYS THE COUNCIL WILL DISCUSS AN ASSEMBLY RESOLUTION ON CONVENTIONAL (NON-ATOMIC) ARMAMENTS BUT INFORMED SOURCES SAID IT WAS POSSIBLE THE ACTUAL FIGHT OVER NATIONALIST CHINA'S SEAT MAY BEGIN AT THAT TIME.

RUSSIA, BRITAIN, YUGOSLAVIA, INDIA AND NORWAY HAVE WITHDRAWN RECOGNITION FROM THE CHIANG KAI-SHEK GOVERNMENT NOW ON THE ISLAND OF FORMOSA. THEY HAVE RECOGNIZED THE COMMUNIST REGIME OF MAO TZE-TUNG AS THE GOVERNMENT OF CHINA.

THE UNITED STATES, FRANCE, CUBA, ECUADOR AND EGYPT HAVE NOT ACTED YET OR HAVE MADE IT KNOWN THEY ARE WAITING FOR A WHILE.

THE LINEUP INDICATES A STALEMATE IS POSSIBLE IF A VOTE IS CALLED TUESDAY. COUNCIL RULES REQUIRE THAT A PROPOSAL GET SEVEN VOTES TO PASS. WITH FIVE MEMBERS NOT RECOGNIZING HIS GOVERNMENT, TSIANG CANNOT EXPECT TO GET THE NECESSARY SEVEN VOTES TO AFFIRM HIS SEAT ON THE COUNCIL. LIKEWISE, WITH FIVE GOVERNMENTS STILL RECOGNIZING CHIANG KAI-SHEK, THE COUNTRIES FAVORING THE COMMUNIST REGIME CANNOT EXPECT TO GET THE NECESSARY SEVEN VOTES TO APPROVE A MOTION OUSTING TSIANG.

INFORMED OPINION HERE IS THAT THE SOVIET UNION WILL NOT AT THIS TIME INSIST ON A MOTION TO OUST TSIANG. IT IS EXPECTED THAT THE RUSSIANS WILL WAIT UNTIL THEY HAVE A MAJORITY AND CAN PUT IT THROUGH.

THE COUNCIL MUST ACT ON THE ASSEMBLY RESOLUTION CALLING ON THE U.N. COMMISSION FOR CONVENTIONAL ARMAMENTS TO START WORK ON A WORLD-WIDE COUNT FOR CONVENTIONAL ARMS, SUCH AS MACHINE GUNS, TANKS, AND OTHER WEAPONS.

THE COUNCIL HAS THE TASK OF PASSING THIS ON DOWN TO THE COMMISSION, WHICH IS AN ORGANIZATION RESPONSIBLE TO THE COUNCIL.

THE RUSSIANS OPPOSE THE RESOLUTION ON THE GROUNDS THAT ATOMIC BOMBS SHOULD BE COUNTED AS WELL AS OTHER WEAPONS. THE ASSEMBLY REJECTED A RUSSIAN PROPOSAL TO THIS EFFECT.

EARLIER IN THE DAY, U.N. SECRETARY-GENERAL TRYGVE LIE TOOK A WAIT-AND-SEE ATTITUDE ON THE CHINESE ISSUE.

SPARRING CAUTIOUSLY WITH REPORTERS AT HIS WEEKLY NEWS CONFERENCE, LIE SAID IN EFFECT HE WOULD PUT OFF ACTION ON ACCEPTING A DELEGATION FROM COMMUNIST CHINA UNTIL SUCH A DELEGATION ACTUALLY PUTS ITS CREDENTIALS BEFORE HIM.

HE ALSO SAID THE CHINESE THEMSELVES WOULD, IN DUE TIME, SETTLE THE ISSUE AND THAT HE DID NOT EXPECT THE CHINESE QUESTION WOULD SPLIT THE U.N.

IN ESSENCE THE PROPOSAL CALLS FOR PHYSICAL CONTROL BY THE U.N. ONLY OF THE ACTUAL HOLY PLACES SACRED TO CHRISTIANS AND JEWS. THE REST OF THE CITY WOULD BE DIVIDED BETWEEN JORDAN AND ISRAEL ROUGHLY ALONG THE PRESENT ARMISTICE LINE.

HOWEVER, THE TWO PARTS OF THE CITY WOULD HAVE A COMMON CURRENCY, PUBLIC SERVICES AND POLICE UNDER THE CONTROL OF A UNITED NATIONS GOVERNOR WHO WOULD SERVE LARGELY AS A "MEDIATOR" BETWEEN THE TWO OCCUPYING POWERS.

NEW RUSSIAN ATOMIC BLAST IS REPORTED

Magazine Editor Says He Has Knowledge From Behind Iron Curtain

London, Jan. 7 (AP)—Kenneth de Courcy, magazine editor, said late tonight an atomic explosion occurred in Soviet Siberia at midnight (Siberian time), just as he had predicted last Thursday.

De Courcy telephoned the Associated Press a statement which he said was copyrighted by Intelligence Digest, a monthly magazine which he publishes.

He said the explosion was verified by "an advanced method of detection of which the Russians are believed to have no knowledge."

De Courcy predicted last January that the Russians would attempt an atomic explosion in 1949. President Truman announced in September there had been such an explosion last summer.

No Other Details

The 40-year-old editor said tonight he had received a message confirming the new explosion "from an area outside the Soviet Union." He said he had no other details immediately and declined to amplify his reference to the area from which the information was relayed.

Thursday he said the information on which he based his prediction came from behind the Iron Curtain. At that time he said the blast was scheduled by the Russian general staff to take place at midnight in the Soviet Asiatic republic of Kazak, north of India and west of Mongolia.

He said tonight he is not yet able to tell what kind of atomic explosion it was or what were the results. Thursday's statement said the explosion "will be connected with a blasting operation in connection with an irrigation project."

Disquieting Statement

He added then:

"This is a rather disquieting statement because it suggests that the Russians are in some respects ahead of the United States of America in the peacetime application of atomic energy."

De Courcy did not say at any time what method of detonation the Russians are using nor whether they have discovered a method for decontaminating an area where an atomic explosion has occurred.

Moscow newspapers and Soviet spokesmen have declared Russia was planning to use the atom for such purposes as moving mountains, building dams, and carrying out irrigation projects.

De Courcy said any amplification of his sources might endanger his informants. He had said earlier tonight his informants were using every resource possible to get the confirmation to him.

Announcement Delay Seen

After announcing receipt of the confirmation, he said he does not expect any official announcement for "some considerable time, unless the Russians themselves announce it." De Courcy noted there was a lapse of several weeks between the date of the earlier Russian explosion and Mr. Truman's announcement.

The text of De Courcy's statement follows:

"With further reference to a statement released by Intelligence Digest about an expected second explosion of an atomic bomb in the Soviet Union, a message now has been received from an area outside the Soviet Union, the location of which must remain secret, that by an advanced method of detection, of which the Russians are believed to have no knowledge, it has been established that at midnight, local time, on the night of January 7-8, 1950, in the expected area, some kind of nuclear fission occurred.

"A message reporting this has been duly received in the editorial offices of the Intelligence Digest. Nothing further is known."

PAPERS IN BRITAIN HAIL RECOGNITION

Conservatives And Communists Approve Stand On Reds

London, Jan. 7 (AP)—The British press — Labor, Conservative and Communist — generally approved today Britain's recognition of the Communist regime in China.

Contributing to the approval was President Truman's statement that the United States had no intention of aiding Chinese Nationalists in defending Formosa.

The British had been disturbed by the prospect that the United States might give military aid to the Nationalists in Formosa while Britain was doing business with the Communists on the mainland.

But Britain was still concerned over how deeply the new Chinese policy would affect such questions as Communist China's membership in the United Nations and next year's Marshall-plan aid from the United States.

Revolution Acknowledged

She had expected stern protests against her action from some sections of Congress, especially among Republicans. Protests came but they were not so sharp as expected.

In the chorus of approval from the British press the Communist Daily Worker said the action was a "belated acknowledgment that the people's revolution in the greatest of all Asiatic lands has triumphed beyond any doubt."

"This triumph will be a spur to the people of Malaya, Viet Nam (Indo-China), Burma and Indonesia to wage liberation wars," the paper added.

Recognition Called Wise

That touched one of the main elements of British concern over the Far East. Already Communist bands have been shooting up Mayala, the rich rubber-producing colony. The British also are worried over the future of Hong Kong, where British policemen and Mao Tze-tung's Communist sentries are now face to face.

Lord Beaverbrook's Daily Express termed recognition of Mao wise, but said this policy must be supplemented by "determination and ability to defend empire interests in Hong Kong and Malaya."

The London Times said Britain was accepting a Communist regime in China, as she already had done in Russia, but would resist any attempt by the "Chinese Government to enforce communism on other countries."

The Laborite Daily Herald asked whether recognition could be a "prelude to friendly relations and to useful economic interchange" and said the answer depended on Mao.

Most Of Britain's Press Hails Policy On China

London, Jan. 7 (AP)—The British press generally approved today Britain's recognition of Communist China.

Some newspapers expressed hope the United States soon would take the same action.

Others declared diplomatic recognition did not mean approval of communism.

"Naturally Regret"

"The proper policy for the Western powers is clear," said the independent London Times.

"It is to make it plain that, while they naturally regret that a Communist regime should have been established in China, they are ready to accept it as they have done in Russia, to do business with it and to treat it on the basis of equality.

"On the other hand," the Times continued, "they will resist any attempt by the Chinese Government to enforce communism on other countries."

The liberal independent Manchester Guardian said, "It is very important there should be no recrimination between America and ourselves" on Chinese policy.

"Russia Prays For"

"Division between America and Great Britain is what Russia prays for," said the Guardian. "As things stand at the moment, it is our only real danger. Whether the two countries can take their difference of opinion in their stride will be the test of their strength in building a structure for peace."

The conservative Daily Telegraph said there could be no serious argument agianst the recognition decision because "the cause of Chiang Kai-shek is obviously irretrievably lost and Mao has become the effective master of China."

It expressed doubt, however, that the announcement of recognition was wisely timed, in view of the differences of opinion between the United States and Britain.

Worker Comments

The Communist Daily Worker declared:

"This triumph (recognition) will be a spur to the peoples of Malaya, Viet Nam, Burma and Indonesia to wage liberation wars, in which they are at present engaged, to victorious conclusions."

Lord Beaverbrook's empire-minded Daily Express replied with a declaration that Britain's dealings with Communist China must be "supplemented by determination and the ability to defend empire interests in Hong Kong and Malaya."

AFRICA RICHES TO BE STUDIED

4 Nations' Colonial Officials Meet In Paris This Week

Paris, Jan. 7 (AP)—Ways of pumping Africa's untapped wealth into world-trade streams come under study here next week.

Colonial officials from Britain, France, Belgium and Portugal, who together control most of the continent, are to meet with African representatives Wednesday, Thursday and Friday.

Their first job will be to decide on means of improving the roads, railways, bridges and power supplies of the wilderness areas to speed development of mineral lodes, forest products and plantations. Technical experts will aid them. Pest control, soil erosion and public health are other problems.

ECA In Touch With Meetings

Politically, the colonial officers are expected to discuss means of opposing a recent United Nations decision calling for a United Nations investigation of conditions in colonial possessions of member nations.

The Economic Co-operation Administration (ECA), which already has poured millions of Marshall plan dollars into African projects, will keep in touch with the meetings.

A. L. Moffat, ECA deputy commissioner, is now in Nairobi, Kenya Colony, studying a lengthening list of developments for east and central Africa. These include control of Nile waters, electric power production in Uganda and opening up of large-scale mining and agricultural works in almost every territory from Uganda to northern Rhodesia.

France Developing Plan

Of the four powers to be represented here, Britain has approved a ten-year public works plan for her African territories.

France is now developing a similar plan for French West Africa and equatorial Africa. The French program, still tentative pending parliamentary approval, calls for an expenditure of about $300,000,000 a year for ten years to make the territories more attractive to foreign investors. The money would be partly matched by allocations from territorial treasuries.

The Marshall plan has put nearly $230,000,000 into French African territories alone in the last two years. An example is a recent $3,600,000 contract with an American firm to expand and develop lead and zinc mines of Algeria.

Included in the mineral wealth that France's territories are expected to yield is manganese, lead and zinc from Morocco and other northern areas, and graphite from Madagascar.

Peanut-Farming Scheme

Authorities here said a program already is under way to increase the output of diamonds in equatorial Africa.

Both the French Government and American firms operating under concessions have begun prospecting for oil in northern and western Africa—so far without announced results.

In agricultural areas, experts believe sizable increases are possible in the production of sugar, cocoa and coffee. Timber production, including mahogany, teak and rosewood, also is a source of African wealth.

Britain already is engaged in a peanut-farming scheme in East Africa, and France is reported planning a similar large-scale peanut project in the west.

French experts also believe African farmland can supply additional rice both for the African population and for possible export.

Communists Ask Withdrawal Of Reich Occupation Troops

Duesseldorf, Germany, Jan. 7 (AP). Eastern zone Communists tonight called on western German leaders to join them in demanding the withdrawal of occupation troops from all Germany.

The bid for a "national front" of east and west zone Germans came at a Communist-sponsored rally of 6,000 Ruhr workers to demand "peace and unity" for Germany.

The rally is regarded as the kickoff for a new Communist drive to win prestige and support in the vital Ruhr area, powerhouse of the German army in two world wars. Similar rallies will be held tomorrow in Essen and Dortmund.

The rally came as Dr. Kurt Schumacher, West German Socialist chairman, warned that the Communists are starting to gain a foothold in some of the rightist parties of western Germany.

Mattern Is Main Speaker

The principal speaker at the rally was Hermann Mattern, vice-president of the lower house of the east zone Parliament. He is also a member of the managing committee of the Communist-controlled Socialist Unity party (SED) of East Germany.

Mattern said that the Soviet Union "is daily making great efforts for world peace." But, he added, some "so-called Germans want a new war against Russia, the Socialist states of the east, and even the German democratic republic" (the Soviet-dominated regime of the eastern zone).

Mattern said the SED "is ready every day to demand together with (West German President Theodor) Heuss and (Chancellor Konrad) Adenauer the withdrawal of the occupation troops.

A Solemn Warning

"The Americans have started to talk about general elections in Germany. But the precondition for such elections is that the Ruhr statute (for control of the industries by six western European powers) should become invalid and that all occupation troops should be withdrawn.

"We demand general elections without the pressure of armored cars and armies. We feel ourselves closely connected with the Soviet Army and, despite this, we want even the Soviet Army to leave Germany."

This new Communist bid for a unified Germany followed a solemn warning in Berlin by Schumacher that it is "illusory" to think that all four occupation powers want Germany unified.

"The Russians want German unity only under their leadership," he said. "They want only to expand their power with German means."

Reds Infiltrate Rightist Units, Germans Say

Berlin, Jan. 7 (AP)—West Germany's Socialist leader, Dr. Karl Schumacher, said today that Communists are beginning to get a foothold in some of the Rightist parties of West Germany.

He did not identify the parties, except to make it clear this had not happened to his Socialist party.

Schumacher told a news conference the "time is not yet ripe" for him to say just where the Communists are working, but he promised to give details at a later date.

Some of the boring from within, he said, is being done by outright Communists and some by "fellow travelers."

No Secret

The eastern German Communists have made it no secret they are trying to spread their doctrine to the West with the aim some day of creating a united Germany on theirs and Russia's terms.

Schumacher's news conference followed a two-day strategy conference on a "free united Germany," without compromising with Eastern Communists. West German Socialist leaders warned against unification under Russian-inspired terms.

In a counterblast, Franz Dalhem, a member of East Germany's Socialist Unity (Communist) party, called Schumacher a tool of the "imperialists".

The Communist tasks, as outlined by Dalhem, were to silence immediately the "warmongers and enemies of the Soviet Union" by new methods of agitation. He said the occupation in the West has become a threat to European security.

The Soviet-licensed news agency ADN said the Communist party had drafted a ten-point program for Berlin, including the "re-establishment of democracy in the Western sectors."

The Socialist leaders earlier had drafted a six-point program for combating Communst influence in Berlin.

U.S. MEDDLING CHARGED BY HUNGARIANS

Budapest Raps Closing Of Two Consulates As Treaty Breach

Budapest, Jan. 7 (AP)—Hungary's Communist Government declared tonight the American order to close its consulates in New York and Cleveland was a treaty-violating and intolerable interference in Hungarian internal affairs.

The United States State Department issued the order January 3 in reprisal for Hungary's treatment of two Americans, Robert A. Vogeler, of New York, and Israel Jacobson, of Chicago. The consulates were directed to shut down by midnight Sunday, January 15.

Hungary charged that the order constituted a violation of the 1926 treaty on commercial and consular rights between the United States and Hungary. The United States made the same charge against Hungary in its note of January 3.

Wants Better Relations

"The Hungarian Government thinks it necessary to emphasize once more," the reply concluded, "that it desires the improvement of relations between the United States and Hungary, but no threat nor menace with reprisal can alter its firm standpoint that, as in the past, it will not tolerate in the future any foreign interference with its internal affairs."

Vogeler, eastern European representative of the International Telephone and Telegraph Corporation, has been held in jail incommunicado on charges of espionage and sabotage since November 18. Also held are a British executive and the Hungarian director of the Budapest branch of I.T.& T. The Government says all have confessed.

Jacobson was director of Hungarian affairs of the American Joint Distribution Committee, a Jewish relief agency. Hungarian police held him for nearly two weeks in December and then expelled him, concluding he was "not quite a spy."

Nationalized Industries

The cases embittered relations between Hungary and Western powers. The United States banned the travel of American private citizens to Hungary. Britain canceled trade talks with this nation.

Hungary nationalized all Western-owned industries here employing more than ten persons, with Hungarian enterprises of that scale, and charged that the foreign concerns were centers of espionage and sabotage. Russia, which operates in Hungary through joint Hungarian-Russian government concerns, was not affected.

The 1926 treaty cited by both the United States and Hungary permits the arrest of citizens of either country, but provides that they are entitled to the protection of their consuls.

JAP RED HIT BY COMINFORM

Press Says His Policies Serve 'Imperialist Occupiers'

Bucharest, Romania, Jan. 7 (AP)—The Cominform Journal today accused Sanzo Nozaka, leading Japanese Communist, of "anti-democratic and anti-socialist" views and declared his policies were serving the "imperialist occupiers of Japan."

It charged Nosaka with wishing to "naturalize" Marx-Leninism to local Japanese conditions. The criticisms were contained in an article signed "Observer."

Called A Mistake

Nosaka was accused of "uttering burgeoise platitudes" in allegedly declaring that Japan could achieve socialism under American occupation and that World War II and the presence of American troops in Japan caused a "favorable climate" for the country's Communist party.

The Journal said Nosaka believed that once socialism has been achieved in Japan and a socialist government formed, the occupation forces will leave.

"This is a mistake," the Journal said, "because the occupation armies will never leave Japan until Japan has become an imperialist tool allied to the American imperialists.

"Under these conditions Japan can never be really free and independent."

"A Theory Of Deception"

The Journal declared that Nosaka stated his views as far back as May, 1946, in the "bourgeois paper, Manitsi Chimbum."

The Journal added:

"Nosaka's viewpoint that the American occupation troops in Japan are, allegedly, playing a progressive role, that they are helping in the 'peaceful revolution' along the path of Japan's development toward socialism, misleads the Japanese people and helps the foreign imperialists to turn Japan into a colonial appendage of foreign imperialism, into a new center of war in the East.

"Nosaka's 'theory' is the theory of embellishing the imperialist occupation of Japan, the theory of boosting American imperialism and, consequently, a theory of deception of the popular masses of Japan."

Belgian Reds Accused Of Excess Of Titoism

Brussels, Belgium, Jan. 7 (AP)—Edgar Lalmand, Communist party general secretary, declared today there is an excess of Titoism in the Belgian Communist party.

Writing in the party newspaper, Drapeau Rouge, Lalmand said that after the Belgian June elections "opportunist trends openly developed." Some members wanted to soft-pedal the party's attachment to Soviet Russia, he said.

GREEKS' VOTE TO BE FEB. 19

Election For Parliament Advanced By Seven Weeks

Athens, Jan. 7 (AP)—Greeks will vote for a new Parliament February 19.

King Paul I signed today a decree dissolving the old Parliament, chosen March 31, 1946, and advancing by seven weeks the general election originally scheduled for April 9.

In the meantime, governmental affairs will remain in the hands of Premier John Theotokis's Cabinet. This Cabinet was sworn in yesterday to succeed that of Alexander Diomedes, which was wrecked Thursday by a dispute among the ministers over timing of the election. Liberals insisted the voting should be held before April, contending a long campaign would damage Greece's economy.

Party Now Outlawed

They won their point in the King's decree.

Communists boycotted the 1946 election. That party is now outlawed. Greek armed forces routed Communist-led rebel forces last summer after four years of civil war.

Theotokis said the Communist party would not be allowed to participate in the election, since it is outlawed.

He dismissed the idea of supervision of the voting by teams of international observers, such as were here in 1946.

"Greece is in such a state of order and normalcy that she herself can secure honest elections," he said.

The Premier said the election system to be used will be decided upon after consultation with political leaders.

Kirk Returns to Moscow

MOSCOW, Jan. 7 (AP).—American Ambassador Alan G. Kirk returned today after a three-day visit to Leningrad.

Message 'Demagogic', Red Army Paper Says

Moscow, Jan. 7 (AP)—The Soviet armed forces newspaper Red Star today described President Truman's state-of-the-Union message as a "mixture of demagogic promises and improbable statements."

In the first extended Soviet comment on the President's speech, the newspaper said the "declarations of Truman cannot confuse anyone."

"The fine oratory of the American President is denied by the facts," the editorial said.

Answering Mr. Truman's statement that the United States had liquidated its first postwar economic drop, the article declared that an economic crisis is "implacably moving on the United States."

Welfare Gains Denied

The editorial said "dry statistics of official Government accounts deny . . . in toto" the President's assertions that the welfare of the broad masses of Americans is improved.

"In defiance of the truth," Red Star continued, "Truman stated that a good beginning had been made in securing housing for low-income groups."

"Senator Paul Douglas (D., Ill.)," the paper added, "whom even the Committee on Un-American Activities cannot suspect of reprehensible opinions, has a different opinion about American housing. He recently wrote in Colliers that millions of Americans live in repulsive conditions in dirty, smelly slums, the number of which grows continually."

Facts Ignored

The newspaper accused Mr. Truman of ignoring the facts in his reference to American foreign policy.

Citing the Truman comment on supporting European reconstruction, the editorial said the western European countries getting Marshall aid are "sinking more deeply in the mire of economic ruin."

Mr. Truman's declarations of United States support of the United Nations were called "hypocritical" and the newspaper said "American ruling circles consistently violate the statutes and principles of the United Nations."

"From his message it is obvious the American Government in the future plans to carry out its former policy," the editorial said.

Mao Agreement With Soviet Hinted

Moscow, Jan. 7 (AP)—Mao Tze-tung, Chinese Communist leader, and the Soviets are believed to be near an agreement.

Informed circles expect an important announcement. They predict it will probably reveal an agreement on overall Chinese-Russian relations.

Talks between Mao and Soviet leaders, informed persons believe, will bind China and Russia closely economically and politically.

Some high-ranking diplomats are still interested in the 30-year alliance between Chiang Kai-shek's Nationalist Government and the U.S.S.R., which, as Mao has pointed out, still exists.

These diplomats continue to speculate on whether it will be continued in force in its present form or altered. And if altered or amended, what form it will take.

Mao has been in Moscow 21 days. A week ago the Chinese leader said he was planning to remain in the Soviet Union for some time, discussing mutual questions, chief among which are the existing alliance, mutual trade and Soviet credits to China. He also explained he had planned his visit in the U.S.S.R. to observe how the system works here.

1,700 Stranded In Saudi Arabia

Jidda, Saudi Arabia, Jan. 7 (AP)—Seventeen hundred Moslem Filipino pilgrims to Mecca are stranded here, being fed and cared for by the Saudi Arabian Government. Fifty of the pilgrims have died of smallpox in recent weeks.

Philippines Senator Salipada Pendatun has arrived to investigate his countrymen's plight.

Saudi Arabian Government officials say Senator Pendatun is being held responsible for large amounts owed by the pilgrims to guides, local travel agents, porters and others who assisted the pilgrimage and were not paid.

Authorities also are holding the Filipino senator responsible for providing fuel and food for the S.S. Cristobal, which is being held here until there is a guarantee of adequate supplies and decent living conditions aboard the vessel for its return voyage to the Philippines.

An Ill-Fated Journey

Three ships—Sandakan, Shingshing and Cristobal—brought a total of 4,540 Filipino Moslems on the pilgrimage to the Moslem holy city of Mecca. The first two ships have sailed for home.

From the start, the Cristobal's journey was ill-fated, pilgrims said. They reported the vessel left the Philippines with insufficient food and they had to stop at Singapore, Colombo, and Aden to collect money to carry on the voyage, they said.

A Government spokesman said the Cristobal will be held "until provided with all the supplies needed according to the rules of humanity and Islam, so that the pilgrims will not be further wronged."

The stranded pilgrims have been in the care of Sheikh el Suliman, Minister of Finance. The Saudi Arabian Government has paid for their food.

The Government quoted some of the pilgrims as saying the smallpox epidemic among them was blamed on poor-quality vaccine used in the Philippines. Official reports, however, blamed the deaths on the failure of some pilgrims to take adequate innoculation precautions before leaving home. The Saudi Arabian Government provided additional vaccine to fight the epidemic here.

Face Mecca When They Pray

Most of the 50 who died were elderly people. Government reports on the epidemic said general health conditions are as good as usual here.

CHINESE CLAIM RED SETBACKS

Formosa Reports Air-Raids And Attacks On Mainland

Hong Kong, Jan. 7 (AP)—The Chinese Nationalists reported increasing air raids and guerrilla operations today against the Communists on the mainland.

The Nationalist Defense Ministry on Formosa announced its guerrillas had captured four county-seat towns in Fukien, Kwangtung and Hunan provinces, all in South and Southeast China, recently overrun by the Communists.

It also said Gen. Hu Tsung-nan's remaining Nationalists were fighting the Reds southeast and southwest of Chengtu, Southwest China city which was the last Nationalist capital on the mainland.

Earlier, the Nationalists claimed they had used air power to smash a second Red attempt to invade Hainan Island, just off the south coast. Their account said they sank about 500 of a fleet of junks that was moving slowly down the Liuchow peninsula, and that the remainder fled. There was no way of determining the accuracy of the Nationalist figures or whether the Reds had attempted an actual invasion.

Southwest Campaign Over

The Communist radio in Peiping said nothing of current operations, but declared the Southwest China campaign was "fundamentally concluded" December 27.

[The broadcast, heard in San Francisco by the Associated Press, said Gen. Liu Po-cheng announced conclusion of the campaign at a rally in Chungking January 1. He was quoted as saying the Nationalists had only "several thousand men" left now in the far western province of Sikang and "some 30,000" in the southwest province of Yunnan.

[The only remaining tasks, he said, were to "eradicate the scattered enemy remnants" and "liberate our compatriots in Tibet."]

On the political side, the Nationalist Government closed its Hong Kong office as a result of British recognition of the Red regime.

Ships, Planes Continue

British shipping and air services between Hong Kong and the Nationalist capital on Formosa continued as usual, however. The Nationalists stand to gain from these services and are not expected to interfere with them or with travel to and from Hong Kong.

In Taipei, Nationalist capital, newspaper editorials were reported frothing against the British recognition, but Tao Hsi-shen, Vice Minister of Information and a close adviser of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek, said the British action was no surprise.

Although T. W. Kwok, special Nationalist commissioner, closed his Hong Kong offices, some Nationalist officials were expected to remain to handle trade and travel with Formosa. British official quarters said the British consulate general in Taipei was continuing to function.

Minelaying On Shanghai's Approach Is Completed

Taipeh, Formosa, Jan. 7 (AP)—Nationalist China today announced that minelaying has been completed on the approach to Shanghai—destination of the American freighter Flying Arrow.

The Nationalists also stepped up air action on the mainland.

Completion of the minefield near the Yangtze River estuary was announced by Admiral Kwei Yung-ching. He is the Nationalist Navy commander in chief and guiding spirit behind the blockade of Red ports.

Kwei conferred this afternoon with Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek. They were believed to have discussed the Flying Arrow, which left Hong Kong early this morning for Shanghai.

Ship Defies Warnings

The ship is carrying a $10,000,000 cargo to the Red port in defiance of warnings by the Nationalists and the United State Department of State. She is due at Shanghai Monday—barring mishap.

The admiral said no ships have entered or left Shanghai in two weeks.

Presumably, Kwei and the Generalissimo also discussed offensive and defensive action against any Communist attempt to invade Formosa.

The Nationalist Air Force reported that medium bombers attacked military airfields in the Shanghai and Nanking areas and a troop train between those cities.

The announcement said Gen. Tang En-po, deputy commander for Southeast China, flew in one of the planes which raided Shanghai. He commanded the Nationalist force which lost the city to the Communists.

Planes Attack Red Isles

The Air Force said other planes resumed their attack on Red-held islands of the Chushan group about 100 miles southeast of Shanghai. The Nationalists still hold Tinghai, main island of the archipelago, and use it as the base for the Shanghai blockade.

Fighter-bombers attacked Communist establishments in the southeastern China provinces of Chekiang, Kiangsi and Fukien, the Air Force said.

The National Defense Ministry reported fighting on the border of Szechwan and Sikang provinces in western China between Reds and Nationalist forces of Gen. Hu Tsung-nan.

It also reported activity by Nationalist guerillas in eastern Kwangtung province in South China.

improvement and I expect more British ships will be getting into Shanghai now," he said. "Things should be good there for quite some time."

The Flying Arrow is due at the mouth of the Yangtze at noon Monday.

Precautions have been taken aboard the ship. Sections of the midship house have been barricaded with 250 bales of cotton. They could stop shells from three-inch guns, officers said.

[Isbrandtsen ships have run the Nationalist blockade frequently. Two have been shelled by Nationalist warships.]

Flying Arrow Crew Relies On Reds To Clear Mines

Aboard the Flying Arrow, Jan. 7 (AP)—If any mines have been laid in the Yangtze River by the Chinese Nationalists, the belief aboard the Flying Arrow today was that the Communists will sweep them out to provide a safe passage into Shanghai for this American ship.

Capt. David Jones, who is taking the 6,214-ton Isbrandtsen Line ship through the Nationalist blockade despite warnings from the Nationalists and the United States State Department, regarded the trip calmly. He said:

"It would be best without mines—bullets in preference to mines—but most preferably neither one."

Crew Held Satisfied

Chief Engineer Martin L. Gross, of Clearfield, Pa., said he understood other crewmen are satisfied with the voyage. Eleven members of the original crew signed off at Hong Kong before the ship sailed early today. They were replaced by British and other foreign sailors.

Jones said the crew includes a number of men who served in the merchant marine during the war.

Due Monday

"Take Gross, for instance," the skipper said. "He was torpedoed off northern Russia on a freighter. I've got a lot of others like him who refused to sign off in Hong Kong."

Optimism prevailed among the twelve passengers aboard.

B. Hartman, a German-born American who went to Shanghai 25 years ago, is returning to resume his import-export business.

Syngman Rhee Hits British Recognition

JAN 8 - 1950

Seoul, Jan. 7 (AP)—President Syngman Rhee of the Republic of South Korea predicted today that Britain "will find in the end that even commercial interests will not be saved" by recognizing China's Reds.

Rhee previously declared any nation recognizing the Chinese communists should be ejected from the Atlantic pact. In a prepared statement today he said Britain joined the pact to check communism in Europe.

"Can any nation encourage in Asia what it is determined to check in Europe?" his statement asked. "The only excuse they might have is that the tremendous commercial interests of Britain in China must be saved.

"If that is the underlying motive of this recognition, the present British leaders not only risk dealing a death blow to the prestige of the United Kingdom as one of the leading democratic powers of the world, but surely they will find in the end that even commercial interests will not be saved."

Formosa's Loss Is Foreseen By U.S. Officers

Tokyo, Jan. 7 (AP)—The consensus of United States military officials here is that Formosa is doomed to Red conquest, now that the United States has decided to remain aloof.

They say Communist occupation of that island may have grave consequences for the United States. Here's why:

The outer United States defense line in the Pacific is a string of air bases from Alaska to Japan and on southward to Okinawa and the Philippines.

Suppose war should come with Russia. Fast fighter planes from Alaska and possibly Japan would be expected to intercept bombers from Siberia heading for the United States.

Russ Have New Fields

The Russians are known to have new airfields in Eastern Siberia; on Kamchatka Peninsula, northeast of Japan, and on Sakhalin and the Kuril Islands at Japan's doorstep.

American bombers from Japan and Okinawa could strike at these military targets in Siberia, as well as at key industrial centers.

Airpower in the Philippines could cover the vast stretches of Southeast Asia, should the Chinese Communists start trouble there.

This strategy presupposes a neutral or friendly Formosa. It is 350 miles from Formosa to Okinawa and a little farther from Formosa to Clark Field, American base in the northern Philippines.

Good Fields On Formosa

In the hands of a competent air power—Russia, not the Chinese Communists—Formosa would be a bludgeon against both Okinawa and Clark Field. The Japanese built many good airfields on Formosa.

Formosa could be hit from Okinawa and Clark Field, the decision depending on who had the most force available at the outset of hostilities.

American officers say the United States air power in the western Pacific is at minimum strength, but they want to hold all present bases.

Southeast Asia Held Next

The fall of Formosa, it is believed here, would be followed by a Communist move in southeast Asia.

Should the Communist movement triumph in the United States of Indonesia, the outer defense line of the United States would be outflanked.

One result might be a forced withdrawal of the American defense line eastward to the Aleutians and Hawaii.

In these days of aerial warfare this would be—as one officer put it—like defending "your home from the back fence."

Countrymen in Argentina Plan to Bring Over Rice Growers

TOKYO, Jan. 7 (AP).—A program to send Japanese rice growers and their families to Argentina to live is being developed here by a representative of Japanese in that South American country.

Gary H. Nagai, an American of Japanese ancestry who represents the Nichibei Cinema Company in Tokyo, is pushing the plan to send an initial 100 families to Corrientes Province, Argentina.

Mr. Nagai said today the program is expected to continue over a twenty to thirty-year period. He was asked to serve as a middleman in the program by Japanese associations in Argentina when he visited there as a private trader last year.

Atlantic Pact Regional Unit Meets January 17

Ottawa, Jan. 7 (AP)—The chiefs of Canada's three forces will fly to Washington January 17 for the first meeting of the United States-Canada regional group of the North Atlantic Treaty organization, it was announced today.

They are Lieut. Gen. Charles Foulkes, Air Marshal W. A. Curtis and Vice Admiral H. T. W. Grant, chiefs of staff of Canada's Army, Air Force and Navy.

An official announcement said the meeting will "take up North Atlantic Treaty organization matters." The group is one of several regional planning groups under the broad pact plan.

Loose White Clothing Advised As Best In Atomic-Bomb Blast

Washington, Jan. 7 (AP)—People dressed in white, loose-fitting clothes would stand the best chance of surviving flash burns in an atomic war, the Government said today.

It advanced that idea in a report detailing the medical effects of the atomic bomb.

The report is being sent to the governors of all states for guidance in the development of civil defense, John R. Steelman, presidential assistant, said.

The 30-page survey of "Medical Aspects of Atomic Weapons" was prepared by the Department of Defense and the Atomic Energy Commission, and was based on exhaustive studies of the devastation and after-effects caused by American atomic bombs dropped on Japan during World War II.

Force, Area And Radius

The report, in some degree, discounted the value of atomic weapons bigger than those which struck Hiroshima and Nagasaki in Japan.

It said, under the subtitle "The Power of the Bomb:"

"The Hiroshima and Nagasaki bombs caused total destruction and serious damage to buildings—death and injury to people—for 2 miles from the point at which the bomb was set off. The extreme limit was about four miles.

"More powerful bombs could cause a wider area of damage, but very great increases in explosive force are necessary in order to accomplish relatively small increases in the area of damage.

"For example, it would be necessary to double the power of the bomb in order to increase the radius of severe damage and injury by one fourth, from 2 to 2½ miles."

20,000 Tons Of T.N.T.

But the report pulled no punches in saying how deadly the old-fashioned Hiroshima-type bomb can be:

"A single atomic bomb of the type dropped on Nagasaki and Hiroshima during the war can lay waste the heart of a large city and injure and kill great numbers of people," it said.

"In the two Japanese cities, over 100,000 were killed and nearly as many were injured."

Such a bomb, it said, is roughly equivalent to 20,000 tons of T.N.T.

The report said that white clothing "tended to reflect the radiant heat, darker clothing to absorb heat" in the Japanese bombings.

"Tight clothing was less protection (than loose)," the report continued, "and burns were inflicted at elbows and where straps crossed the shoulders, for example, while other places where clothing was loose were protected or less severely burned."

Aside from the mass slaughter inflicted directly by the explosion of an A-bomb, the report emphasized the dangers both from radiant heat, and, in some cases, from radioactive contamination.

"It would be unrealistic to prepare for fewer than 40,000 to 50,000 severely burned persons from a single atomic explosion," it said.

The report went on to say that a high-air burst—such as the bombs exploded at 2,000 feet in Japan—will leave "no dangerous amounts of radioactivity on the ground, but nevertheless will cause fifteen to twenty per cent of the deaths "solely by nuclear radiation."

"A bomb exploded in the air at low altitude—as in the Alamogordo (N.M.) test—will pulverize and vaporize materials in its immediate vicinity . . . and radioactive contamination will be severe within a limited area," the report said.

Underwater Explosion

As for an underwater explosion, such as tested at Bikini, that also might cause "serious contamination" by spreading a 200 to 300-foot wave of heavy radioactive mist outward from the base of the mushroom tower of water.

The report told of flying glass penetrating more than an inch beneath the skin of victims in the Japanese bombings, of temporary blindness from the dazzling light of the bomb burst, and of a "fire storm" that swept Hiroshima when gale-winds were sucked inward toward the center of the atomic explosion.

In the case of just one severely burned patient, the report said, "ideal care" should include 42 tanks of oxygen, three nurses, 2.7 miles of gauze, 36 pints of plasma, 40 pints of whole blood, and 100 pints of other fluids plus drugs such as morphine.

Timetable Of Injuries

"Although not all the burn cases would require as much support as the case cited above, this example nevertheless makes apparent the magnitude of the burn problem alone," the report said.

"Fortunately, severe symptoms from radiation in those not killed outright do not ordinarily come on until several days after the acute exposure, so that those suffering from burns and mechanical injuries will actually constitute the chief immediate medical problem."

The report then cited the dangers from gamma and other rays which strike out from an atomic burst like invisible bullets.

"This ionizing radiation cannot ordinarily be detected by the senses," the report said. "If one touches a hot stove, the sensation of heat and resulting tissue damage is immediate.

Damage Without Sensation

"But one may receive an amount of ionizing radiation that will produce far more serious tissue damage then a burn without any sensation. No damage will be apparent for several days."

Heavy external exposure to radiation causes "a massive breakdown of the body tissues," the report said, and may injure sex organs, bone marrow, lymphoid tissue and other parts of the body.

Among Japanese who suffered heavy doses of radiation, the onset was "violent" and the first symptoms appeared within 30 minutes. doses suffered nausea and prostration within an hour."

Later, their symptoms disappeared and then returned in more acute form, the report continued, with severe suffering and in some cases the hair falling from head and body as long as three weeks after exposure.

But it said if the patient recovers, the hair, if lost, gradually

"Great weakness followed and death sometimes occurred within 24 hours," the report said. "Some patients lived ten days."

Victims exposed to less lethal grows back and the patient apparently returns to normal.

"Nevertheless, it is too soon to say that survivors will not suffer further ill effects," it added.

Other Hints Given

Among other hints for self-protection and to avoid panic in an atomic bombardment, the report said there is little danger of contaminated drinking water and the chances of inhaling a dangerous amount of radioactive particles in the air is "small."

It suggested that a combat-type gas mask will filter out "99.999 per cent of all such particles."

British Action Raises New Cry To Cut Aid Funds

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7 (AP).—Great Britain's diplomatic recognition of Communist China raised a fresh Congressional cry today for drastic cuts in European recovery funds.

Senator Robert A. Taft (R., O.), who has called before for substantial reductions in ECA funds, told reporters he thinks the British diplomatic move "will provide a lot of ammunition for those who want ECA funds cut."

He added, however, that he didn't expect Congress to chop off all economic aid to the British just because they have agreed to do business with the Communists.

BREWSTER SEES PROBLEM

Senator Owen Brewster (R., Me.) said the English action "presents a problem of how far we can go in allowing our support to be diverted to the implementation of policies at variance with our own."

"The whole theory of the Marshall Plan is to fight Communism," he said, "and here they are giving it diplomatic recognition."

Brewster suggested that the British were interested primarily in what he said was England's $2,000,000,000 investment in Hong Kong.

Senator Henry C. Dworshak (R., Idaho) said he had no doubt that Congress would insist "not only on a reduction of Marshall Plan funds but on more realistic use of the funds that are appropriated."

There seemed little disposition in Congress to believe that this country would follow Britain's lead at any time in the near future, except for Chairman Tom Connally (D., Tex.) of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, who said he believed the United States would recognize the Chinese Communist regime in a "couple of months." Connally said he was only guessing at the time.

Connally added that he was against recognition at this time, and this stand was shared by Senator Arthur Vandenberg (R., Mich.), GOP foreign policy spokesman.

However, the two are in disagreement on President Truman's "hands-off" policy on Formosa. Vandenberg's criticism so far has been directed mainly at the Administration's failure to consult the Senate Foreign Relations Committee in advance.

ROOSEVELT CRITICIZED

The ranking Democrat on the committee, Senator Walter F. George (D., Ga.), said this country's decision not to defend Formosa and the rise of Russian influence in China stemmed from the "boners" and "frightful mistakes" of the late President Roosevelt. George said that in the light of wartime agreements at Cairo and Yalta, President Truman's decision not to defend Formosa against Communism was "inevitable."

Committee members will question Secretary of State Dean Acheson about the Formosa decision and U. S. interests in Asia at a closed-door session on Tuesday. Acheson will consult with the House Foreign Affairs Committee on Wednesday.

ISSUE OVER DOCUMENT

Another angle of the difficulties in the Far East will be aired in Congress Monday. Senator William F. Knowland (R., Calif.), said he would discuss in the Senate the State Department's refusal to give him a copy of a department document which said the loss of Formosa to the Communists was to be expected.

Knowland declared today that British recognition of Red China made it imperative that the U. S. must not give its latest atomic weapons secrets to England.

BRITISH PRESS APPROVES

Meanwhile the British press—Labor, Conservative and Communist—generally approved Britain's recognition of the Communist regime.

Lord Beavergrook's Daily Express termed recognition wise, but said this policy must be supplemented by "determination and ability to defend empire interests in Hong Kong and Malaya."

The London Times said Britain was accepting a Communist regime in China, as she already had done in Russia, but would resist any attempt by the "Chinese Government to enforce Communism on other countries."

Call For British Aid Cut Follows China Stand

JAN 8 - 1950

Washington, Jan. 7 (AP)—Great Britain's diplomatic recognition of Communist China raised a fresh congressional cry today for drastic cuts in European recovery funds.

Senator Taft (R., Ohio), who has called before for reductions in Economic Recovery Administration funds, said he thinks the British diplomatic move "will provide a lot of ammunition for those who want ECA funds cut."

He added, however, that he doesn't expect Congress to cut off all economic aid to the British because they have agreed to do business with the Communists.

Aid To Reds Seen

Senator Brewster (R., Maine) said the English action "presents a problem of how far we can go in allowing our support to be diverted to the implementation of policies at variance with our own."

"The whole theory of the Marshall Plan is to fight communism," he said, "and here they are giving it diplomatic recognition."

Brewster suggested that the British were interested primarily in what he said was England's $2,000,000,000 investment in Hong Kong.

Senator Dworshak (R., Idaho) said he has no doubt that Congress will insist "not only on a reduction of Marshall-plan funds but on more realistic use of the funds that are appropriated."

Byrd Urges Cut

Senator Byrd (D., Va.) said he hopes that the overall foreign-aid spending can be cut at least $2,000,000,000 this year. He said he will wait until President Truman sends his budget to Congress Monday before offering other money-saving suggestions.

Chairman Cannon (D., Mo.), of the House Appropriations Committee, wouldn't comment on the effect the British recognition of the Chinese Communists would have on aid to non-Communist nations.

But he called Britain's action "a compromise with evil."

Representative Eaton (R., N.J.), of the House Foreign Affairs Committee, said he thinks the British acted only to preserve their financial interests.

He described as a "collapse" of United States foreign policy Mr. Truman's Thursday statement that this country will send no military aid to the Chinese Nationalists on Formosa.

Senator Bridges (R., N.H.) said in his home state that the President's declaration means a "bungling course of Asiatic appeasement." He called it a "cowardly, groveling" action, adding that "the only way to prevent a third world war is to take a stand in defense of Formosa."

Representative Richards (D., S.C.) complained that in recognizing the Communists Britain had shown "she co-operates with the United States only when we are handing out dollars."

Truman Signing Due To Release Full Arms Aid

Washington, Jan. 7 (AP)—Officials today awaited President Truman's approval of a new Atlantic pact defense plan as the signal to start a full $1,000,000,000 in arms rolling to western Europe within a month.

His approval—expected promptly—is all that is needed now to make available the full amount appropriated by Congress last summer to rearm America's European allies. Only $100,000,000 has gone into the arms program thus far, pending final action on the defense plan.

This master blueprint against Communist aggression was approved unanimously yesterday by the twelve-nation North Atlantic Council. Secretary of State Acheson presided over the meeting.

Must Certify "Integration"

Even though Acheson voted for it, the President must now examine the strategy plan and issue a formal finding on whether it provides for "integration" of western European military defenses and production facilities.

In passing the arms-aid program, Congress insisted that this "integration" must be a fact before $900,000,000 of the $1,000,000,000 voted for Europe would be turned loose.

Ready To Roll By Feb. 1

Government authorities said the President already is familiar with the broad outlines of the defense plan and believes it meets the requirements laid down by Congress.

In anticipation of the President's approval, officials are making plans to start American guns, tanks, ammunition and supplies moving to western Europe around February 1.

The only other hitch in the way is the signing of arms-aid agreements with eight of the governments which are to receive American military help. All of these are ready to sign.

'5 P.C.' Probers Map New Inquiry

Washington, Jan. 7 (AP)—The Senate group which conducted the senatorial inquiry into the activities of "five percenters" last year is setting up a new series of investigations.

JAN 8 - 1950

Only expected approval of a $100,000 fund is needed to put the series in motion. The fund has been approved by the Expenditures Committee. It now must be passed on by the Rules Committee and the Senate itself.

Chairman Hoey (D., N.C.), of the special investigating subcommittee, said that staff investigators and attorneys "are collecting data on a large number of complaints."

May Open Probes

"We may decide to open some public investigations within the next two or three weeks," Hoey added.

Previously committee sources disclosed secret surveys have been made "on complaints of kickbacks" under the multibillion-dollar European Recovery Program.

The hearings into "five percenters" involved fees allegedly collected for obtaining or influencing Government awards on contracts.

As a result of that probe, John Maragon, former bootblack who held a White House pass for a time, was indicted on four counts of perjured testimony before the Senate group. He pleaded innocent.

Gillette Protests Imports Of Hams From Poland

Washington, Jan. 7 (AP)—Senator Gillette (D., Iowa) wants to know why hams are being imported from Communist Poland.

He has put the question up to the Departments of Agriculture and State in letters he made public today.

Says Pork Is Plentiful

Gillette told the Agriculture Department he was trying to find "where the responsible action was taken for the broadening or resumption of trade in competitive products with a nation which is one of the strongest within the Soviet orbit."

Gillette hails from the biggest hog-raising state. He said there is an abundance of pork now in this country.

The Senator said he had received a protest from the National Independent Meat Packers Association regarding the imports. USDA figures show that 382,627 pounds of canned hams were imported from Poland during the first nine months of last year.

The Iowan asked the State Department for an explanation of its action in recommending these importations.

"Knowing our State Department's attitude toward the present Government of Poland and its political status . . ." Gillette wrote Secretary Acheson, "I am at a loss to understand the reasoning that would support the request."

Shah Of Iran Thanks Truman For U.S. Visit

Washington, Jan. 7 (AP)—The Shah of Iran in a thank-you letter to President Truman says he was enriched by all he saw on his recent visit to the United States, especially in the field of social welfare.

Another thing that stands out in his memory, the Shah says, is the friendliness, hospitality and courtesy of the American people wherever he met them on his tour of military, educational, industrial and agricultural centers.

The letter, made public by the White House, concludes:

"I am confident, Mr. President, that the long-standing relations of friendship and understanding which have existed untarnished between our two countries will continue to be fostered and strengthened to the good of our peoples and the cause of lasting peace."

REPUBLICANS SAY U. S. BALKED CHIANG

National Body of Young Members of Party Assails State Department

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7 (AP)—The Young Republican National Federation charged today that United States foreign policy had "actually aided" the Communists in China.

This aid, the federation said in a statement by Chairman John Tope, consisted of:

"1. Forcing a truce upon the Nationalist Government in 1945, when it was on the point of completely liquidating Communist opposition;

"2. Placing an embargo on the shipment of arms to China; and

"3. Restricting the Nationalists so as to enable the Communist armies to pass into Manchuria and be armed by the Russians with captured Japanese arms."

The statement made no mention of President Truman's recent policy statement on Formosa, but was directed at the President's message on the State of the Union.

Mr. Tope called United States policy in China "the colossal diplomatic blunder of all our history."

Referring to the President as 'Medicine Man Truman," the statement said he was "mentally blindfolded" when he delivered the message to Congress and "talked like a doctor giving a diagnosis without having examined the patient."

Senator William F. Knowland, Republican, of California, said today the State Department had rejected his request for the names of the authors of a secret memorandum saying Formosa's fall to the Communists was to be expected.

As a result, Senator Knowland told newsmen, he will raise the issue on the Senate floor Monday as "another example of the lowering of the Iron Curtain between the State Department and the members of Congress."

The Californian said the State Department memorandum, dated Dec. 23, was circulated in the diplomatic service as a "policy guide" designed to offset the impact on public opinion of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek's possible failure to hold Formosa against the Red armies.

Earlier this week the State Department offered to let Senator Knowland see the document, but declined to give him a copy of it.

Policy Cowardly, Bridges Says

CONCORD, N. H., Jan. 7 (AP) — United States Senator Styles Bridges wants the United States to "take a stand in defense of Formosa." He said last night that if it didn't there might be a third world war.

Mr. Bridges, in a statement to the press, denounced the Administration's policy in the Formosa crisis as "cowardly, bungling and groveling."

He said it was "leading directly to an atomic Pearl Harbor which will make the last war look like a fire in an ash tray in contrast to the holocaust that will come with this one."

"This nation," he added, "is now engaged in the same cowardly course of retreat which brought on the last war."

He said he would "far rather have our boys fight to defend Formosa than watch them die right before our eyes in a last desperate attempt to save their homeland."

"If we wait until the enemy lands on the beach at California," he said, "it will be too late."

Senator Bridges, a member of the Senate Armed Services Committee and the ranking minority member of the Appropriations Committee, charged that the United States "has broken faith with the thousands of boys who died on Bataan, Iwo Jima and Okinawa."

Mme. Chiang Will Deliver Final Talk

New York, Jan. 7 (AP)—Madame Chiang Kai-shek will deliver a parting message to America before she starts home for China, probably next week.

The wife of the Chinese Nationalist leader will give a fifteen-minute talk tomorrow over the National Broadcasting Company network, starting at noon.

NBC said it would be her final public speech before she sails for the island of Formosa, last stronghold of her husband, Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek, against the Chinese Communists.

Madame Chiang, a graduate of Wellesley College and frequent visitor to the United States, will leave "some time next week," her brother-in-law, Dr. H. H. Kung, said last night.

She has been staying at Kung's Bronx residence since she arrived here in November, 1948, to seek aid for the Nationalist cause. In recent months she has remained in seclusion.

GEM NEEDLES HELP GUARD ATOM WORK

Argonne's Supersharp Points Engrave Detectors

Chicago, Jan. 7 (AP)—Atomic scientists at the Argonne National Laboratory are making some of the sharpest needle points in the world.

The superpointed tips are an important tool in building ultra-sensitive atomic radiation detectors. They already have cut the cost of protecting humans from the deadly rays and have improved atomic research methods.

The needles are of diamond or sapphire. Their tips are about 1,000 times as pointed as a metal phonograph needle. If you test them with your finger tip, they spear effortlessly through the outer skin.

When blown up 150 times their normal size under a special-type microscope, the needle appears like a small tree trunk. But its point still looks needle sharp. Under the same magnification, a phonograph needle tip looks like the rounded end of a spade.

Dial Seen Through Lens

The needles are used to cut microscopically small dials—similar in appearance to an automobile speedometer—for the detectors. The dials are viewed through a magnifying lens.

Dr. Francis R. Shonka, division director of instrument research and development at Argonne, said the needle work was cut $9.97 from the cost of one of the most common types of radiation detectors.

This detector is called a dosimeter—a gadget that looks like a pencil-sized telescope. Scientists working near radiation wear these as a routine precaution. They measure the total amount of radiation a worker absorbs in a day or month. Many thousands of detectors will be needed when atomic energy comes into industrial use.

Under an earlier engraving method, the tiny dial was made by grooving a scale and numerals on glass and filling the hollows with a colored material to make the lines visible. This process cost $10.

Engraved On Steel Mold

Under the present method, rule lines and numerals are engraved on a polished steel mold. Then molten transparent plastic is pressed into the mold. The plastic impression goes directly into the magnified eye of the detector. The mold turns these impressions out at a cost of 3 cents each.

The real dollar savings is accomplished by the special angle of the needle point that cuts the impression. Light passing through these impressions is deflected sideways. Thus the lines and numerals on the dial appear black. The dosimeter now costs $27. It once cost $80 to make.

The division has developed, designed and improved scores of detection devices for government and university scientists. Many are being produced commercially.

BOGAN LOSES POST IN FLEET

Admiral Relieved Of Command In Unification Row

San Diego, Cal., Jan. 7 (AP)—Vice Admiral Gerald F. Bogan, foe of military unification policies, today was relieved of command of the First Task Fleet.

The action came more than three weeks before Bogan had expected to give up his post incidental to his request for retirement, the outspoken admiral said.

He was succeeded by Vice Admiral Thomas L. Sprague, commander, Pacific Fleet Air Force, who is junior to Bogan. Vice Admiral Calvin T. Durgin, now deputy chief of naval operations for air, is due to take permanent command early in the spring.

Charged "Breach Of Faith"

Bogan has been ordered to report to a rear admiral, Wilder D. Baker, 11th Naval District commandant pending final action on his requested retirement.

Two days ago, Bogan called a press conference at which he accused Francis P. Matthews, Navy Secretary, of "breach of faith" in handling a letter the admiral was requested to write, giving his opinion of unification policies. The admiral had contended the Navy morale was being weakened by the manner in which unification was being administered.

Traces Decision To Quit

Matthews had promised flag officers such letters would receive serious consideration, Bogan said.

"Instead, the Secretary of the Navy referred to me in very derogatory terms before the Armed Services Committee in Congress," he commented.

Bogan said his decision to retire stemmed from what he termed "Matthews's breach of faith," and orders demoting him to a rear admiral's billet as commander of Fleet Air, Jacksonville, Fla.

LONDON, JAN. 7-(AP)-NEW BIG FOUR TALKS ON AN AUSTRIAN INDEPENDENCE TREATY WILL BEGIN IN LONDON MONDAY AS SCHEDULED.

UNITED STATES DELEGATES REPORTED EARLIER TODAY THAT THE TALKS HAD BEEN POSTPONED TO TUESDAY AT THE REQUEST OF FRANCE, WHOSE DELEGATE COULD NOT REACH HERE IN TIME.

LATER THE U.S. OFFICIALS SAID THEY HAD RECEIVED WORD FROM PARIS CANCELLING THE REQUEST AND SAYING THE FRENCH DELEGATE, MARCEL BERTHELOT, WOULD ARRIVE IN TIME FOR TALKS TO BEGIN MONDAY AFTERNOON.

MOST OF THE ARTICLES OF THE DRAFT TREATY HAVE BEEN AGREED UPON BY THE FOUR NATIONS. THE LAST SESSION OF THE DEPUTIES IN NEW YORK WAS RECESSED ON DEC.14 TO GIVE RUSSIA AND AUSTRIA A CHANCE TO REACH AN AGREEMENT INDEPENDENTLY ON PAYMENT TO BE MADE BY AUSTRIA FOR SUPPLIES AND SERVICES PROVIDED BY RUSSIA AFTER THE WAR.

LONDON, JAN 7-(AP)-TONIGHT IS THE NIGHT THE RUSSIAN'S ARE EXPECTED TO TOUCH OFF THEIR SECOND ATOMIC EXPLOSION, ACCORDING TO BRITISH EDITOR KENNETH DE COURCY.

DE COURCY IS THE MAN WHO PREDICTED LAST JANUARY RUSSIA WOULD HAVE THE ATOM BOMB IN 1949. HIS MAGAZINE, A MONTHLY INTELLIGENCE DIGEST, REPORTED ON SEPT.1--23 DAYS BEFORE PRESIDENT TRUMAN ANNOUNCED IT--THAT THERE HAD BEEN AN ATOMIC EXPLOSION IN RUSSIA.

DE COURCY, WHO CLAIMS TO HAVE CONTACT WITH HIGHLY PLACED INFORMATION SOURCES IN SEVERAL EASTERN EUROPEAN COUNTRIES, SAID RUSSIA WOULD SET OFF ANOTHER ATOMIC EXPLOSION AT EXACTLY MIDNIGHT GREENWICH MEAN TIME (7 P.M. EST AND 2 A.M., SUNDAY, MOSCOW TIME).

HE SAID IT WOULD BE SET OFF IN BLASTING FOR AN ASIATIC IRRIGATION PROJECT. IF THERE'S A TECHNICAL HITCH, DE COURCY SAID, THE RUSSIAN GENERAL STAFF PLANS TO POSTPONE THE EXPERIMENT UNTIL JAN.10.

SAN FRANCISCO, JAN.7-(AP)-THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS AS YET HAVE MADE PUBLIC NO REACTION TO THEIR RECOGNITION BY BRITAIN.

PEIPING BROADCASTS, HEARD REGULARLY BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS IN BOTH SAN FRANCISCO AND TOKYO, COVERED A WIDE VARIETY OF POLITICAL AND MILITARY TOPICS, LARGELY OF CHINESE DOMESTIC INTEREST, WITHOUT MENTIONING BRITAIN EITHER YESTERDAY OR TODAY.

COMMUNIST REACTION TO MAJOR EVENTS CUSTOMARILY IS DELAYED WHILE THE "PARTY LINE" IS FIXED FROM ABOVE. THIS WAS TRUE OF THE SHELLING OF BRITISH SHIPS IN THE YANGTZE LAST APRIL AND AGAIN OF THE BRITISH SLOOP AMETHYST'S ESCAPE FROM RED ENTRAPMENT IN THE RIVER LAST SUMMER.

CHERBOURG, FRANCE, JAN.7-(AP)-IN SPITE OF COMMUNIST EFFORTS TO BLOCK THE FLOW OF AMERICAN ARMS INTO EUROPE, DOCKERS AT THIS PORT VOTED LAST NIGHT TO UNLOAD MUNITIONS SHIPMENTS WHEN THEY ARRIVE, PROBABLY IN FEBRUARY.

THE VOTE WAS 272 TO 18.

COMMUNIST LEADERS AT THE DOCKERS' MEETING DENOUNCED THE PROPOSED ARMS SHIPMENTS. FRENCH COMMUNIST LEADERS HAVE BEEN LEADING A BITTER CAMPAIGN TO PERSUADE LONGSHOREMEN TO REFUSE TO UNLOAD AMERICAN WAR MATERIALS.

CHERBOURG HAS A NAVAL INSTALLATION ON THE HARBOR AND IS GENERALLY KNOWN AS A MILITARY PORT.

IN ANTICIPATION OF ARRIVAL OF AMERICAN ARMS, A FRENCH COLONEL HAS TAKEN CHARGE OF PUTTING UP NECESSARY SHEDS AND UNLOADING FACILITIES. ONE SOURCE SAID SEVERAL HUNDRED TROOPS WERE EXPECTED TO MOVE INTO CHERBOURG TO GUARD THE EQUIPMENT ONCE IT BEGINS ARRIVING IN LARGE QUANTITY.

THE VOTE AGAINST THE COMMUNIST LEADERSHIP WAS CONSIDERED IN SOME QUARTERS HERE AS LIKELY TO SPLIT THE LONGSHOREMEN'S UNION. THERE HAS BEEN SOME AGITATION FOR THE CHERBOURG LONGSHOREMEN TO QUIT THE COMMUNIST LED CGT, AND JOIN THE FORCE OUVRIERE (WORKERS FORCE) WHOSE LEADERS ARE PREDOMINANTLY SOCIALIST.

NIGHT LEAD SAAR (480)

BONN, GERMANY, JAN. 7-(AP)-THE ISSUE OF THE SAAR BOILED UP AGAIN TONIGHT BETWEEN GERMANY AND FRANCE.

JACOB KAISER, WEST GERMAN MINISTER FOR THE REUNIFICATION OF GERMANY, PROPOSED A REFERENDUM TO DETERMINE THE POLITICAL FUTURE OF THE SAAR, A VALLEY OF 738 SQUARE MILES THICKLY SPOTTED WITH COAL MINES.

ANY OTHER SOLUTION WOULD ENDANGER THE ACCOMPLISHMENT OF EUROPEAN UNITY, KAISER SAID, ADDING:

"IT IS UNTHINKABLE THAT SOME PEOPLE TRY AGAIN TO CONFRONT GERMANY WITH A FAIT ACCOMPLI ON THE SAAR."

HIS STATEMENT WAS MADE AS PARIS DISPATCHES DISCLOSED THAT FRENCH FOREIGN MINISTER ROBERT SCHUMAN PLANS TO MEET NEXT WEEK WITH CHRISTIANUS HOFFMAN, PRESIDENT OF THE AUTONOMOUS SAAR GOVERNMENT, TO WORK OUT CLOSER ECONOMIC AND FINANCIAL LINKS BETWEEN THE SAAR AND FRANCE.

FOR GENERATIONS THE SAAR, WITH ABOUT 1,000,000 PEOPLE, HAS BOUNCED BACK AND FORTH BETWEEN FRANCE AND GERMANY. THE VALLEY WAS ANNEXED TO GERMANY AFTER THE WAR OF 1870. THE VERSAILLES TREATY AFTER WORLD WAR I PUT THE SAAR UNDER A LEAGUE OF NATIONS COMMISSIONER, BUT GRANTED AN ECONOMIC LINK WITH FRANCE. BUT IN 1935--AFTER HITLER HAD ORGANIZED A NAZI PARTY THERE-- THE SAARLANDERS VOTED OVERWHELMINGLY IN A PLEBISCITE TO RETURN TO GERMANY.

AFTER WORLD WAR II FRANCE PROPOSED THAT THE AREA BE INDEPENDENT POLITICALLY, BUT BE JOINED TO FRANCE ECONOMICALLY. IT IS NOW PART OF THE FRENCH OCCUPATION ZONE.

THREE YEARS AGO GEN. LUCIUS D. CLAY, THEN U.S. COMMANDER IN GERMANY, PROTESTED WHAT HE CALLED FRANCE'S UNILATTERAL ACTION IN THROWING FRENCH CUSTOMS GUARDS ABOUT THE SAAR, IN EFFECT SETTING THE AREA APART FROM THE REST OF THE FRENCH OCCUPATION ZONE.

AT MOSCOW IN 1947, HOWEVER, AND LATER IN LONDON, BRITISH AND AMERICAN FOREIGN MINISTERS AGREED THAT THE SAAR SHOULD HAVE A "SPECIAL ENTITY" WITH ECONOMIC AND MILITARY TIES TO FRANCE. RUSSIA REFUSED TO AGREE.

THE FINAL STATUS OF THE SAAR DEPENDS UPON THE PEACE TREATY THAT FINALLY IS WRITTEN FOR GERMANY.

FRANCE, MEANWHILE, HAS PROCEEDED TOWARD THE ECONOMIC INTEGRATION OF THE TERRITORY. IN OCTOBER, 1947, A SAAR PARLIAMENT WAS ELECTED, PLEDGED TO MAKE THE TERRITORY AN ECONOMIC PART OF FRANCE. A YEAR AGO FRANCE WON BRITISH AND AMERICAN AGREEMENT TO KEEP ALL THE SAAR'S COAL PRODUCTION--ABOUT 12,000,000 TONS A YEAR. UP TO THAT TIME, PART OF IT HAD GONE TO GERMANY AND OTHER EUROPEAN COUNTRIES.

B124

THE PARIS DISPATCHES SAID NEXT WEEK'S CONFERENCE BETWEEN SCHUMAN AND HOFFMAN IN PARIS IS EXPECTED TO RESULT IN GIVING THE SAAR GREATER POLITICAL FREEDOM, BUT A CLOSER ECONOMIC ALLIANCE WITH FRANCE.

FRANCE WANTS AN AGREEMENT ESTABLISHING SAAR MONETARY CONTROLS THAT CONFORM WITH THOSE OF FRANCE, DEFINING CONDITIONS FOR DEVELOPMENT OF THE COAL FIELDS AND NATIONALIZING THE SAAR RAILWAYS ON THE SAME BASIS AS THE FRENCH GOVERNMENT OPERATES ITS RAILROADS.

KAISER VOICED HIS DEMAND FOR A REFERENDUM AS KURT SCHUMACHER, SOCIAL DEMOCRATIC OPPOSITION LEADER IN WESTERN GERMANY, LASHED OUT AT THE KAISER MINISTRY.

AT A BERLIN NEWS CONFERENCE SCHUMACHER SAID KAISER, ACHRISTIAN DEMOCRAT, WAS PAYING MORE ATTENTION TO PROBLEMS ON THE WESTERN BORDERS THAN TO THE "REAL PROBLEM--THE SOVIET OCCUPATION ZONE."

HE ALSO CHARGED THAT SOME WEST GERMAN RIGHTIST PARTIES--WHICH HE DID NOT NAME--WERE BEING INFILTRATED BY COMMUNISTS AND FELLOW TRAVELERS.

HE SUGGESTED THAT SOME OF THESE PARTIES WERE BEING TAKEN IN BY COMMUNIST AGITATION FOR A UNITED GERMANY.

"THE RUSSIANS WANT GERMAN UNITY ONLY UNDER THEIR LEADERSHIP," HE SAID. "THEY WANT ONLY TO EXPAND THEIR POWER WITH GERMAN MEANS."

K333PES

(ADVANCE)..BONN, GERMANY, JAN.7-(AP)-WEST GERMANY'S MINISTER FOR EXTERNAL AFFAIRS, JACOB KAISER, CALLED TONIGHT FOR A REFERENDUM TO DETERMINE THE POLITICAL FUTURE OF THE SAAR.

HE TOLD A CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY RALLY THAT ANY OTHER SOLUTION WOULD ENDANGER THE GREAT TASK OF EUROPEAN UNITY.

"IT IS UNTHINKABLE," HE ADDED, "THAT SOME PEOPLE WILL TRY AGAIN TO CONFRONT GERMANY WITH A FAIT ACCOMPLI (ACCOMPLISHED ACT) ON THE SAAR."

DETACHMENT OF THE COAL-RICH SAAR FROM GERMANY HAS BEEN A LONG-STANDING FRENCH POLICY. HITLER ACHIEVED ONE OF HIS FIRST VICTORIES WHEN, BETWEEN THE TWO WORLD WARS, THE SAARLANDERS VOTED OVERWHELMINGLY TO RETURN TO GERMANY. SINCE WORLD WAR II THE SAAR HAS BEEN GRADUALLY INCORPORATED INTO THE FRENCH ECONOMY. CHANCELLOR KONRAD ADENAUER IS SAID TO BELIEVE THAT ULTIMATELY THE SAAR WILL BE POLITICALLY GERMAN.

BERLIN, JAN. 7-(AP)-THE PROPAGANDA WAR BETWEEN EAST AND WEST GERMAN POLITICIANS LAST NIGHT CENTERED ON THE ISSUE OF UNIFYING GERMANY.

WEST GERMAN SOCIALIST LEADERS, WINDING UP A TWO-DAY GENERAL STRATEGY CONFERENCE, WARNED AGAINST UNIFICATION UNDER RUSSIAN-INSPIRED TERMS. THE PARTY'S LEADERS SAID THERE WAS A TENDENCY AMONG SOME CIRCLES TO COMPROMISE WITH COMMUNIST-LED EASTERN ZONE DEMANDS FOR GERMAN UNITY PURELY FOR THE SAKE OF ECONOMIC GAIN "OF QUESTIONABLE COMMON VALUE."

IN A COUNTERBLAST, A MEMBER OF EAST GERMANY'S SOCIALIST UNITY (COMMUNIST) PARTY POLITBURO, FRANZ DAHLEM, CALLED WEST GERMANY'S SOCIALIST LEADER DR.KARL SCHUMACHER A TOOL OF THE "IMPERIALISTS". HE DEMANDED THAT MINES AND FACTORIES BELONGING TO "OLD AND NEW WAR CRIMINALS" IN WEST GERMANY BE SEIZED AND PLACED IN THE "HANDS OF THE WORKERS."

THE SOCIALISTS DECLARED THEIR TASK WAS TO "EXHAUST ALL OPPORTUNITIES FOR A PLANNED OFFENSIVE AIMING AT CREATING A UNIFIED, FREE GERMANY."

THE COMMUNIST TASKS, AS OUTLINED BY DAHLEM, WERE TO SILENCE IMMEDIATELY THE "WAR MONGERS AND ENEMIES OF THE SOVIET UNION" BY NEW METHODS OF AGITATION. HE SAID THE OCCUPATION IN THE WEST HAD BECOME A THREAT TO EUROPEAN SECURITY.

THE SOVIET-LICENSED NEWS AGENCY ADN SAID THE COMMUNIST PARTY HAD DRAFTED A 10-POINT PROGRAM FOR BERLIN, DEMANDING A SINGLE CURRENCY FOR THE CITY (INSTEAD OF THE EAST AND WEST MARK OF UNEQUAL VALUE BEING USED) AND "REESTABLISHMENT OF DEMOCRACY IN THE WESTERN SECTORS."

THE SOCIALIST LEADERS EARLIER HAD DRAFTED A SIX-POINT PROGRAM FOR COMBATTING COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN BERLIN.

DAMASCUS,SYRIA,JAN 7-(AP)-CHIEF OF STATE HASEM BEY ATASSI TODAY PLEDGED TO "WORK FOR THE REALIZATION OF UNION OF THE ARAB COUNTRIES."

THE PLEDGE WAS PART OF THE OATH OF OFFICE VOICED BY ATASSI BEFORE A MEETING OF THE CONSTITUENT ASSEMBLY.

SYRIA HAS BEEN TORN FOR MORE THAN A YEAR BY POLITICAL GROUPS URGING STRICT INDEPENDENCE AND OTHER GROUPS FAVORING A MERGER WITH NEIGHBORING IRAQ.

OPPOSITION TO PLANS FOR AN IRAQI-SYRIAN MERGER IN DECEMBER CAUSED AN ARMY GROUP TO UNSEAT COL.SAMI HENNAWI, SYRIA'S COMMANDER IN CHIEF. HENNAWI HAD BEEN THE ENGINEER OF AN EARLIER COUP IN WHICH COL.HUSNI ZAYIM, AUTHOR OF THE PREVIOUS GOVERNMENT UPSET, WAS ASSASSINATED.

EGYPT HAS WARNED IRAQ AGAINST REPORTED ASPIRATIONS FOR A MERGER OF THE TWO COUNTRIES. EGYPT, ALSO AN ARAB STATE, HAS PLEDGED A "POSITIVE ATTITUDE" AGAINST ANY ARAB NATION THREATENING THE INDEPENDENCE OF ANOTHER ARAB STATE THROUGH AGGRESSION OR PRESSURE.

THE CONSTITUENT ASSEMBLY TODAY DECIDED THAT ALL MEMBERS WOULD BE REQUIRED TO TAKE THE SAME OATH AS THAT TAKEN BY ATASSI.

IN A SPEECH AFTER TAKING THE OATH, ATASSI TOLD THE ASSEMBLY IT IS NOW CALLED ON TO FRAME SYRIA'S THIRD CONSTITUTION SINCE ITS SEPARATION FROM TURKEY. HE SAID THAT CONFLICTING POWERS ARE DRAGGING DOWN THE NATION AND HE EXPRESSED THE HOPE THE ASSEMBLY WOULD PROVIDE THE COUNTRY WITH A CONSTITUTION THAT GUARANTEES HER SOCIAL, POLITICAL, ECONOMIC AND ADMINISTRATIVE PROGRESS AS WELL AS HER SOVEREIGNTY, FREEDOM AND DIGNITY. HE CALLED FOR A CONSTITUTION THAT WOULD INSPIRE CONFIDENCE AND RESTORE THE NATION'S STABILITY.

ATASSI, WHO IS IN HIS 80'S, IS A VETERAN OF SYRIAN POLITICS. HE WAS NAMED PREMIER AND FORMED A GOVERNMENT, WHICH HE ANNOUNCED WOULD BE TEMPORARY, LAST AUG.15 AFTER THE MILITARY COUP LED BY COL.HENNAWI OVERTHREW THE REGIME OF PRESIDENT ZAYIM. ZAYIM AND HIS PREMIER, MUHSEN BEY BERAZI, WERE EXECUTED.

ATASSI WAS STILL PREMIER DEC.19 WHEN THE COUP WITHIN THE ARMY OVERTHREW HENNAWI AS COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF OF THE MILITARY FORCES. SINCE THAT TIME ATASSI HAS BEEN SERVING AS ACTING CHIEF OF STATE.

PREMIER KHALED BEY AZEM, WHO FORMED A COALITION CABINET DEC. 28, TODAY RECEIVED A VOTE OF CONFIDENCE FROM THE CONSTITUENT ASSEMBLY. HE RECEIVED THE VOTES OF 92 OF THE 99 DELEGATES PRESENT. SIX VOTED AGAINST THE PREMIER.

SOME SPEAKERS CRITICIZED A CABINET STATEMENT ON THE GROUNDS IT LACKED PRECISION WITH RESPECT TO FUTURE PLANS IN CONJUNCTION WITH OTHER ARAB COUNTRIES. IN HIS REPLY, AZEM SAID THAT AN "ARAB UNION IS THE DREAM AND HOPE OF EVERY FAITHFUL ARAB, YET WE WANT IT COMPLETE, TRUE, FREE OF FOREIGN INFLUENCE AND PRESSURE, NOT PARTIAL OR AFFECTING OUR COUNTRY'S SOVEREIGNTY."

FOX SAID IN NEW YORK LAST NOVEMBER HE WAS "WILLING TO ACCEPT ANY MODIFICATIONS DESIRED BY THE INDONESIANS." HE WAS COMMENTING ON A STATEMENT MADE IN CAIRO BY HATTA THAT THE AGREEMENT WOULD HAVE TO BE REVISED. AT THAT TIME FOX SAID FEATURES WHICH HAD BEEN TERMED "MONOPOLISTIC" ALREADY HAD BEEN MODIFIED.

PRO-NATIONALIST REPORTS SAID GOVERNMENT WARPLANES CAUGHT THE JUNKS INCHING DOWN LUICHOW PENINSULA TOWARD THE BIG ISLAND OFF CHINA'S SOUTH COAST. THE PENINSULA IS SEPARATED FROM HAINAN BY A STRAIT 10 MILES WIDE.

THE ACCOUNTS ASSERTED THAT THE WARPLANES DIVED UPON THE FLEET AND SANK APPROXIMATELY 500 JUNKS. THE OTHERS FLED BACK TO THE COAST OF THE PENINSULA.

(BOTH SIDES IN CHINA'S CIVIL WAR HAVE A HABIT OF EXAGGERATING THE AMOUNT OF DAMAGE THEY DO TO EACH OTHER.)

THE NATIONALISTS REPORTED LAST MONTH THAT SHORE BATTERIES ON HAINAN HAD BROKEN UP A COMMUNIST ATTEMPT TO LAND FROM THE PENINSULA. THIS WAS REGARDED AS A FEELER OPERATION.

OTHER NATIONALIST WARPLANES STRUCK AT PAKHOI. THIS IS AN ASSEMBLY PART FOR COMMUNIST INVASION CRAFT 100 MILES NORTH OF HAINAN.

THE NATIONALISTS REPORTS SAID DAMAGE WAS EXTENSIVE AT PAKHOI AND THAT COMMUNIST PLANS FOR THE INVASION OF HAINAN WERE GREATLY SLOWED.

MARTIAL LAW WAS DECLARED IN HOIHOW, CAPITAL AND MILITARY HEADQUARTERS AT HAINAN. ALL NON-ESSENTIAL PERSONNEL WERE ORDERED TO LEAVE.

CHINESE NATIONALISTS IN THIS BRITISH CROWN COLONY 270 MILES NORTHEAST OF HAINAN BEGAN CLAMORING TO GET OUT ON THE HEELS OF BRITAIN'S RECOGNITION OF THE COMMUNIST REGIME IN PEIPING.

CROWDS GATHERED AT THE NATIONALIST GOVERNMENT OFFICE SEEKING PASSPORTS OR VISAS. THE OFFICE STILL FUNCTIONED AT THE TIME BECAUSE THE HONG KONG GOVERNMENT HAD NOT YET RECEIVED OFFICIAL NOTIFICATION OF LONDON'S DECISION TO RECOGNIZE PEIPING.

THE NATIONALIST GOVERNMENT OFFICE CLOSED AT NOON AFTER HANDLING A LAST-MINUTE RUSH OF APPLICANTS FOR PASSPORTS OR VISAS. SPECIAL COMMISSIONER T.W.KWOK TOLD HONG KONG'S GOVERNOR, SIR ALEXANDER GRANTHAM, THIS MORNING HE HAD BEEN ORDERED TO CLOSE THE OFFICE. THE GOVERNOR THEN INFORMED KWOK FORMALLY OF BRITISH RECOGNITION OF PEIPING AND SAID THE HONG GOVERNMENT CONSIDERED KWOK'S MISSION AT AN END.

THE BIG QUESTION AMONG CHINESE WAS HOW THE BRITISH WILL TREAT SEMI-PUBLIC PROPERTIES IN THE COLONY AND WHAT ARRANGEMENTS WILL BE MADE FOR TRAVEL AND TRADE BETWEEN HONG KONG AND FORMOSA.

CLAIRE L. CHENNAULT'S CIVIL AIR TRANSPORT LINE TOOK NO CHANCES. IT HALTED ALL SERVICE BETWEEN HONG KONG AND CHINESE NATIONALIST AREAS AND FLEW OUT ITS PLANES. THE LINE IS REGISTERED BY THE NATIONALISTS. IT IS IN THE PROCESS OF BEING TRANSFERRED TO CIVIL AIR TRANSPORT, INC., A CORPORATION CHARTERED IN DELAWARE.

JAN 8 - 1950

HONG KONG, JAN. 7-(AP)-THE PRO-COMMUNIST CHINESE NEWSPAPER TA KUNG PAO TODAY HAILED BRITAIN'S RECOGNITION OF THE RED REGIME IN PEIPING AS "A BLOW TO AMERICAN IMPERIALISTIC POLICIES OF AGGRESSION AND WAR-MAKING."

BRITAIN'S ACT YESTERDAY IN RECOGNIZING PEIPING WAS PROCLAIMED IN AN EDITORIAL AS "A CONTRIBUTION TO EVERLASTING WORLD PEACE AND SINO-BRITISH COOPERATION."

TA KUNG PAO PREDICTED THAT BRITAIN WILL REPUDIATE THE CHINESE NATIONALIST DELEGATION TO THE UNITED NATIONS. IT SAID THE BRITISH ACTION WOULD FORCE THE NATIONALISTS TO WITHDRAW THEIR REPRESENTATIVES FROM ALL INTERNATIONAL ORGANIZATIONS AND CONFERENCES.

THE NEWSPAPER ALSO PREDICTED THAT THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS AND BRITAIN WOULD REVIEW EXISTING TREATIES.

"WE ARE WILLING TO DO BUSINESS WITH BRITAIN AND INDEED WELCOME IT," THE EDITORIAL SAID, "BUT SUCH COMMERCIAL RELATIONS MUST BE BUILT ON A FOUNDATION OF EQUALITY AND MUTUAL BENEFIT."

THE BRITISH-OWNED SOUTH CHINA MORNING POST GREETED RECOGNITION AS A COURAGEOUS, PRACTICAL ACTION WHICH IT SAID DID NOT MEAN APPROVAL OF THE COMMUNIST REGIME. IT DENIED THAT RECOGNITION WAS A BRITISH SACRIFICE OF THE ANTI-COMMUNIST FRONT FOR COMMERCIAL INTERESTS.

A BRITISH SPOKESMAN SAID THE HONG KONG GOVERNMENT HAD NOT YET BEEN NOTIFIED OFFICIALLY OF LONDON'S DECISION TO RECOGNIZE THE COMMUNISTS...

BRITISH RECOGNITION OF THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS TODAY BROUGHT THE CLOSURE OF THE NATIONALIST GOVERNMENT'S OFFICE IN THIS CROWN COLONY.

SPECIAL COMMISSIONER T.W.KWOK CALLED ON SIR ALEXANDER GRANTHAM, HONG KONG'S GOVERNOR, AND SAID HE HAD BEEN ORDERED TO CLOSE THE OFFICE.

SIR ALEXANDER, IN TURN, ADVISED KWOK FORMALLY OF BRITAIN'S RECOGNITION OF THE PEIPING GOVERNMENT AND SAID THE HONG KONG GOVERNMENT CONSIDERED KWOK'S MISSION AT AN END.

THUS ENDED AN INNOVATION IN SINO-BRITISH RELATIONS THAT BEGAN AFTER WORLD WAR II. THE CHINESE GOVERNMENT REFUSED TO SEND A CONSUL-GENERAL TO HONG KONG BECAUSE THAT WOULD IDENTIFY THE COLONY CLEARLY AS NON-CHINESE TERRITORY. THE COLONY IS LEASED TO BRITAIN.

WHAT TITLE THE COMMUNISTS WILL GIVE THEIR REPRESENTATIVE HERE WILL BE SOMETHING OF A TIP-OFF TO PEIPING'S ATTITUDE TOWARD BRITISH SOVEREIGNTY OVER HONG KONG.

KWOK'S STAFF BEGAN PACKING AFTER HANDLING A LAST-MINUTE RUSH OF CONSULAR BUSINESS. MOST OF THE CAREER OFFICERS WILL LEAVE SOON FOR FORMOSA.

IT IS EXPECTED SOME NATIONALIST OFFICIALS WILL REMAIN HERE TO HANDLE CONSULAR MATTERS PERTAINING TO TRADE AND TRAVEL BETWEEN FORMOSA AND HONG KONG.

BRITISH OFFICIAL QUARTERS SAID THE BRITISH CONSUL-GENERAL AT TAIPEI, THE FORMOSAN CAPITAL, WILL CONTINUE TO FUNCTION.

TAIPEI, FORMOSA, SUNDAY, JAN. 8-(AP)-THE CHINESE NATIONALISTS TODAY ANNOUNCED THEIR WARPLANES BOMBED SHANGHAI SATURDAY FOR THE THIRD STRAIGHT DAY AND DAMAGED MORE THAN 20 SHIPS.

AN OFFICIAL DISPATCH FROM THE AIR FORCE BASE ON CHU SHAN ISLAND, 100 MILES SOUTH OF SHANGHAI, SAID THE RAID WAS CARRIED OUT BY A BIG FORMATION OF PLANES. IT DID NOT DIVULGE THE NUMBER.

THE DISPATCH ASSERTED THE NORTH CHINA PORT OF TSINGTAO AND OTHER POINTS ALSO WERE ATTACKED.

WITH HONG ~~C-RECOGNITION (APWS)~~
~~TAIPEI,FORMOSA, JAN 7 (AP)-BRITISH SHIPPING~~ AND AIR SERVICE BETWEEN HONG KONG AND FORMOSA CONTINUED AS USUAL TODAY, UNAFFECTED BY BRITAIN'S RECOGNITION OF COMMUNIST CHINA.

IT WAS QUITE CLEAR THAT BRITISH AND CHINESE NATIONALIST AUTHORITIES MUST HAVE REACHED A PREVIOUS UNDERSTANDING ON THIS SCORE. THE NATIONALISTS STAND ONLY TO GAIN FROM THESE SERVICES SO THEY ARE NOT EXPECTED TO INTERFERE WITH THEM.

A NEW VISA PROCEDURE WAS STARTED FOR CHINESE GOING TO HONG KONG. AT NOON THE BRITISH CONSULATE CEASED ACCEPTING TRAVEL CERTIFICATES ISSUED BY THE NATIONALIST FOREIGN OFFICE AND BEGAN PROVIDING ITS OWN TRAVEL DOCUMENTS.

NATIONALIST EDITORIAL WRITERS FROTHED AGAINST BRITAIN FOR RECOGNIZING THE REDS.

THE CENTRAL DAILY NEWS, KUOMINTANG (NATIONALIST PARTY) MOUTHPIECE, BRANDED IT A FOOLISH MISTAKE AND SAID "WE FEEL INDIGNANT." IT SAID BRITAIN WOULD FIND RUSSIA DETERMINED TO UPROOT THE TRADING POSITION OF THE WESTERN POWERS IN CHINA.

THE PRO-NATIONALIST CHINA NEWS BULLETIN TERMED RECOGNITION A DOUBLE-CROSSING BETRAYAL AND AN ACT OF OUTRAGEOUS IMPERIALISM. "IT ADDS ONLY ONE MORE BLACK SPOT TO BRITAIN'S TRADITIONAL POLICY OF DIPLOMATIC DECEIT AND BLACKMAIL," THE EDITORIAL SAID.

~~(EDITOR'S NOTE: THE ISLAND OF FORMOSA HAS BECOME~~ THE FOCAL POINT OF WORLD ATTENTION IN THE FAR EASTERN CONFLICT AND AN ISSUE IN THE DEBATE OVER AMERICAN POLICY TOWARDS CHINA.

IT IS BY FAR THE MOST IMPORTANT REMAINING BASTION OF THE CHINESE NATIONALISTS, WHO HAVE BEEN PRACTICALLY DRIVEN OFF THE MAINLAND BY THE COMMUNISTS.

WITH PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S DECLARATION OF A HANDS-OFF ATTITUDE, WHAT ARE FORMOSA'S PROSPECTS? CAN THE COMMUNISTS MAKE GOOD ON THEIR VOWS TO CONQUER IT THIS YEAR?

SPENCER MOOSA, FOR MANY YEARS AN ASSOCIATED PRESS CORRESPONDENT IN CHINA, PRESENTS THE ANSWERS OF BEST-INFORMED SOURCES IN THE FOLLOWING SURVEY.

-DASH-

JAN 8 - 1950

~~BY SPENCER MOOSA~~

~~(ADVANCE) TAIPEI, FORMOSA, JAN 7 (AP)- IF THE CHINESE~~ COMMUNISTS CAN CONQUER FORMOSA, GENERALISSIMO CHIANG KAI-SHEK AND HIS LAST-DITCH NATIONALISTS FACE THE END, EITHER BY FLIGHT INTO EXILE OR BY CAPTURE.

KNOWING THIS, THEY INTEND TO HOLD THIS BIG ISLAND IF THEY CAN, BUT THEY FEEL THAT THEY ARE DOOMED UNLESS THEY GET MATERIAL AID FROM THE UNITED STATES. THIS VIEW PREVAILS DESPITE THE AMERICAN HANDS-OFF ATTITUDE.

TYPIFYING THE OPINION IN ALL NATIONALIST RANKS, K.C.WU, PRINCETON-EDUCATED GOVERNOR OF FORMOSA, SAYS THE ISLAND CAN BE HELD "FOREVER--MAYBE," PROVIDED THE UNITED STATES "GIVES US MORAL AND MATERIAL ENCOURAGEMENT."

IF THE COMMUNISTS ARE UNABLE TO MOUNT THEIR INVASION THIS COMING SPRING AND SUMMER, IN THE INTERVAL BETWEEN MONSOON AND TYPHOON WEATHER, THEN CHIANG AND HIS FOLLOWERS WILL GET A YEAR'S RESPITE.

THIS IS WHAT THEY ARE HOPING FOR. THEY BELIEVE THAT SOMEHOW, SOMEWHERE, SOMETHING MIGHT HAPPEN TO ALTER THE SEEMINGLY INEXORABLE TREND OF EVENTS.

A SURVEY OF THE BEST AVAILABLE CHINESE AND FOREIGN OPINION IN THIS CAPITAL DISCLOSES THESE MORE OR LESS COMMON CONVICTIONS:

A135FX JAN 8 - 1950

1. THE COMMUNISTS AT PRESENT DO NOT SEEM TO HAVE THE CAPABILITY OF UNDERTAKING AN INVASION;

2. THIS PICTURE COULD CHANGE QUICKLY WITH ACTIVE SOVIET AID:

3. THERE IS LITTLE OR NO PROSPECT OF THE NATIONALISTS BEING OVERTHROWN BY AN INTERNAL REVOLT, DESPITE DISSATISFACTION AMONG THE FORMOSAN POPULATION OF MORE THAN 6,000,000; AND

4. UNLESS PROJECTED REFORMS ARE CARRIED OUT IN THE NEXT FEW MONTHS, THE NATIONALISTS WILL BE IN SERIOUS ECONOMIC PLIGHT.

INVASION OF THIS ISLAND WILL BE A STUPENDOUS PROJECT. WITH GOOD AIR RECONNAISSANCE, THE DEFENDERS SHOULD HAVE AT LEAST FOUR DAYS OF WARNING, OR OS THE MILITARY EXPERTS SAY.

ONE FOREIGNER BELIEVES THE REDS WOULD HAVE TO LAND 200,000 TO 300,000 MEN IN THREE OR FOUR DAYS TO MAKE AN INVASION STICK --- "AND I DON'T THINK THEY ARE CAPABLE OF DOING SO, NOT THIS YEAR, AT LEAST", HE CONCLUDES.

EVERYONE HERE SEEMS TO TAKE IT FOR GRANTED THAT, IF THE COMMUNISTS DO TAKE FORMOSA, IT WILL BECOME A SOVIET AIR AND NAVAL BASE. THIS WOULD THREATEN COMMUNICATIONS BETWEEN JAPAN AND THE PHILIPPINES AND TO A LARGE EXTENT NEUTRALIZE THE AMERICAN AIR BASE ON OKINAWA.

THE NATIONALIST DEFENSE STRATEGY FOR THIS ISLAND OF 13,890 SQUARE MILES (ABOUT ONE-THIRD THE SIZE OF VIRGINIA), IS SIMPLE:

TRY TO DESTROY THE INVASION FLEETS BEFORE THEY ARE ABLE TO LEAVE THE MAINLAND;

TRY TO SHATTER BY SEA AND AIR ATTACK THOSE WHO ACTUALLY LAUNCH ON THE 100-MILE VOYAGE, AND FINALLY,

TRY TO CONTAIN AND DESTROY ANY FORCE THAT DOES LAND.

SUCCESS OR FAILURE COULD HINGE ON WHETHER THE INVADERS MET DETERMINED, LOYAL TROOPS OR DEMORALIZED ONES WHO MIGHT QUIT.

JAN 8 - 1950

SHAPED LIKE A TOBACCO-LEAF, 254 MILES LONG AT ITS LONGEST AND A MAXIMUM OF 90 MILES WIDE, FORMOSA HAS A RANGE OF RUGGED MOUNTAINS RUNNING NORTH AND SOUTH. THEY COVER MOST OF EASTERN FORMOSA.

MUCH OF THE HEAVILY-FORESTED INTERIOR IS UNEXPLORED, AND IS POPULATED ONLY BY SAVAGE ABORIGINALS.

ALL THE NATIONALISTS DISCOUNT THE POSSIBILITY OF THE REDS LANDING ON THE EAST COAST, WITH ITS TOWERING, SHEER CLIFFS.

EVERYONE ALSO OVERRULES THE POSSIBILITY OF THE REDS INFILTRATING INTO THE MOUNTAINS AND ESTABLISHING GUERRILLA BASES. THEY WOULD NOT BE ABLE TO SUBSIST IN THAT WILD LAND.

NO FOREIGN OR CHINESE SOURCE HERE WILL SUBSTANTIATE RECENT HONG KONG REPORTS THAT SMALL PARTIES OF REDS ALREADY HAVE LANDED.

GOVERNOR WU SAYS THIS STORY STARTED LAST AUGUST AND IS "ABSOLUTE NONSENSE."

THE BEST LANDING SITE FOR ANY INVADER IS THE NORTHWEST COAST BETWEEN THE TANSUI RIVER AND SHINCHIKU (RENAMED HSINCHOU BY THE CHINESE).

SHINCHIKU IS ON THE WEST COAST RAILWAY AND HIGHWAY NEAR EXCELLENT

BEACHES.

LANDINGS ALSO ARE POSSIBLE ALMOST THE WHOLE LENGTH OF THE WEST COAST, BUT WOULD BE RELATIVELY DIFFICULT BECAUSE OF EXTENSIVE SANDBARS.

TAKAO (RENAMED KAOHSIUNG) ON THE SOUTHWEST COAST WAS ONCE A HEAVILY FORTIFIED JAPANESE NAVAL BASE. IT WAS A PROTECTED SITE OF AMERICAN LANDINGS WHICH WERE DISCUSSED BUT NOT IMPLEMENTED DURING THE JAPANESE WAR.

EXPERTS DOUBT STRONGLY THAT THE COMMUNISTS WILL TRY TO USE THE PESCADORES ISLANDS AS STEPPING-STONES. THIRTY MILES WEST OF FORMOSA, THEY ARE TOO SMALL FOR AN OPERATING BASE AND WOULD BE WIDE OPEN TO AIR AND NAVAL BOMBARDMENT.

THE NATIONALISTS ARE ERECTING PILLBOXES AND OTHER DEFENSES ALL ALONG FORMOSA'S PERIMETER AND MAINTAIN AN AROUND-THE-CLOCK WATCH. SEARCHLIGHTS AT NIGHT GROPE FOR ANY INTRUDING CRAFT. NO ONE CAN COME TO FORMOSA WITHOUT CLOSE "SCREENING."

EVERYONE MUST HAVE A RESIDENCE PERMIT AND IS SUBJECT TO JAIL IF HE CANNOT PRODUCE IT.

JAN 8 - 1950

A137FX

DESPITE THESE PRECAUTIONS, THERE IS NO QUESTION BUT WHAT SOME COMMUNIST AGENTS ARE AROUND. NO ONE CAN SAY HOW MANY, BUT GOVERNOR WU SAYS:

"ONE GOOD THING THE JAPANESE DID DURING THEIR 50 YEARS OF RULE HERE--THEY INDOCTRINATED THE PEOPLE AGAINST COMMUNISM."

THE GOVERNOR DENIES FORMOSAN DISCONTENT ON THE SCALE PORTRAYED ABROAD AND STEMMING BACK TO THE DISORDERS OF 1946.

WU SAYS THERE ARE THREE FORMOSAN GROUPS WHO DIFFER LARGELY AMONG THEMSELVES: THOSE WHO WORKED FOR THE JAPANESE; THOSE WHO WERE UNDERGROUND ANTI-JAPANESE REVOLUTIONARIES; AND THOSE WHO WORKED ON THE MAINLAND FOR LIBERATION OF THEIR ISLAND FROM THE JAPANESE.

EACH FACTION FEELS IT DESERVES A BIGGER VOICE, HE SAYS, WHILE "I AM TRYING TO UNITE THEM AND HOPE I'LL SUCCEED."

HE INSISTS THE FORMOSANS ARE ESSENTIALLY LOYAL TO THE NATIONALISTS.

HOWEVER, CRITICS OF THE GOVERNMENT SEE THE POSSIBILITY OF DISASTER AND EVENTUAL UPRISING, IN THE ECONOMIC PICTURE. THEY SAY THE NATIONALISTS ARE DUPLICATING HERE THE MISTAKES WHICH LOST THE MAINLAND FOR THEM; THAT THERE ARE DIFFERENCES AT THE TOP; THAT THE NAVY AND AIR FORCE ACT INDEPENDENTLY; THAT CHIANG KAI-SHEK STILL ISSUES ORDERS DIRECT TO TROOP UNITS; AND THAT THE MILITARY ESTABLISHMENT IS SO LARGE IT EVENTUALLY WILL WRECK THE ECONOMY AND IN TURN WILL BE WRECKED BY THE ECONOMIC COLLAPSE.

THESE CRITICS SAY THE MILITARY ESTABLISHMENT HAS 600,000 MOUTHS TO FEED, WHEREAS A REALLY EFFECTIVE FORCE OF 100,000 WOULD BE ENOUGH TO HOLD THE ISLAND WITHOUT RUINING IT.

GOVERNOR WU SAYS HE CANNOT DISCLOSE THE SIZE OF THE ARMED FORCES, BUT REMARKS THAT THE JAPANESE HAD 200,000 TROOPS HERE BEFORE THEIR SURRENDER. HE CONTENDS THAT WITH AMERICAN AID FORMOSA COULD SUPPORT ITS FORCES AND BE DEVELOPED INTO A BASE FOR REINVASION OF THE MAINLAND.

FOREIGN STUDENTS OF THE ECONOMY AGREE THAT THE ISLAND IS SELF-SUFFICIENT IN FOOD AND IS IN REASONABLY SOUND CONDITION. THEY NOTE GROWING INFLATION, HOWEVER. THE AMERICAN DOLLAR NOW IS FETCHING NINE FORMOSAN DOLLARS ON THE BLACK MARKET, COMPARED WITH 7 1/2 THREE WEEKS AGO.

ESTIMATES OF THE NATIONALIST GOLD RESERVE RANGE FROM $150,000,000 TO $200,000,000. IT IS EXPECTED TO BE EXHAUSTED WITHIN SIX MONTHS UNLESS OUTSIDE AID COMES.

A138FX

THE AMERICAN ECONOMIC COOPERATION ADMINISTRATION PROGRAM IS SMALL. IT SUPPLIES RAW COTTON, SELLS CLOTH AND YARN TO TRY TO HOLD DOWN RISING PRICES, DISTRIBUTES MEDICINES AND PROVIDES OIL AND FERTILIZER.

A JOINT COMMISSION ON RURAL RECONSTRUCTION--AN ECA SUBSIDIARY--HAS A BIGGER PROGRAM OF 60 TO 70 PROJECTS.

A FOREIGNER WHO RECENTLY TOURED THE ISLAND SAYS RURAL AREAS ARE SQUALID AND POVERTY-STRICKEN. BUT HE AGREES WITH THE NATIONALISTS THAT THE PEOPLE ARE NOT SO DISSATISFIED AS TO TAKE UP THEIR PITCHFORKS AND REVOLT.

"EVEN IF THEY DID, THEY WOULDN'T GET ANY PLACE, AS EVERY VILLAGE IS WELL GARRISONED," HE ADDED.

THE NATIONALISTS INTEND TO HANG ONTO FORMOSA IF THEY CAN.

ABOARD THE AMERICAN FREIGHTER FLYING ARROW, JAN. 8-(AP)-TWO CHINESE NATIONALIST DESTROYER ESCORTS BEGAN TRAILING THE BLOCKADE-RUNNING FLYING ARROW TODAY SHORTLY AFTER IT PASSED THROUGH FORMOSA STRAIT.

THE BLOCKADING SHIPS ARE FOLLOWING AT A RESPECTABLE DISTANCE BEHIND THE ISBRANDTSEN LINE FREIGHTER WHICH HAS ANNOUNCED IT WOULD DEFY NATIONALIST WARSHIPS, PLANES AND THE U.S. STATE DEPARTMENT TO REACH COMMUNIST SHANGHAI.

THE FLYING ARROW IS DUE OFF THE YANGTZE MONDAY NOON (11 P.M. SUNDAY, EASTERN STANDARD TIME). THERE SHE WILL AWAIT INSTRUCTION FROM THE ISBRANDTSEN OFFICES IN NEW YORK BEFORE ATTEMPTING TO PROCEED UP THE REPORTEDLY MINED MOUTH OF THE RIVER TO SHANGHAI.

THE FORMOSA STRAIT, WHERE THE BLOCKADING WARSHIPS BEGAN THEIR UNWELCOME ESCORT, IS MIDWAY BETWEEN SHANGHAI AND HONG KONG FROM WHICH THE FLYING ARROW SAILED WITH A $10,000,000 (M) CARGO. THE STRAIT SEPARATES CHINA PROPER FROM FORMOSA, ISLAND STRONGHOLD OF THE NATIONALISTS.

AMONG THE 12 PASSENGERS ABOARD THE FLYING ARROW ARE SEVEN FRENCH, ENGLISH AND GERMAN WOMEN RETURNING TO SHANGHAI--WITH OR TO THEIR HUSBANDS.

FIRST LEAD NOZAKA (160)

TOKYO, SUNDAY, JAN. 7-(AP)-SANZO NOZAKA, A LEADING JAPANESE COMMUNIST, USED HIS PARTY'S NEWSPAPER TODAY FOR WHAT MAY BE REGARDED AS A DEFENSE AGAINST A COMINFORM CHARGE HE HAD STRAYED FROM THE PARTY LINE.

THE COMINFORM JOURNAL AT BUCHAREST YESTERDAY ACCUSED NOZAKA OF "ANTI-DEMOCRATIC AND ANTI-SOCIALIST" VIEWS AND OF SERVING THE "IMPERIALIST OCCUPIERS OF JAPAN."

IN TODAY'S AKHATA, THE PARTY NEWSPAPER, NOZAKA WAS GIVEN PAGE ONE SPACE FOR AN ARTICLE ON "THE TREND OF THE WORLD." THIS SHOWED THAT HE HAD NOT YET BEEN "DISCIPLINED" OR EJECTED FROM THE PARTY.

NOZAKA PRAISED BRITISH RECOGNITION OF THE CHINESE COMMUNIST REGIME AS A BLOW TO THE JAPANESE GOVERNMENT. HE SAID IT "GIVES NEW COURAGE AND CONFIDENCE TO THE PEOPLE OF JAPAN."

"WE BELIEVE," HE CONCLUDED, "IT IS POSSIBLE TO PUSH A NEW NATIONAL MOVEMENT FOR THE ATTAINMENT OF JAPAN'S FULL INDEPENDENCE AND WORLD PEACE."

TO SOME OBSERVERS THIS LAST SENTENCE LOOKED LIKE A POSSIBLE PROMISE TO BECOME MORE ACTIVE IN WORKING FOR A PEACE TREATY. THE COMMUNISTS WANT A QUICK PEACE IN ORDER TO REMOVE OCCUPATION FORCES.

THE COMINFORM CHARGES WERE BASED ON NOZAKA'S CONTENTION--WHICH IS NOW A PART OF THE JAPANESE COMMUNIST PARTY PLATFORM--THAT A "PEOPLE'S DEMOCRATIC REGIME" COULD BE ESTABLISHED UNDER THE AMERICAN OCCUPATION.

PARTY HEADQUARTERS FUNCTIONARIES PREVENTED REPORTERS FROM CONTACTING NOZAKA.

THE KYODO NEWS AGENCY QUOTED A MEMBER OF THE PARTY CENTRAL COMMITTEE AS SAYING THE PARTY INTENDED TO "IGNORE" THE ATTACK.

(IF IT DOES "IGNORE" IT, THIS WOULD MARK THE FIRST TIME ANY COMMUNIST ORGANIZATION HAS SO TREATED A BLAST FROM THE SO-CALLED COMMUNIST INFORMATION BUREAU, WHICH DIRECTS COMMUNIST WORLD OPERATIONS. COMINFORM ATTACKS ON MARSHAL TITO OF YUGOSLAVIA AND ON LEADERS IN POLAND, BULGARIA AND ELSEWHERE HAVE CAUSED IMMEDIATE AND DRASTIC REPERCUSSIONS.)

IN JAPAN THE BUCHAREST BLAST PROMISES AT THE LEAST TO PROVIDE A NEW TWIST TO THE LONG AND BITTER CONTROVERSY BETWEEN NOZAKA AND KYUICHI TOKUDA, SECRETARY-GENERAL OF THE PARTY. BOTH ARE MEMBERS OF THE JAPANESE DIET (PARLIAMENT).

NOZAKA WAS TRAINED IN MOSCOW AND SERVED DURING THE WAR WITH THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS IN THEIR CAVE CAPITAL OF YENAN. HE FLED FROM JAPAN IN THE EARLY THIRTIES TO AVOID THE POLICE AND RETURNED ONLY AFTER THE AMERICAN OCCUPATION.

TOKUDA REMAINED IN JAPAN AND WAS IMPRISONED FOR 18 YEARS. THIS IS THE BASIS FOR HIS TOP POSITION IN THE PARTY.

TOKUDA AND NOZAKA HAVE DIFFERED VIOLENTLY FOR YEARS. TOKUDA ADVOCATES STRONG ACTION AND IS REGARDED AS RESPONSIBLE FOR THE CLASHES WITH THE OCCUPATION WHICH HAVE COST THE REDS MUCH PRESTIGE. AS A RESULT, TOKUDA HAS LOST MUCH PRESTIGE. NOZAKA, A CLEVER OPPORTUNIST, IS BELIEVED RESPONSIBLE FOR THE MORE RECENT POLICY OF AVOIDING DIRECT CONFLICT WHILE TRYING QUIETLY TO CONSOLIDATE PARTY STRENGTH.

THE COMINFORM CONDEMNATION OF NOZAKA MAY NOW PUT TOKUDA BACK INTO THE SADDLE.

TOKYO, JAN. 7-(AP)-GENERAL MACARTHUR'S INVESTIGATORS HAVEN'T GOT FAR IN TRYING TO TRACE THE LEAK ON A SECRET STATE DEPARTMENT DOCUMENT SAYING FORMOSA'S FALL WAS TO BE ANTICIPATED.

THEY'VE TALKED TO FOUR FOREIGN CORRESPONDENTS SO FAR. AND ALL THEY LEARNED WAS WHAT THEY ALREADY KNEW FROM THE NEWSPAPERS--THAT ALL FOUR HAD SEEN OR HAD KNOWLEDGE OF THE SECRET MEMORANDUM.

EARNEST HOBERECHT OF THE UNITED PRESS, WHO FIRST PUBLISHED A STORY ON THE DOCUMENT, WAS THE LATEST TO BE EXAMINED. HE WAS CALLED IN THIS MORNING AND QUESTIONED FOR 30 MINUTES.

HE SAID HE REPLIED TO ALL QUESTIONS: "I HAVE NOTHING TO SAY."

TOM LAMBERT OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS, AND HOWARD HANDELMAN AND BOB HORIGUCHI OF INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE WERE QUESTIONED YESTERDAY. LAMBERT TOLD QUESTIONERS HE HAD SEEN THE DOCUMENT BUT DECLINED TO SAY WHO SHOWED IT TO HIM. HANDELMAN AND HORIGUCHI GAVE SIMILAR ANSWERS.

PUBLICATION OF THE DOCUMENT CAUSED AN UPROAR IN THE UNITED STATES. HEADQUARTERS HAS WARNED DISCIPLINARY ACTION WILL BE TAKEN IF RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE DISCLOSURE CAN BE DETERMINED.

HONOLULU, JAN.7-(AP)-PRESIDENT ELPIDIO QUIRINO SAID TODAY HIS PHILIPPINES GOVERNMENT HAS "UNDER ADVISEMENT" THE QUESTION OF RECOGNIZING THE CHINESE COMMUNIST REGIME.

QUIRINO IS ENROUTE TO BALTIMORE FOR AN OPERATION. HE WAS MET AT THE AIRPORT BY ABOUT 200 FILIPINO AMERICANS UPON HIS ARRIVAL FROM MANILA.

HE TOLD REPORTERS "THE FILIPINO MIND IS OPEN" ON THE COMMUNIST QUESTION IN THE ORIENT.

HE DECLINED TO COMMENT ON FORMOSA, THE COMMUNIST-THREATENED CHINESE NATIONALIST ISLAND 200 MILES FROM THE NORTHERN TIP OF THE PHILIPPINES.

QUIRINO WAS ASKED IF HE HAD ANY PLANS TO MEET OPERA SINGER CONCHITA GASTON--WHOSE NAME HAS BEEN LINKED WITH HIS ROMANTICALLY--IN NEW YORK OR ELSEWHERE.

"FORGET THAT," HE LAUGHED. "I'M NOT COMING FOR ANY MARRIAGE. I HAVE NO MARRIAGE PLANS AT THIS TIME."

HOWEVER, THE PHILIPPINES AIRLINES SAID QUIRINO'S ITINERARY CALLS FOR A STAY OF 35 1/2 HOURS IN NEW YORK, WHERE MISS GASTON IS SUPPOSED TO BE, BEGINNING MONDAY.

THE PRESIDENT HAS SAID HE WILL UNDERGO AN OPERATION AT JOHNS HOPKINS HOSPITAL, BALTIMORE, FOR THE REMOVAL OF A KIDNEY STONE.

FIRST LEAD COMMONWEALTH
BY STEVEN DAVID
COLOMBO, CEYLON, SUNDAY, JAN. 8-(AP)-BRITAIN'S FOREIGN SECRETARY ERNEST BEVIN ARRIVED TODAY FOR A COMMONWEALTH FOREIGN MINISTERS' MEETING HE CALLED A "VERY VITAL AND IMPORTANT CONFERENCE FOR THE BRITISH COMMONWEALTH AND THE WORLD AS A WHOLE."

THE FOREIGN MINISTERS ASSEMBLE MONDAY TO REACH A COMMON UNDERSTANDING ON HOW TO COMBAT COMMUNISM IN SOUTHEAST ASIA.

THE SKIES WERE HEAVILY OVERCAST AS BEVIN CAME ASHORE IN A LAUNCH FROM THE CRUISER KENYA, ANCHORED IN COLOMBO'S CROWDED HARBOR. IN A SHORT BROADCAST FROM THE HARBOR JETTY, BEVIN NOTED THIS WAS HIS SECOND VISIT TO CEYLON AND SAID:

"LAST TIME, I WAS PASSING THROUGH. THIS TIME I LOOK FORWARD TO A LONGER STAY, GOOD WORK, GOOD RESULTS AND A GREAT CONTRIBUTION TO THE PEACE OF THE WORLD."

THE MEETING COMES ON THE HEELS OF BRITAIN'S TENDER OF RECOGNITION TO THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS. INDIA, PAKISTAN AND CEYLON, THREE OTHER MEMBERS OF THE COMMONWEALTH, HAVE TAKEN LIKE ACTION.

AUSTRALIA AND NEW ZEALAND ARE LIKELY TO MAKE THEIR DECISIONS CONCERNING RECOGNITION OF THE PEIPING REGIME AFTER THIS CONFERENCE.

PRIME MINISTER D.S.SENANAYAKE OF CEYLON, NEWEST DOMINION IN THE COMMONWEALTH, TOLD A NEWS CONFERENCEHTODAY THERE WERE DIFFERING VIEWS CONFERNING THE AGENDA, BUT THAT IT WILL BE "VERY MUCH CONCERNED WITH THE SUBJECT OF COMMUNISM."

HE SAID THE AGENDA WILL BE THRESHED OUT AT THE FIRST MEETING MONDAY.

BRITAIN, AUSTRALIA, NEW ZEALAND, PAKISTAN, INDIA, CEYLON, CANADA AND SOUTH AFRICA ALL WILL BE REPRESENTED HERE.

SENANAYAKE SAID THE PURPOSE WILL BE TO REACH AN UNDERSTANDING ON PROBLEMS FACING THE COMMONWEALTH RATHER THAN TO MAKE BINDING DECISIONS.

JAN 8 - 1950

ONE OF THESE PROBLEMS IS A JAPANESE PEACE TREATY. PRIMARILY, THE COMMONWEALTH NATIONS WILL SEARCH FOR A SOLUTION TO THE QUESTION WHETHER JAPAN SHOULD BE STRENGTHENED AS A POSSIBLE FUTURE ALLY AGAINST RUSSIA, AND PERHAPS COMMUNIST CHINA, OR KEPT WEAK.

ON ECONOMIC QUESTIONS THE DELEGATES PROBABLY WILL DISCUSS THE QUESTION OF STERLING BALANCES. MOST OF BRITAIN'S $8,400,000,000 STERLING BALANCES--WAR DEBTS--ARE HELD BY INDIA AND OTHER ASIATIC COUNTRIES.

AT PRESENT BRITAIN IS WORKING OFF THE BALANCES IN TRADE. THE PROBLEM CONCERNS HER DOLLAR POSITION. IF BRITAIN CANCELLED OR FROZE THE WAR DEBT --AS THE UNITED STATES URGES--MUCH MORE OF HER TRADE MIGHT GO TO EARN DOLLARS IN DOLLAR COUNTRIES.

OTHER SUBJECTS THAT MAY COME INTO THE DISCUSSION ARE THE STATUS OF THE FRENCH-SPONSORED BAO DAI REGIME IN INDOCHINA, THE NEW UNITED STATES OF INDONESIA, BURMA, MALAYA AND THAILAND (SIAM), ALL THREATENED BY AN EXTENSION OF COMMUNISM FROM CHINA.

SENANYAKE TOLD HIS NEWS CONFERENCE HE DID NOT BELIEVE THE DISPUTE BETWEEN INDIA AND PAKISTAN OVER KASHMIR WOULD COME UP, THOUGH INFORMAL TALKS BETWEEN DELEGATES OF THE TWO DOMINIONS MIGHT BE HELD.

K-TA347PES

JAN 8 - 1950

THE COMMUNIST THREAT IS BOUND TO BE EMPHASIZED IN ANY DISCUSSION OF A JAPANESE PEACE TREATY. THIS SITUATION IS COMPLICATED BY CHINA'S TURNING COMMUNIST. SOME DELEGATES HAVE COMMENTED HERE THAT IT WOULD BE POSSIBLE TO HOLD A PEACE CONFERENCE ON JAPAN WITHOUT RUSSIA, WHICH THEY SAID PLAYED LITTLE PART IN JAPAN'S DEFEAT. BUT, THEY ADD, CHINA, FIRST TO BE OVERRUN BY THE JAPANESE AND A CLOSE NEIGHBOR OF JAPAN, IS VITALLY CONCERNED WITH THE PEACE TERMS.

THESE DELEGATES AGREE THAT THE COMMONWEALTH FOREIGN MINISTERS WILL BE CONCERNED WITH TRYING TO MAKE SURE JAPAN'S INDUSTRIAL POTENTIAL AND MANPOWER WILL NOT EVENTUALLY FALL INTO COMMUNIST HANDS. THEY POINT OUT THAT FROM A PHYSICAL POINT OF VIEW, JAPAN IS UNABLE TO ATTACK THE DEMOCRACIES. THE COMMONWEALTH IS CONCERNED WITH KEEPING JAPAN ON ITS SIDE IN ANY SETTLEMENT.

THE COMMONWEALTH DELEGATES ALSO ARE CONCERNED WITH THE GENERAL POSITION IN SOUTHEAST ASIA. THERE ARE STRONG COMMUNIST FORCES IN INDO-CHINA AND MALAYA. VARIOUS PROPOSALS HAVE BEEN MADE, SOME PURELY PHYSICAL, TO THE EFFECT THAT THE DEMOCRACIES MUST ENCOURAGE LEGITIMATE NATIONALIST MOVEMENTS IN THE AREA, IMPROVING THE PEOPLE'S LOT SO THAT COMMUNISM WOULD LOSE ITS MASS ECONOMIC APPEAL.

A BIG PROBLEM FOR THE COMMONWEALTH COUNTRIES WILL BE KEEPING CHINA FROM BECOMING A WILLING ALLY OF RUSSIA IN ANY FUTURE AGGRESSION. SOME DELEGATES BELIEVE THE COMMONWEALTH MAY BE ABLE TO MAINTAIN CONTACTS WITH THE MORE DEMOCRATIC FORCES IN CHINA THROUGH DIPLOMATIC AND CULTURAL CHANNELS.

SEVERAL DELEGATES SAY THEY DO NOT EXPECT ANY HARD AND FAST CONCLUSIONS TO COME OUT OF THE CONFERENCE. BUT, THEY POINT OUT, THE PARTICIPANTS WILL GET A GOOD CROSS-SECTION OF WORLD OPINIONS FROM NATIONS AS VARIED AS CANADA AND INDIA.

DOLLAR CRISIS

BY JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON, JAN. 7-(AP)-SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON HAS GIVEN AN URGENT, TOP PRIORITY IN THE STATE DEPARTMENT TO DEVELOPMENT OF A NEW LINE OF ATTACK ON THE WORLD DOLLAR SHORTAGE, IT WAS LEARNED TODAY.

THE CONVICTION IS SPREADING AMONG SOME OF HIS TOP ADVISERS THAT MORE BILLIONS FOR EUROPEAN AND OTHER FOREIGN ASSISTANCE WILL BE REQUIRED AFTER THE END OF THE MARSHALL PLAN IN 1952.

SOME OFFICIALS NOW SAY PRIVATELY THAT THE UNITED STATES PROBABLY WILL HAVE TO CONSIDER CONTINUING FOREIGN ASSISTANCE FOR AN INDEFINITE NUMBER OF YEARS.

EVENTUALLY THIS IDEA MAY TAKE THE FORM OF AN ADMINISTRATION PROPOSAL TO CONGRESS.

ACHESON'S PERSONAL PREFERENCE REPORTEDLY WOULD BE TO ASSURE OTHER NATIONS OF THE DOLLARS THEY NEED TO BUY AMERICAN GOODS BY FURTHER OPENING UP AMERICAN MARKETS FOR THEIR PRODUCTS. IT IS LIKELY THAT HE WILL THROW HIS MAIN EMPHASIS ON A TARIFF CUTTING, IMPORT EXPANDING POLICY.

JAN 8 - 1950

BUT HIS ASSOCIATES, AND PRESUMABLY ACHESON HIMSELF, REGARD THAT AS A SLOW PROCESS, BESET BY POLITICAL CONTROVERSY IN THIS COUNTRY AND UNLIKELY TO REACH FULL DEVELOPMENT BEFORE THE MARSHALL PLAN ENDS.

WHAT THE STATE DEPARTMENT EXPERTS ARE REPORTED TO BE CONVINCED OF IS THIS: UNLESS THE UNITED STATES AND ALLIED NATIONS BEGIN PREPARING SHORTLY FOR THE END OF THE MARSHALL PLAN, THE COLD WAR GAINS OF THE PAST TWO YEARS MAY EASILY BE LOST.

EUROPE'S NEWLY WON ECONOMIC STABILITY, THEY ARGUE, MAY GIVE WAY IF ITS AMERICAN DOLLAR PROPS ARE WITHDRAWN COMPLETELY; THE LINE AGAINST COMMUNISM MAY SAG, AND THE AMERICAN ECONOMY ITSELF WOBBLE BADLY UNDER THE IMPACT OF FALLING EXPORTS.

STATE DEPARTMENT STUDIES OF THE PROBLEM ARE WELL ADVANCED. IN ACHESON'S OFFICE IT IS NOW RANKED SECOND ONLY TO THE CHINA-FAR EAST SITUATION IN URGENCY. IT IS A PRINCIPAL TASK OF THE POLICY PLANNING CHIEF, PAUL NITZE; OF THE STAFF OF ECONOMIC ASSISTANT SECRETARY WILLARD THORP, AND OF OTHER DEPARTMENTAL OFFICERS AND DIVISIONS.

WHETHER THE PROBLEM WILL BE AT ISSUE IN THIS CONGRESS IS UNCERTAIN, THOUGH IT MAY FIGURE IN ADMINISTRATION TESTIMONY ON MARSHALL PLAN THIRD YEAR FUNDS.

HOWEVER, ACHESON FEELS THAT OFFICIAL ESTIMATES OF THE POST-MARSHALL PLAN OUTLOOK MUST BE COMPLETED AND PRESENTED TO THE AMERICAN PEOPLE AS SOON AS POSSIBLE, BECAUSE WITHIN A YEAR THE QUESTIONS INVOLVED WILL RAISE MAJOR CONGRESSIONAL ISSUES.

STEPS TO WIDEN THE PRESENT ATTACK ON THE PROBLEM ARE BEING CONSIDERED. THESE MAY INCLUDE A BROAD ADMINISTRATION STUDY, AND CREATION OF AN ADVISORY COMMITTEE OF BUSINESS, LABOR AND OTHER LEADERS TO MAKE SUGGESTIONS.

OFFICIALS VIEW THE PROBLEM AS NOT STRICTLY A EUROPEAN ONE. THEY AGREE THAT THE BILLIONS THUS FAR SPENT ON THE RECOVERY PROGRAM

JAN 8 - 1950

HAVE SAVED WESTERN EUROPE FROM COMMUNIST CONQUEST, AND RAISED
PRODUCTION BEYOND ALL EXPECTATION. THEY SAY THAT TRADE PROSPECTS AMONG THE EUROPEAN COUNTRIES THEMSELVES ARE IMPROVED, BUT NOT TO THE POINT WHERE LEADERS CAN LOOK FORWARD TO A SELF-SUFFICIENT INTERCHANGE OF GOODS
OR A COMPLETELY HEALTHY WORLD TRADE BY MID-1952.

THE PROBLEM HAS ANOTHER ASPECT. VARIOUS MIDDLE AND FAR EASTERN COUNTRIES ARE HUGE CREDITORS FOR THE BRITISH, BRITAIN HAVING FINANCED
THE WAR BY BORROWING FROM THEM. INDIA, FOR EXAMPLE, HAS BEEN DRAWING
GOODS FROM ENGLAND IN PAYMENT FOR LOANS.

INDIA'S ECONOMY IS DEPENDENT ON ENGLAND'S ABILITY TO SUPPLY THOSE GOODS AND THUS IS INDIRECTLY PROPPED BY THE MARSHALL PLAN. TO LOOK AT IT ANOTHER WAY, OFFICIALS SAY, POST-MARSHALL PLAN AID TO ENGLAND
COULD BE CONSIDERED TO HELP MAINTAIN ECONOMIC STABILITY IN TROUBLED ASIA AND HOLD THE LINE AGAINST COMMUNISM; OR DOLLARS SUPPLIED DIRECTLY TO INDIA UNDER SOME NEW FOREIGN ASSISTANCE PROGRAM WOULD ALSO BE A HELP TO BRITAIN.

ONE BASIC CHANGE IN THE ADMINISTRATION'S LINE ON FOREIGN AID MAY EMERGE FROM THESE STUDIES IN THE STATE DEPARTMENT.

OFFICIALS MAY STOP TALKING ABOUT HOW THE UNITED STATES HAS TO "HELP OTHER NATIONS" AND BEGAN HAMMERING THE ARGUMENT THAT THE UNITED STATES HAS TO HELP ITSELF THROUGH FOREIGN ASSISTANCE AND OTHER MEASURES.

FOR EXAMPLE, ACHESON SAID IN A SPEECH LAST FALL THAT VARIOUS PUBLIC AND PRIVATE LOANS AND GIFTS OVER THE PAST 40 YEARS ACTUALLY WERE IN MANY WAYS JUST A MEANS OF FINANCING AMERICA'S EXPORT SURPLUS. HE ARGUED THAT THE PROPER WAY TO FINANCE IT IS TO LOWER AMERICAN TARIFF BARRIERS AND OTHERWISE OPEN THE MARKET FOR FOREIGN GOODS.

THE LONG RANGE ARITHMETIC OF THE FOREIGN AID SITUATION IS STILL ONLY IN TERMS OF ROUGH ESTIMATES OR GUESSES. HOWEVER IT INDICATES THE NATURE OF THE BASIC WORK BEING DONE IN THE STATE DEPARTMENT.

EXPERTS SAY THAT FOREIGN COUNTRIES NEED ABOUT $17,500,000,000
A YEAR AT THIS TIME TO KEEP GOING.

LAST YEAR THIS CAME FROM EXPORTS TO THE UNITED STATES, SERVICES
(SUCH AS TOURISTS GOING TO EUROPE) AND FINANCIAL TRANSACTIONS TOTALLING
ABOUT $11,800,000,000(B), TOGETHER WITH ABOUT $5,700,000,000(B) IN VARIOUS FORMS OF AID GOING TO THE MARSHALL PLAN COUNTRIES OR ELSEWHERE.

A179WX

THE BASIC THEORY OF THE MARSHALL PLAN IS THAT BY THE MIDDLE OF 1952
THAT THE GAP SUPPLIED BY AID SHOULD BE SUBSTANTIALLY CLOSED.

HOWEVER WHAT OFFICIALS SAY THEY NOW EXPECT TO HAPPEN IS THAT THE GAP WILL ONLY BE NARROWED CONSIDERABLY IN THE NEXT TWO YEARS AND MAY STAND SOMETHING LIKE THIS:

AMERICANS MAY BY THEN BE TAKING PERHAPS $3,000,000,000(B) MORE IN

GOODS AND SERVICES FROM OTHER NATIONS THAN THEY NOW PURCHASE, PRIVATE INVESTMENTS FROM THE UNITED STATES TO FOREIGN COUNTRIES MAY INCREASE, AND THE LEVEL OF AMERICAN EXPORTS MAY DROP SOMEWHAT. THERE WOULD STILL BE A GAP, PERHAPS OF ONE OR TWO BILLION DOLLARS A YEAR TO BE FILLED BY FOREIGN AID, IT IS CONTENDED, IF THE NON-COMMUNIST WORLD WERE TO KEEP UP ITS ECONOMIC HEALTH.

OFFICIALS PRESENTLY BELIEVE THAT THE TOTAL ATTACK ON THE PROBLEM WILL CALL FOR (1) MAJOR EFFORTS BY THE GOVERNMENT TO INCREASE AMERICAN EXPENDITURES FOR FOREIGN GOODS AND SERVICES; (2) A RECOMMENDATION FOR CONTINUED FOREIGN AID PROGRAMS TO THOSE COUNTRIES WHERE ASSISTANCE WOULD DO THE MOST GOOD ALL ALONG THE LINE, AND (3) SOME REDUCTION--BUT NOT VERY MUCH--IN AMERICAN EXPORTS TO THE REST OF THE WORLD.

THESE MEASURES WOULD BE SOLELY CONCERNED WITH THE SO-CALLED DOLLAR GAP AND WOULD NOT REQUIRE ANY DEVIATION FROM THE ADMINISTRATION'S LONG-RANGE ECONOMIC PROGRAM NOW BEFORE CONGRESS. THIS CONSISTS MAINLY OF AMERICAN MEMBERSHIP IN THE INTERNATIONAL TRADE ORGANIZATION AND MR. TRUMAN'S POINT FOUR PROGRAM FOR RAISING LIVING STANDARDS IN BACKWARD AREAS OF THE WORLD.

DISPLACED PERSONS (360)

WASHINGTON, JAN 7-(AP)-TWO MEMBERS OF THE SENATE JUDICIARY COMMITTEE PREDICTED TODAY THE GROUP AGAIN WILL OVERRIDE CHAIRMAN MCCARRAN (D-NEV) AND RECOMMEND A LIBERALIZED DISPLACED PERSONS LAW.

SENATOR FERGUSON (R-MICH) TOLD A REPORTER HE IS SATISFIED THAT A BILL REMOVING SO-CALLED "DISCRIMINATORY" PROVISIONS FROM THE LAW WILL BE PLACED BEFORE THE SENATE. HE ADDED:

"I THINK WE HAVE THE VOTES TO GET IT THROUGH."

SENATOR MAGNUSON (D-WASH), ANOTHER MEMBER OF THE JUDICIARY COMMITTEE, SAID HE BELIEVED THERE WERE ENOUGH VOTES ZO BRING THE HOUSE-APPROVED BILL BEFORE THE SENATE--AS WAS DONE ONCE LAST OCTOBER.

MCCARRAN WAS IN EUROPE MAKING A PERSONAL INVESTIGATION OF THE DP PROGRAM LAST FALL WHEN HIS COMMITTEE RECOMMENDED THE HOUSE BILL. HE TRIED TO BLOCK APPROVAL WITH CABLED PROTESTS.

THE SENATE EVENTUALLY SENT THE ISSUE BACK TO THE COMMITTEE WITH INSTRUCTIONS TO BRING A DP BILL BACK BY JANUARY 25.

MCCARRAN, RENEWING HIS FIGHT ON THE LEGISLATION, SAID IN A REPORT TO THE SENATE YESTERDAY THAT HIS EUROPEAN INVESTIGATION SHOWS A "COMPLETE BREAKDOWN IN THE ADMINISTRATION" OF THE PRESENT LAW.

IT PROVIDES FOR THE ADMISSION OF 205,000 WAR REFUGEES IN THE TWO-YEAR PERIOD ENDING JUNE 30. THE HOUSE BILL WOULD EXTEND THE PROGRAM FOR ANOTHER YEAR AND INCREASE THE NUMBER OF DP'S ELIGIBLE FOR ADMISSION TO THIS COUNTRY TO 339,000.

THE MEASURE ALSO WOULD ADVANCE THE SO-CALLED "CUT-OFF" DATE--FOR DETERMINING THE ELIGIBILITY OF DISPLACED PERSONS--FROM DEC. 22,1945, TO JANUARY 1,1949, AND REMOVE OTHER PROVISIONS WHICH PRESIDENT TRUMAN AND OTHERS HAVE CALLED DISCRIMINATORY AGAINST JEWS AND CATHOLICS.

MCCARRAN, REPORTING HE HAD FOUND "INADEQUATE SCREENING" OF DP APPLICANTS, SAID THE ADMINISTRATION OF EXISTING LAW "HAS OPENED THE GATES TO PERSONS WHO X X X WILL BECOME READY RECRUITS IN SUBVERSIVE ORGANIZATIONS TO TEAR DOWN THE DEMOCRACY OF THE UNITED STATES."

MAGNUSON TOOK ISSUE WITH MCCARRAN'S CHARGE OF A BREAKDOWN IN THE ADMINISTRATION OF THE DP LAW.

"IF THAT IS TRUE, IT IS JUST A RECENT THING," MAGNUSON TOLD A REPORTER. "THERE HAS BEEN NO BREAKDOWN IN THE ADMISSION OF THOSE WHO ALREADY HAVE ENTERED. THEY HAVE BECOME USEFUL CITIZENS."

A MEETING OF THE JUDICIARY COMMITTEE IS SCHEDULED FOR MONDAY. MAGNUSON SAID HE ASSUMES THE DP QUESTION WILL BE TAKEN UP THEN BUT ADDED THAT HE DOESN'T KNOW IF MORE HEARINGS WILL BE HELD. MCCARRAN DECLINED COMMENT.

WASHINGTON, JAN 7-(AP)-THE AIR FORCE IS GOING TO STAGE BOMBER REFUELING TESTS IN THE SKY ABOVE THE NORTH POLAR ICE CAP, WITHIN WARTIME STRIKING RANGE OF EUROPE AND ASIA.

IT ANNOUNCED LAST NIGHT THAT THREE REFUELING SQUADRONS WILL GO TO GOOSE BAY, LABRADOR, TO SPEND A WEEK EACH ON A "TRAINING MISSION DESIGNED TO INCREASE THE EFFICIENCY OF AIR-TO-AIR REFUELING."

THE SQUADRONS WILL LEAVE THEIR BASES AT 10-DAY INTERVALS, FROM JANUARY 9 TO FEBRUARY 5.

IN FORT WORTH, TEX., MAJ.GEN.ROGER M.RANEY, COMMANDER OF THE 8TH AIR FORCE, SAID THE SQUADRONS WILL BE FROM THE 509TH BOMBARDMENT WING AT WALKER AIR FORCE BASE, ROSWELL, N.M. THE GROUP IS KNOWN AS THE ATOMIC BOMB GROUP BECAUSE IT TOOK PART IN THE BIKINI TESTS.

RANEY SAID THE REFUELING TECHNIQUE WILL BE THE SAME AS THAT EMPLOYED BY THE B-50 LUCKY LADY ON ITS NON-STOP GLOBAL FLIGHT LAST YEAR. THE LABRADOR TESTS WILL MARK THE FIRST TIME SUCH REFUELING HAS BEEN DONE ON A SQUADRON BASIS, HE SAID.

THE OFFICIAL ANNOUNCEMENT DID NOT SPECIFY THE TYPE OF PLANES PARTICIPATING IN THE OPERATION, BUT ONLY WARTIME-BUILT B-29S HAVE BEEN EQUIPPED AS TANKERS. THE B-50S USED IN TANKER SQUADRONS ARE EQUIPPED TO RECEIVE THE NOZZLE END OF A RETRACTIBLE "BOOM" THROUGH WHICH FUEL IS FED FROM THE TANKERS.

WASHINGTON, JAN 7-(AP)-SENATOR KNOWLAND (R-CALIF) SAID TODAY THE STATE DEPARTMENT HAS REJECTED HIS REQUEST FOR THE NAMES OF THE AUTHORS OF A SECRET MEMORANDUM SAYING FORMOSA'S FALL TO THE COMMUNISSTS WAS TO BE EXPECTED.

AS A RESULT, KNOWLAND TOLD NEWSMEN HE WILL RAISE THE ISSUE ON THE SENATE FLOOR MONDAY AS "ANOTHER EXAMPLE OF THE LOWERING OF THE IRON CURTAIN BETWEEN THE STATE DEPARTMENT AND THE MEMBERS OF CONGRESS."

THE CALIFORNIAN SAID THE STATE DEPARTMENT MEMORANDUM, DATED DEC. 23, WAS CIRCULATED IN THE DIPLOMATIC SERVICE AS A "POLICY GUIDE" DESIGNED TO OFFSET THE IMPACT ON PUBLIC OPINION OF GENERALISSIMO CHIANG KAI SHEK'S POSSIBLE FAILURE TO HOLD FORMOSA AGAINST THE RED ARMIES.

U.N. (450)

BY CHARLES A.GRUMICH

LAKE SUCCESS, JAN. 7-(AP)-NATIONALIST CHINA'S FUTURE IN THE UNITED NATIONS SEEMS FOR THE PRESENT TO BE IN THE HANDS OF THE UNITED STATES AND FRANCE.

ON THE SECURITY COUNCIL RED CHINA NOW HAS BEEN RECOGNIZED BY FIVE OF THE ELEVEN NATIONS--RUSSIA, BRITAIN, YUGOSLAVIA, INDIA AND NORWAY.

FIVE OTHERS--THE U.S., FRANCE, CUBA, ECUADOR AND EGYPT--STILL RECOGNIZE THE LAST-DITCH FORMOSA ISLAND REGIME OF CHIANG KAI-SHEK'S NATIONALISTS.

NATIONALIST CHINA IS SQUARELY IN THE MIDDLE--HOLDER OF THE COUNCIL PRESIDENCY FOR THE MONTH OF JANUARY. CHINESE DELEGATE T.F.TSIANG MAKES HIS FIRST APPEARANCE IN THAT UNCOMFORTABLE SPOT WHEN THE COUNCIL MEETS AT 3 P.M. (EST) TUESDAY ON THE SUBJECT OF CONVENTIONAL ARMAMENTS.

ANY MOVE TO UNSEAT THE NATIONALIST U.N. DELEGATION AND REPLACE IT WITH A CHINESE COMMUNIST GROUP ARMED WITH FULL BIG POWER VETO PRIVILEGES IS EXPECTED TO SIMMER FOR A WHILE. BUT SOME U.N. LAWYERS AGREE THAT THE CURRENT COUNCIL LINEUP COULD MEAN THAT, WITH TWO MORE VOTES, THE RUSSIAN-LED OPPOSITION TO THE NATIONALISTS MIGHT BE ABLE TO ACHIEVE JUST SUCH A REPLACEMENT.

THESE LEGAL EXPERTS ACKNOWLEDGE, HOWEVER, IT MIGHT NOT BE QUITE SO SIMPLE. THE U.N. NEVER HAS BEEN FACED WITH DECIDING ON THE PROCEDURE FOR REPLACING ONE NATIONAL DELEGATION WITH ANOTHER.

A12

JAN 8 - 1950

FOR APPROVAL, A PROPOSAL IN THE COUNCIL MUST GET AT LEAST SEVEN OF THE ELEVEN VOTES. ON SUBSTANTIVE QUESTIONS--IMPORTANT ONES THAT AMOUNT TO MORE THAN MERE PROCEDURE, IT MUST ESCAPE A VETO FROM ALL FIVE OF THE PERMANENT MEMBERS.

CHINA, AS ONE OF THE "BIG FIVE" PERMANENT MEMBERS, HAS THE VETO, ALONG WITH RUSSIA, BRITAIN, FRANCE AND THE UNITED STATES.

THERE APPEAR TO BE THREE MAJOR QUESTIONS IN CONNECTION WITH ANY

MOVE TO UNSEAT THE NATIONALISTS:

1. IS THE QUESTION PROCEDURAL, OR NOT SUBJECT TO VETO, OR IS IT SUBSTANTATIVE, AND PREY TO THE VETO?

2. COULD NATIONALIST CHINA IN ANY CASE USE THE VETO ON A QUESTION INVOLVING ITSELF IN THE COUNCIL?

3. WOULD THE U.S. OR FRANCE--IF THEY CONTINUE TO RECOGNIZE NATIONALIST CHINA--USE THE VETO TO FLOUT THE CONQUERING RED REGIME OF PEIPING?

BY CERTAIN MANEUVERING UNDER THE RULES, THE NATIONALISTS MIGHT HAVE THE QUESTION CERTIFIED AS SUBSTANTIVE. THEN THEY EITHER COULD VETO THEIR OWN UNSEATING OR HAVE ANY REMAINING BIG POWER ALLY DO IT FOR THEM. THE UNITED STATES HAS NEVER USED THE VETO; FRANCE HAS USED IT TWICE IN THE COUNCIL'S FOUR-YEAR HISTORY.

U.N. LEGAL EXPERTS DECLINED TO SPECULATE ON THE PROCEDURES TO BE FOLLOWED UNTIL THEY ARE ACTUALLY FACED WITH THE PROBLEM.

OF THE BIG POWERS STILL ON THE NATIONALIST SIDE, FRANCE IS REPORTED HOLDING OFF RECOGNITION OF RED CHINA UNTIL GREAT BRITAIN COMES AROUND TO RECOGNIZING THE VIET NAM STATE THE FRENCH HAVE ESTABLISHED IN INDOCHINA.

THE UNITED STATES SEEMS FARTHER AWAY FROM RECOGNIZING PEIPING. SECRETARY OF STATE DEAN ACHESON SAID THURSDAY EXPECTATIONS OF U.S. RECOGNITION WERE PREMATURE AND THAT CONGRESS WOULD BE CONSULTED.

FRANCE'S DELEGATE ON ANOTHER U.N. GROUP, THE TRUSTEESHIP COUNCIL, LAST NIGHT WAS REPORTED WORKING OUT A PROPOSAL HE HOPES WILL SOLVE ANOTHER U.N. HEADACHE, THE STATUS OF JERUSALEM.

FRENCH DELEGATE ROGER GARREAU OF FRANCE, PRESIDENT OF THE TRUSTEESHIP BODY, AND DR. RALPH J. BUNCHE, FORMER U.N. ACTING MEDIATOR IN PALESTINE, WERE SAID TO HAVE PREPARED A PROPOSED SUBSTITUTE FOR THE HIGHLY CONTROVERSIAL GENERAL ASSEMBLY RESOLUTION MAKING ALL OF JERUSALEM AN INTERNATIONAL TERRITORY.

THE NEW PLAN IS SCHEDULED FOR DISCUSSION WHEN THE COUNCIL MEETS IN GENEVA JAN.19.

WITH HASHEMITE JORDAN AND ISRAEL ALREADY CONTROLLING THE HOLY CITY AND REFUSING TO BOW TO THE U.N. INTERNATIONALIZATION RESOLUTION, GARREAU AND BUNCHE PLAN TO PROPOSE THAT THE U.N. HAVE PHYSICAL CONTROL ONLY OF THE ACTUAL HOLY PLACES SACRED TO CHRISTIANS AND JEWS.

THE REST OF THE CITY WOULD BE DIVIDED BETWEEN JORDAN AND ISRAEL, BUT WOULD HAVE A COMMON CURRENCY, PUBLIC SERVICES AND POLICE UNDER THE CONTROL OF A U.N. GOVERNOR. HE WOULD SERVE LARGELY AS A "MEDIATOR" BETWEEN THE TWO OCCUPYING POWERS.

HISS

BY CHARLES MERCER

NEW YORK, JAN.7-(AP)-ALGER HISS MAY LEARN HIS FATE AT THE HANDS OF A FEDERAL COURT JURY LATE NEXT WEEK.

THE DEFENSE FOR THE FORMER STATE DEPARTMENT OFFICIAL PROBABLY WILL REST ITS CASE WITHIN A FEW DAYS.

HISS, 45, WAS INDICTED ON TWO PERJURY COUNTS IN DECEMBER, 1948, AFTER HE DENIED PASSING SECRET STATE DEPARTMENT DOCUMENTS TO WHITTAKER CHAMBERS, 48, SELF-STYLED COURIER FOR A PREWAR SOVIET SPY RING. HIS FIRST TRIAL ENDED LAST JULY IN A JURY DISAGREEMENT.

IF CONVICTED ON BOTH COUNTS, HISS FACES A MAXIMUM PENALTY OF 10 YEARS' IMPRISONMENT AND $4,000 IN FINES.

THE JURY OF EIGHT WOMEN AND FOUR MEN MUST SIFT THE TESTIMONY OF NEARLY 80 WITNESSES AND A HUGE MASS OF DOCUMENTARY EVIDENCE IN DECIDING HISS'S FATE.

OF ALL THE 40-ODD WITNESSES WHOM HISS'S TRIAL LAWYER--STOCKY, METHODICAL CLAUDE B. CROSS OF BOSTON--HAS PLACED ON THE STAND, NONE CREATED A GREATER STIR AMONG COURTROOM OBSERVERS THAN DR.CARL BINGER, A NEW YORK PSYCHIATRIST.

DR.BINGER, A FACULTY MEMBER OF CORNELL UNIVERSITY MEDICAL SCHOOL, SAID CHAMBERS HAS A "PSYCHOPATHIC PERSONALITY."

IT WAS THE FIRST TIME IN THE HISTORY OF THE FEDERAL COURTS THAT PSYCHIATRIC TESTIMONY WAS USED TO IMPEACH THE CREDIBILITY OF A WITNESS. SUCH TESTIMONY HAS BEEN USED IN STATE COURTS, HOWEVER.

IN PERMITTING DR.BINGER TO TESTIFY, FEDERAL JUDGE HENRY W. GODDARD--A 74-YEAR-OLD JURIST WHO HAS SERVED ON THE BENCH 27 YEARS--STATED IN A MEMORANDUM:

"IT IS APPARENT THAT THE OUTCOME OF THIS TRIAL IS DEPENDENT TO A GREAT EXTENT UPON THE TESTIMONY OF ONE MAN--WHITTAKER CHAMBERS. MR. CHAMBERS' CREDIBILITY IS ONE OF THE MAJOR ISSUES UPON WHICH THE JURY MUST PASS."

THE JUDGE EMPHASIZED, HOWEVER, THAT HE WOULD ADVISE THE JURY ON HOW MUCH WEIGHT THEY SHOULD GIVE DR.BINGER'S TESTIMONY. THE PSYCHIATRIST WAS NOT PERMITTED TO TESTIFY IN THE FIRST TRIAL.

THE PSYCHIATRIC TESTIMONY, WHICH BEGAN LAST THURSDAY, MIGHT AID THE DEFENSE. CROSS AND HIS ASSOCIATES HAVE BUILT MUCH OF THEIR CASE ON ATTACKING THE CREDIBILITY OF CHAMBERS.

A165

ON THE OTHER HAND, THE GOVERNMENT PROSECUTOR--TALL, MUSTACHED ASSISTANT U.S. ATTORNEY THOMAS F. MURPHY--HAS EMPHASIZED THE DOCUMENTARY EVIDENCE IN THE CASE.

MURPHY SOUGHT TO PROVE THAT COPIES OF SECRET STATE DEPARTMENT PAPERS IN CHAMBERS' POSSESSION WERE IN HISS'S HANDWRITING OR MADE ON A TYPEWRITER OWNED BY THE HISSES.

HISS WAS A CALM WITNESS ON THE STAND. HE ADMITTED THE NOTES WERE IN HIS WRITING, BUT HE SAID THEY WERE THE SORT WHICH HE USED TO SCRIBBLE WHEN MAKING ORAL REPORTS TO HIS STATE DEPARTMENT SUPERIOR.

HIS PRIM, SLENDER WIFE, PRISCILLA, CALMLY DENIED ALMOST EVERY DETAIL OF TESTIMONY BY THE STAR GOVERNMENT WITNESS, CHAMBERS, AND HIS WIFE, ESTHER.

THE DEFENSE MAINTAINED THAT SOME SOURCE OTHER THAN HISS MUST HAVE GIVEN CHAMBERS THE DOCUMENTS.

ITS ATTACK ON THE VERACITY OF CHAMBERS--WHO RESIGNED A $30,000-A-YEAR POST AS A TIME MAGAZINE SENIOR EDITOR LAST SPRING--WAS WELL SUMMARIZED THUS IN DR.BINGER'S ANALYSIS:

"PATHOLOGICAL LYING AND PATHOLIGICAL ACCUSATIONS ARE FREQUENTLY FOUND IN THE PSYCHOPATHIC PERSONALITY."

BUT DR.BINGER'S ANALYSIS STILL MUST UNDERGO THE TEST OF CROSS-EXAMINATION WHEN COURT RECONVENES MONDAY.

NEW YORK, JAN. 7-(AP)-SIXTEEN SAILORS WERE TAKEN OFF A GREEK-PANAMANIAN SHIP AND ARRESTED FOR CONSPIRACY TODAY AFTER THEY REFUSED TO TAKE THEIR PAY IN DEVALUED BRITISH POUNDS.

THE SHIPOWNERS SAID THAT THE SAILORS, THE ENTIRE CREW OF THE FREIGHTER S. S. ANNITSA, HAD REFUSED TO LEAVE THE SHIP AND LET A NEW CREW BOARD.

A SQUAD OF 35 POLICEMEN, ARMED WITH WARRANTS OBTAINED BY THE SHIPOWNERS, CARRIED OUT THE ARRESTS WITHOUT TROUBLE, DESPITE PREVIOUSLY-REPORTED THREATS BY THE MEN TO CLIMB THE MASTS RATHER THAN LEAVE THE SHIP.

JAN 8 - 1950

THE ANNITSA, OWNED BY THE TRAMP (CQ) CHARTERING CO. OF PANAMA, AND MANNED BY GREEK SAILORS, ARRIVED HERE TUESDAY FROM BRITISH COLOMBIA WITH A CARGO OF LUMBER.

THE CREWMEN, WORKING UNDER INDIVIDUAL CONTRACTS, WERE PAID FOR THAT TRIP IN AMERICAN MONEY.

HOWEVER, WHEN THEY PREPARED TO SIGN NEW CONTRACTS FOR A 'ROUND-THE-WORLD TRIP BEGINNING TODAY, THEY WERE TOLD THEY WOULD BE PAID IN BRITISH POUNDS -- NOW WORTH $2.80 INSTEAD OF THE PREVIOUS $4.

LAST NIGHT HERCULES ARANAOUTES, 42-YEAR-OLD ORGANIZER FOR THE FEDERATION OF MERCHANT SEAMEN OF GREECE, BOARDED THE SHIP TO ADVISE THE MEN ABOUT THE SITUATION.

HE WAS ORDERED OFF BY THE CAPTAIN, DIMITRIUS MANTZAVINOS, AND, WHEN HE REFUSED TO LEAVE WAS ARRESTED AND CHARGED WITH DISORDERLY CONDUCT. HE WAS ARRAIGNED ON THE CHARGE LAST NIGHT AND HIS TRIAL WAS ADJOURNED UNTIL MONDAY.

AFTER HIS ARREST THE 16 SAILORS REFUSED TO LEAVE THE VESSEL.

A NEW CREW--HIRED UNDER THE COMPANY'S NEW TERMS -- WOULD NOT BOARD WHILE THE OLD CREW REMAINED.

THE SHIPOWNERS APPEALED TO THE PANAMANIAN CONSUL, WHO WENT WITH THE OWNERS TO POLICE COMMISSIONER WILLIAM P. O'BRIEN.

THEY WERE TOLD THE POLICE COULD NOT INTERVENE UNLESS THEY SWORE OUT WARRANTS AGAINST THE SAILORS.

THE OWNERS GOT THE WARRANTS--FOR CONSPIRACY TO INTERFERE WITH THE OWNERS RIGHT BY DELAYING THE VESSEL'S DEPARTURE.

THE 35 POLICE WENT TO THE SHIP, ARRESTED EACH MAN AND TOLD HIM TO GET HIS BELONGINGS AND LEAVE THE SHIP.

IN EACH CASE THEY HAD TOO MANY BELONGINGS TO CARRY BY THEMSELVES. SO A COP HAD TO BE ASSIGNED TO EACH MAN--TO ACT AS PORTER.

Calls Nationalists' Attack Unlawful; Asks U. S. Navy Protection

ABOARD FLYING ARROW, (Monday), Jan. 9. — (AP) Chinese nationalist warships shelled this blockade running American freighter today in international waters off communist China. There were no casualties.

One shell started a fire on the Flying Arrow's afterdeck. Another set a blaze in the No. 5 hold. Ten shells perforated the steering room. At least 38 shells were fired before the first direct hit.

The attack began shortly after this 6,214-ton Isbrandtsen Line ship arrived in international waters two miles off the mouth of the Yangtze river.

Ship Running Blockade

The ship is running the Chinese nationalist blockade of Red China ports in defiance of warnings by the United States State Department. The nationalists asserted the Yangtze mouth had been mined.

The Flying Arrow is the fourth Isbrandtsen ship shelled by the nationalists while running the blockade of Shanghai. The Flying Trader was fired on Oct. 15 but not hit. The Flying Cloud was shelled Nov. 15 and the Sir John Franklin Nov. 28. Both were hit but suffered no casualties. Several other ships of the line have been stopped by the nationalists and released.

(At Hong Kong, it was announced today (Monday) that Isbrandtsen's Brooklyn Heights will sail from there for Shanghai Wednesday.)

The British sloop Black Swan came to the aid of the Flying Arrow after Capt. David Jones of Chicago sent this radio call to all American and British warships in the area:

"Fire on afterdeck by Chinese warship."

British Ship Gives Aid

The Black Swan, herself shelled by Chinese communist shore batteries in the Yangtze last spring, quickly pulled up within 50 yards of this ship. Her captain said through a megaphone:

"I cannot take part in this war but if you cannot extinguish the fire with your own resources, we will board and help."

Shortly afterward, British sailors swarmed over the Flying Arrow's side and aided in fighting the flames.

There were no American warships in sight.

(In New York, H. J. Isbrandsten, president of the line, immediately called for American naval protection of the Flying Arrow. He called the attack "entirely unlawful according to international laws."

("According to standing naval regulations, the U. S. Navy should protect American vessels on the high seas and I hope it will be done in this case," Isbrandtsen said. He has called repeatedly for U. S. naval protection. It was refused after the other incidents involving his ships.

U. S. Withholds Comment

(In Washington, the State department declined immediate comment. It has received no direct report of the Flying Arrow's shelling, a spokesman said).

The United States and Britain do not recognize the nationalist blockade. However, the U. S. has warned American ships they run the blockade at their own risk.

The Flying Arrow left Hong Kong early Saturday with a $10,000,000 cargo of high grade general merchandise, caustic soda, industrial chemicals, petroleum in drums an bales of cotton.

Preparing for possible attack, Captain Jones barricaded sections of the midship house with 250 bales of cotton—adequate to stop shells from three-inch guns, officers said.

Faces Mine Menace

The Flying Arrow also expected the possibility of mines in the Yangtze mouth. Chinese nationalists had warned that mines had been laid there.

(The day the ship sailed from Hong Kong, the nationalist navy commander in chief announced from Formosa that the minelaying job had been completed. However, a mine scare that stopped shipping in and out of Shanghai in the early days of the Red occupation had proved groundless).

Yesterday, two nationalist destroyer-escorts began trailing the Flying Arrow. Presumably they are the ones which fired on her today.

Chief Engineer Martin L. Gross of Clearfield, Pa., announced after the attack:

"I have ten big holes in my steering room but they missed my steering gear."

Gross is a veteran of one torpedoing—off the northern Russian coast during the war. Other members of the crew also had war service under fire.

11 Crewmen Quit Ship

Eleven members signed off the ship before she left Hong Kong. The State Department advised crewmen who did not wish to make the hazardous trip to Shanghai that they could leave the vessel. They were replaced by British and other foreign sailors.

Twenty-nine of the ship's 43-man crew earlier had petition the State Department to provide naval protection for the Flying Arrow. In addition to the crew, the Flying Arrow carries 12 passengers, seven of them women.

The Flying Arrow sailed despite a state department warning that its master might lose his license.

To this Jones had retorted:

"I am working for Hans Isbrandtsen in New York and if he says that I am to take the Flying Arrow into Shanghai, then I will take the Flying Arrow into Shanghai."

The Isbrandtsen Line is the only American company which has sent its ships through the nationalist blockade.

One of Shelled Ships Arrives at 'Frisco

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 8—(AP) An American ship that was shelled while running the Chinese Nationalist blockade of Shanghai arrived here today.

The crew of the Isbrandtsen Line's Sir John Franklin said they expect to return to China's waters after a stop at New York.

The Sir John Franklin was hit 12 times Nov. 28 in a wild dash up the Yangtze River.

Capt. Warren Hardy said one of the shells would have wiped out every one on the bridge if it had been five inches to the left. But no one was hit.

The skipper repeated the story he told at the time of the incident. He said he refused to stop when challenged by two Nationalist destroyers because the entrance was too shallow, adding:

"I signalled we would anchor at Fu Ching buoy, about five miles up the river. They opened fire with 20 millimeter guns, then 40's, then three inch."

The seamen said they reached Fu Ching buoy and signalled they were preparing to anchor but the destroyers kept shooting. So the 32-year-old captain ordered full speed ahead in the closing mist and dark of the night. The freighter was under fire more than an hour before escaping.

Isbrandtsen Line Head Asks Naval Protection

New York, Jan. 8 (AP)—H. J. Isbrandtsen, president of the Isbrandtsen Steamship Company, called tonight for United States naval protection of his ship, the Flying Arrow, struck by Chinese Nationalist shells off the Chinese coast.

Isbrandtsen termed the attack "entirely unlawful according to international laws" and added:

"According to standing naval regulations, the United States Navy should protect America nvessels on the high seas and I hope it will be done in this case."

Claims 'Open Door' Aim

Isbrandtsen said his line's operation of the Flying Arrow in the Far East was an effort to "maintain our traditional open door in China."

"We already have petitioned Congress for relief from attacks on our ships," he added, "and we want American ships protected."

Isbrandtsen continued:

"They are shelling American vessels in international waters on the high seas. It is entirely unlawful according to international law."

Two Others Unprotected

Repeating that he expected United States Navy protection of his ships, Isbrandtsen said:

"It was not done in the case of the Flying Cloud and the Sir John Franklin," two other vessels operated by the Isbrandtsen company.

The Flying Cloud and the Sir John Franklin, he said, were shelled about two weeks ago, also by the Chinese Nationalists, "in international waters off the Chinese coast."

After those two Isbrandtsen ships were fired on recently while running the blockade, Isbrandtsen accused Dean Acheson, Secretary of State, of "callously" taking no action to prevent loss of American lives and property.

He said Acheson's statement that he would support claims for damages, because the shooting was unlawful, but would not act to prevent a reoccurrence, was "unprecedented in American history."

Acheson did not reply, but a State Department spokesman noted that Acheson recently had praised some shipowners for their "prudence, wisdom and perceptiveness" in keeping away from Shanghai.

Red China Bids U.N. Oust Envoy Of Nationalists

Message to Romulo and Lie Asks Them to Bar Tsiang From Security Council

LONDON, Jan. 8 (AP).—Communist China tonight demanded the expulsion of Nationalist China's representative from the United Nations Security Council, which convenes Tuesday at Lake Success.

The Peiping New China News agency, in a radio dispatch monitored here, said the demand was contained in a telegram sent to U. N. Assembly President Carlos P. Romulo, Secretary-General Trygve Lie, and various nations now members of the Security Council. The message was signed by Chou En-lai, Chinese Communist Foreign Minister.

(At Lake Success, it was said the Chinese Communist note had not yet been received at U. N. headquarters.)

In the version released here, Yugoslavia, a new member of the council, was omitted from the list of those to whom the message was addressed. Delegations listed as addressees were those of the Soviet Union, United States, France, United Kingdom, Ecuador, India, Cuba, Egypt and Norway.

Yugoslavs Use Text

Tanjug, official Yugoslav news agency, in a dispatch from Belgrade, repeated the text of Chou's demand but said only it was addressed to "President Romulo, Secretary-General Lie, as well as the members of delegations to the Security Council."

While Russia is expected to sit tight for several weeks on the Chinese question, it is possible the Soviet delegation may launch the fight when the Security Council holds its first 1950 meeting at 3 p. m. Tuesday. T. F. Tsiang, Chinese Nationalist delegate, is the chairman of the Council for January—a factor which has added to the diplomatic confusion.

While Yugoslavia is among the countries which have recognized the Chinese Red government, Communist leader Mao Tze-tung's regime thus far has been cool to this proffered friendship.

Britain in Same Boat

Great Britain is in the same boat with Tito so far as Red China is concerned. The British Foreign Office Friday announced recognition of the Chinese Communists. A spokesman said today that no reply had been received from China. There was speculation in Hong Kong that perhaps the Chinese Reds may be doing some bargaining before "accepting" British recognition. In addition to Britain and Yugoslavia, other Security Council members which have recognized the Chinese Communists are Russia, India and Norway.

The text of the Chinese Communist demand that the Nationalists be expelled from the Council said:

"This is to inform you that the central government of the People's Republic of China holds as illegal the presence of the delegates of the Chinese Kuomintang reactionary clique in the Security Council. The position of the Central People's government is that the said delegates be expelled from the Security Council. It is hope that this position will be adopted and action be taken accordingly."

London Rally Puts Peace Up To U.S.

London, Jan. 8 (AP)—Leaders of a leftist rally in Hyde Park presented anti-war protests today to the American Embassy and at the official residence of Prime Minister Attlee.

The demonstration was sponsored by a group calling itself the "British Peace Committee."

Two processions stretching out for 300 yards with banners bearing such slogans as "No trade with Franco the Fascist" and "A firm peace front this year," marched to the embassy and to No. 10 Downing Street.

At Hyde Park the demonstrators were addressed by Lester Hutchinson, Labor party member of Parliament.

Hutchinson demanded that United States troops be withdrawn from Britain, that Britain repudiate all military alliances and establish full trade relations with Russia and eastern Europe.

"We are the most vulnerable country in the world to war," Hutchinson said. "If we are attacked with atom bombs we shall have casualties, not in thousands, but in millions."

FINNISH RED LEADER ASSAILS DR. PAASIKIVI

LONDON, Monday, Jan. 9 (AP)—Mme. Hertta Kuusinen-Leino, Finnish woman Communist leader, has accused Finland's President, Dr. Juho K. Paasikivi, of anti-sovietism, the Soviet news agency Tass said today in a dispatch from Helsinki.

The dispatch, distributed by the Soviet monitor here, said Mme. Kuusinen-Leino had made her charge in an article in the Finnish press.

The dispatch appeared while Finland was pondering Russia's New Year's note accusing her of harboring about 300 Soviet war criminals.

Girl and Father Crossing Ocean in Rowboat Saved

ROSSLARE, Ireland, Jan. 8 (AP).—The sixteen-foot rowboat in which German engineer Paul Muller and his eighteen-year-old daughter were attempting to sail to South America was towed into Dungarvan harbor today. It was the ninth time since Muller and the girl left Germany in November that they have had to be rescued.

The little boat, converted to a sailing craft, set out into the North Atlantic yesterday en route to Cork after veteran sailors had warned that to do so would be suicidal. A lashing storm drove bigger vessels to harbor hours after they had put out. Both Muller and his daughter, Aga, were safe and well.

The boat was sighted, anchorless, off Helvic Head on the Waterford coast and taken in tow by a Dungarvan lifeboat. They were then about sixty miles from Kilmore Quay, their starting point.

EVANGELISTS HOLD SERVICES

Excommunicated Italian Reds Hear Bible Readings

Frascati, Italy, Jan. 8 (AP)—Worshippers, who included some who said they were Communists excommunicated from the Catholic Church, attended church services held in the Alban Hills today by a group of Protestant Church of Christ Evangelists.

Members of the evangelistic group—nearly all from Texas—declared yesterday they had been stoned out of Castel Gandolfo, summer home of Pope Pius XII, and that Catholic priests had "aroused the people against us."

Here a congregation of about 100 men, women and children—nearly all from humble walks of life—heard a Bible reading by young Evangelist Cline R. Paden, of Brownfield, Texas.

Others of the group of thirteen evangelists held Bible readings in other strongly Catholic towns of the Alban Hills some 20 miles southeast of Rome.

"Heresy" Charges Voiced

A Vatican source said the priests had complained that the evangelists were "preaching heresy" but expressed doubts that they had aroused the townspeople.

Paden, superintendent of an orphanage in Frascati supported by the Church of Christ, today denied that his group had Communist or any other type of political affiliation. Such reports have been circulated among the people of the Alban Hills.

Some members in his congregation said they had been Catholics who came under the church decree excommunicating militant Communists and one aded: "The excommunication decree persuaded me to join."

One of the evangelists, K. D. Pittman, of Corpus Christi, Texas, said only the Bible was used in services by the church and that its members did not believe in a religious head on earth, only in Christ.

250 Italians Baptized

A Vatican source expressed regret at stone-throwing incidents, but added, "Much the same thing would happen if there were such preaching in a strongly Catholic Irish parish in America."

During the year that the church orphanage has been operating, 250 Italians have been baptized into church membership. Today one young man was baptized by immersion in a tank on the side of the hill behind the villa that serves both as church and orphanage.

Paden said his group had not yet obtained extension of visas to enable its members to remain in Italy, nor had they been able to obtain needed written permission from Rome police to operate the orphanage.

Paden said he presented the group's problem to Myron C. Taylor, the personal representative of President Truman at the Vatican, and Taylor expressed surprise that difficulty was being encountered in running the orphanage.

During the last year Paden's group has spent about $200,000, much of it on the distribution of clothing and food.

Communists Beat Ex-P.W.

Essen, Germany, Jan. 8 (AP)—Communists today beat up a former German war prisoner who interrupted a Communist rally to complain about Russian treatment.

The outburst occurred during one of a series of rallies of thousands of Communists demanding withdrawal of Allied occupation troops and the ending of international control over the Ruhr.

The ex-soldier who only a few weeks ago returned from years of captivity in Russia, rose and shouted:

"You protest against the enslavement of the Ruhr, but who protests against the inhuman treatment of war prisoners in the Soviet Union?"

"A Meeting Of Peace"

Josef Ledwohl, chairman of the meeting, ordered the speaker out, declaring: "This is a meeting of peace; we will not permit demonstrations against the Soviet Union here."

About twenty men jumped on the speaker and beat him up. Police rushed into to halt the melée. The speaker was taken out with a broken nose and bleeding head. No one was arrested.

The rallies were regarded as the beginning of a Communist drive to seize the Ruhr, foreshadowing a fight with militant Socialists.

Schumacher Also Speaks

About 4,000 Communists massed in Essen and 7,000 at Dortmund on the heels of a Socialist party meeting in Berlin which heard Dr. Kurt Schumacher, Socialist leader, warn against collaboration with the Communists. Most of the Socialist strength is in the Ruhr.

The Communist drive for Ruhr power can only be accomplished by smashing the Socialists.

The Communists have steadily slipped in prestige and numbers in western Germany since 1945.

MP's Mistake Him For Hitler

Frankfurt, Germany, Jan. 8 (AP). Henrich Noll says he is just plain tired of American military policemen asking if he's Adolf Hitler.

Noll, a 38-year-old jobless male nurse, thinks he ought to go to the United States "where people don't worry so much about Der Führer popping up."

Noll is the spittin' image of Hitler — toothbrush mustache, drooping forelock and all. Only his voice is different. Noll is soft-spoken.

He "Didn't Like The Old Goat"

"I look like Hitler but I didn't like the old goat," says Noll. "And my character isn't like his. I like meat, cigarettes and women."

Hitler was a reputed vegetarian and nonsmoker.

Noll's first brush with the MP's came in 1945 when American troops entered Giessen. Noll rashly poked his head out of the window of his home. Droves of MP's armed with tommy-guns stormed into the house thinking he was the prize catch—der Führer.

"Almost everybody in town had to swear that I'd lived there all my life before the Americans would let me go," he related.

Why He Keeps That Mustache

He says he grew his toothbrush mustaches before Hitler came to power "although my wife said it looked silly."

Why doesn't he shave off his Hitler mustache now?

He wants to play the part of Hitler in a planned Austrian movie, "The Third Reich." But he says he'd rather go to Hollywood to portray Hitler in American movies.

British, Norwegians, Danes In Mock War

Hamburg, Germany, Jan. 8 (AP)—Five thousand Norwegian, Danish and British troops marched through mud and snow today into positions for a week of combined military maneuvers.

At dawn Monday they will go into joint action on Lueneburg Heath, traditional German training ground between Hamburg and Hanover. The mock war, called "Exercise Finnmark," will end January 15.

10 Albanians Face Yugoslavia Trials

Belgrade, Yugoslavia, Jan. 8 (AP). Yugoslavia tonight ordered the trial of ten Albanians accused of spying and sabotage for the Russian-led Cominform.

The trial will open tomorrow in Skoplje, capital of the Yugoslav republic of Macedonia and long a brewing spot of European conflicts.

The accusations were disclosed by Borba, official newspaper of Marshal Tito's Communist party.

They are a result of the feud between Albania and Yugoslavia which followed denunciation of Tito's regime by the Cominform on charges of pursuing "nationalistic" policies. Albania sided with the Cominform. Borba said the defendants are a group of "spies, diversionists and terrorists who were thrown into Yugoslavia by Albania."

The trials will mark the third in a series instituted by Yugoslavia against its erstwhile comrades of the East.

The first came last summer against a group of Hungarians on similar charges. The second trial, last month, involved ten White Russians at Sarajevo.

CHINESE REDS TO 'FREE' TIBET, RUSSIANS SAY

Two Moscow Papers Predict 'Liberation,' Attack Truman

Moscow, Jan. 8 (AP)—Both of Russia's biggest newspapers declared today that Lama-ruled Tibet is to be swept out of its classic centuries-old isolation into the dynamic stream of world communism.

Pravda, organ of the Communist party, said it was as "clear as daylight" that Chinese Communists are "fully resolved to liberate all Chinese territory"—Tibet as well as Formosa and Hainan islands.

Pravda said there was "no doubt" this task would be carried out, though the "people's democratic government of China is deprived of any aggressive strivings whatsoever."

Truman "Smoke Screen" Charged

Izvestia, the Soviet Government newspaper, made a similar declaration in an editorial.

JAN 9 - 1950

30.24- 8099

At the same time, Izvestia charged that President Truman's statement on Formosa was a "smoke screen" to conceal American "aggressive intentions" aimed at both Formosa and Hainan.

American military preparations on Formosa, the paper charged, were continuing without interruption, and Dean Acheson, Secretary of State, had let American intentions out of the bag.

President Truman said on Thursday the U. S. "has no predatory designs on Formosa or on any other Chinese territory," has no desire to establish military bases on Formosa and will not use its armed forces or provide military aid or advice to Chinese forces on Formosa.

(Tibet, a land of about 3,000,000 people and slightly bigger than Texas, Oklahoma and New Mexico together, recently was described by radio commentator Lowell Thomas as the "most anti-Communist country in the world."

(Fringing on China, Soviet Russia, India and the disputed princely state of Kashmir, the country is the site of the mythical utopia of Shangri-La in the novel "Lost Horizon.")

(Ruled by Buddhist monks, or lamas, the country high in the windy Himalayas has escaped being drawn into modern life because of its rugged terrain and climate and aloofness toward foreigners, only a handful of whom have visited the country in recent years.

(The No. 1 monk is the Dalai Lama, a 15-year-old Chinese youth supposed to be the 14th incarnation of Buddha, who was enthroned in 1940.

(The No. 2 lama is the Panchen Lama, a 12-year-old boy claiming to be the 10th incarnation, who apparently fell into the hands of Chinese Communists last September when they overran Kumbum Monastery in Tsinghai Province, northwest China, where he was living in exile.

(Last Nov. 24 the Communist radio at Peiping said the Panchen Lama had appealed to the Chinese Red army command to "liberate Tibet and eliminate all traitorous elements."

(The Dalai Lama as early as August, 1948, instituted prayer meetings to protect the country from communism. Last July he ousted all Chinese government officials from his capital at Lhasa. It was not clear whether he did so because he feared Communist influence if China became Communist, or was merely pursuing a course of opportunistic nationalism.

(Since the 17th Century China has claimed suzerainity over Tibet but the country has been self-governing for all practical purposes. Since the fall of the Manchu Dynasty in 1912 Britain has largely replaced China in influence there. Most of the country's meagre trade went to Britain through India.

(During the war, however, the country gave permission for U. S. planes to fly over the country on the famous Himalayan hump route to China. In 1948 a Tibetan trade commission visited the United States to sell wool and yak tails.)

Acheson "Gave Game Away"

American "imperialists," Pravda declared, continue to give military help to Chiang Kai-shek and continue to build military plans for strengthening the resistance of bases on Hainan and Formosa.

Izvestia said Secretary Acheson "gave the whole game away by his statement elaborating Truman's declaration." The paper reported Acheson at his news conference Thursday "said there were no obstacles to demobilized American officers assisting the Kuomintang and no obstacles to the sale of weapons to them."

Izvestia also cited an Acheson statement that American policy toward China has not changed.

Reds See Acheson-Johnson Rift

Acheson, Izvestia continued, admitted there were differences between himself and Louis A. Johnson, Secretary of Defense, on policy and "in fact confirmed foreign press reports that ruling circles in the United States are continuing a bankrupt aggressive policy toward China and are trying to bring to life the political corpse called the 'Government' of Chiang Kai-shek."

[At his news conference Acheson said the differences were minor and were confined to the weight to be given to military and political factors.]

Mr. Truman's statement was made "evidently in order to calm American public opinion and to mask continuation of the aggressive policy toward China," the Government paper said.

Acheson, with "further details" given at his news conference, "completely dispelled the smoke screen with which Truman strove to cover up American aggression toward China, particularly Formosa," Izvestia said.

"Most Anti-Communist" Land

Washington, Jan. 8 (AP)—Tibet, a land of about 3,000,000 people and slightly bigger than Texas, Oklahoma and New Mexico together, recently was described by Lowell Thomas, the radio commentator, as the "most anti-Communist country in the world."

Fringing on China, Soviet Russia, India and the disputed princely State of Kashmir, the country is the site of the mythical Utopia of Shangri-La in the novel "Lost Horizon."

Ruled By Dalai Lama

Ruled by Buddhist monks, or lamas, the country high in the windy Himalayas has escaped being drawn into modern life because of its rugged terrain and climate and aloofness toward foreigners, only a handful of whom have visited the country in recent years.

The No. 1 monk is the Dalai Lama, a 15-year-old Chinese youth supposed to be the fourteenth incarnation of Buddha, who was enthroned in 1940.

The No. 2 Lama is the Panchen Lama, a 12-year-old boy claiming to be the tenth incarnation, who apparently fell into the hands of Chinese Communists last September when they overran Kumbum Monastery in Tsinghai province, Northwest China, where he was living in exile.

Last November 24, the Communist radio at Peiping said the Panchen Lama had appealed to the Chinese Red army command to "liberate Tibet and eliminate all traitorous elements."

Prayers Against Communism

The Dalai Lama as early as August, 1948, instituted prayer meetings to protect the country from communism. Last July he ousted all Chinese Government officials from his capital at Lhasa. It was not clear whether he did so because he feared Communist influence if China became Communist, or was merely pursuing a course of opportunistic nationalism.

Since the Seventeenth Century China has claimed suzerainty over Tibet, but the country has been self-governing for all practical purposes. Since the fall of the Manchu Dynasty in 1912, Britain has largely replaced China in influence there. Most of the country's meager trade went to Britain through India.

Tibet Sought U.S. Trade

During the war, however, the country gave permission for United States planes to fly over the country of the famous Himalayan Hump route to China. In 1948 a Tibetan trade commission visited the United States to sell wool and yak tails.

Thomas, who returned from a visit last October, said he found the country extraordinarily primitive. He did not see a single wheel, he said. The country has an army of about 10,000 armed with World War I rifles, he said, but would be glad to accept Western assistance to hold off communism. The Soviet weekly New Times charged Thomas was a United States Government agent.

Officers Trained At 'High Schools'

Moscow, Jan. 8 (AP)—West Point and Annapolis are mere high schools, not to be compared with similar Soviet institutions, the army newspaper Red Star said today.

"In general, there are no higher military educational institutions in the United States, which, in the scale of knowledge imparted, can be fully compared with our military academies," the newspaper said.

JAN 9 - 1950

The Red Star article objected to the use of the term "academy" by Russian translators referring to the United States Military Academy at West Point and the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis. It said the word should be translated only as "school."

Communism Big Issue In Ceylon Talks Today

Steven Baird

Commonwealth Leaders To Consider Building Resistance In Asia By Adjusting Economy

Colombo, Ceylon, Jan. 8 (AP)—A top British Cabinet official declared today the outstanding problem for the commonwealth foreign-relations conference opening here tomorrow is how to stop a third world war.

Philip Noel-Baker, Secretary of State for Commonwealth Relations, told a news conference great importance would be attached to building up resistance against authoritarianism by adjusting the economy of the commonwealth to meet the situation.

Other delegates saw the spread of communism throughout Asia and a peace treaty with Japan as vital subjects.

Ernest Bevin, British Foreign Secretary, who arrived today, called the meeting a "very vital and important conference for the British Commonwealth and the world as a whole." A late arrival was Prime Minister Jawarharlal Nehru of India.

Mentions Debt To U.S.

Noel-Baker said the United Kingdom was greatly indebted to the United States for Marshall plan aid, which is affording Britain a breathing spell from its economic worries. He said the United States would be kept fully informed of the proceedings of the conference.

[In Moscow, the Communist party newspaper Pravda said the Colombo conference reflects British effort "to strengthen the weakened position of Britain by combating the influence of the United States in the Pacific."

[Pravda also saw the conference as reflecting a tendency in Britain's "imperialist policy" to "activate the struggle against the peoples' liberation (Communist) movements in the countries of Asia and the Pacific Ocean." It also said Britain's position at the conference "is not easy, for both Australia and New Zealand have underlined their intention to maintain the closest ties with the United States."]

Communism A Major Topic

Australia and New Zealand are expected to make their decisions concerning recognition of Mao Tze-tung's Chinese Communist regime after the conference, which comes on the heels of British recognition of Mao. India, Pakistan and Ceylon—three Commonwealth members—also have recognized the Chinese Communists.

Prime Minister C. S. Senayake, of Ceylon, told a news conference there were differing views concerning the conference agenda, but that it will be "very much concerned with the subject of communism."

On the issue of a Japanese peace treaty, the Commonwealth countries will debate whether Japan should be strengthened as a possible future ally against Russia and perhaps Communist China or kept weak.

The Canadian delegates said they would have the North American approach to political and particularly economic problems. The economic section will give most of its attention to the balance of payment position in the sterling area, probably country by country.

One economic adviser said the conference probably would reflect back on the July meeting of finance ministers in London, when Britain's Chancellor of the Exchequer, Sir Stafford Cripps, asked the commonwealth to cut back 25 per cent on dollar imports.

The economic adviser doubted that any country had yet been able to reduce imports that much but probably hoped to achieve that goal during 1950.

Three Syrian Military Leaders Reach Cairo

Cairo, Jan. 8 (AP)—Three senior members of Syria's ruling military clique arrived in Cairo tonight.

The head of the group, Col. Adib Sheshakly, said one purpose of the visit is to throw Syrian support behind a strong collective security pact for all Arab nations.

Sheshakly was accompanied by Col. Aziz Abdul Karim, Syrian artillery commandant, and Col. Shawkat Shoukir, of the general staff. Sheshakly led the December 19 coup which overthrew Syria's military strongman, Gen. Sami Hennawi.

Viet Nam Leader Captured

French Seize Officer Who Brought Chiang Force Into Indo-China

HANOI, French Indo-China, Jan. 8 (AP).—On official announcement said today that French troops have captured Vu Hong Khan, a Viet Nam (Indo-Chinese Nationalist) leader who refused to surrender after fleeing from China into Indo-China with 2,000 Chinese Nationalist troops.

The capture took place southwest of Langson, a town near the border. The group fled into mountains after refusing to let themselves be disarmed and were attacked by French troops and planes. Lack of supplies finally forced them to surrender.

India to Alter Money

Inauguration of Republic to End British Emblems on Currency

NEW DELHI, Jan. 8 (AP).—The inauguration of the Indian Republic on Jan. 26 will bring a change in the Indian currency, it was announced today. The British crown and other emblems on the currnecy notes will be replaced with India's three lions.

Prime Minister Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru announced also that West Bengal elections will be postponed until next winter because of disturbed conditions in Calcutta and some other parts of the province. Mr. Nehru originally had decided on general elections in West Bengal early this year because of discontent and opposition to the provincial government.

Britain's China Stand May Balk Sharing of A-Secrets

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8 — (AP) Great Britain's recognition of Communist China raised new questions today from some senators about the advisability of sharing any U. S. atomic secrets and weapons with Great Britain.

The United States, Britain and Canada have held "exploratory talks" on sharing atomic secrets and the Belgian Congo's output of uranium—the key A-bomb material.

Expected to Be Issue

Britain has proposed among other things that it be given a supply of U. S. A-bombs to be stored on the British isles. This presumably will be at issue when the talks on a proposed partnership are resumed here later this month.

The administration has promised that it will enter into no agreement without prior consultation with Congress.

Committee Chairman McMahon (D.-Conn.) of the Senate-House Atomic Energy committee told reporters recently he believed the negotiations would ultimately require some congressional action at this session. If his forecast is correct, it could result in a new bitter foreign policy rumpus because:

1. Many Republican senators—and some Democrats as well—are cold to the idea of giving away any atomic secrets or bombs.

2. Their opposition was strengthened by Britain's action last week in recognizing the Chinese Communist government.

Senate Republican Leader Wherry (Neb.) said this recognition coupled with President Truman's "hands off" pronouncement on Formosa "should serve as another warning to the American people to be more vigilant in guarding our atomic bomb secrets."

3. A substantial group of other senators feel that the U. S. needs strong, close allies in the cold war with Russia and therefore it may be to our best interests to revive the wartime atomic partnership with Britain and Canada.

Peace Goal Main Issue

"The primary test of any agreement to be made is whether or not it serves to promote our chances in the west for keeping the peace," said one highly-placed senator.

The senator, who asked not to be named, told a reporter that this consideration should override any other factor.

But another senator, also conversant with the atomic problem, said in a separate interview that he viewed British recognition of the Chinese Reds as "merely further evidence of the tremendous danger that we run in turning over our atomic secrets to Britain or anyone else."

This senator added, without elaboration, that the "danger is not so great as to what we already know, but what we may discover in the future."

The U. S.-British-Canadian talks, are reported to have resulted in this proposed "understanding":

(A) Concentration of atomic weapons research and production in the United States; (B) Britain and Canada becoming full scale partners in the atomic enterprise.

The British proposal that it be given a supply of A-bombs was in addition to this "understanding" which has not reached the status of an agreement.

BONUS BILLS TO FACE FIGHT IN CONGRESS

Rankin, Author Of One, Refuses To Predict Fate Of Measures

Washington, Jan. 8 (AP)—Bonuses for veterans of World War II may become a hot issue at this session of Congress, some members of the House Veterans Affairs Committee said today.

The committee next week will hear spokesmen for veterans organizations outline their programs for 1950. It has taken no formal action.

Chairman Rankin (D., Miss.) would risk no prediction on the fate of bonus bills.

"We will work out our program of legislation after we hear what the veterans' groups want," he said.

Two Major Bills Introduced

Rankin has introduced one of the two major bonus bills now in a committee pigeonhole. The other carries the name of Representative Pace (D., Ga.) as its author.

One committee member who wouldn't permit his name to be used said he would "not be surprised if a bonus bill comes out of our committee this year."

There is strong pressure for such action, he said, from congressional groups who want to curb foreign spending and who believe veterans have not been adequately compensated for their economic losses.

Would Be Hard To Beat

From a practical political point of view, he said, "it would be hard to beat a bonus bill this year if one gets out of our committee."

This is a congressional election year, he pointed out.

The bonus bill bearing Rankin's name would give veterans $3 for each day of domestic service and $4 a day for foreign service, with a minimum of $100 and a maximum of $4,500, in addition to $500 for any bonafide battle wound.

Deducted would be any amounts the veteran already has received in educational or unemployment benefits under the G.I. Bill of Rights.

Would Pay In Bonds

The bonus would be paid in ten-year, interest-bearing bonds unless the amount due is less than $300. Then it would be in cash.

The Pace bill would pay $5 for each day of foreign service and $4 for each day of domestic service.

Neither is officially called a bonus bill. They are called adjusted compensation measures.

DEPT. OF JUSTICE TO CONTINUE USE OF WIRE TAPPING

JAN 9 - 1950

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8—(AP) Attorney General J. Howard McGrath said today the Department of Justice will continue wire tapping to obtain information "in view of the emergency which still prevails and the necessity of protecting the national security."

Although he did not indicate that there was any connection, McGrath issued a statement of policy in the wake of these two developments:

1. A ruling by a New York Federal judge that the government must prove that it can prosecute Judith Coplon and Valentin A. Gubitchev on spy conspiracy charges without relying on data obtained by wire tapping.

2. A strong denunciation of wire tapping, made by James Lawrence Fly, former chairman of the Communications Commission.

Says FDR Established Policy

McGrath said that the department's present policy on wire tapping had been established by President Franklin D. Roosevelt and was followed by three previous attorneys general—Robert H. Jackson, Francis C. Biddle, and Tom Clark.

McGrath quoted a 1944 letter by President Roosevelt in which the latter said wire tapping should be "used against those persons not citizens of the United States and those few citizens who are traitors to their country, who today are engaged in espionage or sabotage against the United States."

"There has been no concealment of the fact that wire tapping has been usued in limited cases with the expressed approval in each individual instance of the attorney general," McGrath said.

He noted that this has been the publicly-announced policy of J. Edgar Hoover, director of the FBI.

Cites Security Needs

"There has been no new policy or procedure since the initial policy was stated by President Roosevelt x x x," McGrath added.

"In view of the emergency which still prevails and the necessity of protecting the national security, I can see no reason at the present time for any change."

Federal Judge Sylvester J. Ryan has threatened to throw the Coplon-Gubitchev case out of court in New York if the government's case is based solely on telephone eavesdropping by the FBI.

In making public McGrath's policy statement, a spokesman for the Justice department said it had no reference to the Coplon-Gubitchev case. Nor was the statement linked by the department with the criticism expressed by Fly in a letter to the editor of the Washington Post.

Fly said that "if one traitor could be named" (through wire tapping) the country would still face the question "whether it is willing to pay the price in the basic human liberties, in the freedom unwarranted search and seizures, in the sanctity of the home, in the freedom from the stealth and secrecy of underground snoopers x x x."

BREWSTER URGES U. S. SEND GERMANY SHIPS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8 (AP)—Senator Owen Brewster, Republican, of Maine, suggested today that Germany be given ships from the United States' idle fleet rather than be permitted to use scarce steel to build a merchant marine.

Mr. Brewster, who recently completed a tour of European shipyards, released an exchange of letters with the State Department in which he criticized the present policy.

The exchange was precipitated by a letter from John R. Newell, vice president of the Bath Iron Works Corp., Bath, Me., shipbuilders, stating that under recent agreements between this country, Britain and France, the West German Republic would be permitted to build an unlimited number of cargo ships up to 7,200 gross tons and loaded speed of 12 knots, plus eight larger and faster cargo ships.

Jack K. McFall, Assistant Secretaryof State, replied that Germany could not build "unlimited" numbers of cargo ships, "since shipbuilding capacity in Germany has been substantially reduced by war damage and dismantling and under terms of the agreement cannot be enlarged beyond the capacity presently in existence."

H said Germany was permitted to build dry cargo ships up to 7,200 tons and six refrigerator ships to handle perishables.

14 Locomotive Experts to Visit Plants in 13 Cities Here

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8 (AP)—Fourteen British specialists in Diesel locomotives will arrive in New York Monday for a two-months' study of American design and manufacturing techniques. They will visit plants and railroad shops in thirteen cities.

Their study is one of a series of technical assistance projects sponsored jointly by the Economic Cooperation Administration, the British Government and the Anglo-American Council on Productivity.

The tentative itinerary is:

Jan. 11-17, Erie, Pa.; Jan. 18-20, Philadelphia; Jan. 23-24, Plymouth, Ohio; Jan. 25, Cleveland; Jan. 26-Feb. 2, LaGrange and Chicago, Ill.; Feb. 3, Kalamazoo, Mich.; Feb. 7-8, Davenport, Iowa; Feb. 9, Peoria, Ill.; Feb. 10, Columbus, Ind.; Feb. 13-15, Pittsburgh; Feb. 16-17, Harrisburg, Pa.; Feb. 20, Wilkes-Barre, Pa.

Crate of Dead War Flier Goes Abroad Full of Toys

By The Associated Press.

INDIANAPOLIS, Jan. 8—A shipping crate that carried an American airman's body from Europe is on its way back—full of toys.

Walter E. Alessandroni of Philadelphia, director of overseas shipping in the American Legion's "Tide-of-Toys" campaign, reported the incident to Legion national headquarters today.

"At first we were shocked when the six-handled, lead-lined box was received Friday in Philadelphia," Mr. Alessandroni said. "The stenciled name of the dead flier could still be read.

"Then we realized it was intended as a gesture of good for evil. The box had come from Europe as a symbol of tragedy. It was going back as an offering of good will for European orphans and other youngsters being helped by CARE.

"Maybe the child of the soldier who killed the American will receive one of the 200 toys from that box."

The Legion is planning to ship 5,000,000 toys to Europe, including Germany, Austria, Italy and Poland.

MME. CHIANG RAPS BRITAIN

Calls Red Recognition Action Of 'A Moral Weakling'

New York, Jan. 8 (AP)—Mme. Chiang Kai-shek today pledged unremitting guerrilla warfare and propaganda—and eventually a general uprising—against the Chinese Communist regime.

In a broadcast before leaving for the Island of Formosa to join her husband, the wife of the Chinese Nationalist leader promised he would wage a last-ditch battle from the island.

In addition, she said, "everywhere in China's mainland our guerrillas will keep the torch of liberty."

She added:

"The enemy's lies and deceit, their treachery and propaganda, will be defeated not only with bullets but also with truth.

Will Rise "At Given Signal"

"The oppressed people on the mainland will be prepared so that at a given signal they will rise up simultaneously and overthrow the yoke of Communist domination with our returning armies."

Mme. Chiang, who will leave the country this week, spoke over the radio from the home of her brother-in-law, Dr. H. H. Kung.

He is a former Premier and Finance Minister of Nationalist China and former governor of the Central Bank of China.

Cries "Shame" On Britain

Although she referred to the Chinese Nationalists as "abandoned and alone," Mme. Chiang told the American people:

"Yours has been a contribution of affection. . . . Your name among us will always be cherished for its friendship and kindliness."

But she charged that Britain's recognition of Communist China was the action of a "moral weakling."

"Britain has bartered the soul of a nation for a few pieces of silver," she said.

"I say 'for shame' to Britain. One day these pieces of silver will bear interest in British blood, sweat and tears on the battleground of freedom."

"Russia Will Never Own China"

"Russia," she said, "will never know one day of peace in China. Russia will never own China. China will remain free."

She said Chiang "alone was responsible for China's break with the Communists in 1926 when he became convinced that Russia was laboring even then to steal our country."

"He saw that China was being made an experiment for all the wiles and tricks which Russia since has used against the world," she said.

Although she said China "stands "with empty but willing hands," she did not renew the formal plea for help that brought her to America on a special mission thirteen months ago—a mission almost entirely unsuccessful.

"I can ask the American people for nothing more," she explained.

Can Ask No More "With Dignity"

"At such a time no pleading can be with dignity. It is either in your hearts to love us, or your hearts have been turned from us. It is either in your mind and your will to aid China in her struggle for liberty, or you have abandoned liberty.

"But with or without help we shall fight. We are not defeated. Millions of my countrymen are yet dedicated to the long fight. As long as breath remains in us, and with faith in the Almighty, we shall continue the struggle. Not a day, not an hour will pass which will not be devoted to our struggle for freedom."

"Liberty Vs. Communism"

Mme. Chiang said that Nationalist China is now fighting a battle for the world in the cause of liberty.

"The world is now divided between liberty and communism," she said. "In a day not too far distant millions of others will have to make the choice of fighting for their liberty or surrendering to enslavement.

"Let no one be deceived. Ours is the cause of freedom. It is not—and the world should know it is not—our struggle alone. China's struggle now is the initial phase of a gigantic conflict between good and evil . . . between liberty and communism."

Text of Mme. Chiang Farewell

Following is the complete text of Mme. Chiang Kai-shek's radio address yesterday over the National Broadcasting Company national network:

Friends:

I speak to you today to say good by; to thank you for your kind hospitality, and to hope that perhaps my next visit to the United States will be in a happier atmosphere when my country will again be free from the ponderous hooves of an alien invader.

Naturally it is always sad for me to leave this country, to which I come not only as a visitor but also as one who here spent many years of my girlhood, where I received all of my schooling and much of the inspiration for what ever I have been able to do for my people.

In a few days I shall be returning to China. Not to Nanking, Chungking, Shanghai or Canton. Not to the soil of our mainland. I shall return to my people on the island of Formosa, the fortress of our hopes, the citadel of our battle against an alien power which is ravaging our country.

"We Are Not Defeated"

With or without help we shall fight. We are not defeated. Millions of my countrymen are yet dedicated to the long fight. As long as a breath remains in us, and with faith in the Almighty, we shall continue the struggle. Not a day, not an hour, will pass which will not be devoted to our struggle for freedom.

We shall fight fire with fire. Unremittingly and with the tenacity of life, we shall fight and bleed the enemy. Everywhere in China's mainland our guerrillas will keep the torch of liberty. The enemy's lies and deceit, their treachery and propaganda, will be defeated not only with bullets but also with truth.

The oppressed people on the mainland will be prepared so that at a given signal they will rise up simultaneously and overthrow the yoke of Communist domination with our returning armies.

To this we are dedicated with our lives.

Calls It World Struggle

It is possible that we shall give every appearance of failure. It is possible that those who take a short view of life and no view at all of moral principles will write China off as a failure.

I hope that wherever my voice carries, to whatever free corner of the world, I can help awaken liberty-living peoples to the realization that China, abandoned and alone, now shoulders the only rifle in the defense of liberty. The world is divided between liberty and Communism. In a day not too far distant millions of others will have to make the choice between fighting for their liberty or surrending to enslavement.

Let no one be deceived. Ours is the cause of freedom. It is not, and the world should know it is not, our struggle alone. China's struggle now is the initial phase of a gigantic conflict between good and evil, between liberty and Communism.

For more than twenty years my husband has led his people in the fight against communism. He alone was responsible for China's break with the Communists in 1926, when he became convinced that Russia was laboring even then to steal our country. He saw that China was being made an experiment for all the wiles and tricks which Russia since has used against the world.

Chiang Kai-shek, of all the world's statesmen, was the first to perceive the treachery of the Communist. He was the first to fight them. A few years ago he was exalted for the courage and tenacity of the fight he waged. Now he is pilloried. Times have changed, but the man has not changed. My husband remains resolute, to lead his people against the alien invaders and their alien ideas.

Our people will continue to fight for our country from some place, from such an island as Formosa, or from the fastness of some mountain, as long as we live or as long as there is an alien enemy in China's soil. I say that to you,not in the spirit of dramatic political assertion, but as a statement of fact.

Already the moral weaklings are forsaking us. It is with heavy heart that I note that a former ally, Britain, which sacrificed millions of lives on the altar of freedom, has now been taken by its leaders into the ...ness of political intrigue. ... has bartered the soul of ...ion for a few pieces of sil... I say "for shame," to Britain. One day these pieces of silver will bear interest in British blood, sweat and tears on the battleground of freedom. That which is morally wrong can never be politically right.

Truth requires that each people live according to its own traditions in a climate of human liberty and dignity. That has been the soul of Chinese civilization. That my people will never give up—not in the face of alien power, not even if their bodies are enslaved to alien might, so long as their eyes behold the beacon of freedom from the Formosan bastion. Our souls, our hearts will be free, and we shall act accordingly as best we can.

Pledges Fight to the Death

Should it be that some of us are killed in this battle for freedom, others will rise to take our places. There will not be a day of peace for the invader. No great powers can arrange treaties, no statesmen can write contracts that will stifle the Chinese yearning for liberty.

Mothers will sing of it in lullabies, fathers will speak of it at the table. Young schoolboys will give each other secret signs of liberty. The farmer will suffer, but the earth will grow for the enemy, not grapes and figs, but thorns and thistles.

It was out of a mass movement to free China from an earlier alien conqueror that the great revolutionary movement of Dr. Sun Yat-sen developed—a movement which finally expelled those invaders and established a Chinese Republic.

No force will prevail to alter that. We live not by the sword but by our principles of life. Others for the sake of expediency may desert them, but in time of adversity, when the hour is dark we cling to our principles with even greater tenacity and that, perhaps, accounts for our having the longest continuous history of any people on earth.

The United States and China have a long friendship, as long as the history of the American Republic. Many of your citizens have lived in our country. Your people have come to our aid and have given us comfort. Yours has been a contribution of affection. You have asked for no quid pro quo. Your name among us will always be cherished for its friendship and kindliness.

I can ask the American people for nothing more. During the many months that I have been in this country, I have made no speeches, I have made no appeals. I did not enter into the competition for your aid, although my country sorely needs your aid.

'What Promise Can We Make?'

I shall tell you why I have been so silent. When a nation, like a man, does an act of justice it must be of his conscience and not be request or demand. There are acts of mercy, acts of charity, acts of justice. And justice is right because it is right.

Perhaps you will think me proud. My friends, my country is humbled. Our government is on an island in the ocean. Bruce of Scotland remained with his people from a cave. We remain with our people from an island.

At such a time, no pleading can be with dignity. It is either in your hearts to love us or your hearts have been turned from us. It is either in your mind and your will to aid China in her struggle for liberty, or you have abandoned liberty.

What promise can we make to you? What guarantees can we give you? Shall we compete with those who promise more than they can ever deliver?

We stand with empty but willing hands. We stand humble, tired, crying for peace and rest, even more than for rice and bread—but we cannot give up the fight for liberty. We shall not give up the fight for liberty. With or without help, China shall fight for liberty. Alone it will take longer and cost more lives. With help our gains will be swifter. But free we shall be.

Resolute in spirit and confident that man's inherent love of freedom and justice will emerge victorious, our forces will fight on. History records with devastating truth that right will prevail.

Russia will never know one day of peace in China. Russia will never own China. China will remain free.

CHINESE BUDGET (475)

BY FRED HAMPSON

HONG KONG, JAN.8-(AP)-CHINESE COMMUNIST SILENCE ON BRITAIN'S RECOGNITION OF THE RED REGIME LED SOME OBSERVERS IN THIS BRITISH COLONY TO WONDER TODAY IF THE REDS MIGHT SEEK TO DO SOME BARGAINING BEFORE "ACCEPTING."

THE SPECULATION WAS THAT THE COMMUNISTS MIGHT TRY TO REVISE EXISTING (CHINESE NATIONALIST) TREATIES AND AGREEMENTS WITH BRITAIN IN SUCH A WAY AS TO WIDEN A BREACH BETWEEN BRITAIN AND THE UNITED STATES ON THIS SENSITIVE SUBJECT.

(TO BRITAIN, THE MOST IMPORTANT "EXISTING AGREEMENT" CONCERNS HONG KONG ITSELF. CHINA CEDED THE ISLAND OF HONG KONG TO BRITAIN OUTRIGHT IN 1841 AND THE ADJACENT KOWLOON PENINSULA IN 1860, BUT AN ADDITIONAL 355 SQUARE MILES OF MAINLAND IS HELD ON A LEASE THAT RUNS UNTIL 1997. THERE HAS LONG BEEN CHINESE NATIONALIST SENTIMENT FOR RESTORATION OF CHINESE SOVEREIGNTY. THE COMMUNISTS HAVE NOT YET EXPRESSED THEIR ATTITUDE ON THE SUBJECT.)

(A FOREIGN OFFICE SPOKESMAN IN LONDON DECLINED TO COMMENT ON THE POSSIBILITY THAT THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS MIGHT SEEK TO BARGAIN WITH BRITAIN BEFORE ACCEPTING DIPLOMATIC RECOGNITION.

(THE SPOKESMAN SAID NO REPLY HAD BEEN RECEIVED AS YET FROM ITS RECOGNITION OFFER. OTHER OFFICIAL SOURCES SAID A DELAY WAS NOT UNEXPECTED. THEY SAID COMMUNICATIONS WERE SLOW AND THAT IN THE PAST CHINESE COMMUNIST REACTION TO MAJOR DEVELOPMENTS WAS USUALLY DELAYED FROM THREE DAYS TO A WEEK.

(IT WAS EXPECTED IN LONDON THAT THE FIRST REACTION FROM PEIPING WOULD BE COMMENT FROM THE REDS' CHINA NEWS AGENCY. THUS THE COMMUNISTS COULD REACT WITHOUT HAVING THEIR VIEWS BEAR A COMPLETELY OFFICIAL STAMP).

THERE WAS NOT MUCH YET TO SUPPORT THE THEORY THAT THE REDS WILL HAGGLE OVER BRITISH RECOGNITION, BUT IT WAS GENERALLY FELT IN HONG KONG THAT THEY COULD BE DEPENDED UPON TO DO EVERYTHING POSSIBLE TO FURTHER AGGRAVATE BRITISH-AMERICAN RELATIONS.

ON FORMOSA, ISLAND REFUGE OF THE NATIONALISTS, A SENIOR OFFICIAL SUGGESTED WRYLY THAT THE REDS DOUBTLESS HAD REFERRED BRITAIN'S RECOGNITION OF JAN.6 TO MOSCOW FOR GUIDANCE.

THIS OFFICIAL, WHO INSISTED ON ANONYMITY, NOTED THAT WHEN RUSSIA RECOGNIZED THE PEIPING REGIME ON JAN.10, CHINESE RED ACCEPTANCE WAS IMMEDIATELY AND JUBILANTLY PROCLAIMED.

IN CONTRAST, HE REMARKED THAT INDIA'S RECOGNITION, EXTENDED DEC.30, HAD DRAWN A DELAYED REPLY OFFERING TO "NEGOTIATE."

(THE PEIPING RADIO MADE A CRYPTIC ANNOUNCEMENT THAT ON JAN.7 PREMIER-FOREIGN MINISTER CHOU EN-LAI MADE "A REPORT ON DIPLOMATIC QUESTIONS" TO THE RED ADMINISTRATION COUNCIL.) IN HONG KONG IT WAS A MATTER OF COMMENT THAT THE REDS HAVE BEEN SO SLOW IN REPLYING TO RECOGNITION BY COUNTRIES OUTSIDE THE SOVIET SPHERE THAT THEY AT LEAST DON'T BOTHER WITH THE COURTESIES OF DIPLOMACY.

THERE IS NO QUESTION THAT BRITISH AND AMERICAN FRICTION OVER RED CHINA HAS BEEN BUILDING UP IN THESE PARTS FOR SOME MONTHS. MANY AMERICANS BELIEVE THE BRITISH ARE COMPROMISING ON PRINCIPLE FOR THE SAKE OF TRADE. IT MUST BE NOTED, HOWEVER, THAT MANY AMERICAN BUSINESSMEN HERE WANT RECOGNITION FOR EXACTLY THE SAME REASON THE BRITISH DO--TO OPEN UP TRADE.

THERE ARE MANY DIVISIONS OF OPINION ON ALL SIDES, AND THE REDS CAN BE EXPECTED TO TRY TO MAKE THE MOST OF THEM.

TRADERS ARE HOPEFUL THAT THE BRITISH NAVY WILL ESCORT MERCHANT SHIPS INTO SHANGHAI AND CRACK THE NATIONALIST BLOCKADE, BUT THE NAVY CANNOT DO MUCH ALONG THOSE LINES UNLESS THE REDS WAIVE THEIR BAN AGAINST FOREIGN WARSHIPS IN TERRITORIAL WATERS.

ANOTHER BIG HOPE IS THAT SERVICE CAN BE RESUMED ON THE HONG KONG-CANTON RAILWAY AS A TRADE OUTLET.

ANCHORAGES HERE ARE CROWDED WITH IDLE SHIPS AND WAREHOUSES ARE JAMMED WITH MERCHANDISE. IF THERE IS NOT A BIG TRADE RESUMPTION SOON, HONG KONG IS GOING TO FEEL BADLY LET DOWN.

CHINESE GOVERNMENT AND SEMI-GOVERNMENT BANKS IN HONG KONG ARE EXPECTING A TAKE-OVER BY THE REDS, BUT THEY DO NOT KNOW WHEN OR HOW. NO AUTHORIZED COMMUNIST OFFICIAL HAS APPEARED.

MEANWHILE, AIR AND SEA TRAVEL BETWEEN HONG KONG AND FORMOSA CONTINUED WITHOUT INTERRUPTION DESPITE SEVERANCE OF RELATIONS BETWEEN BRITAIN AND THE NATIONALISTS AND CLOSURE OF THE NATIONALIST COMMISSIONER'S OFFICE IN HONG KONG.

INDUSTRY INVESTIGATION HE CONDUCTED FOR THE COMMITTEE LAST SUMMER.

AT LEAST TWO MINES--ONE IN WEST VIRGINIA AND ANOTHER IN PENNSYLVANIA--REPORTED THEIR OVERNIGHT SHIFTS HAD REPORTED.

THE WORK STOPPAGE SEEMS AIMED AT CERTAIN KEY COMPANIES, AMONG THEM BIG PITTSBURGH CONSOLIDATION COAL, WORLD'S LARGEST COMMERCIAL PRODUCER OF SOFT COAL.

PITTSBURGH CONSOLIDATION IS HEADED BY GEORGE H. LOVE. IT IS LOVE WHO HAS BEEN LEADING OPERATOR OPPOSITION TO DEMANDS OF JOHN L.LEWIS FOR A NEW CONTRACT EMBODYING A 95-CENT DAY WAGE INCREASE AND A 15-CENT TONNAGE BOOST IN ROYALTIES PAID TO THE UMW'S HEALTH AND WELFARE FUND.

THE FIRST REPORTED WORK STOPPAGE TONIGHT CAME FROM WEST VIRGINIA WHERE THE NIGHT SHIFT OF 75 MEN FAILED TO REPORT AT THE RIVESVILLE MINE OF THE CONSOLIDATION COAL COMPANY. AN OFFICIAL OF THE MINE SAID A SIGN "NO CONTRACT, NO WORK" WAS POSTED BY THE UNION AT THE MINE.

UNION OFFICIALS COULD NOT BE REACHED FOR COMMENT.

SHORTLY AFTER THE WEST VIRGINIA ACTION, THE NIGHT SHIFT OF 250 MEN FAILED TO SHOW UP AT THE ISABELLA MINE OF WEIRTON COAL COMPANY NEAR UNIONTOWN, PA. THE COMPANY IS A SUBSIDIARY OF WEIRTON STEEL COMPANY AND IS CONSIDERED A CAPTIVE MINE. IT EMPLOYES 1050 MEN.

PITTSBURGH CONSOLIDATION EMPLOYS ABOUT 4,000 IN WESTERN PENNSYLVANIA AND ANOTHER 8,000 IN WEST VIRGINIA, OHIO AND KENTUCKY.

THERE WERE UNCONFIRMED REPORTS A WORK STOPPAGE MIGHT RESULT AGAINST THE H.C.FRICK COKE COMPANY, A SUBSIDIARY OF U.S. STEEL. IT EMPLOYS 10,000 MINERS IN WESTERN PENNSYLVANIA AND HAS NO SUNDAY NIGHT SHIFTS.

THE WALKOUT--SIMILAR TO ONE WHICH IDLED 16,000 UMW MEMBERS IN ILLINOIS LAST WEEK-BEGAN AT FIVE WEST VIRGINIA PITS OF BIG PITTSBURGH CONSOLIDATION COAL COMPANY.

THERE IS NO INDICATION OF AN IMMEDIATE NATIONWIDE WALKOUT WHICH WOULD HIT ALL OF JOHN L.LEWIS' 480,000 DUESPAYERS.

THE SUDDEN WORK STOPPAGE CAME ONLY A FEW HOURS AFTER SENATOR ROBERTSON (D-VA) ANNOUNCED HE WILL URGE THAT CONGRESS MAKE LABOR UNIONS SUBJECT TO THE ANTI-TRUST LAWS IN CERTAIN CASES.

(ADVANCE)..LAKE SUCCESS, JAN. 4-(AP)-A UNITED NATIONS SURVEY SAYES EUROPEAN NATIONS ARE DEVOTING SO MUCH CAPITAL TO BUILDING UP STEEL INDUSTRIES THAT THE CONTINENT MAY HAVE AN UNMARKETABLE SURPLUS O 8,000,000 TONS IN 1953.

JAN 9 - 1950

THE STUDY WAS PREPARED BY THE STEEL DIVISION OF THE U.N. ECONOMIC COMMISSION FOR EUROPE. IT WAS MADE PUBLIC SIMULTANEOUSLY TONIGHT AT THE COMMISSION'S HEADQUARTERS IN GENEVA AND HERE.

THE STUDY POINTS OUT THAT IF THE INDIVIDUAL STEEL PRODUCTION PLANS OF EUROPEAN COUNTRIES, EXCLUDING THE SOVIET UNION, ARE ADDED TOGETHER, A TOTAL PRODUCTION OF 70,000,000 TONS WILL BE REACHED IN 1953.

THE SURVEY ESTIMATES EUROPE'S MAXIMUM STEEL CONSUMPTION IN 1953 WILL BE 58,000,000 TONS AND THE CONTINENT CAN COUNT ON BEING ABLE TO EXPORT ONLY ABOUT 4,000,000 TONS OVERSEAS.

UNITED STATES STEEL PRODUCTION IN 1949 AMOUNTED TO 77,500,000 TONS -- ABOUT 10,000,000 TONS UNDER THE 1948 TOTAL. THE DECREASE WAS DUE LARGELY TO PRODUCTION LOSSES RESULTING FROM THE SIX-WEEKS STEEL STRIKE.

JAN 9 - 1950

THE U.N. SURVEY POINTED OUT THERE IS A GROWING TENDENCY FOR INDIVIDUAL EUROPEAN COUNTRIES TO SEEK SELF-SUFFICIENCY IN STEEL. EVEN SMALL NATIONS HAVE BEEN TEMPTED TO BUILD UP NATIONAL AND FREQUENTLY UNECOMOMIC STEEL INDUSTRIES PROTECTED BY TARIFFS AND OTHER ARTIFICIAL BARRIERS, THE STUDY SAID.

FROM A LONG-TERM POINT OF VIEW SUCH MEASURES ARE UNREALISTIC

AND ARE LIKELY TO CREATE CONDITIONS DETRIMENTAL TO EUROPEAN ECONOMY, THE SURVEY SAID. THE REPORT EXPLAINED IT COSTS BETWEEN $200,000,000 (M) AND $300,000,000 (M) TO CONSTRUCT NEW STEEL PLANT FACILITIES IN EUROPE CAPABLE OF PRODUCING 1,000,000 TONS A YEAR.

A CONSIDERABLE AMOUNT OF THE MONEY SPENT OR TO BE SPENT TO INCREASE EUROPE'S STEEL PRODUCTION COULD BE BETTER INVESTED IN MORE PRODUCTIVE FIELDS, PARTICULARLY IN THE DEVELOPMENT OF STEEL CONSUMING INDUSTRIES, THE SURVEY CONCLUDED.

British Parley Seeks Ways To Avert War, Combat Reds

COLOMBO, Ceylon, Jan. 9 (AP)—The British commonwealth foreign ministers' conference opened today and at once grappled with the need to strengthen economic bulwarks against communism in Asia.

The meeting of eight commonwealth ministers is expected to last 10 days. Oustanding on the agenda are the problems of how to avert a third world war and halt the spread of communism. The conference will take up the Chinese situation and the Japanese peace treaty problem.

"While it is appropriate that the problems of Asia should be the main subjects for discussion," a conference communique said, "it is recognized these problems are of concern to all commonwealth countries.

"Vital issues of world politics can no longer be divided between those of the east and those of the west. Recent history has emphasized the interconnection of the two hemispheres.

Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru of India told the conference that economic and social difficulties advanced communism and the best way to defeat it in Asia was to build up the prosperity of Asiatic peoples.

He said the tactics used in fighting the cold war in Europe were not applicable to Asia, adding that the Chinese communists hal fulfilled to some extent the demands of the Chinese people for social justice.

D. S. Senanayake, Ceylon's premier and foreign minister, who was chosen permanent chairman, said the commonwealth had acquired an entirely new influence in Asia where "some of the gravest international problems of the day were presenting themselves in their most acute form."

British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin, in an hour-long address opening the conference, reviewed relations with the Soviet Union, steps needed to strengthen European stability and security and the importance of the Atlantic Pact.

One delegate called Bevin's speech "a very general review which came to no conclusions."

Canada Cites Defence Needs

Lester Pearson, Canada's external affairs minister, said the inability of the United Nations to protect against the menace of aggression had made it necessary for Canada and other North Atlantic countires to build up a defense system.

This, he said, did not mean weakening of Canada's support of the United Nations or of Canada's interest in other parts of the world.

An informed source said possible topics of discussion in connection with southeast Asian problems included the question of a commonwealth loan to Burma of £25,000,000 ($70,000,000).

The economic section of the conference began the compilation of statistics on each commonwealth country's dollar earnings and expenditures. The figures will be used to get a picture of the overall dollar position of the sterling area.

Nehru Offering Plan To Beat Asia Reds

JAN 10 1950

Colombo, Ceylon, Jan. 9 (AP)—Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru of India told the British Commonwealth Conference today the best way to defeat communism in Asia is to build up the prosperity of Asiatic peoples.

Nehru spoke at the opening session of a conference of the Foreign Ministers of eight British Commonwealth nations. The conference is dedicated to exploring means of averting a third world war and stopping the spread of communism.

Nehru, whose Government has recognized the conquest of China by the Communists, told the opening session the Chinese Reds had fulfilled to some extent the demands of the Chinese people for social justice.

Review By Bevin

He repeated statements he recently made that the tactics used in fighting the cold war in Europe could not be applied to Asia.

Ernest Bevin, British Foreign Secretary, began the conference with a review of the present international situation, a communiqué announced. He spoke for more than an hour, giving what a delegate called a "very general review which came to no conclusions." He reviewed commonwealth relations with the Soviet Union, steps needed to strengthen European stability and security, and the role of the Atlantic pact in Europe.

The conference aims were outlined by Philip Noel-Baker, British Commonwealth Minister, as the delegates assembled before a statue of Queen Victoria, under whose reign the British Empire reached the peak of its power.

Jap Peace Settlement

Other delegates said a peace settlement with Japan would be among the major subjects on the agenda.

The Foreign Ministers met in Ceylon's Senate Building. Bevin, who had suffered a mild heart attack just before leaving London, told other delegates he was feeling well now.

Bevin walked slowly up the flight of steps to the conference room, pausing at the landing. He was not assisted. Conference attachés previously had planned to have the bulky trade-union veteran carried by Ceylonese bearers up the steps in a sedan chair.

Agenda Completed

Commonwealth nations at the conference are the United Kingdom, Canada, Australia, New Zealand, India, Pakistan, Ceylon and the Union of South Africa.

At the short opening session this morning the ministers completed their agenda and agreed on procedure to be followed. An informed source said discussions would begin later today, but no details were announced. A communique was to be issued tonight.

The source said the Ministers also might discuss the Marshall plan and the reconstruction of Europe.

Ceylon's Premier and Foreign Minister, D. S. Senanayake, was named permanent chairman of the conference after being nominated by Nehru. Bevin seconded the nomination.

The Ceylonese Prime Minister in his opening address noted a shift in commonwealth interest to Asia. He said the commonwealth's fundamental problems were economic, including the raising of Asia's standard of living.

Lester Pearson, Canada's External Affairs Minister, said his country, being close to the United States, had many views similar to those of the United States. But Canada, he declared, was not under United States domination.

The economic group meanwhile began making a complete estimate of the Commonwealth's dollar earnings and expenditures, to be used as a basis for further discussions.

Chinese Detaining Ship Shelled 30 To 40 Times

JAN 10 1950

Wayne Richardson boarded the American freighter Flying Arrow bound for Shanghai on the first leg of a homeward journey. He is the only newsman on board.

By Wayne Richardson

Aboard the American Freighter Flying Arrow, Jan. 9 (AP)—A Chinese Nationalist gunboat shelled and seriously damaged this blockade-running American freighter in international waters off the Yangtze River mouth today.

Capt. David Jones estimated his ship was hit 30 to 40 times and declared she was rendered unseaworthy.

Jones said he was asking his owners, the Isbrandtsen Line, of New York, to have the State Department intercede to permit safe passage for repairs to the nearest port—Communist Shanghai, which is the ship's destination.

14 Steering-Room Hits

Jones said fourteen of the hits were in the steering room and some were only 4 inches above the waterline. Some holes were 2 to 4 inches in diameter.

The attack started this morning when the Flying Arrow was estimated to be 22 miles offshore. Captain Jones later placed the distance at 19 miles.

There were no casualties among the crew of 43 and 12 passengers.

Chinese Nationalist gunboats, blockading Red-held Shanghai, stood guard over the Flying Arrow after the shelling.

Unseaworthy, Captain Says

Captain Jones pronounced the ship no longer seaworthy after inspecting the shell holes. Some large ones were just above the waterline.

[The Black Swan, a British sloop which went to rescue of the shelled freighter, radioed navy headquarters in Hong Kong that the fire aboard the Flying Arrow was out and the freighter no longer required the warship's presence.

[The message indicated the Flying Arrow was in no immediate danger and that the Black Swan was resuming its regular patrol.

[The [illegible] the British sloop wou[illegible]ition to give the Flying Arrow any aid she might need unless the freighter tried to run into the Yangtze, in which case the American ship would be on her own.

Doubts Damage Is Serious

[The Isbrandtsen agent in Hong Kong said his information did not indicate the Flying Arrow was damaged seriously by fire. Stern holds were loaded with baled cotton, rubber and caustic soda, none of which is highly inflammable.

[The agent expressed surprise at the report from the ship quoting the captain as saying the ship was no longer seaworthy.]

Warnings Reported Ignored

[From Taipei, Formosa, Chinese Nationalist naval headquarters announced that their warships detained the American freighter after the shelling. A naval spokesman said the Chinese opened fire when the Flying Arrow ignored warnings to halt.]

Numerous fires were started aboard. Sailors from Black Swan boarded the Flying Arrow and helped the crew put out the fires.

Part of the ship's $10,000,000 cargo loaded in Hong Kong was dumped overboard when it caught fire.

[In New York, H. J. Isbrandtsen, president of the line, called for protection of the Flying Arrow by United States naval units. He said the shelling of the ship was "entirely unlawful, according to international law."

["According to standing naval regulations," Isbrandtsen said, "the United States Navy should protect American vessels on the high seas and I hope it will be done in this case."]

Most Of Shelling On High Seas

Most of the shelling took place on the high seas outside Chinese territorial waters.

Captain Jones said afterward:

"We were 19 miles from the nearest land and were anchoring in international waters when we were attacked unexpectedly by a Chinese gunboat.

"They blinkered that mines were being laid. At the time of my anchoring they signaled: 'You must not enter.'

Shelling Starts

"Shortly thereafter they started pumping shells into and over the ship.

"We saw shells going over the bridge and passenger cabins, plopping into the water on the other side, some very close.

"Even three short blasts on the steam whistle signifying my engines were going full astern did not stop them from firing."

"I was somewhat disappointed in not hearing from any American naval ships after I sent urgent calls to American and British ships that the afterdeck was afire and we needed help," Captain Jones said.

Before the Black Swan departed she signaled the Flying Arrow that she understood that the Nationalists had laid twenty mines in the Yangtze.

Followed By 2 Ships

Two Chinese Nationalist destroyer escorts followed the vessel from the time she passed through Formosa Strait on her northward trip from Hong Kong. They fired at least 38 shells at the vessel before they scored a hit, but once their gunners got the range they poured shots into her. Afterdeck houses and the water tank were riddled by other shells.

The ship dropped anchor two miles off the mouth of the Yangtze River, main entrance to Shanghai's harbor. The Nationalists say they have mined the river's mouth, but it may be possible the Communists in Shanghai have swept away the mines.

Fires Break Out

Fires broke out first on the ship's afterdeck. Then cargo in the No. 5 hold blazed up.

The Chinese attack started shortly after the 6,214-ton vessel arrived in international waters off the mouth of the Yangtze.

JAN 10 195

The Flying Arrow was the fourth Isbrandtsen ship shelled by the Nationalists as they tried to run the blockade. The Flying Trader was fired on October 15, but escaped undamaged. The Flying Cloud was shelled November 15 and the Sir John Franklin on November 28. Both were hit.

Another Slated To Sail

[In Hong Kong, a fifth Isbrandtsen ship, the Brooklyn Heights, is scheduled to sail for Shanghai on Wednesday. She carries a crew of 42.]

Eleven American members of the Flying Arrow's crew left the ship in Hong Kong rather than risk the trip to Shanghai. Additional crewmen, most of them British, were taken on. The ship's twelve passengers included seven women who are returning to Shanghai.

When today's attack began Captain Jones radioed all American and British warships in the area: "Fire on afterdeck by Chinese warship."

SHELLED VESSEL ASKS FOR U.S. AID

'Arrow' Seeks Safe Passage to Nearest Chinese Port

By WAYNE RICHARDSON

ABOARD THE AMERICAN FREIGHTER FLYING ARROW, Jan. 9. — (AP) Extensively damaged by 30 to 40 shells from a Chinese nationalist gunboat, this American blockade-runner lay at anchor tonight in international waters off the approach to the communist port of Shanghai.

The nationalist naval vessel continued to stand guard nearby.

Capt. David Jones, 31, declared the Flying Arrow was unseaworthy and demanded that the U. S. State Department take steps to provide safe passage into the nearest port for repairs, in accord with international practice for disabled ships.

Nearest Port Is Shanghai

The nearest port is Shanghai, for which this ship sailed early Saturday from Hong Kong in defiance of the nationalist naval blockade and the danger of mines.

Jones declared the attack occurred 19 miles off shore, clearly outside territorial waters.

None of the crew of 43, including this correspondent, and the 12 passengers, including seven women, was injured.

The Flying Arrow, however, was hit in many places and set afire.

Thirty-eight rounds were fired before a hit was scored. Many hits followed. First hits were in the steering gear house and Number 5 hold. Fire began quickly in the cargo of cotton, rubber and caustic soda. Another fire broke out on the after deck.

Captain Jones, a determined, stocky, 246-pounder from Chicago, estimated the number of shell hits at 30 to 40. He said 14 were in the after steering gear house. Some, two or four inches in diameter, were only four inches above the waterline. One machine gun bullet pierced the American flag flying on the taffrail.

There was no estimate of the size of the shells which penetrated the hull. Passengers picked up numerous shell fragments from the decks as souvenirs.

(A nationalist navy spokesman in Taipei, Formosa, said the shelling was done by the gunboat Wuling. Such a ship usually is armed with no more than 3-inch guns, plus smaller six-pounders and machine guns.

(The nationalist spokesman declared the shelling was intended only to disable the Flying Arrow to save her from complete destruction by blundering into mines planted in the Yangtze estuary. He added that the Flying Arrow was being "detained" and that "trade-crazy merchants should learn a good lesson.")

"Lies", Ship Co. Head Says

(Isbrandtsen said he had sent messages to President Truman and to the secretaries of defense and navy asking "immediate U. S. naval aid." He asserted the ship's position was 31.04 north latitude, 122.15 east longitude, and that this was 19 1-2 miles from the nearest land.

((The United States government takes the attitude that the nationalists are violating international law in trying to blockade Shanghai and in firing on American ships. However, it has refused previous Isbrandtsen demands for a naval escort, and the State Department has warned American captains they risk loss of their licenses by going into a "zone of danger.")

FORMOSA DEFENDS SHELLING U. S. SHIP

Gunboat Fired on Flying Arrow to 'Save Her' From Mines, Nationalist Navy Says

JAN 10 1950

30 TO 40 HITS REPORTED

Vessel Thought Unseaworthy by Captain—British Sloop Tells of Yangtze Hazard

TAIPEI, Formosa, Jan. 9 (AP)—A Chinese Nationalist Navy spokesman declared tonight that the gunboat Wuling had fired on the American freighter Flying Arrow 'to save her from complete destruction" in a Nationalist mine field at the mouth of the Yangtze River.

The spokesman said the shelling had been intended only to disable the ship after she had ignored orders to halt and warning shots.

Naval headquarters said the Flying Arrow was being "detained" off the Yangtze's mouth.

[Capt. David Jones of the Flying Arrow asserted that he had been anchoring in international waters nineteen miles off shore when the gunboat opened fire. The captain also said his ship was unseaworthy after the attack.]

The Navy spokesman insisted that the Flying Arrow would inevitably have struck a mine and gone down with great loss of life if she had not been stopped. He said this incident should prove that the Nationalists were not bluffing in their "port closure" of the Communist coast.

"Trade-crazy merchants should learn a good lesson," said a source in close touch with the highest Nationalist quarters.

Conferred With Chiang

Admiral Kwei Yung-ching, commander in chief of the Nationalist Navy, conferred yesterday with Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek, and the action against the Flying Arrow undoubtedly was approved by top Nationalist quarters.

It was regarded in this Nationalist capital as a test case, foreshadowing similar action against British merchantmen if they should attempt to trade with Communist Shanghai.

Replying to questions from The Associated Press today, Admiral Kwei clearly indicated that the Nationalists intended to continue what they call the "port closure" at all costs.

The incident was discussed during the afternoon by Admiral Kwei and the United States chargé d'affaires, Robert Strong.

Sterling Nations' Trade Due Cut By Britain

London, Jan. 9 (AP)—Sir Stafford Cripps warned Britain's pound sterling war creditors today he is going to slow down paying them off in exports in 1950.

The reason, he told a news conference, is that Britain must send more goods to dollar countries in order to survive.

At the end of the war, Britain owed £3,200,000,000 ($8,960,000,000) to other nations for goods and services during World War II.

It has been paying them in what it calls "unrequited exports"—that is, exports to meet debts instead of to bring in cash.

Export Value Up

In a review of British economic affairs for 1949, Cripps said British imports totaled £2,273,000,000 ($6,364,400,000), against exports of £1,785,000,000 ($4,998,000,000), up 13 per cent by value from 1948.

This left the nation with a trade deficit for the year of £429,000,000 ($1,201,200,000), hardly better than the £432,000,000 ($1,209,600,000) deficit of 1948. Said Cripps:

"It is the volume of 'unrequited exports' . . . that we want to diminish so that we can divert more of our exports to the hard currency and particularly the dollar countries. Indeed, that we must do.

Another Viewpoint

"But there is another important side to this picture.

"These resources have been made available, many of them to countries urgently in need of assistance in their postwar reconstruction.

"Unless we had provided this help, we should undoubtedly have seen an ever greater spread of communism.

"What are 'unrequited exports' to us are immensely valuable supporting imports to countries threatened by the cold war.

"Difficulties Overcome"

"These have helped to enable them, despite all their difficulties, to withstand the onslaught of that cold war and to build up their own production.

"But we have now reached a stage where we must go slower whether we wish it or not, for the sake of preserving our own strength and ability to help."

No Standard Rate Adopted

Britain has not adopted any standard rate for reducing balances by export of goods.

Egypt, one of the big creditors, has been permitted to spend around £100,000,000 ($280,000,000) of the £400,000,000 ($1,120,000,000) credit it had built up during the war.

Other creditors have been able to spend in a greater or lesser proportion, depending on various trade and economic factors.

CRIPPS ASKS NEW DOLLAR PARLEYS WITH U. S., CANADA

LONDON, Jan. 9—(AP) Sir Stafford Cripps made a bid today for new dollar talks with Canada and the United States.

The chancellor of the exchequer also told a news conference Britain is going to shave down the rate at which she is paying off her war debts in goods. He said Britain needs to sell the goods in dollar countries.

The two points, made in a 16-page economic review of the past year and in a question and answer session with reporters, may be connected.

Debt Frozen

At the end of the war Britain owed her important creditors 3,200,000,000 pounds ($8,960,000,000) for goods and services. She froze the debt and has been paying them off in what she calls "unrequited exports"—goods instead of cash to meet debts.

Each year she makes an agreement with each creditor freeing some of the debt for payment of imports from Britain.

But the practice has eaten into the supply of goods available for export for dollars. Some American economic experts have suggested that Britain cut or completely freeze the debts. Britain, however, regards the debts as a good way of assuring continued trade with her creditors.

On the other hand there have been suggestions that the U. S. assume some of the obligations, particularly in the Far East, perhaps in the form of a "Little Marshall Plan."

Cripps met with U. S. Treasury Secretary John W. Snyder and Canadian Finance Minister Douglas Abbott in Washington last September. Shortly after that meeting he announced devaluation of the pound from $4.03 to $2.80.

He said today he hoped another meeting "will not be long delayed" on Britain's dollar shortage problem because "this is a continuing study."

He said the unrequited exports had been "immensely valuable in supporting imports to countries threatened by the cold war."

"Unless we had provided this help," he added, "we should undoubtedly have seen an even greater spread of communism."

"But we have now reached a stage where we must go slower whether we wish it or not for the sake of preserving our own strength and ability to help."

Smith College Swiss Branch Trains Spies, Moscow Charges

JAN 10 1950

Geneva, Switzerland, Jan. 9 (AP)—Moscow's spy hunt has reached Geneva and the Swiss branch of Smith College for Women.

The Swiss press reported today Moscow Radio has charged that there is a nest of fledgling spies in the Hotel de Russie here. Moscow Radio was quoted as saying the American girls from the Northampton (Mass.) college are being trained here for spy work in the Communist countries of East Europe.

A large group of Smith girls are at the Hotel de Russie, while they study in this center of international affairs. They are chaperoned by a member of the college faculty.

IRO Official Puzzled

The Moscow broadcast said the girls are here under the auspices of the United States Army, to be "sent to the people's democracies by the International Refugee Organization which also has its seat in Geneva."

"This organization," the broadcast was quoted, "is the cover for the espionage system, and its employés have the job of establishing contact with enemies of the people's democracies and the U.S.S.R."

J. Donald Kingsley, director general of the International Refugee Organization, was puzzled. The allegations about IRO, he said, were "too ridiculous and patently untruthful to be dignified by refutation."

"However," Kingsley added, "as a one-time educator I am inclined to think that Radio Moscow has unwittingly made a valuable contribution to the education in world affairs of the Smith College girls."

The hotel said the girls, who occupy two floors, are in Austria at the moment on a skiing trip.

"They don't act at all like spies," an official said.

Fantasy, Smith Head Says

Northampton, Mass, Jan. 9 (AP)—"Fantasy" was the way the head of Smith College characterized a Russian charge t' at girls from the college were being trained as spies in Switzerland.

Benjamin Fletcher Wright, president, declined comment other than to say "an amusingly ingenious fantasy but with no foundation in fact."

The college news office said the group is one of four abroad.

Finns Hold 20 On Russia's War Crimes Charge

Act on Suspects Believed on Most-Wanted List After New Attacks in Red Press

HELSINKI, Jan. 9 (AP).—Finland has detained more than twenty persons for questioning in connection with Soviet charges that 300 war criminals are hiding in Finland, it was disclosed today. Those detained were suspected of being among the fifty-six most wanted in Russia.

The disclosure followed a concerted blast in the Communist press here and in Moscow against Finland's President, Juho Paasikivi, and Premier Karl Fagerholm's Social Democratic government. It came on the eve of a special session of Parliament to consider a Trade Union Federation demand for a 10 per cent wage increase.

Hertta Kuusinen, prominent woman Communist leader, in an article here accused President Paasikivi, a Social Democrat, of being pro-Hitler during the war and of harboring "a negative attitude" toward the 1948 Russo-Finnish friendship treaty.

Moscow's "Pravda" renewed charges made in the Soviet note handed to the Finnish Ambassador on New Year's Eve, that Finland is violating the treaty and also the peace treaty of 1947 by secreting war criminals.

"Pravda" said this was "intolerable," and added that the Finnish government was providing the broadest opportunity for "various distortions" of Russia's complaint by not publishing the text of the note, or the Russian list of fifty-six persons alleged to be guilty of the "most serious" crimes.

For the first time, "Pravda" gave some of the names of alleged German spies and Soviet war criminals declared to be living here under Finnish names and "false documents."

It was reported here that the citizenship of some of the fifty-six is unclear. In the five years since the end of the war, some have become Finnish citizens by legal procedure.

A Finnish courier returned here only Friday night with the text of the Soviet note. The cabled version had been garbled in transmission. Premier Fagerholm said today a Finnish answer will be delivered as soon as all the government departments have made an investigation of the Soviet list.

Russian Election Set For March 12

Moscow, Jan. 9 (AP)—An election will be held throughout Russia Sunday, March 12, for members of the Supreme Soviet of the U.S.S.R., the Russian Parliament.

An announcement tonight said the election is being held in conformity with the Soviet constitution. The last election for the Supreme Soviet was February 9, 1946.

Prime Minister Stalin is expected to be a candidate again from the Stalin district of Moscow and to participate personally in the election campaign.

In the past more than 99 per cent of the voters have been casting their ballots for candidates of the Communist and nonparty Bolshevik bloc. This year, as previously, it is obvious this bloc will win overwhelmingly.

Some Western economic observers believe that when the Supreme Soviet meets—probably sometime in April—it will consider the Soviet state budget for 1950, normally presented to the legislative body.

The election campaign will be on a tremendous scale and will serve to propagandize the views of the Communist party on internal and foreign policies and to mobilize public opinion in the nation behind the Government.

RED CHINA REPLIES TO BRITISH OFFER

Is Willing to Negotiate on Diplomatic Relations, Cryptic Note Says

HONG KONG, (Tuesday) Jan. 10 (AP)—Communist China has offered to negotiate with Britain for the opening of diplomatic relations, the official Chinese red news agency said today.

The New China News Agency said Chou En-lai, red premier and foreign minister, had replied to the British recognition offer, made Friday.

It said Chou expressed Chinese communist willingness to establish diplomatic relations on a basis of equality, mutual benefit and respect for territorial sovereignty.

Red China also accepted Ceylon's offer of recognition.

The brief agency dispatch released here said Chou accepted the nomination of J. C. Hutchinson as Britain's charge d'affaires to negotiate establishment of diplomatic relations between the London and Peiping governments. Hutchinson is British commercial minister in Nanking.

In reply to Ceylon's note of recognition, Chou expressed hope Ceylon would send representatives to Peiping to carry out negotiations.

Russ Offer To Repatriate More Japs

Tokyo, Jan. 9 (AP)—Russia today voluntarily offered to repatriate 2,500 more Japanese prisoners of war.

The surprise offer came after Allied occupation officials had asked the Russians for an accounting of 376,000 Japanese prisoners of war which Western powers say are still in Russian hands. The Russians had said they held only 10,000 more, that they were war criminals and would not be sent home. They have repatriated more than 1,000,000 Japanese prisoners.

William Sebald, head of the diplomatic section at General MacArthur's headquarters, announced the Russian offer.

The Russians recently walked out of two Allied Council sessions rather than discuss repatriation.

See Jessup on Japan Business

TOKYO, Jan. 9 (AP).—The American business community here today called on Ambassador at Large Philip C. Jessup for more State Department help on economic affairs. At a meeting from which newsmen were excluded a a State Department "suggestion, Dr. Jessup was told the British and Dutch are "aggressively helping" their business men to obtain trade advantages.

Silver Flown to Formosa

MANILA, Jan. 9 (AP). — The Phillippine Bank of Communications announced today that 15,000,000 Chinese silver dollars, placed in its vaults for safekeeping, have been safely flown to the Chinese Nationalists on Formosa. The coins originally were shipped from the United States.

Israel to Acknowledge Peiping

TEL AVIV, Israel, Jan. 9 (AP)—The Israeli Government announced it would recognize the Chinese Communist Government today. Recognition also would be accorded the United States of Indonesia, the announcement said.

345,169 Emigrate to Israel

TEL AVIV, Jan. 9 (AP).—The Jewish Agency announced today that 345,169 immigrants have arrived in Israel since the state was proclaimed May 15, 1948. Of these, 243,547 came in 1949.

PAKISTAN WARNS AFGHANS

Sees 'Dangers' in Neighbor's 'Rash Policy' on Pathans

KARACHI, Pakistan, Jan. 9 (AP) —Premier Liaqat Ali Khan threatened today to sharpen the quarrel with his Moslem neighbor, Afghanistan, over the wild Northwest Frontier region.

He said recent reports of the formation of a separate government by Pathan tribesmen in the area had been a "pure invention" and a "figment of the imagination" of some Afghanistans.

Pakistan claims most of the Pathan territory.

"While the Government of Pakistan is willing to establish friendly relations with the Afghan Government, it cannot be expected forever to continue pleading for friendship," he said. "The Pakistan Government has drawn the attention of the Afghan Government to the dangers inherent in their rash policy."

He added that Afghan propaganda against Pakistan had been causing "mischief."

Israel Pact Stands, Says Cairo

CAIRO, Jan. 9 (AP)—The Egyptian Foreign Ministry said today the armistice agreement between Egypt and Israel "will remain in force until a just and final solution of the Palestine question is reached." Cairo newspapers had reported that Egypt considered the armistice would expire Feb. 15, 1950, and Egyptian armies would be free to resume operations after that date.

Truman, Ferguson Discuss China

Washington, Jan. 9 (AP)—President Truman talked over his China policy today with one of its sharpest congressional critics, Senator Ferguson (R., Mich.). Ferguson left the White House saying he was "enlightened," but had not changed his views.

Secretary of State Acheson sat in on the 45-minute conference. Ferguson had asked for the talks.

Ferguson would not reveal any details of the discussion, but indicated that he would make a Senate speech later this week on foreign policy.

Favors Advice By Americans

He said he thinks American officers should be permitted to give military advice to the Chinese Nationalists on Formosa, acting as individuals paid by Chiang Kai-shek's Government.

In the Senate, meantime, Senator Smith (R., N.J.) made a speech attacking the Administration's "hand-off" policy toward Formosa as "no policy at all but an admission of defeat."

Smith said the United States ought to establish joint occupation authority with Chinese Nationalists over Formosa.

Senators To Hear Acheson

In an atmosphere of criticism of the Administration's handling of the China and Formosa problems, Acheson goes before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee tomorrow for a report on worldwide international affairs.

Even before Acheson's appearance, Smith said he would demand in the Senate that Acheson carry with him to Capitol Hill "a clear articulation of policy for southeastern Asia."

Smith added that he wants the whole Senate, and not just Foreign Relations Committee members, to have as detailed a report as possible on Acheson's views.

ndonesia Seeks U. S. Loan

First Diplomatic Envoy of New State Presents Credentials

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9 (AP).—The first diplomatic envoy of the new republic of Indonesia, Dr. Soemitro Djojohadikusumo, today presented his credentials to Secretary of State Dean Acheson.

Dr. Soemitro, who will hold the rank of charge d'affairs, told reporters that his government's Minister of Economic Affairs will arrive next week to present a formal application for a loan from the United States Export-Import Bank. "We will not ask for the moon," he said. "But Indonesia does need financial help from the United States to develop food production and transportation facilities."

War Seen Possible If ECA Ends

Washington, Jan. 9 (AP)—Economic Co-operation Administrator Paul G. Hoffman said today European recovery has been so successful that one of its main threats now is the danger that the United States will consider the job done.

The ultimate result of such a decision here, he said, might be war.

Commenting that Russia has sought to create chaos in western Europe, Hoffman told the Women's National Democratic Club in a prepared address:

"Today, despite all that Russia could do to prevent it, I think I can say that our program is ahead of schedule."

Paradox Cited

However, he added, "the success of the Marshall plan's first 21 months has been such that now, paradoxically, one of the greatest dangers to its long-term success is that this country will consider the job done. Or nearly enough done to permit us to relax our efforts and reduce our aid too drastically."

A large part of the remaining task, Hoffman said, rests with Europe. He urged the European nations to drop barriers to trade with each other, commenting that "economic integration for western Europe is no longer an ideal. It is a practical necessity."

Tangible Proof Needed

He also said Europe "must give her people tangible proof that democracy means something more than freedom to see your children hungry."

Something also must be done in this country, the ECA chief declared.

"Time after time in other years," he said, "we have tried to handle our foreign commitments with halfway measures. It should be, by now, wholly clear that only failure and its follower war can result from such efforts at a cheap solution."

Nationalist Violation Seen

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9 (AP).—The United States contends that the Chinese Nationalists are violating international law both in trying to keep foreign vessels out of Shanghai and in firing upon American ships.

The Administration, however, has refrained from backing its position with force, at a time when the Nationalists have their backs to the wall. The Navy has refused to furnish armed escorts for American ships headed for the Communist-held port, and the State Department has warned them to keep away from the area as a "zone of danger."

Recognizing the Nationalists as the legal government of China, the United States has never challenged their right to halt American or other foreign shipping in Chinese territorial waters. However, international law and precedent give the right to halt shipping on the high seas only to nations which declare and enforce an effective blockade as a war measure.

One issue, therefore, is whether American ships were in territorial waters when shelled. The Chinese have contended th tatheir waters extended only three miles from shore, but that the line is difficult to determine at the mouth of the Yangtze River.

Isbrandtsen Asks Naval Aid

Hans J. Isbrandsten, president of the Isbrandsten Steamship Company, said at New York yesterday that the Flying Arrow was being anchored nineteen and one-half miles offshore, on the "high seas," when she was shelled by a Chinese Nationalist gunboat.

He said Captain David Jones radioed that his ship was on a line between Yangtze Cape and Nelson Cape at latitude 31.04 north, longitude 122.15 east.

Mr. Isbrandsten, whose company owns the Flying Arrow, said he had sent a message to President Truman and the Secretaries of Defense and the Navy giving the position where the attack occurred and asking "immediate United States naval aid."

He denounced as "complete lies" a Chinese report from Formosa that the Nationalist gunboat fired on the Flying Arrow to prevent it from entering a minefield. He also said the ship could not be anchored two miles offshore (within territorial waters) because of shallow water.

[A dispatch from the Flying Arrow soon after the shelling said it occurred when the ship had reached a point two miles off the mouth of the Yangtze River, which leads to Shanghai.]

French Sale Of Wheat To Holland Is Disclosed

Deal May Peril U.S. Dollar Aid To Buy More American Grain This Year

JAN 10 1950

Washington, Jan. 9 (AP)—The Economic Co-Operation Administration reported tonight that France, which received millions of United States dollars last year to buy grain, recently sold $2,500,000 worth of wheat to Holland.

Dr. Dennis A. Fitzgerald, ECA's director of food and agriculture, confirmed the fact that the sale had been made and said the recovery agency takes a "dim view" of the transaction.

But he and other ECA officials said there was nothing illegal about the sale of some 30,000 tons of French wheat. Fitzgerald said ECA does not intend to cut off all dollar aid to France because of the deal. He commented, however, that the agency might be reluctant to finance further wheat purchases.

Fitzgerald said he believes the grain came from France's 1949 bumper wheat crop. He said ECA has given France no funds to buy wheat since early July, when the 1949 crop was harvested.

Dim View Taken

"However, we take a dim view of the matter since the French did not notify us of their intention to make the deal, and since there is a possibility that France may find it necessary to ask for more dollars later this year to buy grain before the 1950 harvest is in," he said.

Rumors of the deals cropped up today in the Chicago grain-trading pits. These trade reports said that France had been—or soon would be — cut off from Marshall-plan funds allotted to buy wheat in the United States.

Fitzgerald and other high-ranking ECA officials said the sale involved about 1,100,000 bushels, or some 30,000 tons, and was valued at approximately $2,500,000.

He emphasized that this country does not consider the sale a "breach of faith."

ECA records show that prior to late June of last year more than $30,000,000 in Marshall-plan dollars had been advanced to France to finance bread-grain purchases. In the twenty-month history of the European Recovery Program a total of $78,954,000 has been earmarked for France to buy the so-called bread grains—wheat, flour and rye.

No Punitive Action Yet

Paul G. Hoffman, ECA administrator, would not comment on the transaction, but aides said he would instruct American officials overseas to examine the situation.

"We haven't taken any punitive action or made any threats to cut off aid for French grain purchases," Fitzgerald told a reporter.

JAN 10 1950

ECA's mission in Paris, another official said, has taken the question up with French officials "because they did not clear the transaction and because they don't know if they will need more wheat this crop year or not."

Despite statements that ECA plans no action against the French as a result of the deals, Fitzgerald said the agency will "find it difficult to make future dollars available" to France for wheat purchases.

Wife of Mao Captive Asks State Dept. Aid

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—Mrs. Elmer C. Bender of Chicago, appealed personally to the State Department today to help free her husband, a U.S. naval flier held by Chinese Communists for more than 14 months.

Mrs. Bender called on Michael J. McDermott, State Department specialist in Chinese affairs to seek official aid for her husband and another naval flier held with him.

Bender, along with William C. Smith of Long Beach, Cal., disappeared on a flight from Tsingtao Oct. 19, 1948. Not until last Dec. 1 was the State Department able to obtain even a preliminary report on the missing men. At that time, the Chinese Communist alien affairs bureau in Tsingtao said Bender and Smith were safe and well at a large Communist military base just outside of Tsingtao.

U.S. And Canadian Troops Open Alaskan 'Defense'

Chicago, Jan. 9 (AP)—United States troops drove northward today to join Canadians in repelling a theoretical airborne invasion of Alaska.

They are taking part in "Exercise Sweetbriar," the greatest in a series of cold-weather maneuvers held since the end of World War II.

Almost 4,000 Canadians and Yanks will buck icy gales and possible snow blindness. They'll drive their trucks and guns over frozen ground in the frigid land of gold—the Yukon Territory—where the average January temperature is 20 degrees below zero, and sometimes 70 below.

The "aggressors" in possession or Northway, Alaska, are specially trained GI's from the Alaska Command.

Alcan Highway "Attack"

They will try to push down the Alcan highway in an "attack" on Canada. The road is a vital surface life line to Alaska.

The mission of the combined Canadian-American command will be to smash the "enemy" striking force before it consolidates near tiny Burwash Landing.

The United States Air Force and the Royal Canadian Air Force will be combined for the operation. Before the exercise ends—in late February—a 3,000-mile air lift will have been carried out. It will be the longest mass air lift of the United States forces ready to fight in history.

The "battle" will involve 3,700 Americans and Canadians.

Planes Being Loaded

Today, while Canadians are deployed in a holding operation, 5th Army airborne troops are stowing winter combat gear aboard planes. They will take off tomorrow from Peterson Air Force Base, near Camp Carson, Col.

Meanwhile, four United States columns of winterized vehicles moved northwestward to cut down the "enemy."

U.S. WITNESS ADMITS LIES IN BRIDGES CASE

Drops 30 Years' Mask To Reveal Identity As Immigrant

San Francisco, Jan. 9 (AP)—Lawrence Seton Ross, a key prosecution witness in the Harry Bridges perjury trial, abandoned a 30-year masquerade today.

Quoting from the Bible, the 46-year-old managing editor of the Cotton Trade Journal in Memphis and self-styled former Communist admitted from the witness stand he had lied about his name, his origin and his schooling. He owned up to other misstatements as well.

His real name, he said, was Rosenstein. He was born not in Kentucky but in West Poland. With his mother, sister and brother, he followed his father, a garment worker, to this country in 1910.

He insisted, however, everything he said about Bridges was true.

The Australia-born longshore leader is charged with perjury in denying, in obtaining United States citizenship in 1945, that he was or even had been a member of the Communist party.

Had To "Face Facts"

Ross testified he had seen Bridges at three meetings open to Communists only; and that, as "Comrade Rossi," the defendant had been elected to the party's National Central Committee in New York in 1936.

James MacInnis, of the Bridges legal staff, said out of court the defense, "of course," will seek a perjury indictment against Ross.

"Frankly, however," he added, "we do not have much expectation that the Government will present the case to the grand jury."

Prosecution attorneys saw no reason for grand jury action. Ross' "statement of correction and revision," they said, did not affect material facts or his testimony regarding Bridges.

The dark-haired witness told the judge and jury in a hushed Federal court that he concluded Friday night he would have to "face the facts."

Quotes Bible Passage

"I asked for help from a higher judge than presides in this court, and I had the answer," he said, and he quoted a Bible passage: "Commit thy works unto the Lord and He shall establish thy thoughts."

Ross presumably finished his testimony Friday. He wanted to leave for Memphis. Objections came from MacInnis, who hinted he was digging into the witness' identity. Shown a telegram by MacInnis, United States District Judge George B. Harris ordered Ross to remain.

Both Ross and E. Joseph Donohue, chief prosecutor, denied that the Government knew, before Saturday, the facts which Donohue asked the ex-Communist to relate at court opening today.

Even Wife Didn't Know

In fact, Ross declared, not even his present wife knew who he really was. He said she and their two young children started East by car Friday because "I wanted them out of town when I made these disclosures."

He said he told his wife to telephone him tonight and he would try to get a plane to meet her.

"For 30 years," he testified, "I have used no name but Lawrence Seton Ross. I did not change my name to hide anything. My name was Rosenstein. I Americanized this when I was 16—possibly 17. That was also the reason for adopting Kentucky as my native state.

"As to my father, his name was and is Bernard Rosenstein. He was a member of the International Garment Workers' Union.

"When I asked you about that the other day, you lied?" MacInnis asked.

"That is correct."

Sought To Protect Status

Ross said he masked his identity to protect his present marriage and also because:

"I wished to protect my status in the community. It is a Southern community. I knew I had lied to the court and I had lied to the Government and I had to decide whether to try and brazen it out and stick to the lies or purge myself once and for all."

Question—Didn't you tell us under oath several days ago that you had stopped deceiving people?

Answer—Well, that became my real identity. Self-justification is so easy.

Q.—You knew when you asked to be excused from further testimony Friday that the liberty of three men on trial was involved but if the court would have allowed you to go, you would have gone away?

A.—I'm afraid so, but my testimony was right about those men.

Big-Scale 'TVA' 'Unsound' For Middle East

Lake Success, Jan. 9 (AP)—A special United Nations' mission today described as unsound and premature all proposals for immediate large-scale development of river basins in the Middle East.

This was one of the major findings in the final report of the United Nations Economic Survey Mission, headed by Gordon R. Clapp, board chairman of TVA.

Instead of little TVA's on such rivers as the Jordan, Tigris and Euphrates, the mission recommended calling for "pilot demonstration" projects.

It was recalled that President Truman had envisioned projects which would reconvert the Tigris and Euphrates valleys into a Garden of Eden.

"Region Not Ready"

"The region is not ready, the projects are not ready, the people and governments are not ready, for large-scale development of the region's basic-river systems or major undeveloped land areas," the report said.

The mission recommended "pilot" projects—one each in Hashemite Jordan, Arab Palestine, Syria and Lebanon. Each is intended to develop a small area or locality and is so planned that it may later be incorporated into larger development plans.

The Mission recommended the Middle East concentrate on improving agricultural production and in advancing technical research before trying major industrial projects.

"Basically the area is, and for a long time to come will remain, agricultural," the report said. "The first requirement for the area is to equip itself to feed its own peoples and to provide exports to other lands, by these means paying for imports of those manufactured goods necessary to modernize agriculture and raising the very low standard of life to which the mass of the people are now forced down."

Voluntary Contributions

To help promote the recommended research, the Mission suggested that a $10,000,000 fund be raised by voluntary contributions of interested countries. This would be in addition to $54,900,000 the 1949 General Assembly voted for Middle East work and relief during the next eighteen months.

The mission recommended that each of the Middle East countries set up a national development board to supervise research and technical training and to plan balanced economic development.

Other conclusions and proposals:

1. That peace and stability cannot be achieved in the Middle East until the masses of its peoples are able to enjoy a higher standard of living than at present.

2. That the path to a higher standard of living for the population of the Middle East is a long one.

3. That some of the Middle East countries, particularly Israel and Jordan, cannot individually achieve Western standards of living without economic ties in the adjacent geographis areas or without outside aid to make up the natural deficiencies in those countries.

Belief In Possibility

The mission expressed the belief that it is possible over a long period of time to restore the Middle East to its ancient position of world prominence, "but all cannot be done at once."

The mission made a preliminary report to the General Assembly last November. It was on this report that the Assembly decided to set up a Middle East works program to care for the estimated 900,000 Arab refugees who fled the Palestine fighting.

In addition to Clapp, other members of the mission were Sir Desmond Morton, of Britain; Erik Labonne, of France, and H. Cemil Gokcen, of Turkey.

RUSSIA LOSES UN SKIRMISH ON CHINESE ISSUE

LAKE SUCCESS, Jan. 9—(AP) Russia campaigned without success today against the seating of nationalist Chinese delegates in two small committees of the United Nations.

No formal challenge was made, and it appeared the Soviet Union still is laying the groundwork for a real contest when and if the Chinese Reds send a delegation to Lake Success.

In brief statements, Soviet delegates said the nationalist Chinese on the committee on procedure of the Economic and Social Council and on the sub-commission on prevention of discrimination and protection of minorities do not represent China.

The nationalists stood their grounds and the groups went on to other matters when the Russians did not follow through with a challenge.

UN delegates and officials, meanwhile, followed with interest reports on the shelling of the American freighter Flying Arrow by nationalist warships off communist Shanghai. So far no one has injected this latest ship incident into the Chinese question here.

Another tense round of Soviet-Nationalist China sparring on the diplomatic front is expected tomorrow in the Security Council meeting starting at 3 p. m. (EST). This is the first council session of 1950, and the chairman is T. F. Tsiang, chief nationalist delegate to the UN. He will preside during January under the council's system of rotating the post monthly.

Diplomatic sources predicted Jakob A. Malik, Soviet deputy foreign minister, will contend in the council once more that Tsiang represents no one but himself. Malik also may state that he does not recognize Tsiang as chairman. Tsiang is said to be ready to put any challenge to a vote, but Malik may delay his challenge until he is sure of majority support.

GUBITCHEV LOSES PLEA FOR IMMUNITY

Judge Rules He Never Acted As Diplomat In U.S.

JAN 10 1950

New York, Jan. 9 (AP)—Federal Judge Sylvester J. Ryan ruled today there is no diplomatic bar to Valentin A. Gubitchev's trial on spy conspiracy charges.

"I have found as a fact that he never acted in a diplomatic character in the United States," said the court.

The former United Nations engineer claimed diplomatic immunity when he was arrested with Judith Coplon last March 4.

JAN 10 1950

Gubitchev, a Russian, and the Brooklyn-born Miss Coplon, in a series of pretrial hearings are fighting to escape trial on charges of conspiring to transmit United States secrets to Russia.

Acheson Quoted On Visa

Abraham L. Pomerantz, attorney for Gubitchev, argued that his Soviet client entered the United States with a diplomatic visa as third secretary of the Russian delegation to the United Nations.

The Government quoted Dean Acheson, Secretary of State, that such a visa was valid for only a year and never was renewed.

Moreover, Acheson said, Gubitchev ceased to be a Russian United Nations delegate when he took a job as an engineer with the United Nations.

Judge Ryan's ruling removed one road-block in the way of the trial of Gubitchev and Miss Coplon.

Wire-Tap Ruling Due

However, he still has to rule on whether the Government bases its case against the couple solely on evidence obtained by wire-tapping.

The FBI has admitted tapping the wires of Miss Coplon and Gubitchev. However, the Government insists this is only a small part of its evidence against the pair. Wire-tap evidence is not admissible in Federal court.

Said Judge Ryan, in part:

"Diplomatic status is a political question and a matter of state; the finding of the Secretary of State must be accepted unquestioned."

CHINESE REDS

LONDON, JAN.9-(AP)-COMMUNIST CHINA IS STAKING OUT CLAIMS ON THE LAST HOLDINGS OF CHIANG KAI-SHEK'S TOTTERING NATIONALIST GOVERNMENT--FORMOSA, HAINAN, TIBET AND THE CHINESE SEAT IN THE UNITED NATIONS.

RED CHINA'S NEWS AGENCY IN A RADIO DISPATCH LAST NIGHT SAID FOREIGN MINISTER CHOU EN-LAI HAD TELEGRAPHED U.N. OFFICIALS DEMANDING EXPULSION OF THE CHINESE NATIONALIST REPRESENTATIVE FROM THE SECURITY COUNCIL.

PROMISE OF FUTURE ASSAULTS BY CHINESE REDS ON THE TWO NATIONALIST ISLANDS OF FORMOSA AND HAINAN, AND ON THE MOUNTAIN FASTNESS OF TIBET, WERE MADE BY PRAVDA AND IZVESTIA, THE TWO BIGGEST OFFICIAL NEWSPAPERS IN MOSCOW. THE CHINESE COMMUNIST GOVERNMENT'S LEADER, MAO TZE-TUNG, IS IN THE SOVIET CAPITAL CONFERRING WITH KREMLIN LEADERS.

SIMULTANEOUSLY IZVESTIA, THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT NEWSPAPER, CHARGED THE UNITED STATES WITH "AGGRESSIVE INTENTIONS" TOWARDS FORMOSA AND HAINAN. THE COMMUNIST PARTY ORGAN, PRAVDA, SAID AMERICA WAS CONTINUING TO GIVE MILITARY HELP TO CHIANG KAI-SHEK AND WAS PLANNING TO STRENGTHEN NATIONALIST MILITARY BASES ON THE TWO ISLANDS.

CHOU'S TELEGRAM, ACCORDING TO THE PEIPING NEW CHINA NEWS AGENCY, SAID THE CHINESE COMMUNIST GOVERNMENT "HOLDS AS ILLEGAL THE PRESENCE OF THE DELEGATES OF THE CHINESE KUOMINTANG REACTIONARY CLIQUE IN THE SECURITY COUNCIL."

JAN 10 1950

AT LAKE SUCCESS A SPOKESMAN FOR THE UNITED NATIONS SAID THE NOTE HAD NOT BEEN RECEIVED YET AT U.N. HEADQUARTERS. THE SECURITY COUNCIL IS SCHEDULED TO HOLD ITS FIRST 1950 MEETING TOMORROW WITH CHINESE NATIONALIST DELEGATE T.F.TSIANG AS COUNCIL CHAIRMAN FOR THE MONTH.

RUSSIA'S IZVESTIA FORECAST THE RENEWED TERRITORIAL DRIVE BY THE SOVIETS' CHINESE ALLY WITH A STATEMENT THAT "THE PEOPLE'S DEMOCRATIC GOVERNMENT OF CHINA X X X IS DETERMINED TO FREE ALL CHINESE TERRITORY INCLUDING FORMOSA, HAINAN AND TIBET."

IN A SIMILAR EDITORIAL PRAVDA SAID IT WAS "CLEAR AS DAYLIGHT" THAT THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS ARE "FULLY RESOLVED TO LIBERATE ALL CHINESE TERRITORY," INCLUDING THE TWO ISLANDS AND TIBET.

THE NATIONALISTS ALREADY HAVE REPORTED UNSUCCESSFUL COMMUNIST ATTEMPTS AT AMPHIBIOUS ASSAULTS ON HAINAN, THE LARGE ISLAND JUST OFF THE SOUTH CHINA COAST AND 300 MILES SOUTHWEST OF HONG KONG.

ISOLATED TIBET, WHICH IS BORDERED BY CHINA, BURMA, INDIA AND THE DISPUTED PRINCELY STATE OF KASHMIR, RECENTLY WAS DESCRIBED BY THE AMERICAN RADIO COMMENTATOR LOWELL THOMAS, AFTER A VISIT THERE, AS THE "MOST ANTI-COMMUNIST COUNTRY IN THE WORLD."

RULED BY BUDDHIST MONKS, OR LAMAS, THE COUNTRY IS SLIGHTLY BIGGER THAN TEXAS, OKLAHOMA AND NEW MEXICO. ITS RUGGED TERRAIN, INACCESSIBILITY HIGH IN THE HIMALAYAS AND ALOOFNESS TO FOREIGNERS HAS KEPT IT REMOTE FROM MODERN LIFE. ITS RULER, THE DALAI LAMA, IS A 15-YEAR-OLD CHINESE MONK SUPPOSED TO BE THE 14TH INCARNATION OF BUDDHA.

A CONTENDER FOR HIS POSITION, THE 12-YEAR-OLD PANCHEN LAMA, APPARENTLY WAS CAPTURED BY THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS LAST SEPTEMBER WHEN THEY OVERRAN THE MONASTERY IN NORTHWEST CHINA WHERE HE WAS LIVING IN EXILE.

THE COMMUNIST RADIO AT PEIPING LAST NOVEMBER SAID THE PANCHEN LAMA HAD APPEALED TO THE CHINESE RED ARMY TO "LIBERATE TIBET."

CHINA SINCE THE 17TH CENTURY HAS CLAIMED SOVEREIGNTY OVER TIBET BUT THE COUNTRY HAS BEEN SELF-GOVERNING FOR ALL PRACTICAL PURPOSES.

the peer was the marquis of salisbury who wrote a letter to the times of london protesting that british recognition of red china would likely have an unfortunate effect on american public opinion.

"the importance of a common front with the united states should outweigh all other considerations," he wrote.

LONDON, JAN.9-(AP)-INFORMED SOURCES SAID TODAY TWO RANKING OFFICIALS IN THE CHINESE COMMUNIST FOREIGN MINISTRY HAD GIVEN A "COURTEOUS" RECEPTION LAST FRIDAY TO THE MAN WHO DELIVERED BRITAIN'S NOTE OF RECOGNITION OF THE RED REGIME.

WHILE THE REDS HAVE NOT YET ANSWERED THE NOTE, THESE SOURCES SAID, THE DELAY IS NEITHER UNEXPECTED NOR ABNORMAL.

THEY EXPRESSED THE VIEW THAT CHOU EN-LAI, THE COMMUNIST PRIME MINISTER, WOULD LIKE TO CONFER WITH MAO TZE-TUNG, THE RED LEADER WHO IS NOW IN MOSCOW, BEFORE OFFICIALLY REACTING TO THE BRITISH NOTE.

A BRITISH FOREIGN OFFICE SPOKESMAN TOLD A NEWS CONFERENCE THE TWO OFFICIALS WHO RECEIVED W.G.C. GRAHAM, BRITISH CONSUL-GENERAL IN PEIPING, WERE WANG PING NAN, DIRECTOR OF THE GENERAL DEPARTMENT,

AND HUAN HSIANG, DIRECTOR OF THE WEST EUROPEAN AND AFRICA DEPARTMENTS OF THE COMMUNIST FOREIGN MINISTRY.

AS TO WHETHER BRITAIN WILL CONTINUE TRADING WITH CHINESE FIRMS OPERATING IN FORMOSA OR OTHER AREAS STILL CONTROLLED BY NATIONALIST AUTHORITIES, FROM WHOM DIPLOMATIC RECOGNITION WAS WITHDRAWN, THE SPOKESMAN SAID:

"BRITAIN WILL TRADE WITH ANY FIRMS, WHATEVER THEIR POLITICAL COMPLEXION."

LONDON, JAN. 9-(AP)-THE ADMIRALTY SAID TODAY THE ROYAL NAVY SLOOP BLACK SWAN WAS BELIEVED "STANDING BY" THE CRIPPLED U.S. FREIGHTER FLYING ARROW IN THE MOUTH OF THE YANGTZE RIVER.

AN ADMIRALTY SPOKESMAN SAID THE BLACK SWAN WENT TO THE AID OF THE FREIGHTER "ON HUMANITARIAN GROUNDS" WHEN IT WAS SHELLED AND SET AFIRE TODAY BY BLOCKADING CHINESE NATIONALIST DESTROYERS OFF THE CHINA COAST.

ROYAL NAVY MEN HELPED PUT OUT THE FIRE, HE SAID.

THE SPOKESMAN SAID THE INCIDENT OCCURRED OUTSIDE THE THREE-MILE LIMIT OF CHINESE TERRITORIAL WATERS AND THE BLACK SWAN WAS NOT TAKING SIDES IN THE SKIRMISH.

REPORTS REACHING THE ADMIRALTY HERE SO FAR, THE SPOKESMAN SAID, DID NOT DISCLOSE WHETHER THE FLYING ARROW WAS BEING HELD UNDER GUARD OF NATIONALIST DESTROYERS AS STATED AT NATIONALIST HEADQUARTERS ON FORMOSA.

"WE HAVE THE IMPRESSION," THE SPOKESMAN SAID, "THAT BOTH THE BLACK SWAN AND THE FLYING ARROW ARE STILL LYING OUTSIDE THE THREE MILE LIMIT."

THE ADMIRALTY SAID THE BLACK SWAN IS COMMANDED BY CAPT. A.D.H. JAY.

--DASH--

A REPORT FROM ASSOCIATED PRESS CORRESPONDENT WAYNE RICHARDSON, ABOARD THE FLYING ARROW, SAID CHINESE NATIONALIST GUNBOATS WERE STANDING GUARD OVER THE FREIGHTER. HE SAID THE FLYING ARROW HAD ANCHORED TWO MILES OFF THE MOUTH OF THE YANGTZE RIVER.

THIRTY SIX HOURS AFTER HE SAID THE BLAST OCCURRED, THERE WAS NO SUPPORTING EVIDENCE FROM ANY OTHER SOURCE.

SEISMOGRAPHS--THE GADGETS THAT RECORD THE JAR OF EARTHQUAKES--MIGHT OR MIGHT NOT RECORD A BIG ATOM BLAST. NONE WAS KNOWN TO HAVE BEEN JARRED.

DE COURCY, EDITOR OF THE MONTHLY "INTELLIGENCE DIGEST" AND A FORMER INTELLIGENCE OPERATIVE, PREDICTED RUSSIA'S FIRST ATOM BLAST. LAST WEEK HE SAID THERE WOULD BE ANOTHER AT MIDNIGHT SATURDAY IN THE SOVIET ASIATIC REPUBLIC OF KAZAK.

JUST AFTER MIDNIGHT KAZAKH TIME SATURDAY, HE SAID THE EXPLOSION CAME OFF AS HE SAID IT WOULD. IT WAS DETECTED, HE SAID, ON THE RIGHT SIDE OF THE IRON CURTAIN "BY AN ADVANCE METHOD OF WHICH THE RUSSIANS ARE BELIEVED TO HAVE NO KNOWLEDGE."

DE COURCY SAID THE EXPLOSION CAME JUST AFTER MIDNIGHT, KAZAKH (CORRECT) TIME. PREVIOUSLY HE HAD SAID THE EXPLOSION HAD BEEN SET FOR MIDNIGHT GREENWICH MEAN TIME, OR THREE HOURS EARLIER. THE EXPLOSION IN KAZAKH, BIG REPUBLIC BORDERING THE CASPIAN SEA ON THE NORTHEAST, WAS DETECTED ON THE WESTERN SIDE OF THE IRON CURTAIN "BY AN ADVANCE METHOD OF WHICH THE RUSSIANS ARE BELIEVED TO HAVE NO KNOWLEDGE," THE EDITOR ADDED.

THE 40-YEAR-OLD EDITOR SAYS HE HAS AGENTS IN SEVERAL COUNTRIES, INCLUDING THOSE IN THE RUSSIAN SPHERE.

HE SAID TODAY HE WAS AWAITING FURTHER DETAILS OF SATURDAY'S BLAST. HE REITERATED THAT HE HAD POSITIVE PROOF THAT IT HAD HAPPENED.

THERE IS A SEISMOGRAPH IN NEW DELHI. THIS IS THE NEAREST ONE TO KAZAK OUTSIDE THE IRON CURTAIN AREA. IT DIDN'T JIGGLE SATURDAY NIGHT.

1. EXPORTS ARE ABOUT 10 PER CENT HIGHER FOR 1949, BUT THE RISE CONCEALS A SHARP DROP IN THE SECOND AND THIRD QUARTERS. ABOUT HALF OF THE DROP IN THE SECOND QUARTER WAS BECAUSE OF LOWER SALES TO THE U.S.

2. THE BUDGET DEFICIT FOR THE FIRST THREE QUARTERS OF THE 1949-50 YEAR IS 34,000,000 POUNDS ($95,200,000). BUT CRIPPS BELIEVES THERE WILL BE A 449,000,000 POUND ($1,257,200,000) SURPLUS AT THE END OF THE FISCAL YEAR MARCH 31.

MOST CHINESE ARE HASTENING TO JOIN THE PRO-COMMUNIST CAMP. A TYPICA EXAMPLE IS AN ANNOUNCEMENT BY PRO-RED EMPLOYES OF THE NATIONALISTS' CHINA NATIONAL AVIATION CORP. THEY SAID THEY WILL GO TO TIENTSIN TO RECEIVE COMMUNIST INDOCTRINATION.

CNAC PROPERTY HERE AND THAT OF ANOTHER NATIONALIST AIR LINE, CENTRAL AIR TRANSPORT CORP., ARE INVOLVED IN LITIGATION IN HONG KONG COURTS. THE REDS CLAIM IT. SO DOES RETIRED U.S. MAJ. GEN. CLAIRE L. CHENNAULT, WHO HAS BOUGHT THE TWO LINES.

HUTCHISON AND A.K. SEN, NEWLY APPOINTED CHARGE D'AFFAIRES FOR INDIA, ARE EXPECTED TO LEAVE NANKING FOR PEIPING SOON. SEN HAS BEEN FIRST SECRETARY OF THE INDIAN EMBASSY. THEY PROBABLY WILL TAKE THE TIENTSIN-PUKOW RAILROAD TO PEIPING FOR THE IMPENDING NEGOTIATIONS.

HUTCHISON WILL JOIN AN ALREADY FUNCTIONING STAFF IN PEIPING HEADED BY CONSUL GENERAL W.G.C. GRAHAM. GRAHAM CONDUCTED EXPLORATORY CONTACTS WITH THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS WHICH LED TO THE BRITISH OFFER OF RECOGNITION. INDIA HAS NO CONSULAR STAFF AT PEIPING.

BRITISH NEWSMEN IN HONG KONG ANXIOUSLY AWAITED RESULTS OF THE NEGOTIATIONS. ESTABLISHMENT OF DIPLOMATIC RELATIONS PRESUMABLY WOULD LEAD TO ADMISSION OF BRITISH CORRESPONDENTS TO RED CHINA.

ONLY RUSSIAN NEWSMEN AND CORRESPONDENTS OF OTHER COUNTRIES ALREADY HAVING DIPLOMATIC TIES WITH PEIPING ARE PERMITTED TO WORK IN RED CHINA.

ONE TOUCHY QUESTION THAT WILL ARISE IN THE TALKS BETWEEN THE CHINESE REDS AND THE BRITISH WILL BE THE STATUS OF HONG KONG.

THE NATIONALISTS HAD A REPRESENTATIVE HERE DESIGNATED AS SPECIAL COMMISSIONER FOR KWANGSI AND KWANGTUNG. THIS TITLE WAS GIVEN HIM BECAUSE THE NATIONALISTS REFUSED TO RECOGNIZE THIS BRITISH COLONY AS FOREIGN TERRITORY BY ACCREDITING A CONSUL GENERAL.

SHIPPING CIRCLES HERE ARE INTERESTED IN WHETHER THE BRITISH WILL ASK PERMISSION FOR THEIR WARSHIPS TO ESCORT MERCHANT SHIPS THROUGH THE NATIONALIST BLOCKADE OF THE RED CHINA COAST AND UP THE YANGTZE RIVER TO SHANGHAI.

THE REDS HAVE BANNED FOREIGN WARSHIPS FROM THE YANGTZE.

HONG KONG, TUESDAY, JAN.10-(AP)-RED CHINA HAS ACCEPTED CONDITIONALLY BRITAIN'S OFFER OF DIPLOMATIC RECOGNITION, THE OFFICIAL CHINESE COMMUNIST NEWS AGENCY SAID TODAY.

THE NEW CHINA NEWS AGENCY SAID CHOU EN-LAI, RED PREMIER AND FOREIGN MINISTER, HAD REPLIED TO THE BRITISH RECOGNITION OFFER, MADE FRIDAY.

IT SAID CHOU EXPRESSED CHINESE COMMUNIST WILLINGNESS TO ESTABLISH DIPLOMATIC RELATIONS ON A BASIS OF EQUALITY, MUTUAL BENEFIT AND RESPECT FOR TERRITORIAL SOVEREIGNTY.

RED CHINA ALSO ACCEPTED CEYLON'S OFFER OF RECOGNITION.

THE BRIEF AGENCY DISPATCH RELEASED HERE SAID CHOU ACCEPTED THE NOMINATION OF J. C. HUTCHISON AS BRITAIN'S CHARGE D'AFFAIRES TO NEGOTIATE ESTABLISHMENT OF DIPLOMATIC RELATIONS BETWEEN THE LONDON AND PEIPING GOVERNMENTS. HUTCHISON IS BRITISH COMMERCIAL MINISTER IN NANKING.

IN REPLY TO CEYLON'S NOTE OF RECOGNITION, CHOU EXPRESSED HOPE CEYLON WOULD SEND REPRESENTATIVES TO PEIPING TO CARRY OUT NEGOTIATIONS.

HONG KONG, JAN. 9-(AP)-SPECULATION WAS RIFE IN THIS BRITISH CROWN COLONY TODAY THAT CHINESE COMMUNISTS MIGHT TRY TO DO SOME BARGAINING ON EXISTING TREATIES WITH BRITAIN BEFORE ACCEPTING FULL BRITISH RECOGNITION OF THEIR REGIME.

THE COMMUNISTS MIGHT TRY TO ADJUST TREATIES AND AGREEMENTS WITH BRITAIN IN SUCH AS WAY AS TO WIDEN THE BREACH BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES AND BRITAIN ON THE FAR EAST.

(A FOREIGN OFFICE SPOKESMAN IN LONDON DECLINED COMMENT ON THE POSSIBILITY OF RED BARGAINING. HE SAID NO REPLY HAD BEEN RECEIVED FROM THE COMMUNISTS ON BRITAIN'S RECOGNITION. HE SAID COMMUNICATIONS WERE SLOW AND A DELAY OF SEVERAL DAYS WAS NOT UNEXPECTED.)

BRITONS HERE HAVE BEEN JITTERY OVER WHAT POSSIBLE TACK THE COMMUNISTS MAY TAKE ON HONG KONG ITSELF. THE ISLAND OF HONG KONG WAS CEDED TO GREAT BRITAIN IN 1841 AND ADJACENT KOWLOON PENINSULA IN 1860.

AN ADDITIONAL 355 SQUARE MILES OF THE MAINLAND WAS LEASED TO THE BRITISH UNTIL 1997.

THE COMMUNISTS HAVE BEEN SILENT ON THE SUBJECT BUT CHINESE NATIONALISTS AT THE END OF THE WAR WITH JAPAN STRONGLY URGED THE BRITISH TO RELINQUISH HONG KONG AND RESTORE IT TO CHINESE SOVERIGNTY.

BRITISH RECOGNITION TO THE RED REGIME WAS EXTENDED FRIDAY.

TAIPEI, FORMOSA, JAN. 9-(AP)-CHINESE SOLDIERS, ANGRY OVER BRITISH RECOGNITION OF THE CHINESE COMMUNIST GOVERNMENT, TRIED YESTERDAY TO HAUL DOWN THE BRITISH FLAG FROM THE CONSULATE AT TANSUI, A SEACOAST TOWN NORTHWEST OF TAIPEI.

THEY DID NOT SUCCEED. CONSUL EDWARD BRIGGS, 35, WHO HAS BEEN AT TANSUI FOR TWO YEARS, KEPT THE THREE SOLDIERS (ALL OF THEM ARMED) BUSY TALKING UNTIL NATIONALIST MILITARY POLICE ARRIVED. THEY PERSUADED THE TRIO TO LEAVE THE BRITISH COMPOUND.

THE CHINESE WERE ANGERED OVER BRITISH RECOGNITION OF THE CHINESE COMMUNIST REGIME.

BRIGGS SAID SIGNS HAD BEEN PAINTED ON THE COMPOUND WALLS. ONE OF THEM CALLED THE CONSULATE THE "BRITISH ZOO." ANOTHER SAID "EXPEL THE BRITISH BEASTS."

GEN. YANG LI-HSIN, PEACE PRESERVATION LEADER, SAID ANTI-BRITISH FEELING HAD BEEN HIGH IN TANSUI, WHERE THE BRITISH HAVE MAINTAINED A CONSUL SINCE 1861, SINCE LONDON RECOGNIZED THE REDS.

BOTH SOLDIERS AND CIVILIANS HAVE SHOWN ANGER TOWARD THE BRITISH, HE SAID. A DETAIL OF CIVIL AND NATIONALIST POLICE HAS BEEN ASSIGNED TO PROTECT THE CONSULATE.

BRITONS IN THE CONSULATE HAVE NOT BEEN VENTURING OUT.

"WE WILL DO EVERYTHING POSSIBLE TO PROTECT BRITISH LIVES AND PROPERTY IN FORMOSA," GENERAL YANG SAID AFTER THE INCIDENT.

GENERAL YANG SAID SOLDIERS AND CIVILIANS IN TANSUI FELT THE BRITISH HAD SOLD THEIR WARTIME ALLY DOWN THE RIVER BY RECOGNIZING THE COMMUNISTS.

HE SAID BOTH SOLDIERS AND CIVILIANS WANTED THE UNION JACK LOWERED AND THE NATIONALIST FLAG RAISED OVER THE COMPOUND.

ONE OF THE SOLDIERS WHO ENTERED THE COMPOUND YESTERDAY WAS A COMPANY COMMANDER.

TAIPEI, FORMOSA, JAN.9-(AP)-EDWARD BRIGGS, BRITISH CONSUL AT TANSUI, REPORTED TODAY THAT THREE CHINESE NATIONALIST SOLDIERS--ANGRY OVER BRITISH RECOGNITION OF THE COMMUNISTS--ATTEMPTED TO HAUL DOWN THE BRITISH FLAG OVER THE CONSULATE SUNDAY.

HE SAID WHILE HE WAS TALKING TO THE ARMED MEN, NATIONALIST MILITARY POLICE ARRIVED AND PERSUADED THEM TO LEAVE QUIETLY AND "THE FLAG IS STILL FLYING."

THE CONSULATE IS ON THE SEACOAST A HALF-HOUR'S DRIVE FROM THIS NATIONALIST CAPITAL.

JAN 10 1950

BRIGGS SAID SLOGANS HAD BEEN PAINTED ON THE CONSULATE GATE BUT HE DID NOT KNOW WHAT THEY SAID. GEN.YANG LI-HSIN, A TOP OFFICIAL OF THE FORMOSA PEACE PRESERVATION CORPS, TRANSLATED THEM AS READING "BRITISH ZOO," AND "EXPEL THE BRITISH BEASTS."

YANG SAID THAT AS A RESULT OF BRITISH RECOGNITION OF THE COMMUNISTS, FEELING HAD RUN HIGH AMONG TROOPS AND CIVILIANS IN TANSUI BUT DECLARED, "WE SHALL DO EVERYTHING POSSIBLE TO PROTECT BRITISH LIVES AND PROPERTY."

HE SAID HE HAD ASSIGNED FIVE MILITARY POLICEMEN AND 20 PLAINCLOTHES MEN TO PROTECT THE CONSULATE.

THE NATIONALIST AIR FORCE MEANWHILE REPORTED THAT ON SUNDAY ITS PLANES RAIDED SWATOW AND AMOY, MAINLAND PORTS OPPOSITE FORMOSA. IT SAID FOUR SHIPS WERE DAMAGED. OTHER RAIDERS, IDENTIFIED AS B-25'S, HIT THE CHEKIANG COAST AND THE FORMER NATIONALIST AIRBASE AT CANTON, HEADQUARTERS STATED.

(IN WASHINGTON THE STATE DEPARTMENT ASKED FOR A FULL AND QUICK ACCOUNT OF THE ENTIRE INCIDENT.)

IT WAS EXPECTED IN TAIPEI THAT ANY AMERICAN PROTEST WOULD BE BASED ON THE DANGER TO AMERICAN LIVES AND PROPERTY, RATHER THAN ON THE BLOCKADE ITSELF, WHICH THE UNITED STATES HAS NOT RECOGNIZED.

(IN HONG KONG THE AGENTS FOR THE ISBRANDTSEN LINE, OPERATORS OF THE FLYING ARROW, SAID ANOTHER ISBRANDTSEN SHIP, THE BROOKLYN HEIGHTS, WOULD SAIL AS SCHEDULED FOR SHANGHAI JAN.11 AND THAT ALL CREW MEMBERS WERE STAYING ABOARD.

TAIPEI, FORMOSA, MONDAY, JAN. 9-(AP)-NATIONALIST CHINA ANNOUNCED TODAY HER WARSHIPS DETAINED THE U. S. FREIGHTER FLYING ZRROW OFF THE MOUTH OF THE YANGTZE RIVER.

NAVAL HEADQUARTERS SAID THE SHIP WAS TAKEN INTO CUSTODY AFTER SHE WAS SHELLED AND DAMAGED THIS MORNING WHILE ATTEMPTING TO RUN THE NATIONALIST BLOCKADE OF CHINESE COMMUNIST PORTS.

A HEADQUARTERS SPOKESMAN SAID THE FLYING ARROW WAS SHELLED AFTER SHE IGNORED REPEATED WARNINGS TO HALT.

HE SAID A SHELL HIT THE AFT PART OF THE SHIP AND STARTED A FIRE. HE ADDED THE BLAZE APPARENTLY HAD BEEN PUT OUT.

THE FLYING ARROW IS LYING AT ANCHOR AND IS UNDER GUARD BY NATIONALIST SHIPS, HE ADDED.

TAIPEI, FORMOSA, JAN. 9-(AP)-U.S. CHARGE D'AFFAIRES ROBERT STRONG AND CHINESE NATIONALIST ADM. KWEI YUNG-CHING, TODAY INFORMALLY DISCUSSED THE SHELLING OF THE AMERICAN FREIGHTER FLYING ARROW BY NATIONALIST WARSHIPS.

THE ADMIRAL PAID A COURTESY CALL ON THE AMERICAN OFFICIAL JUST AFTER STRONG RECEIVED REPORTS OF THE SHELLING OFF THE CHINA MAINLAND.

KWEI, COMMANDER IN CHIEF OF THE NATIONALIST NAVY AND LEADING FIGURE IN THE BLOCKADE OF COMMUNIST HELD PORTS, SAID THE FLYING ARROW WAS LYING AT ANCHOR OFF THE MOUTH OF THE YANGTZE AT 1 P.M. LOCAL TIME (MIDNIGHT SUNDAY, EST).

IT WAS FELT HERE THAT ANY AMERICAN PROTEST ON THE INCIDENT WOULD BE BASED ON THE FACT AMERICAN LIVES AND PROPERTY WERE ENDANGERED. HOWEVER, THE U.S. STATE DEPARTMENT IS NOT EXPECTED TO TAKE ANY ACTION UNTIL IT HAS RECEIVED AND EVALUATED FULL REPORTS ON THE SHELLING.

ADMIRAL KWEI ANSWERED A LIST OF QUESTIONS SUBMITTED TO HIM BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS BEFORE THE INCIDENT. IN HIS ANSWERS HE MADE IT PLAIN THAT THE NATIONALISTS WERE DETERMINED TO INTERCEPT THE FLYING ARROW. IF SHE SUCCEEDED IN SLIPPING INTO SHANGHAI THEN NATIONALIST WARSHIPS PLANNED TO LIE IN WAIT FOR HER TO EMERGE FROM THE YANGTZE RIVER ON HER WAY OUT.

KWEI ADMITTED THAT THE BRITISH MIGHT INTERFERE WITH WHAT HE TERMED "OUR PORT-CLOSURE POLICY."

THIS WAS IN REPLY TO A QUESTION WHETHER HE THOUGHT THE BRITISH NAVY WOULD ESCORT BRITISH MERCHANTMEN TO BLOCKADED PORTS OR SWEEP NATIONALIST MINE FIELDS.

THE ADMIRAL SAID THE COMMUNISTS WERE BOUND TO FAIL IF THEY TRIED TO INVADE FORMOSA, LAST NATIONALIST STRONGHOLD. HE SAID LACK OF A NAVY AND AIR FORCE WOULD DOOM RED EFFORTS TO TAKE THE ISLAND. HE SAID THE BEST INVASION MONTHS FROM A WEATHER STANDPOINT WOULD BE APRIL AND JUNE.

TAIPEI, FORMOSA, JAN. 9-(AP)-A CHINESE NATIONALIST NAVY SPOKESMAN SAID TODAY A GUNBOAT FIRED ON THE AMERICAN FREIGHTER FLYING ARROW TO KEEP HER FROM ENTERING A MINE FIELD AND BEING BLOWN TO BITS.

THE SPOKESMAN SAID THE NATIONALIST GUNBOAT WULING FIRED FOR EFFECT ONLY AFTER REPEATED WARNING SHOTS AND SIGNALS FAILED TO BRING THE AMERICAN MERCHANTMAN TO A HALT OFF THE MOUTH OF THE YANGTZE RIVER.

THE NATIONALIST SPOKESMAN SAID THE GUNBOAT'S FIRE WAS INTENDED ONLY TO DISABLE THE FREIGHTER.

HE SAID THE FLYING ARROW WOULD HAVE STRUCK A MINE INEVITABLY AND FOUNDERED WITH POSSIBLE GREAT LOSS OF LIFE IF SHE HAD NOT STOPPED.

"THE WULING OPENED FIRE TO SAVE THE FLYING ARROW FROM COMPLETE DESTRUCTION," HE DECLARED.

NATIONALIST QUARTERS HERE SAID THE INCIDENT PROVED THAT REPEATED WARNINGS AGAINST SHIPS TRYING TO ENTER CHINESE COMMUNIST PORTS WAS NO BLUFF.

JAN 10 1950

"TRADE-CRAZY MERCHANTS SHOULD LEARN A GOOD LESSON," A SOURCE CLOSE TO HIGH NATIONALISTS COMMENTED.

THE GENERAL VIEW HERE IS THAT THE FLYING ARROW SERVED AS A TEST OF THE NATIONALIST BLOCKADE.

IT MAY FORESHADOW SIMILAR ACTION AGAINST BRITISH MERCHANTMEN WITH THE DESPERATE LAST DITCH NATIONALISTS READY TO GET INVOLVED IN A FIRST CLASS ROW WITH BRITAIN IF NECESSARY. BRITAIN HAS RECOGNIZED THE COMMUNIST REGIME IN CHINA.

THE FIRING ON THE FLYING ARROW EVIDENTLY WAS DISCUSSED IN HIGHEST QUARTERS HERE BEFORE THE INCIDENT OCCURRED.

TOKYO, JAN.9-(AP)-THE RUSSIANS CAME UP TODAY WITH AN UNEXPECTED OFFER TO REPATRIATE ANOTHER 2,500 JAPANESE WAR PRISONERS.

JAPANESE REPATRIATION OFFICIALS QUICKLY ANNOUNCED THEY WOULD SEND THE HOSPITAL SHIP TAKASAGO MARU TO NAKHODKA, SIBERIA, JAN. 16 TO RETURN WITH THE MEN JAN. 20.

THE RUSSIANS OFFER CAME AS A SURPRISE AFTER AMERICAN OCCUPATION OFFICIALS HAD PRESSED PROLONGED DEMANDS THAT THEY EITHER RETURN OR ACCOUNT FOR 376,000 PRISONERS STILL NOT REPATRIATED. IT IS PRESUMED THAT MANY OF THESE ARE DEAD.

THE RUSSIANS HAVE REFUSED TO ACCOUNT FOR THEM, HOWEVER, AND HAVE SAID THEY HAVE ONLY 10,000 REMAINING JAPANESE PRISONERS, ALL CLASSIFIED BY THEM AS "WAR CRIMINALS."

CAIRO, EGYPT,JAN.9-(AP)-COL.ADIB SHEISHAKLI, LEADER OF THE LATEST SYRIAN COUP, UNDERTOOK TODAY TO SWING HIS COUNTRY OVER TO THE SIDE OF EGYPT.

THE NEW SYRIAN CHIEF OF STAFF ARRIVED WITH TWO AIDES LAST NIGHT ON A SURPRISE VISIT, JUST THREE WEEKS AFTER UNSEATING GEN. SAMI HENNAWI, THE ARMY COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF. HENNAWI WAS SUSPECTED OF WANTING TO BRING ABOUT A UNION OF SYRIA AND IRAQ.

ONLY A FEW DAYS AGO EGYPT IN AN OFFICIAL STATEMENT WARNED IRAQ AND THE SISTER ARAB KINGDOM OF HASHEMITE JORDAN TO KEEP HANDS OFF SYRIA. EGYPT, THE LARGEST ARAB NATION IN THE MIDDLE EAST, IS STRONGLY OPPOSED TO SCHEMES TO ENLARGE OTHER ARAB KINGDOMS BY THE INCLUSION OF SYRIA.

SHEISHAKLI TOLD A REPORTER HE HOPED ON HIS TWO-DAY VISIT TO ARRANGE "A MORE INTIMATE MILITARY RELATIONSHIP WITH EGYPT." HE SAID HE ALSO INTENDED TO SUPPORT THE PROPOSED ARAB COLLECTIVE SECURITY PACT ADOPTED IN PRINCIPAL SEVERAL WEEKS AGO AT A MEETING OF THE ARAB LEAGUE.

EGYPT PROPOSED THE SECURITY PACT, BUT HENNAWI HAD LOOKED ON IT WITH DISFAVOR. RECENTLY KING ABDULLAH OF JORDAN DECLARED THE PACT HAD BEEN "POSTPONED."

(700) DISPLACED PERSONS

(ADVANCE) WASHINGTON,JAN 10-(AP)-SENATOR MC CARRAN (D-NEV) TONIGHT MADE PUBLIC TESTIMONY THAT EMPLOYES OF THE DISPLACED PERSONS COMMISSION WERE ORDERED TO ADMIT TO THIS COUNTRY EUROPEAN

MADE PUBLIC TESTIMONY THAT EMPLOYES OF THE DISPLACED PERSONS COMMISSION WERE ORDERED TO ADMIT TO THIS COUNTRY EUROPEAN REFUGEES WHOM THE ARMY REGARDED AS COMMUNISTS OR POSSIBLY COMMUNISTS.

THE TESTIMONY, TAKEN BY MC CARRAN IN GERMANY LAST OCTOBER, CAME FROM JOHN W.CUTLER, JR., WHO SAID HE WAS HIRED BY THE DP COMMISSION AS A "SELECTOR" OF REFUGEES TO BE BROUGHT TO THE UNITED STATES.

MC CARRAN RECENTLY RETURNED FROM EUROPE WHERE FOR SEVERAL WEEKS HE CONDUCTED A ONE-MAN INVESTIGATION OF THE DISPLACED PERSONS SITUATION. HIS TRIP WAS AUTHORIZED BY THE SENATE JUDICIARY COMMITTEE. MCCARRAN IS CHAIRMAN OF THE COMMITTEE.

THE NEVADA SENATOR IS A LEADER OF A SENATE GROUP WHICH OPPOSES PASSAGE OF A HOUSE-APPROVED BILL WHICH WOULD LIBERALIZE THE PRESENT DP LAW. THE SENATE SHELVED THE BILL LAST FALL AFTER MC CARRAN FILED A CABLED PROTEST AGAINST IT FROM EUROPE. AT THAT TIME THE SENATE INSTRUCTED ITS JUDICIARY COMMITTEE TO SEND SOME KIND OF A DP MEASURE BACK TO THE FLOOR BY JAN. 25.

IN A REPORT TO THE SENATE LAST WEEK ON HIS INVESTIGATION, MC CARRAN SAID THERE HAS BEEN A COMPLETE BREAKDOWN OF ADMINISTRATION OF THE REFUGEE PROGRAM. HE SAID HE FOUND A GREAT MANY CASES OF FRAUD AND PERJURY IN THE OPERATION OF THE PROGRAM.

MC CARRAN'S QUESTIONING OF CUTLER TOOK PLACE IN MUNICH, GERMANY. CUTLER IDENTIFIED HIMSELF AS AN AMERICAN CITIZEN, A NATIVE OF BOSTON, AND SAID HIS HOME IS IN NEW YORK. HE SAID HE WENT TO WORK FOR THE DISPLACED PERSONS COMMISSION LATE IN 1948, AND ADDED THAT HE HAD BEEN STATIONED IN BUTZBACH, FRANKFURT AND MUNICH, GERMANY.

CUTLER TESTIFIED THAT FREQUENTLY DP COMMISSION "SELECTORS" WERE ORDERED BY THEIR SUPERIORS TO CLEAR FOR ADMITTANCE TO THE UNITED STATES CERTAIN REFUGEES ABOUT WHOM THE ARMY COUNTER-INTELLIGENCE CORPS (CIC) HAD RAISED QUESTIONS.

"THESE SECURITY CASES," CUTLER DECLARED, "THERE WERE AT LEAST TWO IN WHICH THE CIC SAID, 'THIS MAN MAY HAVE BEEN IN AN ORGANIZATION HOSTILE TO THE UNITED STATES.' IN EACH CASE THAT MEANT HE MAY OR MAY NOT HAVE BEEN A COMMUNIST. THOSE WERE PASSED.

JAN 10

A111WX

"THERE WAS A CASE SENT BACK FROM FRANKFURT THAT THE CIC STATED HE WAS A COMMUNIST BUT, IN VIEW OF A LETTER THE APPLICANT HAD WRITTEN SAYING HE WAS NOT A COMMUNIST, THEY ORDERED US TO PASS THE CASE."

CUTLER SAID HE THOUGHT AT FIRST THE SITUATION HE DESCRIBED WAS "ALL MR.BASHEIM'S DOINGS, BUT I FOUND OUT HE WAS DOING THAT WITH THE BACKING OF FRANKFURT (DP COMMISSION HEADQUARTERS), AND THEY WERE RIGHT SOLID BEHIND HIM IN ALL THOSE CASES."

IN REPLY TO A QUESTION BY MC CARRAN, CUTLER IDENTIFIED BASHEIM (NO FIRST NAME GIVEN) AS THE DP COMMISSION SENIOR OFFICER AT BUTZBACH. THE WITNESS SAID HE FOUND THE SITUATION IN SOME OTHER AREAS WAS "VERY SIMILAR" AND THAT "THEY ALL DO THIS WITH THE VERY THOROUGH BACKING OF FRANKFURT."

CUTLER ADDED:

"THE WHOLE THING IS TO GET 205,000 PEOPLE THROUGH NO MATTER WHAT KIND OF PEOPLE, NO MATTER HOW, AND AS QUICKLY AS POSSIBLE."

THE LAW CONGRESS ENACTED IN 1948 AUTHORIZED ADMITTANCE OF 205,000 REFUGEES OVER THE NEXT TWO YEARS. THE BILL PASSED BY THE HOUSE LAST YEAR WOULD RAISE THE TOTAL TO 339,000 OVER THREE YEARS INSTEAD OF TWO.

THE HOUSE MEASURE ALSO WOULD ELIMINATE PROVISIONS OF THE PRESENT LAW WHICH PRESIDENT TRUMAN HAS SAID DISCRIMINATE AGAINST CATHOLICS AND JEWS.

CUTLER TOLD MC CARRAN THAT IF A REFUGEE "CLAIMS JEWISH BLOOD" HE CAN "IMMEDIATELY GO TO THE UNITED STATES."

HE ALSO SAID THE CIC IS REQUIRED BY DP COMMISSION OFFICIALS TO PROVE CHARGES OF COMMUNISM AGAINST A REFUGEE, AND THAT THE CIC "JUST CAN'T WORK LIKE THAT."

CUTLER SAID HE AND OTHER COMMISSION EMPLOYES ALSO WERE REQUIRED TO CLEAR REFUGEES THEY KNEW WERE NOT TECHNICALLY ELIGIBLE UNDER THE LAW. HE ADDED THAT IN THE CASE OF BLACK MARKETEERING, TOO, "WE WERE TOLD THAT WAS OF NO OFFENSE AND NEVER MIND. WE WOULD STILL SAY HE (THE REFUGEE) WAS OF GOOD MORAL CHARACTER."

HE SAID BLACK MARKET OPERATIONS COVERED ILLEGAL DEALINGS IN SUCH THINGS AS CIGARETTES, CURRENCY AND COFFEE.

"IN THOSE CASES," CUTLER SAID, "I RESENTED VERY MUCH PUTTING MY SIGNATURE DOWN THAT THE MAN WAS OF GOOD CONDUCT, GOOD MORAL CHARACTER AND BEHAVIOR."

CUTLER QUOTED BASHEIM AS TELLING HIM: "IF YOU DON'T PASS THESE, I WILL HAVE TO WRITE A DEROGATORY REPORT. X X X OF COURSE, I CAN'T FORCE YOU TO SIGN THEM BUT IF YOU DON'T SIGN THEM, I WILL DECIDE YOU DON'T HAVE THE BEST INTERESTS OF THE COMMISSION AT HEART AND I WILL JUST HAVE TO REPORT TO FRANKFURT."

WASHINGTON,JAN 9-(AP)-SENATOR FERGUSON (R-MICH) CAME FROM A WHITE HOUSE CONFERENCE TODAY AND SAID HE IS CONVINCED THE UNITED STATES HAS NOT "ABANDONED" FORMOSA.

HE TOLD REPORTERS THE WAY IS STILL OPEN FOR THIS COUNTRY TO PROVIDE "UNOFFICIAL AND VOLUNTEER" MILITARY ADVICE TO THE CHINESE NATIONALIST DEFENDERS OF THE BIG ISLAND LYING 100 MILES OFF THE CHINA COAST.

FERGUSON DISCUSSED THE FAR EAST SITUATION WITH PRESIDENT TRUMAN AND SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON FOR 45 MINUTES. HE REFUSED TO SAY THAT HE WAS GIVING THE VIEWS EITHER OF THE PRESIDENT OR SECRETARY.

BUT HE SAID THAT IN HIS OPINION THE ADMINISTRATION'S ANNOUNCED HANDS OFF POLICY "SHOULD NOT BE TAKEN AS AN ABANDONMENT OF FORMOSA."

FERGUSON SAID HE WILL NOW URGE THAT MILITARY MEN BE PERMITTED TO VOLUNTEER FOR AN "UNOFFICIAL" MISSION TO FORMOSA. THIS COULD BE DONE, HE SAID, WITH APPROVAL OF THE PRESIDENT.

ASKED IF MR.TRUMAN AND ACHESON HAD GIVEN APPROVAL TO SUCH A PROPOSAL, FERGUSON SAID:

"NO, BUT I'M SUGGESTING IT NOW."

ABOUT ALL HE WOULD SAY SPECIFICALLY ABOUT THE WHITE HOUSE TALKS WAS THAT HE FELT "ENLIGHTENED" BUT HAD NOT CHANGED HIS VIEWS.

FERGUSON WOULD NOT TELL REPORTERS ANY DETAILS OF THE DISCUSSION, BUT INDICATED HE WOULD MAKE A SENATE SPEECH LATER THIS WEEK ON FOREIGN POLICY.

FERGUSON SAID HE THINKS AMERICAN OFFICERS SHOULD BE PERMITTED TO GIVE MILITARY ADVICE TO THE CHINESE NATIONALISTS ON FORMOSA, ACTING AS INDIVIDUALS PAID BY CHIANG KAI SHEK'S GOVERNMENT.

IN THE SENATE, MEANTIME, SENATOR SMITH (R-NJ) MADE A SPEECH ATTACKING THE ADMINISTRATION'S "HANDS OFF" POLICY TOWARD FORMOSA AS "NO POLICY AT ALL BUT AN ADMISSION OF DEFEAT."

WASHINGTON,JAN.9-(AP)-SENATOR CONNALLY (D-TEX) TOLD THE SENATE TODAY THAT ARMED AMERICAN INTERVENTION IN CHINA MIGHT PLUNGE THE UNITED STATES INTO WORLD WAR III.

SHARPLY ATTACKING REPUBLICAN CRITICS OF THE ADMINISTRATION'S FAR EAST POLICY, CONNALLY COMMENTED THAT "YOU CAN'T WHIP THE COMMUNISTS WITH WIND," AND HE CHALLENGED ANY SENATOR FAVORING THE SENDING OF U.S. TROOPS TO FORMOSA TO STAND UP AND SAY SO.

FORMOSA, A BIG ISLAND LYING 100 MILES OFF THE COMMUNIST-HELD CHINA COAST, IS THE LAST STRONGHOLD OF GEN.CHIANG KAI-SHEK'S CHINESE NATIONALIST GOVERNMENT. PRESIDENT TRUMAN ANNOUNCED LAST THURSDAY THAT THE UNITED STATES WILL NOT HELP DEFEND FORMOSA.

TOMORROW, SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON IS SCHEDULED TO GO BEFORE THE SENATE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE AND GIVE A FULL REVIEW OF THE INTERNATIONAL SITUATION. SENATORS ARE PRIMED TO QUESTION HIM ABOUT FORMOSA AND THE WHOLE FAR EAST PICTURE.

IN ADVANCE OF ACHESON'S APPEARANCE, SENATORS HOTLY DEBATED THE PROS AND CONS OF THE GOVERNMENT'S POLICIES IN THE ORIENT.

SENATOR SMITH (R-NJ) SAID PRESIDENT TRUMAN SHOULD LAY DOWN A LINE IN ASIA AT WHICH COMMUNISM MUST STOP--"AND FORMOSA IS A GOOD PLACE TO STOP IT," HE SAID.

BUT MAJORITY LEADER LUCAS (D-ILL) OBJECTED THAT IF THE UNITED STATES GOES INTO FORMOSA, THEN THE RUSSIANS COULD CHARGE THIS COUNTRY WITH WAGING AN AGGRESSIVE WAR.

"THE STATE DEPARTMENT TAKES THE POSITION THAT FORMOSA IS A PART OF CHINA," LUCAS SAID. "WHAT WE DO IF THE COMMUNISTS GO INTO MALAYA, BURMA AND INDONESIA IS SOMETHING ELSE."

THEN THE VETERAN CONNALLY, CHAIRMAN OF THE SENATE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE, TOOK THE FLOOR TO SHOUT:

"WHERE IS THERE A SENATOR NOW THAT FAVORS SENDING AN ARMY TO FORMOSA? LET SUCH A SENATOR RISE AND I WILL YIELD TO HIS ANSWER."

HE GOT NO TAKERS FROM THE 15 OR 20 SENATORS IN THE CHAMBER AT THAT LATE AFTERNOON HOUR.

"I AM NOT IN FAVOR OF CASTING A SINGLE VOTE THAT WOULD ENDANGER PLUNGING THE UNITED STATES INTO WORLD WAR III," CONNALLY WENT ON.

THE TEXAN TOOK ISSUE WITH STATEMENTS BY SMITH AND OTHERS THAT THE UNITED STATES HAS ABANDONED CHINA.

"CHIANG (GEN.CHIANG KAI-SHEK) ABANDONED CHINA WHEN HE FAILED TO GIVE THE MASSES OF THE CHINESE PEOPLE THE REFORMS THEY EXPECTED AND DESIRED," CONNALLY SAID.

MEANWHILE, SENATOR FERGUSON (R-MICH) SAID AFTER A WHITE HOUSE VISIT THAT THE ADMINISTRATION'S ANNOUNCED HANDS-OFF POLICY "SHOULD NOT BE TAKEN AS AN ABANDONMENT OF FORMOSA."

HE DECLINED TO ELABORATE ON THIS SOMEWHAT CRYPTIC REMARK, NOR WOULD HE TELL NEWSMEN WHETHER IT REFLECTED THE PRESIDENT'S VIEWS. SECRETARY ACHESON SAT IN ON FERGUSON'S 45-MINUTE CONFERENCE WITH MR. TRUMAN ON THE FORMOSA QUESTION.

FERGUSON TOLD REPORTERS THE WAY IS STILL OPEN FOR THE UNITED STATES TO SEND "UNOFFICIAL AND VOLUNTEER" MILITARY ADVISERS TO AID IN THE DEFENSE OF FORMOSA.

ASKED IF MR.TRUMAN OR ACHESON HAD APPROVED SUCH A PROPOSAL, FERGUSON REPLIED:

"NO, BUT I'M SUGGESTING IT NOW."

WASHINGTON,JAN.9-(AP)-IF CHIANG KAI SHEK LOSES FORMOSA, CHANCES ARE HE WOULD BE PERMITTED TO COME TO THE UNITED STATES AS A POLITICAL REFUGEE. THAT IS, PROVIDED HE WANTED TO.

THE QUESTION OF THE NATIONALIST LEADER'S FUTURE HAS NOT BEEN RAISED OFFICIALLY, BUT SPECULATION AROSE WITH THE ANNOUNCEMENT BY MADAME CHIANG THAT SHE IS LEAVING THE U.S. IN A FEW DAYS TO JOIN HIM IN FORMOSA. PROSPECTS THAT THE ISLAND CAN BE HELD AGAINST THE COMMUNISTS WERE CLOUDED BY PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S DECISION TO WITHHOLD AMERICAN MILITARY AID.

THE STATE DEPARTMENT WILL SAY ONLY THAT CHIANG HAS NOT ASKED TO COME TO THE UNITED STATES AND THAT THERE WILL BE NO DECISION UNLESS

HE DOES SO. DIPLOMATIC OFFICIALS SUGGESTED, NEVERTHELESS, THAT TO TURN HIM AWAY WOULD BE OUT OF LINE WITH THE LONG ESTABLISHED AMERICAN TRADITION OF GRANTING ASYLUM TO POLITICAL EXILES--EVEN THOUGH CHIANG'S NAME TOPS THE CHINESE COMMUNIST'S LIST OF "WAR CRIMINALS."

SOVIET RUSSIA HAS DENOUNCED AS CRIMINALS SOME OF THE REFUGEES THE UNITED STATES HAS REFUSED TO SURRENDER, IT WAS NOTED.

THE COMMUNISTS PUBLISHED THEIR LIST MONTHS AGO AND WARNED NEARBY COUNTRIES NOT TO HARBOR ANY OF THE NATIONALIST LEADERS. THE U.S. 2-' '700)83$ 285£ - :906 9! 5£3 2-4,8,&.

AS

COUNTRIES NOT TO HARBOR ANY OF THE NATIONALIST LEADERS. THE U.S. WAS SUPPLIED WITH A COPY OF THE WARNING.

AS LONG AS THE NATIONALISTS HOLD FORMOSA AND CONTINUE TO BE RECOGNIZED BY THE U.S. AS THE LEGAL GOVERNMENT OF CHINA, THERE IS LITTLE DOUBT OF A WELCOME FOR THE GENERALISSIMO AS LEADER OF A FRIENDLY GOVERNMENT. THE TITULAR NATIONALIST PRESIDENT, LI TSUNG-JEN, ALREADY IS HERE, UNDERGOING MEDICAL TREATMENT IN NEW YORK.

(200) SPAIN

WASHINGTON, JAN.9-(AP)-CHAIRMAN KEE (D-WVA) OF THE HOUSE FOREIGN AFFAIRS COMMITTEE DECLARED TODAY THE UNITED STATES MUST CONTINUE ITS PRESENT SPANISH POLICY UNTIL SPAIN BECOMES MORE COOPERATIVE.

"IT IS SPAIN THAT IN THE FIRST INSTANCE HAS CHOSEN TO WALK ALONE," KEE SAID IN HIS FIRST SPEECH ON THE SPANISH SITUATION SINCE HE BECAME HEAD OF THE HOUSE COMMITTEE LAST YEAR. HE WAS HIGHLY CRITICAL OF THE REGIME OF GENERALISSIMO FRANCISCO FRANCO.

THE U.S. DOES NOT NOW HAVE AN AMBASSADOR AT MADRID, AND SPAIN DOES NOT PARTICIPATE IN THE EUROPEAN RECOVERY PROGRAM OR RECEIVE OTHER U.S. AID.

"INHERENTLY THERE IS NO BAR TO THE PARTICIPATION OF SPAIN IN THE EUROPEAN RECOVERY PROGRAM . . . . . SPAIN IS BARRED SIMPLY BY THE NATURE OF THE REGIME AND BY THE METHODS SPAIN HAS CHOSEN FOR THE CONDUCT OF INTERNATIONAL RELATIONSHIPS, KEE SAID.

"WERE SPAIN TO TRANSFORM ITS GOVERNMENT AND MEND ITS WAYS, BRINGING ITSELF INTO HARMONY WITH THE GENERAL PATTERNS OF WESTERN EUROPE, I AM SURE THAT THE OTHER NATIONS OF THAT REGION AND THIS NATION AS WELL WOULD WELCOME SPAIN AS A FULL PARTNER IN THE GREAT UNDERTAKINGS."

THE PRESENT REGIME IN SPAIN, KEE SAID, IS BASED ON MONOPOLY OF POLITICAL STATUS BY ONE PARTY, AND "NO FREE ELECTORAL PROCESS AND NO INDEPENDENT JUDICIARY EXIST TO TEMPER ITS RULE."

"SPAIN IS, IN BRIEF, A FASCIST STATE," HE ADDED.

"SO LONG AS SPAIN INSISTS UPON BEING TREATED ON A SEPARATE BASIS," HE ADDED, "SO LONG AS SPAIN HANGS BACK FROM PARTICIPATION IN THE GREAT JOINT ENTERPRISES, SPAIN MUST BE A SECONDARY CONSIDERATION OF THE UNITED STATES, WHICH IS PREOCCUPIED WITH THE CONSIDERATIONS OF A WIDER EUROPEAN POLICY. . .

"THE DAY OF SINGULAR GREATNESS IS GONE AMONG THE WESTERN NATIONS. THE PATTERN IS NO LONGER THAT OF NATIONAL AND IMPERIAL GLORY. THE PATTERN OF GREATNESS NOW IS THAT OF PARTICIPATION IN A LARGER DESIGN OF COOPERATION. I, FOR ONE, DO NOT BELIEVE THAT PATTERN IN THE WEST WILL EVER BE COMPLETE UNTIL SPAIN IS A PART OF IT. SPAIN'S BECOMING A PART OF IT IS CONTINGENT ABOVE ALL ON WHAT COURSE SPAIN ITSELF CHOOSES TO FOLLOW."

MEANWHILE, HE SAID, THE UNITED STATES SHOULD TRY TO DEVELOP WITHIN SPAIN "WHATEVER PATTERN OF COOPERATION MAY BE FEASIBLE," AND AS A MEANS TO THAT END SHOULD RESTORE FULL DIPLOMATIC EXCHANGE AS SOON AS PRACTICABLE.

SAN FRANCISCO, JAN.9-(AP)-A PERSISTENT 19 YEAR OLD--A YOUTH VIRTUALLY WITHOUT A COUNTRY--TRIED ONCE AGAIN TODAY TO ENTER THE UNITED STATES.

BUT IMMIGRATION OFFICIALS SAID HE PROBABLY WILL BE DEPORTED ON THE FIRST ORIENT-BOUND SHIP.

NICOLAS DRUJINENKO-NICOLAIE FIRST STOWED AWAY ON THE GENERAL GORDON IN SEPTEMBER, 1949, AND ARRIVED HERE IN NOVEMBER. IMMIGRANT OFFICIALS STARTED HIM RIGHT BACK TO SHANGHAI.

ENROUTE HE JUMPED SHIP AT NAGOYA, JAPAN. HE WAS HELD THERE UNTIL HE AGAIN BOARDED THE GORDON AT YOKOHAMA DEC. 29.

THIS TIME HE HAS A FEW FRIENDS PULLING FOR HIM--PARTICULARLY THE GORDON'S SOUND ELECTRICIAN, THEODORE A.GILMAN OF SAN FRANCISCO, WHO HAS OFFERED TO SPONSOR HIM.

GILMAN SAID HE HAS "PLENTY OF FAITH IN NICK AND, I'M WILLING TO GIVE HIM A HOME AND ANYTHING ELSE THAT IS REQUIRED."

NICK, EDUCATED IN AN ENGLISH SCHOOL IN SHANGHAI, IS THE SON OF A WHITE RUSSIAN WOMAN WHO LIVES IN COMMUNIST-HELD SHANGHAI. HIS FATHER, AN ENGLISH POLICEMAN IN THE INTERNATIONAL POLICE FORCE THERE, DIED WHEN NICK WAS THREE YEARS OLD.

NICK SAID HE WANTS TO ENTER THE UNITED STATES "BECAUSE LIVING CONDITIONS IN CHINA ARE POOR. YOU CAN'T FIND A JOB WHEN PEOPLE ARE LOSING WORK DAILY, AND ALL FACTORIES ARE CLOSING DOWN IN SHANGHAI."

DETAILS OF THE SHIP'S SUCCESSFUL RUN THROUGH THE NATIONALIST BLOCKADE WERE RETOLD HERE BY HARDY AND HIS CREW ON THEIR ARRIVAL FROM THE ORIENT YESTERDAY.

SHE IS A SISTER SHIP OF THE FLYING ARROW, SHELLED BY CHINESE NATIONALISTS TODAY.

HARDY'S SHIP WAS HIT 12 TIMES. NO ONE WAS HURT. BUT, THE CAPTAIN SAID, ONE PROJECTILE WOULD HAVE "WIPED OUT EVERYONE ON THE BRIDGE IF IT HAD BEEN FIVE INCHES TO THE LEFT."

HE SAID THE TWO AMERICAN-BUILT CHINESE GUNBOATS OPENED FIRE WHEN HARDY REFUSED TO ANCHOR IN WATER DANGEROUSLY SHALLOW FOR HIS SHIP. HE LATER STOPPED AT FU CHING BUOY BUT THE CHINESE CONTINUED TO SHELL THE FREIGHTER.

ALBERT FIALCOWITZ, A MATE ON THE SIR JOHN FRANKLIN, SAID THAT AS SHELLS CONTINUED TO WHINE PAST THE SHIP THE CAPTAIN SHOUTED:

"TO HELL WITH THIS--FULL STEAM AHEAD."

THE GUNBOATS GAVE CHASE BUT HARDY LOST HIS PURSUERS IN THE DARK AND ENVELOPING FOG.

ON THE TRIP BACK FROM SHANGHAI A NATIONALIST NAVY LIEUTENANT BOARDED THE SIR JOHN FRANKLIN AND INSTRUCTED HARDY "NOT TO COME BACK."

THERE WILL BE GUERILLA WARFARE AND PROPAGANDA AGAINST THE REDS, AND EVENTUALLY AN UPRISING OF THE PEOPLE ON THE MAINLAND, THE NATIONALIST LEADER'S WIFE SAID YESTERDAY IN A RADIO SPEECH.

MME.CHIANG WILL LEAVE THE UNITED STATES THIS WEEK FOR THE ISLAND OF FORMOSA, ONE OF THE LAST REMAINING NATIONALIST POSITIONS.

SPEAKING OVER THE NATIONAL BROADCASTING COMPANY NETWORK, SHE SAID "FOR SHAME" TO BRITAIN AND CALLED ITS RECOGNITION OF THE CHINESE COMMUNIST REGIME THE ACT OF A "MORAL WEAKLING."

SHE SAID "BRITAIN HAS BARTERED THE SOUL OF A NATION FOR A FEW PIECES OF SILVER" --(THE PRICE PAID TO JUDAS WHO BETRAYED CHRIST.)

SHE DECLARED "RUSSIA WILL NEVER KNOW ONE DAY OF PEACE IN CHINA. RUSSIA WILL NEVER OWN CHINA. CHINA WILL REMAIN FREE."

MME.CHIANG SAID THE NATIONALISTS ARE "ABANDONED AND ALONE." BUT SHE HAD SOME KIND WORDS FOR THE UNITED STATES, WHICH IS NOT RESPONDING TO NATIONALIST APPEALS FOR AID IN HOLDING FORMOSA BUT IS NOT RECOGNITING THE CHINESE RED REGIME.

"YOURS HAS BEEN A CONTRIBUTION OF AFFECTION," SHE TOLD AMERICANS. "X X X YOUR NAME AMONG US WILL ALWAYS BE CHERISHED FOR ITS FRIENDSHIP AND KINDLINESS."

MME.CHIANG, WHO HAS FAILED ALMOST COMPLETELY IN THE AID-SEEKING MISSION THAT BROUGHT HER TO THIS COUNTRY 13 MONTHS AGO, SAID "I CAN ASK THE AMERICAN PEOPLE FOR NOTHING MORE. AT SUCH A TIME NO PLEADING CAN BE WITH DIGNITY."

"IT IS EITHER IN YOUR HEARTS TO LOVE US, OR YOUR HEARTS HAVE BEEN TURNED FROM US," SHE SAID. "IT IS EITHER IN YOUR MIND AND YOUR WILL TO AID CHINA IN HER STRUGGLE FOR LIBERTY, OR YOU HAVE ABANDONED LIBERTY."

SHE SAID NATIONALIST GUERILLAS "WILL KEEP THE TORCH OF LIBERTY" EVERYWHERE ON THE CHINESE MAINLAND--NOW MOSTLY IN THE HANDS OF THE REDS --WHILE HER HUSBAND WAGES A LAST-DITCH FIGHT FROM FORMOSA.

"THE ENEMY'S LIES AND DECEIT, THEIR TREACHERY AND PROPAGANDA, WILL BE DEFEATED NOT ONLY WITH BULLETS BUT ALSO WITH TRUTH," SHE PLEDGED.

WITH FLYING CLOUD (470)

BY GEORGE MILLER

NEW YORK, JAN. 8-(AP)-TIME AFTER TIME IN THE UNSETTLED POSTWAR WORLD, ISBRANDTSEN SHIPS HAVE STEAMED INTO A HORNET'S NEST. TO ISBRANDTSEN ITS A MATTER OF PRINCIPLE--FREEDOM OF THE SEAS."

THE LATEST INCIDENT CAME TODAY WHEN THE FLYING ARROW WAS SHELLED AND SERIOUSLY DAMAGED TRYING TO GET BY A CHINESE NATIONALIST GUNBOAT BLOCKING THE YANGTZE RIVER APPROACH TO COMMUNIST-HELD SHANGHAI.

IN RECENT MONTHS, THREE OTHER SHIPS FLYING THE ISBRANDTSEN PENNANT HAVE BEEN SHELLED IN TANGLES WITH THE NATIONALISTS.

THE FLYING TRADER WAS FIRED UPON INEFFECTUALLY ON OCT. 15. A MONTH LATER THE FLYING CLOUD WAS HIT AND THE SIR JOHN FRANKLIN WAS STRUCK NOV. 28.

THE BLOCKADE, THE ISBRANDTSEN LINE INSISTS, IS UNLAWFUL: ITS SHIPS ARE "BEING RECKLESSLY FIRED UPON BY AN ILLEGAL FORCE REPRESENTING THAT SO-CALLED BLOCKADE."

BACK OF THE COMPANY'S INSISTENCE UPON "AMERICAN RIGHTS OF FREE ACCESS X X X IN ACCORDANCE WITH OUR GOVERNMENT'S 'OPEN DOOR' POLICY AND THE TREATIES SECURING IT," IS ITS 58-YEAR-OLD DANISH-BORN PRESIDENT, HANS J.ISBRANDTSEN, NOW A U.S. CITIZEN.

A RUGGED INDIVIDUALIST WITH LITTLE PENCHANT FOR DIPLOMACY, ISBRANDTSEN HAS USED A SERIES OF EXPENSIVE, FULL-PAGE NEWSPAPER ADVERTISEMENTS TO TELL SECRETARY OF STATE DEAN ACHESON:

"YOUR PRESENT POSITION SEEMS TO BE LIKE THE POLICEMEN WATCHING A HOLD-UP MAN STICK A GUN IN A VICTIM'S RIBS--WHO WHEN CALLED UPON FOR HELP BY THE VICTIM, REPLIES: 'WAIT 'TILL HE SHOOTS YOU THEN I'LL ARREST HIM FOR MURDER.' AFTER THAT THE VICTIM GETS FLOWERS HE'LL NEVER BE ABLE TO SEE OR SMELL."

ISBRANDTSEN'S TRADING WITH CHINA IS IN PURSUIT OF "LAWFUL AMERICAN COMMERCE," THECOMPANY MAINTAINS. ALL OF WHICH IS NOT A NEW TACK FOR THE SHIPPING FIRM. IT TOOK THE SAME STAND IN PALESTINE AND INDONESIA.

THE EGYPTIANS SEIZED THE FLYING TRADER AS IT EMERGED FROM THE NORTHERN END OF THE SUEZ CANAL IN NOV. 1948 AND HELD IT FOUR DAYS. FOUR THOUSAND BAGS OF RICE AND 38 TRACTORS WERE CONFISCATED.

THE TRACTORS WERE HELD, BUT THE RICE CARGO RELEASED. THE STATE DEPARTMENT PROTESTED THAT INCIDENT.

A46

IN MARCH, 1947, ISBRANDTSEN HAD A BRUSH WITH THE NETHERLANDS EAST INDIES GOVERNMENT WHEN IT SEIZED THE $3,000,000 (M) CARGO OF THE LIBERTY SHIP MARTIN BEHRMAN.

THE DUTCH SAID THE CARGO WAS TAKEN ON AT THE INDONESIAN REPUBLICAN PORT OF CHERIBON IN DEFIANCE OF EXPORT RULES.

THE DUTCH SQUARED AWAY WITH ISBRANDTSEN. NEGOTIATIONS HAVE NEVER BEEN STARTED TO SETTLE THE EGYPTIAN SQUABBLE.

THE BUFF-BLUE AND WHITE STACKS OF 42 ISBRANDTSEN SHIPS PLY THE WORLD'S SEA LANES. THEY ARE WAR BUILT VESSELS, C-1'S, C-2'S--VICTOR SHIPS.

MOST OF THE TROUBLE DERIVES FROM THE ROUND-THE-WORLD FORTNIGHTLY SERVICE. OVER THIS ROUTE ISBRANDTSEN VESSELS FOLLOW EACH OTHER INTO PORT AT TWO WEEK INTERVALS.

BUT THE LINE, FOUNDED 1941, ALSO OPERATES VESSELS, WITH INDEFINITE ROUTINGS, AND A UNITED STATES TO EUROPE SERVICE FROM NORTH ATLANTIC AND GULF PORTS.

ITS PREDECESSOR COMPANY, THE ISBRANDTSEN-MOLLER COMPANY, WAS A DANISH-FLAG CONCERN. IT LOST A GREAT NUMBER OF SHIPS IN ALLIED SERVICE.

FLYING ARROW (1ST)

NEW YORK, JAN 9-(AP)-HANS J. ISBRANDSTEN, PRESIDENT OF THE ISBRANDSTEN STEAMSHIP COMPANY, SAID TODAY THE FLYING ARROW WAS BEING ANCHORED 19 1/2 MILES OFFSHORE OF THE "HIGH SEAS" WHEN SHE WAS SHELLED YESTERDAY BY A CHINESE NATIONALIST GUNBOAT.

HE SAID CAPT. DAVID A. JONES RADIOED THAT HIS SHIP WAS ON A LINE BETWEEN YANGTZE CAPE AND NELSON CAPE AT LATITUDE 31.04 NORTH, LONGITUDE 120.15 EAST.

ISBRANDSTEN, WHOSE COMPANY OWNS THE SHELLED VESSEL, SAID HE HAD SENT A MESSAGE TO PRESIDENT TRUMAN AND THE SECRETARIES OF DEFENSE AND NAVY GIVING THE POSITION OF THE ATTACK AND ASKING "IMMEDIATE U.S. NAVAL AID."

ISBRANDSTEN SAID HE HAD RECEIVED CONFLICTING REPORTS AS TO WHETHER THE VESSEL WAS UNSEAWORTHY. HE SAID HE WAS DEPENDING ON REPORTS FROM AP STAFFER WAYNE RICHARDSON, A PASSENGER ABOARD, FOR DETAILS OF THE ATTACK AS CAPT. JONES "MUST BE PRETTY BUSY RIGHT NOW."

HE DENOUNCED AS "COMPLETE LIES" A CHINESE REPORT FROM FORMOSA THAT THE GUNBOAT HAD FIRED ON THE FLYING ARROW TO PREVENT IT FROM ENTERING A MINEFIELD. HE ALSO SAID THE SHIP COULD NOT BE ANCHORED TWO MILES OFFSHORE (WITHIN TERRITORIAL WATERS) BECAUSE OF SHALLOW WATER.

ISBRANDSTEN SAID CAPT. JONES REPORTED THE SHIP RECEIVED 15 HOLES TWO TO FOUR INCHES (CORRECT) IN DIAMETER IN THE STEERING ENGINE ROOM AND 15 "BAD INDENTATIONS."

China Communists Accept Recognition by Britain

Harold K. Milks

LONDON, Jan. 10 (AP)—Communist China today accepted Britain's diplomatic recognition.

The British foreign office announced receipt of the acceptance note from Communist Foreign Minister Chou En-Lai.

It announced at the same time a new attack on the British consulate at Tamsui, in Nationalist-held Formosa. Eight Nationalist soldiers carrying sub-machineguns seized the consulate flag and sliced telephone wires, the foreign office said. British Consul E. T. Biggs protested to the Nationalist government.

No New Agreements

Acceptance of Britain's offer ended speculation here that China's communist chieftains might use recognition as a bargaining weapon to force new agreements from Britain, possibly including one on Hong Kong, British colony and naval base.

Chou's note, delivered through the old British embassy in Nanking, contained no unexpected reservations, and was similar in tone to that the British sent the Peiping regime Friday.

It said:

"On behalf of the Central People's government of the People's Republic of China, I hereby acknowledge the receipt of your telegram of Jan. 6, transmitting the information that the government of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland is now ready to establish diplomatic relations with the Central People's Government on a basis of equality, mutual benefit and mutual respect for territory and sovereignty.

"I hereby inform you that the Central People's government is willing to establish diplomatic relations with your government on the basis of equality, mutual benefit, and mutual respect for territory, and accept Mr. J. C. Hutchison, whom you have appointed as charge d'affairs ad interim, as representative of the government of the United Kingdom and northern Ireland sent to Peking (Peiping) to carry on negotiations on the question of establishing diplomatic relations between our two countries.

"The central government will give all necessary facilities for the transfer of Mr. Hutchison, his staff, and archives from Nanking to Peking."

Envoys Not Named

The foreign office declined to speculate on how soon normal relations might be expected between Peiping and London.

Communist China has not yet submitted the name of its proposed ambassador, nor has Britain named the man to replace Sir Ralph Stevenson as her ambassador to China.

Nationalist China's ambassador, Dr. Cheng Tien-Hsi, and his staff of 17 will surrender China's embassy here to the foreign office Jan. 28. It will be held by the British for transfer to the communists' first representative.

British officials said they expected Hutchison to leave Nanking shortly for Peiping, a two-day train journey if the railroads are operating normally.

Nationalist Chinese resentment over Britain's recognition of the Reds appeared responsible for incidents at the British consulate in Tamsui.

Biggs radioed the foreign office that the group of armed Nationalist soldiers entered the consulate compound and forced two Chinese employes at gun point to surrender the British flag.

Later six Nationalist soldiers entered the house of a British member of the consulate staff while he was absent, ransacked his effects, and assaulted a servant, Biggs said.

British End Japan Trade Curb

LONDON, Jan. 10 (AP)—The British Board of Trade announced tonight the removal of the last restriction on commerce with Japan under the Trading with the Enemy Act.

tative gesture.

"Today two different economic regimes confront one another in the world," Cachin told the National Assembly. "There is no reason why they can't co-exist as they cooperated against the same enemy four years ago."

Extend Trade Relations

He suggested extension of trade relations between eastern and western Europe as a method of working toward peace.

Otherwise there was little of a conciliatory message in his address. He echoed the familiar Communist party line. He attacked the capitalist system of the west and praised the economic trends in the east. He accused the west of preparing for war. He called for arms reductions and the outlawing of the atom bomb.

Cachin made the traditional speech opening the new session of the assembly. This honor fell to Cachin, as it did last year, because he is the oldest member of the assembly.

After Cachin had finished, the assembly re-elected 77 year-old Edouard Herriot as its president.

Herriot, in his introductory address, said that "all Frenchmen, of no matter what party, are anxious for peace."

Apparently seeking to soften some of Cachin's hard words about the western capitalist system, Herriot said:

"I hate to see straining of friendship that I have had so much difficulty to establish. It is necessary to guard against any word which might be hurtful to nations."

In his 1949 speech Cachin called on the east and west to "resolutely discard the idea of a fatal war." He suggested that the two should get together in direct contact. These sentiments were later chorused by Italian, British, American and other communist leaders and the feeling grew that Moscow was bidding for at least a partial truce in the cold war. Eventually negotiations were started in New York that led to a lifting of the Berlin blockade.

Cachin is communism's elder statesman in western Europe. He recently celebrated his 80th anniversary and French communists organized local observances in much the same manner that communists all over the world feted Stalin's 70th birthday.

Stalin saluted Cachin as "a faithful son of the French people and an eminent fighter of the international workers movement."

Communist Strikers Hurl Blocks At Policemen

JAN 11 1950

Marseille, France, Jan. 10 (AP)—Communist strikers today hurled paving blocks at a police line and by the time reinforcements arrived ten policemen had been injured. Several store windows were broken.

The bicycles of the ten policemen forming the roadblock were broken. Six of the demonstrating strikers were arrested.

The clash came at the end of a day during which Communist-led unions had agitated for a general strike as a protest against the shipment of 3,150 French soldiers to Indo-China aboard the troopship Pasteur.

Refusal of enginemen to sail caused postponement of the sailing until Thursday. The possibility of debarking the troops was being discussed.

tonight.

Twelve men have been arrested, and others are being sought. None of the men captured so far is a Soviet soldier.

A United States Army statement said the ring was under the direct supervision of an officer in the central Russian headquarters in Vienna. He was identified as Lieutenant Colonel Karandashov.

Curbs Cigarette Smuggling

His assistant was identified as a Major Makhov, whose office is in the same building.

The arrest of the twelve men also has broken up Austria's largest cigarette smuggling ring, the Army said.

The men were given Russian protection in their cigarette smuggling activities and in return had to kidnap the displaced persons or refugees, the Army statement said, adding that each kidnapped man turned over to the Red Army was good for one month's protection for the smugglers.

The non-Soviet leader of the gang was identified as one Benno Blum, whose nationality was not given. He is reported still at large.

Use Trickery And Force

Blum, the Army said, made contact with Makhov in 1948 and his negotiations with Karandashov started almost immediately. Final agreement on the kidnapping-smuggling arrangement was said to have been made in December, 1948.

The kidnappers used trickery, drugs and force in getting their victims out of the American zone and into Soviet hands, the Army statement said.

Hungarians Jeer At U.S. on Vogeler

By the Associated Press.

BUDAPEST, Jan. 10. — The newspaper of the Hungarian Communist party heaped sarcasm on the United States and President Truman today for seeking the release of Robert Vogeler, jailed assistant vice-president of the International Telephone & Telegraph Co.

Mr. Vogeler, of Jackson Heights, Queens, is held on charges of espionage and sabotage. Also held on similar charges are Edgar Sanders, a British subject and Mr. Vogler's assistant, and Imre Geiger, a Hungarian. The Hungarians say all have confessed.

"Mr. Vogeler must be a very important man considering the American efforts to secure his release," the newspaper, Szabad Nep, said in its editorial, titled "A Waste of Energy."

It added:

"According to the Associated Press, President Truman cabled Mrs. Vogeler that he will do his utmost to help her husband be released from prison in Hungary.

"Why did the President make this promise? Only because of Mrs. Vogelers' pretty eyes? If Americans overseas regarded Vogeler as innocent, they would make every effort to bring him to trial as soon as possible. A DD

Friendship Urged For Mao's Regime

Colombo, Ceylon, Jan. 10.—(AP)—Indian Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru told the Commonwealth foreign ministers today that countries recognizing Communist China must also extend cautious friendliness to the Red Regime, an informed source reported.

Representatives of the eight Commonwealth countries — divided on the issue of recognizing Mao Tse-Tung's Red government now—discussed China in a closed session on the second day of their conference.

Nehru, whose government already has recognized Communist China, was reported to have said there is not much point in establishing diplomatic relations with the Peiping regime if countries also simultaneously tried to hold back on full diplomatic cooperation.

Four members of the Commonwealth—India, Pakistan, Ceylon and Britain—have recognized Communist China. Australia, Canada, New Zealand and South Africa have not yet extended recognition. AP

British Increase Force To 2,000 At Nicosia

Nicosia, Cyprus, Jan. 10 (AP)—Some 450 British soldiers arrived from Greece today to strengthen the garrison in this restive colony. There now are 2,000 British troops here.

The soldiers got here five days before an unofficial plebiscite—frowned on by the British Colonial Office—on whether Cyprus should become a part of Greece.

The plebiscite is being conducted by the Greek Orthodox Church. Cypriots over 18 who want union with Greece have been urged to visit their church Sunday and sign petitions.

About 200,000 Cypriots are believed eligible to take part.

FLYING ARROW FIXING HOLES

2 U.S. Destroyers Stand By After China Shelling

By WAYNE RICHARDSON

Aboard the Flying Arrow, Jan 10 (AP)—Two United States destroyers stood by today to help the Flying Arrow patch its wounds from a shelling by a Nationalist gunboat at sea off Communist Shanghai.

The crew of this American freighter was busy plugging about 30 holes. The damage was inflicted by a single blockading gunboat which opened fire without warning Monday at the point-blank range of 200 yards.

The destroyers are the Stickell and the Baussell. Lieut. (jg) C. L. Stuart, of the Stickell, came aboard shortly after the destroyers arrived yesterday afternoon.

He said the destroyers would escort the Flying Arrow to any port but Shanghai.

Greeted By Captain

[In Washington, Louis A. Johnson, Defense Secretary, and Francis P. Matthews, Secretary of the Navy, said in a joint statement the destroyers had provided repair tools and plugs for the holes. They estimated repairs could be made in eight hours. Johnson said the destroyers had orders to help the Flying Arrow reach any port but Shanghai and to leave if the ship heads toward that Communist port.]

Stuart was greeted as he came aboard by Capt. David Jones. Jones took him through this 6,214-ton freighter, showing him the damage.

Stuart said the destroyers would remain here as long as they are needed.

Tonight the Nationalist gunboat which riddled the Flying Arrow stopped a Chinese junk 500 yards from the damaged freighter.

The two United States destroyers quickly hove into sight to keep an eye on the warship.

Correspondent Signed On

[Wayne Richardson, Associated Press correspondent at Hong Kong, signed aboard the Flying Arrow as assistant radio operator in order to cover the ship's attempt to break through the Nationalist blockade of Shanghai.]

The ship is anchored well off the 3-mile limit of Chinese territorial waters. The captain estimated she was at least 22 miles from shore when the attack began.

That attack came without warning as the Isbrandtsen Line ship headed for Shanghai with an estimated $10,000,000 cargo of cotton, oil and chemicals in defiance of Nationalist blockade warnings.

I had got up early Monday to watch the ship edge into the perilous waters outside the mouth of the Yangtze.

Warned Of Mines

Hardly 200 yards away off the starboard was a Nationalist gunboat. It was sending us blinker signals. The gunboat was warning us that mines were being laid.

I went to the radio cabin. Lawrence C. Klosowski, operator, of Syracuse, N.Y., sat at his key, ready to send any distress message.

While we were talking we suddenly heard the shells coming over. No one was expecting it. I ran to the port side and saw the shells splashing in the water. Some looked like three-inchers.

We had counted up to 38 shells when some one shouted that fire had broken out on the afterdeck. Shells still were hitting the ship.

Out on the afterdeck the fire had broken out near some big jars of acid. It was a relief to have that fire extinguished.

Cotton Thrown Overboard

But the alarm had sounded that there was fire in the No. 5 hold. The crew pitched in and threw overside cotton, jute and cases of banknote paper.

Even though it was well partitioned, it was not comforting to know that 3,000 drums of diesel oil were stored in the No. 4 hold.

This fire was also put out, and the crew felt lucky. The fires could have been worse. In addition to chemicals, there were a few drums of kerosene and other petroleum products stored on the afterdeck.

After the excitement subsided, I went on a tour of the ship with Chief Engineer Martin L. Gross, of Clearfield, Pa. Most of the holes had been made by 40-mm. shells (nearly 2 inches in diameter).

Hole In Water Tank

There were nine 40-mm. hits above the steering engine room on the deck housing, four hits through the No. 5 hold—one just above the water line—ten holes in the steering gear room, one hole on the aft peak water tank, two holes in the lamp room and one hole in the bosun's locker. Numerous other shells did not break through the hull. The steering gear was damaged but still usable.

Officers estimated damage to the ship and cargo would run into thousands of dollars.

CHINESE REDS USE DEFT PROPAGANDA TO CURB STUDENTS

NANKING, Jan. 10—(AP) The Chinese students, a noisy, restless lot who always were in the hair of the Nationalists, are well under control now.

Actually, the lot of the students is worse under the Communists, but aside from a little grumbling, but student front is quiet.

The Nationalists subsidized the students to keep them from going over to the Communists. The student subsidies suffered under inflation. Red agents engineered numerous student demonstrations.

Now student tuition and other fees, only nominal under the Nationalists, have been boosted to the equivalent of $10 (U. S.) a school term. That sum is beyond the financial capacity of most Chinese families.

Share In Control

Furthermore, only about 30 per cent of the student body, carefully screened, is exempt from the payment of fees.

The communists succeeded in pacifying the students by giving them a large share in the control of their schools, and by deft propaganda.

Nanking's communist educational and cultural committee said tuitions must be paid now "in order to lighten the burden of the people."

A committee spokesman said it was proper for the students to demand subsidies under the Nationalists, because the government "obtained money by squeezing the people."

"Now," he added, "the situation is different. The people themselves are paying for the support of the schools, which in turn belong to the people. We therefore must not add to the already heavy burden of the people."

China Reds Note British Recognition

Hong Kong, Jan. 10—(AP)—Communist China acknowledged British recognition today. The Reds said they would like to negotiate for the opening of diplomatic relations.

It was the first word from the Red regime since Britain announced recognition last Friday. And it was only a cryptic announcement released by the official New China news agency.

The release said Premier and Foreign Minister Chou En-Lai has accepted the nomination of J. C. Hutchison as Britain's charge d'affaires to negotiate establishment of diplomatic relations.

Chou has expressed willingness, it said, to establish relations on a basis of equality, mutual benefit and respect for territorial sovereignty.

This could mean the British have some tough bargaining ahead before full diplomatic relations are formally set up. AP

JAPAN'S REDS OUST PRO-MOSCOW AIDE

Nakanishi, Legislator, Purged for Backing Cominform's Attack on Party Chief

the Red leader Sanzo Nosaka.

Ko Nakanishi, member of the Parliament's House of Councilors, was read out of the party in a barren little room at Communist headquarters.

He told Japanese reporters later he would "make an effort outside the party to make the Japanese party a party based on Marxism."

Mr. Nakanishi himself had been called in by the party high command earlier in the day.

The expulsion order accused him of using recent dispatches dealing with the Cominform's blast from Bucharest, Rumania, to try to disrupt the Communist party of Japan.

Mr. Nosaka is accused not only by the Cominform, but by the Communist newspaper Pravda of Moscow of being anti-democratic, anti-socialistic and anti-Japanese.

The Cominform accused Mr. Nosaka of deceiving the Japanese people in arguing that Japan could attain socialism under the occupation. Mr. Nosaka has not replied.

The action of the party's control committee indicated that Mr. Nosaka still was in control. He worked with Chinese Communist leader Mao Tze-tung in North China during the war.

Mr. Nakanishi aligned himself with the Cominform right after the blast at Mr. Nosaka came out of Bucharest last week.

The Red legislator said publicly Saturday that "the Cominform criticism of our party this time is fully warranted."

The criticism, he added, gave the Japanese Communist party "the best chance to strengthen itself." He called for an "over-all change in the Communist front."

Mr. Nakanishi has been a Communist of some authority and reputation. He once belonged to the Chinese Communist party. The Japanese Imperial Government sent him to prison in 1942 as a spy.

Mr. Nakanishi was accused of taking part in a Communist spy ring that relayed Japanese military secrets to the Russians during the war. He was released at the end of the war under a general amnesty for political prisoners granted by General MacArthur.

Officially, the Communist party said nothing about the Cominform attack. There was a tendency in many quarters to view the attack on Mr. Nosaka as an attack on the whole Japanese Communist party. The party has been losing ground under the occupation.

INDIANS TO ELECT PRESIDENT JAN. 24

NEW DELHI, India, Jan. 10. —(AP) The Indian republic's first president will be Dr. Rajendra Prasad, 65-year-old president of the Constituent Assembly, informed sources said today. The assembly will meet Jan. 24 for the election.

That Prasad's selection is assured seemed certain when the government began making preparations for an elaborate send-off for Gov. Gen. Chakravarti Rajagopalachari, the only other person who has been mentioned as a candidate.

Friend of Gandhi

Prasad, a lawyer and law professor who is interested in social welfare work, was a close associate of the late Mahandas K. Gandhi. He was imprisoned several times in Gandhi's fight for independence, including a term from 1942 to 1945 when he took part in the "quit India" movement against the British. Twice he was president of the all-India Congress party. For a time he was food minister. Since November, 1946, he has been president of the assembly that wrote the republic's new constitution.

As president, he will be overshadowed by Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru.

Five Year Term

The presidential term is five years. There is no limit to the number of terms a president may serve. Succeeding presidents will be chosen by an electoral college consisting of both houses of parliament and members chosen by the State Legislatures.

Rajagopalachari will read a proclamation putting the constitution into effect and making India a sovereign republic in the British commonwealth on Jan. 26. The official schedule then calls for him to conduct the president to the chair, take part in the celebrations that day and leave for his home in Madras Jan. 27.

INDONESIA FACING NEW REBEL THREAT

Former Dutch Captain Heading Guerrilla Band in West Java Issues War Ultimatum

JAKARTA (Batavia), Indonesia, Jan. 10 (AP)—A former Dutch Army captain leading a private rebel army in western Java has threatened open warfare against the new United States of Indonesia, a Government spokesman said today.

The leader of the band of several thousand Eurasians, Indonesians and a few Europeans is known as Captain (the Turk) Westerling. He was in command of a special Dutch force that reportedly killed thousands of Indonesians in 1946 on the island of Celebes.

The officer later was discharged from the Dutch Army and the Dutch have disavowed his present actions in recruiting a rebel band operating in the western Java mountains.

The Secretary General of the Indonesian Ministry of Information said the rebel leader had issued an ultimatum threatening open war by Jan. 12 unless the Government officially recognized his force.

Asked by reporters what the Government intended to do about the ultimatum, Premier Mohamed Hatta said: "If he takes action, we also will take action."

The Premier said that "it is reported there is some connection" between the rebel group and the fanatical Moslem rebels who have proclaimed an independent state of Darul Islam in western Java.

Indonesian troops have clashed recently with the Darul Islam fighters. Indonesian newspaper reports indicated that the Westerling guerilla fighters and those of Darul Islam might total about 20,000 men in western Java.

Asked about a rumor that Darul Islam had offered a peace proposal, the Premier said: "If there is a proposal, we would consider it."

Meanwhile the Indonesian Cabinet, meeting today, decided to send a delegate to the International Labor Organization meeting in Ceylon. The Cabinet also voted to suspend all death sentences in Indonesia.

Sec. Of State Reviews Administration Stand Before Senate Group

By Don Whitehead

Washington, Jan. 10—(AP)—Secretary of State Acheson defended the administration's disputed Formosa policy today in a closed-door session with senators critical of it.

Acheson was before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee for a general review of foreign policy.

Sitting in with the committee were a group of Republican senators who are not members but who had asked for the right to question Acheson face-to-face.

"Just A Simple Boy"

When Acheson went into the committee room, a reporter asked him if he thought he could convince the senators that his policies are correct.

Acheson quipped: "I'm just a simple boy. I'll tell them the truth."

The committee permitted movie and still cameramen to take picture for half an hour before they locked the doors and got down to brass tacks with Acheson.

Among the Republican non-members invited to sit in were Senators Tobey (N. H.), Saltonstall (Mass.), Knowland (Calif.) and Ferguson (Mich.)

Knowland and Ferguson have led the Republican criticism of President Truman's decision against United States Government military aid or advice for the defenders of Formosa—the big island off China which is the last stronghold of the Chinese Nationalist Government.

Before Acheson reached the capitol, Senator Taft of Ohio, Republican policy chief in the Senate, said that "a small amount of U. S. military aid would save Formosa."

Free Until Treaty Is Signed

The island should be kept free, Taft told a reporter, until the Japanese peace treaty is signed.

"I don't think the Communists will attack if we say that Formosa is to be kept free until the disposition of the peace treaty," Taft added.

Earlier, Taft and former President Herbert Hoover had called for the U. S. Navy to defend Formosa if necessary from any Communist attack.

President Truman's statement on on Formosa last week wiped out any possibility that the government will make any military moves to save Formosa.

ACHESON DEFENDS FORMOSA POLICY

Secretary Urges Economic Aid to Lands Outside of Russian Orbit

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10 (AP)—Secretary of State Acheson today upheld the administration's stand against military intervention on Formosa. He was reported to have said the United States could do more to combat communism in the seething Orient through economic aid to lands still outside the Red orbit.

Chairman Connally (D-Tex) told reporters Acheson expressed that view in a day-long session with members of the Senate Foreign Relations committee which Connally heads.

Says Defense Impregnable

The Texan also quoted the secretary as saying that regardless of Formosa's fate this country has an "impregnable" defense line in the Pacific without making use of that island stronghold.

But two committee members who asked their names to be withheld disputed Connally's statement that Acheson had termed America's Pacific defenses "impregnable." They quoted the secretary as saying that he was not qualified to pass on military strategy and any such appraisal would have to come from the joint chiefs of staff.

This argument came as an aftermath to the lengthy testimony Acheson gave on United States foreign policy in general.

Among those attending the closed-door session was a group of Republicans who have been demanding that the United States extend direct military aid and guidance to help Chiang Kai Shek's Nationalist forces keep Formosa out of the hands of the Chinese Reds.

Connally said Acheson, however, reaffirmed the policy stand President Truman took last week in announcing that this country will offer only economic assistance to the embattled Nationalists.

The secretary also made the further point, Connally said, that future recognition of the Chinese communist regime will depend on how it demonstrates its willingness to abide by international law and protect American citizens and property.

CZECH SLAIN AS SPY OF U.S.

Executed Before American Brother's Plea Is Heard

Washington, Jan. 10 (AP)—Dr. Vladimir Outrata, Czechoslovakian Ambassador to the United States, disclosed today that Karol Folta, brother of a Minneapolis cafe owner, has been executed as an American spy.

He made the disclosure in a letter to Senator Humphrey (D., Minn.).

Humphrey had asked the Ambassador to intervene to avert the execution after receiving a plea from the brother, Andrew Folta, of Minneapolis.

Brother Czech National

Announcement that Karol, a Czech national, had been sentenced to death was made January 1 by the Prague newspaper Pravda. The brother wrote Humphrey January 2 and the Senator asked the Ambassador to intervene on January 3.

Ambassador Outrata, in his letter to Humphrey, said:

"I had no material opportunity to advise my Government of your interest in the case of Karol Folta as you asked me to do in your letter of January 3.

"The penalty was carried out before your letter arrived."

Pravda also reported January 1 that Karol's wife, Zuzan, was sentenced to 25 years imprisonment on charges of spying for the United States.

Led Outlawed Party

Two other brothers of Karol, John and Adam Folta, also live in Minneapolis.

Andrew Folta had told Humphrey Karol was a former leader of the outlawed Slovak Democratic party.

Ambassador Outrata told Humphrey it was "an unfortunate situation" that caused "the necessity of Czechoslovakia tribunals and the Government not only to enunciate but also to carry out the highest penalty in individual cases involving the gravest political crimes."

"Czechoslovakia does not, however, intend in the slightest degree to urge her own political principles upon other nations and the Czechoslovakian people wish nothing better than peaceful collaboration and creative competition with other nations," he continued.

Pressure From Abroad

"As a man interested in world politics, you can certainly imagine the enormous pressure being exerted on the small Czechoslovakian republic from abroad.

"The foreign press, radio, not to mention other more or less legal and even official means of 'ideological warfare,' do not stop for a moment in their endeavor to agitate the Czechoslovakia people, incite individuals or groups of the nation against their Government, provoke various sorts of subversive and conspiratorial activities, promising foreign support to susceptible elements and exalting such criminal actions.

"There is, I am sorry to say, a small number of people who are responsive to such dangerous propaganda and let themselves be inducted to acts which no government in the world could consider anything else than the gravest crimes against the security of the state.

"I appreciate the fact that the United States are in a fortunate position where it is not necessary for them to penalize the crimes of treason, espionage, etc., by death in times of peace.

"Unfortunately, the position of small and dangerously exposed Czechoslovakia is naturally different and the Czechoslovakian Government must, although reluctantly, in individual cases, resort to this extreme measure of justice.

"The case of Karol Folta is just one of such cases. I would welcome the realization of the people in various countries who are responsible for the so-called 'cold war' of their terrible responsibility in this respect as in others."

D.P. Commission Denounces McCarran's Refugee Charges

Washington, Jan. 10 (AP) — Charges that persons suspected of being Communists were cleared for entry into the United States as displaced persons brought a retort tonight from the Displaced Persons Commission.

The charges, the commission said, "abound in untruths, half truths and simple lies."

The charges were contained in testimony made public by Senator McCarran (D., Nev.). The testimony, taken by McCarran in Germany last October, came from John W. Cutler, Jr., who said he had been hired by the commission as a "selector" of refugees to be brought to the United States.

CIC Ruling Final

Cutler said employés of the commission were ordered to grant clearance to European refugees whom the Army regarded as Communists or possibly Communists.

The commission, headed by Ugo Carusi, issued a statement tonight, saying:

"It is an automatic rule and a long-standing policy of the commission that any displaced person is automatically barred from admission if the Counter Intelligence Corps of the United States Army reports that he appears to be a person who is a member of or participated in a movement hostile to the United States.

"It is a basic policy of the commission that where there is any doubt as to security of any displaced person, such doubt is resolved against the displaced person and he is barred from entering the United States."

Personal Bias Charged

The commission statement said Cutler had a reputation among his colleagues in Europe of being a young man "with a strong personal bias against persons of particular faith." The statement added that Cutler "resented the fact that the assignment of interviewing displaced persons was given to another employé."

"His views of the job," the commission said, "was that he should wander through displaced persons camps at will, choosing whomever it fitted his fancy for admission into the United States."

It hinted at disciplinary action against Cutler, but added:

"However, disciplinary action in his case under present circumstances is better taken after he has had every opportunity to speak his mind so that action by the commission cannot fairly be construed as a punishment for giving his views to a member of the United States Senate.

McCarran recently returned from Europe, where for several weeks he conducted a one-man investigation of the displaced-persons situation. His trip was authorized by the Senate Judiciary Committee. McCarran is chairman of the committee.

Opposes House Measure

The Nevada senator is a leader of a Senate group which opposes passage of a House-approved bill which would liberalize the present refugee law. The Senate shelved the bill last fall after McCarran filed a cabled protest against it from Europe. At that time the Senate instructed its Judiciary Committee to send some kind of a D.P. measure back to the floor by January 25.

In a report to the Senate last week on his investigation, McCarran said there has been a complete breakdown of administration of the refugee program. He said he found a great many cases of fraud and perjury in the operation of the program.

McCarran's questioning of Cutler took place in Munich. Cutler identified himself as an American citizen, a native of Boston, and said his home is in New York. He said he went to work for the Displaced Persons Commission late in 1948, and added that he had been stationed in Butzbach, Frankfurt and Munich, Germany.

Draft Hearing Pledged Soon

Wahington, Jan. 10 (AP)—An early hearing was promised today on the peacetime draft law which President Truman says "must" be continued.

Informed that Louis A. Johnson, Secretary of Defense, would send a draft-extension bill to Congress this week, Representative Vinson (D., Ga.), chairman of the House Armed Services Committee said:

"Of course we will promptly give a hearing to the Defense Department's request.

"But I think I know exactly what this committee will do."

Many members of the committee are openly hostile to a further extension of the Selective Service Act. No men have been inducted since last January. Vinson wrote the President last fall there was little chance that Congress would extend the act, which is due to expire June 30.

Military men want to keep it on the books in the belief it would bolster voluntary enlistments, save months of time in the event that war broke out, and serve notice that the United States means business in the North Atlantic pact and other moves against potential aggressors.

GOP URGES PROBE OF DENFELD CASE

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10 — (AP) Angry Republican demands for an investigation into the firing of Admiral Louis E. Denfeld delayed Senate action today on the nomination of Admiral Forrest P. Sherman to succeed Denfeld as chief of naval operations.

Denfeld was ousted last Oct. 27, just two weeks after he testified before a Congressional committee that policies adopted by top Army and Air Force brass in the Pentagon were crippling the Navy's attack power.

President Truman announced the dropping of Denfeld following weeks of explosive charges and counter charges by admirals, generals and lesser lights of the three armed services. Mr. Truman said he acted on the recommendation of Secretary of the Navy Matthews.

Denfeld May Retire

At a stormy session today, Chairman Tydings (D-Md) of the Senate Armed Services committee agreed to put off consideration of the Sherman appointment until Jan. 19. That is the date when Denfeld's present leave expires. He is expected to disclose then whether he plans to throw up his 40-year naval career or accept a lesser post.

Tydings cautioned the committee against voting for an investigation until it knows all the facts in the Denfeld case. He said he knew some inside facts "not generally known."

Tydings announced that Secretary Matthews will appear before the committee on Thursday, and indicated that Matthews may give the Senators a new slant on the controversial episode.

"The committee should hear from the secretary of the Navy and hear all the facts," he said.

Tydings reversed his original stand and consented to postpone action on Sherman after Senator Knowland (R-Calif) insisted Congress should find out whether Denfeld was dropped because of his testimony on Capitol Hill last fall. Knowland recalled that high officials had promised there would be no reprisals for testimony given to Congress.

Approval Seen Certain

Several Republicans, including Senators Bridges (NH) and Gurney (SD), supported Knowland.

However, there seemed to be no question about Sherman's ultimate confirmation. Knowland called Sherman "well fitted" for the post as the Navy's No. 1 admiral and made it clear he was only seeking to clear up any injustice in the Denfeld case.

Earlier, Tydings had contended that Knowland and others were "using Sherman as a battering ram for something that is not before this commitee."

"Even if we should find that Admiral Denfeld has been mistreated, that has no bearing on the fitness of Admiral Sherman," Tydings said.

Sitting nearby, Admiral Sherman listened intently to the debate.

He showed no change of expression as Senator Morse (R.-Ore.) cut in to remark:

"If Denfeld was not disciplined because of the house fiasco, he should have been."

Morse said the conduct of naval officers during last October's hearings before the House Armed Services committee was "worse than Hollywood slapstick."

Cites Crommelin Action

In this connection, Morse cited the "passing of secret papers down a dark corridor"—an obvious allusion to the action of Navy Capt. John G. Crommelin who slipped confidential letters to newsmen and thereby touched off the House investigation of the row among the armed services.

Crommelin, a World War II air ace, was later reprimanded and shifted from the Pentagon in Washington to San Francisco.

On the other side of the capitol, the House Armed Services committee decided to launch a study into "the true state of national defense."

A controversy over the island brought from some senators suggestions of U. S. naval aid to the Nationalists in their battle to hold Formosa against the onslaught of the Chinese communists.

Last Thursday, President Truman told his news conference that the U .S., would not give military aid to the island citadel. He promised continued aid for Nationalist China under the Marshall Plan.

JOHNSON CITES CUT IN DEFENSE BUDGET

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—(AP) Defense Secretary Johnson said today the $13,500,000,000 budget proposed for the armed forces was whittled down from an original $20,000,000,000 estimate of needs.

He recalled to a news conference that Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower came to Washington last spring to preside temporarily over the joint chiefs of staff and help frame a budget for the three armed forces.

Johnson said the total of requests added up to $20,000,000,000 at that time. The months of talking and cutting that followed eventually reduced it to the $13,500,000,000 which President Truman put in his executive budget sent to Congress yesterday.

The president's budget covers the government's proposed spending program for the 12 months beginning next July 1.

Johnson has been putting on an economy campaign in the Defense department over the last several months. He said a report on it will be ready for Congress early next month.

Asked whether military men think the $13,500,000,000 is adequate for defense, Johnson replied that it was a "sufficiency for the hour."

U. S. ARMY TANKS SOLD TO CHINESE; SENT TO FORMOSA

Nationalists Buy Nearly 300 Armored Vehicles with U. S. Aid Funds

'EXCESS' EQUIPMENT

Tanks Which Cost $58,000 to Build Purchased for $1,000 Each

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 10—(AP) Nearly three hundred U. S. Army tanks and armored cars were being loaded today aboard a Turkish freighter here for shipment to the Chinese Nationalists at Formosa.

The equipment was sold from "excess to immediate U. S. needs" in storage at the Lima (Ohio) ordnance depot.

In Washington, the Chinese embassy said the tanks and cars were purchased under the $125,000,000 aid program voted China by Congress in 1948.

Lt. Col. R. B. Fontaine, commander of the Lima depot, said loading of the armored vehicles aboard Reading company trains was completed last week.

Chinese Made Arrangements

They were brought to a Port Richmond pier in northeastern Philadelphia for shipment to the Pacific aboard the S. S. Mardin, a freighter owned by Marti T.A.S. of Istanbul, Turkey.

The Chinese Nationalist government made all transportation arrangements, both rail and water, Col. Fontaine said.

Maurice McDermott, State department press officer, said the Chinese government had been spending the aid money through its own purchasing agents and had bought whatever armaments it wanted.

"We still recognize the Nationalist government of China and would interpose no objection to its exporting this material from this country," McDermott added.

The only description and indication of designation was provided by this bill of lading on one of the 90 flatcars which are being loaded aboard the freighter:

"The Chinese government is paying for packing, handling, and transportation direct, and not from funds allotted to the department of defense."

Cost $1,000 each

"Markings peculiar to the army armored command, except that of the registration number will be removed from the vehicles."

The price of the tanks was listed in the bill as $1,000 each. Similar tanks, without weapons, cost about $58,000 to build during the war.

Government sources in Washington reported that the shipment included 70 medium tanks, 100 armored cars and 100 scout cars. They said another 30 tanks left this country for Formosa about a week ago.

The only comment from Captain Nuri Yilmaz of the Mardin was that he was taking a shipment of sulphite to Formosa.

"I can't say," he replied when asked where he was taking the tanks.

"What is your next port of call," he was asked by newsmen.

"I don't know," he replied.

Sources who desired to remain anonymous said the tanks and armored cars also are bound for Formosa.

B. H. Sobelman & Co., Inc., of Philadelphia, the ship's agents, declined to give detailed information about the shipment.

"That's the owner's business," a spokesman said. He did disclose that the Mardin is an 8,077 ton freighter and will depart next week.

Formosa, an island situated off the coast of China, is headquarters for Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek's Nationalist government.

New Nonbattery Sniperscope For Arctic Seen Near By Army

Fort Belvoir, Va., Jan. 10 (AP)—A step toward eliminating batteries as power sources for instruments that enable soldiers to see in total darkness was reported today by the Army.

Military scientists hope that eventually such seeing-in-the-dark instruments as the "sniperscope" might be used in the Arctic, where low temperatures now prohibit use of battery-powered instruments of this type.

Today's announcement concerned development of two experimental models of small-sized, hand-winding, electro-static generators which can be carried on a soldier's back, instead of a group of batteries.

Need Frequent Recharging

The scientists said that batteries for the sniperscope and similar instruments require recharging after three to five hours' use and are also subject to breakdowns.

Each of the new portable generators is designed to furnish enough power for an electron "image" tube in such instruments as the sniperscope and night-vision binoculars.

These tubes help create a visual image of a target in darkness. The target is first "illuminated" by infrared, or invisible light. The infrared, reflected from the target, strikes the electron "image" tube. Certain electrons are caused to move from the tube toward a screen, creating an image the soldier can see—and shoot at.

Work On Second Generator

They still do not eliminate use of batteries for infrared light bulbs. These bulbs require more current than the new generators can supply.

But scientists at Fort Belvoir's engineer research and development laboratories said research is underway aimed at producing another type of small generator which could be used to activate the infrared bulb.

They said the experimental generators already developed offer hope of enabling individual soldiers to carry only an electro-static generator on their backs, with infrared light being furnished by a huge light source—such as an anti-aircraft searchlight—covering a wide area.

SENATOR SAYS U.S. REARMS RUSSIA

SANTA FE, N. M., Jan. 10. —(AP) Senator Malone (R-Nev) declared bitterly today the United States is rearming Russia for World War III.

In a strongly-worded denunciation of the administration, the Nevada lawmaker asserted the nation has no foreign policy. He announced plans to "blow the lid" off Thursday on his return to Washington.

Malone is in New Mexico for hearings by a Senate Public Works subcommittee on highways, public buildings and reclamation.

'Nuts', He Says

"We're nuts," Malone snapped in an interview. "We are giving Russia all she needs for a war against us. We're providing the material with which she is consolidating her gains."

Malone said he would introduce a joint resolution in the Senate Thursday demanding immediate suspension of U. S. aid to any country who is in any way assisting Russia.

He proposed a conference with Russian delegates and said they should be told:

"You must return to within your boundaries and start acting like a civilization. From the moment of your refusal, the United States will cut off all aid to any country aiding you."

Have No Policy

If this policy is adopted, the Nevada senator told a newsman, the European aid program would be wiped out. He charged each of the 16 ECA countries with shipping products behind the Iron Curtain.

The senator said the United States is shipping raw materials, money and machinery to ECA countries, who in turn are turning over manufactured products to Russia.

"We have no foreign policy," Malone declared. "All we have is a series of financial programs. We are assisting the very countries we say we are against."

CROMMELIN ON COAST ASSAILS EISENHOWER

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 10 (AP) —Navy Capt. John G. Crommelin, outspoken foe of armed services unification, extended his attack tonight to Gen. Dwight D. (Ike) Eisenhower. Without naming the general he told the Pacific Traffic Association of San Francisco:

"I abhor the influence which a powerful potential Presidential candidate in Army uniform, who did not and has not declared his political party affiliations, could have on decisions of Congress."

That was Captain Crommelin's only reference to General Eisenhower. Asked by a reporter if his remarks were aimed at the former Chief of Staff, he said:

"That's a logical assumption. Yes, I meant Eisenhower."

Discussing unification, Captain Crommelin said Navy officers siding with him "do not wish to be a party to the conversion of the yearly defense budget into a $15,000,000,000 disarmament program."

"We simply cannot understand why the Air Force is exercising squatters' rights on the atom bomb," he also declared.

Captain Crommelin asserted that carrier task forces could deliver bombs from a distance of 500 miles at one-third the cost of intercontinental bombing from 3,500 miles, "and that includes the cost of the entire task force (ships and planes) and assumes that it will be wiped out at the end of a year of war."

U.S. JUDGE ORDERS PROBE OF WITNESS IN BRIDGES TRIAL

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 10—(AP) The Harry Bridges perjury trial was turned into a verbal rough house today over a defense lawyer's statement about the testimony of a government witness.

When the last invective had exploded, Federal Judge George B. Harris ordered U. S. Attorney Frank J. Hennessy and the grand jury to investigate the case of the witness —ex-communist Lawrence Seton Ross.

Under defense questioning yesterday, Ross, now managing editor of the Cotton Trade Journal at Memphis, Tenn., admitted he had lied about his birthplace, name and education.

Hits U. S. Lawyers

Chief Defense Attorney Vincent Hallinan accused F. Joseph Donohue, chief prosecutor, and three others on the government's side, of conspiring to deceive the court through Ross' testimony.

"They are in it just as deep as the man on the stand," Hallinan shouted.

Judge Harris ordered the jury to disregard Hallinan's remarks as being without justification "at this juncture." The judge told the fiery defense attorney his words constituted "misconduct."

Hallinan already has a contempt citation against him and a six-month jail term pending on appeal as a result of a brush with Judge Harris earlier in the trial.

Ross, like other government witnesses, had testified Bridges was high in Communist party councils in the mid 1930's. Bridges is acused of lying when he testified at his 1945 naturalization hearing that he had never been a member of the communist party. Two union aides —Henry Schmidt and J. R. Robertson—are on trial accused of conspiracy to defraud the government, in helping the Australian-born longshore leader gain U. S. citizenship.

Ross had testified he was born in Kentucky, was the son of a Kentucky planter, and had attended the University of Kentucky.

Claimed Kentucky Birth

But the defense forced him to admit his name was Rosenstein, that he had been born in Poland and came to the United States in 1910.

Hallinan called certain of the prosecution staff "collectors, trainers and educators of perjurers," and declared Donohue was "a front man and a hatchet man for the mob."

Donohue replied "as a special representative of the United States attorney general it would not be seemly for me to engage in a brawl with brawlers."

Donohue insisted that as soon as he saw that Ross was telling untruths the government communicated with the University of Kentucky. An answer was received Monday morning.

Ross today received a telegram from his wife saying "We all three love you for what you are. Anxiously awaiting your arrival."

American airlines said Ross had made a reservation to leave by plane for Tucson, Ariz., to join his wife and their two children. They plan to motor from Tucson to Memphis.

MALIK FAILS IN MOVE TO OUST TSIANG

Says He Will Not Return

JAN 11 1950

As Long As Nationalist Remains

Chinese Reds accept British recognition.....Page 4

Lake Success, N.Y., Jan. 10 (AP)—Russia's Jakob A. Malik angrily walked out of the United Nations Security Council today because the other delegates would not unseat Nationalist China's delegation.

In a parting shot, the Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister said he would not come back as long as the Nationalists sat at the council table.

Malik said meetings with the Nationalists present would be a parody and that T. F. Tsiang, chief Nationalist delegate, presiding as January chairman over the first Council meeting this year, "represents nobody."

Put Off Until Tomorrow

After some aimless discussion of rules and whether to go ahead with other business, the Council finally quit and put the issue of the Nationalist Chinese over to another meeting.

The Council adjourned at 5.20 P.M. until Thursday, when the Chinese question will be taken up.

The walkout was the second by the Russians since the Security Council was organized in 1946. The first came when Andrei A. Gromyko, now Chief Deputy Foreign Minister of the Soviet Union in Moscow, strode out March 27, 1946, in protest against a Council decision to take up Iranian charges against Russia. A Nationalist Chinese, Dr. Quo Tai-chi, now Ambassador to Brazil, was presiding at the time of the first Russian exit.

Out Nearly Two Weeks

Gromyko remained away from the Council nearly two weeks. Several meetings were held but no important decisions were made.

Malik's walkout came on the fourth anniversary of the first meeting of the United Nations General Assembly in London.

He opened up by reminding the Council that the Central People's Government of the People's Republic of China—the Communist regime at Peiping—had informed the 59-nation General Assembly last fall that Tsiang did not represent China.

Malik said he had told the Council last month that the Soviet delegation did not recognize the "Kuomintang representative" as a spokesman for China on the Council.

Backs Chou's Demand

Then he brought up a message from Chou En-lai, Foreign Minister of the Chinese Red Government, to the Security Council demanding the expulsion of the Nationalists.

Malik said the Russians agreed with that demand and presented a formal resolution to make it effective.

If the Council does not take appropriate measures to unseat the "Kuomintang representative," Malik said, the Soviet would boycott Council sessions until that had been done.

Malik took the unusual course of addressing "fellow-members of the Security Council" instead of saying "Mr. President." The only sign of recognition of Dr. Tsiang at all was when Malik held up his hand as a signal that he wanted to speak.

Vote Upholds Tsiang

Tsiang ruled the Russian resolution would be circulated and taken up at a special meeting of the Council.

Malik objected and Tsiang put it to a vote. Tsiang was upheld, eight votes to two.

Russia and Yugoslavia, generally at odds, voted together. Yugoslavia also has recognized the Chinese Communist government, but the Communists pointedly omitted Yugoslavia in sending their expulsion demand to other members of the Security Council.

The United States, Cuba, Ecuador, Egypt and France, which have not recognized the Communists, voted to uphold the chairman; Tsiang voted for his own ruling; Britain and Norway, which have broken relations with Tsiang's Government and recognized the Chinese Reds, voted against taking up the Russian resolution at this session.

India, a new member, abstained.

Tsiang prepared to go ahead with the Council business but Malik tapped on the table, held up his hand, and made his walkout speech. He folded his papers and strode out, followed by his large delegation, before the English translation was finished.

Walkout Speech Brief

Malik's walkout speech was brief. Here is the official United Nations English text:

"The Soviet Union delegation cannot acquiesce in the ruling which has just been sustained. Under conditions where five members of the Council (Russia, Britain, Yugoslavia, Norway and India) have severed relations with the group represented by the person now in the chair, it is abnormal that the Security Council should consider political questions which appear on its agenda.

If, therefore, the Security Council were to meet it would do so under the presidency of a person who, from the point of view of common sense and law, represents no one at all. This would be not a meeting but a parody of a meeting.

"Cannot Participate"

"For these reasons, and for the reasons which have been fully outlined in my statement today, I, as representative of the Soviet Union, cannot participate in the work of this meeting of the Security Council until the representative of the (Nationalist) Kuomintang has been removed from membership of the Security Council. This being so, I cannot remain at this table but shall leave the chamber."

No one on the Council made a move as Malik left.

After the Council adjourned, Dr. Tsiang said:

"It is most unfortunate that one delegation should attempt to dictate to the whole Council.

"That attitude is outrageous and most characteristic of the Soviet Union. Instead of adhering to the rules of procedure, the Soviet delegation came out with a dictatorial demand which, unless met, would cause them to walk out. Such an attitude is impossible for future co-operation."

Bebler Suggests Delay

Ales Bebler, Deputy Foreign Minister, of Yugoslavia, a new member sitting for the first time, told the Council the best solution would be to adjourn the China debate now, study the Soviet resolution and decide on it before going ahead on any other business.

Ernest A. Gross, representing the United States, said he regretted that the Soviet Union had not complied with a Council rule which permits a challenged delegate to sit until a decision is made. He said that the Russians might claim that any business taken up at this session would not be legal and for that reason he reluctantly agreed on the adjournment.

Sir Alexander Cadogan, of Britain, said the Soviet step was premature.

The Council had been called to discuss sending on to the Commission for Conventional Armaments a resolution calling for a non-atomic arms census. That subject was not even touched at this meeting.

CHINESE ROW CONFRONTS UN

11-Nation Security Council Meets Today

By Max Harrelson

Lake Success, Jan. 10—(AP)—Russia is expected to fire another blast at Nationalist China on the diplomatic front when the United Nations Security Council convenes this afternoon for its first 1950 meeting.

The 11-nation council is scheduled to discuss a proposed world-wide non-atomic arms census, but the situation is complicated by these factors:

1. The council president's for this month is Nationalist China's chief delegate T. F. Tsiang, whose right to represent China already has been challenged by Russia.
2. The Chinese Communist regime in a series of messages has asked the council to expel the Nationalist delegation.
3. Five members of the council—Russia, Britain, Yugoslavia, India and Norway—have granted diplomatic recognition to the Chinese Reds and no longer look on the Nationalists as rulers of China.
4. The United States, although still recognizing the Nationalist regime, is in the midst of a controversy with Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek's Formosa island government over the shelling of the American freighter Flying Arrow yesterday by Nationalist warships off Communist Shanghai.

U. N. officials said the Russians probably would pursue the same tactics they carried on yesterday in two other U. N. bodies and merely declare that Russia does not consider the Nationalist delegation as representing China.

These officials expressed belief Russia would not make a formal move to unseat the Nationalist delegation until such a proposal was sure of the seven votes needed for approval. That time may still be several months away, it is generally agreed here.

COPLON TRIAL HEARS G-MAN

Inspector Says Probe Began 3 Days Before Wire-Tapping

New York, Jan. 10 (AP)—An FBI inspector testified today that G-men began investigating Judith Coplon three days before her telephone was tapped.

Howard B. Fletcher, the inspector, took the stand at a pretrial hearing through which Miss Coplon and Valentin A. Gubitchev, Soviet engineer, are trying to escape trial here on spy conspiracy charges.

Federal Judge Sylvester J. Ryan has told the Government it must prove that its case against them does not rest solely on wire-tap evidence.

Cites Confidential Informant

Fletcher testified that the tip which led to an investigation of Miss Coplon, then a Justice Department employé, came from a confidential informant.

"Isn't wire-tapping sometimes called a confidential informant?" asked Gubitchev's attorney, Abraham L. Pomerantz.

"Yes," the inspector replied.

He testified, however, that the investigation of Miss Coplon began on January 3, 1949, and that her telephone was first tapped three days later.

Wants Records Produced

Archibald Palmer, Miss Coplon's lawyer, asked that all FBI records relating to the "confidential informant" be produced, saying he wanted to see if the informant "happened to be a wire-tapper."

The judge refused.

Miss Coplon already has been convicted in Washington of stealing secret Government papers for the benefit of the Russians.

Her lawyer disclosed today that he had cited United States Attorney J. Howard McGrath's recent defense of wire-tapping in a new affidavit to the United States Supreme Court supporting his request for a new trial on the Washington charges.

Refers To 3 Trips

McGrath said over the week end that the FBI makes limited use of wire-tapping, and will continue to do so, under a procedure once approved by the late President Roosevelt.

Today's hearing also brought testimony by Miss Coplon's former boss, William E. Foley, that he told the FBI about three trips which the brunette defendant planned to make from Washington to New York.

The defense contends that the FBI learned about these trips by tapping Miss Coplon's wires.

Mme. Chiang On Way To Formosa

New York, Jan. 10—(AP)—Mme. Chiang Kai-Shek, wife of the Chinese generalissimo, left today by plane for San Francisco on the first leg of a flight to join her husband in Formosa.

Her only statement as she walked to the Trans-World Airlines plane was an expression of thanks to those who have expressed sympathy for China.

"As I am leaving," she said, "I wish to take this opportunity to thank the many friends who have sent telegrams, letters and phone calls to express sympathy and love for my country."

As she approached the plane, she said, "I wish you all the luck in the world; God Bless you; good bye."

Mme. Chiang said she had made her final statement previously. She referred to her radio broadcast Sunday in which she pledged Nationalist China to war to the death against Communist armies.

She was accompanied on the flight to San Francisco by her secretary, K. W. Yu, and Tsung-Chi, Chinese ambassador to Italy.

London, Jan. 10--(ap)--Yugoslavia demanded today that Czechoslovakia immediately release two officials of the Yugoslav People's front organization "and all other Yugoslav citizens who without any foundation are still in Czechoslovak prisons."

The demand was reported by Tanjug, official Yugoslav newsagency. Tanjug said the Yugoslav Embassy in Prague delivered a sharp protest to the Czechoslovak foreign ministry.

In its protest Premier Marshal Tito's government charged that a number of Yugoslav citizens had been arrested in Czechoslovakia "only because they were Yugoslav citizens or because they expressed a desire to return to their homeland."

The Embassy asked for the release of Dimitrije Dimitrijevic, president of the Yugoslav People's front, and Ivan Ivanisevic, secretary of the front's branch in Brno. It said Dimitrijevis was arrested Dec. 17 without reason.

GENEVA, SWITZERLAND, JAN.10-(AP)-ITALY'S ANNOUNCED PLANS TO SET UP MILITARY, NAVAL AND AIR BASES IN ITALIAN SOMALILAND WHEN SHE TAKES OVER TRUSTEESHIP ADMINISTRATION OF THAT EAST AFRICAN TERRITORY DREW SHARP OPPOSITION FROM SEVERAL U.N. MEMBERS YESTERDAY.

THE PLAN WAS SUBMITTED TO A U.N. TRUSTEESHIP COUNCIL SUBCOMMITTEE MEETING HERE TO DRAFT A TRUSTEESHIP AGREEMENT WHEREBY ITALY CAN TAKE OVER CONTROL OF THE EAST COAST COUNTRY, WHICH BORDERS ON ETHIOPIA. SOMALILAND WAS AN ITALIAN COLONY BEFORE WORLD WAR II AND WAS OCCUPIED BY BRITAIN, WHICH NOW GOVERNS THE COUNTRY TEMPORARILY.

THE U.N. GENERAL ASSEMBLY VOTED LAST FALL TO PLACE ITALIAN SOMALILAND UNDER ITALIAN TRUSTEESHIP FOR 10 YEARS BEFORE GRANTING IT FULL INDEPENDENCE.

ITALY'S PROPOSALS "TO ESTABLISH IN THE TERRITORY WHATEVER MILITARY, NAVAL AND AIR INSTALLATIONS ARE NECESSARY FOR THE DEFENSE OF THE TERRITORY" WERE PROMPTLY OPPOSED BY THE PHILIPPINES.

THE PHILIPPINES ALSO OPPOSED ITALY'S PLAN TO MAINTAIN ITALIAN TROOPS IN THE TERRITORY.

ALTHOUGH ITALY'S DELEGATION IS SEATED AT THE CONFERENCE TABLE IT WILL HAVE NO VOTE, SINCE ITALY IS NOT A MEMBER OF THE U.N.

Geneva, Switzerland, Jan. 10--(AP)---Italy attempted today to allay Ethiopian fears that [redacted] Italy's administration of her former colony of Somaliland would threaten [redacted] Ethiopian security.

But Abbebe Retta, Ethiopian observer at the United Nations trusteeship council's subcommittee on Somaliland, insisted "temptation can come from such a responsibility."

The U.N. named Italy for the job in Somaliland, which borders He was referring to Italian assumption of administrative authority over the former colony at the request of the U.N.

Referring to [redacted] past wars between Italy and Ethiopia, Retta said "ethiopians have a kind of suspicion that their security will be threatened."

A foreign ministry spokesman in Rome said "it makes no difference"to Italy whether she is allowed to construct military installations in Somaliland. Italy's announced plans to set up military, naval and air bases in the territory drew opposition from several U.N. members yesterday.

JAN 11 1950

The exchange between Italy and Ethiopia came as the subcommittee began to draft the first article of an agreement under which Italy will administer the old colony for 10 years. After that period, Somaliland is to become independent.

IN A MARKED DEVIATION FROM THE USUAL STRICT PARTY POLICY, THEY INVITED HELP FROM ALL POLITICAL BELIEFS IN THE FIGHT AGAINST "ANGLO-AMERICAN IMPERIALISM".
THE SOVIET-LICENSED NEUE ZEIT QUOTED WILHELM KOENEN, CHIEF OF THE COMMUNIST NATIONAL FRONT SECRETARIAT:
"ALL NATIONAL FORCES X X X EVEN IF THEY ARE NOT DEMOCRATIC AND ANTI-FASCIST" ARE ASKED TO JOIN THE NATIONAL FRONT. FORMER NAZIS, KOENEN SAID, ARE WELCOME TO LEADING POSTS IN THE CAMPAIGN.
THE COMMUNIST OFFENSIVE HAS RUMBLED STEADILY AHEAD, AND LEADERS HAVE OPENLY DECLARED THEY WILL WAGE BITTER POLITICAL WAR IN THE WEST WHERE COMMUNISM HAS FOUND ITSELF FAR OUTDISTANCED.
ACCORDING TO WESTERN PRESS AND OTHER REPORTS, THE COMMUNIST OFFENSIVE SEEMS TO BE SHAPING UP THIS WAY:
1. REORGANIZATION OF THE PARTY IN WEST GERMANY.
2. A CAREFULLY PLANNED WEST GERMAN TRADE UNION CAMPAIGN.
3. SPECIAL ATTENTION TO THOSE WAVERING BETWEEN COMMUNISM AND DEMOCRACY.
4. NEW ENCOURAGEMENT OF UNEMPLOYMENT PROTESTS TO FURTHER PARTY POLICY, ESPECIALLY IN THE INDUSTRIAL RUHR VALLEY.
REORGANIZATION OF THE COMMUNIST PARTY IN WEST GERMANY WAS REPORTEDLY LOOKED ON AS A PRIME ITEM IN THE NEW PUTSCH.
UNDER THE GAUNT, PERSISTENT MAX REIMANN THE COMMUNISTS FREQUENTLY HAVE STUBBED THEIR TOES. EAST GERMAN COMMUNIST LEADERS ARE DISSATISFIED, AND THERE ARE RUMORS REIMANN MAY BE OUSTED FROM HIS JOB.

BONN, GERMANY, JAN. 10-(AP)-THE ~~ASSOCIATED~~ PRESS WAS IN ERROR IN A DISPATCH FROM BONN SATURDAY, JAN. 7, IN SAYING THAT THE SAAR VALLEY "WAS ANNEXED TO GERMANY AFTER THE WAR OF 1870."
THE STATEMENT WAS CONTAINED IN A PARAGRAPH OF BACKGROUND MATERIAL TELLING OF THE DEMAND OF JACOB KAISER, WEST GERMAN MINISTER FOR REUNIFICATION OF GERMANY, FOR A PLEBISCITE REFERENDUM TO DETERMINE THE POLITICAL FUTURE OF THE TERRITORY NOW OCCUPIED BY FRANCE.
--DASH--
THE REFERENCE WORK, THE NEW LARNED HISTORY, STATES THAT THE SAAR CAME INTO THE POSSESSION OF FRANCE IN 1766 AS PART OF LORRAINE, BUT WAS TAKEN AWAY AFTER WATERLOO. DURING THE FIRST WORLD WAR, THE HISTORY SAYS, "THE FRENCH DECIDED IF POSSIBLE TO SECURE THE 'RE-ANNEXATION' OF LORRAINE WITH THE 'BOUNDARIES OF 1814' WHICH WOULD RESTORE THIS IMPORTANT COAL AREA TO FRENCH CONTROL."
IN JANUARY 1935, THE SAARLANDERS VOTED TO RETURN TO GERMANY IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE VERSAILLES PEACE TREATY, WHICH PROVIDED FOR A PLEBISCITE. THE TREAT TRANSFERRED THE OWNERSHIP OF SAAR MINES TO THE FRENCH BUT PLACED THE TERRITORY UNDER THE ADMINISTRATION OF A LEAGUE OF NATIONS COMMISSION FOR 15 YEARS OR UNTIL THE TIME OF THE PLEBISCITE.)

A THIRD WAS OFFERED A JOB DRIVING A TRUCK FROM LINZ TO SALZBURG. EN ROUTE TO LINZ TO PICK UP THE TRUCK THE VICTIM AND HIS KIDNAPPERS STOPPED IN A WINEHOUSE FOR A DRINK. THE VICTIM WAS DRUGGED AND CARRIED UNCONSCIOUS ACROSS THE DEMARKATION LINE.
A FOURTH VICTIM WAS OFFERED A CHANCE TO OPERATE IN A BLACK MARKET AND PLIED WITH DRINKS IN CELEBRATION. WHILE HE WAS DRUNK IN THE BACK SEAT OF THE CAR, THE KIDNAPPERS TRIED TO DRIVE HIM ACROSS THE DEMARKATION LINE. THE MAN JUMPED OUT AND STARTED TO RUN, BUT WAS HALTED BY SEVERAL SHOTS FIRED BY A SOVIET SENTRY.

THESE FOUR MEN, THE ARMY SAID, HAVE ALL SINCE BEEN SEEN IN THE SOVIET SECRET PRISON IN THE SOVIET SECTOR OF VIENNA.

THE RUSSIANS ALLOWED THE MEMBERS OF THE RING TO CARRY ON ALMOST UNLIMITED CIGARETTE SMUGGLING FROM HUNGARY, THE ARMY SAID.

TRUCK LOADS OF AMERICAN AND HUNGARIAN CIGARETTES WERE BROUGHT INTO VIENNA FROM BUDAPEST. THE TRUCK DRIVERS WERE OFTEN STOPPED BY AUSTRIAN CUSTOMS AGENTS, BUT WERE FREED ON THE DIRECT INTERVENTION OF RUSSIAN BORDER GUARDS.

NIGHT LEAD VOGELER

BY ENDRE MARTON

BUDAPEST,HUNGARY,JAN.10-(AP)-THE COMMUNIST PARTY NEWSPAPER SZABAD NEP REFERRED TO THE AMERICAN EFFORTS TO FREE ROBERT A.VOGELER AS "A WASTE OF ENERGY."

THAT WAS THE NEWSPAPER'S TITLE ON AN EDITORIAL CRITICIZING ACTIONS BY PRESIDENT TRUMAN AND U.S. DIPLOMATS IN THE CASE.

"MR.VOGELER MUST BE A VERY IMPORTANT MAN, CONSIDERING THE AMERICAN EFFORTS TO SECURE HIS RELEASE," SZABAD NEP SAID. "X X X IS IT SURPRISING THAT WE ARE CONVINCED WE HAVE MADE A GOOD CATCH?"

VOGELER, A NEW YORKER, HAS BEEN HELD INCOMMUNICADO BY HUNGARIAN AUTHORITIES SINCE NOV.18 ON CHARGES OF ESPIONAGE AND SABOTAGE. HE IS AN ASSISTANT VICE-PRESIDENT AND EASTERN EUROPEAN REPRESENTATIVE OF THE INTERNATIONAL TELEPHONE AND TELEGRAPH CORP., WHOSE HUNGARIAN SUBSIDIARIES WERE TAKEN OVER IN A BROADENING OF THE GOVERNMENT'S NATIONALIZATION PROGRAM DEC.19. A BRITON AND A HUNGARIAN ARE HELD WITH HIM.

JAN 11 1950

HUNGARY HAS REFUSED TO PERMIT AMERICAN DIPLOMATS TO SEE VOGELER AND HAS TURNED DOWN REQUESTS THAT HE BE FREED AND OUSTED FROM THE COUNTRY. THE U.S. STATE DEPARTMENT HAS CUT OFF TRAVEL BY U.S. CITIZENS TO HUNGARY AND ORDERED HUNGARIAN CONSULATES IN NEW YORK AND CLEVELAND CLOSED IN REPRISAL.

LS604PES

"BUT THE AMERICANS MADE VARIOUS PROPOSALS, BARGAINING THAT HUNGARIAN AUTHORITIES SHOULD RELEASE AND EXPEL VOGELER. THEY DID EVERYTHING, FROM VARIOUS THREATS TO PROMISES TO IMPROVE ECONOMIC RELATIONS, TO TRY TO OBTAIN VOGELER'S RELEASE. FINALLY, IS IT SURPRISING THAT WE ARE CONVINCED WE HAVE MADE A GOOD CATCH?"

HUNGARY, THE PAPER ADDED, WANTS TO KEEP "NORMAL RELATIONS WITH THE CAPITALISTS COUNTRIES." BUT FIRST THE CAPITALIST NATIONS, PARTICULARLY THE UNITED STATES, "HAVE TO LEARN THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN A MARSHALL COLONY AND AN INDEPENDENT SOVEREIGN PEOPLES DEMOCRACY."

PRAGUE, JAN.10-(AP)-RUDE PRAVO, THE COMMUNIST PARTY NEWSPAPER CHARGED ANEW TODAY THAT THE AMERICAN AND BRITISH EMBASSIES HERE WERE INVOLVED IN THREE PLOTS TO OVERTHROW THE CZECHOSLOVAK GOVERNMENT IN THE LAST YEAR.

"COOPERATION BETWEEN ANGLO-AMERICAN AND YUGOSLAV SPIES ON OUR TERRITORY ALSO HAS BEEN FULLY PROVED," THE COMMUNIST MOUTHPIECE DECLARED.

JAN 11 1950

SIMILAR CHARGES WERE MADE LAST MONTH BY RUDOLF SLANSKY, SECRETARY GENERAL OF THE CZECHOSLOVAK COMMUNIST PARTY, IN AN ARTICLE IN THE COMINFORM JOURNAL. THAT ARTICLE WAS REPRINTED SOME WEEKS AGO BY RUDE PRAVO.

WESTERN DIPLOMATIC QUARTERS SPECULATED THAT THE COMMUNIST GOVERNMENT MIGHT BE BUILDING UP A CASE FOR NEW ATTACKS AGAINST WESTERN EMBASSY PERSONNEL HERE OR PREPARING THE GROUNDWORK FOR A PUBLIC TRIAL IN WHICH AMERICAN-BRITISH-YUGOSLAV PLOTTING WOULD BE ALLEGED. SUCH TRIALS HAVE BEEN HELD IN HUNGARY AND BULGARIA.

"IN THE RECENT UNMASKING OF AN ANTI-STATE GROUP PART OF THE SPIES AND SABOTEURS, ENGAGED BY THE ANGLO-AMERICAN IMPERIALISTS, WERE LED BY THE YUGOSLAV INTELLIGENCE SERVICE," THE COMMUNIST PAPER SAID.

RUDE PRAVO HERE APPARENTLY REFERRED TO ONE OF THE MANY SECRET TREASON TRIALS KNOWN TO HAVE BEEN HELD IN THE PAST HALF YEAR. IT GAVE NO DETAILS OF THE THREE ALLEGED PUTSCHES.

RECENT CZECH TRIALS HAVE DEALT WITH MINOR FIGURES. THERE IS NO EVIDENCE YET THAT THE CZECHS ARE PREPARING ANYTHING COMPARABLE TO THE RAJK OR KOSTOV TRIALS WITH SUCH HIGHLY-PLACED PRINCIPALS.

THE WESTERN EMBASSIES HERE HAVE MADE NO REPLIES TO COMMUNIST PLOTTING CHARGES. HOWEVER, LAST AUTUMN WHEN THREE EMPLOYEES OF THE AMERICAN EMBASSY WERE EXPELLED ON CHARGES OF ESPIONAGE, THE U.S. STATE DEPARTMENT DENOUNCED THE ALLEGATIONS AS "TRUMPED UP."

"IN MEXICO, WHICH CANNOT ACTUALLY EXPORT MEAT, THERE HAS BEEN A CATTLE EPIDEMIC AND MANY HEAD OF CATTLE HAD TO BE SLAUGHTERED," IT SAID. "THE AMERICANS BOUGHT THE SLAUGHTERED CATTLE AND QUICKLY TINNED THEM. IN THIS WAY 352,000 POUNDS OF MEAT FROM THE ENFORCED SLAUGHTERS WERE TINNED."

THE PAPER SAID THAT DESPITE ALL THIS THE EUROPEAN CAPITALIST PRESS WILL FIND REASON TO PRAISE THE "BOUNTY OF OUR FRIENDS ACROSS THE BIG PUDDLE."

helsinki,finland,jan.10-(ap)-finland's social democratic government will face a parliamentary challenge tomorrow on its recent boosting wages 7.5 per cent.

there had been speculation earlier that the government might try to postpone debate on the issue until after the presidential elections scheduled for feb. 15. observers had speculated that premier karl fagerholm would resign if the issue were forced, but his willingness to face an immediate vote convinced most persons that no government crisis was at hand.

the question arose when the government recommended an end to the post-war raise freeze, a general 7.5 per cent raise and return to free collective bargaining.

it will now be up to management and unions to decide wage questions for themselves without government approval.

MOSCOW, JAN.10-(AP)-RUSSIA'S MILLIONS OF VOTERS WILL ELECT MEMBERS OF THE SUPREME SOVIET OF THE U.S.S.R., THE NATION'S TWO-HOUSE PARLIAMENT, MARCH 12.

THE ANNOUNCEMENT LAST NIGHT SAID PRIME MINISTER STALIN IS EXPECTED TO BE A CANDIDATE AGAIN IN THE STALIN DISTRICT OF MOSCOW AND WILL TAKE AN ACTIVE PERSONAL PART IN THE CAMPAIGN.

THE LAST ELECTION FOR THE SUPREME SOVIET WAS HELD FEB.9, 1946, AND THE ANNOUNCEMENT SAID THE NEW ONE WAS BEING HELD IN CONFORMITY WITH THE RUSSIAN CONSTITUTION.

IT IS OBVIOUS THAT COMMUNIST AND NON-PARTY BOLSHEVIK BLOC CANDIDATES WILL WIN OVERWHELMINGLY AS THEY HAVE IN PAST ELECTIONS. USUALLY MORE THAN 99 PER CENT OF THE VOTERS SUPPORT THE BLOC CANDIDATES.

THE FIRST STEP FOLLOWING THE ANNOUNCEMENT OF THE ELECTIONS WILL BE NOMINATION OF A CANDIDATE IN EACH CONSTITUENCY TO RUN ON THE BLOC TICKET. THE CANDIDATE CAN BE EITHER A COMMUNIST PARTY MEMBER OR A NON-PARTY MAN.

THE NOMINATIONS ARE EXPECTED TO START AS SOON AS POSSIBLE AND WILL BE FOLLOWED BY A CAMPAIGN FOR SUPPORT OF THE CANDIDATES CONDUCTED BY BOTH THE PARTY AND ASSISTED BY MILLIONS OF NON-PARTY PEOPLE.

THE CAMPAIGN IS EXPECTED TO BE CONDUCTED ON A TREMENDOUS SCALE. THE VIEWS OF THE COMMUNIST PARTY ON INTERNAL AND FOREIGN POLICIES WILL BE PROPAGANDIZED IN A MOVE TO MOBILZE PUBLIC OPINION BEHIND THE GOVERNMENT.

IN AN EDITORIAL ON THE ELECTION, THE COMMUNIST PARTYY NEWSPAPER PRAVDA ANNOUNCED THAT THE SOVIET INDUSTRIAL OUTPUT LAST YEAR WAS OVER 40 PER CENT HIGHER THAN THAT OF 1940. IT SAID PRODUCTION IN THE FOURTH QUARTER OF 1949 WAS OVER 50 PER CENT ABOVE THAT OF THE SAME PERIOD IN THE PREWAR YEAR. NO DETAILED FIGURES WERE GIVEN.

TAIPEI, FORMOSA, JAN. 10-(AP)-ABOUT 10 CHINESE NATIONALIST SOLDIERS, IRED BY BRITISH RECOGNITION OF THE CHINESE COMMUNIST GOVERNMENT, TRIED TO BREAK DOWN THE FLAG POLE IN THE BRITISH CONSULATE AT TAMSUI, FORMOSA BEFORE DAWN TODAY.

IT WAS THE SECOND ATTEMPT BY NATIONALIST SOLDIERS TO TEAR DOWN THE BRITISH FLAG. BOTH FAILED.

THE GROUP TODAY, DUPLICATING AN ATTEMPT SUNDAY BY THREE NATIONALIST SOLDIERS WHO SOUGHT TO TEAR DOWN THE UNION JACK AND REPLACE IT WITH THE CHINESE NATIONALIST FLAG, THREATENED TO SHOOT FOUR ARMED CHINESE GUARDS AROUND THE CONSULATE IF THEY INTERFERED.

CHINESE SOURCES SAID THE INTRUDERS MANAGED TO GET THE BRITISH FLAG FROM AN OUTBUILDING WHERE IT WAS KEPT. CONSUL EDWARD T. BIGGS, 35, OF MAIDENHEAD, ENG., WOULD NOT CONFIRM THE CHINESE REPORT.

THE BRITISH FLAG WAS NOT ON THE POLE AT THE TIME OF THE INVASION OF THE COMPOUND. IT HAD BEEN REMOVED AT SUNSET.

BIGGS DESCRIBED THE EARLY MORNING INCIDENT AS A "NUISANCE."

"IT IS AN UNHAPPY INCIDENT," HE DECLARED.

THE CONSULATE AT TANSUI IS ON THE SEACOAST NORTHWEST OF TAIPEI. IT WAS ESTABLISHED IN 1861. THE BUILDING WAS BUILT BY THE DUTCH AFTER THEIR INVASION OF NORTHERN FORMOSA IN 1640. THE DUTCH USED IT AS A CASTLE.

BIGGS EXPRESSED CONFIDENCE THE CONSULATE WOULD SURVIVE ANY ATTACK BY NATIONALIST SOLDIERS, POINTING OUT IT WITHSTOOD AN ATTACK BY FRENCH WARSHIPS IN 1885.

FIFTEEN BRITISH NATIONALS, SIX OF WHOM ARE ATTACHED TO THE CONSULATE, LIVE IN TANSUI. THERE ARE EIGHT MEN, FIVE WOMEN AND TWO CHILDREN IN THE GROUP.

HIGH CHINESE QUARTERS HERE SAID THAT TROOPS NOW STATIONED AT TANSUI MAY BE TRANSFERRED ELSEWHERE TO AVOID FURTHER ANTI-BRITISH INCIDENTS.

TAIPEI, FORMOSA, JAN. 10-(AP)-CHINESE NATIONALIST SOLDIERS TODAY MADE A SECOND ATTACK ON A BRITISH CONSULATE IN PROTEST TO BRITISH RECOGNITION OF THE RED REGIME IN PEIPING.

ABOUT 10 SOLDIERS TRIED TO BREAK DOWN THE FLAG POLE AT THE CONSULATE AT TAMSUI, NEAR THIS NATIONALIST CAPITAL. CHINESE SOURCES SAID THEY SEIZED THE BRITISH FLAG FROM AN OUTBUILDING BEFORE FLEEING.

THE SITUATION WAS SO TENSE THAT HIGH SOURCES HERE SAID THE SOLDIERS STATIONED AT TAMSUI MIGHT BE TRANSFERRED TO AVOID FURTHER INCIDENTS.

THREE NATIONALIST SOLDIERS SUNDAY TRIED TO TEAR DOWN THE FLAG AT THE CONSULATE BUT WERE DISPERSED BY MILITARY POLICE.

(THE FOREIGN OFFICE IN LONDON ANNOUNCED A FORMAL PROTEST HAD BEEN MADE THROUGH THE BRITISH CONSUL AT TAIPEI. IT SAID A GROUP OF SOLDIERS FORCED CLERICAL OFFICERS TO SURRENDER THE CONSULAR FLAG. WHILE THE BRITISH HAVE SEVERED DIPLOMATIC RELATIONS WITH THE NATIONALISTS THEY ARE MAINTAINING A CONSULATE TO HANDLE BUSINESS INTERESTS.)

TODAY'S INTRUDERS WERE ARMED. THEY THREATENED FOUR CHINESE MILITARY POLICE GUARDING THE GROUNDS. THEY THEN TRIED TO BREAK DOWN THE FLAG POLE.

CONSUL EDUARD T.BIGGS WAS UNPERTURBED. HE DESCRIBED THE EPISODE AS "A NUISANCE." HE PREDICTED THE CONSULATE WOULD SURVIVE, NOTING THAT IT SURVIVED AN ATTACK BY FRENCH WARSHIPS IN 1885 AND THE FORTUNES OF THE SECOND WORLD WAR.

MEANWHILE, THE CHINESE ON THIS NATIONALIST ISLAND REFUGE WERE SHOWING CONSIDERABLE INTEREST IN CHINESE COMMUNIST LEADER

MAO TZE-TUNG'S VISIT TO MOSCOW.
ALL QUARTERS PREDICTED A TREATY OF FRIENDSHIP AND ALLIANCE BETWEEN RUSSIA AND COMMUNIST CHINA WOULD EMERGE FROM THE VISIT.
THEY WERE BETTING THAT MAO WOULD GRANT RUSSIA SPECIAL RIGHTS IN MANCHURIA AND NORTHWEST CHINA IN EXCHANGE FOR HELP IN BUILDING UP AN AIR FORCE AND NAVY.
(THERE WAS LITTLE NEWS FROM THE CIVIL WAR FRONT. THE COMMUNIST RADIO IN PEIPING SAID RED ARMY UNITS--PRESUMABLY GUERRILLAS--HAD SEIZED A STRONGPOINT NEAR HOIHOW, CAPITAL AND MILITARY HEADQUARTERS FOR HAINAN. THIS IS THE NATIONALIST ISLAND OFF THE SOUTH COAST OF CHINA.
(THE STRONGPOINT MENTIONED WAS TUENCHEONG. THIS DOES NOT SHOW ON DETAILED MAPS. 2ND LEAD FLYING ARROW
BY WAYNE RICHARDSON
ABOARD THE FLYING ARROW, JAN. 10-(AP)-TWO AMERICAN DESTROYERS WERE ALONGSIDE THE SHELL BATTERED FREIGHTER FLYING ARROW TONIGHT READY TO ESCORT HER TO ANY PORT BUT COMMUNIST SHANGHAI.
THEY ARRIVED IN MIDAFTERNOON. THEY ARE THE STICKELL AND BAUSELL.
LT. (JG) C.L.STUART OF CHICO, CALIF., WHO BOARDED THE FREIGHTER FROM THE STICKELL, SAID ESCORT WOULD BE PROVIDED TO ANY PORT BUT THE SHIP'S DESTINATION, SHANGHAI.
IN THE DISTANCE LURKED A CHINESE GUNBOAT AT DUSK. IT WAS THE ONLY OTHER VESSEL IN SIGHT, ALTHOUGH OTHER CHINESE NATIONALIST WARSHIPS HAD BEEN VISIBLE DURING THE DAY.
(THE CHINESE NATIONALIST FOREIGN OFFICE EXPRESSED HOPE TONIGHT THE FLYING ARROW INCIDENT WOULD NOT AFFECT FRIENDLY FEELINGS BETWEEN THE CHINESE AND AMERICAN PEOPLES. IN A FORMAL STATEMENT THE FOREIGN OFFICE SAID THE AMERICAN FREIGHTER WAS SHELLED YESTERDAY BY A NATIONALIS WARSHIP "WHEN SHE SAILED INTO THE CLOSED AREA OF CHINESE TERRITORIAL WATERS IN THE YANGTZE ESTUARY."
(THE FOREIGN OFFICE SAID THE GUNNERS TOOK "CARE THAT NO INJURY WOULD BE DONE TO LIVES ON BOARD" THE FLYING ARROW.)
THE AMERICAN DESTROYERS ARRIVED TO HELP PATCH UP THE SHELL-RIDDLED FREIGHTER AND PROVIDE AN ESCORT -- EXCEPT TO SHANGHAI.
THE SHIP WAS HIT BY 30 TO 40 NATIONALIST GUNBOAT SHELLS IN INTERNATIONAL WATERS YESTERDAY. SHE WAS ABOUT TWENTY MILES OFF THE CHINESE MAINLAND WHEN THE ATTACK STARTED.
HER MASTER, CAPT. DAVID JONES, 31, OF CHICAGO, SAYS THE SHELL HITS RENDERED HER UNSEAWORTHY. HE ASKED FOR U.S. NAVAL ESCORT TO THE NEAREST PORT FOR REPAIRS.
THE NEAREST PORT IS SHANGHAI, WHERE THE ISBRANDTSEN LINE FREIGHTER WAS BOUND WITH A GENERAL CARGO WORTH $10,000,000 (M). CHINESE NATIONALISTS SAY THEY HAVE MINED THE APPROACHES TO SHANGHAI.
LT. (JT) C.L. STUART OF CHICO, CALIF., BOARDED THE FLYING ARROW FROM THE STICKELL AND WAS SHOWN DAMAGE BY CAPTAIN JONES.
THE LIEUTENANT SAID THE TWO DESTROYERS WOULD REMAIN HERE AS LONG AS THE FLYING ARROW AND THE AMERICAN STATE DEPARTMENT DESIRED.
(IN BANGKOK, THAILAND (SIAM), VICE. ADM. RUSSELL S. BERKEY, COMMANDER OF THE U.S. SEVENTH TASK FORCE, SAID NAVAL CRAFT WILL PROTECT AMERICAN MERCHANTMEN ON THE HIGH SEAS BUT NOT INSIDE CHINESE TERRITORIAL WATERS.
(THERE HAS BEEN NO COMMENT FROM THE STATE DEPARTMENT IN WASHINGTON.
(A SECOND ISBRANDTSEN LINE FREIGHTER, THE BROOKLYN HEIGHTS, IS SCHEDULED TO SAIL FOR SHANGHAI TOMORROW FROM HONG KONG. AMERICAN SKIPPERS HAVE BEEN WARNED BY THE U.S. STATE DEPARTMENT THEY MAY LOSE THEIR LICENSE IF THEY TAKE THEIR SHIPS INTO BLOCKADED CHINESE COMMUNIST PORTS.)
CREWMEN AND THE 12 PASSENGERS, SEVEN OF THEM WOMEN, AWOKE THIS MORNING TO SEE TWO NATIONALIST WARSHIPS STANDING TWO TO THREE MILES AWAY. A LITTLE FURTHER AWAY WAS THE BRITISH SLOOP BLACK SWAN WHICH YESTERDAY HELPED EXTINGUISH FIRES STARTED BY THE NATIONALIST GUNBOAT SHELLS.

A53
THE FLYING ARROW MADE NO MOVE TO TRY TO LEAVE HER ANCHORAGE WHICH IS STILL FAR OUT IN INTERNATIONAL WATERS.
THE MORNING OF THE ATTACK I GOT UP EARLY TO WATCH THE ARRIVAL OF THE SHIP OUTSIDE OF THE MOUTH OF TYE YANGTZE RIVER. ON THE STARBOARD SIDE ABOUT 200 YARDS AWAY WAS A LONE CHINESE GUNBOAT. IT WAS SENDING WARNINGS BY BLINKER THAT MINES WERE BEING LAID.
EVEN AT THAT WE LEAST EXPECTED THE GUNBOAT TO START BLASTING US.
CAPTAIN JONES HAD JUST SAID WE WERE 22 (CORRECT) MILES OFF SHORE.
I WENT TO THE RADIO SHACK WHERE OPERATOR LAURENCE C. KLOSOWSKI OF NEW YORK WAS AT THE KEY TO SEND ANY DISTRESS MESSAGES. WE WERE TALKING WHEN SUDDENLY WE BEGAN HEARING SHELLS COME OVER.
I WENT TO THE PORT SIDE AND SAW THEM SPLASHING INTO THE WATER. SOME LOOKED LIKE THREE INCHERS. RETURNING HURRIEDLY TO THE RADIO ROOM WE STARTED COUNTING THEM AND GOT UP TO 38 WHEN SOME ONE SHOUTED THE AFTER DECK WAS AFIRE.
THE SHELLING CONTINUED, AND THE SHIP WAS HIT IN MANY PLACES. THERE WAS A BIG BLAZE ON THE AFTER DECK NOT FAR FROM BIT JARS OF ACID WITH "DANGER" TAGS ON THEM. WE WERE ELATED WHEN THAT FIRE WAS EXTINGUISHED.
BUT IN THE MEANTIME ANOTHER BLAZE HAD STARTED IN THE NO. 5 HOLD. THE CREW UNDER CAPTAIN JONES TACKLED THIS BIGGER PROBLEM, JETTISONING MANY BALES OF COTTON, JUTE AND CASES OF BANKNOTE PAPER.
THE FIRES COULD BE WORSE. ON EACH SIDE OF THE DECK WERE AROUND 200 GLASS JARS OF CHEMICALS BEARING "DANGER" SIGNS. ALSO ON THE DECK WERE A FEW DRUMS OF KEROSENE AND OTHER COMBUSTIBLES.
IN NO. 4 HOLD, WELL PARTITIONED FROM THE BLAZING NO. 5 HOLD, WERE 3,000 DRUMS OF DIESEL OIL.
WHEN THE SHELLS WERE WHIZZING OVER THE BRIDGE, CAPTAIN JONES REMARKED: "I HOPE THEY HOLD THEIR ALTITUDE AND DON'T LOWER IT ANY."
SECOND MATE FRANK A. GROSS OF SAYVILLE, LONG ISLAND, REPLIED: "NOW, CAPTAIN, YOU KNOW HOW A DUCK FEELS SETTING OUT THERE ALL ALONE."
CHIEF ENGINEER MARTIN L. GROSS (CO) CLEARFIELD, PA., HANDED ME THE BACK END OF A 40 MILLIMETER SHELL. HE SAID THERE WAS ANOTHER UNEXPLODED SHELL IN THE STEERING GEAR AND ASKED IF I'D LIKE IT AS A SOUVENIR. I DIDN'T.

JAN 11 1950

A54
AFTER THE FIRE WAS EXTINGUISHED I WENT ON A TOUR OF THE SHIP WITH CROSS. THERE WERE NINE 40 MILLIMETER HITS ABOVE THE STEERING ENGINE ROOM, FOUR THROUGH NO. 5 HOLD, ONE JUST ABOVE THE WATERLINE, 10 HOLES IN THE STEERING GEAR ROOM, ONE HOLE IN THE AFTER PEAK WATER TANK, TWO HOLES IN THE LAMP ROOM AND ONE HOLE IN THE BOATSWAIN LOCKER.
THERE WERE MANY OTHER PLACES WHERE THE SHELLS DID NOT PIERCE.

THE FIRE IN THE NO. 5 HOLD CAUSED 15 PERCENT DAMAGE TO THE CARGO.
THE MOTOR LINE TO THE STEERING ENGINE WAS CUT. FRESH WATER FROM THE AFTER PEAK TANK WAS LOST. THERE WAS A HOLE IN THE CONNECTING ARM FROM THE STEERING MECHANISM TO THE RUDDER AND THE LINKS FROM THE AFTER STEERING STATION TO THE STEERING ENGINE WERE CUT IN HALF.
HOWEVER, GROSS SAID, THE STEERING GEAR WAS STILL USABLE.
TODAY FIRST MATE CARL E. SHIVERS OF NEWPORT NEWS, VA. AND THE CHIEF ENGINEER STARTED PATCHING NUMEROUS HOLES IN THE SHIP.
(IN TAIPEI, FORMOSA, THE CHINESE NATIONALIST NAVY CHIEF, ADM. KWEI YUNG-CHING, SAYING THE FLYING ARROW WAS WARNED AWAY FROM MINES, ADDED: "IF THE FLYING ARROW HAD NOT BELONGED TO A FRIENDLY POWER WE WOULD HAVE LET HER STEAM INTO MINED AREAS SO AS TO PROVE HOW EFFECTIVE OUR MINING IS."
(THIS MAY HAVE BEEN A THREAT TO ANY BRITISH SHIPPING THAT MIGHT TRY TO RUN THE BLOCKADE TO SHANGHAI. THE NATIONALISTS BROKE OFF DIPLOMATIC RELATIONS WITH BRITAIN WHEN LONDON RECOGNIZED THE COMMUNISTS AS THE LEGAL GOVERNMENT OF CHINA.
(IN WASHINGTON REP. VORYS (R-OHIO) SAID HE WILL DEMAND "ANY LIGHT THE STATE DEPARTMENT CAN SHED ON WHY SHIPS OF THE ISBRANDTSEN SHIPPING LINE ARE SO INTENT ON RUNNING THE CHINESE NATIONALIST BLOCKADE OF CHINA. IT SEEMS A LITTLE ODD THAT A SHIPPING OWNER, JUST TO PROVE A RATHER OBSCURE POINT OF SOME KIND, SEEMS SO INTENT ON RISKING SHIPS AND CARGOES WORTH MILLIONS OF DOLLARS."
(THE HONG KONG AGENT OF THE LINE HAS DENIED THE COMPANY IS MAKING EXCESSIVE PROFITS BY TAKING CARGO TO SHANGHAI.
(IN NEW YORK HANS J. ISBRANDTSEN, OWNER OF THE STEAMSHIP LINE, SAID THE FLYING ARROW WAS BEING ANCHORED 19 1/2 MILES OFFSHORE ON THE HIGH SEAS WHEN SHE WAS FIRED UPON.
(ISBRANDTSEN SAID THE CAPTAIN HAD RADIOED THE SHIP WAS AT LATITUDE 31.04 NORTH, LONGTITUDE 122.15 EAST, ON A LINE BETWEEN THE YANGTZE CAPE AND NELSON CAPE.
(THE COMPANY RADIOED ENCOURAGEMENT TO THE FLYING ARROW'S CAPTAIN. THE MESSAGE READ: "WE ARE HAPPY NO ONE HURT. WE APPRECIATE YOU ALL DOING YOUR DUTY AS YOU SAW IT. WE INCENSED OVER THE KIND OF BRAVERY DISPLAYED IN ATTACKING AN UNARMED MERCHANT SHIP. WE ARE IN HOPES OUR OWN OFFICIALS WILL WAKE UP AND COME TO REALIZE WHAT WE ARE ATTEMPTING TO FIGHT FOR. WE WILL HAVE TO LICK OUR WOUNDS FOR A DAY OR TWO AND AWAIT DEVELOPMENTS.")

2ND NITE LEAD FLYING ARROW (150)
BY WAYNE RICHARDSON
ABOARD THE FLYING ARROW, WEDNESDAY, JAN. 11-(AP)-THE NATIONALIST GUNBOAT WHICH RIDDLED THE FLYING ARROW WITH SHELLFIRE STOPPED A CHINESE JUNK 500 YARDS FROM THIS DAMAGED AMAERICAN FREIGHTER TODAY. TWO U.S. DESTROYERS QUICKLY HOVE INTO SIGHT TO KEEP AN EYE ON THE WARSHIP.
THE DESTROYERS WERE STANDING BY THE FLYING ARROW WHILE SHE PATCHED THE WOUNDS SHE RECEIVED MONDAY. THE GUNBOAT ATTACKED ON THE HIGH SEAYSOFF THE MOUTH OF THE YANGTZE RIVER, SEALANE TO COMMUNIST SHANGHAI.
ANY DOUBT THAT THE FLYING ARROW WAS NOT IN INTERNATIONAL WATERS WHEN SHE WAS SHELLED WAS BELIEVED DISPELLED BY THE ARRIVAL OF THE U.S. DESTROYERS--THE STICKELL AND THE BAUSSELL.

LT. (JG) C.L.STUART OF THE STICKELL TOLD THE FLYING ARROW'S MASTER THE DESTROYER COMMANDERS WOULD NOT HAVE BROUGHT THEIR SHIPS SO CLOSE HAD THEY NOT BEEN CERTAIN THEY WERE OUTSIDE CHINESE TERRITORIAL WATERS.
WITH THE FLYING ARROW'S CREW BUSY PLUGGING ABOUT 30 SHELL HOLES, STUART CAME ABOARD SHORTLY AFTER THE DESTROYERS ARRIVED.

HONG KONG, JAN. 10-(AP)-CAPT. ANDREW CRINKLEY, REPRESENTATIVE OF THE ISBRANDTSEN STEAMSHIP LINE IN NEW YORK, EXPRESSED THE HOPE TODAY THAT TWO AMERICAN DESTROYERS SENT TO AID THE LINE'S SHELL BATTERED FREIGHTER FLYING ARROW WILL FORCE A SHOWDOWN ON THE CHINESE NATIONALIST BLOCKADE OF RED HELD CHINESE PORTS.
"WITH THOSE TWO DESTROYERS THERE PERHAPS WE CAN GET THIS THING SETTLED ONE WAY OR THE OTHER," CAPTAIN CRINKLEY SAID.
THE POSITION OF THE COMPANY HAS BEEN THAT THE U.S. STATE DEPARTMENT MUST EITHER RECOGNIZE THE LEGALITY OF THE BLOCKADE OR PROVIDE NAVAL PROTECTION FOR AMERICAN SHIPPING TRYING TO MAKE CHINESE COMMUNIST PORTS.
ANOTHER ISBRANDTSEN LINE FREIGHTER, THE BROOKLYN HEIGHTS, IS LOADING CARGO FOR SHANGHAI IN HONG KONG. CRINKLEY SAID THE SHIP DOES NOT YET HAVE ITS SAILING ORDERS BUT MAY LEAVE TOMORROW.. CRINKLEY SAID SOME OF THE BROOKLYN HEIGHTS CREW MAY SIGN OFF THE SHIP IN VIEW OF WHAT HAPPENED TO THE FLYING ARROW. SHE CARRIES A CREW OF 42 AMERICANS.
ONE CREWMAN ALREADY HAS SIGNED OFF. HE IS BRINSON LACY, CHIEF ELECTRICIAN FROM DETROIT, MICH. LACY RECEIVED A MEDICAL SIGN OFF TODAY. HE SAID HE QUIT BECAUSE OF THE DANGER INVOLVED, AND THE FACT HE HAS THREE CHILDREN.
FRED HILL, AMERICAN VICE CONSUL IN THIS BRITISH CROWN COLONY, WENT ABOARD THE BROOKLYN HEIGHTS TODAY TO INFORM THE CREW THE U.S. STATE DEPARTMENT HAT AUTHORIZED THEM TO LEAVE THE SHIP WITHOUT THE CAPTAIN'S PERMISSION. HE SAID THE CONSULATE WOULD MAKE LOANS FOR THEIR PASSAGE HOME.
ONE PASSENGER HAS DECIDED TO REMAIN ON THE BROOKLYN HEIGHTS AFTER THE FLYING ARROW INCIDENT. HE IS EDWARD BOYLE, AN AMERICAN BUSINESS MAN WHO IS RETURNING TO SHANGHAI.

TWO U.S. DESTROYERS PREPARED TONIGHT (TUESDAY) TO ESCORT THE CRIPPLED AMERICAN FREIGHTER FLYING ARROW TO ANY PORT BUT HER DESTINATION -- SHANGHAI.
THE SHIP WAS BATTERED YESTERDAY ON THE HIGH SEAS BY SHELLS FROM A NATIONALIST GUNBOAT. WAYNE RICHARDSON, ASSOCIATED PRESS CORRESPONDENT ABOARD THE FLYING ARROW, SAID SHE WAS HIT BETWEEN 30 AND 40 TIMES.
HER MASTER, CAPT. DAVID JONES OF CHICAGO, PRONOUNCED HER UNSEAWORTHY AND ASKED TO BE ESCORTED BY U.S. NAVAL VESSELS TO THE NEAREST PORT FOR REPAIRS. THAT'S COMMUNIST SHANGHAI.
CAPTAINS OF THE TWO DESTROYERS, THE STICKELL AND THE BAUSELL, SAID THEY WOULD NOT ESCORT THE FLYING ARROW THERE. OTHER COMMUNIST HELD

A CHINESE NATIONALIST GUNBOAT LURKED IN THE DISTANCE FROM THE FLYING ARROW AS DUSK SETTLED OVER THE ORIENT.

AT TAIPEI, FORMOSA, CHINESE NATIONALIST CAPITAL, A SPOKESMAN SAID THE FREIGHTER WAS FIRED UPON TO KEEP HER FROM A MINE FIELD THAT WOULD HAVE MEANT HER CERTAIN DESTRUCTION WITH A POSSIBLE LARGE LOSS OF LIFE. THE SHIP CARRIES A CREW OF 43 PLUS 12 PASSENGERS, SEVEN OF THEM WOMEN, BOUND FOR SHANGHAI. THE MERCHANTMAN IS UNARMED.

THE NATIONALISTS HAVE SLAPPED A BLOCKADE ON ALL CHINESE PORTS HELD BY THE COMMUNISTS. SEA AND AIR PATROLS HAVE BEEN MAINTAINED OFF SHANGHAI.

IN HONG KONG A SISTER SHIP OF THE FLYING ARROW, THE BROOKLYN HEIGHTS, WAS LOADING CARGO FOR SHANGHAI. SHE IS TENTATIVELY SCHEDULED TO SAIL TOMORROW (WEDNESDAY) WITH A CREW OF 42 AND ONE PASSENGER. ONE MEMBER OF HER CREW HAS SIGNED OFF RATHER THAN RISK THE DANGER OF A SHANGHAI VOYAGE.

THE HONG KONG AGENT FOR THE OPERATORS OF BOTH SHIPS, THE ISBRANDTSEN LINE OF NEW YORK, SAID HE HOPED THE PRESENCE OF THE TWO DESTROYERS NEAR THE FLYING ARROW WOULD CLEAR UP THE STATUS OF THE CHINESE BLOCKADE AS FAR AS AMERICAN SHIPPING IS CONCERNED.

THE AMERICAN STATE DEPARTMENT DOES NOT RECOGNIZE THE BLOCKADE. BUT IT HAS WARNED AMERICAN SHIPS TO STAY OUT

THE AMERICAN STATE DEPARTMENT DOES NOT RECOGNIZE THE BLOCKADE. BUT IT HAS WARNED AMERICAN SHIPS TO STAY OUT OF SHANGHAI WATERS. AND IT ADVISED SAILORS OF THE FLYING ARROW AND BROOKLYN HEIGHTS THEY COULD SIGN OFF IN HONG KONG.

IN BANGKOK, THAILAND (SIAM), VICE ADM. RUSSELL S.BERKEY, COMMANDER OF THE U.S. SEVENTH TASK FORCE, SAID NAVAL PROTECTION WOULD BE AFFORDED AMERICAN MERCHANTMEN ON THE HIGH SEAS BUT NOT IN CHINESE TERRITORIAL WATERS.

HANS J. ISBRANDTSEN, PRESIDENT OF THE SHIPPING LINE, RADIOED THE FLYING ARROW FROM NEW YORK THAT HE "HOPED OUR OWN OFFICIALS WOULD WAKE UP AND COME TO REALIZE WHAT WE ARE ATTEMPTING TO FIGHT FOR."

HONG KONG, WEDNESDAY, JAN. 11-(AP)-THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS TODAY ACCUSED THE FRENCH IN INDOCHINA OF RETURNING THOUSANDS OF REFUGEE NATIONALIST SOLDIERS TO CARRY ON THE CHINESE CIVIL WAR.

AN OFFICIAL COMMUNIST NEWS AGENCY DISPATCH SAID THREE LARGE STEAMERS ARRIVED AT HAINAN ISLAND PORTS DEC. 17 TO RETURN NATIONALIST TROOPS AND OFFICIALS FROM INDOCHINA. IT SAID THESE WERE AMONG 27,000 NATIONALIST SOLDIERS WHO FLED INTO VIET NAM AHEAD OF THE RED ARMY.

HAINAN, BIG ISLAND OFF THE SOUTH CHINA COAST, IS ONE OF THE NATIONALISTS' LAST STRONGOLDS. THE REDS ARE REPORTED PREPARING TO INVADE IT.

THE RED DISPATCH ALSO CHARGED SOME NATIONALIST SOLDIERS HAD BEEN INTEGRATED WITH FRENCH COLONIAL FORCES IN INDOCHINA AND WITH THE ARMY OF BOA DAI, FRENCH-SPONSORED VIET NAM RULER.

THE COMMUNIST AGENCY CHARGED THAT DESPITE FRENCH ASSURANCES THAT TROOPS WOULD BE DISARMED AND INTERNED, ILLEGAL DISPOSITION HAD BEEN MADE OF THEM.

THE CHINESE REDS HAVE WARNED NEIGHBORING COUNTRIES REPEATEDLY NOT TO GIVE SANCTUARY TO FLEEING NATIONALISTS.

FOR INSTANCE, THERE WAS NO INDICATION OF WHAT THE COMMUNISTS WANT WHEN THE TIME COMES FOR RENEWAL OR REVISION OF TREATIES AND AGREEMENTS. THE EXISTING ONES WERE MADE BY BRITAIN AND THE CHINESE NATIONALIST GOVERNMENT WHICH HAS BEEN CHASED OFF THE MAINLAND TO THE ISLAND OF FORMOSA.

THE STATUS OF HONG KONG WILL BE ONE TOUCHY QUESTION SURE TO COME UP. PART OF THIS IMPORTANT BRITISH COLONY IS LEASED FROM CHINA. EVEN THE NATIONALISTS DID NOT RECOGNIZE BRITISH SOVEREIGNTY OVER HONG KONG.

THE NEWS AGENCY ANNOUNCEMENT ALSO ACKNOWLEDGED RECOGNITION BY CEYLON. CHOU EXPRESSED HOPE SHE ALSO WOULD SEND REPRESENTATIVES TO PEIPING TO CARRY OUT NEGOTIATIONS.

THE NEW CHINA NEWS AGENCY SAID CHOU EXPRESSED WILLINGNESS TO ESTABLISH DIPLOMATIC RELATIONS ON A BASIS OF EQUALITY, MUTUAL BENEFIT AND RESPECT FOR TERRITORIAL SOVEREIGNTY DASH THE TERMS HE USED WHEN HE FIRST INVITED INTERNATIONAL RECOGNITION LAST OCTOBER FIRST.

COMMUNISTS ARE ADMITTEDLY ANXIOUS TO OBTAIN FOREIGN IMPORTS AND TO GET THEIR HANDS ON CHINESE GOVERNMENT ESTABLISHMENTS IN THE BRITISH TERRITORY OF HONG KONG. SECOND NIGHT LEAD NAKANISHI

TOKYO,WEDNESDAY, JAN. 11-(AP)-THE SOVIET MISSION TODAY QUIETLY ENTERED THE JAPANESE COMMUNIST PARTY SQUABBLE OVER THE COMINFORM ATTACK ON RED LEADER SANZO NOZAKA.

THE RUSSIAN MOVE CAME AFTER THE JAPANESE REDS OUSTED KO NAKANISHI FROM THE PARTY. HE WAS A PROMINENT AND VETERAN MEMBER WHO SUPPORTED THE COMINFORM BLAST AT NOZAKA.

JAPANESE NEWSMEN WHO CALLED ON MISSION HEADQUARTERS IN THE RUSSIAN EMBASSY BUILDING WERE GIVEN TRANSLATIONS OF THE COMINFORM ATTACK.

AKAHATA, JAPANESE COMMUNIST PARTY ORGAN, HAS NOT PUBLISHED FOREIGN PRESS DISPATCHES QUOTING THE COMINFORM BLAST. IT ADVISED ITS READERS TO PAY NO ATTENTION TO THESE STORIES IN OTHER JAPANESE PAPERS.

AKAHATA CALLED THESE PRESS REPORTS "A PROVOCATIVE ACT OF OUR ENEMY TO DISTURB OUR PARTY UNITY."

NAKANISHI, COMMUNIST MEMBER OF THE HOUSE OF COUNCILLORS IN THE DIET (PARLIAMENT) WAS READ OUT OF THE PARTY YESTERDAY IN A BARREN LITTLE ROOM AT COMMUNIST HEADQUARTERS.

BY TOM LAMBERT

TOKYO, JAN. 10-(AP)-IN A COLD, BARREN LITTLE ROOM AT HEADQUARTERS JAPAN'S COMMUNISTS TONIGHT FORMALLY READ OUT OF THE PARTY A COMMUNIST ONCE CONVICTED OF SPYING AGAINST HIS OWN COUNTRY.

HE WAS KO NAKANISHI, MEMBER OF THE HOUSE OF COUNCILLORS, WHO SUPPORTED THE COMINFORM'S BLAST AGAINST ONE OF THE LEADERS OF THE JAPANESE PARTY.

THE COMINFORM RECENTLY CHARGED SANZO NOZAKA, A PARTY CHIEFTAIN, WITH DECEIVING THE JAPANESE PEOPLE IN HOLDING THAT NIPPON COULD GO SOCIALISTIC UNDER THE OCCUPATION. NAKANISHI PUBLICLY SUPPORTED THOSE CHARGES.

NOZAKA WORKED WITH CHINESE RED CHAIRMAN MAO TZE-TUNG DURING THE WAR. MAO IS NOW IN MOSCOW.

THE PARTY'S CONTROL COMMITTEE (A COMMUNIST SAID THIS WAS THE "TRIAL AND PROSECUTION" AGENCY) TOOK FULL NOTICE OF NAKANISHI'S SUPPORT OF THE COMINFORM.

IN ITS EXPULSION ORDER IT ACCUSED HIM OF USING RECENT DISPATCHES CARRYING THE COMINFORM'S BLAST TO ATTACK AND TRY TO DISRUPT THE JAPANESE PARTY.

KYODO NEWS AGENCY SAID NAKANISHI WAS QUESTIONED EARLIER TODAY BY THE PARTY'S CONTROL COMMITTEE, POSSIBLY ABOUT HIS STATEMENT SATURDAY THAT "THE COMINFORM CRITICISM OF OUR PARTY THIS TIME IS FULLY WARRANTED."

NAKANISHI WENT ON TO ACCUSE PARTY CHIEFTAINS OF "BUREAUCRACY" AND OF NOT HOLDING A PARTY CONVENTION. HE SAID THE COMINFORM CRITICISM GAVE THE JAPANESE PARTY "THE BEST CHANCE TO STRENGTHEN ITSELF." HE ASKED FOR AN "OVERALL CHANGE IN THE COMMUNIST FRONT."

NAKANISHI, A FORMER MEMBER OF THE CHINESE COMMUNIST PARTY, WAS SENTENCED TO IMPRISONMENT BY THE JAPANESE IN 1942 AS A SPY. HE ALLEGEDLY WAS IMPLICATED IN A COMMUNIST SPY RING WHICH RELAYED JAPANESE MILITARY SECRETS TO THE RUSSIANS DURING THE SECOND WORLD WAR.

HE WAS RELEASED DURING THE AMERICAN OCCUPATION UNDER AN AMNESTY PRONOUNCEMENT OF GENERAL MACARTHUR FREEING ALL POLITICAL PRISONERS.

ICHIZO WADA, A MEMBER OF THE PARTY'S CONTROL COMMITTEE, READ NEWSMEN A REPORT LISTING FOUR REASONS FOR NAKANISHI'S EXPULSION:

"1. SINCE HIS ENTRY INTO THE PARTY IN 1945 HE HAS WORKED FOR ABOLITION OF THE TENNO (EMPEROR) SYSTEM.

"2. HE HAS BROKEN PARTY DISCIPLINE ON SEVERAL OCCASIONS.

"3. LAST YEAR HE PUBLISHED A PAMPHLET ACKNOWLEDGING HIS ERRORS.

"4. ON THE BASIS OF RECENT DISPATCHES HE HAS STARTED AN OPEN ATTACK ON THE PARTY AND TRIED TO DISRUPT THE PARTY."

THIS IS THE FIRST EXPULSION OF A PROMINENT JAPANESE COMMUNIST TO BE ANNOUNCED IN THIS MANNER. IT WAS NOT CLEAR IMMEDIATELY WHETHER HE WAS BEING MADE A SACRIFICE FOR THE COMINFORM JOURNAL'S ATTACK WHICH MENTIONED NOZAKA ONLY OR WHETHER THIS ACTION WOULD PRELUDE OTHER PARTY MOVES.

TOP PARTY LEADERS, INCLUDING NOZAKA AND SECRETARY GENERAL KYICHI TOKUDA, WERE NOT AVAILABLE FOR COMMENT.

WHILE THERE WAS NO SUGGESTION AS TO THIS POSSIBILITY, OBSERVERS SUGGESTED NAKANISHI'S EXPULSION COULD HAE RESULTED FROM SOME ACTION BROUGHT WITHIN THE PARTY BY NOZAKA. NOZAKA MIGHT HAVE FELT NAKANISHI WAS RESPONSIBLE FOR COMINFORM ACTION AGAINST HIM AND BROUGHT ABOUT THE EXPULSION THROUGH FRIENDS IN THE JAPAN COMMUNIST PARTY.

MANILA,JAN 10 (AP)-TOP PHILIPPINE COMMANDERS MET TODAY TO DISCUSS PLANS FOR STRENGTHENING DEFENSES OF THE REPUBLIC'S 7,000 ISLANDS FOR ANY EVENTUALITY.

ARMY CHIEF OF STAFF, MAJ.GEN.MARIANO N.CASTANEDA, PRESIDED.

AMONG PROPOSALS DISCUSSED WERE ESTABLISHMENT OF ADDITIONAL BASES IN NORTHERN LUZON AND THE BATANES ISLANDS. THIS ISLAND GROUP AT THE NORTHERN TIP OF THE PHILIPPINES, REACHES TO WITHIN 100 MILES OF FORMOSA LAST STRONGHOLD OF THE CHINESE NATIONALISTS AND GOAL OF AN EXPECTED CHINESE COMMUNIST INVASION.

THE HIGH COMMAND ALSO IS PREPARING THREE BILLS FOR SUBMISSION TO CONGRESS AT ITS REGULAR SESSION OPENING ON JAN.23.

THE BILLS WOULD:

1. CREATE AN INDEPENDENT SERVICE COMMAND TO TAKE OVER PROCUREMENT FUNCTIONS.

2. MERGE THE CONSTABULARY WITH THE PRESENT GROUND FORCES.

3. BUILD UP A POOL OF CIVILIAN RESERVISTS THROUGH AN AUGMENTED ROTC PROGRAM.

THE CONSTABULARY AT PRESENT IS USED ONLY TO MAINTAIN INTERNAL ORDER. ITS UNITS ARE STATIONED AT KEY POINTS THROUGHOUT THE 7,000 ISLANDS IN THE PHILIPPINES.

THE HIGH COMMAND VIEWS THE CONSTABULARY AS A RESERVOIR OF MANPOWER WHICH SHOULD BE INTEGRATED INTO THE NATION'S DEFENSES AT ONCE IN VIEW OF THE THREAT POISED BY THE ADVANCE OF COMMUNISM IN ASIA.

THE INTERNAL SITUATION HAS CAUSED GRAVE CONCERN IN THE ISLANDS. HUKBALAHAPS (ARMED PEASANTS) WHO HAVE REFUSED TO RECOGNIZE THE GOVERNMENT OF PRESIDENT ELPIDIO QUIRINO HAVE BEEN INFILTRATED BY COMMUNISTS.

SOUTHERN MORO OUTLAWS ARE ANTI-GOVERNMENT, ALSO.

THE TWO GROUPS MAY PROVE FERTILE GROUND FOR COMMUNIST ORGANIZERS IF THE RED LEGIONS IN ASIA DECIDE TO HOP THE SOUTH CHINA SEA TO THESE ISLANDS.

INDONESIAN LEADERS USUALLY TREAD LIGHTLY WHEN THE QUESTION OF STRONG MEASURES AGAINST DARUL ISLAM COMES UP, BECAUSE INDONESIA IS 90 PER CENT ISLAMIC. THE GOVERNMENT POLICY IS TO USE FORCE ONLY TO MAINTAIN PEACE, AND OFFICIALS NEVER GO SO FAR AS TO SAY THEY WILL FORCEFULLY HALT DARUL ISLAM IN ITS ULTIMATE GOAL OF MAKING ALL INDONESIA AN ISLAMIC STATE.

HATTA SAID WESTERLING IS DANGEROUS "BECAUSE HE TRIES TO GET THE SUPPORT OF ALL THE FORCES THAT ARE AGAINST THE GOVERNMENT."

DUTCH HIGH COMMISSIONER H.M.HIRSCHFELD DISCLOSED TODAY THAT WESTERLING LEFT THE INDIES CORPS OF THE DUTCH ARMY IN 1948 AND "THERE

NO LONGER IS ANY LINK BETWEEN HIM AND THE NETHERLANDS GOVERNMENT."
THE COMMISSIONER DESCRIBED WESTERLING'S ACTIVITIES AS "ILLEGAL AND REGRETTABLE INTERFERENCE WITH INTERNAL AFFAIRS OF THE U.S.I. WHICH IS STRONGLY OPPOSED BY THE NETHERLANDS GOVERNMENT."
THE COMMISSIONER ADDED THAT THE NETHERLANDS GOVERNMENT IS INVESTING A REPORT THAT A DUTCH OFFICER DELIVERED WESTERLING'S ULTIMATUM AND SAID, IF IT IS TRUE, HE WILL BE DEALT WITH SEVERELY.
LITTLE IS ACTUALLY KNOWN ABOUT WESTERLING. HE IS REPORTEDLY PART DUTCH, PART INDONESIAN AND PART TURKISH. HIS MEN CALL THEMSELVES THE "FORCES OF THE QUEEN OF JUSTICE."

WASHINGTON, JAN. 10-(AP)-PROPOSALS FOR AN UNOFFICIAL MISSION TO FORMOSA BY MORE THAN 100 AMERICANS, INCLUDING RETIRED ARMY AND NAVY OFFICERS, HAVE BEEN TURNED DOWN BY THE STATE DEPARTMENT.

DIPLOMATIC AUTHORITIES REPORTED THAT THE UNOFFICIAL MISSION IDEA WAS PUT FORWARD BY PROMINENT CHAMPIONS OF AID TO CHINA BEFORE PRESIDENT TRUMAN EMPHATICALLY RULED OUT ANY DIRECT U.S. GOVERNMENT SUPPORT FOR FORMOSA WITH HIS DEC. 5 DECLARATION. WHO THE BACKERS WERE WAS NOT DISCLOSED.

HOWEVER, WITH THE ADMINISTRATION SHAPE THE PLAN FOR A PRIVATE MISSION STRIPES RECEIVED SCANT CONSIDERATION THUMBS-DOWN STAND AIRFADY TAKING THE PRESIDENT AND SECRETARY ACHESON APPEAR, HOWEVER, TO HAVE LEFT THE DOOR OPEN FOR THE EMPLOYMENT IN GOOD FAITH OF SPECIFIC AMERICAN EXPERTS BY THE NATIONALISTS. DIPLOMATS SAID TODAY THAT SUCH A MEETING PROBABLY WILL BE HELD NEXT SPRING, BUT BOTH AMERICAN AND BRITISH INFORMANTS HERE SAID THAT SO FAR AS THEY KNOW NO SPECIFIC PROPOSAL TO THAT EFFECT HAS BEEN MADE.

THE CHINESE EMBASSY SAID THE COMBAT VEHICLES WERE PURCHASED OUT OF THE $125,000,000 CHINA AID FUND CONGRESS VOTED IN 1948.

SENATOR KNOWLAND (R-CALIF), ONE OF THE CRITICS OF THE ADMINISTRATION'S FAR EAST POLICY, TOLD REPORTERS THAT HIS VIEWS WERE NOT CHANGED BY ACHESON'S TESTIMONY. HE SAID HE INTENDS TO ASK THE SENATE ARMED SERVICES COMMITTEE TO "PUT SOME QUESTIONS TO THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF" ABOUT FORMOSA.

BUT SENATOR TYDINGS (D-MD), CHAIRMAN OF THE ARMED SERVICES GROUP, SAID LATER HE WILL REFUSE TO CALL THE JOINT CHIEFS TO TESTIFY.

"THE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE IS THE PLACE FOR INTERNATIONAL MATTERS TO BE SETTLED," TYDINGS SAID. "IT WOULD BE PRESUMPTUOUS ON MY PART TO ACT OUTSIDE THE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE."

KNOWLAND WAS AMONG A GROUP OF REPUBLICANS WHO WERE PERMITTED TO ATTEND THE ACHESON SESSION ALTHOUGH THEY ARE NOT MEMBERS OF THE FOREIGN RELATIONS GROUP. HOWEVER, THEY WERE NOT ALLOWED TO QUESTION HIM DIRECTLY ON THE POINTS THEY HOLD IN DISPUTE.

CONNALLY SAID THE SECRETARY DID NOT LAY DOWN A SPECIFIC BLUEPRINT OF THE PROPOSED ECONOMIC AID TO HALT THE SPREAD OF COMMUNISM IN THE FAR EAST. HE SAID ACHESON SUGGESTED THAT SUCH HELP BE GIVEN UNDER MR.TRUMAN'S "POINT FOUR" PROGRAM TO ASSIST UNDEVELOPED COUNTRIES WITH SCIENTIFIC GUIDANCE, PLUS A GOVERNMENT-BACKED PROGRAM OF PRIVATE INVESTMENTS IN OVERSEAS PROJECTS.

THE SECRETARY'S FOREIGN POLICY REVIEW REQUIRED OVER FOUR HOURS, WITH MOST OF THE MORNING SESSION DEVOTED TO EUROPEAN DEVELOPMENTS. ONE OF THE PARTICIPANTS SAID THE GROUP APPEARED TO BE SATISFIED WITH ACHESON'S REPORT ON EUROPE.

"WE'VE HAD A BIPARTISAN FOREIGN POLICY THERE AND THAT'S WHERE THINGS HAVE BEEN GOING BEST," HE SAID.

THESE WERE OTHER HIGHLIGHT DEVELOPMENTS HERE TOUCHING ON THE FAR EASTERN SITUATION:

1. THE STATE DEPARTMENT ANNOUNCED THAT ALL WOMEN EMPLOYES OF THE AMERICAN EMBASSY AT TAPEI ON FORMOSA HAVE BEEN TRANSFERRED TO POINTS OF GREATER SAFETY. AMERICAN CIVILIANS NUMBERING BETWEEN 100 AND 200, ALSO HAVE BEEN ADVISED TO LEAVE BEFORE THE COMMUNISTS LAUNCH AN EXPECTED DRIVE TO INVADE THE ISLAND STRONGHOLD 100 MILES OFF THE CHINA COAST. THE DEPARTMENT EMPHASIZED, HOWEVER, THAT NO OFFICIAL EVACUATION ORDER HAS BEEN ISSUED.

2. PRESIDENT TRUMAN CALLED IN UNDERSECRETARY OF STATE JAMES E. WEBB AND WALTON BUTTERWORTH, ASSISTANT SECRETARY FOR FAR EASTERN AFFAIRS FOR A 15-MINUTE TALK. WEBB TOLD REPORTERS AFTERWARD "THE PRESIDENT HAD A MATTER ON WHICH HE WANTED A QUESTION ANSWERED." HE SAID HE AND BUTTERWORTH HAD SUPPLIED THE ANSWER BUT DECLINED TO SAY WHAT IT CONCERNED.

3. KOREAN AMBASSADOR, DR. JOHN MYUN CHANG, CONFERRED WITH THE PRESIDENT TO PLEAD FOR ADDITIONAL U.S. MILITARY AND ECONOMIC AID. "WE ARE MORE ON THE SPOT THAN MOST COUNTRIES," CHANG SAID LATER. HE DESCRIBED MR.TRUMAN'S REACTION AS "VERY SYMPATHETIC." THE UNITED STATES NOW IS EXTENDING ECONOMIC AND MILITARY ASSISTANCE TO KOREA UNDER A $27,000,000 FUND CONGRESS VOTED TO SHARE ALSO WITH IRAN AND THE PHILIPPINES.

4. SECRETARY OF DEFENSE JOHNSON DISCLOSED THAT TWO U.S. DESTROYERS HAVE ORDERS TO HELP THE AMERICAN MERCHANT VESSEL FLYING ARROW REACH ANY PORT--EXCEPT SHANGHAI. THE U.S. VESSEL WAS SHELLED YESTERDAY BY A CHINESE NATIONALIST GUNBOAT AS IT ATTEMPTED TO ENTER THAT MINE-BLOCKED HARBOR. THE STATE DEPARTMENT PREVIOUSLY HAD WARNED THE OWNERS OF THE SHIP, THE ISBRANDTSEN LINE OF NEW YORK, THAT THEY WERE OPERATING AT THEIR OWN RISK IN TRYING TO GET PAST THE NATIONALIST-PROCLAIMED BLOCKADE OF THE RED-HELD PORT.

FLYING ARROW

WASHINGTON,JAN.10-(AP)-DEFENSE SECRETARY JOHNSON SAID TODAY THAT U.S.DESTROYERS HAVE ORDERS (1) TO HELP THE STEAMER FLYING ARROW REACH ANY PORT BUT SHANGHAI, AND (2) TO LEAVE IMMEDIATELY IF THE VESSEL PROCEEDS TOWARD SHANGHAI.

THE DESTROYERS BAUSELL AND STICKELL ARE STANDING BY THE ISBRANDTSEN LINE FREIGHTER OFF THE CHINA COAST. THE FLYING ARROW WAS SHELLED YESTERDAY BY A CHINESE NATIONALIST GUNBOAT BLOCKADING COMMUNIST-HELD SHANGHAI.

IN A JOINT STATEMENT, JOHNSON AND SECRETARY OF THE NAVY MATTHEWS SAID THE DESTROYERS REPORTED THAT THE FLYING ARROW HAS 17 HOLES IN HER HULL. ALL EXCEPT ONE WERE MADE BY 40 MILLIMETER PROJECTILES.

THE DESTROYERS HAVE GIVEN THE DAMAGED MERCHANTMAN OXYGEN AND ACETYLENE TOOLS AND WOODEN PLUGS TO BLOCK THE HOLES. THEY ESTIMATED THAT REPAIRS COULD BE COMPLETED IN EIGHT HOURS.

THE STATEMENT SAID THE FLYING ARROW IS IN THE VICINITY TO THE ENTRANCE OF THE YANGTZE RIVER ESTUARY WHICH IS OUTSIDE CHINESE TERRITORIAL WATERS.

(230) FLYING ARROW

WASHINGTON,JAN.10-(AP)-REP.VORYS (R-OHIO) SAID TODAY HE WILL DEMAND "ANY LIGHT THE STATE DEPARTMENT CAN SHED ON WHY SHIPS OF THE ISBRANDTSEN SHIPPING LINE ARE SO INTENT ON RUNNING THE CHINESE NATIONALIST BLOCKADE OF CHINA."

THE LINE'S FREIGHTER FLYING ARROW WAS SHELLED YESTERDAY BY NATIONALIST WARSHIPS WHILE ATTEMPTING A RUN TO SHANGHAI.

VORYS TOLD A REPORTER "IT SEEMS A LITTLE ODD THAT A SHIPPING OWNER, JUST TO PROVE A RATHER OBSCURE POINT OF SOME KIND, SEEMS SO INTENT ON RISKING SHIPS AND CARGOES WORTH MILLIONS OF DOLLARS."

THE OHIOAN IS A MEMBER OF THE HOUSE FOREIGN AFFAIRS COMMITTEE BEFORE WHICH SECRETARY OF STATE DEAN ACHESON IS SCHEDULED TO APPEAR LATER THIS WEEK.

"I'M GOING TO ASK MR.ACHESON WHAT LIGHT HE CAN SHED ON THIS MATTER," VORYS SAID. "IT SEEMS STRANGE, TO SAY THE LEAST, TO SEE SHIPS FLYING THE AMERICAN FLAG TRYING TO RUN THE BLOCKADE."

ISBRANDTSEN OFFICIALS HAVE MAINTAINED ALL ALONG THAT THEY HAVE A RIGHT TO IGNORE THE BLOCKADE, WHICH IS NOT RECOGNIZED AS SUCH BY THE U.S. GOVERNMENT. THE SHIPPING LINE HAS DEMANDED CONVOY PROTECTION FROM THE U.S. NAVY AND DENOUNCED THE SHELLING AS A VIOLATION OF INTERNATIONAL LAW.

IN ANOTHER CONGRESSIONAL COMMENT ON THE SITUATION, SENATOR FERGUSON (R-MICH) SAID YESTERDAY HE HAS REPORTS THAT BRITISH SHIPS AND THE ISBRANDTSEN VESSELS HAVE BEEN TAKING OIL AND MUNITIONS TO THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS.

(180) FRANCE-WHEAT

WASHINGTON,JAN.10-(AP)-GRANTED MILLIONS OF U.S. DOLLARS ONLY LAST YEAR TO BUY GRAIN, FRANCE RECENTLY SOLD $2,500,000 WORTH OF WHEAT TO HOLLAND.

RUMORS OF THE SALE, WHICH CROPPED UP YESTERDAY IN THE CHICAGO GRAIN TRADING PITS, WERE CONFIRMED LAST NIGHT BY THE ECONOMIC COOPERATION ADMINISTRATION.

DENNIS A.FITZGERALD, ECA'S DIRECTOR OF FOOD AND AGRICULTURE, MADE THE CONFIRMATION. HE SAID THE AGENCY MIGHT BE RELUCTANT TO PROVIDE FRANCE WITH FURTHER MONEY FOR WHEAT PURCHASES BECAUSE OF THE DEAL.

FITZGERALD AND OTHER ECA OFFICIALS SAID, HOWEVER, THERE WAS NOTHING ILLEGAL ABOUT THE SALE OF SOME 30,000 TONS OF FRENCH WHEAT. FITZGERALD SAID HE BELIEVES THE GRAIN CAME FROM FRANCE'S 1949 BUMPER WHEAT CROP. HE ADDED THAT ECA HAS GIVEN FRANCE NO FUNDS TO BUY WHEAT SINCE EARLY JULY, WHEN THE 1949 CROP WAS HARVESTED.

"HOWEVER, WE TAKE A DIM VIEW OF THE MATTER SINCE THE FRENCH DID NOT NOTIFY US OF THEIR INTENTION TO MAKE THE DEAL AND SINCE THERE IS A POSSIBILITY THAT FRANCE MAY FIND IT NECESSARY TO ASK FOR MORE DOLLARS LATER THIS YEAR TO BUY GRAIN BEFORE THE 1950 HARVEST IS IN," HE SAID.

(500) SUPER A-BOMB

BY FRANK CAREY

ASSOCIATED PRESS SCIENCE REPORTER

WASHINGTON,JAN.10-(AP)-IF THIS NATION IS TRYING TO DEVELOP A SUPER ATOMIC BOMB SPARKED BY HUDROGEN--AS HAS BEEN REPORTED UNOFFICIALLY--NO HINT OF IT IS APPARENT IN PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S BUDGET MESSAGE.

IN FACT THE REFERENCES TO ATOMIC ENERGY IN THE MESSAGE WOULD SEEM TO ELIMINATE THE POSSIBILITY OF FULL SCALE EFFORTS TO PRODUCE SOON A BOMB DIFFERING ENTIRELY IN PRINCIPLE FROM THE ORIGINAL URANIUM BOMB.

THE A-BOMB COST MORE THAN $2,000,000,000 AND SEVERAL YEARS TO PRODUCE.

A WASHINGTON SCIENTIST WHO DECLINED TO BE QUOTED BY NAME SAID THAT IN HIS PRIVATE OPINION IT WOULD COST AT LEAST THAT AMOUNT TO PERFECT A "HYDROGEN" BOMB.

MR.TRUMAN AND THE ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION HAVE DECLINED COMMENT ON WIDELY PUBLISHED UNOFFICIAL REPORTS THAT THE U.S.IS EVEN CONSIDERING WORK ON THE BOMB WHICH IT IS ESTIMATED, WOULD BE 1,000 TIMES MORE POWERFUL THAN PRESENT A-BOMBS.

THE PRESENT BOMBS DRAW THEIR KICK FROM THE ENERGY LOOSED WHEN ATOMS OF URANIUM OR PLUTONIUM ARE SPLIT. THE THEORETICAL H-BOMB, WHICH WOULD COMBINE HYDROGEN ATOMS TO PRODUCE HELIUM--JUST AS IS DONE BY THE SUN TO CREATE ENERGY--POSES AN EXACTLY OPPOSITE PRINCIPLE.

THEREIN LIES THE REASON FOR SPECULATION THAT ITS DEVELOPMENT WOULD COST A GREAT DEAL OF MONEY.

THE PRESIDENT, IN HIS BUDGET MESSAGE, CALLED FOR $816,754,000 (M) FOR THE AEC IN THE 1951 FISCAL YEAR.

THIS REPRESENTS AN INCREASE OF APPROXIMATELY $144,000,000 OVER THE AMOUNT ESTIMATED TO BE SPENT FOR THE CURRENT FISCAL PERIOD.

BUT THE PRESIDENT SAID THE ESTIMATED 1951 EXPENDITURES INCLUDE INCREASED EXPENDITURES FOR OTHER PHASES OF ATOMIC ENERGY DEVELOPMENT BESIDES PRODUCTION OF WEAPONS.

"THE UNITED STATES," HE SAID, "IS SEEKING BOTH TO DEVELOP ATOMIC ENERGY FOR NATIONAL DEFENSE PURPOSES AND TO REALIZE THE GREAT PROMISE IN ITS USE FOR INDUSTRIAL AND OTHER PEACETIME PURPOSES."

THE PRESIDENT COULD ALWAYS, OF COURSE, CALL FOR A SPECIAL APPROPRIATION LATER ON FOR PRODUCING A HYDROGEN BOMB. AND IT COULD BE MASKED, AS WERE FUNDS FOR THE WARTIME A-BOMB PROJECT, FOR SECURITY REASONS.

A58WX

THERE HAS BEEN PUBLISHED SPECULATION THAT THE PRESIDENT IS NOW WEIGHING THE MATTER OF DECIDING WHETHER TO RECOMMEND TRYING TO BUILD SUCH A SUPERBOMB. THIS SPECULATION HAS IT THAT HE WILL MAKE HIS DECISION, ONE WAY OR THE OTHER, BEFORE FEBRUARY 15, THE DATE WHEN DAVID LILIENTHAL STEPS DOWN AS CHAIRMAN OF THE AEC.

IF SUCH A DECISION IS TO BE MADE, REP.COLE (R-NY) TOLD A REPORTER TODAY, IT SHOULD BE LEFT UP TO THE AMERICAN PEOPLE.

"THE IMPLICATIONS OF SUCH A DESTRUCTIVE FORCE, IF WHAT WE HAVE HEARD OF ITS POTENTIALITIES ARE TRUE," COLE SAID, "STAGGER THE IMAGINATION. THE IMPLICATIONS ARE SO GREAT THAT NO ONE MAN, OR EVEN THE CONGRESS, SHOULD DECIDE IF THE HYDROGEN BOMB SHOULD BE BUILT. THE FINAL DECISION MUST BE MADE BY THE AMERICAN PEOPLE."

COLE, WHO IS A MEMBER OF THE JOINT HOUSE-SENATE COMMITTEE ON ATOMIC ENERGY, ADDED HOWEVER, THAT HIS ONLY KNOWLEDGE OF THE HINTED HYDROGEN BOMB COMES FROM WHAT HE HAS READ IN THE DAILY PRESS.

HE PROPOSED THAT IN ORDER FOR THE PEOPLE TO FORM A JUDGMENT, EVERYTHING THAT CAN BE TOLD ABOUT THE BOMB SHOULD BE MADE PUBLIC.

FORMOSA-WOMEN

WASHINGTON, JAN.10-(AP)-ALL WOMEN EMPLOYES OF THE AMERICAN EMBASSY AT TAIPEI ON FORMOSA HAVE BEEN TRANSFERRED FROM THE COMMUNIST-THREATENED ISLAND. WIVES AND CHILDREN OF AMERICAN DIPLOMATS ALSO HAVE BEEN ADVISED TO LEAVE.

STATE DEPARTMENT PRESS OFFICER MICHAEL MCDERMOTT, IN ANNOUNCING THIS TODAY, SAID THAT FOUR WOMEN EMPLOYES OF THE EMBASSY AND CONSULATE ARE AFFECTED BY THE ORDER. THEY WERE SHIFTED TO STATIONS OUTSIDE FORMOSA.

MCDERMOTT ADDED THAT "MANY DEPENDANTS OF AMERICAN OFFICIAL PERSONNEL" ARE VOLUNTARILY DEPARTING FROM THE ISLAND, THE LAST BIG STRONGHOLD OF THE CHINESE NATIONALISTS.

WHILE HE DECLINED TO SAY SO OFFICIALLY, IT IS KNOWN THAT ALL AMERICAN CITIZENS IN THE ISLAND HAVE BEEN QUIETLY ADVISED TO LEAVE.

HERE ARE THE FOUR WOMEN EMPLOYES TRANSFERRED FROM TAIPEI, WHERE THE NATIONALISTS HAVE THEIR HEADQUARTERS:

MISS ANNE B.COOKE TO HONGKONG. HER AUNT IS LISTED AS MRS. E.P. COOKE OF FORT SMITH, ARK.

MRS. LAVON M.MINCEY TO PRETORIA, SOUTH AFRICA. SHE HAS AN AUNT AT SEATTLE, WASH., AND EXPECTS TO TAKE HOME LEAVE AT LOS ANGELES. THE STATE DEPARTMENT DID NOT KNOW THE NAMES OF RELATIVES OR FRIENDS AT EITHER PLACE.

BUCK HILL FALLS, PA., JAN.10-(AP)-COMMUNISM IS MAKING HEADWAY IN LATIN AMERICA BECAUSE CONDITIONS THERE ARE SIMILAR TO THOSE PREVAILING IN PRE-REVOLUTIONARY RUSSIA, A PROTESTANT CHURCH CONFERENCE WAS TOLD TODAY.

THAT REPORT WAS MADE BY DR.W.STANLEY RYCROFT, OF NEW YORK, EXECUTIVE SECRETARY OF THE COMMITTEE ON COOPERATION, IN A SPEECH PREPARED FOR THE OPENING SESSION OF A FOUR-DAY MEETING OF THE FOREIGN MISSIONS CONFERENCE OF NORTH AMERICA.

THE CONFERENCE IS MADE UP OF 108 MISSION BOARDS OF 58 PROTESTANT DENOMINATIONS.

"AS IN RUSSIA BEFORE THE REVOLUTION," DR.RYCROFT SAID, "A LARGE MAJORITY OF THE (LATIN AMERICAN) PEOPLE ARE LANDLESS, ILLITERATE, UNDERPRIVILEGED AND EXPLOITED, AND A LAND-OWNING CHURCH INTERESTED IN ITS OWN POWER AND THE STATUS QUO IS IN CONTROL."

DR.RYCROFT SAID THE ROMAN CATHOLIC CHURCH "UNWITTINGLY" AIDS THE CAUSE OF COMMUNISM IN LATIN AMERICA "BY KEEPING THE PEOPLE IN IGNORANCE AND SUPERSTITITION."

THE NEW YORKER SAID THE IMPORTANCE OF KEEPING LATIN AMERICA OUT OF THE COMMUNISTS' CAMP WAS DEMONSTRATED DURING WORLD WAR TWO WHEN "44 PER CENT OF ALL AMERICAN STRATEGIC MATERIALS CAME FROM LATIN AMERICA."

IN ANOTHER PREPARED ADDRESS, WHITE MISSION BOARDS WERE URGED TO USE MORE NEGRO MISSIONARIES IN AFRICA.

THE PLEA WAS MADE BY THE REV.C.C.ADAMS, OF PHILADELPHIA, EXECUTIVE SECRETARY OF THE FOREIGN MISSIONS BOARD OF THE NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION OF THE U.S.A.

"THE NEGRO MISSIONARY IS WELCOMED FREELY AND WITHOUT SUSPICION INTO THE FULLEST CONFIDENCE AND IS DEEPLY ACQUAINTED WITH THE DEEPEST RECESSES OF THE NATIVES' DESIRES, ASPIRATIONS AND HOPES," HE SAID.

REPORTER GLENN WILSON, WHO WORKS FOR THE OKLAHOMA CITY DAILY OKLAHOMAN, SAID THREE PERSONS ATTACKED HIM AFTER HE LEFT THE HOUSE TO TELEPHONE HIS STORY TO HIS PAPER. HE WAS UNINJURED.

SHOUTS OF "DIRTY COMMUNISTS" AND "COME OUT BEFORE WE BURN THE HOUSE DOWN" ECHOED NEAR THE HOUSE AS THE CROSS BLAZED AND SHAW MADE HIS SPEECH.

AND INSIDE HE TOLD HIS AUDIENCE:

"SEE, THIS IS WHAT I TOLD YOU ABOUT LOSING YOUR FREEDOM."

PRECEDE HONG KONG DIPLOMATIC

SAN FRANCISCO,JAN 10 (AP)-THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS IN PEIPING SHOWED IRRITATION TODAY AT CIRCUMSTANCES SURROUNDING BRITAIN'S RECOGNITION.

FOR THE FIRST TIME SINCE THE BRITISH ACTION OF LAST FRIDAY, THE REDS GAVE SOME HINT AS TO WHY THEY MAY BE SLOW TO ESTABLISH RELATIONS.

TAKING OFFENSE AT LONDON PRESS DISPATCHES CONCERNING BRITAIN'S OFFER, THE RADIO SAID THE RED REGIME WOULD DETERMINE ITS STEPS IN ACCORDANCE "WITH THE ACTUAL DEEDS OF THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT TOWARD CHINA AND NOT ITS ACTUAL PROCLAMATIONS."

A BROADCAST HEARD BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS AT SAN FRANCISCO, SAID FOR EXAMPLE THAT "THE LONDON PRESS SERVICE CRUDELY MISREPRESENTED THE CENTRAL PEOPLES GOVERNMENT OF THE PEOPLES REPUBLIC OF CHINA AS 'THE CHINESE COMMUNIST GOVERNMENT.'"

THE BROADCAST NOTED THE LONDON PRESS REPORT THAT "RECOGNITION OF A GOVERNMENT IN NO WAY IMPLIES APPROVAL OF THAT GOVERNMENT'S POLITICS...THIS APPLIES IN THE PRESENT CASE AS IN THE CASE OF EASTERN EUROPEAN GOVERNMENTS OR OF THE FRANCO GOVERNMENT OF SPAIN."

THIS SEEMS TO HAVE ANGERED THE COMMUNISTS TOO, FOR IT TOUCHED OFF THE FAMILIAR "IMPERIALISM" PROPAGANDA THEME.

"HERE THE BRITISH IMPERIALIST ELEMENTS," THE RADIO SAID, "DID NOT IN THE LEAST CONCEAL THEIR INHERENT HOSTILITY TOWARDS THE PEOPLES REPUBLIC..."

THE BROADCAST WAS NOT PRESENTED AS AN EDITORIAL OR A STATEMENT OF A GOVERNMENT OFFICIAL, WHICH IS THE USUAL METHOD.

IT WAS A FLAT STATEMENT, QUOTING NO ONE. THIS STRONGLY IMPLIED IT WAS THE POSITION OF THE GOVERNMENT. YET IT WAS CAREFUL TO PIN ALL ITS OBJECTIONS TO "THE LONDON PRESS SERVICE." NO OBJECTION WAS VOICED TO THE BRITISH NOTE OF RECOGNITION ITSELF.

A SEPARATE BROADCAST EARLIER HAD SAID FOREIGN MINISTER CHOU EN-LAI ACKNOWLEDGED THE BRITISH OFFER AND EXPRESSED A WILLINGNESS TO NEGOTIATE FOR THE ESTABLISHING OF DIPLOMATIC RELATIONS. CHOU ACCEPTED THE NOMINATION OF J. C. HUTCHISON, BRITAIN'S CHARGE D'AFFAIRES IN NANKING, FOR THE NEGOTIATIONS.

THIS BROADCAST WAS BRIEF. LATER CAME THE LONGER BROADCAST CRITICAL OF THE BRITISH ATTITUDE.

THE RADIO ALSO OBJECTED TO THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT'S DECISION TO MAINTAIN A CONSUL ON FORMOSA TO LOOK AFTER BRITISH INTERESTS THERE.

"SUCH AN ATTITUDE," THE RED RADIO SAID, "OF THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT EVOKES THE DOUBT WHETHER IT WILL CONFORM TO WHAT WAS DEMANDED OF FOREIGN GOVERNMENTS...NAMELY 'SEVERANCE OF RELATIONS WITH THE KUOMINTANG (NATIONALIST) REACTIONARY CLIQUE.'"

ANOTHER THING THAT ROUSED THE IRE OF THE COMMUNISTS WAS A PRESS DISPATCH SAYING RECOGNITION "DOES NOT IMPLY THE SLIGHTEST RELAXATION OF THEIR (THE GOVERNMENT'S) RESOLVE TO CONTINUE TO FIGHT COMMUNIST TERRORISM IN MALAYA AND GENERALLY DEVOTE THEIR EFFORTS TO CONTAINING THE FLOW OF COMMUNISM BEYOND THE BORDERS OF CHINA."

THE RADIO THOUGHT SOME "USEFUL LESSONS" COULD BE DRAWN FROM THIS: "NAMELY, THE PEOPLE OPPRESSED BY IMPERIALISM SHOULD IN NO WAY ENTERTAIN ANY ILLUSIONS ABOUT IMPERIALISM. THE OPPRESSED PERSONS CAN ONLY WIN FREEDOM AND FORCE IMPERIALISTS TO 'RECOGNIZE' THIS FREEDOM THROUGH THEIR OWN STRUGGLE LIKE THAT PUT UP BY THE CHINESE PEOPLE."

THE BROADCAST SAID IT WAS DESIRABLE TO ESTABLISH DIPLOMATIC RELATIONS "ON THE BASIS OF EQUALITY, MUTUAL BENEFIT AND MUTUAL RESPECT FOR TERRITORY AND SOVEREIGNTY."

IT SAID, HOWEVER, THAT CHINA WAS A NATION WHICH UNDERSTANDS "DO TO OTHERS WHAT OTHERS DO UNTO YOU" AND "LISTEN TO HIS WORDS AND OBSERVE HIS DEEDS."

FLYING ARROW

NEW YORK, JAN 10-(AP)-HANS J.ISBRANDTSEN, PRESIDENT OF THE ISBRANDTSEN SHIPPING LINE, OWNER OF THE FREIGHTER FLYING ARROW, SAID TODAY SENATOR FERGUSON (R-MICH) WAS "TALKING THROUGH HIS HAT" WHEN HE CHARGED ISBRANDTSEN SHIPS HAVE BEEN TAKING OIL AND MUNITIONS TO CHINESE COMMUNISTS.

"HE (FERGUSON) I CARRYING RUMORS ABOUT, AND A MAN IN HIS RESPONSIBLE POSITION SHOULD NOT DO THAT," THE SHIPPING MAN SAID.

THE FLYING ARROW WAS SHELLED BY NATIONALIST WARSHIPS YESTERDAY WHILE TRYING TO REACH COMMUNIST-HELD SHANGHAI.

ISBRANDTSEN SAID SEVERAL HUNDRED AMERICAN FIRMS WERE INTERESTED IN SENDING CARGOES TO CHINA. HE SAID THE FLYING ARROW CARGO CAME FROM MANY PORTS, INCLUDING SAN FRANCISCO, HONG KONG AND SINGAPORE. ISBRANDTSEN SAID IT WAS CONSIGNED TO AMERICAN FIRMS STILL OPERATING IN CHINA AND TO CHINESE COMPANIES.

EXPORTS FROM SHANGHAI WAITING TO BE LOADED, HE SAID, INCLUDE TUNG OIL, BRISTLES, LINEN, TEA, HOG CASINGS AND CHINESE MERCHANDISE, ALL CONSIGNED TO FIRMS IN THE UNITED STATES.

ISBRANDTSEN SAID HIS FIRM HAD NO DEALINGS WITG THE CHINESE COMMUNIST GOVERNMENT.

"THEY HAVE BEEN INDIFFERENT TO US," HE SAID. "WE ARE DOING BUSINESS THROUGH OUR AMERICAN AGENT STATIONED IN SHANGHAI."

ISBRANDTSEN OBJECTED TO HIS SHIPS BEING CALLED BLOCKADE RUNNERS. HE SAID THE LEGAL DEFINITION OF SUCH VESSELS WAS A "SHIP GOING THROUGH A LEGAL BLOCKADE CARRYING CONTRABAND."

"THE U.S. HAS NOT RECOGNIZED THE BLOCKADE AND WE DO NOT CARRY CONTRABAND," HE SAID.

INSURANCE CIRCLES SAID THAT THE HULL AND CARGO OF SHIPS ENTERING SHANGHAI AND OTHER CHINESE PORTS CAN BE INSURED AGAINST WAR RISKS BY PAYMENT OF EXTRA PREMIUMS.

THE AMERICAN CARGO WAR RISK REINSURANCE EXCHANGE CURRENTLY SETS AN EXTRA WAR RISK PREMIUM RATE OF $2 ON EACH $100 OF CARGO VALUE FOR SHIPMENTS GOING TO SHANGHAI. THIS, AN INSURANCE OFFICIAL SAID, PROTECTED THE SHIPPER AGAINST SUCH RISKS AS SHELLING OR SEIZURE.

SHIP'S HULLS USUALLY CARRY MARINE POLICIES TO PROTECT AGAINST LOSS FROM ORDINARY MARITIME PERILS, AND WAR RISK POLICIES GIVING WORLD-WIDE PROTECTION AGAINST WAR RISKS BUT EXCLUDING CHINESE PORTS. FOR AN ADDITIONAL PREMIUM, ON WHICH NO PUBLISHED RATE IS AVAILABLE, THE WAR RISK PROTECTION CAN BE EXTENDED TO CHINA, IT WAS SAID.

ISBRANDTSEN DECLINED TO SAY WHO INSURED THE FLYING ARROW.

NIGHT LEAD HISS (390)

BY JAMES PARLATORE

NEW YORK, JAN. 10-(AP)-AN EX-DIPLOMAT TESTIFIED TODAY THAT GERHART EISLER'S FORMER WIFE PLEDGED HER EFFORTS LAST SEPTEMBER TO PUTTING ALGER HISS BEHIND THE BARS.

MRS.HEBE MASSING, FORMERLY MARRIED TO EISLER, IS ONE OF THE GOVERNMENT'S CHIEF WITNESSES AGAINST HISS AT HIS SECOND PERJURY TRIAL.

THE SURPRISE WITNESS, CALLED BY THE DEFENSE, WAS HENRIKAS RABINAVICIUS, A FORMER DIPLOMAT FOR HIS NATIVE LITHUANIA.

HE SAID HE MET MRS.MASSING AT A PARTY SEPT. 19 AND SHE TOLD HIM IN EFFECT:

"YOU WAIT AND SEE. I WILL WRITE ARTICLES AFTER THIS TRIAL IS OVER AND, IF I AM PERMITTED TO TESTIFY, HISS WILL BE INDICTED OR PUT IN PRISON OR SOMETHING OF THAT SORT."

RABINAVICIUS DID NOT SAY WHAT REASON, IF ANY, MRS.MASSING GAVE IN TELLING OF HER PURPORTED PLANS.

HISS WAS ACCUSED BY WHITTAKER CHAMBERS OF FEEDING STATE DEPARTMENT SECRETS TO A PREWAR SOVIET SPY RING, WHICH CHAMBERS SERVED AS A COURIER.

WHEN HE DENIED THE CHARGE, HISS WAS INDICTED ON PERJURY CHARGES. HIS FIRST TRIAL ENDED LAST JULY IN A HUNG JURY.

MRS.MASSING TESTIFIED THAT SHE WORKED WITH THE RUSSIAN UNDERGROUND BEFORE THE WAR AND MET HISS IN WASHINGTON.

RABINAVICIUS SAID HE MET MRS.MASSING AT THE HOME OF EUGENE LYONS, EDITOR OF THE AMERICAN MERCURY, AND THAT SHE GAVE A LONG ACCOUNT OF HER FIRST MEETING WITH HISS.

RABINAVICIUS SAID HE ASKED MRS.MASSING IF HISS ADMITTED TO HER THAT HE WAS A COMMUNIST OR A SPY. ADDED RABINAVICIUS:

"SHE SAID, 'NO, HE DID NOT NEED TO TELL ME, I KNEW.' I ASKED HOW SHE KNEW. SHE SAID 'OH, YOU DON'T UNDERSTAND THOSE THINGS.'"

EARLIER, ASSISTANT U.S.ATTORNEY THOMAS F.MURPHY HAMMERED AWAY IN CROSS EXAMINATION AGAINST DR.CARL A.L.BINGER, A DEFENSE PSYCHIATRIST. DR.BINGER HAS CALLED CHAMBERS, CHIEF WITNESS AGAINST HISS, A "PSYCHOPATHIC PERSONALITY" WHO WAS A CHRONIC LIAR AND ADDICTED TO FALSE ACCUSATIONS.

ONE OF THE POINTS DR.BINGER CITED TO BACK UP HIS ANALYSIS WAS CHAMBERS' HABIT OF STARING AT THE CEILING WHILE ON THE WITNESS STAND.

WITH STARTLING SUDDENNESS, MURPHY TOLD DR.BINGER:

"WE HAVE MADE A COUNT OF THE NUMBER OF TIMES YOU LOOKED AT THE CEILING. XXX WE COUNTED A TOTAL OF 59 TIMES THAT YOU LOOKED AT THE CEILING IN 50 MINUTES.

"NOW I WAS WONDERING WHETHER THAT WAS ANY SYMPTOM OF A PSYCHOPATHIC PERSONALITY."

DR.BINGER SHIFTED IN THE WITNESS CHAIR, THEN SMILED.

"NOT ALONE," HE REPLIED.

MURPHY RECALLED DR.BINGER'S TESTIMONY THAT CHAMBERS LIED AT LEAST 20 TIMES IN 36 YEARS AND ASKED:

"WHAT IS PAR, DOCTOR?"

"YOU HAVE HAD MORE EXPERIENCE WITH THAT THAN I, MR.MURPHY," RPLIED DR.BINGER.

MURPHY FLUSHED AND DEMANDED THAT DR.BINGER APOLOGIZE.

HOWEVER, JUDGE GODDARD SAID HE DIDN'T THINK DR.BINGER MEANT TO OFFEND BUT MERELY WAS ALLUDING TO MURPHY'S COURT EXPERIENCE.

"CERTAINLY, I MEANT NO OFFENSE," ADDED THE WITNESS.

JAN 11 1950

BY LEO BRANHAM (470)

NEW YORK, JAN. 10-(AP)-A NATIONAL FOREIGN TRADE COUNCIL SPOKESMAN SAID TODAY THAT PROPOSED HIGH INCOME TAXES FOR FOREIGN RESIDENTS IN JAPAN WOULD "SCARE OFF" PRESENT AND POTENTIAL INVESTORS IN JAPANESE ENTERPRISES.

"AMERICAN FIRMS CAN'T AFFORD TO PUT A STAFF IN JAPAN IF THEIR REPRESENTATIVES MUST PAY EXORBITANT INCOME TAXES," DECLARED GEORGE F.JAMES, NEW YORK OIL COMPANY EXECUTIVE.

HE REFERRED TO RECOMMENDATIONS TO SCAP BY AN AMERICAN MISSION HEADED BY PROF.CARL SHOUP OF COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY, NEW YORK. THESE RECOMMENDATIONS, SCHEDULED TO BECOME EFFECTIVE APRIL 1, INCLUDE PROVISIONS WHICH THE NFTC SAYS WOULD EXACT A 53.1 PER CENT INCOME TAX FROM A FOREIGNER EARNING AROUND $14,000 IN JAPAN. THE NFTC SAID THIS TAX COMPARED WITH AN AMERICAN INCOME TAX RATE OF 14.5 PER CENT FOR A FAMILY MAN EARNING THE SAME SALARY IN THE UNITED STATES.

JAMES, HEAD OF A NFTC COMMITTEE WHICH MADE AN EXHAUSTIVE STUDY OF THE SHOUP RECOMMENDATIONS, TOLD A NEWS CONFERENCE:

"JAPAN CAN'T RAISE HERSELF BACK INTO ECONOMIC HEALTH BY HER OWN BOOTSTRAPS. SHE'S GOT TO HAVE OUTSIDE HELP TO DEVELOP HER RESOURCES.

"THERE'S BEEN VERY LITTLE FOREIGNINVESTMENTS IN JAPAN SINCE THE WAR. EASING OF PROPOSED INCOME TAXES FOR BUSINESS MEN RESIDENT IN JAPAN AND EXEMPTION OF ALLIED NATIONAL COMPANIES FROM A NEW TAX--WHICH AMOUNTS TO A CAPITAL LEVY--IS NECESSARY TO ENCOURAGE AMERICAN INVESTMENTS."

MEL WALKER, FORMER U.S.STATE DEPARTMENT EMPLOYE NOW HEAD OF THE NFTC'S FAR EASTERN DIVISION, AGREED WITH JAMES. SAID WALKER:

"A NUMBER OF AMERICAN COMPANIES HAVE HAD AND ARE STILL SENDING REPRESENTATIVES ON SURVEY MISSIONS TO JAPAN WITH AN EYE TOWARD FUTURE INVESTMENTS THERE. BUT THESE PROPOSED TAXES ONLY ADD ANOTHER SERIOUS OBSTACLE TO THOSE ALREADY EXISTING WHICH DISCOURAGE FOREIGN INVESTORS."

JAMES SAID HIS COMMITTEE SUGGESTS THESE ALTERNATIVE TAX MEASURES BE SUBSTITUTED FOR THE SHOUP RECOMMENDATIONS:

1--TAXATION OF AN INDIVIDUAL'S LOCAL DRAWINGS ONLY.

2--TAXATION OF INCOME ONLY AFTER STATUTORY DEDUCTION FOR APPROXIMATELY 50 PER CENT OF TOTAL COMPENSATION.

3--TAXATION AT RATES PREVAILING IN THE INDIVIDUAL'S HOME COUNTRY.

HE SAID THE COMMITTEE ALSO SUGGESTS THAT FOREIGN EXECUTIVES AND TECHNICIANS TEMPORARILY ASSIGNED IN JAPAN BE EXEMPT FROM INCOME TAX FOR ONE TO TWO YEARS.

JAMES ADDED AMERICAN BANKERS WERE PARTICULARLY CONCERNED OVER THE PROPOSED SHOUP TAXES.

NFTC MODICATIONS TO THE SHOUP MISSION RECOMMENDATIONS HAVE BEEN FORWARDED TO SCAP THROUGH THE U.S. STATE DEPARTMENT. UNOFFICIALLY, JAMES SAID, THEY HAVE ALSO BEEN BROUGHT TO THE ATTENTION OF THE JAPANESE FINANCE MINISTRY BY NFTC MEMBERS IN TOKYO.

ONE NEWSMAN ASKED JAMES WHETHER PRODUCTS OF JAPAN, A FORMER ENEMY, AND ONE, HE SAID, WHO "COMMITTED MANY WARTIME ATROCITIES", WOULD NOW BE ACCEPTED IN THE UNITED STATES AND ALLIED COUNTRIES.

JAMES REPLIED:

"YES, I THINK THEY WILL. I DON'T THINK MEMORIES OF THE WAR WILL PREVENT IT."

NEW YORK, JAN. 10-(AP)-AN ATOMIC ENERGY OFFICIAL SAID TODAY THAT BY JUNE 30 THIS COUNTRY WILL HAVE INVESTED $4,100,000,000 (B) IN STUDYING THE MILITARY AND NON-MILITARY APPLICATIONS OF ATOMIC ENERGY.

WILBUR E.KELLEY, MANAGER OF THE NEWYORK OPERATIONS OFFICE OF THE ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION, GAVE THE FIGURE AT A THREE-DAY CONFERENCE SPONSORED BY THE COMMISSION AND NEW YORK UNIVERSITY.

KELLEY SAID THE SUM INCLUDES $700,000,000 (M) FOR THE CURRENT FISCAL YEAR AND ALL RESEARCH EXPENSES SINCE SEPTEMBER 1942, WHEN THE GOVERNMENT BEGAN LARGE-SCALE EFFORTS TO MAKE AN ATOM BOMB.

HE SAID SECURITY RESTRICTIONS HAD MADE IT IMPOSSIBLE FOR THE COMMISSION TO "REPORT COMPLETELY TO THE PEOPLE ON ALL THE PURPOSES FOR WHICH SUCH SUMS HAVE BEEN EXPENDED."

IN ADDITION TO THE GOVERNMENT'S MAJOR RESEARCH CENTERS, KELLEY SAID, THE COMMISSION IS PAYING FOR SOME 200 RESEARCH PROJECTS BEING CONDUCTED BY PRIVATE INDUSTRY AND ACADEMIC INSTITUTIONS.

FOLO WASH DISPLACED PERSONS

NEW YORK, JAN. 10-(AP)-A ROMAN CATHOLIC PRELATE IN CHARGE OF HIS CHURCH'S RESETTLEMENT COUNCIL DENIED TODAY THAT SUBVERSIVES ARE REACHING THE UNITED STATES THROUGH THE DISPLACED PERSONS' PROGRAM.

MONSIGNOR EDWARD E.SWANSTROM, NATIONAL CHAIRMAN OF THE COUNCIL, SPOKE AT A NEWS CONFERENCE AFTER A COUNCIL MEETING THAT RECOMMENDED EXPANDING THE RESETTLEMENT PROGRAM.

"TO OUR KNOWLEDGE THERE HAS BEEN ONLY ONE SUBVERSIVE HELD AT ELLIS ISLAND AND RETURNED OF THE 121,123 PERSONS ADMITTED UNDER THE ACT," HE SAID.

HE ALSO SAID HE KNEW OF NO DISPLACED PERSON IN THIS COUNTRY WHO HAD JOINED A SUBVERSIVE GROUP HERE.

SEN.PAT MCCARRAN (D-NEV) CLAIMED RECENTLY THAT SUBVERSIVES WERE ENTERING THIS COUNTRY UNDER THE DISPLACED PERSONS ACT OF 1948, WHICH EXPIRES IN JUNE.

MCCARRAN IS CHAIRMAN OF A SENATE JUDICIARY SUBCOMMITTEE WHICH WOULD HAVE TO PASS ON ANY EXTENSION OF THE ACT.

MONSIGNOR SWANSTROM SAID DPS ARE SCREENED BOTH BY THE INTERNATIONAL REFUGEE ORGANIZATION AND BY THE ARMY'S COUNTER-INTELLIGENCE CORPS.

THE CATHOLIC GROUP RECOMMENDS THAT THE NUMBER OF DPS AUTHORIZED FOR ADMITTANCE TO THE U.S.BE BOOSTED FROM 205,000 TO 339,000, EXTENSION OF THE ACT TO JUNE 1951 AND SOME LIBERALIZING OF PROCEDURE.

MONSIGNOR SWANSTROM ALSO DENIED CHARGES THAT THE PRESENT ACT IS ANTI-CATHOLIC. HE SAID 48 PER CENT OF THE ARRIVING DPS ARE CATHOLICS.

A20 Lake Success

THERE STILL IS NO EVIDENCE that THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS HAVE DONE ANYTHING TOWARD SENDING A RIVAL DELEGATION TO LAKE SUCCESS.
THERE HAS BEEN SOME SPECULATION MAY BE HEADED BY MME. SUN YAT-SEN, ELDER SISTER OF MADAME CHIANG AND WIDOW OF CHINA'S FAMED REVOLUTIONARY LEADER. MADAME SUN IS VICE-CHAIRMAN OF THE CENTRAL POLITICAL COMMITTEE OF THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS AT PEIPING AND ONE OF THEIR BEST-KNOWN ADHERENTS.
TODAY'S COUNCIL SESSION ALSO WAS COMPLICATED BY THE FACT THAT YUGOSLAVIA, NOW ENGAGED IN A BITTER FEUD WITH THE RUSSIAN-LED COMINFORM, WAS AMONG THE THREE NEW MEMBERS TAKING THEIR SEATS FOR THE FIRST TIME.
THIS ALSO MAY PRODUCE A SOVIET BLAST. IT REPRESENTS MARSHAL TITO. DEPUTY FOREIGN MINISTER ALES BEBLER REPRESENTS MARSHAL TITO. INDIA IS REPRESENTED BY SIR BENEGAL N.RAU AND ECUADOR BY HOMERO VITERI-LAFRONTE.
AT THE TIME OF YUGOSLAVIA'S ELECTION BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY LAST FALL, RUSSIA DECLARED IT DID NOT RECOGNIZE THE ASSEMBLY'S ACTION. SOVIET FOREIGN MINISTER ANDREI Y.VISHINSKY SAID THE ELECTION WOULD RESULT IN "PAINFUL CONSEQUENCES" TO THE U.N. THIS WAS INTERPRETED BY SOME AS A THREAT OF A SOVIET WALKOUT, BUT OTHERS SCOUTED THIS THEORY. THEY SAID IT WAS JUST ANOTHER EXAMPLE OF RUSSIA'S USE OF PHRASES WITH DOUBLE MEANINGS.

SECOND LEAD U.N.

LAKE SUCCESS, JAN. 10-(AP)-THE RUSSIAN DELEGATION WALKED OUT OF THE UNITED NATIONS SECURITY COUNCIL TODAY AFTER A ROW OVER THE CHINESE QUESTION.

DEPUTY FOREIGN MINISTER JAKOB A.MALIK LED HIS SOVIET GROUP FROM THE CHAMBER WHEN THE COUNCIL REJECTED HIS DEMAND FOR IMMEDIATE ACTION TO EXPEL THE CHINESE NATIONALIST DELEGATION.
BY A VOTE OF 8 TO 2, THE COUNCIL UPHELD A RULING OF COUNCIL PRESIDENT T.F.TSIANG, OF NATIONALIST CHINA, TO DEFER ACTION ON THE SOVIET PROPOSAL. RUSSIA AND YUGOSLAVIA VOTED TO OVERRULE THE PRESIDENT AND INDIA ABSTAINED.

A187UN

BEFORE HE LEFT THE CHAMBER, MALIK SAID IT WAS ABNORMAL FOR THE COUNCIL, TO MEET UNDER THE PRESIDENCY OF (TSIANG) WHO "REPRESENTS NOBODY AT ALL."
"FOR THESE REASONS," HE SAID, "I CANNOT PARTICIPATE IN THE MEETING UNTIL THE REPRESENTATIVE OF THE KUOMINTANG (NATIONALIST CHINA) IS REMOVED FROM THE TABLE. THE PEOPLE, I WILL LEAVE THE HALL."

A188UN

THE OTHER DELEGATES IGNORED THE WALKOUT.

MALIK EMERGED CLOSELY FOLLOWED BY DEPUTY SEMYEON TSARAPKIN.

"NO COMMENT," HE SNAPPED. "I MAKE WHATEVER COMMENT I HAVE ON THE FLOOR OF THE SECURITY COUNCIL."

MALIK REFUSED TO SAY WHEN HE MIGHT ATTEND ANOTHER COUNCIL MEETING.

HE DECLINED FLATLY TO REMARK ON THE SUPPORT GIVEN HIM BY YUGOSLAVIA'S ALES BEBLER ON THE CHINA QUESTION.

NEITHER HE NOR TSARAPKIN WOULD SAY WHETHER OTHER RUSSIAN PARTICIPATION IN THE UNITED NATIONS WAS AFFECTED.

THIS WAS RUSSIA'S SECOND WALKOUT IN THE SECURITY COUNCIL. THE FIRST WAS LED BY DEPUTY FOREIGN MINISTER ANDREI A. GROMYKO IN MARCH, 1946, OVER A DECISION ON THE RUSSIAN-IRANIAN QUESTION.

AFTER MALIK'S DEPARTURE, YUGOSLAV DEPUTY FOREIGN MINISTER ALES BEBLER TOOK THE FLOOR.

"WE ARE CALLED TO WORK UNDER THE PRESIDENCY OF A MAN WHOSE GOVERNMENT IS NOT RECOGNIZED BY ALMOST HALF THE GOVERNMENTS REPRESENTED HERE," BEBLER SAID.

FIVE OF THE COUNCIL'S 11 MEMBERS ALREADY HAVE WITHDRAWN RECOGNITION OF THE NATIONALIST GOVERNMENT AND RECOGNIZED THE RED REGIME OF MAO TZE-TUNG. AMONG THE FIVE ARE YUGOSLAVIA BUT RED CHINA THUS FAR HAS APPARENTLY DISREGARDED THE YUGOSLAV RECOGNITION.

ERNEST GROSS, NEW UNITED STATES DELEGATE, SAID THAT DECENT RESPECT FOR ORDERLY PROCEDURE WOULD HAVE DICTATED A DIFFERENT COURSE FROM THAT FOLLOWED BY RUSSIA. GROSS SAID IT IS A MATTER OF REGRET THAT RUSSIA WANTED TO DISREGARD A COUNCIL RULE WHICH PROVIDED THAT ANY MEMBER WHOSE CREDENTIALS ARE CHALLENGED MAY SIT UNTIL THE ISSUE IS DECIDED.

Reds, Established in China, Weigh 'Liberation' of Tibet

LONDON, Jan. 11—(AP) The signs grew more ominous today for Tibet, the cloud-wrapped land in Central Asia ruled by the boy Dalai Lama whose astrologers have warned him against foreigners.

Reports from Bhutan state, on the main route from India to the "Lost Horizon" country, said a communist puppet government for Tibet has been formed in the neighboring Chinese province of Tsinghai.

Tibet was the site of the mythical city of Shangri-La in James Hilton's novel, "Lost Horizon."

The Bhutan reports said four divisions of Tibetans are being trained for the service of the puppet government. A treaty with the regime provides that Chinese communists, upon "liberation of Tibet," will administer its foreign affairs and be given sole rights for mining its minerals, believed to include uranium, the dispatch said.

Invasion Threatens

At the same time a report of the official Chinese communist news agency broadcast from Peiping renewed threats to invade Tibet. The broadcast said the war on China's mainland fundamentally was at an end "with the exception of Tibet, which has yet to be liberated."

The Chinese communists have made previous threats against Tibet, whose 24,000-foot mountain peaks and 12,000-foot high valleys make it the highest country in the world.

Last September Peiping broadcasts first disclosed a purpose to "liberate" Tibet. Last Sunday Moscow's biggest newspapers, Izvestia and Pravda, repeated the threats.

The primitive nation of about 3,000,000 Buddhist monks and peasants is chiefly important because it borders on India, the disputed state of Kashmir and the huge Chinese providence of Sinkiang.

It is a country without roads or automobiles, electricity or industry. Two years ago the first Tibetan mission to leave the country since 1913 visited the United States seeking to sell wool and yak-tail hairs for wigs and Santa Claus whiskers.

Most conquerors have left the country alone. Its 16,000-foot mountain passes make it a tough nut to crack. Even the mongol conqueror, Kublai Khan, was able to carve out only the eastern part for his empire.

JAN 11 1950

May Use Political Rivalry

But in their penetration, the communists apparently are relying on a religious-political rival of the 15-year-old Chinese-born Dalai Lama, the present ruler.

The rival is the exiled 13-year-old Panchen Lama. Until recently the Panchen Lama was a leader without a flock i nthe lamasery at Kumbum, ~~out a flock in the lamasery at Kum~~ ~~western China~~ BUM, N.W. CHINA

The solemn-faced boy, called the "Buddha of Boundless Light," is believed to have fallen into the hands of the communists when they overran the province last September. In October the Peiping radio said he had appealed to the Chinese Red Army command for soldiers to "liberate Tibet."

The Dalai Lama has had forebodings for some time. Three years ago he cancelled any new attempts to scale 29,002-foot Mt. Everest until 1950 because his official astrologers had warned him he was in danger from foreigners.

Eighteen months ago he began prayer meetings to protect the country from communism.

Britain, China Row

Both the Dalai Lama and the Panchen Lama have been used in the past in the games of international politics.

The Panchen Lama's exile in China was brought about by the contest between Britain and China, who has claimed rule over the country since the 17th century. In the 1920s, during the Chinese-British rivalry, a religious war broke out between the two Lamas. The British backed the Dalai, the Chinese the Panchen, and the Panchen Lama had to flee.

Both Lamas are spiritual descendants of the 15th century monk, Tsong Ka Ba, who founded a sect of buddhism.

On Tsong Ka Ba's death, he decreed that his favorite disciples—the Dalai and Panchen Lamas—should have immortality. Thus when one of them dies a search begins for his sucessor, a baby who is believed to have inherited the spirit of the dead leader at the moment of his death.

In 1940 the supposed 14th incarnation of the Dalai Lama was found in the person of a Chinese peasant boy who was enthroned that year at the capital, Lhasa.

The present Panchen Lama, the supposed 10th incarnation, was found about four years later after a series of magic formulas. He was cshosen over a number of other children in a village in remote northwest China because he evinced an interest in the spectacles of the old Panchen Lama.

Rewarding his parents with a bag of gold, the monks took him to Kumbum and enthroned him. A lonely boy whose pleasures are confined to an ocasional game of ping pong and frolics with three black Tibetan poodles, he spends most of his time turning huge prayer wheels and learning the mysteries of Buddhism.

He is under the tutelage of a white-haired regent.

Tibet is described by Lowell Thomas, a news commentator who visited there last summer, as the most "anti-communist country in the world." However, it has an army of only 10,000 and lacks modern arms.

Thomas expressed belief upon his return to New York last October that Tibet, though unfriendly to strangers for centuries, would accept outside help if attacked by Chinese communists.

ARMS OFFICIALS CONFER ON PLANS TO AID EUROPE

LONDON, Jan. 11 — (AP) Top American arms program officials met today to lay plans for speeding military assistance to western Europe as soon as the necessary treaties are signed.

The officials hoped to anticipate and to answer administrative questions which might come up in connection with rearming western Europe with the $1,000,000,000 fund voted by the U. S. Congress. No arms aid can be moved to Europe until the bilateral treaties now being negotiated in Washington are concluded and approved by President Truman.

ECA Joins Parley

Participants in today's conference included Gen. Thomas Handy, commanding U. S. forces in Europe; Maj. Gen. Lyman Limnitzer, chief of the military assistance program for the secretary of defense, and representatives of the State department and the European cooperation administration.

Meeting with them were State department officials in charge of the arms aid program in Britain, France, Italy, Belgium, Holland, Denmark, Norway and Luxembourg. Portugal and Iceland, also members of the Atlantic alliance, have asked no share in the billion-dollar fund.

Informed sources said they discussed organization and preparation for handling arms aid, procedures for shipping and maintenance of equipment and supplies, problems of arms production in Europe, and types of reports to be submitted on phases of the program.

Details of requests of the participating nations for arms aid will not be furnished because of security restrictions.

Sources Listed

The United States plans to meet arms requirements of its Atlantic partners from these sources:

1. Excess stocks beyond the estimated requirements of the U. S. armed forces in the event of mobilization. The cost of renovation, packing and shipping will be charged against the billion-dollar arms fund.

2. War reserves, from which essential items needed for a balanced defense force in Europe could be borrowed.

3. New production. This source would be used also to replace whatever stocks were taken from war reserves.

It is contemplated, the informants said, that assistance to the eight countries in Europe would include help for all three services, the Army, the Navy and the Air Force. Authentic reports have said naval support was expected to include light vessels and naval equipment, rather than heavy warships.

It was learned that in some cases representatives of European Atlantic forces will be sent to the United States for training in technical schools as instructors. In some cases, American instructors will be sent to the European nations.

U. S. sources here decline to comment on how soon the flow of equipment to Europe will begin.

British Ponder Closing Naval Base In Bermuda

London, Jan. 11 (AP)—Britain is thinking of closing down her big naval base in Bermuda to save money, informed sources said today.

A mission headed by Arthur Dugdale, parliamentary secretary of the Admiralty, has been in Bermuda for several days studying the situation.

An Admiralty spokesman said all naval services are being examined "with the object of effecting all possible economies."

The Bermuda base, on Ireland Island, employs more than 300 Britons and about 600 local people—two per cent of the population.

Albania Calls Stalin a God

LONDON, Jan. 11 (AP)—Albani called Joseph Stalin a god today. The official Albanian Telegraph Agency said the Albanian People's Assembly had voted to erect a statue of "the diety, Joseph Vissarionovich Stalin." Albanian Premier Enver Hoxha, was quoted by the agency as having said: "The Great Stalin is our people's glorious savior."

French, Italian Red 'Unity' Assailed

Paris, Jan. 11 (AP)—French Communist leaders were accused today by non-Communist newspapers of acting in concert with Italian Communists at Moscow's orders to stir up trouble in western Europe.

Observed independent Le Figaro: "A strange coincidence that these spontaneous conflicts explode once more in our Southeast at the same time as in Italy."

The non-Communist papers linked northern Italy's strike with yesterday's Communist-called strike in Marseille, where workers clashed with police.

Called "Stab In Back"

The Central Committee of the French Communist party sent the Central Committee of the Italian Communist party a telegram expressing "brotherly solidarity" in the fight against "the imperialist warmongers."

"In France as in Italy, the Communists have been ordered to stir up troubles," said the Right-wing paper, L'Aurore.

Le Figaro termed the Marseille strike, called to protest sending of French troops to Indo-China, "a stab in the back."

L'Aube, newspaper of Premier Georges Bidault's Catholic Popular Republican Movement (MRP), said: "The Cominform unleashed, at Marseille, a veritable operation of war against France."

Brought To End

The railroad strike, which was not successful in disrupting traffic seriously, came to a technical end in Marseille today.

In a clash yesterday between strikers and police, ten police were injured.

The liner Pasteur, loaded with 3,150 French troops, sailed for Saigon, after being held up 24 hours by the strike.

GASPERI QUITS AS COMMUNISTS ASSAIL ITALY

Premier Expected To Be Asked To Form New Rome Government

JAN 11 1950

Rome, Jan. 11 (AP)—Premier Alcide de Gasperi's coalition Government decided tonight to resign tomorrow, clearing the way for a reorganization he has planned since last October.

The decision came, by coincidence, after a day in which Communists demonstrated by the thousands against Italian police for the slaying of six foundry workers in a riot at Modena Monday. Communist spokesmen threatened a new anti-Government campaign. These demonstrations did not precipitate the cabinet crisis.

De Gasperi, 68-year-old Christian Democratic chieftain, is to submit his own resignation and that of his ministers tomorrow morning to President Luigi Einaudi, who presumably will then ask him to form a new government.

Single-Party Demand

The Premier's party has an absolute majority in the Chamber of Deputies and control of the Senate. He has run the country lately with a coalition of Christian Democrats, Liberals (conservatives), middle-of-the-road Republicans and independents. Though the Communist party is the second largest in both the House and Senate, it is barred from the cabinet.

De Gasperi hopes to form another coalition, but a strong faction within his own party is expected to demand a government made up solely of Christian Democratic ministers. He has no serious opposition for the premiership, but may have trouble creating a new cabinet quickly.

De Gasperi's Government backed the police against Communist charges in the Modena riot case.

Togliatti At Modena

"May those who did this be damned," exclaimed Palmiro Togliatti, the Italian Communist chief, likening the killings to a summary trial and execution.

Togliatti spoke at Modena, an industrial city of 96,000 in the Po Valley, where the six were given a mass funeral. The crowds there were estimated at from 100,000 to 300,000 persons.

"We promise to lead a new struggle, to conduct a vast campaign to rally the healthy forces of the nation in a huge movement which will be like a convulsion of the soul of the nation, which so many times before has beaten back the reactionaries," Togliatti said.

"We Have Had Enough"

Giuseppe de Vittorio, Communist boss of the Italian General Confederation of Labor, shouted:

"We have had enough. We are tired of weeping. The Italian Government must learn that its policies must be directed toward fulfilling the aspirations of peace, liberty and life of the people and not toward safeguarding the privileges of the few."

In Rome, the Communists staged a four-hour general strike and a rally estimated to have drawn 100,000 persons. Red flags and anti-Government placards dotted the scene. The meetings were the biggest held by Italian Communists since the assassination attempt against Togliatti two years ago. Police were out in force to keep order.

"They asked for bread and got bullets," said one placard. "Holy Year—but bloodshed," said another, referring to the Catholic designation of 1950 as a Holy Year. There were shouts of "Death to Mario Scelba," Interior Minister and police chief in Premier Alcide de Gasperi's coalition Cabinet.

Dr. Bluecher to Visit U. S.

BONN, Germany, Jan. 11 (AP).—Dr. Franz Bluecher, Vice-Chancellor of the West German Republic, will visit the United States in February, his press office announced today. He hopes to deliver personally a German agreement on Marshall plan aid. He will be the first German minister of the newly established West German government to visit the United States.

HEAD OF AGENCY FOR JEWISH RELIEF OUSTED BY CZECHS

PRAGUE, Czechoslovakia, Jan. 11.—(AP) Henry Levy, director of the American Joint Distribution Committee (AJDC) in Czechoslovakia, was ordered to leave the country today and to liquidate the Jewish relief agency by the end of the month.

His notice from the foreign ministry came less than a month after the arrest of Israel Jacobson, director of the same agency in Hungary. Jacobson was expelled from Hungary Dec. 28 after being held for 12 days on suspicion of being an American spy.

The order for Levy's expulsion apparently was a move to get rid of western-sponsored international organizations here and in eastern Europe, western diplomatic sources said.

May Close IRO

At the same time the director of the International Relief Organization here said the foreign ministry had suggested that he close the IRO offices by Jan. 15. He added that he had been called to the foreign ministry tomorrow and probably would get his orders then.

Spokesmen for CARE (Cooperative for American Remittances for Europe) said their contract had not yet been renewed for 1950 and "we wouldn't be surprised at anything that happens." Poland recently forced CARE to cease its operations there.

The Salvation Army said it had not yet received an answer to its request to the ministry for church affairs to be recognized as a religious organization.

The American Mormon church also is awaiting similar recognition. Twelve of its missionaries, accused of being "threats to the peace and security of the state," have been expelled in the last seven months.

Newsmen Expelled

Five days ago the government ordered the expulsion of four western newspaper correspondents.

Levy, who lives at 54 West 74th street, New York City, said no reason was given for his expulsion and the suppression of the AJDC. Four employes of the agency—two Americans, a Canadian and a south African—also were ordered to leave by the end of the month. The agency employed 30 Czechs.

Levy said he had asked for more time to wind up the agency's affairs.

Only a month ago he told the Associated Press that "Czechoslovakia is unique" with respect to AJDC's relations and "this has been a paradise compared to some of the other countries behind the Iron curtain."

He said the agency had spent between $8,000,000 and $9,000,000 here since September, 1945, in relief work among Jews and in aiding Jews to emigrate.

Since May, 1948, he added, between 22,000 and 24,000 Czech Jews have emigrated from this country, most of them with the aid of the AJDC. About 17,000 Jews still remain here out of the 42,000 who returned to the country from German concentration camps.

Czechs Order A.J.D.C. To Leave By February

JAN 11 1950

Prague, Jan. 11 (AP)—Czechoslovakia ordered the American Joint Distribution Committee today to leave the country by the end of the month, and it appeared that the Communist Government was intent upon driving out all remaining Western-sponsored international organizations.

The director of the A.J.D.C., Henry Levy, said the orders were sent by letter a few hours after he had conferred with Foreign Ministry spokesmen. He said no reason was given.

The A.J.D.C. is an international Jewish welfare organization.

Levy, who comes from New York, said he has asked for an extension to wind up the group's affairs.

Four foreign employés of the A.J.D.C. — two Americans, one Canadian and one South African — also were ordered to leave the country at month's end. The organization also employs 30 Czechs. It has operated here for more than four years.

The action came five days after the expulsion of four Western newspaper correspondents.

The International Refugee Organization here has announced that the Foreign Ministry "suggested" it be ready to close its offices January 15.

Russ, Red China Seen Blocking Jap Treaty

Colombo, Ceylon, Jan. 11 (AP)—British Commonwealth Foreign Ministers today expressed the desirability of a peace treaty with Japan but agreed that Russia and Communist China appeared to be the main stumbling blocks.

Discussion of a Japanese peace treaty was third on the agenda of the conference being held here. Britain presented a paper as a basis for the discussion.

No final position was expected to be reached, since there were too many details to be settled.

Warn Of Militarism

Delegates to the conference gave this account of the talks:

Austrailia and New Zealand were emphatic on the need to replace the present situation in Japan by a permanent arrangement. The delegates, however, stressed the possibility of a revival of militarism.

British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin said military occupation of Japan could not continue indefinitely. He pointed to the troubles blocking peace treaties in Europe, but agreed a Japanese treaty should be settled.

Canada expressed a similar view but noted the responsibilities of the United States. The Canadian delegate pointed out the difficulty of holding a peace conference at this time, particularly since China is now Communist.

Objectives Must Be Clear

He declared that the Western democracies must have a clear idea of their objectives in case China and Russia are uncooperative at such a conference.

India's Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru observed that 80,000,000 people could not be kept under military occupation forever. He warned the delegates against a treaty which would drive the Japanese into Russian arms.

Pakistan and Ceylon agreed with this view. South Africa reportedly left the initiative up to Australia and New Zealand.

The delegates said there was no disagreement at the conference, only a division of emphasis.

Early Jap Treaty Sought At Ceylon

Colombo, Ceylon, Jan. 11 (AP)—The British Commonwealth conference reached general agreement today that a Japanese peace treaty should be concluded at an early date, a communiqué said.

Reports from the conference, however, said the delegates discussed several difficulties blocking the way.

Australia and New Zealand were said to have emphasized safeguards against a revival of Japanese militarism. Canada pointed out the difficulty of holding a general peace conference, saying Russia and Communist China may prove unco-operative.

Constant Consultation

Ernest Bevin, British Foreign Secretary, presented a paper in which he said the military occupation of Japan cannot continue indefinitely.

Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru, supported by Pakistan and Ceylon, also declared it would not do to keep 80,000,000 people under military occupation forever. He was said to have warned against treaty terms which would drive the Japanese into the arms of Russia.

One delgate said the Commonwealth nations planned to set up machinery for constant consultation on a Japanese treaty.

The delegates then turned to discussion of political and economic conditions in southeast Asia and ways of throwing up a bulwark against the spread of communism.

Indo-China Held Key

Malcolm MacDonald, British commissioner general for southeast Asia, read a review in which he was reported to have declared that French Indo-China is the key to the southeast Asian question. He expressed the view that it is possible a sound regime may be established by former Emperor Bao Dai, who has been encouraged by the French Government to resume the rule of Viet Nam, the report said. Viet Nam is a part of Indo-China.

Australia urged that economic and technical assistance to southeast Asia be studied as a way of combatting communism. There were indications the Commonwealth nations would like the United States to help in such a program.

The question of Commonwealth aid to independent Burma may be taken up tomorrow.

Emergency Repairs Made, Flying Arrow Awaits Word Of Destination

JAN 11 1950

Aboard the Flying Arrow, Jan. 11 (AP)—Crewmen patched up this shell-crippled American freighter today enough to permit her to reach the nearest port.

But Capt. David Jones, of Chicago, her master, said he did not know where he would take her—Shanghai, her original destination, or elsewhere.

A Chinese Nationalist gunboat shelled her Monday, crippling her steering gear. [Nationalist spokesmen said the shooting was to keep her out of mine fields on the approaches to Shanghai.]

The attack occurred on the high seas, at least 20 miles from shore. The gunboat has shadowed her since, remaining at a distance varying from 300 yards to 8 miles.

Awaits Instructions

Captain Jones said he was awaiting instructions from her operators, the Isbrandtsen Line, of New York, on whether to proceed to Shanghai or another port.

Two American destroyers have offered to escort the Flying Arrow to any port except Shanghai.

The destroyers—Stickell and Baussell—arrived yesterday afternoon. During daylight hours they have not been more than 200 yards distant.

A steering apparatus that will enable the ship to be steered from the bridge was rigged up today. Electric cables, torn by shellfire, also were repaired.

First Engineer Wilbur Gift, of Naugatuck, Conn., filled four shell holes in the No. 5 hold, where a fire raged during the shelling Monday. The Flying Arrow took between 30 and 40 hits.

No Danger Seen

Captain Jones said the ship could be moved to the nearest port without danger to her 12 passengers, 43 crewmen and $10,000,000 cargo.

[The United States destroyers are under orders from Vice Admiral Russell S. Berkey to protect American shipping beyond the three-mile limit but not in Chinese territorial waters. They are to escort her to any port except those blockaded by the Chinese Nationalists who seek to stop traffic to all Chinese Communist ports.

[Berkey is in Bangkok, Thailand (Siam). He commands the recently reinforced United States 7th Task Force which is charged with supporting American policy and interests in Southeast Asia, including China waters.]

During the day the Chinese gunboat stopped a Chinese junk 500 yards from the Flying Arrow.

The two American destroyers moved into position. It was not possible to see from the ship whether the crews were at battle stations.

The gunboat was the same that shelled the Flying Arrow.

Other Ship Delayed

Hong Kong, Jan. 11 (AP)—The Isbrandtsen Line freighter Brooklyn Heights was delayed from sailing for Shanghai today. Agents said they hope to get her under way sometime tomorrow.

The ship was said to be awaiting additional cargo for the Chinese Communist-held port.

Four members of her 42-man crew have arranged to sign off the Brooklyn Heights if the Shanghai voyage is undertaken.

Edward Boyle, the ship's single passenger for Shanghai, is still aboard.

Red Agents Eradicated, Formosa Officials Say

JAN 11 1950

Taipei, Formosa, Jan. 11 (AP)—Chinese Communist agents have been active on Formosa, but they have been wiped out in the past six months, an official statement said today.

The statement by Peace Preservation Headquarters was prompted in part by word-of-mouth advice last month by the United States Consulate urging Americans to leave Formosa.

"Peace and order are being so well maintained," said the statement, "that no room is left for revolt. We have not the slightest doubt of our ability to preserve peace and order and protect foreigners."

Bomber Attacks Continue

Headquarters said Communist cells had been found and eradicated in the armed forces, the schools and other elements of society.

The Nationalist maintained their bomber attacks on the mainland, reporting raids on Shanghai, Canton, Foochow and five cities in central and southern China.

A 1,000-ton ship in the Shanghai harbor reportedly was hit by a bomb. Pilots said the bomb landed on the ship's stern.

Foochow, seaport capital of Fukien province, also was attacked.

Nationalist B-25 bombers hit mainland bases where Chinese Communists are mounting an amphibious attack on the Chu San Islands, guardians of the mouth of the Yangtze River, main artery to Shanghai's harbor. The Nationalists use part of the Chu San Islands as a base for their naval blockade of Shanghai.

Small Craft Strafed

Fighter planes ranged up and down the cost strafing small craft the Reds may use for an invasion attempt against Formosa, where the Nationalist capital is situated.

Massed Red forces on Luichow peninsula were bombed. These Communist forces are preparing for an attack on Hainan Island, off the south China coast.

A defense Ministry announcement said the Nationalists had about 100,000 regulars and close to 1,000,000 guerrillas active on the mainland.

The number compares with the more than 3,000,000 Nationalist regulars in China when Japan collapsed.

Army Strength Down

The once large armies of Generals Pai Chung-hsi and and Hu-Tsung-nan totaling around 500,000 men have largely disappeared through defeat and desertions.

The spokesman claimed that in Sikang, where Nationalist mainland headquarters are located, the new governor, Gen. Ho Kuo-wang, had gained control. The old governor, Gen. Liu Wen-hi, went over to the Reds.

Formosan Governor K. C. Wu denied a report he had asked the British consulate at Tansui to stop flying the union jack. Two attempts have been made by Nationalist soldiers to tear down the flag.

CHINESE PLANES BOMB RED BASES

TAIPEI, Formosa, Jan. 11 (AP)—Chinese Nationalists warplanes today rained bombs on bases where the communists are building up strength for invasions of government islands off the mainland.

The Air Force, which said Shanghai and Canton were among the cities attacked, declared the raids were the most extensive in weeks.

(The communist radio in Peiping boasted that the campaign on the mainland was at an end. A broadcast said that next to be 'liberated" were Tibet, Hainan island and Formosa.)

2,000-Ton Ship Hit

Bombers and fighters struck at Luichow peninsula, whose tip is but 10 miles from Hainan island off the south China coast. The Air Force said a 2,000-ton Communist ship was hit and badly damaged. Attacks also were made on Red troops massing on the Peninsula.

The air force reported a 1,000-ton ship received a direct hit on the stern during a raid on Shanghai. Medium bombers struck at red bases where preparations are being made for the invasion of Chu Shan, island blockade base 100 miles southeast of Shanghai.

Foochow, seaport between Formosa and Chu Shan, also was attacked. Fighter planes ranged up and down the coast strafing craft which the reds might use for an invasion of Formosa.

The Nationalists sought to give assaurance that Formosa was safe from revolt and that the fighting on the mainland was not over.

The defense ministry said there still are 100,000 regulars and 1,000,000 guerrilas on the mainland. These figures were believed to be rather generous, particularly in the case of guerrillas.

Gen. Hu Tsung-nan's 250,000-man army in the west has been reduced by defect and defections to 22,000. This remnant army is trying to set up operations in far-western Sikang province.

The spokesman said Sikang, next door to Tibet, was largely under Nationalist control. (The Red radio said Sikang and Yunnan, to the south, both were in the communist camp due to revolts of their governors. It is doubtful, however, if the communists have effective control.)

JAN 11 1950

Gen. Pai Chung-Hsi, commander in the south, has 10,000 men on the mainland fighting guerrilla - type warfare and 40,000 more on Hainan, the ministry said. His army originally also numbered about 250,000.

Deny Revolt Rumor

Peace preservation headquarters in a separate statement said that "peace and order are being so well maintained that no room is left for revolt" on Formosa.

It said Communist agents had been active on Formosa and had been found in the Army and the schools, but all were wiped out in the past six months.

The statement was prompted by quiet advice from the U. S. consulate last month to Americans to get out of Formosa. Few of the 230 Americans here paid any attention to the advice.

Many of the Americans are missionaries, who plan to stay in any case. There are about 90 in the official U. S. family—the embassy, consulate, and the economic co-operation administration.

Consul Donald D. Edgar left Monday for Washington on official business and three American women employes of the embassy took the same plane to Hong Kong. Their departure was not the start of any general evacuation.

Hong Kong Area Burned

15,000 Chinese Left Homeless In Kowloon District

HONG KONG, Jan. 11 (AP).—Fifteen thousand Chinese in the Kowloon district of this British crown colony were left homeless today by the worst fire in the area's history.

No casualties had been reported in the blaze, which swept through half a mile of the mainland strip. The section was the site of mostly squatters' huts and the grounds of two local motion picture studios.

Fire fighters, assisted by the British Army garrison, brought the flames under control.

20,000 Homeless in Fire

By the Associated Press.

HONG KONG, Jan. 11.—The worst fire in this British crown colony's history engulfed the walled city of Kowloon today, destroying a Buddhist temple, a score of small factories and several thousand shacks. An estimated 20,000 Chinese were homeless.

Japanese Get Healthier

Tokyo, Jan. 11 (AP)—The Japanese are getting healthier, General MacArthur's health-and-welfare section says in a report that "progress has been made in controlling disease," death rates are down, and some once-feared diseases are no longer a menace.

Dange Faces Ouster By Reds In Bombay

Bombay, Jan. 11 (AP)—India's veteran Red leader, S. A. Dange, faces a party ouster on charges of disobeying Red instructions to stir trouble while in prison, it was reported today.

Dange, president of the All-India Trade Union Congress, is in jail on political charges.

Bombay Communist leaders, with many of their members in jail, have been able to cause relatively little strife in local prisons, compared with those in Bengal and Madras, where several fatalities have recently occurred.

Informants said the Red underground, which seeks to discredit the Nehru Government and rouse the masses, is expected to expel several other prominent members for straying from the party line.

Iran Revamps Government

Tehran, Iran, Jan. 11 (AP)—Premier Mohammad Maraghai Said resigned today and was asked immediately by Shah Mohammed Reza Pahlevi to form a new Cabinet. Political observers believe the new Cabinet will adopt a strong economic policy to improve the general welfare. The Shah recently visited the United States to seek economic aid for his country.

Puppet Red Rule Reported Set Up For Tibet

JAN 11 1950

Calcutta, Jan. 11 (AP)—The Chinese Communists were reported today to have set up a Communist-sponsored Government for Tibet.

The report was carried in news dispatches from Kalimpong township in Bhutan state, which borders Tibet on the south. These dispatches said the Government was formed in Tsinghai province, bordering Tibet on the northeast.

The dispatches said that terms of a treaty with the new Government stated that the Communists would manage the foreign affairs of the puppet state and would be given sole mining rights in the country, which is believed to have deposits of uranium, the atom bomb element.

War Virtually Over

London, Jan. 11 (AP)—The official Chinese Communist news agency announced today that the war on China's mainland is virtually over, "with the exception of Tibet, which has yet to be liberated."

The dispatch was broadcast from the Communist capital at Peiping.

The announcement appeared to point up a Communist intention to conquer Tibet. Such a campaign has been expected, but this was the first time the Chinese Communists have said plainly that Tibet has been marked for "liberation."

Australia to Try 100 Japanese

CANBERRA, Australia, Jan. 11 (AP)—Army Minister Josiah Francis said today the trials of 100 Japanese, charged with war crimes against Australians, would begin soon at Manus Island. Mr. Francis said he had ordered the army to move the prisoners from Tokyo to Manus by the middle of next month.

U. S. Arms Aid Is Planned if Tito Is Attacked

Security Council Reported Ready With Program in Case of Blow by Russia

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11 (AP).—Top Administration officials today were reported ready for prompt decisions, probably including limited American military aid, in the event of a Russian-inspired armed attack on Yugoslavia.

Secretary of State Dean Acheson was said to have discussed the Yugoslav-Russian situation in presenting a global review to the House Foreign Affairs Committee. The meeting was held behind closed doors.

Diplomatic officials emphasized they hope American measures will not be required in the struggle between the Kremlin and Yugoslavia's Premier Marshal Tito. Nor was there any hint of a new emergency.

Stand-By Program

Nevertheless, President Truman's National Security Council is reported to have cleared a stand-by program of steps the United States might take if Russia and its satellites resort to force against Yugoslav independence.

The Security Council, headed by the President, is the nation's top policy-making body in foreign affairs. Secretary Acheson and Defense Secretary Louis Johnson are among its key members.

Officials would not disclose details of the secret stand-by plan, but it was said to include possible aid in the form of military equipment and supplies.

Up to now, American aid to Yugoslavia has been restricted to economic and political spheres.

In preparing for a possible emergency, officials said they believe that if the Russians turn to armed force, it will probably develop in one of two forms:

1. Guerrilla warfare, such as the Communist-led strife in Greece.

2. Open attack, perhaps by satellite troops.

Officials here noted reports that as many as nine Communist-bloc divisions have been massed along the Yugoslav borders adjoining Hungary, Romania and Bulgaria. Communist guerrillas who had been fighting the Greeks from bases in Albania were shifted to Bulgaria several months ago.

Barring a full-scale attack by the Soviet Army American officials believe Marshal Tito has enough military resources at present to deal with any move against him that might be launced by guerrillas or satellite forces. There is some question, however, as to how long he could hold out.

"Rebel" Red Leader

Officials explained that American aid to Yugoslavia is based on United States policy that Marshal Tito's role as a "rebel" Communist leader is a source of constant embarrassment to Moscow and a help to the West in the cold war with Russia. It is on the basis of this policy that limitations on the export of American industrial equipment to Eastern Europe have been relaxed for Yugoslavia in recent months.

It was disclosed today that American influence has also been used with Western European nations to ease economic pressures on Yugoslavia. Along this line, Washington encouraged the British government to enter into its recent trade agreement with Yugoslavia an durged the Belgian government not to press for repayment now on a loan to Marshal Tito.

All this has served to counter Moscow's campaign of economic and political presures aimed at bringing about Marshal Tito's downfall.

Yugoslavia's trade with the Soviet bloc was cut off in 1949, and Marshal Tito has had to rely on the West to get needed supplies, chiefly industrial and mining machinery.

More U.S. Aid Due Formosa

Washington, Jan. 11 (AP)—More trainloads of American-made tanks and other arms probably will soon be on the way to the Chinese Nationalists on Formosa.

Diplomatic authorities said today that 300 tanks and armored cars being put abdard a Turkish freighter at Philadelphia represented only a part of the belated deliveries of orders the Nationalists placed in this country last year.

Although President Truman has ruled out any further American military aid to keep Formosa from the Communists, the Government has been helping speed the completion of orders already placed.

Officials say there is no conflict between this action and Mr. Truman's thumbs down declaration of last week. The Nationalists already have title to the munitions now being shipped, having checked out the last of the $125,000,000 fund from the Treasury months ago.

FOREIGN POLICY ASSAILED BY TAFT IN SENATE SPEECH

Claims Left-Wing Group in State Department Defies Congress' Wishes

ASSAILS TRUMAN

JAN 11 1950

Senator Asserts President Follows Inconsistent Course in China

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11. — (AP) Senator Taft (R-Ohio) today loosed a scathing attack on the administration's handling of foreign affairs, particularly in China where he said a "left-wing" group in the State department has defied the general policy Congress laid down.

The Senate Republican policy leader flatly accused President Truman of following an inconsistent course in extending armed aid to Europe to balk communist expansion, while refusing similar assistance to anti-communist forces in China.

Taft made these charges in a 1,400 word speech to the Senate where foreign policy has been the No. 1 topic since Mr. Truman announced last week that this country will not provide arms to help Chiang Kai Shek's forces defend the island of Formosa against the Chinese Communists.

Vandenberg Joins Taft

Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich), long the chief GOP foreign policy spokesman in the Senate, joined with Taft in urging that Congress be given an expert appraisal of the place Formosa holds in the Pacific military picture.

Vandenberg and Taft, who frequently have been at odds on foreign policy, supported a demand by Senator Knowland (R-Calif) that the joint chiefs of staff be called to give the Senate their views on Formosa's strategic importance.

Taft's bristling attack on present administration policy came in one of his relatively few speeches on foreign affairs.

The Ohioan took the Senate floor as Secretary of State Acheson was giving members of the House Foreign Affairs committee a general review of United States foreign policy in a closed door session. Acheson's report was a repeat of his testimony yesterday before the Senate Foreign Relations committee. This was to the effect that the State department in sticking to its position that the United States can best combat communism in the Orient through an economic aid program for those lands still outside the Red orbit.

Taft, however, insisted that this country should take a direct stand now against a further Red advance in the Far East by sending arms help to Formosa.

He asserted such action would not provide any cause for war between the U. S. and Russia or the Chinese Reds themselves. As a matter of fact he said, this country has taken far greater war risks in its efforts to "contain" communism in Europe and the Middle East.

"Formosa is a place where a small amount of aid, and at very small cost, can prevent the further spread of communism," Taft said.

He went on to add that he is not advocating American occupation of the island or of sending the Army or Navy there. He pointed out that the Navy already is operating between it and the mainland, adding:

"There can be no crossing if our Navy makes it clear that ships carrying troops will not be allowed to cross. In fact, probably there would be no such attempt at all if the State department made it perfectly clear that we do not intend to permit communist occupation of Formosa."

But, Taft added, "the State department has been guided by a left-wing group who obviously have wanted to get rid of Chiang and were willing at least to turn China over to the communists for that purpose."

He said this group, which he did not identify, has "in effect defied the general policy in China laid down by Congress."

In a barbed reference to Mr. Truman, Taft went on to say that those who argue against any action to save Formosa are "curiously inconsistent."

JAN 11 1950

He said that in closing the door to any military help for the island's defenders the president "is departing from the policy pursued by us in every other part of the world where the question is whether communism shall be checked."

Taft also aimed a verbal blow at Chairman Connally (D-Tex) of the Senate Foreign Relations committee who earlier in the week expressed the fear that any U. S. involvement in Formosa would lead to World War III.

Cites Risks In Europe

"The distinguished senator from Texas shudders at the possibility of war, although the chance we are taking is one in ten compared to that we are taking in Europe today," Taft said, adding:

"In undertaking the air lift in Germany, we certainly risked war with Russia in order to maintain unimpaired our position in Berlin.

"We are asked to appropriate billions of dollars to arm western Europe, although there is no evidence that at the present time the Russians contemplate any military attack in that area.

"We have given notice to Russia by the adoption of the Atlantic pact that if its troops advance across the boundaries of Italy or the American or British zones of Austria or Germany or Denmark or Norway it will find itself at war with us.

"In our policy of laying down the law 'this far you shall go and no further', we have not hesitated to risk war."

Taft backed the demand of Senator Knowland (R-Calif) that the joint chiefs of staff be called before the Senate to give their views on the strategic importance of Formosa in relation to this country's Pacific defenses.

30.24- 8169

Would Hear Staff Chiefs

Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich) the GOP's chief foreign policy spokesman in the Senate, also urged that the military leaders testify.

Vandenberg, who heard Acheson's lengthy report yesterday, said "I can not feel that I have obtained adequate information without the testimony of the joint chiefs of staff."

Chairman Connally, however, said he has no intention of calling the military leaders before the Foreign Relations committee at this time. Chairman Tydings (D-Md) of the Armed Services committee also took a similar stand.

But Knowland said he will make a further effort to obtain the joint chief's views on the Formosa tangle when they come before the Senate Appropriations committee to ask for next year's military funds.

Acheson had no comment on Taft's remarks as he left the House committee session which lasted over five hours.

Chairman Kee (D-WVa) said the foreign affairs group probably will call the secretary back next week for a further discussion of international problems. He declined to say what points Acheson stressed because the committee had agreed not to disclose anything that was taken up in the closed-door session.

"All I can say," Kee told reporters, "is that we had a very satisfactory talk with the secretary."

A Republican committee member, however, said that the secretary had produced "nothing new."

Acheson will have an opportunity to reply to Taft's charges tomorrow when he is scheduled to speak at a luncheon meeting of the National Press club. His topic—"The Far East."

pation of Formosa, even though it involved the use of our Navy. I did not suggest the occupation of Formosa, nor the sending of any Army, or even the sending of the Navy. Our Navy is there, with bases within a short distance, and its ships are between Formosa and China, as any one knows who read this morning's papers. Formosa is a hundred miles from the mainland, and there can be no crossing if our Navy makes it clear that ships carrying troops will not be allowed to cross. In fact, probably there would be no such attempt at all if the State Department made it perfectly clear that we do not intend to permit Communist occupation of Formosa.

The basis of our foreign policy in the last three or four years, if there has been any consistent foreign policy, is to contain Communism where it is and prevent any single step of advance, because success in any such step is certain, considering the character of Communism, to lead to another step. We, therefore, sent our military aid and our officers into Greece, although it might easily have involved us in war. We have given military aid to Turkey and to Iran. We have stood firm against Communist advance in Korea and provided them with large amounts of military aid and American advice. In undertaking the air lift in Germany, we certainly risked war with Russia in order to maintain unimpaired our po-

Taft's Speech on Formosa

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11 (AP).—The complete text of the Senate speech today in which Senator Robert A. Taft, Republican, of Ohio, accused "Left Wingers" in the State Department of defying the wishes of Congress on Chinese and Formosan policy:

Just before the first of the year, I expressed the opinion in an interview in Ohio that we should "hang on" to Formosa and prevent Communist occupation in Berlin.

Risked War in Past

We are asked to appropriate billions of dollars to arm Western Europe, although there is no evidence that at the present time the Russians contemplate any military attack in that area. We have given notice to Russia by the adoption of the Atlantic pact that if its troops advance across the boundaries of Italy or the American or British zones of Austria or Germany or Denmark or Norway, it will find itself at war with us. In our policy of laying down the law, "this far you shall go and no further," we have not hesitated to risk war. There is not the slightest evidence that Russia will go to war with us because we interfere with a crossing to Formosa. It is hardly possible to see how the Chinese Communists by themselves can begin a war against the United States, or why they should do so.

In China for some reason, the State Department has pursued a different policy from that followed throughout the rest of the world. There is not the slightest doubt in my mind that the proper kind of sincere aid to the Nationalist government a few years ago could have stopped communism in China. But the State Department has been guided by a Left-wing group who obviously have wanted to get rid of Chiang and were willing at least to turn China over to the Communists for that purpose. They have, in effect, defied the general policy in China laid down by Congress. In recent months it has, of course, been very doubtful whether aid to the Nationalist government could be effective, and no one desires to waste American efforts. But Formosa is a place where a small amount of aid and at very small cost can prevent the further spread of communism. Such action does not commit us to backing the Nationalist government in any prolonged war against the Chinese Communists. We can determine later whether we ever wish to recognize the Chinese Communists and what the ultimate disposition of Formosa shall be.

Wants to Wait for Treaty

As I understand it, the people of Formosa if permitted to vote would probably vote to set up an independent republic of Formosa. The status of Formosa, therefore, should certainly be kept free for determination until the peace treaty has been written with Japan. Formosa must be legally a part of Japan, for it is difficult to see how the mere declaration of the President at Cairo or Potsdam can change that status without a treaty. One thing is certain, if the Communists take over Formosa we will have just as much chance of setting up an independent republic of Formosa as we have of returning the Western German provinces from Poland to Germany. We know that the Communists will give up nothing which they have occupied. Certainly, we do not desire or intend to undertake an aggressive war to recover land the Communists have occupied. On the other hand, if, at the peace conference, it is decided that Formosa should be set up as an independent republic, we certainly have the means to force the Nationalists' surrender of Formosa.

The President's statement on Jan. 5 follows the usual course of setting up a straw man and then proceeding to knock him over. He says: "The United States has no predatory designs on Formosa or on any other Chinese territory." No one has suggested that it has. "The United States has no desire to obtain special rights or privileges or to establish military bases on Formosa at this time." No one has suggested that it has such a desire. "The United States government will not pursue a course which will lead to involvement in the the civil conflict in China. The course suggested will not lead to any such involvement, although, of course, we have involved ourselves in the civil conflict in Greece, in Korea and eleswhere.

Sees Departure from Policy

When the President, however, says: "Similarly, the United States government will not provide military aid or advice to Chinese forces on Formosa," he is departing from the policy pursued by us in every other part of the world where the question is whether Communism shall be checked. While he states that we will continue the present E. C. A. program of economic assistance, it is quite clear from the past course of the State Department that they have not the slightest intention of giving such assistance in any effective way in such a manner as to assist the occupants of Formosa and defeating a Communist attack.

Those who argue against any action in Formosa are curiously inconsistent. The distinguished Senator from Texas shudders at the possibility of war, although the chance we are taking is one in ten compared to that we are taking in Europe today.

One columnist fears that any action in Formosa different from exactly the action of the State Department would antagonize the leaders of India and Indonesia. His theory seems to be that the way to stop Communism in India is to permit it to move into Formosa. That is an exact reproduction of the argument used in support of the policy of Munich. Strange to say, the same columnist is all for extending aid to Burma and Indo-China against Communist attack, although it is infinitely less practical and more expensive and difficult than the maintenance of an independent Formosa.

Another columnist argues that if we do not immediately extinguish the Nationalist government, Red China will not be able to demobilize to carry out economic reconstruction. Therefore, he argues, we should recognize the Communist government. Whatever may be the arguments for such recognition, it is quite certain that it will in no way tend to reduce the armies of the Chinese Communists. Russia has continued to maintain a huge army, although it is faced with no threat of invasion whatever. I think it is safe to predict that it will be many years before the Chinese Communists reduce their armies by one soldier, because only by those armies can they possibly hope to control China.

The question of the containment of Communism is largely a practical one. The only reason so much heat has been engendered about the Formosan situation is the bitter resentment of the State Department and its pro-Communist allies against any interference with its policy of liquidating the Nationalist government.

No two men are more familiar with the Far East than General MacArthur and former President Hoover, and both of them are able to see the obvious military and political facts of the situation. Here is a small area of the world where, with no difficulty or expense, we could prevent the spread of Communism to an island which might be of great strategic value and whose people desire to be independent.

U.S. Denies Dealing Secretly With Russ

Washington, Jan. 11 (AP)—The United States today reaffirmed its stand against any direct deal with Russia to settle the major problems of peace and war.

In a statement prompted by reports which have been printed in Germany, a State Department spokesman declared that this Government is "ready and eager to discuss all these problems with the Russians" in any "appropriate forum."

Michael J. McDermott, press officer, added that "we are not going to sit down with the Russians and attempt to impose bilateral solutions to problems affecting other countries."

McDermott said that there have been no feelers from Russia. His remarks were called forth, he said, by a German story "which I want to knock down."

Questions Cited

The State Department, he said, has received numerous questions about "a German news agency report datelined Washington and printed in Germany to the effect that the United States is attempting through negotiations with Russia to bridge the East-West gap."

He then stated:

"In so far as any formal or informal negotiations are concerned, there just are not any that we know of. As has been stated many times by many officers of this department, the United States is ready and willing to sit down with Russia in an attempt to settle outstanding differences in any appropriate forum.

World-Wide Scope

"However, the chief problems today concern Soviet relations with the rest of the world and not just the United States as such. . . .

"As has been repeatedly emphasized we are ready and eager to discuss all these problems with the Russians but we are not going to sit down with the Russians and attempt to impose bilateral agreements to problems affecting other countries."

McDermott was reminded that before the United States, Russia, Britain and France met in the Foreign Ministers Council in Paris last spring to end the Berlin blockade crisis, an American and a Russian diplomat negotiated secretly at United Nations headquarters in New York.

No Talks Now, He Says

Philip Jessup and Jacob Malik, the American and Russian representatives, cleared the way for the later meeting in the "appropriate forum" of the Council of Foreign Ministers. McDermott was asked whether any talks of the Jessup-Malik type may now be going on.

"There are no such talks going on that I have been able to find out about," he said.

Nielson continued.

Senator Wherry of Nebraska, the Republican Senate leader, said his party will fight to upset a forecast made by Lenin, then dictator of Russia, that the communists some day would force the U. S. to spend itself into destruction.

Wherry added:

"Instead of increasing the tax burden, as President Truman proposes, to finance spendthrift socialism, the sound, sensible course is to repeal business-blocking, wartime excise taxes, cut the cost of government, and balance expenditures with revenue."

Farm Plan Hit

Speaking from Topeka, Governor Carlson of Kansas said everyone realizes that price supports in some form must be used to keep prices from dropping too sharply. But so far, he said, he has found nothing but double talk in the farm today.

The State Department announcement came several hours after Maj. Gen. Claire L. Chennault's airline announced in Hong Kong that it was abandoning private efforts to obtain Mr. McGovern's release.

In Elizabeth, his mother, Mrs. James B. McGovern, said the family had received no word since New Year's Eve. The Chennault airline told them then that efforts to obtain Mr. McGovern's release hd been started with the Chinese Communists.

The Chennault statement from Hong Kong said Mr. McGovern and four other persons who survived the crash, while trying to fly from Kunming to Hong Kong, were being taken to Peiping, the Communist capital. The others were two Chinese crewmen and two passengers.

gram has made more progress in the last two years than official Washington expected.

Speaking before the Sandhills Kiwanis Club here, Marshall said production in the sixteen countries receiving aid was 25 per cent above expectations.

Marshall pointed out that the United States faces new problems because of the stabilization of currency in various countries and the possibility of new tariff walls.

The General, whose winter home is at near-by Pinehurst, estimated he would travel 20,000 miles between now and March 1 in his new post as national chairman of the American Red Crosss.

Judge Blocks Attempt to Link Split in CIO to Bridges Trial

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan 11.—(AP) The names of Philip Murray, president of the National CIO, and Walter Reuther, head of the CIO United Auto Workers, came into the Harry Bridges perjury trial today.

Federal Judge George B. Harris blocked defense attorneys' attempts to link the national CIO split to the Bridges trial.

Both Murray and Reuther are leaders of the right wing faction in the CIO, which recently moved to oust alleged communist elements in the union.

Argues Point

Attorney James MacInnis of the Bridges' staff argued, in the absence of the jury: "We have the right to show that some motivation flows from the fact that Philip Murray is a bitter enemy of Harry Bridges and Walter Reuther is head of a union that has gone on record against Bridges in this case."

Bridges heads the big CIO Longshore Union. He was indicted for perjury, accused of swearing falsely in his 1945 citizenship hearing, that he was not and had not been a communist. Two other union officers, his naturalization witnesses, are on trial with him, charged with conspiracy.

The topic developed during cross-examination of Lew Michener, 41, a Long Beach official of a UAW local, and professed ex-communist.

In direct testimony he said he and Bridges attended two Communist party meetings.

MacInnis asked Michener whom he had told that he was to be a government witness in the Bridges trial. Michener named several union men, and came to the name of Roy Reuther, international UAW official and brother of Walter.

"That's the name I've been waiting to hear," MacInnis exclaimed with satisfaction.

The government objected and the jury was excused. Both sides wrangled over the question whether the defense should be permitted to explore national CIO and UAW politics.

Judge Harris ruled against the defense and told MacInnis '"the conversation with Roy Reuther is a far cry from your position. If we were to permit this internecine warfare to come into this case, it might take some very, very unusual turns. There have been stories of shootings, of dynamitings, of a person losing an eye."

Later Michener testified he was born in Bozeman, Mont., in 1908. During cross-examination by MacInnis the government stipulated that Michener had been convicted of liquor offenses as a young man in Missoula, during prohibition days.

GOP Hits Truman Spending, Warns of Socialized State

JAN 11 1950

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11. — (AP) Republicans attacked President Truman tonight as the greatest spender in history and said his legislative program, if enacted, will turn the U. S. into a socialized state.

They spoke in a nationwide program of speeches and interviews over the ABC radio network.

Rep. Brown (R-Ohio) said the Truman administration is spending $80,000 a minute and taking in only $70,000.

"Harry Truman is the top public spender of all time," he added. "He is now spending annually over four times as much to run our federal government as Franklin Roosevelt ever spent in any peacetime year—and FDR was no slouch of a spender himself."

Contending the cost of government will more than double if the president's legislative proposals are all enacted, Brown said:

"Just as sure as you were born, he is promising us right into socialism."

Gabrielson Leads

Guy Gabrielson, chairman of the Republican National committee, led off the program from New York. He said advocates of the alien philosophy of an all-powerful state now occupy high official positions in Washington.

"Of course they do not admit it because they know the American people will not accept a change in our form of government," Gab-plan of Agriculture Secretary Brannan.

Governor Carlson interviewed Leo Paulsen, owner of a farm near Concordia, Kan., who said the Brannan plan appears deliberately designed to lower farm prices.

Farmer Paulsen said also he has every reason to believe that, if farmers should make mistakes in filling out the complicated forms that the plan would require, "this government would be ready to fine us and might even send us to jail."

Miss Louise Replogle of Lewistown, Mont., co-chairman of the Young Republican National federation, interviewed A. A. McCoy of Boulder, Colo.

Hoffman Favors Big Cut In Budget

Akron, Ohio, Jan. 11 (AP)—Paul G. Hoffman said today he believes the Federal budget should be cut $9,000,000,000 a year but that such a slash now would endanger national security.

The Marshall-plan administrator made the statement in a speech prepared for delivery before the Akron Chamber of Commerce.

Hoffman told the audience that, in his opinion, Government expenditures should not exceed $33,000,000,000 based on the present national income. President Truman's new budget however, calls for federal spending of $42,400,000,000 in the next fiscal year starting July 1.

"Therefore, the real question to which we should address ourselves is not how to cut two or three billion from the budget but $9,000,000,000," he asserted.

BURN SOVIET PAPERS, BALTIMORE ORDERS

BALTIMORE, Jan. 11 (AP)—The city's department of education announced today that it had directed high school principals to burn Russian publications addressed to school libraries.

"We are not circulating that sort of propaganda literature in the public schools," Dr. William H. Lemmel, superintendent of Baltimore schools, said.

Dr. Charles L. Kopp, the Allegany County Superintendent of Schools, has taken similar action. He declared:

"The obvious purpose of sending his material into the public schools is to worm the Soviet philosophy into the schools.

"We just don't want any of it, that's all."

In Frederick County, Superintendent Eugene W. Pruitt said several weeks ago that he had decided against such measures.

"Any attempt to suppress such material only has the opposite effect," Mr. Pruitt declared. "It lends a certain dignity to the material and causes a lot of people to read it who would otherwise never pay any attention."

The Soviet Embassy in Washington acknowledged several months ago that it was sending publications to schools throughout the country. The main one is a slick-paper picture magazine entitled USSR.

U.S. CARRIER BOUND FOR ASIATIC WATERS

ALAMEDA, Calif., Jan. 11.—(AP) The 27,000-ton aircraft carrier Boxer, her decks spotted with 90 planes, put out to sea today to reinforce the seventh task fleet in Asiatic waters.

She will rendezvous with the destroyers Thomas and Buck en route to Pearl Harbor.

The big carrier has been fitting out for the past ten days at Alameda base, taking on ammunition, bombs and air group 19's fighters and dive bombers.

"My orders are simply to take this force (the carrier and escorting destroyers) and report to Vice Admiral Russell S. Berkey, commander of the seventh task fleet," said Rear Admiral W. F. Boone.

"Other than that, I can only point out that the Navy is one of the principal instruments of diplomacy. Its primary peacetime duties are to go wherever sent in support of our national policy."

U.S. Atom Official Suggests Private Isotope Production

JAN 11 1950

New York, Jan. 11 (AP)—Gordon Dean, atomic energy commissioner, suggested tonight that one phase of the Government's atomic program may safely be turned over to private industry in the near future.

He referred to the production of radioactive isotopes, which are finding an ever-expanding use in medicine, biology, industry and general scientific research.

Give Off Radiation Signals

The isotopes, originally a by-product of atomic-bomb manufacture, are radioactive variants of the natural elements. They are used mostly in small quantities as tracers in larger masses of material.

They let scientists follow involved chemical, mechanical and biological processes by giving off radiation signals—somewhat in the manner that colored stains are used under a microscope.

Dean's views were given in an address to a New York University seminar on industrial and safety problems of atomic processes.

Dean spoke with pride of the Atomic Energy Commission's development of the isotope field, and said it has far outstripped its original expectations.

"Will Suggest A Question"

"I will suggest a question that this raises," he said.

"Is the day not far off when this segment of the atomic-energy commission's work may properly be turned over to American industry?

"Is it a field which inherently requires a Government monopoly and control?

"I don't know the answer to this point—but I seriously doubt that it is 'yes.'"

Dean repeated a prediction that it would be at least 25 years before an atomic power engine could be designed—if this difficult problem can be solved at all.

"Different" America Forecast

New York, Jan. 11 (AP)—Israel Jacobson, American welfare worker held for twelve days by Hungarian Security Police on suspicion of spying, said today he was told by a Hungarian colonel:

"One day we might meet in America but a very different America from that of today."

Jacobson, who was Hungarian director of the American Joint Distribution Committee, said during his imprisonment he was "subject to hardship, but not to physcial cruelty."

However, he said, police told him that if the Hungarian people should find out about his "alleged activities" he might be the subject of a "lynching that would make American lynchings seem tame."

Jacobson, 37, told of his experience at a news conference after he arrived aboard the Queen Mary.

He said during the first five days of his imprisonment he was held in a small room in the headquarters of the security police in Budapest and "searched and interrogated for about twenty hours a day."

He said he was mainly asked about contacts with members of the American Legation in Hungary.

Psychiatrist Stands Firm In Branding Chambers 'Liar'

JAN 11 1950

NEW YORK, Jan. 11. — (AP) In a biting cross examination, the government today turned its own mental x-ray on the psychiatrist who called Alger Hiss' accuser abnormal.

But the witness, Dr. Carl A. L. Binger, remained unshaken in his stand that Whittaker Chambers is a "psychopathic personality" and a seasoned liar.

Assistant Prosecutor Thomas F. Murphy dug deep into Dr. Binger's own personality at times to try to counter the attack on his star witness, Chambers.

Chambers is the chief witness at Hiss' perjury trial.

At other times Murphy went into recorded history to try to show that great men of the past have acted not unlike Chambers—and never been called crazy for it.

Questions Stealing

Point by point, Murphy took up where he left off yesterday in his examination of what Dr. Binger called Chambers' peculiarities.

Stealing was one of them.

"Did you ever steal a towel?" Murphy asked Dr. Binger.

"I could not swear that I did or did not," said the witness.

Chambers admitted taking news stories from columns of the New York Times and rewriting them for the Communist Daily Worker, when he once was employed on the latter.

Dr. Binger had cited as unusual Chambers' use of a hollow pumpkin to hide some of the purported evidence against Hiss.

Murphy told him that during revolutionary days, colonists hid their charter in the Charter Oak at Hartford, Conn., to keep it from the British. He asked Dr. Binger if that was bizarre behavior.

"It was a primitive community," Dr. Binger said. "They didn't have good depositories for valuable papers in those days."

Moses, Bible, Bullrushes

What about the biblical mother who hid Moses in the bullrushes to save him from slaughter, asked Murphy.

"She could hardly have put him in a safe deposit box," Dr. Binger said. But he added that he did not consider bullrushes a good hiding place for a child.

The prosecutor suggested that some of Chambers' lies might have been in line with orders from his superiors in the Communist party.

Dr. Binger replied that would show merely that the superiors as well as Chambers were chronic liars. He added that Chambers' lies were not "white lies" but deliberate falsehoods.

Murphy read the witness an article Chambers once wrote for the Magazine, Life.

"Is this the work of a man with a psychopathic personality?" demanded the attorney.

Dr. Binger called it a "brilliant article" but said a psychopath could have written it.

Summing up at one point, Dr. Binger said:

"You can change some of the notes in a melody but it does not change the whole melody. We have here the total pattern of a life. In it are the lies which Chambers told in and out of the Communist party."

Chambers, one-time Soviet spy ring courier, said Hiss gave him State department secrets for the ring before the war.

When Hiss denied this he was indicted for perjury.

His first trial ended last July in a hung jury.

ARROW SENT TO TSINGTAO

JAN 11 1950

Isbrandtsen Abandons Effort To Get Ship To Shanghai

New York, Jan. 11 (AP)—The Isbrandtsen Company, Inc., said tonight it is abandoning its efforts to get its ship, the Flying Arrow, into Nationalist-patrolled Shanghai.

The company said the ship has been ordered to Tsingtao, which it called the nearest safe port.

Tsingtao also is Communist-held. However, the company said it did not anticipate any opposition by the Nationalist Government to the Flying Arrow's docking there.

"We are not bringing the subject up," said Hans J. Isbrandtsen, president of the line. "But we do know there is not the mine menace there that there is at Shanghai. We do not expect any difficulty."

Condition Of Ship

"Anyway, in the condition the ship is in, we cannot consider sending her any farther than Tsingtao."

The Flying Arrow was heavily shelled Monday as it tried to make its way into Shanghai against the objections of the Nationalist Government.

"In view of the unexpected and unwarranted attack (upon it) we do not consider it justified to expose the vessel and crew to further lawlessness," the company said.

[In Washington, the Navy said orders to two United States destroyers to stand by the Flying Arrow had been withdrawn, and that the ships were directed to leave the Yangtze estuary. The destroyers had helped the Flying Arrow make repairs.

Repairs Completed

[The Navy said the order to the two destroyers to withdraw followed receipt of word from the Flying Arrow that it had been repaired and was seaworthy for a voyage to any port not farther away than Hong Kong, which is about 800 miles from the Yangtze estuary.]

The company did not say whether other of its ships, poised for an attempt to reach Shanghai, would be similarly diverted. The statement said only:

"We are not, however, abandoning or interrupting our regular services to Hong Kong and other Chinese ports which we have maintained for years and intend to maintain."

Another Isbrandtsen ship, the Brooklyn Heights, is scheduled to sail from Hong Kong Saturday for Shanghai.

Protection Assurance

"There is no change in her disposition," Isbrandtsen said. "She still is loading and every day brings something new. We take it as we find it."

Isbrandtsen said it has lately been absorbing "the brunt of the effort to maintain and protect the American foreign commerce with China."

The company said it was satisfied with assurances from American naval forces in the Far East that navy vessels henceforth will protect merchant shipping outside Chinese territorial waters.

That, Isbrandtsen said, is "what we have asked our Navy and Government for from the beginning of this unfortunate series of events into which we have been catapulted." The statement added:

"If the Navy had done this earlier . . . all of the unlawful Chinese attacks on our ships would have been prevented."

Isbrandtsen said the Nationalist patrol of the waters off Shanghai never was recognized as a legal blockade.

Therefore, the company branded as "loose talk" any attempt to characterize its efforts to reach Shanghai as blockade-running.

Never Carried Contraband

Furthermore, the company added:

"Our vesels are not now and never have carried contraband or combat material to China."

Isbrandtsen quoted the State Department as saying the latest attack on the Flying Arrow took place in international waters outside the area over which the Chinese Nationalists may claim jurisdiction.

The vessel was shelled and brought to anchor about 20 miles off the coast. She received a number of direct hits. There were no casualties, however.

Earlier, Wayne Richardson, aboard the Flying Arrow for the Associated Press, cabled that the vessel had been repaired and was ready to proceed wherever ordered.

He said the British merchantman, Elsie Moller, came within sight of the Flying Arrow off the mouth of the Yangtze Thursday morning. A Nationalist gunboat and destroyer-escort moved toward her.

The British sloop, Black Swan moved out toward the Chinese warships and nudged them back into Chinese territorial waters. No shots were fired.

Coplon, Gubitchev Trial Expected To Get Underway Early Next Week

NEW YORK, Jan. 11. — (AP) Harold P. Shapiro, the Justice department lawyer with whom Judith Coplon admittedly spent more than one day, may be called as a witness in the spy conspiracy trial of Miss Coplon and Valentin A. Gubitchev.

Federal Judge Sylvester J. Ryan mentioned this possibility at a pre-trial hearing today and said Shapiro's testimony might be admissible on a limited scale.

Ryan said also that he hopes to hear final arguments in the hearing next Monday and that the trial—if he rules that there must be a trial—will start immediately afterward.

John M. Kelley, Jr., special assistant to the attorney general, said he would not bind himself to call Shapiro but added: "maybe the defense will call him."

Shapiro's name figured in the Washington trial last summer which resulted in Miss Coplon's conviction on charges of stealing secret government papers for the Russians.

The petite blonde defendant, a former Justice department employe, admitted at a stormy session that she had stayed overnight with Shapiro at hotels but denied that improper relations occurred. Shapiro himself did not take the stand.

In the pre-trial hearing now going on, she and the Russian engineer Gubitchev are trying to win dismissal of charges that they conspired to steal government secrets.

Wire Tapping Tops Issue

Judge Ryan has ruled that the government must show its case against them does not rest solely on wire-tapping.

Gubitchev's lawyer, Abraham L. Pomerantz, offered today to prove that the FBI's wire-tapping activities are so extensive that the telephone conversations of United Nations employes and members of foreign embassies are overheard.

Ryan ruled out this line of argument, however, telling the attorney: "you are making very broad and wild, unfounded statements."

Pomerantz also was unsuccessful in getting an FBI witness, Kenneth T. Delavigne, to say what the letter "T" means when used by the FBI in the expression "confidential informant T-4."

The lawyer said the question was designed to show that "the confidential informant in this case was a wire-tap."

Another FBI man, H. Dudley Payne, said that while he was following Miss Coplon in the course of the investigation she was picked up—on Jan. 6, 1949—by a car which he later learned was Shapiro's.

Payne said he followed the girl again the next day to Baltimore, where she admitted in the Washington trial she spent the night of Jan. 7 with Shapiro.

Phones Of U.N. Aides Tapped, Lawyer Says

JAN 11 1950

New York, Jan. 11 (AP)—The Federal Bureau of Investigation was accused in Federal Court today of tapping the telephone wires of United Nations employés and members of foreign embassies.

Abraham L. Pomerantz, attorney for Valentin A. Gubitchev, Russian engineer who was indicted with Judith Coplon on spy conspiracy charges, made the accusation.

"I will prove," Pomerantz told the court, "that it is a systematic part of FBI practice to tap the telephone wires of United Nations employés of the type of Gubitchev, as well as members of foreign embassies and foreign missions to this country."

He made the statement in a move to quash the indictment on the ground that the prosecution was based solely on information obtained by tapping the telephones of the defendants.

Tapping Is Alleged

The prosecution contends the Russian's telephone conversations were not tapped before February 1, 1949, when, the FBI alleges, Gubitchev came under suspicion.

Pomerantz said the "confidential informant" that supposedly touched off the investigation of Gubitchev and Miss Coplon was a wire-tapping monitor.

"The term 'confidential informant' is a mere cloak and cover for a plain, ordinary, garden-variety wire tapper," he added. "It is a studied use of language in order to conceal and obscure the criminality of the enterprise."

"You are making very broad and wild unfounded statements," Judge Sylvester J. Ryan interposed.

UN PLANS STUDY OF RACE RELATIONS

A. I. GOLDBERG

LAKE SUCCESS, Jan. 11—(AP) A world wide scientific study of races and racial relations was announced by the United Nations today as part of a fight against discrimination toward minorities.

The study will be one of the chief activities of the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO), that group told Secretary-General Trygve Lie.

The report came as western countries answered Soviet bloc charges that discrimination against minorities was rife everywhere except in the Soviet Union. The charges were voiced in a meeting of a UN subcommission on the prevention of discrimination and protection of minorities.

Blasts U. S.

Soviet delegate V. I. Formashev argued that educational projects to stamp out discrimination were insufficient. In truly democratic countries, he said, personal freedom was effectively protected by law.

Formashev charged that Negroes, Indians, Puerto Ricans, Mexicans, Slav groups and Italians were discriminated against in the United States.

He said native populations in Peru, Bolivia, Chile and Brazil, as well as Indians and Negroes in Australia, also were oppressed.

The Soviet representative accused Winston Churchill of perpetuating Nazi-Fascist doctrines by claiming superiority of the English-speaking races. That theory, Formashev charged, is the main theme of British-American foreign and domestic policy.

Poles Defend Stand

Joseph Winiewicz, Poland, supported Formashev's statements. Elizabeth Monroe, Britain, remarked that while Formashev was free to study the conditions in the countries he criticized, members of the subcommission were still waiting for a chance to see conditions in the Soviet Union.

Arturo Meneses Pallares, Ecuador, called Formashev's approach one-sided. He said the Latin American countries were aware that the conditions of the Indians were not ideal and were trying to remedy them.

Jonathan Daniels, United States delegate, remarked that bringing into the meeting the opinions of any one nation or person, such as Churchill, would be bringing in the very things the group is trying to eliminate.

Miss Monroe and Daniels both proposed educational steps by UNESCO and others to stamp out discrimination.

U. S. UNIMPRESSED BY RED UN WALKOUT

LAKE SUCCESS, Jan. 11—(AP) The United States feels that the Security Council can go ahead with its business despite the Russian walk-out, an American spokesman said today.

With that in mind, he said, the United States is ready to take up the Soviet resolution demanding the ouster of the Nationalist China delegation and then a proposal for a world census of non-atomic arms and armed forces.

Meets Today

The Security Council meets at 3 p.m. (EST) tomorrow with the Soviet resolution first on its worksheet.

The United States is expected to vote against the Soviet demand for immediate expulsion of Dr. T. F. Tsiang and his Nationalist delegation. Tsiang is council chairman this month.

With only five of the 11 council nations so far recognizing Red China, the Soviet resolution is expected to be defeated. It must gain seven votes to pass.

Informed sources said heavy pressure is being put upon Dr. Tsiang to step down from the Council chairmanship while the Soviet resolution is under consideration. Council rules provide that a chairman may give up the chair to the next country in line during debate on a case concerning the chairman's country.

Malik May Return

U. N. delegates and officials generally believed Jakob A. Malik, Soviet deputy foreign minister, would be back at the council table for a vote on his resolution. Malik proposed the resolution yesterday, demanded an immediate vote, and walked out when the council decided to let the resolution come up in the ordinary course of business without haste.

Malik remained silent on his plans.

After the council acts on the Soviet resolution it will turn to the arms matter. The Soviet Union also opposes the proposed world census, saying atomic bombs must be counted if other weapons are numbered.

THE COMMUNIST-CALLED RAILROAD STRIKE, WHICH WAS NOT SUCCESSFUL IN DISRUPTING TRAFFIC SERIOUSLY, CAME TO A TECHNICAL END IN MARSEILLE THIS MORNING. Paris add  France."

IN A BRIEF CLASH YESTERDAY BETWEEN STRIKERS AND POLICE, 10 POLICE WERE INJURED. TEN OF THE STRIKERS WERE ARRESTED, BUT RELEASED TODAY.

THE LINER PASTEUR, LOADED WITH 3,150 FRENCH TROOPS, SAILED TODAY FOR SAIGON, AFTER BEING HELD UP 24 HOURS BY THE STRIKE.

MORE THAN 1,000,000 WORKERS WERE ESTIMATED TO HAVE OBEYED THE COMMUNIST-LED GENERAL CONFEDERATION OF LABOR GENERAL STRIKE ORDER IN ITALY YESTERDAY. THE STRIKE WAS CALLED TO PROTEST THE DEATH OF SIX WORKERS IN A RIOT CLASH WITH POLICE AT MODENA, NORTHERN ITALY, MONDAY.

IN MODENA, THE GENERAL STRIKE SCHEDULED TO END THIS AFTERNOON WAS EXTENDED TO MIDNIGHT. ITALIAN COMMUNIST AND FELLOW-TRAVELING SOCIALIST ASSEMBLY DEPUTIES ARRIVED FOR FUNERAL SERVICES FOR THE SIX RIOT VICTIMS LATER TODAY.

A 24-HOUR RAILROAD STRIKE THAT CRIPPLED COMMUNICATIONS BETWEEN CENTRAL AND NORTHERN ITALY ENDED LAST MIDNIGHT. IN ROME, THE COMMUNIST-DOMINATED CHAMBER OF LABOR CALLED FOR A FOUR-HOUR GENERAL STRIKE IN THE CITY STARTING AT 3 P.M. TODAY.

ROME, JAN.11-(AP)-THOUSANDS OF ITALIAN COMMUNISTS ROARED OUT IN RAGE AND DEFIANCE AGAINST ITALY'S POLICE TODAY IN MASSIVE DEMONSTRATIONS PROTESTING THE SLAYING OF SIX WORKERS.

IN ROME AND IN MODENA, SCENE OF A RIOT TWO DAYS AGO WHERE THE WORKERS DIED, VAST THRONGS MASSED IN RALLIES UNEQUALLED SINCE AN ASSASSINATION ATTEMPT TWO YEARS AGO AGAINST COMMUNIST LEADER PALMIRO TOGLIATTI SET OFF SIMILAR RALLIES.

IN PARIS, NON-COMMUNIST NEWSPAPERS CHARGED FRENCH COMMUNIST LEADERS OF ACTING IN CONCERT WITH ITALIAN COMMUNISTS AT MOSCOW'S ORDERS TO STIR UP TROUBLE IN WESTERN EUROPE.

THIS ACCUSATION WAS UNDERSCORED SHARPLY BY A THREAT ISSUED BY COMMUNIST BOSS PALMIRO TOGILIATTI, IN A SPEECH TO A MODENA DEMONSTRATION TODAY.

"WE PROMISE," TOGLIATTI SAID, "TO LEAD NEW STRUGGLES, TO CONDUCT A VAST CAMPAIGN TO RALLY THE HEALTHY FORCES OF THE NATION INTO A HUGE MOVEMENT WHICH WILL BE LIKE A CONVULSION OF THE SOUL OF THE NATION WHICH SO MANY TIMES BEFORE HAS BEATEN BACK THE REACTIONARIES."

AND ECHOING THIS, COMMUNIST LABOR BOSS GIUSEPPE DI VITTORIO TOLD THE MODENA DEMONSTRATORS:

"THE ITALIAN GOVERNMENT MUST LEARN THAT ITS POLICIES MUST BE DIRECTED TOWARD FULFILLING THE ASPIRATIONS OF PEACE, LIBERTY AND LIFE OF THE PEOPLE AND NOT TOWARD SAFEGUARDING THE PRIVILEGES OF THE FEW."

COMMUNISTS STARTED A FOUR-HOUR GENERAL PROTEST STRIKE IN THE CAPITAL, CHARGING POLICE BRUTALITY IN THE SLAYING OF THE WORKERS. THEY CALLED ON ROMANS TO MASS IN HUGE PIAZZA DEL POPOLO FOR A DEMONSTRATION.

COMMUNIST CHIEF PALMIRO TOGLIATTI LED THE FUNERAL CEREMONIES IN MODENA. HE PROMISED THAT THE WORKERS "WILL CONTINUE TO FIGHT THE PRIVILEGED CLASSES UNTIL THEY ACHIEVE COMMAND."

TOGLIATTI CALLED AGAIN FOR THE RESIGNATION OF INTERIOR MINISTER MARIO SCELBA, ARCH-FOE OF THE COMMUNISTS, WHO CONTROLS THE ITALIAN POLICE.

SCELBA, MEANWHILE, GAVE A REPORT TO THE CABINET ON THE MODENA RIOTING WHICH POLICE SAID WAS TOUCHED OFF BY A COMMUNIST ASSAULT ON A STEEL FACTORY.

THE CABINET WAS HOLDING WHAT IS GENERALLY EXPECTED TO BE ITS LAST SESSION BEFORE PREMIER ALCIDE DE GASPERI HANDS IN HIS RESIGNATION AND OPENS A LONG-SCHEDULED CRISIS, ENTIRELY UNRELATED TO THE MODENA RIOTING. IN ALL PROBABILITY, DE GASPERI WILL SUCCEED HIMSELF.

LATE NEWS DISPATCHES REPORTED THAT AS MANY AS 100,000 SYMPATHIZERS FROM ALL PARTS OF ITALY ATTENDED THE MODENA FUNERAL.

ROME, JAN.11-(AP)-THE ITALIAN COMMUNIST PARTY, RECENTLY REPORTED ENGAGED IN A HOUSECLEANING IF NOT A PURGE, HAS EXPELLED THE MAYOR OF SPINAZZOLA, NEWS DISPATCHES REPORTED TODAY.

NO REASON WAS GIVEN BY THE PARTY'S PROVINCIAL FEDERATION OF BARI IN SOUTHERN ITALY, FOR THE EXPULSION.

HOWEVER, THE CORRESPONDENT OF THE INDEPENDENT RIGHTIST GIORNALE D'ITALIA OF ROME SUGGESTED THAT THE MAYOR OF THE TOWN OF 12,000, GIUSEPPE LAGONEGRO, DID NOT HAVE THE RIGHT ATTITUDE DURING THE RECENT COMMUNIST-LED CAMPAIGN FOR PEASANT LAND SEIZURES.

THE CORRESPONDENT REPORTED THAT LAGONEGRO ADVOCATED A PEACEFUL SOLUTION OF THE LAND PROGRAM "CONTRARY" TO THE "MILITANT" ATTITUDE OF THE PARTY.

THE MODENA INCIDENTS FURTHER STRAINED COMMUNIST-CHURCH RELATIONS.
TOGLIATTI YESTERDAY SUGGESTED THAT THE POLICE FIRED ON THE WORKERS BECAUSE "ITALY UNHAPPILY IS GOVERNED TODAY BY THE PARTY WHICH IS CONTROLLED AND INSPIRED BY THE HIERARCHY OF THE CHURCH AND THE VATICAN."
THE VATICAN THUNDERED BACK, THROUGH OSSERVATORE ROMANO, TODAY THAT TOGLIATTI IS AN "UNREPENTANT SLANDERER."
THE NEWSPAPER TOLD HIM IN EFFECT TO PROVE HIS CHARGES OR SHUT UP, AND IN TURN BLAMED THE COMMUNISTS FOR "ALL THE TRAGEDY THAT HAS OCCURRED."

THE CABINET BACKED SCELBA FULLY AFTER HE CHARGED THAT COMMUNISTS "PREORDAINED" THE MODENA DISORDERS, SET OFF IN STRIKE VIOLENCE.
SCELBA SAID THE POLICE FOUND FOUR BOMBS NEAR THE RIOT SCENE AND THE AREA WAS LITTERED WITH HUNDREDS OF CLUBS AND CROWBARS, PROVING THAT THE RIOTERS MEANT BUSINESS.
"NOBODY CAN PRETEND THAT THE POLICE CAN LAY DOWN THEIR ARMS IN THE FACE OF VIOLENCE," HE SAID. "THAT WOULD CREATE THE BASIS FOR DESERTION BY THE FORCES OF THE STATE BEFORE ATTACKS ON A LARGER SCALE."
SCELBA GAVE HIS REPORT AT WHAT IS GENERALLY EXPECTED TO BE THE LAST MEETING OF DE GASPERI'S CABINET BEFORE DE GASPERI TENDERS ITS RESIGNATION IN A LONG-SCHEDULED GOVERNMENT SHAKEUP.
THE COMMUNIST RALLIES CAME ONLY AS A COINCIDENCE AND IN NO WAY PRECIPITATED THE CABINET CRISIS. DE GASPERI'S CATHOLIC CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY HAS AN ABSOLUTE MAJORITY IN THE CHAMBER OF DEPUTIES AND CONTROLS THE SENATE. THE COMMUNISTS ARE NOT REPRESENTED IN HIS CABINET.
THE RESIGNATION WAS PLANNED LAST OCTOBER, WHEN LABOR-SOCIALIST MINISTERS PULLED OUT OF THE GOVERNMENT. IT WAS DELAYED UNTIL JANUARY TO ENABLE THAT PARTY TO SOLVE ITS INTERNAL PROBLEMS AND GIVE DE GASPERI TIME TO DECIDE ON THE SHAPE OF HIS NEW GOVERNMENT.

JAN 11 1950

A178
INFORMED SOURCES SAID DE GASPERI WILL PLACE THE RESIGNAATION OF THE CABINET IN THE HANDS OF LUIGI EINAUDI, PRESIDENT OF THE REPUBLIC, TOMORROW OR FRIDAY.
DE GASPERI, 68, HAS NO SERIOUS OPPOSITION FOR THE PREMIERSHIP AND THEREFORE IT IS GENERALLY EXPECTED THAT HE WILL BE ASKED TO FORM A NEW CABINET. HE MAY HAVE DIFFICULTIES, HOWEVER, IN FORMING ONE QUICKLY. AMONG THE OBSTACLES IS A STRONG CURRENT IN A PART OF HIS OWN PARTY FOR A CABINET MADE UP ENTIRELY OF CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATS.
DE GASPERI HAS STRESSED THE NEED OF A CONTINUED COALITION, SAYING THE SMALL DEMOCRATIC PARTIES REPRESENT MANY ITALIANS WHO VOTED CHRISTIAN DEMOCRAT IN THE 1948 ELECTIONS ONLY BECAUSE THEY BELIEVED THE PARTY TO BE THE ONLY REAL BULWARK AGAINST COMMUNISM.
RECENT STRIKE TROUBLES IN THE COMMUNIST-DOMINATED "RED NORTH" OF ITALY HAVE COME AT THE SAME TIME AS A STRIKE CAMPAIGN IN MARSEILLE AGAINST CONTINUANCE OF THE FRENCH WAR AGAINST COMMUNIST-LED NATIONALIS IN INDOCHINA. THE MARSEILLE ACTION ENDED TODAY. SEVERAL PARIS NEWSPAPERS CHARGED THAT FRENCH AND ITALIAN COMMUNIST LEADERS WERE ACTING IN CONCERT BY MOSCOW'S ORDERS TO STIR UP TROUBLE.

BRUSSELS, JAN.11-(AP)-BELGIAN SOCIALISTS AND COMMUNISTS DEMANDED TODAY THAT PREMIER GASTON EYSKENS RESIGN.

THE DEMANDS BY DEPUTIES OF BOTH PARTIES WERE MADE IN PARLIAMENT DURING DEBATE ON OPPOSITION CHARGES THAT THE GOVERNMENT WAS IMPLICATED IN ALLEGED ILLEGAL DEALINGS IN SECURITIES.

EYSKENS, WHO HEADS A COALITION SOCIAL CHRISTIAN-LIBERAL GOVERNMENT, GAVE NO INDICATION HE WAS EVEN CONSIDERING RESIGNING.

THE DEPUTIES WILL VOTE TOMORROW ON THREE MOTIONS. THE COMMUNIST MOTION REQUESTS BOTH THE RESIGNATION OF EYSKENS AND A PARLIAMENTARY INVESTIGATION. THE SOCIALISTS ASK A PARLIAMENTARY INVESTIGATION. THE SOCIALISTS ASK A PARLIAMENTARY INVESTIGATION. THE GOVERNMENT COALITION ASKS PARLIAMENT TO RESERVE ITS JUDGMENT UNTIL THE JUSTICE DEPARTMENT COMPLETES ITS INVESTIGATION.

"I DO NOT BELIEVE THAT WORLD OPINION GENERALLY IS PREPARED TO ACCEPT THE PROPOSITION THAT THOSE CRIMES HAVE YET BEEN SUFFICIENTLY ATONED FOR, OR THAT THE GERMAN PEOPLE SHOULD NOW BE ALLOWED TO FORGET THEM.

"ANYTHING APPROACHING A GENERAL AMNESTY WOULD, I FEAR, BE TAKEN AS AN ABANDONMENT OF THE PRINCIPLES ESTABLISHED IN THE TRIALS OF THE PERPETRATORS OF THOSE CRIMES."

ESSEN, GERMANY, JAN. 11-(AP)-A HALT HAS BEEN ORDERED IN THE SHIPMENT OF HUGE MACHINE TOOLS FROM THE KRUPP STEEL WORKS TO 14 NATIONS AS REPARATIONS, BRITISH SOURCES SAID TODAY.

THE APPROXIMATELY 1,200 REMAINING PIECES OF MACHINERY, WEIGHING UP TO 150 TONS EACH, ARE TENTATIVELY SCHEDULED TO REMAIN IN WEST GERMANY TO HELP ITS ECONOMIC RECOVERY, THE SOURCES SAID. ALL ARE CLASSIFIED AS -NON-WAR" MACHINES.

THE ALLIED HIGH COMMISSION ORDERED A SIX MONTHS HALT, EFFECTIVE THIS MONTH, IN THE MACHINERY SHIPMENTS FOLLOWING APPEALS FROM THE WEST GERMAN CHANCELLOR, DR. KONRAD ADENAUER, THESE INFORMANTS ADDED.

REPARATIONS AGENTS FROM FOREIGN COUNTRIES WERE REPORTED TO HAVE PROTESTED BITTERLY AT THE SHUTDOWN ON SHIPMENTS.

MOST OF THE MACHINERY HAS BEEN GOING TO FRANCE AND YUGOSLAVIA. LAST MONTH, APPROXIMATELY 14,000 TONS OF EQUIPMENT WERE SHIPPED AS REPARATIONS FROM THE ONE-TIME WAR PLANT. ABOUT 5,000 TONS WENT TO FRANCE AND 5,000 TONS TO YUGOSLAVIA.

ORIGINALLY ABOUT 180,000 TONS OF KRUPP EQUIPMENT--EQUIVALENT IN WEIGHT TO FOUR BIG BATTLESHIPS--WAS MARKED FOR REPARATIONS. IT INCLUDED SUCH ITEMS AS FURNACES AND CRANES AS WELL AS MACHINERY.

THIS EQUIPMENT HAD SURVIVED ALLIED BOMBINGS THAT DAMAGED OR DESTROYED ABOUT 70 PER CENT OF THE PLANT.

THE SALVAGED EQUIPMENT INCLUDED MORE THAN 3,000 MACHINE TOOLS--NOT TO BE CONFUSED WITH SMALL ITEMS SUCH AS PNEUMATIC HAND DRILLS. THEY ARE DEFINED AS OF A SIZE THAT MUST BE BOLTED TO A FOUNDATION FOR USE.

ABOUT HALF THE 180,000 TONS, INCLUDING 2,000 MACHINE TOOLS, HAD BEEN SHIPPED OUTSIDE GERMANY AS REPARATIONS UP TO THE FIRST OF THIS MONTH.

ADENAUER IS UNDERSTOOD TO HAVE ARGUED THAT IT IS CONTRADICTORY TO SHIP NON-WAR MACHINERY OUT OF WEST GERMANY WHEN THE ALLIES ARE ATTEMPTING TO MAKE THE NEW REPUBLIC SELF SUPPORTING AND LESSEN THE BURDEN ON ALLIED TAXPAYERS.

BRITISH SOURCES SAID THE HIGH COMMISSION, IN DESCRIBING THE HALT ON SHIPMENTS AS A SUSPENSION, HAD LEFT THE DOOR OPEN TO POSSIBLE RESUMPTION OF REPARATIONS DELIVERIES LATER.

BUT THEY SAID A RELAXATION IN ALLIED DIRECTIVES, ONCE BEGUN, SELDOM WAS REVERSED--AS IN THE CASE OF DISMANTLING, WHEN THERE WAS FIRST A SLOWDOWN AND THEN A VIRTUAL HALT.

BRITISH REPARATIONS OFFICIALS HANDLING THE DISPOSAL OF THE KRUPP WORKS SAID THEY HAD RECEIVED NOTICE THAT THEIR JOB HERE MIGHT TERMINATE WITHIN A FEW MONTHS.

FURTHER ALLIED INTEREST IN KRUPP WILL THEN BE IN THE HANDS OF THE INTERNATIONAL RUHR AUTHORITY, COMPOSED OF THE UNITED STATES, BRITAIN, FRANCE, BELGIUM, THE NETHERLANDS AND LUXEMBOURG.

DISMANTLING WORK--IN THAT PART OF THE PLANT SCHEDULED FOR DISMANTLING--HAS BEEN 90 PER CENT COMPLETED, THE BRITISH SAID.

VIRTUALLY ALL PARTS WITH DIRECT WAR POTENTIAL SUCH AS GUN TESTING PITS AND HEAVY FOUNDATIONS FOR THE MANUFACTURE OF CANNONS AND ARMOUR PLATE, HAVE BEEN BLOWN UP BY BRITISH DEMOLITION TEAMS.

VIENNA, JAN.11-(AP)-A RING WHICH KIDNAPPED RENEGADE SOVIET CITIZENS IN EXCHANGE FOR RUSSIAN PERMISSION TO RUN A CIGARETTE BLACK MARKET HAS BEEN SMASHED, ACCORDING TO AMERICAN AUTHORITIES.

TWELVE MEN ARE IN JAIL, AND TWO HIGH-RANKING RUSSIAN OFFICERS HAVE BEEN IMPLICATED IN THE FANTASTIC INTRIGUE.

AMERICAN OFFICIALS REPORTED THAT TRICKERY, DRUGS AND FORCE HAD BEEN USED TO ABDUCT RUSSIANS LIVING IN THE AMERICAN ZONE OF AUSTRIA.

IN EXCHANGE, SAID THE AMERICAN AUTHORITIES, THE RING RECEIVED SOVIET PROTECTION IN A CIGARETTE SMUGGLING DEAL. FOR EACH PERSON TURNED OVER TO THE RUSSIANS THE RING WAS PERMITTED TO OPERATE FOR ONE MONTH.

A U.S. ARMY STATEMENT, ISSUED YESTERDAY, SAID THE RING WAS UNDER DIRECT SUPERVISION OF LT.COL. KARANDASHOV OF THE CENTRAL RUSSIAN HEADQUARTERS IN VIENNA.

HE WAS SAID TO HAVE BEEN ASSISTED BY A SOVIET MAJ. MAKHOV WHOSE OFFICE IS IN THE SAME BUILDING.

THE ARMY SAID A NON-SOVIET LEADER OF THE RING, BY THE NAME OF BENNO BLUM, WAS STILL AT LARGE. BLUM WAS SAID TO HAVE MADE CONTACT WITH MAKHOV AND KARANDASHOV IN 1948 TO NEGOTIATE ON THE AGREEMENT.

THE ARMY SAID THE ARREST OF THE 12 RINGLEADERS--NONE OF THEM SOVIET SOLDIERS--HAD BROKEN UP AUSTRIA'S BIGGEST CIGARETTE SMUGGLING OUTFIT. THE GROUP WAS SAID TO HAVE BROUGHT IN BOTH HUNGARIAN AND AMERICAN CIGARETTES FROM HUNGARY WITH THE SANCTION OF THE RUSSIAN BORDER GUARDS.

THIS PROTECTION WAS GIVEN, SAID THE AMERICAN STATEMENT, IN RETURN FOR THE HANDING OVER OF AT LEAST FOUR KNOWN SOVIET CITIZENS WHO HAVE SINCE BEEN SEEN IN THE SOVIET SECRET PRISON IN VIENNA.

SOME OF THE MEN WERE TRICKED INTO ABDUCTION, THE ARMY SAID, BY PROMISES OF BIG BLACK MARKET EARNINGS IN THE SOVIET ZONE. WHEN THEY CROSSED THE ZONAL BOUNDARY, THEY WERE SEIZED.

MOSCOW, JAN. 11-(AP)-MAO TZE-TUNG, THE LEADER OF COMMUNIST CHINA, IS AN INTERESTED OBSERVER HERE DURING PREPARATIONS FOR THE NATIONWIDE SOVIET ELECTION OF DEPUTIES TO THE SUPREME SOVIET.

MAO HAS SAID HE WANTS TO SEE AT FIRST HAND THE VARIOUS INSTITUTIONS OF THE SOVIET UNION. THE VOTING PREPARATIONS, NOMINATIONS, DIVISIONS OF DISTRICTS, AND THE CONSTITUTION OF THE SUPREME SOVIET, WHICH SUPERSEDES A PARLIAMENT, COULD COME UNDER THAT HEADING.

OF DISTRICTS, AND THE CONSTITUTION OF THE SUPREME SOVIET, WHICH SERVES AS A PARLIAMENT, COULD COME UNDER THAT HEADING.

IN THESE PRE-ELECTION DAYS MAO WILL HAVE AMPLE OPPORTUNITY TO OBSERV HOW THE SOVIET UNION GOES ABOUT THIS. HE FACES MANIFOLD PROBLEMS IN THE ESTABLISHMENT OF A PEOPLE'S GOVERNMENT AT HOME, AND SUCH OBSERVATIONS COULD BE VALUABLE TO HIM.

MAO HAS BEEN HERE FOR ALMOST A MONTH NOW, IN HIS NEGOTIATIONS WITH THE RUSSIANS. HE HAS MADE NO ANNOUNCEMENT WHETHER HE PLANS STILL TO BE HERE MARCH 12, WHEN THE SOVIET ELECTION TAKES PLACE.

IF HE RETURNS BEFORE THEN, HE STILL WILL HAVE HAD MUCH OPPORTUNITY TO STUDY HOW THE RUSSIANS ATTACK SOME OF THE QUESTIONS HE WILL FACE. LIKE RUSSIA, HIS IS A VAST COUNTRY WITH A LARGE POPULATION.

AT PRESENT RUSSIA HAS, PERHAPS, THE BIGGEST ELECTORATE IN THE WORLD. OFFICIAL FIGURES AT THE LAST GENERAL ELECTION IN FEBRUARY, 1946, PUT THE TOTAL NUMBER OF PERSONS VOTING AT ABOVE 100,000,000.

(THE COMMUNIST PARTY MAKES EVERY EFFORT THROUGHOUT THE COUNTRY TO TURN OUT EVERY ELIGIBLE VOTER, EVEN THOUGH THE ELECTION IS A ONE-SLATE AFFAIR IN WHICH THE VOTER HAS NO CHOICE. THE ONLY LEGAL PARTY IN THE SOVIET UNION IS THE COMMUNIST PARTY.)

THOUSANDS OF ELECTION DISTRICTS SHORTLY WILL BE ANNOUNCED, AND THEN NOMINATIONS OF CANDIDATES SHOULD BEGIN.

SOVIET VOTERS INCLUDE ALL MEN AND WOMEN OF 18 YEARS OF AGE OR OVER. THEY VOTE FOR A BLOC TICKET MADE UP OF COMMUNIST AND NON-PARTY CANDIDATES. THE GOVERNMENT WILL MAKE SURE THAT BALLOTS GET TO EVERY VOTER, NO MATTER HOW REMOTE THE SETTLEMENT.

SECOND NIGHT LEAD FLYING ARROW (200)

BY WAYNE RICHARDSON

ABOARD FLYING ARROW, THURSDAY, JAN.12-(AP)-THE FLYING ARROW'S MASTER SAID TODAY "I'VE GOT TO GET THIS SHIP SOMEWHERE." BUT HE DIDN'T SAY WHERE.

(IN NEW YORK, THE ISBRANDTSEN LINE, WHICH OWNS THE SHIP, SAID THE FREIGHTER HAS BEEN ORDERED TO GIVE UP HER ATTEMPT TO GET TO SHANGHAI AND PROCEED INSTEAD TO TSINGTAO. OBVIOUSLY, THIS ORDER HAD NOT BEEN RECEIVED ABOARD THE FLYING ARROW WHEN RICHARDSON'S DISPATCH WAS FILED.

(TSINGTAO IS SOME 350 MILES FARTHER NORTH ON THE CHINESE COMMUNIST COAST THAN SHANGHAI. IT IS UNDER THE SAME CHINESE NATIONALIST PORT CLOSURE ORDER THAT RESULTED IN THE SHELLING OF THE FLYING ARROW MONDAY.)

THE BRITISH MERCHANTMAN, ELSIE MOLLER, CAME WITHIN SIGHT OF THE FLYING ARROW OFF THE MOUTH OF THE YANGTZE THIS MORNING. A NATIONALIST GUNBOAT AND DESTROYER-ESCORT MOVED TOWARD HER.

THE BRITISH SLOOP, BLACK SWAN, MOVED OUT TOWARD THE CHINESE WARSHIPS AND NUDGED THEM BACK INTO CHINESE TERRITORIAL WATERS. NO SHOTS WERE FIRED.

(IN WASHINGTON, THE U.S. NAVY SAID IT HAD ORDERED TWO DESTROYERS WHICH WENT TO AID OF THE FLYING ARROW TO LEAVE THE YANGTZE ESTUARY. THE NAVY SAID IT ORDERED THE DESTROYERS TO WITHDRAW AFTER RECEIVING WORD THAT THE FLYING ARROW HAD BEEN REPAIRED AND WAS SEAWORTHY FOR A VOYAGE TO ANY PORT NO FARTHER AWAY THAN HONG KONG.)

THE FLYING ARROW, SAID CAPT.DAVID JONES, HAS HER SHELL HOLES PLUGGED AND CAN MAKE ANY NEARBY PORT.

JAN 11 1950

HE SAID HE WAS AWAITING INSTRUCTIONS FROM THE OWNERS WHETHER TO PROCEED TO COMMUNIST SHANGHAI, THE SHIP'S DESTINATION, OR TO SOME OTHER PORT.

THE CHINESE GUNBOAT WHICH HALTED THE FLYING ARROW WITH SHELL FIRE MONDAY ALSO SEEMED TO BE WAITING.

THE GUNBOAT KEPT THE 6,214-TON FREIGHTER IN SIGHT. SOMETIMES IT WAS AS CLOSE AS 200 YARDS--THE RANGE AT WHICH IT OPENED FIRE. SOMETIMES IT MOVED OFF AS FAR AS EIGHT MILES.

TWO U.S. DESTROYERS, WHICH CAME UP AND GAVE THE CRIPPLED FREIGHTER A HAND IN THE REPAIRS, ALSO SEEMED TO BE WAITING.

THEY ARE WITHIN 100 TO 200 YARDS OF THE SHIP AT THIS ANCHORING POINT APPROXIMATELY 20 MILES OFF THE CHINESE MAINLAND NEAR THE MOUTH OF THE YANGTZE.

THEY ARE THE STICKELL AND THE BAUSSELL. THEY ARE UNDER ORDERS TO ACCOMPANY THE FLYING ARROW TO ANY PORT BUT SHANGHAI, WHICH THE NATIONALISTS SAY THEY HAVE BLOCKED WITH MINES.

CAPTAIN JONES SAID REPAIRS HAD PROGRESSED TO THE POINT WHERE THE FLYING ARROW COULD SAIL TO SOME NEARBY PORT WITHOUT ENDANGERING PASSENGERS, CREW OR CARGO.

FOUR SMALL SHELL HOLES HAVE BEEN WELDED OVER IN THE NO. 5 HOLD. IT WAS HERE THAT THE GUNBOAT'S SHELLS SET FIRE TO CARGO AND CAUSED

THOUSANDS OF DOLLARS IN DAMAGE.

A LINE WAS SET UP TO ALLOW THE FLYING ARROW TO BE STEERED FROM THE BRIDGE. A SHELL CUT THE CABLE FROM THE BRIDGE TO THE STEERING ENGINE ROOM.

IT WAS ESTIMATED THE SHIP WAS HIT 30 TO 40 TIMES DURING THE BRIEF BUT FURIOUS SHELLING MONDAY.

ABOARD ARE 12 PASSENGERS AND A CREW OF 43. NONE WAS INJURED IN THE SHELLING AND ENSUING FIRE.

THE CARGO OF COTTON, OIL AND CHEMICALS IS VALUED AT $10,000,000.

(VICE ADM. RUSSELL S.BERKEY, COMMANDER OF THE SEVENTH FLEET, SAID IN BANGKOK, THAILAND, THAT THE U.S. NAVY WOULD GO TO THE AID OF ANY SHIPS ATTACKED OUTSIDE THE THREE-MILE LIMIT. HE NOTED, HOWEVER, THAT AMERICAN MERCHANTMEN HAD BEEN WARNED THAT COMMUNIST PORTS HAD BEEN BLOCKADED BY THE NATIONALISTS.)

PROBABLY THE ONLY AMERICANS WHO WILL REMAIN ONCE THE RED ATTACK GETS UNDER WAY ARE THE MISSIONARIES.

NINETY OF THE 230 AMERICANS HERE BELONG TO THE OFFICIAL AMERICAN FAMILY--THE EMBASSY, CONSULATE, THE ECONOMIC COOPERATION ADMINISTRATION AND ITS SUBSIDIARY THE JOINT COMMISSION ON RURAL RECONSTRUCTION.

PRACTICALLY NONE OF THE AMERICANS NOT CONNECTED WITH THESE GOVERNMENT OPERATIONS HEEDED THE QUIET WORD OF MOUTH ADVICE CONSULAR OFFICIALS GAVE LAST MONTH TO AMERICANS TO LEAVE.

AMERICAN WOMEN EMPLOYES OF THE EMBASSY AND CONSULATE--THERE ARE ONLY A HANDFUL OF THEM--WILL LEAVE BY THE MIDDLE OF NEXT MONTH. SO WILL A FEW DEPENDENTS OF AMERICAN SERVICE PERSONNEL ATTACHED TO THE EMBASSY.

SO FAR, HOWEVER, THERE IS NO PLAN TO WITHDRAW AMERICAN WOMEN EMPLOYES OF THE ECA AND THE JOINT COMMISSION ON RURAL RECONSTRUCTION.

DONALD D. EDGAR, CONSUL, LEFT FOR WASHINGTON MONDAY ON AN ASSIGNMENT. HIS DEPARTURE HAD LONG BEEN PLANNED. THREE AMERICAN WOMEN EMPLOYES OF THE EMBASSY AND CONSULATE TRAVELED TO HONG KONG IN THE SAME PLANE WITH HIM. THE GROUP'S DEPARTURE IN NO SENSE STARTED A GENERAL EVACUATION OF AMERICANS FROM FORMOSA.

ROBERT STRONG HAS TAKEN OVER EDGAR'S DUTIES IN ADDITION TO HIS OWN AS CHARGE D'AFFAIRES. THE EMBASSY AND CONSULATE ARE NOT LIKELY TO CLOSE UNLESS THE UNITED STATES RECOGNIZES THE COMMUNISTS OR THE RED INVASION APPEARS IMMINENT.

TAIPEI, FORMOSA, THURSDAY, JAN. 12-(AP)-THE CHINESE NATIONALISTS TODAY SENT ADDITIONAL WARSHIPS ON PATROL AS A SAFEGUARD AGAINST THE EXPECTED COMMUNIST INVASION OF HAINAN ISLAND.

NAVAL HEADQUARTERS SAID, HOWEVER, IT HAD NOTHING TO CONFIRM RUMORS THAT A RED INVASION FLEET OF 1,000 CRAFT ALREADY WAS BOUND FOR THE BIG ISLAND OFF THE SOUTH CHINA COAST.

NOR DID THE AIR FORCE, WHICH HAS BEEN RAIDING INVASION BASE PORTS ON THE RED-HELD SOUTH CHINA MAINLAND, HAVE ANY REPORTS THAT ANY OPERATION AGAINST HAINAN HAD BEGAN. NEITHER DID ARMY HEADQUARTERS.

THE NAVY SAID ITS REINFORCING CRAFT HAD BEEN ASSIGNED TO HAINAN STRAIT.

NATIONALIST PLANES YESTERDAY RAINED BOMBS ON BASES WHERE THE REDS ARE BUILDING UP STRENGTH FOR INVASIONS OF HAINAN AND OTHER NATIONALIST ISLANDS.

TOKYO, JAN. 11-(AP)-ROVING U.S. AMBASSADOR PHILIP JESSUP HAS BEEN ASKED TO HALT FURTHER AID TO FORMOSA.

A GROUP OF FORMOSANS CALLING THEMSELVES "THE ASSOCIATION OF FORMOSAN CHINESE RESIDING IN JAPAN FOR THE ADVANCEMENT OF PEACE," APPEALED IN A LETTER TO JESSUP TO OPPOSE AMERICAN INTERVENTION IN FORMOSA.

THEY OPPOSED FURTHER "MATERIAL OR SPIRITUAL" AID TO NATIONALIST CHINA'S GENERALISSIMO CHIANG KAI-SHEK, WHO HAS HIS HEADQUARTERS ON FORMOSA.

AMERICAN INTERVENTION IN FORMOSA, THEY WROTE, WOULD "DISTURB THE REALIZATION OF PEACE AND THE UNIFICATION OF CHINA." THEY ADDED "THE CHINESE PEOPLE WILL NEVER TOLERATE" ANY SUCH INTERFERENCE.

PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S HANDS OFF FORMOSA STATEMENT WAS APPROVED IN THE LETTER.

TOKYO, THURSDAY, JAN. 12-(AP)-COMMUNIST CHINA HAS TOLD NORWAY IT IS WILLING TO ESTABLISH DIPLOMATIC RELATIONS "AFTER THE NORWEGIAN GOVERNMENT SEVERS RELATIONS WITH THE REMNANTS OF THE KUOMINTANG (NATIONALIST CHINESE) REACTIONARIES."

THIS WAS REPORTED TODAY BY THE CHINESE RED RADIO AT PEIPING IN A BROADCAST HEARD HERE. IT ADDED THAT DIPLOMATIC RELATIONS MUST BE ESTABLISHED "ON THE BASIS OF EQUALITY, MUTUAL BENEFIT AND MUTUAL RESPECT FOR TERRITORY AND SOVEREIGNTY."

THE TENOR OF THIS WAS THE SAME AS THE COMMUNIST REPLY TO BRITISH RECOGNITION TWO DAYS AGO.

NATIONALIST CHINA HAS SEVERED RELATIONS WITH NORWAY, BRITAIN AND OTHER NATIONS WHICH HAVE RECOGNIZED THE PEIPING GOVERNMENT.

THE BROADCAST SAID PREMIER AND FOREIGN MINISTER CHOU EN-LAI HAD ACKNOWLEDGED THE DESIRE OF THE NORWEGIAN GOVERNMENT TO ESTABLISH RELATIONS AS CONVEYED BY NORWEGIAN CONSUL GENERAL MARTIN BOLSTAD AT SHANGHAI.

CHOU, THE RADIO SAID, INSTRUCTED HWANG HWA TO TELL HOLSTAD THE NORWEGIAN GOVERNMENT "IS REQUESTED TO SEND ITS REPRESENTATIVE TO PEKING (PEIPING) TO CONDUCT TALKS ON THIS MATTER." HWANG WAS IDENTIFIED AS A STAFF MEMBER OF THE COMMUNIST FOREIGN NATIONAL AFFAIRS OFFICE OF THE SHANGHAI MILITARY CONTROL COMMITTEE.

JAKARTA (BATAVIA), U.S.I., JAN 11-(AP)-A FORMER DUTCH ARMY OFFICER WHO THREATENED THIS WEEK TO LEAD A REBELLION AGAINST THE NEW-BORN UNITED STATES OF INDONESIA WAS REPORTED TODAY TO HAVE SOFTENED HIS ULTIMATUM.

THE WELL-KNOWN DUTCH NATIONAL, LISTED IN ARMY RECORDS AS R.P.P. WESTERLING, STILL DEMANDED RECOGNITION OF HIS FORCE OF SEVERAL THOUSAND GUERRILLA IRREGULARS AS THE BODY TO MAINTAIN ORDER IN WEST JAVA.

HE MADE HIS DEMANDS KNOWN IN A SECRET INTERVIEW WITH DUTCH NEWSMAN HENK VAN MAURIK, CORRESPONDENT FOR THE CATHOLIC REGIONAL PRESS IN HOLLAND, LAST TUESDAY NIGHT.

WESTERLING HAD PREVIOUSLY THREATENED IN A LETTER TO THE U.S.I. TO DECLARE OPEN WARFARE JAN.12 IF HIS DEMANDS WERE NOT MET. HE SAID AFTER THAT DATE HE WOULD NOT BE RESPONSIBLE FOR CLASHES THAT MIGHT RESULT.

WESTERLING HAS BEEN TERMED A MAN VERY DANGEROUS TO SECURITY BY INDONESIAN PREMIER MOHAMMED HATTA. THE DUTCH HAVE SAID OFFICIALLY THEY STRONGLY OPPOSE HIS ACTIONS. BUT INDONESIAN AUTHORITIES HAVE AVOIDED ARRESTING HIM.

WESTERLING SAID IN HIS LETTER THAT THE OFFICIAL ARMY OF THE OLD INDONESIAN REPUBLIC, WHICH HAS BEEN GIVEN THE TASK OF MAINTAINING ORDER, IS YOUNG AND INEXPERIENCED.

HE WAS QUOTED AS SAYING HE WANTS A STRONG STATE OF EAST JAVA AND DOES NOT APPROVE OF RECENT MOVES TO REJOIN WEST JAVA WITH THE REPUBLIC, A LARGER STATE IN THE U.S.I. FEDERATION.

WESTERLING SAID HE WAS NOT ACTING AS A DUTCHMAN OR FOR ANY GROUP OF DUTCH, BUT "SOLELY FOR A GREAT PART OF THE INDONESIAN PEOPLE, WHOSE INTERESTS I UPHOLD."

HE REFUSED TO DIVULGE THE NUMBER OF ARMED FOLLOWERS HE CONTROLLED, BUT CLAIMED THE LOYALTY OF "24 FIGHTING ORGANIZATIONS" AND CONTACT WITH PEOPLES MOVEMENTS IN JAVA, SUMATRA AND THE CELEBES.

ACCORDING TO WESTERLING UNITS OF THE REBEL MOSLEM MOVEMENT, DARUL ISLAM, HAD CONTACTED HIS PEOPLE.

HE SAID HE HAD FINANCED HIS ORGANIZATION AT A COST OF 400,000 GUILDERS ($110,000), BORROWED FROM FRIENDS AND FROM HIS OWN HOTEL AND TRANSPORT TRADING BUSINESS.

HE TOLD THE NEWSMAN HE IS 30 YEARS OLD, BORN IN ISTANBUL, TURKEY, OF A DUTCH FATHER AND A TURKISH MOTHER. HE HOLDS A DUTCH PASSPORT.

WESTERLING IS BELIEVED TO HAVE CONSIDERABLE SUPPORT FROM INDONESIANS AND EURASIANS IN THE DUTCH ARMY. THEY ARE AWAITING REORGANIZATION INTO THE NEW FEDERAL ARMY, BUT MANY ARE DISSATISFIED BECAUSE THEY ARE NOT REPRESENTED IN THE LEADERSHIP OF THE NEW FORCE.

IN THE GOVERNMENT ORGANIZATION A PLACE HAS BEEN FOUND FOR LEADERS WHO FORMERLY COOPERATED WITH THE DUTCH, BUT IN THE NEW FEDERAL DEFENSE FORCE ALL TOP POSTS ARE FILLED BY FORMER OFFICERS OF THE REPUBLICAN ARMY.

NIGHT LEAD INDONESIAN

BY KENNETH LIKES

JAKARTA (BATAVIA), U.S.I., JAN. 11-(AP)-PREMIER MOHAMED HATTA'S CABINET DECIDED TODAY TO PLACE EAST JAVA UNDER A FEDERAL ADMINISTRATOR AS ONE STEP IN A MOVE TO GIVE THAT STATE A MORE STABLE GOVERNMENT.

EAST JAVA IS ONE OF THE 16 STATES IN THE NEW UNITED STATES OF INDONESIA. INFORMATION MINISTER ARNOLD MONONUTO SAID EAST-JAVA WAS NOT RUNNING WELL BECAUSE OF A TUG OF WAR BETWEEN THOSE WHO WISH TO KEEP IT INTACT AND THOSE WHO FAVOR REJOINING A SISTER STATE, THE FORMER INDEPENDENT INDONESIAN REPUBLIC. THE DUTCH ORIGINALLY CREATED THE STATE FROM REPUBLICAN TERRITORY SEIZED BY MILITARY ACTION IN 1947.

"THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT, ALTHOUGH RESPECTING THE POSITION OF THE STATE OF EAST JAVA, WILL APPOINT A REPRESENTATIVE WHO WILL BE THE SUPREME AUTHORITY," MONONUTO SAID.

THE APPOINTMENT IS EXPECTED IN A FEW DAYS. A COMMISSION REPRESENTING THE U.S.I., THE REPUBLICAN STATE AND EAST JAVA IS TO PLAN FOR A MORE EFFECTIVE GOVERNMENT IN THE AREA. THIS PLAN WILL BE PRESENTED AT THE FIRST SESSION OF THE FEDERAL PARLIAMENT, TO BE HELD EARLY IN FEBRUARY.

THE INFORMATION MINISTER SAID A SIMILAR PROBLEM EXISTS IN THE STATE OF WEST JAVA, ALSO ONCE A PART OF THE REPUBLIC, BUT DID NOT OUTLINE WHAT STEPS MAY BE TAKEN THERE.

A FORMER DUTCH ARMY OFFICER, R.P.P. "TURK" WESTERLING, HAS DEMANDED RECOGNITION OF HIS FORCE OF SEVERAL THOUSAND GUERRILLAS AS THE OFFICIAL BODY FOR MAINTAINING ORDER IN WEST JAVA.

WESTERLING WAS QUOTED IN AN INTERVIEW LAST NIGHT WITH HENK VAN MAURIK, A DUTCH NEWSMAN, AS SAYING HE WANTED A STRONG STATE AND DID NOT APPROVE OF MOVES TO RETURN TO WEST JAVA TO THE REPUBLIC. HE CONTENDED THE OFFICIAL U.S.I. ARMY, MADE UP OF INDONESIAN REPUBLICAN TROOPS, IS TOO YOUNG AND INEXPERIENCED TO MAINTAIN SECURITY.

VAN MAURIK REPORTED WESTERLING SAID HE WOULD NOT BE RESPONSIBLE FOR CLASHES WHICH RESULT IF HIS FORCE DOES NOT GET OFFICIAL RECOGNITION BY TOMORROW. WESTERLING, 30, SAID HE FINANCED HIS ORGANIZATION WITH THE EQUIVALENT OF $110,000, BORROWED FROM FRIENDS AND HIS OWN HOTEL, TRANSPORT AND TRADING BUSINESS. HE SAID HE WAS ACTING NOT AS A DUTCHMAN, BUT "SOLELY FOR THE GREAT PART OF THE INDONESIAN PEOPLE, WHOSE INTERESTS I UPHOLD."

SPAIN (300)

BY JOHN SCALI

WASHINGTON, JAN. 11-(AP)-THE UNITED STATES WAS REPORTED TODAY TO BE INCLINED TO JOIN IN AN EXPECTED MOVE WITH OTHER MEMBERS OF THE UNITED NATIONS TO END A DIPLOMATIC BOYCOTT OF SPAIN.

PRESIDENT TRUMAN, SAID THE PERSONS REPORTING THIS, HAS APPROVED SUCH A SHIFT IN STATE DEPARTMENT POLICY--IF THE UN AGREES. THE INFORMED GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS ALSO SAID THAT, WITH THE SAME "IF," SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON NOW FAVORS FULL DIPLOMATIC RECOGNITION OF THE FRANCO GOVERNMENT.

THE SPANISH QUESTION CAME UP BRIEFLY YESTERDAY AT A CLOSED-DOOR SESSION OF THE SENATE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE. CHAIRMAN CONNALLY (D-TEX) QUOTED ACHESON AS TELLING THE COMMITTEE ONLY THAT HE WOULD FOLLOW UNITED NATIONS GUIDANCE ON THE QUESTION.

FOR THE PAST THREE YEARS THE UNITED STATES, ALONG WITH SEVERAL OTHER NATIONS, HAS BEEN REPRESENTED IN SPAIN ONLY BY CHARGE D'AFFAIRES.

THIS IS IN KEEPING WITH A UNITED NATIONS RESOLUTION CALLING UPON MEMBERS TO RECALL THEIR ENVOYS "UNTIL A NEW AND ACCEPTABLE GOVERNMENT IS FORMED IN SPAIN."

THE QUESTION IS SCHEDULED TO COME UP AGAIN AT THE NEXT SESSION OF THE UN GENERAL ASSEMBLY. OFFICIALS SAID THAT CHANCES ARE THE UNITED STATES WOULD NOT SPONSOR THE MOVE TO END THE BAN ON AMBASSADORS TO SPAIN BUT WOULD NONE THE LESS VOTE FOR IT WHEN THE TIME CAME. THE MOST RECENT VOTE ON THIS PROBLEM, WHICH KEEPS POPPING UP IN THE U.N., WAS LAST MAY.

EVEN IN FACE OF THE PRESENT RESOLUTION, 14 UNITED NATIONS COUNTRIES HAVE EITHER SENT THEIR AMBASSADORS BACK TO MADRID OR HAVE

30.24- 8183

ANNOUNCED THEIR INTENTION OF DOING SO.

UNTIL NOW, THE UNITED STATES HAS ABSTAINED WHEN THE ASSEMBLY VOTED ON WHETHER TO PERMIT MEMBER GOVERNMENTS TO RETURN THEIR ENVOYS TO MADRID.

U.S. OFFICIALS SAID THAT A VOTE IN FAVOR OF RESTORING FULL DIPLOMATIC RELATIONS SHOULD NOT BE INTERPRETED AS A SIGN THE UNITED STATES NO LONGER HAS ANY OBJECTION TO THE FRANCO GOVERNMENT. THEY POINTED OUT THAT THIS GOVERNMENT HAS AMBASSADORS AND MINISTERS IN RUSSIA AND THE IRON CURTAIN COUNTRIES ALTHOUGH IT DOES NOT APPROVE OF THESE GOVERNMENTS.

CHINESE ARMS

BY EDWARD E.BOMAR

WASHINGTON,JAN.11-(AP)-MORE TRAINLOADS OF AMERICAN MADE TANKS AND OTHER ARMS PROBABLY WILL SOON BE ON THE WAY TO THE CHINESE NATIONALISTS ON FORMOSA.

DIPLOMATIC AUTHORITIES SAID TODAY THAT 300 TANKS AND ARMORED CARS BEING PUT ABOARD A TURKISH FREIGHTER AT PHILADELPHIA REPRESENTED ONLY A PART OF THE BELATED DELIVERIES OF ORDERS THE NATIONALISTS PLACED IN THIS COUNTRY LAST YEAR. THEY WERE PAID FOR FROM THE $125,000,000 (M) CONGRESS VOTED IN 1948 FOR MILITARY AID TO CHINA.

ALTHOUGH PRESIDENT TRUMAN HAS RULED OUT ANY FURTHER AMERICAN MILITARY AID TO KEEP FORMOSA FROM CAPTURE BY THE COMMUNISTS, THE GOVERNMENT HAS BEEN HELPING SPEED THE COMPLETION OF ORDERS ALREADY PLACED. THE SHIPMENT AT PHILADELPHIA CAME FROM AN ARMY ORDNANCE DEPOT AT LIMA,OHIO. SOME EARLIER SHIPMENTS WENT VIA U.S. NAVAL VESSELS.

OFFICIALS SAY THERE IS NO CONFLICT BETWEEN THIS ACTION AND MR. TRUMAN'S THUMBS DOWN DECLARATION OF LAST WEEK. THE NATIONALISTS ALREADY HAVE TITLE TO THE MUNITIONS NOW BEING SHIPPED, HAVING CHECKED OUT THE LAST OF THE $125,000,000 (M) FUND FROM THE TREASURY MONTHS AGO.

MOST OF IT WENT TO THE DEFENSE DEPARTMENT WHICH EITHER SOLD ARMS TO THE CHINESE AS SURPLUS OR ADVANCED EQUIPMENT WHICH IS TO BE REPLACED AS NEW MODELS ARE MANUFACTURED.

THE CHINESE EMBASSY DECLINED TO SAY HOW MUCH ARMS-ON-ORDER REMAINED TO BE DISPATCHED.

IF THEY CAN RAISE THE MONEY, THE NATIONALISTS HAVE ADVANCE AUTHORITY TO BUY MORE MUNITIONS IN THIS COUNTRY. MR.TRUMAN SAID THAT "THE RESOURCES ON FORMOSA ARE ADEQUATE TO ENABLE THEM TO OBTAIN THE ITEMS WHICH THEY MIGHT CONSIDER NECESSARY FOR THE DEFENSE OF THE ISLAND." GENERALISSIMO CHIANG KAI-SHEK IS BELIEVED TO HAVE SOME $100,000,000 (M) LEFT OF THE ESTIMATED $300,000,000 (M) RESERVES WHICH WERE TRANSFERRED TO FORMOSA FROM THE MAINLAND WHEN THE COMMUNISTS SWEPT OVER THE YANGTZE VALLEY LAST YEAR.

WASHINGTON,JAN.11-(AP)-SENATOR MCCARRAN (D-NEV) SAID TODAY HE WILL LET THE PUBLIC JUDGE WHETHER HE OR UGO CARUSI, HEAD OF THE DISPLACED PERSONS COMMISSION, IS LYING ABOUT THE OPERATION OF THE DP PROGRAM.

MCCARRAN, CHAIRMAN OF THE SENATE JUDICIARY COMMITTEE AND BITTER FOE OF A HOUSE-PASSED BILL TO LIBERALIZE THE DP ACT, TOLD REPORTERS THAT CARUSI HAD PUBLICLY CALLED HIM A LIAR.

HE WAS REFERRING TO A STATEMENT ISSUED BY THE DISPLACED PERSONS COMMISSION LAST NIGHT. THIS DENIED TESTIMONY MADE PUBLIC BY MCCARRAN THAT THE COMMISSION ORDERED AN ARMY-LABELLED COMMUNIST AND COMMUNIST SUSPECTS ADMITTED TO THIS COUNTRY.

"WHEN I GET THROUGH RELEASING DOCUMENTS," SAID MCCARRAN, "I'LL LET THE PUBLIC SAY WHO IS A LIAR--CARUSI OR ME."

MCCARRAN TALKED WITH REPORTERS AFTER A CLOSED MEETING OF A JUDICIARY SUBCOMMITTEE CALLED TO CONSIDER THE HOUSE BILL TO BROADEN THE PRESENT DP LAW AND LET A GREATER NUMBER OF WAR REFUGEES INTO THIS COUNTRY.

AT THE SAME TIME, MCCARRAN RELEASED A LETTER FROM AN AMERICAN CONSUL OFFICIAL IN MUNICH,GERMANY, TO SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON SAYING 10 VISAS WERE ISSUED BETWEEN DEC.29,1948, AND JUNE 16,1949, TO DISPLACED PERSONS WHO WERE "APPARENTLY INELIGIBLE" UNDER THE LAW FOR ADMISSION TO THE UNITED STATES.

MCCARRAN CALLED THIS ONE ANSWER TO CARUSI AND SAID "I'VE GOT PLENTY MORE ANSWERS TO MR.CARUSI."

THE TESTIMONY RELEASED BY MCCARRAN YESTERDAY CAME FROM JOHN W. CUTLER, JR., WHO SAID HE WAS EMPLOYED BY THE COMMISSION IN GERMANY AS A "SELECTOR" OF DISPLACED PERSONS WHO ARE TO BE ADMITTED TO THE UNITED STATES.

THE COMMISSION ASSERTED THE COMPLAINTS "ABOUND IN UNTRUTHS, HALF TRUTHS AND SIMPLE LIES." IT HINTED AT DISCIPLINARY ACTION AGAINST CUTLER. BUT ADDED:

YUGOSLAVIA

BY JOHN M.HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON,JAN.11-(AP)-THE UNITED STATES PROBABLY WILL GIVE LIMITED MILITARY ASSISTANCE TO MARSHAL TITO IF THE SOVIET-COMMUNIST BLOC BEGINS USING ARMED FORCE TO TRY TO CRUSH YUGOSLAVIA'S INDEPENDENCE.

WHILE OFFICIALS HOPE THIS WON'T BE NECESSARY, THE NATIONAL SECURITY COUNCIL IS REPORTED TO HAVE CLEARED A STAND-BY PROGRAM OF MEASURES THE UNITED STATES MIGHT TAKE. THESE AIM AT THE MILITARY FIELD, SUPPLEMENTING AID ALREADY BEING GIVEN TITO IN THE ECONOMIC AND POLITICAL PHASES OF HIS STRUGGLE.

IN THE LIGHT OF THE COUNCIL'S ACTION, THE STATE DEPARTMENT HAS DETERMINED WHAT SPECIFIC STEPS IT WOULD RECOMMEND TO PRESIDENT TRUMAN IF AN EMERGENCY AROSE.

THE SECURITY COUNCIL, HEADED BY THE PRESIDENT, IS THE NATION'S TOP POLICY MAKING BODY IN FOREIGN POLICY. ITS MEMBERS INCLUDE SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON AND SECRETARY OF DEFENSE JOHNSON.

TO DATE AMERICAN AID TO YUGOSLAVIA HAS BEEN LIMITED TO ECONOMIC AND POLITICAL ASSISTANCE.

AMERICAN LIMITATIONS ON EXPORTING INDUSTRIAL EQUIPMENT TO COMMUNIST EASTERN EUROPE HAVE BEEN RELAXED FOR YUGOSLAVIA. AN AIR TRANSPORT AGREEMENT HAS BEEN SIGNED WITH TITO'S GOVERNMENT AND AMERICAN INFLUENCE HAS BEEN USED WITH WESTERN EUROPEAN COUNTRIES TO EASE ECONOMIC PRESSURES ON THE YUGOSLAVS.

FOR EXAMPLE, IT WAS LEARNED TODAY THAT WASHINGTON ENCOURAGED THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT TO MAKE ITS RECENT TRADE AGREEMENT WITH TITO AND HAS ALSO URGED THE BELGIAN GOVERNMENT NOT TO PRESS FOR PAYMENT NOW ON A LOAN MADE TO YUGOSLAVIA SOME TIME AGO.

AMERICAN ASSISTANCE HAS BEEN GIVEN TITO IN LINE WITH AN AMERICAN POLICY DECISION THAT HIS EXISTENCE AS AN INDEPENDENT NATIONAL COMMUNIST LEADER IS A SEVERE HANDICAP TO MOSCOW AND A SOURCE OF STRENGTH TO THE WEST IN THE COLD WAR.

KREMLIN LEADERS ON THE OTHER HAND HAVE REPEATEDLY PREDICTED TITO'S DOWNFALL AND HAVE SOUGHT BY ALL SORTS OF ECONOMIC AND POLITICAL PRESSURES TO BRING IT ABOUT.

TITO'S TRADE TIES WITH THE SOVIET-COMMUNIST BLOC WERE COMPLETELY CUT IN 1949 AND HE HAS STRAINED HIS RESOURCES IN ORDER TO GET NEEDED SUPPLIES, PRINCIPALLY MANUFACTURING AND MINING MACHINERY, FROM THE WEST.

JAN 11 1950

A7WX

ECONOMIC AND POLITICAL PRESSURE FROM RUSSIA HAVE NOT BEEN SUFFICIENT TO SHAKE TITO'S POSITION IN VIEW OF HIS OWN DETERMINATION TO SURVIVE, AND THE SUPPORT THE WEST HAS GIVEN. IN FACT, AMERICAN OFFICIALS CONSIDER HIM TO BE IN A STRONGER POSITION INSIDE HIS OWN COUNTRY THAN HE WAS BEFORE THE BREAK WITH RUSSIA IN 1948.

IN THE CIRCUMSTANCES, TOP ADMINISTRATION OFFICIALS DECIDED THEY HAD TO FACE THE POSSIBILITY OF RUSSIAN-INSPIRED MILITARY ACTION AGAINST TITO. THERE IS STILL HOPE THAT THE RUSSIANS WILL NOT RESORT TO FORCE. BUT IF THEY DO, AMERICAN OFFICIALS BELIEVE THAT IT MAY TAKE EITHER OF TWO FORMS: FIRST AND MOST PROBABLE, GUERRILLA WARFARE; SECOND, AN OPEN ATTACK PERHAPS BY SATELLITE TROOPS.

SOME REPORTS SAY THERE ARE AS MANY AS NINE COMMUNIST BLOC DIVISIONS ON THE YUGOSLAV BORDERS WITH HUNGARY, ROMANIA AND BULGARIA. SEVERAL MONTHS AGO THE COMMUNISTS GUERRILLAS WHO HAD BEEN FIGHTING THE GREEKS FROM ALBANIA WERE TRANSFERRED TO BULGARIA.

AT PRESENT THE AMERICAN GOVERNMENT BELIEVES THAT TITO HAS ALL THE MILITARY RESOURCES HE WOULD REQUIRE TO DEAL WITH EARLY PHASES OF ANY KIND OF MILITARY MOVE AGAINST HIM.

"THE IMMEDIATE EFFECT OF DEVALUATION UPON IMPORTS OF WOOD FURNITURE WILL BE LIMITED. DISPLAYS OF NEW MODERN FURNITURE BY THE FRENCH, AND PERIOD STYLES BY THE BELGIANS, HAVE FOUND ONLY MINOR ACCEPTANCE IN THE 'DECORATOR' TRADE BECAUSE OF THEIR HIGH PRICE.

"BREAKFRONTS FROM ENGLAND ARE MOVING A LITTLE BETTER. THEIR PRICE HAS BEEN CUT ALMOST IN HALF BY SUCCESSIVE REDUCTIONS DURING THE PAST TWO YEARS.

"FOREIGN UPHOLSTERED FURNITURE AND BEDDING MANUFACTURERS WILL RUN INTO DIFFICULTIES IN SUPPLYING OUR RETAILERS FROM ABROAD. X X X FOR THE LONGER PULL, KNOCKED DOWN CONSTRUCTIONS WHICH WILL BE ASSEMBLED OVER HERE MAY BE DEVELOPED TO SAVE ON OCEAN FREIGHT.

"ALTHOUGH COVERING FABRICS OF GOOD QUALITY ARE AVAILABLE IN SEVERAL EUROPEAN COUNTRIES, THEY MORE LIKELY WILL FIND THEIR WAY INTO A LIMITED NUMBER OF PIECES MADE BY OUR OWN PRODUCERS. THIS ALSO HOLDS TRUE OF CARVED FRAMES FROM ITALY AND FRANCE."

WHITING, REPORTING THAT IMPORTS ACCOUNTED FOR TWO PER CENT OF THE AMERICAN FURNITURE INDUSTRY, SAID THAT FOREIGN NATIONS COULD INCREASE THIS "WHEN MORE CAREFUL ATTENTION IS GIVEN TO STYLING FOR OUR MARKETS."

HE ADDED "ALTHOUGH DEVALUATION HAS NOT REDUCED PRICES OF FOREIGN GOODS IN PROPORTION TO THE CURRENCY CUTS, IT HAS HAD THE EFFECT OF STIMULATION BY MAKING (ITEMS) AVAILABLE AT SOMEWHAT LOWER PRICES.

"IN SOM E HOME FURNISHINGS LINES, NEW GOODS COMING INTO THIS COUNTRY IS ONLY A TRICKLE. IN OTHERS, IT APPEARS AS THOUGH TRANSPORTATION COSTS AND THE STYLE AND TYPE OF GOODS AVAILABLE MAY PROVIDE EFFECTIVE BARRIERS.

"STILL OTHER PRODUCTS ARE ALREADY ARRIVING IN A STEADY STREAM, WITH THE DEFINITE POSSIBILITY OF A FLOOD WHEN THE DRIVE FOR DOLLARS PICKS UP STEAM.

"BUT FOREIGN COMPETITIVE EFFORTS WILL BECOME SERIOUS ONLY TO THOSE WHO HAVE BEEN LULLED INTO A FALSE SENSE OF SECURITY REGARDING THE ABILITY OF AMERICA TO PRODUCE EVERYTHING SHE NEEDS."

DETROIT, JAN. 11-(AP)-VENISON BROILED IN THE KITCHEN WHILE ANGUS WARD, FORMER U.S. CONSUL GENERAL AT MUKDEN, TOLD OF EXISTING 28 DAYS ON A BREAD AND WATER JAIL DIET.

THAT WAS THE LENGTH OF TIME THE GRAY BEARDED AMERICAN DIPLOMAT WAS HELD IN A COMMUNIST PRISON ON A CHARGE OF BEATING A CHINESE EMPLOYE. WARD DENIED THE CHARGE.

WARD IS VISITING HIS SISTER AND BROTHER-IN-LAW, MR. AND MRS. HANS HENSEN, HERE IN DETROIT. HE LEAVES SHORTLY FOR WASHINGTON, WHERE HE WILL GIVE A FULL REPORT ON HIS EXPERIENCES IN RED CHINA.

THE VENISON -- A FAVORITE OF WARD'S -- WAS KEPT OVER FROM THE HUNTING SEASON.

WARD TOLD A LIVING ROOM CONFERENCE OF NEWSMEN, THAT PRIOR TO IMPRISONMENT, HIS WIFE, AND THE CONSULAR STAFF HAD BEEN UNDER HOUSE ARREST FOR 12 MONTHS.

WARD DESCRIBED CONDITIONS IN THE PRISON AS "ALL RIGHT." THEN, WITHOUT RANCOR, TOLD OF BEING ALLOTED SIX SLICES OF BREAD AND SIX CUPS OF HOTE WATER A DAY.

HIS JAIL CELL, HE SAID, WAS WITHOUT HEAT FOR ALL EXCEPT THE LAST FEW DAYS OF HIS IMPRISONMENT. BUT THIS, HE INDICATED, REALLY WAS A BLESSING.

"THE WALLS AND CEILING," THE BALDING OFFICIAL SAID, "HAD 'MEASLES' FROM WHERE BODY INSECTS HAD BEEN CRUSHED. THE COLD KEPT THEM FROM COMING OUT AND BOTHERING US."

THE FORMAL CHARGES AGAINST HIM, WARD SAID, WERE READ TO HIM FOR THE FIRST TIME WHEN HE WAS BROUGHT INTO COURT. HE COULD NOT UNDERSTAND THE TRANSLATOR, HE SAID, AND ASKED THAT THE CHARGE BE REPEATED. THIS, TOO, WAS DENIED.

WHEN TIME CAME FOR SENTENCE TO BE PASSED, HE NOTED, COURT WAS ADJOURNED AT 4 P.M. AND RECONVENED AT 6 P.M. DURING A FULL HOUR OF THE TIME, THERE WAS A POWER FAILURE AND NO LIGHT.

YET THE JUDGE READ THE SENTENCE FROM "SEVEN OR EIGHT" PAGES OF CLOSELY-WRITTEN TYPESCRIPT, HE SAID, AND ALSO CLAIMED TO HAVE A FULL TRANSLATION OF THE TESTIMONY.

THIS WAS PROOF TO HIM, HE SAID, THAT THE WHOLE TRIAL WAS PLANNED IN ADVANCE, AND "VERY SMOOTHLY OILED." BUT THE COMMUNISTS KNEW THEY WERE "PLAYING WITH FIRE," HE ASSERTED.

THE CONSUL WOULD NOT COMMENT ON AMERICAN POLICY WITH REGARD TO CHINA, OR ON THE FLYING ARROW INCIDENT SUNDAY. HE DID REMARK, HOWEVER, THAT THE CHINESE IN MUKDEN WERE "APATHETIC" WHEN THE REDS MARCHED IN.

ASKED WHAT WOULD BE INCLUDED IN HIS REPORT TO THE STATE DEPARTMENT, HE SAID:

"WELL, WE ALWAYS HAVE A LOT TO SAY."

AFTER REPORTING TO WASHINGTON, WARD EXPECTS A VACATION. HE SAID HE WOULD RETURN TO ALLEGAN, WHERE HE HAS TAKEN AN APARTMENT. HIS FIVE CATS AND A MAID ARE NOW STAYING THERE, HE SAID.

MRS. WARD AND HE WILL MAKE THE TRIP TO WASHINGTON IN A NEW CAR HE OBTAINED IN ALLEGAN, HE SAID.

NIGHT LEAD CHINA-MISSIONARIES (380)

BUCK HILL FALLS,PA.,JAN 11-(AP)-A PROTESTANT MISSIONARY CONFERENCE TODAY WAS TOLD THAT AT LEAST FOR THE IMMEDIATE FUTURE COMMUNISM AND CHRISTIANITY CAN GET ALONG IN CHINA.

THE REV. TRACEY JONES,JR., A METHODIST MISSIONARY WHO UNTIL TWO WEEKS AGO WAS STATIONED AT NANKING, TOLD THE CONFERENCE THE MAJORITY OF CHINESE CHRISTIANS ARE DETERMINED "TO MAKE A CREATIVE CONTRIBUTION TO THE NEW CHINA." SOME ARE ACCEPTING POSTS UNDER THE COMMUNISTS, HE REPORTED. OTHERS, HOWEVER, HE SAID, ARE PESSIMISTIC ABOUT THE FUTURE OF CHRISTIANITY IN COMMUNIST CHINA.

THE MISSIONARY SAID, "THE GENERAL FEELING IN CHINA IS THAT FOR THE IMMEDIATE FUTURE THE (COMMUNIST) GOVERNMENT IS GOING TO MAKE GOOD ON PROMISES OF RELIGIOUS FREEDOM."

THE CONFERENCE COMPRISES 108 MISSION BOARDS AND AGENCIES OF 53 DENOMINATIONS. IT IS HOLDING A FOUR-DAY ANNUAL MEETING HERE. A RECOMMENDATION ON FUTURE POLICY IN CHINA IS EXPECTED TOMORROW.

MR. JONES SAID CHRISTIAN GROUPS IN THE UNITED STATES ARE DISHEARTENED ABOUT THE CHINESE CHURCH BECAUSE "THEY JUDGE ITS FUTURE MORE IN TERMS OF WHAT THE COMMUNIST GOVERNMENT DOES THAN BY THE ACTIONS OF CHINESE CHRISTIANS."

ANOTHER REPORT TO THE CONFERENCE, FROM A SPECIAL SUB-COMMITTEE, SAID PROTESTANT MISSIONS IN CHINA ARE UNDERGOIND THESE CHANGES:

A RAPID TRANSFER OF ADMINISTRATIVE RESPONSIBILITY TO THE CHINESE; EMPHASIS ON TECHNICAL SKILLS AND SPECIFIC TASKS SUCH AS TEACHING AND MEDICAL SERVICES; MORE "RUGGED" LIVING CONDITIONS AND RESTRICTIONS ON TRAVEL. IT ALSO NOTED A NEED FOR MISSIONARIES WITH "OPEN MINDS" ON POLITICAL AND SOCIAL TRENDS IN CHINA.

REV. JONES LISTED FIVE PRINCIPLES WHICH HE SAID ARE GUIDING THE THINKING OF CHINESE PROTESTANT LEADERS:

"1. CHURCH LEADERSHIP, ADMINISTRATION OF PROJECT AND CONTROL OF FUNDS MUST BE PLACED IN THE HANDS OF CHINESE. THIS POLICY IS IN LINE WITH THE GOVERNMENT'S INSISTANCE ON A DOMESTICATED CHINESE CHURCH.

"2. WHILE MISSIONARIES FROM NORTH AMERICA WILL BE LIMITED IN THEIR WORK, THEIR TRAVELS CONFINED, THEY STILL ARE CONSIDERED TO BE ESSENTIAL.

"3. THE CHINESE GOVERNMENT IS MORE CONCERNED ABOUT WHAT THE CHURCH DOES THAN WHAT IT SAYS. THE GOVERNMENT IS WATCHING TO SEE IF THE CHURCH GETS RID OF CONSERVATIVE ADMINISTRATORS, AND THE KIND OF SOCIAL WELFARE PROGRAM IT ADMINISTERS.

"4. THE GENERAL FEELING IN CHINA IS THAT FOR THE IMMEDIATE FUTURE THE GOVERNMENT IS GOING TO MAKE GOOD ON PROMISES OF RELIGIOUS FREEDOM .. IS A KEY ISSUE IN THE CHURCH'S DEALING WITH THE STATE AND THE REASON FOR CHRISTIANS ACCEPTING POSTS IN THE COMMUNIST SETUP.

"5. IT IS BEING GENERALLY PROVED THAT FRANKNESS IS THE BEST POLICY IN DEALING WITH THE COMMUNISTS. PASTORS WHO HAVE FARED BEST HAVE BEEN THOSE WHO DID NOT HESITATE TO PROCLAIM THEIR CHRISTIAN FAITH AND HAVE BEEN UNWILLING TO COMPROMISE."

PITTSBURGH, JAN.11-(AP)-COLONEL M.THOMAS TCHOU, FORMER PERSONAL SECRETARY OF CHIAN KAI-SHEK, SAID TODAY HE APPROVES PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S DECISION NOT TO SEND MILITARY AID TO THE CHINESE NATIONALIST GOVERNMENT.

SPEAKING BEFORE THE STUDENT CONGRESS OF THE UNIVERSITY OF PITTSBURGH, COLONEL TCHOU SAID THE PRESIDENT'S ACTION WAS THE "TRADITIONAL AMERICAN ATTITUDE" TOWARD CHINA.

THE FORMER LABOR DEPARTMENT CHIEF IN THE NATIONALIST GOVERNMENT SAID HE BELIEVES THE FALL OF FORMOSA AND HAINAN ISLANDS TO THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS IS ONLY A QUESTION OF TIME. HE DECLARED THE COMMUNISTS MAY EVENTUALLY BE OVERTHROWN IF THEY DO NOT MAKE GOOD ON THEIR PROMISE TO PROVIDE BETTER GOVERNMENT THAN THE NATIONALISTS.

PRECEDE CALCUTTA (500)

SAN FRANCISCO,JAN.11-(AP)-THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS ASSERTED TODAY THAT ALL THE CHINA MAINLAND "WITH THE EXCEPTION OF TIBET" HAD BEEN BROUGHT UNDER THE RED BANNER.

A BROADCAST FROM PEIPING SAID THAT AMONG THE TASKS REMAINING WAS THE "LIBERATION" OF TIBET, WHICH LONG HAS BEEN VIRTUALLY INDEPENDENT OF CHINESE CONTROL, AND THE NATIONALIST ISLANDS OF FORMOSA AND HAINAN.

THE COMMUNISTS SAID THE REVOLTS OF THE GOVERNORS IN SIKANG AND YUNNAN PROVINCES ENDED THE CAMPAIGN IN SOUTH AND SOUTHWEST CHINA.

THE NATIONALISTS, HOWEVER, STILL ARE BELIEVED TO HAVE REGULAR ARMIED OPERATING IN BOTH YUNNAN IN THE SOUTHWEST AND SIKANG IN THE WEST.

A DEFENSE MINISTRY ANNOUNCEMENT ON FORMOSA SAID THE NATIONALISTS STILL ACTIVE ON THE MAINLAND NUMBERED 100,000 REGULARS AND 1,000,000 GUERRILLAS.

THE PEIPING BROADCAST CONCEDED THE GUERRILLAS WERE GIVING THE COMMUNISTS TROUBLE.

"THE KUOMINTANG BANDITS (NATIONALIST GUERRILLAS) AND SECRET AGENTS ARE CARRYING OUT ALL KINDS OF SABOTAGE," SAID THE RADIO AS HEARD BY ASSOCIATED PRESS MONITORS AT SAN FRANCISCO.

THE ELIMINATION OF THE NATIONALIST GUERRILLAS, AND THE CAPTURE OF TIBET AND THE GOVERNMENT-HELD ISLANDS, WERE LISTED AS THE "MANY TASKS (WHICH) STILL LIE BEFORE THE PEOPLE."

THE COMMUNISTS CALLED ON THE PEOPLE OF SOUTHWEST AND SOUTH CHINA TO ASSIST IN THE MOPUP OF GUERRILLAS.

PEIPING ESTIMATED THAT 600,000 NATIONALIST REGULARS WERE "ANNIHILATED" IN THE SOUTHWEST AND SOUTH CHINA CAMPAIGNS. THIS WOULD MEAN KILLED, CAPUTRED OR DISPERSED.

THE COMMUNISTS DECLARED THE ARMIES OF GEN.PAI CHUNG-HSI, COMMANDER IN THE SOUTH, AND GEN.HU TSUNG-NAN IN THE WEST WERE SHATTERED. THEY COMMANDED THE BEST NATIONALIST ARMIES ON THE MAINLAND.

THIS WAS CONFIRMED BY THE FORMOSAN ANNOUNCEMENT OF THE DEFENSE MINISTRY. IT SAID OF PAI'S 250,000-MAN ARMY, 10,000 REMAINED ON THE MAINLAND AND 40,000 WERE WITH HIM ON HAINAN.

THE MINISTRY SAID HU HAD ABOUT 20,000 MEN LEFT OUT OF HIS ORIGINAL ARMY OF AROUND 250,000. THE REMNANTS WERE TRYING TO ENTER SIKANG PROVINCE, WHERE NATIONALIST MAINLAND HEADQUARTERS ARE SET UP AT SICHANG. SIKANG BORDERS ON TIBET.

OF PAI'S AND HU'S ARMIES, THE COMMUNIST BROADCAST SAID:

"AMERICAN IMPERIALISM HAS ALWAYS REGARDED THEM WITH SPECIAL FAVOR AND HAD CONTINUOUSLY SUPPLIED THEM DIRECTLY WITH ARMS AND AMMUNITION."

JAN 11 1950

A190KX
THE COMMUNISTS CLAIMED PAI AND HU HAD BEEN ASSIGNED TO ORGANIZE RESISTANCE ON THE MAINLAND "TO GAIN TIME AND WAIT FOR THE THIRD WORLD WAR TO STAGE A COMEBACK."
BUT IT SAID THE "ANNIHILATION" OF THE TWO ARMIES "SHATTERED THE ILLUSIONS ENTERTAINED BY WORLD IMPERIALISTS AND THE KUOMINTANG REACTIONARIES."
"THE VICTORIES OF THE SOUTH AND SOUTHWEST," THE RADIO ADDED, "HAVE CREATED FAVORABLE CONDITIONS FOR THE LIBERATION OF TAIWAN (FORMOSA) HAINAN ISLAND AND TIBET, BECAUSE THE CHINESE PEOPLE AND THE PEOPLES LIBERATION ARMY CAN NOW CONCENTRATE THEIR FORCES FOR SEA CROSSING CAMPAIGNS AND FOR THE LIBERATION OF TIBET."
REPORTS CIRCULATED IN CALCUTTA THAT THE COMMUNISTS ALREADY HAD SET UP A "GOVERNMENT" FOR TIBET IN TSINGHAI PROVINCE, WHICH BORDERS TIBET ON THE NORTHEAST.

SAN FRANCISCO, JAN. 11-(AP)-SOMBERLY CLAD IN BLACK, AND SOMBER-WORDED AFTER 13 MONTHS OF FUTILE EFFORT TO ENLIST NEW AID FOR HER NATION, MADAME CHIANG KAI-SHEK IS ON HER WAY BACK TO CHINA.
THE FIRST LADY OF NATIONALIST CHINA LEFT SAN FRANCISCO ABOUT MIDNIGHT (3 A.M. EST) ON THE PAN AMERICAN WORLD AIRWAYS CLIPPER CONSTITUTION, STILL PREDICTING ULTIMATE VICTORY FOR HER HUSBAND.
THE CONSTITUTION WILL ARRIVE IN MANILA FRIDAY MORNING WHERE MADAME CHIANG AND HER ESCORTS WILL TRANSFER TO ANOTHER PLANE FOR FORMOSA. SHE WAS ACCOMPANIED BY K.H.YU, HER SECRETARY, AND YU TSUNG-CHI, CHINESE NATIONALIST AMBASSADOR TO ITALY.
MADAME CHIANG ARRIVED HERE YESTERDAY AFTER A "ROUGH" FLIGHT OVER THE ROCKIES FROM CHICAGO. SHE WAS WELCOMED BY U.S. ARMY OFFICIALS, INCLUDING LIEUT. GEN. ALBERT C. WEDEMEYER, SIXTH ARMY COMMANDER.
SHE HANDED NEWSMEN A PREPARED STATEMENT SAYING "THE AMERICAN PEOPLE DO NOT KNOW THE TRUTH. THEY HAVE BEEN DECEIVED BY PROPAGANDA BEYOND ANYTHING EVER SET BEFORE A NATION. X X X
"WHEN THE AMERICAN PEOPLE KNOW THE TRUTH THROUGH THEIR DEMOCRATIC PRESS AND RADIO; KNOW THAT THEY HAVE BEEN DECEIVED AND THAT THE COMMUNIST PERIL IS AS GREAT FOR THEM AS FOR CHINA, RIGHTEOUS WRATH WILL SWEEP AWAY THESE CONCEPTS."

WITH FLYING ARROW (210)
CLEARFIELD,PA.,JAN.11-(AP)-MRS. MARTIN GROSS HASN'T BEGUN TO WORRY ABOUT HER HUSBAND, CHIEF ENGINEER ON THE SHELL-BATTERED FLYING ARROW NOW ANCHORED OFF THE CHINESE COAST.
MRS. GROSS, ABOUT 25, HAS BEEN FOLLOWING HER HUSBAND'S ADVENTURES IN THE NEWSPAPERS.
SHE HAD SOME ROUGH MOMENTS WHEN THE STEAMSHIP WAS HIT BY 30 OR 40 NATIONALIST GUNBOAT SHELLS.
"BUT HE WENT THROUGH TWO TORPEDOINGS DURING THE WAR AND CAME OUT ALL RIGHT," SAID MRS. GROSS. "I THINK HE'LL COME OUT OF THIS ALL RIGHT, TOO."
SHE ADMITTED WITH A RUEFUL GRIN THAT IT WAS EASIER FOR HER NOT TO HAVE WORRIED ABOUT THE TORPEDOINGS. SHE DIDN'T KNOW ABOUT THOSE UNTIL ALL DANGER WAS PAST.
MRS. GROSS RECEIVED A CABLEGRAM FROM HER HUSBAND AFTER THE FLYING ARROW WAS SHELLED AT THE MOUTH OF THE YANGTSE RIVER. IT TOLD HER HE WAS ALL RIGHT. SHE ALSO GOT A LETTER FROM HIM THE SAME DAY, BUT IT HAD BEEN MAILED FROM HONG KONG PRIOR TO THE SHELLING. THE LETTER TOLD HER "TROUBLE WAS EXPECTED" ON THE TRIP BUT FOR HER "NOT TO WORRY."
GROSS ENTERED THE MARITIME SERVICE IN 1941 AND SERVED DURING THE WAR. HE ATTENDED THE FIFTH DIVISION MARINE SCHOOL IN ORDER TO GET HIS PRESENT RATING OF CHIEF ENGINEERING OFFICER.
THE GROSSES HAVE A SON AND TWO DAUGHTERS: DENNIS, 3 1/2 YEARS OLD; KARIN, 2 YEARS, AND CONNIE, THREE MONTHS.
THE CHILDREN OFTEN JOIN HER IN FRONT OF THE RADIO BUT THEY DON'T KNOW TOO MUCH WHAT THE NEWS REPORTS ARE ALL ABOUT.

NEW YORK, JAN.11-(AP)-ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSIONER GORDON DEAN SUGGESTED TONIGHT THAT ONE PHASE OF THE GOVERNMENT'S ATOMIC PROGRAM MAY SAFELY BE TURNED OVER TO PRIVATE INDUSTRY IN THE NEAR FUTURE.

HE REFERRED TO THE PRODUCTION OF RADIOACTIVE ISOTOPLES, WHICH ARE FINDING AN EVER-EXPANDING USE IN MEDICINE, BIOLOGY, INDUSTRY AND GENERAL SCIENTIFIC RESEARCH.

THE ISOTOPES, ORIGINALLY A BY-PRODUCT OF ATOMIC BOMB MANUFACTURE, ARE RADIOACTIVE VARIANTS OF THE NATURAL ELEMENTS. THEY ARE USED MOSTLY IN SMALL QUANTITIES AS TRACERS IN LARGER MASSES OF MATERIAL.

THEY LET SCIENTISTS FOLLOW INVOLVED CHEMICAL, MECHANICAL AND BIOLOGICAL PROCESSES BY GIVING OFF RADIATION SIGNALS--SOMEWHAT IN THE MANNER THAT COLORED STAINS ARE USED UNDER A MICROSCOPE.

DEAN'S VIEWS WERE GIVEN IN AN ADDRESS PREPARED FOR DELIVERY TO A NEW YORK UNIVERSITY SEMINAR ON INDUSTRIAL AND SAFETY PROBLEMS OF ATOMIC PROCESSES.

DEAN SPOKE WITH PRIDE OF THE ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION'S DEVELOPMENT OF THE ISOTOPE FIELD, AND SAID IT HAS FAR OUTSTRIPPED ITS ORIGINAL EXPECTATIONS.

"I WILL SUGGEST A QUESTION THAT THIS RAISES," HE SAID.

"IS THE DAY NOT FAR OFF WHEN THIS SEGMENT OF THE ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION'S WORK MAY PROPERLY BE TURNED OVER TO AMERICAN INDUSTRY?

"IS IT A FIELD WHICH INHERENTLY REQUIRES A GOVERNMENT MONOPOLY AND CONTROL?

"I DON'T KNOW THE ANSWER TO THIS POINT--BUT I SERIOUSLY DOUBT THAT IT IS 'YES.'"

DEAN REPEATED A PREDICTION THAT IT WOULD BE AT LEAST 25 YEARS BEFORE AN ATOMIC POWER ENGINE COULD BE DESIGNED--IF THIS DIFFICULT PROBLEM CAN BE SOLVED AT ALL.

NEW YORK,JAN 11-(AP)-ISRAEL JACOBSON, AMERICAN WELFARE WORKER HELD FOR 12 DAYS BY HUNGARIAN SECURITY POLICE ON SUSPICION OF SPYING, SAID TODAY HE WAS TOLD BY A HUNGARIAN COLONEL:

"ONE DAY WE MIGHT MEET IN AMERICA BUT A VERY DIFFERENT AMERICA FROM THAT OF TODAY."

JACOBSON, WHO WAS HUNGARIAN DIRECTOR OF THE AMERICAN JOINT DISTRIBUTION COMMITTEE, A JEWISH WELFARE AGENCY, SAID DURING HIS IMPRISONMENT HE WAS "SUBJECT TO HARDSHIP BUT NOT TO PHYSICAL CRUELTY."

HOWEVER, HE SAID, POLICE TOLD HIM THAT IF THE HUNGARIAN PEOPLE SHOULD FIND OUT ABOUT HIS "ALLEGED ACTIVITIES" HE MIGHT BE THE SUBJECT OF A "LYNCHING THAT WOULD MAKE AMERICAN LYNCHINGS SEEM TAME."

JACOBSON, 37, TOLD OF HIS EXPERIENCE AT A NEWS CONFERENCE AFTER HE ARRIVED ABOARD THE QUEEN MARY.

HE SAID DURING THE FIRST FIVE DAYS OF HIS IMPRISONMENT HE WAS HELD IN A SMALL ROOM IN THE HEADQUARTERS OF THE SECURITY POLICE IN BUDAPEST AND "SEARCHED AND INTERROGATED FOR ABOUT 20 HOURS A DAY."

HE SAID HE WAS MAINLY ASKED ABOUT CONTACTS WITH MEMBERS OF THE AMERICAN LEGATION IN HUNGARY.

POLICE ALSO QUSTIONED HIM, HE SAID, ABOUT A STATEMENT ALLEGEDLY MADE BY A ZIONIST LEADER IMPRISONED BY THE SECURITY POLICE. THE STATEMENT, HE SAID, IMPLICATED HIS COMMITTEE IN AN ALLEGED OPERATION TO PERMIT JEWS TO LEAVE HUNGARY ILLEGALLY.

JACOBSON SAID THAT "AT NO TIME DID I ENGAGE IN ESPIONAGE OR IN ANY ACTIVITY REMOTELY CONNECTED WITH ESPIONAGE."

HE SAID HE CONSIDERED HIS RELEASE "A CLEAR VINDICATION OF THE FACT THAT I ADHERED STRICTLY TO A NON-POLITICAL ROLE WHILE IN HUNGARY."

WHEN HE FIRST WAS ARRESTED, JACOBSON SAID, HE WAS FORCED TO SIT WITH HIS KNEES TOGETHER AND HIS HEAD HUNCHED FORWARD FOR LONG PERIODS UNDER QUESTIONING. HE ADDED THAT HE ALSO WAS FORCED TO LOOK INTO A BRIGHT LIGHT.

A JOINT DISTRIBUTION COMMITTEE OFFICIAL SAID THAT SINCE JACOBSON'S DEPARTURE THE HUNGARIAN GOVERNMENT HAD GIVEN PERMISSION FOR SOME 3,000 JEWS TO MIGRATE TO ISRAEL.

JACOBSON SAID HE WOULD VISIT WITH HIS WIFE AND TWO DAUGHTERS IN (2316 EAST 70TH ST.) CHICAGO, AND HIS PARENTS, MR.AND MRS.MORRIS JACOBSON, AT (673 AMHERST ST.) BUFFALO.

NEW YORK, JAN. 11-(AP)-THE UNITED NATIONS' INTERNATIONAL REFUGEE ORGANIZATION TODAY PROTESTED USE OF ITS NAME IN ADVERTISEMENTS OF A SALE OF EUROPEAN SILVERWARE.

THE SILVERWARE--ABOUT 28 TONS, WORTH SOME $2,500,000 (M)--WAS DESCRIBED AS HAVING BEEN LOOTED BY THE NAZIS.

THE REFUGEE AGENCY SAID THE GALLERY CONDUCTING THE SALE ALSO WOULJ RECEIVE A PROTEST FROM THE UNITED NATIONS AGAINST THE USE OF THE NAME "UNITED NATIONS GALLERIES, INC."

IRO, IN A LETTER FROM DAVID L.ROLBEIN OF ITS REPARATIONS OFFICE, SAID THE GALLERY'S USE OF IRO'S NAME GAVE THE IMPRESSION THAT THE IRO WAS SPONSORING THE SALE AND THAT THE GALLERY IS "DIRECTLY CONTRIBUTING TO THE ASSISTANCE OF DISPLACED PERSONS RATHER THAN CONDUCTING SALES FOR PRIVATE PROFIT."

IRWIN HALPERN, ATTORNEY FOR THE GALLERY, SAID THE MERCHANDISE WAS BOUGHT FROM IRO BY "PRIVATE BUSINESS INTEREST WHICH THE UNITED NATIONS GALLERIES, INC., NOW REPRESENTS."

HE SAID ANY STATEMENTS GIVING THE IMPRESSION THAT THE SALE WAS ANYTHING EXCEPT A PRIVATE ONE WERE "ENTIRELY WITHOUT OUR PERMISSION."

HOWEVER, HE SAID, THERE WAS NOTHING IN THE CONTRACTS FOR THE SALE OF THE SILVERWARE THAT PROHIBITED THE USE OF THE IRO'S NAME.

ADVERTISEMENTS SAID THE SILVER WAS "ACQUIRED FROM THE INTERNATIONAL REFUGEE ORGANIZATION OF THE UNITED NATIONS WHO USED THE PROCEEDS FROM THE SALE TO AID IN THE REHABILITATION OF DISPLACED PERSONS IN EUROPE."

NEW YORK, JAN. 11-(AP)-FOLLOWING IS THE TEXT OF THE STATEMENT ISSUED TONIGHT BY THE ISBRANDTSEN STEAMSHIP COMPANY:

THE TRADITIONAL EFFORTS OF OUR COUNTRY HAVE ALWAYS BEEN TO MAINTAIN THE "OPEN DOOR" DOCTRINE IN EAST ASIA.

OUR GOVERNMENT WAS INSTRUMENTAL IN ESTABLISHING THIS DOCTRINE AND HAS JEALOUSLY GUARDED IT THROUGH THE YEARS SO THAT WE IN THE UNITED STATES WOULD ALWAYS HAVE THE SAME OPPORTUNITIES THERE AS EVERY OTHER COUNTRY TO OBTAIN RAW MATERIALS MUCH NEEDED FOR OUR INDUSTRY HERE AND TO HAVE A LARGE MARKET THERE FOR THE DISPOSAL OF SURPLUS GOODS.

OUR COMPANY HAS OF LATE BEEN ABSORBING THE BRUNT OF THE EFFORT TO MTAINTAIN AND PROTECT THE AMERICAN FOREIGN COMMERCE WITH CHINA, IN WHICH EVERY AMERICAN DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY HAS A STAKE.

CERTAINLY OUR GOVERNMENT'S DUTY TO PROTECT OUR FOREIGN TRADE WHEREVER ENDANGERED IS OF PARAMOUNT IMPORTANCE. THERE HAS BEEN MUCH OF "LOOSE TALK" TO THE EFFECT THAT VESSELS OF OUR LINE ENGAGED IN REGULAR WORLD 'ROUND SERVICE ARE "BLOCKADE RUNNING," THE DEFINITION OF A CONTRABAND.

JAN 11 1950

WE RESTATE AT THIS TIME THESE FACTS:

(1) THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT HAS NEVER RECOGNIZED AS LEGAL A BLOCKADE OR PORT CLOSURE OF ANY CHINESE PORT. THIS OBVIOUSLY MEANS THAT THERE HAS NEVER EXISTED A BLOCKADE OF THE PORT OF SHANGHAI, ONE OF OUR REGULAR CALL PORTS. AS A MATTER OF FACT A STEAMSHIP LINE OWNED BY THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT IS PRESENTLY CALLING WITH CARGO AT CHINESE COMMUNIST-HELD PORTS IN CHINA.

(2) OUR VESSELS ARE NOT NOW AND NEVER HAVE CARRIED CONTRABAND OR COMBAT MATERIAL TO CHINA. IN THE WORDS OF THE STATE DEPARTMENT ITSELF: "NOBODY QUESTIONS THAT THE ATTACK UPON THE FLYING ARROW TOOK PLACE IN INTERNATIONAL WATERS OR OUTSIDE THE AREA OVER WHICH CHINA CAN CLAIM JURISDICTION."

AT THE SAME TIME VICE ADMIRAL BERKEY, COMMANDER OF THE 7TH TASK FORCE IN THE ORIENT, WHEN ADVISED OF THE ATTACK ON THE "FLYING ARROW", STATED THAT UNITED STATES NAVY VESSELS WILL IN FUTURE PROTECT UNITED STATES MERCHANT VESSELS OUTSIDE CHINESE TERRITORIAL WATERS.

IT IS ONLY THAT PROTECTION, PLUS PROTECTION IN THE EXERCISE OF THE CLEARLY DEFINED RIGHTS OF AMERICAN VESSELS TO FREE ACCESS OF ALL THE WORLD PORTS, WHICH IS WHAT WE HAVE ASKED OUR NAVY AND GOVERNMENT FOR FROM THE BEGINNING OF THIS UNFORTUNATE SERIES OF EVENTS INTO WHICH WE HAVE BEEN CATAPULTED.

JAN 11 1950

B29 Q

IF THE NAVY HAD DONE THIS EARLIER AS DIRECTED BY CONGRESS IN NAVY REGULATIONS, ARTICLE 0320, ALL OF THE UNLAWFUL CHINESE ATTACKS ON OUR SHIPS WOULD HAVE BEEN PREVENTED.

HOWEVER, ON THE BASIS OF THE MASTER'S REPORTS AS TO DISTRESS AND OTHER CIRCUMSTANCES, THE "FLYING ARROW" IS NOW PROCEEDING TO TSINGTAO AS THE NEAREST SAFE PORT. WE HAVE ADVISED HIM THAT HE AND HIS CREW HAVE DONE EVERYTHING HUMANLY POSSIBLY TO GET THE SHIP TO SHANGHAI TO PROTECT LIFE AND PROPERTY AND IN VIEW OF THE UNEXPECTED AND UNWARRANTED ATTACK UPON HIM WE DO NOT CONSIDER IT JUSTIFIED TO EXPOSE THE VESSEL AND CREW TO FURTHER LAWLESSNESS.

WE ARE NOT, HOWEVER, ABANDONING OR INTERRUPTING OUR REGULAR SERVICES TO HONGKONG AND OTHER CHINESE PORTS WHICH WE HAVE MAINTAINED FOR YEARS AND INTEND TO MAINTAIN.

BY A.I. GOLDBERG

LAKE SUCCESS, JAN.11-(AP)-NATIONALIST CHINA WON A STAY OF LIFE IN THE UNITED NATIONS SECURITY COUNCIL YESTERDAY AT THE EXPENSE OF A RUSSIAN WALKOUT.

JAKOB MALIK, SOVIET DEPUTY FOREIGN MINISTER, MARCHED OUT OF THE COUNCIL HALL AFTER CHALLENGING THE RIGHT OF T.F.TSIANG, NATIONALIST CHINA'S CHIEF DELEGATE, TO SIT AS JANUARY CHAIRMAN OF THE 11-NATION BODY OR TO STAY ON THE COUNCIL AT ALL.

MALIK SAID THAT UNLESS TSIANG WAS EXPELLED IMMEDIATELY THE RUSSIAN DELEGATION WOULD TAKE NO PART IN COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS AND THAT IT WOULD NOT RETURN UNTIL TSIANG'S DELEGATION WAS KICKED OUT. THE COMMUNIST GOVERNMENT AT PEIPING HAS SAID THE NATIONALIST REGIME NO LONG REPRESENTS THE CHINESE PEOPLE.

TSIANG RULED THE QUESTION OF HIS EXPULSION SHOULD BE DELAYED UNTIL THE COUNCIL COULD STUDY THE SOVIET OUSTER RESOLUTION. MALIK, ADDRESSING THE "FELLOW MEMBERS OF THE COUNCIL" AND IGNORING TSIANG'S CHAIRMANSHIP, SAID HE COULD ACCEPT NO RULING FROM TSIANG.

THE CHINESE DELEGATION HEAD PUT HIS CHALLENGED RULING TO A VOTE. ONLY YUGOSLAVIA--A NEW MEMBER ELECTED TO THE COUNCIL LAST OCTOBER OVER RUSSIA'S BITTER PROTEST--VOTED WITH RUSSIA.

INDIA, ANOTHER NEW MEMBER, ABSTAINED. EIGHT OTHER NATIONS VOTED TO UPHOLD TSIANG'S DECISION. THE SOVIET RESOLUTION WILL BE TAKEN UP AT ANOTHER MEETING AT 3 P.M. (EST) TOMORROW.

MALIK WAS FOLLOWED OUT OF THE CHAMBER BY DEPUTY SEMYEON TSARAPKIN AND OTHERS IN HIS LARGE ADVISORY GROUP. HE DECLINED ANY COMMENT OFF THE FLOOR.

OF THE NATIONS THAT VOTED TO UPHOLD TSIANG'S RULING, BRITAIN AND NORWAY HAVE RECOGNIZED THE NEW CHINESE COMMUNIST GOVERNMENT OF MAO TZE-TUNG. SO HAS INDIA. BRITAIN'S SIR ALEXANDER CADOGAN SAID HE THOUGHT RUSSIA'S MOVE TO OUST THE NATIONALIST CHINESE WAS PREMATURE. A MAJORITY OF GOVERNMENTS, HE REMARKED, HAVE NOT YET RECOGNIZED MAO.

RUSSIA AND THE SOVIET BLOC THREATENED "PAINFUL CONSEQUENCES" AFTER THE U.N. ASSEMBLY LAST FALL ELECTED YUGOSLAVIA TO THE SECURITY COUNCIL OVER THEIR CANDIDATE, CZECHOSLOVAKIA, BUT THERE WAS NO OUTWARD SIGN OF RUSSIAN HOSTILITY TOWARD YUGOSLAVIA HERE YESTERDAY. MALIK WOULD MAKE NO COMMENT ON THE SUPPORTING VOTE CAST BY YUGOSLAV DELEGATE ALES BEBLER.

YUGOSLAVIA HAS RECOGNIZED THE CHINESE RED GOVERNMENT BUT THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS HAVE GIVEN NO PUBLIC SIGN THAT THEY HAVE NOTICED BELGRADE'S RECOGNITION. BEBLER'S HAND SHOT UP BELATEDLY IN THE VOTING YESTERDAY. IN PREVIOUS U.N. SESSIONS BEBLER HAS CHALLENGED THE RIGHT OF THE NATIONALIST CHINESE DELEGATION TO REPRESENT CHINA.

A17

JAN 11 1950

YUGOSLAVIA REPLACED THE SOVIET UKRAINE ON THE COUNCIL; INDIA SUCCEEDED CANADA; ECUADOR SUCCEEDED ARGENTINA.

THE COUNCIL DID NOT REACH ITS SCHEDULED AGENDA MATTER, A PROPOSAL FOR A CENSUS OF NON-ATOMIC ARMS AND ARMED FORCES OF THE U.N. MEMBERS. THE NEW UNITED STATES DELEGATE, ERNEST GROSS, SUGGESTED THAT THE MATTER NOT BE CONSIDERED UNTIL THE CHINESE DISPUTE IS OUT FROM UNDER ITS CLOUD.

THE SOVIET MOVE WAS THE FIRST STEP TO IMPLEMENT RED CHINA'S MOVE TO GET INTO THE UNITED NATIONS. MALIK READ INTO THE RECORD A LETTER TO THE U.N. FROM PEIPING'S FOREIGN MINISTER CHOU EN-LAI CALLING FOR EXPULSION OF THE "DELEGATES OF THE CHINESE KUOMINTANG REACTIONARY REMNANT CLIQUE" FROM THE SECURITY COUNCIL.

THE SUDDENNESS AND THE DEFINITENESS OF THE SOVIET ACTION IN THE FIRST SECURITY COUNCIL MEETING OF 1950 PUT IN CLEAR PERSPECTIVE ITS DESIRE TO GET RED CHINA INTO THE U.N. WITH THE VETO POWER OF A PERMANENT MEMBERSHIP NOW HELD BY NATIONALIST CHINA.

STATE DEPARTMENT OFFICIALS IN WASHINGTON SAID THEY DID NOT EXPECT THE SOVIET WALKOUT TO BLOCK SECURITY COUNCIL WORK. THEY POINTED OUT THE RUSSIANS HAD WALKED OUT IN 1946 WHEN THE COUNCIL WAS DISCUSSING THE PROBLEM OF WITHDRAWING SOVIET TROOPS FROM IRAN. AT THAT TIME THE COUNCIL CONTINUED ITS WORK WITHOUT INTERRUPTION.

Russia Taking Over Four Vast Areas Of North China

JAN 12 1950

Grab May Halt Soviet Orient Drive

JAN 12 1950

Washington, Jan. 12—(AP)—Secretary of State Acheson today accused Russia of taking over vast areas of Northern China, including Manchuria, in a far reaching sweep of Soviet Communist imperialism.

He pictured this development as a great opportunity for U. S foreign policy in the Far East. The best way for this country to win friends an dtspoC-p and stop communism, he contended, is to pursue its policy of fostering the independence of Asiatic peoples and their economic well being.

By contrast, Acheson declared, Russia's actions in Northern China will arouse the "righteous anger and wrath" of the Chinese people and show up the Soviet Union as an imperialistic power throughout Asia.

"The only thing that can obscure it," he said, "is the folly of ill-conceived adventures on our part x x x nothing we do or say must be allowed to obscure this fact."

The areas which Russia is in the process of taking over, Acheson said, are Manchuria, Outer Mongolia, Inner Mongolia, and Sinkiang. His accusation was the first such to be made by a top Western official although authorities here have let it be known that they suspected Russian expansion was under way in Northern China—despite the fact that China has come under Chinese Communist rule.

Blue Ribbon Audience

For the first time since the issuance of the China White Paper last summer, Acheson spoke out publicly on the Far East in a speech at the National Press Club here. His blue ribbon audience of congressional leaders, State Department officials and reporters applauded long and loud when he sat down.

He touched only briefly upon the continuing controversy over whether the United States should intervene with Armed Forces—Senator Taft (R-Ohio) and others have suggested using the Navy to protect Formosa. But Acheson heavily emphasized his warning that the United States should avoid any "adventures" which would turn the expected anger of the Chinese from Russia to the United States or cover in any way what the Russians are up to.

At the same time, those who might have expected that Acheson would unveil specific plans for dramatic American action to try to hold or turn back the tide of communism in Asia could find in his talk little if anything to support their expectations .

$75,000,000 Fund

He recalled that the Administration has a $75,000,000 fund from the last session of Congress to use in the area of China against communism but did not say how it would be used. As for the present session of Congress, Acheson said that what the Government wants is authority to do better the things which it has been trying to do all along—that is to help the peoples of Asia to help themselves. The Administration is pressing Congress for action soon on a program to make available to backward countries American scientific and industrial know-how and capital investments.

Hits Back At Critics

Several times Acheson struck out at the critics of the Government's Far Eastern policy. Evidently referring to yesterday's suggestion by Senator Taft that there is no doubt that a little American aid now would save Formosa, Acheson said there are "no infallible judgements" in the field of foreign relations.

With an obvious jibe at Taft, Acheson said he was reminded of a judge who said: "This court is often in error, but never in doubt."

President Truman also took a crack at Taft at his news conference today, saying he did not know the senator was a military expert.

At another point Acheson said that there had been charges that the success of the Communists in China had been the result of American bungling, of a policy of too little and too late, of the fact that some American general did not like Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek.

"Stop Looking Under Bed"

"I ask you to stop looking under the bed, the chairs and the rug" for the reasons for Chiang's collapse, Acheson said, and to look instead "at the broad picture" of what happened in China.

What actually happened, Acheson said, was that the "almost inexhaustible patience of the Chinese people" with Chiang's leadership finally ended and his Government no longer had popular support. There was also, he said, "the grossest incompetence" in the military leadership of the Chinese Nationalists. The Communists, Acheson continued, did not create the revolutionary force which welled up against Chiang but they rode that force into power.

Reason For Policy

America's traditional policy toward the people of Asia, Acheson said, has been founded on interest in the Asiatic people themselves and in their independence and has therefore paralleled rather than conflicted with what the people of Asia wanted.

He said that almost every day he heard someone say that the "real interest of the United States is to stop the spread of communism" in Asia but he declared that American policy is motivated by a deeper reason.

"Communism is the most subtle instrument of Soviet policies which has ever been devised," he said. "It is the spearhead of Soviet imperialism."

And it is because communism is "hostile to our interest in the peoples of Asia as people, in their independence, that we want to stop communism," Acheson said.

Imperialism, Soviet Policy

The attitude of Russia, particularly in Northern China, is far older than communism, he said.

"But the Communist regime has added new methods, new skills, and new concepts to the thrust of Russian imperialism," Acheson said. "This communistic concept and these techniques have armed Russian imperialists with a new and most insidious weapon of penetration.

"Armed with these new powers, what is happening in China is that the Soviet Union is detaching the northern areas of China from China, and is attaching them to the Soviet Union. This process is complete in outer Mongolia. It is nearly complete in Manchuria and I am sure that in Inner Mongolia and in Sinkiang there are very happy reports coming from Soviet agents to Moscow."

Sees Soviet-China Split

Acheson went on to say that "this fact that the Soviet Union is taking four provinces (the State Department corrected this word to "areas") of China is the single most important fact in the relations of any foreign power" with the countries of the Far East.

He made clear that in his opinion this fact must be a foundation stone of American policy because, he implied, it opens the possibility of a split between Russia and China eventually and it dramatizes Russian imperialism in Asia against the Nationalist aspirations of the Asiatic people.

Pacific Defense Line

Acheson then touched on American military concerns in the Western Pacific, opening with the statement that the "military menace" is not the most immediate problem before the United States in that part of the world.

He pictured the defense system as based on a line running from Japan where this country has occupation forces through the Ryukyu Islands (which include the American base on Okinawa) into the Philippines. This, he said, is the defense permimeter and he declared that regardless of what arrangements are made about an eventual settlement with Japan the American defenses of the Japanese islands "must and shall be maintained."

Beyond the defense perimeter he outlined, Acheson said, "it must be clear that no person can guarantee" the security of other Far Eastern areas against attack.

Should an atack occur, he said, initial reliance must be placed upon the people atacked and then upon the United Nations.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12 (AP).—Following is a partial text of Secretary of State Dean Acheson's speech on Far Eastern policy today, as released by the State Department: JAN 12 1950

Now, I stress this, which you may think is a platitude, because of a very important fact: I hear almost every day some one say that the real interest of the United States is to stop the spread of Communism. Nothing seems to me to put the cart before the horse more completely than that.

Of course we are interested in stopping the spread of Communism. But we are interested for a far deeper reason than any conflict between the Soviet Union and the United States. We are interested in stopping the spread of Communism because Communism is a doctrine that we don't happen to like. Communism is the most subtle instrument of Soviet foreign policy that has ever been devised and it is really the spearhead of Russian imperialism which would, if it could, take from these people what they have won, what we want them to keep and develop which is their own national independence, their own individual independence, their own development of their own resources for their own good and not as mere tributary states to this great Soviet Union.

Now, it is fortunate that this point that I made does not represent any real conflict. It is an important point because pepole will do more damage and create more misrepresentation in the Far East by saying our interest is merely to stop the spread of Communism than any other way. Our real interest is in those people as people. It is because Communism is hostile to that interest that we want to stop it. But it happens that the best way of doing both things is to do just exactly what the peoples of Asia want to do and what we want to help them to do, which is to develop a soundness and administration of these new governments and to develop their resources and their technical skills so that they are not subject to penetration either through ignorance or because they believe these false promises, or because there is real distress in their areas. If we can help that development, if we can go forward with it, then we have brought about the best way that any one knows of stopping this spread of Communism.

Accuses Soviet Union

Now, let me come to another underlying and important factor which determines our relations and, in turn, our policy with the peoples of Asia. That is the attitude of the Soviet Union toward Asia and particularly toward those parts of Asia which are continguous to the Soviet Union, and with great particularity this afternoon to North China.

The attitude and interest of the Russians in North China, and in these other areas as well long antedates Communism. But the Communist regime has added new methods, new skills and new concerpts to the thrust of Russian imperialism. This Communistic concept and techniques have armed Russian imperialism with a new and most insidious weapon of penetration.

Armed with these new powers, what is happening in China is that the Soviet Union is detaching the northern provinces (areas) of China from China and is attaching them to the Soviet Union. This process is complete in Outer Mongolia. It is nearly complete in Manchuria and I am sure that in Inner Mongolia and in Sinkiang, there are very happy reports coming from Soviet agents to Moscow. This is what is going on. It is the detachment of these whole areas, vast areas—populated by Chinese—the detachment of these areas from China and their attachment to the Soviet Union.

I should like to suggest that this fact that the Soviet Union is taking the four northern provinces of China is the single most significant, most important fact, in the relation of any foreign power with Asia.

What does that mean for us? It means something very, very significant. It means that nothing that we do and nothing that we say must be allowed to obscure the realty of this fact. All the efforts of propaganda will not be able to obscure it. The only thing that can obscure it is the folly of ill-conceived adventures on our part which easily could do so. And I urge all who are thinking about these foolish adventures to remember that we must not seize the unenviable position which the Russians have carved out for themselves.

Wrath of the People

We must not undertake to deflect from the Russians to ourselves the righteous anger and the wrath and the hatred of the Chinese people which must develop. It would be folly to deflect it to ourselves. We must take the position we have always taken that any one who violates the integrity of China is the enemy of China and is acting contrary to our own interest. That, I suggest to you this afternoon, is the first and the greatest rule in regard to the formulation of American policy toward Asia.

I suggest that the second rule is very like the first. That is to keep our own purposes perfectly straight, perfectly pure and perfectly above-board and do not get them mixed up with legal quibbles or the attempt to do one thing and really achieve another.

The consequences of this Russian attitude and this Russian action in China are perfectly enormous. They are saddling all those in China who are proclaiming their loyalty to Moscow, and who are allowing themselves to be used as puppets of Moscow, with the most awful responsibility which they must pay for. Furthermore, these actions of the Russians are making plainer than any speech or any utterance or any legislation can make throughout all of Asia what the true purposes of the Soviet Union are and what the true function of Communism as an agent of Russian imperialism is. These I suggest to you are the fundamental factors, fundamental realities of attitude out of which our relations and policies must grow.

Military Security

Now let's in the light of that consider some of these policies. First of all, let's deal with the question of military security. I deal with it first because it is important and because, having stated our policy in that regard, we must clearly understand that the military menace is not the most immediate.

What is the situation in regard to the military security of the Pacific area and what is our policy in regard to it?

In the first place the defeat and the disarmament of Japan has placed upon the United States the necessity of assuming the military defense of Japan so long as that is required, both in the interest of our security and in the interest of the security of the entire Pacific area and in all honor in the interest of Japanese security. We have American and there are Australian troops in Japan. I am not in a position to speak for the Australians but I can assure you that there is no intention of any sort of abandoning or weakening the defenses of Japan and that whatever arrangements are to be made either through permanent settlement or otherwise, that defense must and shall be maintained.

This defensive perimeter runs along the Aleutians to Japan and then goes to the Ryukyus. We hold important defense positions in the Ryukyu Islands and those we will continue to hold. In the interest of the population of the Ryukyu Islands, we will at an appropriate time offer to hold these islands under trusteeship of the United Nations. But they are essential parts of the defensive perimeter of the Pacific and they must and will be held.

The defensive perimeter runs from the Ryukyus to the Philippine Islands. Our relations, our defensive relations with the Philippines are contained in agreements between us. Those agreements are being loyally carried out and will be loyally carried out. Both peoples have learned by bitter experience the vital connections between our mutual defense requirements. We are in no doubt about that and it is hardly necessary for me to say an attack on the Philippines could not and would not be tolerated by the United States. But I hasten to add that no one perceives the imminence of any such attack.

Reliance on U. N.

So far as the military security of other areas in the Pacific is concerned, it must be clear that no person can guarantee these areas against military attack. But it must also be clear that such a guaranty is hardly sensible or necessary within the realm of practical relationship. Should such an attack occur—one hesitates to say where such an armed attack could come from—the initial reliance must be on the people attacked to resist it and then upon the commitments of the entire civilized world under the Charter of the United Nations, which so far has not proved a weak reed to lean on by any people who are determined to protect their independence against outside aggression.

But it is a mistake, I think, in considering Pacific and Far Eastern problems to become obsessed with military considerations. Important as they are, there are other problems that press and these other problems are not capable of solution through military means. These other problems arise out of the susceptibility of many areas and many countries in the Pacific area to subversion and penetration. That can not be stopped by military means.

The susceptibility to penetration arises because in many areas there are new governments which have little experience in governmental administration and have not become firmly established or perhaps firmly accepted in their countries. They grow in part from very serious economic problems, some of them growing out directly from the last war, others growing indirectly out of the last war because of the disruptions of trade with other parts of the world, with the disruption of arrangements which furnished credit and management to these areas for many years. That has resulted in dislocation of economic effort and in a good deal of suffering among the peoples concerned. In part this susceptibility to penetration comes from the great social upheaval about which I have been speaking, an upheaval which was carried on and confused a great deal by the Japanese occupation and by the propaganda which has gone on from Soviet sources since the war.

Here then are the problems in these other areas which require some policy on our part, and I should like to point out two facts to you and then discuss in more detail some of these areas.

The first fact is the great difference between our responsibilities and our opportunities in the northern part of the Pacific area and in the southern part of the Pacific area. In the north, we have direct responsibility in Japan and we have direct opportunity to act. The same thing to a lesser degree is true in Korea. There we had direct responsibility and there we did act and there we have a greater opportunity to be effective than we have in the more southerly part.

In the southerly part of the area, we are one of many nations who can do no more than help. The direct responsibility lies with the peoples concerned. They are proud of their new national responsibility. You can not sit around in Washington or London or Paris or The Hague and determine what the policies are going to be in those areas. You can be willing to help and you can help only when the conditions are right for help to be effective.

That leads me to the other thing that I wanted to point out and that is the limitation of effective American assistance. American assistance can be effective when it is the missing component in a situation which might otherwise be solved. The United States can not furnish all these components to solve the question. It can not furnish determination, it can not furnish the will and it can not furnish the loyalty of a people to its government. But if the will and if the determination exists and if the people are behind their government, then, and not always then, is there a very good chance. In that situation American help can be effective and it can lead to an accomplishment which could not otherwise be achieved.

So after this survey, what we conclude, I believe, is that there is a new day which has dawned in Asia. It is a day in which the Asian peoples are on their own and know it and intend to continue on their own. It is a day in which the old relationships between East and West are gone, relationships which at their worst were exploitation and which at their best were paternalism.

That relationship is over and the relationship of East and West must now be in the Far East one of mutual respect and mutual helpfulness. We are their friends. Others are their friends. We and those others are willing to help but we can help only where we are wanted and only where the conditions of help are really sensible and possible.

So what we can see is that this new day in Asia, this new day which is dawning, may go on to a glorious noon or it may darken and it may drizzle out. But that decision lies within the countries of Asia and within the power of the Asian people. It is not a decision which a friend or even an enemy from the outside can decide for them.

DEATH PENALTY SET IN SOVIET

Revival Applies To Traitors, Spies And Saboteurs

London, Friday, Jan. 13 (AP)—Tass said today the Soviet Union has revived the death penalty for use against traitors, spies and saboteurs.

The Moscow dispatch of the Soviet news agency was distributed in London by the Soviet monitor. The death penalty was revived, the dispatch said, by the Presidium of the Supreme Soviet which issued a decree dated yesterday.

Action was taken by the Presidium, Tass said, "in view of receipt of statements from national republics, trade unions and peasant organizations, as well as from cultural leaders" that such a step was needed.

May Foreshadow Trials

The Tass dispatch did not indicate the contents of these statements.

There was some speculation in London that the decree may foreshadow a new series of prosecutions on the order of the 1937 Moscow treason trials.

The Presidium of the Supreme Soviet abolished the death penalty throughout the U.S.S.R. May 26, 1947.

The text of the Tass dispatch follows:

A decree of the Presidium of the Supreme Soviet of the U.S.S.R., on the application of the death penalty to traitors to the homeland, spies and saboteurs has been published.

Statements From Republics

In view of the receipt of statements from the national republics, trade unions and peasant organizations, as well as from cultural leaders on the need to introduce changes in the decree abolishing the death penalty so that this decree should not apply to traitors to the homeland, spies and saboteurs, the Presidium of the Supreme Soviet of the U.S.S.R. resolves:

1. As an exception to the decree of the Presidium of the Supreme Soviet of the U.S.S.R. of May 26, 1947, on the abolition of the death penalty, to allow the application of the death penalty as the highest measure of punishment for traitors to the homeland, spies, and saboteurs.

2. The present decree is to go into force from the date of its publication.

Signed by the President of the Presidium of the Supreme Soviet of the U.S.S.R., N. M. Shvernik.

Secretary of the Presidium of the Supreme Soviet of the U.S.S.R., A. F. Gorkin.

Single-Party Government Now Expected In Italy

Rome, Jan. 12 (AP)—Premier Alcide de Gasperi and his anti-Communist coalition Cabinet resigned today in a move that may give Italy its first one-party Government since the war.

The shakeup, agreed upon at a Cabinet session last night, was promised two months ago. De Gasperi, whose Christian Democrat party controls Parliament, was expected again to be President Luigi Einaudi's choice to form a new Government.

The outgoing Cabinet meanwhile remained in office temporarily.

Anti-Red Gesture

A strong faction of De Gasperi's party favors a Government made up entirely of Christian Democrats. The Premier has said Italy should have a coalition Government because many voters, not actually Christian Democrats, vote for his strongly Catholic party as an anti-Communist gesture.

The outgoing Cabinet included a few Liberals (actually conservative in policy), moderate to left Republicans and Independents.

The Cabinet reorganization was promised last October when three anti-Communist Labor Socialist Ministers resigned because of trouble within their own party. The Cabinet had been in office since the landslide Christian Democrat victory in the April, 1948, elections.

May Have Trouble

In forming a new coalition De Gasperi might have difficulty getting co-operation from the Liberals, who presently are torn over the issue of continued participation in a Catholic-dominated Government.

Neither the Republicans, whose leader is Foreign Minister Count Carlo Sforza, nor the Labor Socialists (PSLI) now would object to joining a new Cabinet, however.

De Gasperi has no serious opponent for the premiership. But President Einaudi began consultations with Italian political leaders.

Meanwhile, Italy's second largest party, the Communists, and left-wing Socialists allied with them, tried to exploit to the utmost the shooting by police of six workers during a strike riot in Modena on Monday.

The Communists held a four-hour general strike yesterday in Rome. Non-Communists did not strike. Communist massmeetings were held in Rome and Modena.

Interior Minister Mario Scelba, whose police have been the main obstacle to Leftist disorders, told the Cabinet yesterday the Modena riots were well planned in advance. The Cabinet supported the police action.

ITALY REGIME TO REORGANIZE

Cabinet Resignation May Lead To Single Party Rule

JAN 12 1950

Rome, Jan. 12 (AP)—The resignation of Premier Alcide de Gasperi and his anti-Communist coalition Cabinet today cleared the way for the first major reorganization of Italy's Government since the defeat of communism in the 1948 elections.

De Gasperi's action brought a "crisis" only in name. The outgoing Cabinet—the fifth coalition lineup de Gasperi has headed since 1945, will remain in office at least temporarily on a caretaker basis.

Single Party Demands

Not a seasoned political observer doubted that the the 68-year-old Christian Democrat will be charged with forming his sixth government. The Christian Democrats have an absolute majority in the Chamber of Deputies and control the Senate.

The only unanswered question was whether de Gasperi will try another coalition or give Italy her first one-party government since the war.

Since he led his party to victory over a Communist-formed Popular Front in April, 1948, de Gasperi has insisted on maintaining a coalition Cabinet.

Recently, however, a growing faction in the Christian Democrat ranks has thumped for a single party—Christian Democrat—Government. Their demands have been widely publicized in the opposition press, but there was no way of measuring their influence in party councils.

Would Lose Sforza

The Cabinet decided last night to resign. It is made up of eleven Christian Democrat ministers, two Liberals, two Republicans and one Independent.

Should the Christian Democratic faction win out in its demand for a single-party cabinet in the current reorganization, the major casualty would be the Foreign Minister, Carlo Sforza, the Republican leader. Sforza has been Foreign Minister since February, 1947. He has come under attack at various times from Rightists who contend he could have salvaged more than he did of Italy's colonial empire since he signed the peace treaty.

Giovanni Gronchi, president of the Chamber of Deputies and leader of the Left Wing in the Christian Democrat party, attacked Sforza at the party's national convention in December

Labor Socialists Quit

The out-going Cabinet was short three members. Last October 31, the anti-Communist Labor Socialist party's three members quit because of internal dissension over co-operation with the Christian Democrat majority party.

At that time, de Gasperi decided on the reorganization and did not fill their places. Instead, three of his party's ministers took on the additional portfolios.

In forming a new coalition de Gasperi might have difficulty getting co-operation from the Liberals, who presently are torn over the issue of continued participation in a Catholic-dominated government. De Gasperi has no serious opponent for the premiership. President Luigi Einaudi, however, consulted with other political leaders today.

France Rounds Up 50 Poles And Expels 18

Paris, Jan. 12 (AP)—France rounded up about 50 more Poles today on charges of interfering in French politics and eighteen were immediately escorted to the border for expulsion.

Pierre Berteaux, head of the French security police, said some others would be expelled, but only those "actually involved in some political activity."

Since France and Communist-ruled Poland began arresting and expelling one another's citizens in mid-November, about 40 Poles have been sent out of the country, Berteaux estimated.

The French Foreign Ministry said 21 Frenchmen have been expelled from Poland since November 18. The Warsaw Government ordered another Frenchman yesterday to leave Poland by next Wednesday night. He is Gaston de Leau, an administration clerk in the French Embassy.

Albanian Leader Sentenced To Death By Yugoslav Court

Skoplje, Yugoslavia, Jan. 12—(AP)—A Yugoslav court today condemned to death the leader of 10 Albanians accused of spying for the Moscow-led Cominform and sentenced the other nine to terms of from five to 20 years at hard labor.

The doomed man is Sali Lisi, 27-year-old hunchback.

The judgment came at the end of a four-day trial in which the prosecution charged this group was a cog in a general plot by the Cominform countries against the government of Premier-Marshal Tito.

The Government charged Yugoslavia's neighbor, Communist Albania, had "lost its character as a sovereign state and had become a puppet" of the Kremlin and a place for the organization of anti-Yugoslav plots.

Only a month ago Yugoslavia convicted 10 Russians, erstwhile refugees from the Soviet Union, of working either for the wartime Nazis or the Soviet Union after the war. This trial was at Sarajevo. The Yugoslavs also have convicted a group of Hungarians on similar charges.

Bulgars Arrest 64 Yugoslavs

Sofia, Bulgaria, Jan. 12 (AP)—The Government press department said tonight 64 of 70 alleged Yugoslav security police sent into Bulgaria for what the department termed espionage tasks have been arrested.

Finnish Cabinet Upheld

Wins Confidence Vote on General Wage Increase for Workers

HELSINKI, Jan. 12 (AP).—Finland's Parliament, by a 90 to 69 vote of confidence, today approved general wage increases agreed to by Premier Karl August Fagerholm's Cabinet.

It was the fifth vote of confidence the Cabinet has won in its year and a half history.

The Social Democrat government had ordered a 7.5 per cent general wage increase after the Trade Union Federation asked for a 10 per cent raise. Conservatives opposed the move in a fifteen-hour debate which preceded the voting.

Mr. Fagerholm's Cabinet is due to resign in mid-February in accordance with the Finnish Constitution after the Presidential election.

Flying Arrow Is at Tsingtao; Escort Leaves

American Freighter Will Repair Damage Caused by Nationalist Shelling

JAN 12 1950

By Wayne Richardson
Associated Press Correspondent

ABOARD THE FLYING ARROW, Friday, Jan. 13.—The Flying Arrow today reached the Communist port of Tsingtao, where it will repair the damage wrought by shells of a Chinese Nationalist gunboat. The ship arrived shortly before 1 p. m. Tsingtao time (midnight Thursday, Eastern standard time).

The American destroyer Baussell, which had accompanied the American freighter on the 350-mile voyage northward from the Yangtze River's mouth, left eight miles outside Tsingtao.

No Nationalist gunboats were sighted on the voyage. It was a gunboat that shot up the freighter Monday as it neared the Yangtze en route to Nationalist-blocked Shanghai.

Captain David Jones, the freighter's skipper, messaged the destroyer as it prepared to leave, thanking the commander for a job well done.

The ship is expected to remain in Tsingtao seven days while repairs are made to the damage caused by the gunboat shelling.

It is unlikely that Communist authorities will permit the sending of dispatches during the stay in Tsingtao.

[At Taipei, Formosa, the Nationalist Deputy Foreign Minister, Shih Chao-ying, said the port closure instituted by the Nationalists against Chinese harbors in Communist hands would be kept in force at the risk of another Flying Arrow incident.]

Arrow Departs, Escorted By U.S. Warship

JAN 12 1950

By Wayne Richardson

Aboard the Flying Arrow, Jan. 12 (AP)—Escorted by the United States destroyer Baussell, this shot-riddled American freighter headed tonight for the mine-free Chinese Communist port of Tsingtao, on Shantung Peninsula.

Apparently the destroyer was going all the way to Chinese territorial waters with the Flying Arrow, for five hours after the anchor was hoisted she steamed alongside the freighter on a 350-mile cruise to the former base of the United States Far Eastern Fleet.

"For Protection," Navy Says

[In Washington, the Navy said the Baussell is escorting the Flying Arrow in order to provide "protection" for the merchant ship. There was no elaboration, but presumably this means that the destroyer will intervene if the Chinese Nationalist warships again attempt to attack the Flying Arrow in international waters.]

The Flying Arrow, blasted by many Nationalist gunboat shells, had to get under way from her anchorage off Shanghai, Capt. David Jones feared her No. 5 hold would explode.

Water Causes Expansion

Water used to extinguish a fire in the hold caused expansion of the cargo of jute, baled cotton and caustic soda. Her master said the danger of an explosion was so pressing he considered it dangerous to wait and try to get into Shanghai, blockaded and mined by the Chinese Nationalists.

The ship's owners, the Isbrandtsen Line, of New York, also ordered the vessel to Tsingtao.

The Flying Arrow was hit by about 40 Nationalist gunboat shells Monday on the high seas off Shanghai, her distination from Hong Kong.

Nationalists Announce Plans

[In Taipei, Formosa, Nationalist Chinese headquarters announced that the Chinese Navy would try to keep Communist ports closed, even at the risk of further incidents.

[Foreign Vice Minister Shih Chao-ying said the shelling of the Flying Arrow was a "necessary step in the enforcement of the closure order."

[He added: "A sovereign power has the right to prescribe regulations for its ports and sanctions for ships violating them, regardless of their nationality."

Called Fact-Finding Talk

[Shih disclosed that Robert Strong, United States charge d'affaires, discussed the Flying Arrow incident on Wednesday with Foreign Minister George Yeh. Shih said "no document in the nature of a protest has been received." He said Strong's visit was of a fact-finding and exploratory nature.

[Whether this new pronouncement from the Nationalist capital on Formosa presaged an attempt by the Nationalists to stop the Flying Arrow from reaching Tsingtao was not clear.]

A Chinese gunboat has shadowed the Flying Arrow since the Monday shelling, staying within 8 miles of the American ship.

[Richardson's dispatch from the ship did not say whether the gunboat was trailing the Flying Arrow on her move to the North China port.]

Decides To Avoid Risk

In ordering the Flying Arrow to Tsingtao as the nearest safe port, an Isbrandtsen statement in New York said:

"In view of the unexpected and unwarranted attack (upon it), we do not consider it justified to expose the vessel and crew (43 crewmen and twelve passengers) to further lawlessness."

The Isbrandtsen statement did not say whether the Brooklyn Heights, a sister ship of the Flying Arrow in Hong Kong, would be diverted from its projected voyage to Shanghai.

British Ship Nears River

While the Flying Arrow still was at anchor in international waters off the Yangtze estuary this morning, the British freighter Elsie Moller, out of Hong Kong, edged toward the river mouth, but remained outside Chinese waters. A Nationalist gunboat and destroyer escort slid toward her.

The British sloop Black Swan skimmed toward the Chinese warships but they edged back into Chinese territorial waters. No shots were fired but it was a crucial moment in the Yangtze estuary incident.

[It is possible the Elsie Moller, a light-draft craft of about 1,000 tons, slipped into Shanghai during the night.

[Because of her draft, the small coastal trader, operated by Moller Hong Kong, Ltd., an affiliate of Moller United Kingdom, Ltd., in New York, could take the north passage into Shanghai which is well protected from Nationalist gunboats by Communist big shore guns.]

Mao Seen Finding Russ Hard Bargainers

Hong Kong, Jan. 12 (AP)—The unprecedented stay of Chinese Communist Leader Mao Tze-tung in Moscow indicated today he is finding the Russians hard bargainers.

Four weeks ago he left China for conferences with Stalin. Mao arrived in the Russian capital December 16. He is still there.

Customary procedure for a high-level international conference in Moscow is for senior members of a mission to remain only a few days. Then they leave subordinates behind to iron out details.

Does his prolonged stay mean he is finding the Russian price too high? That is the opinion of experts here.

Mission Believed Urgent

China observers think Mao seeks economic aid for Red China. That he left his country at this time underlined the urgency of his mission.

He likely is requesting relief from the Manchurian barter agreement. Concluded last summer, it calls for Manchuria to provide agricultural products to the Soviet Union in return for manufactured goods.

It has caused resentment in food-short China. Reliable sources say even food-rich Manchuria cannot now meet the export quota for Russia. North China, although plagued with famine, has been asked to make up the deficit.

Anger Against Russia

The result: new anger has been stirred up against the Russians.

Some observers say the Chinese Reds must have economic help if conditions are to be improved fast enough to consolidate them in power.

Reports from inside China picture it as an economic quagmire. There seems to be little prospect the Reds can pull themselves out unaided.

What Stalin is asking in return for such aid will affect the whole course of events in Asia. ADD

No British Order On Blockade

JAN 12 1950

Hong Kong, Jan. 12 (AP)—A Royal Navy spokesman said today that no directives have been received from the Admiralty about the Chinese Nationalist blockade of Communist China.

England has recognized the Communist Government in Peiping and rumors have been rife that the British Navy would begin convoying merchantmen through the blockade.

Three large British shipping companies here have not made any plans for the resumption of trade with Shanghai as a resul tof British recognition of the Communists.

They said there appeared to be no concerted effort by British shippers to crack the blockade.

The two largest British shippers operating into China ports, Butterfield & Swire and Jardine Matheson, both said tonnage into Tientsin was at a high level. Tientsin is one of the northernmost ice-free ports in China.

Japanese Reds Blast Back At Cominform

Nozaka May Be Orient's First "Tito"

Tokyo, Jan. 12—(AP)—The Japanese Communist Party today officially set its top strategist, Sanzo Nozaka, on the way to becoming the Orient's first Tito."

There were too many unanswered questions to determine immediately whether the move was genuine or an elaborate plant—but on paper it looked convincing.

The Cominform, dominating organization of international communism, last week attacked Nozaka as a tool of the "imperialist occupiers" of Japan. Pravda, official Communist paper in Moscow, echoed the accusations.

The Japanese Communist Party today cracked back. The party's Political Bureau said the Cominform conclusions were "unacceptable to the popular masses and that "Comrade Nozaka enjoys the confidence of the masses as the boldest patriot of the people."

The statement conceded that Nozaka had been forced to follow a "zigzag course" because of occupation opposition. But it insisted that the only uncorrected "mistake" made by the party in Japan was failure to advise the Cominform of this unavoidable deviousness.

The statement paid "high respect toward the brilliant achievements of the Cominform in the past;" then went on to say that criticism by Communists outside Japan, without due consideration, will do a great harm to our people and our party."

There are two ways of looking at the situation:

1. The party may be gambling on a long-range appeal to Japanese nationalism by refusing to bow completely to the Cominform, or

2. The whole thing could be a pre-arranged effort to regain some of the ground the Communists have lost recently in Japan because of Soviet refusal to account for war prisoners. Also, the color of "Titoism," or deviation from the Moscow line, could cause American vigilance to lessen.

Key officers in Occupation Headquarters were keeping quiet while watching for the next moves.

Nozaka, the only Moscow-trained Japanese of any influence, has demonstrated extreme cleverness in the past four years. Without him, the party might collapse.

No one in Japan underestimates his importance to the party. Ko Nakanishi, a member of the Upper House of the Diet, was expelled from the party two days ago for siding with the Cominform against Nozaka.

Nakanishi said in an interview today that he was going to try to get rank-and-file Reds to rebel against the party leadership. He admitted his support was "weak right now," but insisted the Japanese Reds were going to have to change their attitude of saying merely, "we are occupied and therefore cannot do what we want."

Trawler Reported Seized Off Korea

Tokyo, Jan. 12 (AP)—Japanese maritime officials said tonight a fishing trawler had been machine-gunned and captured about 60 miles southwest of Cheju Island off Korea.

Two companions, they said, had radioed that the craft, Taiyo Maru III, had disappeared northward in company with the unidentified assailant.

The Taiyo Maru III carries a crew of 29 and is a 500-ton craft. Her companion vessels were the Taiyo Maru II and Taiyo Maru 15.

The board also said it heard another message from a companion fishing craft which reported:

"About midnight one small Diesel ship, with one mast, of an undetermined nationality, machine-gunned and approached alongside the Taiyo Maru III. Then seemingly soldiers went aboard the Japanese trawler. Then the two ships went northward and disappeared."

Jap Reds Charge Errors In Cominform Attack

JAN 12 1950

Tokyo, Jan. 12 (AP)—Japanese Communists declared today that the Cominform was wrong in accusing one of their leaders of straying from the party line.

In what seemed to be an outright rejection of the Cominform's criticism of Sanzo Nozaka for holding that Japan could go Socialist under the occupation, the party Politburo spokesman, Ritsu Ito, said:

"This conclusion of the (Cominform) article is therefore unacceptable to the popular masses.

"Comrade Nozaka enjoys the confidence of the masses as the boldest patriot of the people."

Glorifying Imperialists

The statement was approved by the political bureau, central committee, Japan Communist party.

The Cominform last week accused Nozaka of glorifying the "imperialist occupiers of Japan" and of "misleading" the Japanese.

The Cominform based its attack on Nozaka on articles printed in Japanese newspapers.

Hainan Invasion Report Denied By Nationalists

Taipei, Formosa, Jan. 12 (AP)—Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek's staff tonight flatly denied that the Communists have invaded Hainan Island. They said no invasion whatever had occurred.

They said the invasion report, which came to this Chinese Nationalist capital from abroad, was "absurd."

"The invaders must have been ghosts or figments of the imagination," said one of Chiang's aides.

Guerrillas are admittedly active in a small way on Hainan, but Nationalist Army sources said none of these were new arrivals. Many of them have been operating since the early stages of the Japanese war a dozen years ago.

Navy Patrols Strait

Nationalist navy units, patroling Hainan strait, have recently been strengthened to prevent a Red move from the mainland 10 miles away.

30.24- 8195

Nationalist naval units were sent to Hainan strait, a narrow strip of water that is barely 5 miles wide at one point, separating Hainan from the Chinese mainland. All but a mile of the strait at this point could be waded by troops.

A Nationalist navy task force reported it sank 30 of 50 Red junks trying to invade Weichou Island off Liuchow Peninsula.

Chiang Kai-shek's bombers ranged the coastal country blasting Red concentrations. Canton, Foochow and Shanghai were bombed.

2,000 Ships Massed

Chinese news dispatches reported a big concentration of Communist boats in Hangchow Bay. The Chu San Islands, 20 miles long and 10 miles wide and located about 100 miles south of Shanghai, appeared to be their objective. The islands are used by the Nationalist navy and airforce to blockade Shanghai.

Small-scale fighting between the 100,000 Nationalist regulars and stragglers on Hainan and the 17,000 Red guerrillas, who have been operating in this area for a long [illegible] was reported officially here in the Nationalist capital.

Only about 40,000 of the Hainan defenders could be called first-line troops. But they are poorly equipped and there is talk in Hong Kong that the island may be abandoned.

Hong Kong reports said the Communists had brought up crack Manchurian troops for the long-expected Hainan assault. The Reds, Hong Kong heard, far outnumber the Nationalists. Official quarters here estimated the Reds' strength on Luichow peninsula, opposite Hainan, at 50,000 men.

aged two 2,000-ton ships in dry-dock; badly damaged another at the mouth of the Whangpoo River, and set five more afire by strafing.

It said unidentified ground establishments in the Chapei and Pootung districts also had been hit. Nanking, the Yangtze River cities of Kiangyin and Chinkiang and Wuhsien (Soochow), west of Shanghai, also were raided, without announced results.

Swatow, a port 200 miles northeast of Hong Kong, also was reported bombed again, with two 1,000-ton ships and many small craft hit. [Hong Kong reports said one ship hit at Swatow was the small British-registered freighter Leong Bee.]

Canada Is Hopeful On Uranium Finds

Toronto, Ont., Jan. 12 (AP)—Two recent uranium finds on the east shore of Lake Superior "appear to have excellent possibilities for commercial production," a geological report released by Mines Minister Welland Gemmell said today.

The report said the discoveries, both about 55 miles north of Sault Ste. Marie, are on properties of the Labine-McCarthy Uranium Mines and Ranwick Uranium Mines, Ltd.

Comparisons Favorable

W. L. C. Greer, resident geologist at Port Arthur who examined the area, said the deposits "compare favorably with 1948 and 1949 finds in the Lake Athabaska and Black Lake regions of northern Saskatchewan."

He said insufficient work has been done to make any estimate of tonnages of pitchblende ore, but the strike on both properties should persist to considerable depths."

11 Ships Reported Hit in Shanghai Bombing; Formosa Denies Hainan Is Invaded by Reds

Marshall-Nation Merger Urged By Truman

JAN 12 1950

Italy expected to have single-party government. [Page 3.]

Washington, Jan. 12 (AP)—President Truman submitted a report to Congress today urging Europe's Marshall plan countries to weld their economies into a "single producing and trading area" of 270,000,000 people.

The report, prepared by the Economic Co-Operation Administration (ECA), said American dollars have strengthened Europe's economy to the point where the sixteen nations can take this "radical" step without risk.

"Although economic integration is obviously a long-term objective, the present time is favorable for initiating this program," it said.

It predicted such a move would bring a boom in manufacturing and trading throughout all of western Europe. This would "immeasurably improve" the sale of European goods in dollar markets and "more nearly satisfy" the expectations and needs of the European peoples, ECA said.

Repeated Pleas

The president made no comment of his own on the need for integration. But by submitting it to Congress as his sixth report on ECA operations, he gave added weight to Administrator Paul Hoffman's repeated pleas for action on such a step.

Gen. George C. Marshall, father of the Marshall plan when he was Secretary of State, said yesterday that the European recovery program has made more progress in the last two years than official Washington expected. The ECA report said that the recent devaluation of European currencies will not by itself solve Europe's basic economic problems, "nor remove the shackles that are holding back international trade."

Quarterly Review

The 140-page ECA Quarterly Review gave this picture of what it had in mind by integration:

"A single market within which quantitative restrictions on the movement of goods, monetary barriers to the flow of trade, and eventually all tariffs are eliminated."

During the first eighteen months of the Marshall plan, it noted that the United States poured a total of $7,086,000,000 into western Europe through direct grants and loans.

As a result, industrial production now stands at 112 per cent of prewar; and agricultural output, despite a severe drought, was at least equal to last year.

In addition, Europe has absorbed the shock of devaluation without regarding it as the beginning of a new cycle of inflation.

"Most of the nations are thus in a better position to move toward economic integration than at any time since the end of the war," it said.

Limited Objectives

"Resources available to ECA—both dollars and counterpart funds—should help them in overcoming those dislocations which may arise from the progressive elimination of barriers to international commerce."

The report made it plain the United States does not expect integration overnight. It foresaw the need for limited objectives to begin with, such as nations joining together in small economic groups first and later merging into one giant trading orea.

In looking over Europe's economic comeback, it found these two dark spots for the three-month period ending September 30:

1. Although agricultural output is near prewar levels, it is not up to the hoped-for goals.

2. The response of American business men to ECA-sponsored investment opportunities has been "disappointing."

ADMIRAL GALLERY DENOUNCES 'PURGE'

Decries Navy Reshuffle As Threat To Democracy

JAN 12 1950

Washington, Jan. 12 (AP)—Rear Admiral Daniel V. Gallery charged today that a "cold purge" of top Navy admirals who testified in the defense-policy row is a threat to democracy.

Cherished rights cannot be preserved, he said, by "using the tools of the police state."

Citing the ouster of Admiral Louis E. Denfeld as Chief of Naval Operations—just two weeks after Denfeld testified on Capitol Hill—Gallery said in an article in Collier's magazine:

"In the reshuffle which followed, all the other top admirals who supported Denfeld were swept into the deep freeze."

The article bore the title, "If This Be Treason—"

His Four "Logical Candidates"

In congressional hearings last year high Navy officers charged that the Navy's striking power was being ruined and the national defenses imperiled by the handling of armed-services unification in the Pentagon.

Gallery, a 48-year-old naval airman, named four admirals he said would "normally be the logical candidates" for the No. 1 Navy post which became vacant when Denfeld was fired by President Truman last October 27.

Those four, he said, are Admirals Arthur W. Radford, William H. P. Blandy, Richard L. Conolly and Thomas C. Kinkaid.

"All four were passed up in the upheaval following their testimony," Gallery said.

"Thought Control Tactics"

As events turned out, Denfeld's post went to former Vice Admiral Forrest P. Sherman, now a full four-star admiral, who has jumped over the heads of nine admirals outranking him in seniority. At 53, Sherman became the youngest chief of naval operations in American history last November 2.

Hitting out at what he termed "thought control tactics," Gallery contended that a gag on the nation's defense leaders is a sure way to destroy democracy.

"Up to now, the great chasm which has separated our system from communism has been called 'rights of the individual.'" Gallery wrote. "We certainly cannot long preserve our cherished individual rights by using the tools of the police state.

Seen As "Grim Symptom"

"The recent 'cold purge' in the Navy is a grim symptom of this danger. The purge was directed not against men accused of treason, but against officers who proved their patriotism and valor in the war fought to preserve the four freedoms.

"These men were accused of no greater crime than having the courage of their convictions and refusing to conform to a party line."

Gallery made no mention of his own case in the article. A former assistant chief of naval operations, in charge of guided missiles development, he was shifted to sea duty in the Atlantic last August after he had written an article about the explosive policy row.

"So far the Navy is the only service which is feeling the iron heel of thought control," Gallery said. "But I think the implications of the purge are even more ominous to the country than they are to the Navy.

"Conform Or Be Liquidated"

"The handwriting on the wall can now be plainly seen by officers in the Army, Air Force and Marine Corps as well as the Navy. It says, 'conform or be liquidated.'

"From now on it's hard to see how Congress can expect anything but a party-line unanimity of opinion from the military officers who appear before it."

In an obvious allusion to Gen. Omar N. Bradley, chairman of the Joint Chief of Staff, Gallery continued:

"A distinquished army officer said at the recent (congressional) hearings that the admirals are 'fancy Dans' who won't play unless they can call the signals. It seems to me that so far as naval warfare is concerned, the admirals are the ones who should call the signals."

Strategic Air Power "Pottage"

Gallery said the "real warning which the Navy tried to present at the hearing before the House Armed Services Committee last October was that "we are in danger of selling our birthright, freedom of the seas, for a mess of pottage labelled 'quick victory through strategic air power.'"

This was a reference to the Air Force's emphasis on the long-range B-36 bomber as a prime weapon of defense. Gallery called it a "dangerous booby trap" policy.

Without naming names, Gallery criticized what he called "the bull-in-a-china-shop approach of knocking heads together whenever competent professional men disagree with a new and desperately dangerous concept of defending the United States."

"Since the investigation has ended the way it did, the biggest danger from now on is that the wishful pipedreams of persuasive enthusiasts who are close to the throne will not be exposed until they meet the acid test of battle," Gallery said.

Senate Unit Approves 3 for Fund and Bank

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—Three Presidential nominations for the International Monetary Fund and the International Bank for Reconstruction and Development were approved today by the Senate Banking Committee.

The nominees, whose names now go to the Senate for final action, are:

Undersecretary of State James E. Webb to be U.S. alternate governor of both the fund and the bank.

Assistant Secretary of the Treasury William McC. Martin Jr. to be U.S. executive director of the bank.

John S. Hooker of Maryland, now an alternate director of the bank, to be U.S. alternate director of the Monetary Fund also.

Both Mr. Hooker and Mr. Martin now are serving under appointments made while the Senate was in recess. They were nominated for two-year terms. Mr. Webb was nominated to serve for five years.

Navy To Ignore Crommelin Attack

Washington, Jan. 12 (AP)—A spokesman said today the Navy probably would ignore Capt. John G. Crommelin's latest criticism of military unification.

Crommelin told a San Francisco audience January 10 that the "so-called unification program employs dictatorial tactics to the detriment of unification."

In response to an inquiry, a navy spokesman said Crommelin's statement did not involve any security and had drawn no action from Admiral Forrest P. Sherman, Chief of Naval Operations.

Crommelin is scheduled to address an American Legion convention February 10. The spokesman said that what Crommelin told the San Francisco audience "is not likely to interfere with his next speaking engagement." NPD

Defeat Of Russ On China Ouster Likely In U.N.

JAN 12 1950

Lake Success, N.Y., Jan. 12 (AP)—Diplomatic observers agreed today that Russia has not mustered enough support to throw Nationalist China out of the United Nations Security Council now.

How long the Nationalists can hold on was another question. Five of the eleven Council nations recognize Red China.

The Council is scheduled to meet today to take up a Soviet resolution demanding the ouster of the Chinese Nationalist delegation headed by T. F. Tsiang, who is serving as president of the Council during January.

Malik's Stand Uncertain

Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Jakob A. Malik walked out of the council two days ago after the council refused to oust the Nationalists immediately. He said he could not take part in any council meeting with the Nationalists.

Whether Malik's group would be on hand to argue for his resolution late today was not known beforehand.

Corridor guessing was that Malik would appear for a vote on his demand. The question remained as to what he would do if he is beaten. The outlook was that the demand would be defeated at this time. It needs at least seven of the eleven council votes for approval.

Seek To Seat Reds

Malik refused to say Tuesday when he might return. He ignored a telegram sent him yesterday by the Associated Press asking whether he would turn up today.

The Russian move was looked on as the first in a series to seat the Chinese Communist regime of Mao Tze-tung.

Tsiang is anxious to keep the chairmanship because he plans to present a great amount of additional testimony to the Little Assembly next Monday. He claims this supports Nationalist charges that Russia helped the Chinese Communists to power in violation of old treaties with the Nationalist Government.

8 Vote For Delay

Tsiang ruled Tuesday that Malik's resolution had to wait for at least 24 hours under council rules before a vote. Malik refused to accept the ruling, but only Yugoslavia supported him.

Eight other countries—including Britain and Norway, which have recognized Red China—were among those voting to delay the decision. India, another council member which has recognized the Communist regime, abstained.

LONDON, JAN.12-(AP)-BRITISH WARSHIPS WILL CONTINUE PROTECTION OF BRITISH SHIPPING OFF CHINA FROM ATTEMPTS BY CHINESE NATIONALISTS TO BLOCKADE COMMUNIST-HELD COASTAL PORTS, THE ADMIRALTY SAID TODAY. HOWEVER, AN ADMIRALTY SPOKESMAN INDICATED THE WARSHIPS WOULD NOT GO BEYOND THE THREE-MILE LIMIT OF CHINESE TERRITORIAL WATERS.

THE SPOKESMAN DECLINED TO CONFIRM OR DENY TOKYO REPORTS THAT AN ARMED CONVOY WAS BEING PREPARED TO RUN THE BLOCKADE FROM HONG KONG TO SHANGHAI.

BRITAIN, WHICH HAS RECOGNIZED THE COMMUNIST GOVERNMENT OF CHINA, HAS HELD FROM THE FIRST THAT THE NATIONALIST ATTEMPT TO BLOCKADE RED PORTS WAS ILLEGAL.

"WE ARE AFFORDING PROTECTION FOR BRITISH MERCHANT VESSELS GOING TO SHANGHAI UP TO THE THREE-MILE LIMIT," SAID AN ADMIRALTY SPOKESMAN.

BRITAIN ANNOUNCED A POLICY OF PROTECTING ITS SHIPPING SOON AFTER THE NATIONALIST GOVERNMENT SAID IT WOULD BLOCKADE THE RED PORTS LAST FALL.

"EXCEPT FOR THE AMERICAN SHIP, THE FLYING ARROW, WE HAVE NOT BEEN CALLED UPON TO GIVE ASSISTANCE," THE ADMIRALTY SPOKESMAN SAID.

THE U.S. FREIGHTER, THE FLYING ARROW, WAS SHELLED MONDAY BY NATIONALIST WARSHIPS. SHE RADIOED FOR ASSISTANCE TO BOTH BRITISH AND AMERICAN NAVAL UNITS IN THE AREA.

A BRITISH FRIGATE, THE BLACK SWAN, CAME ALONGSIDE AND BRITISH SEAMEN HELPED EXTINGUISH FIRES WHICH THE SHELLING HAD STARTED IN THE FREIGHTER.

ASKED IF THE REASON BRITISH MERCHANT SHIPS IN THE AREA HAVE NOT ASKED FOR HELP WAS THAT BRITISH WARSHIPS HAVE PROTECTED THEM EFFECTIVELY, THE SPOKESMAN REPLIED: "THAT'S A REASONABLY SAFE ASSUMPTION."

PARIS, JAN.12-(AP)-FRENCH POLICE, WHO ALREADY HAVE EXPELLED SOME 40 POLES, TODAY BEGAN A NEW ROUNDUP OF NATIONALS FROM THE SOVIET SATELLITE.

PIERRE BERTAUX, HEAD OF THE FRENCH SECURITY POLICE, SAID ABOUT 50 POLISH CITIZENS WERE ARRESTED TODAY IN A STILL-CONTINUING OPERATION. SOME OF THE POLES, HE DECLARED, WOULD BE EXPELLED FOR "ABUSING THE HOSPITALITY AND TOLERANCE OF FRANCE" BY INTERFERING IN FRENCH POLITICS.

THE GOVERNMENT WAS SCHEDULED TO ANNOUNCE TOMORROW DISSOLUTION OF EIGHT ORGANIZATIONS AFFILIATED WITH THE NATIONAL COUNCIL OF POLES IN FRANCE. THEY INCLUDE ORGANIZATIONS FOR WOMEN, YOUTHS, VETERANS AND OTHERS.

BERTAUX INSISTED THE LATEST ANTI-POLISH DRIVE HAD NO CONNECTION WITH THE JAILING OF FOUR FRENCH CITIZENS AND EXPULSION OF ABOUT A DOZEN FRENCH NATIONALS BY THE POLISH GOVERNMENT LAST MONTH. THE POLES CHARGED THE FRENCH WITH ESPIONAGE ACTIVITY.

IN WARSAW, A SPOKESMAN FOR THE FRENCH EMBASSY SAID ANOTHER EMBASSY EMPLOYE WAS ORDERED LAST NIGHT TO LEAVE POLAND. THE EMPLOYE WAS IDENTIFIED AS GASTON DELEAU' AN ADMINISTRATION CLERK. JOHN FLETCHER-COOKE, BRITISH MEMBER OF THE SIX-MEMBER SUBCOMMITTEE DRAFTING A TEN-YEAR TRUSTEESHIP AGREEMENT FOR SOMALILAND, TOLD THE COMMITTEE THAT HE "DID NOT SHARE THE OPTIMISM OF THE IRAQI DELEGATE THAT THERE ARE NO THREATS TO THE PEACE OF EAST AFRICA."

FLETCHER-COOKE SAID HE DID NOT ANTICIPATE ANY DIFFICULTIES FOR SOMALILAND FROM HER NEIGHBORS, BUT "THERE ARE DANGERS FROM OTHER QUARTERS."

"I FEEL THAT WE WOULD BE FAILING IN OUR RESPONSIBILITY TO THE PEOPLE OF SOMALILAND," HE SAID, "IF WE ASSUMED THAT BECAUSE OF THEIR GEOGRAPHICAL POSITION, THERE WAS NO NEED TO MAKE PREPARATIONS FOR THEIR DEFENSE."

THE COMMITTEE APPROVED A PROVISIONAL DRAFT WHICH WILL PERMIT ITALY TO ESTABLISH POLICE FORCES TO MAINTAIN INTERNAL ORDER AND TO TAKE MEASURES TO PROVIDE FOR THE MAINTENANCE OF EXTERNAL DEFENSE. THIS WILL INCLUDE THE MAINTENANCE OF AN UNSPECIFIED NUMBER OF TROOPS AND THE CREATION OF ANY NECESSARY MILITARY INSTALLATIONS.

THE ITALIAN DELEGATION EMPHASIZED IT DID NOT DESIRE TO SPEND LARGE SUMS OF MONEY ON MILITARY INSTALLATIONS IN THE TERRITORY. IT IS ESTIMATED THAT THE BRITISH NOW MAINTAIN A POLICE FORCE OF ABOUT 3,000 NATIVE AND EUROPEAN MEMBERS. ON ONE OCCASION THE BRITISH WERE FORCED TO SEND IN TWO BATTALIONS BECAUSE OF BORDER RAIDS ALONG THE ETHIOPIAN FRONTIER.

THE REPRESENTATIVE OF IRAQ, A. KHALIDY, HAD MAINTAINED THAT "SOMALILAND IS SO SITUATED THAT THERE IS NO INTERNATIONAL DANGER TO PEACE." ANY EXTERNAL DEFENSE MEASURES, HE SAID, MUST BE STRICTLY CONTROLLED BY THE SECURITY COUNCIL.

JAN 12 1950

COLOMBO, CEYLON, JAN. 12-(AP)-BRITISH COMMONWEALTH FOREIGN MINISTERS APPEARED TO BE IN AGREEMENT TODAY THAT INDOCHINA IS THE KEY TO HOLDING THE LINE AGAINST COMMUNISM IN SOUTHEAST ASIA.

DELEGATES POINTED OUT THAT BURMA HAS NOT COLLAPSED, DESPITE LONG MONTHS OF CIVIL WARFARE; THAT THAILAND IS ON HER FEET AND BRITISH TROOPS ARE CATCHING UP WITH THE COMMUNIST THREAT IN MALAYA.

THE BIG QUESTION BEFORE THE CONFERENCE IS -- CAN THE FRENCH-SUPPORTED ANNAMITE LEADER, BAO DAI, HOLD COASTAL INDOCHINA AGAINST THE COMMUNIST TIDE THAT HAS ENGULFED SPRAWLING CHINA?

IN HIS REVIEW OF THE SITUATION, MALCOLM MACDONALD, BRITISH COMMISSIONER GENERAL FOR SOUTHEAST ASIA, SAID THERE IS A GOOD POSSIBILITY A SOUND NATIONAL REGIME WILL BE ESTABLISHED IN INDOCHINA.

ON THIS POINT, INDIA, PAKISTAN AND CEYLON MAY HAVE OTHER IDEAS. WITH THEIR TRADITIONAL DISLIKE FOR COLONIALISM, THEY MAY AGREE WITH THE OPINION EXPRESSED BY A COLOMBO NEWSPAPER RECENTLY:

"EVEN A VICTORY FOR COMMUNISM IN INDOCHINA WOULD, AS FAR AS THE FIGHT AGAINST COMMUNISM IN THE EAST IS CONCERNED, BE A LESSER EVIL THAN THE CONTINUED OPERATION OF FRENCH IMPERIALISM IN THAT COUNTRY."

VIET-NAM UNDER BAO DAI IS NOT YET A SOVEREIGN NATION. FRANCE HAS GIVEN IT A POSITION "WITHIN THE FRENCH UNION" WITH CERTAIN INTERNAL POWERS. BUT REAL POWERS OF DEFENSE AND FOREIGN RELATIONS HAVE BEEN RETAINED IN FRENCH HANDS. DISPATCHES FROM ABROAD HAVE SAID THAT FRANCE HAS TOLD BRITAIN SHE WILL NOT RECOGNIZE COMMUNIST CHINA UNTIL BRITAIN RECOGNIZES THE BAO DAI REGIME.

PRIME MINISTER JAWAHARLAL NEHRU OF INDIA, WHO HAS TAKEN A LEADING PART IN CONFERENCE DISCUSSIONS, IS A LIFELONG FOE OF COLONIALISM. ON THIS SCORE HE IS BACKED BY PAKISTAN AND CEYLON.

AUSTRALIA AND NEW ZEALAND, TWO NEIGHBORING PACIFIC COUNTRIES THAT ARE CONCERNED VITALLY WITH NEIGHBORING SOUTHEAST ASIA, SUGGESTED AN ECONOMIC ASSISTANCE PLAN TO DEVELOP BACKWARD AREAS. THE PLAN HAS WON SUPPORT FROM BRITAIN, INDIA, PAKISTAN AND CEYLON. THE IDEA IS TO GIVE TECHNICAL AS WELL AS MONETARY AID, SIMILAR TO PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S POINT FOUR PROGRAM FOR UNDERDEVELOPED AREAS WHICH HAS NOT YET BEEN APPROVED BY CONGRESS. BRITISH DELEGATES ARGUED THAT IF THEY MAKE A BEGINNING ON THE PLAN, THE UNITED STATES MIGHT REACH A DECISION SOONER.

A CONFERENCE OF AMERICAN DIPLOMATS IN THE FAR EAST WILL TAKE PLACE AT BANGKOK, THAILAND, LATER THIS MONTH. SIMILAR PROBLEMS WILL BE ON THE AGENDA.

PERCY C. SPENDER, AUSTRALIA'S MINISTER FOR EXTERNAL AFFAIRS, WARNED THAT THE VAST CHINESE POPULATION IN MANY PARTS OF SOUTHEAST ASIA CONSTITUTED A POTENTIAL FIFTH COLUMN. NO ONE, HE SAID, EXPECTED COMMUNIST CHINA TO ATTACK SOUTHEAST ASIA NATIONS, BUT HE URGED SECURITY MEASURES.

THE BRITISH MINISTERS, LED BY FOREIGN SECRETARY ERNEST BEVIN OF GREAT BRITAIN, AGREED TO SET UP MACHINERY FOR CONSTANT CONSULTATION ON THE JAPANESE PEACE TREATY WHICH THEY SAID SHOULD BE CONCLUDED AT AN EARLY DATE. AUSTRALIA AND NEW ZEALAND WERE SAID TO HAVE STRESSED SAFEGUARDS AGAINST A REVIVAL OF JAPANESE MILITARISM.

THE DISCUSSIONS ON COMMUNIST CHINA LED TO NO FIRM CONCLUSIONS, POSSIBLY BECAUSE THE DELEGATES WERE SPLIT EVENLY ON EXTENDING RECOGNITION TO THE PEIPING REGIME. BRITAIN, INDIA, PAKISTAN AND CEYLON HAVE EXTENDED RECOGNITION. AUSTRALIA, NEW ZEALAND, CANADA AND SOUTH AFRICA HAVE NOT.

PRIME MINISTER NEHRU SAID CAUTIOUS FRIENDLINESS SHOULD ACCOMPANY RECOGNITION. OTHERS URGED A CONTINUED COOL ATTITUDE TOWARDS THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS AND A SIMULTANEOUS STRENGTHENING OF SECURITY MEASURES.

THE CONFERENCE HAS BEEN IN SESSION THREE DAYS AND IS EXPECTED TO END ON SATURDAY.

THE QUESTION OF A LOAN BY MEMBERS OF THE COMMONWEALTH TO BURMA WAS DISCUSSED TODAY BY THE MINISTERS. AN INFORMED SOURCE SAID BURMA WAS LIKELY TO GET A LOAN BUT DECLARED IT WOULD BE "MUCH LESS" THAN THE £25,000,000 ($70,000,000) SHE REPORTEDLY IS SEEKING.

IT WAS REPORTED THAT NOT ALL THE COMMONWEALTH NATIONS WOULD CONTRIBUTE. MAIN RESPONSIBILITY FOR A BURMA LOAN IS EXPECTED TO FALL ON BRITAIN, INDIA AND PAKISTAN.

AUSTRALIA'S DELEGATE SAID HIS COUNTRY WOULD CONSIDER SYMPATHETICALLY THE QUESTION OF CONTRIBUTING TO A BURMA LOAN. NEW ZEALAND REPORTEDLY WAS STUDYING THE PROPOSAL. BUT SOUTH AFRICA'S REPRESENTATIVE SAID HIS COUNTRY WOULD NOT PARTICIPATE AND CANADA'S DELEGATE ALSO INDICATED THAT DOMINION WAS NOT INTERESTED.

THE DELEGATES STRESSED THEY WERE ONLY EVALUATING THE POLITICAL AND ECONOMIC SITUATION IN INDOCHINA. THE COMMONWEALTH, ONE SOURCE SAID, OBVIOUSLY COULD NOT MAKE PLANS TO ASSIST THE FRENCH TERRITORY SINCE THERE HAD BEEN NO REQUEST FOR ASSISTANCE.

THE DELEGATES INDICATED THE CONFERENCE WAS AIMING AT A COORDINATED EFFORT TO ASSIST OTHER SOUTHEAST ASIA COUNTRIES.

BRITISH FOREIGN SECRETARY ERNEST BEVIN PLANNED TO LEAVE COLOMBO NEXT TUESDAY BY SHIP.

JAN 12 1950

THE CONFERENCE TODAY ISSUED THIS COMMUNIQUE:

"AT THE MEETING THIS MORNING THE COMMONWEALTH FOREIGN MINISTERS COMPLETED THEIR STUDY OF THE POLITICAL SITUATION IN SOUTHEAST ASIA. THEY CONSIDERED IN PARTICULAR THE CURRENT POSITION IN INDOCHINA. AT THE AFTERNOON MEETING THE MINISTERS RESUMED THEIR DISCUSSION OF ECONOMIC CONDITIONS IN SOUTHEAST ASIA AND FURTHER CONSIDERATION OF THE SUBJECT WAS DEFERRED UNTIL TOMORROW. THE OFFICIALS ENGAGED IN ECONOMIC DISCUSSIONS CONCLUDED THEIR EXAMINATION OF THE SHORT TERM DOLLAR POSITION AND ALSO DISCUSSED A NUMBER OF MISCELLANEOUS QUESTIONS ARISING OUT OF THE MEETING OF COMMONWEALTH FINANCE MINISTERS HELD IN LONDON IN JULY, 1949."

BY STEVEN V.DAVID

COLOMBO, CEYLON, JAN.12-(AP)-A SELF-AID PROGRAM TO DEVELOP BRITISH COMMONWEALTH RESOURCES AND RAISE LIVING STANDARDS, PARTICULARLY IN SOUTHEAST ASIA, WAS PRESENTED TODAY TO THE COMMONWEALTH FOREIGN MINISTERS CONFERENCE.

THE PLAN, ADVANCED BY AUSTRALIA, DOES NOT ENVISAGE A TRADING BLOC. AN OFFICIAL EXPLAINED THAT THE PRIMARY PROBLEM IS HOW TO DEVELOP THE CAPACITIES, RESOURCES AND WEALTH OF ALL PEOPLES IN THE COMMONWEALTH.

THE PROGRAM WOULD GIVE TECHNICAL AS WELL AS MONETARY AID, SIMILAR TO PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S POINT FOUR PLAN FOR BACKWARD AREAS. DELEGATES INDICATED IT WAS HOPED THE UNITED STATES MIGHT JOIN IN ASSISTANCE TO SOUTHEAST ASIA.

AUSTRALIAN SOURCES SAID THE PROJECT WOULD BE CARRIED OUT THROUGH EXISTING ORGANIZATIONS SUCH AS THE ECONOMIC COMMISSION FOR ASIA AND THE FAR EAST, THE INTERNATIONAL LABOR ORGANIZATION AND THE WORLD HEALTH ORGANIZATION. A COMMITTEE WAS PROPOSED TO GATHER INFORMATION ON THE RESOURCES AVAILABLE.

THE PLAN WAS BACKED BY BRITAIN, AUSTRALIA, NEW ZEALAND, INDIA, CEYLON AND PAKISTAN, SIX OF THE EIGHT PARTICIPANTS IN THE CONFERENCE. CANADA AND SOUTH AFRICA, WHILE FAVORABLE TO THE IDEA, HAVE NOT COMMITTED THEIR GOVERNMENTS TO MAKING SUBSTANTIAL CONTRIBUTIONS.

A CONFERENCE OF AMERICAN DIPLOMATS IN THE FAR EAST WILL TAKE PLACE LATER THIS MONTH AT BANGKOK, THAILAND, AND SIMILAR PROBLEMS ARE EXPECTED TO BE UNDER DISCUSSION THERE.

A DELEGATE TO THE COMMONWEALTH CONFERENCE SAID "A KIND OF AGREEMENT" HAD BEEN REACHED WHEREBY BRITAIN, INDIA, PAKISTAN, CEYLON, AUSTRALIA AND NEW ZEALAND WILL BACK A LOAN TO BURMA. THE FIGURE IS REPORTED TO BE £7,500,000 ($21,000,000). IT WOULD BE USED TO STABILIZE THE INTERNAL FINANCES OF BURMA.

IN DISCUSSIONS ON FRENCH INDOCHINA, PRIME MINISTER JAWAHARLAL NEHRU OF INDIA WAS ALONE IN DECLARING THAT SUPPORT OF THE FRENCH-SPONSORED BAO DAI GOVERNMENT OF VIET NAM WAS UNWISE AT PRESENT.

B132 (Q)

JAN 12 1950

NEHRU SAID HE THOUGHT BAO DAI WOULD HAVE DIFFICULTY IN ESTABLISHING AN INDEPENDENT GOVERNMENT AND DEPLORED THE FRENCH COLONIAL SYSTEM. EXCEPT FOR INDIA THERE WAS AGREEMENT THAT THE BAO DAI GOVERNMENT SHOULD BE RECOGNIZED WHEN ITS AGREEMENT WITH THE FRENCH IS SIGNED.

VIET NAM, UNDER BAO DAI, IS NOT YET A SOVEREIGN NATION. FRANCE HAS GIVEN IT A POSITION "WITHIN THE FRENCH UNION" WITH CERTAIN INTERNAL POWERS. REAL POWERS OF DEFENSE AND FOREIGN RELATIONS HAVE BEEN RETAINED BY THE FRENCH.

A QUESTION BEFORE THE CONFERENCE IS WHETHER THE FRENCH-SUPPORTED BAO DAI CAN HOLD INDOCHINA AGAINST THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS.

MALCOLM MACDONALD, BRITISH COMMISSIONER-GENERAL FOR SOUTHEAST ASIA SAID THERE IS A GOOD POSSIBILITY A SOUND NATIONAL REGIME WILL BE ESTABLISHED IN INDOCHINA.

NO CONCLUSIONS WERE REACHED IN THE DISCUSSIONS ON COMMUNIST CHINA, APPARENTLY BECAUSE THE DELEGATES ARE DIVIDED EQUALLY ON EXTENDING RECOGNITION TO MAO TZE-TUNG'S RED REGIME.

THE BRITISH DELEGATION AGREED TO SET UP MACHINERY FOR CONSTANT CONSULTATION WITH THE OTHER COMMONWEALTH MEMBERS ON A JAPANESE PEACE TREATY.

CHINESE-HAINAN
BY SPENCER MOOSA
TAIPEI, FORMOSA, JAN. 12-(AP)-THE NATIONALIST NAVY'S THIRD TASK FORCE REPORTED TODAY IT SANK 30 OF 50 CHINESE COMMUNIST JUNKS TRYING TO INVADE SMALL WEICHOU ISLAND OFF LUICHOW PENINSULA IN SOUTH CHINA.

GEN. CHANG YI-TING, OFFICIAL SPOKESMAN FOR THE DEFENSE MINISTRY, SAID SMALL SCALE FIGHTING WAS UNDERWAY BETWEEN NATIONALIST REGULARS AND LONG ESTABLISHED RED GUERRILLAS, WHO HOLD CENTRAL HAINAN AND 100 MILES OF THE WEST COAST.

CHANG, HOWEVER, DENIED RUMORS A COMMUNIST INVASION FLEET WAS HEADING FOR HAINAN. HE ASSESSED THE RED STRENGTH ON LIUCHOW PENINSULA, OPPOSITE HAINAN, AT 50,000 MEN.

ADDITIONAL NATIONALIST WARSHIPS WERE RUSHED TO PATROL DUTY IN THE AREA TO TRY TO SMASH AN EXPECTED COMMUNIST ATTEMPT TO INVADE BIG HAINAN ISLAND, 10 MILES OFF THE LUICHOW COAST.
NEWS DISPATCHES REPORTED A BIG CONCENTRATION OF COMMUNIST CRAFT MAINLY IN HANGCHOW BAY FOR AN INVASION OF THE CHU SAN ISLANDS, 100 MILES SOUTH OF SHANGHAI. THE CHU SAN ISLANDS ARE USED AS A BASE BY NATIONALIST WARSHIPS MAINTAINING THE SHANGHAI BLOCKADE. THE CHU SAN GROUP IS 20 MILES LONG AND 10 MILES WIDE.
THESE DISPATCHES SAID THE COMMUNIST FLEET WAS COMPOSED OF 1,000 CRAFT AVERAGING 40 TONS AND ANOTHER 1,000 AVERAGING 15 TONS.
NEITHER THE NAVY NOR AIR FORCE, WHICH HAS BEEN BOMBING COASTAL COMMUNIST CHINA, HAD ANYTHING TO CONFIRNA RUMOR 1,000 RED CRAFT WERE BOUND FOR HAINAN.
HAINAN STRAIT WAS UNDER HEAVY NAVAL AND AIR PATROL.
NATIONALIST TROOPS ON THE ISLAND WERE ALERTED. THEY GUARDED AGAINST AN OUTBREAK BY RED GUERRILLAS WHO HAVE A PART OF HAINAN UNDER THEIR CONTROL.
GEN. PAI CHUNG-HSI, COMMANDER IN THE SOUTH, HAS BETTER THAN 40,000 NATIONALIST TROOPS ON HAINAN. OTHER CHINESE COMMANDERS HAVE SMALLER FORCES.
NATIONALIST WARPLANES RANGED THE LUICHOW PENINSULA AND THE CHINA COAST, PUNISHING GATHERING COMMUNIST FORCES WITH BOMBS AND STRAFING ATTACKS.
CANTON, FOOCHOW AND SHANGHAI WERE AMONG COASTAL CITIES RAIDED BY BOMBERS. A 1,000 TON SHIP WAS REPORTED HIT AT SHANGHAI.
A 2,000 TON COMMUNIST SHIP WAS REPORTED HIT OFF LUICHOW PENINSULA BY NATIONALIST BOMBERS.
IN TAIPEI, NATIONALIST VICE FOREIGN MINISTER SHIH CHAO-YING SAID THE PORT CLOSURE INSTITUTED AGAINST CHINESE HARBORS IN RED HANDS WOULD BE KEPT IN FORCE AT THE RISK OF ANOTHER FLYING ARROW INCIDENT.
HE SAID THE NATIONALIST GOVERNMENT HAD THE RIGHT TO PRESCRIBE REGULATIONS COVERING THE PORTS AND WOULD EXERCISE THAT RIGHT HEREAFTER.

(A DISPATCH FROM SEYMOUR TOPPING, ASSOCIATED PRESS CORRESPONDENT IN HONG KONG, SAID RELIABLE INTELLIGENCE REPORTS THERE SAY THAT THE REDS CAN TAKE HAINAN ISLAND AT WILL.

(THE WESTERN COASTLINE OF THE BIG, IRON ORE RICH ISLAND WAS SAID TO BE WIDE OPEN TO INVASION WITH THE NATIONALIST DEFENDERS HOPELESSLY OUTNUMBERED.

(HONG KONG'S LATEST ESTIMATES SHOW THAT THE NATIONALISTS CAN MUSTER NO MORE THAN 100,000 POORLY ARMED REGULARS ON HAINAN. THEY ARE CRITICALLY SHORT OF SUPPLIES.

(OPPOSING THE NATIONALISTS ARE THE CRACK MANCHURIAN TROOPS OF RED GEN. LIN PIAO AND GEN. CHENG KENG. THESE RED ARMIES, WHICH OUTNUMBER THE HAINAN GARRISON SEVERAL TIMES OVER, ARE MASSED FOR INVASION ON NEARBY LIUCHOW PENINSULA.

JAN 12 1950

(RED GUERRILLAS TOTALLING ABOUT 17,000 HOLD THE CENTER OF THE ISLAND AND MORE THAN 100 MILES OF THE WESTERN COAST FROM LINIKO TO KUMYAN. REGULAR RED FORCES COULD EASILY LAND IN GREAT STRENGTH IN THIS AREA IN JUNKS TRAVELLING AT NIGHT TO ELUDE WEAK GOVERNMENT NAVAL PATROLS.

(THREE NATIONALIST NAVAL FLOTILLAS CONSISTING OF SMALL GUNBOATS ARE BASED ON HOIHOW AND THE NARROW HAINAN STRAIT. THE STRAIT NARROWS AT ONE POINT TO FIVE MILES AND FOUR OF THESE MAY BE WADED. ANOTHER FLOTILLA IS BASED ON YULIN ON THE SOUTHERN COAST OF HAINAN.

(THE COMMUNISTS ARE EXPECTED TO HIT THE WESTERN COASTLINE FIRST. NATIONALIST AIR PATROLS HAVE SLOWED THE COMMUNIST INVASION TIMETABLE BUT IT IS EXPECTED TO OCCUR WITHIN 30 DAYS OR LESS.

(THE NATIONALISTS CLAIM TO HAVE SMASHED SEVERAL FLEETS OF JUNKS DURING THE LAST FEW WEEKS WHICH WERE SAID TO BE HEADING FOR HAINAN. BUT NO OFFICIAL CLAIM HAS BEEN MADE THAT THE COMMUNISTS HAVE YET LAUNCH THEIR MAJOR ATTACK.

(THE NEAR HOPELESS POSITION OF THE NATIONALISTS ALREADY HAS LED TO RUMORS THAT THE ISLAND MAY BE EVACUATED. THE GARRISON COULD BE PULLED OUT TO FORMOSA UNDER STRONG NAVAL AND AIR COVER.

(HAINAN ISLAND CONSISTS OF 14,000 SQUARE MILES OF FAIRLY RUGGED TERRAIN. ITS HILLS CONTAIN VALUABLE DEPOSITS OF IRON ORE. THE POPULATION IS 2,500,000 (M) COMPOSED MAINLY OF LOIS TRIBESMEN. THE CHINESE ARE A MINORITY.)

BUT STALIN DOES NOT HOLD ALL THE TRUMP CARDS.

NEW ONES HAVE BEEN GIVEN MAO BY BRITISH RECOGNITION OF HIS REGIME, BY PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S "HANDS OFF" DECLARATION ON FORMOSA, BY THE POSSIBLE EMERGENCE OF AN ORIENTAL TITO IN JAPANESE COMMUNIST LEADER SANZO NOZAKA.

STALIN NEEDS MAO'S HELP FOR SOVIET ASPIRATIONS IN ASIA.

THE RUSSIANS WILL TRY FOR MAXIMUM CONTROL OVER THE FUTURE DEVELOPMENT OF RED CHINA. THE USE OF CHINA AND LARGE OVERSEAS CHINESE COMMUNITIES WILL BE SOUGHT TO SPREAD COMMUNISM IN SOUTHEAST ASIA. MOSCOW PROBABLY WILL WANT A FIRM COMMITMENT TO RULE OUT CHINESE COMMUNIST FLIRTATIONS WITH THE WESTERN POWERS.

(WESTERN OBSERVERS IN MOSCOW ARE WATCHING FOR RESULTS OF MAO'S TALKS WITH SOVIET OFFICIALS WITH INTENSE INTEREST. A DISPATCH FROM THE RUSSIAN CAPITAL YESTERDAY SAID THEY ARE EXPECTING SOME SORT OF OFFICIAL ANNOUNCEMENT SOON.

(MAO WAS RECEIVED YESTERDAY BY N.N. SHVERNICK, CHAIRMAN OF THE PRESIDIUM OF THE SUPREME SOVIET. THE BRIEF ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE MOSCOW RADIO AND TASS NEWS AGENCY DID NOT INDICATE WHAT WAS DISCUSSED.

(MORE THAN A WEEK AGO MAO TOLD A TASS CORRESPONDENT HE WAS IN MOSCOW TO WORK OUT AGREEMENTS WITH THE RUSSIUMN INCLUDING A TREATY OF FRIENDSHIP, ALLIANCE AND TRADE. THERE HAS BEEN NO PROGRESS REPORT SINCE.)

MAO PROBABLY HAS REQUESTS OF RUSSIA COVERING MORE THAN ECONOMIC ISSOTKKKKK

(MORE THAN A WEEK AGO MAO TOLD A TASS CORRESPONDENT HE WAS IN MOSCOW TO WORK OUT AGREEMENTS WITH THE RUSSIANS, INCLUDING A TREATY OF FRIENDSHIP, ALLIANCE AND TRADE. THERE HAS BEEN NO PROGRESS REPORT SINCE.)

MAO PROBABLY HAS REQUESTS OF RUSSIA COVERING MORE THAN ECONOMIC ISSUES.

ONE MAY BE RENEGOTIATION OF THE CHINESE-SOVIET TREATY OF 1945 WHICH IS SO UNPOPULAR WITH CHINESE. THIS TREATY GIVES THE RUSSIANS JOINT CONTROL OF MANCHURIA'S TRUCK RAILWAY, THE OLD MANCHURIAN CAPITAL OF CHANGCHUN, AND DAIREN, MANCHURIA'S MAIN PORT, AS WELL AS THE NEARBY NAVAL BASE OF PORT ARTHUR.

AN INTERESTING ANGLE OF MAO'S TRIP TO RUSSIA IS THAT IT PUT THE SPOTLIGHT ON LIU SHAO-CHI. LONG RUMORED TO BE CHINA'S NO. 2 COMMUNIST, THIS QUIET, STRONGLY PRO-RUSSIAN INTELLECTUAL HAS PRESIDED OVER RED CHINA'S GOVERNMENT DURING MAO'S ABSENCE.

THE NATIONALIST DEFENSE MINISTRY REPORTED THERE WAS SMALL-SCALE FIGHTING WITH RED GUERRILLAS ON HAINAN, BIG ISLAND OFF THE SOUTH COAST.

GENERALISSIMO CHIANG KAI-SHEK'S STAFF FLATLY DENIED, HOWEVER, A REPORT PUBLISHED ABROAD THAT THE COMMUNISTS HAD BEGAN AN INVASION OF HAINAN.

BRANDING THE REPORT "ABSURD," AN AIDE TO CHIANG SAID, "THE INVADERS MUST HAVE BEEN GHOSTS OR OTHER FIGMENTS OF THE IMAGINATION."

ARMY AND OTHER SOURCES SAID THE GUERRILLAS ON HAINAN WERE OLD-TIMERS--MANY DATING BACK A DOZEN YEARS TO THE EARLY DAYS OF THE JAPANESE WAR--NOT NEWCOMERS.

(HONG KONG SOURCES ESTIMATED THERE WERE 17,000 GUERRILLAS ON HAINAN AND THAT THEY CONTROLLED 100 MILES OF THE BIG ISLAND'S WEST COAST, BUT SAID THEY HAD BEEN REPELLED RECENTLY WHEN THEY TRIED TO DRIVE TO THE NORTH COAST IN AN ATTEMPT TO CONTACT THE REDS ON THE MAINLAND.

THE NATIONALIST NAVY RECENTLY HAS STRENGTHENED ITS PATROLS IN THE 10-MILE-WIDE STRAIT SEPARATING HAINAN FROM THE MAINLAND, AND THE AIRFORCE REPEATEDLY HAS ATTACKED SMALL CRAFT THE REDS ARE MASSING ON THE LIUCHOW PENINSULA OF THE MAINLAND.

THE NAVY REPORTS ITS THIRD TASK FORCE HAD SUNK MORE THAN 30 TO 50 COMMUNIST JUNKS THAT TRIED TO INVADE WEICHOU, A SMALL ISLAND WEST OF THE LIUCHOW PENINSULA. GEN.CHANG YI-TING, MILITARY SPOKESMAN, DENIED THE JUNKS WERE HEADING FOR HAINAN.

FORMOSAN PRESS DISPATCHES SAID ABOUT 1,000 RED JUNKS WERE ASSEMBLING NEAR HANGCHOW FOR A PROJECTED INVASION OF CHUSAN ISLAND, 100 MILES SOUTH OF SHANGHAI. CHUSAN, WHICH THE REDS HAVE VAINLY TRIED PREVIOUSLY TO CONQUER, IS A BASE FOR THE NATIONALIST PLANES THAT RAID SHANGHAI. IT IS THE LARGEST OF A GROUP OF ISLETS OF THE SAME NAME.

AFTER UNLOADING, THE MOLLER, A SMALL BUT FAST CRAFT, AND OTHER BRITISH SHIPS WAIT INSIDE THE BREAKWATER NEAR SHANGHAI UNTIL NATIONALIST GUNBOATS LEAVE FOR REFUELING PURPOSES. SOME BRITISH SHIPS HAVE WAITED 10 DAYS AND THEN MADE THEIR RUN FOR FREEDOM.

TOKYO,JAN 12 (AP)-KO NAKANISHI, A COOMMUNIST WITHOUT A PARTY, TODAY BLASTED THE "BUREAUCRATIC LEADERSHIP" OF JAPAN'S REDS.

NAKANISHI WAS EXPELLED FROM THE JAPAN COMMUNIST PARTY TWO DAYS AGO FOR "TRYING TO DISRUPT THE PARTY." HIS OUSTER FOLLOWED HIS SUPPORT OF A COMINFORM ATTACK ON SANZO NOZAKA, LEADER OF JAPAN'S COMMUNISTS. THE CONINFORM ATTACK CALLED NOZAKA A TOOL OF "IMPERIALISTS." NAKANISHI AGREED THAT HE WAS.

TODAY NAKANISHI SAID HE BLAMED THE ENTIRE TOP LEADERSHIP OF THE JAPANESE PARTY FOR HIS DISMISSAL FROM PARTY RANKS. HE URGED THE RANK AND FILE MEMBERS TO REBEL AGAINST THE CONTROLLING BUREAUCRACY.

EARLIER TODAY THE PARTY'S CENTRAL COMMITTEE SAID THE MASSES OF JAPANESE COMMUNISTS WOULD "NEVER ACCEPT" THE COMINFORM CHARGES AGAINST NOZAKA.

"JAPAN'S COMMUNIST PARTY MUST CHANGE ITS DIRECTION," NAKANISHI SAID IN AN INTERVIEW." BAIED ON PRESENT CRITICISM (A REFERENCE TO THE COMINFORM ATTACK) THIS IS ONLY ONE THRUST AT ONE PLACE. WE MUST REVISE OUR ENTIRE DIRECTION."

NAKANISHI CHARGED THE COMMUNIST LEADERSHIP WITH SAYING SIMPLY "OUR COUNTRY IS OCCUPIED AND THEREFORE WE CAN'T DO WHAT WE WANT."

"THAT KIND OF TALK DOESN'T SOLVE THE PROBLEM," SAID NAKANISHI.

NAKANISHI ADMITTED HIS SUPPORT AMONG JAPANESE COMMUNISTS WAS WEAK AT THE MOMENT. BUT HE SAID HE EXPECTED IT TO GROW.

"WE MUST LINK HANDS WITH THE SOVIET UNION IN ORDER TO REALIZE NATIONAL INDEPENDENCE," HE SAID.

HE SAID THAT WOULD NOT NECESSARILY MEAN TAKING ORDERS FROM THE COMINFORM.

HE SAID HE WAS CONVINCED THAT THE JAPAN PARTY'S PRESENT RIGHTEST LEADERSHIP WOULD HAVE TO BE REPLACED AND SAID HE WAS FIGHTING TOWARD THAT END.

BY RUSSELL BRINES

TOKYO, JAN. 12-(AP)-THE AMERICAN DEFENSE LINE IN THE WESTERN PACIFIC COULD BE THE SPRINGBOARD FOR POWERFUL AIR BLOWS AT THE OUTSET OF WAR, BUT IT IS NOT "IMPREGNABLE."

THIS IS THE CONCENSUS OF VIEWS OF TOPRANKING MILITARY OFFICIALS IN TOKYO AS GATHERED BY THIS CORRESPONDENT DURING FOUR YEARS OF CONVERSATIONS ON DEFENSE PROBLEMS.

(IN WASHINGTON, TUESDAY, SENATOR TOM CONNOLLY (D-TEXAS) QUOTED SECRETARY OF STATE DEAN ACHESON AS SAYING THAT THE UNITED STATES HAD AN IMPREGNABLE RING OF DEFENSES IN THE WESTERN PACIFIC WITHOUT FORMOSA. THIS WAS DISPUTED BY SOME REPUBLICAN SENATORS ATTENDING THE SENATE FOREIGN AFFAIRS COMMITTEE SESSION ADDRESSED BY ACHESON. THEY SAID THAT THE SECRETARY MERELY NODDED WHEN CONNOLLY MADE THE STATEMENT.

NO RESPONSIBLE OFFICER WOULD COMMENT PUBLICLY TODAY ON REPORTS OF SECRETARY ACHESON'S TESTIMONY BEFORE THE SENATE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE.

JAN 12 1950

BUT KEY OFFFICIALS ON THE SPOT HAVE MADE CLEAR THIS PICTURE OF WESTERN PACIFIC DEFENSES:

AMERICAN BOMBERS FROM JAPAN, OKINAWA AND THE PHILIPPINES COULD COVER THOUSANDS OF MILES OF POTENTIAL ENEMY TERRITORY FROM SOUTHEAST ASIA TO SIBERIA.

"WE CAN GIVE A GOOD ACCOUNT OF OURSELVES," SAY AIR OFFICERS ON THE SPOT.

BUT, TO REMAIN USEFUL, THESE BASES MUST BE DEFENDED AGAINST A TRIPLE ATTACK -- ENEMY AIR ASSAULTS, POSSIBLE COMBAT LANDINGS AND BLOCKADE. THIS WOULD INVOLVE THE COMBINED DEFENSIVE FACILITIES OF ALL THREE SERVICES.

JAPAN AND OKINAWA ARE RINGED NOW WITH SOVIET OR CHINESE COMMUNIST AIRBASES CAPABLE OF LAUNCHING SHORT RANGE AERIAL ASSAULTS. IF FORMOSA FALLS, THE NOOSE WILL BE TIGHTER AROUND OKINAWA, WHERE THE AMERICAN GARRISON NOW CONSIDERS ITS MISSION IS TO GET IN AS MANY BLOWS AS POSSIBLE BEFORE BEING KNOCKED OUT.

WORLD WAR II IN THE PACIFIC PROVED THAT NO ISLAND IS DEFENSIBLE AGAINST A SUFFICIENTLY DETERMINED ENEMY. AMERICAN FORCES TOOK EVERYTHING THEY WANTED. THE COST WAS HIGH FOR THE AMERICANS, BUT THIS FACTOR APPARENTLY IS FAR LESS IMPORTANT IN SOVIET MILITARY CALCULATIONS.

JAPAN CAPITULATED BASICALLY BECAUSE OF INTENSIVE BOMBING AND THE EFFECT OF A LONG AND TIGHT BLOCKADE. AMERICAN SUPPLY LINES FOR ITS BASES ARE FAR LONGER THAN ANY THE JAPANESE MAINTAINED. IN TIME OF WAR, THE UNITED STATES WOULD HAVE TO SUPPLY ITS OWN TROOPS AND IMPORT FOOD FOR THE JAPANESE AND OKINAWANS TO MINIMIZE THE THREAT OF INTERNAL UPHEAVALS.

THE SOVIET WESTERN PACIFIC FLEET NOW NUMBERS BETWEEN 72 AND 100 SUBMARINES. IT HAS BEEN REINFORCED SINCE THE WAR AND PRESUMABLY WILL BE INCREASED FURTHER UNDER THE RED NAVY'S INTENSIVE PROGRAM FOR SUBMARINE CONSTRUCTION.

THIS FORCE COULD RAISE HAVOC WITH AMERICAN SUPPLY SHIPS, AS AMERICAN SUBMARINES DID WITH THE JAPANESE MERCHANT FLEET.

AGAINST ALL THIS, AMERICAN OFFICERS HAVE CONFIDENCE IN THE SUPERIORITY OF THEIR MEN AND EQUIPMENT. THE UNITED STATES, THEY SAY, SHOULD NOT RELINQUISH ANY OF THE BASES IT NOW HOLDS.

THE ORIGINAL CONCEPTION OF THE WESTERN PACIFIC LINE WAS A SERIES OF ADVANCED BASES WHICH WERE CONSIDERED EXPENDABLE BECAUSE THEY WERE NOT FULLY DEFENSIBLE. NOW THE GENERAL VIEW IS THAT, IN SPITE OF POTENTIAL DIFFICULTIES, THE UNITED STATES HAS A MORAL OBLIGATION TO DEFEND DEMILITARIZED JAPAN.

THE AMERICAN LINE, WHICH HAS LITTLE CHANCE OF EXPANDING, IS ALREADY PARTIALLY OUTFLANKED BY A COMMUNIST LINE NEARLY TWICE AS LONG. IF THE COMMUNISTS REACH INDONESIA, THEY WILL COMPLETELY OUTFLANK THE AMERICAN POSITIONS AND PERHAPS MAKE THEM UNTENABLE.

"IT IS APPARENT THE ARTICLES BY COMRADE NOZAKA HAVE SHORTCOMINGS AND DEFECTS," THE JAPAN COMMUNIST PARTY REPLIED. "HOWEVER, THESE SHORTCOMINGS ALREADY HAVE BEEN OVERCOME BY COMRADE NOZAKA AND OTHERS THROUGH THEIR PRACTICAL ACTIONS. WE BELIEVE OUR PARTY IS MAKING A SOUND DEVELOPMENT NOW AFTER GETTING RID OF THESE WEAKNESSES."

THE NIPPONESE PARTY'S POLITBURO STATEMENT SAID JAPAN'S REDS ARE "COMPELLED TO TAKE A ZIG-ZAG COURSE IN OUR WORKS FOR THE PURSUANCE OF A SET OBJECTIVE."

OBSERVERS TOOK THIS TO MEAN THEIR ACTION WAS NECESSARY BECAUSE OF THE OCCUPATION.

"IT IS APPARENT THAT IF OUR COMRADES IN FOREIGN COUNTRIES CRITICIZE THE WORDS AND ACTIONS OF OUR PARTY AND ITS MEMBERS WITHOUT DUE CONSIDERATION TO THIS SITUATION IT WILL DO A GREAT HARM TO OUR PEOPLE AND OUR PARTY," THE STATEMENT CONTINUED.

"IN THIS SENSE IT IS A MATTER OF GREAT REGRET THAT NO FULL CONSIDERATION IS GIVEN TO WHAT LINE THE COMMUNIST PARTY OF JAPAN, THE PARTY OF THE MOST SINCERE PATRIOTS FOR THE PEOPLE IN JAPAN, SHOULD FOLLOW," IT SAID.

"THE PARTY HAS SO FAR OVERCOME SHORTCOMINGS WHENEVER THEY ARE CAUSED BY THE SPEECHES AND ACTIONS OF COMRADE NOZAKA AND TWO OR THREE PARTY ACTIVISTS AND HAS DEVELOPED ALONG A CORRECT LINE. THE MASSES HAVE AN IMPRESSION QUITE DIFFERENT FROM THE EVALUATION BY THIS (COMINFORM) ARTICLE."

NIGHTLEAD JESSUP (190)

SEOUL, FRIDAY, JAN.13-(AP)-DR. PHILIP JESSUP, ROVING U.S. AMBASSADOR, TODAY INSPECTED THE SOUTH KOREAN REPUBLIC'S DEFENSES ALONG ITS NERVOUS BORDER WITH COMMUNIST NORTH KOREA.

JESSUP TOLD REPORTERS THE AMERICAN-TRAINED SOUTH KOREAN ARMY WAS "DOING A GOOD, BUSINESS-LIKE JOB."

HE IS MAKING A FACT-FINDING TOUR BEFORE GOING TO BANGKOK, THAILAND NEXT MONTH. HE WILL PRESIDE THERE AT A CONFERENCE OF AMERICAN DIPLOMATS WHO WILL DISCUSS ASIATIC POLICY.

JESSUP WILL LEAVE TOMORROW FOR AN OVERNIGHT STOP AT OKINAWA, AMERICAN AIR BASE SOUTH OF JAPAN. HE THEN WILL SPEND TWO DAYS ON THE CHINESE NATIONALIST ISLAND OF FORMOSA.

THE AMBASSADOR AND HIS WIFE ON THE VISIT TO THE BORDER CLIMBED A RIDGE LOOKING INTO NORTH KOREA. NORTHERN MORTAR POSITIONS WERE ABOUT 2,000 YARDS AWAY.

THE AREA, 30 MILES NORTH OF SEOUL, HAS BEEN QUIET IN RECENT MONTHS. THERE WERE NUMEROUS CLASHES EARLIER. JESSUP WAS SHOWN DEFENSE PLAN MAPS AT A DIVISION HEADQUARTERS. HE VISITED A REGIMENT WHERE ANTI-TANK GUN CREWS WERE DRILLING.

AT THE BORDER JESSUP LISTENED WHILE KOREAN OFFICERS QUESTIONED A NORTHERN GUERRILLA WHO, THEY SAID, WAS ARRESTED WHILE CARRYING FOUR RIFLES INTENDED FOR REBEL FORCES OPERATING IN THE SOUTH.

SEOUL, JAN 12 (AP)-CHAIRMAN SHIN IK HI OF THE KOREAN REPUBLIC'S NATIONAL ASSEMBLY, TODAY CALLED AMERICA'S EFFORTS TO COMBAT COMMUNISM "SCATTERED AND WEAK."

SHIN MADE HIS REMARKS WHILE INTRODUCING TO THE ASSEMBLY DR. PHILIP JESSUP, ROVING AMERICAN AMBASSADOR ON A TOUR OF THE FAR EAST.

AN OFFICIAL TRANSLATION OF THE INTRODUCTION SAID:

"WHEN WE COMPARE THE DEFINITE AND DETERMINED HELP OF SOVIET RUSSIA TO HER SATELLITES, THE HELP OF THE UNITED STATES, THOUGH SINCERE SEEMS RATHER SCATTERED AND WEAK. THE UNCERTAIN ATTITUDE OF THE UNITED STATES IN HELPING OTHER DEMOCRATIC NATIONS HAS MORE OR LESS BEEN A FACTOR IN THE COLLAPSE OF NATIONALIST CHINA.

"AMPLY AWARE FROM PAST EXPERIENCE, AMERICA SHOULD NOT DRAFT IN SUCH AN UNCERTAIN ATTITUDE, FOR IT MAY, WHEN CONTINUED, BRING DISASTER UPON THE DEMOCRATIC NATIONS OF THE WORLD."

SHIN SAID THE KOREANS WOULD FIGHT FOR UNIFICATION OF THEIR COUNTRY AND "FOR THE FREEDOM OF HUMANITY AT LARGE" IF GIVEN ARMS AND AMMUNITION.

AMBASSADOR JESSUP MADE NO DIRECT REFERENCE TO SHIN'S OBVIOUS BID FOR ADDITIONAL AMERICAN MILITARY AID TO COMBAT THE COMMUNIST REGIME OF NORTH KOREA. INSTEAD, DR.JESSUP QUOTED PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S JAN.4 WARNINGS AGAINST "FALSE PROMISES OF COMMUNISM" AND SAID KOREA AND AMERICAN LIKE OTHER DEMOCRATIC NATIONS ARE COMBATTING COMMUNISM BY PROTECTING INDIVIDUAL FREEDOMS, STRENGTHENING ECONOMIC FOUNDATIONS AND PROVIDING BETTER LIFE FOR THEIR PEOPLES.

SINGAPORE, JAN 12-(AP)-TEN MALAYS WERE ORDERED TODAY TO STAND TRIAL ON MURDER CONSPIRACY CHARGES IN CONNECTION WITH THE SLAYING LAST MONTH OF DUNCAN STEWART, BRITISH GOVERNOR OF SARAWAK.

TWO YOUNG MALAYS HAVE BEEN SENTENCED TO DEATH FOR FATALLY STABBING STEWART AT SIBU, SARAWAK. AT A PRELIMINARY HEARINGS IN SIBU TODAY 10 OTHER MALAYS WERE ACCUSED OF BEING ACCOMPLICES BY CONSPIRING AGAINST STEWART.

THE GOVERNMENT ACCUSED THE 10 OF BEING MEMBERS OF A BAND CALLED THE "13 ESSENTIAL INGREDIENTS," WHICH WAS FORMED TO ASSASSINATE BRITISH AND SARAWAK OFFICIALS. THE BAND HAS BEEN AGITATING FOR BRITAIN TO RETURN CONTROL OF THE COLONY TO THE BROOKE FAMILY OF "WHITE RAJAHS" WHO RULED THE BORNEO TERRITORY FOR A CENTURY.

JAKARTA, U.S.I. JAN. 12-(AP)-THE UNITED STATES OF INDOESIA TODAY ASKED HOLLANDERS IN INDONESIA TO SUPPORT THE GOVERNMENT IN DEALING WITH GUERILLA GANGS IN WEST JAVA UNDER THE LEADERSHIP OF A FORMER DUTCH ARMY OFFICER.

A FORMER COMMANDER OF A TOUGH NETHERLANDS COMMANDO FORCE, R.P.P. WESTERLING, THREATENED OPEN WARFARE UNLESS THE GOVERNMENT RECOGNIZED THE PRIVATE ARMY HE SECRETLY ORGANIZED IN THE HILLS OF WEST JAVA.

HIS FORCE IS SAID TO BE MADE UP OF SEVERAL THOUSAND AMBONESE AND EURASIANS FORMERLY IN THE DUTCH COLONIAL ARMY. THE DUTCH ARMY HAS BEEN IMMOBILIZED AND THE INDOESIAN REPUBLICAN ARMY HAS NOT YET TAKEN OVER IN ALL JAVA AREAS.

MEANWHILE IN THE HIGHLAND CITY OF BANDOENG, NEAR JAKARTA, WESTERLING IS REPORTED TO HAVE MET WITH TOP OFFICIALS OF THE EAST JAVA STATE. HE ASSURED THE EAST JAVA OFFICIALS HE WOULD DO HIS UTMOST TO PREVENT HIS FOLLOWERS FROM TAKING "HASTY ACTION".

FROM THE ISLAND OF MADURA CAME A RADIO REPORT THAT THE ISLAND'S STATE LEGISLATURE HAS PASSED A RESOLUTION IN FAVOR OF DISSOLVING THE 16 FEDERAL STATES THAT MAKE UP THE U.S.I. FEDERATION AND SETTING UP ONLY A CENTRAL GOVERNMENT.

MADURA, OFF THE NORTH JAVA COAST, WAS INCLUDED IN THE INDONESIAN REPUBLIC WHEN THE INDONESIANS DECLARED THEIR INDEPENDENCE. THE DUTCH MADE IT A SEPARATE STATE WHEN THEY TOOK CONTROL OF IT IN THE "POLICE ACTION" OF 1947.

SIMILAR SENTIMENTS, CALLING FOR THE DISSOLUTION OF THE 16 FEDERAL STATES, HAVE BEEN EXPRESSED IN BOTH EAST AND WEST JAVA. THE U.S.I. GOVERNMENT YESTERDAY ANNOUNCED IT IS PUTTING EAST JAVA UNDER A SUPREME FEDERAL AUTHORITY. EAST JAVA WAS CARVED UP BY THE DUTCH 1947 ACTION AND TWO SEPARATE GOVERNMENTS COMPETING FOR POWER IN THE AREA MADE FOR POLITICAL CHAOS.

THE MINISTRY OF INFORMATION SAID TODAY THE "WESTERLING AFFAIR" WAS PART OF THE COMPLICATED SITUATION THAT AROSE FROM DUTCH MILITARY ACTION IN 1947, AND LATER POLITICAL MOVES OF THE DUTCH. IN THE MILITARY ACTION THE DUTCH TOOK WEST JAVA TERRITORY FROM THE INDOESIAN REPUBLIC AND SET UP A NEW STATE WITH ITS OWN SECURITY FORCES.

IT IS REMANANTS OF THESE FORCES WHICH WESTERLING, KNOWN AS "THE TURK" (HE WAS BORN IN ISTANBUL BUT IS A DUTCH NATIONAL) NOW LEADS.

THE MINISTRY'S STATEMENT SAID THE GOVERNMENT ACCEPTED WHAT IS AN INHERITANCE OF NETHERLANDS POLICY AND HAS DONE EVERYTHING IT COULD TO BRING PEACE AND HARMONY TO WEST JAVA.

DUTCH HIGH COMMISSIONER HANS HIRSCHFELD SAID HE DEPLORED WESTERLING'S ACTIONS BUT SAID THE MATTER WAS BEYOND CONTROL OF THE DUTCH.

NIGHT LEAD ECA REPORT

BY ROGER D.GREENE

WASHINGTON,JAN.12-(AP)-PRESIDENT TRUMAN SENT A REPORT TO CONGRESS TODAY CALLING FOR THE EVENTUAL ECONOMIC MERGER OF WESTERN EUROPEAN NATIONS INTO A SINGLE GIANT TRADING AREA OF 270,000,000 PEOPLE.

IN THAT DIRECTION, THE REPORT SAID, LIES EUROPE'S POST-WAR ECONOMIC SALVATION.

THE REPORT, THE SIXTH QUARTERLY REVIEW BY THE ECONOMIC COOPERATION ADMINISTRATION (ECA), SKETCHED A CAUTIOUSLY OPTIMISTIC PICTURE OF EUROPEAN RECOVERY UNDER THE STIMULUS OF AMERICAN AID AND SET FORTH THE FOLLOWING GOALS FOR A BRIGHTER FUTURE:

1. RELAXATION OF TRADE RESTRICTIONS.
2. LOWERING OF TARIFF BARRIERS.
3. MAINTENANCE OF FISCAL STABILITY.
4. FURTHER INCREASES IN PRODUCTION.

"BY SHARPLY DEVALUING THEIR CURRENCIES, THE WESTERN EUROPEAN COUNTRIES HAVE BROUGHT THEIR PRICE LEVELS MORE NEARLY INTO LINE WITH THOSE PREVAILING IN THE HARD CURRENCY AREAS AND THUS PREPARED THE WAY FOR A DIRECT ATTACK ON THEIR REMAINING ECONOMIC PROBLEMS," THE REPORT SAID.

BUT ECA SAID "MANY OTHER STEPS" MUST BE TAKEN, AND IT DECLARED:

"THE INTEGRATION OF WESTERN EUROPE INTO A SINGLE PRODUCING AND TRADING AREA WOULD FREE THE FLOW OF GOODS NOW HAMPERED BY RESTRICTED MARKETS AND NATIONAL BARRIERS."

THE REPORT SAID AMERICAN DOLLARS HAVE BOLSTERED EUROPE'S ECONOMY TO SUCH AN EXTENT THAT THE 16 MARSHALL PLAN NATIONS CAN TAKE THIS "RADICAL" STEP WITHOUT RISK.

"ALTHOUGH ECONOMIC INTEGRATION IS OBVIOUSLY A LONG-TERM OBJECTIVE, THE PRESENT TIME IS FAVORABLE FOR INITIATING THIS PROGRAM," IT SAID.

THE REPORT PREDICTED THAT SUCH A PROGRAM WOULD CREATE A BOOM IN INDUSTRY AND TRADE THROUGHOUT WESTERN EUROPE AND "IMMEASURABLY IMPROVE" THE SALE OF EUROPEAN GOODS IN DOLLAR MARKETS.

JAN 12 1950

A202WX

IT NOTED THAT SOME STEPS TOWARD THE FREEING OF TRADE BETWEEN MARSHALL PLAN COUNTRIES HAD ALREADY BEEN TAKEN IN THE PERIOD COVERED BY THE REPORT, THE THIRD QUARTER OF 1949.

FORMER SECRETARY OF STATE GEN.GEORGE C.MARSHALL, FATHER OF THE MARSHALL PLAN, TOLD A KIWANIS CLUB MEETING IN SOUTHERN PINES,N.C., YESTERDAY THAT THE EUROPEAN RECOVERY PROGRAM HAS MADE GREATER STRIDES IN THE LAST TWO YEARS THAN OFFICIAL WASHINGTON EXPECTED.

ECA'S 140-PAGE REPORT SAID EUROPE HAS GONE THROUGH THE SHOCK OF DEVALUATION WITHOUT TOUCHING OFF A NEW CYCLE OF INFLATION, AND IT WENT ON:

"MOST OF THE NATIONS ARE THUS IN A BETTER POSITION TO MOVE TOWARD ECONOMIC INTEGRATION THAN AT ANY TIME SINCE THE END OF THE WAR."

FOR THE LONG RANGE, IT PROPOSED "A SINGLE MARKET WITHIN WHICH QUANTITATIVE RESTRICTIONS ON THE MOVEMENT OF GOODS, MONETARY BARRIERS TO THE FLOW OF TRADE, AND EVENTUALLY ALL TARIFFS ARE ELIMINATED."

THE REPORT SAID THAT DURING THE FIRST 18 MONTHS OF THE MARSHALL PROGRAM, THE UNITED STATES POURED A TOTAL OF $7,086,000,000 INTO WESTERN EUROPE THROUGH DIRECT GRANTS AND LOANS.

TWO THIRDS OF THE COMMODITIES AUTHORIZED UNDER ECA WERE SCHEDULED TO BE PROCURED IN THE UNITED STATES, IT SAID.

JAN 12 1950

INDUSTRIAL PRODUCTION IN THE ECA COUNTRIES NOW STANDS AT 112 PER CENT OF PREWAR OUTPUT, THE REPORT SAID, AND DESPITE A SEVERE DROUGHT, AGRICULTURAL PRODUCTION WAS AT LEAST EQUAL TO A YEAR AGO.

WASHINGTON THIRD ADD NIGHT LEAD ACHESON X X X UNITED NATIONS.

BUT PROBLEMS OTHER THAN THOSE OF A PURELY MILITARY NATURE ARISE OUT OF WHAT ACHESON CALLED "SUBVERSION AND PENETRATION." HE DESCRIBED ASIA AS BEING SEIZED BY A GREAT REVOLUTIONARY FERMENT AIMED AT ENDING POVERTY AND ESTABLISHING NATIONAL INDEPENDENCE. SERIOUS ECONOMIC AND POLITICAL PROBLEMS CONFRONT VARIOUS COUNTRIES WHICH IN SOME CASES ARE RULED BY NEW GOVERNMENTS.

WHILE IN THE NORTHERN PART OF THE FAR EAST AS IN JAPAN AND KOREA, THE UNITED STATES HAS DIRECT RESPONSIBILITY FOR WHAT MAY HAPPEN IN THE FUTURE, IN THE SOUTHERN PART, HE SAID, "WE ARE ONE OF MANY NATIONS WHO CAN DO NO MORE THAN HELP."

MOREOVER, HE ARGUED, THERE ARE LIMITS ON AMERICAN ASSISTANCE AND

IT CAN BE EFFECTIVE "ONLY WHEN IT IS THE MISSING COMPONENT" IN THE TOTAL CAPACITY OF A NATION TO SURVIVE. OTHER ESSENTIAL COMPONENTS, HE ASSERTED, ARE THE WILL AND DETERMINATION OF THE PEOPLE TO RESIST OUTSIDE FORCES AND POPULAR SUPPORT FOR THEIR GOVERNMENT.

IN TALKING ABOUT CONDITIONS IN SPECIFIC AREAS, ACHESON SAID THERE ARE "REALLY GRAVE TROUBLES" IN INDIA AND PAKISTAN REVOLVING AROUND DIFFERENCES OF THOSE TWO NATIONS OVER KASHMIR AND ALSO OVER THEIR ECONOMIC DIFFICULTIES. THEY HAVE GIVEN ASSURANCES THAT THEY WILL NOT RESORT TO WAR AND THE UNITED STATES WELCOMES THOSE ASSURANCES, HE ADDED, BUT BELIEVES THAT THERE SHOULD BE "SOME ACCOMODATION" ON THE PART OF INDIA AND PAKISTAN TO GET THE PROBLEMS SOLVED.

NIGHT LEAD ADMIRALS

WASHINGTON, JAN 12-(AP)-THE SENATE ARMED SERVICES COMMITTEE TODAY UNANIMOUSLY OKAYED ADMIRAL FORREST P.SHERMAN FOR CHIEF OF NAVAL OPERATIONS AS REPUBLICAN MEMBERS CALLED OFF A PROBE OF ADMIRAL LOUIS E. DENFELD'S OUSTER FROM THE POST.

ACTION CAME SWIFTLY AFTER SECRETARY OF THE NAVY MATTHEWS HAD TESTIFIED THAT:

JAN 12 1950

1. THE NAVY WON'T PUT UP WITH A SUBORDINATE WHO DISAGREES WITH POLICIES OF HIS SUPERIOR. HE'LL GET TRANSFERRED BUT NOT "PUNISHED OR DEMOTED."

2. HE DIDN'T FIRE DENFELD BECAUSE THE ADMIRAL LAMBASTED PENTAGON POLICIES BEFORE THE HOUSE ARMED SERVICES COMMITTEE. HE HAD CALLED FOR A CHANGE BEFORE THE ADMIRAL TESTIFIED. "I COULD NOT HAVE ADMINISTERED THE NAVY WITH ADMIRAL DENFELD AS CHIEF OF NAVAL OPERATIONS."

DENFELD, NOW ON LEAVE OF ABSENCE, HAS NOT DECIDED WHETHER TO STAY IN THE NAVY IN OTHER CAPACITY OR RETIRE.

SHERMAN'S NOMINATION NOW GOES BEFORE THE SENATE. COMMITTEE CHAIRMAN TYDINGS (D-MD) TRIED TO GET UNANIMOUS CONSENT FOR ITS APPROVAL IN THE SENATE AFTER THE GROUP ACTED BUT SENATOR MCCARTHY (R-WIS) OBJECTED. IT MUST LIE OVER A DAY.

MATTHEWS CAME BEFORE THE COMMITTEE AS THE CLIMAX TO A LONG AND HEATED MORNING ARGUMENT IN WHICH TYDINGS ACCUSED SENATOR KNOWLAND (R-CALIF) AND OTHER REPUBLICANS OF TRYING TO THROW OPEN, BY SUBTERFUGE, THE ENTIRE DISPUTE OVER THE HANDLING OF ARMED SERVICES UNIFICATION. KNOWLAND RETORTED THAT TYDINGS WAS TRYING TO GAG HIM.

"I AM NOT GOING TO BE BOUND OR GAGGED," KNOWLAND DECLARED. "IF SO I SHALL TENDER MY RESIGNATION AS A MEMBER OF THE COMMITTEE."

TYDINGS, STRIVING TO GET THE SHERMAN NOMINATION CLEARED BEFORE THE COMMITTEE MIGHT GET EMBROILED IN A BITTER DEFENSE POLICY ROW, GAVE IN TO REPUBLICAN INSISTENCE AND AGREED TO CALL MATTHEWS AFTER THE REPUBLICANS HAD FAILED TO FORCE HIM TO DO SO ON A FORMAL MOTION. THIS LOST 5 TO 5 WITH REPUBLICANS AND DEMOCRATS EVENLY DIVIDED.

TYDINGS CONTENDED THE REAL ISSUE IN THE CONTROVERSY WAS WHETHER THE COMMITTEE WOULD CONSIDER THE SHERMAN APPOINTMENT, OR THE OUSTER OF DENFELD. THERE HAD BEEN REPEATED CHARGES THAT DENFELD WAS THE VICTIM OF REPRISAL FOR HAVING CRITICISED THE HANDLING OF UNIFICATION POLICIES IN HIS TESTIMONY LAST FALL BEFORE THE HOUSE COMMITTEE.

TYDINGS TOLD HIS COMMITTEE THAT HE WAS WILLING TO TAKE UP EITHER THE SHERMAN APPOINTMENT OR THE DENFELD OUSTER, BUT THAT HE DID NOT WANT TO SEE THEM TANGLED.

KNOWLAND SAID HE DID NOT WANT A "FULL DRESS INVESTIGATION" OF THE DENFELD CASE, BUT HE FELT IT HIS DUTY TO PROTEST WHAT HE TERMED PUNISHMENT OF OFFICERS FOR TESTIFYING BEFORE CONGRESS.

JAN 12 1950

A50WX

HOWEVER, AFTER MATTHEWS TESTIFIED, THE CALIFORNIA SENATOR TOLD REPORTERS HE WAS SATISFIED WITH THE RESULTS OF THE QUESTIONING, ADDING "I DO NOT INTEND TO PRESS FOR AN INQUIRY INTO THE DENFELD MATTER AT THIS TIME." IN THIS HE WAS JOINED BY SENATOR BRIDGES (R-NH).

MATTHEWS DECLARED IT IS NOT ONLY THE RIGHT OF OFFICERS TO APPEAR BEFORE CONGRESSIONAL COMMITTEES WHEN INVITED, BUT THEIR DUTY. HE SAID THEY SHOULD BE ABLE TO TESTIFY FREELY AND FRANKLY.

BUT MATTHEWS ALSO APPEARED TO BE SAYING THAT AN OFFICER WHO DISPLAYS AGREEMENT WITH POLICIES OF HIS SUPERIOR SUBJECTS HIMSELF TO BEING TRANSFERRED TO PRESERVE THE INTEGRITY OF COMMAND.

THE SECRETARY'S POLICY DECLARATION WOULD SEEM TO EXPLAIN SOME SHIFTS IN HIGH NAVAL POSTS SINCE THE UNIFICATION UPROAD WHEN MANY NAVAL OFFICERS JOINED IN FIERY CRITICISM OF HIGH COMMAND MOVES WHICH THEY CONTENDED WERE DAMAGING THE NAVY AND THE NATIONAL DEFENSE.

IN THE MORNING SESSION OF THE COMMITTEE KNOWLAND HAD READ FROM AN ARTICLE BY OUTSPOKEN REAR ADMIRAL DAN V.GALLERY, IN THE CURRENT ISSUE OF COLLIER'S MAGAZINE. GALLERY, CITING THE DENFELD OUSTER WHICH OCCURRED TWO WEEKS AFTER THE OPERATIONS CHIEF HAD TESTIFIED ON CAPITOL HILL, SAID:

"IN THE RESHUFFLE WHICH FOLLOWED, ALL THE OTHER TOP ADMIRALS WHO SUPPORTED DENFELD WERE SWEPT INTO THE DEEP FREEZE.

HE SAID THEY MERELY HAD REFUSED TO "CONFORM TO A PARTY LINE." HE CONTENDED THAT THE NAVY WAS "FEELING THE IRON HEEL OF THOUGHT CONTROL."

GALLERY SAID THE "COLD PURGE" OF TOP ADMIRALS IS A THREAT TO DEMOCRACY" AND THAT CHERISHED RIGHTS CANNOT BE PRESERVED BY "USING THE TOOLS OF THE POLICE STATE."

THE ARTICLE BORE, ETC., PICKING UP AT FIFTH GRAF ADVANCE ON GALLERY ARTICLE MOVED LAST NIGHT A129 NOW RELEASED.

(300) WASHINGTON,JAN 12-(AP)-THE STATE DEPARTMENT DREW CAUSTIC COMMENTS FROM SOME RADIO BROADCASTERS TONIGHT FOR THE MANNER IN WHICH IT HANDLED RADIO ARRANGEMENTS FOR SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON'S FOREIGN POLICY SPEECH TODAY.

COMPLAINT WAS VOICED BY THE NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF BROADCASTERS AND BY ERIC SEVAREID, OF THE COLUMBIA BROADCASTING SYSTEM.

SEVAREID SAID THAT AFTER FIRST INVITING THE RADIO NETWORKS TO RECORD THE SPEECH, THE DEPARTMENT CHANGED ITS MIND, INSTEAD IT LIMITED RADIO PARTICIPATION TO A "VOICE OF AMERICA" (GOVERNMENT) RECORDING AND THEN DELAYED MAKING COPIES OF THAT AVAILABLE TO USUAL RADIO CHANNELS UNTIL IT HAD BEEN EDITED.

BUT THE STATE DEPARTMENT INSISTED THAT THERE HAD BEEN NO COMMITMENT BY ACHESON TO PERMIT RADIO BROADCASTING OF THE SPEECH, DELIVERED AT THE NATIONAL PRESS CLUB TO MEMBERS AND GUESTS.

A DEPARTMENT SPOKESMAN, MICHAEL MCDERMOTT, SAID RECORDING APPARATUS WAS INSTALLED SHORTLY BEFORE THE SPEECH BEGAN. ACHESON DID NOT TALK FROM A PREPARED TEXT.

THREE OR FOUR HOURS AFTER THE SPEECH HAD BEEN MADE, RECORDINGS WERE MADE AVAILABLE FOR GENERAL RADIO USE.

THEY WERE NOT RELEASED UNTIL AFTER AHCESON HIMSELF HAD MADE UP HIS MIND TO RELEASE THEM, MCDERMOTT SAID.

"THAT DECISION WAS HIS," HE ADDED. MCDERMOTT CONFIRMED THAT THE NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF BROADCASTERS HAD MADE A PROTEST OVER THE ARRANGEMENTS.

SEVAREID SAID THAT THE LONG DELAY IN RELEASING THE RECORDINGS WAS ATTRIBUTED BY "VOICE OF AMERICA" MEN TO THE NECESSITY OF HAVING "TWO MORE OFFICIALS" LISTEN TO THE RECORDED SPEECH AND GIVE IT THEIR OKAY.

MCDERMOTT SAID THE "VOICE OF AMERICA" MADE NO USE OF THE RECORDED SPEECH IN ITS GOVERNMENT-SPONSORED BROADCAST TO OVERSEAS LISTENERS BEFORE DOMESTIC RADIO CHAINS COULD EMPLOY IT.

SEVAREID SAID STATE DEPARTMENT OFFICIALS AT FIRST HAD WANTED THE WIDEST POSSIBLE PUBLICITY FOR ACHESON'S SPEECH, URGED THE RADIO MEN TO RECORD IT AND THEN CHANGED SIGNALS.

THE SITUATION THAT FINALLY DEVELOPED, SEVAREID SAID, WAS "THE MOST REMARKABLE EFFORT, WE BELIEVE, TO PROTECT A PUBLIC OFFICIAL FROM HIMSELF THAT WASHINGTON HAS SEEN IN YEARS."

HE IS MAJOR GENERAL HUGH J.CASEY, WHO RETIRED FROM THE ARMY LAST MONTH TO BECOME EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT OF THE PENNUYLVANIA HOSPITAL.

THE TURKISH FREIGHTER MARDIN IS LOADING 300 TANKS AND ARMORED CARS BROUGHT HERE FROM THE LIMA,O.,ORDINANCE DEPOT AS EXCESS ARMY EQUIPMENT. DIPLOMATIC AUTHORITIES IN WASHINGTON SAID YESTERDAY THIS MAY BE ONLY THE FIRST OF A SERIES OF SHIPMENTS TO CHIANG KAI SHEK'S ISLAND FORTRESS.

THE ARMY VEHICLES MAKE UP A BELATED DELIVERY OF EXCESS MATERIAL BOUGHT BY THE CHINESE NATIONALISTS FROM THE $125,000,000 (M) CREDIT VOTED BY CONGRESS IN 1948.

BY LEO BRANHAM
NEW YORK, JAN. 12-(AP)-PROF.CARL S.SHOUP, COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY TAX EXPERT, REPLIED TODAY TO SHARP CRITICS OF THE SHOUP MISSION PROPOSALS FOR HIGHER INCOME TAXES FOR FOREIGN WORKERS IN JAPAN.

THE EDUCATOR INDICATED HE FELT AMERICAN BUSINESS MEN OBJECTORS WERE SLIGHTLY OFF-BASE BY CONCENTRATING THEIR FIRE ON RECOMMENDATIONS TO JUMP THE INCOME TAX TO 51 PER CENT.

HE TOLD A PRESS CONFERENCE THAT THE OVERALL EFFECT UPON AMERICAN BUSINESS OF THE PROPOSALS "CANNOT BE JUDGED BY WHAT WE RECOMMEND ABOUT INCOME TAXES."

HIS 7-MAN MISSION ALSO PROPOSED, HE REMINDED CRITICS, REPEAL OF JAPN'S 10 TO 20 PER CENT EXCESS PROFITS TAX ON FOREIGN BUSINESS IN NIPPON.

THE SHOUP MISSION, AFTER FOUR MONTHS IN JAPAN LAST SUMMER, RECOMMENDED SWEEPING CHANGES IN JAPAN'S TAX RATES TO SCAP (SUPREME COUNCIL OF ALLIED POWERS) AND TO THE JAPANESE GOVERNMENT. GENERAL DOUGLAS MACARTHUR, ALLIED COMMANDER, OFFICIALLY OKAYED THE 4-VOLUME MISSION REPORT, PROF.SHOUP SAID. THE GENERAL HAD RECOMMENDED ADOPTION BY THE JAPANESE DIET.

THE DIET IS EXPECTED TO ENACT INTO LAW AT LEAST PART OF THE SHOUP PROPOSALS DURING ITS CURRENT SESSION, THE PROFESSOR SAID. THESE NEW TAX LAWS WOULD BECOME EFFECTIVE AROUND APRIL 1.

THE NATIONAL FOREIGN TRADE COUNCIL, AMONG OTHER BUSINESS MEN'S ORGANIZATIONS, HAS CHARGED THE SHOUP PROPOSALS WOULD SCARE AWAY POTENTIAL INVESTORS IN JAPAN AND DISCOURAGE EXPANSION OF BUSINESS INTERESTS ALREADY ESTABLISHED IN THAT COUNTRY.

FLANKED BY TWO OTHER MISSION MEMBERS, PROFESSORS WILLIAM C. WARREN AND WILLIAM S.VICKREY OF COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY'S LAW AND ECONOMICS DEPARTMENTS, RESPECTIVELY, PROF.SHOUP SAID:

"THE MISSION FEELS THERE SHOULD BE EQUITABLE TAXATION FOR ALL IN JAPAN--NOT ONLY FOR JAPAN'S 82,000,000 PEOPLE BUT FOR ALL FOREIGNERS RESIDENT THERE.

"HOWEVER, THE MISSION HAS NO OBJECTION IF THE JAPANESE GOVERNMENT SEES FIT TO TAKE A DIFFERENT COURSE THAN OUR PROPOSALS FOR NEW TAX RATES. WE FEEL IT IS A PROBLEM FOR THE JAPANESE TO SETTLE AS THEY WISH.

B41

JAN 12 1950

"WE (THE MISSION) STAND BY OUR PRINCIPLE OF EQUITABLE TAXATION. WE WILL OFFER NO OBJECTIONS TO LOWER INCOME TAX RATES IF THE JAPANESE:

"1-- FEEL THAT THE ECONOMIC ISSUES INVOLVED ARE SO IMPORTANT THAT LOWERED RATES ARE IMPERATIVE.

"2-- IF THE LOWER RATES ARE UNIFORM FOR ALL FOREIGNERS IN JAPAN --AMERICANS, BRITISH, INDIAN AND OTHERS.

"IN EFFECT", CONTINUED PROF. SHOUP, "WE SAY TO THE JAPANESE: 'WE STILL BELIEVE AN EQUITABLE INCOME TAX AT THE RATE THE MISSION RECOMMENDS SHOULD BE ENACTED, BUT IF, FOR ECONOMIC REASONS, YOU WISH TO MAKE THE TAX LOWER, THAT'S YOUR PROBLEM AND PRIVILEGE."

PROF. SHOUP SAID THE PROPOSED 51 PER CENT INCOME TAX WAS NOT EXCESSIVE IN VIEW OF LOW LIVING COSTS IN JAPAN.

"FOR INSTANCE," HE SAID, "AMERICAN'S WORKING THERE CAN OBTAIN A FULL TIME SERVANT FOR $10 A MONTH."

LAKE SUCCESS, JAN.12-(AP)-RUSSIA'S JAKOB A.MALIK CAME BACK TO THE UNITED NATIONS SECURITY COUNCIL TODAY. BUT HE MADE IT CLEAR HE WOULD WALK OUT AGAIN--AS HE DID TUESDAY--IF THE COUNCIL BEATS DOWN HIS DEMAND TO OUST THE NATIONALIST CHINA DELEGATION AT THIS TIME.

OTHER MEMBERS MADE IT EQUALLY CLEAR THEY ARE NOT YET READY TO KICK OUT THE NATIONALISTS AND OPEN THE WAY FOR RED CHINA TO JOIN THE COUNCIL NOW.

MALIK IN A 26-MINUTE SPEECH ATTACKED NATIONALIST DELEGATE T.F.TSIANG AND REPEATEDLY DEMANDED THAT THE COUNCIL TOSS HIM OUT IMMEDIATELY.

THE COUNCIL ADJOURNED WITHOUT REACHING A DECISION. A VOTE IS EXPECTED TOMORROW.

AMERICAN DELEGATE ERNEST A.GROSS TOLD THE COUNCIL THE U.S. WOULD VOTE AGAINST THE SOVIET RESOLUTION CALLING FOR TSIANG'S OUSTER; THAT THE U.S. CONSIDERS SUCH A VOTE WOULD NOT BE A VETO; AND THAT THE UNITED STATES IS READY TO DO WHATEVER THE MAJORITY OF THE SECURITY COUNCIL WANTS DONE ABOUT THE NATIONALIST CHINA DELEGATION.

INFORMED SOURCES HERE POINTED OUT THE UNITED STATES THUS WOULD GO ALONG WITH ANY SEVEN-MEMBER MAJORITY OF THE 11-NATION COUNCIL AND WOULD NOT RECOGNIZE ANY VETO ON THE RUSSIAN RESOLUTION. TSIANG INDICATED HE REGARDED THE SOVIET MOVE AS ONE WHERE HE COULD USE CHINA'S "BIG POWER" VETO BUT THERE IS NO DEFINITE INFORMATION TSIANG WILL CAST A VETO IF AND WHEN SEVEN COUNTRIES VOTE AGAINST HIM.

FIVE COUNCIL NATIONS RECOGNIZE RED CHINA BUT NOT ALL OF THEM, INCLUDING BRITAIN, ARE READY TO UNSEAT THE NATIONALISTS YET.

TSIANG OPENED THE MEETING BY STEPPING OUT OF THE CHAIRMAN'S SEAT IN FAVOR OF THE NEXT DELEGATION IN LINE FOR THAT POST, THE CUBANS. DR.CARLOS BLANCO, CUBAN ALTERNATE DELEGATE, TOOK OVER AND CONDUCTED THE MEETING. TSIANG ACTED UNDER A COUNCIL RULE WHICH PERMITS DELEGATES TO RELINQUISH THE CHAIR ON QUESTIONS IN WHICH THEIR GOVERNMENT ARE DIRECTLY INTERESTED.

JAN 12 1950

A52

TSIANG TOLD THE COUNCIL MALIK'S RESOLUTION--PUT IN TUESDAY--WAS ANOTHER PROOF THAT THE SOVIET UNION HAS SCRAPPED ITS 1945 TREATY OF FRIENDSHIP WITH THE CHIANG KAI-SHEK GOVERNMENT. TSIANG SAID HE REPRESENTED A LEGALLY ELECTED GOVERNMENT WHILE THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS WERE PUPPETS OF MOSCOW.

"THE SOVIET UNION IS TRYING TO DICTATE TO THE COUNCIL," TSIANG SAID. "THIS COUNCIL CAN NOT ACCEPT SUCH DICTATION AND CAN NOT TOLERATE SUCH MANNERS UNLESS THE COUNCIL DECIDES TO SACRIFICE ITS OWN DIGNITY AND PRESTIGE."

MALIK ACCUSED THE UNITED STATES AND BRITAIN OF ATTACKING HIS RESOLUTION TUESDAY AFTER HE HAD WALKED OUT INSTEAD OF SPEAKING UP WHILE HE WAS IN THE COUNCIL ROOM. SIR ALEXANDER CADOGAN, BRITAIN, REPLIED THAT IF MALIK MEANT HE WAS AFRAID TO SAY TO HIS FACE WHAT HE SAID TO THE COUNCIL TUESDAY HE WOULD READ HIS STATEMENT AGAIN. CADOGAN DID SO AND ADDED THAT HIS GOVERNMENT STILL FELT IT IS PREMATURE TO CONSIDER THE CHINA QUESTION IN THE COUNCIL AS LONG AS LESS THAN HALF OF THE U.N. MEMBERS HAVE NOT RECOGNIZED THE RED REGIME.

BRITAIN, NORWAY, &,$8-, RUSSIA AND YUGOSLAVIA--ALL COUNCIL MEMBERS--ARE AMONG THE DOZEN NATIONS THAT HAVE RECOGNIZED THE PEIPING REGIME SO FAR.

JEAN CHAUVEL, FRANCE, SAID HE WOULD VOTE AGAINST THE RUSSIAN RESOLUTION. CHAUVEL ALSO RAPPED OUT A REPROOF TO MALIK FOR WALKING OUT.

ALES BEBLER, YUGOSLAV DEPUTY FOREIGN MINISTER, AGAIN CALLED FOR THE OUSTER OF TSIANG.

NEW YORK, JAN.12-(AP)-LEON STRAUS, ONE OF THE SPONSORS OF THE PAUL ROBESON CONCERT THAT ENDED IN THE PEEKSKILL RIOTING LAST SEPTEMBER, SAID TODAY HE HAS RECEIVED AN "OTHER THAN HONORABLE" DISCHARGE AS AN ARMY RESERVE OFFICER.

HE MADE THE ANNOUNCEMENT IN THE PUBLIC RELEASE OF A LETTER TO THE ADJUTANT GENERAL OF THE ARMY, SAYING HE FIRST LEARNED OF THE ACT IN A GOSSIP COLUMN OF A BRONX NEWSPAPER. LATER, ON JAN.7, HE SAID, HE RECEIVED A FORMAL LETTER FROM THE ARMY NOTIFYING HIM OF THE DISCHARGE.

"MAY I INQUIRE AS TO WHY THE ARMY NOTIFIED THE PRESS EVEN BEFORE I HAD ANY INDICATION OF ITS ACTION?" HE SAID IN HIS OWN LETTER. "MAY I ASK WHY I HAVE RECEIVED NO CHARGES--WHY THERE WAS NO TRIAL BEFORE THIS ACTION WAS TAKEN?"

JAN 12 1950

STRAUS WAS ONE OF 26 ROBESON SUPPORTERS TAKEN INTO STATE POLICE CUSTODY WHEN THE CONCERT GROUP BROKE UP. HE WAS RELEASED A FEW HOURS LATER WITHOUT CHARGES BEING FILED.

STRAUS SAID HE SURMISED "FROM NEWSPAPER REPORTS" THAT THE DISCHARGE WAS DUE TO HIS ACTIVITIES AT PEEKSKILL. THE CONCERT WAS SPONSORED BY THE CIVIL RIGHTS CONGRESS, AN ORGANIZATION LISTED AS SUBVERSIVE BY THE DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE.

THE ARMY HAS SEVERAL TYPES OF DISCHARGES, RANGING DOWN FROM "HONORABLE" TO "DISHONORABLE." "OTHER THAN HONORABLE" IS IN BETWEEN.

STRAUS, WHO FOUGHT AS AN INFANTRYMAN IN EUROPE, WAS COMMISSIONED A SECOND LIEUTENANT ON JULY 7, 1945, WHILE STILL IN EUROPE.

SOVIET SAID TO ASK BASES

JAN 13 1950

Reported Dickering With Red China For Military Zones

A. GAVSHON

London, Jan. 13 (AP) — Information reaching a major Western power from Moscow says Russia is dickering for new naval and military bases in Communist China.

A qualified informant, reporting this tonight, emphasized the information may be speculative in view of the highly secret nature of current Sino-Soviet Moscow talks.

However, officials representing two other Western powers said there is good reason to believe a defense, trade and friendship pact between Russia and Communist China is on its way.

The informant who spoke of new bases would neither pinpoint the source of his information nor give many details of the report. He did say that if his information was correct, Russia would have much firmer military control over China than she has today.

Joint Railway Control

Relations between Russia and China now are governed by a 1945 pact entered into by Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek's Nationalist regime. It was written after the United States and Britain had agreed to its principles at the Yalta conference.

Its terms made Russia joint owner of the south and eastern Manchurian railways, Port Arthur a joint Sino-Soviet naval base, and Dairen a free port. Many Manchurian and Outer Mongolian communications were placed under joint control, too.

Moscow radio announced about two months ago the Peiping regime intended "to review all treaties concluded by the Kuomintang (Nationalists) with foreign powers and, according to their nature, revise, annul or recognize them."

Molotov Assignment

This review and the formulation of new trade and money relations with Russia are presumed to be the purpose of Mao Tze-tung's current mission to Moscow.

Communist China's top man has been talking directly with Prime Minister Stalin and Vyacheslav M. Molotov, Deputy Premier.

Molotov is believed to have been assigned to run Russia's relations with Communist China nearly a year ago.

The Russian and Chinese Communist leaders have more than once pledged themselves to friendly and full co-operation not only in foreign affairs but in their economic relations.

Status Of Mongolias

Within the framework of that undertaking, the Western officials think subjects which have been studied in Moscow between Mao Tze-tung and Stalin include:

1. The status of Inner and Outer Mongolia, Sinkiang and Manchuria.

[Dean Acheson, American Secretary of State, charged yesterday Russia is busy detaching these areas from China and attaching them to her own territory.]

2. Future Soviet participation in running and developing these and other areas of backward North China.

3. Provision by Russia of industrial know-how and whatever capital equipment she can spare to boost Red China's program of industrialization.

4. Future of Tibet, which the Chinese Communist regime has undertaken to "liberate."

Head Blown Up By Germans To Avoid Battles

London, Jan. 13 (AP)—German soldiers blew their heads up like balloons in order to escape battle service during the war, the British Medical Journal revealed today.

The Journal, organ of the British Medical Association, said the "self-inflation" trick to pretend illness was puzzling to anyone who had not seen it before. Usually the effects wore off after 48 hours, Dr. Philip Reading, the author of the article, wrote:

Nicked Inner Cheek

This is what the Germans did:

They nicked deeply the inner side of the cheek as far back as possible with a razor blade or sometimes between the teeth. Then, they took a deep breath and pinched the nostrils firmly between finger and thumb.

The pressure distended the cheeks and forced air through the nick into the cheek. Once air entered the small hole, the tissues could be rapidly inflated, producing a swelling of face and neck.

Dr. Reading said he handled the case of a German prisoner of war who feigned sickness in this way in order to evade or delay punishment for infringing camp regulations.

Paris Expels 17 More Poles; Warsaw (N) Holds 4 Frenchmen

Paris, Jan. 13 (AP)—Franco-Polish relations plummeted again today. France expelled 17 more Poles, boosting to 75 the number ousted from this country since mid-November. Four French citizens were arrested in Warsaw, presumably in retaliation. R, W I L S O N

The Poles sent out of France today were among about 50 rounded up this week on charges of interfering in French politics. Eighteen others were deported yesterday.

Diplomatic Concern

The French Foreign Ministry said it was studying a protest from the Polish Embassy here, but withheld further comment. The embassy issued a statement asserting France was not justified in her decision of six days ago to suspend trade negotiations with Poland.

Poland holds the French Government "responsible on future developments in Franco-Polish economic relations," it said.

In Warsaw, a spokesman for Poland's Prime Ministry said the Government is undertaking "adequate measures in view of arrests in France and statements by French security authorities."

Called Insane Policy

The general position appeared becoming deadlocked. Diplomatic circles expressed concern.

French police said a number of Poles have been found carrying French Communist party cards.

The Franco-Polish Friendship Society said the French Government is "binded by anti-communism" and is following an insane policy in expelling Poles from France. The president of the society is Frederic Joliot-Curie, Communist head of France's Atomic Energy Commission.

Poland has expelled 21 Frenchmen since November, and jailed several as spies. One of the Frenchmen newly arrested in Warsaw is Pierre Marschal, of the French Press Agency. Edmond Nassonet, chief of the French Repatriation and War Graves Mission, was arrested in Marschal's apartment last night.

Denial By French Embassy

One of the six Polish security police who arrested Nassonet was employed as an interpreter at a recent Wroclaw espionage trial. Nassonet was mentioned in the trial by an accused Pole, Jan Kubitchek, as being one of a group of Frenchmen engaged in espionage in Poland. The French Embassy said this was untrue.

Gen. Wiktor Grosz, Polish Foreign Ministry spokesman, implied the arrest of Marschal was in reprisal for the arrest by French police of Miezczyslaw Bibrowski, the Polish Press Agency's Paris correspondent. He declared that whatever happened to Bibrowski would be repeated with Marschal.

35 More Poles Are Deported By French (D)

Paris, Jan. 13 (AP)—France has deported 35 more Poles in the past 24 hours. This brings to about 75 the number of Poles ousted from the country since last November. Poland has acted similarly against Frenchmen there, accusing them of being spies.

The latest group to be expelled was arrested yesterday "for interfering in French politics."

Police said many of those rounded up were carrying French Communist party cards.

Studying Protest

The French Foreign Ministry said it was studying a protest from the Polish Embassy, but would make no further comment.

In Warsaw, Polish police arrested three more French yesterday, apparently in retaliation for the arrest of the Poles.

Meanwhile, the Polish Embassy put out a statement charging France was not justified in her decision of last week to suspend trade negotiations with Poland.

The embassy statement declared Poland holds the French "responsible on future developments in Franco-Polish economic relations.

Russ May Close Two East Zone Prison Camps

JAN 13 1950

Berlin, Jan. 13 (AP)—East Germans had more indications today that Russia might soon close some of her East Zone concentration camps. But the West German press said inmates released probably would be sent to labor camps in Russia.

For the third time in recent weeks, the Soviet-licensed press speculated that the Russians are about ready to announce such a plan. These strictly controlled newspapers often reflect the official Russian attitude.

So far, only two of the three big camps have been mentioned. These are Sachsenhausen and Buchenwald, former Nazi horror camps converted to postwar use by the Russians.

Silent About Bautzen

No speculation has appeared about Bautzen, the big political concentration camp in Saxony.

Estimates of the number held in these and other camps in the Russian zone, run between 33,000 and 35,000.

The Soviet-licensed news agency ADN quoted circles in the (East) republic as convinced that the Russians will dissolve the two camps and release most of the inmates. What would be done with those not freed was not speculated on.

West Berliners eyed the "amnesty" reports with skepticism. They point out that no mention is made of Bautzen, where thousands of those who differ with Communist ideology are said to be interned.

Tighter Hold Sought

Recently a West Berlin Lutheran dean, who made a Christmas visit to Sachsenhausen, asserted that the inmates appeared better fed than in some West zone refugee camps, and that they seemed well-dressed and well-treated. Some West Berlin quarters attacked him as being deluded.

Some West Berliners say that any camp-release program would have as one big objective: To tighten further the Communist hold on the East zone.

The Communists have launched a new offensive, aimed primarily at the West, but also designed to solidify their following in the East. They have gone so far as to invite non-Communists, and even those opposed to the East zone constitution to join them in the cause for "German unity."

Some Could Be Swayed

On-the-fence East Germans might well be influenced favorably by a camp liberation program. At least some of those released might be swayed to the cause of communism.

Konrad Cardinal von Preysing, bishop of Berlin, expressed the feelings of many West Berliners:

"As long as the shame of concentration camps exists there can be no peace and no unity for our people. And peace and understanding with other peoples are made impossible as long as men are brutally deprived of human rights in our country."

Schuman Arrives For Bonn Conferences

Mainz, Germany, Jan. 13 (AP)—French Foreign Minister Robert Schuman arrived here today to begin a series of conferences with Western high commissioners and West German Government officials aiming at closer relations between France and Germany.

Schuman is scheduled to meet West Germany's Chancellor, Konrad Adenauer, at a reception today. He will proceed to the Allied high commissioner's headquarters at Petersburg, near the West German capital of Bonn, tomorrow.

Schuman and the Germans are expected to discuss general subjects mutually affecting the two countries, but no definite subjects have been set.

Emergency Measures Act Ended In Greece

Athens, Jan. 13 (AP)—Premier John Theotokis announced today that King Paul has signed a royal decree suspending the Emergency Measures Act throughout Greece.

The emergency act was passed by the government in 1946 at the start of the campaign against the Communist-led rebels.

It provided for increased penalties, including the death sentence, for high treason and other offenses directed against the security of the state.

The act also suspended certain clauses of the Constitution such as the right of free speech and assembly.

End U.S. Tie, Communists Tell Italy (N)

JAN 13 1950

Rome, Jan. 13 (AP)—Italy's Communists demanded tonight that this country break with the Atlantic Alliance and cast off American economic ties when a new government is formed. G. BEIA

It is presumed these demands were placed today before President Luigi Einaudi when he interviewed Palmiro Togliatti, Communist leader, preparatory to designating a premier to form a government.

Einaudi in all likelihood will reappoint Premier Alcide de Gasperi to form what will be his eighth Cabinet. De Gasperi and his Cabinet resigned yesterday to prepare for the first major reorganization of the Government since the landslide victory of his Christian Democratic party in the April, 1948, elections.

China Red Recognition

Einaudi is expected to name de Gasperi tomorrow. The big question was whether de Gasperi planned to continue his coalition, which has excluded the Communists and their left-wing Socialist allies, or to set up a one-party cabinet of Christian Democrats.

Togliatti is said to have demanded that any new government must institute a new internal policy.

Apparently he also put before Einaudi the terms of a Communist communiqué, issued today, which declared that Italy must recognize Communist China, "break her political and military obligations under the Atlantic pact," and see that foreign trade is "wrested from American control."

Scelba Denounced

The communiqué called de Gasperi a "sower of hatred and discord," and demanded a government without him. The communiqué also branded him as the "trusty" of the Catholic Church hierarchy and the Vatican."

The statement called Mario Scelba, Interior Minister, the key man in the "murders that have bloodied the country," obviously referring to the deaths of six workers in a strike riot at Modena last Monday. The Communists asked that Scelba, who heads the police, be replaced.

Togliatti, as one of the political leaders who are consulted on the formation of a new government, is boss of the 2,000,000-member Communist party, and as such, the major opposition leader.

Absolute Majority

De Gasperi's Christian Democrats have an absolute majority in the Chamber of Deputies and they control the Senate, and a Communist attempt to get rid of him or his government would run up against a stone wall at this time.

Veteran political observers here believe de Gasperi intends to keep his anti-Communist coalition functioning, despite the considerable pressure from the left wing of his own party for a single-party cabinet.

Italian President, Red Chief Confer (D)

Rome, Jan. 13 (AP)—Luigi Einaudi, President of the Republic, consulted the Communist leader, Palmiro Togliatti, today on the formation of a new Italian Government.

The Communist chief, still raging over the police slaying of six strikers in a riot at Modena on Monday, was reported to have strongly demanded a "new internal policy."

Resigned Yesterday

Premier Alcide De Gasperi resigned yesterday in the first major reorganization of the Government since the sweeping Christian Democrat electoral victory in April, 1948. Einaudi is expected to designate De Gasperi to form a new cabinet tonight or tomorrow.

The President hears the views of all political leaders in the formation of a new government. Togliatti, chief of the 2,000,000-member Communist party, is the major opposition leader.

Cominform Asserts Truman Hid Aggression

Bucharest, Romania, Jan. 13 (AP). The Cominform Journal today assailed President Truman's state-of-the-Union speech as a cover-up for America's "well-known policy" of world aggression.

The article, appearing in the publication of the Communist International Information Bureau, was written by a Russian identified as Aromanov.

Finns Recognize Peiping Regime

HELSINKI, Finland, Jan. 13 (AP)—The Finnish Government today recognized the new Communist Government of China.

RUSSIA RESTORES DEATH PENALTY; ASSAILS 'SPIES'

E. GILMORE (N)

MOSCOW, Jan. 13—(AP) The Soviet navy newspaper Red Fleet charged today that the United States and other western countries are making all-out efforts to get Russian military secrets, and bade all "Soviet warriors" to be on guard.

The newspaper's charge followed quickly in the wake of announcement that the death penalty has been restored in the Soviet Union, to be used for crimes of treason, spying and sabotage, but not for other crimes.

Speculate on Purge

(This has aroused western speculation that Soviet Russia might be in for another purge, possibly similar to the blood purge of the 1930's, when hundreds were jailed and executed to wipe out any possible opposition to Stalin).

"Spies and other enemies of our socialist fatherland are not sparing any means to obtain military secrets and steal the secrets of our country," the Red Fleet article said.

"The Soviet warrior must never forget this. No matter where he is—in barracks, at studies, on vacation, everywhere—he is obliged to observe high revolutionary vigilance. The Soviet warrior must be vigilant and careful in his conversations both with unknown persons and with his own people and in correspondence with friends and relatives."

Western Bloc Assailed

Red Fleet said "it is necessary to remember (of) the imperialists of the United States, England, France and other countries x x x that they are sparing no means, including espionage, diversions, provocations and slander."

Capital punishment was abolished on May 26, 1947. An edict at the time said it was no longer necessary because Russia's victory in World War II had demonstrated "the exceptional loyalty of the entire population of the Soviet Union to the Soviet country and the Soviet government."

The edict had added that "the world situation during the past period since the surrender of Germany and Japan demonstrates that peace may be regarded as secure for a prolonged period of time in spite of attempts of aggressive elements to provoke war."

Forty Reported Killed In Syrian Desert Fight

Cairo, Jan. 13 (AP)—The Arab news agency reported from Damascus today that 40 persons were killed and many injured in a desert fight over disputed lands between two Syrian tribes. The tribes were described as Al-Fanatisah and Al-Hadidyeen. Desert guards were sent to arrest the leaders, the dispatch said.

Israel-Jordan Peace Talks To Be Resumed

Jerusalem, Jan. 13 (AP)—Peace talks between King Abdullah's Hashemite kingdom of Jordan and neighboring Israel are due to be resumed within the next few days it was learned reliably today.

The two countries are seeking a basis for settlement on such subjects as granting Abdullah an outlet to the Mediterranean Sea through Israeli territory.

Contrary to previous reports, informed sources said, preliminary talks on the subject were not deadlocked, but merely suspended while the Jordan Government studied Israeli proposals. Israeli Government sources declared that the talks so far have been "amicable and hopeful."

King Abdullah was said to have favored an agreement with Israel following his recent trip to the Iraq capital at Baghdad. He is said to have declared he has promised no commitments to other Arab states who once joined him in the war against Israel.

SIX NATIONS DENY DEVALUATION GAIN (N)

Export Increase Questioned At Commonwealth Parley

STEVEN V. DAVID

Colombo, Ceylon, Jan. 13 (AP)—Six of the eight British Commonwealth nations complained at their conference here tonight that the devaluation of the British pound and other sterling-area currencies had little effect in increasing exports to dollar areas.

Only the United Kingdom and Canada reported increases in exports to dollar areas since devaluation. However, most delegates agreed that not enough time has elapsed since the September valuations to permit the full effect to be judged.

One delegate who attended the session said it was clear that cheapening the pound from $4.03 to $2.80 and the subsequent devaluations in other countries would have much more effect inside the United Kingdom itself than in the other sterling countries.

Fear U.S. Fluctuation

The delegate said a difference of opinion arose in connection with the discussion of the outlook for the dollar balance of payments position in 1950. He said Britain and Canada took an optimistic view of the United States economy, while countries farther away feared the American economy might fluctuate.

It was likely, the delegate said, that London would achieve this year the goal of cutting dollar imports by 25 per cent. He added there are no recommendations now for further dollar-area import cuts.

The delegate said he was impressed by the realization on the part of all the nations in this conference that it will be necessary for them to try to crack the competitive North American market.

Brief Open Session Due

As the conference neared its end, delegates heard from Australia, New Zealand and Ceylon proposals for a self-help, mutual-aid program for South and Southeast Asia. A final closed session will be held tomorrow to approve a communiqué covering the achievements of this conference and a brief open session will end the meetings.

A conference on the Australian-initiated proposals for Commonwealth aid to South and Southeast Asia will be held in a few months in Canberra, an Australian delegate reported.

The delegate said the proposals are aimed primarily at providing consumer goods, technical assistance and capital equipment for underdeveloped areas, as a means of warding off the spread of communism and making the countries better able to earn dollars.

The hope was expressed that eventually the United States would participate in the Commonwealth program. GHA

RUSSIANS DIRECT RED ASSAULT PLAN, FORMOSA CHARGES

S. MOOSA (N)

TAIPEI, Formosa, Jan. 13—(AP) The Chinese Nationalists charged tonight that Russian advisers were aiding communist preparations for an invasion of the Chusan Islands, important Nationalist airbase.

The Nationalist defense ministry, which made the allegation, said each red division assigned to the assault had four Russian officers assigned to it. No other details were supplied.

The Chusan (Chushan) archipelago, lies about 100 miles south of Shanghai but the nearest islands are only seven miles from the mainland.

Previous Assault Repulsed

The communists twice in the last year have attempted to conquer or neutralize the islands but have taken only two insignificant islets near shore. Pro-Nationalist reports said they were bloodily repulsed on the others.

Chusan, main island of the group, is 20 miles long and 10 miles wide. On it is a Nationalist airfield from which incresingly heavy raids have been made on Shanghai and other red holdings.

The Nationalists say the harbor of Hangchow, on the mainland west of the Chusans, is crowded with some 2,000 junks assembled for a new attempt to knock out the troublesome base.

Nationalist air headquarters said this Hangchow invasion fleet was heavily attacked during the day by B-25's. The entire mainland coast opposite the islands also was reported bombed. Six locomotives and a bridge were reported destroyed on the Chekiang-Kiangsi railway that leads southwest out of Hangchow.

In anticipation of an eventual communist move against Formosa, island capital of the Nationalists, the government also disclosed it expects to conscript 35,000 Formosans by the end of May.

30.24- 8215

The first group of 4,000 middle school (high school) youths already has been drafted to be trained as sergeants.

Authorities said the draft was by lot-drawing and "buying out" — a common practice in the old days on the mainland — would not be permitted.

Mme. Chaing Returns

A series of parades today coincided with Mme. Chiang Kai-shek's arrival from the United States. People of all ages marched, waving paper Nationalist flags.

Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek met her and his elder son, Gen. Chiang Ching-kuo, on their arrival at Peach Orchard Field from Manila. He greeted her with a simple "welcome home," and she replied merely, "I'm glad to be back."

(In a farewell radio address in the United States, Mme. Chiang had said she was returning to join the fight "as long as a breath remains" and that "Russia will never know one day of peace in China.")

China Reds Get Russ Officer Aid, Charge (D)

Taipei, Formosa, Jan. 13 (AP)—The Chinese Nationalist Defense Ministry asserted tonight that a Russian advisory group was helping the Chinese Communists prepare for an assault on the Chusan Islands.

These islands, 100 miles south of Shanghai and only 7 miles off the coast, are the base for the recently stepped-up Nationalist air assault on Shanghai. The Reds have failed in at least two previous attempts to capture them.

Officer Charge

The Nationalists alleged that four Russian officers were attached to each division of Red forces preparing for the next attempt. No other details of Russian participation were given.

These invasion craft were heavily raided by Nationalist B-25 bombers during the day, the Nationalist Air Force reported.

Planes also ranged up and down the coasts and destruction of a bridge and six locomotives on the Chekiang-Kiangsi Railway was claimed.

In attacks on Shanghai yesterday the Nationalists said they hit eleven ships and set water-front warehouses afire.

Naval Patrols

Five ships in the Shanghai harbor were reported hit by bombs, as was another at the mouth of the Whangpoo River. Five others were set afire by strafing fighter planes.

Far to the south, naval patrol ships plowed around Hainan Strait on the prowl for junks and other Red craft being assembled along Liuchow Peninsula for an expected assault on Hainan Island.

Nationalist officials scoffed at reports published abroad that Communist forces had landed on Hainan Island. The only Reds there, they said, have been there for a long time, some since before the end of the war with Japan.

Jap War Criminals On Way To Homeland

Tokyo, Jan. 13 (AP)—A group of 638 Japanese, most of them convicted war criminals, are on their way to Japan from the United States of Indonesia, occupation headquarters reported today.

The Japanese are being transferred by Netherlands authorities to occupation custody to serve out their sentences here.

Included in the group are a small number of Japanese who served as witnesses, legal personnel and interpreters at the war-crimes trials. They will arrive at Yokohama January 20 aboard the S.S. Tjisadane, a Dutch ship.

Wasted-Money Charge Angers Filipino Aides

JAN 13 1950

Manila, Jan. 13 (AP)—Filipinos reacted angrily today to Secretary of State Acheson's statement the Philippines Government was responsible for misuse of some $2,000,000,000 spent here by the United States since the end of the Pacific war. FRANK L. WHITE

Ailing President Elpidio Quirino led the reaction. He radioed a statement from Baltimore, saying:

"I deplore insinuation that the Philippines may be a second China. The Philippines Government has done what has been humanly possible to utilize every dollar spent by the United States on the Philippines for reconstruction and rehabilitation."

Corruption Cited

The Filipinos interpreted Acheson's statement to mean a comparison of conditions in the Philippines with those in China under the Nationalist regime where large sums of American money were dissipated through graft and corruption.

President Quirino's reaction was mild compared to a news statement issued by Finance Secretary Pio Pedrosa. He accused the United States of unwisely handling its disbursements of aid to the Philippines and strongly hinted that Americans participated in graft in the disposition of surplus property.

"We should go deeper into this matter because in line with the general charge that we have misused some $2,000,000,000," said Pedrosa, "some officials in the American Embassy here have stated that all the factors at work in the debacle of Nationalist China are also at work in the Philippines —which means that the officials of the Philippines Government stand charged with having pocketed American aid to the Philippines, the same as charged against China.

"Not Be Surpised"

"I will not be surprised if, sensing that the Philippines might be lost to democracy because of fast developments in Communist Asia, the United States State Department may not be preparing to ease the United States gracefully out of the picture by issuing a White Paper on the Philippines—the first inklings should be the supposed misuse of this $2,000,000,000 aid."

Pedrosa said there was some "graft and fraud" in the disposition of surplus property with a supposed inventory value of $900,000,000. He admitted the Government recovered only $14,000,000 from sales of the surplus goods.

"I want to say that graft did not begin only after the surplus property was transferred to the Philippines Government," Pedrosa concluded.

Defense Chiefs Called By Senate Committee In Row Over Formosa

JAN 13 1950

LEADERS TO GIVE VIEWS ON ISLAND'S STRATEGIC VALUE

GOP Critics of President's Hands-Off Policy Score a Point

SENATORS CLASH

JAN 13 1950

Connally, Republicans Stage Sharp Tilt Over Armed Aid Issue

WASHINGTON, Jan. 13 — (AP) Republican critics of the administration's hands-off Formosa policy scored a point today as the Senate Foreign Relations Committee agreed to call the nation's defense chiefs to testify on the island's strategic value.

Over strong opposition from Chairman Connally (D-Tex), the committee voted to summon Secretary of Defense Johnson and Gen. Omar Bradley, chairman of the joint chiefs of staff, to give their views Jan. 26 on Formosa's military importance.

This action came after Secretary of State Acheson had made his second appearance before the group this week to defend the administration decision not to supply any further arms help to Chiang Kai-shek's forces in their last-ditch stand against the Chinese communists.

Republicans Demand Action

Senate Republicans, however have been clamoring for U.S. intervention to keep the 225-mile long island stronghold from falling to the Chinese reds. They further have been demanding a first-hand report from the military leaders on how Formosa figures in this country's defense planning.

Connally twice rebuffed a request from Senator Knowland (R-Calif) for testimony by the defense chieftains. But today he lost out when the matter was put to a vote test.

Knowland, while not a member of the Foreign Relations Committee, was permitted to sit in on the Acheson sessions along with three other Republican foes of the administration's China policy. Their demand that Johnson and Bradley be called had the powerful backing of Senator Vanderberg (R-Mich), chief GOP foreign spokesman in congress.

Connally told reporters later there was no record tally on the motion to call Johnson and Bradley which was offered by Senator Lodge (R-Mass). But it was obvious that several of the eight Democratic members had sided with the five GOP committeemen.

The policy dispute flared anew in the senate as Senator Bridges (R-NH) took the floor to say that this country must be prepared to use "bold methods" if necessary to save Formosa.

Another Munich, Bridges Says

He termed Formosa another Munich and said "I foresee that another appeasement will eventuate in another war."

Bridges asserted that the United States never did supply any real military help to the nationalists because the State Department "did everything within its power to paralyze and negate the Chinese program" laid down by Congress.

"China asked for a sword and we gave her a dull paring knife," he said.

Connally broke in to ask Bridges if he was "in favor of sending an American army to China now to oust the communists?"

"As of today I'm not in favor," Bridges replied adding that he advocates sending arms to Formosa and an American military mission if necessary, "come what may."

Senator Wiley (R-Wis) joined in to say he favors "sending our brains, especially our military brains" to help Chiang defend the island.

Bridges resumed with the statement that the late President Roosevelt and former Secretary of State Hull felt "it was so important to keep China out of the hands of a hostile power" that they followed a course which led eventually to the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor.

"If they were right," said Bridges, "Then the present crowd is wrong." He added that he believes Roosevelt and Hull had been right.

Senator Brewster (R-Me) challenged Connally's assertion that Chiang's forces "just didn't fight" to protect the Chinese mainland from the Reds. Brewster said Gen. Mao Tze-tung, commander of the communist armies, reported 1,300,000 of his men had been killed.

"Am I to presume that these communists committed suicide or succumbed to apoplexy while chasing the nationalists out of China?" Brewster demanded sarcastically.

He contended that this country placed a 20-months embargo on arms shipments to Chiang right after the end of the Pacific war. During this same period, he added the Russians were turning over captured Japanese war materials to the Chinese communists.

Praises Chiang's Fight

Knowland entered the debate to say that Chiang's fight against the Japanese kept 1,300,000 enemy soldiers engaged in China and perhaps saved Australia from invasion.

"This is the man they have turned their back on and written off," Knowland shouted.

Connally turned to the Republican side and challenged them to make an open demand for the United States to send its own forces into Formosa.

"Why don't they say 'send an army on the march?", he asked.

"No," Connally added. "They haven't got the nerve and courage to vote their convictions—if those are their convictions."

As the foreign policy debate headed toward a new climax these were other developments touching on the Far Eastern situation:

1. Marshall Plan Director Paul G. Hoffman told the House Foreign Affairs committee that if a U. S. economic aid program such as the "Point Four" plan had been in effect in China for five years "the communists wouldn't be in control today."

2. The House group received a staff expert's report that the Chinese nationalists on Formosa might be able to hold out six to 18 months without American help. The report went on to say that enemy control of the island in a future war would be of "great strategic consequence."

Formosa Ability To Hold Out Estimated

DOUGLAS B. CORNELL

Washington, Jan. 13 (AP)—A report to the House Foreign Affairs Committee from a staff aide says the Chinese Nationalists on Formosa might be able to hold out six to eighteen months without American help.

The report also says that enemy control of the island in a future war would be of "great strategic consequence."

The document makes no specific recommendation as to whether the United States should give or deny military aid to Formosa.

Lengthy Analysis

C. B. Marshall wrote the report. He is a former newspaper man, former Harvard instructor and a doctor of philosophy. He was about to become a State Department Foreign Service officer when the committee hired him a couple of years ago.

Marshall said he was not "giving any answer to the Formosa problem." He did offer a lengthy analysis.

The Administration's policy is against giving military aid to the Nationalists. Some Republicans in Congress have been urging military assistance, even use of the American Navy, if necessary, to keep the Reds out of Formosa.

Article Quoted

Marshall's report quotes an article in a State Department publication of June 5, 1945, which at least one member of the House Committee has tossed back at Secretary of State Acheson.

Discussing Formosa, the article says that "with the exception of Singapore, no location in the Far East occupies such a controlling position." That appeared at a time when the war with Japan still was on and apparently it applied to the strategic importance of Formosa in that war.

Looking ahead, Marshall's report says:

"Viewed purely from the standpoint of those strategic factors relating to the radius of operations, . . . the transfer of Formosa from possible United States use to control by a putative (commonly considered) enemy in a future war is a matter of great strategic consequence, as I see it. No rationalization induced by the necessities of the moment should be permitted to obscure this."

China Revolt Not Russ Type, Says U.S. Aide

JAN 13 1950

Philadelphia, Jan. 13 (AP)—A high-level State Department official said in a speech today that the Chinese Communist revolution is "not Russian in essence" and does not aim at dictatorship.

Dean Rusk, Deputy Under Secretary of State, also told a regional conference of the World Affairs Council here that "the United States expects no formal armed aggression from Russia either in the East or West at the present time."

Rusk declared that "there is a conflict coming between Chinese nationalism and Russian imperialism masquerading as world communism."

Draws Americans Parallel

Rusk likened the revolution in China to the American revolt against the British. But he said it is "subject to perversion." This apparently meant that it could eventually fall under the Soviet sway.

"Americans would not want to freeze conditions in the Far East," he stated. "What we are seeking is a direction for the revolution."

It was then that he declared that at present "the Chinese are not aiming toward dictatorship. Their revolution is not Russian in essence, but is subject to perversion."

Analysis Of Revolt

"The upheaval in Asia is a revolution which, if we analyze it," Rusk declared, "we will see is prompted by the same things that prompted the British, French and American revolutions."

Rusk's address appeared to indicate that the State Department, which asked that the regional World Affairs Council be held, chose the gathering to amplify United States policy on China.

U.S. Policy

Rusk's speech made it clear that United States policy is based upon the hope that even Communist movements can be kept out of Soviet control, and indicated that so long as Nationalist movements —Communist or otherwise—are not Soviet controlled the United States may deal with them.

Rusk declared European integration to be the main problem in the Western Hemisphere. Prevention of World War III, he said, hinges on whether the U.S.S.R. and all other nations can be persuaded to accept a "minimum standard of conduct."

Red Captive's Wife Asks About Ransom

Long Beach, Cal., Jan. 13 (AP)—Mrs. William C. Smith today asked American authorities to seek the aid of the British in determining whether her navy husband and a companion, captives of the Chinese Communists, are held for ransom and if so how much.

Navy Chief Electrician William S. Smith and Marine Master Sergt. Elmer C. Bender, Chicago, were reported missing after they left on a plane flight from Tsingtao, China, October 19, 1948. Later it was learned they were held by the Chinese Reds.

The State Department received a message December 25 that Smith and Bender were safe and well.

Hoffman Denies ECA Conflicts With Point 4

JAN 13 1950

Washington, Jan. 13 (AP)—Paul G. Hoffman testified today that President Truman's Point Four plan for aiding underdeveloped areas of the world will not conflict with the ECA.

Hoffman, chief of the Economic Co-operation Administration, told the House Foreign Affairs Committee that his agency and the State Department have worked out a plan to avoid duplication.

In general, he said, the Point Four program will not operate in European countries participating in the Marshall Plan. In dependencies of the the European nations, he said, neither Point Four nor ECA officials will undertake any project without consultation.

ECA Is Europe Hope

One of the great hopes for a self-supporting Europe is the economic development of overseas dependencies, Hoffman told the committee.

The Point Four project got its nickname from its position in a statement of Administration plans by President Truman last year.

Representative Eaton (R., N.J.), ranking Republican o nthe committee, asked Hoffman whether the Point Four program might "confuse, interfere with or slow down" ECA.

"No," the witness replied. "It could only improve the situation."

Warns On Support

Hoffman reiterated his belief that the ECA program should be terminated June 30, 1952, as now scheduled. He added, however, that not every country now receiving ECA aid will be self-supporting then.

"We can't abandon the rest of the world and call it a day," Hoffman said.

"We might very well have a situation that justified a further American investment, but it should be handled on the basis of the individual need of the individual country. Point Four could take up where we leave off."

Representative Lodge (R., Conn.), asked Hoffman whether "the Truman-Acheson Far Eastern policy would be helpful in the Point Four program. . . ."

Congress Action Seen

"I'd like to duck that," Hoffman answered. "I'm not sure that my judgment is always good."

Hoffman advocated that aid to Formosa be continued "so long as it is the Government policy to aid non-Communist areas." Unless extended, aid to Formosa will end February 15, here is every indication that Congress will act favorably before then.

Hoffman said that if a program such as Point Four had been in effect for five years in China "the Communist wouldn't be in control today."

ALIENIST QUIZZED BY PROSECUTOR AT HISS TRIAL

JAN 13 1950

NEW YORK, Jan. 13—(AP) For the second time this week, a government prosecutor matched wits with a trained mental expert over the fate of Alger Hiss.

The psychologist, Dr. Henry A. Murray, has described Hiss' chief accuser, Whittaker Chambers, as a psychopathic and a chronic liar.

"Doctor, would you describe your personality as normal," asked the prosecutor, Assistant U. S. Attorney Thomas F. Murphy, as he launched his cross-examination.

"Relatively," replied Dr. Murray. "There is no such thing as normal," Murphy added.

Tries to Refute Testimony

Then the attorney began point by point to try to refute Dr. Murray's description of Chambers.

It was the same chore Murphy undertook a few days ago with Dr. Carl A. L. Binger, a psychiatrist who analyzed Chambers in the same manner as Dr. Murray.

At that time, Murphy was unable to get Dr. Binger to alter his diagnosis.

Chambers, one-time Soviet spy ring courier, is the cornerstone of the government's prejury case against Hiss.

As he did with Dr. Binger, Murphy brought out some of Dr. Murray's personal characteristics and flung them at the witness for analysis.

Said Murphy:

"Would it be of any significance to you, if you noticed that a subject's mouth twitched, that his eyes opened and closed, that he had excessive hand gestures, that he played with his watch chain and his glasses and his nose, that he turned his head constantly and breathed heavily through his nose—would that have any significance to you?"

"No sir," replied Dr. Murray. But he added:

"The intensity of these gestures would be of some importance when considered with the personality of the individual as a whole."

Of Chambers' chances of ever shedding his psychopathic personality, Dr. Murray said:

Incurable, Doctor Says

"The general view is that they are incurable by any means known to science. They are particularly contemptuous of psychiatrists."

Murphy, in his point by point discussion of symptoms ascribed to Chambers, told Dr. Murray:

"What I am trying to prove, Dr. Murray, is that, if there are 1,000 symptoms and if a doctor attaches zero to each symptom, a thousand zeros equal zero no matter how many times you add them up."

He asked Dr. Murray to concede that Chambers was not a sexual abnormal.

"In my belief," replied the witness, "Mr. Chambers belongs to a mixed type of personality with principal emphasis on lying, deceiving, stealing and others. I would not include abormal sexuality because there is not enough evidence to put him in that class. But if you ask me to rule it out, I am not absolutely able to rule it out."

As he did yesterday, Dr. Murray said Chambers' accusations against Hiss grew with each telling over the years.

Bennett Meyers Denied Release On Appeal

Charlotte, N.C., Jan. 13 (AP)—The United States Fourth Circuit Court of Appeals today refused Bennett E. Meyers, former Air Force major general, a writ of habeas corpus which would have released him from a Federal prison.

Meyers is serving twenty months to five years in the Lorton (Va.) prison for getting a witness to testify falsely before a congressional committee investigating war contracts.

A writ of habeas corpus was denied by the Federal District Court of eastern Virginia, and that decision was affirmed on appeal by the circuit court here.

During the congressional investigation Meyers was charged with establishing a dummy corporation to which he assigned Air Force contracts, allegedly clearing $150,000 in World War II.

Dividend Check Of GI 'Can't Be Seized'

Washington, —Jan. 13 (AP)—GI dividend checks are exempt from seizure for payment of debts, the Veterans Administration said today.

The Treasury Department printed its first large batch of the World War II insurance dividend checks yesterday, and the Post Office Department will start mailing them—at a proposed rate of 200,000 a day 1,000,000 a week—next Monday.

The major part of the $2.800,000,000 dividend is to be paid ou by next June 30. There are abou 16,000,000 policyholders.

The Veterans Administratio said that the dividend checks "may not be withheld from veterans as security for indebtedness due an individual or firm."

Some Would Divert Delivery

It added that it issued the announcement "after noting that some veterans have directed that their checks be mailed to certain business establishments in various localities."

"We have no choice but to honor such requests, since the veteran has the right to have his check mailed to any address he designates," VA said.

"However, no one has the legal right to withhold dividend checks from veterans after receipt, either for settlement of a debt or for any other reasons."

The dividend checks also are exempt from income taxes.

Postmaster General Donaldson has urged that veterans keep home letterboxes locked and remove mail promptly, lest forgers try to steal the checks.

Warns Of Forgers

Secret Service Chief U. E. Baughman also has advised merchants to guard against forgeries and to require better personal identification than social security cards or drivers licenses before cashing the dividend checks.

Baughman pointed out that the person who cashes a Government check on a forged indorsement is the loser for the full amount.

The checks will range in size from 90 cents to $528, with the average running about $125.

MORE CIVILIANS TO GO

Johnson Drops Excess of 6,300, 10,000 Others Slated

WASHINGTON, Jan. 13 (AP)—The Secretary of Defense, Louis Johnson, said today that the National Defense Establishment had discharged 6,300 more civilians than he had predicted and there were "at least 10,000 more to go."

As of Dec. 31, Mr. Johnson reported, this phase of his economy campaign had resulted in the cutting of 141,300 civilians from the payroll, against the 135,000 he had predicted.

The Secretary gave the figures to reporters at the White House after he had a conference with President Truman. But the meeting concerned the cutting down of the real estate and industrial and command installations held by the armed services. This, too, is related to the Johnson economy campaign, and he said large sums were involved. The Secretary, however, was unable to supply definite figures or to give examples of where the services might get rid of some of the holdings.

Mr. Johnson added that he and his Army, Navy and Air Force secretaries had gone over plans for the trimming of holdings during the rest of this fiscal year, to end June 30, as well as accomplishments of the past.

Fort Worth Publisher Honored By Air Force

Washington, Jan. 13 (AP)—Amon G. Carter, publisher of the Fort Worth Star-Telegram, received today the Air Force's exceptional service award for his long-time efforts in behalf of American air power.

In presenting it, W. Stuart Symington, Air Secretary, told Carter that "you were an advocate of air power when it wasn't very popular." With the award, said Symington, "goes the gratitude and affection of every member of the Air Force."

Cabinet officers, members of the Texas congressional delegation, military leaders and Carter's friends crowded into Symington's office for the ceremony.

Tydings Asks Draft Extension

Washington, Jan. 13 (AP)—A bill to extend the draft law for three years was introduced today by Senator Tydings (D., Md.), chairman of the Senate Armed Forces Committee. President Truman has called for an extension of the law, although nobody is being drafted under it at present. There is great apposition in Congress to extending it.

MALIK WALKS OUT AGAIN IN CHINA DISPUTE

Says He Will Not Return Until U.N. Unseats Nationalists (W)

Russia reported seeking new bases in Red China.....Page 7

Lake Success, N.Y., Jan. 13 (AP)—Jakob A. Malik, Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister, strode out of the United Nations Security Council again today after losing his fight to unseat National China's delegation. F.W. CARPENTER

Malik said he would not come back until the Nationalists headed by Dr. T. F. Tsiang are ousted.

He said also the Soviet Union would not recognize the legality of any Council decisions made with Tsiang participating.

The Russian had walked out Tuesday when the Council refused his demand for an immediate vote on the Soviet resolution calling for expulsion of the Nationalists.

Council Vote Is 6 To 3

Then Malik came back yesterday and today to press for his ouster resolution in the face of certain defeat.

The Council vote was 6 to 3 against the Russians; but the ballot was expected and it was overshadowed by far-reaching implications.

Some high quarters here called the Russian action stupid.

But some delegations diagnosed the two Soviet walkouts this week as a propaganda device to convince Red China that Russia is its only real friend on the diplomatic front.

The Premier of Red China, Mao Tze-tung, is in Moscow on an extended visit.

Two Demand Action

The question also arose as to whether Russia's absence would paralyze the Council. Malik contended nothing legal could be done as long as Tsiang sat at the table. Ernest A. Gross, United States, and Jean Chauvel, France, demanded the Council get on with its business and pay no attention to the Soviet walkout.

Gross said the work of the United Nations is too important to be stopped by the "whim of a member, through malice or propaganda."

The vote showed that all the five Council nations which have recognized the Red government are not ready to oust Tsiang. Britain and Norway have broken with Tsiang's government and recognized the Reds, but today they abstained on the ouster move, saying it was premature to act until at least a majority of the United Nations had recognized the Reds.

India Supports Russia

Russia was supported by Yugoslavia and India; all three have recognized the Red government at Peiping.

The six negative votes came from the Nationalist delegation plus five Council members who so far have not recognized the Red regime—the United States, France, Ecuador, Cuba and Egypt. Russia's resolution needed at least seven of the eleven Council votes for approval.

Malik left the table at 4.57 P.M. after a parting shot at the United States and "those who follow" the United States lead.

This last shot aroused Ecuador, Egypt, Cuba and France to make spirited declarations that they followed no one; that they voted as they saw fit and that they rejected the Soviet allegation. 600

LONDON, JAN. 13-(AP)-MEMBERS OF THE INTERNATIONAL WEHAT COUNCIL WERE STILL DEADLOCKED TODAY OVER THE APPLICATIONS TO MEMBERSHIP BY JAPAN AND WESTERN GERMANY.

THE COUNCIL MET BRIEFLY AND THEN ADJOURNED UNTIL MONDAY. SOME DELEGATIONS EXPECT TO HAVE FRESH INSTRUCTIONS FROM THEIR GOVERNMENTS BY THEN.

IN THE MEANTIME, A SMALL WORKING PARTY WILL ENDEAVOR TO FIND A BASIS FOR COMPROMISE.

JAN 13 1950

ONE DELEGATE, WHO DECLINED TO BE IDENTIFIED, SAID:

"THE POSITION TODAY IS THE SAME AS YESTERDAY OR INDEED AS LAST NOVEMBER WHEN BRITAIN BLOCKED THE JAPANESE AND GERMAN REQUESTS FOR MEMBERSHIP."

INDIA, EGYPT AND GREECE FOLLOWED BRITAIN'S LEAD.

THE UNITED STATES WAS THE MAIN SUPPORTER OF THE TWO FORMER AXIS COUNTRIES' DEMAND. MEMBERSHIP WOULD ALLOW THEM TO BUY WHEAT AT $1.80 A BUSHEL--THE MAXIMUM PRICE ALLOWED BY THE INTERNATIONAL WHEAT AGREEMENT--INSTEAD OF AT PRESENT OPEN MARKET LEVELS WHICH ARE HIGHER.

BRITISH DELEGATES ARGUE THAT IF ADMITTED OT THE COUNCIL, GERMANY AND ESPECIALLY JAPAN WOULD TURN TO AUSTRALIA FOR WHEAT SUPPLIES.

PRACTICALLY ALL THE WHEAT BRITAIN NOW BUYS FROM NON DOLLAR SOURCES COMES FROM AUSTRALIA AND SHE MAY WANT TO INCREASE HERE PURCHASES THERE AS PART OF HER DOLLAR-SAVING DRIVE.

THE INFORMANT SAID BRITAIN, AS THE BIGGEST IMPORTER AMONG THE MEMBERS OF THE COUNCIL, HAS NEOUGH VOTES TO WEIGH HEAVILY ON ITS DECISIONS. IF THEY BECAME MEMBERS, JAPAN AND WESTERN GERMANY WOULD HAVE A LARGE NUMBER OF VOTES, BUT NOT ENOUGH TO OUTWEIGH BRITAIN'S.

JAN 13 1950

THE UNITED STATES DELEGATE, SUPORTED BY SEVERAL OTHER COUNTRIES, INCLUDING BRAZIL, RECALLED THAT WASHINGTON IS CURRENTLY PAYING FOR MOST OF THE WHEAT GERMANY AND JAPAN BUY IN THE OPEN WORLD MARKET.

BOTH WESTERN GERMANY AND JAPAN HAVE RECENTLY BOUGHT WHEAT IN ARGENTINA--NOT A SIGNATORY OF THE INTERNATIONAL AGREEMENT--AND HAVE PAID IN DOLLARS OR SWEDISH CROWNS.

THE COUNCIL'S MEETING HAD BEEN SCHEDULED TO CLOSE TODAY, BUT THE DEADLOCK FORCED IT TO BE STRETCHED UNTIL MONDAY.

THE GERMAN AND JAPANESE APPLICATIONS WERE FIRST MADE IN NOVEMBER. THEY THEN ANNOUNCED THEY WANTED TO BUY 2,000,000 TONS OF WHEAT UNDER THE AGREEMENT.

FRANKFURT, GERMANY, SATURDAY, JAN. 14-(AP)-THE DORTMUND NEWSPAPER RUHR NACHRICHTEN REPORTED TODAY THAT RUSSIA AND EAST GERMANY HAVE SIGNED A PACT PLEDGING EACH TO THE MILITARY DEFENSE OF THE OTHER.

UNDER THE PACT RUSSIA GUARANTEES THE MILITARY DEFENSE OF THE SOVIET-BACKED EAST GERMAN REPUBLIC AND EAST GERMANY IN TURN PROMISES TO DO ITS SHARE IN THE EASTERN DEFENSE BLOC, NACHRICHTEN SAID.

THE NEWSPAPER SAID IT OBTAINED ITS INFORMATION THROUGH ITS BERLIN CORRESPONDENT FROM SOURCES CLOSE TO GEORGE DERTINGER, FOREIGN MINISTER OF THE SOVIET-SPONSORED EAST GERMAN PEOPLE'S REPUBLIC. THE RUHR NACHRICHTEN IS A NON-COMMUNIST NEWSPAPER WHICH BEGAN OPERATION UNDER A LICENSE FROM THE BRITISH MILITARY GOVERNMENT.

THE RUHR NACHRICHTEN SAID A TREATY OF MUTUAL FRIENDSHIP AND ASSISTANCE WAS SIGNED IN MOSCOW DEC. 17 BETWEEN DERTINGER AND RUSSIAN FOREIGN MINISTER ANDREI VISHINSKY.

(VISHINSKY WAS DERTINGER'S GUEST IN BERLIN ON DEC. 14 AND 15 WHILE HE WAS RETURNING TO MOSCOW FROM THE UNITED NATIONS GENERAL ASSEMBLY AT LAKE SUCCESS. PRESS REPORTS AT THE TIME DID NOT INDICATE THAT DERTINGER ACCOMPANIED HIM THE REST OF THE WAY TO THE SOVIET CAPITAL.)

FORMAL ANNOUNCEMENT OF THE AGREEMENT WILL BE MADE BY WILHELM PIECK, EAST ZONE PRESIDENT, ON THE DAY THE LAST GERMAN WAR PRISONER IS RELEASED FROM RUSSIAN PRISONS, THE REPORT SAID. THIS DATE IS PREDICTED AS JAN. 15 OR 20.

IN THE REPORTED PACT, RUSSIA GUARANTEES THE POLITICAL INTEGRITY OF EAST GERMANY AND PROMISES MILITARY PROTECTION SO LONG AS THE EAST GERMAN GOVERNMENT IS DENIED ITS OWN MILITARY FORCES.

ON ITS PART, EAST GERMANY PROMISES TO "FULFILL HER TASKS AS ORDERED IN THE FRAMEWORK OF THE DEFENSE PACT OF EAST BLOC STATES," ACCORDING TO NACHRICHTEN'S ACCOUNT.

THIS WOULD SUGGEST THE REMILITARIZATION OF THE RUSSIAN ZONE OF GERMANY. THERE HAVE ALREADY BEEN REPORTS OF THE FORMATION OF A MILITARY TYPE "PEOPLE'S POLICE" IN EAST GERMANY WITH ESTIMATES OF ITS SIZE RANGING UP ABOVE 300,000.

IN CASE OF A CIVIL WAR, RUSSIA PROMISES TO DEFEND EAST GERMANY, THE STORY SAID. IT ADDED THAT THE AGREEMENT IS FOR THREE YEARS.

THE STORY RECALLED RECENT UNCONFIRMED REPORTS THAT WEST GERMAN LEADERS HAVE SOUGHT A SIMILAR GUARANTEE FROM THE WESTERN POWERS.

THE PAPER SAID ON THE SAME DAY THE TREATY IS ANNOUNCED ADMINISTRATION OF THE RUSSIAN CONCENTRATION CAMPS IN THE EAST ZONE L BE TURNED OVER TO THE GERMANS.

BRAUER, WHO IS A FORMER U.S. CITIZEN, ASSURED THE GERMANS THEY CAN RELY ON CONTINUED AMERICAN AID IN POLITICAL AND ECONOMIC FIELDS.

HE SAID HE FELT CERTAIN MANY RESTRICTIONS NOW IMPOSED ON GERMANY, ESPECIALLY THOSE AFFECTING SHIPBUILDING, WILL BE LIFTED BY 1952.

THE MAYOR DECLARED THAT CONTRARY TO WHAT MOST GERMANS THINK, THE FEAR OF COMPETITION DOES NOT DETERMINE AMERICAN AND BRITISH POLICY TOWARD GERMANY.

HE SAID ONLY A FEW AMERICAN "CRACKPOTS" OPPOSE GERMAN SHIPBUILDING AND PREDICTED THAT "THE RESTRICTIONS (ON SHIPBUILDING) WILL BE LIFTED VERY SOON."

SOFIA, BULGARIA, JAN. 13-(AP)-BULGARIAN AUTHORITIES SAY THEY HAVE ARRESTED 64 ALLEGED YUGOSLAV SPIES.

THE GOVERNMENT PRESS DEPARTMENT SAID 70 YUGOSLAV SECURITY POLICEMEN WERE SENT INTO THIS COUNTRY RECENTLY TO SPY FOR MARSHAL TITO'S ANTI-SOVIET COMMUNIST REGIME. SIXTY-FOUR WERE ARRESTED AND THE SPOKESMAN SAID BULGARIAN POLICE EXPECTED TO CATCH THE OTHER SIX SOON.

THREE OF THE ARRESTED WERE IDENTIFIED AS DIMTER GORANOV, SAID TO HAVE BEEN A FORMER OFFICER IN THE PREWAR YUGOSLAV ROYAL ARMY; NICOLA KOLEV, FORMER MERCHANT, AND PETER PETROV, EX-ROYAL SUBOFFICER.

(IN BELGRADE A SPOKESMAN FOR THE YUGOSLAV GOVERNMENT DESCRIBED THE BULGARIAN CHARGES AS "PURE INVENTION." HE SAID THAT YUGOSLAVIA WILL SOON BRING TO TRIAL A GROUP OF BULGARIANS ACCUSED OF THE SAME ACTIVITIES.)

WARSAW, POLAND, SATURDAY, JAN. 14-(AP)-THE FRENCH EMBASSY CLAIMED LATE LAST NIGHT THAT SEVEN MORE FRENCH CITIZENS HAVE BEEN ARRESTED IN POLAND.

IT SAID FOUR WERE ARRESTED IN KRAKOW, ONE EACH IN KATOWICE, SZICZIN AND GDANSK. THE EMBASSY SAID IT DID NOT HAVE THE NAMES OF THOSE ARRESTED.

POLAND ARRESTED FOUR FRENCHMEN THURSDAY INCLUDING PIERRE MARSCHAL OF THE FRENCH PRESS AGENCY. OFFICIALS SAID TONIGHT HE WOULD BE EXPELLED FROM POLAND.

REPORTS REACHING HERE INDICATED THAT MIECZCZYSLAW BIBROWSKI, PARIS CORRESPONDENT OF THE POLISH PRESS AGENCY, HAD BEEN EXPELLED FROM FRANCE.

THE EMBASSY ALSO SAID IT HAD RECEIVED A NOTE FROM THE POLISH FOREIGN MINISTRY DECLARING "THE INFAMOUS POLICY PURSUED BY THE FRENCH GOVERNMENT IN ITS RELATIONS WITH POLAND CONSTITUTES A FLAGRANT VIOLATION OF THE POLISH FRENCH CONSULAR CONVENTION. THE POLISH GOVERNMENT WILL THEREFORE SUSPEND ALL ACTIVITIES OF THE FRENCH INSTITUTE IN POLAND."

MOSCOW, JAN. 13-(AP)-THE DEATH PENALTY RETURNED YESTERDAY TO SOVIET RUSSIA'S STATUTE BOOKS AFTER AN ABSENCE OF ALMOST TWO YEARS.

THE LOCAL PRESS PUBLISHED AN EDICT BY THE PRESIDIUM OF THE SUPREME SOVIET DECREEING REVIVAL OF THE PENALTY FOR "TRAITORS TO THE HOMELAND, SPIES AND SABOTEURS." FOR OTHER CRIMES THE DEATH SENTENCE STILL WILL NOT BE GIVEN.

(SPECULATION AT ONCE AROSE IN LONDON THAT THE RETURN OF THE DEATH PENALTY PRESAGED NEW PROSECUTIONS SIMILAR TO THE 1937 MOSCOW TREASON TRIALS.)

THE PRESIDIUM ABOLISHED CAPITAL PUNISHMENT ON MAY 26, 1947, BECAUSE, ITS EDICT THEN SAID, IT WAS "NO LONGER NECESSARY IN PEACE-TIME CONDITIONS." THIS, THE DECREE EXPLAINED, WAS BECAUSE RUSSIA'S WORLD WAR TWO VICTORY HAD DEMONSTRATED "THE EXCEPTIONAL LOYALTY OF THE ENTIRE POPULATION OF THE SOVIET UNION TO THE SOVIET COUNTRY AND THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT."

ZAT THE SAME TIME," THE PRESIDIUM'S EDICT AT THAT TIME SAID, "THE WORLD SITUATION DURING THE PAST PERIOD SINCE THE SURRENDER OF GERMANY AND JAPAN DEMONSTRATES THAT PEACE MAY BE REGARDED AS SECURE FOR A PROLONGED PERIOD OF TIME IN SPITE OF ATTEMPTS OF AGGRESSIVE ELEMENTS TO PROVOKE WAR."

THE 1947 EDICT ADDED THE ABOLITION WAS IN ANSWER TO THE WISHES OF "TRADE UNIONS, WORKERS, OFFICE EMPLOYES AND OTHER AUTHORITATIVE ORGANIZATIONS EXPRESSING THE OPINION OF BROAD CIRCLES OF THE GENERAL PUBLIC."

THE PRESIDIUM'S DECREE YESTERDAY RESTORING THE DEATH PENALTY FOR TREASON, SPYING AND SABOTAGE SAID THIS ACTION HAD BEEN REQUESTED BY "STATEMENTS FROM THE NATIONAL REPUBLICS, TRADE UNIONS AND PEASANT ORGANIZATIONS, AS WELL AS FROM CULTURAL LEADERS."

THE DELEGATE SAID AUSTRALIA PLANNED TO ASSIST THE NEW UNITED STATES OF INDONESIA AND THAT THE DELEGATION HAD RECOMMENDED AUSTRALIAN PARTICIPATPON IN A LOAN TO BURMA.

BRITISH FOREIGN SECRETARY ERNEST BEVIN, REVIEWING THE EUROPEAN SITUATION FOR THE DELEGATES, TOLD THEM BRITAIN IS BEING CAUTIOUS WITH REGARD TO GENERALISSIMO FRANCISCO FRANCO'S REGIME IN SPAIN.

BRITAIN AND OTHER UNITED NATIONS MEMBERS RECALLED THEIR AMBASSADORS TO SPAIN FOLLOWING A UNITED NATIONS ASSEMBLY RESOLUTION IN DEC., 1946 PROTESTING AGAINST OHE CHARACTER OF FRANCO'S GOVERNMENT. THERE HAS BEEN SPECULATION THAT THE UNITED STATES IS CONSIDERING RETURNING AN AMBASSADOR TO SPAIN IF A REVERSAL OF THE U.N. STAND COMES TO PASS.

PRIME MINISTER JAWAHARLAL NEHRU OF INDIA AND BEVIN BOTH CHARACTERIZED SPAIN AS A SYMBOL OF TOTALITARIANISM, AND SAID TO COOPERATE WITH SPAIN MIGHT BE TO LOSE THE SUPPORT OF THE WORKING MASSES, POSSIBLY TO RUSSIA.

JAN 13 1950

B136 400-Ceylon-(2nd-)vvv Program

BEVIN TOLD THE CONFERENCE THAT A EUROPEAN ECONOMY INTEGRATED WITH WEST GERMANY'S WOULD BE THE SAFEST FOR THE DEMOCRATIC WORLD. OTHERWISE, HE SAID, THERE ALWAYS WAS THE DANGER THAN AN ISOLATED GERMANY MIGHT BE ATTRACTED BY THE BLANDISHMENTS OF THE SOVIET UNION.

A DELEGATE TO THE CONFERENCE SAID THAT IN THE DISCUSSION OF RUSSIA AND RUSSIAN POLICIES, THE GENERAL IMPRESSION WAS THAT THE SOVIETS WERE BEING CONTAINED IN THE WEST, AND TO SOME EXTENT IN THE MIDDLE EAST. THERE WAS GENERAL AGREEMENT THAT THE PROSPECTS FOR COOPERATION WITH THE RUSSIANS WERE DIM. BEVIN UNDERLINED IN PARTICULAR THE DANGER TO ALL OTHER COUNTRIES OF THE EXPANSION OF THE SOVIET IDOLOGY.

OTHER SOURCES IN THE CONFERENCE SAID PERCY SPENDER, AUSTRALIAN FOREIGN AFFAIRS MINISTER, AGREED THAT THE UNITED KINGDOM WAS WISELY PREOCCUPIED WITH CURRENT AFFAIRS IN EUROPE. THE PAKISTANI DELEGATE HELD THAT THE SITUATION IN EUROPEAN AND MIDDLE EAST WAS MORE CRITICAL THAN IN SOUTHEAST ASIA, NOT ONLY FROM THE STANDPOINT OF NATIVE COMMUNIST MOVEMENTS BUT FROM THAT OF DIRECT SOVIET PRESSURE.

BEVIN AND THE CANADIAN EXTERNAL AFFAIRS MINISTER, L.B.PEARSON, BOTH WERE SAID TO HAVE URGED INDIA AND PAKISTAN TO PATCH UP THEIR QUARREL OVER KASHMIR STATE. ALSO BEING DISCUSSED QUIETLY HERE HAS BEEN THE MATTER OF TRADE BETWEEN INDIA AND PAKISTAN, WHICH HAS BEEN AT A VIRTUAL STANDSTILL BECAUSE PAKISTAN DID NOT FOLLOW SUIT WHEN BRITAIN AND OTHER COMMONWEALTH NATIONS DEVALUED THEIR CURRENCIES.

COLOMBO, CEYLON, JAN 13-(AP)-TWO OF THE BRITISH COMMONWEALTH'S FOREIGN MINISTERS TODAY REPORTED PRESSING INDIA AND PAKISTAN TO SETTLE THEIR QUARREL OVER KASHMIR.

SOURCES AT THE CONFERENCE HERE OF COMMONWEALTH FOREIGN MINISTERS SAID BRITISH FOREIGN SECRETARY ERNEST BEVIN AND CANADA'S EXTERNAL AFFAIRS MINISTER LESTER B. PEARSON WERE EXERTING THE BEHIND-THE-SCENES PRESSURE FOR A PEACEFUL SETTLEMENT OF THE PRINCELY STATE'S FUTURE.

THE DISPUTE OVER FUTURE CONTROL OF KASHMIR ALREADY HAS BROUGHT INDIA AND PAKISTAN TO UNDECLARED WAR ONCE. A TRUCE NEGOTIATED BY THE UNITED NATIONS NOW PREVAILS BUT ATTEMPTS TO SECURE FURTHER AGREEMENT HAVE FAILED SO FAR.

THE MINISTERS ALSO WERE REPORTED QUIETLY DISCUSSING TRADE RELATIONS BETWEEN INDIA AND PAKISTAN. SUCH TRADE HAS BEEN AT A STANDSTILL SINCE PAKISTAN DID NOT FOLLOW BRITAIN, INDIA AND THE REST OF THE STERLING BLOC IN DEVALUING HER CURRENCY.

AS THE CONFERENCE HEADED TOWARD ITS FINAL SESSIONS, THE FOREIGN MINISTERS GOT AWAY FROM THE SUBJECT OF ASIA AND REVIEWED THE POLITICAL SITUATION IN EUROPE. BEVIN LED THE DISCUSSION. DELEGATES SAID HE MADE THESE STATEMENTS:

1. BRITAIN IS TRYING TO INTEGRATE GERMANY WITH WESTERN EUROPE, TO KEEP IT FROM BEING ISOLATED AND TO KEEP IT FROM BEING ATTRACTED TO RUSSIA.

2. RUSSIA IS BEING CONTAINED IN THE WEST AND TO SOME EXTENT IN THE MIDDLE EAST. THE MINISTERS WERE REPORTED IN AGREEMENT THAT THERE IS NO PROSPECT OF COOPERATION SOON WITH RUSSIA.

3. SPAIN TO THE WORLD'S MASSES IS A SYMBOL OF TOTALITARIANISM. COOPERATION WITH SPAIN WOULD LOSE THE SUPPORT TO THE MASSES TO RUSSIA.

B32 (Q)

JAN 13 1950

NEHRU STRONGLY BACKED THE BRITISH FOREIGN SECRETARY IN HIS REMARKS ON SPAIN. THE FOREIGN MINISTERS AGREED THE DEMOCRACIES SHOULD "GO SLOW" WITH SPAIN. BRITAIN AND OTHER UNITED NATIONS MEMBERS RECALLED THEIR TOP DIPLOMATIC REPRESENTATIVES FROM SPAIN AFTER A U.N. ASSEMBLY RESOLUTION ASKING SUCH ACTION AS A PROTEST AGAINST THE FRANCO REGIME AS ADOPTED IN DECEMBER, 1946.

THE CANADIAN FOREIGN MINISTER CAUTIONED THE COMMONWEALTH NATIONS NOT TO LET IRRITATION WITH UNITED STATES METHODS CAUSE THEM TO OVERLOOK THE "GREAT UNDERLYING GOOD" THE U.S. WAS TRYING TO DO IN ITS FOREIGN PROGRAM.

CANADA, SAID PEARSON, WAS PREPARED TO STAND "SHORT TERM" INCONVENIENCES WHICH MIGHT BE "PRETTY SEVERE" IN ORDER TO SUPPORT U.S.-SPONSORED EFFORTS TO PUT EUROPE ON ITS FEET.

CONFERENCE SOURCES SAID THE MINISTERS VOICED FAVORABLE OPINIONS ON U.S. POLICY. THEY PARTICULARLY MENTIONED SUCH OPINIONS EXPRESSED BY THE INDIAN DELEGATION.

THEY ALSO REPORTED MANY TRIBUTES TO BEVIN'S "BROAD STATESMANSHIP."

THE CONFERENCE NEARED A CLOSE THIS AFTERNOON WHEN DELEGATES WERE GIVEN COPIES OF A PLAN FOR SELF-HELP AND MUTUAL AID IN ASIA. AUSTRALIA, NEW ZEALAND AND CEYLON WERE AMONG THE AUTHORS OFTHE PROPOSAL. THE CONFERENCE IS EXPECTED TO END TOMORROW.

HONG KONG, JAN.13-(AP)-FAILURE OF THE FLYING ARROW TO RUN THE BLOCKADE INTO SHANGHAI LEAVES SHIPPERS THERE WITH LITTLE HOPE OF TRAFFIC BEING RESUMED INTO THE YANGTZE SOON.

THE FLYING ARROW CASE IS VIEWED HERE AS A SHOWDOWN ON THE NATIONALIST BLOCKADE ISSUE -- A SHOWDOWN WHICH THE CHINESE NATIONALIST NAVY WON.

AFTER ENDURING A POUNDING FROM NAVAL GUNFIRE THE FLYING ARROW WENT

TO TSINGTAO, 350 MILES TO THE NORTH, TO DISCHARGE HER $10,000,000 (M) CARGO.

THAT MAY LOOK AS THOUGH THE FLYING ARROW RAN THE BLOCKADE SINCE TSINGTAO IS RED. BUT SHE DID NOT SINCE THE CARGO IS NEEDED AT SHANGHAI AND NOT TSINGTAO.

WHEN THE FLYING ARROW WENT TO TSINGTAO THAT MEANT THAT SOMEBODY, LIKELY THE COMMUNIST GOVERNMENT, WOULD HAVE TO FOOT THE BILL OF TRANSPORTING THE CARGO FROM TSINGTAO TO SHANGHAI BY RAIL AND WATER.

THE MOST LIKELY ROUTE WILL BE BY RAIL FROM TSINGTAO TO TSINAN THENCE TO NANKING AND DOWN THE YANGTZE TO SHANGHAI. WITH NATIONALIST BOMBERS ROAMING THE RED CHINA SKIES AND THE RAILROADS RUNNING MOSTLY AT NIGHT, THIS IMPOSES A MOST UNWELCOME RAIL BURDEN ON THE COMMUNISTS. IN FACT, THERE IS SOME SPECULATION HERE THAT THE REDS MAY TRY TO REFUSE TO ACCEPT THE FLYING ARROW'S CARGO AT TSINGTAO.

ANOTHER ISBRANDTSEN LINE SHIP, THE BROOKLYN HEIGHTS, WHICH WAS TO HAVE FOLLOWED THE FLYING ARROW INTO SHANGHAI, IS STILL AWAITING ORDERS HERE. HER AGENTS SAY THERE IS LITTLE CHANCE THAT SHE WILL TRY TO REACH SHANGHAI IN VIEW OF THE FLYING ARROW INCIDENT. SHE WAS LOADING CARGO FOR TIENTSIN TODAY.

THERE IS STILL A VAST AMOUNT OF CARGO HERE FOR SHANGHAI. ONE SHIPPER SAID HE COULD BOOK 250,000 TONS IF HE COULD FIND SHIPS GOING THERE. MOST OF THAT IS OLD STUFF.

EVERYBODY CAUGHT IN OR BY THE BLOCKADE BLAMES A DIFFERENT PARTY FOR THEIR PREDICAMENT. SOME THINK THE BRITISH AND AMERICAN NAVIES SHOULD GO IN AND BLAST THE CORK OUT OF THE YANGTZE RIVER BOTTLENECK. OTHERS BLAME THE BRITISH FOREIGN OFFICE AND THE AMERICAN STATE DEPARTMENT FOR BEING TOO LAX WITH THE NATIONALISTS.

DESPITE THE FLYING ARROW'S EXPERIENCE, A.P. PATTISON SHIPPING AGENTS HAVE TWO MORE ISBRANDTSEN SHIPS BOOKED FOR SHANGHAI CALLS. THEY ARE THE FLYING INDEPENDENT SCHEDULED TO ARRIVE HERE FEB. 2 AND SAIL ON FEB. 5 FOR SHANGHAI, AND THE FLYING CLIPPER DUE FEB. 14 AND SCHEDULED TO SAIL FEB. 18.

FLYING ARROW
BY WAYNE RICHARDSON

ABOARD FLYING ARROW, JAN.13-(AP)-THE FLYING ARROW STEAMED INTO THE COMMUNIST PORT OF TSINGTAO TODAY AFTER BIDDING FAREWELL TO ITS U.S. DESTROYER ESCORT EIGHT MILES OUT.

FOR AT LEAST THE NEXT WEEK THE AMERICAN FREIGHTER WILL LIE HERE REPAIRING THE DAMAGE OF A SHELLING BY A CHINESE NATIONALIST GUNBOAT.

THE WARSHIP ATTACKED WHEN THIS SHIP TRIED TO ENTER THE YANGTZE ON A VOYAGE TO BLOCKADED SHANGHAI.

(RICHARDSON'S DISPATCH WAS FILED AS THE SHIP WAS PREPARING TO DOCK. THEN HE SENT AN INFORMATIVE MESSAGE SAYING THE SHIP'S TRANSMITTER WOULD BE OFF THE AIR WHILE IN PORT. THE COMMUNISTS KEEP A TIGHT CONTROL ON ALL COMMUNICATIONS.)

THE U.S. DESTROYER BAUSSELL HAD SAILED ALONGSIDE THE DAMAGED FLYING ARROW ON THE 350-MILE VOYAGE FROM THE POINT OFF THE YANGTZE WHERE THE GUNBOAT SHELLED HER MONDAY.

AS THE BAUSSELL TURNED TO STEAM AWAY, CAPT. DAVID JONES OF THE FLYING ARROW SENT OFF A MESSAGE TO THE DESTROYER'S COMMANDER. JONES THANKED HIM FOR A JOB WELL DONE.

THE VOYAGE NORTHWARD WAS WITHOUT INCIDENT. THERE WAS NO TRACE OF NATIONALIST GUNBOATS.

(THE NATIONALISTS SAY THEIR PORT CLOSURE--THEY DON'T CALL IT A BLOCKADE--EXTENDS TO ALL COMMUNIST PORTS. APPARENTLY, HOWEVER, THEY ARE UNABLE TO OPERATE EFFECTIVELY AS FAR NORTH AS TSINGTAO.)

JONES HAD DECIDED NOT TO FURTHER ENDANGER THE SHIP BY WAITING AROUND THE YANGTZE FOR A CHANCE TO SLIP INTO SHANGHAI.

HE SAID THERE WAS DANGER THAT THE SWELLING OF WATER-SOAKED CARGO IN THE NO. 5 HOLD MIGHT CAUSE AN EXPLOSION.

THE NATIONALIST SHELLING SET OFF A FIRE IN THE HOLD. IT WAS THERE THAT THE MOST DAMAGE TO CARGO WAS DONE. THE CARGO IN THE HOLD IS COTTON, RUBBER AND CAUSTIC SODA.

WHILE THE 12 PASSENGERS AND CREW OF 43 CAME THROUGH THE BAPTISM OF FIRE WITHOUT INJURY, A SUMMING UP OF CREW EXPERIENCES SHOWS THERE WERE SOME NARROW ESCAPES.

JAN 13 1950

28FX

CAPTAIN JONES HIMSELF AND SECOND OFFICER FRANK GROSS PROBABLY HAD THE NARROWEST ONE. WITH FIRE PRACTICALLY ENCIRCLING THEM, THEY HEAVED A BULLET-PIERCED DRUM OF GASOLINE OVER THE SIDE. ONE SPARK AND THE DRUM WOULD HAVE EXPLODED.

SECOND ENGINEER JEAN A.BROWN, NORWOOD, N.J., ACTUALLY SLEPT THROUGH THE ATTACK.

"WHY THE DICKENS," HE DEMANDED LATER, "DIDN'T THEY SOUND THE GENERAL ALARM? THERE I WAS JUST OFF LATE NIGHT DUTY. I WENT TO BED. I HEARD THE BANGING AND THOUGHT IT WAS A SWINGING DOOR SO I WENT BACK TO SLEEP."

ANTHONY ALIMONTI, A 22-YEAR-OLD FROM BOSTON, SEEMED MORE CONCERNED ABOUT HIS MOTHER WORRYING THAN ABOUT ANYTHING THE NATIONALISTS MIGHT DO.

"GEE MISTER," HE SAID TO ME, "DO YOU THINK THIS STORY GETS A LOTTA PUBLICITY? MY MOM PROBABLY THINKS I'M DEAD AND WON'T BELIEVE ANYTHING ELSE."

FOR THE INFORMATION OF MRS. ALIMONTI IN BOSTON HER SON IS VERY HEALTHY. SO IS EVERYONE ELSE ABOARD.

TAIPEI, FORMOSA, JAN. 13-(AP)-MADAME CHIANG KAI-SHEK RETURNED TO NATIONALIST CHINA TODAY TO HELP HER HUSBAND SAVE THE REMAINS OF HIS SHRUNKEN DOMAIN.

THEY WERE REUNITED AT PEACH ORCHARD FIELD, A NATIONALIST AIR BASE AN HOUR'S AUTOMOBILE DRIVE SOUTH OF TAIPEI.

IT WAS THEIR FIRST MEETING SINCE MADAME CHIANG LEFT NANKING FOR THE UNITED STATES LATE IN NOVEMBER OF 1948 ON A FRUITLESS MISSION TO ENLIST AMERICAN AID.

SINCE THEN THE NATIONALISTS HAVE LOST FOUR CAPITALS--NANKING, CANTON, CHUNGKING AND CHENGTU.

MADAME CHIANG WAS ESCORTED FROM MANILA BY HER HUSBAND'S ELDEST SON, GEN.CHIANG CHING-KUO. HE BROUGHT HER HERE IN THE GENERALISSIMO'S PRIVATE PLANE.

THE DAY WAS OVERCAST. HUSBAND AND WIFE, DISMAYED BUT NOT BROKEN BY THE RISE OF COMMUNIST CHINA, SHOOK HANDS.

"WELCOME HOME," SAID CHIANG, A SMILE ON HIS CARE-WORN FACE.

"I'M GLAD TO BE BACK," SHE REPLIED, ALSO SMILING.

VARIOUS NOTABLES RUSHED FORWARD AS MADAME CHIANG STEPPED FROM THE PLANE. THE GENERALISSIMO, WHO HAD BEEN CROWDED OUT, THEN STEPPED FORWARD.

HE LED HER TO A WAITING AUTOMOBILE WHICH SPED OFF TOWARD TSAOSHAN (GRASS MOUNTAIN), CHIANG'S HILLSIDE RETREAT ON THE OUTSKIRTS OF TAIPEI.

THE MAIN WELCOMERS WERE A SMALL GROUP OF CHIANG'S INTIMATE FRIENDS AND ASSOCIATES--DIEHARDS WHO HAVE ALIGNED THEIR FATE WITH HIS, COME WHAT MAY.

TOKYO,JAN.13-(AP)-HALF A DOZEN NON-COMMUNIST POLITICAL PARTIES AND LABOR GROUPS LEAPED ON JAPAN'S COMMUNISTS TODAY, ACCUSING THE REDS OF DECEPTION AND TRICKERY.

A NATIONAL RAILWAY WORKERS UNION SPOKESMAN SAID THE PARTY'S STATEMENT YESTERDAY REJECTING A COMINFORM ATTACK ON THE PARTY'S POLICIES HERE WAS "ONLY A CAMOUFLAGE."

JAN 13 1950

THAT STATEMENT, ACCORDING TO THE JAPAN'S PEASANT PARTY, A RELATIVELY UNIMPORTANT GROUP, IS "ONLY A PRETEXT. FROM NOW ON IT (THE JAPAN COMMUNIST PARTY) WILL ACT BY ORDERS OF THE COMINFORM FOR A BLOODY REVOLUTION AND AGAINST THE UNITED STATES, AMONG THE PEASANTS AS WELL AS AMONG THE LABORERS."

NEWSPAPERS SPLURGED THIS PART OF ACHESON'S PRESS CLUB ADDRESS IN WASHINGTON AS THE FIRST OFFICIAL CONFIRMATION OF A PROMISE THAT OTHER AMERICAN OFFICIALS HAVE SUGGESTED.

IT WAS KNOWN IN JAPAN THAT GENERAL MACARTHUR AND SOME OF HIS OFFICERS BEELIEVED DEFENSE OF JAPAN WAS AN AMERICAN OBLIGATION UNTIL ALLIED PROTECTION COULD BE ASSURED. BUT HE HAS NOT SAID SO DIRECTLY AND NEITHER HAD ANY OTHER OFFICIAL UNTIL NOW. VISITING MILITARY OFFICERS, HOWEVER, HAVE STRESSED THAT THE UNITED STATES INTENDS TO STAY IN JAPAN.

"THE JAPANESE PEOPLE IN GENERAL WILL GIVE A SIGH OF RELIEF," OVER ACHESON'S STATEMENT, SAID ONE TOKYO EDITOR. BUT MANY, HE ADDED, WILL WANT TO KNOW "IN WHAT FORM."

THERE IS STILL CONSIDERABLE DISCUSSION AMONG JAPANESE, HE SAID, ON WHETHER THE MAINTENANCE OF AMERICAN BASES IN JAPAN WOULD BE THE BEST FOR THIS COUNTRY IN THE END. SOME JAPANESE BELIEVE THIS WOULD MAKE THE ISLANDS MORE LIABLE TO INVOLVEMENT IN ANOTHER WAR THAN IF THE UNITED STATES WERE TO PROVIDE MILITARY ASSISTANCE FROM OUTSIDE BASES.

BUT IN GENERAL THE JAPANESE WERE NOT INCLINED TO QUIBBLE. MOST OF THEM HAVE GREAT RESPECT FOR AMERICAN MILITARY MIGHT AND A GREAT FEAR OF WHERE THEY WOULD BE WITHOUT IT.

FINANCIAL CIRCLES GENERALLY WERE PLEASED WITH THE SECRETARY'S "REALISTIC" VIEW OF THIS COUNTRY'S ECONOMIC PROBLEMS.

IF FORMOSA SHOULD FALL, HE ASSERTED, THE NEXT MOVE BY THE COMMUNISTS WOULD BE TO THE PHILIPPINES AND "WE HAVE A MORAL OBLIGATION THERE."
THIS COUNTRY, HE SAID, SHOULD MAINTAIN A STRONG NAVY WITH A STRONG AIR ARM AND SHOULD NOT PLACE ALL OF ITS FAITH "IN ONE WEAPON."

"IF THE CHOICE, FOR THE UNITED STATES, WERE THE SIMPLE ONE OF HOLDING FORMOSA OR LETTING IT GO, THE ANSWER WOULD BE UNDEBATABLE. THE RUB IS IN ATTENDANT CIRCUMSTANCES."

THE REPORT SAYS THERE ARE "SIX THEORETICALLY POSSIBLE COURSES IN REGARD TO FORMOSA," INCLUDING STAYING OUT AND LETTING THE NATIONALISTS TRY TO HOLD IT WITH WHAT THEY HAVE.

"THE MOST OPTIMISTIC ESTIMATES I HAVE SEEN," IT SAYS, "ARE TO THE EFFECT THAT THE NATIONALISTS MIGHT HOLD ON IN FORMOSA FOR ANOTHER 18 MONTHS. THE MOST PESSIMISTIC I HAVE NOTED SETS THE OUTER LIMIT AT SIX MONTHS." WASH-(REPORT ON FORMOSA) XXX obscure this

THE BEST ESTIMATE FROM GOVERNMENT SOURCES, THE REPORT SAYS, IS THAT THE NATIONALISTS HAVE A MILITARY FORCE OF 200,000 TO 300,000 ON THE ISLAND--IN ADDITION TO SOME 600,000 TO 650,000 NATIONALIST GOVERNMENT FUGITIVES.

IN ADDITION TO STAYING OUT OF FORMOSA, THE REPORT SAYS THE UNITED STATES COULD:

1. WITHHOLD FORCES BUT GIVE MILITARY HELP IN OTHER FORMS. THIS, THE REPORT SAYS, WOULD BE AN ACT OF WAR AGAINST THE SIDE INTERVENED AGAINST.

2. COMBINE FORCES WITH THE CHINESE NATIONALISTS IN AN ATTEMPT TO HOLD THE ISLAND, WHICH AGAIN WOULD MEAN INTERVENTION LEADING TO "WAR WITH COMMUNIST CHINA."

3. SEIZE FORMOSA FROM THE NATIONALISTS, ON GROUNDS ITS OWNERSHIP HASN'T BEEN SETTLED, AND TRY TO HOLD IT UNTIL A PEACE TREATY IS SIGNED WITH JAPAN. (JAPAN GOT FORMOSA FROM THE CHINESE IN 1895 AND THE TERMS OF JAPAN'S SURRENDER IN WORLD WAR II SAID THE ISLAND SHOULD GO BACK TO THE CHINESE.)

4. SEIZE THE ISLAND AND TRY TO KEEP IT UNTIL SOME SATISFACTORY GOVERNMENT COMES INTO POWER IN CHINA.

5. GRAB IT AND TRY TO HOLD IT "ON A STRAIGHT-OUT CLAIM OF PARAMOUNT INTEREST."

STEP 3, 4 OR 5, THE REPORT SAYS, "WOULD ALL TOO LIKELY UNITE ALL THE CHINESE AGAINST US. MOREOVER, WE WOULD HAVE TO DO THE WHOLE THING ALONE."

PHILADELPHIA, JAN.13-(AP)-THE UNITED STATES--NOT EUROPE--IS THE TARGET OF RUSSIAN AGGRESSION, BELGIUM'S PAUL-HENRI SPAAK DECLARED LAST NIGHT.

"STALIN DOES NOT WANT TO CONQUER EUROPE," THE FORMER BELGIUM PREMIER TOLD AN "EDUCATION FOR FREEDOM" ASSEMBLY HELD IN CONVENTION HALL AS PART OF THE FOUNDER'S WEEK PROGRAM OF THE UNIVERSITY OF PENNSYLVANIA.

"IF ONE DAY WAR MUST BREAK OUT," HE CONTINUED, "IT WILL BE BECAUSE THE RUSSIANS WANT COMMUNISM TO REIGN OVER THE WORLD, AND IT IS NOT IN EUROPE THAT LIES THE SOLUTION OF THEIR PROBLEM, BUT HERE IN THE UNITED STATES."

SPAAK, FIRST PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED NATIONS GENERAL ASSEMBLY AND NOW PRESIDENT OF THE CONSULTATIVE ASSEMBLY OF THE COUNCIL OF EUROPE, IS THE GUEST OF THE UNIVERSITY IN A WEEK-LONG ROUND OF ADDRESSES AND SEMINARS. TODAY HE WILL CONDUCT A SEMINAR FOR ADVANCED STUDENTS IN INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS AT THE UNIVERSITY.

HIS ADDRESS LAST NIGHT, WHICH HE DESCRIBED AS HIS FIRST "REAL SPEECH IN ENGLISH," DEALT WITH THE ROLE OF A UNITED WESTERN EUROPE CAN PLAY IN "THE BALANCE OF FORCES BETWEEN THE U.S.S.R. AND THE UNITED STATES."

BUT HE WARNED THAT "BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES, NOW THE MOST FORMIDABLE ECONOMIC POWER, AND THE U.S.S.R., WHICH INCREASES ITS STRENGTH DAY AFTER DAY, WESTERN EUROPE VEGETATES."

SPAAK SAID, HOWEVER, THAT HE SINCERELY THINKS THIS SITUATION CAN BE CHANGED THROUGH A UNITED EUROPE, ADDING:

"DURING THESE LAST TWO YEARS THE IDEA OF AN UNITED EUROPE HAS MADE PERCEPTIBLE PROGRESS."

JAN 13 1950

FOLLOWING THE ADDRESS, HAROLD E.STASSEN, PRESIDENT OF THE UNIVERSITY OF PENNSYLVANIA, CONFERRED ON SPAAK THE HONORARY DEGREE OF DOCTOR OF LAWS.

WASHINGTON,JAN.13-(AP)-THE AIR FORCE ANNOUNCED TODAY THE MARK AIR FORCE BASE, NOME,ALASKA WILL BE SHUT DOWN BY NEXT NOVEMBER.

THE CLOSING OUT OF THE BASE IS TO BEGIN IN THE NEAR FUTURE, IT ADDED.

THE AIR FORCE EXPLAINED THE INACTIVATION OF THE BASE IS BEING MADE TO SAVE CONSIDERABLE MONEY WITHOUT WEAKENING THE ALASKA DEFENSES.

THE ANNOUNCEMENT SAID THE INACTIVATION AFFECTS ONLY THE ARTCIC SURVIVAL SCHOOLS AND THE AIRWAYS DETACHMENT.

IT SAID THE SCHOOL WILL BE TRANSFERED TO LADO AIR BASE AT FAIRBANKS AND ADDED THAT FINAL DISPOSITION OF THE MARK AIR BASE HAS NOT BEEN DECIDED.

THE ARCTIC SURVIVAL SCHOOL TRAINED NEW RECRUITS IN LIVING IN RUGGED CONDITIONS WHEN ALONE IN ALASKA. THEY WERE TAUGHT HOW TO LIVE AFTER LANDING FROM AN AIRPLANE EQUIPPED ONLY WITH THE FOOD AND SUPPLIES THEY CARRIED.

THE AIRWAYS DETACHMENT, THE AIR FORCE SAID, WAS COMPOSED OF ONLY 12 MEN WHO HANDLED AIR TRAFFIC AT THE BASE

DELEGATE BARTLETT AND GOV.ERNEST GRUENING OF ALASKA ANNOUNCED THEY WOULD MAKE "A VIGOROUS PROTEST" AGAINST THE AIR FORCE CLOSING THE NOME BASE.

THEY SAID IT WAS A "BLOW AT MORALE" FOR THE AIR FORCE TO "PULL OUT OF THE ONLY AIRBASE IN NORTHWEST ALASKA."

THE BASE IS DIRECTLY ACROSS THE BERING SEA FROM SIBERIA.

BARTLETT SAID THE PROTEST WOULD BE MADE AT ONCE TO DEFENSE SECRETARY JOHNSON AND AIR SECRETARY SYMINGTON.

FOREIGN-INTERPRETIVE

BY JOHN M.HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON, JAN.13-(AP)-A THREE-POINT STRATEGY FOR BLOCKING--AND SOME DAY REVERSING--THE SPREAD OF RUSSIAN COMMUNISM IN ASIA EMERGED TODAY FROM SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON'S DECLARATION OF U.S. FOREIGN POLICY TOWARD THE FAR EAST.

THE STRATEGY IS AIMED AT BOLSTERING NON-COMMUNIST NATIONS IN SOUTHEAST ASIA, TRYING TO EVENTUALLY DRIVE A WEDGE BETWEEN CHINA AND RUSSIA AND HOLDING ON TO AMERICA'S OWN WESTERN PACIFIC DEFENSE LINE--WHICH DOES NOT INCLUDE FORMOSA.

THE POLICY WAS OUTLINED BY ACHESON YESTERDAY IN AN HOUR LONG SPEECH AT THE NATIONAL PRESS CLUB. IT WAS THE FIRST GENERAL ADMINISTRATION STATEMENT ON THE FAR EASTERN SITUATION SINCE THE REDS COMPLETED THEIR CONQUEST OF CHINA.

IT CONTAINED ONE SENSATIONAL ACCUSATION WHICH COMES AT AN APPARENTLY CRITICAL POINT IN EARLY CHINESE COMMUNIST RELATIONS WITH MOSCOW. THIS WAS THAT RUSSIA IS IN PROCESS OF TAKING OVER A VAST AREA OF NORTH CHINA, INCLUDING MANCHURIA. ACHESON PREDICTED THAT THIS WOULD BRING DOWN ON THE RUSSIANS THE "RIGHTOUS ANGER AND WRATH" OF THE CHINESE PEOPLE.

ON THIS "IMPORTANT FACT" AS HE CALLED IT AND ON THE BELIEF THAT ASIA IS CAUGHT UP IN A GREAT REVOLUTIONARY FERMENT, HE LAID OUT THE THREE LINES OF HIS STRATEGY FOR DEALING WITH THE SITUATION:

1. TO PROMOTE THE GROWTH OF NATIONALISM AND HELP SATISFY THE DESIRE FOR ECONOMIC BETTERMENT IN THE COUNTRIES OF SOUTHEAST ASIA AS THE BEST WAY OF PREVENTING THEM FROM GOING COMMUNIST.

2. TO EXPLOIT--AS ACHESON HIMSELF OBVIOUSLY SOUGHT TO DO--THE CONFLICT BETWEEN CHINESE NATIONAL INTERESTS, EVEN UNDER COMMUNIST RULE, AND WHAT ACHESON CALLED RUSSIAN IMPERIALISM IN NORTH CHINA.

3. TO HOLD INDEFINITELY THE AMERICAN DEFENSE LINE IN THE WESTERN PACIFIC BASED ON JAPAN, THE RYUKYU ISLANDS AND THE PHILIPPINES. TO THIS END, HE MADE CLEAR, THE UNITED STATES IS DETERMINED TO KEEP DEFENSE FORCES IN JAPAN EVEN AFTER A PEACE TREATY.

THE DEFINITION OF THE ADMINISTRATION'S FAR EAST POLICY FOLLOWING LONG MONTHS OF INTENSIVE WORK IN THE STATE DEPARTMENT, FELL SHORT OF PROMOSING ACTION OF THE KIND WHICH ACHESON'S CRITICS HAVE DEMANDED IN RESPECT TO FORMOSA, FOR EXAMPLE. HE HELD OUT NO HOPE OF DOING ANYTHING FURTHER TO SAVE THAT CHINESE NATIONALIST ISLAND FROM THE COMMUNISTS.

A45WX

AT THE SAME TIME, THE POLICY HAS LIMITATIONS WHICH ACHESON FRANKLY ADMITTED. HE SAID THAT THE UNITED STATES COULD NOT HELP THOSE COUNTRIES WHICH DO NOT WANT AMERICAN AID NOR COULD IT HELP THOSE SO WEAK INTERNALLY THAT THEY COULD NOT MAKE EFFECTIVE USE OF SUCH AID.

FURTHERMORE, HE DECLARED THAT THE UNITED STATES COULD NOT GIVE SECURITY GUARANTEES TO LANDS LYING BEYOND THE JAPAN-PHILIPPINES DEFENSE LINE AND THAT THE FINAL RELIANCE OF THOSE PEOPLES MUST BE FIRST IN THEIR OWN WILL TO RESIST AND SECOND IN THE UNITED NATIONS.

IN DISCUSSING "RUSSIAN IMPERIALISM" IN ASIA, ACHESON URGED THAT THE UNITED STATES AVOID "THE FOLLY OF ILL CONCEIVED ADVENTURES" WHICH WOULD "DEFLECT FROM THE RUSSIANS TO OURSELVES THE RIGHTEOUS ANGER AND THE WRATH AND THE HATRED OF THE CHINESE PEOPLE WHICH MUST DEVELOP."

"THE CONSEQUENCES OF THIS RUSSIAN ATTITUDE AND THIS RUSSIAN ACTION IN CHINA ARE PERFECTLY ENORMOUS," HE SAID. "THEY ARE SADDLING ALL THOSE IN CHINA WHO ARE PROCLAIMING THEIR LOYALTY TO MOSCOW AND WHO ARE ALLOWING THEMSELVES TO BE USED AS PUPPETS OF MOSCOW WITH THE MOST AWFUL RESPONSIBILITY WHICH THEY MUST PAY FOR.

"FURTHERMORE, THESE ACTIONS OF THE RUSSIANS ARE MAKING PLAINER THAN ANY SPEECH OR ANY UTTERANCE OR ANY LEGISLATION CAN MAKE THROUGHOUT ALL OF ASIA WHAT THE TRUE PURPOSES OF THE SOVIET UNION ARE AND WHAT THE TRUE FUNCTION OF COMMUNISM AS AN AGENT OF RUSSIAN IMPERIALISM IS."

NIGHT LEAD BRIDGES

SAN FRANCISCO, JAN.13-(AP)-AN OLD FRIEND OF HARRY BRIDGES TESTIFIED TODAY THAT HE ATTENDED COMMUNIST MEETINGS WITH THE CIO LONGSHORE LEADER AND CO-DEFENDANT J.R.ROBERTSON.

GEORGE WILSON, 48-YEAR-OLD LOS ANGELES NEWSPAPERMAN, WAS IN OBVIOUS DISTRESS AS A PROSECUTION WITNESS IN BRIDGES' PERJURY TRIAL. HE SPOKE OF BRIDGES AS "HARRY", HENRY SCHMIDT AS "HENRY", AND ROBERTSON AS "BOB."

U.S. DISTRICT JUDGE GEORGE B.HARRIS TOOK NOTICE OF WILSON'S DEMEANOR. HE CALLED AN EARLIER THAN USUAL MID-MORNING RECESS AFTER THE WITNESS SEEMED TO SAG IN HIS CHAIR.

CHIEF PROSECUTOR F.JOSEPH DONOHUE DEVELOPED THIS TESTIMONY FROM THE BALDING FORMER HEAD OF THE HARRY BRIDGES DEFENSE COMMITTEE BEFORE COURT RECESSED FOR THE WEEKEND:

HE ONCE WAS PRESIDENT OF THE SAN FRANCISCO CIO COUNCIL; HE JOINED THE COMMUNIST PARTY WITHOUT SIGNING AN APPLICATION; HE ONCE ATTENDED A MEETING OF "COMMUNISTS DISCUSSING LABOR PROBLEMS," AND THOSE PRESENT INCLUDED BRIDGES AND ROBERTSON.

IT WAS THE FIRST TIME TESTIMONY OF ANY WITNESS HAD LINKED ROBERTSON WITH THE COMMUNIST PARTY.

BRIDGES IS CHARGED WITH LYING WHEN HE TOLD A NATURALIZATION EXAMINER IN 1945 HE HAD NEVER BEEN A COMMUNIST. SCHMIDT AND ROBERTSON ARE CHARGED WITH CONSPIRING TO DEFRAUD THE GOVERNMENT. BOTH ARE BRIDGES UNION AIDES.

WILSON TESTIFIED ROBERTSON HAD ATTENDED COMMUNIST PARTY MEETINGS WHERE NO ONE WAS PRESENT EXCEPT THOSE HE KNEW TO BE COMMUNISTS. HE SAID HE UNDERSTOOD ROBERTSON "WAS ATTACHED TO THE SAME UNIT I WAS." WILSON SAID HE HIMSELF LEFT THE PARTY IN 1945.

ON CROSS-EXAMINATION, THE DEFENSE ASKED ONLY TWO QUESTIONS. IN REPLY, WILSON TESTIFIED HE HELD A GOVERNMENT JOB FROM DECEMBER, 1945 TO DECEMBER, 1947, AND THAT IT WAS UNDER CIVIL SERVICE.

BRIDGES HIMSELF, ASKED OUT OF COURT TO EXPLAIN THE COMPARATIVELY EASY PATH THE CROSS-EXAMINATION TOOK, SAID WILSON, AN OLD FRIEND, HAD NOT BEEN "VICIOUS" IN HIS TESTIMONY. HE CONTENDED WILSON HAD TESTIFIED "ONLY BECAUSE HE WAS ON A SPOT AND HAD TO."

NEW YORK, JAN. 13-(AP)-AN FBI EXPERT SAID TODAY HIS ELABORATE EAVESDROPPING MACHINERY DREW A BLANK ON THE DAY THAT JUDITH COPLON WAS ARRESTED.

NOT A WIRE-TAPPED WORD CAME THROUGH TO ALERT FBI EARS ABOUT A "HOT AND INTERESTING" GOVERNMENT PAPER, TESTIFIED AGENT LYNN W. BRADFORD.

"THIS GENTLEMAN TELLS YOU VERY SWEETLY THAT THERE WAS SOMETHING THE MATTER WITH THE MICROPHONE," SNORTED DEFENSE ATTORNEY ARCHIBALD PALMER WITH SARCASM.

MISS COPLON'S FORMER WASHINGTON JUSTICE DEPARTMENT BOSS, WILLIAM E.FOLEY, HAS TESTIFIED THAT HE HANDED HER A PAPER LAST MARCH 4 AND TOLD HER IT WAS "HOT AND INTERESTING."

AN FBI MONITORED MICROPHONE WAS PLANTED ON THE BROOKLYN GIRL'S DESK AT THE TIME.

WHEN MISS COPLON WAS ARRESTED A FEW HOURS LATER IN NEW YORK WITH VALENTIN A.GUBITCHEV, THERE WERE EXTRACTS FROM THE PAPER IN HER BLACK PURSE.

SHE HAS TESTIFIED THAT FOLEY TOLD HER TO TAKE THE MEMOIRS HOME WITH HER FOR PERUSAL.

MOREOVER, THE DEFENSE HAS CHARGED THAT THE PAPERS WERE A FAKE, THAT THEY WERE NOT SECRET AND THAT THEY DELIBERATELY WERE PUSHED OFF ON MISS COPLON SO THE FBI WOULD HAVE AN EXCUSE TO ARREST HER.

SHE AND GUBITCHEV ARE ACCUSED OF CONSPIRING TO TRANSMIT U.S. SECRETS TO RUSSIA.

GUBITCHEV IS A FORMER UNITED NATIONS EMPLOYE WITH WHOM MISS COPLON SAID SHE ONCE WAS IN LOVE.

NO DATE HAS BEEN FIXED FOR THEIR TRIAL.

JAN 13 1950

IN LENGTHY PRE-TRIAL HEARINGS, THE DEFENSE HAS TRIED TO SHOW THAT THE CASE SHOULD BE THROWN OUT OF COURT BECAUSE IT RESTS SOLELY ON WIRETAP EVIDENCE. SUCH EVIDENCE CANNOT BE USED IN A FEDERAL COURT.

THE GOVERNMENT ADMITS TAPPING THE PHONES OF BOTH DEFENDANTS BUT SAID IT ALSO HAS PLENTY OF OTHER EVIDENCE AGAINST THEM.

HAROLD P.SHAPIRO, A ONE-TIME CO-WORKER WITH MISS COPLON, DID NOT TESTIFY TODAY ALTHOUGH HE HAD BEEN SCHEDULED AS A WITNESS. IT WAS NOT EXPLAINED WHY HIS APPEARANCE WAS DELAYED.

HIS NAME IS IMPORTANT IN THE GOVERNMENT'S EFFORTS TO BLAST MISS COPLON'S STORY THAT IT WAS ROMANCE AND NOT INTRIGUE THAT DREW HER TO GUBITCHEV.

WASHINGTON, JAN.13-(AP)-AFTER A SQUALLY START, THE NOMINATION OF ADM.FORREST P.SHERMAN AS CHIEF OF NAVAL OPERATIONS APPEARED HEADED FOR CLEAR SAILING IN THE SENATE TODAY.

APPROVAL OF SHERMAN AS THE NAVY'S TOP UNIFORMED OFFICER WAS EXPECTED BEFORE NIGHTFALL--BUT POSSIBLY NOT UNTIL SENATOR MCCARTHY (R-WIS) GETS OFF ONE MORE BLAST AT THE PENTAGON POLICY WHICH HELPED BRING ABOUT THE REMOVAL OF ADM.LOUIS E.DENFELD FROM THE POST SHERMAN IS TAKING OVER.

MCCARTHY'S OBJECTION BLOCKED THE UNANIMOUS SENATE CONSENT ASKED BY SENATOR TYDINGS (D-MD) YESTERDAY FOR IMMEDIATE CONSIDERATION OF SHERMAN'S APPOINTMENT.

TYDINGS HURRIED TO THE FLOOR WITH THAT REQUEST AFTER SHERMAN HAD RECEIVED A UNANIMOUS RECOMMENDATION FROM THE SENATE ARMED SERVICES COMMITTEE AT THE END OF A HECTIC DAY. TYDINGS HEADS THE COMMITTEE.

MCCARTHY TOLD REPORTERS HE HAD KEPT THE SENATE FROM VOTING ON SHERMAN IMMEDIATELY NOT BECAUSE HE OPPOSES THE APPOINTMENT, BUT BECAUSE HE "MAY HAVE SOMETHING TO SAY ABOUT PROTECTING CONGRESSIONAL WITNESSES FROM PUNISHMENT FOR TELLING THE TRUTH."

HE REFERRED TO DENFELD'S CASE. DENFELD WAS SHUNTED OUT AS CHIEF OF NAVAL OPERATIONS LAST FALL AFTER HE HAD JOINED OTHER ADMIRALS IN CRITICIZING PENTAGON POLICY BEFORE THE HOUSE ARMED SERVICES COMMITTEE. HIS REMOVAL BROUGHT CHARGES OF "REPRISAL" FROM MCCARTHY AND OTHERS.

SECRETARY OF THE NAVY MATTHEWS TOLD THE SENATE COMMITTEE YESTERDAY THAT DENFELD WASN'T FIRED; INSTEAD HIS TERM WAS ALLOWED TO LAPSE DECEMBER 7 WHEN PRESIDENT TRUMAN FAILED TO SIGN HIS COMMISSION. AT THAT TIME, DENFELD HAD BEEN CONFIRMED BY THE SENATE FOR ANOTHER TWO YEARS AS NAVAL COMMANDER.

MATTHEWS MADE CLEAR THAT THERE IS NO ROOM ON HIS TEAM FOR MEN WHO DISAGREE WITH HIS POLICIES. "I COULD NOT HAVE ADMINISTERED THE NAVY," HE DECLARED, "WITH ADMIRAL DENFELD AS CHIEF OF NAVAL OPERATIONS."

HE ADDED HOWEVER THAT HE CONSIDERS IT THE DUTY OF NAVY OFFICERS TO TESTIFY FRANKLY WHEN ASKED FOR OPINIONS BY CONGRESS.

THE SECRETARY MADE HIS APPEARANCE BEFORE THE SENATORS AFTER THEY HAD ONCE AGREED--ON A PARTY LINE VOTE--NOT TO CALL HIM FOR TESTIMONY.

A15WX

THE VOTE FOLLOWED A HEATED DISCUSSION IN WHICH TYDINGS ACCUSED COMMITTEE REPUBLICANS OF TRYING TO USE SHERMAN'S NOMINATION AS A "SUBSTITUTE" FOR A COMPLETE REVIEW OF THE DENFELD CASE. SENATOR KNOWLAND (R-CALIF) RETORTED THAT TYDINGS WAS TRYING TO "GAG" GOP MEMBERS. AT ONE POINT, KNOWLAND THREATENED TO RESIGN FROM THE COMMITTEE.

BUT HAVING WON HIS POINT, TYDINGS REVERSED HIS POSITION AND AGREED TO CALL MATTHEWS.

KNOWLAND COMMENTED AFTER HEARING THE NAVY OFFICIAL THAT HE IS NOW SATISFIED.

"WE GOT THE RIGHT TO QUESTION OFFICIALS WITHOUT RESTRAINT," KNOWLAND SAID, "AND WE HAVE ASSURANCES THAT WITNESSES CAN GIVE CONGRESSIONAL COMMITTEES TESTIMONY WITHOUT REPRISALS OR RECRIMINATIONS."

MATTHEWS APPARENTLY CAUGHT REPUBLICANS BY SURPRISE WITH HIS STATEMENT THAT DENFELD HAD NO LEGAL APPOINTMENT FOR HIS SECOND TERM.

TYDINGS SUPPORTED MATTHEWS BY QUOTING A SUPREME COURT RULING THAT AN OFFICIAL'S COMMISSION MUST BE SIGNED TO BE EFFECTIVE.

MATTHEWS REITERATED THAT HE HAD DECIDED AGAINST KEEPING DENFELD AS TOP NAVY COMMANDER EVEN BEFORE THE ADMIRAL JOINED THE NAVY'S PROTEST AGAINST UNIFICATION AT THE HOUSE HEARINGS.

IT WOULD HAVE BEEN "ILLOGICAL", HE SAID, "FOR ME TO ATTEMPT TO ADMINISTER THE NAVY THROUGH A MAN WHO NOT ONLY IS NOT IN SYMPATHY BUT WHO OPENLY DENOUNCES MY POLICIES."

JAN 13 1950

SUBORDINATES WHO DISAGREE WITH THE POLICIES OF THEIR SUPERIORS, MATTHEWS CONCLUDED, HAVE "NO BUSINESS BEING IN THE CHAIN OF COMMAND."

WHEN KNOWLAND AND OTHER REPUBLICANS STARTED TO PRY DEEPER INTO THE DENFELD CASE, MATTHEWS ASKED AN OPPORTUNITY TO ANSWER SUCH QUESTIONS LATER, BEHIND CLOSED DOORS AND WITH DENFELD PRESENT.

MATTHEWS SAID HE TOOK THAT POSITION BECAUSE HE AND DENFELD REMAIN "GOOD FRIENDS."

FINALLY, WHEN TYDINGS ASKED COMMITTEE MEMBERS TO "END THIS NIGHTMARE" AND VOTE ON THE SHERMAN APPOINTMENT, IT SAILED THROUGH WITHOUT OPPOSITION.

ALASKA-NORTHWEST (330)

JAN 13 1950

BY ELTON C.FAY

WASHINGTON,JAN 13-(AP)-THE MILITARY HIGH COMMAND AND CONGRESS ARE GETTING NEW DEMANDS THAT SOMETHING BE DONE ABOUT THE DEFENSES OF ALASKA AND THE PACIFIC NORTHWEST.

CONGRESS MEMBERS AND OFFICIALS FROM THE NORTHWEST SAY THE DEFENSE PLANS SHOULDN'T INCLUDE MOVING WAR PLANTS OUT OF THAT AREA. THEY SAY MILITARY LEADERS CONTEMPLATED THAT. THE MILITARY LEADERS SAY THEY DIDN'T.

A COMPLAINT THAT ALASKA IS DEFENSELESS AGAINST A STRIKE BY RUSSIA ACROSS THE BERING STRAIT CAME LAST NIGHT FROM THE TERRITORY'S GOVERNOR, ERNEST GRUENING.

HE MADE THE STATEMENT AT A MASS MEETING ARRANGED BY THE ALL-AMERICAN DEFENSE ASSOCIATION. THE ASSOCIATION, FORMED TO PROTEST WAR PLANT RELOCATIONS, CALLED A POLICY-FORMING SESSION TODAY.

GRUENING POINTED OUT THAT THE MAINLANDS OF ALASKA AND RUSSIAN SIBERIA ARE ONLY 54 MILES APART.

"ELEMENTARY COMMON SENSE WOULD REQUIRE MAKING ALASKA AS NEARLY IMPREGNABLE AS POSSIBLE," SAID THE GOVERNOR. "BUT NO SUCH THING WAS DONE.

"DURING THE FOUR YEARS FROM 1945 AFTER V-J DAY TILL THE SUMMER OF 1949 NEXT TO NOTHING WAS DONE FOR BUILDING UP OF ALASKAN DEFENSES. CONGRESS, WHICH SO GENEROUSLY VOTED FUNDS TO CHECK THE ADVANCE OF IMPERIAL COMMUNISM IN EUROPE, VOTED NEXT TO NOTHING TO PREPARE AGAINST A SIMILAR ADVANCE TO ALASKA AND THE AMERICAN CONTINENT."

GRUENING'S COMPLAINTS ABOUT PLANS TO TRANSPLANT WAR FACTORIES FROM THE PACIFIC COAST TO AN INLAND LOCATION WERE ECHOED BY OTHER SPEAKERS AT LAST NIGHT'S DEFENSE MEETING AND IN STATEMENTS ON CAPITOL HILL.

BUT IF THERE HAD BEEN SUCH A PLAN IT APPEARED TO HAVE BEEN SCOTCHED BY THE OPPOSITION OF CONGRESS MEMBERS AND OFFICIALS FROM THE PACIFIC STATES. PENTAGON OFFICIALS RECALLED THAT SECRETARY OF DEFENSE JOHNSON ALREADY HAD DENIED THESE "RUMORS."

THERE HAD BEEN A PERSISTENT REPORT IN RECENT MONTHS THAT THE MILITARY HAD WRITTEN--OR INTENDED TO WRITE--INTO CONTRACTS WITH PRIVATE FIRMS A PROVISION REQUIRING THAT PRODUCTION OF SUCH CRITICAL ITEMS AS AIRCRAFT BE CARRIED OUT AT INLAND POINTS.

REP.SHEPPARD (D-CALIF) TOLD THE DEFENSE ASSOCIATION MEETING HE HAD BEEN ASSURED THIS WASN'T SO.

SHEPPARD QUOTED JOHNSON AS TELLING HIM YESTERDAY THAT "I NEVER CONSIDERED AN ORDER OF THAT KIND AND HAVE NO CONTEMPLATION OF ISSUING AN ORDER NOW OR IN THE FUTURE." MOREOVER, SAID SHEPPARD, THE SECRETARIES OF THE ARMY, NAVY AND AIR FORCE HAD EACH GIVEN HIM SIMILAR ASSURANCE.

A SPOKESMAN SAID LEON STRAUS WAS DISCHARGED NOV.23. STRAUS HAD HELD A RESERVE COMMISSION AS A SECOND LIEUTENANT.

STRAUS SAID IN NEW YORK YESTERDAY THAT HE "SURMISED" HE WAS GIVEN A DISCHARGE "OTHER THAN HONORABLE" BECAUSE HE WAS A SPONSOR OF THE ROBESON CONCERT THAT ENDED IN RIOTING AT PEEKSKILL, N.Y., IN SEPTEMBER.

SOME VETERANS GROUPS AND OTHERS HAD BEEN ANGERED BY SPEECHES THAT ROBESON, THE SINGER, HAD MADE PRAISING RUSSIA AND CRITICIZING THE UNITED STATES. THEY OBJECTED TO HOLDING THE CONCERT AT PEEKSKILL.

WEST GERMAN ARMING HINTED

JAN 4 1950

Scheme For New Force Laid To Former Generals

R O'REGAN

Frankfurt, Germany, Jan. 14 (AP) Secret talks on the rearmament of West Germany were reported and denied today. At the same time a military-assistance pact between eastern Germany and Russia was reported to have been signed. This, too, was denied.

These reports coincided with the flying of the French tricolor alongside the black, red and gold of the West German Republic at Bonn in honor of a visit of Robert Schuman, French Foreign Minister, to discuss the Saar and other questions.

Plans Laid To Generals

On the eve of talks on the Saar, Chancellor Konrad Adenauer declared tonight Germany was "disquieted" by reports that France wanted to lease the valley's thick coal seams for 50 years. This is upsetting German circles who want an understanding with France, he said. Other reports say the French want to lease the mines for 99 years.

Allied and German sources said a group of former German generals had submitted plans for a West German Army to the West German Government. The plan was said to call for at least one infantry division by June and an armored corps by next year.

Russian Pact Denied

Paul Bourdin, Adenauer's official spokesman, said "there is not a shred of truth" in reports that Adenauer had discussed the plan with a group of former German generals.

High American officials confirmed, however, that some generals had submitted the plan to Adenauer or his Government. They said the plans were submitted without Allied approval, but emphasized that the German Government was at liberty to request any proposals it wants.

One former German general, who refused permission to use his name, said "the plans were requested directly by the federal government or through an intermediary."

A newspaper's declaration that Russia had concluded a military pact with eastern Germany was called a "complete fabrication" by a spokesman for the East German Communist Government in Berlin.

The Ruhr Nachrichten, of Dortmund, in the British zone, said a mutual friendship and defense pact signed with Russia December 17 guaranteed the defense of eastern Germany for three years in case of war or civil war.

In return, Nachrichten said, eastern Germany agreed to "fulfill her tasks as ordered in the defense pact of the East block states." Observers pointed out that this would call for the remilitarization of eastern Germany.

Already the eastern Communist regime has a people's police estimated at 60,000 men, which is being trained as an army. The police are reported to have a recruiting goal of 360,000.

Schuman Sees President

British authorities said an East German-Russian pact would be embarrassing to the Western occupation powers. It would lend weight to Adenauer's belief that Western Germany must get security assurances from the West.

Schuman arrived in the West German capital last night and first went to see President Theodor Heuss. Heuss declared three days ago that the Saar was "historically and ethnically German."

Later, after a luncheon with Adenauer, Schuman attended a formal reception. There Adenauer said "the solution of the Saar problem should be left to the peace treaty."

The Saar is a part of the occupation zone of France. Germans fear the economic integration of the small valley with France is proceeding so far that it is being lost to Germany.

Adenauer has shied away from any public comment on West German rearmament in recent weeks, after claiming to have been misquoted several times.

West German Army Plans Drafted

JAN 14 1950

Frankfurt, Germany, Jan. 14 (AP). Several former German generals have submitted plans to Chancellor Konrad Adenauer for a new army for western Germany, western allied officials said today.

These officials said they did not know whether Adenauer had discussed the plans directly with the generals, or whether the plans had been sent to the Chancellor through intermediaries.

Reports published abroad said the generals advised Adenauer that German security must eventually call for German troops. One report said the minimum requirements proposed were an infantry division by June and an armored corps by 1951.

Previously Denied

The allied officials said they did not know details of the former generals' proposals and could not name the generals.

Adenauer denied last month that he was considering any plan for German rearmament. In a parliamentary debate the Chancellor was joined by leaders of every major party in opposing creation of any armed force in Germany, where troops have been banned since the war.

Adenauer said in a subsequent interview that if the Allies wanted German troops to aid in a program for defense of western Europe the Germans could serve only as units of an international command—not as a German army.

WEST GERMANS HEAR SCHUMAN

G POULTNEY

Frenchman To Participate In Discussions On Saar

JAN 14 1950

Bonn, Germany, Jan. 14 (AP)—Robert Schuman, French Foreign Minister, began a round of talks with west German leaders today and was met by statements that the Saar must still be considered German.

Chancellor Konrad Adenauer said reports that France wants to lease the rich coal veins of the Saar valley for a long term were disturbing the currents for a French-German understanding.

Kurt Schumacher, Social Democratic opposition leader, said he had told Schuman he should negotiate with west Germany instead of the Saar government.

45-Minute Talk With Heuss

Schuman arrived in the West German capital, last night. He first had a 45-minute talk with President Theodor Heuss, who declared three days ago that the 738-square mile territory is "historically and ethnically German."

The Saar is now occupied by the French. It is not part of the west German federal state. After World War I its mines were given to the French in compensation for coal mines destroyed in northern France, and its rule was turned over to a League of Nations commission for fifteen years.

In 1935 the people voted to return to Germany. In 1947 British and American foreign ministers agreed that the territory should have a "special entity" with economic and military ties to France.

Formal Reception For Schuman

Recently the French have been reported undertaking negotiations with Johannes Hoffman, president of the autonomous Saar government elected in 1947. Various reports say they want leases on the mines ranging from 50 to 99 years but are willing to give the territory greater political autonomy.

The Germans fear that by this economic integration France is stealing a march on them, and that the territory will be lost forever.

Adenauer's statement was made at a formal reception for Schuman in Parliament Hall. He and Schuman are to talk tomorrow on the Saar.

Adenauer said "the solution of the Saar problem should be left to the peace treaty."

Russia Move Pictured

"By facing Germany with an accomplished fact before the peace treaty has been negotiated, those currents in Germany seeking an understanding with France and which desire German participation in the European union would be disturbed," he declared.

He said the Allies had stated that there would be no changes in Germany's borders before the peace treaty, and added:

"It is evident that the Allied statement meant that the Saar is still part of Germany. Technically the Saar coal mines are German property. They were bought from France."

He said Russia was trying to detach eastern Germany by unilateral action, and for a similar one-sided change to be undertaken in the West would strengthen the moral position of Russia.

Understanding Possible

He said "an understanding between France and Germany should not fail to be achieved because of the Saar."

Schuman also said "an understanding between France and Germany is already in progress and is possible."

"If the day should come when an understanding between Germany and France is no longer possible then I shall disappear from the scene," he added.

Earlier, while posing with President Heuss for photographers, the French Minister spoke in perfect German in declaring he had come in hope of smoothing the way for such an understanding.

Adenauer Defines Position On Saar

Bonn, Germany, Jan. 14 (AP)—Dr. Konrad Adenauer, Chancellor of western Germany, said tonight that any one-sided change in the status of the Saar prior to the signing of a peace treaty would strengthen the moral position of Russia.

He made the statement at a reception for visiting French Foreign Minister Robert Schuman. Adenauer thus defined his position on the question of the Saar prior to a private talk he will have tomorrow with Schuman.

Adenauer said the Soviet Union wants to make a unilateral border change in eastern Germany, and that a similar change undertaken in the west would boost the moral position of the Russians.

Has French Supervision

The Saar has been a sore spot between France and Germany for years. It was given to France after the first World War. In a plebiscite the people voted in 1935 to join Hitler's Germany. Since the end of World War II it has been under French supervision. Its rich coal and industrial resources have been integrated economically with France.

Said Adenauer:

"Germany has been disquieted by the report that France contemplates leasing the Saar coal mines for 50 years. The solution of the Saar problem should be left to the peace treaty.

"By facing Germany with an accomplished fact before the peace treaty has been negotiated, those currents in Germany seeking an understanding with France and which desire German participation in the European union would be disturbed."

SPAIN APPEALS FOR 500,000 TONS OF GRAIN

L HEVIN

Offers Payment In American Dollars To 'Any Country Whatsoever'

Madrid, Jan. 14 (AP)—Spain appealed to "any country whatsoever" today to ship her 500,000 tons of grain to ease a wheat famine.

Payment was offered in American dollars.

Besides the public appeal for food grains, issued in the official organ of the Spanish Commerce and Industry Ministry, it was learned that Spain has approached Russia in a desperate attempt to bolster her shortening food stocks.

Appeal To Russia Reported

[In Washington an official of the Commodity Credit Corporation, Government agency which handles the purchase and sale of surplus agricultural products, said there is sufficient surplus wheat in this country to meet the Spanish need.

["We'd prefer," said the official, Ralph S. Trigg, a member of the CCC board of directors, "that they buy the wheat through regular trade channels."]

Highly reliable sources said Generalissimo Franco's anti-Communist Government has asked Russia to send grain to the country in return for wolfram and mercury.

Agreement For Second Loan

These sources also said that Spain sold 3,000 gallons of olive oil to Communist-led Czechoslovakia last month and received payment in American dollars.

They added that the Franco Government has reached agreement with the Chase National Bank of New York for a second dollar loan. The Chase bank lent Spain $25,000,000 last February 9. The amount of the new loan, the collateral put up and the terms were not revealed.

The appeal for grain asked for 500,000 tons of wheat, corn and rye between March 1 and June 30. It offered payment in scarce American dollars, convertible Spanish currency or a barter agreement—whichever the supplier preferred.

Franco Appeals To Farmers

Last October 14 Franco appealed to the country's farmers to increase their wheat acreage and offered bonuses totaling $15,000,000 for such increases.

At that time the Government announced Spain was no longer an exporter of agricultural products, but was importing foodstuffs at the rate of 250,000 tons a year.

Spain's commercial treaty with Argentina under which the South American country was to send wheat and other foodstuffs here has broken down completely, it was learned on good authority. Therefore, Franco's Government is faced with a famine until Spain's own 1950 crops are harvested in June and July.

At present the country is existing on reserves which, it is estimated, will be exhausted by the end of February.

Gold Deposited In London

Although the loan from the Chase bank has been authoritatively reportedly here, it is impossible to get a reliable estimate of the amount. Unofficial estimates range between $50,000,000 and $75,000,000.

If the second figure is accurate, it would mean that almost the entire Spanish gold reserve has been put up as collateral. The reserve, according to the Bank of Spain, amounts to $85,000,000. Twenty-five million dollars in gold was deposited in London last February as security for the first loan.

Dutch, Indonesians In Diplomatic Accord

The Hague, Jan. 14 (AP)—Governments of the Netherlands and the United States of Indonesia have reached agreement on combining certain diplomatic and consular posts, Dutch Foreign Minister Dirk U. Stikker said today.

He said that on the request of United States of Indonesia Premier Mohamed Hatta, Dutch diplomatic and consular officials in some areas will represent Indonesia as well as Holland.

In other areas, it was said, there is a possibility that Indonesian representatives may act both for the Dutch and their own nation.

The statute of the Netherlands-Indonesian union provides for cooperation in the foreign relations sphere.

Stockholm, Jan. 14 (AP)—Sweden extended recognition today to the Chinese People's (Communist) Republic. Ingvar Grauers, Swedish Embassy secretary in Shanghai, has been ordered to assume the post of charge d'affaires in Peiping, the Communist capital.

Cairo Removes Press Censorship

Cairo, Jan. 14 (AP)—Cairo's newspapers have been told censorship is over but outgoing cables still must pass official scrutiny.

Censorship of the local press, authorized May 15, 1948, when Egyptian troops entered Palestine, had been suspended when the national election campaign began in December. It was reimposed Thursday.

Yesterday the Interior Ministry said censorship of local newspapers had again been lifted.

Viet Nam Strike Near Failure, French Claim

Saigon, French Indo-China, Jan. 14 (AP)—French sources said today a general strike ordered by anti-French Nationalists throughout Viet Nam was a near failure.

About ten per cent of industry and business closed, these sources said. Some employers reported 25 per cent of their business staffs stayed away from work.

The Viet Nam Nationalist movement ordered the strike in protest against the killing of a student demonstrator earlier this week.

Viet Nam Forces Claim Victories

BANGKOK, Thailand (Siam), Jan. 14 (AP).—The Viet Nam Republic's office here asserted today Viet Minh forces "annihilated" 18 French posts, killed 402 French soldiers and wounded 158 in a recent offensive in Northern Indo-China.

The Viet Minh nationalist insurgents, led by Moscow-trained Ho Chi-minh, also claimed capture of 218 French soldiers, 30 machine guns, 200 rifles, 13 mortars and 200 tons of ammunition and war equipment.

The offensive was in the area of Hoa Binh, 40 miles southwest of Hanoi, the announcement said.

Foreign Policy Accord Cited By British

STEVEN DAVID

JAN 14 1950

Colombo, Ceylon, Jan. 14 (AP)—The British Commonwealth's foreign ministers ended their conference today and announced their nations still agree on their approach to most foreign problems.

A communiqué issued after the final conference session said the discussions demonstrated that "among all members of the commonwealth there is a continuing and substantial community of outlook in their approach to current problems of foreign affairs."

Sees No Inconsistency

The conference agreed also, the communiqué said, that "there need be no inconsistency" between Britain's policy toward western Europe and the "maintenance of traditional links between the United Kingdom and the rest of the commonwealth."

The communiqué said the foreign ministers had agreed on:

1. Recommendations for economic development in South and and Southeast Asia. These are to be submitted to the ministers' home governments.

2. Recommendations regarding conditions for a peace settlement with Japan. These, too, now go back to the individual governments.

The recommendations for economic development have been described as a program of self-help and mutual aid among Asian countries, utilizing credits and technical assistance from the commonwealth nations.

Refers To Election

British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin, speaking at the final conference session, said the conference's work would be "undone by no other," though "the British public may or may not like me to continue this work in six weeks' time."

Bevin referred to the British general election February 23, in which Britain's Labor Government will either be returned to office or supplanted.

India's Prime Minister, Jawaharlal Nehru, commented that though the conference might not have solved the world's problems, "we have learned what the problems are so we can face up to them."

"Shadow Of Storm"

"We live under the shadow of the approaching storm," said P. C. Spender, Australian Minister of External Affairs. "Whether it will break upon us, or pass by, we feel there has been an urgency about our deliberations and that time has not been running in our favor."

The conference communiqué said commonwealth economic officials in simultaneous meetings had surveyed the sterling area's current and prospective position, with particular attention to recent and future dollar exports.

Six of the eight commonwealth nations reported last night that devaluation of the British pound and other sterling currencies so far had resulted in little increase of exports to dollar areas. Only the United Kingdom and Canada reported such increases.

Committee Proposed

The communiqué said the commonwealth governments would be asked to set up a consultative committee in connection with the proposed economic aid to Asia.

The conference also discussed, the communiqué said, the recent political settlement in Indonesia, the present situations in Indo-China, Burma and Malaya; the question of recognition of the "new regime in China," future relations of the commonwealth countries with China, the current political situation in Europe and the Middle East, and "steps being taken to promote closer co-operation, both political and economic, among the countries of western Europe and between them and the United States of America and Canada."

Immunity Asked For Witnesses On Formosa

JAN 14 1950

WHITEHEAD

Washington, Jan. 14 (AP)—Senator Brewster (R., Maine) said today top military officials due to testify on Formosa in the Senate should be promised immunity from punishment if they differ with President Truman's policy.

Brewster said he doesn't want military men appearing before the Foreign Relations Committee to get into trouble as did Admiral Louis E. Denfeld.

Denfeld was removed as chief of naval operations after he publicly opposed Pentagon policies, but defense chiefs denied that "reprisals" were involved.

Promise Held Important

The committee has called Gen. Omar N. Bradley, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, and Secretary of Defense Johnson to testify January 26 on the strategic importance of Formosa.

President Truman has announced that the United States will offer no military aid to the Chinese Nationalists in their effort to keep the Communists from seizing the big island.

Brewster said it is important to have an Administration promise that there will be no reprisals in case the Joint Chiefs differ with the President in this policy.

Clashes With Connally

The Maine Senator asked Chairman Connally (D., Texas) of the Foreign Relations Committee about that on the Senate floor.

Connally retorted he couldn't speak for the President. But, he added: "If I were President and someone differed violently with me, he wouldn't be a subordinate very long."

Senator Morse (R., Ore.) took issue with Brewster. He told a reporter: "I don't think a congressional committee should be used as a sanctuary in which officers can hide their insubordination."

Senator Urging Ouster Of China Policy Drafters

Washington, Jan. 14 (AP)—Senator Knowland (R., Cal.) demanded today the resignation of Administration officials responsible for American policy toward China.

Knowland's demand came as angry lawmakers proposed that the United States classify Chinese Communists as "outlaws" and shun any diplomatic dealings with them as a result of Communist seizure of American consular property at Peiping.

Knowland said the State Department announcement that it is withdrawing official United States personnel from Communist China "underscores the result of our bankrupt China policy."

Frequent Policy Critic

Knowland has been a frequent and outspoken critic of this policy. He said:

"It is now time that the men responsible for that policy submit their resignations to the President so that the nation may have a new and nondefeatist team in whom the Congress and the nation could have confidence."

Knowland said his demand for resignations was aimed chiefly at W. Walton Butterworth, assistant Secretary of State for Far Eastern Affairs, who announced the Peiping developments.

Includes Acheson, Also

"If the policies of the Far Eastern division are approved by Secretary of State Acheson, the shoe fits him, too," Knowland said.

The Californian said the Chinese Communists had greeted with new unfriendly acts President Truman's announcement that this country would not give further military aid to the Chinese Nationalist Government on Formosa.

"This is always the result of paying international blackmail—appeasement is but surrender on the installment plan," he declared.

Democrats Indignant

Democrats as well as Republicans displayed angry reaction to the Communist move at Peiping.

Senator McMahon (D., Conn.) said, "If this is a move toward forcing recognition, they are making a grave mistake."

Senator Brewster (R., Maine) said the Communists have "slammed the open door of China in our faces."

"This just focuses again the necessity of understanding what Moscow control means to the outside world," he said, adding: "Where do we go from here?"

Complete Break Urged

Chairman Kee (D., W.Va.) of the House Foreign Affairs Committee said "the only thing to do is simply break off all relations with the Communists and get our people out.

"I don't know any alternative, unless it would be to send in an army. But that's an impossible task and too big an adventure right now."

State Department's Statement on Seizure of U. S. Consular Property by Peiping

JAN 14 1950

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14 (AP)—Following is the statement issued by the State Department today on the Communist seizure of United States consular property in Peiping:

Chinese Communist authorities in Peiping have ordered the taking over of United States Government consular property in Peiping and today have seized that property in defiance of protests by the United States Government. This seizure is in violation of long standing treaty rights granted the United States in 1901 and reaffirmed in the Sino-United States treaty of 1943 by which the United States voluntarily relinquished its extraterritorial rights in China.

The United States Government takes an extremely serious view of this situation, which constitutes a flagrant violation of our treaty rights and of the most elementary standards of international usage and conduct.

The seizure was carried out despite our protests and our announced intention to withdraw all American official personnel from Communist China if the Chinese Communists attempted to seize our office and properties.

The department is now preparing instructions for the recall of all American official personnel from Communist China. Arrangements for the withdrawal of our official personnel will be made as expeditiously as possible and when completed our official establishments will be closed. Any facilities for evacuation from China which are arranged for our official personnel will be made available for all American citizens who desire to depart.

Series of Mistreatments

This violation of American consular property has arisen in almost immediate sequence to the harsh and unjustified treatment of United States Consul General Angus Ward and his staff at Mukden. It also is one in the long series of mistreatment of Americans, which included the beating of Vice Consul Olive in Shanghai and the continued detention of Messrs. Smith and Bender, United States Navy personnel.

On Jan. 6, the Chinese Communist military authorities issued a proclamation for the seizure of former foreign military barracks in Peiping. In our case, the former United States military barracks has long since been converted into the consular offices. The compound in which this building is located also contains residences occupied by members of the consulate general staff. On Jan. 7, the Communist authorities addressed an order to the Consul General for requisition under the proclamation of the United States Government-occupied property at 22 Legation Street. This address includes not only our consular office, but also certain of our residences.

Following this action by the Chinese Communist authorities, the United States Government took every possible step to insure that the highest Chinese Communist authorities were aware of the seriousness with which we would view an attempt to carry out this requisition order. We not only brought the matter to the attention of the highest Chinese Communist authorities but asked the good offices of the British Government, which instructed its officer in charge at Peiping also to bring the matter to the attention of the Chinese Communist officials and to state that the United States Government would be compelled to withdraw all official American personnel and to close all its establishments if the Chinese Communist authorities persisted in this move.

The Chinese Communists apparently chose to ignore our representations and at 9:50 A. M. Jan. 14 (8:50 P. M. Jan. 13 Washington time) invaded the American consular compound.

The background of this unprecedented act by the Chinese Communists is as follows:

On Jan. 6, the Chinese Communist military authorities at Peiping issued a proclamation which stated that "certain foreign countries in the past, utilizing the so-called 'right of stationing troops' of unequal treaties, have occupied land in the Peking municipality and constructed military barracks" and expressing their intention of recovering "this type of real property right." The proclamation further stated that "because of military exigencies, this type of military barracks and other installations will first be requisitioned." On Jan. 7, the Chinese Communist military authorities addressed a communication to the American Consul General at Peiping represented as an order for the requisitioning of United States Government official property at No. 22 Legation Street in Peiping and directed the Consul General to send a messenger with authority to turn over this property, which was being used by the American Consulate General for official purposes.

U. S. Cites Treaty Rights

The Department of State instructed the American Consul General at Peiping on Jan. 7 to transmit to Gen. Chou En-lai a communication pointing out that the United States Government acquired the right to use for official purposes the land in question under the protocol signed at Peking [Peiping] on Sept. 7, 1901, by China and eleven other powers and that this right was reaffirmed in the Sino-United States treaty of 1943, under which this Government relinquished its extraterritorial rights in China. The Consul General was further instructed to state that this land and the buildings thereon were now being used for official purposes and that the so-called military barracks mentioned in the communication from the Chinese Communist military authorities had long since been converted into an office building and used as the office of the American Consulate General. In conclusion, he was directed to express the United States Government's expectation that no action would be taken constituting any violation of the rights of the United States Government as set forth above.

Mr Clubb reported that he had sent the above-mentioned communication to General Chou on Jan. 9 and that the communication had been returned to him without answer or acknowledgment but with indications that it had been opened and read. Mr. Clubb later informed the department that he had delivered a second communication on this subject to General Chou on Jan. 10, which was designed to clarify to the local authorities that the property in question was in fact the office of the American Consulate General. This communication was also returned to Mr. Clubb with indications that it had been opened and read. On Jan. 8 Mr. Clubb had made a simple acknowledgment of the communication of Jan. 7 from the Chinese Communist military authorities and on Jan. 11, in accordance with instructions from the department, he forwarded a second communication to these authorities, enclosing a copy of each of his letters to General Chou. All these communications were returned to Mr. Clubb with indications that they had been opened and read.

In recognition of the limitations of time and in view of the extremely serious concern of the United States Government over the developments at Peiping, the department, having informed the British Embassy in Washington on January of this development, on Jan. 10 requested the good offices of the British Foreign Office to the end that the British officer in charge at Peiping be instructed to convey personally on behalf of the United States Government to General Chou En-lai or, in his absence, to the highest ranking Chinese Communist official available to him a statement to the following effect:

"General Chou will have by now received the communication regarding the question of requisition of the former military barracks area of the United States Government at Peiping forwarded to him by Mr. Clubb on instructions from this Government. In accordance with the provisions of Article II of the Sino-United States treaty of 1943, under which the United States Government relinquished its extraterritorial rights in China, the United States Government would have no objection to turning over to the authorities at Peiping the Glacis property* to the west of the United States Government consular compounds. The United States Government would also be prepared to turn over to the authorities at Peiping for immediate occupancy the United States Government-owned building on this property and enter into discussions regarding indemnification for the building.

"Should the requisition order of the Chinese Communist military authorities be made applicable, however, to any part of the United States Government's consular compounds, the United States Government would consider such action a violation of its rights and would conclude that it had no alternative to closing all of its official establishments in Communist China and to withdrawing all of its official personnel from Communist China."

The British Government was good enough to send appropriate instructions to its officer in charge at Peiping. In view of the time limitations involved and in order to ensure that the Chinese Communist authorities be aware of the views and intentions of the United States Government and not act without full realization of the inevitable results of a violation of United States rights, Mr. Clubb was authorized as a last resort, in the event that the British Government's instructions to its officer in charge did not arrive prior to the expiration of the time limit, to bring directly or indirectly to the attention of General Chou En-lai or some other Chinese Communist official the views and intentions of the United States Government. This Mr. Clubb did in a communication to General Chou on Jan. 12, which was received and subsequently returned. At 3:30 P. M. on Jan. 13, Mr. Clubb received an oral communication from a representative of the military control commission that the requisition order would be put into effect from 9:00 A. M. the following day. Immediately upon receipt of this notice, Mr. Clubb orally informed this representative that if the order was carried out it would be the full responsibility of those concerned and against United States Government official protests. Mr. Clubb later in the same day confirmed this message by formal letter.

At 9:50 A. M. on Jan. 14 the premises of the Consulate General were invaded by the police and four civilian officials.

*The boundary area on three sides of the diplomatic quarter, which for defense purposes had originally been cleared of buildings. This area was under the joint administration of the diplomatic quarter and its return to Chinese control was envisaged in the various treaties between China and foreign powers for the relinquishment of extraterritorial rights.

Yen Predicts 'Sellout' To Moscow by Mao

SIMMONS

JAN 14 1950

TAIPEI, Formosa, Jan. 15 (Sunday) (AP).—Nationalist Premier Yen Hsishan predicted today the Soviet Union would agree to Chinese Communist domination of Southeast Asia.

This, he said, would be intended first to prevent the Chinese Reds from deviating from the party line, and second to compensate them for loss to Russia of Outer Mongolia, Inner Mongolia, Manchuria and Sinkiang.

'SELL OUT' TO MOSCOW

Yen made his prediction in a formal statement issued through the Foreign Office. He said the length of Red Chairman Mao Tse-tung's current stay in Moscow indicated a wide scope of subjects was being discussed and that a number of snags must have been struck.

Yen asserted he was convinced that when Mao returned to Peking he would have completed another phase in his "selling out of the national rights of China to his master."

U. S. ENVOY AWAITED

Yen concluded: "My government has continually exposed the imperialist designs of the U.S.S.R. I am firmly convinced the nefarious influence of Mao's visit to Moscow will be limited neither to the Chinese people nor to the peoples of all Southeast Asia."

The Nationalists are anticipating the arrival later today of Philip Jessup, roving American Ambassador. All signs point to strong pleas aimed at convincing him the Nationalists could hold Formosa against the Reds if given economic aid.

Chinese Communists Invade Small Island

Taipei, Formosa, Jan. 14 (AP)—Chinese Communists and Nationalists traded minor invasion blows on small islands off two big Southeast China ports, the National Defense Ministry announced today.

It reported the Reds invaded Namoa Island off Swatow. It said fighting was in progress there.

The Nationalists said they made an amphibious assault on Hwangchi Island at the mouth of the Min River near Foochow. Most defenders fled in junks to the mainland, the Nationalists declared.

The ministry also said Nationalists on Hainan Island have launched a drive against long-established Communist guerrillas there. This is the big island off the South China coast which the Reds are expected to attack in the near future.

Soviet Reported Seeking Bases In China

JAN 14 1950

London, Jan. 14 (AP)—Russia is reported negotiating for important new naval and military bases in Communist China.

A qualified informant said last night this information came from Moscow to a major Western power. The source stressed that the report may have arisen out of speculation on the secret talks between high Russian and Communist Chinese officials.

Other Western officials, however, said they believed the two countries would soon complete agreements on defense, trade and friendship.

Mao In Moscow

Details on the reported negotiations for new Russian bases in China were not forthcoming. But if the information is correct, he said, Russia would gain much firmer military control over China than she has today.

Chinese Communist Leader Mao Tze-tung has been in Moscow for weeks, presumably to discuss his country's relations with the Soviet Union.

Radio Moscow announced about two months ago that Mao's regime intended "to review all treaties concluded by the Kuomintang (Nationalists) with foreign powers and, according to their nature, revise, annul or recognize them."

'45 Pact Still Exists

Relations between Russia and China still are governed by the 1945 friendship pact signed by Chiang Kai-shek's Nationalist regime. It incorporated principles already agreed to by the United States and Britain at the Yalta conference.

That pact placed South and East Manchurian railways under joint Sino-Russian ownership. Port Arthur became a joint Sino-Soviet naval base. Dairen was to be a free port. Many communications facilities in Manchuria and Outer Mongolia also were put under joint control.

Discussions Reported

Western officials believe that, among other things, Mao is discussing directly with Prime Minister Stalin and Deputy Premier V. M. Molotov the future status of Inner and Outer Mongolia, Sinkiang and Manchuria.

[United States Secretary of State Dean Acheson has charged that Russia was already grabbing these areas from China and incorporating them into the Soviet Union.]

German Recruiting Denied By Chinese

Berlin, Jan. 14 (AP)—The Chinese Military Mission today denied an East Berlin newspaper report accusing members of recruiting Germans for military duty in East Asia.

Neues Deutschland, organ of the Socialist Unity (Communist) party, charged members were helping to get soldiers for service as an auxiliary corps in Viet Nam and East Asia.

Col. Siu Meou Hi, chief of the mission, said the story lacked any foundation" and was maliciously invented.

"Should such articles appear in the East press in the future," he said, "the Chinese mission will consider it superfluous to comment upon them."

'Arrow' Crew To Get Double Pay, Bonus

New York, Jan. 14 (AP)—Seamen aboard the Flying Arrow will collect double pay for the period their ship lay disabled off Shanghai and a $125 bonus each for the Chinese gunboat's attack on the freighter, Capt. C. H. McLaughlin, of Isbrandtsen Lines said today.

The Isbrandtsen Company, Inc., has signed a new war-risk bonus and insurance agreement with the National Maritime Union, said McLaughlin, who is the company's marine superintendent.

75% Over Base Pay

Under the agreement the Flying Arrow's crew collects double pay as an "area bonus" for the estimated ten-day period they were sailing and then crippled in the Shanghai waters. After the Flying Arrow limped on to Tsingtao for repairs, seamen began receiving base pay plus 75 per cent under the "adjacent area" clause.

He said seamen aboard the ship are paid from $193.47 monthly, the lowest salaried man aboard, to $800 for the captain.

The $125 attack bonus was included in the agreement, McLaughlin said, even though China wasn't considered an "enemy" of the United States.

Retroactive To Jan. 4

The new agreement is retroactive to January 4. Seamen aboard the Sir John Franklin and Flying Independent, Isbrandtsen freighters attacked by Chinese Nationalist gunboats prior to that date, collect the "area bonus," but not the "vessel-attack bonus."

McLaughlin said the new agreement covers seamen aboard the Brooklyn Heights, loading in Hong Kong and awaiting orders to sail to Shanghai.

Each seaman is covered by a $10,000 life insurance policy while sailing in Shanghai waters, the company said.

Gifts To Japan Held Good Sign By Premier

Tokyo, Jan. 14 (AP)—Prime Minister Shigeru Yoshida believes the peacemakers won't be too harsh on Japan.

That's what he told a conference with Japanese newspaper men yesterday.

One reason he saw for a better feeling toward Japan: There were more Christmas presents from abroad for Japanese last year than ever before.

Thanks For Defense Pledge

Tokyo, Jan. 14 (AP)—The chief secretary of the Japanese Cabinet said today he is "deeply grateful" for Secretary of State Acheson's pledge that Japan will be defended by the United States. The secretary, Kaneshichi Masuda, added: "I cannot help welcoming it from the bottom of my heart." He declined further comment. Acheson's speech was praised by all Tokyo newspapers.

ATOM 'SPOTTER' COURSES DUE

JAN 14 1950

Educators, Technicians To Get AEC Ray-Detection Training

Washington, Jan. 14 (AP)—Plans to bolster the nation's atomic bomb civilian defenses through a coast-to-coast network of volunteer ray "spotters" were disclosed today by the Atomic Energy Commission.

These spotters are to be given special courses in how to detect the deadly rays resulting from an atomic blast—should one come.

The commission announced this as a companion program to its plan to provide doctors throughout the country with detailed instructions on how to treat persons suffering radiological injuries.

To Take 5-Week Course

The AEC said the initial spotting team will be composed of "qualified educators and technicians" selected by the governor of each state. Following a five-week training course, these selectees are to pass on the information to local science teachers, who in turn will instruct volunteer groups set up on a state-wide basis.

The spotting training program will begin March 13, with the opening courses being offered at the Brookhaven National Laboratory, Upton, Long Island, and at the AEC project at the University of California at Los Angeles.

A third course will get under way April 3 at the atomic plant in Oak Ridge, Tenn., the AEC said.

Course Slated At Hopkins

The training program for doctors also will open in March, with selected physicians taking a one-week course at the following places:

The Argonne National Laboratory at Chicago, the University of Rochester, and Western Reserve University School of Medicine, Cleveland.

Later in the spring similar courses will be given at the University of California, the University of Utah School of Medicine, the University of Alabama School of Medicine and at the Johns Hopkins School of Medicine in Baltimore.

The AEC said these defense programs are being conducted in cooperation with the general services administration and the national security resources board which has overall responsibility for civil defense planning.

Atom-Disaster Control Now Being Taught

JAN 14 1950

Berkeley, Cal., Jan. 14 (AP)—The University of California reported today details of a hitherto-undisclosed course for training experts in atomic-disaster control.

The students of the initial classes consist of 27 officers of the armed services—ranging from colonel to lieutenant—and one public-health expert.

A similar course, the university said, is being given at Ohio State University.

Half of these will finish the course next June, when they will have completed two years of intense study here, plus a summer session at the Oak Ridge (Tenn.) facilities of the Atomic Energy Commission.

Will Work With Army

Upon graduation the students will be given the degree of "master of bioradiology" and will be assigned to work under military commanders of vital areas in this country. Their principal job will be to advise the military commanders on evacuation and care of casualties in the event of an atomic-bomb explosion.

The course consists mainly of information gleaned by scientific researchers concerning the effects of atomic radiation on living things, and what can be done to counteract them. There is nothing secret about it, the university said.

Many Details Secret

However, many of the details about the effects of radiation from experimental atom-bomb blasts are secret. A graduate of the new course who has access to official secrets might, however, obtain this supplemental information from the armed forces.

To qualify for instruction, the students had to have 42 units of "approved" upper-division graduate work to their credit. The course is roughly double the intensity of an ordinary master-of-arts course, the university said.

The only explanation for the lack of any previous announcement of the course was that it is not affiliated with any single department of the university and, therefore, grew up as a sort of orphan. It is not yet listed in the university's catalogue of courses.

ATOM BOARD PICKS CHIEF OF SECURITY

Ganson Purcell, Former Head of S. E. C., Named to Post on Review Body

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14 (AP)—Ganson Purcell, former chairman of the Securities and Exchange Commission, today was named head of the Atomic Energy Commission's Personnel Security Review Board.

He succeeds Charles Fahy, who has served as board chairman since last March. Mr. Fahy resigned the post after being named recently to the Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia.

A native of San Gabriel, Calif., Mr. Purcell entered government service in 1930, after receiving his law degree from Harvard. He first served on the staff of the legislative counsel for the Senate, then joined the legal staff of the SEC in 1934. He was named a member of the commission in 1941 and served as chairman from 1942 to 1946.

Mr. Purcell now is in private law practice here.

The AEC's announcement said the primary function of the Personnel Security Review Board was to go over individual clearance cases and to advise on security procedures.

Other members are Arthur S. Flemming, president of Ohio Wesleyan University, and Bruce D. Smith, a director of the United Corporation of New York.

It was also announced that Dr. O. J. Mackenzie, head of Canada's Atomic Energy Control Board, would visit two United States atomic laboratories this month.

The AEC said the Canadian scientist's visit was part of the exchange program worked out between this country, Canada and Great Britain in 1948. This program does not include atomic weapons themselves, or production information.

The AEC said Dr. Mackenzie would visit the Argonne National Laboratory at Chicago next Tuesday. He will spend Jan. 23 and 24 inspecting the University of California Radiation Laboratory at Berkeley, Calif.

The commission said the purpose of the visit was to permit a study of such matters as administration, construction costs and research programs so as to avoid duplication of research effort in the two countries.

U.S. Atomic Scientists Get New Clues In Drop Of Gas

JAN 14 1950

Chicago, Jan. 14 (AP)—A single drop of pure condensed gas—the only one of its kind known to exist in the world—is one of the most prized possessions of American atomic scientists.

The gas is an ultrarare form of helium. It is known as light helium or HE3. Scientists say the tiny quantity of the pure gas undergoing tests at the Argonne National Laboratory near Chicago probably is more than is available in all other laboratories of the world combined.

In one sense, HE3 is just the opposite of heavy water—a valuable substance in making atomic bombs. HE3 is normal helium with a neutron missing from the cores of each of its atoms. Heavy water is made by combining ordinary oxygen with heavy hydrogen—a hydrogen atom that has an extra neutron in its core.

Gives New Scientific Clues

What's important about this drop of condensed gas? It is providing new clues for scientists delving into the basic laws of the behavior of matter.

They have found that the difference of a single neutron in an atom's nucleus can make a whale of a differenece in how matter acts.

It is common knowledge what a singel neutron does to the core of an atom of uranium 238. It transmutes the harmless uranium atom into plutonium, the explosive material of one type of atom bomb.

Ordinary helium has been likened to matter in its fourth state. When cooled to near absolute zero, it changes into a fluid and climbs up over the sides of its container. It actually becomes a superfluid seeping through openings so tiny that ordinary gasses have difficulty penetrating. It also is a superheat conductor.

Turn Helium Into Fluid

Some theoretical scientists believed that light helium gas never could be cooled to a liquid state.

Three Argonne scientists, Darrell W. Osborne, Bernard Weinstock and Bernard M. Abraham, turned light helium into a fluid at temperatures slightly above absolute zero. They found it has the lowest boiling point of any liquid, at 453.93 degrees Fahrenheit below zero. Absolute zero is —459.69. They said that like HE4 it never could reach a solid state, except under pressure.

But light helium did not follow any of the other erratic behavior patterns of ordinary helium. A single neutron made the difference.

Air We Breathe Has Helium

The air you breathe contains helium, but only in tiny amounts—four parts per million. And in that helium, only one part in a million is light helium.

Argonne scientists get HE3 from their atomic furnaces by bombarding lithium metal with neutrons. The lithium atoms split into ultraheavy hydrogen, called H3 and ordinary helium. Then the ultraheavy hydrogen throws off a negative electric charge and changes into light helium.

Army To Test TV To Teach Guards

Washington, Jan. 14 (AP)—The Army will try television for teaching reservists and national guardsmen.

It announced tonight a series of eight programs, on an experimental basis, will be started on February 9. The programs, from 10 to 11 P.M., will be carried by WOIC at Washington and WCBS-TV at New York, and possibly other Columbia Broadcasting System stations, the Army said. Time for the programs was donated by CBS.

Gen. Mark Clark, chief of Army field forces, emphasized in the announcement that the eight programs are for test purposes.

The TV programs will be built around a "map problem" involving the operation of an infantry division with air support in a combat situation.

Mrs. Roosevelt Sees Less Communist Peril

Bloomington, Ind., Jan. 14 (AP)—The United States faced a greater threat from Communism in the early Thirties than it does now, Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt said last night.

"At that time," she told an Indiana University convocation, "the people had nothing, and starvation was a day away.

"That is the trouble in Europe and China today.

"It is up to the people of the United States to prove that a real democracy can work and thus show that wars can be avoided."

The late President's widow left for Chicago today.

CENSORSHIP BARS IN WORLD MOUNT

JAN 14 1950

Associated Press Survey Finds One-Fourth of the Populated Area Restraining News

NO BARRIERS HAVE FALLEN

Curbs Are Most Stringent in Burma, Egypt, Indo-China, Israel, Iran and Russia

By The Associated Press.

New barriers to the free flow of news have been erected in the last six months, and no major barriers have come down.

A survey of The Associated Press, the latest of several undertaken at six-month intervals, shows more than one-fourth of the world's populated area has censorship or other restraints that prevent the free flow of news.

Dispatches reaching the United States from the following countries are subject to censorship: Burma, Egypt, Indo-China, Israel, Iran, the Soviet Union.

Dispatches from the following countries are subject to irregular or informal censorship: the Dominican Republic, El Salvador, Guatemala, Honduras, Nicaragua.

Various other countries have restrictions that amount to a kind of censorship. Communist China, for example, admits no United States correspondents. Restrictions in other countries include control or the threat of control over the domestic press and sources of news; threats to expel or imprison correspondents; delay in admitting foreign correspondents.

The areas where one or more of these conditions exist, or have existed in the recent past, include: Argentina, Bulgaria, Colombia, Czechoslovakia, Eastern Germany, Hungary, Peru, Poland, Portugal, Rumania, Spain, Venezuela, Yugoslavia.

Other Latin-American and Middle Eastern countries impose censorship from time to time, in connection with changes in government or threatened revolts.

Great freedom is granted to the press and foreign correspondents in the United States, France, Scandinavia, Switzerland, Italy and most of the British Commonwealth.

Here are highlights of the survey on conditions in various areas:

CENTRAL EUROPE

Censorship has been relaxed slightly in Greece. There are no restrictions on outgoing copy, but the domestic press still is under the eye of the Government.

In Germany, few restrictions are imposed by the Western occupation powers. Papers in Eastern Germany, Russian-controlled, generally are restricted to the use of Russian-backed news agencies. Foreign correspondents operate freely in Western Germany and the Western-occupied areas of Austria.

Spain's newspaper men consider themselves virtually in the class of civil servants. Foreign correspondents are held accountable for any "false" news they send from Spain.

Portugal's press is under the thumb of the Salazar Government.

In Yugoslavia, the press is Government-controlled. Foreign correspondents are hampered chiefly by lack of news sources.

IRON CURTAIN COUNTRIES

In the Soviet Union, censorship has grown more severe during the last six months. Even the state of the weather may come under the censor's blue pencil, as the weather is considered a state secret. Western correspondents in Moscow find it impossible to send out news unfavorable to the Stalin regime, unless such news happens to have been printed as part of a program of self-criticism. Newspapers, magazines and radio stations all are under Government control.

Poland issued a decree in October providing prison terms for any persons "divulging information which in the interests of people's Poland should be kept secret." The decree's broad provisions can be construed in any way the Government desires. Foreign correspondents can move about with a fair degree of freedom, and their copy is not censored. The domestic press is under censorship.

Czechoslovakia expelled four Western press representatives this month, cutting in two the number of Western representatives in Prague. The Government accused the expelled press representatives of writing "unobjective" news. No opposition press has existed in Czechoslovakia since February, 1948. Foreign correspondents file news freely, but have found their news sources drying up—many Czechs are afraid to talk to foreigners, lest they be hailed into court as spies.

Bulgaria, Hungary and Rumania keep a close check on foreign correspondents by carefully screening applicants for visas. As an example, an Associated Press correspondent who applied for a Bulgarian visa in Istanbul was turned down; an Associated Press man who applied in London received a visa, but by that time the news event he sought to cover (the Kostov trial) was over. The domestic press in Bulgaria, Rumania and Hungary is under strict control, and the movements of foreign correspondents are restricted.

EASTERN ASIA

The Communist regime of China has restricted news coverage to reporters from countries recognizing it, and has given no indication of welcoming even those. All foreign correspondents in Nanking were ordered in September to cease filing; later, the order was extended to correspondents in Shanghai. As a result, United States news agencies and newspapers were left with no coverage of Communist China except that from such sources as Communist broadcasts and the Soviet Union's Tass agency.

Japan has no censorship on foreign correspondents, and occupation authorities exercise only a censorship after publication of newspapers and books. Japanese editors are careful to avoid material that might be considered offensive to the occupation.

Indo-China has an unofficial censorship that the French Government refuses to acknowledge.

In Burma, censors have tried to restrict foreign correspondents to news officially released by the Government. The domestic press has come under new controls. Newspapers must deposit money as security against publication of reports unfavorable to the Government; the money is forfeited if terms of the deposit are considered broken. The Government forbids publication of any stories "likely to give encouragement" to rebel factions. The newspaper Henthawaddy was raided recently, with police upsetting type cases and seizing the presses.

The new Constitution of the United States of Indonesia guarantees freedom of the press, but the nation is under martial law. Nothing has arisen so far to test the Government's tolerance. The best available opinion is that the new regime will be more lenient toward criticism than the Dutch were, but will not abandon completely such indirect means of pressure as control of newsprint and machinery imports.

JAN 14 1950

MIDDLE EAST

The censorship in Egypt has been one of the severest. Nothing considered detrimental to Egypt is passed. Several United States State Department statements on the Middle East have been stopped by the censors monitoring incoming news. Foreign correspondents often are prevented from quoting Egyptian newspapers in dispatches, even though the newspapers circulate outside Egypt. Correspondents were prevented from cabling news of fatal disorders preceding the Jan. 3 election. After the election, censorship was relaxed somewhat.

Censorship continues strict in Iran. It has ended in Syria and while still existing in Lebanon, transmission of news stories is rarely stopped.

In the section of Jerusalem under the rule of Jordan, a newspaper was banned in December after it had refused to print articles opposing the internationalization of Jerusalem.

Censorship continues in Israel. It started during the Palestine war and is described by the Government as one of military security. In practice, it goes into the field of "national security" on some non-military matters such as speculation on Government finances. There is no censorship in Turkey, but a newspaper can be punished for harming the "dignity of the nation."

On British-controlled Cyprus, the editor of a nationalist newspaper was ordered deported for having written an anti-British editorial. British occupation authorities in Eritrea warned editors against attacking the Government. Foreign correspondents were warned against sending stories that could be considered hostile to the British administration.

SOUTH AFRICA

In November, a South African Government official told foreign correspondents in effect that their reports would be censored if they were unfavorable. The Minister of Posts and Telegraph said: "Those people who send reports to newspapers overseas slandering South Africa * * * must not expect of me that all their reports will reach their destination."

SOUTH AMERICA

The Inter-American Press Congress, meeting at Quito, Ecuador, in July received a report that freedom of the press was limited in many Latin-American countries. The report dealt at length with the position of the Argentine press because of the influence the newspapers there have had in the Spanish-speaking world. It noted "specific cases of police censorship and postal hindrances" in Argentina and observed that independent newspapers there "have endured during the last ten years various difficulties, pressures and even violence."

Several things have happened in Argentina since that report was made. A few newspapers were forced to close; in some cases for alleged violations of municipal realty rules; in others because the supply of newsprint was frozen by a Congressional committee. All newspapers are under indirect pressure through the Government's control of newsprint imports. A new "law of disrespect" has made it risky for the press to carry news that might be considered disrespectful to President Perón and others in the Government.

In Colombia the press was under strict control before and during the elections of Nov. 27. Newspapers representing the Liberal party were permitted to print only the Conservative Government's version of certain clashes. Censorship restricted the flow of news to the outside world.

FRANKFURT,GERMANY,JAN.14-(AP)-THE RUSSIAN POLITBURO HAS ORDERED A SWEEPING REORGANIZATION OF THE WEST GERMAN COMMUNIST PARTY IN A GROWING OFFENSIVE TO PULL THIS VITAL AREA INTO THE SOVIET ORBIT, ALLIED AND COMMUNIST SOURCES SAID TONIGHT.

PLANS FOR THE SHAKEUP WERE FORMULATED AT A SECRET MEETING OF THE PARTY'S EXECUTIVE BOARD AND ON DIRECT ORDERS FROM MOSCOW, ALLIED OFFICIALS SAID.

THE REORGANIZATION WILL EXTEND FROM TOP TO BOTTOM AND WILL BEGIN NEXT WEEK, THEY SAID.

THE COMMUNIST PARTY BACKED UP THE ALLIED REPORTS. IT ANNOUNCED THAT ELECTIONS TO NAME NEW PARTY OFFICIALS WILL BE HELD SOON IN EACH OF THE 11 WEST GERMAN STATES.

"THE ELECTIONS ARE PLANNED TO REORGANIZE THE PARTY FROM THE BOTTOM UP," THE PARTY ANNOUNCED IN A SPECIAL FOUR PAGE SUPPLEMENT OF THE "SOZIALISTISCHE ZEITUNG," COMMUNIST ORGAN IN THE STATE OF HESSE.

"THE WORK DONE BY THE PARTY SO FAR IS NO GOOD," THE PARTY STATEMENT SAID. "THE PARTY HAS PERMITTED TITOISM TO SPREAD. IN SOME RALLIES IN THE RUHR ONLY 20 TO 30 PERCENT OF THE PARTY MEMBERS ATTENDED."

THE STATEMENT DIRECTED SHARP CRITICISM AT PARTY LEADERS, COMPLAINING THAT THEY DO NOT FOLLOW PARTY DIRECTIVES; DO NOT URGE MEMBERS TO ATTEND PARTY MEETINGS; HAVE NOT "RESOLUTELY FOUGHT THE TITOIST MENACE."

"MEMBERS ARE NOT INFORMED OF PARTY RESOLUTIONS," THE STATEMENT SAID. "ONE FUNCTIONARY SAID HE DID NOT RECEIVE THE INSTRUCTIONS FOR A STALIN BIRTHDAY PARTY IN HIS AREA. THIS MEANS THAT WE CAN'T EVEN REACH THE MAJORITY OF OUR OWN PARTY MEMBERS."

THE STATEMENT LISTED THE QUALIFICATIONS OF THOSE WHO SHOULD BE ELECTED TO REPLACE PRESENT PARTY OFFICIALS, SAYING:

"ONLY THOSE SHOULD BE ELECTED WHO HAVE A POLITICALLY CLEAR MIND AND ARE FAITHFULLY DEVOTED TO THE PARTY AND WHO HELP TO CATCH AGENTS OF OUR OPPONENTS.

"ONLY THOSE COMRACES SHOULD BE ELECTED WHO HAVE PROVED THAT THEY ARE BACKING UP WITHOUT WAVERING THE POLICY OF THE SOVIET UNION, THE PEOPLE'S DEMOCRACIES AND THE GERMAN DEMOCRATIC REPUBLIC (THE EAST ZONE-PUPPET REGIME)."

THE PARTY DECLARED THAT FORMER PRISONERS OF WAR IN RUSSIA SHOULD RECEIVE "SPECIAL ATTENTION" IN FILLING THE PARTY POSTS.

PARIS, JAN.14-(AP)-PREMIER GEORGES BIDAULT DECIDED TODAY TO MAKE A PERSONAL STATEMENT TO THE NATIONAL ASSEMBLY TUESDAY ON THE "REVERS AFFAIR."

HIS DECISION WAS MADE AT A MEETING OF TOP MEMBERS OF THE FRENCH CABINET WHO DELVED INTO THE CASE OF GEN.GEORGES REVERS, RELIEVED DEC.7 AS CHIEF OF STAFF OF THE FRENCH ARMY, AND ANOTHER OFFICER, GEN.CHARLES MAST, FORMER RESIDENT GENERAL OF TUNISIA.

GEN.REVERS WAS NOT ASSIGNED TO A NEW POST AND NO ANNOUNCEMENT WAS MADE OF THE REASONS FOR HIS RELEASE, BUT THE FRENCH PRESS HAS SPECULATED IT WAS DUE TO A "LEAK" OF HIS CRITICAL REPORT ON INDOCHINA.

AMONG THOSE WHO GOT A COPY OF THE REPORT WERE THE FORCES OF HO CHI MINH, COMMUNIST-EDUCATED VIETNAM LEADER IN INDOCHINA WHO IS FIGHTING THE FRENCH-SPONSORED REGIME OF FORMER EMPEROR BAO DAI.

BOTH MAST, NOW RETIRED, AND REVERS HAVE BEEN ATTACKED IN THE PRESS FOR CARELESS HANDLING OF THE REPORT.

TWO DAYS AGO THE NEWSPAPER L'AURORE PUBLISHED WHAT IT SAID WAS A COPY OF THE REPORT MADE BY GEN.REVERS AFTER A SURVEY OF INDOCHINA. L'AURORE SAID THE REPORT DESCRIBED FRANCE'S POSITION IN INDOCHINA AS DELICATE BUT NOT HOPELESS, AND INDICATED THAT LEON PIGNON, HIGH FRENCH CIVILIAN HIGH COMMISSIONER, SHOULD BE REPLACED BY A MILITARY COMMANDER. THE PRESS HAS CHARGED THAT REVERS WAS SEEKING TO PROMOTE GEN.MAST TO THE JOB.

THE NEWSPAPER LE FIGARO SAID "GRAVE ACCUSATIONS HAVE BEEN MADE AGAINST THESE TWO MEN. THE NATION SHOULD BE GIVEN AN EXPLANATION."

MEANWHILE, DISPATCH FROM SAIGNON, INDOCHINA, QUOTED FRENCH SOURCES AS SAYING A GENERAL STRIKE ORDERED BY ANTI-FRENCH NATIONALISTS THERE TODAY WAS ONLY 10 TO 25 PER CENT EFFECTIVE. THE NATIONALISTS CALLED THE STRIKE AS A PROTEST AT THE KILLING OF A STUDENT DEMONSTRATOR EARLIER THIS WEEK.

BUDAPEST, JAN.14-(AP)-BISHOPS OF HUNGARY'S CALVINIST AND EVANGELICAL CHURCHES HAVE GIVEN A REQUIRED LOYALTY OATH TO THE COMMUNIST-CONTROLLED GOVERNMENT, AN OFFICIAL COMMUNIQUE SAID TODAY.

THE OATH WAS DEMANDED IN A DECREE LAST OCT.14. IT SAID THAT, IN ADDITION TO GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS, THE OATH WAS REQUIRED FROM ALL PERSONS WHO "SUPPLEMENT THEIR FINANCIAL INCOME FROM THE STATE." BECAUSE CHURCHES OF ALL DENOMINATIONS DRAW STATE SUPPORT, ALL CLERGYMEN AND HIGHER AUTHORITIES ARE INVOLVED.

THE ROMAN CATHOLIC BISHOPS HAVE SO FAR NOT TAKEN THE OATH. THEY ANNOUNCED DEC.23 THEY WOULD PERMIT THEIR PRIESTS TO DO SO BUT WOULD NOT MAKE THE PLEDGE THEMSELVES UNLESS GRANTED PERMISSION BY THE VATICAN. THEY DID NOT DISCLOSE WHETHER THEY WOULD ASK SUCH PERMISSION.

THE CALVINIST AND EVANGELICAL BISHOPS HAD PREVIOUSLY ANNOUNCED THEY CONSIDERED AN OATH TO THE GOVERNMENT AND CONSTITUTION "NOT OBJECTIONABLE FROM THE STANDPOINT OF CHRISTIAN CONSCIENCE."

HELSINKI, FINLAND, JAN.14-(AP)-THE FINNISH PEOPLE WILL HOLD A PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION MONDAY AND TUESDAY--THEIR FIRST SINCE WORLD WAR II AND THE EIGHTH SINCE FINLAND PROCLAIMED HER INDEPENDENCE FROM RUSSIA IN 1917.

PRESIDENT JUHO K.PAASIKIVI, 79, IS EXPECTED BY MOST POLITICAL OBSERVERS TO BE RETURNED TO THE OFFICE BY A NARROW MARGIN WHEN THE FORMALITIES ARE WOUND UP IN THE PARLIAMENT BUILDING HERE FEB.15.

THE BALLOT IS AN INDIRECT ONE. THE PEOPLE VOTE FOR 300 PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS. THE ELECTORS WILL NAME THE NEW PRESIDENT FOR A SIX-YEAR TERM WHEN THEY MEET IN HELSINKI NEXT MONTH.

PAASIKIVI IS WINDUP UP A FOUR-YEAR TERM VOTED HIM BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES UNDER A SPECIAL LAW MARCH 9, 1946, AFTER FIELD MARSHAL CARL GUSTAF MANNERHEIM, WHO HAD LED FINNS IN TWO WARS AGAINST THE RUSSIANS, RESIGNED THE PRESIDENCY ON ACCOUNT OF FAILING HEALTH.

OPPOSING PAASIKIVI ARE DR.ERHO KEKKONEN, SPEAKER OF THE HOUSE WHO IS BACKED BY FINLAND'S BIGGEST PARTY, THE AGRARIANS, AND MAUNO PEKKALA, A LEFTIST FORMER PREMIER WHO NEGOTIATED TRADE AND DEFENSE PACTS WITH RUSSIA.

PAASIKIVI IS SUPPORTED BY THE CONSERVATIVE RALLY, THE MAJORITY OF THE SOCIAL DEMOCRATS AND TWO SMALL LIBERAL PARTIES. HE SPEAKS RUSSIAN FLUENTLY AND HEADED THE PEACE NEGOTIATIONS WITH THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT IN 1940 AND 1944.

THE PRESIDENT TOLD THE PEOPLE IN A NEW YEAR'S MESSAGE "THERE MUST BE NO ENEMIES OF THE SOVIET UNION IN FINLAND, ONLY FRIENDS." THIS STATEMENT CAME ONLY A FEW HOURS AFTER RUSSIA ACCUSED FINLAND OF HARBORING MORE THAN 300 "WAR CRIMINALS" OF SOVIET ORIGIN AND DEMANDED TO KNOW WHY FINLAND HAD NOT HANDED THEM OVER.

(MOSCOW'S LITERARY GAZETTE DECLARED SATURDAY PAASIKIVI WAS A REACTIONARY WHO WISHED TO JOIN FINLAND TO THE NORTH ATLANTIC TREATY "AGAINST THE DESIRES OF THE PEOPLE OF FINLAND TO LIVE IN PEACE WITH THEIR GREAT EASTERN NEIGHBOR." THE PUBLICATION RIDICULED WHAT IT CALLED THE LEGEND THAT PAASIKIVI FAVORS FRIENDLY RELATIONS WITH THE U.S.S.R. RUSSIA HAS BEEN SEEKING GREATER POWER FOR FINLAND'S SMALL COMMUNIST PARTY.)

KUKKONEN, A LAWYER WHO DRAFTED THE PREAMBLE TO THE RUSSO-FINNISH FRIENDSHIP PACT OF 1948, HAS CONDUCTED AN EFFICIENT ELECTION CAMPAIGN. HE VISITED THE MOST DESOLATE PARTS OF THIS COUNTRY--A NATION OF 130,148 SQUARE MILES, AND DELIVERED MORE THAN 200 SPEECHES.

PEKKALA IS THE CANDIDATE OF THE PEOPLE'S DEMOCRATIC FRONT, WHICH INCLUDES COMMUNISTS AND EXTREME LEFT SOCIALISTS. THEY HAVE BEEN CRITICIZING PAAKISIVI SEVERLY.

FINLAND HAS A POPULATION OF ABOUT 4,100,000. MEN AND WOMEN OVER 21 ARE ELIGIBLE TO VOTE.

NIGHT LEAD COMMONWEALTH
BY STEVEN DAVID

COLOMBO, CEYLON, JAN. 14-(AP)-THE FIVE-DAY BRITISH COMMONWEALTH CONFERENCE ENDED TODAY WITH DELEGATES DECLARING UNANIMOUSLY THAT MUCH HAD BEEN ACCOMPLISHED THOUGH RESULTS MIGHT NOT BE APPARENT IMMEDIATELY.

AT THE CONFERENCE'S ONLY OPEN SESSION, AUSTRALIAN FOREIGN MINISTER PERCY C.SPENDER DECLARED: "WE LIVE UNDER THE SHADOW OF APPROACHING STORM. WHETHER IT WILL BREAK UPON US OR PASS BY, WE FEEL THE URGENCY ABOUT OUR DELIBERATIONS AND THAT TIME HAS NOT BEEN RUNNING IN OUR FAVOR."

JAN 14 1950

THE NEAREST APPROACH TO A CONCRETE RESULT CAME FROM AN AUSTRALIAN PROPOSAL--A DETERMINATION TO HELP SOUTHEAST ASIA RAISE ITS LIVING STANDARDS TO COUNTER COMMUNISM.

THE CONFERENCE AGREED TO PLACE BEFORE THE EIGHT GOVERNMENTS REPRESENTED A RECOMMENDATION TO ESTABLISH A CONSULTATIVE COMMITTEE TO PLAN A PROGRAM OF SELF-AID AND MUTUAL HELP IN SOUTHEAST ASIA. THE COMMONWEALTH COUNTRIES ARE TO ASSESS THE AMOUNT OF CREDIT AND TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE THEY CAN MAKE AVAILABLE FOR THE DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM. THE CONSULTATIVE COMMITTEE IS TO MEET IN CANBERRA, AUSTRALIAN CAPITAL, WITHIN A FEW MONTHS. THE DELEGATES WERE UNDERSTOOD TO HOPE FOR UNITED STATES AID IN SUCH A PROGRAM.

AN AUSTRALIAN OBSERVER CONTENDED THAT AUSTRALIA HAD "STOLEN THE SHOW" BY PRODUCING THE ONLY REAL PLAN OF ACTION. THE AUSTRALIAN DELEGATION CALLED IT A "NEW CONCEPT OF COMMONWEALTH" RELATIONS, BUT NOT ALL DELEGATES SHARED THIS ENTHUSIASM.

A SECOND AGREEMENT WAS THE ENDORSEMENT "IN PRINCIPLE" OF A COMMONWEALTH LOAN TO STRENGTHEN INDEPENDENT BURMA'S INTERNAL FINANCES. ALTHOUGH THIS NEVER WAS ANNOUNCED OFFICIALLY, DELEGATES SAID ALL BUT CANADA AND SOUTH AFRICA WOULD RECOMMEND TO THEIR GOVERNMENTS THAT BLOCKED STERLING BE MADE AVAILABLE TO BURMA IN THE FORM OF A LOAN. BRITAIN IS EXPECTED TO CONTRIBUTE ABOUT HALF OF THE LOAN OF £7,500,000 ($21,000,000).

THIS IS WHAT THE CONFERENCE DID ON OTHER ITEMS OF THE AGENDA:

INDOCHINA--EXCEPT FOR INDIA, THE CONFERENCE NATIONS AGREED THAT THE FRENCH-SPONSORED GOVERNMENT OF FORMER EMPEROR BAO DAI SHOULD BE RECOGNIZED AFTER THE AGREEMENT GIVING HIS REGIME SELF-GOVERNING POWERS HAS BEEN RATIFIED BY THE FRENCH PARLIAMENT AND SIGNED. PRIME MINISTER JAWALHARLAL NEHRU OF INDIA DISAGREED WITH THE CONTENTION OF MALCOLM MACDONALD, BRITISH COMMISSIONER GENERAL FOR SOUTHEAST ASIA, THAT BAO DAI COULD ESTABLISH A SOUND GOVERNMENT. NEHRU WAS REPORTED TO HAVE SAID THAT BAO DAI LACKED THE SUPPORT OF A MAJORITY OF THE PEOPLE AND TO HAVE CRITICIZED FRENCH COLONIAL POLICY GENERALLY.

JAPANESE PEACE TREATY--ALL AGREED ON THE NEED FOR AN EARLY PEACE TREATY, BUT TOOK NOTE OF THE DIFFICULTIES INVOLVED IN VIEW OF RUSSIAN INSISTENCE THAT ONLY THE SOVIET UNION, CHINA (THE COMMUNIST REGIME), BRITAIN AND THE UNITED STATES DRAFT THE PACT. THERE WAS A TENDENCY OF THE OTHERS TO DISCOUNT AUSTRALIAN AND NEW ZEALAND CONCERN OVER A POSSIBLE RESURGENCE OF JAPANESE MILITARISM.

CHINA--THOSE DELEGATES WHO CONTENDED THE DIPLOMATIC RECOGNITION OF CHINA MUST BE ACCOMPANIED BY GENUINE FRIENDLINESS TOWARD THE PEIPING RED REGIME APPEARED TO HAVE GOT THEIR VIEWPOINT ACROSS TO THE CONFERENCE. THIS ATTITUDE MAY ALSO HAVE ITS EFFECT ON THE LONG TERM.

EUROPE--BRITISH FOREIGN SECRETARY ERNEST BEVIN AND CANADIAN EXTERNAL AFFAIRS MINISTER LESTER B.PEARSON APPEARED TO HAVE MADE AN IMPRESSION WITH THEIR EXPOSITION OF WHY BRITAIN IS PREOCCUPIED WITH EUROPE, AND THAT THE REHABILITATION AND INTEGRATION OF EUROPE IS A MATTER OF FIRST INTERNATIONAL IMPORTANCE. AUSTRALIA AND NEW ZEALAND, WHOSE CONCERN IS WITH THE DANGERS IN THE EAST, WERE REPORTED TO HAVE AGREED THAT BRITAIN'S ATTITUDE IS NECESSARY, THOUGH PERHAPS A LITTLE OVERDONE.

MANY DELEGATES UNDERLINED THE VALUE OF THE EXCHANGE OF VIEWS OVER THE CONFERENCE TABLE. AS A RESULT, THEY SAID, VIEWS ARE MATURED AND A SENSE OF INTERNATIONAL RESPONSIBILITY OF SOME DELEGATES IS WIDENED.

"THESE DISCUSSIONS INTRODUCE THE HUMAN ELEMENT," SAID ONE DELEGATE, "FOCUSING IN ONE PLACE THE NORMAL EXCHANGE THAT IS GOING ON AMONG THE GOVERNMENTS ALL THE TIME. A VALUABLE RESULT IS THE ABILITY TO TAKE AWAY FROM THE CONFERENCE IMPRESSIONS OF WHAT OTHER GOVERNMENTS ARE THINKING ABOUT MATTERS AFFECTING ALL COMMONWEALTH NATIONS."

THE CONFERENCE DID NOT GRAPPLE WITH SOME URGENT QUESTIONS DIVIDING SOME OF THE MEMBERS, SUCH AS KASHMIR, THE TRADE STALEMATE BETWEEN INDIA AND PAKISTAN, INDIAN RELATIONS WITH SOUTH AFRICA, AND BRITISH IRRITATION AT INDIAN AND PAKISTAN FOR SUPPORTING THE UNITED NATIONS RESOLUTION FOR A CHECK-UP ON SOCIAL CONDITIONS IN COLONIES.

HOWEVER, THERE WAS CONSIDERABLE ACTIVITY BEHINDHE SCENES ON SOME OF THESE ISSUES. BEVIN AND PEARSON WERE REPORTED TO HAVE URGED INDIA AND PAKISTAN TO EXPEDITE A SOLUTION ON KASHMIR, THE PRINCELY STATE WHICH BOTH WANT. THERE ALSO WAS PRESSURE ON THE SAME COUNTRIES TO SOLVE THE BREAKDOWN IN TRADE WHICH RESULTED FROM PAKISTAN'S DECISION NOT TO DEVALUE HER CURRENCY IN STEP WITH INDIA AND BRITAIN.

THE TALKS ALSO PRODUCED A GENERAL PICTURE OF THE STERLING AREA'S SHORTAGE OF DOLLARS AND THE NEED OF COMPETING IN THE NORTH AMERICAN MARKET. ECONOMISTS OF THE CONFERENCE MADE NO RECOMMENDATIONS.

"THE CONFERENCE ALSO REVIEWED THE CURRENT POSITION IN THE FAR EAST. THEY DISCUSSED BOTH THE QUESTION OF RECOGNITION OF THE NEW REGIME IN CHINA AND ALSO THE FUTURE RELATIONS OF COMMONWEALTH COUNTRIES WITH CHINA. THEY RECONSIDERED, IN THE LIGHT OF SUBSEQUENT DEVELOPMENTS, THE PROVISIONAL CONCLUSIONS REACHED AT THE COMMONWEALTH CONFERENCE HELD IN CANBERRA (AUSTRALIA) IN 1947 ON THE CONDITIONS FOR A PEACE SETTLEMENT WITH JAPAN. ON THIS SUBJECT THE MINISTERS ATTENDING THE CONFERENCE WILL SUBMIT RECOMMENDATIONS TO THEIR GOVERNMENTS.

"FINALLY THE CONFERENCE WERE INFORMED OF THE CURRENT POLITICAL SITUATION IN EUROPE AND THE MIDDLE EAST, AND OF THE STEPS WHICH ARE BEING TAKEN TO PROMOTE CLOSER COOPERATION, BOTH POLITICAL AND ECONOMIC.

JAN 14 1950

AMONG THE COUNTRIES OF WESTERN EUROPE AND BETWEEN THEM AND THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA AND CANADA.

"THE CONFERENCE AGREED THERE NEED BE NO INCONSISTENCY BETWEEN THE POLICY FOLLOWED BY THE UNITED KINGDOM GOVERNMENT IN RELATION TO WESTERN EUROPE AND THE MAINTENANCE OF THE TRADITIONAL LINKS BETWEEN THE UNITED KINGDOM AND THE REST OF THE COMMONWEALTH.

"COMMONWEALTH OFFICIALS CONCERNED WITH ECONOMIC AFFAIRS HAVE HELD A SEPARATE SERIES OF MEETINGS THROUGH THE WEEK. THEIR PRIMARY PURPOSE HAS BEEN TO EXCHANGE INFORMATION ON DEVELOPMENTS SINCE THE COMMONWEALTH FINANCE MINISTERS MET IN LONDON IN JULY. THESE MEETINGS HAVE AFFORDED A VALUABLE OPPORTUNITY FOR A JOINT SURVEY OF THE STERLING AREA'S CURRENT AND PROSPECTIVE BALANCE OF PAYMENTS POSITION AND FOR DISCUSSION OF ECONOMIC PROBLEMS THAT FACE THE COMMONWEALTH. PARTICULAR ATTENTION WAS GIVEN TO THE RECENT TREND OF AND FUTURE PROSPECTS FOR THE DOLLAR EXPORT OF THE STERLING AREA.

"AT THE CONCLUSION OF THE FINAL MEETING OF THE MINISTERS THIS MORNING REPRESENTATIVES OF ALL OTHER COMMONWEALTH GOVERNMENTS EXPRESSED THEIR APPRECIATION OF THE HELPFUL MANNER IN WHICH MR.SENANAYAKE (PRIME MINISTER D.S.SENANAYAKE OF CEYLON) HAD PRESIDED OVER THEIR MEETINGS, AND THEIR GRATITUDE FOR THE GENEROUS HOSPITALITY ACCORDED TO THEM BY THE GOVERNMENT OF CEYLON DURING THEIR STAY IN THE ISLAND."

THE TEXT OF THE FINAL COMMUNIQUE:

"AT THE MEETING OF COMMONWEALTH PRIME MINISTERS IN OCTOBER, 1948, IT WAS CONTEMPLATED THAT APART FROM MEETINGS OF THE PRIME MINISTERS, OTHER COMMONWEALTH MEETINGS WOULD BE HELD AT MINISTERIAL LEVEL AS THE OCCASION REQUIRED ON SUCH SUBJECTS AS FOREIGN POLICY AND ECONOMIC AFFAIRS. A MEETING OF COMMONWEALTH FINANCE MINISTERS WAS HELD IN LONDON IN JULY. THE CONFERENCE AT COLOMBO IS THE FIRST OF THE MEETINGS ON FOREIGN AFFAIRS. IT HAS PROVED ESPECIALLY APPROPRIATE THAT THE MEETING AT THIS TIME FOR THE DISCUSSION OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS SHOULD BE HELD IN CEYLON; FOR, ALTHOUGH WORLD PROBLEMS ARE INDIVISIBLE, ASIA IS AT THE MOMENT THE MAIN FOCUS OF INTEREST AND AN AREA OF SPECIAL URGENCY.

"DISCUSSIONS WHICH THE COMMONWEALTH MINISTERS HAVE HELD DURING THE PAST WEEK HAVE ONCE AGAIN DEMONSTRATED THAT AMONG ALL MEMBERS OF THE COMMONWEALTH THERE IS A CONTINUING AND SUBSTANTIAL COMMUNITY OF OUTLOOK IN THEIR APPROACH TO THE CURRENT PROBLEMS OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS.

"ELEVEN PLENARY MEETINGS HAVE BEEN HELD SINCE THE CONFERENCE OPENED ON THE 9TH OF JANUARY. THE GREATER PART OF THIS TIME HAS BEEN SPENT IN A COMPREHENSIVE REVIEW OF THE CURRENT PROBLEMS OF SOUTHEAST ASIA, BOTH POLITICAL AND ECONOMIC. IT WAS RECOGNIZED THAT IN THE CHANGING CONDITIONS BROUGHT ABOUT BY RECENT DEVELOPMENTS IN THIS AREA, PROGRESS DEPENDS MAINLY ON IMPROVEMENT OF ECONOMIC CONDITIONS.

"THE CONFERENCE WAS IMPRESSED BY THE MAGNITUDE OF THE CONTRIBUTION WHICH THE SUCCESS OF PROGRESSIVE POLICIES IN THIS AREA COULD MAKE TO THE PEACE AND PROSPERITY OF THE WORLD.

"EXECUTIVE DECISIONS ARE NOT TAKEN AT COMMONWEALTH MEETINGS OF THIS KIND; BUT AS A RESULT OF THE VALUABLE EXCHANGE OF VIEWS WHICH HAS TAKEN PLACE, RECOMMENDATIONS FOR THE FURTHERANCE OF ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT IN SOUTH AND SOUTHEAST ASIA WILL BE SUBMITTED TO THE COMMONWEALTH GOVERNMENTS FOR THEIR CONSIDERATION. THESE RECOMMENDATIONS INCLUDE A PROPOSAL FOR THE ESTABLISHMENT OF A CONSULTATIVE COMMITTEE REPRESENTING THE COMMONWEALTH GOVERNMENTS. THE AUSTRALIAN DELEGATION PROPOSED THAT THE FIRST MEETING OF THIS COMMITTEE, WHEN SET UP, SHOULD BE HELD IN AUSTRALIA.

"IN THE COURSE OF THEIR DISCUSSIONS THE COMMONWEALTH MINISTERS NOTED WITH SATISFACTION THE POLITICAL SETTLEMENT RECENTLY REACHED IN INDONESIA. THEY ALSO GAVE PARTICULAR ATTENTION TO THE SITUATIONS IN INDOCHINA, BURMA AND MALAYA.

TAIPEI, FORMOSA, SUNDAY, JAN 15-(AP)-THE CHINESE NATIONALIST NAVY TODAY REPORTED ITS WARSHIPS SHELLED THREE COMMUNIST ISLANDS NEAR THE SHANGHAI BLOCKADE BASE OF CHUSHAN.

AN ANNOUNCEMENT SAID THE WARSHIPS CLOSED IN UNDER COVER OF DARKNESS AND LEVELED THE DEFENSE WORKS OF ONE OF THE ISLANDS, MEISHAN, SOUTH OF CHUSHAN. CHUSHAN IS ABOUT 100 MILES SOUTH OF SHANGHAI. DEFENSES ON TWO NEARBY ISLANDS WERE DAMAGED.

THE ACTION WAS DESIGNED TO DELAY THE INVASION OF CHUSHAN, FROM WHICH THE CHINESE HAVE BEEN BLOCKADING SHANGHAI BY SEA AND ATTACKING IT BY AIR. TEN INVASION CRAFT ALONG THE COAST WERE REPORTED SUNK.

THE DEFENSE MINISTRY PREDICTED THE EARLY CONQUEST OF HWANGCHI, A SMALL ISLAND BOTTLING UP THE MIN RIVER PORT OF FOOCHOW. THIS GOOD PORT IS ABOUT 130 MILES NORTHWEST OF FORMOSA ACROSS THE FORMOSA STRAIT.

THE MINISTRY SAID NATIONALIST TROOPS WHO INVADED THE ISLAND AT THE MOUTH OF THE MIN A FEW DAYS AGO WERE EXPANDING THEIR HOLDINGS.

THE AIR FORCE SAID ITS PLANES LAST WEEK DROPPED MORE THAN 110,000 POUNDS OF BOMBS ON RED TARGETS, SUNK 600 JUNKS, KILLED 1,700 REDS AND DESTROYED 300 BUILDINGS.

ANOTHER OFFICIAL STATEMENT SAID CLAIRE L.CHENNAULT'S CIVIL AIR TRANSPORT LINE FORMALLY HAD TAKEN OVER ALL EQUIPMENT AND BUILDINGS IN FORMOSA BELONGING TO THE CHINA NATIONAL AVIATION CORPORATION AND THE CENTRAL AIR TRANSPORT CORPORATION.

EMPLOYES OF THE TWO LATTER NATIONALIST COMMERCIAL LINES IN HONG KONG WENT OVER TO THE REDS RECENTLY. THEY ARE TRYING TO DELIVER ALL PLANES AND PROPERTY IN HONG KONG TO THE COMMUNIST REGIME. CHENNAULT IS CONTESTING THE MOVE. HE SAYS HE BOUGHT THE PROPERTY FROM THE NATIONALISTS.

BY FRED HAMPSON

HONG KONG,JAN.14-(AP)-IF THE COMMUNISTS DO NOT SOON ACQUIRE SOME KIND OF AIR FORCE, THE CHINESE CIVIL WAR MAY DRAG ON FOR A LONG TIME YET--LONGER THAN MOST PEOPLE SEEM TO THINK.

THE REDS HAVE REACHED THE STAGE WHERE AIR COVER IS ESSENTIAL TO THE KIND OF MILITARY MOVES THEY NEXT MUST MAKE.

ALSO, THE NATIONALIST AIR FORCE, NOW THAT ITS JOB OF TRYING TO GIVE AIR SUPPORT TO FARFLUNG MAINLAND ARMIES IS OVER, IS ABLE TO CONCENTRATE ON AN EASIER AND MORE EFFECTIVE TYPE OF OPERATION.

THE NATIONALIST AIRMEN ARE DEVOTING THEIR ATTENTION TO INDUSTRIAL AND SHIPPING CONCENTRATION POINTS AND THE LARGER RAIL CENTERS WHICH THE COMMUNISTS NEED FOR ANY AMPHIBIOUS INVASION PROGRAM. WITH THIS NARROWING OF TARGETS, THE NATIONALIST BOMBERS AND STRAFERS ALREADY SEEM TO BE INCREASINGLY EFFECTIVE.

OVER THE YEARS SOME PLANES HAVE FALLEN INTO RED HANDS. THE COMMUNISTS HAVE MANAGED TO KEEP THE NUMBERS SECRET, BUT A FAIR ESTIMATE OF POSSIBLY OPERATIONAL MILITARY CRAFT AVAILABLE TO THEM WOULD BE 60 TO 100. WHY THEY HAVE NOT TRIED TO USE THEM YET NOBODY KNOWS.

RED PROPAGANDISTS HAVE CROWED OCCASIONALLY ABOUT A SOON-TO-BE UNVEILED AIRFORCE, BUT IT IS A FACT THAT NOT A SINGLE RED PLANE HAS TAKEN THE AIR AGAINST THE NATIONALISTS.

IT SEEMS UNLIKELY THAT THE REDS ARE SAVING AIRCRAFT FOR AN INVASION OF FORMOSA. IN PAST MONTHS THEY HAVE SUFFERED TWO SERIOUS SETBACKS IN TRYING TO TAKE THE CHUSAN ISLANDS, JUST OFF THE MAINLAND. THE NATIONALISTS BLOCKADED AND RAIDED SHANGHAI FROM THOSE ISLANDS, AND THEIR CAPTURE WAS A HIGH-PRIORITY ASSIGNMENT. YET, WHILE COMMUNIST TROOPS WERE BEING SUNK IN THE SEA AND BEATEN BACK OFF THE BEACHES, NO RED PLANES APPEARED. IF THEY HAD POSSESSED ANY IN FIGHTING SHAPE, IT IS LIKELY THEY WOULD HAVE USED THEM.

THE PROBABLE ANSWER IS THAT THE REDS LACK MAINTENANCE CAPACITY. IT TAKES A LOT OF GOOD MEN AND EQUIPMENT ON THE GROUND TO KEEP A WARPLANE IN THE AIR, AND THESE SEEM TO BE LACKING.

IT IS HARD TO SEE HOW THEY CAN HOPE TO CROSS 100 MILES OF WATER TO FORMOSA WITHOUT AIR COVER WHEN THEY COULD NOT GET ACROSS SEVEN TO TEN MILES OF QUIET WATER TO CHUSAN AGAINST THE RESISTANCE OF NOT MORE THAN A DOZEN OR SO NATIONALIST PLANES.

THE NATIONALISTS MEANWHILE ARE GIVING THE SHANGHAI AREA A REGULAR PASTING.

WHEN I LEFT SHANGHAI IN DECEMBER, SO FEW BIG RIVER BOATS REMAINED ON THE YANGTZE THAT THE NATIONALIST PLANES WERE ATTACKING JUNKS. RAILWAYS WERE OPERATING ONLY AT NIGHT.

SHANGHAI HAD UNDERGONE ABOUT 200 RAIDS SINCE THE COMMUNIST CAPTURE AT THE END OF MAY. MOSTLY THEY HAVE BEEN BY TWO OR THREE PLANES AND HAVE STRUCK AT SHIPPING, RAIL AND INDUSTRIAL TARGETS. MOST SHANGHAI RESIDENTS PAID LITTLE ATTENTION, ALTHOUGH SOME NEAR MISSES WERE UNCOMFORTABLE.

NATIONALIST MOSQUITO AND P-51 PILOTS HAVE BECOME REMARKABLY EFFECTIVE IN DIVING ATTACKS ON WATERFRONT TARGETS. PULLING OUT AT ABOUT 1,000 FEET, THEY ALMOST ALWAYS SCORED SOME SORT OF HIT.

COMMUNIST GROUND FIRE, CONSISTING MOSTLY OF .30-CALIBRE MACHINE GUNS MOUNTED ON ROOFS, HAS PROVED INEFFECTUAL.

BRIDGES

SAN FRANCISCO, JAN. 14-(AP)-THE HARRY BRIDGES PERJURY TRIAL WAS IN WEEK-END RECESS TODAY AFTER ONE OF ITS MOST DRAMATIC AND SHORTEST SESSIONS.

THE DRAMA WAS PROVIDED BY GEORGE H. WILSON, THE NEWSPAPERMAN WHO HEADED THE HARRY BRIDGES DEFENSE COMMITTEE IN 1941.

WILSON, NOW OF LOS ANGELES BUT A FORMER NEWSPAPERMAN AND LABOR LEADER HERE, WAS VISIBLY AFFECTED BY THE TESTIMONY HE GAVE. FOR ONE THING, HE REVEALED PUBLICLY FOR THE FIRST TIME HE ONCE WAS A MEMBER OF THE COMMUNIST PARTY--FROM 1941 TO 1945.

AND HE POINTED OUT THREE OF HIS FORMER CLOSE ASSOCIATES AS MEN WHO ATTENDED COMMUNIST MEETINGS WITH HIM.

THE THREE WERE BRIDGES, PRESIDENT OF THE CIO LONGSHOREMEN'S AND WAREHOUSEMEN'S UNION, AND HIS TWO CO-DEFENDANTS, HENRY SCHMIDT AND J. R. ROBERTSON, BOTH TOP UNION AIDES.

THE GOVERNMENT ACCUSED BRIDGES OF PERJURY FOR SAYING AT HIS 1945 NATURALIZATION HEARING HE NEVER WAS A COMMUNIST. HIS CO-DEFENDANTS, CHARACTER WITNESSES AT THE HEARING, ARE CHARGED WITH CONSPIRACY.

WILSON WAS THE FIRST IN THE LONG LINE OF EX-COMMUNISTS TO TESTIFY ROBERTSON ATTENDED A COMMUNIST MEETING.

THE DEFENSE, WHICH OFTEN CROSS-EXAMINES WITNESSES FOR DAYS, ASKED ONLY TEN QUESTIONS. THE PROSECUTION WAS CAUGHT BY SURPRISE AND DID NOT HAVE ITS NEXT WITNESS READY.

OUT OF COURT BRIDGES EXPLAINED THE EASY CROSS EXAMINATION WITH THE STATEMENT WILSON, AN OLD FRIEND, HAD NOT BEEN "VICIOUS" IN HIS TESTIMONY. HE SAID WILSON TESTIFIED "ONLY BECAUSE HE WAS ON A SPOT AND HAD TO."

BY CHARLES MERCER

NEW YORK, JAN. 14-(AP)-A FEDERAL COURT JURY IS EXPECTED TO BEGIN CONSIDERING THE FATE OF ALGER HISS NEXT WEEK.

THE TRIAL OF THE FORMER STATE DEPARTMENT OFFICIAL WAS EXTENDED THIS WEEK BY THE APPEARANCE OF A DEFENSE PSYCHIATRIST AND A PSYCHOLOGIST.

BOTH CHARACTERIZED HISS' ACCUSER, WHITTAKER CHAMBERS, AS A "PSYCHOLPATHIC PERSONALITY."

HISS WAS INDICTED ON TWO PERJURY COUNTS IN DECEMBER, 1948, AFTER HE DENIED PASSING SECRET STATE DOCUMENTS TO CHAMBERS, A SELF-STYLED COURIER FOR A PREWAR SOVIET SPY RING. THE FIRST HISS TRIAL ENDED IN A JURY DISAGREEMENT.

THE APPEARANCE OF DR. CARL SINGER, A NEW YORK PSYCHIATRIST, AND DR. HENRY ALEXANDER MURRAY, HARVARD UNIVERSITY PSYCHOLOGIST, MARKED THE FIRST TIME THAT EXPERT PSYCHIATRIC TESTIMONY HAS BEEN PERMITTED IN THE FEDERAL COURTS IN AN EFFORT TO IMPEACH A WITNESS.

FEDERAL JUDGE HENRY W.GODDARD SAID IN PERMITTING THE TWO TO TESTIFY THAT HE WOULD INSTRUCT THE JURY AS TO HOW MUCH WEIGHT--IF ANY--SHOULD BE GIVEN THE PSYCHIATRIC TESTIMONY.

LATER HE TOLD THE JURY OF EIGHT WOMEN AND FOUR MEN IT WOULD BE UP TO THEM TO DECIDE WHAT IMPORTANCE IT SHOULD PLACE ON THE TESTIMONY OF MENTAL EXPERTS.

EXPERT PSYCHIATRIC TESTIMONY HAS BEEN EMPLOYED IN CASES IN THE STATE COURTS PREVIOUSLY.

CROSS-EXAMINATION OF THE TWO BY THE GOVERNMENT PROSECUTOR--ASSISTANT U.S. ATTORNEY THOMAS F.MURPHY--RESULTED IN THE HEAD-ON COLLISION OF TWO SCHOOLS OF THOUGHT: THE PSYCHIATRIC AND THE LEGAL.

PSYCHIATRIC THINKING IS INCLUSIVE, REACHING A CONCLUSION ON THE BASIS OF ALL AVAILABLE FACTS. THE LEGAL MIND IS TRAINED TO STRIP FACTS DOWN TO ESSENTIALS AND EMPLOYING THOSE ESSENTIALS TO REACH A CONCLUSION.

ON MURPHY'S BROAD SHOULDERS FELL THE DIFFICULT JOB OF TRYING TO DISCREDIT THE WITNESSES' TESTIMONY BOTH IN TERMS OF PSYCHIATRY AND IN TERMS UNDERSTANDABLE TO THE JURORS.

IT LED TO SOME SHARP FENCING BETWEEN HIM AND DR. BINGER.

DR. BINGER TOLD DEFENSE COUNSEL CLAUDE B.CROSS THAT CHAMBERS' HABIT OF STARING AT THE CEILING WAS ODD. THEN MURPHY SAID DR. BINGER HIMSELF LOOKED AT THE CEILING 59 TIMES IN 50 MINUTES AND ASKED THE PSYCHIATRIST:

"NOW I WAS WONDERING IF THAT WAS ANY SYMPTOM OF A PSYCHOPATHIC PERSONALITY?"

DR. BINGER SMILED COLDLY AND REPLIED, "NOT ALONE."

JAN 14 1950

THE PSYCHIATRIST SAID THAT CHAMBERS' CONSTANT USE OF VARIOUS NAMES WAS A PSYCHOPATHIC SYMPTOM. MURPHY THEN BROUGHT OUT THAT THE WITNESS WAS LISTED VARIOUSLY AS "DR. CARL BINGER," "DR. CARL A.L. BINGER," AND "DR. CARL ALFRED LANNING BINGER."

THE BULKY PROSECUTOR PURSUED MUCH THE SAME TACTICS IN HIS CROSS-EXAMINATION OF THE HARVARD PSYCHOLOGIST. POINT BY POINT HE TRIED TO DISCREDIT THE MENTAL EXPERT'S DESCRIPTION OF CHAMBERS AS A PSYCHOPATHIC AND A CHRONIC LIAR.

OBVIOUSLY ALLUDING TO SOME OF MURRAY'S OWN MANNERISMS ON THE WITNESS STAND, MURPHY ASKED:

"WOULD IT BE OF ANY SIGNIFICANCE TO YOU, IF YOU NOTICED THAT A SUBJECT'S MOUTH TWITCHED, THAT HIS EYES OPENED AND CLOSED, THAT HE HAD EXCESSIVE HAND GESTURES,THAT HE PLAYED WITH HIS WATCH CHAIN AND HIS GLASSES AND HIS NOSE, THAT HE TURNED HIS HEAD CONSTANTLY AND THAT HE BREATHED HEAVILY THROUGH HIS NOSE--WOULD THAT HAVE NY SIGNIFICANCE TO YOU?"

"NO SIR," RESPONDED MURRAY. THEN HE ADDED THAT THE INTENSITY OF SUCH GESTURES WOULD BE OF SOME IMPORTANCE "WHEN CONSIDERED WITH THE PERSONALITY OF THE INDIVIDUAL AS A WHOLE."

GENERALLY, THE WITNESS SAID UNDER QUESTIONING, A PSYCHOPATHIC PERSONALITY CANNOT BE CURED BY ANY MEANS KNOWN TO SCIENCE.

NEW YORK, JAN.14-(AP)-THE GOVERNMENT HACKS AWAY SOME MORE MONDAY AT THE TESTIMONY OF DR.HENRY A.MURRAY, HARVARD UNIVERSITY PSYCHOLOGIST WHO SAYS THAT WHITTAKER CHAMBERS IS A PATHOLOGICAL CASE.

MURRAY, THE SECOND MENTAL EXPERT TO ATTACK THE MENTAL CONDITION OF THE STAR WITNESS AGAINST FORMER STATE DEPARTMENT OFFICIAL ALGER HISS, WENT UNDER CROSS-EXAMINATION YESTERDAY.

COURT WAS ADJOURNED EARLY BECAUSE OF THE ILLNESS OF A JUROR AFTER MURRAY, IN A BATTLE OF WITS WITH PROSECUTOR THOMAS F.MURPHY, HAD REPEATED HIS CONTENTION THAT CHAMBERS IS A CHRONIC DECEIVER AND LIAR.

HISS IS ACCUSED OF PERJURY FOR DENYING TO A FEDERAL GRAND JURY THAT HE FED U.S.SECRETS TO CHAMBERS, SELF-DESCRIBED FORMER COMMUNIST COURIER FOR A PREWAR RUSSIAN SPY RING.

COURT OFFICIALS SAID THE CASE MAY GET TO THE JURY LATE NEXT WEEK.

NEW YORK, JAN.14-(AP)-THE PRE-TRIAL SPY HEARINGS FOR JUDITH COPLON AND VALENTIN A.GUBITCHEV GO INTO THEIR SEVENTH WEEK MONDAY WITH THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT FIGHTING HARD TO SAVE ITS CASE AGAINST THE PAIR.

DURING YESTERDAY'S HEARING ARCHIBALD PALMER, MISS COPLON'S DEMONSTRATIVE ATTORNEY, TWITTED THE FBI ABOUT ITS WIRETAPPING EQUIPMENT.

FBI AGENT LYNN W.BEDFORD TESTIFIED THAT IT OCCASIONALLY BROKE DOWN--AND DID SO AT ONE OF THE CRITICAL MOMENTS IN THE CASE. THIS WAS THE DAY THE BRUNETTE GOVERNMENT GIRL WAS ARRESTED FOR SPYING WITH GUBITCHEV, A RUSSIAN ENGINEER FORMERLY ATTACHED TO THE UNITED NATIONS.

"THIS GENTLEMAN TELLS YOU VERY SWEETLY THAT THERE WAS SOMETHING THE MATTER WITH THE MICROPHONE," PALMER JEERED.

IT WAS THE MICROPHONE THE FBI HAD PLANTED IN MISS COPLON'S OFFICE IN THE DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE BUILDING IN WASHINGTON WHERE SHE WORKED UNTIL HER ARREST.

PRESUMABLY IT SHOULD HAVE CARRIED TO THE EARS OF THE AGENT THE CONVERSATION BETWEEN MISS COPLON AND HER BOSS, WILLIAM E.FOLEY.

FOLEY HAD TESTIFIED THAT HE HANDED HER A PAPER THAT DAY--MARCH 4, 1949--AND TOLD HER IT WAS "HOT AND INTERESTING."

WHEN SHE WAS ARRESTED A FEW HOURS LATER IN NEW YORK WITH GUBITCHEV, SHE CARRIED EXTRACTS OF THE PAPER IN HER PURSE.

MISS COPLON CLAIMS FOLEY TOLD HER TO TAKE THE MEMOS HOME FOR A WEEKEND STUDY. A WIRETAP RECORD OF HER TALK WITH FOLEY WOULD EITHER PROVE OR DISPROVE HER CLAIM.

SHE WAS CONVICTED OF SPYING IN AN EARLIER TRIAL IN WASHINGTON. SHE AND GUBITCHEV ARE CHARGED HERE WITH CONSPIRING TO TURN SECRETS OVER TO THE SOVIET UNION.

FEDERAL JUDGE SYLVESTER RYAN HAS THREATENED TO THROW THE CASE OUT OF COURT UNLESS THE GOVERNMENT CAN CONVINCE HIM THAT ITS MAIN EVIDENCE IS NOT BASED ON WIRETAPPING--WHICH IS NOT LEGAL IN FEDERAL COURTS.

G-MAN BEDFORD TESTIFIED HE WAS LISTENING IN THAT DAY, BUT THAT ON THAT PARTICULAR MORNING HE COULD NOT HEAR WHAT WAS BEING SAID.

BUT HE CLAIMED THIS WAS NOT UNUSUAL BECAUSE ROOM CONVERSATIONS "WERE NOT ALWAYS DISTINCT AND AUDIBLE."

"DID YOU DELIBERATELY MANHANDLE OR MISTREAT RECORDINGS SO THAT THEY BECAME UNINTELLIGIBLE?" JUDGE RYAN ASKED BEDFORD.

JAN 14 1950

"NO, SIR," REPLIED THE AGENT.

THE GOVERNMENT PLANS TO CALL HAROLD P.SHAPIRO TO THE STAND MONDAY TO BUTTRESS ITS CASE. THE JUSTICE DEPARTMENT ATTORNEY WAS ORIGINALLY SCHEDULED TO APPEAR YESTERDAY, BUT DIDN'T.

MISS COPLON HAS ADMITTED THAT DURING HER DECLARED ROMANCE WITH GUBITCHEV SHE SPENT NIGHTS WITH SHAPIRO IN HOTEL ROOMS--BUT HAS DENIED ANY IMPROPER RELATIONS.

THE GOVERNMENT HOPES TO SHOW BY THE TRYSTS WITH SHAPIRO THAT IT WAS NOT LOVE, BUT ESPIONAGE, THAT DREW MISS COPLON TO GUBITCHEV.

NEW YORK, JAN. 15-(AP)-THE NEW YORK TIMES AND THE NEW YORK HERALD TRIBUNE, IN EDITORIALS ON AMERICAN POLICY TOWARD ASIA, BOTH EXPRESS THE OPINION THAT ECONOMIC AID COULD GREATLY IMPROVE RELATIONS WITH THE ASIAN STATES.

THE TIMES SAYS THERE ARE "FORTUNATELY, A LARGE NUMBER OF POSITIVE STEPS THAT CAN BE TAKEN, EVEN AT THIS LATE DATE, WITHOUT WHAT THE ADMINISTRATION CALLS 'INTERVENTION.'

"THERE IS ALREADY APPROPRIATED MONEY THAT CAN BE SPENT, SUCH AS THE PRESIDENT'S DISCRETIONARY FUND OF $75,000,000 AND THE UNALLOCATED RESIDUE OF ECA FUNDS.

JAN 14 1950

"WE CAN SUPPORT THE UNITED STATES OF INDONESIA IN AN APPLICATION FOR LOANS. WE CAN GIVE PROMPT RECOGNITION AND SUPPORT TO THE GOVERNMENT OF BAO DAI IN INDO-CHINA AS SOON AS FRANCE RATIFIES THE AGREEMENT. WE CAN IMMEDIATELY CONFER WITH THE COMMONWEALTHS UPON HOW OUR FISCAL ARRANGEMENTS CAN EASE AND EXPEDITE ASSISTANCE TO BURMA. LIKEWISE, WE CAN GIVE EARLY ASSURANCE THAT THE COMMONWEALTH MUTUAL AID PROGRAM ANNOUNCED YESTERDAY AT COLOMBO WILL HAVE OUR FULL AND ENTHUSIASTIC

COOPERATION AND THAT WE CAN BE COUNTED UPON TO ACT IN CONCERT WITH OUR FRIENDS AND ALLIES, NOT MERELY IN THE MATTER OF SUPPLYING SOME MONEY BUT ALSO IN THE LARGER MATTER OF SUPPLYING IDEAS AND ATTITUDES.

"WE CAN SPEED LEGISLATION TO MAKE POINT FOUR ACTION POSSIBLE. WE CAN PUSH THE STRENGTHENING OF KOREA AND THE PHILIPPINES AS WE HAVE SAID WE WOULD."

THE TIMES DECLARES THAT BEYOND THOSE PRACTICAL STEPS "WE CAN AND SHOULD SEEK OUT, NOW, A REAL MEETING MINDS WITH THE ASIATIC PEOPLES WHOM WE HOPE TO HELP."

THE NEWSPAPER ADDS, "WE MUST NOT ALLOW MISUNDERSTANDING TO MAR OUR RELATIONSHIP WITH THE PHILIPPINES, WHICH IS IN ITSELF THE BEST DEMONSTRATION THAT WE MEAN THAT WE SAY ABOUT OUR DEVOTION TO SELF-DETERMINATION AND SOCIAL AMELIORATION.

JAN 14 1950

"WE MUST COMBAT, BY EVERY SPIRITUAL AS WELL AS PHYSICAL MEANS, THE IMPRESSION THAT WE HAVE WITHDRAWN OUR MAJOR INTEREST FROM THE ASIATIC SPHERE. IF WE DO NOT CONCEDE DEFEAT WE MUST SAY SO, AND SAY SO IN A POSITIVE PROGRAM."

THE HERALD TRIBUNE, REFERRING TO THE DIFFICULTIES OF THE COLOMBO CONFERENCE, ADDED THAT DIVIDED THOUGH THE COMMONWEALTH COUNTRIES MAY HAVE BEEN ON POLITICAL ISSUES, THEY "DID AGREE 'IN PRINCIPLE' UPON AN ECONOMIC PROGRAM FOR SOUTHEAST ASIA XXX"

THE NEWSPAPER COMMENTED THAT ALTHOUGH DETAILS ON DISCUSSIONS WERE LACKING, "IT IS FAIRLY OBVIOUS THAT THESE ECONOMIC PROPOSALS CONSTITUTES THE MOST CONSTRUCTIVE AND CONCRETE LABORS OF THE COMMONWEALTH REPRESENTATIVES."

"THIS SHOULD CONVEY A BROAD HINT TO AMERICANS," THE HERALD TRIBUNE SAYS. "IT IS TRUE THAT LONG-RANGE ECONOMIC PROGRAMS, BEGINNING WITH A LENGTHY SURVEY, CAN BE A MEANS FOR AVOIDING URGENTLY NEEDED POLITICAL OR MILITARY ACTION. BUT IT IS EQUALLY TRUE THAT POLITICAL GESTURES CAN BE DRAMATIC AND DANGEROUS EVASIONS OF THE BASIC ISSUES.

"THERE IS NO QUESTION BUT THAT THE FUNDAMENTAL SICKNESS OF SOUTHEAST ASIA IS ECONOMIC IN ORIGIN, AND THAT STEPS MUST BE TAKEN TO STRENGTHEN THE PATIENT, TO BUILD UP A HEALTHY ECONOMY THAT CAN BE THE BASIS FOR SANE POLITICAL LIFE.

FAR EAST INTERPRETIVE

JAN 14 1950

BY JOHN M.HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON,JAN.14-(AP)-THE UNITED STATES TODAY ACTED DIRECTLY IN LINE WITH THE NEW FAR EASTERN GRAND STRATEGY, IN STATE DEPARTMENT OPINION, WHEN SHE ORDERED ALL HER OFFICIALS OUT OF COMMUNIST CHINA AFTER A NEW AFFRONT BY THE REDS.

THE MOVE WAS INTERPRETED AS INTENDED TO SHOCK CHINESE LEADERSHIP IN-TO A REALIZATION OF THE DEGREE TO WHICH THEY ARE ISOLATING THEMSELVES FROM THIS COUNTRY--AND TO MAKE THE CHINESE PEOPLE REALIZE THE EXTREME DISAPPROVAL WITH WHICH THEIR HIGHHANDED LEADERS ARE REGARDED HERE.

MANY OFFICIALS BELIEVE THERE IS A RESERVOIR OF GOOD WILL FOR THIS LTUN-TRYPMDONG THE PEOPLE.

THE CHINESE REDS, PRECIPITATING THE MOVE BY SEIZING U.S.GOVERNMENT PROPERTY IN PEIPING, HAVE NO DOUBT DELAYED STILL FURTHER THE DAY WHEN THIS COUNTRY CAN EVEN CONSIDER RECOGNIZING THEIR REGIME.

STATE DEPARTMENT OFFICIALS ARE REPORTED CONVINCED THAT PRESIDENT TRUMAN AND SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON HAVE LAID THE BASIS

MANY OFFICIALS BELIEVE THERE IS A RESERVOIR OF GOOD WILL FOR THIS COUNTRY AMONG THE PEOPLE.

THE CHINESE REDS, PRECIPITATING THE MOVE BY SEIZING U.S.GOVERNMENT PROPERTY IN PEIPING, HAVE NO DOUBT DELAYED STILL FURTHER THE DAY WHEN THIS COUNTRY CAN EVEN CONSIDER RECOGNIZING THEIR REGIME.

STATE DEPARTMENT OFFICIALS ARE REPORTED CONVINCED THAT PRESIDENT TRUMAN AND SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON HAVE LAID THE BASIS FOR A NEW FAR EASTERN STRATEGY WHICH WILL FIRST BLOCK, THEN REVERSE THE COMMUNIST TIDE IN ASIA.

THERE ARE STRONG INDICATIONS, HOWEVER, THAT ACHESON'S REAL FIGHT TO MAKE THE NEW POLICY EFFECTIVE--BOTH IN WASHINGTON AND IN THE FAR EAST--HAS JUST BEGUN.

WITH THE PRESIDENT'S BACKING HE HAS CLEARLY WON THE FIRST ROUND--HIS REPORTED CONFLICT WITH SECRETARY JOHNSON OVER THE KIND OF STRATEGY THE UNITED STATES SHOULD DECLARE FOR THE ASIATIC COLD WAR FRONT.

JOHNSON FAVORED MORE VIGOROUS ACTION ON FORMOSA, ACCORDING TO REPORTS, THAN ACHESON WAS EVER WILLING TO CONSIDER--THOUGH APPARENTLY NEITHER MAN ADVOCATED SENDING AMERICAN TROOPS THERE.

BUT BEYOND THE DIVISION INSIDE THE PRESIDENT'S FAMILY, THE SPLIT BETWEEN THE ADMINISTRATION AND THE BITTERLY CRITICAL REPUBLICAN BLOC IN THE SENATE HAS SHAKEN THE FOUNDATION OF SUCH BI-PARTISAN FOREIGN POLICY AS ALREADY EXISTED--AND HAS SHUT OFF ANY EARLY PROSPECT OF EXTENDING THE BI-PARTISAN APPROACH TO THE FAR EAST.

MOREOVER DIFFERENCES BETWEEN THE STATE AND DEFENSE DEPARTMENTS OVER WHAT MIGHT BE DONE IN ASIA--AND ESPECIALLY FORMOSA--MAY NOW BE TURNED AGAINST THE ADMINISTRATION BY ITS REPUBLICAN CRITICS.

JOHNSON AND GEN.OMAR BRADLEY, CHAIRMAN OF THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF, AT REPUBLICAN INSISTENCE ARE BEING ASKED TO TESTIFY BEFORE THE SENATE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE JAN.26.

ALTHOUGH JOHNSON, AS A TOP RANKING OFFICIAL IN MR.TRUMAN'S CABINET, IS EXPECTED TO SOFT PEDAL ANY EVIDENCE OF DIFFERENCES BETWEEN ACHESON AND HIM, ADMINISTRATION OFFICIALS EXPECT THE FULL STORY OF MILITARY ADVICE REGARDING THE IMPORTANCE OF FORMOSA TO BE DEVELOPED.

THE ESSENCE OF THIS STORY, ACCORDING TO HIGHLY PLACED INFORMANTS, IS THAT ON THREE OCCASIONS THE JOINT CHIEFS ADVISED THE ADMINISTRATION THAT FORMOSA WAS NOT WORTH SAVING FROM THE COMMUNISTS AT THE PRICE OF INVOLVING AMERICAN TROOPS, BUT THAT IT WAS STRATEGICALLY IMPORTANT AND PROBABLY OUGHT TO BE SAVED BY ECONOMIC AND POLITICAL MEANS IF POSSIBLE.

RECENTLY ALSO THE MILITARY CHIEFS SUGGESTED SENDING A MILITARY MISSION TO FORMOSA BUT REPORTEDLY DID NOT PRESS THE POINT WHEN IT AROSE IN A MEETING OF THE NATIONAL SECURITY COUNCIL OVER WHICH MR. TRUMAN PRESIDED.

THE SPLIT BETWEEN ACHESON AND JOHNSON OVER FAR EASTERN POLICY GETS CLOSE TO THE HEART OF THE PROBLEMS WHICH ACHESON NOW FACES. HE WAS OUTLINED A POLICY AND THE ADMINISTRATION IS COMMITTED. BUT HE HAS ONLY

JAN 14 1950

BEGUN TO ANSWER THE NEXT QUESTION: WHAT SPECIFIC STEP WILL HE TAKE TO CARRY THE POLICY OUT?

DISCUSSIONS IN THE SECRET COUNCILS OF THE ADMINISTRATION BROUGHT OUT ACCORDING TO AUTHORITATIVE INFORMATION, THAT JOHNSON ATTACKED THE FAR EASTERN SITUATION AS ONE REQUIRING PROMPT, POINTED ACTIONS. HE MANEUVERED TO GET THE GOVERNMENT TO TRY TO SAVE FORMOSA, TO AVOID THE HANDS-OFF POLICY THAT IT NOW HAS PROCLAIMED. HE HAD PLANS TO COMMIT MOST OR ALL OF A $75,000,000(M) FAR EASTERN ANTI-COMMUNIST FUND WHICH CONGRESS VOTED MR.TRUMAN LAST FALL.

ACHESON TOOK A DIFFERENT LINE. HE ARGUED AS HE HAS NOW SAID PUBLICLY, THAT THE COMMUNIST PROBLEM IN ASIA CANNOT BE SOLVED PRIMARILY BY MILITARY MEANS BUT MUST BE WORKED OUT IN TERMS OF THE "REVOLUTIONARY FORCES" SWEEPING THAT PART OF THE WORLD. THESE FORCES, HE SAID, ARE DRIVING TOWARD TRUE NATIONAL INDEPENDENCE AND BETTER LIVING CONDITIONS.

ACHESON THEREFORE HELD OUT AGAINST AMERICAN ACTION TO KEEP FORMOSA FROM THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS, ARGUING SUCH ACTION WOULD BRAND THIS COUNTRY AS A LAND-GRABBING, IMPERIALIST POWER.

SINCE RUSSIA IS STEALING HUGE AREAS OF NORTH CHINA, HE CONTENDED, RUSSIA IS REALLY THE NEW CANDIDATE FOR THE ANTI-IMPERIALIST HATREDS OF THE ASIATIC PEOPLES AND FORMOSA WAS NOT WORTH THE RISK THAT THE UNITED STATES MIGHT DIRECT THESE HATREDS TO ITSELF.

ACHESON HAS MADE ONE START ON APPLYING HIS POLICY BY ACCUSING RUSSIA IN EXTRAORDINARILY BLUNT LANGUAGE OF DISMEMBERING AND SWALLOWING UP MANCHURIA, OUTER MONGOLIA, INNER MONGOLIA AND SINKIANG.

HE ALSO HAS URGED CONGRESS TO PASS LEGISLATION UNDER WHICH THE UNITED STATES (1) COULD BEGIN TO GIVE SCIENTIFIC AND INDUSTRIAL HELP TO THE ASIATIC PEOPLES WHO WANT IT, IN ORDER TO RAISE THEIR LIVING STANDARDS, AND (2) COULD ALSO STIMULATE PRIVATE INVESTMENTS IN THAT AREA.

IN SOME RESPECTS THE FAR EASTERN POLICY HAS REACHED THE STAGE WHERE GENERAL EUROPEAN POLICY WAS THREE OR FOUR YEARS AGO.

AMERICAN LEADERS THEN HOPED THAT THE PEOPLE OF WESTERN EUROPE WITH AMERICAN ECONOMIC HELP WOULD BLOCK COMMUNIST EXPANSION. WITH THE ADVENT OF THE MARSHALL PLAN FOR EUROPEAN RECOVERY, THAT HOPE WAS BORNE OUT AND THE EUROPEAN LINE AGAINST SOVIET COMMUNIST POWER WAS FINALLY MADE FIRM IN THE ATLANTIC PACT.

BUT WITH FAR GREATER PROBLEMS OF ECONOMIC NEED AND POLITICAL INSTABILITY, THE ASIATIC PEOPLES DO NOT HOLD OUT THE SAME PROSPECTS OF REACTING STRONGLY AGAINST COMMUNIST APPEALS. NOR DOES AMERICAN POLICY AS ACHESON HAS NOW OUTLINED IT PROVIDE THEM WITH ANY HOPE OF THE BILLIONS OF DOLLARS WORTH OF GOODS WHICH THE UNITED STATES WAS WILLING TO PROMISE THE WESTERN EUROPEANS.

EVEN AMONG ACHESON'S ASSOCIATES THERE IS CONSIDERABLE UNCERTAINTY AS TO HOW EFFECTIVE THE AMERICAN STRATEGY WILL BE, THEREFORE, IN ACTUALLY BLOCKING COMMUNIST EXPANSION IN ASIA WHERE SOME COUNTRIES ARE CONCERNED.

THERE APPEARS TO BE, IN FACT, SOMEWHAT STRONGER HOPE THAT THE CHANCES OF TITOISM IN CHINA OR OF AN EVENTUAL BREAK BY THE CHINESE PEOPLE AWAY FROM COMMUNISM ARE THE REALLY VULNERABLE POINTS IN THE COMMUNIST POSITION IN ASIA. THE EXAMPLE OF WHAT HAPPENED TO THE RUSSIANS IN YUGOSLAVIA OBVIOUSLY DOMINATES MUCH OF THE STATE DEPARTMENT'S THINKING ABOUT WHAT COULD HAPPEN TO THEM IN CHINA.

PHILADELPHIA,JAN.14-(AP)-PAUL-HENRI SPAAK, PRESIDENT OF THE EUROPEAN CONSULTATIVE ASSEMBLY, DECLARED IN A SPEECH HERE TODAY THAT THE UNITED NATIONS "WILL ONLY WORK WHEN THE RIGHT OF VETO GRANTED TO THE BIG FIVE WILL HAVE BEEN ABOLISHED."

THE BELGIAN SOCIALIST LEADER AND FRONT RANK EUROPEAN STATESMAN, SPOKE FROM EXPERIENCE. HE WAS THE FIRST PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED NATIONS GENERAL ASSEMBLY. SPAAK SUGGESTED THAT THE VETO POWER SHOULD BE REPLACED WITH RULES GIVING BIGGER NATIONS MORE VOTES ACCORDING TO THEIR IMPORTANCE.

SPAAK WAS SPEAKING AT A UNIVERSITY OF PENNSYLVANIA FOUNDER'S DAY EXERCISE. HE DEVOTED NEARLY HALF HIS SPEECH TO A PLEA FOR FULLER BRITISH PARTICIPATION IN EFFORTS TO UNITE EUROPE. THE CONSULTATIVE ASSEMBLY OF THE COUNCIL OF EUROPE OVER WHICH SPAAK PRESIDES WAS FORMED LAST YEAR TO PROMOTE EUROPEAN UNION. SPAAK IS A FOREMOST SPOKESMAN FOR EUROPEAN UNION INTO SOMETHING LIKE THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

SPAAK SAID THAT ALTHOUGH SPEECHES BY WINSTON CHURCHILL AND ERNEST BEVIN OF BRITAIN HAD AWAKENED EUROPE TO THE NEED FOR UNION, BRITAIN NOW HANGS BACK. THE REASON, HE SAID WAS THAT BRITAIN, "WHO FOR CENTURIES HAS ALWAYS BEEN DRAWN INTO OUR (CONTINENTAL) QUARRELS, HAS ALWAYS REFUSED TO PROCLAIM, UNRESERVEDLY, HER EUROPEAN CHARACTER."

SPAAK SAID THERE "IS TODAY NO REALLY GREAT POWER IN EUROPE... GREAT BRITAIN CAN NO LONGER BE THE BEAM OF A BALANCE THE SCALES OF WHICH NO LONGER EXIST... SHE MUST BE A POSITIVE AND ACTIVE ELEMENT IN EUROPE."

BRITAIN, HE CONTINUED, "MUST BEWARE" OF TURNING AWAY FROM EUROPE. UNITED EUROPE NEEDS BRITAIN, HE SAID, TO COUNTERBALANCE GERMANY.

(ADVANCE) LAKE SUCCESS, JAN.14-(AP)-UNITED NATIONS LEADERS SAID TONIGHT THEY HOPE 1950 WILL BRING EAST-WEST PEACE, ESPECIALLY ON ATOMIC PROBLEMS.

THEIR STATEMENTS WERE MADE IN A WEEKLY RADIO PROGRAM "MEMO FROM LAKE SUCCESS" (CBS AND CBC) BROADCAST IN CANADA AND THE UNITED STATES.

JAN 14 1950

TRYGVE LIE, U.N.SECRETARY GENERAL, SAID "MY MOST CHERISHED HOPE FOR THE COMING YEAR IS FOR AN IMPROVEMENT IN EAST-WEST RELATIONS, IN PARTICULAR SOME PROGRESS IN THE FIELD OF ATOMIC ENERGY CONTROL. I AM AFRAID THE TIME IS RUNNING SHORT."

ASSEMBLY PRESIDENT CARLOS P.ROMULO SAID IN THE RECORDED BROADCAST "THE DESIRE OF MY HEART AND, I AM SURE, OF ALL HEARTS OF GOOD WILL IS THAT THE NATIONS OF THE WORLD SHOULD COME TO A CONCLUSIVE AGREEMENT TO DO AWAY PERMANENTLY WITH ATOMIC WEAPONS AND TO ESTABLISH THE USE OF NUCLEAR ENERGY FOR THE EXCLUSIVE ENDS OF PEACE AND HUMAN ADVANCEMENT."

RALPH BUNCHE, DIRECTOR OF THE TRUSTEESHIP DIVISION, VOICED A HOPE "THAT WISE STATESMANSHIP WILL ELIMINATE THE RIFT BETWEEN WEST AND EAST, AND WILL FIND AGREEMENT ON A BASIS FOR THE EFFECTIVE CONTROL OF ATOMIC WEAPONS." HE ALSO CALLED FOR PROGRESS TOWARD POLITICAL AND ECONOMIC LIBERATION OF COLONIAL PEOPLES."

LUDWIK RAJCHMANN, POLISH CHAIRMAN OF THE EXECUTIVE BOARD OF THE U.N. INTERNATIONAL CHILDREN'S EMERGENCY FUND, SAID "IF THE COLD WAR CONTINUES, THE CONTINUATION OF EVEN SUCH AN ACTIVITY AS UNICEF WILL BE COMPROMISED."

more

ROMULO ASKED, "SHALL THE ATOM BOMB PERPETUALLY CONFRONT HUMANITY AS A MENACE OR SHALL IT CEASE TO EXIST BY THE AGREEMENT OF ALL MEN OF GOOD-WILL?

"SUCH IS THE QUESTION BEFORE US NOW, AND LET ME, FOR ONE, EXPRESS THE SUPREME HOPE THAT IN THE YEAR 1950 THE PEOPLES OF THE EARTH WILL SEE THE END OF THIS DREADEST OF ALL FEARS EVER TO PLAGUE THEIR MINDS SINCE THE BEGINNING OF RECORDED HISTORY. X X X

"SO FAR WE HAVE FAILED TO REACH AN (ATOMIC) AGREEMENT, BUT I HAVE GOOD REASON TO ASSERT THAT THE EFFORTS BEING EXERTED IN THE DIRECTION OF AN UNDERSTANDING ARE HONEST AND SINCERE."

LAKE SUCCESS, JAN. 14-(AP)-THE UNITED NATIONS SECURITY COUNCIL PLANS TO GO AHEAD WITH NORMAL WORK DESPITE THE LATEST SOVIET WALKOUT.

THE TEN REMAINING NATIONS ON THE COUNCIL INTEND TO IGNORE RUSSIA'S CHALLENGE THAT COUNCIL ACTIONS ARE NOT LEGAL AS LONG AS NATIONALIST CHINA HOLDS ITS BIG POWER SEAT IN THE 11-NATION SECURITY ORGAN.

THE RUSSIANS YESTERDAY LOST THEIR FIGHT TO UNSEAT CHINESE NATIONALIST DELEGATE T.F.TSIANG. SOVIET REPRESENTATIVE JAKOB MALIK QUIT THE COUNCIL CHAMBER IN HIS SECOND WALKOUT OF THE WEEK.

RUSSIA, INDIA AND YUGOSLAVIA--WHO HAVE RECOGNIZED THE CHINESE COMMUNIST GOVERNMENT--VOTED TO OUST THE NATIONALISTS HERE.

BRITAIN AND NORWAY, WHO ALSO HAVE RECOGNIZED THE CHINESE REDS, ABSTAINED. THEY CONTENDED EXPULSION WOULD BE PREMATURE UNTIL A MAJORITY OF THE 59 UNITED NATIONS SWITCHED RECOGNITION FROM THE NATIONALISTS TO THE COMMUNISTS.

VOTING AGAINST THE SOVIET DEMAND WERE THE UNITED STATES, FRANCE, CHINA, CUBA, ECUADOR AND EGYPT. SEVEN AFFIRMATIVE VOTES WERE NEEDED TO KICK OUT THE NATIONALISTS.

MALIK'S ACTION AND STATEMENTS WERE ATTACKED BY REMAINING MEMBERS. THEN, OVER YUGOSLAVIA'S OBJECTION, THE COUNCIL RESTORED TSIANG TO THE CHAIRMANSHIP HE HOLDS FOR JANUARY.

THE COUNCIL AT ONCE BEGAN CONSIDERATION OF A U.N. ASSEMBLY REQUEST FOR THE ARMAMENTS COMMISSION TO PROCEED WITH A WORLD-WIDE SURVEY OF NON-ATOMIC WEAPONS.

ACTION ON THE ARMS REQUEST IS ONLY A PROCEDURAL MATTER, REQUIRING A MAJORITY VOTE AND NOT THE ASSENT OF ALL THE "BIG FIVE" MEMBERS. THE COUNCIL HAS BEEN ASKED MERELY TO TRANSMIT A MESSAGE FROM THE ASSEMBLY TO THE COMMISSION.

BUT U.S. DELEGATE ERNEST GROSS DID THROW A DEFI...F ;HAL) TO THE RUSSIANS, THE STRONGEST PRONOUNCEMENT ANY OF THE BIG POWER PERMANENT MEMBERS OF THE COUNCIL YET HAS MADE ON THE QUESTION OF RUSSIAN WALKOUTS AND THEIR AFFECT. GROSS SAID:

"THE ABSENCE OF THE SOVIET REPRESENTATIVE WILL NOT PREVENT US FROM CONDUCTING THE BUSINESS TO WHICH WE ARE PLEDGED."

GROSS CALLED MALIK'S WALKOUT "A WHIM, MOTIVATED BY MALICE OR A DESIRE FOR PROPAGANDA."

TSIANG CONTINUED THE ARMS SURVEY QUESTION TO A MEETING HE CALLED FOR TUESDAY.

WHEN AND IF THE COUNCIL TAKES UP A MAJOR QUESTION IN RUSSIA'S ABSENCE, A MORE DEFINITE TEST OF GROSS' CHALLENGE WILL DEVELOP. FOUR YEARS AGO, WHEN SOVIET DELEGATE ANDREI GROMYKO WALKED OUT OF THE SECURITY COUNCIL ON IRAN'S ACCUSATIONS OF RUSSIAN AGGRESSION, BRITISH DELEGATE SIR ANDREW CADOGAN CONTENDED THAT RUSSIA'S ABSENCE COULD BE CONSIDERED ONLY AN ABSTENTION FROM VOTING.

IRAN LATER WITHDREW HER CHARGES AND NO FINAL DECISION WAS REACHED ON JUST WHAT THE COUNCIL COULD DO WHEN RUSSIA WAS NOT PRESENT.

THE RUSSIAN WALKOUT LEFT YUGOSLAVIA, AN ENEMY OF THE MOSCOW-DIRECTED COMINFORM, AS EASTERN EUROPE'S ONLY REPRESENTATIVE ON THE COUNCIL.

THE VOTE YESTERDAY AND RESTORATION OF TSIANG TO THE COUNCIL CHAIRMANSHIP STRENGTHENS HIS APPEARANCE BEFORE THE YEAR-ROUND LITTLE ASSEMBLY, WHICH MEETS MONDAY FOR THE FIRST TIME THIS YEAR. TSIANG PLANS TO PILE UP MORE EVIDENCE TO SUPPORT HIS CHARGE IN THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY THAT THE SOVIET UNION VIOLATED OLD TREATIES WITH NATIONALIST CHINA AND HELPED THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS TO POWER.

THE RUSSIANS WILL NOT BE THERE TO HEAR HIM. THEY HAVE ALWAYS BOYCOTTED THE LITTLE ASSEMBLY, CHARGING THAT IT IS ILLEGAL.

THERE WAS SOME BELIEF IN U.N. CIRCLES THAT YUGOSLAVIA, WHICH ALSO HAS BOYCOTTED THE LITTLE ASSEMBLY IN THE PAST, MIGHT SHOW UP MONDAY TO CHALLENGE TSIANG'S CREDENTIALS AND THE RIGHT OF THE CHINESE NATIONALISTS TO SIT IN OR APPEAR BEFORE THE ASSEMBLY.

BALTIMORE, JAN 14-(AP)-THE UNITED STATES' "WAIT-UNTIL-THE-DUST-SETTLES-POLICY" IN CHINA IS THE BEST COURSE FOR IT TO FOLLOW, OWEN LATTIMORE SAID TODAY.

LATTIMORE, AN AUTHORITY ON THE FAR EAST, IS DIRECTOR OF THE HINES PAGE SCHOOL OF INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS AT THE JOHNS HOPKINS UNIVERSITY HERE.

HE HAS JUST RETURNED FROM INDIA, WHERE HE ATTENDED A JOINT CONFERENCE OF THE INDIAN COUNCIL OF WORLD AFFAIRS AND THE INSTITUTE OF PACIFIC RELATIONS.

LATTIMORE SAID SECRETARY OF STATE DEAN ACHESON "LET HIMSELF IN FOR SOME BAD PUBLICITY, BUT THE STARK TRUTH IS THAT AT THE TIME HE HAD TO WAIT FOR THE DUST TO SETTLE BEFORE HE COULD, AS A RESPONSIBLE SECRETARY OF STATE, SEE WHERE THE NEXT MOVE WOULD LEAD US."

HE SUGGESTED THAT THE U.S. TAKE ITS TIME ABOUT RECOGNIZING THE COMMUNIST GOVERNMENT IN CHINA, BUT ADDED:

"RECOGNITION DOES NOT MEAN APPROVAL. THIS IS A FACT THAT MANY AMERICANS DO NOT SEEM TO REALIZE."

HE DECLARED THAT ONE REASON THAT BRITAIN HAS RECOGNIZED THE RED REGIME WHILE AMERICA HAS NOT IS THAT IN THE U.S. THE QUESTION HAS BECOME A PARTY ISSUE. IN BRITAIN, HE POINTED OUT, RECOGNITION WAS SUPPORTED BY THE CONSERVATIVE OPPOSITION AS WELL AS THE LABOR GOVERNMENT.

ANOTH REASON, LATTIMORE SAID, WAS THAT BRITAIN "HAS EIGHT TIMES AS MUCH TRADE WITH CHINA THAN WE DO."

NIGHT LEAD CHINA (600)

WASHINGTON, JAN.14-(AP)-IN CONTEMPT OF AMERICAN PROTESTS, THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS TODAY SWARMED IN AND TOOK OVER THE UNITED STATES CONSULATE OFFICE IN PEIPING.

AMERICAN PATIENCE SNAPPED.

THE STATE DEPARTMENT IMMEDIATELY ORDERED ALL ITS OFFICIAL PERSONNEL OUT OF RED CHINA. IT REPORTEDLY ACTED WITH PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S DIRECT APPROVAL.

IT BLASTED AT THE COMMUNISTS' LATEST ANTI-AMERICAN MOVE AS "A FLAGRANT VIOLATION OF OUR TREATY RIGHTS AND OF THE MOST ELEMENTARY STANDARI OF INTERNATIONAL USAGE AND CONDUCT."

ANGRY U.S.LAWMAKERS DENOUNCED THE INVASION AND SEIZURE OF AMERICAN PROPERTY IN THE STRONGEST TERMS. REPUBLICANS REDOUBLED THEIR CRITICISI OF THE ADMINISTRATION'S HANDLING OF FAR EASTERN AFFAIRS. SEVERAL SAID THIS LATEST INSULT SHOULD RULE OUT ALL POSSIBILITY OF U.S.RECOGNITION OF THE CHINESE COMMUNIST REGIME.

SENATOR KEFAUVER (D-TENN) DECLARED BLUNTLY:

"WE SHOULD CLASSIFY THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS AS OUTLAWS AND CEASE TO DO BUSINESS WITH THEM."

SENATOR KNOWLAND (R-CALIF), RILED FOR MONTHS BY THE STATE DEPARTMENT'S HANDLING OF THE TENSE FAR EASTERN SITUATION, DEMANDED THE RESIGNATION OF ALL ADMINISTRATION OFFICIALS RESPONSIBLE FOR AMERICAN POLICY THERE.

HE SAID HE WAS THINKING PRINCIPALLY OF W.WALTON BUTTERWORTH, ASSISTANT SECRETARY OF STATE FOR FAR EASTERN AFFAIRS. KNOWLAND ADDED, HOWEVER:

"IF THE POLICIES OF THE FAR EASTERN DIVISION ARE APPROVED BY SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON, THE SHOE FITS HIM, TOO."

THE STATE DEPARTMENT BROKE THE NEWS OF THE PEIPING CONSULATE SEIZURE IN A LENGTHY ANNOUNCEMENT, DOCUMENTED WITH COPIES OF PROTESTS FILED IN ADVANCE WITH CHINESE COMMUNIST GENERALS.

ORDERS FOR THE SEIZURE OF SOME FRENCH AND DUTCH PROPERTY IN PEIPING ALSO WERE REPORTED TO HAVE BEEN ISSUED BY THE COMMUNISTS. OFFICIALS HERE DID NOT KNOW WHETHER THOSE ORDERS HAD BEEN CARRIED OUT.

THE UNITED STATES IS RECALLING 135 AMERICAN FOREIGN SERVICE OFFICERS AND THEIR DEPENDENTS. OF THOSE, 36 ARE IN PEIPING, WHERE CONSUL GENERAL O.EDMUND CLUBB HAS BEEN IN CHARGE.

THE STATE DEPARTMENT SAID THE SEIZURE OF THE CONSULATE OFFICE IN THAT CHINESE COMMUNIST CAPITAL WAS CARRIED OUT QUIETLY AND WITHOUT VIOLENCE. NONE OF THE AMERICANS HAD BEEN ARRESTED; ALL WERE SAID TO BE SAFE.

THE GRAVITY OF THE AMERICANS' SITUATION BEGAN TO BECOME APPARENT JAN.6 WHEN THE COMMUNIST MILITARY AUTHORITIES ISSUED A PROCLAMATION CALLING FOR SEIZURE OF FORMER FOREIGN MILITARY BARRACKS IN PEIPING. THOSE BARRACKS, LONG SINCE CONVERTED INTO OFFICES OR CIVILIAN LIVING QUARTERS IN THE CASE OF THE UNITED STATES, HAVE BEEN HELD BY FOREIGN GOVERNMENTS UNDER TREATIES RUNNING BACK A HALF CENTURY TO THE TIME OF THE BOXER REBELLION.

THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS CONTEND THOSE ARE "UNEQUAL" TREATIES AND THE PROCLAMATION SAID SUCH PACTS "HAVE NOW BEEN ABOLISHED."

BETWEEN JANUARY 6 AND TODAY THE UNITED STATES HAD REPEATEDLY PROTESTED TO THE COMMUNIST AUTHORITIES AGAINST THEIR ANNOUNCED PLAN TO TAKE OVER THE AMERICAN PROPERTY. AT AMERICAN REQUEST, THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT HAD ALSO INTERVENED IN THE CASE.

COMMUNIST AUTHORITIES WERE TOLD IN ADVANCE THAT IF THEY WENT THROUGH WITH THE SEIZURE THE UNITED STATES WOULD WITHDRAW ALL AMERICAN OFFICIAL PERSONNEL FROM COMMUNIST CHINA.

THIS PERSONNEL IS DIVIDED AMONG THE CITIES OF PEIPING, TIENTSIN, SHANGHAI, TSINGTAO AND NANKING. NANKING IS THE FORMER NATIONALIST CAPITAL OF CHINA AND THE STAFF THERE INCLUDES SOME JUNIOR EMBASSY OFFICERS.

JAN 14 1950

THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT, WITH THIS COMPLETE BREAK IN ALL SEMI-OFFICIAL CONTACT BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES AND RED CHINA, HAS AGREED TO LOOK AFTER AMERICAN INTERESTS AND PROPERTY THERE.

THE STATE DEPARTMENT SAID ARRANGEMENTS FOR THE ACTUAL WITHDRAWAL OF AMERICAN OFFICIALS AND THEIR FAMILIES WILL BE MADE AS QUICKLY AS POSSIBLE.

"ANY FACILITIES FOR EVACUATION FROM CHINA WHICH ARE ARRANGED FOR OUR OFFICIAL PERSONNEL WILL BE MADE AVAILABLE FOR ALL AMERICAN CITIZENS WHO DESIRE TO DEPART," THE STATE DEPARTMENT ANNOUNCEMENT SAID.

IT WAS NOT BELIEVED HERE, HOWEVER, THAT MANY OF THE 3,000 BUSINESSMEN, MISSIONARIES AND OTHER AMERICANS STILL IN CHINA WOULD HEED THE IMPLIED ADVICE TO GET OUT.

EXPLAINING THE ORDER FOR WITHDRAWAL OF AMERICAN DIPLOMATIC PERSONNEL ASSISTANT SECRETARY BUTTERWORTH TOLD A NEWS CONFERENCE:

"NO ONE CAN KEEP REPRESENTATIVES IN A FOREIGN COUNTRY IF THE FOREIGN COUNTRY DOESN'T WISH THEM TO BE THERE."

THE ACTUAL INVASION AND SEIZURE OF THE PREMISES OF THE AMERICAN CONSULATE GENERAL WAS EFFECTED BY CHINESE COMMUNIST POLICE AND FOUR

CIVILIAN OFFICIALS, THE STATE DEPARTMENT SAID, AT 9:50 A.M.TODAY (CHINA TIME) OR 8:50 P.M.YESTERDAY, EASTERN STANDARD TIME.

THE AMERICAN STAFF IN PEIPING HAS OCCUPIED FOUR COMPOUNDS, WHICH ARE WALLED ENCLOSURES OF RESIDENCES AND OFFICES. THE MOST IMPORTANT WAS THE ONE IN WHICH THE CONSULATE OFFICES OPERATED. THAT WAS THIS ONE THE REDS TOOK OVER.

AMERICANS IN THAT COMPOUND MOVED WITHOUT MOLESTATION INTO THE ADJOINING COMPOUND WHICH FOR THE MOMENT AT LEAST WAS NOT DISTURBED.

SOME OF THE OFFICIAL RECORDS IN THE CONSULATE OFFICES HAVE BEEN DESTROYED, BUTTERWORTH SAID, AND SOME HAVE BEEN REMOVED. THIS WAS ALSO TRUE OF THE MATERIALS USED IN SENDING CODE MESSAGES TO THE GOVERNMENT IN WASHINGTON; SOME WERE DESTROYED SOME WERE REMOVED.

SO FAR COMMUNICATION BETWEEN PEIPING AND WASHINGTON HAVE NOT BEEN DISRUPTED AND OFFICIALS ARE HOPEFUL THEY WILL NOT BE. THEY ARE ALSO HOPEFUL THAT THEY WILL ENCOUNTER NO EXTRAORDINARY DIFFICULTIES IN ARRANGING TO GET THE STATE DEPARTMENT PEOPLE OUT OF CHINA. THE ARRANGEMENTS MAY TAKE A MONTH OR MORE TO COMPLETE.

CHAIRMAN CONNALLY (D-TEX) OF THE SENATE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE SAID IN A STATEMENT THAT THE CHINESE COMMUNIST GOVERNMENT MUST MAKE AMENDS FOR ITS "UTTER DISREGARD" OF INTERNATIONAL OBLIGATIONS OR THE UNITED STATES WILL NEVER RECOGNIZE IT.

CONNALLY SAID THAT NO NATION IS ENTITLED TO RECOGNITION "THAT DOES NOT RESPECT INTERNATIONAL LAW AND DOES NOT RESPECT THE REPRESENTATIVES OF OTHER GOVERNMENTS AND THE RIGHTS OF THEIR CITIZENS."

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS MUST BE BASED ON LAW, RESPECT FOR OTHER NATIONS, AND REGARD FOR THE RIGHTS OF OTHER NATIONS AND PEOPLE, CONNALLY SAID--"WE SHALL INSIST UPON THESE FUNDAMENTALS."

CHAIRMAN KEE (D-W.VA.) OF THE HOUSE FOREIGN AFFAIRS COMMITTEE SAID "THE ONLY THING TO DO IS SIMPLY BREAK OFF ALL RELATIONS WITH THE COMMUNISTS AND GET OUR PEOPLE OUT."

THE REPUBLICANS HAD BARBED COMMENTS A-PLENTY.

SENATOR BREWSTER (R-MAINE) SAID THE COMMUNISTS HAVE "SLAMMED THE OPEN DOOR OF CHINA IN OUR FACES." SENATOR YOUNG (R-ND) CALLED THE SEIZURE "A NATURAL RESULT OF OUR WEAK-KNEED POLICY IN CHINA." SENATOR BRIDGES (R-NH) SAID U.S.POLICY IN ASIA HAS BEEN ONE OF CONTINUAL APPEASEMENT AND RETREAT. THE CONSULATE SEIZURE, HE ADDED, "SHOULD MAKE IT EVIDENT THAT UNDER NO CONDITIONS SHOULD WE RECOGNIZE THE CHINESE COMMUNIST GOVERNMENT."

JAN 14 1950

"THIS," DECLARED SENATOR KNOWLAND, "IS WLWAYS THE RESULT OF PAYING INTERNATIONAL BLACKMAIL--APPEASEMENT IS BUT SURRENDER ON THE INSTALLMENT PLAN."

SENATE REPUBLICAN LEADER WHERRY OF NEBRASKA SAW THE DEVELOPMENT AS A "NATURAL SEQUENCE OF OUR ABANDONMENT OF NATIONALIST CHINA."

THE STATE DEPARTMENT SAID THE ACTUAL COMMUNIST REQUISITION ORDER FOR THE AMERICAN GOVERNMENT PROPERTY AT 22 LEGATION STREET IN PEIPING WAS ISSUED ON JANUARY 7, A DAY AFTER THE MILITARY AUTHORITIES GAVE OUT THEIR GENERAL PROCLAMATION.

"FOLLOWING THIS ACTION BY THE CHINESE COMMUNIST AUTHORITIES," THE STATE DEPARTMENT SAID, "THE U.S.GOVERNMENT TOOK EVERY POSSIBLE STEP TO INSURE THAT THE HIGHEST CHINESE COMMUNIST AUTHORITIES WERE AWARE OF THE SERIOUSNESS WITH WHICH WE WOULD VIEW AN ATTEMPT TO CARRY OUT THIS REQUISITION ORDER.

"WE NOT ONLY BROUGHT THE MATTER TO THE ATTENTION OF THE HIGHEST CHINESE COMMUNIST AUTHORITIES BUT ASKED THE GOOD OFFICES OF THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT WHICH INSTRUCTED ITS OFFICER IN CHARGE AT PEIPING ALSO TO BRING THE MATTER TO THE ATTENTION OF THE CHINESE COMMUNIST OFFICIALS AND TO STATE THAT THE U.S.GOVERNMENT WOULD BE COMPELLED TO WITHDRAW

ALL OFFICIAL AMERICAN PERSONNEL AND TO CLOSE ALL ITS ESTABLISHMENTS IF THE CHINESE COMMUNIST AUTHORITIES PERSISTED IN THIS MOVE."

AS LATE AS THURSDAY, THE STATE DEPARTMENT SAID, CONSUL GENERAL CLUBB SENT A NOTE TO THE COMMUNIST FOREIGN MINISTER, GENERAL CHOU EN-LAI, PROTESTING THE INTENDED SEIZURE.

THE NOTE WAS SUBSEQUENTLY RETURNED TO CLUBB--A GESTURE MEANING THAT IT HAD NOT EVEN BEEN CONSIDERED.

ON FRIDAY AFTERNOON, CLUBB WAS ORALLY NOTIFIED BY THE MILITARY CONTROL COMMISSION THAT THE CONSULATE PROPERTY WOULD BE REQUSITIONED AT 9 A.M.JAN.14. CLUBB REPLIED THAT SUCH AN ACTION WOULD BE AGAINST AMERICAN PROTESTS AND HE CONFIRMED HIS ORAL STATEMENT IN A FORMAL LETTER LATER IN THE DAY.

THE STATE DEPARTMENT SAID THE COMMUNIST ACTION IS PART OF THE PATTERN OF "MISTREATMENT OF AMERICANS" WHICH REACHED ITS PEAK IN THE LONG DETENTION OF CONSUL GENERAL ANGUS WARD AND HIS STAFF AT MUKDEN LAST YEAR.

THE SPECIAL PROPERTY RIGHTS WHICH THE UNITED STATES AND OTHER FOREIGN COUNTRIES HAVE HELD IN PEIPING DATE FROM A TREATY MADE IN 1901 FOLLOWING THE ANTI-FOREIGN BOXER REBELLION. THE PEIPING RIGHTS WERE REAFFIRMED IN A CHINESE-UNITED STATES TREATY OF 1943 IN WHICH THE UNITED STATES VOLUNTARILY GAVE UP ITS GENERAL EXTRATERRITORIAL PRIVILEGES IN CHINA.

WASHINGTON, JAN 14-(AP)-CHINESE COMMUNISTS INVADED THE U.S. CONSULATE IN PEIPING TODAY AND SEIZED AMERICAN GOVERNMENT PROPERTY.

DENOUNCING THE ACTION AS A FLAGRANT VIOLATION OF TREATY RIGHTS, THE STATE DEPARTMENT ANNOUNCED THE UNITED STATES IS GETTING OUT OF ALL RED CHINA.

"AT 9:50 AMM. ON JANUARY 14 THE PREMISES OF THE CONSULATE GENERAL WERE INVADED BY THE POLICE AND FOUR CIVILIAN OFFICIALS," THE ANNOUNCEMENT SAID. THIS WOULD BE 8:50 P.M. JANUARY 13, EASTERN STANDARD TIME.

RECALL ORDERS FOR ALL OF THE 135 OFFICIAL U.S. PERSONNEL IN THE COMMUNIST DOMINATED AREAS WERE ANNOUNCED ALONG WITH A REPORT ON THE RAID THAT DROVE AMERICANS OUT OF ONE OF THE FOUR CONSULAR COMPOUNDS IN THE RED CAPITAL.

THERE REMAINS A QUESTION ON THE CIRCUMSTANCES UNDER WHICH THE AMERICANS WILL BE ALLOWED TO GET OUT.

THE STATE DEPARTMENT SAID COMMUNIST OFFICIALS CARRIED OUT THE SEIZURE OF CONSULAR PROPERTY IN THE FACE OF WARNINGS, SOME DELIVERED THROUGH THE BRITISH WHO HAVE RECOGNIZED THE COMMUNIST REGIME, THAT THE RESULT WOULD BE WITHDRAWAL OF ALL U.S. REPRESENTATION.

THE WHITE HOUSE SAID PRESIDENT TRUMAN WAS BEING KEPT FULLY INFORMED ON THE SITUATION, BUT HAD NO COMMENT.

ANGRY DEMANDS AROSE IMMEDIATELY ON CAPITOL HILL THAT THE U.S. CLASSIFY CHINESE COMMUNISTS AS "OUTLAWS" AND SHUN ANY DIPLOMATIC DEALINGS WITH THEM.

THE ANNOUNCEMENT OF WITHDRAWAL OF OFFICIAL AMERICAN PERSONNEL FROM THE COMMUNIST-HELD COUNTRY ALSO PROMPTED REPUBLICAN ASSERTIONS THAT THIS COUNTRY IS REAPING THE RESULTS OF AN

"APPEASEMENT" POLICY.
SENATOR KEFAUVER (D-TENN) TOLD A REPORTER HE THINKS THE COMMUNIST INVASION OF THE AMERICAN COMPOUND AT PEIPING AS "A HORRIBLE DEVELOPMENT."
"WE SHOULD CLASSIFY THE CHINA COMMUNISTS AS OUTLAWS AND CEASE TO DO BUSINESS WITH THEM," KEFAUVER DECLARED.
SENATOR BRIDGES (R-NH) ASSERTED THAT THE COMMUNIST FORAY "SHOULD MAKE IT EVIDENT THAT UNDER NO CONDITIONS SHOULD WE RECOGNIZE THE CHINESE COMMUNIST GOVERNMENT."
"THEIR UTTER LACK OF RESPECT FOR THE U.S. GOVERNMENT HAS BEEN BROUGHT ABOUT, AT LEAST IN PART, BY OUR CONTINUAL APPEASEMENT AND RETREATING POLICY IN CHINA AND ASIA," HE DECLARED.
SENATOR YOUNG (R-ND) SAID HE THINKS THE COMMUNIST MOVE "IS A NATURAL RESULT OF OUR WEAK-KNEED POLICY IN CHINA."
CHAIRMAN CONNALLY (D-TEX) OF THE SENATE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE DECLINED COMMENT.
"THE STATE DEPARTMENT WILL HANDLE IT," HE SAID. "I DON'T HAVE ANYTHING TO SAY ABOUT IT."
SENATOR LUCAS OF ILLINOIS, THE DEMOCRATIC LEADER, TOLD A REPORTER THAT HE SEES NOTHING PARTICULARLY ALARMING IN THE SITUATION. HE SAID, HOWEVER, THAT HE BELIEVES THE ACTION WILL MAKE RELATIONS "A LITTLE MORE STRAINED" BETWEEN THE TWO COUNTRIES.

PROTESTS TO CHOU EN LAI, COMMUNIST FOREIGN MINISTER, AND OTHER RED LEADERS HAD INFORMED THEM OF THE GRAVE VIEW THIS COUNTRY WOULD TAKE OF ANY SUCH MOVE. THESE COMMUNICATIONS HAD ARGUED THAT IT WOULD VIOLATE TREATIES AND SHOW DISREGARD OF ELEMENTARY INTERNATIONAL USAGE.
THE REDS CARRIED OUT THEIR SEIZURE UNDER COLOR OF A PROCLAMATION FOR TAKING OVER FORMER FOREIGN MILITARY BARRACKS IN THE CITY.
THE STATE DEPARTMENT POINTED OUT THAT THE AMERICAN PROPERTY SEIZED, WHILE ONCE A BARRACKS, HAD BEEN CONVERTED LONG AGO TO QUARTERS FOR THE OFFICIAL CONSULAR OFFICES AND LIVING ACCOMMODATIONS FOR SOME AMERICAN PERSONNEL.
SOME RECORDS OF THE CONSULATE AND SOME COMMUNICATIONS CODE DATA WERE DESTROYED BY CONSULATE OFFICIALS AT PEIPING, THE STATE DEPARTMENT REPORTED.
DESTRUCTION OF RECORDS USUALLY IS RESERVED FOR SITUATIONS OF GREAT GRAVITY, ACCOMPANIED BY A PROSPECT OF WOBSE TO COME.
IN THAT CONNECTION OFFICIALS SAID THEY HAVE NO ASSURANCE THAT QUICK TRANSPORTATION OUT OF CHINA WILL BE ALLOWED THE AMERICAN OFFICIALS AND THEIR FAMILIES.
IT WAS RECALLED THAT CONSUL GENERAL ANGUS WARD AT MUKDEN WAS HELD FOR SIX MONTHS AFTER BEING ORDERED HOME, AND WAS ALLOWED TO LEAVE ONLY AFTER THE COMMUNISTS HAD IMPRISONED HIM AND PART OF HIS STAFF FOR A MONTH. THEY ACCUSED HIM OF SPYING AND OF BEATING A FORMER CHINESE EMPLOYE.
THERE WAS NO IMMEDIATE INDICATION WHETHER ANY SUCH TREATMENT IS IN STORE FOR CONSUL GENERAL O.EDMUND CLUBB, HIS AIDES AND THEIR FAMILIES, AND THE OTHER AMERICAN OFFICIALS IN RED CHINA.

IN ADDITION TO THEIR ACTION AGAINST AMERICAN GOVERNMENT PROPERTY AT PEIPING, THE COMMUNIST AUTHORITIES WERE ALSO REPORTED HERE TO HAVE ORDERED SEIZURE OF PROPERTY BELONGING TO THE FRENCH AND NETHERLANDS GOVERNMENTS.
WHETHER THERE WAS ANY ACTUAL PHYSICAL SEIZURE IN THE CASE OF THE FRENCH AND DUTCH HAD NOT BEEN REPORTED TO THE STATE DEPARTMENT.
ALL THESE ACTIONS WERE BASED ON THE PROCLAMATION FOR TAKING OVER "MILITARY BARRACKS AND OTHER INSTALLATIONS" HELD BY CERTAIN FOREIGN COUNTRIES UNDER TREATY RIGHTS IN CHINA.
ACCORDING TO THE STATE DEPARTMENT'S INTERPRETATION OF THIS PROCLAMATION IT COULD APPLY TO PROPERTY HELD BY THE BRITISH, WHO HAVE RECOGNIZED THE COMMUNIST REGIME, AND BY THE RUSSIANS ALSO. HOWEVER THERE WAS NO INFORMATION HERE TO INDICATE THAT ANY ACTION HAD BEEN TAKEN IN THE CASE OF THE BRITISH AND THE RUSSIANS.
THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT HAS AGREED TO LOOK AFTER AMERICAN INTERESTS IN CHINA FOLLOWING THE REMOVAL OF THE AMERICAN OFFICIAL PERSONNEL.
THERE ARE 36 IN THE AMERICAN SET-UP AT PEIPING.

COMMUNICATIONS WITH THIS GROUP HAVE NOT BEEN INTERRUPTED SO FAR.
THE 36 HAD NOT BEEN ARRESTED AT THE TIME THE ANNOUNCEMENT WAS MADE.

JAN 14 1950

THERE ARE 135 AMERICAN OFFICIALS AND DEPENDENTS THROUGHOUT COMMUNIST CHINA--AT PEIPING, TIENTSIN, SHANGHAI, TSINGTAO AND NANKING.
IN ADDITION THERE ARE AN ESTIMATED 3,000 NON-OFFICIAL AMERICAN CITIZENS IN COMMUNIST CHINA, AND THE STATE DEPARTMENT ANNOUNCED:
"ANY FACILITIES FOR EVACUATION FROM CHINA WHICH ARE ARRANGED FOR OUR OFFICIAL PERSONNEL WILL BE MADE AVAILABLE FOR ALL AMERICAN CITIZENS WHO DESIRE TO DEPART."

ASSISTANT SECRETARY OF STATE WALTON BUTTERWORTH SAID OF THE RECALL ORDER, "NO ONE CAN KEEP REPRESENTATIVES IN A FOREIGN COUNTRY IF THE FOREIGN COUNTRY DOES NOT WISH THEM TO BE THERE."
BUTTERWORTH SAID THERE ARE FOUR AMERICAN COMPOUNDS--BUILDINGS OR GROUPS OF BUILDINGS ENCLOSED BY A WALL--IN PEIPING AND THAT THE AMERICAN PERSONNEL HAD BEEN FORCED OUT OF ONE OF THEM AND INTO ANOTHER ADJOINING.
THE COMPOUND FROM WHICH THEY WERE FORCED OUT WAS THE ONE HOUSING THE OFFICIAL CONSULATE OFFICES.
BUTTERWORTH SAID THAT SOME OF THE UNITED STATES ARCHIVES HAVE BEEN DESTROYED BY THE CONSULATE STAFF AND SOME HAVE BEEN REMOVED FROM THE EVACUATED COMPOUND, ALSO THAT SOME OF THE EXTREMELY VALUABLE CODE MATERIALS HAVE BEEN DESTROYED AND SOME RETAINED BY THE PEIPING AMERICANS.
HE CALLED THE COMMUNIST SEIZURE "A COMPLETELY UNPRECEDENTED ACTION."
THE ANNOUNCEMENT DISCLOSED AMERICAN PROTESTS TO THE CHINESE COMMUNIST AUTHORITIES, INCLUDING FOREIGN MINISTER GENERAL CHOU EN LAI.

THESE PROTESTS CONTENDED THAT AMERICAN TREATY RIGHTS IN CHINA HAD BEEN FLAGRANTLY VIOLATED AND "ELEMENTARY STANDARDS" OF INTERNATIONAL CONDUCT HAD BEEN DISREGARDED.
"THIS VIOLATION OF AMERICAN CONSULAR PROPERTY," THE STATE DEPARTMENT ANNOUNCEMENT SAID, "HAS ARISEN IN ALMOST IMMEDIATE SEQUENCE TO THE HARSH AND UNJUSTIFIED TREATMENT OF U.S.CONSUL GENERAL ANGUS WARD AND HIS STAFF AT MUKDEN (WARD ARRIVED IN WASHINGTON ONLY TODAY AFTER A ROUNDABOUT TRIP FROM CHINA TO REPORT TO TOP GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS).

JAN 14 1950

"IT ALSO IS ONE IN THE LONG SERIES OF MISTREATMENT OF AMERICANS, WHICH INCLUDED THE BEATING OF VICE CONSUL OLIVE IN SHANGHAI AND THE CONTINUED DETENTION OF MESSRS.SMITH AND BENDERS, U.S.NAVY PERSONNEL."
(THIS WAS A REFERENCE TO MASTER SGT ELMER C.BENDER, A FLIER, AND NAVY CHIEF ELECTRICIAN WILLIAM C.SMITH, WHO HAVE BEEN PRISONERS OF THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS FOR MORE THAN 15 MONTHS.)

THE DEPARTMENT RELATED THAT ON JANUARY 6, "THE CHINESE COMMUNIST MILITARY AUTHORITIES ISSUED A PROCLAMATION FOR THE SEIZURE OF FORMER FOREIGN MILITARY BARRACKS IN PEIPING. IT WENT ON:

"IN OUR CASE, THE FORMER U.S.MILITARY BARRACKS HAS LONG SINCE BEEN CONVERTED INTO THE CONSULAR OFFICES. THE COMPOUND IN WHICH THIS BUILDING IS LOCATED ALSO CONTAINS RESIDENCES OCCUPIED BY MEMBERS OF THE CONSULATE GENERAL STAFF.

"ON JANUARY 7, THE COMMUNIST AUTHORITIES ADDRESSED IN ORDER TO THE CONSUL GENERAL FOR REQUISITION, UNDER THE PROCLAMATION, OF THE U.S. GOVERNMENT OCCUPIED PROPERTY AT 22 LEGATION STREET.

"THIS ADDRESS INCLUDES NOT ONLY OUR CONSULAR OFFICE BUT ALSO CERTAIN OF OUR RESIDENCES.

"FOLLOWING THIS ACTION BY THE CHINESE COMMUNIST AUTHORITIES, THE U.S.GOVERNMENT TOOK EVERY POSSIBLE STEP TO INSURE THAT THE HIGHEST CHINESE COMMUNIST AUTHORITIES WERE AWARE OF THE SERIOUSNESS WITH WHICH WE WOULD VIEW AN ATTEMPT TO CARRY OUT THIS REQUISITION ORDER.

"WE NOT ONLY BROUGHT THE MATTER TO THE ATTENTION OF THE HIGHEST CHINESE COMMUNIST AUTHORITIES BUT ASKED THE GOOD OFFICES OF THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT WHICH INSTRUCTED ITS OFFICER IN CHARGE AT PEIPING ALSO TO BRING THE MATTER TO THE ATTENTION OF THE CHINESE COMMUNIST OFFICIALS AND TO STATE THAT THE U.S.GOVERNMENT WOULD BE COMPELLED TO WITHDRAW ALL OFFICIAL AMERICAN PERSONNEL AND TO CLOSE ALL ITS ESTABLISHMENTS IF THE CHINESE COMMUNIST AUTHORITIES PERSISTED IN THIS MOVE.

"THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS APPARENTLY CHOSE TO IGNORE OUR REPRESENTATIONS AND AT 9:50 A.M.JANUARY 14 (8:50 P.M.JANUARY 13 WASHINGTON TIME) INVADED THE AMERICAN CONSULAR COMPOUND."

JAN 14 1950

THE SEIZURE OF THE U.S.PROPERTY, THE STATE DEPARTMENT DECLARED, VIOLATES TREATY RIGHTS GRANTED THE UNITED STATES IN 1901 AND REAFFIRMED IN A CHINESE-AMERICAN TREATY OF 1943 IN WHICH THIS COUNTRY GAVE UP ITS EXTRATERRITORIAL RIGHTS IN CHINA.

THE STATE DEPARTMENT ANNOUNCEMENT SAID THAT THE INSTRUCTIONS FOR RECALL OF ALL OFFICIAL AMERICAN PERSONNEL WERE BEING PREPARED AND INDICATED THAT THEY PROBABLY WOULD BE SENT MOMENTARILY.

BUTTERWORTH SAID IN RESPONSE TO QUESTIONS THAT THIS GOVERNMENT HAS ASSURANCE OF PROMPT TRANSPORTATION FOR THE AMERICAN OFFICIALS AND THEIR FAMILIES OUT OF CHINA.

IN THE CASE OF ANGUS WARD THE STATE DEPARTMENT OFFICIALLY ORDERED HIS RETURN FROM MUKDEN MORE THAN SIX MONTHS BEFORE THE COMMUNISTS WOULD PERMIT HIM TO TRAVEL.

IN THE MEANTIME THE COMMUNISTS ACCUSED WARD OF SPYING AND OF BEATING A CHINESE EMPLOYEE. THEY HELD HIM IN PRISON FOR A MONTH ALONG WITH FOUR EMPLOYEES BEFORE "CONVICTING" HIM OF VARIOUS MISDEEDS SO THAT FROM THE COMMUNIST POINT OF VIEW HE LEFT CHINA IN DISGRACE.

PEIPING IS THE CHINESE COMMUNIST CAPITAL BUT THERE IS NO AMERICAN EMBASSY, OF COURSE, IN A COUNTRY WHOSE GOVERNMENT THE U.S.DOES NOT RECOGNIZE.

WASHINGTON--INSERT FIRST LEAD CHINESE AFTER 34TH GRAF (FIRST GRAF OF A110WX) STARTING "THERE ARE 135 AMERICAN OFFICIALS AND DEPENDENTS," ETC. X X X AND NANKING.

BECAUSE STATE DEPARTMENT PERSONNEL FILES WERE CLOSED FOR THE WEEKEND, OFFICIALS SAID A COMPLETE ROSTER OF AMERICAN PERSONNEL IN CHINA COULD NOT BE COMPILED BEFORE MONDAY.

IN ADDITION, THERE ARE, ETC., 35TH GRAF.

WASHINGTON,JAN.14-(AP)-THE STATE DEPARTMENT TODAY RELEASED EXCERPTS FROM A STATEMENT BY DEPUTY UNDERSECRETARY DEAN RUSK IN WHICH HE SAID THAT "GREAT REVOLUTIONARY MOVEMENTS CAN BE PERVERTED--AS IN CHINA."

"BUT IN CHINA WE SEE A COMING CONFLICT BETWEEN CHINESE NATIONALISM AND RUSSIAN IMPERIALISM MASQUERADING IN THE GUISE OF INTERNATIONAL COMMUNISM," HE SAID. ADDRESSING A REGIONAL CONFERENCE OF THE WORLD AFFAIRS COUNCIL IN PHILADELPHIA YESTERDAY, HE ADDED:

"THIS CONFLICT IS FUNDAMENTAL AND WE SHOULD DO NOTHING ON OUR PART TO BLUR IT OVER OR TO MINIMIZE ITS IMPORTANCE."

IN A PHILADELPHIA DISPATCH YESTERDAY, THE ASSOCIATED PRESS QUOTED RUSK AS SAYING THE CHINESE COMMUNIST REVOLUTION IS "NOT RUSSIAN IN ESSENCE" AND DOES NOT AIM AT DICTATORSHIP.

ASSERTING THIS WAS NOT A CORRECT UNDERSTANDING OF HIS REMARKS, A STATE DEPARTMENT OFFICIAL GAVE OUT THIS EXCERPT OF THE PASSAGE IN QUESTION:

"WHEN WE TURN TO THE SITUATION IN THE FAR EAST THE QUESTION ARISES AS TO WHETHER OUR PRINCIPAL OBJECTIVE IN THAT AREA IS STABILITY. I DOUBT THAT WE AMERICANS WOULD WISH TO FREEZE THE SITUATION IN ASIA AS WE NOW FIND IT. THE ISSUE IS NOT STABILITY BUT THE DIRECTION OF REVOLUTION.

"FOR AT LEAST A HALF CENTURY ASIA HAS BEEN THE SCENE OF GREAT REVOLUTIONS. A NATIONALIST REVOLUTION SEEKING SELF-GOVERNMENT AND SELF-DETERMINATION; A POLITICAL REVOLUTION SEEKING A GREATER DEMOCRATIZATION OF THE EXERCISE OF PUBLIC POWER; ECONOMIC AND SOCIAL REVOLUTIONS AGAINST THE BURDENSOME INSTITUTIONS WHICH HAVE BEEN PARTLY RESPONSIBLE FOR THE POVERTY AND MISERY OF THE VAST POPULATIONS OF ASIA.

"WHEN WE LOOK AT THE PURPOSES OF THESE REVOLUTIONS WE FIND THEM FAMILIAR. THEY ARE FAMILIAR BECAUSE THEY ARE, IN A SENSE, OUR OWN REVOLUTION. THEIR IDEOLOGIES ARE FUNDAMENTALLY THE IDEOLOGIES OF THE BRITISH, FRENCH AND AMERICAN REVOLUTIONS--THE LIBERAL DEMOCRATIC REVOLUTIONS OF THE 17TH AND 18TH CENTURIES.

"THESE ASIATIC REVOLUTIONARY MOVEMENTS HAVE NOT BEEN COMMUNIST OR RUSSIAN INSPIRED; THEIR OBJECTIVE HAS NOT BEEN DICTATORSHIP OR AUTHORITARIANISM.

"WE HAVE FOUND THAT THESE GREAT REVOLUTIONARY MOVEMENTS CAN BE PERVERTED--AS IN CHINA."

(110) ANGUS WARD

WASHINGTON,JAN.14-(AP)-ANGUS WARD, FORMER AMERICAN CONSUL GENERAL IN MUKDEN, REPORTED TO THE STATE DEPARTMENT TODAY ON HIS RECENT IMPRISONMENT BY THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS.

THE VETERAN FOREIGN SERVICE OFFICER CONFERRED WITH OFFICIALS IN THE DEPARTMENT'S FAR EASTERN DIVISION. UNDERSECRETARY WEBB PLANNED TO TALK WITH HIM LATER IN THE DAY.

WARD HAS BEEN RESTING SINCE HIS RETURN TO THIS COUNTRY JANUARY 3. THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS ISSUED A DEPORTATION ORDER AGAINST HIM AND HIS STAFF FOLLOWING THE CONSUL GENERAL'S "TRIAL" ON CHARGES OF BEATING A CHINESE MESSENGER BOY. WARD DENIED THE COMMUNISTS' CHARGES. ON LEAVING CHINA HE TOLD REPORTERS THAT HE AND HIS GROUP HAD BEEN TREATED INHUMANELY BY THE REDS.

FR1138AES

NIGHT LEAD WARD (250)
WASHINGTON, JAN 14-(AP)-ANGUS WARD, FORMER U.S. CONSUL GENERAL AT MUKDEN, SAID TODAY THE SOVIET UNION APPARENTLY HAS REVIVED--AND EXPANDED--THE OLD CZARIST IMPERIALIST AIMS IN CHINA.
RUSSIA'S PRE-COMMUNIST POLICY IN THE FAR EAST, HE TOLD A NEWS CONFERENCE, INCLUDED "A DREAM OF ICE FREE PORTS AND A HOOKUP WITH THE ECONOMIC RESOURCES OF MANCHURIA."
"I HAVEN'T FOUND," HE SAID, "THAT THE RUSSIANS HAVE ABANDONED THEIR OLD IMPERIALIST ASPIRATIONS. INSTEAD THEY'VE ADDED SOME OF THEIR OWN. WHETHER THE CHINESE ARE GOING TO ENJOY IT, ONLY TIME AND EXPERIENCE WILL SHOW."
WARD SPOKE TO NEWSMEN AFTER REPORTING TO STATE DEPARTMENT OFFICIALS ON HIS LENGTHY IMPRISONMENT IN THE CITY OF MUKDEN BY CHINESE COMMUNISTS. FOR PART OF THAT TIME HE WAS IN JAIL AWAITING TRIAL ON CHARGES OF BEATING A FORMER CONSULATE EMPLOYE. HE AND HIS STAFF WERE "DEPORTED" DEC. 7.
WARD COMMENTED THAT HIS CLOSE CONFINEMENT IN MUKDEN LIMITED HIS ABILITY TO OFFER FIRST-HAND SUPPORT FOR SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON'S CHARGE THAT THE SOVIET UNION IS ANNEXING LARGE PARTS OF CHINA--INCLUDING MANCHURIA, THE PROVINCE IN WHICH MUKDEN IS LOCATED.
"CERTAINLY THERE IS ECONOMIC ATTACHMENT," HE SAID. "WHETHER THERE IS POLITICAL IS SOMETHING DIFFERENT."
"DON'T FORGET," HE SAID, "WE MOVED BUT A VERY FEW HUNDRED YARDS FROM THE COMPOUND TO THE OFFICE. THE ONLY THING WE KNEW WAS WHAT WE COULD SEE WITH OUR OWN EYES."

MORSE SAID THE CIVILIAN HEAD OF A MILITARY DEPARTMENT MUST CONSIDER THE PRIVATE VIEWS OF AN OFFICER IN DETERMINING IF THE MAN CAN BE TRUSTED IN CARRYING OUT POLICY.
HE ARGUED THAT THE CIVILIAN MILITARY LEADERS COULDN'T IGNORE AN OFFICER'S PRIVATE VIEWS JUST BECAUSE THEY ARE GIVEN TO A CONGRESSIONAL COMMITTEE.
WASH-X-X-X INSUBORDINATION.
THE ARGUMENT ERUPTED IN THE SENATE AFTER THE REPUBLICANS HAD OPENED UP ANOTHER ATTACK ON ADMINISTRATION POLICY IN THE FAR EAST.
SENATOR BRIDGES (R-NH) LED THE ASSAULT BY URGING THE GOVERNMENT TO "SAVE FORMOSA FROM THE COMMUNISTS." HE SAID THIS COUNTRY MUST BE PREPARED TO USE "BOLD METHODS" IF NECESSARY.
HE DID NOT DEFINE THE METHODS, BUT HE CALLED THE HANDS-OFF POLICY ON FORMOSA ANOTHER MUNICH AND PREDICTED THAT "ANOTHER APPEASEMENT WILL EVENTUATE IN ANOTHER WAR."

SENATOR WILEY (R-WIS) ALSO ENTERED THE DEBATE TO SAY HE FAVORS GIVING AID TO CHIANG KAI-SHEK IN THE DEFENSE OF FORMOSA.
KNOWLAND CALLED THE ADMINISTRATION'S MOVES IN CHINA A "BETRAYAL BY A SMALL GROUP OF MEN IN THE STATE DEPARTMENT WHO ARE WILLING TO ABANDON CHINA."
THE REPUBLICAN ATTACK BROUGHT A SHARP COMEBACK FROM CONNALLY. HE CHALLENGED THE GOP CRITICS OF MR.TRUMAN'S POLICY TO MAKE AN OPEN DEMAND FOR THE UNITED STATES TO SEND ITS OWN FORCES INTO FORMOSA.
"WHY DON'T THEY SAY 'SEND AN ARMY ON THE MARCH'?" HE ASKED.
"NO," CONNALLY ADDED, "THEY HAVEN'T GOT THE NERVE AND COURAGE TO VOTE THEIR CONVICTIONS--IF THOSE ARE THEIR CONVICTIONS."
EARLIER IN THE DAY, SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON HAD GONE BEFORE THE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE TO COMPLETE HIS REVIEW OF U.S. FOREIGN POLICY.
CONNALLY GAVE REPORTERS A BRIEF OUTLINE OF ACHESON'S DISCUSSION. HE SAID THE SECRETARY TOLD THE COMMITTEE: (1) THE STATE DEPARTMENT IS STUDYING CHINA'S PLACE ON THE UNITED NATIONS SECURITY COUNCIL WHICH IS BEING CLAIMED BY THE CHINESE COMMUNIST REGIME; (2) U.S. RELATIONS WITH LATIN AMERICA ARE GREATLY IMPROVED; AND (3) THE STATE DEPARTMENT BELIEVES SOUTH KOREA COULD FIGHT OFF AN INVASION FROM COMMUNIST-DOMINATED NORTH KOREA UNLESS "OTHER INFLUENCES" ARE BROUGHT TO BEAR.

HYDROGEN BOMB (800)
BY ELTON C.FAY
(ADVANCE) WASHINGTON, JAN.14-(AP)-THE TRUMAN ADMINISTRATION TODAY IS NEARING A MOMENTOUS DECISION ON WHETHER TO PUT THE HYDROGEN ATOM TO WORK TOWARD DEVELOPMENT OF A SUPER-BOMB FAR SURPASSING EVEN THE LATEST ATOMIC WEAPONS.
THE PROJECT HAS TAKEN ON URGENCY FROM THE DISQUIETING KNOWLEDGE THAT RUSSIA ALSO MAY BE WORKING DESPERATELY TOWARD THE SAME GOAL.
SCIENTISTS EXPLAINED THAT THE BASIC KNOWLEDGE AND THEORY FOR A HYDROGEN BOMB IS NOT AN EXCLUSIVE AMERICAN WEAPON. IT IS WIDELY KNOWN IN OTHER COUNTRIES.
A COMMITTEE WHICH HAS BEEN QUIETLY STUDYING THE DESIRABILITY OF SUCH A PROJECT SINCE LAST OCTOBER IS UNDERSTOOD TO BE ALMOST AT THE POINT OF RECOMMENDING THAT THE GOVERNMENT UNDERTAKE IT.
THE WHOLE SUBJECT OF A "HYDROGEN" BOMB IS SURROUNDED BY A DEEP AND PERVADING OFFICIAL SILENCE.
THE UNOFFICIAL SPECULATION THAT HAS GROWN UP AROUND THIS OFFICIAL SILENCE DURING RECENT WEEKS DOES NOT ATTEMPT TO ESTIMATE THE COST OF DEVELOPING A SUPER-BOMB. THE COST OF DEVISING AND MAKING THE FIRST ATOMIC BOMB WAS MORE THAN $2,000,000,000(B). IT HAS BEEN SUGGESTED THAT AT LEAST SOME OF THE EXISTING PLANT FACILITIES OF THE ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION, LIKE THOSE AT OAK RIDGE, TENN., OR HANFORD, WASH., COULD BE UTILIZED. BUT THE COST STILL WOULD BE GREAT.
MOREOVER, PRODUCTION OF HYDROGEN-TYPE BOMBS COULD NOT BE JUSTIFIED ON THE GROUND OF PROVIDING ENERGY WHICH COULD BE USED FOR PEACEFUL POWER PRODUCTION, AS IN THE CASE OF THE URANIUM BOMB PRODUCTION. THE THEORY OF A HYDROGEN-TYPE BOMB PRECLUDES ANY POSSIBILITY THAT ITS POWER COULD BE CONTROLLED AND HARNESSED. THEREFORE, WHATEVER THE COST, IT COULD BE CHARGED ONLY TO NATIONAL DEFENSE. SUCH A PROJECT WOULD DEAL IN DEATH ONLY.
THEREFORE, IF THE WHITE HOUSE AND CONGRESS, WITH THE ADVICE OF THE ATOMIC COMMISSION AND THE PENTAGON, DECIDE TO UNDERTAKE THE PROJECT THEY WOULD HAVE TO REST THEIR ARGUMENT FOR APPROPRIATIONS ON THE GROUND OF MILITARY SECURITY--AND NOTHING MORE.
WHATEVER THE THEORIES ON PAPER SHOW, ONLY THE INVESTMENT OF BIG MONEY AND SCIENCE CAN PROVE OR DISPROVE THAT SUCH A BOMB WILL EXPLODE OR CAN BE ASSEMBLED WITHOUT ACCIDENT.
STRANGELY, THE IDEA OF PRODUCING A HYDROGEN EXPLOSION IS OLDER THAN THE THEORY OF THE FISSION EXPLOSION OF URANIUM AND PLUTONIUM AS IN A-BOMBS.

JAN 14 1950

CURRENTLY, ATTENTION IS BEING GIVEN BY SCIENTISTS TO EXPERIMENTS STARTED BY ENGLISH PHYSICISTS BACK IN 1932, INVOLVING THE USE OF LITHIUM AND HYDROGEN. LITHIUM IS A SILVER-WHITE ELEMENT OF THE ALKALI FAMILY, AN EXTREMELY LIGHT METAL.
WRITING IN A RECENT ISSUE OF THE TECHNICAL PUBLICATION "POWER GENERATION," ANDREW W.KRAMER, ITS EDITORS, STATES THAT THIS COMBINATION OF LITHIUM AND HYDROGEN IS CAPABLE OF PRODUCING TWICE AS MUCH ENERGY PER POUND OF MATERIAL USED AS IS PROCURED IN THE DETONATION OF URANIUM

AND PLUTONIUM.

ALMOST OF EQUAL IMPORTANCE, THE MATERIALS ARE PLENTIFUL COMPARED WITH URANIUM, KRAMER POINTS OUT. HE SUGGESTS THE MOST SUITABLE MATERIAL FOR USE IN A BOMB WOULD BE LITHIUM HYDRIDE (CONTAINING LITHIUM AND HYDROGEN ATOMS) WHICH HE ESTIMATES WOULD COST ABOUT $12 A POUND. (THE ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION CLASSIFIES AS SECRET THE COST OF THE PROCESSED URANIUM METAL USED IN ATOMIC BOMB MANUFACTURE.)

UNTIL NOW, THE THEORY OF A LITHIUM-HYDROGEN BOMB HAS ENCOUNTERED THE OBSTACLE THAT A CHAIN REACTION (WHICH WOULD PRODUCE EXPLOSION) COULD BE POSSIBLE ONLY IF THE COMPOUND WAS SUBJECTED, AND THE REACTION STARTED, IN A TEMPERATURE OF MILLIONS OF DEGREES.

BUT, KRAMER CONTENDS, THE CONVENTIONAL A-BOMB COULD PRODUCE THE REQUIRED HEAT TO EXPLODE THE LITHIUM-HYDROGEN CHARGE. THE HEAT OF A CONVENTIONAL U-235 TYPE BOMB, HE ESTIMATES, IS MEASURABLE IN "THOUSANDS OF MILLIONS OF DEGREES."

IT IS BECAUSE THE LITHIUM-HYDROGEN REACTION CAN BE PRODUCED ONLY IN FANTASTICALLY HIGH TEMPERATURES THAT THERE IS APPARENTLY NO HOPE FOR USING IT AS A POWER SOURCE LIKE THE "REACTOR" POWER GENERATORS WITH WHICH THE ATOMIC COMMISSION NOW IS EXPERIMENTING.

THE THEORY OF THE LITHIUM-HYDROGEN EXPLOSION IS THAT THE ENERGY RELEASED WOULD BE TWICE THAT OF URANIUM FISSION.

BUT THERE HAS BEEN TALK--INCLUDING COMMENT BY SEN.JOHNSON (D-COLO)--THAT BOMBS 1,000 TIMES MORE POWERFUL THAN PRESENT ATOMIC WEAPONS WERE BEING DEVELOPED. THE AREA OF DEVASTATION PRODUCED BY SUCH A BOMB HAS BEEN UNOFFICIALLY GUESSED AT 40 SQUARE MILES, FAR BEYOND THE DESTRUCTIVE SCOPE OF ATOMIC BOMBS.

SOME SCIENTISTS HAVE BEEN REPORTED RELUCTANT TO WORK FURTHER ON DEVELOPMENT OF SO MIGHTY A WEAPON.

ITS USE COULD BE ONLY FOR MASS DESTRUCTION OF PLACES AND PEOPLE. IT WOULD NOT, AS MILITARY MEN PHRASE IT, BE "SELECTIVE" ENOUGH TO USE IN THE BATTLEFIELD AGAINST ENEMY TROOPS. THE ZONE OF DEATH MIGHT REACH OUT TO EMBRACE FRIENDLY FORCES. THE DAMAGE PRODUCED COULD MAKE THE BOMBED AREA UTTERLY USELESS AS A PATH FOR ADVANCE OR OCCUPATION BY GROUND FORCES.

ES1232AES

(ADVANCE) WASHINGTON, JAN.14-(AP)-A SECRET DISPATCH PICTURING SOVIET CORDIALITY TOWARD THE UNITED STATES IN THE "HONEYMOON" PHASE OF AMERICAN-SOVIET RELATIONS 16 YEARS AGO WAS MADE PUBLIC BY THE STATE DEPARTMENT TODAY.

THE CONFIDENTIAL REPORT WAS WRITTEN BY WILLIAM C.BULLITT, FIRST AMERICAN AMBASSADOR TO SOVIET RUSSIA, AFTER MAKING A 12-DAY VISIT TO MOSCOW FOLLOWING AMERICAN RECOGNITION OF THE U.S.S.R. IN 1933.

IN HIS MESSAGE ON JAN. 4, 1934 BULLETT TOLD THE STATE DEPARTMENT HE WAS TREATED SO CORDIALLY BY PRIME MINISTER STALIN, V.M.MOLOTOV AND OTHER SOVIET LEADERS THAT HE FEARED OTHER FOREIGN DIPLOMATS MIGHT BECOME JEALOUS OF THE UNITED STATES HAVING THE "INSIDE TRACK."

THE REPORT WAS INCLUDED IN A VOLUME OF SOME 600 DOCUMENTS FROM OFFICIAL ARCHIVES CONCERNED WITH AMERICAN FOREIGN RELATIONS IN 1933.

AMONG OTHER THINGS, BULLITT REPORTED:

1. STALIN DESCRIBED PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT AS "ONE OF THE MOST POPULAR MEN IN THE SOVIET UNION."

2. STALIN ASSURED BULLITT HE WOULD RECEIVE HIM "AT ANY TIME, DAY OR NIGHT," EVEN THOUGH THE SOVIET LEADER HAD PREVIOUSLY REFUSED TO SEE ANY FOREIGN AMBASSADORS.

3. MOLOTOV, LATER FOREIGN MINISTER, IS A MAN OF "GREAT POISE, KINDLINESS AND INTELLIGENCE."

4. SOVIET PRESIDENT KALININ TOLD BULLITT HE COULD GO ANYWHERE HE DESIRED IN RUSSIA BY PLANE.

5. MARSHAL KLIMENTI VOROSHILOV, SOVIET COMMISAR FOR MILITARY AFFAIRS, PROPOSED "A RELATIONSHIP OF THE UTMOST INTAMACY" BETWEEN AMERICAN AND SOVIET MILITARY AND NAVAL OFFICIALS.

BULLITT SAID STALIN EXPECTED AN ATTACK BY JAPAN IN THE SPRING OF 1934 AND WANTED TO BUY 250,000 TONS OF STEEL RAILS IN THE U.S. TO COMPLETE THE DOUBLETRACKING OF THE TRANS-SIBERIAN RAILWAY.

BULLITT'S DISPATCH WAS DRAFTED ABOARD THE STEAMSHIP WASHINGTON WHEN HE WAS ENROUTE BACK TO THE U.S. AFTER HIS FIRST OFFICIAL VISIT TO MOSCOW. BULLITT LATER BECAME A SEVERE CRITIC OF SOVIET POLICIES. HE DENOUNCED--AND WAS DENOUNCED BY--SOME OF THE OFFICIALS HE FOUND SO CORDIAL IN 1933.

OTHER DOCUMENTS GAVE EVIDENCE THAT PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT WAS ADVISED BY SECRETARY OF STATE CORDELL HULL, BULLITT AND OTHER OFFICIALS NOT TO RECOGNIZE THE SOVIET REGIME WITHOUT A PRIOR SETTLEMENT OF AMERICAN CLAIMS AGAINST RUSSIA WHICH ADDED UP TO $336,691,771(M). THE TERMS OF RECOGNITION PROVIDED FOR A SETTLEMENT, BUT IT WAS NEVER WORKED OUT.

WASHINGTON, JAN 14-(AP)-REP.WOLCOTT (R-MICH) PREDICTED TODAY THAT BRITAIN SHORTLY WILL ASK FURTHER FINANCIAL HELP FROM THIS COUNTRY WHICH HE SAID WILL COST AMERICAN TAXPAYERS $8,000,000,000 (B) IN "THE EQUIVALENT" OF A LOAN.

HE SAID THIS WAS THE TOTAL OF THE STERLING BALANCES THE BRITISH OWE INDIA, EGYPT AND OTHER COUNTRIES, AND THAT THE UNITED STATES WILL BE CALLED ON TO LIQUIDATE THAT DEBT BY ACCEPTING STERLING IN PAYMENT FOR ITS EXPORTS. THIS, HE SAID, WOULD BE HELD SUBJECT TO FUTURE CONVERSION.

WOLCOTT DECLARED IN A STATEMENT THAT "IT IS NOT EXPECTED THAT THE ADMINISTRATION WILL LABEL THIS $8,000,000,000 TRANSACTION AS A LOAN."

"THE HANDLING," HE SAID, "WILL BE A ROUNDABOUT MATTER TO AVOID CONSIDERATION BY CONGRESS."

BUT HE ASSERTED THAT THE "ARGUMENTS FOR THE LOAN WILL BE THE SAME ONES ADVANCED AT THE TIME OF THE ORIGINAL BRITISH LOAN OF $3,750,000,000 (B) NEGOTIATED IN MAY, 1946." HE LISTED THESE AS:

"THE NEED FOR FREE WORLD TRADE, CONVERTIBILITY OF CURRENCIES, MAINTENANCE OF FOREIGN MARKETS FOR OUR AGRICULTURAL AND INDUSTRIAL PRODUCTION, AND FULL EMPLOYMENT."

WOLCOTT DECLARED THAT "ALL WERE PROMISED BY ADMINISTRATION AND BRITISH OFFICIALS AT THE TIME THE ORIGINAL LOAN WAS MADE" BUT THAT "NONE OF THESE OBJECTIVES OR PROMISES WAS EVER ACHIEVED."

HIS STATEMENT ADDED:

"WHILE WE ARE SEEKING TO PREVENT THE SPREAD OF SOCIALISM IN THIS COUNTRY I DO NOT FEEL WE SHOULD GRANT THIS REQUEST."

PRECEDE WASHINGTON (220)
OAKLAND,CALIF.,JAN 14 (AP)-BIG FOUR-ENGINE PLANES ARE FLYING $43,700,000 (M) IN GOLD BARS FROM JAPAN TO NEW YORK.
EACH PLANE CARRIES ABOUT $6,500,000 ON THE LONG HAUL.
OFFICIALS OF TRANSOCEAN AIR LINES, CONTRACT CARRIERS, WOULDN'T CONFIRM THE OPERATION OR COMMENT ABOUT THE HEAVY GUARDS THAT SURROUND EACH PLANE AS IT ARRIVES.
IT WAS LEARNED, HOWEVER, THAT THE GOLD IS PROPERTY OF THE KINGDOM OF SIAM. ON OCT.5, LAST, THE UNITED STATES ORDERED GENERAL MACARTHUR TO RELEASE IT TO THAT COUNTRY. THE JAPANESE GOLD WAS UNCOVERED BY U.S.OCCUPATION FORCES, WHO FOUND IT "EARMARKED" FOR SIAM IN PAYMENT FOR JAPANESE PURCHASES.
THE FLIGHTS ORIGINATE IN TOKYO AND, FOR SECURITY REASONS, ARE SENT OVER VARIOUS ROUTES TO OAKLAND, AND THENCE TO THE FEDERAL RESERVE BANK IN NEW YORK. THE OPERATION HAS BEEN GOING ON FOR ABOUT TWO WEEKS, AND SHOULD BE COMPLETED NEXT WEEK.
SOME FLIGHTS ARE BY WAY OF THE ALEUTIANS; OTHERS TAKE THE MID-PACIFIC CROSSING.
HEAVILY ARMED GUARDS SURROUND EACH PLANE AS IT ARRIVES. THE SIX CREWMEN IN EACH SHIP ARE ARMED.
EACH CARGO CONSISTS OF ABOUT 13,500 POUNDS. THE GOLD IS SAID TO BE IN BARS OF VARIOUS SIZES, ENCASED IN HEAVY METAL CONTAINERS.

PLAN PROPOSED FOR BALANCING OF WORLD TRADE

LONDON, Jan. 15—(AP) A group of five independent experts tonight urged the United Nations to adopt a three to four year plan to balance world trade, and to establish machinery to automatically combat unemployment.

Declining employment over a three-month period would bring counter-measures into operation.

The experts—two Americans, one Britisher, a Frenchman and an Australian—proposed a conference of governments "of interested countries" to work out a joint program. In addition, various UN bodies would discuss the experts' recommendations.

8 Approaches Outlined

The experts outlined eight broad approaches the governments could adopt, both domestically and internationally, to achieve these goals.

On a world basis, they recommended that the individual governments:

1. Confer under the auspices of the UN Economic and Social Council to carve out a plan for eliminating the present structural lack of equilibrium in world trade.

2. Create a stable flow of international investment to the world's underdeveloped areas. This would, apparently, be in line with President Truman's Point Four program. The group suggested these investments be channeled largely through the International Bank for Reconstruction and Development.

3. Adopt a scheme to be operated through the International Monetary Fund to prevent the international spread of deflationary pressures.

The group proposed that the governments, at home:

1. Adopt and announce full employment goals.

2. Announce a comprehensive fiscal and production program for keeping on the road to full employment program lags behind for three months in a row.

4. Let the public in on price stabilizing and inflation - combating policies.

5. Bring legislative and administrative procedures in line to carry out the employment plan.

The group report was issued here by the United Nations Information Center. It was drawn up by Prof. John Maurice Clark of Columbia University; Prof. Arthur Smities of Harvard University, Prof. Nicholas Kaldor, fellow of King's College, Cambridge University; E. Ronald Walker, economic adviser to the Australian Department of External Affairs; Pierre Uri, economic and financial adviser to the Commissariat General du Plan, Paris.

Social Setup No Bar

It will be considered by the United Nations Economic and Employment Commission later this month and by the Economic and Social Council in February.

The experts expressed the belief that the objective of full employment can be realized, irrespective of the political and social institutions of each country. They said:

"Socialist countries or countries which have adopted a widespread system of central planning and control may promote full employment and stability as part of their general economic planning; private-enterprise economies would wish to rely to a far greater extent on the adaption of general fiscal and monetary policies to serve this end."

The experts said there could be no real improvement in the world trading setup until the chronic dollar shortage was attacked at its foundation.

Seek Investment Targets

In their recommendations for stable international investment, the five suggested that the lending countries fix annual targets for long-term, international investment over five-year periods.

The group urged that the International Bank's articles be amended to permit it to lend to and borrow from governments for general development purposes. The bank now can do so only on special projects.

JOBLESS RANKS GROW IN WESTERN GERMANY

FRANKFURT, Germany, Jan. 15—(AP) Business is booming in Western Germany and there are hundreds of thousands of new buildings needed—yet one out of every 10 employable persons is jobless.

Unemployment doubled last year, and now stands at the post-war record total of 1,558,000.

"Our industries cannot supply all these people with jobs and bread," Labor Minister Anton Storch told a press conference in Bonn last week.

Allied officials in Frankfurt predicted the job situation will get worse.

RUHR SAFEGUARDS ASKED

Unionists of 7 Nations Demand Reorganization for Peace

AACHEN, Germany, Jan. 15 (AP)—Anti-Communist trade unionists of seven nations demanded at a conference here today that the Ruhr, Germany's wartime coal and steel arsenal, be reorganized for peaceful purposes.

The conference was attended by United States, British, French, Belgian, Dutch and Luxembourg delegates, in addition to the Germans. All are members of the International Confederation of Free Trade Unions, formed last month in London.

A communiqué put out by the conference asked that deputies to the Ruhr Authority be appointed from trade unionists. It also called for guarantees to prevent trusts from regaining control of the area.

Production Gains in '49 Reported by Yugoslavia

BELGRADE, Jan. 15 (AP).—Production targets for the third year of Yugoslavia's five-year plan were more than achieved, government statistics showed today.

Theover-all figure on industry—taking 100 as an index—was 101 on realization of the five-year plan and 116 as compared with 1948 production. The figures offered no comparison with 1939, the last pre-war year.

There were weak spots. The automotive industry, perhaps the worst, realized only about 77 per cent of its target production during 1949, although the index figure in comparison with 1948 stood at 132.3 per cent.

Ousted French Reporter Leaves Czechoslovakia

Prague, Czechoslovakia, Jan. 15 (AP)—Miss Amber Bousoglou, expelled correspondent of the French Press Agency, left Prague today for Paris. Her request for a further extension of stay was rejected by the police.

Miss Bousoglou was one of four correspondents ordered to leave by the Czech Government. Eric Bourne of the Kemsley papers of Great Britain, left early last week.

Richard Kasischke, of the Associated Press, expected to leave this week. Rob Roy Buckingham, of the United Press, was still winding up his affairs.

The Communist-led Czech Government charged the four last January 6 with presenting an "unobjective" picture of Czechoslovakia to the Western world, failure to report all sides fairly and having "connections" with Czechs deemed reactionary by the Government.

Mainland Greeks Pray For Union With Island

Athens, Jan. 15 (AP)—Special prayers were recited in every Greek Orthodox Church today for the union of the Island of Cyprus with Greece.

The 140-mile-long island with its 500,000 inhabitants figures strongly in American-British strategy in the eastern Mediterranean.

The special prayers, recited at the order of Archbishop Spyridon, asked for fulfilment of the "Cypriot peoples' desire for union with Greece."

At the same time delegates from about 50 Greek labor unions, scientific institutions, chambers of commerce, bar associations and other organizations adopted a resolution declaring "the principle of self-determination which applied to the Indonesians, Burmese and other peoples will not remain idle at the expense of the Greek nation."

Populace 80 Per Cent Greek

The status of Cyprus has been a boiling issue since the war.

About 80 per cent of its population is Greek, but Phoenicians, Romans, Turks and others have ruled it since ancient times. It was an important British naval and air base during the war, and the United States has set up a $250,000 radio listening post there to eavesdrop on eastern Europe. An American-owned corporation works the copper mines once prized by the Romans.

Its former army camps housed 24,000 Jewish refugees intercepted by the British in their efforts to reach Palestine.

Two years ago the Greek Parliament unanimously appealed to Britain to permit the island to become Greek.

Warned Against Agitation

Early last December 10 members of Parliament asked the Government to press for the union, but Alexander Diomedes, then premier, told the people they must cease such agitation in the interest of collaboration with the country's "great allies."

A year ago Lord Winster, British governor who described the situation on the island as "Red rot," resigned. He was reported displeased that the Colonial Office did not permit him to take stronger measures to control the situation.

Communists on the island were reported at that time to be in the majority of mayors' offices in the island and to dominate the Pan-Cyprian Federation of Labor. It controlled 15,000 of the island's 18,000 organized workers, including those employed as civilians by the British civilian and military administrations. The largest newspaper was Communist.

Thousands Cast Votes In Cyprus

JAN 15 1950

Nicosia, Cyprus, Jan. 15 (AP)—Thousands of this Mediterranean Island's people voted today in a plebiscite held by the Greek Orthodox Church on union of Cyprus with Greece. Official results of the voting will be announced January 29.

An overwhelming majority of Cypriots are Greek. Britain has ruled the island as a colony since 1878.

A feature of the plebiscite was the co-operation of the church and the Communist party. The Communists agitating for self-government, dropped their own plans for a plebiscite and announced they would co-operate in the one conducted by the church.

British Aloof In Vote

The British refuse to recognize today's voting. They recently increased their garrison to 2,000 men to prevent disorder, but the soldiers remained out of sight today.

No incidents were reported to police who were on an alert all day.

Anyone who wanted to vote signed his name to documents in his parish church. He had his choice of signing one saying "we want enosis (union)" or one saying "we oppose enosis." Voting was open to all men and women over 18.

Four copies of whichever document was chosen had to be signed. The extras are to be sent to the British Government, the United Nations and the archives.

Paasikivi Finnish Candidate

Helsinki, Finland, Jan. 15 (AP)—Finland's selection campaign reached its climax today with formal announcement that 79-year-old President Juho K. Paasikivi has accepted the nomination to run for the post again.

The election will be conducted in two stages. Tomorrow and Tuesday, the people will vote for 300 electors who, on February 15, will meet in the Parliament building to name the president for a six-year term.

Paasikivi is expected by most political observers to be returned to office. A conservative independent, he is the official candidate of the Social Democratic Government party and also of the conservatives, the liberal Swedish party and the Progressive party. He is opposed by former Premier Mauno Pekkala, candidate of the Communist-dominated Popular Democrats; and Dr. Urho Kekkonen, speaker of Parliament and candidate of the strong Agrarian party.

To Put End To Rumors

Political observers said Passikivi's formal acceptance of the nomination was intended to put an end to rumors that he was not running. These rumors started after Vainoe Tanner, prominent Social Democrat, made a statement to the effect Paasikivi was not the candidate of the Social Democrats.

"It has not been announced in church that Paasikivi is the presidential candidate of the Social Democratic party," Tanner said.

This indicated a split within the party, since Premier Karl-August Fagerholm, Social Democrat, several times mentioned Paasikivi as the party's candidate.

Repeat Campaign Arguments

[In Moscow, Izvestia, official organ of the Soviet Government, declared that Finnish "reactionary parties" were preparing in secret another presidential candidate from the Tanner group in case Paasikivi "for some reason is unsatisfactory to them." The paper said the Finnish people will not even know whom they are voting for unless they vote for Pekkala.]

Arguments of the Popular Democrats, which have been picked up by the Russians in their attacks on the Finnish Government, were repeated at a campaign meeting last night.

Ville Pesse, secretary of the Communist party, said the presidential election will be a showdown between reactionary capitalism and democratic workers.

"The present Government," he said, "follows the line of the Anglo-American warmongers."

Paasikivi declared in a New Year's message that "there must be no enemies of the Soviet Union in Finland, only friends." His statement followed by only a few hours a Russian accusation that Finland was harboring more than 300 "war criminals" of Soviet origin.

Marshal Gustav Mannerheim, former president, who led the Finns in two wars against the Russians, will return from Switzerland on Tuesday to cast his vote. He has been staying in Switzerland for his health.

Premier Yen Speaks Hopefully

At a dinner tonight for Philip Jessup, newly arrived roving ambassador, Premier Yen Hsi-shan spoke hopefully of "our future counteroffensive on the mainland."

Yen appealed for the peoples of China and the United States to "overthrow Communist aggression hand in hand."

Jessup replied noncommittally that he would convey the Premier's sentiments to Washington, but expressed hope that "the traditional friendly relations between the peoples of China and the United States will continue."

President Truman has stated a policy of no further aid to Formosa aside from the long-standing small Economic Co-operation Administration Program.

Doing Best To Convince Jessup

The Nationalists, however, were doing their best to convince Jessup, Truman's representative, that they could hold Formosa indefinitely if given larger economic assistance.

A strong factor in the Nationalist calculations is the air force.

Air headquarters announced tonight that during Sunday its raiders had sunk many Communist boats at Swatow and had sunk 40 vessels along the "invasion coast" opposite the Chusan islands.

Swatow is the mainland port nearest Namoa Island, an offshore Nationalist base now under Communist attack. The Chusan islands are the location of Nationalist air and sea bases for raiding Shanghai and enforcing the blockade of the Red coast.

Air Force's Achievements

In a review of 1949, the air force stated its planes had made 6,433 flights, killing or wounding 173,000 Communist troops, destroying more than 2,000 motor vehicles and 240 locomotives, and sinking or badly damaging 40 "big ships" and 10,000 junks.

It said that so far in 1950 it had destroyed or badly damaged 11 ships of 1,000 tons each, plus 600 junks; had killed 2,000 Red soldiers and destroyed 10 locomotives and 20 artillery posts.

One Nationalist leader, formerly critical of the air force, conceded that it now was the best-run and most effective branch of the armed forces.

New Spirit Among Airmen

Even the most casual observer could note a new spirit of hope among the airmen themselves.

Sources familiar with the composition of the air force and having no axes to grind, discounted often-heard rumors that Japanese or other foreign flyers were serving the Nationalists.

"That's all hokum," said one good source. "They've got all the Chinese pilots they need—and good ones, too."

The size of the air force is a top secret, but sources which should know estimate its full strength at about 90,000 men. About 5,000 of its officers were trained in the United States.

Their planes include four-engined B-24 Liberators, B-25 Mitchell light bombers, Mustang and Thunderbolt fighters and C-46 and Curtiss Commando transports. The only non-American planes used are some Canadian-built Mosquito bombers.

The numbers of aircraft are well-kept secrets, but maintenance is regarded as excellent. Spare-parts requirements have not yet reached a serious stage, but fuel conservation is practiced carefully in selecting targets.

95% Of Flyers Declared Loyal

While the Communists periodically have boasted of defections, they have yet to put a plane of their own into the air; and air-force personnel are regarded here as the most loyal of the Nationalists.

"Ninety-five per cent have remained loyal," said a high source, "and some of the few who defected found the Reds intolerable and escaped to fight for us again."

A powerful deterrent for others who might want to change sides is that most have their families on Formosa with them.

On the political side, the Nationalists harped on the theme that Moscow was directing the Chinese Reds.

"Illusions" About Mao

Tao Hsi-shen, one of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek's most trusted advisers, said in an interview that Communist action against the United States Consulate in Peiping should remove any illusions that Mao Tze-tung would become a "Tito."

"Moscow is bent on eliminating all Western influence in China," he said.

His view was that, although Americans were already displeased with the Reds, the door to diplomatic recognition had been left ajar previously.

"Now the Kremlin decided to slam it shut before any chance of American recognition developed," he declared. "An incident was, therefore, provoked to antagonize Washington."

Nationalist quarters said that if asked they would be glad to grant all clearances and facilities for ships to remove American personnel from Red China.

Own Air Record And Peiping Incident Cheer Nationalists

Taipei, Formosa, Jan. 15 (AP)—The Chinese Nationalists were heartened today by the unexpected effectiveness of their air force and by the new friction between the United States and the Peiping Communist regime.

Even critics of the air force conceded that its new wallop raised their hopes of repelling an unexpected Communist assault on this island refuge of the Nationalist Government.

High Nationalist quarters also were optimistic that the Communist seizure of United States consular property in Peiping might cause Washington to reconsider and furnish further aid for maintaining the Formosan redoubt.

NATIONALISTS ATTACK CHINESE RED ISLANDS

TAIPEI, Formosa, Jan. 15 (AP)—The Chinese Nationalist Navy today reported its warships had shelled three Communist islands near the Shanghai blockade base of Chushan.

An announcement said the warships had leveled the defense works of one of the islands, Meishan, south of Chushan. Chushan is about 100 miles south of Shanghai. Defenses on two nearby islands were damaged, the announcement said.

The action was designed to delay the invasion of Chushan, from which the Chinese have been blockading Shanghai by sea and attacking it by air. Ten invasion craft along the coast were reported sunk.

The Defense Ministry predicted the early conquest of Hwangchi, a small island bottling up the Min River port of Foochow, 130 miles northwest of Formosa. The Ministry said Nationalist troops who had invaded the island a few days ago were expanding their holdings.

The air force said its planes last week had sunk 600 junks, killed 1,700 Communists and destroyed 300 buildings.

Taipei, Formosa, Jan. 15 (AP)—The Chinese Nationalist Foreign Office announced tonight severance of relations with Sweden following that country's recognition of the Peiping Communists.

Flying Arrow Sister Ship Making Run to Tientsin

HONG KONG, Jan. 15 (AP).—The American freighter Brooklyn Heights left Hong Kong tonight for Tientsin, in Communist North China.

The Isbrandtsen Line ship was originally scheduled to sail for tightly blockaded Shanghai. Plans were changed after a Nationalist gunboat shelled a sister ship, the Flying Arrow twenty miles off the Yangtze River entrance to Shanghai. The Flying Arrow was anchored today at Tsingtao, North China port beyond the effective range of blockaders. Tientsin is still farther north.

The Brooklyn Heights carried a general cargo, including industrial chemicals, cotton, low-grade petroleum, and newsprint.

Isbrandtsen Line officials here said the ship is carrying also some cargo destined for Shanghai and may go there from Tientsin if conditions are considered favorable.

Cambodian Leader Killed

SAIGON, French Indo-China, Jan. 15 (AP).—A former chairman of the Cambodian National Assembly, Ioe Koeux, was killed yesterday when a hand grenade was thrown at Democrat party headquarters in Pnompenh, the capital of Cambodia. Koeux was the leader of the Democrat party in Cambodia.

BRITAIN ARMS ARAB NATIONS UNDER PACT

Acheson Reveals Move In An Answer To Congressman

JAN 15 1950

Washington, Jan. 15 (AP)—Dean Acheson, Secretary of State, confirmed in a letter made public tonight that Britain has resumed shipment of arms to Iraq, Hashemite Jordan and Egypt under treaties with those Arab countries.

Writing Representative Javits (R., Lib.-N.Y.), the Secretary said it was "no secret" and that the security of the Middle East is of great importance to the West. He added:

"It is desirable that the countries in this part of the world obtain from reliable and friendly sources such arms as they may need for their legitimate security requirements."

Javits had written Acheson on December 28 expressing concern that arms sent to Arab states would be used for a new attack against Israel. The New York representative said Communist danger to the Near East would be greatest in the confusion growing out of any renewal of armed Arab action against the Jewish state.

Resumption Of War Discounted

Acheson, in his reply which the Congressman made public, said the State Department's analysis of all available information does not indicate that any serious preparations are being made for a resumption of the Palestine fighting.

"Should such information be received," the Secretary wrote, "the United States Government would be quick to use all of its influence in an attempt to prevent such a tragic eventuality, both within the United Nations and outside."

Acheson said inflammatory statements have been made in both the Arab and Israeli press concerning a renewal of the fighting.

But in this case the department does not believe, he added, that "the remarks of individual radio and press commentators should be taken as a reliable indication of any serious or immediate intent on the part of the respective governments to resume hostilities."

No Secrecy

"Some of the warlike pronouncements of officials of Near East governments may well have been made for the purpose of domestic consumption," Acheson said.

He told Javits that the British have made no secret of the fact that they have resumed arms shipments to Iraq, Jordan and Egypt since the Secretary Council lifted its embargo against sending arms to the Palestine area last August. And, he said, Britain "faithfully observed" that embargo while it was in effect.

"At the time the Security Council arms embargo was lifted," Acheson continued, "the United States and Great Britain stated that they did not wish to see an arms race develop in the Middle East.

To Maintain Order

"The United States stands by this policy, as does the United Kingdom to the best of the department's knowledge.

"Arms shipments to the Arab states and Israel should be limited to those necessary for the purpose of maintaining internal law and order . . . reasonable requirements of self defense.

"With regard to the shipment of planes and light naval vessels to Egypt, it should be recalled that Egypt is an important and strategically located nation of 20,000,000 people."

In his letter to the Secretary, Javits said the arguments advanced for arms shipments to the Arabs—aside from the existence of treaty arrangements—are that they are necessary to bolster the Arab states as a buffer against further Communist expansion.

Javits Cites Danger

"It is my considered view, however," the Congressman wrote, "that the danger of a misuse of these arms for a renewed assault against Israel may well prove to be imminent, with all the immediate grievous consequences that would imply."

The New Yorker wrote there seems real reason to assume that Israel would be at least as great a buffer as the Arabs to Communist expansion or aggression.

PEIPING TAKES 3 COMPOUNDS

U.S. Confirms Seizure Of French And Dutch Consulates

Washington, Jan. 15 (AP)—Seizure by Chinese Communists of Dutch and French as well as American diplomatic property in Peiping was confirmed by the State Department today.

It was the anti-American action which prompted Secretary Acheson, with President Truman's approval, to order all remaining American diplomats out of Communist China. His directive, dispatched yesterday, told 135 American consular and embassy officers and their dependents to pack their bags, ask for permits to leave and head for home as soon as possible.

Proceeding "To Get Out"

The American groups at Shanghai and Nanking today acknowledged receiving the Acheson order, and Michael J. McDermott, State Department press officer, said it was assumed here that all American officials in China "are proceeding at once on their orders to get out." However, even if the Communist authorities co-operate in this mass exodus, it will be at least a month, possibly much longer, before the great retreat from China is finally completed.

Seizure of the American consular compound, which has housed the embassy office, was carried out by the Communists at 9.50 A.M. Saturday, China time. American officials required time to clear out their files and possessions and were finally given until midnight Sunday, China time, to complete the task. It was assumed in Washington that the job was completed without incident.

Courteous To Americans

Reports to the State Department from Consul General O. Edmund Clubb said that the Chinese had been very courteous in their treatment of the Americans. McDermott said that the seizure of the Netherlands and the French properties was set in motion on Friday—evidently when the Communist police first showed up—and was completed on Saturday.

The State Department said the Dutch property seized was described as the east compound of the old Netherlands Embassy establishment; that the French property taken over was described as the former barracks of the French Embassy. Like the United States, both those countries were reported to have other properties in Peiping which were not molested.

The Communist seizures were based on a proclamation issued January 6 for the seizure of former foreign military barracks in Peiping. The proclamation stated that such properties were based on "unequal treaties"—that is, treaties untavorable to China—which have been abolished by the Communists.

United States protests accused the Chinese Reds of violating treaties which this Government considers still to be in force, including both a pact made at the time of the Boxer Rebellion 50 years ago and a 1943 Chinese-American treaty which brought the relations of the two countries up to date.

CHINA REDS SEIZE FRENCH PROPERTY

Dutch Embassy Compound Also Taken; GOP Assails Far East Policy

JAN 15 1950

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15 — (AP) Chinese communist authorities at Peiping have seized two more pieces of foreign diplomatic property—this time belonging to the Dutch and the French.

The State Department said today it occurred at about the same time that the red police and civilian authorities, disdaining American protests, seized the most important of the four American consulate compounds in the red capital.

It was this action which prompted Secretary Acheson, with President Truman's approval, to order all remaining American diplomats out of communist China. His directive, dispatched yesterday, told 135 American consular and embassy officers and their dependents to pack their bags, ask for permits to leave and head for home as soon as possible.

Prepare to Leave

The American groups at Shanghai and Nanking today acknowledged receiving the Acheson order and State Department Press Officer Michael J. McDermott said it was assumed here that all American officials in China "are proceeding at once on their orders to get out." However, even if the communist authorities cooperate in this mass exodus, it will be at least a month, possibly much longer, before the great retreat from China is finally completed.

Seizure of the American compound, which has housed the embassy office, was carried out by the communists Saturday. American officials required time to clear out their files and possessions and were finally given until midnight Sunday, China time, to complete the task. It was therefore assumed in Washington that the job was completed without incident.

Reds Reported Courteous

Reports to the State Department from Consul General O. Edmund Clubb said that the Chinese had been very courteous in their treatment of the Americans. McDermott said that the seizure of the Netherlands and the French properties was set in motion on Friday—evidently when the communist police first showed up—and was completed on Saturday.

CHINA POLICY STIRS DEBATE

Tydings Defends Stands Of Acheson And Truman

JAN 15 1950

Washington, Jan. 15 (AP)—The State Department's decision to pull American diplomats out of Communist China lit the fuse today for a new Senate explosion over Far Eastern policies.

From a Democrat—Senator George, of Georgia—came a suggestion that Dean Acheson, Secretary of State, be recalled to Capitol Hill to give a first-hand account of developments and discuss his newly proclaimed policy for dealing with communism in Asia.

From a Republican—Senator Morse, of Oregon—came a proposal for a thorough bipartisan review of the whole China problem.

Critics Poised For Second Round

Other Republicans — including Senators Knowland, of California, Bridges, of New Hampshire, Brewster, of Maine and Smith, of New Jersey—were poised for a second round of lambasting the Administration's China program when the Senate meets again Tuesday.

Democrats as well as Republicans seemed agreed that the Chinese Communists' actions in seizing the American Consular office at Peiping will delay—and possibly prevent—diplomatic recognition of the Communist regime by this country.

Senator Connally (D., Texas), chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, and Senator Vandenberg, of Michigan, its top Republican member, both have specified that willingness to abide by international law is a prerequisite to recognition of any regime. They have said this includes courteous treatment of foreign diplomats.

Tydings Backs Acheson

In the forthcoming Senate debate, Senator Tydings (D., Md.), chairman of the Senate Armed Services Committee, has volunteered for defense of Acheson's policies in China and of President Truman's decision barring any future military aid to the Nationalist Chinese Government on Formosa.

Senator Tydings said in a broadcast that "no matter what our policy might have been, internal conditions in China made the doom of the Nationalist regime inevitable."

The Maryland senator called Formosa "more of a liability than an asset" for American defenses. Republicans generally have been demanding that something be done to keep Formosa out of Communist hands lest it becomes a menace to the United States Pacific defense line.

As Tydings Sees Situation

Senator Tydings said that if the United States moved troops into Formosa and it were attacked, that might start another world war.

He said sending arms to the Nationalists on Formosa might force this country to spread its strength too thin.

"We'd better save what we can save and do it well than spread ourselves so thin as to lose everything in the long run," he said.

He echoed Acheson's hope that the Chinese Communists might later fall out with Moscow.

"We are hopeful that while Russia and the Communist régime in China are now together they will find that they do not have a compatibility on many objectives and that China will gradually split away, as Tito has done in Yugoslavia," he said.

Senator George said he thinks Acheson, kept busy last week explaining his Far Eastern policies to lawmakers, ought to talk over the newest China developments with senators.

Senator George's Comment

George said he supports the decision to withdraw American diplomats from Red China because he thinks there was nothing else this country could do.

He said a foreign policy that had been "lacking in definiteness, contradictory, and inconsistent" in the past had led to the present situation.

"I don't justify what has gone before in this policy, but in the light of present conditions, I don't see any other course that could have been taken," he said.

George said Acheson's present policy toward Asia seemed to be to "give the Russians more rope in the hope they'll hang themselves."

R FUND CHECKS READY FOR GI'S

Insurance-Rebate Mailing To Begin For 16,000,000

JAN 15 1950

Washington, Jan 15 (AP)—The first checks will be mailed to World War II veterans tomorrow in distribution of a $2,800,000,000 insurance refund

From then on the Veterans Administration and the Treasury will be turning out 1,000,000 checks a week hoping to have the payments in the hands of 16,000,000 veterans by June 30.

The checks will avarage about $125, but some will be as low as 90 cents and some as high as $528.

To All Post Offices

They represent an accumulation of cash from premiums on Government insurance in excess of the amount needed to carry the program.

The first day's checks have gone out of post offices al over the country in bundles. As the program grinds on, veterans will be paid generally in the order of the last three digits in their service serial numbers.

Complications Arise

A vetern whose serial number ends in 000—34.256,000 for example—will be included in the early mailings. One whose number ended in the 900s will be among the last. The idea was to make things as nondiscriminatory as possible.

There are complications in determining the order. Some veterans had more than one serial number; some more than one insurance policy. Some didn't have a serial number.

Despite the well advertised golden flow, nearly 2,000,000 veterans, by recent count, hadn't even applied for their refunds.

TRUMAN'S PASTOR REJECTS PONTIFF'S BID FOR 'UNITY'

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15 — (AP) President Truman's pastor, Dr. Edward Hughes Pruden, said today that the Roman Catholic Church is totalitarian, and he rejected the invitation of Pope Pius XII for Protestants to becom Catholics for a fight on communism.

It is inconceivable that one form of totalitarianism can be defeated by the mere adoption of another form, however exalted the ideals of the other may be," Dr. Pruden declared in a sermon.

President Not Present

He is pastor of the First Baptist Church, which Mr. Truman attends. The President was not present this morning, however.

"If communism is to be defeated," Dr. Pruden said, "it must be achieved as a result of men and women working together in a free spiritual and political atmosphere, and in full recognition of one another's rights and privileges as individuals.

"The very fact that communism in Italy has become such a tremendous force in that nation after hundreds of years of the presence there of the headquarters of the Roman church, makes us wonder if the Roman church is really the answer to communism which is frequently claimed for it."

His sermon was a reply to the invitation issued by Pope Pius on Dec. 23, the eve of the Catholic Holy Year, to all believers in Jesus Christ to "return to the one true church" for a union against atheism.

Dr. Pruden, disclaiming the right to speak for all Protestants or even for his own denomination, said the suggestion that all Christians unit in one church "seems to me utterly foreign to the spirit of the New Testament."

Rejects Pope's Bid

He said the invitation to become part of "a gigantic ecclesiastical hierarchy" is in itself "a formidable hinderance to a larger degree of spiritual unity, since it only serves to perpetuate the ancient claim of the Roman Catholic church that it is "the one true church."

"One cannot help but wonder what would happen to the degree of unity already achieved among Christians today, if each particular expression of the Christian faith should assume that it is the one true expression of Christ and his message for mankind.

"It is our abiding conviction that true kinship to Christ is not a matter of historical connections traced across the centuries," he continued, "but is rather a matter of how closely we adhere to the simplicity, the purity and the spiritual quality of the New Testament church which Christ established during his earthly ministry."

Would "Violate Consciences"

He declared that Protestants believe that the world's spiritual forces should stand united against communism but not by "asking millions of Christmas to violate their consciences and forsake the free spiritual atmosphere they have breathed so long in order to become a part of a religious totalitarian organization."

"We believe that communism is not only wrong because it is atheistic, but because it is oppressive, and that one of its most deplorable characteristics is its tendency to force all of those under its influence to submit to the will of the few and to accept, without question, the dictates of those in authority," Dr. Pruden continued.

"Where religious liberty prevails and the competency of individuals to find God and worship Him is fully recognized, communism does not have a chance. We possess enough faith both in God and in man to believe that the two can find one another in any church or in none at all."

The minister professed admiration for much of that which the Catholic Church stands for, but said that "many of the traditions and customs which have accumulated within the Roman church, and the exalted detachment which some officials of the Roman church require for themselves, seem a far cry from the lowly Nazarene who in simple garb, as a man of the people, moved as a friend among the masses, serving the needs of his fellow men."

Development Of U.S. Aviation By Two Agencies Held Best

JAN 15 1950

Washington, Jan. 15 (AP) — The cost of letting two agencies handle aviation development — Air Force and Navy—has more than paid off in results, an expert said today.

The conclusion was reached by Robert Schlaifer, of the Harvard Business School, in a study of industry-Government co-operation to maintain United States leadership in technical development.

The study — a 754-page volume dealing with aircraft engines and aviation fuel—will be published tomorrow by the school's division of research. Schlaifer wrote the engine section. S. D. Heron, a Detroit consulting engineer, wrote the section on fuels.

American System Best

Schlaifer said the American system of administering aviation development had one feature "greatly superior to both the British and the German systems."

"This was sponsorship of development by two separate agencies, the Army (Air Corps, now United States Air Force) and the Navy," he said.

"The existence of two independent agencies meant that the mistakes or omissions of one were corrected in a surprisingly large number of instances by the actions of the other.

"Whatever may be the merits of the case for unification of the military services in other respects, there can be no doubt that the sponsorship and direction of development by two separate agencies brought results worth very much more than the cost."

Not Slighted In U.S.

This was particularly significant to naval aviation, Schlaifer said, because that field was "not slighted in the United States as it was abroad."

Among his findings, Schlaifer said the British and American systems "led to about equal overtechnical merit and military utility." This he found true despite the difference in direction—the British method of direct payment for development and the American system of private financial risk.

Heron says it appears that development of aviation fuel from petroleum products has gone about the limit. Any new revolution in fuel, he says, probably will have to come from atomic energy or some other source outside the petroleum field.

Air Racing Before War

Noting that before the recent war air racing contributed to engine development, Heron says:

"Airplane racing currently has no useful effects upon either engine or fuel development. The gladiators (pilots) who are to be thrown to the lions and their backers fiddle around with inadequate facilities and, if anything, retard development by pestering the engine and petroleum industries with their problems."

Schlaifer concluded that the military services "are in general incapable of developing a complex finished product such as an aircraft engine, although they are capable of doing highly valuable research on problems which are neglected by private firms or for which private firms have not the facilities."

HOOVER SAYS FBI TAPS 170 PHONE WIRES

U.S. Listens On Calls To Protect Security, He Asserts

JAN 15 1950

Washington, Jan. 15 (AP)—The FBI has 170 telephones in the United States and its possessions tapped in connection with internal security investigations, J. Edgar Hoover, director of the FBI said tonight.

Hoover said in a special statement this fact contradicts "the hysterical utterance of those who would have us believe that wire tapping by the FBI is unrestricted and is utilized on a wholesale basis.

"Modern techniques must be used in dealing with treason, espionage, sabotage and the kidnapping of little children," Hoover added.

His comments formed part of a running commentary which the Department of Justice has been conducting with its critics over the use of wire tapping in obtaining evidence.

Defended By McGrath

J. Lawrence Fly, former chairman of the Federal Communications Commission, is among those who have been most outspoken against the practice.

Last week J. Howard McGrath, Attorney General, defended the practice of wire tapping as an established policy of the department.

Hoover said that the Federal Bureau of Investigation does not make policy but merely follows it.

"There has been no concealment of either the policy or the practice" of wire tapping, he added.

Blames Half Truths

Although he made no mention by name of any critics, Hoover declared:

"In recent weeks there has been an increased circulation of inaccurate information and half truths on wire tapping.

"Statements have been made which are so untrue and legally unsound that I am forced to conclude that they were motivated for the purpose of confusing the public.

"I dare say that the most violent critic of the FBI would urge the use of wire-tapping techniques if his child were kidnapped and held in custody. Certainly there is as great a need to utilize this technique to protect our country from those who would enslave us and are engaged in treason, espionage anl subversion and who if successful would destroy our institutions and democracy."

One Drop of Pure Condensed Gas Pride of U. S. Atomic Scientists

JAN 15 1950

By ROBERT GOLDENSTEIN

CHICAGO, Jan. 15 — (AP) A single drop of pure condensed gas —the only one of its kind known to exist in the world—is one of the most prized possessions of American atomic scientists.

The gas is an ultra rare form of helium. It is known as light helium or HE3. Scientists say the tiny quantity of the pure gas undergoing tests at the Argonne National Laboratory near Chicago probably is more than is available in all other laboratories of the world combined.

In one sense, HE3 is just the opposite of heavy water—a valuable substance in making atomic bombs. HE3 is normal helium with a neutron missing from the cores of each of its atoms. Heavy water is made by combining ordinary oxygen with heavy hydrogen a hydrogen atom that has an extra neutron in its core.

New Clues for Scientists

What's important about this drop of condensed gas? It is providing new clues for scientists delving into the basic laws of the behavior of matter.

They have found what the difference of a single neutron in an atom's necleus can make a whale of a difference in how matter acts.

It is common knowledge what a single neutron does to the core of an atom of uranium 238. It transmutes the harmless uranium atom into plutonium, the explosive material is one type atom bomb.

Ordinary helium has been likened to matter in its fourth state. When cooled to near absolute zero, it changes into a fluid and climbs up over the sides of its container. It actually becomes a super fluid, seeping through openings so tiny that ordinary gasses have difficulty penetrating. It also is a super heat conductor.

Some theoretical scientists believed that light helium gas never could be cooled to a liquid state.

Three Argonne scientists, Darrell W. Osborne, Bernard Weinstock and Bernard M. Abraham, turned light helium into a fluid at temperatures slightly above absolute zero. They found it has the lowest boiling point of any liquid, at 453.93 degrees fahrenheit below zero. Absolute zero is -459.69. They said that like HE4 it never could reach a solid state, except under pressure.

But, light helium did not follow any of the other erratic behavior patterns of ordinary helium. A single neutron made the difference.

The air you breath contains helium, but only in tiny amounts —four parts per million. And in that helium, only one part in a million is light helium.

Argonne scientists get HE3 from their atomic furnaces by bombarding lithium metal with neutrons. The lithium atoms split into ultra heavy hydrogen, called H3 and ordinary helium. Then the ultra heavy hydrogen throws off a negative electric charge and changes into light helium.

JEWISH LEADER SCORES McCARRAN'S DP STAND

BOSTON, Jan. 15—(AP) Rabbi Irving Miller, national president of the American Jewish Congress, tonight criticized Sen. Pat McCarran (D-Nev.) for "blocking the move to abolish the discriminatory provisions in the present Displaced Persons Act."

Rabbi Miller told 1,500 delegates to the New England division of the Jewish Congress convention:

"McCarran opposes any modification of the existing DP bill which would remove from it the discriminatory provisions condemned by President Truman and thus allow a larger number of DPs to enter the United States."

Barkley Says Senate Favors Aid To D.P.'s

New York, Jan. 15 (AP) — Vice President Alben W. Barkley said today that if the Senate could vote right now on a more liberal displaced persons bill "it would overwhelmingly adopt it."

Barkley spoke at the annual conference of the United Service for New Americans, an agency of the United Jewish Appeal.

He said he was not in a position to say what the Senate will do on a House-approved amendment to the displaced persons law, extending its June 30, 1950, deadline and increasing the number of those involved from 205,000 to 339,000.

Barkley added, however, that "if the Senate had been permitted to vote on it last session, or if it were to do so now, it would overwhelmingly adopt it."

UN Group to Again Tackle Touchy Jerusalem Problem

JAN 15 1950 A. I. GOLDBERG

LAKE SUCCESS, Jan. 15—(AP) The United Nations Trusteeship council tackles again this week what seems like a hopeless effort to bring Jerusalem under international rule. The council meets in Geneva Thursday for long debate on a proposed statute of UN administration.

The occupying powers in the Holy City—Israel and Hashemite Jordan—are dead against yielding to the UN.

They are relying on the device known in diplomatic language as the fait accompli. It means, in this case, they are in possession of separate sectors of Jerusalem and intend to stay even at the risk of serious conflict.

Disagree on Regulations

The situation puts Israel and Jordan in defiant opposition to a UN assembly order that Jerusalem, its suburbs and the holy places of Christianity, Islam and Judaism are to be under the UN.

The 12-nation council was unable to come to any agreement here in December on a code of regulations to govern the city. Then it planned what may be the longest single meeting of its history for Geneva. Besides doing the best it can on the Jerusalem question, the council has to complete a trusteeship agreement for Italy to administer Somaliland, and that has already developed clashes of opinion.

The council hopes to get its work out of the way by April and return to Lake Success for its next regular meeting in June.

It is the council's first meeting in the new year. Argentina will take a seat for three years, replacing Mexico. Iraq was reelected at the last General Assembly and the Dominican Republic will fill out Costa Rica's term until the end of 1951. The Philippines holds the other elective seat.

Other Nations On Council

Francis B. Sayre represents the United States in the council. Other countries which are members because they administer trust territories are Australia, Belgium, France, New Zealand and Britain.

Nationalist China and the Soviet Union, as big five members of the UN, are also represented.

Egypt and Lebanon sat in council meetings here as "interested parties" with a right to talk but not to vote. They are two of the Arab states that led the fight which resulted in the assembly vote to internationalize Jerusalem—carried by a coalition of Arab states, Communist eastern European countries, and Catholic Latin American countries. The U. S. and Britain were against international rule.

Israel fought unsuccessfully from the first, and a chorus swelled from New York to Tel Aviv and Jerusalem saying that this internationalization scheme is unworkable, and would not get Israel's support. Jordan's King Abdullah said he opposed it. Israel moved most of its government offices into Jerusalem since the assembly decision.

Israeli Views Unchanged

The council never has been able to agree whether it should invite Israel and Jordan to the council table. France wanted to scold Israel for making Jerusalem its operational capital in apparent defiance of the assembly order and in pursuance of the Israelis' contention that Jerusalem is their "eternal capital."

But the French-drafted reprimand was withdrawn before it could be voted on here in December.

Israeli sources here say their attitude is unchanged: the plan is unworkable and Israel will not support it. They still offer to permit international supervision of holy shrines, most of which are in Jordan's old walled sector of the city. They are not certain they will have an official observer at the Geneva meeting.

There has been some discussion in UN circles of a special assembly meeting early in 1950 if the council is unable to get agreement on an international control law for the city. Secretary General Trygve Lie says he hopes that no such meeting will be necessary. But Roger Garreau of France, council chairman, may have to report failure to get a decision and refer the whole problem back to the assembly, which meets next in regular session in September.

Ready to Condemn Defiance

That would unleash a great deal of new oratory by countries condemning Israel—as they have in the past—for defying UN decisions.

A council sub-committee has been sitting in Geneva, trying to write an agreement that would allow Italy to take over the job of administering Somaliland for 10 years, after which that Italian pre-war colony is to get its independence.

As soon as the agreement is accepted by Italy and the trusteeship council, Italy and Britain are empowered to dicker for withdrawal of British troops that now control the area and allow Italy to move in.

Italy has announced she wants to station troops and set up bases for control of the region. Ethiopia opposes that strenuously and other countries have said they were disturbed by Italy's stand. On the insistence of the Philippines, the subcommittee has agreed only to allow Italy to have "defensive" troops and bases in Somaliland, and never any more than the British have had since the war.

Russian reaction to that, when the question comes up to the council itself, is expected to be violent.

AFTER A TWO-HOUR PRIVATE TALK WITH CHANCELLOR KONRAD ADENAUER -- THEY WERE ALONG WITHOUT INTERPRETERS -- SCHUMAN TOLD A NEWS CONFERENCE IT WAS THE POLICY OF HIS GOVERNMENT THAT A SOLUTION OF THE SAAR QUESTION MUST AWAIT A GERMAN PEACE TREATY.

ADENAUER YESTERDAY TOLD REPORTERS THE SAAR QUESTION WAS CAUSING DISQUIET IN GERMANY. HE TOO DECLARED THE STATUS OF THE SAAR, 738 SQUARE MILE COAL MINING VALLEY, MUST NOT BE DECIDED BEFORE THE WRITING OF A FORMAL GERMAN PEACE TREATY AND PROTESTED ANY ATTEMPT AT A UNILATERAL DECISION AFFECTING GERMANY'S FRONTIERS.

SCHUMAN SAID HIS TALK WITH ADENAUER WAS FOR THE PURPOSE OF RELIEVING TENSION BETWEEN FRANCE AND GERMANY AND HE BELIEVED THAT AIM HAD BEEN ACHIEVED.

GERMAN DISQUIET HAS BEEN CAUSED BY REPORTS THAT THE FRENCH ARE NEGOTIATING WITH THE AUTONOMOUS GOVERNMENT OF THE FRENCH-OCCUPIED SAAR FOR 50 OR 99-YEAR LEASES ON THE COAL MINES. SCHUMAN TOLD HIS NEWS CONFERENCE THESE NEGOTIATIONS WERE DEALING MERELY WITH PRACTICAL NECESSITIES OF THE MOMENT, AND WERE IN THE INTEREST OF THE SAARLANDERS, NOT OF FRANCE ALONE. ANY AGREEMENT, HE ADDED, WOULD HAVE TO BE CONFIRMED BY THE PEACE TREATY.

IN ANSWER TO A QUESTION, HE SAID THE "PEOPLE OF THE SAAR DO NOT WANT A PLEBISCITE."

THIS WAS A REFERENCE TO THE RECENT DECLARATION BY JACOB KAISER, MINISTER FOR REUNIFICATION OF GERMANY, THAT A PLEBISCITE SHOULD BE HELD ON WHETHER THE PEOPLE WANT TO BE A PART OF GERMANY.

SCHUMAN SAID HIS TALK WITH ADENAUER HAD BEEN "CORDIAL, FULL OF CONFIDENCE AND CONDUCTED WITH FRANKNESS."

REGARDING THE ROLE OF GERMANY IN DEFENSE OF WESTERN EUROPE HE SAID IT WOULD BE "NONSENSE" (HE USED THE ENGLISH WORD) TO DISARM AND THEN REARM GERMANY. IT WAS ONLY LOGICAL, HE ADDED, THAT THE WESTERN OCCUPATION POWERS SHOULD TAKE CARE OF WESTERN GERMANY'S SECURITY.

HE ADDED THAT THE QUESTION OF POSSIBLE FOREIGN INVESTMENTS IN GERMANY HAD NOT BEEN MENTIONED DURING HIS VISIT AND WOULD HAVE TO WAIT UNTIL THE STATE OF WAR BETWEEN THE ALLIES AND GERMANY HAS BEEN ENDED.

HE LEFT TONIGHT FOR BERLIN.

EARLIER, THE ALSATIAN-BORN SCHUMAN RE-VISITED BONN UNIVERSITY WHERE HE STUDIED LAW IN 1904.

JAN 15 1950

DR. KURT SCHUMACHER, LEADER OF THE SOCIALIST OPPOSITION IN THE WEST GERMAN PARLIAMENT, HAD THIS TO SAY ABOUT SCHUMAN'S STATEMENTS:

"THE SITUATION IN THE SAAR IS OBVIOUSLY DIFFERENT FROM THE WAY SCHUMAN REGARDS IT. THE SITUATION IN THE SAAR CAN BE COMPARED TO THE SITUATION IN THE SOVIET ZONE, WITH THE EXCEPTION THAT THOSE PROFITING FROM IT BELONG TO A DIFFERENT POLITICAL SYSTEM. A LARGE PART OF THE SAAR POPULATION REJECTS THE PRESENT SAAR GOVERNMENT."

SCHUMACHER TOLD NEWSMEN FRANCE GAINED AN ADVANTAGE BY KEEPING OPEN THE POSSIBILITY OF CREATING ACCOMPLISHED FACTS BEFORE THE PEACE TREATY.

"IT SHOULD BE REMEMBERED THAT THERE ARE OTHER PERSONALITIES BESIDES SCHUMAN IN THE FRENCH CABINET. THEY EVIDENTLY DO NOT ALL THINK ALIKE."

BREMEN, GERMANY, JAN. 15-(AP)-PROF. ERNST EIN, ESTONIAN MINISTER OF JUSTICE UNTIL 1940, WILL SOON BE PICKING ORANGES IN CUCAMONGA, CALIF.

HE LEFT THE PORT OF BREMEN TODAY AS A DISPLACED PERSON AND WILL WORK FOR THE SOUTH-CALIFORNIA FARMERS ASSOCIATION.

"IT WILL BE SOMETHING NEW FOR ME AND REALLY, I AM LOOKING FORWARD TO IT," EIN SAID. "IT IS A GOOD HEALTHY JOB. IF I WERE TO BECOME A MINISTER AGAIN I'D GROW GREY-HAIRED IN NO TIME."

HE BOARDED THE GEN. HERSEY, WHICH HAS BEEN CHARTERED BY THE INTERNATIONAL REFUGEE ORGANIZATION AND IS TAKING 1,319 DISPLACED PERSONS TO NEW ORLEANS.

ANOTHER PASSENGER OF THE GENERAL HERSEY IS BARON HERBERT VON LEDERMANN-WARTBURG, ONE-TIME BIG LANDHOLDER AND WELL-KNOWN SCULPTOR IN FORMER GERMAN AND NOW POLISH ADMINISTERED SILESIA.

HE WILL BE EMPLOYED BY THE HEBREW IMMIGRATION AID SOCIETY IN LOS ANGELES. THE TRIP IS SPONSORED BY HIS BROTHER WILLIAM, OF (2249 FEDERAL AVE.) WEST LOS ANGELES.

TWENTY YEARS AGO THE BARON MADE A BUST OF POPE PIUS THE ELEVENTH WHICH STILL STANDS IN THE VATICAN. TODAY HE IS A PENNYLESS D.P. HIS ONLY BAGGAGE IS A SMALL BAG IN WHICH HE HAS HIS SCULPTOR'S TOOLS.

ANOTHER FORMER ESTONIAN WILL LEAVE BREMEN FOR NEW YORK ON BOARD THE GEN. MC RAE TOMORROW. HE IS 59-YEAR-OLD FREDERIK IGALS, FORMER LATVIAN VICE-CONSUL TO NORWAY AND BERLIN AND SECRETARY TO THE LATVIAN DELEGATION IN PARIS.

IGALS IS HEADED FOR TACOMA, WASH., WHERE HE WILL WORK AS A MAINTENANCE MAN AT THE LUTHERAN HOSPITAL.

ON BOARD THE GENERAL MC RAE ARE 1,168 DISPLACED PERSONS. ALL ARE BEING TAKEN TO THE UNITED STATES BY THE I.R.O.

"I DON'T EXPECT ANY REAL UNEMPLOYMENT CRISIS THIS YEAR," SAID ONE U.S. LABOR EXPERT. "BUT UNEMPLOYMENT IS BECOMING WEST GERMANY'S MAJOR ECONOMIC PROBLEM. IT MAY PROVE THE HARDEST OF ALL TO SOLVE."

WEST GERMANY'S BASIC TROUBLE, HE POINTED OUT, IS THAT ITS POPULATION HAS GROWN BY ABOUT 8,000,000 SINCE THE WAR. BUT ITS INDUSTRIAL CAPACITY IS LESS THAN BEFORE THE WAR, BECAUSE OF BOMB DESTRUCTION.

"ITS INDUSTRIES MUST BE EXPANDED TO GIVE THESE NEW RESIDENTS WORK," HE SAID. "NEW HOUSES MUST BE BUILT FOR THEM TO LIVE IN."

BUT THIS REQUIRES CAPITAL OR CREDIT. WEST GERMANY IS SHORT OF BOTH.

"UNTIL GERMANY GETS MORE CAPITAL, THE UNEMPLOYMENT PROBLEM CAN NEVER BE SOLVED," ONE ALLIED OFFICIAL DECLARED.

GERMANS COMPLAIN THAT ONE THING COMPLICATING THEIR CREDIT PROBLEM IS THE ALLIED BAN ON FOREIGN INVESTMENTS WHICH HAS BEEN IN EFFECT EVER SINCE THE WAR.

HIGH ALLIED OFFICIALS HAVE PREDICTED THAT THIS BAN MAY SOON BE LIFTED.

VIENNA, JAN. 15-(AP)-GEORGE V. ALLEN, ENROUTE TO HIS NEW POST AS U.S. AMBASSADOR TO YUGOSLAVIA, MADE THIS OBSERVATION TONIGHT:

"IT IS NOT IN STALIN'S BOOK TO ALLOW ANY COMMUNIST COUNTRY TO MAINTAIN ANY DEGREE OF NATIONAL INDEPENDENCE OR INDEPENDENT THOUGHT.

"THERE MUST BE 100 PER CENT SUBSERVIENCE TO THE KREMLIN, 95 PER CENT IS NOT ENOUGH.

ALLEN TOLD NEWSMEN 90 PER CENT OF THE AMERICAN PEOPLE REALIZE THAT MARSHAL TITO'S YUGOSLAVIA HAS BROKEN DEFINITELY WITH RULERS IN THE KREMLIN.

"ANY BACKING WE GIVE MARSHAL TITO WILL NOT BE IN SUPPORT OF COMMUNISM AS AN ECONOMIC THEORY, BUT IN SUPPORT OF A PEOPLE WHO INSIST ON RUNNING THEIR OWN AFFAIRS," ALLEN SAID.

Frankfurt add 2nd ~~WHY~~ worse.

WHY, WITH SUCH GROWING PROSPERITY AND SO MUCH WORK TO BE DONE, ARE THERE SO MANY WHO CAN'T FIND WORK?

STORCH AND ALLIED OFFICIALS NAMED THESE AS THE CHIEF REASONS:

1. WEST GERMANY'S POPULATION IS GROWING FASTER THAN ITS INDUSTRIES CAN RECOVER FROM THE WAR. THERE WERE 406,000 NEW JOB SEEKERS WHO ENTERED THE WESTERN ZONES DURING 1949--EITHER AS WAR PRISONERS RETURNING FROM RUSSIA OR AS FUGITIVES FROM COMMUNIST-RULED EASTERN GERMANY.

2. WEST GERMANY LACKS CAPITAL TO FINANCE THE INDUSTRIAL EXPANSION AND BUILDING PROGRAM NECESSARY TO ABSORB THESE UNEMPLOYED.

STORCH OFFERED ONLY ONE FAINT HOPE OF REDUCING THE JOBLESS COUNT THIS YEAR: A GOVERNMENT PROGRAM TO BUILD 250,000 NEW DWELLINGS MAY PROVIDE ABOUT 200,000 NEW JOBS.

THAT OBVIOUSLY WOULD BE ONLY A DROP IN THE BUCKET.

ALLIED OFFICIALS WERE EVEN MORE PESSIMISTIC.

Belgrade add 2nd ~~THE~~ per cent.

THE FIGURES WERE ALL IN PERCENTAGES RATHER THAN IN SPECIFIED OUTPUT AND AS SUCH, ON THE SURFACE AT LEAST, THEY RECORDED A FAVORABLE FORWARD STRIDE IN PREMIER MARSHAL TITO'S LONG-RANGE OBJECTIVES.

AS A RESULT OF THE ECONOMIC BLOCKADE ORDERED BY THE RUSSIAN-LED COMINFORM, AS PART OF ITS 18-MONTH-OLD CAMPAIGN TO OUST TITO ON CHARGES OF PURSUING NATIONALISTIC POLICIES, THE TITO GOVERNMENT HAS SIGNED A NUMBER OF TRADE PACTS WITH THE WEST.

MOSCOW, JAN. 15-(AP)-SIR SARVAPALLI RADHAKRISHNAN, INDIA'S AMBASSADOR TO RUSSIA, SAID TODAY HE HAD A PLEASANT CONVERSATION ON GENERAL SUBJECTS IN A HALF-HOUR TALK WITH GENERALISSIMO STALIN SATURDAY NIGHT.

SIR SARVAPALLI, 61-YEAR-OLD HINDU RELIGIOUS PHILOSOPHER AND FORMER OFFICIAL OF THE UNITED NATIONS EDUCATIONAL, SCIENTIFIC AND CULTURAL ORGANIZATION, CAME TO MOSCOW ABOUT FOUR AND A HALF MONTHS AGO.

HE SAID HE HAD NOT HAD AN OPPORTUNITY TO TALK TO STALIN BEFORE BECAUSE OF THE GENERALISSIMO'S ABSENCE FROM MOSCOW ON A VACATION AND HIS OWN RECENT VISIT TO PARIS. STALIN'S TALKS WITH FOREIGN AMBASSADORS ARE COMPARATIVELY RARE, HOWEVER.

IN A FAREWELL TO THE NEW AMBASSADOR AT NEW DELHI LAST AUG. 24, PRIME MINISTER JAWAHARLAL NEHRU TOLD RADHAKRISHNAN IT WAS VITAL FOR INDIA TO MAINTAIN A SOUND RELATIONSHIP WITH HER SOVIET NEIGHBOR.

THE AMBASSADOR WAS ACCOMPANIED TO THE CONFERENCE WITH STALIN BY THE INDIAN MINISTER-COUNSELOR, RAJESHWAR DAYAL. SOVIET FOREIGN MINISTER ANDREI VISHINSKY AND A RUSSIAN TRANSLATOR WERE PRESENT.

HONG KONG, JAN. 15-(AP)-A CHINESE LANGUAGE NEWSPAPER QUOTED NATIONALIST OFFICIAL QUARTERS TODAY AS SAYING THE LONG MOSCOW STAY OF CHINESE COMMUNIST LEADER MAO TZE-TUNG IS CAUSED BY INABILITY TO REACH AGREEMENT ON GENERAL REVISION OF THE CHINESE-SOVIET TREATY OF FRIENDSHIP.

THE WAH KIU YAT PO SAID IN A DISPATCH FROM TAIPEI, FORMOSA, IT HAD LEARNED THIS FROM "RELIABLE INTELLIGENCE REPORTS." THERE WAS NO INDICATION OF HOW SUCH REPORTS WERE RECEIVED FROM MOSCOW. THE STORY WAS ACCEPTED WITH CONSIDERABLE RESERVATION HERE.

THE DISPATCH SAID STALIN HAD LAID DOWN A SERIES OF DEMANDS FOR REVISION OF THE TREATY. THE NEWSPAPER SAID THE GIST OF THESE CONDITIONS WAS:

1. ALL AVAILABLE MINERAL RESOURCES IN CHINA WITH MILITARY VALUE MUST BE EXPLOITED BY THE SOVIET UNION.
2. OTHER MINERAL DEPOSITS WILL BE EXPLOITED JOINTLY BY CHINA AND RUSSIA.
3. ALL RAILWAYS, ROADS, AIR LINES AND INTERNAL RIVER COMMUNICATION IN NORTHEAST CHINA MUST BE OPERATED BY RUSSIANS, WITH SIMILAR COMMUNICATIONS IN THE REST OF CHINA OPERATED JOINTLY.
4. CHINESE SECRET POLICE WILL UNDERGO THE SAME TRAINING AS SOVIET SECRET POLICE.
5. A SOVIET ADVISER WILL BE ATTACHED TO EVERY REGIMENT OF THE CHINESE COMMUNIST ARMY.
6. CHINESE PORTS FROM DAIREN IN THE NORTH TO CANTON IN THE SOUTH MUST BE OPENED TO SOVIET SHIPPING.

HONG KONG, MONDAY, JAN.16-(AP)-THIRTEEN MERCHANT SHIPS OF A COMPANY OPERATED BY THE CHINESE NATIONALISTS HAVE GONE OVER TO THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS. ABOUT 80 MORE ARE REPORTED READY TO FOLLOW SUIT.

THE CHINA MERCHANTS STEAM NAVIGATION COMPANY'S 13 VESSELS IN HONG KONG HARBOR HOISTED THE RED FLAG YESTERDAY. THEY PULLED DOWN THE NATIONALIST ENSIGN SATURDAY NIGHT.

A COMPANY OFFICIAL SAID THE REMAINDER OF ITS FLEET, ABOUT 80 SHIPS, ALSO WOULD DEFECT TO THE REDS. SOME OF THESE, NOW PLYING ROUTES TO FORMOSA, JAPAN, BANGKOK AND SINGAPORE, MAY HAVE GONE OVER ALREADY, HE SAID.

THE COMPANY'S FLEET AGGREGATES ALMOST 300,000 TONS, OF WHICH 100,000 TONS ARE LIBERTY SHIPS. MOST OF THE VESSELS ARE DESIGNED FOR COASTWISE NAVIGATION.

THE HONG KONG OFFICE OF THE COMPANY HAS SENT A PLEDGE OF LOYALTY TO THE COMMUNIST GOVERNMENT AT PEIPING. CREWS OF THE SHIPS HERE ARE REPORTED STANDING BY FOR INSTRUCTIONS FROM THE REDS. ONE COMPANY OFFICIAL SAID ONLY NATIONALIST WARSHIPS ARE PREVENTING THE SHIPS' IMMEDIATE DEPARTURE FOR COMMUNIST CHINA.

NO INCIDENTS WERE REPORTED ABOARD THE SHIPS AS A RESULT OF THE DEFECTION.

THE COMPANY HAS BEEN OPERATING UNDER CHARTER TO THE NATIONALIST GOVERNMENT. PART OF ITS ASSETS ARE OFFICIALLY OWNED.

ANOTHER LARGE CHINESE SHIPPING FIRM, MING SANG INDUSTRIAL CORP., HAS NOT DECIDED WHETHER TO GO OVER TO THE REDS. ITS SHIPS IN HONG KONG HARBOR FLEW NO FLAG YESTERDAY. THIS BRITISH COLONY'S MARINE DEPARTMENT ASKED THAT SOME ENSIGN BE HOISTED TO COMPLY WITH REGULATIONS.

MANY MING SANG VESSELS ARE STILL BOTTLED UP IN THE YANGTZE RIVER BY THE COMMUNISTS.

THE DEFECTION BY THE CHINA MERCHANTS COMPANY OFFICE HERE WAS FORESHADOWED EARLIER BY REJECTION OF ORDERS OF ITS HEAD OFFICE ON FORMOSA TO SEND ALL VESSELS THERE. IT HAD SAID THERE WERE INSUFFICIENT FUNDS TO FINANCE SAILINGS TO FORMOSA, THE NATIONALIST LAST-STAND ISLAND BASTION.

THIS DECISIVE ACTION, THE TIMES DECLARES, "MAY BE EXPECTED TO BROADEN THE BASE OF THE DEBATE NOW TAKING PLACE IN CONGRESS. IT MAKES CLEAR, BETTER THAN ANY ARGUMENT COULD, THAT THE DISPOSITION OF FORMOSA IS A SMALL PART OF THE TOTAL PROBLEM."

THE TIMES CONCLUDES, "OUR PRIOR COURSE OF ACTION HAS OBVIOUSLY FAILED. THE DEBATE ON CHINA, THEREFORE, MUST LEAVE THE WATER THAT HAS GONE OVER THE DAM AND LOOK TOWARD NEW AND BETTER MODES OF APPROACH, WISER AND STRONGER POLICIES."

THE HERALD TRIBUNE, IN AN EDITORIAL HEADLINED "CALCULATED DEFIANCE" SAYS "IF THERE ANY AMERICANS WHO STILL BELIEVE RECOGNITION OF THE RED REGIME IN CHINA IS SOMETHING WHICH CAN BE USED TO BRIBE THE COMMUNISTS INTO BETTER BEHAVIOR, THE SEIZURE OF THE CONSULATE AT PEIPING MUST COME AS A COMPLETE DISILLUSIONMENT."

THE NEWSPAPER SAID THE "CALCULATED DEFIANCE OF THE UNITED STATES AT PEIPING MAY ALSO BE A PART OF A GENERAL RUSSIAN STRATEGY TO INFLUENCE THEIR SATELLITES IN THE DIRECTION OF BREAKING ALL CONNECTIONS WITH THE WEST, TO TRY TO STAMP OUT ALL SOURCES OF WESTERN INFLUENCE. IF SO, THE UNITED STATES IS ONLY THE FIRST VICTIM IN CHINA OF SUCH TACTICS; THE NATIONS WHICH HAVE ALREADY RECOGNIZED THE NEW GOVERNMENT WILL HAVE THEIR TURN."

LAKE SUCCESS, JAN. 15-(AP)-NATIONALIST CHINESE SOURCES SAY THEIR DELEGATION CAN FIGHT OFF ANY ATTEMPT BY CHINESE COMMUNIST SYMPATHIZERS TO READ THEM OUT OF THE UNITED NATIONS LITTLE ASSEMBLY WHICH MEETS TOMORROW.

THE NATIONALISTS REMAIN IN THE U.N. SECURITY COUNCIL ON A 3-6 VOTE, INCLUDING THEIR OWN, AND IT APPEARED THEY WOULD BE ABLE TO KEEP THEIR COUNCIL SEAT FOR AN INDEFINITE TIME.

"IF THE SECURITY COUNCIL, FIVE OF WHOSE 11 MEMBERS HAVE RECOGNIZED THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS, DID NOT UNSEAT US, THEN THE LITTLE ASSEMBLY IS UNLIKELY TO," ONE NATIONALIST SPOKESMAN SAID.

"MOST OF THE MEMBERS OF THE U.N. HAVE NOT RECOGNIZED THE COMMUNISTS."

THE LITTLE ASSEMBLY WILL TAKE UP NATIONALIST LEADER T.F.TSIANG'S CHARGES THAT SOVIET RUSSIA VIOLATED OLD TREATIES WITH THE NATIONALISTS AND GAVE MILITARY AND OTHER AID TO THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS. THAT, SAYS TSIANG, ENDANGERS THE PEACE OF THE FAR EAST.

THE U.N. GENERAL ASSEMBLY IN ITS LAST SESSION VOTED A HANDS-OFF POLICY ON CHINA BUT SAID THAT THE LITTLE ASSEMBLY COULD STUDY ANY FURTHER CHARGES, EVEN TO THE POINT OF HAVING THE SECRETARY-GENERAL REPORT THE CASE TO THE SECURITY COUNCIL.

TSIANG HAS NOT MADE KNOWN WHETHER HE WILL REPEAT HIS DEMANDS THAT U.N. MEMBERS WITHHOLD ALL AID FROM THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS AND REFUSE THEM DIPLOMATIC RECOGNITION. TSIANG WITHDREW HIS DEMANDS IN THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY AND A DOZEN NATIONS, INCLUDING BRITAIN, HAVE SINCE RECOGNIZED THE COMMUNIST REGIME.

RUSSIA WILL IGNORE ANY LITTLE ASSEMBLY ACTION, SINCE IT CONSIDERS THE BODY ILLEGAL AND STAYS AWAY FROM IT. BUT THE WAY IS OPEN FOR TSIANG TO TRY TO GET THE CASE REFERRED BACK TO THE SECURITY COUNCIL, OF WHICH HE IS CHAIRMAN FOR JANUARY.

HIS RIGHT TO SIT ON THE COUNCIL AND TO CONTINUE AS CHAIRMAN WAS GUARANTEED IN THE VOTE FRIDAY THAT BROUGHT THE SECOND SOVIET WALKOUT IN A WEEK. RUSSIAN DELEGATE JAKOB MALIK SAID HE WILL STAY UNTIL THE NATIONALISTS ARE OUSTED FROM IT, AND CHALLENGED THE COUNCIL'S LEGAL RIGHT TO ACT WITH RUSSIA ABSENT.

ALTHOUGH YUGOSLAVIA'S ALES BEBLER HAS SAID HE SEES NO REASON FOR YUGOSLAVIA TO PARTICIPATE IN THE LITTLE ASSEMBLY--REVERSING ITS PAST BOYCOTT--THERE WAS SOME FEELING AROUND THE U.N. THAT HE MIGHT SHOW UP TO CONTEST NATIONALIST CHINA'S CREDENTIALS.

YUGOSLAVIA, ALONG WITH INDIA, VOTED WITH RUSSIA TO OUST TSIANG FROM THE SECURITY COUNCIL. AFTER THE RUSSIANS WALKED OUT, BEBLER TRIED TO KEEP TSIANG FROM RESUMING THE CHAIR AND SAID HE WOULD PRESENT A RESOLUTION AT THE NEXT COUNCIL MEETING TUESDAY ASKING FOR TSIANG TO BE SUPPLANTED AS CHAIRMAN.

THE NATIONALISTS SAY THAT ALTHOUGH YUGOSLAVIA HAS RECOGNIZED THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS, THE LATTER HAVE IGNORED THE YUGOSLAVS BECAUSE THEY ARE ON THE OUTS WITH THE COMINFORM. THEY TAKE SOME SMALL COMFORT FROM THAT FACT.

POLAND, CZECHOSLOVAKIA, THE UKRAINE AND WHITE RUSSIA ALSO BOYCOTT THE LITTLE ASSEMBLY BECAUSE THE SOVIET UNION DOES.

BY EDWARD CURTIS

LONDON, JAN.13-(AP)-BRITAIN IS AIMING AT ANOTHER SHARP CUT IN DOLLAR SPENDING FOR FOOD, TOBACCO AND RAW MATERIALS TO PREPARE FOR THE END OF MARSHALL AID IN 1952.

THIS WAS DISCLOSED TODAY IN AN OFFICIAL MEMORANDUM SUBMITTED TO THE ORGANIZATION FOR EUROPEAN ECONOMIC COOPERATION.

THE DROP IN PURCHASES FROM THE DOLLAR AREAS WILL BE ACCOMPANIED BY THE CUTBACK IN MARSHALL AID FUNDS EXPECTED FOR BRITAIN IN THE NEXT TWO YEARS.

BRITISH PLANNING IS ON THE ASSUMPTION, THE MEMORANDUM SAID, THAT ITS MARSHALL AID FUNDS WOULD BE $720,000,000 FOR 1950-51, AND $480,000,000 FOR 1951-52.

JAN 15 1950

IN THE CURRENT 1949-50 PERIOD, BRITAIN IS RECEIVING MARSHALL AID HELP AT THE RATE OF $920,000,000 A YEAR. THE MARSHALL AID FISCAL YEAR BEGINS JULY 1.

BRITAIN'S DOLLAR SPENDING, MOSTLY IN THE UNITED STATES AND CANADA, WAS $1,544,600,000 IN [redacted]1948-49.

IT NOW IS IN THE PROCESS OF REDUCING THESE DOLLAR EXPENSES TO $1,389,100,000 FOR THE CURRENT YEAR OF 1949-50.

ITS TARGET IS TO WHITTLE THESE DOLLAR COSTS TO $1,179,700,000 FOR 1950-51, AND TO $1,039,600,000 FOR 1951-52.

THE MEMORANDUM MAKES NO ESTIMATE OF THE NATION'S DOLLAR NEEDS AFTER MARSHALL ENDS JUNE 30, 1952.

WHILE DOLLAR PURCHASES OF PETROLEUM PRODUCTS WILL BE SLASHED, BRITAIN PLANS TO INCREASE CRUDE OIL PURCHASES FROM $20,700,000 IN 1949-50 TO $44,000,000 IN 1951-52. IT EXPECTS TO HAVE ADDITIONAL REFINING CAPACITY OPERATING IN ENGLAND SOME TIME IN 1952.

THE COUNTRY HAD BUILT UP CONSIDERABLE STOCKS OF RAW COTTON. IN 1948-49, DOLLAR COSTS OF COTTON WERE $126,000,000 DROPPING TO $98,700,000 IN 1949-50. BRITAIN EXPECTS TO SPEND ON COTTON $118,600,000 IN 1950-51, AND $113,600,000 IN 1951-52.

THE MEMORANDUM SAID THE ECONOMIC PLANNING WAS BASED ON THE ASSUMPTION THAT U.S. BUSINESS CONDITIONS WILL REMAIN UNCHANGED AND CONTINUE TO PROVIDE BRITAIN WITH A MARKET FOR DOLLAR EARNINGS, AND THE PRICES OF DOLLAR SUPPLIES WOULD STAY AROUND THE LEVEL OF OCT 20, 1949.

THE MEMORANDUM MAKES NO ESTIMATE OF THE NATION'S DOLLAR NEEDS AFTER MARSHALL ENDS JUNE 30, 1952.

PARIS DENIES BONN ROLE IN SAAR MINES

JAN 16 1950

Adenauer So Notified By Schuman, French Foreign Office Says

Paris, Jan. 16 (AP)—A Foreign Office spokesman said today France flatly rejects the suggestion that western Germany must be consulted on any deal for the Saar coal mines.

He said Robert Schuman, Foreign Minister, informed German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer of this in their conversation Sunday.

Schuman is to meet in Paris early in February with Johannes Hoffman, Minister-President of the Saar, to draft a contract for access to the Saar's coal—now being mined at a rate of 15,000,000 tons a year.

The coal is now being mined by a French-controlled agency. Some sources believed the mines may be nationalized by the Saar and then exploited by a French agency under contract to the Saar government.

The territory's status is causing considerable concern to neutral observers here because of its tempestuous history.

In Saarbruecken, capital of the territory, Hoffman said today, "the people of the Saar want to build their own house, and that wish should be respected in Germany."

ADD

coal mines which he claimed belonged to the West German republic.

In London, qualified sources said Britain believes a French proposal to lease the mines "might prejudice the final German peace treaty."

The German chancellor told a news conference France's proposals for a lease for 50 years amount to "practical sale" of the properties without consent of the owner.

Confers With Schuman

Adenauer spoke after a two-hour conference yesterday with French Foreign Minister Robert Schuman at which, he said, they disagreed on "many points." "In many points we agreed," he added.

One of the points on which they agreed, apparently, was that Germany should be given assurances of security from Russia by the western powers.

Adenauer said it was of "great concern to us to get assurance by the appropriate authorities that those powers which demilitarized us will take care of our security now. Mr. Schuman showed his complete agreement on this point."

Adenauer has urged such assurances be given rather than that Germany be rearmed.

Schuman was in Berlin today for a visit with German, French, British and American officials and a courtesy cocktail with Russian dignitaries.

Yesterday he told a news conference there would be no change in the political status of the Saar until a peace treaty with Germany is concluded.

Left For Peace Treaty

That view coincided with the views of Adenauer who declared on Saturday a solution of the Saar question should be left for the peace treaty. He declared efforts to reach a one-sided solution now would present Germany with an accomplished fact which would give Russia a better excuse to detach eastern Germany at the Oder-Niesse line.

The Saar, by agreement of the British and American foreign ministers though without Soviet concurrence, now has a special status under French occupation. It has its own local German government elected in 1947 and is not represented either in the Bonn or Paris parliaments.

France has integrated the 738-square mile territory, with its estimated 9,000,000,000-ton coal reserves, into her customs system, however, and seeks to bind it in other ways with her economy.

Cites Bonn Constitution

After World War I its coal mines were given to France as compensation for destruction of her northern coal mines. But Germany bought back the mines after the Saarlanders voted overwhelmingly in 1935 to discard their government under a League of Nations commission and return to Germany.

Germany agreed in 1934 to pay 900,000,000 French francs, then worth $54,000,000, for the mines, railways, currencies and other French state credits in the territory.

Today Adenauer declared the mines belong to the West German Republic because its constitution, approved by the Western powers, declares all property of the former German Reich belongs to the Bonn Government.

Adenauer said he opposed more independence for the Saar than it enjoys at present if that meant "the Saar should be severed from Germany."

Blames Saar Government

"This savors of trying to create accomplished facts before a peace treaty is made," he added.

He said Johannes Hoffman, Minister-President of the Saar, apparently feels that the Saar problem should be settled now since there is no imminent prospect of a peace treaty.

He then warned that "the people of the Saar must now be wary of what their Government wants. It is evidently Hoffman's intention to have the Saar mines turned over to the Saar first. Then they would be leased to France for 50 years.

He said he did not welcome the raising of the Saar question now because the time is not "ripe," and blamed the Saar Government for taking the initiative.

"A solution of the Saar problem within the framework of the European union would have been better," he added.

Schuman said yesterday an interim solution of the mine question was desirable now because France had exploited the mines since 1945 without any formal agreement and the "Saar people need a treaty to limit the rights of France."

ADENAUER CLAIMS SAAR COAL MINES

BONN, Germany, Jan. 16—(AP) Chancellor Konrad Adenauer today challenged France's plan to take a long-term lease on the Saar Basin

Long Saar Mine Lease Rejected By Adenauer

Bonn, Germany, Jan. 16 (AP)—Konrad Adenauer, Chancellor of the West German republic, rejected today French desires for a long-term lease on the coal mines of the Saar Valley.

Adenauer said the mines belong to West Germany, and added:

It is out of the question that a practical sale of the Saar coal mines could be undertaken without first consulting the legal owner. One cannot ignore legal facts."

Adenauer revealed he had discussed this with French Foreign Minister Robert Schuman on the latter's visit yesterday. Schuman has gone to Berlin in what is described as a good-will mission.

Await Peace Treaty

Schuman had told Adenauer the future of the coal-rich Saar, which France has attached to her economy, will not be decided until the German peace treaty is written. Meanwhile, Schuman said France would "continue to apply its present political policy in the Saar."

The Saar Valley was under a League of Nations trusteeship after the Treaty of Versailles ending World War I. Hitler incorporated the Saar into his Third Reich in 1935 after a plebiscite. Today it is semi-autonomous under French occupation. West Germany wants it back, fearing France will present long-term concessions as accomplished facts when the peace conference is convened.

Alarmed At Report

The Germans apparently had been alarmed by reports that the French sought long-term leases of 50 or 99 years on the Saar coal mines.

Adenauer said he and Schuman had agreed on "many points" but were at odds on others. He particularly rejected extension of autonomy for the Saar, saying this would create a situtaion like that in the East, with Poland's absorption of large parts of what had been East Germany.

The Saar mines, he insisted, are German property, and the German constitution says all property of the former Reich belongs to the republic. Since the Western Allies approved this constitution, they also approved the provision relating to former Reich property, the Chancellor said.

bers for recognizing the Communist Government. The new action directed against the United States gave them additional cause for worry.

May Revise Treaty

The exact status of the British recognition move stays clouded. Foreign office sources said the British consul-general at Peiping had been instructed to ask the Communist for further explanation of the Red regime's reply to the British note extending recognition.

Foreign Minister Chou En-lai answered the British note last week by saying the Communist regime is willing to exchange diplomatic representatives after further negotiations.

Status Uncertain

The British want to know about what the Chinese Reds plan to negotiate. Some British newspapers have speculated that the Mao Tze-tung regime wants a revision of British-Chinese treaties.

Official sources said until the matter is clarified C. H. Hutchison, British charge de'affairs, will not go to Peiping as British representative to the new regime.

Dutch Protest Peiping Seizure

The Hague, Jan. 16 (AP)—The Netherlands is protesting to the Chinese Communists against the seizure of Dutch diplomatic properties in Peiping, the Foreign Office announced today.

The office instructed its representative in Peiping, N. A. J. de Voogd, to protest to Peiping Chinese authorities. A week ago, the Chinese authorities announced requisitioning of the eastern compound of the Netherlands consular property.

"It is not known for what purpose the municipal authorities in Peiping wish to use the Netherlands eastern compound. Presumably it is for housing purposes," the communiqué said.

The building in the east compound originally was used by the legation guard, although it has not been used recently. Netherlands representatives live in the main building, a few blocks away, and "there are no indications that the requisitioning of the main building is also planned," the statement said.

British Food Shortage Overcome: Strachey

JAN 16 1950

London, Jan. 16 (AP)—Food Minister John Strachey asserted today Britain's Labor Government has "largely overcome" the world food and dollar shortages.

The British people, he declared, are eating better now than they did before World War II.

"Judged by the three most significant indices of nutrition—calories, proteins and fats—we have passed the prewar level," Strachey told the Fabian Society, a Socialist group. HAL COOPER

Bulk Buying Cited

Strachey said the Labor Government attacked the world food shortage by "a very positive policy designed to stimulate and increase world food production in every possible way."

Its main weapon, he said, is bulk buying—a device by which the Government purchases food from other countries and parcels it out to wholesalers—and the long-term contract.

One example of this is the beef contract with Argentina. British meat wholesalers and the opposition Conservative party are making this policy one of the main issues in the general election February 23. They say private enterprise could do the job better.

45 Contracts Now

Strachey said the Labor Governmen now has "no less than 45 of these arrangements in operation all over the world—and it is my opinion that they have done more than any other single factor to give the overseas producers the necessary confidence to expand their production."

As for the dollar shortage, in terms of the food problem, Strachey declared:

"When I joined the Ministry in 1946 we were buying 36 per cent of all our food imports from dollar sources. Today we are buying 12 per cent and of that no less than 9 per cent is wheat.

Wheat Is Exception

"Wheat is the only remaining foodstuff on which we are dependent for dollar imports.

"I tremble to think of what the food supply of the people would be if we had not carried out that major switching operation, and carried it out in time.

"I say that we have largely overcome these two crises—the crisis of the world food shortage and the crisis of the dollar shortage."

London On Treaty

London, Jan. 16 (AP)—Qualified sources said today Britain thinks a French proposal to lease Saarland coal mines for 50 years "might prejudice the final German peace treaty."

The sources, who are in a position to know Britain's official attitude, made the point that the French promised to take no action in the Saar which might prejudice the final form of an Allied peace treaty with Germany.

It is expected to provide for a customs union, lowering of import and export quotas and a system of freer interchange of currencies.

Reliable sources predicted Holland and possibly one of two other nations would insist on West Germany's immediate admission to the pact, although France has urged that the Bonn republic be kept out until later.

New Franco-German Trade Pact Reported

Paris, Jan. 16 (AP)—France and West Germany will sign a new trade pact Wednesday for an estimated $400,000,000 worth of business, informed sources said today.

Vollhardt von Maltzahn, chief of the Bonn Government's Economic Mission to Paris, has returned to western Germany with a draft of the completed agreement. He is to return to Paris Wednesday morning to sign the trade accord.

The Franco-German trade talks began December 1 and have been delayed by differences on technical details of the list of goods each country will sell to the other. The present trade agreement between France and Germany, providing for a year's business totaling about $125,000,000, expires in June.

Five Nations Group May Take Reich In

JAN 16 1950

By the Associated Press.

PARIS, Jan. 16.—Foreign and Finance Ministers of five West European nations, nicknamed "Fritalux," meet here next Monday to sign an agreement gearing their economies together.

The Fritalux nations are France, Italy, Belgium ,Holland and Luxembourg. Their remaining task before signing the accord is to decide whether the West German republic should be invited into the group immediately or later.

Another will be to decide whether to stick to the nickname "Fritalux" or change it to something else. "Finebell," which has the initials of all five, has been suggested.

Financial experts of the five nations are to meet in Paris Thursday to put the finishing touches on technical clauses in the agreement.

Palestine Commission Resumes Its Efforts

Geneva, Switzerland, Jan. 16 (AP). The United Nations Palestine Conciliation Commission resumed its efforts here today to achieve a permanent peace settlement between Israel and her Arab neighbors.

The first session of the three member commission opened at Lausanne, Switzerland, last April and was adjourned after five months of fruitless work. The commission met again during the General Assembly in New York and went to work for the third time here today.

It had new instructions from the United Nations, and Gordon R. Clapp's Middle East survey formed an economic basis for the negotiations.

A short communiqué put out by the commission today said talks with Israel and her Arab neighbors are to be reopened January 23. Egypt, Jordan, Syria, Lebanon and Israel were represented at the Lausanne and New York sessions of the commission.

The commission decided to convene a meeting tomorrow of its general committee to discuss the question of frozen assets in Israel and the Arab countries. ADD

Spain Reported Negotiating With Russians For Wheat

Louis Nevin

Madrid, Jan. 16 (AP)—Generalissimo Franco, arch anti-Communist, is reliably reported to be trying to do business with Russia because the Western powers will not deal with him.

Usually well-informed sources said today Spanish representatives in Cairo and Paris are negotiating a multimillion-dollar barter agreement with Soviet diplomats. If concluded the deal would provide for a swap of Spanish mercury, wolfram, olive oil and wines for Russian wheat and petroleum products.

The informants said Spain was forced to separate her economic policy from her political policy of ardent anti-communism because of the complete breakdown of her trade agreement with Argentina and the United States' unwillingness to give Spain a dollar loan on easy terms.

Argentine Deal Off

Spain has staved off famine since the end of the civil war mostly with wheat shipped from Argentina on credit. Last month Argentine President Juan D. Perón told Franco he had his own money troubles and could not keep up the unpaid shipments.

When the Argentine shipments lagged Spain was forced to spend the last $8,000,000 of a $25,000,000 loan from New York's Chase National Bank to buy wheat in the United States and Canada. Spain also bought an undisclosed number of dollars in the Tangiers free money market to pay for food imports.

American experts in Madrid estimate Spain will need about 250,000 more tons of wheat before her own harvest comes in to avoid starvation.

Shipments To Czechs

An advertisement, obviously directed at Russia, appeared Friday in the Ministry of Commerce and Industry's official Bulletin. It called for bids to supply 500,000 tons of grain payable in dollars, convertible pesetas or through barter.

Spain would, of course, give first choice to anybody offering to swap wheat for Spanish products. But if nobody offers she would have to try to find the dollars to pay.

Franco's Government began trading with Communist countries directly several months ago. An unannounced quantity of cork was shipped to Czechoslovakia November 3, and 3,000 gallons of olive oil in December. Now the Government hopes its representatives in Paris and Cairo will be able to turn up bigger deals.

The Paris negotiator began talks several months ago, the sources said, through the Polish Embassy there. Now, the informants said, the talks have progressed so far that Spanish diplomats are dealing directly with the Russians.

Russia Turns Over Prison Camps In East Germany to Local Rule

JAN 16 1950

Richard K. O'Malley

BERLIN, Jan. 16 — (AP) Russia announced tonight that she is washing her hands of all concentration camps in Eastern Germany where at least 29,649 prisoners are being held.

Fifteen thousand will be turned loose at once, but 14,000 will be turned over to the East German government.

Gen. Vassilly Chukov, chief of the Soviet Control Commission, in a letter to acting Prime Minister Walter Ulbricht of the East German government named three former Nazi concentration camps where Soviet administration will be liquidated. They were Buchenwald, Sachsenhausen and Bautzen. The latter, carried by the Soviet-licensed news agency ADN was dated Jan. 14.

The Russians never have admitted the existence of concentration camps in Eastern Germany. They called them internment camps.

The announcement meant the East German government will operate some of the camps and accept responsibility for them.

Chuikov's letter said 10,500 prisoners "convicted by war tribunals" would be turned over to East Germany for safekeeping at Bautzen.

Another 3,500 will be turned over to East German authorities for "investigation of criminal activities," the announcement said, while 649 will be kept by the Russians because of their "grave crimes against the Soviet Union."

Fifteen thousand will be released immediately, however.

This made a total of 29,649. Western German estimates of prisoners in the camps have ranged from 30,000 to 36,000.

Buchenwald, where Ilse Koch reigned as queen, was termed a Nazi "extermination factory" in an official American army report after its liberation by American troops in 1945. The soldiers found 20,000 emaciated, tortured prisoners there.

Thirty Nazi leaders of the camp were hanged for atrocities which, official allied reports said, included the killing of over 200,000 persons.

For a while after the surrender of Germany the camp was used as a shelter for refugees and displaced persons. In June, 1947 it was reported that the Russians had reopened it as a prison for political offenders.

Sachsenhausen also was a Nazi death camp. American newsmen visited the camp in August, 1947 and interviewed German prisoners held there by the Russians on war crimes charges.

Russ To End Camp Setup In East Zone

Berlin, Jan. 16 (AP)—Gen. Vassily Chuikov, chief of the Soviet Control Commission in Germany, notified East German authorities tonight that all concentration camps in the East zone will be liquidated immediately.

Estimates of the number of persons held in the concentration camps in the Soviet zone have run as high as 35,000.

The Soviet move could be tied in with the Communists' new offensive aimed at wooing Western Germans and solidifying the Red following in the East Zone under the banner of "German unity." Germans on the fence might be influenced favorably by a camp-liberation program. Such a "liberation program" had been expected.

However, West Berliners say many in the concentration camps will be transferred automatically to forced labor camps in Russia.

The biggest concentration camps in the east zone are Sachsenhausen and Buchenwald, both former Nazi horror camps converted to postwar use by the Russians. Saxony also has Bautzen camp, a big center for political internees. ADD

Added Arrests Reported In Czech Plot

Prague, Jan. 16 (AP)—Unofficial but reliable Czech sources today reported new arrests in Prague which were said to be connected with an army revolt plot.

In the absence of official comment, it could not be determined how widespread the arrests were.

However, eyewitnesses reported six arrests had been made in a single apartment house in the Holesovice section. Most of those seized there had served in the Czech forces in England during the war and afterward in the Defense Ministry here.

Friday 13th Plot

Reasons for the arrest were not known. However, friends of some of the arrested men reported that they were made in connection with some real or rumored army coup which was to have come off last week, on Friday the thirteenth, and had been discovered by the Communist Government.

Among those arrested was a Roman Catholic priest who had served as a Czech Air Force chaplain in England and in the Defense Ministry after his return to Prague.

Another was a Major Bejcek, well-known steeplechase rider. Major Bejcek had never served outside Czechoslovakia.

HUNGARY REJECTS NOTES

U. S. and British Demands on Human Rights Turned Down

BUDAPEST, Hungary, Jan. 16 (AP)—Hungary has once again rejected British and United States demands that she join an international commission to study whether she has violated the human rights clauses of its peace treaty.

The Communist-dominated Government declared that these demands were an attempt to interfere in the internal affairs of Hungary.

The Hungarian position was contained in notes handed to the United States and British Legations and in a letter to the International Court of Justice at The Hague. ADD

30.24- 8273

The United Nations General Assembly voted last fall to have the International Court investigate the charges.

Today's notes said the Western powers' action was "propagandistic." They also said that Hungary did not see the existence of any dispute concerning the execution of its peace treaties as she had strictly fulfilled her obligations.

Poles Oust 21 More French

WARSAW, Jan. 16 (AP).—Poland expelled twenty-one French citizens today, bringing the total to forty-five. Among those ejected today was Pierre Marschal, correspondent of the French News Agency. France, in retaliation, has expelled seventy-five Poles during the last two months.

FINLAND VOTES FOR PRESIDENT

ANN MARIE INELLMAN

Doesn't Know Government's Stand On Soviet Note

Helsinki, Finland, Jan. 16 (AP)—Finnish voters held their first presidential election since 1937 today without knowing what their Government will reply to Russia's demand for extradition of a long list of alleged Soviet war criminals.

The 79-year-old Juho K. Paasikivi, who is running for re-election, was generally expected to win in a close three-cornered race, though he faced tough competition.

The voting, which will continue tomorrow, is for 300 electors who meet February 15 to name the new president for a six-year term.

Loud Communist Opposition

The election took on special significance because of a schism in the Social Democratic party, one of Paasikivi's supporting coalition; the loud opposition of the Soviet-backed Communist-dominated Peoples Democratic party, and the unpredictable strength of the Agrarians, largest party in the present parliament.

Russia's New Year's Eve note accusing the Finns of harboring 300 war criminals was generally believed here to have been intended to show dissatisfaction with Finland's present Government and to support Finland's Communist party in the presidential campaign.

Mannerheim To Return

The return tomorrow of Finland's hero, former President Field Marshal Baron Carl Gustaf Mannerheim, from a Swiss health resort to cast his vote added a dramatic touch to the election. Paasikivi was elected by Parliament for a four-year term to succeed Mannerheim in March, 1946, when the Marshal resigned because of ill health. Mannerheim led the Finns in their two recent wars with Russia, as well as in their fight for independence in 1917.

The Moscow radio said Mannerheim probably will attempt to give assistance to the supporters of the "Paasikivi line."

The main theme in the Peoples Democratic campaign was closer relations with the Soviet Union and a heavy attack on the President.

Intense Cold In North

Former Premier Mauno Pekkala is the candidate of the Peoples Democrats. He has been hailed by the Soviet Government's official organ, Izvestia, and Moscow's Literary Gazette.

An intense cold wave over large parts of the northern countryside was expected to work against Paasikivi's toughest opponent, the Agrarian speaker of parliament, Dr. Urho Kekkonen, who made more than 200 appearances in remote parts of the country.

His speeches were directed mainly against Social Democratic Premier Karl A. Fagerholm's farm policy. He did not attack the Government's foreign policy.

Some observers believe Pekkala's Peoples Democrats might order their electors to switch to Kekkonen at the last minute in an effort to defeat Paasikivi, the candidate of conservatives, two small liberal parties and a majority of Social Democrats.

A split in the Social Democratic ranks was indicated by a recent statement of Vaino Tanner, former Social Democratic Premier and Foreign Minister, that Paasikivi was not the party's candidate. Premier Fagerholm several times had declared Paasikivi was the party candidate. Tanner served several months in prison on the charge he was responsible for leading Finland into war with Russia.

Premier Fagerholm today declared the Finnish Government so far has not discussed the Finnish reply to Russia's note on war criminals.

Fagerholm said the Foreign Affairs committee will meet tomorrow to discuss the drafting of the Finnish reply. He said he expected the discussions would require two days.

Russian Paper Attacks American Sports System

JAN 16 1950

Moscow, Jan. 16 (AP)—It is claimed here by a Soviet newspaper that the only people in the United States who can afford to engage in sports are the rich and professionals.

Komsomol Pravda declared that sport in America is not available to the workers and farmers because they have neither money nor time for it.

The paper went on to say that "in America there can engage in sport only the narrow class of rich students and the relatively small number of professionals."

Military Urges Youths

Komsomol Pravda claimed that recently there have been demands that United States youth get into sports. It added that these voices are chiefly from the American military who see in sport a valuable means of military training and militarization.

The paper quoted General Eisenhower, now president of Columbia, as favoring wider development of sport on the grounds that every good soldier during the past war had been connected in one way or another with sports.

It said: "For the newly-appeared claimants to world domination sport is necessary for the preparation of 'good soldiers.'"

Categories Dictated

It added that military considerations dictate the kinds of sport played in America. It said that "American militarists set their hopes on sport because bourgeois sport kills thought, conscience, humanity."

It said Amercian boxing, for instance, has long since turned into a repulsive sadistic spectacle in which criminals and gangsters engage and in which there are a greater number of fatalities than anywhere else in the world.

It said wrestlers continually are thinking up newer and newer repulsive means of shocking spectators.

Seek Maximum Deaths

It said that American football, hockey, auto races, bicycle races, motorcycle races and other sports are organized to assure the maximum number of deaths and maimings. It said this is considered a necessary flavoring in order to please the American public.

Komsomol Pravda wrote: "American sport educates the youth of the United States in the spirit of humanity hating and cruelty, implants in it sadism and other beastly instincts and makes uncontrolled 'supermen.' It is just this type of 'good soldier' which the imperialists wish to see."

The paper said that at present all physical education classes have been transformed into schools for the preparation of sport instructors for the Army. It said militarization has penetrated the Y.M.C.A. and other sport institutions.

It added that ordinary people of America are resisting actively the attempt to militarize sports.

CHIANG'S PLANES BATTER REDS' INVASION FLEET

Spencer Moosa

TAIPEI, Formosa, Jan. 16—(AP) The Chinese nationalists announced today one of the heaviest air attacks of the civil war had smashed many communist vessels massed for intended invasions of Hainan and other nationalist islands.

The official report said more than 100 planes did extensive damage Sunday to red junks along the Liuchow Peninsula, nearest the big island of Hainan.

Say Troop-Laden Ships Sunk

It said other nationalist air forces today sank many troop-laden communist junks near Weichow, a small island 40 miles west of the Liuchow Peninsula .

The nationalist defense ministry reported an overwater artillery exchange was in progress on the southeast coast between reds on the mainland near Swatow and nationalists on Namoa Island, nine miles offshore.

The communists established a beachhead on Namoa two days ago, but the nationalist report today made no mention of fighting on the island itself. It did say 3,000 reds were beaten off in an attempt to land on Linting islet, midway between Namoa and the mainland.

The ministry also reported renewed conflict on the mainland. It said nationalist and communist regulars were fighting near Paichieh and Funing, in southwest Kwangsi and southeast Yunnan provinces.

(These ponits are a score of miles from the border of French Indochina. It is likely that the fighting is by remnants of the nationalist south China command, thousands of which already have fled into Indochina.)

Another official dispatch declared the nationalists were strengthening their hold on the far western province of Sikang, bordering Tibet. It said the new Gov. Ho Kuo-kwang was pushing a drive to root out red elements among the population. He succeeded Gov. Liu Wen-hui, old west China warlord who went over to the communists in December.

Informed quarters in this nationalist capital predicted proclamation soon of an air blockade of red China. This would be intended to support the naval blockade already in force, particularly against Shanghai.

In the political field, Philip Jessup, roving American ambassador, conferred for an hour and a half tonight with Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek.

What they discussed was not disclosed but it was believed Chiang told Jessup he could hold Formosa with limited aid and appealed for further funds to stabilize the island economy.

Jessup is flying to Hong Kong Tuesday and to visit Manila, Singapore, Rangoon and other points before attending the conference of American Far East diplomats in Bangkok in February.

Israel Tightens Security

JAN 16 1950

Tel Aviv, Israel, Jan. 16 (AP) — Israel, closely watching reports of British arms shipments to the Arab nations, started the machinery for tightening military preparedness today.

The misreading of posters calling on men and women to register for "National Service" caused a sudden salt shortage yesterday in Jerusalem. The people misread the posters as a call for total military mobilization and began buying up stocks in the belief that war was just around the corner.

Under an Israel army law passed by Parliament last year the posters called for registration of all men from 18 to 49 and childless women up to 34.

No Reason For Panic

Army leaders recently warned that "Arab states have been rearming at an accelerated pace" and added the Arabic press was emphasizing the present Jewish-Arab armistice "is only a breathing space."

The confirmation by Dean Acheson, United States Secretary of State, that Britain has resumed arms shipments to Arab nations was observed with interest here.

A military spokesman said Israel must be on guard, but there is no reason for panic.

Four recruiting stations were opened in Jerusalem for the registration. The listing of available soldiers will be extended throughout the nation by the end of this month.

One Month's Service

The Israel "National Service" is a combination of military training and agricultural emergency work in newly established frontier settlements.

Training of demobilized soldiers consists of one month annually for all up to the age of 39 and two weeks for those up to 49. Later registration will include all those above 29 who previously have not served in the army.

The Israeli Parliament is now considering an amendment to the act which would require two instead of one year's service for women liable to conscription. Another proposal would require 20-year-old men to serve two years in the regular army.

MORGENTHAU IN ISRAEL

Confers With Ben-Gurion on Nation's Economic Problems

TEL AVIV, Israel, Jan. 16 (AP)—Henry Morgenthau Jr., chairman of the United Jewish Appeal, arrived here today to confer with Premier David Ben-Gurion on Israel's financial and economic problems.

The former United States Treasury secretary, making his second Israel visit in fourteen months, said: "I want to see how well the United Jewish Appeal is helping the country cope with the problems of peace—particularly the needs of hundreds of thousands of new immigrants."

Mr. Morgenthau declared that Israel should have much greater economic aid from the United States because "larger American aid would represent a solid investment in world freedom." He added that Israel should receive help under President Truman's program for aiding the under-developed areas.

Dutch Extend Israel Recognition

TEL AVIV, Israel, Jan. 16 (AP)—The Netherlands has extended its recognition of Israel from de facto to de jure, the Foreign Office announced today. De facto recognition acknowledges the existence of a government; de jure means full diplomatic recognition.

Jerusalem Hoarding As War Rumors Spread

Jerusalem, Jan. 16 (AP)—A wave of food hoarding was reported in Jerusalem's poorer quarters today as war rumors spread through the city.

The rumors started when huge posters suddenly appeared calling on all men from 18 to 49 and all childless women up to 34 to register for full or part time "Israel National Service."

The call-up is not for war, a military spokesman explained, but for a combination of military training and agricultural emergency work in the newly established frontier settlements.

The spokesman said the same order will be issued later for other parts of Israel.

Reds Welcome Iran's Ambassador Back

Tehran, Iran, Jan. 16 (AP)—Soviet Ambassador Ivan Sadchikov, accompanied by his wife, returned to his post in Tehran today after an absence of nine months. He was welcomed by the entire Soviet community here and representatives of other Communist states.

[Sadchikov left Tehran for Moscow last April 15. Relations between Russia and Iran were strained at the time and have not improved much since.

[There have been sporadic clashes along the border between Soviet and Iranian troops. About a month and a half ago Iran's Council of Ministers decided to send a "stiff note of protest" to Moscow regarding the border incidents.]

Indonesian Official To Seek Aid In U.S.

Jakarta, Java, Jan. 16 (AP)—Dr. Djuanda, Minister of Economic Affairs, left today to seek financial aid in the United States to bolster the production and export trade of the United States of Indonesia.

He told a news conference the aim of his journey is to study the possibilities of co-operation between the two countries and "also to find out what aid the United States of America will be prepared to afford Indonesia in the economic field."

In particular, Dr. Djuanda said, he will examine the possibility of obtaining "concrete and rapid aid which the Export-Import Bank might give to Indonesia."

WALLACE FACES QUIZ ON URANIUM

JAN 16 1950

House Unit To Question Groves Also On Reported Russ Shipments

Washington, Jan. 16 (AP)—The House Un-American Activities Committee decided today to question former Vice President Henry A Wallace and Lieut. Gen. Leslie R. Groves late this month in its investigation of reported wartime uranium shipments to Russia.

The committee's decision was made known by Representative Nixon (R., Cal.).

Wallace Asks Public Hearing

Groves, wartime head of the Manhattan Atomic Energy Project, was questioned by the committee last month. He said at that time that Wallace had never "pressured" him to let the Russians have atomic information or materials.

Wallace requested a public hearing after Fulton Lewis, Jr., radio commentator, mentioned his name in discussing reported shipments to Russia.

The committee has invited Wallace to testify on January 24 and General Groves on January 25.

No Announcement On Jordan

At his first appearance, Groves told the committee Wallace never applied pressure on him in connection with the atomic enery project.

The committee made no announcement as to whether it will again question George Racey Jordan, former Air Force major who claimed uranium shipments to Russia cleared through the Air Force field at Great Falls, Mont., while he was stationed there.

Wallace has called the Lewis report the "sheerest fabrication" and demanded a chance to testify in his own behalf.

Jordan's story has been termed "inherently incredible" by Representative Harrison (D., Va.), a member of the committee.

Truman Seeks Law Assuring Rubber Supply

Washington, Jan. 16 (AP)—President Truman asked Congress today to pass a new, ten-year law as insurance against a rubber shortage in another war.

The President wants authority now to start shifting at least part of the Government's $700,000,000 synthetic rubber industry to private ownership.

At the same time, he said there must be enough production in an emergency for "adequate protection of the national security."

Mr. Truman's recommendations went to Congress in a message. The President also sent along a report by his assistant, John R. Steelman, on a study of the synthetic rubber problem and what should be done about it at this point.

Should Maintain Capacity

"It appears," Mr. Truman said, "that our present plant capacity of nearly a million tons a year should be maintained to meet emergency needs for synthetic rubber.

"It is not necessary, however, that all this capacity be in operation. Maintenance in a standby condition of those plants which are not being used should, therefore, be authorized."

There was no plant-by-plant list of those that might be kept by the Government or those that might be converted to standby status.

Steelman's report said the synthetic plants have a capacity of 940,000 tons a year. The consumption of all types of rubber, both natural and synthetic, was estimated last year at 982,806 tons. Synthetic represents 410,239 of the total tonnage.

Substantial Stockpile Urged

The report emphasized that since the most critical raw-material shortage of the last war was in rubber, a substantial stockpile of the natural product must be built up. But, it said, "absolute security" in rubber is as impossible as it is in any other field.

The Government is operating a rubber program now under a law passed in 1948 and expiring at the end of June.

That law barred the Government from getting rid of any synthetic plants which were built during the war, but asked the President to make recommendations by this January for disposing of them eventually.

Private-Owner Transfer Urged

Accordingly, Mr. Truman proposed:

"The President should be authorized to dispose of the synthetic rubber facilities to private owners, under conditions which will protect the national security and promote effective competition."

Monopolistic concentration should be avoided, Mr. Truman said, and the Government must see that synthetic rubber is available on fair and reasonable terms to those who need it.

There are several kinds of synthetic rubber, some of them best suited for special purposes, like inner tubes. Most of the production capacity—800,000 tons—is devoted to general-purpose rubber.

Mr. Truman said he believes at present that general-service synthetic should constitute at least a fourth of total rubber consumption, and "not less than 200,000 long tons annually."

Asks Allocation Power

So, he said, he should have power to set from time to time a minimum level of production and consumption "necessary to the national security."

Also, he said, he should have authority to require that general-purpose synthetic be used in certain products—he didn't name them—to the extent needed to assure sufficient production and consumption.

He noted that it is not practical to build up a natural rubber stockpile large enough to meet all emergency needs. Therefore, he said, "we must be equipped to meet the bulk of our needs from domestically produced rubber."

Steelman's report emphasized that the United States "is a nation on tires." More than two-thirds of all rubber consumed here, it said, goes into tires, tubes and repair materials.

Heavily Used In Submarines

But, it said, rubber is indispensable in many other fields. For instance, it said, it is included in hundreds of items of military equipment, and "over 10 per cent of total weight of a modern submarine is rubber."

Attorney General's Powers Upheld In 3 Security Cases

JAN 16 1950

Washington, Jan. 16 (AP)—The Supreme Court, splitting, 4-to-3, today ruled the Attorney General may:

1. Deport aliens convicted of certain crimes even though they were naturalized citizens when convicted.

2. Exclude from this country an American soldier's war bride if the Attorney General regards her as a security risk.

The divided court, acting in three separate cases, held that the Attorney General acted within his rights when he:

1. Ordered the deportation of Richard Eichenlaub, 45, former New York restaurant owner, and Otto A. Willumeit, 45, a onetime leader in the German-American Bund. Both are German-born, former-naturalized citizens.

3 Cases, 2 Rulings, 1 Division

2. Denied admission to Mrs. Ellen Knauff, 33, German-born war bride of a United States veteran merely by ruling that "she would be a hazard to internal security." She is the wife of Kurt W. Knauff, now a civilian employé of the Army at Frankfurt, Germany.

In all three cases, the court majority included Chief Justice Vinson and Justices Reed, Burton and Minton. Justices Black, Frankfurter and Jackson dissented in all three. Justices Douglas and Clark took no part.

Justice Douglas is still absent from the court, recuperating from injuries suffered in a riding accident.

Willumeit served five years in prison for conspiracy to commit espionage. He and four others, including Gerhard Wilhelm Kunz, national Bund leader, were accused of plotting to give military secrets to Germany and Japan in the hope of defeating Russia. Willumeit pleaded guilty in 1942.

Naturalization Revoked

Willumeit, once publisher of a Bund journal, came here from Germany in 1925 and was naturalized in 1931. His naturalization was revoked in 1944 on grounds of fraud in obtaining it.

In 1946 he was ordered out of the country as a dangerous enemy alien.

Eichenlaub was convicted in 1941 of conspiring to act as an agent for a foreign government without having registered as one. His New York restaurant was frequented by several persons alleged to have been German undercover agents. His sentence was eighteen months and a $1,000 fine.

30.24- 8275

Both Plead Naturalized Status

Eichenlaub came to this country in 1930 and was naturalized six years later. His naturalization was canceled in 1944 and the following year he was ordered deported as an undesirable alien.

Both he and Willumeit argued that a 1920 law which provided for the deportation of aliens convicted of certain crimes did not apply to them because at the time of their conviction they were naturalized citizens.

Justice Burton, speaking for the majority in a decision which disposed of both cases, said the words of the 1920 act "do not exempt those who have secured certificates of naturalization but then have lost them by court order on the ground of fraud in their procurement."

Two "Undesirable" Groups

Burton said the majority found nothing in the history of the act to suggest that Congress "intended to distinguish between two such groups of undesirable criminals" as those who had been naturalized and those who had not.

For the dissenters, Frankfurter said that the word "alien" in the 1920 act "should be read to apply only to one who was an alien when convicted and should not be made to apply to persons in the position of these petitioners."

"Where . . . a statute permits either of two possible constructions without violence, the construction which leads to hardship should be rejected in favor of the' permissible construction consonant with humane considerations," Frankfurter said.

In the war-bride case, Mrs. Knauff denied that she was a security risk. She said she was the victim of "a foul denunciation by a woman jealous of my husband."

Knauff himself, on temporary leave, started court proceedings in Newark, N.J., in behalf of his wife. The lower courts held that Congress had given the Attorney General wide discretion in the exclusion of aliens and that his word is final.

Justice Minton, speaking for the Supreme Court majority, upheld this view.

"It is not within the province of any court . . . to review the determination of the political branch of the Government to exclude a given alien," he wrote.

If "Otherwise Admissible"

Minton said the War Brides Act relieved such persons of some immigration requirements only if they were "otherwise admissible under the immigration laws." He said Mrs. Knauff had to stand the test of security but "this she failed to meet."

In his dissent, Jackson said Congress intended to give wide latitude for the admission of war brides in the act, which has since expired. He called the action in Mrs. Knauff's case "an abrupt and brutal exclusion of the wife of an American citizen without a hearing."

Crimes In Security's Name

"Security is like liberty in that many are the crimes in its name," Jackson said. "The menace to the security of this country . . . from this girl's admission is as nothing compared to the menace to free institutions inherent in procedures of this character."

Frankfurter said in a separate dissent that the majority had violated the spirit of the War Brides Act by straining to preserve its letter.

"Congress is not engaged in a scientific process which takes account of every contingency," he said.

"Its laws are not to be read as though every i has to be dotted and every t to be crossed."

develop a means for transporting atomic weapons with as high a degree of effectiveness as possible and at the same time to provide defense against invading aircraft armed with atomic weapons.

"For America to continue its present supremacy in the air will require that it develop military aircraft that can fly faster than sound. This places emphasis on research and development.

"As in the case of the atomic bomb, America cannot expect to enjoy an exclusive advantage. At best it can only plan by vigorous and timely research to stay ahead of any potential enemy in the development of aircraft of superior performance."

The United States is the only country known definitely to have aircraft capable of supersonic speed in level flight.

Senator Brewster, of Maine, chairman of the Republican Senatorial Campaign Committee, said Lucas is off base.

Assails Democrats

"The Democrats are the ones who have made hash out of our foreign policy," Brewster said. "That policy apparently seeks to be fish in Europe and fowl in Asia."

Republicans are expected to reopen the Chinese question in the Senate tomorrow with charges that the withdrawal from the Communist-controlled area represents another result of what they have called the Administration's policy of "appeasement."

Secretary of State Acheson has requested a meeting with the Senate Foreign Relations Committee to discuss the latest China development. Chairman Connally (D., Texas) is home this week and no date for the conference has been set.

Senator George of Georgia, second ranking Democrat on the committee, is expected to call a meeting within the next few days.

GOP members apparently think they have a political advantage over President Truman because of the failure of United States efforts to halt Communists in Asia.

The Chinese Communists have many devices for delaying the withdrawal of foreigners from their land.

The means they have employed include espionage charges, arrests for unexplained reasons and claims for debt settlement prior to the granting of exit permits.

Uncertain On Departures

In issuing its recall order the State Department had no assurance that when the diplomats seek permission to leave it will be given promptly. Indirectly, the department pointed up the possibility that it might not, by comparing the latest incident at Peiping with the Angus Ward case as an evidence of outrageous treatment of Americans.

In Ward's case, the whole consulate staff at Mukden was held in that city for six months after being ordered out by the State Department. Final permission to leave was not given until after Ward was jailed for a month and "convicted" of beating a Chinese employé. All the American officials at Mukden were branded as spies by a Communist court.

TRUMAN SAYS HE'S 'ORDINARY CITIZEN'

Asserts His Only Goal 'Is Peace In The World'

Washington, Jan. 16 (AP)—President Truman, describing himself as "just a farmer from Missouri who had bad luck and got kicked into a big job," vowed tonight that his only goal "is peace in the world."

Speaking at a private dinner of representatives of the nation's Federal Reserve System, the President declared that he is "just an ordinary citizen" who has had to assume "the greatest responsibility in the world."

The President did not discuss his proposed tax program, which he is planning to submit to Congress soon, or any Administration fiscal proposals.

Welfare Of U.S. First

Reporters were not permitted to cover the dinner at Washington's Carlton Hotel, attended by governors of the Federal Reserve System, district chairmen and directors of New York and Minneapolis banks.

However, the White House later made public the text of Mr. Truman's impromptu remarks in which he asserted:

"I haven't any business to be discussing things financial with the financial brains that are before me tonight. I am just a farmer from Missouri wha had bad luck and got kicked into a big job."

Welfare Called Only Interest

He said his only interest is the welfare of the United States and that the welfare of this country "is the welfare of the world."

"Whether we like it or not, we are at the top of the heap in world affairs, a position which none of us likes to contemplate, a position which has responsibilities almost too big for any man or any group of men to contemplate," Mr. Truman commented.

Russians Believed Developing 'Super Planes' to Carry A-Bomb

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16 (AP)—The National Advisory Committee for Aeronautics said today "it is logical to assume" Russia is working hard to develop super-speed warplanes to deliver atomic weapons.

The committee reported American gains in "the continuing race for air leadership," and called for efforts "to consolidate these gains and to push forward."

The NACA, the government's chief agency for basic aviation research, made the statement in its 35th annual report to congress.

Russia was identified by reference to "another nation" that apparently has produced an atomic explosion. The only such country is Russia.

Any nation that wants to make the effort can build "practical military airplanes" able to fly faster than sound, said the report signed by Chairman Jerome C. Hunsaker.

"Superior speed is generally acknowledged to be the most important single element in successful air attack and in defense against attack," the report said. "Range also is important. The attainment of long range poses a most difficult problem."

After mentioning the atomic explosion in Russia, the report said:

"It is logical to assume that an intensive effort is being made to

2 Parties Blamed On Foreign Policy

Washington, Jan. 16 (AP)—Democrats and Republicans accused each other today of trying to make "hash" out of the nation's foreign policies in the Senate argument over Formosa and China.

Senator Lucas, of Illinois, the Democratic leader, said he thinks GOP members who have been attacking President Truman's hands-off policy toward Formosa "have been trying to make political hash."

"They are trying to create an issue on foreign policy without being united in any way on what should be done as an alternative to the Administration's course," Lucas said.

Charges Lack Of Accord

"They are condemning the State Department and pleading ancient history. Yet not one of them agrees with another on what ought to be done about Formosa or anything else."

Lucas upheld the Administration's decision to withdraw all American consular officials from Communist China, after the Communists had invaded the United States consular quarters in Peiping.

Diplomats' Removal Now Facing Acheson

Washington, Jan. 16 (AP)—The new break between the United States and Communist China confronted Secretary of State Acheson today with another crisis in Far Eastern policy.

While all remaining American officials are preparing to withdraw from the Chinese mainland, Acheson's Republican critics in Congress are demanding action ranging from an explanation to a resignation.

The resignation demand came from Senator Knowland (R., Cal.) who branded the new American retreat from China as evidence of a "bankrupt China policy." Knowland said that Assistant Secretary of State for the Far East, W. Walton Butterworth, should get out and that if Acheson approved the Far Eastern policy, he also should quit.

Removals Pose Problem

There were also signs that senatorial criticism is not the end of Acheson's troubles. He now faces the actual removal of the 135 American diplomats and their families from Red China.

U.S. Property Seized

The new break came on Saturday when the State Department announced that the Communists at Peiping had seized the property housing the American consulate office, and that all American officials remaining in China had been ordered home.

Yesterday the department reported that the consuls at Shanghai and Nanking had acknowledged the evacuation order. Department officials said they assumed that the Americans in China were preparing to file applications for exit permits. At best it is estimated that this process will require about one month.

Report Reds Courteous

One favorable note was a report from Consul General O. Edmund Clubb that the Chinese had been very courteous in all their dealings with the Americans. This provided the main basis for hope at the State Department that there would not be a repetition of the Ward case.

Clubb also reported that the Peiping seizure action had not been directed against the United States alone. At the same time that the police invaded the American compound, they also moved into the compound of the Netherlands Embassy and into the former barracks of the French Embassy, Clubb said.

PACT SIGNING NEAR ON ARMS AID PLAN

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16. — (AP) America's billion-dollar arms program for Europe is expected to clear the paper writing stage next week—two months behind schedule.

This was disclosed today by a government official who forecast that separate arms aid agreements with eight Western European countries will be ready for signing then.

At the same time, President Truman is expected to announce his approval of the secret master plan worked out earlier for defending the North Atlantic area against possible Russian attacks.

Both these steps are required by Congress before actual shipments of arms to America's North Atlantic allies can begin.

Even after the arms aid agreements are signed, there probably will be another month's lag before guns, tanks, planes, munitions and other military equipment start moving overseas.

This would make it about mid February, far later than the time hoped for when the program was approved last fall.

The main reason for the delay has been the lengthy discussions with Britain over the terms to be attached to American military help.

The subcommittee will go to Hawaii "at the very earliest time the legislative calendar of the House of Representatives permits."

Last year Senator Butler (R., Neb.), reported on a 1948 inspection trip to Hawaii in connection with pending legislation to give statehood to the territory. At the time he made the trip Butler was chairman of the Senate Committee on Interior and Insular Affairs.

Farrington Urges Inquiry

His report to that committee asserted that Communists had infiltrated into the islands and into the Democratic party there.

Butler opposed the granting of statehood.

Subsequent to his report, the Hawaiian Legislature adopted its resolution urging an inquiry.

Delegate Farrington, of Hawaii, also asked the House committee to make an inquiry to determine the extent to which communism prevailed in the territory.

Both he and Senator Cordon (R., Ore.), who also made an inspection trip to Hawaii, have asserted they do not believe communism is any more prevalent in the territory than in other areas in the United States and on the West Coast.

tapped, but Government attorneys denied it. She asked the high tribunal to order the Government to show why a new trial should not be granted to her now.

The court, however, refused to grant her permission to file the request for such an order.

VAUGHAN FACES 5 PCT. 'REBUKE'

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16. — (AP) The Senate committee which investigated "five percenters" reportedly is about ready to issue a "rather severe rebuke" to Maj. Gen. Harry H. Vaughan, President Truman's army aide.

The committee's report on last summer's inquiry is expected to be made public later this week.

One official who has seen the document told a reporter the section dealing with Vaughan amounts "to a rather severe rebuke, so far as I am concerned."

Another said the report contains "a pretty vigorous criticism" of Vaughan.

Both officials asked that their names not be used.

The Senate inquiry dealt with the activities of men who collected a fee for helping others get government contracts. Because the fee often was five per cent of the proceeds, the probe became known as the five percenter investigation.

There is nothing illegal about collecting such fees. The committee was trying to find out whether improper influence had figured in the handling of government business.

Durjng the public hearings, Vaughan's name popped up frequently. The committee was told that the presidential aide several times intervened at government agencies in behalf of friends.

Canadian Talks Start Today

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16 (AP)—Canada's military chiefs arrived today for the first meeting of the United States-Canadian regional defense group organized under the North Atlantic treaty. The session begins tomorrow and is scheduled to continue through Wednesday.

The Canadian group includes Lieut. Gen. Charles Foulkes, Army chief of staff, Air Marshal W. A. Curtis, Air Force chief of staff, and Vice Admiral H. T. W. Grant, chief of the naval staff.

Spaak Admitted to U. S. Bar

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 16 (AP).—Paul-Henri Spaak, president of the European Consultative Assembly and former Belgian Premier, was admitted to the bar today upon the motion of Judge Gerald F. Flood in Quarter Sessions Court. After Mr. Spaak, here on a speaking tour, had been presented to President Judge James Gay Gordon he was invited to sit on the bench in the case of a motorist charged with drunken driving. Mr. Spaak said the jury system employed here was not in effect in Belgium and he wanted to see its operation.

week and the thirty-sixth court day.

"The Government rests, your honor," he said.

"What?" shouted Hallinan. "You're not going to produce any more witnesses? No Rathborne? Nobody else?"

Grand Jury Witness

His reference to Rathborne was to Mervyn Rathborne, a former state CIO council secretary and one-time friend of Bridges. He was a witness before the grand jury which indicted Bridges, Henry Schmidt and J. R. Robertson last May.

To newsmen who crowded about the defense table as the session closed, Hallinan professed disappointment that Rathborne had not been brought to the stand.

"He may still have his chance," commented Prosecutor Donohue later, when he was told of the incident.

The trial was continued to tomorrow morning. A Government witness, Lloyd Garner, Immigration Department examiner now in Los Angeles, will be recalled at defense request, under prior agreement that he could be brought back if desired.

Then the defense is expected to make the usual motions for directed verdict of acquittal. Hallinan indicated it might be two or three days before the first defense witness would take the stand.

Donohue has said from the beginning that he had at least 25 witnesses "available." He may use some of these, possibly including Rathborne, on rebuttal, at close of the defense case.

Bridges and his codefendants—his witnesses when he was naturalized in 1945 and swore he had never been a member of the Communist party—will seek to refute prosecution testimony that he was a party member at the time and had been since the early 1930's.

The broadcast, heard in San Francisco by the Associated Press, accused Gen. Soule of attempting various devices to avoid payment, but said he finally accepted arbitration decisions and was permitted to leave Nanking Dec. 20.

Shapiro Denies Acting On Behalf Of FBI

New York, Jan. 16 (AP)—Harold P. Shapiro, Justice Department attorney, denied today that he acted on behalf of any law enforcement agency in his relations with Judith Coplon.

Miss Coplon, convicted on one spy charge and facing trial with Soviet engineer Valentin A. Gubitchev on another, has admitted spending two nights at hotels with Shapiro, but has denied improper relations.

Miss Coplon's lawyer, Archibald Palmer, contends that Shapiro took the ex-Government girl on overnight trips to Baltimore and Philadelphia at the instigation of the FBI.
